

Set New Type of District

Wayne City Council met Wednesday noon in the extension of Tuesday night's meeting. Several matters were taken up, including some building permits and creation of a new type district in concurrence with the zoning ordinance.

Water District No. 1 was formed. It is to be in the east part of Wayne in Wright and Wried's Divisions east of Dearborn Street. New water mains will be put in with the cost assessed against the property owners directly benefited.

One of the building permits was a big one, $45,000. It went to Wayne Grain & Food Co., which seeks to build a feed mill at 201 Logan. Two other permits were for garages, one for Wayne Tielgen at 908 First Drive and the other for Merton Hilton at 519 West Fourth.

Coming up from the city clerk will be notices regarding some matters on which complaints have been coming in. They include burning dogs running loose, house numbers and unlicensed dogs.

Some are burning before the hours allowed and some are not putting fires out at 8 p.m. as required; some are letting dogs run loose all day and some let dogs run loose part of each day.

Some houses do not have the numbering required by ordinance; and all dogs have to be licensed, the new license tags being available now for dogs that have certification from veterinarians as having had shots in the past year—May 10 is the deadline for licensing dogs.

Add Two More to Wayne Police Force

Two new policemen joined the Wayne Police Department force Saturday. They bring the force to full strength with a chief and five officers.

Newest members of the police force are Melvin Lamb, Wayne, and Ronald Penrick, Wakefield. They will be in training for a period and then will go out on their own as regular members.

Lamb is 29, married and has two children. He has been working at Ed Wolske Auto Service. He served in the navy following graduation from Wayne High School.

Penrick is 36, married and has one daughter. He has been driving for Schmode-Weible Trucking Co., Winside. He served in the marines after graduation from Dixon High School.

Chief Vern Fairchild lost Alan Peck to the Wayne State College campus police force recently. His other officers are E. L. Hailey, Keith Reed and John Redel.

After the newcomers are "broken in," the staff will have two men on the day shift, one on foot in the business district and one in a car patrolling the town. At night there will be two cars patrolling the entire town most of the time.

Centennial Plan Progressing

The centennial plan planned by the Wayne County Historical Society is being discussed weekly. Plans for the event progressed the past week.

Wednesday night the society met at which time Gary Rains, WSC student, agreed to direct the production. Barbara Farnum, WSC, will be his assistant.

Mrs. Dorothy Kabisch is chairman of props and scenery with Bob Boeckenhauer assistant. Mrs. Winnie Thompson is chairman for costumes with Mrs. Ed Echtenkamp, Mrs. Tom Stevenson, Mrs. Carl Lentz and Mrs. Dick Carman assisting.

Ken Magill, who is drawing up plans for the Apr. 25 production, reports the living pictures will "move" instead of being stationary. Pioneers coming into Nebraska, an oldtime medicine man with an assistant and other pictures are planned.

Final picture will be something special—a spectacular surprise ending. An oldtime style show of authentic clothing for all occasions will follow.

Hosts and hostesses will greet all comers. Mrs. Harold Hein will be cashier and Henry Ley will be in charge of makeup, coffee and cookies will be served. Proceeds will go to the museum fund.

The committee making plans reports the response from college, town and country has been encouraging. Anyone wanting to help can contact Magill, Tillie Harms or Goldie Leonard.

One idea that has been abandoned is a display of oldtime items. It would be necessary to haul them in, have someone at each table at all times and haul them out.

The Hungry Five will furnish music for the program. Mrs. Vernon Predehl will play organ and piano accompaniment. Elizabeth Anderson will sing several solos.

It all adds up to an extra special day to mark Nebraska's 100th birthday. It takes place at the Wayne City Auditorium and it's for everyone.

'Levy to Go Down'

Wayne's tax levy will go down even if the people vote in favor of a new fire station Tuesday, Wayne Volunteer Fire Department members accent this week. They said that was one of two points they want to get across to the public before anyone votes.

The city will vote Tuesday on school and city officials. It will also vote for or against bonds for a fire station addition to the present fire hall to house present equipment and that on order.

How can the levy go down if two mills is needed to build a fire station? Because the mill levy is scheduled to go down four mills now that the Wayne Hospital levy is to be cut-the levy for buying the hospital, that is.

One other point the firemen want to get across is that the new fire hall is their own idea. It has been their idea ever since they had to tear out the old jail in order to house four trucks. They donated work, tore out the jail and realized then the room was inadequate so the idea of better facilities has been on their minds since then.

Some have thought the bond issue is a city council project. Firemen have emphasized that they would like to have the council sponsor it but they got to it first and it is entirely their idea. They happen to be aware of the needs and know what is needed.

The future holds the need for more room. The city is buying an ambulance which the fire hall should house since there is no other place for it. The rural district is buying a bigger truck—and the one housed there now is almost more than the space will handle.

Firemen want room to dry the hose out in winter so they will be able to depend on dry hose every day, even after a big fire. They want room to store their equipment, no truck blocking another truck, a vehicle of their own to hold protective hats, boots and coats to fires and speed up the time of their runs.

They are using their own money to pay for an ad in this week paper. They are campaigning for it because they want it. They will pay taxes and they will continue to perform as firemen.

Chief Ivan Beckes said Thursday the firemen feel deeply concerned about the need for this. They will not be bitter if it fails but they will be sure that the public recognizes the need and appreciates what they're doing if the issue passes, he said.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the usual places. The firemen are seeking a big vote. They just hope it is favorable.

Spellbound Crowd Hears Cancer Tale

Dr. George Larson, Omaha cancer specialist, had the crowd spellbound with his interesting facts on proctosigmoidoscopy Friday noon. He spoke to the Wayne County Cancer Society.

A specialist in rectal and colon cancer, he told facts, he used plain talk and he had the audience in his hands from the start. When he was through the main regret was that more people could not have heard his talk.

Dr. Larson urged procto checks, especially for men who are the ones hit most often by the cancer this type of check can find. He pointed out that this type of cancer can be cured and it is ridiculous not to be checked for it when getting other physical check-ups.

Dick George, field representative for the American Cancer Society, spoke briefly on the place the state cancer society has in the work of the local unit. There was also other activities including a short business meeting, a film

NOTICE ANYTHING? The liquid in this picture is water, colored so it will show up. The strange thing is, it is flowing UP out of the top beaker, over the edge and then down into the lower beaker. Don Ankeny shows off his experiment with plastic water for Dean Smith (left) and Larry Murfin. All are Allen High School students.

TOP EXHIBIT for Winside PTA last week was the one on crystals by Mike Sievers. He is shown with his display (the crystals glowing to the board do not show up). His instructor, Darrell Fuelberth, is looking on. Containers hold crystals of various types.

The Spook Speaks

The Wayne businessman noted the return address on the envelope: "National Retarded Teachers Association." He was busy so ignored it for the time being. Later when he had more time he picked it up and then noticed he had been too hasty. The letter was from the National Retarded Teachers Association.

A farm youth came home from Wayne telling about the kid who had sores in his mouth. He was curious about them. The next day he told his folks he had found out what the other boy had, "furrow mouth." The parents decided checking was in order. They found the boy had "trench mouth."

In Allen a little girl heard her parents tell about The Wayne Herald taking a picture of her mother and the coach. When the paper came out with picture in it, the girl took pride in identifying the two at the parent-teacher conference. "This is my mother," she said proudly pointing to her mother's picture, and then pointing to the man added, "and this is Wayne Harold."

Mrs. Clarence Boling, Wayne, likes the Cedar County News, Hartington. However, enough is enough. She received 34 copies of the Mar. 29 news. They must have gone automatic on their mailing machine.

'Open House' All Night

One Wayne business place had "open house" all night last week. The police went by at 1:05, the door was open, they shut it; at 2:45 they went by, the door was open, they shut it; at 4:15 they checked, the door was open, they shut it; at 5:10 they looked again, the door was open, they shut it and then called an employee asking them to have the lock fixed so the wind could not blow the door open even when the lock was on. (It was a prominent Wayne business place too).

School Land Brings $26,615 to County

County Supt. Gladys Porter has received word that the Wayne County general fund will receive $26,615.12 from the state school land. This is land in Western Nebraska still drawing income, most of the rest of the state school land having been sold.

All districts in the county will share in the cash. The Wayne-Carroll district gets the most, $6,332.18, while District 36 west of Carroll gets the least, $423.70.

Other town districts will share as follows: Winside, $2,598.99; Hoskins, $1,393.06; and Sholes, $689.12.

The state divides the fund up by giving each district $371.77 to start with. These are districts that are holding school or are contracting for another district to take care of pupils for the first year. Then the districts get $5.77 for each child attending school.

Wayne County ranks pretty low in the area for income of this type. Here are what neighboring counties get: Madison, $61,986; Cedar, $38,480; Cuming, $34,714; Dixon, $23,218; Pierce, $28,848; Stanton, $22,828; and Thurston, $20,478. Douglas County received the most and Grant County the least, $621,000 and $6,565.

Spring in Northeast Nebraska Has Variety

Spring in Northeast Nebraska is living up to its reputation. Perfect at moments, it also has its violent interruptions, its soothing rain and its near-perfect dawns.

It has been warm in the area. It has also been windy. The winds blew hard the first of the week, carrying dust from somewhere, possibly Kansas, clouds of dust such as seen here being a rarity even in windy weather.

There was a series of showers Thursday and they seemed to cool everything off, even the windmaker. Friday came up beautiful. No wind, sunshine, occasional breezes, fluffy clouds, near 70 temperatures.

School was out for a track meet. All the running around was not being done by the athletes. It was great weather, spring!

P.S.: Saturday dawned cool and cloudy with rain or snow in the forecast only, proving what had been written the day before—spring is living up to its reputation.

Honor County 4-H Leaders

Wayne County 4-H leaders will be honored at the annual banquet Thursday, Apr. 6, at 6:30 p.m. in St. Mary's Catholic School Auditorium. St. Mary's Guild will serve.

Featured program number will be Dr. T. H. McDonald of the Wayne State College history department. He will present a slide program on "Exploring the Northwest Territories."

Hosting the affair are Farmers' State Bank, Carroll; Commercial State Bank, Hoskins; First National Bank, Wayne; State National Bank, Wayne; and Winside State Bank, Winside.

Mrs. Basil Osburn, Wayne, will get the top honor, being noted for 33 years of service. Mrs. Robert Boeckenhauer, Wayne, will get a 30-year ruby pin. Ten-year silver pin will go to Robert Boeckenhauer, Wayne. Five-year silver pins will go to Mrs. Fred Janke, Wayne, Louis Lutt, Wayne and Kenneth Wagner, Winside.

Two-year bronze pins will be awarded to: Mrs. Wallace Anderson, Laurel; Mrs. Paul Dangberg, Mrs. Harold Ekberg, Ed Groner, Stan Hartman, Fred Janke, Dean Pierson, Mrs. Paul Sievers and Marvin Young, Wayne; Mrs. Don Harmeier and John Williams, Carroll; Mrs. Bernice Kaufman, Wakefield; Mrs. Allen Splitgerber, Wisner; and Mrs. James Tietgen, Randolph.

Area Towns Hold Elections

Municipal elections will be held in all area towns Tuesday, Apr. 4. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. and votes will be cast in the usual locations.

There is only one special issue at stake. That is the bond issue for a fire hall in Wayne.

Hoskins Woman Wins Prize Money

Mrs. Henry Langenberg, jr., Hoskins, won the Silver Dollar Night prize Thursday. She was in the Larson-Kuhn Ladies Store when her name was announced.

According to Mrs. Langenberg, she comes to Wayne often to shop, "and almost always on Thursday nights." She said much of the money would be spent with Wayne merchants.

Wayne will not get all of the money, however. The Langenbergs have four children and one of them is in the service. "I plan to call him long distance," Mrs. Langenberg said, adding that this time she would not pay any attention to the time. (Her son is Gene, who was recently injured in a parachute mishap. He is in Kentucky).

The Langenbergs farm between Hoskins and Winside. Mrs. Langenberg said the money will come in handy, not for anything big but for a lot of little things the family can use.

With the winning of the $400, the reserve pot was kept from going to $400. It will be almost as good this coming Thursday when $300 could go out to some lucky person who is registered at participating Wayne stores.

Sorry, Mrs. Schwanke

Last week The Herald carried a picture of a Legion decal being presented to Mrs. Leonard Schwanke. The caption under the picture indicated the lady as Mrs. "Raymond" Schwanke. Editor's error. Sorry.

LOGAN VALLEY CORNET BAND posed for this picture in 1907 at Concord's Fourth of July celebration. All except three formed northeast of Wayne in Dixon County and they played for many special occasions, practicing most Sunday afternoons. Mrs. Marvin Nelson furnished the picture and her father was the youngest member of the band (sixth from left). He remembers the personnel as follows with today's address included if known: Willy

Meyer, deceased; Charles Lessmann, Dalton; Mr. Root, a barber; August Roeb, deceased; Fred Rewinkel, deceased; Paul Lessmann, Wayne, born in 1894; Mr. Zolsberry, employed by Craven Photo Studio, address unknown; Harry Lessmann, deceased; William Wischoff, deceased; Park Mabet, a barber, address unknown; Henry Hinnerichs, deceased; Herbert Lessmann, Des Moines; Herbert Hinnerichs, Wayne, 80 years old this year.

Allen Pupil Working With 'Plastic Water'

Ever seen water flow uphill? Don Ankeny makes it flow uphill. It's a project he is working on at Allen High School. Ankeny uses a new process with plain water and resin. Mixed properly, it has the facility to defy gravity. Start pouring the water from one container to another and the water flows normally. Tip the container from which you were pouring to an upright position and the water still keeps flowing.

To find out some of the other peculiarities, Ankeny has been trying other processes. One failed. He froze the water-resin mixture, hoping it would bounce. It didn't. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ankeny, Dixon. His instructor is Noelyn Isom, Dixon.

School Board Meet Draws Area Workers

There were 55 board members and school superintendents present for the school board seminar in Wayne Wednesday evening. It was one of a series sponsored by the University of Nebraska.

One section dealt with elementary education and another with secondary education during the late-afternoon period. Following lunch at West Elementary, a session on teaching devices was held.

Audio visual equipment, teaching machines, overhead projectors and other new devices were shown. Using the materials was explained and help given for the boards and administrators to take back in planning for future maximum performance from such equipment.

Chamber of Commerce Unit 'Batting 1.000' on Issues

A batting average of 1.000 is currently being enjoyed by the legislative committee of Wayne's Chamber of Commerce, Secretary Wanda Owens said this week. Every bill on which the committee has taken a stand has reached the same fate as that desired by the committee.

In its meeting this week the committee heard a report that the U.S. Chamber is backing a move, S. 1217, to have the five major holidays fall on Monday throughout the nation. Thus Memorial day would fall on the last Monday in May; Independence day would be the first Monday in July; Veterans day the last Monday in October; Thanksgiving the fourth Monday in November; Washington and Lincoln's birthdays would be combined as Presidents' day and fall on the third Monday in February.

the committee studied provisions of H.R. 5710 which would provide social security benefit increases up to 20 per cent. This would bring total contributions for employees and employers up to $52.20 per month for maximum taxable income. Another provision of the bill would make social security benefits taxable as income. No action was taken but the committee will follow progress of the bill.

In S. 5, a bill pertaining to setting up federal control of credit and lending laws, the committee voted to oppose the bill because all states have their own credit and money lending controls. Concern also was expressed about S. 645 and H.R. 191, companion measures that would permit the government to set up multi-county planning and development districts for schools and county city governments. The committee felt this bill would give the federal government too much control of local activities, however a copy of the bill has been requested by the committee to allow further study.

On the state level the committee discussed a bill, LB 861, which would regulate tuition increases in state colleges to have legislative approval. Committee voted to study the bill further.

Concord Swine Plan Cited for Progress

The initiation of swine research at the University of Nebraska Northeast Station, Concord, is cited as one of the tangible points indicating a surge of swine production interest in Nebraska, according to Dr. Frank Baker, chairman of the NU department of animal science.

Dr. Baker cited a number of developments which indicate Nebraska could move from sixth in the nation to third in the nation in swine production. The National Pork Industry Conference, has been scheduled in the state for the first time due to developments here.

Besides this conference, the reciprocal meat conference and the National Duroc Type Conference are set for this state. The Nebraska Swine Council is given credit for helping bring pork to the front among rural residents of the state.

It has been pointed out that Nebraska pork generates $200 million annually and accounts for 15 per cent of cash receipts of farm marketings (excluding proceeds from sale of breeding stock). Much feed grain that could be used for feeding swine is now being sold, it is pointed out.

More information on Nebraska's future with swine and the swine industry's future in Nebraska will be given as time goes by.

Dry Grass Set Afire

The cause is not known but a patch of dry grass near Surber's Furniture north of Wayne burned Friday evening, giving the Surbers a scare. It could have been a major blaze. A few years ago the Surber store in downtown Wayne burned so all are leery of any blaze. Firemen had the flames out fast Friday but, issued a word of caution on burning of any type since it is still dry in the area and wind shifts and velocity changes can come fast with warning.

Three Give Research Paper Reports

Three Wayne High School sophomores were chosen to present research papers for the Northeast Section of the Junior Academy of Sciences which was in session Saturday at Wayne State College.

The three are students of Jerome Knutson in tenth grade biology. Their papers are among 37 chosen from area high schools for presentation. Knutson said the papers would be judged by high school and college faculty members. Winners possibly could have their papers sent to the state competition for further honors.

Steve Hix presented a paper on "rapid eye movement and body movement during sleep." He photographed one of his brothers every hour all night long as one of his projects for the paper.

Harold Hamilton's paper was on "inducing anemia in mice." He specialized in iron-deficient diets and the effects such diets have.

Kathy Dunkla's paper was on "extra-sensory perception." She tested 100 WHS pupils, finding 70 per cent above the national average for ESP and 7 per cent showing reasonable signs of special ESP ability.

Educational Service

Ken Olds, Wayne, is chairman of the board of Educational Service Unit 1, which is to meet Tuesday in Laurel. Five counties will be represented.

Harry Mills, Wakefield, is superintendent. He has called the board meeting and has invited superintendents of schools in the counties to bring school board members with them for the session.

Dakota, Dixon, Cedar, Thurston and Wayne Counties are in the district which could levy as much as a mill to offer special services for schools, services which the schools by themselves could not afford to provide.

He will show slides of the trip. The public is invited to the session which is an annual get-together for the board, a recognition foto and a review session.

Patricia Benjamin Weds Arvin Noe In Rites March 17 at Normal, Ill.

Patricia A. Benjamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Benjamin, Downs, Ill., and Arvin L. Noe, Bloomington, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Noe, Dixon, were married Mar. 17 at First Methodist Church, Normal, Ill.

Rev. Clarence Young officiated at the 8 p.m. ceremony. Sally Schrock sang "Because," "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Edward Wilcox was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and pearl de soie. The empire bodice featured a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves. The A-line skirt was fashioned with a detachable lace train which fell from the back neckline. Her silk illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a white orchid on a Bible with a cascade of carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Richard Curry, Bloomington, Ill., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Kathy Gehrt, Normal, and Darlene Noe, Dixon. They wore empire sheath gowns of maize crepe and each carried a nosegay of white shasta mums.

Keith Noe, Lincoln, served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Kenneth Hamm, Fremont, and Alan Richards, Chanute AFB, Ill. Ushers were Marvin Grimm and Larry Bostwick, Bloomington, Ill.

Winside Survey of Wiring Gets Start

The survey of all wiring in Winside is underway. Mayor N. L. Ditman said engineers will cover the entire town on the study and then make a report on needs.

Bids will then be sought for rewiring the town, distribution lines, wires to business places and wires to home. A complete overhaul of the town's distribution (municipally owned) is scheduled.

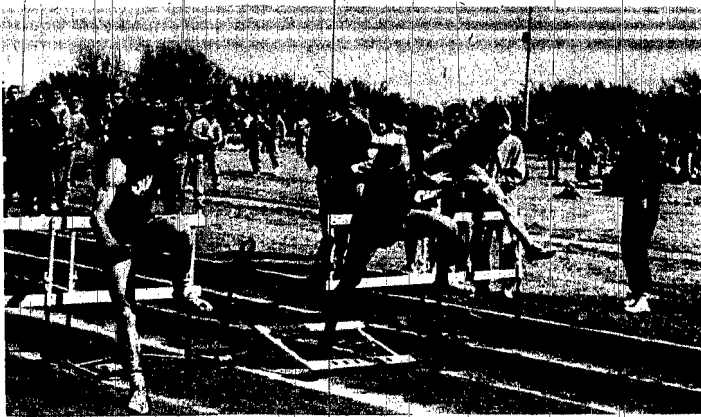

Thursday the power was off for a period. The trouble was at a substation for the REA northwest of Winside.

Winside Second in Class C; Bloomfield, Crofton Win

Winside put on a real battle for top honors in Class C but lost by three points to Crofton in the Blue Devil Relays in near-perfect weather Friday. Bloomfield beat out Tekamah by eight points for Class B honors.

No records were broken in Class B but two were set in Class C. Crofton broke its own record set last year in the two-mile relay and Humphrey won the mile medley relay in record time to beat the mark set last year by Newman Grove.

Wayne finished with 10 points in Class B but Coach John Tollakson obtained some brilliant efforts from underclassmen which should signal better days ahead. Winside and Wayne both take in the Midland Invitational at Fremont Tuesday.

Bernie Binger, a sophomore, and Les Echtenkamp, a freshman, both looked good running for Wayne in the mile and two-mile relays. Dave Brown and Steve Johnson, juniors, Dan Sutherland, freshman, and Terry Meyer, sophomore, were splendid in the mile medley (second) and sprint medley (third) for the Blue Devils.

Bob Dangberg, Bob Wacker, Keith Krueger and Reed Wacker won the 480 shuttle hurdle relay for Winside in 1:12.4. Dangberg, Randy Jacobsen, Wacker and Harold Meyer tied for first in the 440-yard relay and won first in the 880-yard relay for Winside. Meyer was second in the 100-yard dash for both classes at 10.5.

Here are results in Class B: Shuttle hurdle relay, Tekamah, 1:14.8, Hartington Cedar Catholic, Bloomfield Laurel, O'Neill, two-mile relay, Pierce, 9:02.1, Neligh, Tekamah, O'Neill, HCC.

Sprint medley relay, Newman Grove, 1:45.3, Norfolk Catholic, Battle Creek, Crofton, Wisner; mile relay, Humphrey, 3:43.4, Newman Grove, Lyons, Crofton, Creighton.

Feature event results (not divided by class, not counting in scoring): Shot-put, Roger Poledna, West Point, 50'8"; Harvey Meyer, Snyder, Wayne Schultz, Battle Creek; Joe Emanuel, Dodge; Brent Skinner, Wisner;

Wes Bitney, Neligh, Jim Carley, Beemer.

Class B standings were: Bloomfield 32, Tekamah 24, Laurel 21, Cedar Catholic 18, O'Neill 14, Pierce 11, Wayne and Neligh 10, Madison 7.

Allen Competes in Dixon County Meet

Allen is scheduled to compete in the Dixon County track meet Wednesday, Apr. 5. It will start at 9:30 a.m. at the Wayne State College track.

Coach LeRoy Wilch will send his Eagles into action for the first time this season. He has lined up several other meets for the Blue and Gold.

Ponca, Allen, Wakefield, Emerson, Newcastle and Emerson Sacred Heart will be competing in the Dixon County carnival here. No favorite has been named for the title role.

Apr. 18 the Eagles go to the South Sioux City invitational. Apr. 22 they are in Lewis & Clark conference meet at Norfolk and May 11 they go to Norfolk again for the Class C district meet. A dual with Winside is being lined up and there could be other competition for the thin-clads.

Score Bowling Feats

A pair of bowling rarities were scored recently on the alleys at Melodee Lanes, Wayne. Tony Olson was first, bowling for the Mint Bar team. He picked up the "near impossible" 7-10 split. W. F. Ellis of the State National Bank team scored a "triplicate" last week.

Wayne High Blue Devils Will Open Baseball Season Monday Afternoon

The Wayne High Blue Devils baseball team is scheduled to open the season Monday, Apr. 3, at 3 p.m. against Randolph St. Frances on the latter's diamond. Thursday afternoon at 3 the home season starts with West Point Central Catholic the foe.

Coach Mike Mallette was noncommittal in estimating the potential of the WHS squad. He could start as many as eight lettermen and has a wealth of experience from high school and Junior-Midwest teams of last year but there has not been much good practice weather and the team has had to adjust fast from basketball to baseball in weather more suitable to football at times. Delmar Wacker or George Eynon will get the starting call on the mound for the locals. Only one other position is in doubt, that being second base where Herb Swan and Randy Holgren are competing.

Wayne will play a series with schools at home and away and then enter district play in hopes of earning a state berth.

Dale Carnegie Course Set

Allan Cramer, publisher of The Wayne Herald, announced Tuesday that this newspaper will act as sponsor of the world-famous Dale Carnegie Course soon to begin in Wayne.

"We are bringing the course to our community because we feel it is in the interest of public service," Mr. Cramer said. During the forming of the class here, this newspaper will publish a series of feature articles by Mike Rothenberger, staff representative of Dale Carnegie and Associates, Inc., New York. The series is entitled, "I Will Prepare Myself." The organization of this class will be under the direction of Leonard A. Eichhorn of Sioux City. Eichhorn represents Donald D. Dahlberg and Associates of Omaha who offer the course in this area.

"The Dale Carnegie Course, for more than half a century, has been helping men and women to live happier, richer and more successful lives through the discovery and development of their hidden talents and potential abilities," Eichhorn said, "such as the development of greater self confidence, a keen memory and more effective powers of communication." He went on to say that many people take the course primarily because they want a broader understanding of human relations. They want to know how to get along even more graciously with people whether it be in a business or social situation or at home. Eichhorn reported that the Dale Carnegie Course, during its fifty three years of operation, has graduated well over a million men and women and the course is now offered in all fifty states and in many foreign countries.

Anyone who is interested in more information about the Dale Carnegie Course may write or telephone this newspaper, phone 375-2600.

Allen Man Hurt Twice

Harold Durant, Allen implement dealer, has suffered two major injuries to his left leg in recent weeks. He recently cut about one-half the little toe off his left foot in a machinery mishap. This was almost healed when he suffered another injury Thursday, cutting his left ankle so deeply when equipment fell on him he required a number of stitches to close the wound.

Number One in a Series -

"I Will Prepare Myself..."

By Mike Rothenberger, Staff Representative

We have all heard the story of the lad who was born in Kentucky a little over a century and a half ago. He spent his youth in poverty. When he was about seven years of age his family moved to Indiana where, for the first year, they lived in a three sided shed. A buffalo skin was hung across the open side to keep out the sleet and snow. His formal education amounted to a total of about one year. He learned to write, using an old wooden shovel for a slate and a charred twig served as his chalk.

One day he bought a barrel of junk for fifty cents. As he browsed through the barrel he found a couple of old law books. Even though his education was limited, he began to read and to study law. He became intensely interested. In the evening he read by the light of the crackling flames in the fireplace, and in the early morning hours he read by the light that shone through the cracks between the logs of his modest cabin. He made a steadfast resolution. He said, "I will prepare myself and some day my time will come." It is said that he often walked as far as fifty miles to get his hands on a book that he hadn't read. He didn't have the public library downtown, on the corner, as we have today. But more and more, as he became an avid reader, his resolution dominated his mind. "I will prepare myself and some day my time will come."

When he was in his early twenties he moved to New Salem, Illinois, where he worked in the Post Office and in a general store. But he never lost sight of his goal. He persistently kept on preparing himself and his time did come. He became the 16th President of the United States. Because of his keen insight, his profound character and his compassion for humanity, he endeared himself to the hearts of countless thousands of people throughout the world. His remains now rest in a beautiful cemetery, in Springfield, Illinois. Hundreds of people from around the world gather to visit the place each year. His name will always appear high on the list of the immortals and, of course we know that his name was Abraham Lincoln.

This story of success against great odds should be an eternal source of inspiration to each of us. Perhaps we don't aspire to be President, but most of us would really like to make more of our lives than we have. The opportunity for success is far greater now than it was in his day. But it requires something of us. Do we have the desire? Do we possess the tenacity to prepare ourselves, to search out and discover some of our hidden talents and potential abilities, to develop them to the extent that they will enable us to achieve? So many of us are inclined to sit back and wait for opportunity to knock. But, have we equipped ourselves to even recognize the opportunity and then to make good use of it? It was Samuel Rayburn, Speaker of the House of Representatives for so many years, who said, "Readiness for opportunity makes for success. Opportunity often comes by accident but readiness never does." He was so right. Readiness is something that each of us must bring about for ourselves through self-preparation, through the development of at least a part of the hidden potential that lies within us.

When we fully comprehend this profound truth, when we realize that self-preparation is prerequisite to successful accomplishment, then we too may be motivated to firmly resolve, as did the immortal Lincoln: "I will prepare myself and some day my time will come."

Enthusiasm Reigns in ETV Discussions Here

An enthusiastic group of school administrators attended the Northeast Nebraska Schoolmen's Association meeting here Thursday. Doug Spencer, WSC director of special services, was coordinator for the sessions.

The superintendents learned about what educational television will offer and how to utilize it to the fullest. They will carry the message further by conducting smaller meetings in the area in April and May to explain to teachers how they can benefit from the programs.

Each school seems to have different problems. Some seem to be intent on TV sets in every room, some want limited use, some want to have sets that can be transported around for use in various rooms and some are not so sure they want any. Schoolmen were told what they can do to get ready for ETV. They learned how it can be beneficial in elementary schools and in secondary schools. Finally, they were told to be prepared to use it this fall as it should be available in this area as early as September or as late as November.

V. J. Christenson, director of the Nebraska Council for Education Television, was a principal speaker. Bill Stafford spoke on MCBEL, telling about its use as administrators are involved, and Bob Carhart told about v-tech school plans.

Where Did All You People Go Anyway?

The appraisers from the Cleminshaw Co. were at the designated site Wednesday to offer figures on property appraisal but the people did not show up. They had turned up in droves earlier so the firm devoted an extra day just to Wayne.

County Assessor Henry Arp said there were few people who bothered to show up Wednesday. This was a contrast to all other days when the office was swamped with people wanting to know what value had been set on their property.

The appraisers spent Thursday and Friday checking over property where there had been complaints on valuations. There were not too many of these, Arp said.

The values were more of a "leveling" process than anything. Some valuations were raised, some lowered and the valuations equalized. The new values should be more fair to everyone the appraisers feel.

Wayne High School's chapter of the Future Homemakers of America will be marking the national birthday all this week. Special activities are planned throughout the period.

Saturday five FHA officers attended the state convention; Sunday the FHA attended services at the Methodist Church; Monday the chapter will have a party celebrating 21 years of the national organization with each member bringing a guest to further interest in FHA.

Tuesday there will be a white elephant sale after school; Wednesday an FHA display will be erected in a downtown window; Thursday night suckers will be handed out downtown compliments of the chapter; and Friday an all-school centennial dress-up day will be held.

The FHA program is designed to improve personal, family and community living. Projects indicate the seriousness of young people in accepting responsibility in youth in preparation for adulthood ahead.

Allen Fire Fighters

Answer Trio of Calls

Allen firemen have been busy. They answered three fire calls from Saturday, Mar. 25, through Wed., Mar. 29. Fortunately when the winds came up was when the fires went down.

Mar. 25 they were called to the Charles Peters farm 4 1/2 miles southwest of Allen. A barn and pile of hay burned.

Peters was asleep when a neighbor noticed smoke. He went to the farm, found Peters asleep and sounded the alarm. Firemen were unable to save the barn but there were few contents of value.

A grass fire along the Burlington Railroad right-of-way resulted in firemen being called out Mar. 27. Started by a locomotive, the blaze was out before it could spread to farmland two miles west of Waterbury.

Mar. 29 the firemen were called to the Bill Gotch farm four miles north of Allen. Grass and weeds along South Creek burned but damage was slight. Cause of the blaze was not known.

Hospitality Site Set

Wayne County Historical Society will host a hospitality center at the Woman's Club Rooms Saturday, Apr. 15, beginning at 11 a.m. for all oldtimers who come in for the businessmen's centennial parade. This is planned to give the older people a place to rest their weary bones and visit during their stay in town.

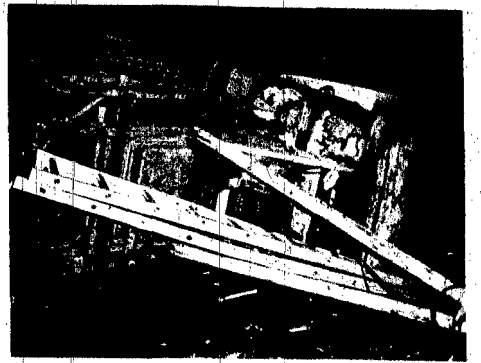

Club Leaders Discuss

Program Improvement

Many 4-H leaders in the Northeast five-county area met Tuesday in Norfolk to exchange ideas on how 4-H club programs can be of more value to youth. Margaret Stahly, Northeast Station home agent, was in charge.

Rev. Cecil Bliss, Wayne, discussed the community family of the past and the present, stressing ways of living today with increased pressures and stress causing people to become detached from the community. Leaders and counselors of youth were told they must recognize the stresses and pressures and show understanding of problems.

Elaine Skucius, state 4-H leader from the University

A BURNED TRUCK is a real mystery northeast of Wayne. Wednesday night a farmer called the Wakefield Fire Department to report a truck fire in the ditch. Turned on its side, it was a total wreck by the time firemen could get the flames out. Trooper B. L. Cooper was called to the point two miles north and four west of Wakefield (four north, four east of Wayne). There were no plates on the truck and no registration was left. The truck was hauled into Wayne and identification will be made by motor serial number or other means unless the owner identifies it before this lengthy process of identification can be carried out.

Tickets on Sale for Dinner in Wakefield

The Northeast Nebraska Livestock Feeders Association will hold its annual banquet Saturday, Apr. 8, in Wakefield. Tickets are now on sale throughout the area.

In the Wayne region, tickets may be secured from Marvin Dunklau, Howard Greve, Dean Meyer or Dwayne Willers. These men can also give information on where tickets can be purchased in other areas or can sell tickets to people from other areas.

Congressman Robert Denney will be the main speaker of the evening. Warren Kester of Sioux City Stockyards will be master of ceremonies.

Wakefield PTA will serve a Nebraska prime beef dinner. The banquet will be in the new Wakefield Elementary School auditorium.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

A Fire Station for Wayne

D-Day is almost here. The decision on the future of the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department facilities will be made Tuesday—by you!

To the credit of the Wayne firemen, it should be pointed out that they have not tried to keep up with other towns in asking for grand luxury facilities. They have cut features to provide the bare minimum for efficient operation now and in the future.

They have pointed out that the mill levy should go down instead of up next year. This comes about because the city will eliminate the four-mill levy that has been needed for several years to pay for the Bentback Hospital, now city property.

The 4-mill levy ends this year. City Clerk Dan Sherry reports. The firemen's quarters would require only two mills so with a drop of four mills and an increase of two mills the total levy could actually be lower for the coming year.

We have to admire the firemen who are a pretty dedicated bunch all year long. There's a blizzard, the fire alarm sounds and they're up and out. There's a high wind, they hear the siren and they go, out in the storm not knowing when they will come back.

They have a day off. Others are going golfing, fishing or just on outings with the family. Firemen plan such activities too but when that fire whistle sounds it comes first and the best laid plans have to be laid aside.

It's 2 a.m. You're sleeping soundly, the fire whistle sounds, you wonder where the fire is and you roll over in bed and go back to sleep, knowing you'll find out next day. Not so the volunteer firemen; they get up and no matter whether they've had six hours or six minutes sleep they go prepared to stay as long as they are needed.

You're in your clothes you wear to work, a fire alarm sounds and you know you'll still be fresh several hours later. But the firemen, they could return all smoky and grimy. They may have to send clothes to the cleaners and they may have ruined clothing.

Dramatic, isn't it! Firemen did not ask that this be said; it's just something you should have been aware of all these years.

These firemen are not asking for a new fire hall for recreation purposes. They want to train so they're better prepared to save homes and even lives. They want to meet, discuss and consider what is best for Wayne. They want to make sure their department is so efficient the fire insurance rates do not go up, up, up. (The fire insurance rate is lower when facilities are better).

They don't want automation. They just want enough room so when they rush into that fire hall they can get what they need and get on their way to protect your property. Minutes of delay can be costly and they have delays now that could be omitted with better facilities.

Wayne firemen want to pay their obligation to their families. They know for safety and health they need protective clothes in cold or rainy weather but they have no time to grab this clothing the way the situation is now. If a new fire station were provided, an equipment vehicle would accompany the fire truck and it would have whatever protective clothing they needed without them having to stop to find some.

The firemen would like to have hose "instant dry." It just does not work that way now. They have room to dry small lengths of hose at a time. In winter this means much of the hose is unusable for days after a big fire. Two big fires in a row in a short period of time could be near-disaster.

These VFD members are not asking you to carry the whole load of paying for the facilities they need. They are taxpayers. They are willing to pay, too, in addition to drilling, meeting, going on false alarms, leaving their dinner tables, rushing out of meetings and inconveniencing themselves in a hundred different ways just getting to the fires.

Then there is fighting fires—a situation which need not be described to anyone who has ever watched a soaked fireman surrounded by cold on a winter night unable to get close to a too-hot fire, freezing on one side and roasting on the other.

You had your chance to see the fire hall Sunday. If you did not visit it, you have been unfair to yourself and the firemen. If you vote against the fire hall, you are voting against better working conditions for them, something they aren't about to strike for but something which they have earned in about eight decades of service to the community.

The new ambulance could be mentioned. It has to be housed somewhere. The new rural fire truck has to be considered. It is bigger than the present truck and it has to be available at a moment's notice. The equipment truck to carry first aid and protective devices to fires will have to be quartered inside. Present facilities are just not adequate.

Maybe you would like to be in their place. Maybe you figure you aren't going to have a fire so who needs fast service. Maybe you're wrong.

Vote against the fire hall? Wayne would be short-sighted to do so. Considering all aspects, there is only one way to vote: FOR.

It will be on your conscience if this fails. Every time that fire alarm rings your heart may come into your throat as you fervently hope the fire is not at your home and that the firemen will get there in time, get the fire out and return safely to the places from which they came as volunteers.

You make a cross in the "For" box in order to help the firemen help themselves in serving you. If you vote against, why not make two crosses in the "Against" box, signifying the "double cross" for both you and the firemen.

By all means vote Tuesday. May the alarm that sounds to summon firefighters never call them to your place, no matter how you vote. Just don't count on it though!—CEG.

What is a Fraternity?

Fraternities (and sororities) are getting started on Wayne State Campus. Some may ask why they are needed all of a sudden, while others may wonder why they have not been here before.

Knowledge of fraternities here is limited but experience in the past shows they have some definite advantages and some definite disadvantages. Neither will be dealt with here.

What has impressed us so far is the action of one fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon, better known as TKE or Teke. Boys in this frat have laid plans to be a social fraternity but to be a service group too.

They plan to work for a better college. But they also want to serve the community in which the college exists. This is most commendable in a group of boys who come from Chicago, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska and other points, boys who have no long-lasting interest in Wayne.

Already they have demonstrated a willingness to put the energy of youth to work for the good of the community in service to mankind in general. What they may not realize is that in serving others they serve themselves.

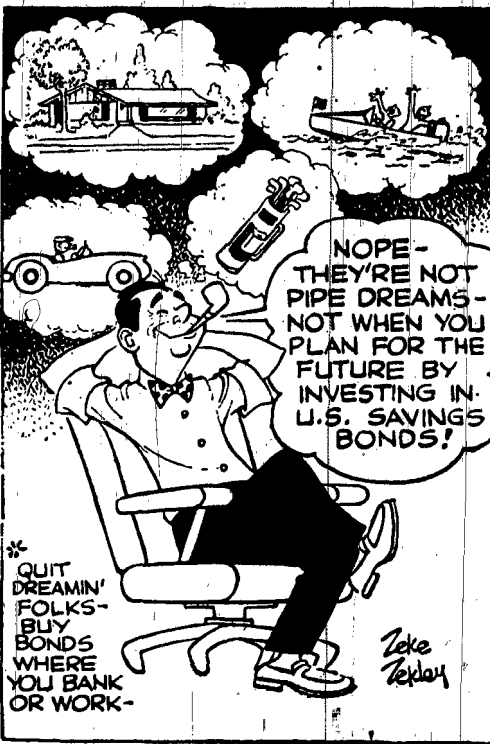

Out of the minds of such great young people will come great thoughts. They would be successes in their chosen fields, because they have learned early that those who serve a community in particular serve mankind in general.

Frankly, the idea of fraternities and sororities has not intrigued us as a necessity at Wayne State College but this is something for others more closely associated with the need to decide, so comment has been withheld. Now with the fraternity-sorority movement so new it appears that we might be convinced that once again we were too hasty.

With an open mind we stand ready to judge. So far our opinions have been on the "anti" side but the pendulum swung a long way toward the "for" side in just a short period when we found out that there is something back of these organizations besides the bizarre and discriminatory pictures we had before.

Whether others follow the TKE's in serving is something to be seen. For sure the one fraternity has done a service to all Greek societies in the present approach to serve. Other Greek chapters might do well to follow and even try to outdo this unit. The Herald will be glad to give credit to them for what they do and what they contribute to a better WSC, a better Wayne and a better life.—CEG.

William H. Broadhead, and Mills S. Reeves, both of Otoe County, introduced similar bills in the Territorial House and Council respectively, relating to the organization of a state government for Nebraska. The bill passed both Houses, but it was defeated in a popular election in March 1860, 2,372 votes against to 2,094 votes in favor of state organization. Several years later, on December 22, 1862, James N. Ashley, Ohio, introduced a bill into the U.S. House of Representatives for the admission of Nebraska into the Union; but Congress adjourned without passing the bill.

Statehood was again brought up in the Territorial Legislature in January 1864 when A. H. Jackson, Dakota County, introduced a joint resolution and memorial to Congress asking that an enabling act be passed so that Nebraska could be admitted to the Union. This original bill was amended, but was passed by both territorial Houses in February 1864. At the same time in the Congress, Representative Ashley was introducing enabling legislation and on April 19, 1864, the Congress passed the law. On June 6th an election for constitutional delegates was held in Nebraska with the result that anti-statehood representatives were elected and when the convention assembled in Omaha on July 4th, it elected officers and then adjourned without forming a constitution.

In 1865 there was little official discussion of statehood even though Governor Saunders had mentioned the matter in his message to the Legislature in January. The next year, however, John R. Porter, Douglas County, read a joint resolution containing a constitution for state government for the people to approve or disapprove. On February 9th the Governor signed the joint resolution and in the election held on June 2, 1866, the people approved the constitution by a majority of 3,938 to 3,838 votes.

In the 39th U.S. Congress, 1st Session, the matter of Nebraska's constitution was taken up and a bill for admission approved on July 27th. Unfortunately, this was just before adjournment and Congress was unable to take any further action when President Andrew Johnson killed the bill by a "pocket veto."

In the next session of the 39th Congress a bill for admission of Nebraska was introduced on December 5, 1866, and by January 16, 1867, had passed both bodies. President Johnson again vetoed the bill, but first the Senate and then the House, on February 9th, passed the act over his veto by the necessary two-thirds majority. Governor Alvin Saunders called a special session of the State Legislature and on February 21st, the Congressional act was approved. This set the stage for the final act of statehood, and on Wednesday, March 1st, President Johnson signed the proclamation admitting Nebraska as the 37th state in the Union.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Your editorial about Spring in Nebraska is a gem and should be kept with the interesting prints of early Wayne scenes, as its relevance is timeless.

The one about the two young ladies pictured was also fine, and you may be interested in knowing that several people have thought the girl on the right could be Mrs. Harvey (Myrtle Ford) Ringland, whose girlhood home was with her sister, Mrs. Northrup, at 420 Douglas, one of the fine old homes still well preserved.

Yours truly,
EMH

Dear Editor:

The Volunteer Firemen of Dixon do not mind having firemen from other towns laughing WITH us about our outdated and often unreliable equipment, but when it gets so bad the other departments laugh AT our equipment—then it's high time something is done about it.

The state law says a town cannot impose over one mill tax for a fire dept. Now with the total number of taxpayers in our fair village, this does not bring in enough to purchase much equipment.

Our 1936 truck was fine for its purpose and could be depended on to get from one end of town to the other. But taken on longer runs to the rural area has strained the old truck to the point of near exhaustion.

We of the Volunteer Fire Dept. respectfully request ALL interested parties to put on their thinking caps and help us help THEM with some ideas on gaining some updated equipment.

We will need your ideas and physical help to attain this goal.
Dixon Vol. Fire Dept.

Dear Editor:

It is that time of the year when more people should be buying or building a martin house to attract these birds to their yard. It is always the first week in April that the martin "scouts" arrive to look over the housing situation and about a week later the main force arrives.

There are many reasons for enticing the martins to your own yard. They are worth many times the cost of their home in entertainment. Their flight is the most beautiful of any bird. You will spend hours watching their graceful glide and the dips and dives to catch insects. It's a regular family affair to see which one gets which apartment. Their song is one of the most beautiful of all birds. One of the most often mentioned advantages of martins is their appetite for mosquitoes. They will eat

When they came to the bridge across the Humbug Creek, near the Robt. Greenfield home, they missed the bridge and went headlong down the steep embankment, killing both the ponies.

Dr. Russell Owen Gets Boost in African Role

Dr. Russell Owen, who left Wayne State last August to become a consultant to the minister of education in Nigeria, Africa, has been boosted to a top position in the program, according to word received here by friends.

The Ford Foundation and the University of Wisconsin, sponsors of the educational project, have made Dr. Owen director over the entire program. The promotion came just about six months after he started work.

Those hearing from the Owen family report they have adjusted to life there. The children are in schools where there are few white children and are getting along fine. Each competed in three events sports day.

Nebraska's Statehood—100 Years Ago Today
The acquisition of large tracts of land by the United States, primarily by purchase and treaty, and the development of these areas into separate but equal states of the Union have been a vital part of American history. The Nebraska House and Senate Journals and the Congressional Globe, both found in the library of the Nebraska State Historical Society, reveal the legislative details of the following sketch of Nebraska's path to statehood.

On December 8, 1859,

The Service Station

Dennis Bronzynski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bronzynski, Winside, is working as a supply specialist as a computer programmer. He is stationed in Ohio but will go to Lowry

AFB, Denver, for several weeks and then return to his present base. He enlisted in July, 1965, after graduating from Osseo Community Schools, Osseo, Wis. His address is: A/2c Dennis L. Bronzynski, Box 10316, 2750th Air Base Wing, Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio 45433.

At Tay Ninh, Vietnam, west of the Iron Triangle, Sp-5 Bryce Lindsay, Wayne, is assigned to the 196th Light Infantry Brigade. He has been there about three weeks. Specialist Lindsay, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lindsay, and his wife, Donna Rae, live on a farm near Wayne, is an ordnance parts specialist in Company B of the brigade's Eighth Support Battalion. He was stationed in Europe before going to Vietnam. He is a 1960 graduate of Wayne High School.

(We really want items about former residents of this area too and if a picture can be included it will be even better).

Pvt. Larry Hansch wrote The Herald a short note from Germany. He says he is stationed at Schweinfurt, a fairly large town "but the people are rather prejudiced against the GIs for more reasons than one." He says he is in a "Davy Crockett Section" in Germany and cannot give out much information. Main weapon is nuclear powered and capable of supplying firepower for a battalion-sized unit. He is close to where Jerry Wehrer and Charles Thompson are so hopes to see them. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hansen, Wayne. His address is: Pvt. Larry J. Hansen, US 55857265, HHC, 1st Bn., 30th Inf., APO New York, N. Y. 09036.

Pvt. Victor Green is taking training in the army signal corps at Ft. Gordon, Ga. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Green, Allen, and was the highest scorer in his company's physical proficiency test at the end of basic training at Ft. Bliss, Tex. The test was based on skills requiring coordination and endurance and was designed to evaluate soldiers' physical capabilities and determine whether they have the stamina needed in battle. Pvt. Green entered the army in November. He is a 1965 graduate of Allen High School and attended Wesleyan College, Miltonvale, Kan., before entering the service.

Pfc. Carroll Addison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Addison, Laurel, is in the first air cavalry and was presented the army air medal Mar. 27 by direction of President Lyndon Johnson. During this time he actively participated in more than 25 aerial missions over hostile territory in support of counter-insurgency operations. During all of these missions he displayed the highest order of air discipline and acted in accordance with the best traditions of the service."

By his determination to accomplish his mission in spite of the hazards inherent in repeated aerial flights over hostile territory and by his outstanding degree of professionalism and devotion to duty, he has brought credit upon himself, his organization and the military service.

Randall Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Carlson, Concord, was promoted recently to specialist fifth class. His address now is: Sp-5 Randall F. H. Carlson, 2661 Renton Way, Apt. 9, Castro Valley, Calif. 94546.

ture was taken. He then went to Ft. Sill, Okla., for six weeks, driving tanks, trucks, Jeeps and other vehicles and now is in the fire direction center at Ft. Carson instructing troops to fire just in front of friendly personnel. His present class is about through with training. His address is: Sp-5 Richard G. Smith, US 55793100, HHS Btry, 6th Bn., 20th Arty., Ft. Carson, Colo. 80913.

The unit headquarters at Hickam AFB, Honolulu, and operates from 19 locations in the Western Pacific, Far East and Vietnam. Airman Potter is an aircraft mechanic at Midway Island and gets to wear a distinctive blue service ribbon to mark affiliation with the 61st. The unit scheduled 120,000 aircraft departures, moved 750,000 tons of cargo, processed over 5.25 million passengers, flew 161,513 accident-free hours in support of military activities and other activities. The 61st has received the outstanding unit award three times and has been cited for meritorious achievement during the combat airlift of Third Infantry Brigade to Pleiku, Vietnam. Airman Potter is a 1963 graduate of Laurel High School. His wife is the former Evelyn Jennings.

A/2c Robert Now, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Now, Allen, has graduated at Lowry AFB, Denver, from a training course for air armament mechanics. He is being assigned to Davis-Monthan AFB, Ariz., for duty with the Tactical Air Command. Airman Now is a graduate of Alton High School and attended Wayne State College before joining the air force.

HOW WILL YOU HANDLE ALL OF THOSE STALKS?

The best way to handle the tangled mass of tough, heavy hybrid stalks is a Brady flail shredder. It shreds your stalks, makes plowing easier, faster, better. It locks out most of your corn cobs, too. You can even pull a tandem disc behind a Brady and be ready for minimum tillage. It's a great labor-saver and excellent for clipping pastures and idle acres. Two, three, and four-row available. Winside PTA met Tuesday, Mar. 28, the program being furnished by the physical education and science departments. Mrs. Ervin Jaeger, PTA chairman, was in charge of arrangements. Pupils put up displays in the halls and in the rooms for parents and teachers to view. There were displays of one type or another almost everywhere one looked.

Jim Connich had charge of the work for the physical education department. He is a student teacher. Darrell Fuelberth and Mrs. William Wilson had charge of the science display.

Some pupils had worked out charts that traced lineage, others were on scientific work and still others were on studies they had made in various fields. There were no prizes given but the parents found the displays interesting.

NO ONE IS CHASING Dean Smith, Allen. He was just called upon to put blue paper over lights in the Allen High School Gym for the class play Friday and Saturday. No ladders were long enough so he scrambled up a pipe and crawled around the gym ceiling putting the paper in the lights. This view was taken from the floor looking up.

Dixon Firemen Get Called Back Again

Dixon Volunteer Fire Department members were called back to the scene of last Monday's big fire Wednesday. Winds had fanned the remains of the fire into flame again.

Both trucks were taken to the White Brothers farm. Firemen had no trouble getting the fires out in scattered areas.

One truck was finally left at the scene. Little fires blazed up three more times in posts that had been charred by the fire and at other points.

What should you tell your daughter about Cougar owners?

Face up. Tell her the truth. Tell her that Cougar owners are apt to be a little bolder. A little more daring. A little more debonaire. Often we find it hard to tell if they were that way before. Or after—after they bought a Mercury Cougar. (It's that kind of car: European flair, lean lines, luxurious interior, bucket seats, muscular V-8 engine standard. And there's a new Mercury Cougar XR-7 with extra accessories. Extra everything.)

Maybe you ought to come in and take a look at the Cougar for yourself. Who knows? You may be the kind of person who becomes a Cougar owner, too. (And then what will you tell your daughter?)
