Wayne Herald Ends Ninetieth Edition

Last week's edition of the Herald marked the end of 90 years of publication. This week the newspaper is starting out on its 91st year.

Originally the paper was the Wayne County Review, started May 22, 1876, at Ponca. From 1876 to 1881 it was published at Ponca and in 1881 it moved to Wayne.

It was called the Logan Valley Herald for two years and the Wayne Herald-Tribune for one year. Some time in 1888 the name was changed to The Wayne Herald. The Wayne Tribune, the Wayne Republican and the Carroll Index were all absorbed by The Herald.

C. E. Hunter and William Huse were listed as the first publishers. Many others were listed over the years with E. W. Huse and Mark Cramer being among the latest. Alan Cramer has been publisher since 1958.

Good Response Here in C. of C. Building Drive

It looks as if Wayne people are really behind the Chamber of Commerce in its efforts to get a new building. Those were the words of Chamber of Commerce Manager Wanda Owens Tuesday when asked how the fund drive is coming.

According to the Chamber manager, the response has been most gratifying. Comments are favorable among those contacted, especially those who have visited the building.

Mrs. Owens said there have been many visitors, both members and non-members. She said they are welcome and anyone wishing to stop by to look over the interior will be welcome.

An open house will be held at a later date. However, this is still in the planning stage and in the meantime it's Wayne's building and all visitors are welcome.

Most people expressed pride in having the C. of C. obtain such an attractive building. Some volunteered donations and others have called to make sure they will be contacted by the canvassers who are seeking funds to help pay for the structure.

Airman Has High Average

A/3c Steven R. Glassmeyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Glassmeyer, Wayne, arrived Apr. 18 for a furlough at home. He was graduated as an aircraft maintenance mechanic with the second highest average in his class at Chanute AFB, Ill. He has been assigned to Sinto Aerospace Div. Sec. 6, Grand Forks AFB, N. D.

Winter Weather in Last 'Gasp' in Area

Late in arriving, winter weather has held on in the area longer than normal this year. A final week might be the "last gasp" before spring takes over for good—and everyone is ready.

Areas north of here received snow Tuesday and southbound cars were covered with snow in varying amounts. West of here there was also snow but the main storm seemed to have passed to the south.

State National Bank gauges recorded .56 of an inch of moisture Tuesday in the form of rain. Temperatures hovered around the freezing mark during the day so it was an extra cold rain.

Scottsbluff and Alliance reported a three below zero reading Wednesday morning. In Wayne the 6 a.m. temperature was 24. Forecasters were calling for possible rain or snow showers Wednesday with possible warming temperatures to follow the period

Kiwanians Learn About Important Job Facets

Twelve factors in employment were rated by Kiwanis Club members at their noon meeting in the Woman's Club Rooms. Then they were told how other groups rated the same factors and how employers can use such surveys to determine weak and strong points in their set-up as far as employees are concerned.

Dr. Deniz Clegg of Northeast Station presented the program. He used a chart he had prepared while working for his doctor's degree: "What is most important to people in their jobs?"

Members listed the items workers wanted most and then in order until all 12 items were rated. Then the group results were figured and finally results from three other studies were given.

Wayne Kiwanis rated "success-achievement in work" as most important. All other groups rated "interesting work" (challenging) as most important.

In all surveys, including this one, Dr. Clegg found that workers among the top five among groups really interested in their work: interesting work; success-achievement in work; having responsibilities; opportunity to grow in skills; and recognition for work done.

The survey proved to be an interesting one when results were compared. Dr. Clegg also described the uses such surveys have in personnel management and successful employee-employer relations.

Wayne, Wakefield, Winside Do Well in Norfolk Invitational Track-Field Meet

Wayne was fourth in Class A, Wakefield second in Class B and Winside third in Class C in the Norfolk Invitational Track and Field Meet Friday. Competition was heavy in both classes.

The Blue Devils finished behind three big schools, Columbus 87½, Norfolk 65, Farnont 56½ and Wayne 29. Six other teams trailed the locals who teamed up on a splendid showing so far this year in spite of lacking personnel.

Leon Jorgensen won the 440 in 51.9 and ran with Dave Brown, Harvey Hansen and Allen Rasmussen on the mile relay team that won first in 5:41.4. Other Wayne points came when Brown was fourth in the high hurdles and fourth in the low hurdles. Rasmussen was fourth in the 880-yard relay team, won fourth and Jorgensen second in the 220.

Battle Creek won Class B with 70 points, Wakefield had 53 and Winside 44. Five other teams finished behind this threesome.

Danberg won the low hurdles in 22.4 for Wakefield, and ran with Harold Meyer, Randy Jacobsen and Reed Wacker on the 880-yard relay team that won first in 1:39.4.

Other Winside points came with Reed Wacker finishing second in the high hurdles, Keith Schmide fourth and Wacker fifth in the 440, Larry Redel fourth in the 880, Meyer second in the 220, Danberg fifth in the high jump, Gene Berg fifth in the mile, Keith Krueger fifth in the high hurdles, Roger Hill third in the shotput, Dick Ditman fifth in the shotput and fourth in the discus and the mile relay team third.

Lon Nixon won first in the broad jump at 18'11", and first in the 100 at 10.6 for Wakefield, Dick Brownell won first in the 880 at 2:05.6, Paul Eaton won first in the mile at 4:42.7 and the Wakefield relay team (Anderson, Eaton, Brownell and Turner) won that event.

(Other Tri-City scoring came when Turner was second in the 440, Nixon was fourth in the low hurdles, Turner ran third in the 220 and the Wakefield 880 relay team finished third.)

Wildcat Baseball Team Splits Home Opener

A 3-1 win over Minot State of North Dakota marked Wayne State's home baseball debut last Wednesday. Minot rebounded to win 8-1 in the second game.

Pitcher Larry Hulme got credit for the Wayne victory though he tired and gave way to reliever Dean DeBurr in the fifth. By that time Wildcat left fielder Bob Gaeta had poked a solo homer in the first and right fielder Steve Feinstein had singled in two runs in the fourth. Wayne collected seven hits, Minot three.

The sixers, in their first action of the season, found the range with a 12-bombardment in the nightcap. A three-run homer in the third by Minot catcher Tom Kraft caused a 10-0 Wayne lead and the Beavers added two in the fourth. Three in the seventh against four Wayne hurlers—Bob Strassman, the Earl—yielded the home run and was followed on the mound by Gale Petersen in the third, Bernie Robinson in the fourth and Jim Rasciel in the fifth.

Two From Winside Picked by Coaches

Two Winside basketball players have been chosen on the Lewis & Clark all-conference team. Both were also elected captain this term for the conference football team.

Roger Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill, was a unanimous choice of the coaches in the voting. Larry Redel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Redel, was the other Winside choice.

Harold Isom was the only all-conference selection from Allen Butch Van Auker, was a choice from the Randolph team.

Other selections were: Ken Springer and Dennis Hodge, Norfolk Burns; Ed Sorensen and John Samsen, Emerson-Hubbard; David Eickhoff, Hartington; Bob Schulte, Hartington Cedar Catholic; Jim Korthals, Coleridge; and Bob Rockwell, Ponca.

All are seniors except Hodge, who is a junior, and Eickhoff, who is a sophomore. Hill, Springer, Hodge and Rockwell were unanimous choices of coaches.

Wayne Jaycees Hosting Nebraska Junior Meet

Wayne Jaycees will host the Nebraska State Junior Championship track meet at the local high school track on Saturday. The boys 15 to 18 years of age, without the state.

Entries are now being accepted and Jaycee chapters are being asked to promote competition in the event. Entries in this area may be secured by writing Wayne Jaycees.

Events to be held are the 100, 220, 440, 880, mile, high hurdles, low hurdles, pole vault, high jump, long jump, shotput and discus. Day-long competition scheduled to start at 10.

Triangular at Winside

A triangular track meet among Allen, Coleridge and Winside will be held Friday at 3:30 p.m. on the Winside track. Peter Kiepp said the public is invited to attend. A freshman sophomore meet Tuesday at Norfolk was the third track action scheduled this week. The Lewis & Clark conference meet at Wayne State College here Friday, April 29, is the next track action for the Wildcats of WBS.

Lowans Lead in Bowling

Entries from Hornick, Ia., lead every entry in the handicap open bowling tournament now going on at Melrose Lanes. High team is Farmers High, 200-114. High doubles, Edgar Shupe and Larry Dicks, 1271, and high singles, Ivan Massen, 619. All are from Hornick.

Recreation Basketball League Ended Monday

Final games in the recreation basketball league were played Monday night at the auditorium. Only action left on the court is next Monday when Rec Girls will play seventh grade girls at 7 led by Boys Club basketball.

Freshmen beat the Boys Club reserves Monday 63-51. In the second tilt, the champion sophomores had to hold off a late rally by Boys Club to win 81-65.

Dave Tiegen led freshman scoring with 28 points. Tim Robinson added 15 and Jody Hanson, 13. For B.C.R., Duane Shell had 16, Cal Comstock 14 and Mike Liveringhouse 13.

No scorebook was kept on the final tilt but Gordon Jorgensen, Lynn Lessmann and Larry Hix led the winners while Lowell Lutz, Herb Swah and Myron Gust led the losers. Hix was credited with playing his best game of the year, according to Coach Hank Overin.

Two Omaha Schools to Play WSC; Wildcat Baseball Team Has 8-2 Record

Baseball fans should get a double treat this week from Wayne State's schedule, with two Omaha universities providing opposition.

Creighton comes to the WSC diamond this afternoon (Thursday) for a pair starting at 2 o'clock, and Omaha will be here Saturday at 1.

Both have enjoyed Wayne teams plenty to handle, sometimes too much in past years. The Wildcats whipped Omaha in scheduled play last year, then bowed to the Indians in the finals of the NIAA Area 3 South playoff. Omaha went on to second place in the national NIAA tournament. This year's Indians appear equally potent.

Wayne likewise is proud. With an 8-2 record the Wilds are well ahead of their 5-5 pace a year ago. They paid 1 their conference record with a double win over Hastings here Saturday as both teams began the NCC campaign.

Two home runs lifted Wayne out of a 1-1 to a 7-4 win over the Broncos in the opener.

Jerry Kinnan's lead-off homer in the sixth, followed by Bob Gaeta's round trip with one on provided the margin for pitcher Dean DeBurr's third victory (no losses), a three-hitter with 12 strikeouts. DeBurr helped the cause with two of Wayne's nine hits, including a double.

Bob Kresbauch was the starter and loser for the Broncos. All four Hastings runs resulted from home runs, the first by Tom Tutko with two on in the fourth, the other by Dave King, tying the score in the fifth.

Wayne led off the second game with a three-run burst. Hastings scored twice on the bottom of the first but did not tally again while the Wildcats went on to a 7-2 win.

Jim Rasciel, a peppery little freshman hurler from Bloomington, Minn., mastered the Broncos with 12 strikeouts in his six innings, then Jim Mau took over in the seventh and fanned two more. Rasciel, who has a 2-0 record, gave up four hits. Mau one.

Wayne's 14-hit assault included three singles each by brothers Bob and Rich Symonds.

Jim Livingston started for Hastings and was charged with the loss before yielding to John Jepson in the fourth. Kresbauch came in from right field in the seventh for his second mound duty of the day.

Morris, Swan, Kerl Jorgensen, Lessmann Tops in Cage Scores

Five players led the scoring in Recreation League basketball in Wayne during the season just concluded. They averaged 18.9 or more points apiece per game.

Hank Overin said all boys in the first 11 scoring scorers were consistent. They did not hit a high number one game and a low number the next but usually hit about their average.

Gordon Jorgensen had an average of 34 points per game. Also in the top five were Lynn Lessmann with a 19.8 average, Bob Morris with 17.7, Herb Swan with 19.6 and Steve Kerl with 18.9.

The others in the top 11 were Leon Jorgensen, 16.3, Ken Jones, 16.2, Mark Johnson, 16.0; Dave Brown, 15.9; Gordon Shupe, 15.8; and Dave Tiegen, 15.2. Having 11 players put 23 boys averaging 15 or more points a game is remarkable, Overin said.

Junior high scorers were led by Les Echtenkamp with a 21.2 average and Mike Liveringhouse with a 19.0 average. They were the

Free Boxing Program Offered Next Tuesday

An evening of boxing is being offered free of charge Tuesday, April 26, at 7 p.m. in the Wayne City auditorium by the boxers of the Boys Club Hank Overin reports that the program is an experiment and it successful more shows will be given.

Overin, who has been working with the boys on boxing, stresses that it is not a matter of teaching boys to "street fight" but to defend themselves. Boxers learn how to score points for use of hooks, jabs and other offensive and defensive maneuvers as much as wrestlers are scored.

The boys will all wear 16-ounce gloves and head protectors. Pairings have been made as to weight and boys competing will be as light as 65 pounds and as heavy as 180 pounds.

This is not a program for those seeking "blood." It's an exhibition of boxing skill and it should be of interest to people of all ages.

Hoskins Schools Compete

Trinity Lutheran and Hoskins Elementary softball teams will compete Thursday, April 21, at 2 p.m. in a softball game on the Hoskins diamond. Pupils in the upper four grades in each school will be allowed to compete. Roland Menk coaches the Lutheran parental team and Dale Carter is coach of the public school team.

Wayne Wins No-Hit Game Here Friday

Two pitchers combined to furnish a no-hit game at West Point Sacred Heart Friday afternoon on the local diamond as Wayne took a 12-1 decision. The same asterisk only five times due to the rule that comes a pitcher when one team has a margin of 10 runs or more.

Coach Mike Mallette's nine was scheduled to play Dodge Monday but that was postponed a week until next Monday at 3:15 on the Dodge diamond. The Blue Devils go to West Point Central Catholic for a game at 3:15 Friday.

Delmar Wacker and George Ehn off were the hurlers for Wayne. The only runners they allowed on base were two men in the first frame, one walking and the other getting on due to an error. The man who walked scored the only run for ESH.

Wacker pitched the first three frames, striking out Ehn and Eynon, hurled two innings, fanning an opponent, won the game for the losers, striking out one and giving up nine walks.

Phil Kelson and Dean Elofsen each hit a triple for the locals. Larry Hix was the only player to get more than one hit, having two.

Eight Named for Faculty at WSC

Eight appointments to the Wayne State College faculty were approved Monday by the State Normal Board meeting in Lincoln. Four will have doctoral degrees by September when their duties begin. President W. A. Brandenburg noted. All are full-time faculty members.

Among the appointments is a former WSC professor, Robert C. Sutherland, who returns as associate professor of biology and head of the department of biology. The department is a newly authorized subdivision of mathematics and science.

Sutherland was on the WSC faculty four years until resigning in 1953 to study for a doctorate. He is a candidate for the Ph. D. from Texas A. & M. University in June.

Also a candidate for the Ph. D. from Texas A. & M. is Glenn E. Baker, who will be assistant professor of industrial arts at Wayne. He takes the place of Dr. Merlin Kleinbach, whose resignation was accepted by the board. The Kleinbachs are going to Ethiopia where he will teach under the federal government AID program. Baker earned both his bachelor's and master's degrees from Texas A. & M.

Appointed associate professor of history was Dr. William R. Barlow, now on the Hope College faculty. He has two degrees from the University of Ohio and the Ph. D. from Ohio State.

Norman D. Ashby will be assistant professor of education and coordinator of counseling services. He earned his bachelor's degree from Morningside College, his master's from the University of Iowa, and is a candidate for the Ed.D. from the University of South Dakota. He served as guidance coordinator for Woodbury County, Iowa, schools four years.

Two of the newcomers will teach English. Robert Zehnizer, currently an assistant professor of English at Oklahoma City, will have the same title at Wayne. He received his bachelor's degree from Allegheny College, his master's from the University of Arkansas, and is a candidate for the Ph.D. degree at Arkansas.

Van A. Tyson, also a Ph.D. candidate at Arkansas, will be an instructor in English. His bachelor's degree was from Arkansas Polytechnic College, his master's from Arkansas U.

Two Wayne State graduates round out the appointments. Richard L. Gunther will be an instructor in social science. He earned B.A.E. and M.A.E. degrees here and served as a graduate assistant.

Daniel True, currently a graduate assistant in business, is a master's candidate at Wayne State and received his bachelor's degree here.

The normal board also appointed two to the summer faculty: Joseph G. Kelly as instructor in German and Diemar Kellermann as instructor in geography. Kelly has a master's from Wayne State University in Detroit and is teaching at the University of Minnesota-Duluth. Kellermann, a graduate of the University of Graz, Austria, is a student at Kansas University. He will teach geography in the absence of Lester Franke, who is one of 25 accepted for a summer workshop at the University of Minnesota.

Resignations in addition to Kleinbach's which the board accepted were by Leon Brooks, instructor in music; Dr. Thomas Flickema, assistant professor of history, and Michael Olson, instructor in physical education. Brooks will teach at DePauw University, Flickema at Fullerton (Calif.) Junior College, Olson at Upper Iowa University.

Five graduate assistants were appointed for next year: JoAnn Rouse and Rosemary Keefe in English, Fred Pierce in health and physical education, Frank Braithwaite in mathematics, and Harley Gesirich in industrial arts.

teacher and principal at a domestic science school in Mutamba, Rhodesia.

The meeting opens at 9 a.m. and closes at 3 p.m. Sessions in the Methodist Church include a noon luncheon. Babysitting services will be provided.

Following Mrs. Post's morning talk, speakers in the afternoon will trict president for one year and will be elected for a new two-year term. She is also one of 16 Nebraska delegates named to attend the WSCS and Wesleyan Service Guild national convention May 12-15 in Portland.

Other area women who will be elected Monday are: Mrs. Mildred West, Wayne; Mrs. Olive Linn, Laurel and Mrs. William Eckert, Dixon.

Magwire

voted to adopt green blazers with Jaycee emblems as the official local uniform.

Activities coming up include the beef and pork drawing at 3 Saturday for Agri-Business day; the Junior Champ track program for Nebraska June 4; a teenage safe driving contest May 15; and a get-acquainted picnic May 15. Marvin Young is state chairman for the Junior Champ program at WSC. Dick Hammer is chairman of the teenage driving contest. Darrell Doetscher was a guest at the Tuesday meeting.

Explosion

Milking and carrying the milk to the temporary milking parlor was also handled by the family and friends.

Marotz said only the milking barn required of the installation, but his wife pointed out that a sink inside the milking parlor was relatively damage-free. What had been milking equipment was a mass of twisted metal. One halfton compressor had been blown out the roof and over the milking barn by the force of the blast.

Women from a club to which Mrs. Marotz belongs, Hoskins Garden Club, came with food and offers of help. They served the workmen at the Monday noon meal in the Marotz home. Everyone has been simply wonderful, Mrs. Marotz said.

Happiest circumstances of all were the facts no fire resulted and equipment and building were covered by insurance. The response of everyone concerned in getting equipment to the farm from Grand Island, adjusting insurance claims and helping with work was gratifying, Marotz said.

As for the cows, they were a mournful lot. They stood by the gate waiting to be taken in and milked. They knew nothing of the blast but they knew they had milk to give and the scheduled time for milking had come and gone with only a drop of milk given.

mond Republican. No other section of the state had such an impressive record.

The Herald's entry consisted of a scrapbook filled with clippings of editorials, pictures and news stories when the city was preparing to vote on school bonds. The campaign for CATV was also included and the remainder of the entry was made up of the local-interest editorials. The Herald features weekly. Chas. Greenlee was editor during the period covered in the contest.

A $200 check and a plaque were awarded the newspaper for its heroism. Money given by Al-Sar-Ben will be used for community projects, a decision on the money's use to be made later. A display of the plaque and scrapbook appears in the former J. M. McDonald store building.

Fairgrounds Group Meets This Evening

The moment of truth for the Wayne County Fair is at hand. Thursday night at 8:30 a meeting will be held at the auditorium to decide what to do about the wind-damaged structures and what plans to make for the fair in the future.

Everyone interested in the future of the county fair is invited to attend the meeting following the Silver Dancer Night. Invitations have been sent to stockholders in the fair association.

Plans for modernizing the fairgrounds, including possible moves of some structures will be outlined at the session. Consideration will also be given to abandoning the fair and to joining other counties in a district fair.

Henry Brandt, secretary of the Nebraska State Fair, a representative of B. H. Backlund and a representative of Ak-Sar-Ben will be here for the meeting. Board members and officers of the county fair will be on hand at the session.

Carroll Scouts in Awards Ceremony

Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts swelled attendance at Carroll Community Club Monday evening in the Carroll Auditorium. In addition to 71 members and wives, there were 11 Boy Scouts and 12 Cub Scouts present for an awards ceremony.

Marlene's Cafe catered the meal. Wayne Kerstine, committeeman, introduced Arlyn Hurlbert and Harold Loberg, who gave the Scouts their tenderfoot badges, kerchiefs and slides.

Parties Dominate WHS After-Hours Activity

Parties dominate the activity at Wayne High School. Two were held last week and two more are planned this week.

Friday evening the sophomores held a party at West Elementary.

School. Jerome Knutson and Ray Tieszen were sponsors for a social evening with refreshments and dancing.

Wayne High German Club held a banquet Monday night at West Elementary. Each member brought German dishes prepared at home and served smorgasbord style in the gym decorated in German decor with a Maypole central theme.

For the program, club members enacted German folk tales written from texts of German stories. German songs were sung and other entertainment provided, all under the direction of the instructor, Mrs. Geraldine Whittington.

Wednesday afternoon the faculty members had a "party" when a teachers' coffee was held after school at Carroll. Saturday the freshmen will hold a party at West Elementary.

found until the next morning. Actions such as this are just what the award was intended for, NEFA officials said.

WS Golf, Tennis Teams Split in Weekend Meets

Wayne State golf and tennis teams won and lost Saturday in teams-meeting matches with Amesbury at Sioux City.

Mark Lanning's 84 for Wayne rated medalist honors as he defeated Dan Thomson, 97, for a 2-1 score. Roger Sharp, Wayne, carded 88 to Don Schulz's 98. 3-0, Mark Williams, Wayne, 95, downed Tim Filotson, 99, 2-1. Bob Thomson, Morningside, 85, beat Bill Erickson, 86, 2-1, and Jeff Jeffries, Morningside, 92, beat Dave Carson, 95, 2-1. Added up, Wayne scores totaled 9½ to 5½ for the Chiefs.

Morningside edged Wayne's tennis team, 4-3, though winning only one match. Three other Morningside points resulted from forfeits by the short-handed Wayne squad, which had only three players.

In singles, Red Whorlow, Wayne, defeated Ed Moungaloa, 6-2, 6-3, and Rich Ohlenberg, Wayne, defeated Dennis Morgan, 3-6, 6-2, 10-8. Asa Oye, Morningside, downed Dwight Keith, 6-2, 6-4.

Two other singles matches went to Morningside's Tom Butler and Dave Bolkif by forfeit. In doubles, Whorlow-Ohlenberg defeated Oye-Morgan, 6-1, 6-4. Moungaloa-Bolkif won by forfeit.

Succeeds Winside Man Weather Affects Events

Father O'Brien, Norfolk Burns is the new president of the Lewis & Clark Conference. He succeeds Supt. Wayne Gestrich, Winside, in the post. Others named to office in the April 13 meeting at Coleridge were Andrew Hansen, Coleridge, vice president, and Don Kelly, Norfolk Burns, secretary-treasurer. Rowan Wiltse Gets State Hero Award

Rowan Wiltse, Wayne, was revealed as winner of the Nebraska Hero's Award Wednesday at a meeting of the Nebraska Funeral Directors Association in Lincoln. He is credited with saving the life of a young man last summer.

The award was established by funeral directors to recognize Nebraskans who save lives of their fellowmen. A plaque and other honors will go to the winner each year.

Wiltse rescued Harold Bring, Laurel, when Bring and Jean Walton slipped into Lewis and Clark Lake while walking on a sandbar. Bring was pulled into the boat and Wiltse anchored his boat at the spot to mark the point where Miss Walton went down.

He remained at the point well into the night to aid with the search, although the body was not

Neihardt Manuscripts Displayed for 'Week'

Copies of the original manuscripts of John G. Neihardt's Nebraska poet laureate, are on display at Wayne State College library. The general public is invited to visit the library and see the manuscripts alongside the final versions in published form.

The manuscripts are interesting in showing how Neihardt scratched out words, lines and complete thoughts to get the poems exactly the way he wanted them. Copies were made available from originals in the University of Missouri collection.

A book in the display with the manuscripts on the library's second floor is one of 12 in existence. Neihardt burned all other copies of "The Divine Enchantment," his first published work.

National Library Week is being observed, but because of the lack of time, the display is being held over all of next week too. The public can visit the display any time through Apr. 29 during regular library hours.

Carl Hays, assistant librarian who has worked on the National Library Week state committee, arranged a faculty coffee in the library lounge Tuesday. New best-sellers in a "browsing book" collection were also displayed for faculty members.

Six Vehicles in Wayne Accidents

Four traffic mishaps in which six vehicles were involved were reported in Wayne the past week. There were no personal injuries.

Apr. 13, Mrs. Elsie Echtenkamp, Wayne, was backing away from a curb on East Second. Richard Rogers, LeClaire, Ia., came around the corner off of Main. His car struck the rear of the car Mrs. Echtenkamp was driving. Damage came to $89.25 to the Rogers vehicle, according to Keith Reed, investigating officer.

On Main Street Apr. 16, Mrs. A. F. (Patsy) King, South Sioux City, and Vernon Beckman, Pilger, were backing away from curbs opposite each other. They backed into each other with damage coming to $95 to the Oehlerking car and $10 to the Beckman vehicle. Chief of Police Vern Fairchild investigated.

Apr. 17, James Critzman, Wakefield, was driving on East Fifth Street. His car went off the left side of the street, back across the street, over a curb on the right side of the street and hit a tree, suffering $250 damage. Officers Donald Tanner and Gordon Kibbe investigated.

Kenneth Whorlow, Wayne, parked his car on Logan Apr. 17. Someone struck the parked vehicle. Investigation is not complete, Fairchild said.

Cancel Driving Course

Not enough people are interested in improving their driving in this area so the driver improvement course scheduled for the Wayne State College campus has been cancelled. Margaret Stahly, area extension agent, said there were six present for the first session. A minimum of 15 must enroll before a class can be conducted.

Concord Man With Group

Richard Gavit, Concord, is a member of a group working with the Nebraska Tree Farm Committee. Karl Loerch, state extension forester at NU, is chairman. The tree farm program, sponsored by the forest industries with cooperation from the extension service and SCS, recognizes private land owners for accomplishments in woodland and shelterbelt management. The silver anniversary of the tree farm system will be observed this year. There are 100 tree farms in the state, according to officials of the sponsoring groups.

Winside Seniors Plan Two Plays

A one-act play and a two-act play will be presented by the senior class of Winside High School Friday, May 13. Cast members were chosen this past week by the directors, Mrs. James Troutman and Wesley Boydston.

"Nine Girls" is a two-act mystery comedy with no male characters. "Six of the Ozarks" is a one-act play with some of the male cast members playing female parts, reasons for which only play-goers will find out.

Jackie Stevens has the lead in the two-act play. Other leads are by Sue Ann Glass, Jacki Jeffrey and Marella Shufelt. Smaller parts were assigned Brenda Svenson, Twila Hank, Connie Marquardt, Claire Bleich, Kathy Jacobsen and Kay Gries.

Linda Alleman, Sandra Frink, Steve Mueller, Mickey Topp and Roger Hill have "routine" parts in "Six." Playing such people as Hannah, Botkins, Rita, Bernard and Mrs. Audrey Belmont-Cliff are Warren Gallon, Erroy Brogren and Gary Jenkins.

Many Area Welsh Go to Convention in Lincoln

Many area residents of Welsh extraction went to Lincoln Saturday for the Welsh Society of Nebraska St. David's Day celebration. Because of weather conditions, the event is held in mid-April instead of early March.

Jerry Gerard, noted organist, was guest of honor and played for the program. T. P. Roberts, Wayne, is a vice president and Judge and Mrs. David Hamer, Wayne, are committee members.

Taking a bus were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morris, Mr. and Mrs. George Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Roberts, C. H. Morris, Mrs. Eunice Glass, Mrs. Edna Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thomas Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Jones, Saluda, Colo.

L. E. Morris, John Morris, Dave Morris, Mrs. Edwin Davis and Mrs. Lawrence Jenkins, Norfolk; Jack and Mrs. David Hamer, Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, Robert Jones, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Evan Williams and Jay, Wayne.

Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Deophylus and Mr. and Mrs. David Owens and girls. Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Owens and girls, Garritt and Bonnie Lou Owens, Grand Island, who met her parents there.

St. David, patron saint of Wales, is honored with Welsh gatherings each year. Starting in 1910 the meetings were held in Omaha. In 1959 meetings were set for Lincoln and they have been held there since.

This year's program included: Beudlys ffrawth, golweth swastud, tad's poetry a hufen kar, pys rhewl, bara beth a bara meny, lufen rhewl a tisen corff, te and new lleath. Any typographical errors in this paragraph should not be noticed by many.

Dixon County Signs Up

Dixon County has 852 farms signed up in the 1966 feed grain program according to Robert Bartholomew, Dixon Area County Chairman. Farmers will divert 36 1/2 acres from corn, grain sorghum and/or barley production. This represents 4,000 fewer acres than were signed in 1965 when 274 farms were signed up for the program.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

You may not agree with an editorial—but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Mrs. Pfeiffer reported on the Community Club dinner and the District Assembly held at West Point Mar. 21. The following new members were welcomed: Mrs. Dale Krueger, Mrs. Elsie Nelson and Mrs. Stanley Soden. The birthday song was sung for Mrs. Anna Aarderson. Mrs. Adolf Rohlf and Mrs. Stanley Soden. Hostesses were Mrs.

RECORD WRAPPER

Next party for moppets, wrap a raft of small surprises (colored pens, tiny plastic cars, or candies) in the center of layer after layer of vari-colored tissue paper, and tie with ribbon. Seat the kiddies in a circle on the floor, start the record player and stand by. Each child takes a turn at unwrapping the big package, stopping as you stop the music. When the tiny gifts finally emerge, that little "unwrapper" passes the favors . . . and gets an extra gift for his trouble.

MUNCH AND CRUNCH

Easy treat to serve "the girls": Mash two parts chive-cream cheese with one part blue cheese spread. Chill thoroughly, then shape into a big ball. Roll in chopped nuts, and chill some more. Pass crisp celery, and let them spread the tasty mixture. Tastes wonderful and isn't terrifically high in calories (provided one spreads lightly).

TIMELY TIP

Even if you should read this when there's still a chill in the air, remember sizzling summer isn't too far off! Now is the time to think about whole-house gas air conditioning, the nicest thing that can happen to your home. If you've a gas heating system, chances are the job's already half done. Why not call your Peoples Natural Gas or gas air conditioning specialist and get the pleasant details early? Northern Natural Gas Company supplies natural gas to your local utility. Avail yourself of the extra comforts this miracle-fuel provides.

Colorful Alaskan to Start Schooling at Age of 50 on Wayne State Campus

When another term opens Monday at Wayne State College among the new students will be Paul Sincic, Skagway, Alaska, a 50-year-old dock worker, longshoreman, museum curator, photographer, collector, builder, conversationalist and father.

Sincic (pronounced sin-sic) chose Wayne State because he had been "sold" on the school by an Alaskan who had formerly lived at Albion. He investigated colleges in many areas after he decided to return to school but the combination of the trimester plan, lower tuition and lower living costs swung his decision Wayne way.

A native of Pennsylvania, he grew up in New York. He has lived in Alaska 30 years, 18 in Skagway, where he was last employed by the White Pass and Yukon longshoremen.

His wife, the former Agnes Powers, was born in Wisconsin and grew up in Chicago. She went to Skagway on a visit, fell in love with the country and came back to live there 19 years ago.

The Sincics have been married 13 years and have no children of their own. However, they have four adopted Alaskan native children who are as close as their own children could be and who are fervently loved by them in their rate pistol and a miniature totem pole; Stephanie has a wolverine hide, Steve holds a 44-50 Colt frontier pistol; and that's a bearskin on the floor. Sincic bagged all of the animals himself.

When they loaded up the bus to come to Wayne, they brought many Alaskan mementos with them, miniature totem poles, real bearskin, sealskin and other furs, Alaskan art and many items too numerous to mention. When they got settled down, their home should be a treasure of items unique in this area.

They will welcome visitors (and are overwhelmed already by the friendly calls people have made). One thing they do regret is that so many know so little about modern Alaska.

The Sincics say Alaska is not a wilderness area although it has the flavor of the frontier. They recommend it for a vacation, claiming the inland passage is a most beautiful boat trip and you can take your car on the boat with you. In addition, it's a low priced trip. They would love to convince anyone who has ever considered an Alaskan vacation that now is the time to go and they can advise on the best, most scenic and most economical ways to go.

Sincic and his beard will not be hard to identify. He intends to keep it. "I wouldn't know him without it," his wife stated, "for he had it when I met him." Their wedding picture shows a young man with a black beard about the same length as it is now.

More much more could be written about this delightful family but to enjoy them, you must visit them in person — and they would like that. It appears that not only are they going to enjoy Wayne, Wayne is going to enjoy them.

offerings as Sincic wants to get through school as quickly and as economically as possible.

Now that they have been here two weeks, they wonder, "Why not come to Nebraska?" They like it. They were sold on the campus first and now they are sold on Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Sincic found people calling on them from the moment they rented a house at 1102 Walnut. They've attended sales and been other places getting furniture for they started out with none.

There were two sales the same day last week. One went to one and he went to the other. Now they have studio couches and overstuffed chairs. They both found bargains and neither knew the other had found what they wanted until both arrived home.

"A paradise for children," is the way they describe Wayne. Close to school, in a lovely neighborhood of friendly people, they love what they have found and look forward to two and two-thirds years here while he acquires an education to become a teacher. He should complete his social studies course by December of 1968.

Friends in Alaska asked when they announced plans to come to Wayne: "Why would you go to Nebraska to school?" As mentioned, it was a combination of

Ballet, Bands Win Audience Applause

Three bands and one ballet group combined for an evening of entertainment Thursday night in Ramsey Theatre, Wayne State College. Judging from applause, it was apparent the audience appreciated the offerings.

Ballet, offered for the first time by an ensemble instructed by Nina Youskevitch, provided a delight to eye and ear. If this is an indication of what can be expected in the future, crowds should increase in size each year.

The girls were beautifully costumed and their graceful dancing matched the mood of the two numbers. Bob Hildgas, the only boy in the troupe, proved both graceful and athletic. Gowing with the idea that seeing a young man do ballet might not be entertainment, it was found that the former Wilson football player is to be fit shape to lift, swing, whirl and catch leaping girls with the same time performing stunts as difficult as those the girls tried.

Then there were Dr. Raymond Kellton's two ensembles, a wind instrument group and the concert band. Finally, Leon Brooks presented a stage band playing popular numbers.

Dr. Kellton's concert band played some difficult and beautiful numbers, none of which was more challenging than "Symphony in Minor" by Tchaikovsky. It was not perfect but it was done so well even a non-music lover could appreciate the skill and ability required by concert band members.

The symphonic wind ensemble played three pleasing numbers; music that gave each band member a chance to demonstrate for a moment the musical scene being presented. Combined, they excelled even more.

For a while, the days of "the big band" were brought back when Leon Brooks and a stage band played music in the style young and old used to be able to dance to. They wound up the session with a nice rendering that obviously pleased the young. It was hardly as satisfying as the previous numbers, however, for those who had just enjoyed hearing music that was popular in earlier days played as it was played years ago. "Rock Bottom," concluding number, was loud and probably "good of its type."

Put together, the ballet and bands provided a nice reward to those who attended, and there was a good crowd. The concert band continued a WSC tradition of excellence in musical presentation.

Mrs. Irvie Reed, 84, was a guest Thursday of Mrs. Betty Dunaway, 82, Plymouth. The ladies, who were since lunch at Graceland, had not seen each other for 10 years. Mrs. Dunaway, now Mrs. Reed's, lived in a newspaper story last fall after she had

More Roof Work for Auditorium in Dixon

Roof damage to the auditorium panels was estimated to be $10,000. Dixon councilmen had the new roof put on the auditorium with in the last few months. However, the wind was strong enough to tear off shingles and do other damage.

The 10,000 dollar estimate for the other work needed for the auditorium was insured and the cost was paid by the insurance company.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Owens, Judith Owens, Central City and Bonnie Owens, Grand Island, spent the weekend at the Wayne State with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simmons and family.

FIRST PLACE COMMUNITY SERVICE

We're extra proud of this honor but we wish we might get extra plaques so we could give one to each person who helped us to achieve this honor.

Community service means just what it says, but it should also say that many of you contributed to our work, suggested a program to follow and donated time and effort to make our presentation a sound one.

It does not adequately show the assistance we received in the towns The Herald serves. Dixon and Concord, Wakefield and Winside, Carroll and Hoskins and all the farming area share honors with Wayne in achieving this recognition.

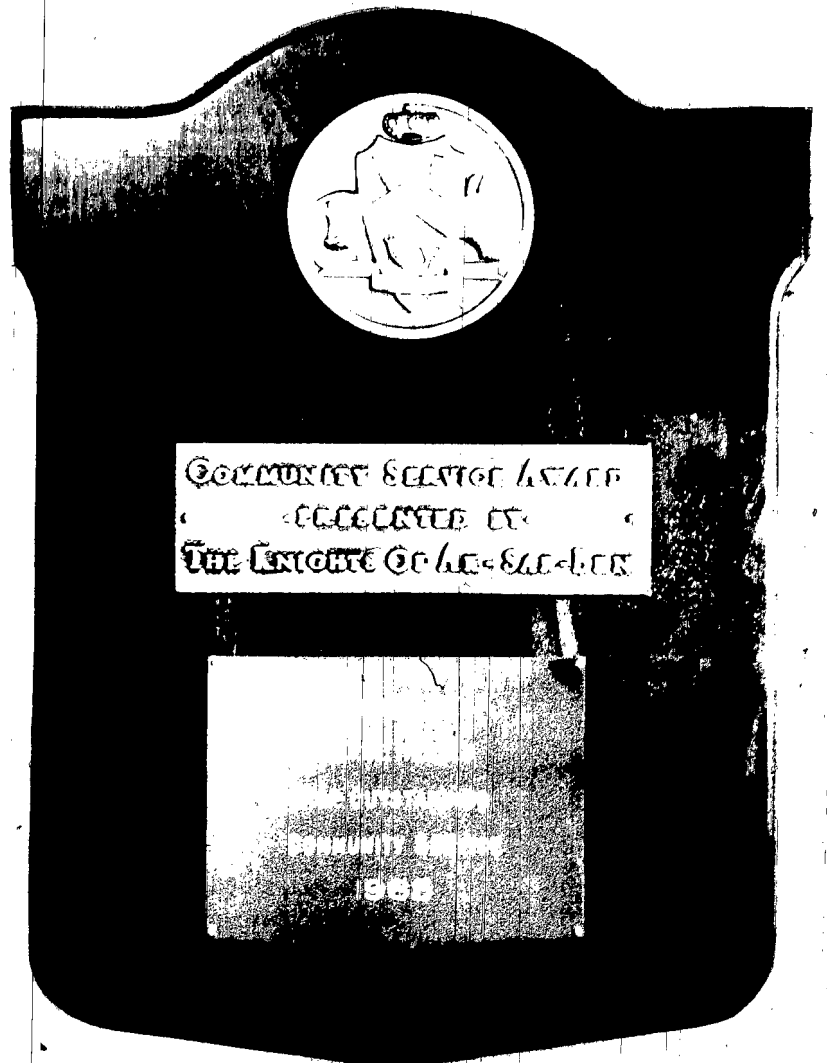

With the plaque comes something you CAN share in, a check for $200. This is to be used for community projects - in other words, for community service in the past we are getting money to be used for community service in the future.

It is the wish of The Herald's staff that the money can be used to benefit every community it serves. A decision on where the funds will go is to be announced within a week or two.

We at the newspaper are genuinely pleased to gain the recognition that has to be considered the "most-sought-after" honor a newspaper can get. We thank you again for your help in making this award a reality.

We are proud that two Northeast Nebraska papers, The Plainview News and The Herald, received these awards, one-half of the awards given by Ak-Sar-Ben. We are also proud of all the other honors area papers received, 13 of the 29 top honors given to Nebraska newspapers.

It is apparent we are located in a great part of the state. Furthermore, in this part of the state, we feel we serve the finest communities there are, communities that make it possible to win honors such as this plaque denotes.

Reseal of Four Grains Revealed in Plan; Storage Rates Will Be Set Later by ASCS

Reseal has been announced for four farm-stored grains after 1966 maturity dates. John Mohr, chairman of the ASCS county committee reports. Storage rates will be set later and will be available at ASCS state and county offices.

The reseal program enables farmers to continue price-support loans and earn storage payments on 1965 wheat, grain sorghum, barley and oats. Loans on 1964 crops of the same grains and on 1943 crops of wheat and sorghum now under reseal may be extended another year.

Loans on 1962 wheat and sorghum and 1963 barley and oats now under reseal will not be extended. Price-support loans on farm stored grains are extended beyond the maturity date.

Mar. 31 was the loan maturity date for wheat and sorghum and farmers should notify ASCS if they wish to reseal them. Barley and oats loans mature Apr. 30 and corn loans mature July 31. No decision is being made at present on a corn reseal program.

No reseal program is planned for 1965 soybeans. Carryover stocks in 1966-67 will continue to be small relative to utilization.

If a farmer delivers or redeems resealed grain before the end of the 1966-67 storage period, his storage payment will be based on the number of months grain is stored. Reseal loans will still be subject to call by the CCC at any time.

Current reseal loans on 1962 wheat and sorghum and on 1963 barley and oats will mature upon demand by CCC no later than the end of the 1965-66 storage period for each. Older crops are periodically dropped from the program to lessen probability of deterioration and put the grain in position for movement into various outlets before loss occurs.

Chairman Mohr said the reseal program facilitates holding of stocks of grains on the farm for feeding or shipment as demand develops.

Fort Dodge Youth New WSC Council President

Jim Taylor of Fort Dodge, Ia., is the new president of the student council at Wayne State College.

He won an all-school election Wednesday to head the student governing body for the coming year, effective immediately. Taylor is a senior majoring in business.

Also elected to represent the dormitories and off-campus students were 24 members of the council: Morey Hall—Ed Kelly, Des Moines, Ia.; Bob Sosalla, Sac City, Ia.; Dan Telleen Gowrie, Ia.; Berry Hall—Sharon Bjornsen, Sioux City, Ia.; Kay Ellingwood, Omaha, Nebr.; Jorgensen, Ames, Nebr.; Dick Thompson, York, Jerry Paulson, Cherokee, Ia.

There were 5,440 pupils taking part from Nebraska schools. Omaha Central won the state contest for the second year in a row. The top three contestants from each school made up a team. Winside's trio had a ranking of 98.50, which ranked it above 141 other schools taking part in Nebraska.

Team members were Steve Mueller, son of Rev. and Mrs. Otto Must, Roger Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hill, and Keith Krueger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Krueger. The latter is a junior, the other two seniors. Two other juniors, Linda Gohring and Reed Wacker, also ranked high in the test.

Sponsored annually by the Mathematical Association of America, Society of Actuaries and Mu Alpha Theta honorary math fraternity, the test takes 80 minutes. Seven juniors and seven seniors were tested at Winside Statewide, juniors ranked the highest they have ever achieved since testing started.

Cheerleaders Selected
Cheerleaders for the 1966-67 school term were chosen by Pep Club members at Winside the past week. They are Barbara Jenkins, Carol Bleich, Connie Jones, Sue Paulson and Ruth Vanhamp.

Winside Math Pupils Rank High in Testing

Results of the National Math Tests have been received for Winside High School. Out of 183 schools entered, WISS ranked 2nd, according to Supt. Wayne Giesbrech.

State Library Group Planning Wayne Meet

The Nebraska Library Association's college and university section will meet Apr. 29 at Wayne State College for its spring conference.

Carl Hays, chairman of the section and assistant librarian at Wayne State, said the keynote address on inter-library cooperation will be given by Carl Jackson, director of libraries at Pennsylvania State University. Formerly at the University of Colorado, he was instrumental in developing library cooperation in Colorado.

Bert Thompson, director of libraries at Kearney State College, will head a panel discussion with Katherine Hentzel, associate director of libraries for technical services, University of Nebraska, and Ted Knutson, librarian at Nebraska Wesleyan University.
