Storm Brings Death to 1wo; Causes Various Damages

Two storm-related deaths, several highway accidents, fairground building damage, a business slowdown and numerous inconveniences occurred Friday and Saturday in this area as the southern fringe of what has been called the worst blizzard of the century hit this region.

Actually, the storm in this area was not nearly as bad as the blizzards of 1888 or 1947. However, to the north in the Dakotas and in a portion of Northwest Nebraska, the storm was furious and losses will run into the millions.

Just how close this area came to being missed is illustrated by the fact that drivers going south ran out of most of the heavy snow near Pilger. Wind was prevalent but not so much snow south of here.

State National bank did not get a record of snowfall or moisture content. The winds were gusting up to 70 or more and wind was sending the snow in a movement parallel to the ground, resulting in plenty of snow in windbreaks and sheltered areas and bare ground where there was nothing to stop it.

Cal Comstock, manager for Wayne County Public Power district said travel conditions were the worst he has ever experienced. He said trucks and crews went out on calls for a few outages and spent far more time getting to the trouble spots than in repairing damage.

Dan Titze, Northwestern Bell Telephone company manager in Wayne, said his firm had only minor outages where limbs broke lines. He added that the trouble here was a fraction of that experienced in South Dakota.

Traffic took the life of a WSC student, Curtis Miller, near Osceola.

New Scout District Organizing Monday

The official organizational meeting for the new Lewis & Clark Boy Scout district will be held Monday, Mar. 11, at 7:30 p.m. at the Northeast station, Concord, Wayne. It is to be headquarters for the district.

District Chairman Don Reed will be in charge. With him to assist will be District Commissioner Dr. L. A. Jensen and District Executive Billy Redden.

Between 30 and 40 men from the five-county area to be served are expected at the meeting. Institutional representatives and members at large of the district committee will be among those attending.

Business will include naming the operating committees and getting them to function at once. A vice chairman will also be chosen and other business taken care of.

Redden is assisting with the organization procedure here until a Scout executive is named. The new executive will have an office in Wayne to serve Pilger and most of five counties in the area.

Winside Superintendent's Post Open; Teachers Sign

Wayne Gesirich, superintendent of schools at Winside for five years, has tendered his resignation to the board of education. He said he and his family will have to seek a dryer climate in the Southwest due to his wife's health.

The school administrator has been signing teachers for next term. He reports that most of the present faculty members have returned signed contracts.

Elementary teachers who have signed to return are: First, Mary Ann Langemeier; second, Mrs. Shirley Trautwein; first and third, Mrs. Ruth Behr; fourth, Gladys Reichert; fifth, Mrs. Irene Kant; sixth, Mrs. Lena Mueller; seventh, Mrs. Marion Iverson.

High school faculty members signed include: Mrs. Pat Kropp, vocal music and eighth grade; Mrs. Boydston, science; Pete Kropp, social studies, football and track; Mrs. Ruth Troutman, math; Judene Zeehlin, chemistry and homemaking.

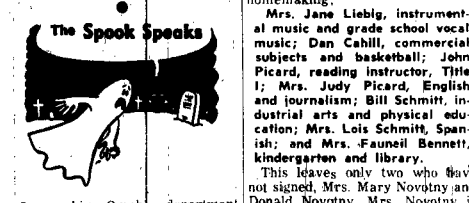

Mrs. Jane Liebig, instrumental music and grade school vocal music; Dan Cahill, commercial subjects and basketball; John Picard, reading instructor; Title I; Mrs. Judy Picard, English and journalism; Bill Schmitt, industrial arts and physical education; Mrs. Lois Schmitt, Spanish; and Mrs. Faneil Bennett, Reading and library.

This leaves only two who have not signed, Mrs. Mary Novotny and Donald Novotny. Mrs. Novotny is teaching the third grade and her husband teaches science and math.

Business Notes

Ivan Frese, Wayne, is one of 140 farmers who took part in DeKalb's Sorghum Masters club the past year. Common aim of members is to grow high economic yields.

Some chose to 10,000-pound level as their goal. Knowledge gained in shooting for a practical yield goal can be applied to the entire sorghum acreage and thereby increase overall production and profits. Frese's yield was 4,770.5 in 1965.

In a big Omaha department store two women were seated side by side waiting for their husbands to return. The women were from small towns and natural friendliness resulted in their finally talking. One asked about something in the store. The other said she didn't know much about it as she is from out of town. Asked where she resided, she replied, "Wayne county." Asked who she said, "Mrs. Bob Johnson." The other gave the same replies. She too was Mrs. Bob Johnson from Wayne county. One is from Carroll, the other from Wayne. They finally met each other — in Omaha.

Each you notice the Wayne Rendering Plant's ad in the district tournament program? Under the name of the firm was the address information: "Your Used Car Dealer."

Two Dixon fishermen are about to give up after a recent fishing trip. They set a Thermos on top of the car and it fell off and broke before they left. Enroute home from the fishing trip to Gavins Point, two tires blew out on a 1966 model car with less than 5,000 on it. They had to go after help since two tires were down.

White seeking help. One of the fishermen was bitten by a farmer's dog. That's about as many bites as they got from the fish.

Some cute gals work in the Wayne State college library. One lothario wanted to get acquainted with a girl putting books back on shelves so he walked up and casually asked: "How do you go about checking out a librarian?" This cute girl was equal to the occasion: "Sorry, I'm new here. You'll have to ask at the desk."

Pierce came up with one of the better signs on the walls at the tournament in Wayne when the Bluejays were playing the Plainview Pirates. It said: "Show me a bluesjay that can lick a pirate and I'll eat this sign." Bites had been taken out of the sign. (The printer didn't have to eat the rest — Plainview local.)

Henry Ley Announces Plans; Seeking Governor's Position

A prominent Wayne and Nebraska banking official, Henry Ley, 62, will resign Friday as state director of banking to seek the democratic nomination for governor of Nebraska.

President of the State National bank, Wayne, Ley has been state banking director three years. His handling of that office and his relationship with bankers and businessmen have resulted in many urging him to seek the top state position.

Probably the most widespread attention came when irregularities were detected at the Nebraska State bank, Valentine, shortly after he took office. He closed the bank to prevent further difficulties and personally directed investigation that revealed extensive manipulations.

Even more important was Ley's solution of the problem of thousands of depositors. His settlement procedures were so thorough not one depositor lost a cent, whether above or below the $10,000 insured deposit limit, and not one borrower was penalized because of fraudulent notes in the bank.

In entering the race for the governorship, the Wayne man has the backing of a host of prominent Nebraskans in all lines of business. [See HENRY LEY — page 6]

Near Head-on Crash Puts Four People in Hospital

A near head-on crash during the storm Friday morning hospitalized two children and two adults from Wayne. The youngsters were dismissed later in the day while the adults were still in the hospital at the first of the week.

Mrs. Harold Fleer, Wayne, was most seriously hurt. She suffered a broken left arm and numerous cuts. Thrown through the windshield, her face was badly cut and the doctors worked on stitches from 9:30 a.m. to 3:45 p.m.

Two small sons, Randy and Mike, suffered head injuries but were dismissed later in the day. Another son, Denny, and Mr. Fleer, who was driving the car, were uninjured.

Fleer was westbound on a county road 4 miles south and 1.8 miles west of Wayne. Eastbound was Ernest Krieger, 70, Wayne, who was accompanied by his brother, Hans.

The latter was hospitalized with cuts and bruises. He was kept for observation into the middle of the week. Ernest Krieger was checked at the hospital and released.

Sheriff Don Weible said the wind was gusting and snow was blowing extra heavy through that area. Neither driver could see the other until it was too late. The left fronts of the cars hit in the roadway.

Fleer went to a nearby farmhouse to call for an ambulance. Sheriff Don Weible and Deputy S. C. Thompson were called to investigate the collision.

Both of the cars were thought to be total wrecks following the accident. The sheriff and deputy stood by to flag down traffic in the area until the vehicles could be moved. Blowing snow and the fact there was other traffic indicated that more vehicles could have been involved had not flagging been instituted.

WSC Student Dies Friday in Mishap

A Wayne State college student, Curtis Miller, 19, Plainview, died early Saturday morning of injuries received Friday evening when he was struck by a vehicle while trying to jump his stranded car out of a snow bank.

Some news media had reported the youth was walking along the road to seek assistance. Trooper Everett Pearson, Plainview, who investigated the mishap, said this was not the case.

According to the trooper, Miller and two other boys from WSC whose last names only were learned, Larson and Millinz, were accompanied by Marilyn Zach, all of Plainview. Following the fatal junction will be served.

Final Zoning Plans Made Last Week by Two Groups

Final plans for the preliminary zoning ordinances were completed at a joint meeting of the Wayne city council and planning commission Wednesday. The meeting was held on the council's request so the commission could answer questions the council had on the zoning map. Several changes were made.

A detailed map of Wayne with the proposed zoning areas will be published in The Wayne Herald next week. Residents are asked to familiarize themselves with the map in preparation for public hearing on zoning set for Wednesday, Mar. 23. The meeting will be held at Wayne City auditorium at 7 p.m.

Copies of the zoning ordinance are available for study at the Wayne Public Library, the Wayne Chamber of Commerce office, the City hall and the office of Charles Melbermo. Mrs. McDermott is secretary of the planning commission.

Accompanying the map will be a brief description of each of the zones and an explanation of some proposed changes that may not have been transferred to the map at press time.

Fairgrounds Buildings Hit

Has the Wayne county fairgrounds "had it"? After the beating it took from the rising winds the latter part of last week during the near-blizzard, it appears that something drastic has to be done — and soon.

Deteriorating timbers had made the grandstand progressively weaker. The storm Friday and Saturday hit another section, taking off the complete roof and depositing it in shattered segments around the fairgrounds.

Also damaged were the 4-11 building and the church eating stand. But the main damage is the grandstand itself where hoists will be unusable without a roof.

Al Bahr, secretary and manager of the fair board, said those who had checked the damage thought it might be a matter of replacing the grandstand rather than repairing. A date to discuss the matter will probably be set.

The fairgrounds buildings are getting old and have weathered many years of service. Whether or not the damage last week is the final blow as far as usability is concerned will have to be determined as soon as possible.

Kiwanis Told of Plight of Cuba

Cubans who exiled themselves to the United States look to the day when their communist-dominated land will be free again. They have not forgotten Cuba. Dr. Rafael Sosa of the Wayne State language faculty told Kiwanis club Monday.

A recent comment in the national news that Cuban exiles "have forgotten their old homeland" brought this explanation from Dr. Sosa. [See KIWANIS — page 6]

City Asks Bids on $500,000 Generator, Runway Surfacing

Two big projects were announced Tuesday in 301 at the Wayne City council meeting and bids will be asked already. One is for a new generating unit and the other is for runway surfacing.

At the airport, a $500,000 project is planned for extending the runway to 1,200 feet. This would necessitate changing the title to land owned by the airport. The rights would have to be removed and replaced.

The new generating unit would be from 1,500 to 4,000 kilowatts and would be the biggest the municipal power plant would have. There are four units, now with kilowatt capacities rated at 2,500, 2,500, 1,875 and 1,250.

Included in the estimated costs would be the pipes and the cooling system. However, other costs would be involved on housing the new generator.

Bids for the new generator and runway surfacing project will be accepted starting now. Advertisements for bids appear in this week's paper. Bids will be opened for both projects at the Mar. 29 meeting of the council.

Another city project is moving some volunteer fire department members were present an appeal for a new fire truck. The council ordered the city engineer to make a survey of possible trucks and the type of building needed and present a report at the Mar. 29 meeting.

A new man is to be hired to replace one who is leaving for the season. The city is seeking a man who can do line work, read meters and take care of other municipal duties.

Wayne will join the fight against water pollution and will send the city engineer to a Mar. 19 meeting in Norfolk. At that time streams in the Elkhorn valley basin will be discussed in regard to drainage and other problems.

Interest is being shown in a new sewer district in the Roosevelt area district at the southeast edge of Wayne. An investigation will be made to determine how extensive the interest is.

Finally, several committees will be taken on an expense paid trip to Buffalo, N. Y., by the Worthington Corp. They will be shown electrical generating units in operation, units similar to the one being considered for this city.

ALL-AROUND BOY is Mark Johnson, Wayne's representative at Boys State this year. He plays trumpet in several groups and the helmet and basketball indicate two of the sports in which he participates.

Mark Johnson Will Go to Boys State

Wayne American Legion had a tough job choosing a boy to represent this area at Boys State this summer but finally chose Mark Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Johnson of Carroll.

Johnson scored highest in the test for boys considered. Next highest and only a fraction of one point apart were Bob Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Morris, Wayne, and Gordon Shupe, Wayne.

An all-around boy as far as activities go, Mark Johnson plays baseball, football and basketball. He also belongs to the W Club in band, orchestra, trumpet trio and brass choir he plays the trumpet.

A member of the WHS student council, he is also president of his class, an honor roll student, sings in choir and was chosen for the top group to take the math test this week. Outside of school he is active in the Carroll Methodist church and in MYF.

He will represent the Wayne Legion and the community at Boys State this summer for one week when government will be studied. New friends will be made and a lot of fun will be offered.

Challenge Day to End Drive for AFS Student

Student council at Wayne high school is hoping to wind up the drive for funds to bring an American Field service foreign exchange student to Wayne. A "challenge day" project is expected to raise the final $50 needed.

Mar. 15-16-17 the boys will compete against the girls in raising money. The winners will be revealed Mar. 18 and the losers must be "slaves" for the other side the rest of the day, carrying books, running errands and doing other peon work.

Suppl. Francis Hahn, who is now sponsoring student council since Stan Hansen resigned, said no other word has been received on the AFS exchange student other than "he would live at the Dr. James Brown home. Final selection is expected before school is out.

Named Parish Worker

Mrs. John Schulte, former Wayne resident now residing at Albert Lea, Minn., has accepted a call to be parish worker at Ascension Lutheran church. She is a native of Hanlontown, Ia., and was a cashier at Peoples Natural Gas Co., Wayne, before going to Albert Lea.

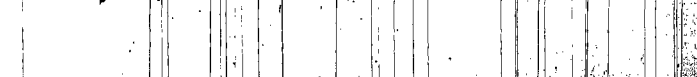

Farmer Wins Silver Dollar Night Prize

Gilbert Dangberg, Winside, seldom misses coming to Wayne Thursday nights. Last Thursday he took home more than he brought for he was winner in the silver dollar night drawing.

This makes two consecutive weeks for area residents to take home $400 checks from the Chamber of Commerce. The check this week will be for $150 still worth driving miles to pick up.

Dangberg said Friday if the weather had been like that day he would not have been in Wayne. However, Thursday was relatively pleasant and there was a big crowd in town.

What are the Dangbergs going to do with the "bonus" money? Mrs. Dangberg said they would probably buy seed corn among other things. So far they have not decided where the cash will go.

GILBERT DANGBERG, Winside, (left) gives a big smile as Dan Pfeiffer of Nu Tavern presents him with Thursday's Silver Dollar check for $400.

Business Notes

Carroll Auto Co. is having a special promotion for a blue badge of super sports Friday, Mar. 11. A fleet of eight blue SS Buicks will be in town and everyone taking a test drive will get a free lunch. The event is at the Birkm Machine and Hardware "Wild Weekend" at the Gay theatre. Details are contained in an ad on another page.

Over 10,000 Trees Asked; County Plantings Lagging

Although over 10,000 trees have been ordered for spring planting in Wayne county, the farmstead windbreak-planting program is lagging this year in the area, according to Arnold Marr, work unit conservationist with the Wayne County SWCD.

If anyone had any doubts about the value of a good windbreak, the winds of the past week should have removed them. A lot of snow fell and most of it blew, sheltered areas stopping some to claim some benefits from the storm.

Trees for new windbreaks or to supplement existing windbreaks have been ordered by Robert Tansien and Robert Hanson, Wakefield; Robert Greenwood, Harold Galtje, Herb Frevert, Arnold Slicker, Alvin Mighfield, Fredrick Mann; Russell E. Lutz, Lutz, Lutz, Lutz; Elder Lubberstick and Ray Adler, Wayne; Edwin Strate, Hoskins; Ronald [See OVER 10,000 — page 6]

Anonymous Gift to Board Aims at WHS Quality Art

Meeting Monday night, the District 17 school board for Wayne and Carroll accepted a gift of $100 received from an anonymous donor who hopes to have the new high school acquire some quality art work and hopes for a move by others to provide more such art.

The unknown donor specified that a committee with some knowledge of art be formed to assure purchase of quality art. Complying with this, the board agreed to consider individuals who should be on such a committee to provide quality art for students and the community.

In other action, two more teachers were hired. One, Mrs. Judy Koening, had resigned but asked to be considered due to a change in plans. Her contract to teach first grade at West elementary was renewed.

A new ninth grade English teacher will be a graduate of Pender High, Mrs. Ann Meyer, Allen. She has taught six years at Allen and prior to that in Dixon and Wayne county rural schools. She has a BA received at WSC with majors

Beware of Bandits in the Photography Business!

HERE'S A MEMORANDUM TO MOTHERS: It's now open season for kidnapers - not the usual kind, however. I mean the kind who come with a camera in one hand, and an elaborate scheme in the other to take your money.

A few yardsticks to help you determine which photographers are bandits, and which are legitimate operations, have been supplied by LYMAN PHOTOGRAPHY, a local member of the Professional Photographers of America, Inc. This national trade group of 7,500 professionals in photography points out that phony bargains in baby pictures cost American parents millions of dollars each year.

A large share of some 100,000 complaints received annually by Better Business Bureaus throughout the country stem from fraudulent baby picture deals.

So beware of these bandits - because the camera cheat usually finds it easy to take advantage of your natural pride as a parent in your new baby.

Some of the dodges and deals used by the baby-picture bandits include the following, reports the Professional Photographers of America:

1) The offer - by telephone, in person, or by advertisement - of a "free picture." It usually is a means to get a high pressure salesman's foot in the door. Women who want only the "free" picture often are annoyed and even insulted by the salesman, and many times the "free" picture is not delivered anyway.

2) Insistence on an immediate decision. Any legitimate photographer will allow ample time for both parents to study the proofs before ordering. The photo-bandit tries to pressure the wife to order before she talks it over with her husband.

3) Coupon deals, in which the salesman shows you sample photographs of unusually good quality. He sells the coupons for a dollar or two which he says are redeemable for one or two pictures of the same quality. Once you try to have your portrait taken, however, you may be pressured into placing a large order, or the prints you receive may be worthless.

4) So-called "baby contests" and "model agency" promotions are another approach. Don't bite because you are told your child has been chosen to compete in a contest or join a modeling service. If you accept, you'll find yourself hooked for a "directory fee," and they'll try to sell you an expensive array of photographs that "you'll need when your youngster becomes a model."

5) C.O.D. delivery should be refused, since you are forced to pay for the pictures before you have a chance to see them.

How can you protect yourself from bandit photography outfits? First, according to the Professional Photographers of America patronize either an established local businessman or a legitimate itinerant who can give you references. Call the nearest Better Business Bureau of your local Chamber of Commerce to check on the firm's reputation. If they have a file of complaints, you'll know you are dealing with bandits.

Never insist any prized photograph to a stranger who claims he'll restore, reproduce, or enlarge them - you may not get them back.

Above all, read any paper carefully before you sign it. Even if the salesman says your signature is necessary just to "confirm the order," read the small print, and if you don't understand it, don't sign it.

In English and history. Her has band in construction work at the college. One daughter is a senior at Allen High, and a son will be in the ninth grade next term. She comes highly recommended.

The board checked the boiler situation at Carroll where leaks are causing trouble. Insurance covers the equipment and an inspector is to be called in to find out where the trouble lies.

In legal action, the board expects the Rolfe property appeal to be heard in May. At present it is considered WHS property. Also being assessed and taxed in the district is the Glenn Olson farm, although litigation continues.

Next school year was set for 1966, to May 26, 1967, with 181 days of school. Vacation dates are Labor Day Sept. 5; teachers' convention, Oct. 27-28; Thanksgiving, Nov. 24-25; Christmas, Dec. 23; Jan. 21 and Easter, Friday, Mar. 24 and Monday, Mar. 27.

A treasurer's report showed the district in good financial shape. Among other items it has $50,000 in bank, and $40,000 in treasury bills.

Finally, Supt. Francis Haun read a letter from the state department of education. A commendation on the English guidebook and plans at the school, the letter also contained a request for showing the guidebook to other schools as an example of what can be done.

Attorney, Commissioner Races Develop in County

Two races have developed for county positions the past week. Two filings for attorney and two for commissioner from the third district, enliven the campaign prospects.

Don Reed, Wayne, was the first to file for county attorney. He was followed by John Addison, Wayne, for the same post. Both filed on the republican ticket.

Two republicans also filed for commissioner from the third district. Lester Deck, Winslow, filed first and George Wittler, Hoskins, filed later. Roy Davis had previously filed as a candidate on the democratic ticket.

Leland Thompson, Wayne, filed on the non-political ticket for director of Wayne County Public Power district. His term and that of Alfred Sydow are expiring but Thompson's filing is the first for either position.

There is little time left for filing, Mar. 10 being the deadline. If activity continues, there may be more races than anticipated in the county primaries.

WSC Forensic Team to Tournament at Crete

The Wayne State forensic team goes to Crete this weekend for the Nebraska Intercollegiate Forensic Tournament, one of the year's major events.

Coach Brice Wilkinson plans to enter Ed Kelly and Bob Sosalla in Class A debate (for experienced debaters) and the teams of Linda Kane-Carolyn Shafer and Dennis Lohse-Dave Jorgensen in Class B debate.

Sosalla and Kelly will also compete in men's oratory. Pam Holm and Miss Shafer in women's oratory; Sosalla and Jorgensen in Class B extemporaneous speaking.

Except for Kelly, who debated last year, the team is composed of first-year competitors.

Last event on Wayne's forensic schedule will be participation in the regional tournament of Pi Kappa Delta, national forensic fraternity, at Greeley, Colo., Mar. 17-19.

The high school tournament scheduled last Saturday under sponsorship of the WSC Pi Kappa Delta chapter had to be postponed indefinitely because of weather. It probably will be rescheduled in the fall, Wilkinson said.

It takes longer to report a wreck than to prevent one.

Leland Herman One of Curtis Area Leaders

Leland Herman, Wayne, and Mrs. L. L. Scheer, Norfolk, have been appointed chairman and vice chairman of the northern section of the first congressional district for the "Citizens for Curtis" committee.

Purpose of the committee is to get Carl Curtis re-elected to the United States senate. Richard Smith, Lincoln, is chairman of the group covering the legislative district.

Smith said many volunteers have offered to help in the campaign and he invites people of all political attitudes to help re-elect Sen. Curtis. He said the appointment of Herman and Mrs. Scheer indicates the type of leaders working in the campaign.

Trio of Winside Entries Highest

Three Winside entries won ratings of "I" for superior in the Lewis and Clark dramatics contest at Winside Monday. Allen and Cole-ridge tied for first followed by Winside, Emerson, Hartington, Norfolk Burns, Ponca, Hartington Cedar Catholic and Randolph.

Connie Jones and Bob Dangberg accounted for two superior. They received a "II" rating in the first round and then won the second round for another "I". Connie Marquardt in extemporaneous speaking received the other superior.

Here is how the other entries from Winside fared: Excellent, Sue Ann Glass, interpretation of prose; Judy Walker, interpretative public address; Jackie Jeffrey, discussion; good, Jackie Stevens, interpretation of poetry;

Judy Stevens, radio and television commentary; Bob Dangberg, informative speaking; Mary Jane Hansen, oral public address; Connie Jones, discussion; and Dick Dittman, Connie Jones, Judy Walker, Judy Stevens and Mary Jane Hansen, oral interpretation of drama.

Touching Story' Operetta Theme A "Touching" story of a man in jail still worried about the girl he had to leave behind is the unusual theme for an unusual operetta to be presented Thursday and Friday, Mar. 24-25 by the vocal music department of Wayne High School. Clayton Southwick, who is directing the musical, said it was a folk operetta, "Down in the Valley." Told in a strange way, it is a type presented at the college, but not tried at the high school before.

Glenn Graves is the "hooker" in the operetta. Raki Christensen the girl left behind and Dean Skokin the owner of the table. Starting out as the main in jail and his worries about his girl, the story uses a folk operetta technique to tell how the two first met, what happened to put the man in jail and then back to the present to show how it all ends.

Metropolitan Opera Here

The Metropolitan Opera National company will come to Wayne Mar. 29 and its performance of "Madame Butterfly" can be predicted as one of Wayne's a time great moments, judging by acclaim for the Met's tour to date.

The National company is on its maiden cross-country tour as a traveling version of the New York Metropolitan, which for decades has been the zenith of the opera world. Now America has a chance to see, at home, what previously had to be seen in New York.

Interest in the Met's Wayne appearance is indicated by the volume of inquiries that have come to Robert G. Johnson, director of Wayne State's special programs. Many letters ask about advance reservations.

Johnson said there will be no reservations, but tickets will be available at the door at the auditorium, and Res as a bonus enough that, even with the college student audience, there should be adequate seating. The admission price for this major event will be $4.

At the half-way point on its nine-month tour, the Metropolitan company had given 138 performances of the four operas in this season's repertoire with 25 of the performances being given especially for students some 67,000 of them.

Said a spokesman: "The Metropolitan is as cherished as its and Tuesday, Mar. 15, Freshmen, seniors, new teachers and cooks will go to the latter test.

West Point Central Wins Postponed Title Contest

West Point Central Catholic won the district Class B championship Monday night at Rice auditorium. Wayne's Bluejays had seen the title postponed twice and even the night it was played it was 9:40 before action started.

Friday and Saturday the game was scheduled but storm conditions made it necessary to postpone it until Monday. The NCC wrestling meet was postponed until the same night and although that started at 7 the final contests were not over until after 9.

Bloomfield led almost all of the game, sometimes by as much as 11 points but "clutched" in the pressure of the final three minutes to allow WPOC a 55-52 win. Rich McGill hit 19 for the winners and Randy Lemke had 16 for the Bees.

One of the largest crowds to see an event in Rice in many years was on hand as it was the only district title in the state still undecided at the time. WPOC goes to state and meets Millard in the first round.

The Bees won their berth in the championship title by beating Wayne, Central Catholic had beaten Plainview in the other semifinal game by a 73-46 score. Following is Jack Manske's account of the Wayne-Bloomfield contest.

The Wayne High Blue Devils ended their 1955-56 basketball season in the semifinals of the Class B District tournament with a 65-52 loss to Bloomfield. The Devils had trouble scoring the ball throughout the game, as erratic ball control gave Bloomfield possession many times following the turnovers.

The Blue and White jumped off to a 16-12 lead in the first quarter behind the 9 point scoring performance of senior Dean Eloffson. The lead changed hands in the second stanza as the Bees from Bloomfield came up with 24 points to hold a six point advantage over Wayne at halftime. 36-30. Agan Eloffson was the only Devil to find his range on the scoring attack, putting 7 points.

A weak third quarter by the Devils, plagued by inaccurate ball control, provided Bloomfield with the opening it needed to boost its lead. The Bees managed to convert a number of Devil turnovers into buckets as they added 9 points to their lead, making the score 53-38.

The Wayne cagers managed to outscore their tall opponents in the final period 14 points to 12, but the slight margin was not enough to give the Devils a victory. A stall by Bloomfield with minutes remaining in the game hampered Wayne's scoring attempts and aided the Bees in gaining their 65-52 tournament victory.

Dean Eloffson won game scoring honors with 21 points. The only other Devil scoring in double figures was Gordon Jorgensen with 12 tallies. Terry Newton was Bloomfield's leading scorer with 17 points, followed by Gary Lemke with 14 and Dean Suing with 13.

The prelims also produced three other titls, by Jack Mitchell, Chad- ron, 115, Norman Schmeckle, Kearney, 160, and Harvey Matthis, Wayne, 191.

Next major action on the Ne- braska wrestling schedule will be the NAIA District II tourna- ment Friday and Saturday at Kearney. Wayne won the first, district meet last year. Winners in the district may enter the NAIA national.

Glenn Frevert, Winside, held the lead in the singles after a first weekend of the state Lutheran Laymen's league bowling tourna- ment at Melrose lanes. He had a 386 score in the singles.

Central Twping, Kearney, is the leading team with a total of 2984. Bowling will continue for the next two weekends in the LLL meet.

Leaders are: Teams, Central Twping, Kearney, 2984; Tilden Lu- therns, 2820; Winside, No. 3, 2743; Douglas, Witt-Voss, Winside, 1268; Quantl Quandt, Grand Island, 1224; Magnuson Meyer, Wayne, 1182; Singles, Frevert, 366, Fritz Witt, Winside, 339; Elmer Echtenkamp, Wayne, 338; All Events, Fritz Witt, Winside, 1841; Glenn Frevert, Winside, 1807; and Del Neujahr, Tilden, 1797.

Wayne Team Wins Belden Tournament

Wayne's eighth grade team won the Belden grade school tourna- ment championship Monday night. Under Creighton St. Ladgar's, Laurel and Thurston were chalked up for Hank Overin's quintet.

In the second round game, the locals beat Creighton St. Lud- gar's 42-28. Every player saw action as the losers made only six points the first half.

Mike Liveringhouse led Wayne scoring with 9 points. Bruce Maurer and Terry Ellis, B. Jerry Tite, Ted Armbruster and Mike Biltoft 4, Les Echtenkamp 4 and Pat Cham- bers 2, D. Burns with 11 led the losers.

The next night produced the thriller, Wayne winning over Lau- rel 55-50 in double overtime. Terry Ellis was a hero, a gat and then a hero. He tied the game at the buzzer with a field goal, fouled a player who put Laurel ahead and then was himself fouled and again tied the game to send it into a second overtime.

It was a shot by Mike Liveringhouse that decided the tilt. Wayne had a 2-point lead, Jerry Tite stole the ball, threw it the length of the court to Liveringhouse to shoot and hit. He was fouled doing so and made the free shot with seconds to go.

Liveringhouse had 16 points for Wayne with Pat Chambers right be- hind with 15. Terry Ellis hit 8, Doug Maurer 7, Mike Biltoft 6, Les Echtenkamp 2 and Ted Armbruster 1. Tim Wittig with 16 and Tim Schroeder with 12 led Laurel.

In the final Monday it was a runaway, Wayne winning 52-23 over Thurston. The score was 24-5 in favor of the locals at halftime.

Leading Wayne was Liveringhouse with 10, Chambers had 9, Maurer 7, Biltoft and Bruce Pfeueger 4, Echtenkamp 3, Ellis and Armbruster 2 and Doug

Carroll Clean Up Has Major Project Ready

The walls may come tumbling down on a big brick building in Carroll soon. It is part of the clean- up campaign being carried out by the Commercial club and individ- uals.

A petition will be filed ask- ing the owners to show cause why the two-story structure should not be demolished. The owners can object, which would mean a court case, or not object, in which case the fire marshal would inspect the building to de- termine its value as is, for sal- vage or other uses.

Work was started on cleaning the vacant lots. However, a big change has already been noticed in one corner of a block where junk, weeds, brush and unpainted but fences created an eyesore. Will the next bathtub be next to go? That question was brought up by one resident. The white tub is alongside a deserted building and a main street and it is also a con- spicuous eyesore.

Math Test on Thursday

A math test given under state and national agency sponsorship will be taken by 15 pupils at Wayne's school Thursday, according to Principal Fred Rickers. All over the nation similar groups of vol- unteers will take the tests on a competitive basis. Awards and scholarships await the winners.

WSC Swimmers Conference Champs Second Year in Row; NAIA Meet Here

Wayne State swimmers won their second straight conference cham- pionship trophy Saturday, then stood off a place for another trophy they hope to win this weekend.

Coming Friday and Saturday is the NAIA District II swimming tournament in Wayne State's Carlson natatorium. The Wild- cats will be defending cham- pions in this second district meet.

The Friday schedule offers pre- liminaries of the 50-yard freestyle at 3:30; finals of the 1,650-yard freestyle at 3:45; one meter diving preliminaries at 4:30; and in the evening—finals of eight events starting at 8 o'clock.

The Saturday schedule has pre- liminaries of the 100-yard free- style at 1 p.m., followed by three- meter diving preliminaries. Start- ing at 3 p.m. will be finals in the eight other events.

Since this is an NAIA event, there will be an admission charge of $1 for adults and 50 cents for students at the Friday evening and Saturday final sessions.

Teams expected to join Wayne in the meet are Kearney State, Chadron State and Concordia.

Wayne posted a strong victory in the Nebraska College confer- ence meet Friday and Saturday at Kearney, scoring 183 points to 136 by Kearney and 71 by Chad- ron.

Hoskins Splits Games Thursday in Norfolk

Hoskins grade school won one and lost one Thursday night against Norfolk YMCA teams. The fifth and sixth grade from HGS lost 20-14 and the seventh and eighth grade from Hoskins won 32-23.

Jon Behmer led the Hoskins effort in the preliminary tilt with 7 points. Bill Langenberg made J. Larry Bruggeman 2 and Scott Deck 2. Dave Fauss had 6 for the winners with three others making 4 each.

In the night cap, Roger Langen- berg tied the school's individual scoring record for one game with 20 points. Kirt Schellenberg made 3, Monte Barcus 4, Doug Deck 2 and Steve Falk 1. Dave Hoffman with 8 and Doug Curtis with 7 tied the Norfolk Y team.

Wayne Quintet in Tournament Finals

The Boys club sixth grade bas- ketball team, fresh from a cham- pionship in the Belden tournament, will get a chance to win another trophy Thursday at 8 p.m. in the championship game of the Harting- ton tournament. Randolph St. Fran- ces will be the opponent.

Hank Overin's team has won 24 and lost 2 this year and fans have this one chance to see them so it is hoped a large crowd will follow the team. With strong backing, the locals could come through again unless they get over-confident.

Wayne defeated Wynot 43-21 in games earlier this week. St. Fran- ces beat Hartington Holy Trinity for the right to enter the finals. Against Wynot, Les Echten- kamp had 11, Mike Liveringhouse 9, Pat Chambers 6, Doug Maurer, Bruce Pfeueger and Terry Ellis 4, Doug Flieg 3 and Mike Biltoft 2.

Liveringhouse led with 12 against Crofton Echtenkamp had 9, Maurer 7, Chambers, and Armbruster 5, Flieg 4, Biltoft 3, Jerry Tite, Mike Creighton and Pfeueger 2 and Ellis 1. Lisee had 10 and Jones 7 for the losers.

Seven Hurt When Five Vehicles in Wakefield Crash

Five cars were involved in a series of accidents four miles northwest of Wakefield on Highway 25 Saturday morning. Snow and blowing snow made visibility near zero.

Three troopers were called to investigate. Troopers Robert Davis, Ken Busy and Barton Cooper made out the reports.

The chain reaction started when Mr. and Mrs. Vern Pickering, Minneapolis, got stuck while westbound. Pickering got out and was at the rear of the car trying to push it out when another westbound vehicle came along.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barrett, Ft. Atkinson, Wis., were in that car with Mrs. Barrett driving. Unable to see Pickering in time, the driver hit the rear of the Pickering car and also hit Pickering.

Most seriously injured in all the crashes was and to come was Pickering who fractured both ankles and his right lower leg. He also had possible internal injuries. Taken first to the Wakefield hospital, he was transferred to St. Joseph's, Sioux City, later.

Mrs. Pickering suffered whip-lash injuries, Mrs. Barrett suffered shock, bruised hip and other injuries and Mr. Barrett cracked a knee and had head bruises. All three were treated at Wakefield hospital and released.

Louis Welch, Lincoln, in an east-bound car was next to become involved. He was passing by, saw what had happened and stopped to assist. He stopped Ernest Winegardner, Wakefield, also east-bound, to seek assistance.

With all these cars stopped, a fifth car came along, one driven by Carl Fitchie, Munningsville. The Fitchie car hit the Welch car and then the Winegardner car, driving the latter into the Barrett vehicle.

Winegardner suffered a bruised right shoulder, bruised right hip and lacerations on the lower right leg. Fitchie had teeth broken off. A passenger in his car, Thomas Jacobsen, Sparta, Wis., suffered chin lacerations. All were treated at the Wakefield hospital and released.

About the only one not injured in any way was Welch. Damage to the five vehicles was extensive but no estimates were framed by The Herald.

DIXON DRIFT included snow piled up from the walk. This pile stood higher than a car's hood Monday, left over from the Friday-Saturday storm.

Wayne Man Hurt in Highway Accident

Ronald Blocker, 24, Wayne, was out about the 1:30 when his car collided with a stalled truck on Highway 15 Saturday morning during the storm. The mishap occurred 8.8 miles south of Wayne.

Deputy Sheriff S. C. Thompson investigated the mishap. Sheriff Don Weible flagged traffic in order to prevent a chain reaction of accidents similar to the one that occurred at Wakefield.

Harold Blunt, Waduta, Kan., was driving a 1966 truck with trailer when he hit a slick spot on the highway in a cut of a hill. His vehicle slid sideways, partially blocking the road and partially in the borrow pit ditch.

Blecke was behind the truck but did not realize it until too late. He was unable to stop in time to avoid a collision. Visibility at that spot was almost zero.

Los Youngmeyer brought a tractor and with another trucker helping they got the stalled truck out of the road and on its way. The car was hauled into a farm lane to make sure it was out of the way.

Seniors Will Give Recital at College

Two seniors majoring in music will present a joint recital at 3 p.m. Sunday in Ramsey Theater on the WSC campus. The public is invited.

They are Roger Luaders of Wayne and Janet Bracker of Neola, Ia., both of them planning to graduate in August.

Luaders, a native of Wayne and 1962 Wayne high graduate, has been active in instrumental and vocal music, playing in band and orchestra, singing in the choir and madrigal. With Kenneth Headlee and Dennis Montgomery in a trumpet trio, Luaders has performed frequently before Wayne organizations.

Miss Bracker also has played in band and orchestra and sung in the choir, several times, as soloist in major concerts, both in Wayne and on tour. She has participated in various small groups, including madrigal, trio, Wayne State Singers and duets.

Both are members of the Music Educators' National conference and Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary fraternity in education.

Miller got out on the driver's side and the other two youths got out on the other side of the car and the trio attempted to push the car out of the drift. A Wayne County Public Power district truck came from the west struck Miller.

Trooper Pearson said visibility was zero and the driver of the truck, J. F. Dougherty, Osmond, could not see the Miller boy or the car. The edge of his truck barely scraped the car and little vehicular damage was done.

Miller was taken to the hospital in Osmond suffering from severe head injuries, broken neck and broken vertebrae. He died in the hospital at about one Saturday morning.

Sosa himself an exile. Many of the Cubans are trying to become part of the community where they live. They find life different from what they knew in Cuba. Many of them struggle with English. Most of them are "on their own," except that to leave Cuba they had to have a relative already here to sponsor them. They have no "federal protection."

With all these obstacles, Dr. Sosa suggested, the exiles have difficulty simply adjusting to the new life. They may appear to have forgotten Cuba, but they have not, he said forcefully. To leave Cuba, the exiles must give up everything they own — business, property, money — and as soon as they request permission to leave, they lose their jobs, then wait for months without income before being cleared to go.

"I've lost nothing to lose by saying, 'Cuba must go. I have already lost everything,'" said Dr. Sosa, who left Cuba over four years ago and joined the WSC faculty in 1964. "If Castro remains in power, it is certain there will be problems in other nations."

Some day the Cubans will return to their homeland, Sosa said. "It is a matter of principal. We may lose some men — killed in the fight that must come before we go back."

He spoke of troubles elsewhere in Latin America and declared: "Cubans have learned a lesson. We are the guinea pigs, and we accept it — if it will solve the cause of Ho Chi Minh's freedom and salvation for our fellow Americans."

Earl Coulson, superintendent of schools at Waduta, Kan., was a club guest. Flowering, etc., was presented by an anonymous donor to mark his birthday.

Henry Ley

He intends to announce his campaign plans and his organizational setup in the immediate future.

Announcement of Ley's candidacy was made Friday in Omaha. Lou Dillman, president of the Industrial Loan and Investment Co., Omaha, introduced him at a press conference, stating that through his relationships with the banking director he had come to know him as an able administrator capable of handling the office of governor in a businesslike way. Savings and loan associations are under the state banking director's office along with banks.

A lifelong democrat, Ley has served as treasurer of the state democratic central committee, is a former member of the Nebraska Hall of fame commission, is president of the Wayne Industries board, served as president of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce and is vice president of Wayne State foundation.

He attended Wayne State college, the University of Nebraska and the University of Arizona. He also holds a diploma from the graduate school of banking, Rutgers university.

In announcing his decision, the local banker said that businessmen, engineers, professional men and close friends and associates have expressed concern regarding the capabilities and qualifications of the next governor and the progress the state makes. He added that many problems now face Nebraska.

Fearing inadequate leadership may hinder the state in future development, they asked him to be a candidate. People who have observed his administrative and business procedures feel that he possesses the talents necessary to govern the state.

As a lifelong resident of Nebraska, Ley said he has known financial chaos, depression and prosperity, gaining knowledge and mature judgment from his observations and experience. He said he is filing for the candidacy with humility and will appreciate support in the months ahead.

Shortly after announcing his decision, Ley returned to Wayne where he appeared at a meeting of the Young Democrats club of Wayne State college. He will finish his state banking director term Friday and Gov. Frank Morrison said he already had a successor chosen so he had been informed of Ley's decision in advance or expected the decision ahead of time.

Tuesday night Ley addressed the Wayne State Young Democrats club. He praised the accomplishments of Governor Morrison and added that, he (Ley) would hope to continue and expand Morrison's progress.

He observed that Nebraska, though it has problems, "has no Appalachia, no race riots, no water problem — except when there's too much rain — very little juvenile delinquency, few urban renewal problems."

Highway conditions are improving, Ley said, "but I do not refer to Highway 15 north of Highway 275," he added with quick modification.

Nebraska is paying teachers better, though salaries still are too low, he said. "I think you will find that in percentage increase Nebraska is near the top of the list."

In a question period Ley declined to spell out his views on taxes, but did say the first step is to get an expression from the people — referring to the referendum on income tax law passed by the last Legislature.

Which of the Republican candidates for governor does Ley think will win? "Put it this way," he replied. "One of my friends will win."

The GOP candidates are Wausau banker Norbert Tiemann and former Gov. Val Peterson. Ley and Peterson attended Wayne high school and Wayne State college at the same time. Peterson is president and Ley is vice-president of the Wayne State Foundation, both of them long-time cooperators in support of the college.

Storm

mond. The other storm-related death was that of Otto Hirthbold, who was stricken while shoveling snow and died later. Details of both deaths are in separate stories.

Near Winside a truck was actually blown off the road Friday. Driving on Highway 35 north of that town, the Iowa driver's poultry truck was rebound when a gust of wind caught it in a drift and took the truck clear off the highway. Help was forthcoming in getting the truck back on the road in a short time.

Another casualty of the storm was the fairgrounds. The roof was blown off the grandstand, the 4-H building and church lunch stand were damaged and other nearby created by the strong winds. Details are in another item.

Sportsmen got a setback. Both the NCC wrestling meet and the district Class B basketball finals had to be postponed until Monday. It was the latest a district championship game was ever played, state high school officials said.

South Sioux City's team and fans finally gave up getting back to that town from the storm and made the rest of the trip the next day.

Accidents were numerous in town and out. A five-car crash up near Wakefield, a two-car near head-on crash near Wayne and several other accidents were reported in the area.

Consumers Public Power district crewmen in the Allen-Dixon area said they had no troubles whatsoever. Crews were ready to go out if emergencies developed but apparently none did.

Vern Schulz, Wayne street superintendent, had crews out during the storm to keep streets open. As soon as the wind was down Saturday night, work began on snow removal.

The east side of the main business district was virtually snow-free but the west side had four-foot drifts on the sidewalk and in the street. Snow removal continued through Sunday and Monday with the last places being cleaned up Tuesday morning. These being spots where cars had been parked during the storm.

Warm weather followed the storm and that helped everyone a lot for the streets did not get too cold and little sanding was necessary. Wednesday it was cloudy again and instead of snow, forecasters were chilling for wind and probably rain.

Carroll Woman Officer Relief Provision for Some Farmers Offered

Mrs. Charles Whitney, Carroll, president of the Northeast District Woman's Society of Christian Service, will play a role in the WSCS 25th annual meeting, Grand Island, Mar. 22-24. About 1,300 women are expected. Representatives from several Methodist churches in this area are expected to attend. A widow of a Methodist missionary killed in the Congo, a Nebraska missionary from Rhodesia and a member of the general board of missions will be featured. Election of officers, a panel discussion and a stage play by Nebraska Wesleyan drama students will also be on the program.

Wayne County farmers and other area farmers may be interested in a relief provision for cash basis farmers required to report as income in 1965, the 1964 and 1965 wheat and feed grain diversion payments.

In order to obtain this relief, the farmer must attach a statement to his 1965 federal tax return or to an amended return for the year.

The statement should be signed and should point out that the farmer is a cash basis taxpayer wishing to change his practice of reporting wheat and feed grain diversion payments for federal income tax purposes beginning with 1965.

It should also be stated that such payments will be reported in the year actually received and one-third of the amount of the payment received in 1965 attributable to 1964 will be reported until the total amount of payment has been included in taxable income.

Farmers must maintain adequate records with respect to wheat and feed grain diversion payments. District director of internal revenue must verify data concerning the change.

Fairlane's performance says it loud and clear... You're ahead in a Ford

And booming sales prove it! More and more people are switching to Ford every day — and no wonder. Fords do things other cars can't. You can have a radio in any car, but Ford offers a Stereo-Sonic Tape Player option that turns your car into a concert hall with music of your choice. Most station wagons have a one-way tailgate, but Ford's Magic Doorgate swings out like a door for people and down like a tailgate for cargo. Most cars offer a choice between manual and automatic shift, but Fairlane's GT/A Sport Shift works both ways. Visit your Ford Dealer and test-drive a '66 from Ford.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to search out available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

An Entire Greenhouse

More than one has suggested that Dr. William Brandenburg, president of Wayne State college, be cited some week with a "bouquet" for his good work. Efforts to do this have always ended in frustration.

The frustration comes about because Dr. Brandenburg does too many things to have them all condensed into a one-paragraph salute. It is no reflection on those who are the one-paragraph recipients of bouquets, but simply a matter of one man doing so much a single paragraph will not cover his activities.

Above all, Dr. Brandenburg has tied Wayne State to the city of Wayne and surrounding area more than it has ever been before. Thanks to his influence, WSC and the community have never been more closely linked.

He encourages staff participation in community events and he sets an example by participating himself. He invites the public to take part in college activities and goes out of his way to make people realize that because the college is here they have a valid reason for above-average interest.

His relationship with his staff is on such a commendable scale that few words of criticism are ever heard. When there is a complaint, he hears it; when there is a problem he helps work it out.

Without seeking recognition for what he does, he handles his role with dignity and efficiency. Yet he has not placed himself above the reach of the students, the faculty or the townspeople.

One little example of how he works was cited last week. "Carouse!" was being presented and the cast knew he had attended the first night, appreciating the fact that he turned out. The following night Dr. Brandenburg was back again. Just 24 hours later he again was present. It was an uplifting experience for cast members and others and they remarked about it. He had fulfilled his obligation by attending one night but he had gone back twice more. Whether it was because he enjoyed it so much or because he thought it might be appreciated, does not matter. The point is, he did it.

So, we'll not get around to offer a bouquet to Dr. Brandenburg. We might offer an entire greenhouse — but even that would not be enough. We hope everyone appreciates the college president as much as those do who have suggested him as a bouquet recipient. —CEG

Hassle in Hoskins

The Herald is somewhat to blame for a little squabble that has occurred in Hoskins. It comes about because this newspaper reported a fact that some felt need not have been reported.

That little incident has ballooned. It has resulted in letters and telephone calls praising the paper for bringing the situation out in the open or condemning the editor for even mentioning it.

Basically the trouble is, the editor likes sports, likes a good sound athletic program and has come to like Hoskins.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Feeling at home there, what affects Hoskins has mattered to him.

The school board named its faculty for next term, an all-woman faculty. There was no information given on what would happen at Hoskins where the male teacher has provided excellent guidance for baseball, basketball and other sports. This fact was included in the item about the all-female faculty.

Hoskins area residents have reported since then that some want sports removed from the grade school. Some have told the editor it was none of his business. (Covering Hoskins news is the editor's business so this line was quickly dropped.)

For those who do not want athletics, we ask what their kids are going to do with their energy. We want to know what the same kids will do when they get in high school and do want to compete, finding themselves at a disadvantage because they have had no previous training. (Note what is necessary at Dixon and Concord where volunteers have had to handle the sports program because there is a demand for athletics.)

Hoskins has sent its share of athletes to Norfolk, Winside and Burns. It will continue to have some all-conference material, athletes too good to be shut off without supervised competition.

If there has been a change in the Hoskins situation, it's The Herald's business to find out about it. Whatever is good for Hoskins, we're for it too. Until anyone can prove otherwise, we intend to go on reporting all the facts available — and making note of it when facts are not made available. —CEG

Big Power Grab

The Reader's Digest, which owes its success to reprinting the best from other publications, is copyrighted so The Herald cannot reprint an article that appeared in the February issue. However, this paper can recommend that everyone go back and read an article in that magazine.

Entitled "New Grab for Federal Power: Unemployment Benefits," the article told of a bill that would cost billions. In the house it is Bill 8282, and it is an invitation to working men to cheat.

Taking power that has belonged to states, the bill would give Washington the right to penalize states that did not comply. Employers would again be asked to dig down to pay more in payroll taxes.

Getting to the gist of the thing, the bill would encourage people to be unemployed. They could quit, be fired, turn down job offers, be supported most of the year and retire ahead of time and still be ahead.

Benefits would be up to $125 weekly, more than most people around Wayne make. Sound good? You know who will pay in the long run of course — you!

There is not room here to cover the whole program but it smacks of federal domination in one more area; We urge you to read the February Reader's Digest again and join those who gasp at the audacity of the plan. —CEG

Capitol News Cigarettes, Liquor, Gas Up Tax Revenue In State

LINCOLN — Collections from taxes on cigarettes, liquor and gasoline have increased a whopping 49 per cent in Nebraska over the past 10 years.

That's the report of the Nebraska Tax Research Council, a private survey organization.

The Council said $57,783,704 was collected from these three state revenue sources in 1964, compared to $38,775,729 in 1955. This does not include federal excise taxes.

The State Legislature boosted the Nebraska tax on cigarettes and beer in 1963 and 1965. The gasoline tax was increased a half-cent to 7½ cents last year.

The Council said all of this points out that there is no real equity among the excise taxes.

"In these times we hear much discussion of the regressiveness or the progressiveness of one tax or another," it said. "Certainly, no taxes are more regressive than excise taxes. The man with a $3,000 annual income must pay exactly the same on his purchase as the man with a $30,000 annual income."

The Council noted that Nebraska has long relied heavily on liquor income, tobacco sales and gasoline revenues to finance state government.

"To delve into this a little causes one to believe that the taxes on cigarettes, beer, gasoline and liquor might be reaching the place where it is possible to tax so much that the market can be affected, and this in turn may affect the economy," the Council said.

Opposes Federal Bill

On another tax front, Nebraska officials have announced their opposition to a U.S. House bill designed to set guidelines on state property valuations that may be set on railroads.

State Tax Commissioner George J. Dvorak said the legislation, pending before the House Commerce Committee, would be "an unwarranted infringement upon the right of the state to determine state tax policy."

The proposal would forbid a state or local taxing unit from assessing railroad property at a higher proportion of its market value than the rest of the property in the taxing district.

It would apply to all types of carriers, but has been sought hardest by the railroads.

Legislator Dies

A prominent state legislator, Cecil I. Craft of North Platte, died recently of a heart attack while in Lincoln for state business. He was 55.

A leader in the development of public power and tourism in Nebraska, Craft was an outspoken foe of federal intervention in state and local affairs.

He was first elected to the Unicameral in 1950, re-elected in 1952 and re-elected to a four-year term in 1964. He represented the 45th district which encompasses all of Lincoln county.

Standard Accepted

State Sanitation Director T. A. Filipi reports the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has accepted Nebraska's water quality standards.

He said the state was congratulated for its initiative to preserve the quality of Nebraska and national waters.

The standards are part of the state's overall effort to control pollution of streams and rivers. New national guidelines will be set later.

Route Proposed

Another proposal for a north-south Interstate Highway through Nebraska has been presented to the State Highway Advisory Commission.

Sponsors suggested it follow U.S. 83 in western Nebraska. The route would start at Minot, N. D., and stretch southward to Brownsville, Tex.

The Commission said while Nebraska anticipates there will be additions to the Interstate after 1972, it has no definite assurance this will be the case.

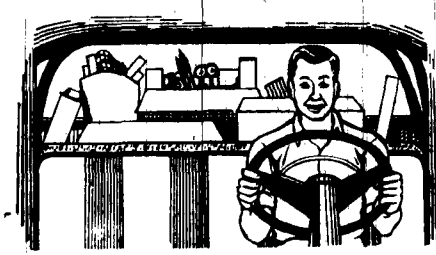

The 41,000-mile national Interstate system is scheduled for completion in 1972. Nebraska will have nearly 500 miles of east-west superhighway, but no north-south route.

Court Action

Nebraska has joined 25 other states in urging the U.S. Supreme Court to hold that old cases are not affected by its sweeping Escobedo ruling of 1964.

State Atty. Gen. Clarence A.H. Meyer entered the case as a

"Do You Know?"

Your cargo should never obstruct your rear view. You must be aware of all approaching hazards. NEBRASKA DEPARTMENT OF ROADS

Co. Agent's Column

friend of the court

The court has been asked to determine whether the Escobedo ruling should be applied retroactively to cases settled years ago.

In the Escobedo case, the court said a person is entitled to advice of counsel when he is singled out and questioned as an individual suspect in the investigation of a crime.

State and federal courts have been flooded by petitions from inmates who contend they were not represented by counsel — or not represented well — at the time of their trial many years before.

Refund Withheld

The town of LaVista in Sarpy County may have lost $2,300 in gas tax rebates because its incorporation was never reported to the State of Nebraska.

State Treasurer Fred Sorenson said the State Justice Department has advised him no payment can be made until the community furnishes a certification of incorporation.

LaVista officials claim their community, which has about 1,300 residents, has been an incorporated town since Feb. 23, 1960. They said the state has no right to withhold the tax refund.

N.E. Extension Notes

Window shades, long used to protect a room from glare and heat, now have become a decorative feature in themselves. Made in fabric, the shade can be used alone as a window treatment.

Decorative shades are simple to make. Basically there are three styles of shades — the single roller shade, the fabric Roman shade, and the graceful Austrian shade. All three styles can be made in the home.

For example, all a person needs to make the roller shade is a staple gun or hammer and fabric with a firm weave. If you wish to give additional stiffening stiffness to the fabric and to make cleaning easier, the fabric can be dipped into a purchased solution made for this purpose.

The Roman shade operates with a cord positioned through rings in back of the shade. The surface is flat when the shade is lowered and gathers in folds when raised.

The elegant Austrian shade also operates with cords on the back which pull the fabric into soft, shirred folds. Directions for making this shade or the Roman shade are available at most drapery departments.

Fabric shades can be coordinated with other fabrics and slip covers in the room. Simply select shades similar in design and color to other furnishings in the room. The Roman shade is tailored in appearance and harmonizes with the Spanish type furniture featured today. The Austrian shade suggests elegance and fine line furniture.

Measuring for Window Shades

When measuring for roller window shades, be sure measurements are precise. A wood or metal rule is a "must" as cloth tapes or string are apt to stretch and are not accurate.

Although window frames in the same room may appear to be of uniform width, they frequently vary and should be considered individually. Measure at the top of each window where the shade will be hung, finding the exact distance between the points where the brackets are to be installed.

If you are using inside brackets, indicate that your figure is an inside-frame measurement. The dealer may allow for the brackets. If your shade is to be hung on outside brackets, remember that the shade should overlap the window opening onto the frame by two inches on each side.

For length, simply measure the window opening from the top frame to the sill. The dealer will automatically add a safety margin of 10 to 12 inches.

Carl Curtis CAPITOL COMMENTS

A couple of years ago there was much sound and fury in Washington over a contract for a variable-wing airplane designed for use by both the Air Force and Navy. This plane then was known as the TFX Award of the contract for the TFX was the subject of an investigation, still not officially closed, by the McClellan Investigating Subcommittee of which this writer was a member.

During its investigation, the Subcommittee learned that Defense Secretary Robert McNamara overruled military and aeronautics experts who, in four separate evaluation reports, recommended another design which the experts believed would give the United States a superior plane and at a lower cost. Even now, neither the Air Force nor the Navy reportedly is completely happy with the plane.

Now known as the F-111, this airplane has become an international incident. The British government has on order from the United States 50 of the controversial airplanes costing nearly $2 billion a plane. This decision has brought resignations of two top officials, Navy Minister Christopher Mayhew and Admiral Sir David Luce, British first sea lord. They opposed scuttling of plans to build a new $196 million aircraft carrier and the purchase of 50 U.S. planes.

Meanwhile, it might be noted that B-52 bombers performed admirably in clearing the way for significant advances by ground troops in a major action in Viet Nam. Secretary McNamara plans to "phase out" the B-52s with F-111s.

The vagaries of United States postal service are always fascinating and often irksome.

A member of this writer's staff a few days ago received an envelope in the same class mail from a Nebraska address and a post card air mailed from Australia, each bearing the same date four days before receipt.

While this same staff member was hospitalized recently, some material was mailed to him from the Senate Office Building to the hospital only a couple of miles away. Four days after the envelope was mailed, he was released from the hospital but the mailing had not arrived. On his fifth day home from the hospital, the wayward envelope from the Senate Office Building showed up at his home some 5½ miles distant. Total time in transit: More than a week.

Congressman William B. Widnall (R-NJ) can't decide whether to be flattered or annoyed. He received 16 copies of the same press release from the new Department of Housing and Urban Development, each in his own separate envelope.

We doubt if Emerson will host another district tournament soon. We have talked with three coaches and they don't want to go back. It isn't because Emerson won either. We saw Wakefield come on the court one night and the Emerson young people booed. This same type of thing continued throughout the game. In games up and at that time we were not booed, we were respected, booed and re-boating. Had we been from Emerson, we would have editorialized on the front page because it certainly was a blot on the town and school. The shame of it all is, Emerson has a fine facility but it's a crime that this sort of thing is allowed to happen. We know we will get some reaction from Emerson, but we really have this volunteered prisoners of a hot and an unbiased reporter. We know exactly what they mean. If Emerson wants to do something about it, the thing to do is not condemn this criticism but check back and see where someone went wrong — and then see if it doesn't happen again. If we only had a tape record of what went on, we sure could cause some people to hang their heads in shame.

We think Sen. Carl Curtis is at quite a disadvantage in running against Frank Morrison for the senate. Of course, it's Curtis' own fault. He has taken no stands on issues. He has not even argued with him at all. He has gumption enough to act according to his conscience on issues affecting the nation and state. Being human, he possibly has been wrong at times. That's where the Morrison campaign can hit — where Curtis has been wrong. On the other hand, Morrison has never taken a stand on anything. Straddling the fence, he has carried many of voters by leaving matters up to the people or the legislature. He has done so little, the only thing to criticize has been his lack of action. Concord Clean-Up Campaign Coming Concord, not to be outdone by Carroll, is also planning a clean-up campaign. Some of the plans were discussed at a meeting of the Concord Community Club Thursday last at the Brook Basket cafe.

There was not a big crowd but those present agreed that a year-long cleaning up campaign is needed. Vacant lots will be the object of some of the betterment work.

Concord will also continue to have the mum-bots along the highway south to Nebraska station. It is hoped that the mum-bots will be encouraged to plant more mums to earn "bottles of 'Mum City'" for the town.

Some county property is in need of cleaning up and a letter will be sent to county commissioners asking their cooperation. Suggestions and advice will be appreciated from individuals and groups.

Can Concord outdo Carroll? Will Dixon and Hesquia take up the challenge and enter the competition? Check this paper next week for the latest developments in this "Our town is better than your town" contest.

Another winner being paid out in this jackpot promotion, $241 being the highest won by any individual.

man like Carl Curtis with a man like Frank Morrison. Nebraska has handicaps to overcome — we don't need another one in the form of a senator who will go along with every current of the great society flood. We need a man like Curtis to stand up for what is right, not what is politically profitable personally. We pray the majority of Nebraskans will feel this way when it comes to cast ballots. The only "X" we want for Morrison is "X-governor."

A young man, 26, became president of a huge corporation. A reporter got in to see him, and said: "I suppose you had a terrific educational background that fitted you for this position?"

"No, I can't say that I did."

"You had money in your family and invested heavily in the firm's stock?"

"No, that's not so."

"Hmmm... to what do you attribute your swift rise to the top?"

"I really can't be sure — but I'll tell you this: there's been some strange things happening to me lately since a friend of mine wearing golf shoes stepped on my IBM card."

This idea will get an instant disapproval but we will offer to let Western Nebraska (up with Northeast Nebraska in sports how?) Well, maybe the Husker conference winner in football could play the North Platte Valley conference winner each year. It would give Easterners a trip west one year and Westerners a trip east the next. The NPV is similar to the Husker conf. in having schools 62 (Wayne and Kimball) and small (Wakefield and Mitchell). In between are schools of all sizes. Not at all we'd like it but if Wayne

Social Security Aided

Aid in figuring out social security problems will be offered Thursday, Mar. 17, from 1 to 3 o'clock at the courthouse in Wayne. Bob Swain, field representative of the Norfolk social security office, will be here at that time. Those wishing appointments should write to the Norfolk office.

Dixon County Petition Drive Exceeds Quota

The petition campaign to put the state property tax issue on the November ballot was climaxed in Dixon county Tuesday of last week in Allen. Reports revealed that the quota had been exceeded by quite a margin.

More than 2,000 signatures have been checked and petitions notified. All that was asked of Dixon county was a total of 944 signatures.

Although twice the number of signatures requested had been obtained, more will be accepted. Any Dixon county voter who wishes to sign may do so at the Farm Bureau office in Allen.

Farm Bureau has sponsored the drive to get the issue on the ballot. If the people vote in favor of it, it would be unconstitutional to have a state property tax levy, however, it would have no effect at all on property tax levies of counties, cities, school districts and other divisions of government.

Another Fire in Belden

Fire Tuesday morning of last week caused some damage in the center room of the Belden high school. Skip Jorgensen, supervisor, smothered the smoke while studying. He went downstairs for axes to unlock the door and firemen were called. Several feet of work benches had been scorched by the flames and smoke damage was done in the hall. Hand extinguishers were used to put out the fire, the origin of which is undetermined. Local carpenters made required repairs.

Two Cases Heard in Judge Hamer's Court

Last week offered a full in court cases at the office of Judge David Hamer. Only two cases were heard, both involving city traffic violations.

Mar. 2 Howard Magwire, Wayne, paid $10 fine and $5 costs. He appeared on a charge of stop sign violation brought by Officer Donald Tanner.

Danny Davis, Bassett, appeared Mar. 1. He was fined $15 in fine and court costs on a charge of making an improper turn. Chief of Police Vern Fairchild brought charges.

Mrs. Clyde Wilson was taken to University hospital, Omaha, the latter part of the week by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Suckow and Mrs. Alvin Anderson, Dixon. She was scheduled to undergo surgery this week.

Last Week Worst So Far in Traffic

The worst week of the year as far as traffic accidents was concerned occurred the past week when Wayne policemen investigated nine separate mishaps. Only one involved personal injuries.

Feb. 28 on Main street, Erns Williams, Carroll, was pulling into a parking stall and John Kobold, Omaha, was backing out of a stall adjoining it. The box on the Kobold truck caught the chrome on top of the left fender. Chief of Police Vern Fairchild, investigated. There was $10 damage to the Williams car.

On Pearl Mar. 2, Officer Keith Reed investigated a mishap Rich-ard Grashorn, Wayne, was south bound on Pearl when his car collided with one driven by an unidentified driver. Damage came to $10 on the Grashorn vehicle. The weather was bad Friday and two accidents occurred on Main. At Fourth and Main Terrace, Ratliff, Bassett, stopped for a traffic signal. Ernest Westerman, Wayne, driving behind him, was unable to stop on dry and snow-packed surface and hit the rear of the Ratliff car. Officer Reed investigated.

Later in the day on Main, Andrew Manes, Wayne, was northbound and came to a stop. Kenneth Hirsch, Pender, was behind him, skidded on the icy surface and struck the rear of the Manes car. Officer Reed investigated.

The following day on Eleventh street, Dr. Gordon Shupe backed out of a driveway. Visibility was still bad and his and one driven by Herman Huiting and owned by E. G. Schriener, Wakefield, col- lided Mrs. Carita Galt on the Shupe car, was taken to the hospital for examination. Damage came to $300 to the Shupe vehicle and $50 to the Schriener car. Officer Don Tanner investigated.

The Wayne (Neb.) Herald, Thursday, March 10, 1966

Three more accidents occurred that day. At Tenth and Window Robert McInnell, Wayne, was northbound when his car collided with one driven across Window by Glenn Magnuson. Wayne's Janet Fairchild, who investigated, reported $238 damage to the Magnuson car.

Later at Third and Pearl Chief Fairchild investigated another mishap. Dan Titze, Wayne, was north bound on Pearl. Southbound was Roger McCoy, Ausworth. McCoy attempted a left turn onto Third and the cars collided. Damage to

Carroll Youth's Truck in Hoskins Accident

Alan Cook, 17, Carroll, stopped for a stop sign at the south edge of Hoskins Sunday morning before noon. Before he could proceed, his truck, used for hauling milk, was struck by another vehicle.

Trooper Terry Rogers of the Nebraska Safety patrol investigated. He said Cook was waiting to enter Highway 35 when Dennis Mubs, 37, Norfolk, came north on the highway.

Mubs told the patrolman he glanced away to check some of his trucks and did not see the tank truck. His pickup crossed the center line and hit the parked milk truck.

Neither driver was injured. However, the Mubs pickup was a total wreck and damage to the Cook vehicle was estimated at around $300.

Weather Too Bad or Good
The weather in Wayne must have been too good part of the week and too bad the rest of the week for activities involving the police department. Only two calls were handled in addition to the tube accidents investigated and the routine patrol activities. One woman called to say a strange truck was in the area at her home. She was gone when the police arrived 12:15 p.m. and at 1:30 p.m. Mar. 8. Another resident told police she had to have identification cards from the police department in order to sell house to house. They left town rather than get such cards.

8 ON A DIME!

Sonotone's new all-in-the-ear hearing aid is powered by just one modern, miniature battery. This battery is so small that eight of them fit on a dime (just lay a dime over the picture above to check size). This is the smallest hearing aid ever made by Sonotone — and it is worn entirely in the ear. You need a demonstration of this incredible aid to believe that anything so small — slipped into the ear — can help thousands of persons to hear better. You can see it at your local Sonotone office.
