

Feed Grain Production* Will Go Up in County

Feed grain supply and demand are in near-perfect balance so Wayne County farmers and others in the nation will be able to increase feed grain production substantially under the 1967 feed grain program, according to John Mohr, chairman of the Wayne County ASCS.

Mohr pointed out that surpluses have gone since 1961 when acreage was cut. Prices are up, livestock production and prices are stabilized at reasonable levels and now only one-half as many acres need be diverted in 1967 as were diverted in 1966, he pointed out.

Added feed grain production will be needed to replace stocks used in the growing domestic and export markets before 1967's harvest. Supplies may be down to 30 million tons from 47 million tons a year from now.

The 1967 feed grain program will offer a higher loan rate, higher total

World Day This Week At St. Paul's

United Church Women of Wayne are planning a World Community Day observance Friday, Nov. 4, at 2 p.m. in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. All church women of the area are invited.

Pastor Robert Shirck of St. Paul's will be guest speaker. Special music will be a feature of the service.

Being held all over the world the same day will be similar services sponsored by the United Church Women. They will all have services on the theme, "Rights, Resources and Responsibilities."

Officers of Wayne UCW will be in charge locally. They are: Mrs. Charles Sieckman, president; Mrs. Mildred West, vice president; Mrs. Julia Haas, secretary; Mrs. Carlos Martin, treasurer; and Mrs. Armand Hiscox, reporter.

Pity the poor Wayne hunter who accidentally shot a hen pheasant. He saw what he did, threw the bird away and the well-trained dog with him returned it. He tried it again; the dog did it again. He couldn't keep that up all day so the hunter finally loaded the dog in the car and left the hen, halfway expecting the dog to jump out of the car when he got home and go back for the hen.

Another Wayne man who lives on the edge of town drove 20 miles to hunt. He had no luck, but when he arrived home his neighbors reported two cock pheasants had spent much of the morning on the hunter's front lawn.

Out on the Wayne Country Club course a foursome had just come in from a round of golf. One of the older golfers suddenly gasped as he placed his right hand over his heart. His startled companions thought he might be having a heart attack. He wasn't. He'd been carrying his lower plates in his shirt pocket and just discovered they were gone. (Later they were found, all teeth intact after being run over by a golf cart—and not a hole in one).

Some people do not know how to spell "letter." The new litter cans in Wayne have "Litter" plainly spelled out on the front, yet in a few weeks time a dozen letters have been deposited for mailing.

Cub Scouts at Dahl's

Den 7 of Cub Scout Pack 175 remembered the residents of Dahl's Retirement Center Monday night. They carved two pumpkins, put in dandles and took them to the center to present to guests. They also sang a Halloween song for the residents.

St. Mary's Pupils Work Improving LaPorte Plot

A group of youngsters in the seventh and eighth grades at St. Mary's Catholic School took a step towards reviving the LaPorte Cemetery Wednesday of last week. Without pay and strictly on their own, the children decided the project was a worthy one.

Sister Mary Grace teaches the civics club which is a member of the National Council of Catholic Civic Clubs sponsored by Catholic University, Washington, D. C. Out of a clear sky the youngsters asked her if they could go to the cemetery and do something to improve it.

"All I had to do was say yes," Sister Mary Grace explained. "The children wanted to go out and agreed to come to school early Wednesday in order to devote a full afternoon to the project."

Personal Taxes Due Treasurer

Your 1966 personal taxes are now due. County Treasurer Leona Bahde reports that the first half taxes will start drawing interest Dec. 1. This gives you a month in which to pay the first half before interest starts building up. State law sets the interest rate at 7 per cent on unpaid taxes. It will be helpful if taxpayers do not wait until the last few days of the month to remember this.

Winside Firemen Invite Everyone

You come to our dance... we'll come to your fire. That's the theme of Winside VFD members this week as they sell tickets to the fireman's ball.

Actually, the fireman will come to your fire even if you do not come to their dance. However, the only money-raising project they have is the dance each year and they sure appreciate support.

This year's dance will be held at King's Ballroom, Norfolk, Friday, Nov. 1. Tickets are being sold by all firemen for the dance featuring music by The Swing Kings. The tickets will also be sold at the door.

A TALKING PUMPKIN at the Dick Lesh home Monday night intrigued children coming for tricks or treats. Lesh sat where he could see outside and with a microphone greeted the children as they came. Ann Woodward is bending over looking into the pumpkin's face. David and Michael Shock are not getting quite so close.

Open House Tuesday at Wayne's Public Schools

You are invited to visit Northeast Elementary, West Elementary and Wayne High School Tuesday, Nov. 8, between the hours of 8 and 10 p.m. Open house will be held at all three buildings.

Supt. Francis Han reveals teachers will be in their classrooms during the open house. Student teachers in the Wayne schools will also be present. Parents and anyone else interested may attend.

Displays should be especially interesting. One is the new "Language Master." It is a mechanical device with listening stations.

Wayne High Vocal Music Concert to Be Thursday

A highlight of any fall is the vocal music concert put on by the choirs directed by Clayton Southwick of the Wayne Schools. Southwick is presenting his fall concert Thursday, Nov. 3, at 8:15 p.m. in the Wayne City Auditorium.

Free of charge, the concert is scheduled to allow people to attend the Silver Dollar Night Drawing. It is expected that people drawn for one will also be participating in the other.

The ninth grade choir of 58 voices, the senior high choir of 85 voices and the madrigal will sing. The madrigal is made up of a select group of vocalists from the schools.

Numbers to be presented will include a variety of songs from Broadway musicals, a collection of folk songs from many countries and other music of all types.

Drive for Concord's Swine Research Fund Starts Soon

Most Northeast Nebraska counties served by the University of Nebraska Northeast Station, Concord, will hold fund-raising drives Nov. 5-12 to provide for a six-unit swine research center at the station, according to Robert Fritschen, area swine specialist.

Gordon Nuernberger, Wakefield, is the Wayne County fund drive chairman. Pete Stewart and Warren Patefield, Laurel, and Don Arduser, Colebrook, head the drive in Cedar County. Dixon County may get a late start since the county agent has been out of the county.

Fritschen reports $38,000 has been received or allocated for the project. An additional $30,000 is needed before bids on the project can be advertised.

Milo Birkley, Hubbard, is a hog producer and heads the drive. He reports most hog producers recognize the need for the fund and are enthusiastic with the decision on the future of

Police Chief Named

Vern Fairchild, Wayne chief of police, received word Wednesday that he had been named on the legislative committee of the Police Officers Association of Nebraska. The committee will have several functions, one of which is to review bills concerning law enforcement brought before the unicameral in 1967. Fairchild was appointed by Chief of Police Merle Hesser, Beatrice, POAN president elected at the convention in Ogallala recently.

'Crucial' Meeting Set for Troop 175

Will Go From PTA

Wayne PTA will meet Tuesday, Nov. 8, at 7:30 p.m. Teachers will go to their rooms for open house at the three schools following the PTA session. The meeting topic will be "Books Our Children Use." Details on open house are in a separate article.

General Election Tuesday Offers Races, Amendments

Winside Pancake Feed Postponed

The free pancake feed at Winside originally scheduled for next Tuesday, Nov. 8, has been postponed. It will be held one week later.

With two precincts and the village of Winside voting in the Legion Hall and the Winside Auditorium, the feed had to be scheduled for the Fire Hall. However, it was decided the first of the week to move the event back in order to make use of auditorium facilities.

The free pancake feed with all the trimmings is now scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 15. Food will be served from 2 p.m. until 8 p.m. and everyone is welcome.

Wakefield Woman Misses Big Prize

A $250 check could have been the reward for shopping in Wayne for a Wakefield woman Thursday night. Because she was not here, she receives a consolation check for $10.

Meta M. Bartling's number was pulled out of the drum of numbers and her name was called at 8. She was not in any of the business places participating so no money was given. Because the Wakefield woman was not here, the prize goes up to $300 this Thursday. To be eligible, one must be registered at a sponsoring business place and be in one of the sponsoring business places in Wayne or near Wayne at 8 p.m. when the winner is revealed.

Loren Park Delegate

Loren Park, president of the Wayne County Education Association, will represent WCEA at a salary school in Omaha Friday and Saturday. Over 100 representatives of various organizations will attend. Among the highlights will be sessions on: Fundamentals of salary scheduling; organizing for salary work; goals for Nebraska salary committees; and negotiating techniques.

New 'Tubes' Put In

New "tubes" had to be put in the boiler at Wayne High School this week. The hot water flues sprung a small leak and a Sioux City furnace repair company had to be called to make repairs. Operation of the furnace was maintained while work was underway—a good thing, too, for daytime temperatures were below freezing.

Hastings Firm Receives Contract for New Units

Dutton-Lainson Co., Hastings, has been awarded the contract for the new transformers for the power plant addition. This leaves only one more contract to be let on the new addition.

Total cost of the contract for nine new transformers will be $34,401. This represents $4,723 each for six kVA transformers and $2,021 each for three 500 kVA transformers.

City council members met Monday night in a special session to consider the various bids. The Hastings company was awarded the contract on the basis of cost factor and also delivery time, some of the bids stipulating installation in a little over a year's time.

Dutton-Lainson has promised delivery in 34 weeks on the larger units. It is possible the smaller units will be here before the end of the year.

Otte Construction Co., Wayne, has the contract for the building itself and has started construction with caissons all installed. The caissons will support the new structure.

Cooper-Bessemer, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, has the contract for the new engine; Diesel Service, Ames Ia., will install the cooling system; and A. E. Pedersen, Omaha, will put in the power switch gears.

Contracts will be let later for the power piping and power wiring. This will be the final bid-letting on the new plant.

Here's Where You Vote!

Here is where you will go to vote in Tuesday's election. The list was supplied by County Clerk C. A. Bard and staff:

Wayne First Ward, Fire Hall; Wayne Second Ward, Library; Wayne Third Ward, Courthouse, Hoskins Village and Precinct, Hoskins; Fire Hall; Carroll Village and Deer Creek Precinct, Carroll Auditorium; Winside Village and Hancock Precinct, Winside Auditorium;

Sholes Village and Sherman Precinct, Madson Building, Sholes; Brynna Precinct, District 23 School; Strahan Precinct, District 51 School; Garfield Precinct, District 55 School; Chapin Precinct, Winside Legion Hall; Wilbur Precinct, District 48 School; Plum Creek Precinct, District 34 School; Leslie Precinct, District 25 School;

Hunter Precinct, District 47 School (5 miles east from Seventh and Main, one mile south on east side of road); and Logan Precinct, New Wakefield Elementary School, south edge of Wakefield in Wayne, County.

New Legion, Auxiliary Heads Named at Carroll

Wayne residents were named new county Legion and Auxiliary heads at the convention in Carroll Tuesday night. Mrs. Herb Lutt will head the woman's organization and Jim Pokett will head the men's group.

Mrs. Lutt succeeds Mrs. Keith Owens, Carroll. Pokett succeeds Frank Weible, Winside. Chris Bargholz, Wayne, was named vice commander of the Legion and Mrs. Norman Deck, Winside, succeeds Mrs. Lutt as vice president of Auxiliary. Mrs. Elsie Whitney, Carroll, was named secretary to succeed Mrs. Deck.

Mrs. Phyllis Swanson, District 3 Auxiliary president, and Mrs. Harold Fischer, district secretary, were among honored guests. Both are from Wakefield. Mrs. Julia Haas, Wayne, was named delegate to the district Auxiliary convention in Wakefield with Mrs. Joan Owens, Carroll, as alternate.

The Auxiliary voted to continue sponsorship of The nation's voters will go to the polls Tuesday. Nebraskans have a senator, governor, lieutenant governor and other officers to elect, in addition to congressmen, county officers and non-political officers. Also facing them will be 17 amendments.

Wayne County voters will elect several officers and decide on being included or excluded from an education unit.

Chief race is for senator with Frank Morrison, Democrat, expected to give Carl Curtis, Republican incumbent, a real battle. Almost as much interest is vested in the race for governor where two aggressive young men face each other, Philip Sorenson for the Democrats and Norbert Tiemann for the Republicans.

Nebraska will also name a lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, state treasurer and attorney general. In this district, Robert Denney, Republican, is trying to unseat Clair Callan as congressman.

There are no county races. Clerk, treasurer, district court clerk, sheriff, attorney and assessor are to be elected with only the Republicans offering candidates. No one is listed on the ballot for county surveyor so the counting boards will have hundreds of names to count by the time people get through writing in names.

Non-political voting will be for the district member on the state board of education, county superintendent, directors WCPFD, weed district board member and SWCD supervisors. John Surber, Democrat, and Joe Corbit, Republican, are running for

Jaycees Party LaPorte Event

The Halloween party of the Wayne Jaycees was held Saturday night at LaPorte. That's right, LaPorte. LaPorte is not even a ghost town now. It's a site where the county seat once stood but all that remains of the town is a cupola from the former courthouse.

Jaycees, their wives and a few ghosts gathered around a big bonfire for a wiener roast. Everything was in the Halloween mood for treats, games and fun. Several prospective members were guests of the club and their wives also accompanied them. It was held during a member-gaining period for Jaycees everywhere.

Marvin Young and Dick Hammer attended the Wakefield Jaycees board meeting the past week. Tuesday night Wayne Jaycees sent a delegation to Norfolk for a meeting of the club there.

Bob Gibson, Jack Payne Oldtimers Top Speakers

Bob Gibson, St. Louis Cardinal pitching ace, and Jack Payne, sports announcer for WOW, Omaha, will be the featured speakers at the annual Oldtimers Northeast Nebraska Baseball Association meeting in Wayne Thursday, Nov. 10.

Payne will be master of ceremonies for the program. Gibson will speak. Oldtime baseball players of the area will be honored.

Registration will take place from 7 to 8 p.m. President Leo Jordan will introduce guests and conduct a memorial for deceased members.

Payne will take charge then with special awards for Oldtimers and special recognition of three league winners in Northeast Nebraska. Music will be furnished by the Stanton County Hazben Band. Gibson's talk will follow after which a question and answer period will be held and refreshments will be served.

Gibson won 21 games this last season with St. Louis. He pitched several games in this area while attending Creighton University and still makes Omaha his home.

Oldtimers to be honored include B. J. Goeden, Nick Lammers, Charles Vlach, Lou Sund, Art Lage and

Deer Season Opening Saturday in Nebraska

Deer will be legal game in Nebraska Nov. 5-13. A record 24,900 permits have been issued by the state game commission.

Whitetails and mule deer will be open during the rifle season. The state game commission is hoping for a record success ratio, exceeding last year's mark of 73 per cent of the hunters bagging deer.

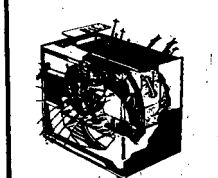

Permission to hunt must be secured from landowners. All deer taken must be checked in at the first checking station by 8 p.m. of the day following the close of the season.

Wardens warn that hunters make sure of what they are shooting at. Wayne County farmers have lost hogs and cattle in the past to hunters.

Deer can stand motionless for long periods and have acute sense of smell.

This makes them hard to detect and enables them to slip away once they realize the men with guns are killers.

In the meantime, pheasant hunters continue to flood the area, especially on weekends. Texas hunters have flown here two weekends and another plane-load will be here this coming weekend. Hunters have also come from many other states.

Their luck? Just fair. The cover is too good, the pheasants are too smart and the hunters are often too lazy to go out and work for the birds. Some who do put heart and soul into the sport of trudging up and down hills, through brush and along fence rows most often have the best luck.

Some Wayne area hunters have had turkey permits. Reports reaching the office of this newspaper indicate that wild turkey hunting has been good this year and plans are being made for going to Western Nebraska for more gobblers in 1967.

Here's Sun Schedule

For hunters, here is the sunrise and sunset schedule for the coming week with the sunrise time first and sunset second: Thursday, Nov. 3, 7:03 and 5:21; Nov. 4, 7:05 and 5:20; Nov. 5, 7:06 and 5:18; Nov. 6, 7:07 and 5:17; Nov. 7, 7:08 and 5:16; Nov. 8, 7:10 and 5:15; Nov. 9, 7:11 and 5:14; and Nov. 10, 7:12 and 5:13. Deer may be shot one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset. Pheasants may be taken from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

Make Changes in Husker Loop Plan

Some changes have been adopted in the Husker Conference set-up regarding sports. The changes were made at a conference meeting at El Rancho Tuesday night.

Taking football first, Laurel was named west division champs. The east division could come out with Wisner, West Point or Scribner playing in the play-off as West Point has beaten Scribner and Scribner has beaten Wisner. If Wisner beats West Point, it will be a tie.

The game will be played on the east division winner's field Friday, Nov. 11 (Veterans Day) at 1:30 p.m. Admission prices and other arrangements have been set by the loop.

WJAG, Norfolk, asked to have at least one game every week played in the afternoon. The station hoped to broadcast four games from each division. Not one school indicated an interest in the idea so it was dropped. The idea of four officials for football games instead of the present three was also discussed and dropped.

Moving next to basketball, representatives decided that the Husker play-off would be on the home court of the eastern winner in even years and the western winner in odd years—so the next play-off will be in the west. If the court of the host team is not regulation size, the host school must choose a neutral site for the game.

Track competition should be more interesting this spring. Medals will be given for the first three places in each event and ribbons for the next three. West Point will arrange for the meet, but with no track there, the site has not been chosen.

A report on college night at Scribner was given. Remainder of the business for the evening was routine.

Attending from Wayne High School were Supt. Haun, Clayton Southwick, Don Schumacher, Harold Maciejewski, Stan Mallette, Ron Carnes, Allen Hansen and Don Johnson.

Set New Record for Women Bowlers Here

Hit 'n Mrs. bowling league at Melodee Jones saw two new records set Wednesday night of last week. M & S Oil Co. team rolled the highest game, 959, and the highest series, 2657, ever rolled in Wayne league play by a woman's team.

Dixie Wurtle topped the bowlers with scores of 203, 208 and 193 for a 604 total. Second high was Joanne Hansen with 193, 185 and 204 for 582 total.

Others on the team and their scores were: Joanne McNatt, 154, 206 and 152 for 512; Betty Daugherty, 140, 176 and 182 for 498; and Bernita Sherbahn, 124, 184 and 149 for 457.

Hunters 'Take Ducks' Last Week in Concord

Some out-of-state hunters are credited with leaving Concord with some "ducks" during a pheasant-hunting sortie to the Concord area. A sign marks the spot where they "downed" the waterfowl.

Bread Basket Cafe, Concord, has received some notoriety for its 12 calendars on the south wall, each with the months torn off in order so all months were to be seen in order from left to right. November is now gone.

The calendar taken is for this month. It was from Laurel Sales Co. and bore a beautiful picture of ducks in flight.

Hunters brought down the calendar and took duck scene and November with them when nobody was looking. Marking the spot is a sign that reads: "Laurel Sales Co. Calendar was here. Stolen by pheasant hunters."

Milk Spilled, No One Hurt in Truck Mishap

Some milk was spilled, a tank was damaged and a cab was damaged when a driverless truck overturned southeast of Wayne Monday morning. Deputy Sheriff S. C. Thompson investigated.

Arlyn Hurlbert, Carroll, was driver of the truck. He parked in the lane at the Melvin Wilson farm two miles east and almost eight miles south of Wayne.

The truck was parked with wheels in a low spot but the milk was sloshing back and forth and a high wind was blowing from the west. Suddenly the truck started moving while Hurlbert was closing the lane gate.

Before he could get back to the truck, it had gone east 88 feet, gone into a ditch, started up the bank and overturned on its right side. No estimate on the damage to the truck and tank or the loss of milk was given.

UNICEF Drive Gains Support from City

In a one-hour period Monday night, Wayne Future Homemakers of America collected $119.28. The money goes to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

The FHA girls devoted one hour to the drive under the leadership of the sponsor, Mrs. Dave Chambers. Bonnie Stanley spent three times that much time counting the coins and bills so a final report could be given.

UNICEF uses the money for the underprivileged children of the world, in America and in other lands. The Halloween drive is one of the main money-raising projects for the organization.

Winside Has School

Winside has school today. It also had school Tuesday. However, no one was sure for a while, some prankster called a Norfolk radio station and reported there would be no school in Winside due to furnace trouble. A few minutes later Supt. James Christensen called the station and reported that it was an erroneous report and there would be school. Even though funny in a way, the prank could become serious if repeated. As it was, buses went out, children met the buses and school went ahead on schedule, even though there were a few tardy pupils, some of them victims of the false report.

WHS All-School Play Will Be in December

Cast members and the production crew for "Our Town," the all-school play at Wayne High School, have been named. It will be presented Saturday, Dec. 3, directed by C. M. Christensen.

Steve Kraemaer, Lauren Hansen, Larry Magnuson, Jane Williams, Louise Klamish, Bill Hansen, Belinda Bebee, Dennis Elmermeier, Jo Merriman, Chris Bernthal, Sarah Ahlmann, Linda Lesh, Lavern Brown, Sheryl Kemp, Doug Daneilson, Bob Penn, Susan

Shirck, Doug Stanely, Yleen Peters, Jo Ann Saha, Marilyn Stoakes, Susan Stoakes, Delores Bull, and Deanna Jorgensen have parts. Some will play two roles. Tom Havener is stage manager. Pearl Hansen is student director. Others on various committees are Linda Canner, Yleen Peters, Susan Shirck, Debbi Armbruster, Marcia Ehlers, Mary Lou Sieger, Linda Dohrling, Ronda Hansen, Melvin Meyer, Kathy McNatt, Rita Olson, Linda Schneider, Mary Shiery, LaMae Gattman, Chris Bernthal, Dave Jensen, Rodney Reeg, Janice Giese and Cindy Swinney.

The program is open to the public, tickets available at the door.

Chosen by Teachers

Two Wayne High School teachers were chosen by fellow teachers of District III to fill posts in the NSEA and the NSAA at the convention in Norfolk last week. Supt. Francis Haun was named District III director for Nebraska State Education Association. He was also chosen vice chairman of the managing committee of Nebraska State Activities Association for District III. Don Schumacher was elected music representative for the state NSAA meeting in Lincoln.

The Serendipity Singers are coming to Wayne next Wednesday, Nov. 9, for a Special Programs appearance at Wayne State College, 8 p.m. in Rice auditorium.

For anybody who listens to popular recordings these days, little more need be said by way of publicity. The Serendipities are a troupe of nine, including two girls, who rank at the Guest speaker at Wayne Woman's Club Friday was M.E. Wyant, superintendent of Beatrice State Home. Mr. Wyant explained the functions of the Home and extended an invitation to the ladies to visit at any time.

Mrs. Mildred West gave a report on parliamentary procedure. Mrs. W.A. Koebel presented an art exhibit prepared by the district art chairman. Mrs. Herb Lutz introduced the guest speaker.

Mrs. Esther Larson and Mrs. Armand Hiscop are in charge of the centennial note cards. Mrs. Dick Kern was chairman of the serving committee. Guest speaker Nov. 11 will be Mrs. John Ronnefeldt, Lyons.

Coterie Meeting Held

Coterie met Monday with Mrs. John Ahern. Guests were Mrs. Ralph Carhart, Mrs. Don Wightman and Mrs. J. M. Strahan. Monday's meeting will be with Mrs. C. A. Orr.

G. Martens Observe Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Marten, Hoskins, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Oct. 29 with a dinner at Prenger's, Norfolk, for family members. Pastor John Saxton was also a guest.

The table was decorated by a two-tier cake, which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Edwin Brogie, and by a bouquet of mums, a gift of Mrs. Ernest Langenberg.

Attendants 50 years ago were Mrs. Ernest E. Langenberg, Hoskins, Mrs. Esther Graham and William Falk, Norfolk, and Walter Pentico, Pierce. Mr. Pentico was unable to attend the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Marten were married Oct. 26, 1916 at the Congregational Church at Pierce. They lived on a farm six miles north of Hoskins until 1945 when they moved into Hoskins. They are the parents of two children, Mrs. Wilbur (Blanche) Anderson, Hoskins, and Lester Marten, Norfolk. They have five grandchildren.

Methodist Circles

Meet on Wednesday

Five Circles of First Methodist Church held meetings last Wednesday. Friendship Circle met Nov. 2.

Rachel Circle met at the home of Mrs. Eap Merchant with Mrs. B.J. Brandstetter as co-hostess. Mrs. Mildred West was in charge of the program. She read a sermon by Rev. Wesley Ballard, Paul's Letter to the Affluent Christians of America. Rev. Ballard had presented the sermon at the school of missions in Lincoln, which Mrs. West had attended. Mrs. Wayne Gilliland will be the next hostess.

Martha Circle met with Mrs. Eldon Buil with Mrs. Frank Gilbert as co-hostess. Fifteen members answered roll call with a scripture verse. Mrs. Gordon Nuernberger gave devotions and the program, "Week of Prayer and Self Denial." Mrs. Edward Seymour will be the next hostess.

Patience Circle met with Mrs. K. N. Olds with Mrs. Stanley Morris as co-hostess. Eighteen members and Mrs. Robert Sutherland were present. Mrs. J.M. Brown gave devotions and the topic continuing the review of the new hymnals. Next meeting will be Nov. 16 with Mrs. Willard Wittke.

Ruth Circle met at the church with Mrs. Harry Kay as hostess. Mrs. Albert Anderson and Mrs. Ed Wolske were guests. Mrs. Keith Reed presented the program, "Grow Toward World Brotherhood and Peace." Mrs. Clarence Rjeston will be hostess Nov. 16.

Seventeen members were present for a meeting of Rebekah Circle. Mrs. Daryl Hubbard is a new member. Mrs. Kermit Danielson presented the program, "Peace," which was followed by a discussion of current events. Hostesses were Mrs. L. W. McNatt, sr. and Mrs. Genevieve Pomeroy. Nov. 16 meeting will be at the Tom Rose home.

New Officers Elected At Grace Duo Meeting

Officers were elected at a meeting of Grace Lutheran Duo Club Oct. 24. Erwin Oswald is president; John Ritze is vice president, and Mrs. Ray Rose, secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gadekin and Mr. and Mrs. R. Rose served lunch. A potluck supper is planned Nov. 28 at 6:30 p.m.

Jack Rubecks Host Pre-Halloween Party

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rubeck were hosts at a pre-Halloween party Friday.

praise was their work on a presentation at the district teachers' convention in Norfolk last week.

Mrs. Shirley Trautwein, second grade teacher, and Mrs. Maryann Lange-meier, first gradeteacher, presented a display on elementary art. They also appeared on the program.

Schoolmen praised the two for the extent of displays, the work involved in preparing the presentation and the extra effort put forth to give one of the outstanding program features of the sessions.

CONCORD HALLOWEEN included a parade of costumed children. Here's the group as they paused for a rest downtown. A bride and a pumpkin with a big black stem stand in the foreground.

Concord Pupils Mark Halloween

Pupils from kindergarten through the fourth grade at Concord Elementary School paraded up Main Street Tuesday. They were judged for prizes in costumes and for posters displayed in windows and returned to the school for a party.

The Bread Basket Cafe provided extra treats as a surprise to the costumed children. Mrs. Quinten Irwin and Mrs. Jack Irwin judged.

In the posters decorating Concord business place windows, there were three divisions. First, second and third prizes were awarded in each.

For kindergarten, Darcy Harder won first, Jackie Sherry second and Melani Gunnarson third. In the same order for the first-second grade were Jerilyn Alvin, Kristy Peterson and Doreen Hanson. Third and fourth grade winners in the same order were Randy Hues, Pamela Johnson and Charles Hohlfort.

There were six prizes given for costumes but equal prizes were given to each. Winners were: Jim Alvin, robot; Chuck Nelson, beatnik; Kathy Kardell, fairy; David Sherry, baggy pants tramp; Melani Gunnarson, a big orange pumpkin; and Kelly Kardell, witch.

Mrs. Helen Pearson, Mrs. Phyllis Dirks and Mrs. Ethel Ebmeier are teachers in the school. They had games, treats and "trick or treat bags" waiting for the youngsters at the school following the parade.

Carroll Church Group Serves More Than 350

Between 350 and 375 people attended the annual ham and turkey dinner sponsored by the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Carroll, Sunday. The meal was served in the Carroll Auditorium.

The evening meal attracts people from a wide area, almost doubling the population of the town. Walter League members help by clearing tables and men join in by helping various ways.

Rev. H. M. Hilpert is pastor of the church. Mrs. Arnold Junck is president of the sponsoring Aid.

Mrs. Harold Stoltenberg and Mrs. Russell Hall had charge of the dining room and Mrs. Cliff Rohde was chairman with Mrs. Bob Peterson and Mrs. Leonard Blecke assisting on the kitchen committee.

Community Chest Fund Well Over Wayne's Goal

A final Community Chest report was made Tuesday. It showed the city had raised $9,013.32, well over the $9,000 goal for the city, but lower than the total last year and the first year the drive was held here.

There are two reports to come in yet but they are not expected to change the picture drastically. No further meetings will be held to get progress reports on the drive.

The annual meeting is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 12, in the Chamber of Commerce Office at 1 p.m. This meeting is open to the public and a final report will be ready then.

Wayne State College again drew praise for its support of the Chest drive. Faculty members contributed 17 per cent of the city's total, which is amazing, considering the relatively small percentage of the city's population made up of staff members.

Blue Key, student organization, was also praised for its assistance.

Howard Witt, president of the Community Chest, expressed thanks to workers and helpers. He said: "Wayne citizens saw the worthiness of this fund drive and they contributed generously to make sure the goal was reached."

Nursing Profession Changes Agreed Upon

Registered nurses in Wayne, Dixon and Cedar Counties and all other counties in the area are being invited to the District 6 meeting of the Nebraska Nurses Association in Norfolk Monday, Nov. 14, at 6:30 p.m. to learn about some drastic changes proposed for the nursing profession.

The nurses will meet at the state hospital at Norfolk for dinner. Delegates who attended the NNA meeting in Omaha Oct. 18-21 will report on the proposals agreed upon.

Changes will affect all nurses and students who plan to enter the nursing profession, according to Edith Kinney Hanson, Wakefield, chairman for the meeting. Mrs. Anita Brennehan, Norfolk, is the district chairman and will have charge of arrangements.

Warming Up Process Starts in Territory

It started warming up in the Wayne area Wednesday. A good thing too, for the mercury had slumped to a frigid 14 degrees during the early morning hours.

That is 68 degrees cooler than it was during the hottest period of the week. Peoples Natural Gas Co. reported a high of 82 for the past seven days. The low mark was recorded after the period ended on the temperature chart this week.

State National Bank reported no moisture at all. A few snow flakes fell but they were not in sufficient supply to even warrant calling them "a trace."

Forecasts were calling for higher temperatures the latter part of this week. Football fans are hoping this is correct for there is just one football weekend left on the high school scene and it would be nice to be outside without freezing one's nose and toes.

Kiwanis Clubs Plan Chapel at Beatrice

The Beatrice State Home, with 2,300 residents, does not have a church. To remedy this situation, Kiwanis Clubs at Wahoo and Beatrice have started a drive to get a "Chapel of All Faiths" built at the home.

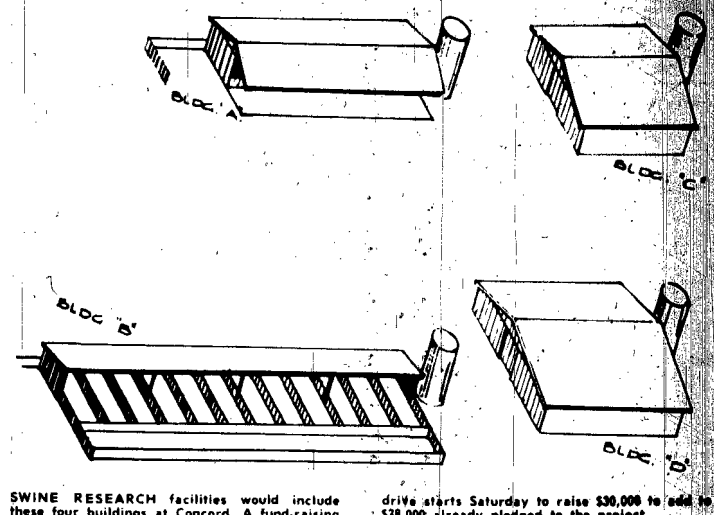

Presently used for religious services is the school auditorium, which is also used for recreation, sports and other activities. It is on the second floor, 35 steps up from the main floor.

Mentally retarded residents of the home have shown a desire for religious expression. They have taken interest and enthusiasm for worship and religious life.

Kiwanis Clubs are seeking financial help from all civic and service clubs, churches, other organizations and individuals in raising the money needed. Checks should be made out to "Chapel of All Faiths Fund—Beatrice State Home."

They may be mailed to Beatrice State Home, Box 808, Beatrice, Neb. 68310. Gifts will be strictly accounted for and will come under audit. The project has the endorsement of the state department of institutions.

SWINE RESEARCH facilities would include these four buildings at Concord. A fund-raising drive starts Saturday to raise $30,000 to add $38,000 already pledged to the project.

Two Acres of Corn Destroyed by Fire

Two acres of corn ready for harvest burned Thursday. Without the quick action of the Wayne Rural Fire Department, the loss would have been greater.

The fire occurred on the Elmer Echtenkamp farm three miles north and three-fourths mile west of Wayne. Cause of the fire was not certain, although it is assumed a tractor backfiring could have caused the spark that resulted in the blaze.

Corn picking was underway at the time. Les Echtenkamp, son of the farm owners, was hauling corn out of the field with a tractor and wagon. It is thought this tractor caused the fire.

Flames were almost out when a little breeze fanned it alive again and the firemen were called. The field was dry but the day relatively calm. Had there been a wind it could have been a major fire.

Telephone Company's Story Told Kiwanis

Ray Larsen, general commercial manager for Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. in Nebraska, showed slides on "The Northwestern Bell Profile" Monday noon at the Kiwanis Club. Ed Jaksha, Fremont, district manager, accompanied him here.

The meeting drew the largest turnout in years for Kiwanis. There were 52 present, including members and guests.

In addition to Larsen from Omaha and Jaksha from Fremont, there were two other guests. They are both from Omaha, John Claerhout, Mid-American Council Boy Scout executive, and Duane Christensen, assistant Scout executive.

Harold Kemble was program chairman for the meeting. The men from Bell were guests of Dan Titze, local district manager.

will determine what affects various types of confinement will have on the swine industry and could revolutionize housing and confinement for swine just as other research has brought about changes for cattle and poultry.

Lending agencies view confinement rearing of hogs as an opportunity to improve cost accounting for swine producers. Building manufacturing companies are interested in "short-run" benefits because the principle of confinement production would apply regardless of the material used. Automated equipment manufacturers are interested and so are feed industry representatives.

The money raised by NU, the people and other sources would provide for three enclosed confinement units featuring environmental control. Three open-front units would also be built.

Comparisons would be made using the six units in confinement-management studies: Open versus closed growing-finishing buildings in a one- and two-unit system; and determining atbms of optimum slotted floor space, pen size and shape, manure disposal systems, floor heat and ventilation.

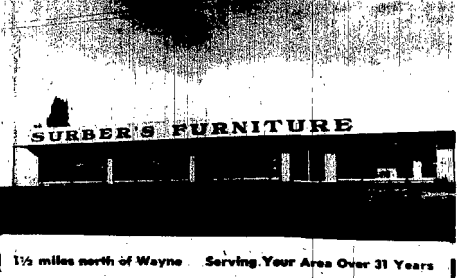

The economy could gain back the investment several times over by just finding a way to save a few cents per pound of pork produced. Over a period of years the benefits could mount into millions of dollars.

JUMPIN' JAZZ: Seldom if ever has a Wayne State audience heard anything like it — a session of old-time jazz, played Oct. 25 by an ensemble of old-time musicians from Preservation Hall in New Orleans. And seldom if ever has a WSC audience responded with such gusto while the five Negro artists and their young white manager-bass horn player dipped into the very soul of jazz. America's most distinctive music form. At intermission, the audience leaped up in a standing ovation, something never done before at a college special program. Again at the conclusion — another standing ovation. And then for an encore, "When the Saints Go Marching In" strained the structure of Ramsey Theater as the crowd clapped, stomped, whistled and cheered — before the third standing ovation. Few here will hear such a jazz session again, for the Negro musicians all are in their 60's or older, and when the 160 or so old-timers who play at Preservation Hall are gone, their original jazz will be gone. The new Dixieland, though it's the same style music, misses something: the soul of the Negro who attended the birth of jazz.

'Devil Diary' Chosen Name for WHS Paper

"Devil Diary" is the name of the new school newspaper at Wayne High School. The name was suggested by a teacher, Larry Wilson.

Ruth Kenny suggested two names which will be used as titles for features in the paper. "Blue Streak" will be used in the sports section and "Speaking of the Devil" will be the title for the feature column.

Ken Jones is editor of the paper with Debbie Wright assistant. Sports editors are Gordon Shupe and Mark Johnson.

Karen Wills, Claudia Niemann, Barbara Jacobson and Leone Coryell are news writers, Belinda Bebe, Pat Joergensen and Debbie Wright feature writers and Mark Johnson editorial writer.

There are drawings in the paper but no indication as to who should be credited for them. A mimeographed publication, it has come out twice, the first time without a name and

Name 31 WHS Senior Regents Candidates

Ken Deissler, WHS counselor, has revealed the names of 31 Wayne High seniors eligible to take the Regents Scholarship examinations Saturday, Nov. 5. All are in the upper one-third of the class.

There is no requirement for those eligible taking the tests but anyone considering the University of Nebraska should take the test. Winners will be named for the school and it is possible some alternates will also get scholarships.

Laurel Man Dies On Carroll Street

A 41-year-old Carroll man died Tuesday on Carroll's Main Street. His death apparently was due to a heart attack. Sheriff Don Weible was called to Carroll and was accompanied by Dr. Robert Benthack. However, the man was dead by the time help reached him. Dead is Roland J. Hugg, 41. He had been in Carroll for some time that afternoon, had coffee with friends and then went to the Davis Feed Store. Upon leaving the feed store, he got in his car, drove onto Main Street and his car was seen going across the street and over the curb into the park where it came to a stop. Clarence Morris, Carroll, called Wayne for the doctor and sheriff, but even then it was too late.

Winside-Carroll Club Keeps Enjoying Life

Cares of the world are forgotten when Belles and Beaus Square Dance Club of Winside and Carroll meets. This week an old-fashioned Halloween masquerade party was held and it is hard to imagine the pioneers having more fun than the club members did in this modern age.

Old people, young people and completely-disguised people made up the crowd Monday night at the Carroll Auditorium. Prizes were given for the best costumes in four categories.

CLINIC

This time the corn-soybean topic will not be mixed with hog production as it was last year. Major interest seemed to be in those two crops and how to get more and better returns so the clinic will be limited to those topics.

Narrow rows, new type hybrids, high plant populations, heavy fertilization, pre-emergence weed control, avoiding planting and harvesting losses and modern methods of drying and storing will be covered. Sponsors will be Allis-Chalmers, Amchem Products, Behlen Manufacturing Co., DeKalb Seeds, Shell Chemical and Sherry's.

Again many door prizes will be given. There will be a free feed at noon and a lot of folders and helpful pamphlets will be handed out.

Last year's clinic was in March and hit bad weather. It is hoped the January date will prove better. Plans are being made to attract several hundred more people than attended in 1966.

In a program following the separate and joint meetings, the following numbers were given: For Winside, a vocal solo, "You'll Never Walk Alone," by Teresa Stenwall accompanied by Diane Krueger; for Wayne, piano duet, "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" by Marcia and Mark Johnson; for Carroll, Diane Morris, "Susie's Polka" and "Melody of Love," accordion solos.

Bob Peterson is Carroll Legion commander and Mrs. Verlon Hokamp is Carroll Auxiliary president. Women of Carroll served lunch following the program.

One amendment would prohibit the state from levying a property tax, meaning it would have to go to income, sales or a combination of both taxes for funds; another would have the people decide whether or not they want the income tax the unicameral has proposed.

A Wayne County proposal calls for voting for or against exclusion from Educational Unit No. 1 which would offer extra educational services to the counties of the area; fifteen other amendments are proposed.

Among the important ones are: No. 5, authorizing the legislature to fix value of land devoted to agriculture (such as on the Omaha city limits); No. 6, authorizing transportation for children attending any school, public, private or parochial; No. 14, which calls for 20 percent of any money raised by a sales tax or income tax to go to schools if such taxes are ever adopted.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. A list of polling places appears in another item. Disabled and absentee ballots can be secured up to Nov. 7 and must be in the clerk's hands by 10 a.m., Nov. 10.

"A GOOD SALE". That was the comment of Leland Herman following his annual polled Hereford sale Monday. Top bull on his sale brought $2,100 from Rex and Kenneth Chase of Elsmere. Top female sold for $1,000 to G. L. Gleason, Rapid City, S. D. Gleason also purchased the bull shown above, paying $1,400 for it. Average price for the 108 lot offering was $587. Fieldman and auctioneers said the Hereford cattle were the best offering they had seen this fall. Sales were made to ranchers and breeders from North and South Dakotas, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Colorado.

Boys not members of any troop now are welcome to attend this meeting and to bring their parents. Boys 11 years of age or over are eligible to belong.

The troop is sponsored by the Wayne Kiwanis Club. Claude Harder has been Scoutmaster for the last few months.

Directors point out that it is extremely important that every boy and every parent be present. Scouts and parents of Scouts seeing this notice are asked to remind other Scouts and parents of the meeting.

WINSIDE PLANS

Scheduled for Monday from 2:30 on and Tuesday after school is dismissed are conferences for parents of high school pupils with the various teachers. Both high school and grade school will dismiss at 2:30 Monday and at regular time Tuesday.

Notices of conference schedules are being sent to the parents of all pupils. Anyone having questions prior to the conferences should get the questions answered before scheduled conference time.

step, but it was a step. Much remains to be done. Some parents came out to help the 17 pupils. James Coan brought ice cream sandwiches from his Dairy Sweet for all the workers. The youngsters would like to do more and will do more, even if they have to wait until spring. However, the leaves are gone from the trees so there will be no more leaves to rake and frost has stopped the grass so it will not get longer.

What is needed most now is muscle power and machine power. Grave-stones are now out in the open instead of being hidden by grass and weeds but there are trees that should be trimmed or cut, stones that should be uprighted and a fence that should be fixed.

St. Mary's Civics Club hopes others will take an interest in restoring LaPorte Cemetery. Members have devoted their own time and efforts no one expects more than that from anyone else who wants to help.

SWEDISH MUSICIAN IN CONCORD APPEARANCE

Evangelical Free Church in Concord, will offer a special service Wednesday, Nov. 9, at 7:30 p.m. at which time Lennart Sandbergh of Sweden will be featured. He is both a musician and a minister.

Rev. Marvin Litorja invites the public to attend the meeting. He reports the Swedish pastor's vocal music, numbers on the lute, accordion and piano and his other talents will be of interest to all.

Pastor Sandbergh plays the 10-stringed lute dating back to Biblical times. He spent 16 years in the service of the Salvation Army and then toured under sponsorship of the Swedish government.

Sandbergh joined Ake Forsberg in forming the Northlanders of Sweden in this country. The group has appeared throughout the nation at conferences, camps and churches.

Pastor Sandbergh is now on his own in musical ministry. His music on the Biblical lute is unique in this country. He offers much more to those who come to hear him play, sing and talk.

Ted Sorensen Gives World-Herald Reply

Theodore C. Sorensen Monday retorted to editorial criticism of himself by the Omaha World-Herald.

Addressing a Wayne State College Election Institute audience, the former special counsel to President John Kennedy said he stands by his statements describing his brother Phil, Democratic candidate for governor of Nebraska.

When he returned to Nebraska last week to campaign for his brother, he said Phil Sorensen is in the Kennedy image.

"The World-Herald can't find enough reason to criticize Phil, so it resorts to abusing his family, falling back on an old technique of calling me an outsider," Sorensen said at Wayne. "They don't consider Richard Nixon or Ronald Reagan outsiders."

He noted that he was born and educated in Lincoln. Since leaving his White House position with President Kennedy and, for a time, with President Johnson, Sorensen has practiced law in New York.

"Some say Phil is too young to be governor, that he is handicapped by his controversial brother," Sorensen said, "but I think that he, like John Kennedy, will overcome these complaints. I don't mean to say any man is indispensable—the word the World-Herald used—because no man is indispensable."

Continuing, Sorensen said, "Nebraska needs an independent, forthright governor, to counter a newspaper controlled by wealthy contractors who got fat on federal contracts."

Sorensen described brother Phil as one interested in people and their problems. He said the Republican gubernatorial candidate, Norbert Tiemann, when he realized he was losing ground, began adopting Phil Sorensen's views on major issues—but made his views vague enough that they did not sound like Phil's.

In a question period Sorensen was asked if Tiemann, a Wausa banker, is not better able to understand the problems of small towns.

"No," he replied, "Living in a small town is not necessary to understand its problems. It is more important to understand government, which Phil does because he has participated in it."

He added, "I've never been a chicken, but I know a good omelet when I see it."

Asked if he sees a danger in the one-sided Congress, Sorensen said, "No, but I doubt it will be as one-sided in the next two years. Voters will elect candidates who best reflect the interests of the country."

He attributed the present concentration of Democrats in Congress to the massive defeat of Harry Goldwater for president in 1964, which, he noted, carried many other Republicans to defeat.

"I hope the Republicans present a strong presidential candidate in 1968, one who does not represent the Goldwater views," he said.

Does Sorensen have political ambitions? "No, not for elective office, though I hope someday to return to government," he replied.

Student Teachers in Wayne, Winside Now

Winside and Wayne schools have been assigned student teachers from Wayne State College. They will serve the schools from Oct. 31 through Dec. 16.

At Winside, Supt. James Christensen reports two student teachers. In Wayne, Supt. Francis Haun has an even dozen student teachers on the staff.

The student teachers in Wayne are: Judy Rorman, kindergarten; Shirley Albert, third grade; Nancy

Neller and Twila Wilkie, first grade; Elaine Klender, second grade; Gene Mintken, physical education and homemaking; Larry Berg, industrial arts and commercial;

Richard Harter, business and economics; Rae Ann Schmeichel, English and sociology; Dennis Montgomery, instrumental music; Gene Hunting, physical education and business; and Constance Beerman, vocal music.

Winside student teachers are: Ralph Looney, physical education, industrial arts, shop and mechanical drawing; and Faunell Lynch, sophomore English, typing and bookkeeping.

Lions Club Goes on Alaska Highway Trip

Wayne Lions Club members enjoyed summer in Alaska Tuesday night at the meeting in the Wagon Wheel. Kent Hall showed slides of the trip, he and his family took to Alaska last summer.

In charge of the meeting was Stan Smith, first vice president. The president, Harold Maciejewski, was attending a Husker Conference meeting at Pitzer.

Roy Leonard and Kent Hall were guests of the club. Plans were made to install new members at the Ladies' Night meeting Nov. 15.

Events coming up for Lions include a board meeting Nov. 8 at First National Bank, Ladies' Night Nov. 15, sale of turkey tickets in downtown Wayne the night of Nov. 17 and a Christmas party tentatively set for Dec. 20.

Dixon Community Sale Makes Profit

Dixon Community Sale was held Friday night at the Dixon Auditorium to raise money for the Aug. 15 celebration. The sale grossed about $100 for the celebration.

Prior to the sale the Dixon MYF held a pancake-waffle-sausage feed which was well-patronized. Funds raised will go to pay for Methodist youth activities.

Col. Jim Thompson was auctioneer for the items donated for the sale with others volunteering to help clerk, collect, watch for bids and assist in other ways. Barbara Creamer, daughter of the LeRoy Creamer, won the turkey given as door prize.

An assortment of items was sold, including a purse, canna bulbs, overalls, anti-freeze, dog food, cat food, popcorn, haircuts, cosmetics, garden produce, baked goods, groceries and a subscription to The Wayne Herald.

Sam Zimmerman, operator of a new store in Dixon, and Mrs. Delos Schultz, store manager, were welcomed by the group with a hearty burst of applause for donations and support of the sale.

Rev. Frank Pedersen, pastor of First Baptist Church, Wayne, attended a three-day Baptist state convention in Hastings recently.

Three Accidents Occur in Wayne

Those yellow report sheets used in reporting accidents are not getting stale in Wayne. Three more traffic mishaps were investigated the past week by the Wayne Police Department.

The first occurred Oct. 25 on Tenth, Ann Barclay, Wayne, was eastbound and Leroy Steffen, Osmond, was backing out of a parking stall. The Steffen car hit the Barclay car on the right side, creasing the left rear quarter panel.

According to Officer Alan Peck, who investigated, the Steffen car did not stop. The license was reported to the police and they checked with Pierce County law officers to find out who the owner of the car is.

The following day at Fourth and Lincoln, Rodney Sorensen, Lyons, was westbound on Fourth. He was blinded by the sun and did not see Mrs. Pauline Merchant, who was northbound on Lincoln.

In the center of the intersection the cars collided. Officer E. L. Hailey reports $559.16 damage to the Merchant car and no estimate yet on the damage to the Sorensen vehicle.

Oct. 28 at Sixth and Main, Ethel Martelle, Wayne, was northbound and signaled for a left turn but had to wait for southbound traffic to get by. Willis Johnson, Wayne, was behind the Martelle car and was unable to stop in time to avoid hitting it.

Chief of Police Vern Fairchild investigated the mishap. He reported $239 damage to the Johnson car and no estimate on damage to the Martelle vehicle.

Sue Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Snyder, left Wednesday for the Women's Air Force. She flew Thursday to Lackland AFB, Tex., for her basic training.

Mrs. Bert Hannah, Merced, Calif., spent two weeks in the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kingston.

School notes: The Junior class play, "Promise Not To Tell", a three-act comedy, will be held in the school assembly at 8 p.m. Nov. 11 and 12. Members of the cast are Della Lindahl, Susan Noe, Elayne Snyder, Donna Peters, Barbara Rastede, Agnes Brentlinger, Wayne Rasmussen, Steve Macklem, Mel Johnson, Ron Kraemer, Jerry Knoell, Wes Wingett is the director.

Visits Rural Schools Loren Braknhoff, consultant in elementary education for the State Department of Education, was in Wayne County Tuesday. He and Supt. Gladys Porter visited several rural schools in the county. It was the first inspection of the schools in four years.

Extra Car is Used Wayne's "second" police patrol car came in handy during the snowstorm Oct. 14. Chief Vern Fairchild points out, it was kept at the airport after telephone lines between the city and airport went down. The airport was without telephone service from Friday evening through Sunday of that week. City council members authorized use of the car in case of emergency.

of the car in loose gravel. The vehicle went into the ditch on the east side of the road, traveled 228 feet in the ditch, came out of the ditch and crossed the road at a 45-degree angle.

It then went into the west ditch and rolled over, coming to a stop almost on its wheels. The girls were able to push the car over enough so that it was on its wheels when officers arrived.

Final Rites For Ida S. Campbell Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Arthur Campbell, 74, were held Oct. 29 at United Presbyterian Church, Wayne. Mrs. Campbell died Oct. 26 at Wayne Hospital.

Rev. John W. Voth officiated at the rites. Music was furnished by Mrs. Gerald Hix at the organ. Pallbearers were Earl Jones, John H. Mohr, Harold Oberg, Erwin Longe, Max Holdorf and Arnold Heitman. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Winside Firemen Go Twice to Farm Fire

Winside Rural Fire Department was called out twice Thursday. Both times firemen went to the Hans Carstens farm 2 miles west and 1/2 miles south of Winside.

A hay pile had caught on fire about noon and firemen were summoned to get the fire under control. It was located in a stack next to another stack and also to a building in which hundreds of bushels of oats were stored.

The firemen brought the fire under control, wet down the area and let the hay smolder. At 10 p.m. they were called out again to put out the fire. Carstens not wanting it to flare up again in the middle of the night.

Fire Chief George Voss said the fire was completely extinguished on the second trip. The hay stack was not even smoldering when firemen returned home.

Hatchet Cuts Local Man's Wrist Deeply

Vern Schulz, Wayne street commissioner, was injured in a different type accident Sunday. He was struck by a hatchet that fell out of a tree and landed on his wrist.

The hatchet cut the arteries in his right hand at the wrist. Ronnie Mau, Wayne, who was working with him, took him to once to Sioux City for medical attention.

Working near Newcastle preparing a "tree house" to be used for deer hunting, the men found one knowledgeable person nearby who helped a lot after the mishap. She is a registered nurse and she told them what to do to slow bleeding while they were enroute to Sioux City.

At the hospital, doctors found it necessary to take many stitches to close the wound and sew up the arteries. Schulz said he has no idea how many stitches were taken, "but there were a lot of them."

Schulz has a deer permit for the Dec. 5-13 season. However, he was not sure the first of the week whether he would be able to hunt or not. One thing for sure, he will not be hunting from the tree house.

Concord Santa Gets Own Gift

Santa Claus will get a gift from Concord this year if the Concord Community Club has its way. The style will be the same as in past years, red trimmed in white, but the suit Santa has been wearing is pretty worn so a new suit is being considered.

The club, meeting Thursday night at the Bread Basket Cafe, also made plans for Thanksgiving and Christmas promotions. Turkey give-aways and Santa's visits are highlights.

Six turkeys will be given away before Thanksgiving. These will be dressed turkeys ready for the oven. The same sort of promotion will be carried out the first three Saturdays of December. Five will be given away each day, Dec. 3, 10 and 17.

Attend Norfolk Party

Several young people of Wayne First Baptist Church attended the youth party in the Norfolk Community Bible Church Saturday evening. Pastor Frank Pedersen accompanied Robert Pedersen, Rebecca Pedersen, Jane Carlson, Robert Peterson, Darrell Peterson, Amy Peterson, Shirley Peterson, Robert Penn, Holly Roggenbach, Lynn Roggenbach and a guest, Sandra Macke.

Pilger Seniors Sell

Pilger High School seniors raised $108.88 in their magazine subscription drive. Chip Peterson, Margaret Hunke and Pam Prazitz were winners of a hair dryer and a walkie-talkie, a hair dryer and a stuffed animal, respectively. Gary Andersen and Don Huemann were team captains. Senior week day will be financed with the proceeds.

Will Concord Boy Be Right-Handed Again?

The splints will come off the right hand of Steven Anderson, Concord, this coming week. In the minds of his parents is this question: Will he still be right-handed?

Since Sept. 6, Steven, 5, has been left-handed. He fell off a flat-rack at Ricky Peterson's birthday party at the Eider Peterson home Sept. 6. He broke his right hand.

A doctor put a cast on Steven's hand and the lad returned to his kindergarten class where he joined others in learning to write and doing art work. He has learned his numbers with his left hand and his art work is pretty good for a souhlpaw who was right-handed previously.

The cast came off his hand last week but to insure proper healing, a splint was left on. Everyone expects him to be right-handed again when the splint is off and he gets used to using his right hand, but Steven isn't promising anything after two months of being left-handed.

Monday he looked ambidextrous. Even with a splint on one hand, he wore a two-gun cowboy outfit to the Concord Elementary School Halloween parade.

Hoskins Class Gains Knowledge of State

The fourth grade at Hoskins Elementary School has more than the average fourth grade's knowledge of Nebraska. A project on the state has resulted in a lot of facets of the state now and in the past have been covered.

Taught by Mrs. Ethel Malmberg, the children have built a display on "Land of Plenty." They have miniatures of some items and the real things for others.

For instance, they have made small tepees, a sod house, Indians and livestock. They have samples from the dehy plant, silage, grains, soil, pictures of Nebraska scenes, pictures they have drawn and many other features.

Breaks, Hits Concern

Local Police Officers

Hitting things, break-ins and a variety of other com- plaints concerned the Wayne police department the past week. These were in addition to the routine patrol, accident investiga- tion and other activities of the department.

A home-owner reported someone took a shotgun and rifle from the closet in his home; school offi- cials reported someone broke into West Element- ary School but nothing was missing; a window was reported broken out of a car parked in a Main Street alley; a car was reported stolen and later reported returned.

A hit and run accident occurred on West Tenth but the license number of the car that was not stop- ped helped locate the driver; someone hit a tree on Pine Heights Road, skin- ning bark off in two places. A bicycle was reported missing and a commercial establishment received an- other order to clean up the area in the rear of the busi- ness place.

Dixon Man's Vehicle

Suffers Heavy Loss

Glen Macklem, Dixon, is a lucky man, and so is Ronald Mead, Sioux City. The two were involved in a collision Friday that left two vehicles almost total wrecks.

Deputy Sheriff John San- ford of Dixon County in- vestigated the mishap which occurred near the Waterbury junction with Highway 20. Mead, 20, was eastbound and Macklem was westbound.

According to the of- ficer's report, it appeared that Mead had been drink- ing. His car crossed over the center line of the high- way. The left fronts of the vehicles came together.

Neither one of the men was injured. However, Mead's car was declared a total loss and Macklem's had over $1,000 damage and was also thought to be almost a total loss.

We're for BOB DENNEY!

REPUBLICAN FOR FIRST DISTRICT CONGRESS

Because . . . of Denney's Positive Program

SOCIAL SECURITY — Improvement of the existing social security structure by increasing payments automatically when the cost of living jumps. The inflexibility of the present program is a hardship to those dependent on this income as a source to meet increased living costs.

FARM PROBLEMS — When demand and supply produce a parity income, the govern- ment has no business in the marketplace. When other conditions exist, full parity should be the achievement, rather than the political promise, of the government.

EDUCATION — Expansion of federal aid to education on all levels, with control of such programs and monies in the competent hands of our city, county and state authorities.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY — Stimulate private economy by working to lower today's record- high interest rates, while fighting to reduce Federal featherbedding of payrolls.

ANTI POVERTY — Work to reduce outland- ish administration costs of present programs and investing funds saved in vocational-tech- nical education and on-the-job training pro- grams.

CHECK AND BALANCE — Return of the Check-and-Balance principle is essential to preserve our form of government. This re- quires Congressional action to eliminate one- man rule of monies and programs by the Great Society's political hierarchy and elec- tion of a Congressman who will be an inde- pendent representative and not vote 92.6% of the time for LBJ sponsored legislation.

Bob Denney is an experienced lawyer and business leader. At 50, Bob Denney has a lifelong record of accomplishment in his community, District and state. He is a third generation Fairbury attorney and has served the public as a County Attorney, School Board member, FBI agent and Republican State Chairman. Raised and educated in Nebraska, Bob Denney is aware of the problems facing our District — and offers solutions to them!

Karen Kay Isom, Robert D. Blohm Married at Allen

Karen Kay Isom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Isom, Allen, and Robert Dean Blohm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Blohm, Allen, were married Oct. 15 at First Methodist Church, Allen. The altar was decorated with candelabra and ivy with baskets of white chrysanthemums and pompons.

Rev. Alfred Winkler officiated at the ceremony. Music was furnished by Mrs. Lyle Boeckenhauer, Wakefield, soloist, and Mrs. Verlan Hingst, Pender, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of peau de soie and Alencon lace. The empire style gown was fashioned with kabuchi sleeves and a train which fell from the shoulders of a sleeveless coat. Her veil of illusion was held by a peau de soie rose and she carried a cascade arrangement of white roses on a white Bible accented with deep blue velvet ribbon and net.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Mrs. Harlin Anderson, and the bridegroom's sisters, Mrs. Kenneth Anderson and Mrs. Robert Oberg. They wore floor length gowns of sapphire blue taffeta with matching pillbox hats. Each carried a cascade arrangement of a single chrysanthemum and feathered chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Richard Wyant, Earlene Black, Kim Isom and Brenda Oberg lighted the candles. Cindy Isom and Kay Anderson were flower girls.

Robert Oberg was best man. Groomsman were Ron Isom, the bride's brother, and Ken Anderson. Frank Plugger and Harlin Anderson were ushers.

The couple will reside in Allen.

Area Towns Have Quiet Halloween

Halloween was quiet in most of the towns in this area. Only Wayne reported any special problems and even then the guilty parties were caught in the act and will get special assignments to make up for their pranks Monday night.

Concord, Dixon, Carroll, Winside and Hoskins all reported light activity. Maybe it was the cold night, but whatever it was, something kept most kids at home.

Dixon reported what amounted to a normal night. Nothing was moved into the streets and there were no window soapings to any extent.

Concord was about the same although no windows were soaped. Some branches were pulled out into the streets and one culvert was torn out and put in a street but otherwise Tuesday morning found little indication that Halloween had come and gone.

Carroll had some use of shaving cream and soap. Machinery was moved around but it was too much work so that activity was not a major one. A special marshal was on duty, helping to account for the deadliest Halloween in years in that town.

Winside had soap on the windows but little else. Someone showed how expert they were at hitting a target by splattering the post office with eggs—a trick that could be a federal offense for defacing government property.

Hoskins had machinery pulled into the street, windows soaped and tissue "laced" in the trees. However, there was not much of these activities either and it was a quieter Halloween than usual.

In Wayne, four high school pupils were ordered to pull toilet tissue out of trees—and after all the trouble they had gone to in "decorating" the trees! Seven others will be washing the police cars and fire trucks Saturday. They were caught using shaving cream on cars. A few eggs were also thrown.

Wayne had four officers on duty in four cars, two patrol cars and two unmarked cars. There were only a few out very long and most of the activity in the county seat and other area towns was confined to tricks or treats by the little folks.

Wayne State Wildcats Win Championship in Football

Champions of Nebraska College Conference football—that's the reality for Wayne State gridders after 17 years of dreaming since their 1949 title.

The Wildcats entered the throne room with a 34-0 conquest of Chadron State Saturday night at Chadron, thus completing a 4-0 conference season.

Kearney State finished second, 3-1, with a 36-6 rout of Hastings, third on a 2-2 record. Peru, 1-3, is fourth; Chadron, 0-4, fifth.

Wayne ends its season Saturday afternoon at the University of Minnesota, Morris, a team that has won one of eight games this year and was a 54-0 victim of Wayne here last year.

Despite its lopsided loss

ing record, Morris is an offensive threat, Wayne scouts report. The Cougars have totaled 110 points, but allowed opponents 210.

Last week Morris gave a potent Northern State team plenty of trouble in the first half, then wilted after Northern staged some spectacular passing plays that produced a 41-20 win.

Wayne had difficulties, too, in first-half efforts against Chadron. The Wildcats scored once on Randy Bernard's only run of the game, a four-yard smash, followed by Don Grubaugh's conversion kick. Two other Wayne touchdowns were spoiled by penalties. Otherwise, the determined Eagles thwarted Wildcat attacks short of the goal line.

Bernard's first touchdown in two seasons at Wayne set the stage for what was to come. Most of the time he plays defense, as linebacker. His scoring play was only his tenth carry at fullback. Two other touchdowns were the work of primarily defensive players taking a crack at offense.

Ron Fox, a cornerback regular, ripped off a 45-yard rush as fullback, then dashed the last 10 yards to score in the fourth quarter. In four carries he traveled 66 yards, equaling the production of halfback regular Dennis Radtke.

Jim Gray, usually a defensive halfback, moved to quarterback late in the game and looped a long pass to freshman halfback Jerry Lenz for a 32-yard touchdown.

The other Wayne tallies came on a 10-yard run by fullback Blake Oleson in the third period and a 24-yard romp by halfback Dennis Kirby in the fourth. Grubaugh added points on four of his five conversion kicks.

It was fitting that defensive players achieve some scoring glory in the championship game, for defense has repeatedly come up with game-saving plays in the NCC campaign.

A few statistics measure Wayne's domination: 432 yards total gain; to 58 by Chadron; 22 Wayne first downs, four by Chadron; nine of 18 Wayne passes completed, four of Chadron's 13; three interceptions by Wayne, one by

Harlem Magicians Appear Sunday in Benefit Tilt for WSC Athletic Fund

Basketball season opens Sunday night in Wayne—but not in the usual way. The opener will feature the Fabulous Magicians, a team of Negro court wizards with few if any peers in the basketball world, playing a benefit game at Wayne State's Rice gym at 8 p.m.

Their opposition will be the Wayne All-Stars, an aggregation of former college cageters willing to challenge the Magicians' incredible victory record of something like 2,550 wins and eight losses in nine seasons.

The Wayne team includes Dean deBuhr, all-time scoring champ for WSC; Ken Dahl, another former Wildcat court star; Paul Cassens, Bob and Rich Symonds, Gary Tewel, and John Lang, all ex-WSC varsity players. Proceeds will go to the WSC athletic scholarship fund.

The Magicians are headed by Marques Haynes, president of the organization and dribbling artist deluxe. During his four seasons at Langston University, he was a key to a four-year record of 112 wins and three losses.

John Grider, a Tennessee State University product, now on the faculty there, Thomas "Hawk" Gibson, one of the fastest players in basketball, and Bob "Trick" Woods, a teammate of Bill Russell in high school at Oakland, Calif., add names of renown to the roster. Woods is reputed to be a master of all the trick shots in the game—plus a zany comedy routine.

The Magicians come to play basketball primarily, but they mix considerable clowning with it because as Woods remarks, "You need laughs today in this world of tension and pressure."

Tickets will be sold at the door: $1.50 and $1.00.

Chadron. The Eagles were forced to punt 11 times, Wayne only four.

In Wayne's 5-2 season, team statistics show the Wildcats with a big superiority in every phase, except in fumbles.

Radtke regained the rushing lead with a seven-game total of 337, one yard more than Kirby's four-game sum. Oleson has 317. In passing quarterback Steve Gunther has completed exactly 50 per cent for a whopping 925 yards—by far the biggest total for a Wayne passer in years, if not ever. Cliff Schilling leads in pass receptions with 22 for 296 yards.

WSC Team Wins Third in NCC

Wayne State's cross country team placed third in the Nebraska College Conference meet Saturday at Kearney. The host Kearney harriers retained their championship with a 26-point score, followed by Peru State with 41, Wayne 65, Chadron State 112.

Defending champion A.D. Benson of Wayne and Tim Hendricks of Peru battled all the way till Hendricks pulled out for a 19:48 victory, six seconds ahead of Benson. Earlier this season the two finished the same way in a Wayne-Peru dual.

Wayne's other four point makers were Dennis Kasische, 10th; Jim Belts, 15th; Mark Robinson, 18th, and Joe Byrne, 20th.

Kearney runners placed 3, 4, 5, 6, 8; Peru's 1, 7, 9, 11, 13; Chadron's 19, 20, 22, 25, 26.

games and credit is long overdue. Schumacher and his bandmen.

Wednesday night the Junior band took the field in front of the stadium and proceeded to entertain the fans with the portrayal of television extravaganzas. The band formed a TV set and tuned it in to the "Howdy Dobby" show as appropriately dressed Howdy Dobby danced across the screen. A change of channels brought the "Lone Stranger and Sliver" show as the Lone Stranger remained camera shy and hid behind Sliver. Both numbers were to appropriate musical accompaniment.

In the final TV show of this production Schumacher was selected as participant in the $164,000 question game. He was placed in the isolation booth on the screen and was subjected to questioning, the first of which was "When was the best time for Washington to cross the Delaware?" With some thought and then a raise of his baton the band played "In the Evening By The Moonlight". Raising to the next plateau and question: "What were Abraham Lincoln's last words to the Daughters of the American Revolution?" the band complied with "Goodnight Ladies." For the $164,000 question of what Coach Hansen's boys will say, the musical answer was "Our Team

Will Shine Tonight." The Junior band was then joined on the field by the salty senior band as they entered playing the first song "Three Cheers for Wayne High." Final numbers were Jeanne Kaye and head majorette of the Junior band Mary Ellis in duet baton twirling exhibition with fire batons and the combined bands playing "Military Escort."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers. It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

Only One Vote

If you stay home Tuesday and do not bother to vote, it will be a matter of one less vote. The trouble is, there may be several hundred more in the county just like you who will stay home.

When you do this, you help the minority. If only 75 per cent of the voters get to the polls it is possible for 40 per cent of the people to decide an issue. For instance, if 100,000 voters were eligible to vote and the final count showed 75,000 turned out with 40,000 voting for the measure and 35,000 against, it would mean the majority of the VOTERS wanted the measure passed but not necessarily a majority of the ELIGIBLE VOTERS wanted it.

Wayne County has few races to settle next Tuesday. However, on the state and national state there are several vital campaigns and it will be interesting to see how the majority of the VOTERS decide the races.

There are also amendments. Some are a bit difficult to understand. One you have to vote "against" in order to be "for." That's the complexity of our system. It would be highly complimentary to this county if a big majority of the eligible voters would turn out to cast ballots. In fact, it might gain nationwide publicity and spur other areas to push for better turn-outs in future elections.

If you are of voting age and have lived here long enough, by all means vote. A list of polling places is contained on the front page of this week's paper.

You have heard it before but hearing it again will not hurt: One of your most priceless "rights" is to cast a ballot in a free election. Millions around the world do not share this privilege with you.

Maybe the entire nation cannot be aroused enough to do something about the failure to get most of the voters out for elections, but Wayne County citizens can do something. What's more, YOU can do something. You can vote.—CEG.

Vote 'Against' If You're For

On Wayne County's ballot Tuesday will be an issue that will be confusing to voters. If the people want this county to be INCLUDED in the educational service unit of this area, they have to vote in the box beside the words "Against Exclusion."

The issue is whether Wayne County shall be excluded from Educational Service Unit of the State of Nebraska. You can vote "For Exclusion" or "Against Exclusion."

What can an educational service unit do that can't be done without them? The main thing is: Provide help for the young who need help from specialists but who are so few in number each county cannot afford a specialist of its own.

For instance, there are the hard-of-hearing. Under the unit plan, a specialist would spend a few hours a week in this county, a few hours a week in Cedar County and a few hours a week in each of the other counties in the unit helping instruct these young people, who would spend the rest of their time in regular classrooms.

How about the young people who are unusually talented? Assistance can be provided local schools and teachers to offer work that would be unobtainable with funds Wayne County can provide.

Know any children with speech handicaps? Did you know most speech defects can be cured or at least reduced? A therapist traveling from school to school could help all the kids in this area with a speech program that will not be available otherwise.

Educational units can provide extra guidance and counseling services, especially in smaller schools where such service is not now offered; they can give in-service training and workshops for teachers; they can offer advice when requested for local schools needing help in planning and revising the curriculum; they can provide nurses, doctors and dentists to serve on a rotating basis to take care of the sick and injured and to catch trouble before it grows; they can provide quantity buying that will lower costs on books and material; they can provide film libraries too expensive for individual schools to own; they can offer more adult courses; and they can do other things for a group of schools none of the schools could provide alone.

These educational units would be governed by a board made up of representatives from each county; they would leave local control in charge of individual schools; they would offer local boards a chance to request additional services; and they would let local boards determine what services will be provided.

In short, they provide a way for local school districts to receive needed supplementary educational services which they cannot by themselves provide, and they give all children a chance to have equal educational opportunities.

Wayne County cannot afford to be excluded from a unit such as this, for if neighboring counties stay in the unit and this county votes "for exclusion," borderline residents will soon find their children have much to gain by attending schools in the counties where the extra services are offered.

Read that ballot carefully. Then vote "AGAINST EXCLUSION" from the educational service unit. If necessary, take this editorial to the polls with you to remind you what you're doing when you mark an "X" in the "For Exclusion" or in the "Against Exclusion" box.

Vote with care—AGAINST exclusion.—CEG.

The Last Editorial

This will be the last editorial on the issue of bringing a communist to speak at WSC. The Herald has no intentions of carrying on a non-stop debate with those who disagree.

As is its right, the newspaper has taken a stand. Now that it is known what the stand is, it is up to those who disagree to take the matter up with those who will make the decision. It is hoped those making the decision will show more good judgment than some adults have—a statement which may be interpreted any way you wish.

The Herald does want to make these points:

1. Why do some people think it is ABSOLUTELY IMPOSSIBLE to learn about communism without hearing a communist speak? Historians can study history without being in Egypt or talking to an ancient Phoenician; geography students can study their subject without going to every spot they wish to learn about; scientists do not have to be injected with the germs they study; doctors do not have to catch a disease before learning about it. Why is it so all-fired important to hear a communist? Why wouldn't an ex-communist be able to give more information in a less biased way?

2. The few who wrote do not represent the majority of the students. They represent themselves, and a vociferous group they are too. Most of the students couldn't care less. They don't want to hear a communist and they don't want them here. They are here to study and prepare for facing life, not to face life and then study afterwards to find out where they erred.

3. The places where they have active communist groups now are the places where communist speakers were brought in to talk. A few were convinced. They remained to convince other. The fact that they were "convinced" does not make their cause just—they were misled. Why do a few demand that the entire student body be given a chance to be misled when they know they can hear a communist speak if they want to go other places where radicals prevail and off-beat life and conceptions of freedom are the rule rather than the exception?

4. Some students have said they are ready now to learn about communism. Next year will they say the sixth grade is ready and the year after that the kids in the first grade should get their indoctrination? Who sets the limits as to when and where communism instruction should be started? Are they ready for their brothers and sisters at home to start on such a path? They're not? We're not ready for the college students to start either and we don't think they're as ready as they have been led to believe. They have indicated a lack of maturity that only emphasizes how dangerous a little misinformation can be.

5. Cuba is communist today. Communism slipped in so innocently. Communists all but took over Indonesia. Pure luck prevented a complete take-over. Do these students at Wayne State who think they want to hear communists believe that they are any more capable of resisting the lies and lures of communism than students of Cuba and Indonesia were? If they believe that, they are really not ready for such speakers.

6. The Herald has never asked that anyone be denied the rights of freedom of speech. It has pointed out that we don't want a communist asked to speak here. Where is there anything in the Constitution that says we are depriving a man of his rights by not inviting him to speak? WSC is not obligated to invite a commie and we're not obligated to sit idly by without protest while an extremely small minority group clamors for the appearance of a communist.

Pages could be written on the subject. The fact remains that the ones who wind up being communists are like the ones who wind up being dope fiends. They have to get that first "injection" sometime. Why make it available to so many in such an innocent-seeming way? It's just too dangerous.

Speakers are brought in to sway people's minds and communists aim to control these minds. There are no more fertile fields than the college campuses where the students anxious to learn are often too willing to swallow everything sent their way.

Our own generation has made mistakes and admits to them. The students are asked to recognize that we have learned by mistakes. They too will learn, but we would like to help them avoid the pitfalls which are obvious to us and so well hidden from them. Maybe they do not want "protection" now but they will be grateful for it as they mature.

In conclusion, no parents sent their

Amendment 6 Explained By Two State Journals

Two weeks ago, this column's explanation of Constitutional Amendment No. 6 brought a couple of replies concerning the proposal.

These replies raised a question over the accuracy of the explanation and wondered whether a prejudiced viewpoint wasn't projected.

It was not—and never had been—the intention of this writer to take sides on any issue. This column tries to present an unbiased, detached look at current news events. This guideline was not altered one iota for Amendment 6.

Amendment 6, it appears is the most controversial of the proposals that will appear on the Nov. 8 ballot. Whenever a volatile issue such as this is involved, there are always various interpretations of just what the proposal would do if passed.

In many communities, sides have been taken on Amendment 6. Nebraska's two largest daily newspapers—Omaha World-Herald and Lincoln Evening Journal—even disagree on certain aspects of this amendment.

In the interest of complete fairness and to remove any doubts as to this column's approach to issues, here are the editorials from the World-Herald and Journal on Amendment No. 6.

Omaha World-Herald, Oct. 20
In its summary of the constitutional amendments proposed by the Legislature, the Nebraska Legislative Council refers to the school bus amendment as "naturally quite controversial."

This is an understatement. Amendment 6 is a rouser. It is giving off more sparks than the tax amendments, and is the subject of increasingly bitter argument.

On one point, however, there should be no confusion. We refer to the intent of the Legislature in submitting the amendment. This intent is discussed at some length in the above-mentioned summary, which leaves no doubt about what the Legislature thought it was doing.

The proposal would amend Section 11 of Article VII of the Nebraska Constitution, which forbids the Legislature or any county, city or public corporation to "make any appropriation from any public fund or grant any public land in aid of any sectarian or denominational school or college." The Legislative Council's summary says that the Attorney General has always held that this language "prohibits the expenditure of public funds to provide bus transportation for pupils attending either parochial or private schools."

Amendment 6 would remove this prohibition by adding the following language to Section 11: "Provided, that transportation services may be provided for children attending either parochial or private schools."

Lincoln Evening Journal, Oct. 19
Emerging as the most controversial and misunderstood proposal on the lengthy Nebraska ballot—even eclipsing the maze of tax issues in the confusion it creates—is Constitutional Amendment No. 6, the so-called school bus amendment.

school bus to pick up some students—those attending public school—and leave others standing on the roadside—those going to parochial schools? This is not a misleading argument. For the amendment, if passed, would do far more than simply permit parochial students to ride a public school bus which happened to be going their way.

It would authorize the establishment of publicly-supported bus routes to take parochial students from wherever they live to wherever their school is located. If a community has no church-operated school, students presumably could be transported at public expense, to another community that does.

Present law provides that public school students living more than four miles from an elementary school or more than eight miles from a high school shall be transported at public expense. If there is no bus service, parents can be reimbursed for providing transportation.

Passage of Amendment No. 6 apparently would permit the same publicly-supported service for students attending church-operated schools.

Thus, it is not at all unreasonable to presume that passage of this amendment could cost Nebraska taxpayers three or four million dollars annually, as calculated by Mrs. J. F. Lucas of Omaha, a past president of the Nebraska School Boards Association.

Most distressing, though, is the realization that this amendment, if adopted, would surely be only the start of public support of parochial schools in Nebraska.

This has been the pattern in other states which have opened the school bus door. This is the stated objective of the Roman Catholic church whose recent Vatican Council urged that "public subsidies should be so distributed that parents may be able to choose for their children the schools they want."

Opposition to Amendment No. 6 in no way implies opposition to any religious denomination or to the spirit of ecumenism which has gratified this country and the world of late. Indeed, passage of this amendment is certain to fan more religious controversy within local school districts than exists at this time.

But how, it is asked, can people perpetuate a system which allows a youngster to Wayne State College will feel that their children's learning has been neglected if communists are not invited to speak here.—CEG.

Mrs. John Paulsen, Carroll, was named Auxiliary president to succeed Mrs. Podoll.

Nor can those opposed to this amendment be portrayed as opponents of parochial schools. Rather, they are proponents of public schools and they are properly concerned that growing tax support of private schools can only weaken the public schools.

The right of church groups to operate their own schools is cherished in this state, as it should be. Just as well established, though, should be the responsibility of these church groups to bear the cost of their schools.

Amendment No. 6, in the opinion of The Lincoln Journal, is a very bad incursion for Nebraska's constitution and could cause the state irreparable harm.

Carl Curtis CAPITOL COMMENTS

By now the American people undoubtedly are tiring, with a grain of salt, a lot of pronouncements coming out of Washington about the legislation and problems facing the next Congress.

There are rumors that a tax increase is in the offing and other rumors that one will not be necessary.

Behind the facade, there is a great amount of genuine concern among economists about the rising inflation.

There has been serious talk of a tax increase as a weapon to cool the overheated economy. As many are expected in an election year, this has prompted some denials from the party in power and some "hints" that it won't be necessary after all.

Regardless of the rumors from both the Administration and the opposition, the rising cost of living is a problem which will face the Congress either in special session after the election or in the new session convening in January.

It is offensive to many of us who battle for responsibility in government to see Federal expenditures rising each year at a rate ahead of the growth of the gross national product.

It is common sense to expect that our national expansion provides more expense annually. More COMMENTS — Page 2

(Continued from Page 2) should permit us to keep outgo even with income. I feel strongly that spending schemes including our vast welfare programs should be kept in check as the principal anti-inflation weapon.

These schemes make it more difficult for the Federal government to assist states and communities in problem areas where they share responsibility.

In fact, the City of Omaha is the victim rather than the beneficiary of some of this welfare spending.

Because of the inflation which this type of spending has caused, money has become tight, interest rates have gone up and Omaha city officials have been forced to remove an important bond issue for city improvements from the November 8 ballot. This means Omahans will be denied the opportunity to meet their own needs locally.

Omaha is but one example. The problem exists in other communities throughout Nebraska and the Nation.

The sacrifices in order to obtain the Federal largesse are becoming greater in comparison with the returns.

Inflation also threatens to delay or cripple plans for needed Federal capital improvements.

This is unfortunate because welfare spending is here today and gone tomorrow, whereas capital improvements, such as reclamation and recreation, projects add new productive wealth which is passed on to our children and many generations to come.

The Johnson Administration's heavy welfare spending and attempts to make her appear not inflationary. There sheer hypocrisy. If the Administration were to live up to the facts publicly, it would have to admit that there has been secret planning for a tax increase and wage and price controls for some time but no one in the Administration is going to admit officially that such steps are in the offing until after the election.

These are facts of political life in this election year, 1966. It remains to be seen how well the voters see through the facade and understand what is really taking place.

Among the problems which loom large in the future are transportation, recreation, and air and water pollution. These cannot be solved prudently for the next generation if we continue exhausting our financial resources and going into debt to finance today's welfare programs.

"A" Is For Apple Availability

Apples are rating an "A" for availability this fall, though not as big as last year's harvest, the U.S. apple crop will be greater than the recent average. Apples are available in a wide variety of packaging—loose displays, baskets, tray packs, overwraps, and poly bags of various sizes—for ease in selecting just the right amount.

When apples are on your shopping list, do you know how to pick out the best of those available? The first consideration in choosing fresh apples is their ripeness and condition. As a general rule, good color indicates the fullest flavor. Another key to just right ripeness is the squeak of your finger rubbing across the apple skin. Not-yet-ripe apples will be hard and lack their typical color (which depends on the variety). Over-ripe apples—undesirable because they are soft, mealy and less flavorful—will yield to slight pressure. Remember, slight pressure—please don't squeeze!

Soft bruises and decay spots are wasteful and should be avoided, of course. Size, too, is important. Generally, a small apple will not yield as much "meat" as larger ones, thus making larger sizes more economical. But some varieties are naturally small, and occasionally small sizes are just right for the purpose, such as a small child's snack.

Finally, the extended use also should be considered. Some varieties seem better than others for cooking, while others have qualities preferred for raw uses. Most major varieties are relatively all purpose.

First choice for use of apples—with the exceptions of eating them out of hand—is in pies, no doubt. But the crispness, color, tartness and juiciness so characteristic of apples make them a natural for appetite-sparking salads as well.

Nebraska Ranks High?

Nebraska gets approximately 30 per cent of its state tax funds from the property tax. No other states come near to obtaining so large a part of state tax from property.

Second ranking in this respect is Wyoming with 18 per cent, third is Arizona with 16 per cent and fourth is Montana which obtains only 8 per cent from property taxes.

New Growth Dangerous Young green shoots which may come on sorghums following frosts can kill cattle quickly. Sorghums can be considered safe for pasturing only after plants have been completely killed by freezing.

Fire Danger High Until moisture comes in the form of rain or snow, the danger of fire getting out of control is extremely high.

A combination of low humidity and strong winds typical for this season set up a tinderbox of leaves, weeds and crop debris.

People cause over 80 per cent of all fires. Everyone, including hunters is urged to use extreme caution under present conditions.

The burning of leaves and trash on windy days is especially hazardous.

Clean Up Flower Gardens Now is a good time for flower gardeners to save themselves a lot of trouble from diseases next summer.

Many organisms that cause plant diseases lay dormant over winter in the plant debris and refuse, only to become active again in the spring. By removing and burning the tops of herbaceous plants, much of this over-wintering source of next season's infections will be eliminated.

Stalks of peonies, delphinium, hollyhocks, phlox, and similar plants should be cut and removed. Leaves infected with leaf spots, mildews, or rusts should be raked up and burned. After a hard frost the old leaves and trash can be removed from iris.

After the flower beds have been cleaned up, all ground can be worked up and prepared for next spring. Before the late fall freeze-up, perennial flower beds should receive plenty of moisture to prevent winter injury.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor: The men, who first organized the rural electric association in Wayne county, voted to have all the rural areas of the county represented on the board of directors. A few years later, some of the directors wanted to move to town but still hold their positions. In order to do this, the city of Wayne was included within the district. This not only gave these men the right to continue to hold office, but it also gave voters in Wayne a voice in the election of directors and concentrated the directors in an area that didn't use R.E.A. power. However, Wayne didn't give the farmers any vote in the management of their municipal light plant in return.

After several years work, enough pressure was put on the directors so that once again only the patrons will have the right to vote or hold office in the Wayne County Rural Public Power District. However the plan calls for this change to be completed in the next four years.

This year two rural men and one Wayne resident are running for the two vacancies on the R.E.A. board. The voters can hasten this change by electing the two farmers as members of the board, thus giving the rural areas the representation they deserve.

For this reason, I am urging the voters of Wayne and Wayne county to vote for Leland Thompson and Wilbur Utecht for directors of the Wayne County Rural Public Power District.

Yours for Fair Play, Robert Boeckenhauer

Dear Editor: According to a letter to the editor in your last issue the local fuzzi are guilty of looking the other way when a minor misdemeanor was being committed. Let me tell you of another case.

The other night and early morning one of the neighborhood houses had what the younger generation call a keg party—yes right here in Wayne. The keg was visible from the street in an open garage, the conduct of the young people involved could not be put into words and passed through the mails, wide open to any passerby. The local law officers were on this street early in the evening and rightly did their duty of hanging a parking ticket on a local car. But from 9 p.m. until 4 a.m. this drinking brawl went unscathed. Why wasn't the law called? Because once we did have occasion to call the police and after the third degree questioning of whom was calling and why and what was it hurting us, etc. we vowed that with the additional police car and thousands of miles the cars traveled we would never subject ourselves to call again. You guessed it, the next morning the police were on the street looking for another car to ticket. Wake up city fathers, the load is getting heavy.

Dear Editor: I see by your paper that the intellectuals on the hill are giving you a bad time about your communist editorial.

Now I don't know how Sally McCluskey, Janet Bettin, Charles S. Curb, et. al. would do it, but I don't have to bring a skunk into the kitchen in order to show my kids how he smells.

Dear Editor:

Read with interest your editorials and letters concerning the communist cliches and (sympathizers) we have in our midst.

We who have fought through the great depression of the 30's and World War II, can find no room for such individuals. To me it sounds like the parties who signed stated letters cannot remember the St. Onge, WS case or don't want to remember it. Thank God the college administration had the guts to assume their stand.

Do the intellectuals on the hill know or realize that a commie needs to sway one weak or warped mind to make his day complete? One commie speaker against a college full of 2800 kids, the odds are in his favor, and certainly not worth the gamble.

I wouldn't let my kids be bitten by a rat to see if it is rabid anymore than I would let them be exposed to a commie to see if that is what they wanted.

—An American!

Dear Editor: In case anyone missed the point in the first paragraph, I shall elaborate. I just returned from a daily ride with four other kids on our horses. Since everyone calls the police if we ride in town because they are afraid we'll "ruin their lawns" or something, that leaves us the fairgrounds or country to ride in. As we rode down the country road about a mile and back, I couldn't keep track of how many care less drivers zoomed by. Maybe people don't realize that horses are nervous. When a car goes by, they are. If it is convenient, we head for the ditches if we see a car coming. However, in many cases, they are steep or impossible to get into. That leaves us the alternative to line up in single file on one side of the road, which we as a citizen are covering the area.

Please, people, don't you read of the many accidents because of this horseback riding is a lot of fun, so let's keep this kind of enjoyment around Wayne out of danger.

Dear Editor:

Under Amendment I of the United States Constitution, all individuals are guaranteed the right of free speech. This also applies to a Communist speaker. How can the threat of Communism be thwarted if the citizens remain as ignorant to the threat as they now are. We would enjoy hearing a Communist speaker in order to make a qualitative analysis of his ideas.

In regard to your editorial on the LaPorte Cemetery. The Revised Statutes of Nebraska, Section 23-113 reads as follows:

When petitioned by twenty-five freeholders of the County, the County Board may expend money from the general fund of the County, for the care and maintenance of each abandoned and neglected cemetery as follows:

(1) Not to exceed Two Hundred Fifty dollars in any one year when the cemetery is totally abandoned; or (2) not to exceed two hundred dollars in any one year when the cemetery is partially abandoned.

Yours truly, David J. Hamer, County Judge (This is fine news. We hope something will be done about it both by the county board of commissioners and the people acting as private citizens. Something should be done this fall—unless you people want to hear us harping about it all winter.—Editor).

—An American!

Dear Editor: May I suggest to those few WSC students and faculty, and they are FEW, who are so excited about hearing a Communist speak on the WSC campus, that they be allowed the freedom of hearing a Red speak, in person, right on the front lines in Viet Nam? For there they will see the Commies truth in the form of deadly bullets and bloody bodies that were once human. Or does Mr. Curb care to look at a handsome curly haired American buddy of his who has just had his intestines nearly ripped out of him and his own warm blood oozes hideously from his mouth? Would Mr. Curb bravely step up to the dying lad and ask "don't you think that we young men who are home on the college campus should be allowed to hear your Communist murderer speak next month in the name of the freedom of speech?"

Surely Charles' father pays taxes to the U. S. Government and a percentage goes to help pay freedom's fight in Viet Nam. Some of his taxes also go to support WSC or schools like it. Isn't it a bit ironic that in Viet Nam his father's taxes fight the Reds, but at home in a tax supported institution, his son is asking for the privilege of listening to the enemy spout Red venom. The Communists have but one purpose and Mr. Khrushchev has said it, i.e. to "bury" the U.S. Perhaps Charles might well consult his father's wisdom hereafter, prior to writing more public letters.

We Americans who went through hell in WWII find it a bit difficult to "savvy" why any self-respecting U.S. college student would even consider wanting on campus a representative of that ideology which is killing his brother in Viet Nam. Can you imagine David inviting Goliath over for a resume of Goliath's philosophical beliefs so he could be more confirmed in his own? Suppose Mr. Curb was held up by robbers and thugs on a dark city street, does he then proceed to invite the thugs to extol their perverted ideas so they too might not be robbed of their freedom to speak?

Many fathers of WSC students were in WWII foxholes and little did they consider sending invitations to Nazi or Jap headquarters to secure a speaker in their educational facilities in order to "better understand the enemies thoughts, plans and ideas"! A man who survived the WWII inferno and came home, fathered a son who is now off to college, must be more than just a little concerned about his son's college faculty members who would advocate inviting the sworn enemy of our nation to present his religion of hate and destruction of true freedom on campus!

If the WSC students and faculty, surely the number is small, who want to hear about Communism, would invite in a "green beret" soldier, they could hear a vivid description! There is, of course, that possibility that even such a gallant man just back from Viet Nam might be considered as no more than another "blindly vicious anti-communist tract".

Mr. Curb wrote "A hundred Vassilevs (Communist) are not so great a danger to freedom as one widely-circulated editorial that sanctimoniously demands that freedom of speech be allowed to extend only so far but no farther—to our supporters but not to our detractors". Is Charles Curb right SURE that Vassilev didn't get to him?

Again Mr. Curb writes "In communist countries anti-communist speeches are not allowed." Well, I'll be doggoned! He admits the Reds at least stand up and protect that which they believe to be right! But do you know what? One can almost change that statement these days to "On American college campuses anti-communist speeches are not allowed!"

Thank goodness Mr. Curb's ideas and those of Mrs. McCluskey wouldn't win the popularity vote among the gallant "green berets", the men in Viet Nam, nor even on the WSC campus! The freedom of speech is one thing. Fraternizing with the enemy is quite another.

Remember the caution note given when the new litter cans were put up? It said that people should note the little opening says "Litter" not "Letter". There are obviously many who cannot read or do not look. So far, only one letter has been "mailed" in the litter box by the postoffice but 21 others have been deposited for mail in litter cans in the business district. City employees sift the trash carefully as they unload the containers but they could miss some mail.

Postmaster Don Wightman says the post office department appreciates the helpfulness of the city employees but reports it would help even more if people would use the mail deposit boxes for mail. It is difficult to see how the mistake is made as there just are not any striped mail boxes in the country, especially in pastel shades of pink, rose, yellow, green and blue!

SASS Shmoe (tenderly): "When did you first realize you loved me?" Flo: "When I began to get mad whenever people said you were brainless and unattractive."

SASS Our bouquet of the week goes to those who have disagreed with our editorial on allowing communists to come in and speak to college students. We deplore their feelings on the matter but we respect their right to object (even though we think some fail to respect our right to print an opinion with as much fervency as they support a commie's right to speak anywhere). What we respect most is their willingness to sign their names and let them be printed: To us, this indicates they are sincere in their belief that it is a matter of freedom of speech that is involved. We think they are wrong—dead wrong—in this discussion. Some day the majority will agree with us as they get away from influences that are leading them in the wrong direction now. Until then, we hope they can put the same enthusiasm and sincerity into some worthwhile undertaking as they have put into this "cause for a communist."

SASS They fed the computer at the Pentagon a series of questions, and the answer came back: "Yes." The admiral in charge asked the computer: "Yes—what?"

SASS City Visitor: "Why are you running a steam roller over the road?" Farmer: "I figure I'll raise MASHED potatoes this year."

SASS It didn't take people long to see how much that extra marking meant painted out into the street in the parallel tandem parking areas. No longer is it necessary to open the door on the driver's side, lean over and look out beneath the bottom of the door and over the top of the door sill to see how much room is left. Now if we could just move the Second and Fourth Street traffic signals to Seventh and Main!

SASS Wife: "I have some good news for you, dear." Husband: "What?" Wife: "You haven't been paying auto accident insurance premiums for nothing."

SASS How about voting this next Tuesday. If you don't vote, don't complain about the ones who are elected. If you don't vote and don't get all your choices in office, maybe next time there is an election you will get out and do a little political work for your favorites instead of letting the others do the work. A hard-working group of sailors (small in number) has shouldered the load for the Democrats and another similar group has carried the load for the Republicans in the campaign just ending.

SASS Joe: "I can't think of anything worse than a woman who drives from the back seat." Flo: "How about the man who cooks from the dining room table!"

NEBRASKA NEEDS TIEMANN

Norbert Tiemann is a dynamic leader, an experienced organizer, and a forward-looking Nebraskan. Because he is all these things, plus an experienced businessman, a proven administrator, and an agricultural expert, Norbert Tiemann is Nebraska's best choice for Governor.

Run for the Governor: Norbert Tiemann, Treasurer, 1966. 1510 St. Lincoln, Area Chairman.

VOTE FOR TIEMANN REPUBLICAN FOR GOVERNOR

WOULD YOU BELIEVE.....

Carl Curtis voted against the Test Ban Treaty. The Senate ratified it by a vote of 80 to 19. 76% of the voting Republicans, including Senator Hruska, voted for the Treaty, but NOT Carl Curtis. (Congressional Record, September 24, 1963)

Republicans for Tiemann

Paid for by Wayne County Republicans for Tiemann: Chairman: Bob Johnson, 208 West 2nd St., Wayne, Neb.

LEGAL NOTICE OF MEASURES TO BE VOTED UPON NOVEMBER 8, 1966. BALLOT TITLES AND TEXTS OF CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS PROPOSED BY THE 1965 LEGISLATURE SEVENTY-FIFTH SESSION

PROPOSED BY THE 1965 LEGISLATURE
Proposed Amendment No. 1
Constitutional amendment to eliminate the ineligibility of elective executive state officers to any other state office during the term for which they have been elected.

For Against

TEXT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska.

Section 1. That at the general election in November, 1966, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the following amendment to Article VII, section 2, of the Constitution of Nebraska, which is hereby proposed by the Legislature:

"Sec. 2. No person shall be eligible to the office of Governor, or Lieutenant Governor, who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and who shall not have been for five years next preceding his election a resident and citizen of this state and a citizen of the United States. None of the appointive officers mentioned in this article shall be eligible to any other state office during the period for which they have been appointed."

Proposed Amendment No. 2

Section 1. That at the general election in November, 1966, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the following amendment to Article III, section 7, of the Constitution of Nebraska, which is hereby proposed by the Legislature:

"Sec. 7. At the general election to be held in November, 1964, one half the members of the Legislature, or as nearly thereto as may be practicable, shall be elected for a term of four years, and the remainder for a term of two years, and thereafter all members shall be elected for a term of four years, with the manner of such election to be determined by the Legislature. Each member shall be nominated and elected in a bipartisan manner and without any indication on the ballot that he is affiliated with or endorsed by any political party or organization. Each member of the Legislature shall receive a salary of not to exceed two hundred dollars per month during the term of his office. In addition to his salary, each member shall receive a mileage allowance in traveling by the most usual route to and from home every month that the Legislature is in regular or special session, plus a per diem allowance for each legislative day served but not to exceed one hundred twenty legislative days per session. Members of the Legislature shall receive no pay nor perquisites other than said salary and expenses, and employees of the Legislature shall receive no compensation other than their salary or per diem."

Proposed Amendment No. 3

"Sec. 11. No sectarian instruction shall be allowed in any school or institution supported in whole or in part by the public funds set apart for educational purposes, nor shall the state accept any grant, conveyance, or bequest of money, lands or other property to be used for sectarian purposes. Neither the state Legislature nor any county, city or other public corporation, shall ever make any appropriation from any public fund, or grant any public land in aid of any sectarian or denominational school or college, or any educational institution which is not exclusively owned and controlled by the state or a governmental subdivision thereof, except that the state of governmental subdivision may provide for a different method of taxing motor vehicles and may also establish a separate class of motor vehicles consisting of those owned and held for sale by motor vehicle dealers which shall be taxed in the manner and to the extent as provided by the Legislature and may also establish a separate class of motor vehicles, trailers, semi-trailers, truck-tractors, or combinations thereof, consisting of those owned by residents and nonresidents of this state, and operating in interstate commerce, and may provide reciprocal and proportionate taxation of such vehicles; Provided, that such tax proceeds from motor vehicles taxed in each county shall be allocated to the state, counties, townships, cities, villages, and school districts of such county in the proportion that the level of each bears to the total level of said county on personal tangible property. The Legislature may enact laws to provide that the value of land actively devoted to agricultural or horticultural use, shall, for property tax purposes, be that value which such land has for agricultural or horticultural use without regard to any value which such land might have for other purposes or uses, and prescribe standards and methods for the determination of the value of real or other tangible property at uniform and proportionate values. Taxes uniform as to class of property or the ownership or use thereof may be levied by valuation or otherwise upon classes of tangible property as the Legislature may determine, and such intangible property held in trust or otherwise for the purpose of funding pension, profit-sharing, or other employee benefit plans as defined by the Legislature may be declared to be exempt from taxation. Taxes, other than property taxes, may be authorized by law. Existing revenue laws shall continue in effect until changed by the Legislature. Section 1. That at the general election in November, 1966, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the following amendment to Article IV, section 1, of the Constitution of Nebraska, which is hereby proposed by the Legislature:

"The executive officers of the state shall be the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Attorney General, and the heads of such other executive departments as set forth herein or as may be established by law. The Legislature may provide for the placing of the above named officers as heads over such departments of government as it may by law establish. The Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Auditor of Public Accounts and the Treasurer shall be chosen at the general election held in November, 1964, for a two year term and at the general election held in November, 1966, and in each alternate even-numbered year thereafter, for a term of four years and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. The Governor shall be ineligible to the office of Governor for four years next after the expiration of two consecutive terms for which he was elected. The records, books, and papers of all executive officers shall be kept at the seat of government, and such officers, excepting the Lieutenant Governor and members of boards and commissions when the board or commission is the head of an executive department, shall reside there during their respective terms of office. Officers in the executive department of the state shall perform such duties as may be provided by law. ANOTHER WINNER in the Molly McKay Corner department is Marie Hoffman, Wayne. She is shown receiving a $5 check from Clifford Johnson of Johnson's Frozen Foods for her entry on "Golden Wheaties Bars" submitted in September. One $5 prize is given each month to local entries.

Wayne Native Gains Army's Colonel Rank

Robert Haas, project officer in the utilization and requirements section, installation branch of the army surgeon general's directorate of plans, supply and operations, has been promoted to lieutenant colonel. As a major, he has been serving as a hospital planning consultant.

Col. Haas is a native of Wayne. His mother is Mrs. Lillian Haas, Council Bluffs. His wife is the former Ruth Gormley, daughter of Dr. R. E. Gormley, Wayne. Col. and Mrs. Haas have two daughters, Suzanne, 20, at Auburn University, a senior pharmacy student, and Jeanette, 13.

After serving in World War II as an air force technician, Haas remained in the reserves and was later recalled to active duty as first sergeant of a medical company. In 1952 he was commissioned a second lieutenant and in 1958 was integrated in the regular army medical service corps.

He received a BS degree in military science at Omaha U. in 1959 and a master's in hospital administration from Baylor U. in 1964. He is also a graduate of the army-Baylor program in hospital administration and competed residency in hospital administration at Ft. Benning Ga.

Col. Haas has served at Lanstuhl, Germany, as a commanding officer for a hospital unit; at Ft. Riley, Kan., as a hospital registrar; at Ft. Richardson, Alaska, as executive officer of a medical battalion; and at Ft. Benning as a hospital adjutant.

He is a nominee of the American College of Hospital Administrators, 208 E. Taylor Run Parkway, Alexandria, Va.

Nebraska's state banner became the state flag by an act of the 1963 legislature.

Expected to Win

U.S. Senator CARL T. CURTIS Republican

Because of his fine record in behalf of workers, farmers and businessmen, and his clean, constructive campaign and program, observers predict a big victory for Carl Curtis.

How do you get more miles per tire? Here's how I do it.

CLAUDE HARDER

I wear two hats. One you see on my head in the picture. The other I sport when I'm off the job as boss of a Standard Oil Station.

And when I'm away from my station, I'm a plain ordinary driver like you.

One thing that interests me as an ordinary driver is—how do I get the most miles from my tires?

My system is simple. I check my wheel alignment every month. I rotate my tires every 5,000 miles. I check my tires once every week to make sure the pressure is right.

My system pays off. It extends the life of my tires about 25% over average. And 25% is a lot of miles for tires. And miles are money.

Any questions? They can talk to me at my Standard Oil Station. We'll discuss things driver to driver.

Come talk to me if you have trouble starting. Trouble in my business. I'm equipped to spot it and correct it fast.

Miracle Workers Give 'Miracle Worker' Life

A group of miracle workers presented "The Miracle Worker" in Wayne for four performances Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. It was a Wayne State drama department production which offered little to criticize.

Dr. Helen Russell directed the play by William Gibson. Once again she demonstrated her ability to get the most out of the staff, from the lowliest "walk-on" character to the stars and the production staff.

Perhaps WSC is blessed with talented students. Maybe it's Dr. Russell who deserves the credit. Any rate, each production seems to offer the chance for the department to fall flat and each winds up as a great achievement.

The trouble with "The Miracle Worker" is its place on the schedule. It may be difficult for students to reach the pinnacle of perfection this play reached. It could be the highlight of the season, with three more productions to come. It should boost interest in "Tonight at Eight," "Twelfth Night" and "Sleeping Beauty," patrons knowing now they can expect the very best.

Not enough space is available to give Sandra Foster and Arda Meyenburg the credit they deserve. They played the leading roles of Helen Keller and Annie Sullivan, and two more exhausting, demanding and exacting portrayals are seldom offered.

It was hard to believe Miss Foster was not blind as she stumbled about, livid with her hands what she could not see with her eyes nor hear with her ears. Her eyes had a glazed expression and throughout the play she was apparently oblivious to happenings around her, unless she could touch someone or something.

Miss Meyenburg's role was equally difficult. She displayed the Irish determination, the frustration of the unsuccessful through weeks of work and the understanding of one who has been blind. It is hard to imagine anyone in the role doing any better than she did.

Together these two appeared in memorable scenes throughout the play. One scene brought audience applause right in the middle of an act. Miss Sullivan and Helen Keller literally fought at the table. Miss Sullivan finally won after forcing Helen to retrieve the spoons she threw on the floor seven or eight times, to sit up and eat like a lady and to fold her napkin. A highly emotional, tension-filled and sensitive scene, it would have brought "bravos" in a more cosmopolitan theatre.

The scene where Helen said the first syllable of "wah-ter" and recognized finally that the letters spelled out in her hand by Annie named the thing she felt, was a memorable moment in the Ramsey Theatre. There were some emotional tears of happiness on the stage and in the audience at this moment of achievement which would open the world to Helen Keller.

Dianna Frank was a charming Southern wife. Her concern for her daughter, her respect for her husband and her every move indicated she was not playing a part—she was living it.

Her husband was a Northerner, Bruce Dickinson, but he played the part of a Southerner convincingly. He was properly proper as heads of the house seem to be and seem to have been in the old South. His accent came so natural he may be talking Southern-drawl yet.

Ron Wacholtz had the other major role, that of a sarcastic and skeptical son who has inherited some of his father's knowledge but also lives in the world of the young. He played the role to perfection, his flip-pant replies and apparent wit seeming to be ad lib rather than rehearsed as they came out naturally and seemed spur-of-the-moment remarks from spur-of-the-moment thoughts.

Arne Nelson, Susan Cook, Edward Miller, Patricia Kim, Ronald Witt, Cynthia Fisher, Carol Maciejewski, Kathy Milander and Irene Kulczewski had minor parts—but in a Dr. Russell production there are no true "minor" parts and each one was expected to perform as if his small bit part was the key upon which the entire production rested. Even a little dog, that patiently looked over the audience while Helen Keller spelled out "cake" and "card" on his paws, was perfect for the part.

Not enough can be said for the production crew. They maintained such a stoic silence it seemed impossible anyone was backstage. This helped considerably to set the mood, for the play itself kept the audience silently spell-bound from start to finish.

The stage scenes of the dining room, the pump in the yard, the gardenhouse, the upstairs bedroom and two minor scenes off the Keller farm were magnificent. There was no need to imagine the setting for the setting was there, the lighting was controlled so the audience need see only what needed to be seen and a bluish-purple spotlight, that shone on Annie on a dark stage as she relived moments before her brother Jimmy was taken from her was near-perfect.

Lyle Gourley was stage manager with Mark Monson, George Tubbs and Ron Wacholtz technical directors. Staging, painting and property crews included Brad Lord, Bob Hall, Roger Hobbs, Laverne McKown, Edward Miller, Dennis Quigley, Norman Strizek, Robert Wegner, Ronald Witt, Arne Nelson, James Kohler, Gerald Melis, Mary Ann Weks, Linda Kane, Julie Kortman and Peggy Maguire.

Costuming, publicity, sound and house managers were handled by Patricia Kim (costume mistress), Geri Filipowski, Cynthia Fisher, Irene Kulczewski, Arda Meyenburg, Sandra Spellman, Susan Cook, Gary Rains, Ronald Witt, Roger Hobbs and Richard Petersen.

The names of all are given because each contributed to the ultimate success of one of the finest "amateur" stage productions this writer has ever seen. It is a pity it could not have been given at Rice before overflow crowds. It deserved to be seen by more. It will not be forgotten by those who did see it.

In Helicopter Course

He was trained in operation and maintenance of Shawnee helicopters, a light transport used to carry cargo or troops in support of ground units.

A RANDOLPH YOUTH, Roger Gubbels, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Gubbels, received an early promotion to private E-2 on completion of basic combat training at Ft. Bliss, Tex. He received the promotion two months early because of his high score in firing the M14 rifle, high score on the physical combat proficiency test, his outstanding leadership abilities and his military bearing. Early promotions are offered as incentives for outstanding trainees.

Callan Praises Congress Work

Cong. Clair Callan, campaigning for reelection, told a Wayne State College audience that the recently adjourned Congress has "perhaps the best record in history" for dealing with the problems of people.

He spoke Wednesday on the fourth in a series of WSC Election Institute programs to acquaint students with candidates for major Nebraska offices.

Callan mentioned legislation providing health care, water and soil conservation, aid to education, relief of air and water pollution, among others.

"Some people seem to be for these programs," he said, "but forget that somebody has to vote for them."

The Democratic candidate for First District representative defended the 89th Congress' record for economy by noting that it pared $880 billion dollars from presidential requests. The federal expenditure budget is in balance, he said, and "there is no reason we can't lay up budget surpluses if costs of the Viet Nam war do not rise."

Despite the war, Callan said, the nation cannot neglect education or conservation projects. "We can, as the saying goes, have both guns and butter."

Speaking on the same theme as did Gov. Frank Morrison the day before, Callan urged local efforts in Nebraska to provide for the future, using federal aids.

"We cannot develop locally without help," he said. "But what happens locally has to be started locally. Nobody will come from Washington or Lincoln to say what we should do or must do. We must use the tools available to help ourselves."

In a question period, Callan declared himself favoring the right of 18-year-olds to vote. From his conversations with young people he said, "I think they would cast more intelligent ballots than many adults."

One questioner recalled that Robert Denney, Republican candidate for First District congressman, had said here that much of the federal aid was being directed to metropolitan areas.

"Not true," Callan replied. "There are different programs for metropolitan and rural areas to meet different needs. It is true, though, that some project in Chicago might cost more than a project in Nebraska."

What major problems does he see awaiting the next Congress? Keeping the national economy healthy, he said, noting that it seems to have reached or passed its peak. With full employment and high production of consumer goods, the problem of inflation remains. But he observed that the cost of living has gone up only 9 per cent during six years of the Kennedy-Johnson administrations while disposable income has risen 21 per cent. This he compared with an 11 per cent cost rise and 2 per cent income rise during the last six years of the Eisenhower administration.

Winside Youth Gets Out of Total Wreck

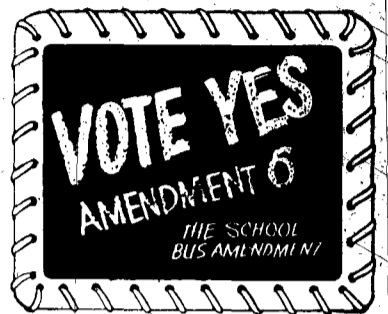

Dale Jaeger, 20, Winside, crawled out of a totally wrecked car without injury early Thursday morning. His eastbound car had gone out of control miles west of Winside on "Old 35."

Sheriff Don Waible, who investigated, said Jaeger lost control on a curve where there is loose gravel. His car slid 104 feet sideways, went off the road and overturned while traveling 138 feet off the road.

The vehicle came to a stop 36 feet from the edge of the road. It landed on its wheels but virtually every part of the body was damaged in the rolling-over process.

DOUG FARRENS, Wayne High fullback, is pictured with coaches Allen Hansen, left and John Tollakson after the Wayne-Laurel game Wednesday. Farrrens was the game's outstanding ground gainer and according to coaches came up with his best effort of the season.

Blatchford pass play covering 57 yards and a TD. The extra point conversion was good and left the clock reading 27-7 Laurel with 9:58 left in the third quarter. The desire was still present for the Devils but the little mistakes were also evident and drives on the ground were thwarted time after time as the blue and white could not punch over. With 6:02 left in the third quarter the Bears again found their scoring potency as Larry Mason gathered in another TD aerial from Pedersen from seven yards out. PAT conversion made it 34-7, the final tally.

Wayne continued to gain on the ground but got within striking distance, as the Bears were stingy with yards in their own territory. With a little over two minutes remaining Coach Allen Hansen sent in a complete 11 made up of freshmen who earned the right to suit up after completion of a successful season. Only after running one play against the Laurel varsity for a gain of three yards did Laurel choose to substitute freely.

Offensively Wayne used Farrens for its big gainer as he continually pounded the middle for gain after gain. It was by far the best display of drive and hitting by a Blue Devil griddler for many years as Farrens came of age as far as fullbacks go.

Defensively Don Skokan led tacklers as he racked up nine unassisted tackles and 10 assists for the evening. Other outstanding defenders were Larry Magnuson and Keith Warrelman with 6 tackles and 3 assists each. Doug Ritze had 5 and 4, Bernie Binget 4 and 3, Dave Roberts 4, Gordie Jorgensen 3-3, Lessmann and Lavern Brown 3-1 to lead Wayne.

In the statistical game Wayne led on the ground but Laurel amassed 192 yards in the air to Wayne's 30. Rushing Wayne gained 189 to Laurel's 170. In the first down department Wayne had 11 to Laurel's 13, nine of Wayne's by rushing to Laurel's 7. In the total offense Laurel racked up 357 yards to Wayne's net total of 189.

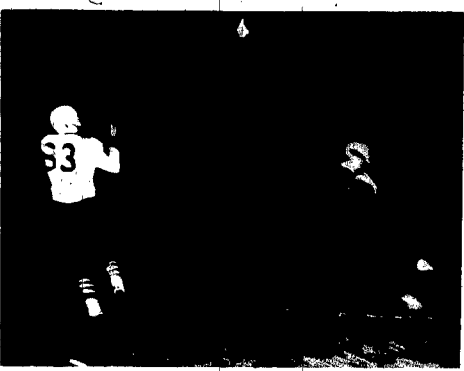

Friday night Wayne travels to Pierce to try the Bluejays who have showed signs of greatness on a number of occasions this season. Pierce upset the Laurel Bears earlier this season, but have been an up and down team thereafter. The Pierce game will be the last high school action for 8 remaining Wayne seniors on the roster. Dennis Beckman and Gordon Shupe are the other two seniors out with injuries. Active Seniors are Bob Morris, Mark Johnson, Graham Butler, Bill Blecke, Dan and Dave Rees, Duane Backstrom and Warren Korth.

Wayne High Reserves Finish Season Undefeated with Victory at Laurel

Wayne has two undefeated football teams. The freshmen ended the season last week unbeaten in seven games and the WHS reserves turned the trick Monday evening with a 13-6 win over Laurel on the LHS gridiron to wind up with a 7-0 record.

Rocci Marr and Steve Johnson can take credit for stopping Laurel from scoring late in the fourth stanza to possibly tie the score. The Bear Cubs had pushed to the Wayne three, were shoved back and then Johnson forced a fumble with Marr recovering. Wayne was not out of trouble but the threat moved the Bears away from the Wayne goal.

With a brisk wind helping, Laurel opened the game by kicking into the end zone. From the 20, Rick Burt gained 2, Don Skokan 2 and Harvey Hansen 10. Next paly Laurel recovered a fumble on the 32. Jerald Meyer set the host team back 4 but they were not about to lose an opportunity and drove to pay dirt, Dave Dietrich going the final 2 yards. Don Skokan threw LHS back 8 yards on the try for extra point but Laurel led 6-0.

It did not take Wayne long to catch up. Burt received on the 8 and returned to the 31. Skokan gained 12, Hansen 8, Skokan 3, Hansen 2 and with fourth down and 8 to go, Dave Tietgen passed to George Eynon for 46 yards and a TD. The extra point was missed but it was 6-6. Tietgen's kick-off went to the 40 against the wind and was returned to the 48. Wayne held, Skokan gained 4 and Wayne lost the ball on a fumble. Steve Johnson set LHS back 5 but passes gained until Skokan and Johnson set the Bear Cubs back 2 and Wayne took over. Hansen gained 4, Tietgen passed to Johnson for 6 and Laurel held. Taking to the air, the Orange and Black soon lost possession on downs. Hansen made 4, Tietgen passed to Eynon for 12, a fumble was recovered by Tom Denack and Eynon kicked to the 30. Laurel was forced to kick with Harry Lindner. See WHS RESERVES - Page 2

Blue Devils Fall to Laurel; Complete Season at Pierce

Laurel High School flexed its football muscles at Wayne High last Wednesday night, trouncing them 34 to 7. The highly touted Bears did little wrong while rolling over the Blue Devils.

It took Laurel just five minutes to march 73 yards in 11 plays to post the first of five touchdowns for the evening. His play in the drive was a pass from Laurel quarterback Jim Pedersen to Denny Blatchford, end which covered 33 yards to the one yard stripe. Halfback Curtis Boatman carried it in for the TD. The extra point conversion made it 7-0.

Wayne took the kickoff and to the pleasure of all Wayne fans consistently drove toward paydirt, only to lose the ball on the Laurel 19 via the first of five fumbles for the evening.

Laurel again mixed their running and passing game well to penetrate into Blue Devil territory as the quarter ended 7-0 Laurel. With 10:29 remaining in the second period the Bears tallied on a nine-yard pass from Pedersen to Larry Kittelson. The extra point kick was blocked by Don Skokan making the score 13-0, Laurel.

Wayne took the ensuing kickoff and worked their way goalward, finally scoring on a pass from Lynn Lessmann to End Gene Hansen from one yard out as Laurel stacked the middle on a second and goal situation. Instrumental to the drive was the hard running and drive of Wayne Fullback Doug Farrens. George Eynon split the uprights with the extra point kick to make the score a respectable 13-7, Laurel with but 3:42 left in the half.

Laurel, displaying its poise and football know-how used just a little over two minutes to score again with 1:16 left in the half. Pedersen racked up the TD from three yards out and the EP kick was good making the halftime score read Laurel 20, Wayne 7.

Wayne seemed very much in the game as they moved the ball well on the ground but Laurel completely changed the outlook of the end-result as they hit quickly in the second half on a Pedersen to

THIS PLAY produced 13 yards for Winside against Dodge but three plays later WHS fumbled and Dodge recovered. Reed Wacker is carrying the ball with Pat Wisniski (63) coming in to finally nail him.

Winside Breaks Loose in Last Half; Wins Over Dodge; Norfolk Team Next

Winside High School broke open a scoreless deadlock in the last half Wednesday night of last week to spill Dodge 20-7. The visitors scored in the dying moments of the game to keep from being shut out.

Thursday night at 7:30 the Wildcats travel to Norfolk to close the season against Norfolk Catholic. The Knights will be favored to win but WHS has the potential to rise up on occasion and might make it a close game.

Wednesday against Dodge, (Reed Wacker took the opening kickoff from the 3 to the 23 then carried for gains of 7 and 2 yards. Randy Jacobsen added 3, Bob Dangberg 2, Larry Pfeiffer took a pass from Jacobsen for 2, Wacker gained 4 and Dodge halted the drive with a pass interception.

Starting off strong, the Pirates gained 30 yards before being thrown for a loss inside the Winside 10-yard line. From there, WHS pulled out, Dangberg gaining 14, Wacker 5, (after appearing trapped for a 5-yard loss), Wacker passed to Jacobsen for 43, Wacker gained 2, Jacobsen 14, Dangberg 2 and Dodge took over as the quarter ended.

Don Longe stymied a Dodge drive with a 14-yard loss, forcing a kick. The Wildcats managed 2 yards on a carry by Pfeiffer and the ball to the air, both passes falling incomplete. Wacker kicked to the 5. Again Dodge was held and had to punt. Wacker gained 13, a pass lost 5, Dangberg ran for 9 and a fumble gave Dodge the ball.

The visitors went nowhere and booted to the 40. Dangberg gained 4, two passes fell incomplete and Wacker kicked to the 15. Dodge went on a drive that picked up 41 yards but the Tietgen's second-half kick-off was carried by the wind to the end zone. Meyer threw Laurel back 6 and they had to kick. A fumble was recovered by Laurel to give them possession. However, Wayne held and forced another kick. Skokan gained 4 and that's all the Blue Angels could manage, Eynon kicking to the 50.

Laurel managed a first down before Meyer threw them back 4 and forced a punt. Hansen gained 4, Skokan 8, Tietgen passed to Burt for 14 and Hansen broke loose for 55 yards and a touchdown. Hansen also made the extra point to make it 13-6 in favor of Wayne.

AN IOWA CAR was heavily damaged when it wedged under a truck trailer Sunday. This is the Lyle Gourley car under the Sorenson Transfer trailer. (Photo by Don Weible)

Iowans Escape Injury

35 Sunday morning. The Gourleys were enroute to Wayne to see "The Miracle Worker," their son, Lyle, jr., being stage manager. Ahead of them was an eastbound truck driven by James Critzman, 36, Wakefield. Owner of the truck is Sorenson Transfer, Wakefield.

Trooper D. Matejka, Nebraska Safety Patrol, investigated. He was assisted by County Sheriff Don Weible.

According to the trooper's report, Critzman swung to the left in order to make a rounding turn into a side road. He told the patrolman his right turn lights were on.

Gourley, 59, did not see the turn signals, assumed the truck was making a left turn, and started ahead. As the truck turned to the right, the Gourley car went under the trailer. Several hundred dollars damage was done but no one was hurt.

The windshield came crashing into the front seat, showering the pair with glass. They had seat belts on at the time, a factor which is thought to have prevented their being thrown forward into the windshield at impact.

Halloween Party Held in Winside

Around 80 children in costumes and many others not in costumes attended the Winside Halloween party Saturday night at the Winside Auditorium. It was easily one of the best-planned and most satisfying Halloween projects this writer has seen.

Federated Woman's Club of Winside sponsored the annual party for pre-school children and for through kindergarten and sixth grades. Many parents were on hand to see the fun and enjoy the costumes and games that were features of the party.

Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Carl Troutman were co-chairman for the affair. Other FWC members and adults helped and three "outsiders" judged the costumes in four divisions with three prizes being given in each division.

Winners were: Pre-school and kindergarten, Teri Kramer, David Hintz and Pam Hoffman; first and second grade, Tami Kramer, Darci Janke and Jan Jaeger; third and fourth grades, Carla Miller, Dean Janke and Tracy Kramer; and fifth and sixth grades, Jeff Farran, Scott Jackson and Nancy Gallop.

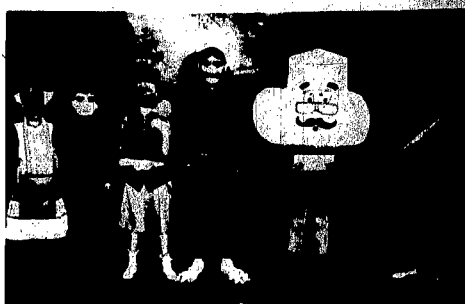

Following judging in each division, prizes were given. A fishing pond was held so everyone received prizes, games were played and refreshments were served.

County Nearing Bond Sales Goal

Wayne County stands at the top in bond sales in this district through September, according to Henry Ley, volunteer Savings Bond chairman. The county has hit 94.3 per cent of its quota.

September sales came to $35,420, Ley reports. This brought the total sales for the nine-month period to $348,204.

Pierce County, in another district, is second in its district with 95.5 per cent of its quota reached. But Stanton County is the regional leader. In still another district, it has hit HALLOWEEN COSTUME winners for the third and fourth grades at Winside's party were (left to right) Carl Miller, Dean Janke and Tracy Kramer, first, second and third place winners. In the same order from there on were Jeff Farran first, Scott Jackson second and Nancy Gallop third for the fifth and sixth grades.

121.5 per cent of its goal. Other area counties in Regions 4, 10, 5 and 3 include: Dakota, 92.3 per cent; Cedar, 88 per cent; Dixon, 86.9 per cent; Thurston, 54.6 per cent; Madison, 76.5 per cent and Cumming, 62.8 per cent.

Leading county in the state is Thomas with 167.0 per cent. Douglas-Sarpy Region 2 leads for regions with 96.7 per cent. Blaine County, in the same region with Thomas, has the dubious distinction of lagging the most, having hit only 29.7 per cent of its quota with only nine months to go.

Wallace Victor Farm Selected

Dixon County Soil Conservation District officials have selected the Wallace Victor farm north of Wayne to represent the county in the Siouland conservation contest. Selection was based on the conservation practices applied since September of last year.

Victor owns and operates a 320-acre farm 5 miles north and 1 1/2 miles east of Wayne. In the past year, five miles of terraces and three acres of waterways shaped and seeded were added.

The Dixon County winner has been a cooperator with SCS since 1957. He has constructed 8 1/2 miles of terraces and contour farms 200 acres. He also has a sprinkler irrigation system for use on part of the cropland. Next Tuesday, he will be a candidate for supervisor of the Dixon County SWCD. He and his wife will also be guests at the agriculture day banquet in Sioux City Nov. 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor have four children, Thomas, Linda, Anna and Michael. The oldest, Thomas, is 15. The youngest, Michael, is 7.

Clair Callan Finds Solutions for Nebraskans

Nebraskans Decide How To Use Them

- Clair Callan fought for increased conservation of land and resources for Northeast Nebraska. He set a national record when eight new watershed projects affecting thousands of acres were approved. Nebraskans made the decision at home to save their farms and beauty spots because Clair Callan gave them a solution.
- Clair Callan has obtained 227 farm ownership loans and 139 rural housing loans in 1966 because Nebraskans wanted to try his solution to their building and growth problems.
- Clair Callan fought for increased public power for Nebraskans and now a 345 KV line is assured. Nebraskans can use the increased power to solve their problems in attracting industry to the state.
- Clair Callan fought for Food for Peace. Now Nebraskans have an additional two and one-half billion dollar market to solve problems of increased production.
- Clair Callan fought for local community development programs. Now Nebraskans can decide how to save their communities with solutions their Congressman made possible.

Look At the Morrison Record

Governor Frank B. Morrison Has Proved He Gets Economical in the Right Places

- Nebraska, under Governor Morrison, ranks third lowest among all the 50 states in the amount of money spent per person for state government and yet Governor Morrison's active leadership has helped Nebraska to meet her problems squarely while making unprecedented progress.
- More than $40 million in new industrial financing has been provided under the Industrial Development Act which Governor Morrison signed.
- Tourism now gives Nebraska an income of $125 million annually, a 100% increase since 1959, all because Governor Morrison got Nebraskans to work together to make this a better state for visitors.
- Since Governor Morrison took office, new uses for agricultural crops have been discovered. World-famous Nebraskits — food for peace made from surpluses — bring new income to the state. Over 100 million pounds have been sold.

Look At His Opponent's Record

Carl Curtis Gets Economical, But In the Wrong Places

- Carl Curtis was the only man in the Senate to vote against the Mental Health Bill. All other senators realized that the fantastic waste of human resources without adequate treatment and research was costing taxpayers $2.4 billion a year directly. To say nothing of the loss of working citizens.
- Carl Curtis voted "no" on the Nuclear Test Ban Treaty, but it passed anyway, 80-19. 76% of the voting Republicans, including Senator Hruska voted for the treaty, thereby saving the U. S. billions of dollars in exploding bombs. More important, the treaty removed the terrible dangers to the health of children yet unborn.
- Carl Curtis voted "no" on the National Defense Education Act which is training young people in science and math to win the cold war. What kind of economy would let the United States fall dangerously behind in the war on Communism? Fortunately, 76% of the voting Republicans saw that the U. S. could be in danger and supported this bill.

Hoskins Rescue Unit Takes Man to Norfolk

Hoskins Rescue Unit was called Thursday morning to the scene of a one-car accident north of Hoskins. The driver was taken to Lutheran Hospital, Norfolk.

Members of the Hoskins VFD man the vehicle. Jim Falk and Arvon Kruger, drove for Thursday morning's call. According to Lt. C. E. Whitney, Nebraska Safety

Patrol, the driver was David R. Morris, 65, Norfolk. He was northbound on "old Highway 35" 3 1/2 miles north of Hoskins when the left front suspension system apparently gave way.

The Morris car veered to the right, going into the ditch at a county road intersection. It hit the grade of the east-west road with the impact resulting in heavy damage to the left front of the car and minor damage to the right side.

Morris was cut about the face with the worst cut over his left eye. He also complained of back pains. He was still hospitalized Saturday but no change in his condition was reported.

RURAL ELECTRICS GENERATE BUSINESS

WHAT DOES THE WAYNE COUNTY PUBLIC POWER DISTRICT
MEAN TO THE AREA WE SERVE?

14 Full Time Employees 30 Vehicles Purchased Locally
All gasoline, lubricants, tires, accessories and most other goods and services purchased locally.

Total Wages Paid - $1,128,348

For Every Dollar We Have Invested,
Our Consumers Have Invested $4.00 Equaling
$9,362,688

Your Rural Public Power District Benefits You - - - Whoever You Are!

No matter who you are, you benefit from rural electrification! Money spent for goods and services, of course, directly benefit the suppliers. Money spent for payrolls benefits all those who serve employees of the power district.

But . . . there is a greater and more widespread benefit that often is overlooked by the casual observer. That is the fact that rural power helps the farmer do more work with less effort and less cost, giving him a better income so he may contribute more to the economy of the community.

While the number of farms and farmers are steadily decreasing, the amount of power sold to the farmer is steadily increasing. In 1957 gross KWH used totaled 11,398,699. At the end of 1965, gross KWH totaled 20,845,194, an increase of 9,446,495 KWH. This means the average farm user is using more electricity to do his work.

Wages paid out by the district to the end of 1965 totaled $1,128,348. Each of these dollars turned over an average of seven times, creating an untold number of dollars of business reaching into every aspect of our area's life.

- 149 Years of Service -

Shown above is a recent picture of the original directors of the Wayne County Public Power district, who have served a total of 149 years as directors of the power board. All have retired now except Alfred Sydow who has completed 29 years of service. These men were responsible for the original rural electrification of our area. Shown left to right they are: Alfred Sydow, Lyle Marotz, Lawrence Ring, Jack G. Sweigard, Albert Watson and Ed Grubb.
