Fire Burns Shucks, Cobs During Wind

Fire broke out while corn shelling was going on at the Armin Beiermann farm south of Wayne Friday. A wind was gusting but the shellers had started at the right end of the pile of corn and the flames were blown away from the pile.

Workers pulled the sheller away and used an extinguisher to fight the fire. However, the Wayne Fire Department was called to put out the flames too.

The fire burned some cobs and some shucks but the sheller was undamaged and no corn was lost. It is thought the fire started when shucks wrapped around a bearing and caught fire. The fire was then blown onto the cob pile.

Due to the strong wind, it was feared flames might see FIRE BURNS — Page 8

Everyone Wanted Student to Win

Clarence Phipps, Wayne State College, had a lot of people hoping for him when his name was announced for the $200 Silver Dollar Night drawing in Wayne. However, he was not in a participating business place so he did not win.

Described as a conscientious student who could use the money, Phipps was studying at the library at the time. Those who know him realized he could use the money and hoped he had made it but it was not to be.

Because he was studying, which will pay off more handsomely than $200 in the long run, he missed the $200 prize. This means someone will get a chance for $250 this Thursday at 8.

Jaycees to Boost for Members

Wayne Jaycees are going after members. An intensive membership drive is scheduled to get underway with a kickoff at a Hal-Jewen wiener roast party Saturday, Oct. 29. It was decided Wednesday night of last week at a meeting at State National Bank.

The local unit is making a list of prospective members. Anyone missed who is eligible and who wants to be included can contact The Herald for information on the party as the Jaycees want as many present as possible.

Cards will be sent to everyone listed. Phone calls will also be made to remind those invited and the night of the party transportation will be provided for the guests.

Helping set the Jaycees off as a service organization will be new blazer jackets. Those getting them now will get them at the discount while those ordering later will pay full price.

Other projects coming up include the Honey Sunday drive Nov. 20 and a New Year's Eve dance at the armory with The Swing Kings furnishing the music. The curb numbering project will be a continuing project as long as the weather is warm enough, will be discontinued during cold weather and will be resumed in the spring.

One-Fourth Area's Income Comes From Swine Receipts

With almost one-fourth of this part of Nebraska's agricultural cash receipts coming from hogs, area residents should have no trouble recognizing the need for the new swine research facilities proposed at the Concord station operated by the University of Nebraska, according to officials of the Northeast Experimental Farm Association.

There are 14 counties served by the Concord station. Hogs account for 28 per cent of the receipts from the sale of all meat animals in this area and 22 per cent of the agricultural cash receipts.

Bob Fritsch, NU area swine specialist at Concord, said of the coming drive for funds: "Most producers will view the solicitation of support for the new swine project as an investment. If information gained from the proposed research project and applied by producers results in an increase of only one-

Three activities coming up between now and Christmas gained the major share of interest at Winside Community Club's meeting Monday night in the Methodist Church.

A Thanksgiving activity similar to those of past years is being considered. Turkey would be given away but the committee has not decided on the exact procedure.

Christmas decorations will be purchased for the business district and it is hoped the club will be joined by the Old Settlers and town board in supplying funds for the project. The WCC will go in fifty-fifty with Federated Woman's Club in sponsoring a home-lighting contest at Christmas this year.

Pupils Like Phadet; Want More Like Him

Phadet Gawsoombat, an exchange student here just two months, is so popular with the fellow pupils at Wayne High School they want another student next year. The student council has voted to start raising funds to bring an exchange student here for the 1967-68 term.

It will be up to the American Field Service Chapter here to decide whether it will be allowed. However, there is not much chance of the idea being rejected. The council wants to raise the money as soon as possible to make sure Wayne can have another exchange student. As before, any help from groups and individuals will be appreciated.

Also needed are volunteers for host family. This year the Dr. J. M. Brown family is hosting Phadet. They have children, but it is not necessary for the host family to have children at all. Homes with children will be given preference.

There are requirements for the host family: Mother and father must both be 37 or older; the exchange student must have his own room; he must live in a home near enough to school or bus line so it will not be inconvenient.

Then there are these requirements prospective "parents" for an exchange student should have: A heart—large enough to share a portion with another child from another land for a year—and probably forever.

A mind—open to the different life and cultures the student will bring with him, open to accepting him for his differences and not for his similarities and a share of laughter and gaiety to shrink the problems which may come up and

Weather Nice Since Mid-October Storm

The snowstorm of Oct. 14 is but a memory. There are fields, utility lines and trees that show the havoc wrought but the weather has been most pleasant since then.

State National Bank gauges recorded 1.25 inches of moisture in the snow. That has been the only moisture reported in this area during the month.

At Peoples Natural Gas Co., Wayne, the lowest reading for the period has been 24 degrees reported Oct. 16 and 17. Readings of 26 degrees have been noted Oct. 19, 23 and 24.

As for warm temperatures, 84 degrees was the high Oct. 13. It hit 72 twice since then but most of the high readings have been in the 60's.

Indian summer has returned and the area has enjoyed readings at night near the freezing mark but sunny and warm in the daytime. How long will it last? The weatherman says the good weather should last through the weekend.

Community Chest to Give Report Tuesday

Wayne Community Chest workers, still glowing from another successful fund drive, will meet this coming Tuesday noon to pay the bills, check over last-minute receipts and prepare a final report.

Most of the envelopes have been turned in. Anyone having bills should get them in to Wanda Owens by Monday so they can be prepared for presentation at the final session. The goal had been reached before the fund drive was officially over. Since then some workers have turned in their reports so no effort has been made to prepare that final report for this week.

It will be interesting to see if a new record is set. Previous drives have exceeded the sum given this year twice but it is not impossible that this year a new high could have been reached.

Wayne Blue Devils Make Comeback But Lose to WP Central Catholic

Wayne High School spotted West Point Central Catholic a 25-0 lead in the first half and then came back to outscore the host eleven 7-0 in the final periods to go down to defeat 25-7 Thursday night.

Coach Allen Hansen's team failed to capitalize on the breaks it created. For instance, WPCC fumbled seven times with Wayne recovering four of those, three times in Bluejay territory, but could not profit from the recoveries. The locals also punted three of the Bluejay passes.

Wayne received the opening kickoff on the 12, Mark Johnson returning to the 25. Johnson gained 4, Steve Kerl 6, Don Skokan 5 and the Jays held Lynn Lessmann punting to the 38 where Gene Hansen recovered a fumble for Wayne. Kerl gained 2 and that's all Wayne could manage so Lessmann kicked again, this time to the 4, where Hansen downed the ball.

The host eleven drove 96 yards in 17 plays with Ken Emmanuel going the final yard to make it 6-0. Bob Neesen added the extra point and the Jays were in front 7-0.

With a wind helping, the kickoff put the ball in the end zone. From the 20, Lessmann passed to Gordon Jorgensen for 11, Kerl made 4 and Wayne was held. Lessmann punted and again the Bluejays fumbled, Jorgensen recovering on the 40 as the first quarter ended.

Lessmann hit Jorgensen with a pass good for 6 and then with another pass picking up 7. The host eleven took over, however, and again drove goal-ward. Bob Stieren went the last four yards and it was a 13-0 ball game when the extra point was missed.

Kerl received the kickoff on the 19, handed off to Jorgensen who returned to the 36. Kerl gained 2 and 2. Lessmann had to punt and the ball went out on the Wayne 46. A pass series failed for Central Catholic so Wayne took over, only to have Norman Ridder intercept on the CC 47 and return to the Wayne 17.

Bernie Binger, outstanding all evening for Wayne, intercepted a Bluejay pass to give Wayne possession again on the 20. Johnson gained 8 and the Bluejays intercepted. This time the Jays were not to be denied and it took seven plays to go 33 yards. Ken Emanuel going over from the 2 to make it 13-0.

Johnson received on the 18, almost got away but was downed on the 50. The locals took to the air and WPCC intercepted. A pass interference call helped the Jay cause and Emmanuel went over from the 2 to make it 25-0. There was time for a kickoff, G. Hansen receiving on the 40 and returning to the 46 as the half ended.

Dave Tietgen booted the second half kickoff to the 9 with WPCC returning to the 33. A drive was stopped when the host team fumbled, Don Skokan recovering on the 44. Skokan went for 4 and 2, Lessmann for 14, Skokan 1 and Lessmann passed to G. Hansen for 4 before the drive bogged down.

Central Catholic had the ball for three plays, fumbling and losing possession when Binger covered the ball. Kerl gained 3 but that's all Wayne could manage and Lessmann had to punt, booting to the 13. As the quarter ended the Bluejays were on another drive.

The final period opened with a 15-yard penalty on Wayne. The Blue Devils held with Jorgensen, Lavern Brown and Keith Warrelman setting the Bluejays back 8. Skokan gained 3, Johnson 3, Kerl 2, a penalty added 15, Skokan made 5, Lessmann passed to Jorgensen for 10, Johnson made 6, Lessmann 7, Johnson 7, Skokan 8, Kerl 3, Skokan 1 and Lessmann 1 on a drive that picked up 34 yards and added 6 points for Wayne. Following, Lessmann's touchdown, George Eynon kicked the extra point to make it 25-7.

Tietgen kicked to the 16 with WPCC returning to the 26. The Jays started a drive but Binger intercepted on the Wayne 35 and returned to the CC 40. Skokan gained 3 but Central Catholic held. A Jay aerial was picked off of the air by Kerl on the 42 and he ran the ball to the 50. Johnson gained 11 but time ran out and a Husker Conference loss had been chalked up against WHS.

Following are the team statistics:

	WHS	WPCC

Winside Victory Skein Gone With the Wind as Coleridge Dumps Wildcats

Gone with the wind, can best describe Winside's unbeaten slate for 1966 gridiron fame. Coleridge High administered the defeat Friday capping Bulldog homecoming activities with a 6-0 win.

A strong wind hampered Winside's potent aerial game but the whirlwind most destructive to Winside's unblemished record was 140-pound Darrell Hinrichs, who continually penetrated Winside's secondary and finally rambled 33 yards for the game's only tally.

Adjustments in the Wildcat defense finally contained Hinrichs and the Coleridge offense, but Winside's offense could never muster the steam to score.

If a bright spot is to be pointed out for Wildcat followers, it must be the fact that Quarterback Randy Jacobsen came of age as far as QB's go. Jacobsen ran up the middle, around ends, passed with poise, and literally accounted for most of the offensive threat. Winside could generate Coleridge quarterback Don Brandl, smooth, seasoned veteran performed well, but had to take a back seat to Jacobsen. Winside linemen were outcharged, outmaneuvered and taken out of the play much of the time by the Bulldog line. Coleridge boasted linemen weighing from 140 to 165 pounds but contained backs like Bob Dangberg, Keith Kruger and Reel Wacker time after time.

Winside kicked off to Coleridge and after a first down, Winside pounced on a Bulldog fumble on their 49. A fourth and 2 quarter-back sneak was nullified by an offside penalty, the first of many infractions against the Wildcats.

After each team had another series of downs, the first quarter ended scoreless with Coleridge in possession at their own 45. Keith Kruger threw Brandl for a five yard loss and Coleridge was forced to punt. Winside started their series of attempts on the 23 but three plays and two penalties later found the Wildcats punting, only to have the kick blocked with Coleridge recovering on the Winside 33. The first

Hurler, Broadcaster Will Appear at Feed

A major league pitcher and a prominent broadcaster have accepted invitations to appear at the annual Old Timers' Feed in Wayne Nov. 10. Details on the event will be announced later.

The hurler is Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals. He is one of the leading pitchers in the National League and is a native of Omaha.

Coming with Gibson will be Jack Payne of WOW, Omaha radio station, Payne was named "Nebraska's Sportscaster of the Year" for 1966.

The appearance of these two well-known figures will be just part of the features for the dinner. Other plans will be announced from week to week.

Freshmen End Season with No Defeats; Reserves Wind Up Season on Monday

Wayne High School freshmen posted a perfect 7-0 record in football by defeating West Point Central Catholic 40-0 on the West Point field Monday. Coach Ron Carnes is assisted by Don Johnson in coaching the team.

The "B" squad of Wayne High winds up its season Monday at 4:15 in Laurel against LHS. John Tollakson is coach of that squad.

The Wayne frosh have waded through Pierce, Laurel, Norfolk, Madison, West Point, Stanton and West Point Central Catholic. The defeat for West Point was the only one of the season for that school.

It took Wayne a little while to get started Monday but once they scored a touchdown they found it was good and went back for more. Even the reserves scored against WPCC. Jerry Titze kicked off for Wayne to start the game, CC returning to the 34 from the 18. The host team was allowed two plays, fumbling on the second with Ken Jorgensen recovering for the locals.

Mike Biltoff gained 4, Sutherland 5 and 1 and the host team took over. Unable to move more than 2 yards, WPCC kicked to the 33. Randy Helgren passed to Titze for 24 yards but the next pass was intercepted by the host team in the end zone. Three plays netted 1 yard. Vaughn Korh setting one back 3 yards, and Central kicked to the 18.

Helgren gained 3, Sutherland 4, Les Echtenkamp 15 and 10 before the first quarter ended. Sutherland opened the second stanza with a 21-yard run for a touchdown and then pulled in a pass from Helgren to make it a 7-0 game. Titze kicked to the 11, Central returned to the 24, Helgren forced a fumble and Sutherland recovered on the 19. Biltoff gained 2, Sutherland 19, Echtenkamp 3 and Biltoff went over from the 4. No extra point was added but Wayne led 13-0.

The kickoff by Titze went to the 25. Central Catholic gained nothing in three plays so kicked. Helgren received on the Wayne 45 and covered ground across the field and down the field in going 55 yards for a TD. Excellent blocking aided his broken field run. Helgren also made the extra point and it was 20-0.

Titze kicked to the 19 with Central returning to the 32. WPCC made its initial first down only to lose the ball two plays later when John Sandahl recovered a fumble. Den-nie Redel gained 5 for Wayne but a fumble three plays later gave WPCC the ball on the Wayne 47.

Doug Maurer threw the host crew back 7 and they never recovered. Wayne took over and drove goal-ward with Helgren passing to Maurer for 18 and to Gary Heithold for 22. Echtenkamp gained 3 and 5 and Helgren passed to Titze for 12 yards.

The second half opened with Maurer receiving on the 37. Biltoff gained 3, Helgren 7 and a penalty 5. Helgren passed to Sutherland for 11 to Biltoff for 14 and to Maurer for 18. Biltoff went 3 and Echtenkamp the final yard. Sutherland kicked the extra point to make it 27-0.

Redel kicked to the 6 with WPCC returning to the 7. First play from scrimmage the losers lost the ball when Sutherland recovered a fumble. Redel went 7 yards to score, Sutherland kicked the extra point and it was 34-0.

Jorgensen kicked to the 23 with Central returning to the 45. The reserves held Central and forced a kick. A Wayne back returning the kick fumbled but Jon Merriman recovered for the locals. Redel gained 3, Bruce Ring 2 and Helgren kicked to the 35 with WPCC fumbling and Ted Armbruster recovering on the 33.

Reserves scored on the drive that ensued. Redel gained 5, Helgren passed to Heithold for 4, Redel added 4, Armbruster passed to Jim Sturm for 7, Ring added 2, Armbruster 5, Redel 3, Armbruster passed to Heithold for 7 and a touchdown. Heithold spying the goal line ahead of him and surging across it, carrying two men with him.

Jorgensen kicked to the 27 with Central returning to the 33. Third team members were in for the rest of the game but neither team could move the ball. WPCC managed a couple of yards but that was it and the game was over when Redel kicked the ball and WPCC fumbled but recovered.

Wayne led in first downs 13-2; yards rushing 127-30; yards passing 137-0; total yardage 264-30; passes 14-1; pass completions 11-0; fumble recoveries 8-5. WPCC led in pass interceptions 1-0; and fumbles 10-3. The teams each had 10 yards in penalties.

Skokan, Ritze Head Tacklers Last Week

Don Skokan and Doug Ritze headed the list of tacklers for Wayne in the West Point Central Catholic game. Coach Allen Hansen reported Skokan on top with 13 tackles and 11 assists and Ritze right behind with 9 tackles and 14 assists.

Gordie Jorgensen had 8-4, Keith Warrelman 8-8, Lavern Brown 7-6, Dave Roberts 5-5, Bernie Binger 6-8 and Mark Johnson 5-5 to rank in the upper echelons. Others included Dave Tietgen 1-0, Lynn Lessmann 1-5, Steve Kerl

2-9, Steve Johnson 0-1, Bill Blecke 1-0, Larry Magnuson 4-5, Duane Backstrom 1-0, Harry Lindner 2-2 and Gene Hansen 1-2.

Central led in rushing 250-270 to lead in total offense 331-112. Wayne led in kickoff average 45-37. WPCC never had to punt all evening, while the Blue Devils punted 5 times, averaging 31 yards. The host team fumbled 7 times, Wayne 3. The locals captured 4 of the opposition's fumbles while CC covered 1 of Wayne's. The winners were penalized 50 yards, Wayne 35.

Army of Hunters Invades This Area; Have to Work to Flush Out Pheasants

An army of pheasant hunters descended on Wayne County and surrounding counties the past week. They had fair to good luck, but most of them learned that they had to work to get the birds up.

Some hunters despise Nebraska's hunting this year. They found the tramping through fields was tiring and their "office-soft legs" were sore after tramps through the formidable fields.

Farmers bought "No Hunting Without Permission" signs by the hundreds. It wasn't lack of hospitality but merely the fact that some bean, milo and corn fields could be damaged and until the crops are in the fields are closed.

On the other hand, the World Samplers from Dallas who came last year were back again and had a good time. They praised the farmers for their hospitality, reported some farmers stopping work to help get to good places to hunt and in general enjoyed their stay in this area. The proof: They will be back next weekend.

A few hunters can spoil it for many. Three men witnessed this scene. A donkey came north on Highway 15 south of Wayne. It stopped on the wrong side of the road. Four men stood up with shotguns, blasted into a field and killed one hen and three or four cock pheasants.

Their violations: Driving on the wrong side of the road; loading guns in a car; shooting from the highway; trespassing (the property could have been posted); and killing a hen pheasant. Fortunately for them, the game warden was northbound about three cars in front of them and over the hills so did not witness the mass violations.

On the credit side, list

a carload of Negro hunters. A farmer reports they politely asked to hunt, which fields they should stay out of and where the best hunting might be. They hunted where they had been told they could hunt and before they left they came back to the house to express their thanks for the hospitality. They will be welcome back any time.

Saturday was opening day and hunting was best then. Some hunters evidently thought pheasants should pop up now and then to give them a chance to shoot. Pheasants are not so dumb and with the first shots they started using the ample cover of the fields and fende rows.

Hunters with dogs had the best luck. Small groups didn't flush many as the birds just moved out of the way of small groups of hunters. Large groups reported better luck.

Since Sunday, hunting has been work, hard work. For the true sportsmen, it is still fun. For those who want to bring home the game with no trouble and spend most of the time doing things other than hunting, the season so far is not too enjoyable.

Better times are ahead. When the milo is in the corn harvested and the other fields cleared, there will be less cover. Pheasants will be here and hunting should be better.

Will it be good for 93 days? Ask again in about 86 days.

Cross Country Meet in Wayne

Seventeen Class C and Class B teams have entered the district cross country meet to be held in Wayne Saturday. Harold Maciejewski of Wayne

High School is director of the meet.

Maciejewski reports 11 Class C schools and 6 Class B schools entered. Winners will qualify for the state cross country meet.

Class C schools will run at 10 a.m. Competing will be Bassett, Creighton, Crofton, Leigh, Oakland, Niobrara, Pender, Plainville, Wausa, Bartlett and Uehling.

This will be followed by the Class B run over the same course, the WSC course. Ainsworth, Fremont, Bergan, Blair, Omaha Cathedral.

WSC Wildcats in Championship Bid

A long journey and 60 minutes of football against Chadron State stand between Wayne State's grid team and championship of the Nebraska College Conference.

The Wildcats, with a week's layoff since their last game, are sharpening claws for the climactic 7:30 p.m. Saturday encounter at Chadron. A victory will give them a perfect 4-0 conference season and their first unshared championship in football since 1949. Last year they tied Kearney and Peru.

Wayne's No. 1 place in the NCC represents a surprise reversal of pre-season forecasts by practically everybody except the team. It is even a reversal of what some observers were saying after the third game and second loss, that the Wildcats might have trouble winning another game.

That pessimism, however, stemmed from the mounting toll of injured players. Since then, serious injuries have ceased.

Long before the season began, Coach John Jermier publicly said this would be a rebuilding year. Then when the squad arrived, he reported that the players disagreed. What gave him any idea it was a rebuilding year? They wanted to know. No reason it wouldn't be a winning year.

Now Coach Jermier is cheerfully ready to eat crow—but not until after a victory over Chadron. And that is not to be taken for granted without maximum effort, he notes.

To prove his point, he showed the team movies of last year's Chadron game, when the Eagles caged the Wildcats effectively until the last play of the third quarter. Then a 75-yard pass play put Wayne ahead, 13-12.

What happened after that remains almost unbelievable. The Wildcats added 31 more points in the fourth quarter, including two touchdowns by defensive tackle Darrell Fenton.

That's how the team should have played in the first three periods, Jermier observed, and how it needs to play all four quarters Saturday night.

Wayne takes a 4-2 season record against a Chadron team that has lost seven.

The Wildcat forte this year is defense, in contrast to high-powered offense the past four seasons. Defensive heroics throttled Hastings, Kearney and Peru often enough to preserve Wayne victories.

The encouraging fact is that sophomores and freshmen have been conspicuous bandits on defense. For example: Wayne has intercepted 12 passes while having only four of its own pirated. Freshmen Jerry Luedtke intercepted four, sophomore Ron Fox three, freshman Dennis Sealy two. All three, plus others, have also harassed enemy rushing.

Two Local PP&K Champs Advance

Ken Daugherty, Workman Auto, Wayne, has been notified that two winners in the Wayne Punt, Pass and Kick Contest have won the right to compete in the Omaha district finals in Lincoln Saturday.

Sam Ueent, Wakefield, winner of the 10-year-old division, and Larry Cleveland, Winside, winner of the 13-year-old division, will go to the district finals. They and their dads will be guests of Workman's for the Lincoln trip.

Winners in Lincoln will get expense-paid trips for themselves and their dads to a Minnesota Viking football game Nov. 13. There they will compete against Minneapolis and Fargo winners for the right to go to the national finals.

Six winners will be named in Lincoln, one for each of the six age groups. Prizes will be given to the winners for the Omaha District in competition starting at 9:30 a.m. in the municipal field at 22nd and N.

Ten Schools in New Nebraskaland Loop

Ten schools have formed the Nebraskaland Girls Volleyball Conference. Most of the schools are in the Lewis & Clark Conference but some are in other conferences in boys' sports.

The southern group includes Winside, Laurel, Osmond, Randolph, St. Frances and Randolph. In the northern group are Ponca, Hartington, Coleridge, Newcastle and Wynot.

A round-robin schedule for games has been set up. Winside's first action will be Jan. 13 at Osmond. A tournament will be held in Laurel next March.

No coach has been named for the Winside team, according to Supt. James Christensen. It is expected that a coach will be named and practice will start before next month.

Teams Wind Up With Score Same as Before

Wayne Junior High and Norfolk Catholic met for the second time this season. Previously at Norfolk, the host team had won 20-7. Saturday they played here and the score was the same, Norfolk Catholic winning again.

Coach Hank Overin had reason to believe his local squad had improved, however. In Saturday's game the team was playing without the services of the leading scorer and ground-gainer and without three other starters.

Dwight Clatanoff, Don Mau and Craig Johnson were all missing due to injuries. One other player failed to get in from pheasant hunting in time for the tilt.

The first half was a scoreless duel with most of the action between the 30-yard lines. In the third quarter, Norfolk scored first on a 30-yard run shortly after the kickoff. With one minute left in the period and Wayne on its own 8, Wayne fumbled in punt formation and NC recovered on the 1. A quarterback sneak put the ball over and an extra point added made it 13-0.

In the fourth stanza, Wayne was passing in desperation, hoping to score. A deflected pass was taken by a Norfolk Catholic linebacker who ran 20 yards to the end zone for a TD. The extra point was added to make it 20-0.

With 27 seconds left in the game, the visitors kicked. Lonnie Biltoff received on the 15 and ran 85 yards for a touchdown. Key blocks were thrown at the 50 by Charles Kudrna and at the NC 30 by Mike Creighton. The extra point was made on a pass from Creighton to Don Hansen.

Three players gave their best performances of the year for Wayne. Lynn Gunderson in the line and Steve Kamish and Lonnie Biltoff in the backfield shone for the locals.

A. D. Benson Tops in Cross Country Meet

A.D. Benson of Wayne State was the individual winner and Yankton College the team winner in a triangular cross country meet here Friday.

Yankton scored 25 points to 34 by Wayne and 80 by Chadron State. Individual scoring: Yankton defeated Wayne, 25-34, and Chadron, 15-50, Wayne defeated Chadron, 15-43.

Benson's time over the four-mile course was 21:13. Dennis O'Neill, Yankton, finished second at 21:28; Dennis Kasischke, Wayne, third at 21:49. Yankton runners guaranteed the victory taking the next three places—Gene

Senate Candidate Morrison Appears; Condemns 'Sitting on the Sidelines'

Gov. Frank Morrison Tuesday said Nebraska ought not to be a gaffly in the United States Senate; ought not to sit on the sidelines in opposition as the history of the future is written.

The Democratic candidate for U.S. Senator, on Wayne State College's Election Institute series, described Senator Carl Curtis, his opponent, as a gaffly "who must be called a failure if after 27 years in Congress he has not been able to curb what he calls extravagant federal spending."

Morrison denied a claim, made by Norbert Tiemann, Republican candidate for governor, on the same platform October 13, that he (Morrison) would be a "rubber stamp for LBJ" if elected to the Senate.

"Anybody who knows me knows that is not true," Morrison declared.

He said that in his three terms as governor, "I have lived with stark economy. No state government gives more service for a dollar of spending than does Nebraska."

Of Nebraska's role in the future, he said the state must have "a voice with the majority in the U.S. Senate if it is to realize its true potential in the future."

In a question period with the largely student audience, Morrison said he favors allowing 18-year-olds to vote. "If they are subject to the draft, they should be allowed to participate in government."

Should Red China be voted into the United Nations? This is a complex problem, he answered, "but from the information I have, I do not think Red China should be in the United Nations. Maybe it doesn't want to be in—maybe it prefers to be a gaffly."

What about agriculture programs? Morrison said he favors supports for agriculture, but that the program should be reviewed annually and that production controls should be kept to a minimum ("they are clumsy").

He advocated greater efforts to expand world trade in food, especially to combat communism, to help feed the starving who, he said, are prey for communism, even in Red China.

"There is a dramatic difference between Senator Curtis's view on this

Wayne's other point makers were Jim Bette, seventh; Mark Robinson, eleventh; and Joe Byrne, thirteenth.

Chadron's first finisher was Doug Richardson, fifteenth.

Next competition for Wayne comes Saturday at Kearney in the Nebraska College Conference meet.

Lions Will Sponsor Talent Show Again

The Wayne Lions Club board of directors met Tuesday night at Andy's Pizza House. Board members voted to hold a talent show again for the first part of the coming year with winners to go to the district finals.

Alvin Voorhies was named treasurer to replace the late Ben Meyer, longtime treasurer of the club. Wes Pflueger, zone chairman, met with the board.

It was revealed that Mrs. Meyer had donated a cash gift to the club to be used in Lions Club eight conservation work. It is a memorial to her husband, Rev. E. J. Kess, Carroll, was named new chaplain for the club. He, Ralph Blomkamp, Roland Foote, Harry Kinder, Richard Miller, John Mohr, Charles Roth and Chris Tietgen will be initiated in November.

In other business, it was learned Harold Maciejewski, Charles Denesla and Wes Pflueger attended a zone meeting in Wakefield Monday and the Blair Lions Club has invited all Lions to its 25th anniversary observance Nov. 7.

Idea Given of Storm Severity

There was a storm in Wayne County Oct. 14. Its severity can be better understood by checking with utility companies where work on repair is still going on.

Northwestern Bell is one of the biggest utilities in the area. Some information from District Manager Dan Tizze, Wayne, gives an idea of what just one storm did to just one company.

In Nebraska, 2,000 poles were torn down or broken off. Remember, this is for Bell lines only. There are other companies that were hurt too, small and big companies.

NWB had to call in 29 crews from Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota to help Nebraska crews get lines back up. In all, 200 men were brought in to work a week helping restore service.

North of Laurel a line went down with 33 wires in it. Rather than put this line back up, Bell officials decided to bury cable and this was being done Tuesday and Wednesday, making that the last Bell lines to go back into service.

Wayne lines are buried so service was pretty normal. Wakefield's Bell lines in the rural area were all back in last week but some farmer-owned lines were the last to be returned to service.

North and west of Wakefield was one of the worst areas for damage. Several miles of lines and poles, mostly east-west, came down. Minnesota crews came in to help restore their service.

At Concord, the power lines were pulled right out of the house at the Einer Peterson home. A transformer burned out and there was no electricity in some places from Friday night until Tuesday.

Dixon street lights flickered on and off during the storm. Blue flashes were seen periodically in the south part of town as the snow fell.

Wayne County Public

Power District had all customers back on service by Sunday following the storm. However, crews are still at work this week making permanent repairs where temporary repairs were made to restore service. Manager Cal Comstock reports.

Northeast Nebraska PPD at Emerson reported almost all customers had power by last Wednesday. Crews came from other districts to help and permanent repairs are still being made in that district also. Over 150 poles were broken or blown down, officials of the cooperative report.

SCOUTS CAMP

 up camp east of Wayne Wednesday night and to work on various scouting skills Thursday and Friday, staying out three nights.

Four patrol leaders were installed Monday. Mark Lambert was re-elected and Ken Roland, Kim Daugherty and Dale Tomriddle are taking over as leaders for the first time.

Growth of the troop to 30 members required reorganizing into four patrols instead of the previous three. Jon Lambert continues as senior patrol leader; Dan Rose is scribe; Tom Peterson and Kurt Lesh, quartermasters.

SWINE

 half of one per cent in income, the total return would have been more than $32,000 to the area last year. In other words, a few thousand raised now will produce many times over the investment in the years ahead.

A $30,000 fund drive is to be set up with each county conducting its own drive. Milo Birkley, Hubbard swine producer and fund drive chairman, said the NEFA and the various area swine associations will conduct the drive.

Most counties will have directors for the NEFA and swine producers as heads for drives. It is expected that counties will organize on precinct or community basis, Birkley said.

A one-week drive will be held Nov. 5-12 to raise money for physical facilities. Already committed toward construction of six buildings and other project needs are these sums: $30,000 from NU; $6,000 from the Northeast Experimental Farm Association; and $2,000 from Marion Rasmussen, Plainville, recipient of a Ford award for excellence in swine production.

Research at Concord is expected to provide answers to swine housing and management not presently available in Nebraska, Fritschen said. The drive for money is expected to speed up the timetable in getting the project underway.

"Hog prices have been good this year and indications are that they will remain profitable for some time," Fritschen said, adding, "This has caused an increased demand for that type of information that type of management research will provide."

Because of the key position of the swine industry in Northeast Nebraska, agri-business concerns such as banks and feed and supply firms are being called on—and all are responding well—in support of the drive.

"It may not be a question of whether products can afford a contribution at this time, but whether they can afford to wait for some of the answers provided by research that can return added dollars through their own operation," concluded Fund Drive Chairman Birkley.

 has had inquiries from Canada, Georgia, the Carolinas, Washington, Ohio, Michigan and New Jersey. Hervale cattle have piled up an enviable record in the show rings, placing high or topping the best livestock shows in the nation.

Herman said he thinks this will be his best offering to date. "Our show herd sells, all of our replacement heifers sell and a good number of the bulls have been used in our own herd."

He also emphasized that the sale is open to the public and invited all who wish to attend. Lunch will be served.

The sale is slated to start at 11 a.m. Monday with Col. Charles Corkle and Col. Gene Watson as auctioneers.

Persons wishing catalogs for the sale may contact Leland Herman or pick up a copy at the sale. This year's Hervale catalog is a first for Hervale and The Wayne Herald and almost a first in purebred cattle sales history with its four-color process picture of Hervale cattle on the cover. The picture was taken this summer and color separation plates were made for printing through The Wayne Herald commercial printing service.

The Wayne Herald has printed all but the first three Hervale sale catalogs. Many Hervale champions are pictured in the current catalog.

KIWANIS

 new products, gained patents for ideas and now puts out a variety of items. Smeal products include automatic movable irrigation sprinklers, bulk feed truck bodies with auger unloaders, a device that fits on a truck and pulls pipe out of deep wells and other products.

His idea is to hire Snyder-area people because he has found people hired locally "put out an hour's work for an hour's pay." He admits to not having much education but he believes education is pretty important and he wishes he could have had more.

Ray Schreiner presided at the meeting during the absence of President Harold Ingalls.

FIRE BURNS

 spread to the corn cribs nearby so the firemen were summoned. It did not take long for the VFD to arrive at the farm: three miles south and one-half mile east of Wayne.

It was the second "fire call" of the day. Wayne firemen were also called to wash cement out of a concrete-mixer truck before it could be harden. The truck had overturned in a ditch between Carroll and Wayne.

COUNCIL

 three 500 KVA power transformers as part of the power plant expansion. No bid was accepted pending a study by the attorney and engineer to see that all specifications are met. When they report, a special council meeting will be called to choose the bid to accept.

Following are the base bids, delivery time for the 933 KVA units and delivery time for the 500 KVA units: General Electric, $20,136, 41 weeks and 18 weeks; Westinghouse, $20,232, 34 weeks and 34 weeks; Kormeyer Electric, $20,729.55, 42 weeks and 30 weeks; Deco Engineering, $19,764, 62 weeks and 40 weeks; Schneider Electric, $20,136, 41 weeks and 18 weeks; Dutton-Lainson of Hastings, $20,232, 34 weeks and 28 weeks; Electric Products Co., $19,959, 52 weeks and 45 weeks; Traybar Electric, $20,131, 41 weeks and 18 weeks; and Allis-Chalmers, $19,959.

52 weeks and 45 weeks.

The Wayne City Auditorium is getting improvements and will get more. A furnace is in use for the first time, a new sound system has been authorized and a larger hot water heater will be installed.

It has been seven months since a furnace has been used. The new one was ready to go Thursday and the council will have automatic controls put in so separate areas (Woman's Club Room offices, gym, dressing room, etc.) can be heated by their own controls instead of one control regulating heat in all the building at once. It is thought enough money will be saved in heat in a short time to pay for the extra controls.

Telesound, Omaha, will put in a new sound system for the auditorium. It was awarded a contract for $1,964.76 for the job.

The present water heater used for showers in the auditorium is leaky so it will be replaced. A 100-gallon unit will take the place of the present 65-gallon water heater.

Mayor William Koeber named himself, Dr. Lyle Seymour, Don Wittig and John Addison on a committee to investigate unsanitary and hazardous conditions near the city. A report will be made at the next meeting of the board.

Ivan Beeks, who has the contract to haul garbage, is seeking permission to charge higher rates. The rates, controlled by ordinance, have not raised in six years but his costs have gone up. This too is to be studied and a report made at the next regular meeting.

Building permits included: Orin Peterson, 719 Lincoln, remodel basement and build additional garage; Milo Meyer, construct concrete block shop and storage building on Sorensen Industrial Plot east of Wayne;

Otte Construction Co., build concrete block shop and office building on Sorensen Industrial Plot east of Wayne; David Theophilus, 608 Main, garage; and Wayne Greenhouse, lighted sign no bigger than 10 square feet.

Missouri Synod Lutheran Pastors Hold North Central Study Conference Here

There were 29 area pastors of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, and one lay worker registered at the North Central Pastoral Conference at Grace Lutheran Church, Oct. 17-18. The North Central Conference includes 10 counties near the northern border of Nebraska, a small sector of Madison County and two congregations in Cherry County.

Purpose of the 2-day meeting was in-service study, which included scripture interpretation, application of Biblical principles to present-day social and family problems, information from administrative officers and worship. In alternate years when there is no district convention comprising both lay and clergy representative from every congregation, two one-day area pastoral conferences are held in the spring and the fall. In addition, there is a district wide study conference for pastors each year, and monthly half-day circuit conferences.

Rev. Walter Buss, Pierce, served as chairman of the conference. Secretary is Pastor James Johnson, Orchard. Members of the program committee were Rev. Raymond Albrecht and Rev. Albert Gode, Wakefield, and Rev. E. J. Bernthal, Wayne. Pastor Paul Dorr, Valentine, was conference chaplain.

A communion service was held Monday evening at which Rev. Alvin Bruenger, pastor of Trinity Lutheran, Madison, preached the sermon. Rev. Bernthal, host pastor, was officiant. The district office of the Northern Nebraska District of the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod was represented by Rev. Walter Barth, Omaha, executive secretary, Monday, and by District President Frederick Niedner, West Point, Tuesday. Rev. Paul Laabs, Protestant chaplain at Norfolk State Hospital and Norfolk General Hospital, represented that area of the church's ministry, while Rev. Edgar Fosse, Grand Island, spoke in behalf of social welfare work conducted through Lutheran Family Service. Matters pertaining to the proposed synod-wide 1967 "Ebenezer Birthday Thanksgiving" were presented by Pastor James Schmidt, pastor of Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church, Ralston.

A tour of Wayne State campus was arranged Tuesday noon. Meals were served by the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Lutheran. Members of the congregation provided housing for visiting pastors.

Conference officers and members of the program committee were re-elected to serve another term. Next North Central regional conference is to be at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Chambers.

"Attendants at last week's conference were long on praise of the adequate and convenient facilities of Grace Lutheran for such a meeting, and appreciative of the hospitality shown them by Wayne people," Pastor Bernthal said.

Dixon County Group Holds Last Session

The last quarterly meeting of the 1966 Dixon County Home Extension Council was held at Northeast Station, Concord, Oct. 10 with 11 clubs represented and Anna Marie Kriefels and Myrtle Anderson among those present.

Dixon County's achievement day Oct. 14 at Allen High School was discussed. Featured speech arranged for was "Lecture—What is E?" by Mrs. Clara Leopold.

Members were reminded that the tuberculosis association's mobile unit will be in Dixon County in November. Residents will be urged to take advantage of the free service of the unit.

County goals for 1967 are: Take all leader-training lessons; remember shut-ins; support state centennial by reading books by Nebraska authors and cooperating with centennial committees; encourage 100 per cent voting; and promote education on tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases.

The handicraft lesson in the fall will be the same as last year. Members with 25 or more years in extension work will be recognized at the annual meeting in January.

Plenty of Testing Going on at School

Pupils at Wayne schools have been experiencing plenty of testing recently. In addition to the regular tests in class, they have been scheduled for three other major test programs.

All the freshmen took the Iowa Test of Educational Development Wednesday and Thursday of last week. This testing took place at the Wayne City Auditorium.

Science Research Achievement tests are being given in the elementary schools. The SRA tests will be taken by everyone in grades two through eight before that test program is over.

Ken Deisser, also will give tests to juniors who volunteer to take it. Called PSAT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test), it will be given this coming Saturday in the WHS library.

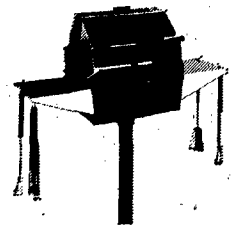

Those taking it will be Rocci Marr, Cindy Swiney, Janice Giese, Cyndee Keratine, Doug Ritske, Cindy Meyer, Rose Headlee, Pearl Hansen, Marilyn Stokas, Debbie Armbruster, Jo Merriman, Bob Penn, Mary Jo Cook, Steve Carman, Doug Danielson, Ann Preston, Lynn Preston, Ann Baier, Mary Sherry and Deloris Bull.

The tests themselves last two hours. An additional half hour of instruction is needed before tests start.

There's a Gas Light style for every home design, back yard, front yard, patio and drive.

There's a complete variety of styles to choose from; one of them's bound to look beautiful in your yard. Best of all, you can buy one now for as little as $1 per month on your gas bill. Pick the one you like now and call your local gas company.

Connie's Column by Constance Thorne. Includes a small illustration of a girl and text about a column.

DE-WAXING FACT. Ready to shine up tables for the coming holiday season? Shake up one quart warm water with one tablespoon turpentine and one tablespoon olive oil. Swirl a soft cloth in it, wring out and rub briskly till surface is clear. Dry the conditioned wood, then apply a very light coat of paste wax. Shine till it gleams! Isn't that pretty and new-looking?

STITCHING SHINY STUFF. Fascinated by the new vinyl fabrics? Make yourself a raincoat or poncho! Don't pin on the pattern; tape it instead. Choose a raglan-sleeve style for far-easier assembly. Slip tissue paper under the shiny side while stitching; it'll tear out easily afterward. Two more tips to remember: use transparent thread if you choose transparent vinyl! And never, never try to iron this fabric. Smooth it with your fingers as you sew.

WARMER WINTERTIME. Your gas heating specialists remind you: now's the time to winterproof your home! If you're short a storm window or two, staple several thicknesses of plastic film around the frame and staple a narrow wood batten over the edges. Calk cracks around windows, door frames, outside faucets and foundations. If you don't use your fireplace, cover the opening with plywood and paint a pretty design on it. And if you don't have a gas heating system, don't waste a moment! Phone your local gas company or gas heating specialist now.

Connie's Column. If some little somebody is tired of her s a n d b o x, here's a way to steer her outside again. Combine 2 cups of any sudsing detergent with one-fourth to one-half cup water (just enough to make it beatable). Turn your mixer to "high speed", and lookie—you'd think you were making an angel cake! Send your young angel outside with the frothy mixture. She'll turn out frosted mudpies till the sun goes down.

why don't you tell the whole story, Governor?

The Charge:

GOVERNOR MORRISON accused Carl Curtis of voting against soil conservation and Federal aid for hospital construction.

THE FACTS:

Carl Curtis has been a leader in pushing legislation for soil conservation. He sponsored the Pick-Sloan plan to develop the Missouri River, tax benefits for conservation practices on the farm, small watershed programs and many others.

Carl Curtis has dedicated himself to improvement of hospitals in Nebraska. He has worked for funds to finance this program and has helped to cut the red tape in Washington. In his twelve years in the Senate, he has voted for and supported funds in the amount of 1 billion, 382.8 million dollars to build hospitals in Nebraska and the nation.

In his twelve years in the Senate, Carl Curtis voted:

Once in 1959 to cut funds to give free limestone to tobacco farmers.

Once in 1959 to cut funds for a hospital program because President Eisenhower stated that the larger amount was more than could be worked into the program.

Both of these votes were a public record for all to see when he was re-elected to the Senate in 1960. These are common sense votes - not votes against programs for hospitalization and soil conservation programs which Carl Curtis has always supported.

NINE TONS of cement had to be cleared out in a ditch between Carroll and Wayne last of this concrete mixing truck after it overturned week.

Nine Tons Cement in Ditch After Mishap

A truck loaded with 18,000 pounds of cement overturned in a ditch Friday. Wayne firemen were called to wash out the cement before it could harden into concrete.

Jackie Bumgardner, Norfolk, was driving a mixer truck for a Norfolk concrete company. He was northbound on a county road six miles west and 1.2 miles north from Wayne. He came upon a tractor and portable feed mixer stopped on the road. Bumgardner slowed down to pass and was just barely moving by the tractor and mixer when the left shoulder of the road gave way, letting the truck tip onto its left side in the ditch. Bumgardner was uninjured and the extent of the damage to the truck was not known. Deputy Sheriff S. C. Thompson investigated.

On Main Street in the 400 block Oct. 22, William Anderson, Wausa, was southbound. The right front of his car hit the left rear of a parked car belonging to Steven Owens, Wayne. Officer John Redel investigated.

Youthful Auctioneer Goes Into Action Friday for Dixon Community Fund

Nebraska's youngest auctioneer, Jim Thompson-Col. Jim Thompson, that is — will help raise money for Dixon's annual August 15 celebration this coming Friday. The Dixon lad will be auctioneer for a community auction sale at the Dixon Auditorium.

The sale was purposely scheduled Friday night because earlier the same evening the Dixon JYF will have a pancake feed at the auditorium. It is hoped the two events will serve to attract a larger group for both events.

Dixon Community Association made plans for the sale at the meeting last week. They will accept donations of all types and by the time the 7 p.m. sale rolls around they expect to have a little bit of everything to auction off.

Eggs, cream, baked goods, white elephants and an assortment of farm and household items will be offered to the highest bidder. Col. Thompson is donating his services.

All money realized will go to help pay the expenses of the Aug. 15 celebration this coming year in Dixon. Everyone is invited to come and buy, come and sell or come and buy and sell. MYF members will start serving at 5 and expect to have their feed over by the time the sale starts. They will use their profits to pay for camping and other activities.

Steer's Leg Broken

When Struck by Car

A steer belonging to Fred Liedman, Carroll, had to be killed Thursday after it was struck by a car. The steer came up out of a ditch and was struck by a car driven by Marlin Leitling, Randolph.

Leitling was westbound on a county road 2.3 miles west of Carroll. The steer came onto the road and was struck before the vehicle could be stopped. The left hind leg of the steer was broken.

Deputy Sheriff S. C. Thompson investigated. He reported $200 damage to the Leitling car. The steer was worth about $200. Leitling was uninjured.

Veterans to Certify Attendance Monthly

Chris Bargholz points out that after the first month of college, veterans attending school under the new GI Bill must certify their attendance each month. Cards for this purpose are sent with the first month's check.

According to Bargholz, Wayne County veterans service officer, the rate of allowance is computed at the rate of the established charges for tuitions and fees or at $100 a month for a full-time course, whichever ever is the lesser.

One certification card for a veteran when a course is completed already. Otherwise, a card must be completed and submitted for each month of training.

He also added the schools eligible for accepting students under the new GI Bill are approved by the state and the VA does not have a full list of such schools. VA counselors are available for helping selecting courses and training for those vets who want to use the GI Bill but do not know what education they want.

Disability Benefits Available to Many

Wayne County residents covered by social security (as well as all other US residents covered) can get disability benefits if they are temporarily disabled for at least 12 consecutive months, according to R.L. Pelkey, manager of the SSA office, Norfolk.

The new rule takes care of those who will eventually be able to return to work. Before, benefits were available only to those who appeared to have little chance of working again. If disabled 12 months in a row or if a doctor advises it will be 12 months or more before he can return to work, a worker may qualify for disability benefits. They can be paid until he is able to return to work.

Degree of impairment is unchanged. Those covered must have worked under social security five out of the last ten years. Further information can be secured from the Norfolk office or by writing Social Security Administration, Box 884, Norfolk, Nebr. 68701.

District Court Has Light Session Here

Wayne County District Court was in session Thursday. Only one case was settled as a small number of cases were acted upon.

Jo Ann Thompson was granted a divorce from Gene Thompson. She was also granted the right to restore her maiden name, Gerlemann, and a settlement of property was ordered.

Judge Fay Pollock presided. Some cases were moved forward for further action and some new cases were filed, according to John T. Bressler, jr., clerk of the district court.

Policemen Get Calls

Wayne policemen were called for many investigations the past week, including five accidents. Larceny was reported by an auto firm, two wheels and two tires being taken from a car on the company's lot. Someone shot through the north side of a soft ice cream stand on Seventh and a WSC student reported his car had been hit by another vehicle, the driver of the other vehicle leaving the scene. Helwas not found. Other complaints concerned a dog running loose every night and a billfold reported lost (later turned in by an honest finder). Routine patrol and checking activities were also carried out.

LYNN ZIMMERMAN, South Sioux City, was crowned queen of WSC's homecoming Thursday. Chosen by vote of the student body from seven finalists, she is a senior majoring in elementary education, a member of the honorary fraternities English and education, captain of the cheerleaders. She is a graduate of Laurel High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zimmerman, South Sioux City. (WSC Photo)

Lynn Zimmerman WS Queen; Weather Fails to Ruin Homecoming Features

It takes more than miserable weather to ruin Wayne State's homecoming. Although a Friday night snow and windstorm cancelled the Saturday morning parade, other events proceeded with cheering results.

Wayne's football team vanquished Peru State, 12-0, as reported in the Herald's sports section. The Saturday night ball, with Guy Lombardo and the Royal Canadians playing, drew the largest dancing crowd in years—including several hundred townsfolk who obviously liked the Lombardo style

Delta, third.

In campus display judging, Terrace Hall won another first in the dormitory class; Berry Hall was second, Neihardt Hall third. In the organization class, Wesley Club was first, Colhecon second, Sigma Tau Delta third.

Freshman skit competition gave Anderson Hall first place, Bowen Hall men second, and Neihardt Hall third.

Finally, the sweepstakes trophy for over-all performance in the contests went to Terrace Hall.

The W Club, at a Saturday lunch, presented its annual award to an athletic alumnus—a W Club blanket to Joe Munsinger of Malvern, Ia., a fullback on the 1916 team. Munsinger, a Wayne High graduate, recalled that his father, Myron, owned a farm now partly occupied by the college campus.

Cancellation of the parade was a major disappointment in that poet John G. Neihardt could not fulfill his main role in homecoming, serving as grand marshal of the parade. He did attend the Wayne State Foundation trustees lunch Friday and visited people and places on the campus where he was a student in the late 1890's.

Disappointing also was the fact that Homecoming Queen Lynn Zimmerman could not ride the Morey Hall float designed especially for her. A brilliant colored replica of a riverboat, the float bore the name "Queen Lynn."

But Miss Zimmerman was able to reign over the entire homecoming following her coronation Thursday night. She is a senior from South Sioux City, an elementary education major, captain of the cheerleaders, member of the honorary fraternities in English and education, and a counselor at Pile Hall.

Pupils Register for School Merit Testing

Pupils at Winside and Wayne High Schools who expect to complete their secondary school requirements and enter college in 1968 can register now to take part in the 1967-68 National Merit Scholarship Program.

Dan Cahill and Ken Deissler, guidance counselors at Winside and Wayne respectively, reveal that the first step is to take the qualifying test which will be given in all schools in February.

Pupils will be competing for Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1968. They can also gain information that will be helpful in planning future education and careers.

With NMSQT scores, each pupil gets a handbook to help him evaluate his personal score, compare it with that of other pupils and give information on choosing a college and financing his education.

Highest scoring pupils in each state will be semifinalists and will be eligible for scholarship consideration. In addition, more than 350 groups offer scholarships through the program.

Seat Belts Save Man from Injury

Lyle Samuelson, 25, Wayne, has long believed in wearing seat belts when driving his car. Oct. 16 he was in an accident in which he received minor injuries but which could have resulted in major injuries or even death.

The local man was west-bound on Highway 35 at 3:45 with the sun hanging low in the west. Ahead of him, Jerome Stork, 23, Jackson, stopped his car. Samuelson was unable to see the car in order to swerve or stop. The resulting impact left the Stork car a total wreck and damage of from $1,500 to $2,000 to the local vehicle.

Stork was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, Sioux City, where he was treated and released. He suffered minor bruises and lacerations.

Seat belts kept Samuelson from being thrown through the windshield of his front-wheel drive car. However, he did suffer facial lacerations and a sore neck.

Trooper Kenneth Buoy, Nebraska Safety Patrol, investigated the accident one-half mile west of Hubbard. He agreed that seat belts deserved credit for saving Samuelson from serious injury.

WHAT'S THIS? You thought football was a man's game? You should have seen a couple of co-ed teams at Wayne State playing flag football Sunday afternoon in what was billed as a "powder puff game." Well sir, the Green Babes and the Hustlers may have done some puffing, but no powdering, as they played for real — and took some rough knocks enroute to a 12-12 tie. A sizable crowd cheered lustily, led by several varsity athletes.

Dr. Sosa President

Dr. Rafael Sosa, Wayne State College, was elected president of the American Association of Spanish and Portuguese, Nebraska Chapter, at the annual meeting at Nebraska Wesleyan, Lincoln, Oct. 15. Discussion centered around the motivation of high school student practical and cultural objectives. Committees were appointed by Dr. Sosa, who will be president for a two-year term.

Attend Dairy Meeting

Four area residents were among those attending a two-day dairy fieldmen's conference Oct. 13-14 in Lincoln. It was sponsored by the NU department of dairy science to discuss latest developments in the dairying field. Edward Niemann, Winside, Roy Daugherty, Pierce, and Galen Hartman and Fred Madsen, Laurel, were in attendance from this section of the state.

Entrants must fill out application blanks including a questionnaire on their thoughts concerning responsibilities of a young American citizen. Recipients of scholarships will be selected on the basis of their sense of purpose and worthiness as individuals.

Mar. 15, 1967, is the deadline date for entries. Applications may be obtained from the local Auxiliary or by writing: National Scholarship Program, VFW Auxiliary, 406 West 34th St., Kansas City, Mo. 64111.

Winners will be selected from each of the 50 states. First place nationally will be $1,000 scholarship and gold medal; second, $500 scholarship and gold medal; third, $250 scholarship and gold medal; and honorable mention, 10 citations.

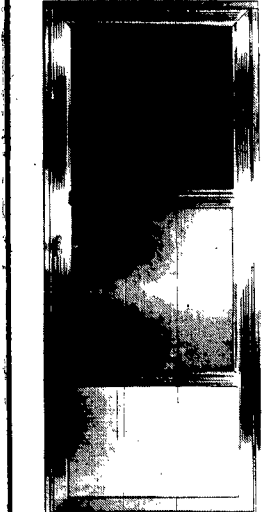

TERRACE HALL merited a first for this campus display in the WSC homecoming contest. In foreground is a Bobcat, the Peru State symbol, being roasted in front of a teepee. With first place in both the display and float contests, Terrace claimed the homecoming sweepstakes trophy.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

Sensation of the Nation

How could Wayne County get some nationwide publicity, good, not bad? At the present moment there might be a way within the next 1 1/2 weeks to work out a deal whereby this county could get nationwide recognition of a type that would not hurt a bit.

This could be done by you, and you. It could be done by setting a voting record. Maybe it is too late to start a campaign, but it should be tried anyway, just in case it is not too late. Every person of voting age in the county should be urged to vote.

Farmers should take time off from field work, merchants should make sure they and their employees get to the polls, those unable to get to the voting sites should have ballots brought to them. Everything possible should be done to insure a complete turnout of voters.

If Wayne County could hit 80, 85 or even 90 per cent of the eligible voters showing up to cast ballots Nov. 8, it might draw attention this way. What's more, it might help establish a trend for others to do the same.

It's a privilege to be allowed to vote. How about using it!—CEG.

A Few Remembered

Information coming in after last week's Herald was out reveals that some veterans (less than half a dozen) have remembered LaPorte Cemetery most years and the faded flags were not as old as they might appear.

This does not alter the situation. In fact, even though a faded flag on a grave might indicate respect for the deceased, it also tends to show a lack of respect for the living.

The fact remains that LaPorte Cemetery is a disgrace to Wayne County. If it is to be abandoned, let it be removed from the face of the earth by hauling away the stones, removing the fences, tearing out the brush and let it grow up as just another grove of trees.

If it is to be left where it is, let it merit some attention. Let it be a memorial as cemeteries are supposed to be. Let it be a credit to the history of the area and not a blot on the conscience of all of us.

LaPorte Cemetery should not die. It should become a pleasant place to drive by, to stop in or to show as a historical site.

Who is going to take the first step to do something about it?—CEG.

Nebraska Voters will Face 17 Proposals on Ballot

LINCOLN -- Nebraska's Constitution has been variously described as a legal hodge-podge of baffling patchwork, a makeshift document and an antiquated guideline.

These dubious identifications notwithstanding, it has been the cornerstone of the state's progress for 91 years—since it was adopted in 1875.

Through the years, the people have deemed certain changes were necessary. Sometimes this was done through the referendum procedure; sometimes through an initiative campaign. Most of the time the initial action was started by the Legislature, which is empowered to place before the electorate constitutional propositions.

This year, the voters face no less than 17 proposals, 15 of which were placed on the ballot by the Legislature. Last week this column explained the first eight amendments. Here are the remainder:

Amendment No. 9—This would bar a governor from running for more than two consecutive four-year terms. Thus, a person could serve eight consecutive years as governor but would then have to wait four years before seeking the office again. If a person came to office originally from the lieutenant governorship upon the death, resignation or disability of the governor, he could serve the remainder of that term plus two elected four-year terms. Proponents of this amendment have pointed out that the governorship is the highest honor Nebraskans can bestow upon an elected official and that the proposal would provide for a reasonable relation in the office without limiting any governor to a period so short he could not develop and carry out his program. The measure was placed on the ballot by a 38-10 vote, with one senator not voting.

Amendment No. 10—This would permit the Legislature to cancel taxes levied against real estate owned or acquired by state government and its subdivisions. This proposition grew out of a 1964 study of small communities. It was noted that in many small towns, old age assistance liens are filed on the properties of recipients. Eventually the property comes into possession of the county but the amount of taxes due exceeds the value of the property. This amendment would allow the county to sell the property, apply the proceeds to the taxes due and cancel the balance of taxes unpaid. This would enable a purchaser to receive a good title to the property which, in turn, would lead to better prices being offered for it. The vote in the 1965 Legislature on this amendment was 48-0, with one not voting.

You may not agree with an editorial—but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Iowa Has Good Idea

An Iowa man has come up with an idea that is worth considering in Nebraska. Wayne County residents should be interested.

The Iowa man proposes that farmers give up the refund they get from the state on gasoline purchased for use on the farm. He would have the money turned over to the counties for road-building instead.

Now some of you farmers use a lot of gasoline in tractors and trucks and you probably do not like the idea of giving that refund up. However, you would be willing to give it up for five years or so if it meant good surfaced farm-to-market roads, wouldn't you?

Wayne County needs surfaced roads. The towns could benefit and the farmers could benefit. Savings on tires, wear and tear on cars, speedier trips to town and back, safer routes for school buses and families and many other advantages could be cited.

This idea is worth promoting. Some are reluctant to give the idea impetus because it sounds as if the load will be on the farmers. Nevertheless, farmers use the roads most and they would benefit most. Coupled with money coming from other sources for the county (and coming from all taxpayers), the refund system change might be the solution to the problem of how to get decent surfaced farm roads in this county and in other counties.—CEG.

How Has Good Idea

Amendment No. 14—This amendment also has a two-part effect even though it appears singularly on the ballot. It would provide that at least 20 percent of the proceeds from any state income or sales tax would go to support of public schools (state aid to schools) and also permit the Legislature to levy a state property tax for building purposes only. The second part conflicts with the initiative petition measure that would abolish the property tax entirely. State tax officials say they are aware of the conflict. They say whichever proposition gets the largest vote will be the one that prevails. The vote was 34-12, three not voting.

Amendment No. 15—This would exempt life insurance and life insurance annuity contracts and any rights to pension or retirement payments from the intangible property tax. The constitution now provides that no property shall be exempt from taxation except as provided in the constitution. A 1964 amendment authorized the Legislature to exempt intangible property held for the purpose of funding pension, profit-sharing or employee benefit plans. However, sponsors said this was not broad enough to include those individuals not covered by an employee benefit plan or pension funds but who provided their own retirement funds by the purchase of life insurance annuity contracts. The vote on this proposal was 38-5, with six senators not voting.

Amendment No. 12—This is a two-part proposition. The first and major section would permit the Legislature to invest money obtained by the sale of school lands in non-government bonds and securities. The constitution now demands that this money can only be placed in government securities, which bring a lower rate of interest generally than private securities. The second part of the amendment also has the basic purpose of authorizing the Legislature to undertake a broader and more diverse investment program for surplus state funds. It, in effect, would do for all state funds what the first section would do for the school land funds. The 1965 vote to put this amendment on the ballot was 42-0, with seven senators not voting.

Amendment No. 13—This is another double-barrel proposition. The first part would permit the Legislature to reapportion itself after every Federal decennial census instead of every 10 years as is now written into the constitution. The basic reason for this proposed change is that the Legislature realized it lands before distributing any income that might accrue from this property. The amendment grew out of the decision of the 1965 Legislature to sell all school lands. Proponents felt that the amendment would relax somewhat the burden on the taxpayers without at the same time unduly depleting the funds available for distribution to the public schools. All income from the school lands is returned to the schools on a per pupil basis. The vote to place this amendment on the ballot was 39-3, with seven senators not voting.

Commerce Secretary John Connor should take steps immediately to remove export quotas on cattle hides.

This is the least that the Administration can do to relieve the price squeeze on farmers and ranchers. A sharp increase in meat imports in the United States has put cattle producers in a vise.

Senator Roman Hruska (Rep-Nebr) has called attention very clearly to the serious problem of meat imports. He told the Senate that the escalation clause in the import quota law enacted in 1964 to control the amount of beef being shipped into the United States from foreign countries has proved to be a large loophole.

He pointed out that meat imports in August totaled 87,100,000 pounds, an increase of 45 percent over the same month last year. From January through August, there has been a 40 percent hike over the same eight-month period in 1965.

To the detriment of the livestock industry, a decline in cattle prices has accompanied the increase in meat imports.

Senator Hruska and I battled against the escalation loophole when the meat import quota law was passed. Our position was upheld initially by the Senate, but the State Department succeeded in watering down the import quota bill in the Conference Committee.

Our position has been justified by the events of recent months. The price drop has been serious enough to cause sizeable losses for the cattle feeding industry.

This development, coupled with the totally unjustified hide export limits slapped on the cattle industry by the Administration earlier this year is too much. The hide export quotas caused a drop in cattle prices of $3 to $5 a head, according to the best estimates I have been able to obtain.

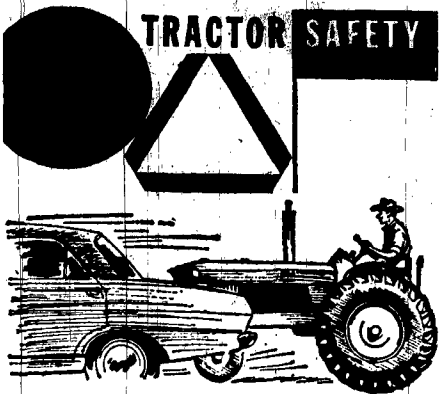

Action to eliminate the harm done by the combination of hide export restrictions and the beef import loophole is overdue. The hide limits were intended to hold down the price of shoes and leather goods, but that has not been done at all. Had the Administration checked with the industry before making its decision on this matter, it would have learned the reason.

Most of the hides being shipped out of the United States are not the type used by the domestic shoe and leather goods industry. They are heavy hides of a type which are in surplus in the United States.

After the limits were imposed, responsible persons in the hide industry told me that hides slated to be shipped out of the United States were piling up in warehouses. This is an economic waste, and it has worked a hardship on the livestock industry as well as the economy of Nebraska.

The only logical reason for the action taken by the Administration was window dressing to give the impression it was a step to combat inflation.

The hide export limits can be removed by administrative action. It will be next year before the Congress can take action to tighten the meat import quota law.

High-speed cars and slow-speed tractors together on highways present a dangerous situation that requires extra care and caution.

Senator Hruska has said a change in the import law to eliminate the loophole would seem to be in order. I agree wholeheartedly with this point of view.

The quota law supposedly restricts meat imports 725 million pounds a year, but the escalation clause allows the figure to reach 979 million pounds before import quotas would go into effect.

A month ago the Department of Agriculture estimated 1966 imports will reach about 800 million pounds. However, there is evidence now that the number will be higher. If the monthly figure for August were to become the average, the total would exceed one billion pounds per year.

Livestock producers simply cannot stand the squeeze.

Nebraska cornfields

Shelled corn losses can be determined by counting the number of kernels per square foot.

One and a half to two kernels per square foot is equivalent to a loss of one bushel of shelled corn per acre.

In fields with 40-inch rows, count the ears left between two rows for 133 feet (approximately 43 paces), to determine ear corn loss.

Each normal sized ear represents a loss of one bushel per acre.

Some guidelines in making decisions when and how to pick:

—Harvesting losses are highest when corn is picked and put in the crib as ear corn.

—Losses, both ear and shelled corn, increase as corn gets drier.

When early maturing corn hits 26 to 27 per cent moisture, farmers with dryers should begin harvesting.

—In instances where farmers are set up for storing high moisture shelled corn, harvesting can start when corn is at 30 per cent moisture.

Dear Editor:

In answer to your editorial in the Herald of Oct. 20, I would like to express my interest in hearing a communist speaker. Even though I have no intention whatsoever of joining the communist party, I still feel the college student could benefit from hearing the communist view from someone who can enthusiastically present his views. We, as American students have heard a great deal of propaganda—we have heard only one side of the question, I would like to ask the question: How can anyone effectively fight an ideal, or an attitude and its effects, without being aware of what the opposition has to say? You must know your opponent, know his ideals and his tactics before you can even begin to fight.

When a group of people who have contradictory beliefs come together, it is a rare occurrence when one group converts the other simply by presenting its beliefs. Would a follower of the Islam faith be able to convert a group of Christian students simply by describing and explaining his beliefs? Would a Republican speaker at a Democratic convention convince the Democrats to vote the Republican ticket?

You stated that there is a difference between a convict and a communist. Well, there is a lot of difference—a whole of a lot of difference—between a sexual maniac and a communist, too! A sexual maniac has no beliefs; he is mentally ill. Perhaps you feel that communism is a mental illness, too. If so, you certainly must agree that it cannot be dealt with by hiding our heads in the sand and ignoring it. You must be informed.

The college student, on the average, is probably as informed and as appreciative of his nation and his freedom as any citizen of the United States can be. Why shelter him from the political ideals which differ from his own? If you, Mr. Editor, are afraid that an hour lecture on the advantages of communism would shake the students' beliefs in Democracy, then you don't know the average American student very well. And if such a speaker were able to shake these beliefs; we had better take a long look at our own political system.

Dear Editor:

I found your editorial in the Oct. 20, edition of the "Wayne Herald" rather amusing, as did most students who read it. Our amusement died, however, when we reached your statement concerning the fundamentals of American democracy that were "worth fighting for in 1776 and are just as alive and necessary in 1966." Sir, one of the fundamentals of American democracy which was guaranteed by the Bill of Rights is our cherished, but often prostituted, freedom of speech.

In your obvious disgust with the Communist doctrine, you have advocated one of their cherished devices—suppression of the thoughts and ideals of other men.

Possibly you have no faith in WSC students in the face of Communism. All of the WSC students that I know believe it or not, are loyal Americans. Try asking them sometime. There is one difference between us and you, and that is our lack of fear of another man's ideology, especially when it comes from the rostrum. Is it unpatriotic to accept the Bill of Rights as a valid instrument of American democracy and therefore to extend freedom of speech to everyone? The logic behind the comparison of sexual maniacs and dope fiends and communist speakers is quite weak. Sexual maniacs and dope fiends could possess a variety of beliefs. You compare emotionally and physically ill people with someone who happens to believe in a different political ideology than you do.

There is no reason, if our heritage of freedom is to be acknowledged as factual, that free people cannot listen. And in the same light, there is no reason why an ex-Communist, as you suggested, should not be permitted to speak to WSC students. Neither are there reasons why members of the John Birch Society, the American Nazi Party, or the D.A.R. could not speak on the Wayne campus. Is it asking too much that we as free students in a free society enjoy free inquiry?

Sincerely,
George Tubbs

Dear Editor:

I never thought this Reader would ever write the editor, but after what I've seen with my own eyes this past week, I'm inspired to write it down.

As you know, Saturday was the first day of pleasant season. As I came to work early, here is what I saw before I could cross the street to the cafe: One man fired his shotgun on Main Street; two cars made u-turns in front of a "No U-Turn" sign; one car drove in an alley and backed out—he was going south, turned in the alley and headed north. Understand that a friend that this same act could cost him $15; two other cars went through town at 50 mph or more.

I grant you the police would have had to be on the spot because all of this happened within five minutes, but the main reason for writing is: All those cars were from out-of-town. Not too long ago I saw a woman from the Wayne area park her car and go into a store. Her car bumper was four to six inches over the line. A policeman walked by and gave her a ticket. Does this seem right?

The cafes add extra help on the opening day of pleasant season. Couldn't the police do the same? In closing, I'd like to suggest that the lines on Main Street when repainted be extended into the street so you can see them without getting out of your car. This would help very much—and also it would save a few illegal parking tickets.

Yours truly,
Wayne Employee

Dear Editor:

Your editorial of October 20 entitled "Who Wants the Communists?" presents an attitude which I cannot conscientiously allow to go unchallenged. One of the strangest paradoxes that I have yet observed is that in America those who would attack freedom nearly always do so in the name of freedom. Your remarks in this editorial make it obvious that you are under the impression that you really believe in freedom. And yet it is equally obvious that, in fact, you desire freedom only for those who believe as you do. You imply that we should allow Wayne State students to hear people speak against crime, alcoholism, dope addiction, and communism, but that we should carefully shield them from seeing a real live communist or alcoholic, lest they should come to understand instead of blindly hating, lest they should learn how their opponent thinks and how to oppose him intelligently instead of continuing to accept the myth that he has horns and a tail and is uncompromisingly, irredeemably evil. This attitude of yours, sir, belongs to the Dark Ages, where it should have been buried. But unfortunately it survives, it is lamentably widespread, and is the chief reason why the world today is divided into two armed camps who glare at each other like two hungry dogs with only one bone.

A century ago a very wise Englishman named John Stuart Mill considered the problem of whether we ought to suppress opinions which we feel are wrong. In his brilliant essay On Liberty (which I strongly recommend to your perusal) Mill concluded that no opinion should ever be suppressed. In the first place, the opinion that we suppress might be correct, and if we suppress it we lose the opportunity of exchanging error for truth. (For example, the very democracy which we now value so highly was once opposed by intelligent men who felt every bit as righteous as you do now.) On the other hand, Mill argues, the opinion which we want to suppress may be wrong (as is clearly the case with communism, I am convinced). Even so, if we suppress that opinion and do not allow it to be heard, we lose what is almost as valuable as truth itself: the privilege of defending truth against error and thus coming to a new and deeper understanding of the truth ourselves. We lose the privilege of holding our own truth as living truth instead of dead dogma.

Another very objectionable thing about your editorial is that it reveals such contempt for the intelligence of college students. You seem to think that, despite being brought up in America surrounded by the benefits of democracy, our students are so stupid and naive that if they heard one speech by a communist lecturer they would be converted on the spot—that they are so unlearned that they would not notice the flaws in his logic, the inaccuracies in the tricks of his rhetoric. Believe it or not, Mr. Editor, the truth is powerful. The truth can prevail. Truth has nothing to fear in a fair fight with error. It is not a delicate flower that can survive only if there are no weeds. You do not have to be your brother's keeper in matters of the mind, because in most cases your brother, even if he be younger than you, has sense enough to be his own keeper.

Needless to say, I am not a communist. I believe in freedom. I even believe (though you may perhaps not agree) that another man ought to be free to be a communist if he wants to. And I am not afraid that listening to him will put my own freedom in danger. There is a much greater likelihood that I will convert him, as is amply demonstrated by the swarms of refugees flooding into free Europe daily from the East. (Very few, it seems, have been deceived by the communist line into fleeing in the opposite direction.)

I heard a communist speak once. His name was Peter Vassilev, and he was a cultural attaché to the Bulgarian Embassy in Washington, D.C. He was a devoted and sincere communist. From his remarks I got a better understanding of the ideas and attitudes of the other side than I could have gained by reading a dozen blindly vicious anti-communist tracts. But I was not converted. Neither was anyone else who listened. If anything, our convictions were strengthened. As a matter of fact, Vassilev was one of the least dangerous men I ever saw. He simply could not communicate with an audience bred in a tradition of freedom. A hundred Vassilevs are not so great a danger to freedom as one widely-circulated editorial that sanctimoniously demands that freedom of speech be allowed to extend only so far but no farther—to our supporters but not to our detractors.

In communist countries anti-communist speeches are not allowed. In America we do not allow pro-communist speeches, is it really meaningful to boast that we have more freedom of speech than they? If we adopt the methods of the enemy in an attempt to defeat him, will not any victory that we may achieve be hollow and meaningless?

Your attitude is too common, especially in times of national crisis. During a war, for example, it is always suggested that voices of dissent be silenced—which amounts to an admission that democracy won't work all the time, only some of the time. Supporters of such a view are apparently ignorant of the historical lesson that in every important war since 1700, victory has gone to the more truly democratic side.

I believe that democracy is always preferable to any substitute, however temporary or expedient. Allow a communist to speak and he will most likely disgrace himself and his cause, simply because the theories of the muddle-headed Karl Marx and his successors make no sense now more than when they were formulated. Refuse a communist the right to speak and you drive him underground where his influence is more dangerous, because more insidious—where his ideas have the lure of forbidden fruit (which the Book of Genesis assures us is often irresistible). Moreover, refuse him the right to speak and you lend support to the idea daily expounded by millions of enslaved people that America is not the land of freedom after all. I believe that it is, and I hope that it will remain so, but I often think with alarm that the dangers to freedom from its enemies are no greater than those from its misguided "friends."

Very sincerely yours,
Charles S. Curb

(We have seen in the name of "freedom" the youth of some areas corrupted in many ways. Newsstands are filled with pornography, movies are loaded with smut, dope use is increasing, crime is rising, communism is at a new high, perversion is "accepted" and other vices are condoned because not to condone them would be to deprive someone of a "right" or of "freedom.")

(How about the freedom of the people to protect themselves? Isn't there a right to protect the young from this slime until they are mature enough to cope with it? Sure, some students are ready but what about those who are not? (You were not converted to communism. Others with your were not. However, that is not important. The important thing is, SOME people at SOME such talks are converted. We were exposed to measles but did not get them. Should we feel that all should be exposed to them because we escaped?)

(There has to be a limit put on communism and corruption somewhere. We cannot continue to coddle criminals, communists and hoodlums endlessly. Where do we make a stand? When they are in our homes? Why not make a stand by keeping them off our state-owned tax-supported campuses? We have no obligation to provide a platform for them to preach their hate.

(If you have a daughter would you send her alone to a lecture to hear a prostitute extol the attractive side of her life? You probably would not, but if you did, you would want to prepare her in advance for what she might hear and prepare her to recognize the truth so she could come away unswayed.)

(We want to prepare our youth for what they may meet later. We do not want to bring in communist speakers or others of their ilk to speak to the unprepared. If YOU want to take some mature young people somewhere to hear a communist speaker, that is your privilege. We have never advocated taking away the right of a communist to talk even though the ultimate goal of communism is to overthrow our way of life. However, don't join that small group that clamors for everyone to be heard on anything anywhere. Whether you admit it or not, some college students are not ready. They like to feel they are ready, but they are not. You hold your horses a little. This generation will take care of itself in time and it won't take communist, nazi, or other such speakers on our campuses to do it. We see no need for bringing in communist speakers to our colleges and we fail to see where our stand would give anyone the idea we "favor freedom only for those who believe as we do."—Editor)

Dear Editor:

Your recent editorial "Who Wants the Communists?" was an example of thinking which is both muddle-headed and dangerous. The students brought up the question of having a communist speaker because they wish to see the "fundamentals" you so praised (without naming and apparently without understanding) in action. There is such a thing as freedom of speech; there is such a thing as freedom of opinion, and Mr. Greenlee, there is such a thing as freedom to learn. The students are only trying to exercise these freedoms—and if such things are not to ossify into little golden catchwords, they must be exercised. One of the most important things we can do for the student is to make him think, and another to illustrate that we mean what we say about freedom.

E. M. Forster said, "Two cheers for democracy—one because it allows variety and one because it allows criticism." If we allow variety of opinion or ideology to become a sin and criticism to become a crime, then we have made democracy into a smiling corpse.

It is the self-appointed censors with their righteous witch-hunting who make school boards and teachers run scared—scared to practice freedoms and to defend them when they are attacked for exercising them. You have pulled the word "communist" out of an editorial and waved it around like a red flag, when that was not the issue of the editorial at all. John F. Kennedy said that we must "make the world safe for diversity," and we might as well begin at home. So let us have all the speakers you have mentioned, sir, it would be fine, but let us have a communist, too. The young people I teach are a pretty level-headed lot; I trust they will not be swayed nor brain-washed by hearing a communist speak for an hour.

I have faith in them. You should, too. I hope they get their controversial speaker. And if they do, we cordially invite you to attend, and watch the democracy you think you are so fervently defending in action.

Sally McCluskey

(We ask you one question: If a Republican is brought here to speak, it is expected he will sway some opinions. If a Democrat is brought here to speak, it is expected he will sway some opinions. But, we are then to assume that if a Communist is brought here to speak, he will sway no opinions. Right? The most "advanced" schools in the country have been the ones that have cried the loudest not to abuse our "freedoms." Communists gladly hide behind this shield of freedom with true patriots, but their aim has never varied. We stand where we stood last week.—Editor)

We liked this story in Rev. Merlin Wright's Christian Church bulletin at Wakefield. Condensed, it amounted to a mother being asked by her teenage daughter if she could accompany girl friends to a movie that was "questionable" for kids. Her mother, busy preparing a meal, did not answer for a moment but reached into the scrap dish, pulled out some peeling, leaves, bones and steps and dumped them in the salad she was making. "Mother, you're putting garbage in the salad!" remarked the girl. "I know," the mother replied, "but I thought if you didn't mind garbage in your mind and heart you wouldn't care about a little in your stomach." The girl decided on her own against the movie.

You people who are going to have babies within the next few months are probably considering names already. If you plan to give your kid a "cute" name with a different spelling, you might as well plan on spending the rest of your life correcting the spelling. Same way with pronunciation. If it's spelled one way and pronounced another, people are going to say it the way it looks.

"Shirley" may be a good name but taken over the telephone it may come out "Shirley." If you choose "Joody Looeetz" for a name, expect it to come out "Judy Louise" in print. If you name a kid "Moron" and want it pronounced "Moor-own" don't be surprised if someone pronounces it as it looks. In other words, before you call your kid "Rikki" or "Pateee" or "Peri," try to envisage the thousands of times you and that kid will be correcting spelling. Someday we'll talk about names such as Charles which can end up Charlie, Charley, Chuck, Chick and Chas, or maybe about real people we know named Rusty and Curly Joe.

Teacher: "Jane, as part of our study of birds all over the world, tell us what you know about storks."

Jane: "Honestly teacher! You don't think I believe in storks do you?"

SASS

Which area town has the most addresses of other towns in its telephone listings? Wayne, Winside, Hoskins and Carroll each have five. The Dixon-Concord directory comes up with the most. In addition to those two towns, people with Dixon-Concord telephones have addresses out of Wakefield, Allen, Laurel, Newcastle and Wayne. Another useless bit of information we're glad to supply.

SASS

Saturday a small boy entered the bank and with an important air walked up and asked to have two cents withdrawn from his savings. Early Monday he reappeared and deposited the same two pennies.

"So you didn't spend your two cents?" observed the cashier.

"Oh, no," replied the lad, "but a fellow likes to have a little cash on hand over the weekend."

SASS

Before football season is over we would like to see the Winside and Wayne Pep Clubs start a trend toward better sportsmanship. If they start a yell and the opposing Pep Club starts one later, then Winside and Wayne should stop their yell. If the other clubs start first, then Winside and Wayne Pep Clubs should wait until the other club is through. This does not apply to the "hold that line" or "we want a touchdown" yelling but it does for "two bits, four bits" and other such short yells. Come on girls, help make good sportsmanship the rule rather than the exception in the area.

SASS

A teenager complained to a friend: "My dad wants me to have all the things he never had when he was a boy—including five straight A's on my report card."

SASS

Thanks for sending in jokes to those who did. More will be appreciated.

IT TAKES COURAGE TO BE A LEADER

- Who had the courage to fight for an income tax to relieve farmers' unfair taxation? PHIL SORENSON! His opponent spent over $66,000 in the primary and never would announce his stand. Now, when it's clear most Nebraskans seem to favor broadening the tax base, Phil's opponent says, "Me too!"
- Who had the courage to spell out in detail Nebraska's responsibilities to the state colleges, among them Wayne's, and to education on the elementary and secondary level? PHIL SORENSON. And Phil's opponent now says, "Me too," talking on one hand about spending much money for research and, on the other hand, about cutting down the expenses of state government. A neat trick, but pretty impossible!
