Drivers' Course Set at Winside

A drivers' course is scheduled in Winside this fall. Is it popular? It is all but filled already.

Winside Community Club learned more about the course at the meeting Monday night at the Methodist Church. Before the evening was over 21 had been signed to attend, many men signing to take the course and signing to have their wives take the course.

This means there will be openings for about six more people. It will not doubt be on a first-come-first-served basis since the size of classes taught by Trooper James O'Dell is limited, according to Fred Brader, who is arranging classes.

Old Settlers Picnic came up for discussion. Advance sale of carnival tickets, through stores, the parade, the bands, prizes and other phases were discussed.

Next meeting will be Monday, June 26. It will be ladies' night.

Group Announces Plans For New Type of Plant

A group of Wayne County men announced this week they will have construction started the first of the coming month on a new steaming and flaking plant in Wayne. It is a type that is rapidly gaining favor throughout the country although there are few in this area yet.

Site of the plant is East Fairgrounds Avenue east of the Wayne Motor Express and between the street and the C&NW Railroad. Completion aim at present is by the first of October.

Feeders Elevator, Inc., is the name of the corporation having the structure put up. The firm will engage in steaming and flaking grains and in grinding for processing complete hog feed.

Scales and other facilities will be included so complete elevator service except storage can be given. In addition to processing, the firm will buy and sell grain.

Two steam rollers with room for two additional rollers are in the plans. The grinder is also on order.

Process Engineering, Inc., Red Rock, Okla., has signed to build the steel and concrete plant which will employ three or four men at first. It is not known how many will be employed on construction work.

State Plans to Pave at Hoskins
The state department of roads has called for bids on resurfacing seven miles of Highway 35. Covered in the contract will be the highway between Hoskins and Norfolk.

Jaycees' Blood Typed Monday

Wayne Jaycees, noting that the number of names on the blood donor list at the hospital is getting low, have agreed to have their blood types and their names added to the donor list. They encourage others to do the same.

Tuesday night 14 of the Jaycees went from their meeting to the hospital for blood typing. More of the members will get their blood typed at the time goes by.

The young men of the chapter took an another project Wednesday night. They built four benches to be used by players at the baseball diamond.

Coming up are these projects: May 19, joint meeting with Mrs. Jaycees at El Rancho to install officers and present awards; May 27, Boy Scout Fun Fair at Wayne City Auditorium.

Continuous backing of the vocational-technical school for Northeast Nebraska; another Labor Day golf tournament to follow the successful tourney held last year; and several other projects yet to be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hammer represented Wayne at the Pierce chapter night banquet Tuesday of last week. The Pierce chapter is one of the newest in the area.

VFW Ladies Planning for Poppy Sales

Buddy Poppies will be sold in Wayne this coming week. Sponsoring the sale is the VFW Auxiliary.

The poppies do not cost much but the value to the men who make them is multiplied several times over. Assembling the little plastic flowers are disabled veterans in hospitals.

This is the only method some have of making money of their own. Unwilling to take only what is doled to them, they work throughout the year on projects such as this to earn money to buy some of their own needs and even some things they don't need but want.

VFW Auxiliary members point out that the poppies are a "symbol of remembrance for God and country, an evidence of remembering the sacrifices made in the defense of the United States."

The women will devote their time Wednesday evening to calling at homes. Thursday they will be in the downtown area to see how many people care enough to pay out a dime, a quarter, a half dollar or even more to help the veterans who are helping themselves.

NOTICE!

The Herald experienced a major breakdown Wednesday morning in the Justo-writer, used to set type. This made it impossible to get much type set for sports, society, correspondence and other items. These will be included in Monday's edition. Your understanding of this emergency measure will be appreciated.

Emil Steffen in Retirement Now

Emil Steffen, 80, has retired, but just barely. Custodian at the Wayne County courthouse a most 19 years, he retired the last day of April.

Steffen had come to the country from Germany in 1909 as a young man. He lived on a farm for many years and completed 18 years as custodian at the courthouse last August. He was 80 last October.

He will live with a daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sommerfeld, Wayne. Another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jensen, will live in the courthouse apartment where he has resided and will handle the custodial chores.

Few of the "courthouse gang" have been there longer than he has. All joined Tuesday in a special salute to him before he moves out. They had three cakes and several presents which they gave to him as a memento of respect and appreciation for his service almost two decades.

Silver Dollar Prize at $400

Could you use $400? Some lucky person will get that amount in the form of a check Thursday night at 8 if they happen to be in the right store when their name is called.

The fund remains at $400 because there was no winner last week. Mrs. Mary Washburn, Wayne, was called for the prize but failed to collect so gets $10 consolation from the Wayne Chamber of Commerce.

Winside Cemetery Work Day Sunday

Pleasantview Cemetery Association, Winside, will have a work day at the cemetery Sunday, May 21, starting at 1:30. Anyone who can help out is asked to do so.

Winside has a beautiful cemetery but labor costs have gone up each year so the board has a work day to get as much as possible done before Memorial Day. Board members also put in hours of their own time to keep the cemetery up throughout the year.

Labor and other donations will be appreciated. Board members are Frank Weible, president, Willis Reichert, secretary, treasurer, Walter Harman, August Bronzynski and Mrs. Paul Zoffa.

Two County Ambulances Available for Use Now

The station wagon patrol car for the Wayne Police Department was put into service Monday, giving Wayne County two ambulances. Wayne's patrol car will be used as a secondary ambulance during times when the regular ambulance is in use.

Wayne County is helping to provide the service for the vehicle housed in Wayne. The police car is a city project but will be available for countywide use under a working agreement.

There are 14 qualified attendants in Wayne and one or more will go out with each ambulance on every call. These are people who are trained for emergencies and are not necessarily ambulance drivers.

The new patrol car contains a first aid kit and other supplies. Oxygen equipment, stretchers and other emergency equipment will be available at the hospital for taking out on calls.

The first fun fair of the new Lewis & Clark Scout District is expected to draw several hundred to Wayne Saturday, May 27. Cubs, Scouts, Explorers, leaders, workers and families are expected to be here for the event.

The event is scheduled from 1 to 5:30 p.m. in the Wayne City Auditorium under sponsorship of Wayne Jaycees. Fun is the theme and something for all ages is promised.

There will also be the space derby races and the Pinewood derby races by winners from Cub Scout packs. Mrs. Jaycees will sell food throughout the afternoon.

Response to Canvass for Servicemen's Fund Good

The response to the collection of funds for SWAY, Inc., has been extremely good, according to preliminary reports. Business and professional men have given generously.

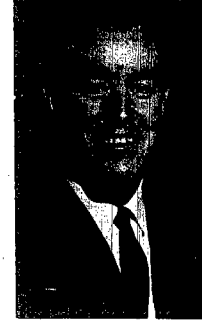

This is one of the few drives where professional offices have been contacted. Beauty shops, doctors, lawyers, dentists, chiropractors and others have been called on.

If anyone was missed, they may still get their name on the letter to be sent with each cash gift. See SERVICEMEN, pg 8

Two Construction Projects Planned

The department of roads of the state of Nebraska has sent out maps showing proposed construction projects for the 1967-69 biennium. Wayne County figures in two of them. One is Highway 15 south from Wayne. This would take only to the county line but would cover some of the roughest surfacing in the state with intermediate type asphalt.

A slightly lower type asphalt would be put on Highway 98 west from the Highway 57-98 junction south of Carroll to near the county line. This would leave about five miles of gravel to be replaced. Nothing is planned on Highway 15 north from Wayne or on Highway 57 north from Carroll. The state had been asked to include both in the coming year's projects.

In the nearby area, Highway 24 would be resurfaced from Norfolk to Stanton, Highway 275 from Wisner to near West Point, Highway 20 from near Waterbury to beyond Allen Junction and a new junction of Highways 15 and 20 at Laurel would be put in.

Improvements not completed yet in the 1965-67 biennium include Willis to Waterbury and west of Allen Junction to north of Laurel on Highway 20, still to be connected.

Seniors Chosen New

WHS Council Leaders

Two seniors (next term), Jo Merriman and Debi Armbruster, were named president and vice president of the Wayne High School student council the past week, counselors Ben Deissler reports. Their win had been predicted by a poll conducted by a math class.

The winners defeated a senior, Dave Brown, and a junior for the positions. An active campaign was carried out by both pairs in all forms of promotion prior to the election.

Bob Porter's math class made 15 s.d.d.s. using samples of five to 10 percent of the eligible voters. The outcome of the composite vote was within 7 percentage points of being correct, which is forgivable since 11 per cent had been undecided in the surveys.

Coach Harold Maciejewski and Gordon Jorgensen came in for special honors at the athletic banquet for WINS at the college Saturday night. Maciejewski was presented a watch for his years of service and Jorgensen was recognized as the outstanding athlete.

Supt. Francis Haun paid tribute to Maciejewski's record of 243 wins and 81 losses in basketball and 76 wins, 14 losses and 7 ties in football. He stressed that though Coach Maciejewski had to win he also emphasized attitudes, spirit and competitiveness of student living.

He mentioned Maciejewski's dedication to teaching, his family and his community. He attends sports but also goes to music events, dramatic productions and class parties. Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jorgensen, is one of eight WINS athletes lettering in three sports. He lettered in football, baseball and basketball and has been a stand-out in all. He was chosen by vote of other athletes.

Coach George Kelly of the University of Nebraska was principal speaker and gave a speech that left no doubt as to why he is a popular speaker at banquets in the area. The crowd of around 275 applauded him enthusiastically.

Coach Maciejewski was master of ceremonies and introduced the speaker. Supt. Haun gave the invocation and the summary.

Winside will have no junior team but will have mid-levels, although no manager has been named. Two sizes of mid-level teams are set.

Pete Kropp will be in charge of the boys below the mid-level team age. He has around 50 boys signed up already and more are welcome. Parents are asked to call attention of their sons to the program.

Smoke Gets in All Portions of Home

Smoke, traveling through vents and registers, circulated through all parts of the Felix Dorcy farm home west of Wayne Monday. Damage from a fire was confined pretty much to the furnace.

Firemen were called out when the furnace heated up, melting the fire box and other parts. It is thought the heater had built up with oil during a period it was being repaired and then when turned on again overheated.

The furnace was ruined but nothing else burned. It was feared for a while the floor might catch fire but firemen arrived before this could happen. Outside of the damage by fire to the furnace the main damage seemed to be confined caused by smoke.

Dodge Defeats Wayne High in Finals Tuesday to Earn State Tourney Spot

Dodge High pulled out a 2-1 win over Wayne on the afternoon to win the district championship again. It was a thrilling defensive battle full of good plays and good pitching.

Prokop, Dodge's talented pitcher, did just what he had done before against Wayne. He hit a home run. That homer in the third frame was enough to put Dodge ahead after Wayne had gone ahead 1-0 and Dodge had tied it up 1-1.

Delmar Wacker went the rounds on the mound for Wayne, giving up six hits and striking out four while facing 27 batters. Prokop faced only 22 batters in seven innings, fanning four and allowing four hits.

Gordon Jorgensen had two hits for Wayne, a double and a single. Randy Helgren and Lynn Lessmann each had a single for the locals. Prokop had a homer and a single, Bressler a triple and Grossrhode, Emanuel and Mendlik a single apiece for the champions.

Mark Johnson and Steve Kerl were credited with some outstanding efforts on the part of Wayne. Herb Swan had a sacrifice for the locals.

State Check for $20,000 Received
County Treasurer Leona Bahde received a check the past week for $20,228.09 from the state of Nebraska. It represents the state treasurer's insurance tax fund.

Insurance companies pay the state a lump sum each year rather than making separate payments for property tax to the 93 counties. The state then allocates it to the counties for distribution to smaller governmental units. In the case of Wayne County, 60 per cent will go to school districts according to enrollment and attendance figures. The cities and villages will get 30 per cent and 10 per cent will go to the county general fund.

Wiltse and Claude Harder have been qualified as ambulance attendants for a long time and they will be available when needed.
The change to city-operated ambulances was brought about because private firms were put under such stringent rules as to the number of employees, the hours they could work and the facilities they must provide it was no longer possible to stay in business. Wayne is just one of many hundreds of communities that have lost private ambulance service and now must use tax dollars to provide such service. Wiltse and Hiscox funeral homes both had private ambulance service until May 15 when they went out of the business.

Healthy Tan —

organization got to do with sun tans? A lot, since tanning can be a direct cause of skin cancer, a type of cancer that kills 5,000 people among the 90,000 who develop it each year.
The WCLHS points out that skin turns brown from ultraviolet injury and with excessive exposure to sun light is a major cause of premature aging of the skin and the eventual development of skin cancer.
According to cancer authorities, skin cancer can be detected from a blemish that will not disappear within two weeks, a change in a wart or mole and a tendency to bleed or darken. Any one of these symptoms is enough to warrant consulting a doctor.
Lifeguards, field workers, fishermen, golfers and others who spend a lot of time in the sun should be careful of over-exposure to sun. Using good sense in being out in the sun calls for wide-brimmed hats, lotions or creams, arms covered at times and other precautions. Too many don't bother with these and may be skin cancer victims in spite of warnings such as these.

Anyone who has not sent in the name of a relative or friend in any branch of the military, here or overseas, can do so yet by mailing or taking the names, addresses and addresses to SWAY, c/o Chris Bargholz, Box 404, Wayne.

Another meeting of the Centennial Day committee has been set for May 23 in Melrose Lanes. The 8 p.m. meeting will be attended by the regular committee members plus representatives from Hoskins, Winside and Carroll who have been invited to attend.
Members of the old Wayne Players group have expressed an interest in taking part in the old-fashioned melodrama planned as a grandstand attraction during the fair.

Lions Give SWAY Monetary Boost

SWAY, the organization to remind servicemen they are appreciated, received a boost at the Lions Club meeting Tuesday night at St. Mary's Catholic School. The Lions voted to give a cash donation to the fund. The Lions will also give a boost to another group, Wayne Baseball Association, sponsor of the town team. Club members will sell season tickets to help raise needed money. The Lions still have three spots for ads on the baseball diamond fence, it was learned. Delegates will represent the local club at the state convention in Columbus May 26-27-28. President Harold Maciejewski will be unable to attend but will name club delegates.

Stan Smith represented the Wayne County Centennial Committee, selling medals and membership cards. Several Lions contributed to this cause by becoming WCC members.
The June 20 meeting will be installation night for new officers. Officially the new officers take over duties July 1.
John Brandstetter sang two numbers for the program. Paulette Merchant accompanied him at the piano.

Emergency —

men in the service should clip this paragraph and keep it in case they ever need to know.
Call Chris Bargholz, Wayne, 375-2764 in case of a REAL emergency. He is home service chairman for the Wayne County Red Cross and can get action faster than any other resident of the county.
What he does is contacts national Red Cross headquarters. The Red Cross locates the man, informs the authorities at his base of the emergency and the military authorities decide whether or not the emergency warrants the man coming home.
Bargholz can do nothing about what decision is made except to try. He is notified of the decision and can inform the family in a matter of two or three hours what will be done.

If you do not use this procedure, here is what usually happens. You contact men at the base where your boy is serving; the base contacts the Red Cross in that area; personnel contact the national headquarters; the ARC contacts Bargholz; he contacts the family; then the procedure starts where he lets ARC know what the emergency is. A lot of time could have been saved by contacting Bargholz in the first place as the military depends on the Red Cross for this emergency procedure and full details on situations.

CORRECTION —

In the obituary of Elmer Harrison in Monday's Herald, the names of two surviving brothers, Fred Harrison, Wakefield, and Ted Harrison, Omaha, were inadvertently omitted. Mr. Harrison was also preceded in death by two brothers.

Court Case Settled

The fore part of this month the court case of Melvin Jordan, brought here from Washington State, was reduced from forgery to issuing an insufficient fund check. He was found guilty by the jury and was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail and to pay $100 fine and costs.

Native of Wayne Gets Idaho Post

The Twin Falls Times-News of Twin Falls, Idaho, reports Brad Hickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hickerson, Wayne, has been appointed regional director of thespians and will be in charge of the state convention of the group in Twin Falls this coming year.

Hickerson has just signed to teach drama and speech during the 1967-68 term at TFHS. It will be his fourth term at the school. He is a 1960 graduate of Wayne High School and a 1964 graduate of Wayne State College.

This summer he will play a role in Antique Festival Theatre at nearby Buhl, Ida., and has been hired to design all costumes for one of the productions. He has played roles in Buhl the last three summers and has designed most of the costumes for high school productions since going to Twin Falls.

His plays have been called "college type," one of the top hits being "The Miracle Worker." The story of Helen Keller and Annie Sullivan, the play was witnessed by the president of the state school for the blind who had high praise for it.

Another play, "The Haunting of Hill House" drew this reviewer's comment: "One of the finest performances by a high school theatrical group. I have never seen" Hickerson was praised for his imaginative use of light and sound.

One of his drama students went on to win first place in an international key Club contest in New York a few years ago.

Another theatrical unit he works with is The Dilatante Group. He had the lead part in "Finian's Rainbow" with that group and had charge of makeup. The review in the Twin Falls daily said: "The production, Ogden, is played by Brad Hickerson, and his performance is almost magical! It is most believable as a leprechaun and every gesture and facial expression is perfect for the role."

Finally, he received a personal letter from O. A. Kehler, executive editor of the paper saying: "Just a note from me personally—and from practically everyone in town in general—in praise of your fine performances in "Finian's Rainbow." Kehler went on to commend Hickerson for his devotion to the community "above and beyond the normal call to duty." He concluded: "It is teachers like you who make for good school-community relations."

Cattle, Hog Feedlots Set for Tour Visits

Modern hog production and efficient cattle feeding will be on display June 2 for the Northeast Nebraska Livestock Producers Association tour. Anyone interested will be welcome to go along.

First stop at 6 p.m. is George Olson's, 6.5 miles east and 2.5 miles north of Thurston (or 7.5 miles west of Wamego); second stop will be the Don Mayberry farm; third stop will be the Lyle Hanson lot.

At Olson's, four members will see cattle and hogs on pasture and in dry lots. Tilt-up concrete construction was used in a barn and cattle shed plus upright concrete silos and side-opening concrete hill-side trench silo.

At Mayberry's the four members will see modern farrowing houses with farrowing crates, large and large storage in trench silos and convenient handling pens for cattle.

Hanson lots include a large scale cattle feeding program. The trench silo is one of the largest in the area and houses a tractor-driven silo unloader, well-planned grain storage, molasses handling equipment, central mixer and well laid out feed lots with fence line bunk.

Following the tour, visitors will go to Pender for lunch and a panel discussion of growing out young cattle on roughage for fast finish on high grain rations.

8 The Wayne (Nebr.) Herald Thursday, May 18, 1967

"I WILL PREPARE MYSELF . . ."

June is a fortunate woman! She is dark and strikingly attractive. She is married to a prominent and very successful business man in a small western community. June has five lovely children and a beautiful home. She has a magnetic personality, and all who meet her recognize her genuine self-confidence that lets others know she is in full control of herself in any situation. But it was not always that way with June. Just a few years ago she was a shy, backward, frightened, and terribly inhibited individual. She was miserable at the thought of meeting other people, whether they were strangers or those she knew. She would, literally, stay away from people. She would avoid meetings of the P.T.A., and other organizations in her community, because of her dreadful fear of others. Fortunately, June found the solution to her one great problem. She overcame her fear of people. Someone convinced her that if she would learn to stand before a group of people and express herself, she would develop a genuine confidence in herself that would spill over into every phase of her life. She finally accepted the challenge. It was hard for her at first, but she diligently applied herself, and within a period of three short months June awoke to the thrilling realization that her fear was gone. About one year later, that once poor, shy, miserably inhibited girl, who had been held back only by her deep seated fear of people, was invited to serve a district hostess for a national convention. She readily accepted, and enjoyed the time of her life throughout the entire event.

Hazard of Omission

There is a certain hazard of omission in newspaper publishing. Three examples can be given in Monday's paper. In the picture of the nun choir in "Sound of Music," the caption tells that nuns do not wear white tennis shoes. The caption was written with the complete picture in view but in putting in the halftone the picture was slid too far to the right and the "nun" on the right had her feet "cut off" so her white shoes did not show, thereby making the caption illogical. In the caption under Dean Pierson's picture it said he was elected "first president" of an insurance group, the omission being "vice" between those words, which changed him from first vice president to first president, quite a difference. Finally, the "7" was omitted from District 77 in listing teacher assignments, so the teacher appeared to be going to District 57 instead of District 77.

Court Fines Five Speeding Drivers

Five motorists were fined for speeding in Wayne County Court during the past week. Only one other case was heard by Judge David Hlamer in traffic court, this one resulting from a stop sign violation. May 11 Ron Zimmerman of Omaha paid $10 and costs of $5 for speeding. City Policeman Keith Reed filed the complaint. The same day, Paulette Fulberg, Wayne, was fined $10 plus court costs of $5 on a speeding charge. State Patrolman U. Ibbaman brought the case before the court. May 12 Robert Rabe, Wisner, was assessed $10 and costs of $5 for a stop sign violation. City Officer John Redel signed the complaint. George Dahl of Wayne paid $10 and $5 costs on May 15 for speeding. City Policeman Ron Pennerick filed the complaint. The same day James Hank, Carroll, was fined $15 and costs of $5 for speeding. State Patrolman B. L. Cooper signed the complaint. The final case of the week was also heard May 15. John Neecher of Hartington was fined $15 and $5 costs on a speeding charge filed by Trooper B. L. Cooper.

Offer Boar Service

Artificial insemination is to be offered Nebraska swine producers from Omaha's airport and two meetings to explain the service are planned in June. One will be June 6 at Hastings and the second will be June 7 at Lyons. Both start at 8 p.m. The facility is located near an airport because semen must be used within 86 hours. All interested hogmen are invited to attend the meetings sponsored by the University of Nebraska department of animal science and Tri-State Breeders Cooperative.

THE CAPTAIN, the countess, the butler and the free-ladder appeared in this scene from "Sound of Music." In that order they are John Brand- steffer, Debi Armbruster, Doug Danielson and Jo Merriman.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

The Turning Point

The seniors at Wayne, Winside and Allen will get the usual story this coming week. They will be told how they have reached the threshold or turning point. They will be told how they must work and what lies behind is nothing as compared to what lies ahead.

In an uncertain world there is really no telling what lies ahead. It may look dark for the future and turn out bright; it may look rosy and turn out gray. The seniors today turn the corner into an unknown life, one not exactly the same as any other seniors have ever faced.

Soon they will go away. They will be exposed to all sorts of forces the folks at home never even suspected existed and hence they did not warn them of these pressures.

The seniors of today are going out in a day when the young are led to believe that what the "old folks" preach is strictly out and they should go live their own lives their own way and to heck with what it was like in days gone by, 10, 20, 30 or more years ago.

They have seen on TV how LSD is recommended by some for all. Free love is advocated. Work for individual achievement is "in" and the communal society is "in" according to some.

What is going to surprise some parents is that they have not tried to discourage their young from thinking this way. Under the guise of freedom for all and the "rights" of the individuals, they have neglected the "obligations" which are often more important than individual rights.

As a result, the daughters may wind up rejecting any further recommendations from home. The sons may feel they are finally free from parental control and suggestions so they will do as they damn well please.

Happily, the majority will go along in the accepted pattern, succeeding in life, contributing to the general good and becoming missionaries of hope in a discouraged world. They may not attract as much attention as those who wander away from the path worn deeply by predecessors but in the long run they will be the ones who achieve, contribute and serve.

Good luck, seniors—you'll need it. You are the hope of the world in many ways, but although the world you face is not like that faced by many of us as we graduated, you will encounter some of the same problems, the same temptations and the same discouragements, most of us have faced. You can overcome. You can succeed. You can excel. It may be more difficult than ever to do so, but it can be done. You have faced other obstacles—don't let a little thing like "life beyond high school" discourage you now.—CEC.

Happy Under Communism

Suppose the Vietnam war were to end today. Would that end the troubles in the world? Don't you believe it.

Who is stirring up the trouble in Vietnam? Communists. Who caused the fracas in Korea? Communists. In Cuba? Communists. In Dominican Republic? Communists.

Does this give you an inkling of what is going on then when we have protests in the United States against any action that may save countries from communism? Do you think there might be some connection between the troubles overseas and the troubles at home?

Some well-meaning young people are having their energies directed down the road of communist thinking under the guise of humanitarianism. Naturally they do not want to see anyone killed with weapons of war. Few people do, but their feelings are being "used" by communists to boost the red cause.

If the Vietnam crisis were over, the commies would soon have trouble brewing somewhere else. If possible, they would like to have no interference and you can believe, they would have protests going right away in this nation to keep us from helping out the people who would be taken over.

Not many of you saw "Hitler in Havana" on TV because it came on a station that only those with cable-TV could get. But in a word, the pictures were frightening in that they showed a controlled people in Cuba with communism being preached to the youngsters from the second grade on up. Indocination was being completed and who do you think was being pointed out as the one enemy these kids must grow up hating and fearing? The United States.

Never forget for one minute that the only sizable force that stands between freedom and communism's domination of the entire world is the United States. The fact that this country can allow protests and demonstrations and still continue to wage the battle against communism should give an idea of how great this nation is. There is just no comparison with any other nation or time in history.

Sure, there are those who deplore the bombings of civilians, who call us aggressors and who complain as for entering "Squations" that are thousands of miles away, but admit it or not, these people are playing right into the hands of communism and the reds love every insult, every threat, every unfounded shout and every placard that helps their cause and makes standing for right more difficult.

Could these protesters be happy under communism? Few people are. For proof, consider the fact that most refugees of the world come from communist countries, East Germany, Cuba, China and other nations behind the Iron Curtain. They leave behind thousands who would gladly change places with those in this country who find so many things to protest about.

It is to be hoped that you will never have to find out how hard it is to be happy under communism. But there is the question of how long we can hold out with more and more protests against what we're doing to save Vietnam from communist take-over and ever-growing demonstrations against the only force the reds understand—military might.

Too late we may find out that if we do not fight to help in Vietnam we will be fighting somewhere else, possibly even on this continent, to stop the tide of communism. The privileged few under the communist set-up will be happy but the miserable millions under communism will continue to find little reason to be happy.—CEC.

Two Choices Now

It is great to have another television station coming in at Sioux City. That means our friends in the country can get all three networks and find out what kind of shows they have been missing.

But here in Wayne we are even more fortunate. We can have a choice of eight channels plus a scanner giving local weather information, plus FM radio.

There is no substitute. If you disagree, try to tell us why cable-TV is one of the fastest growing new industries in the nation. It has something to sell and Wayne will find out what.

One thing you'll like is perfect reception. Another thing you'll like is no television antenna on the house to bang around in the wind, get out of adjustment, turn with a rotor and give other trouble.

Another thing you'll like is Nebraska news and sports. The state basketball tournament, Husker football films and a lot of other Nebraska "extras" will be available.

We welcome cable-TV. We like it. We think you will like it. We don't think you'll be satisfied with substitutes. Ask the man who has it.—CEC.

an accelerated road-building plan.

Tiemann said the proposal would not be introduced at this session. He said additional work needs to be done on it.

"If we are to embark on legislation that gives us more dollars for highways, we need time to explain to the people of Nebraska why we're going," he said.

The governor said he would prefer not to wait until the 1969 regular session, but considers that a better date than the current deliberations.

Meanwhile, the Nebraska Roads Department unveiled a two-year, $33 million highway building program—down sharply from the current construction plan.

Additionally, it expects to receive between $40 million and $50 million during the period beginning July 1 for interstate work.

It was the first road improvement financing under Republican Gov. Tiemann's administration, and it reflects recent cuts in federal spending.

The federal aid primary and secondary systems budget is $12.1 million or 25 percent under the 1965-67 program of former Democratic Gov. Frank B. Morrison. It is a $17.3 million decrease from 1963-65.

Many of the projects are carry-overs from previous years due to higher construction costs which delayed their completion.

Overall, 623.5 miles of road work is scheduled on the regular highway system, including 113 miles on the primary network and 210 miles on secondary roadways.

At least two major thrusts will be made in the westward push of the Interstate across Nebraska. They would complete the heavily-traveled route from Brule to Paxton (28.4 miles), and between Chapel and the Colorado State line via Big Springs (24.6 miles).

In Omaha, the department plans to close the so-called superhighway gap on Interstate 480 through the downtown area. Some grading and structural work will be done on route 80 through south Omaha and route 680 through north Omaha.

When completed, motorists will be able to drive from the Missouri River in Omaha across the state to the Colorado line without halting for a stop sign.

Eventually, the Interstate will cover 478 miles in Nebraska. But total completion will not come until 1973.

Ninety percent of the Interstate program is funded by the Federal Government. State funds pay for the remainder.

More than half of the cost of improvements for the regular highway system will be state money. Federal funds are used on a 50-50 matching basis as long as they last.

The plan for the regular highway system emphasizes three key areas: improvement of main travel arteries, conversion of gravel routes to dustless surfacing, and improving outlets to small communities.

Sixty-six of the state's 99 counties will receive some construction work under the 1967-69 program, which State Engineer John Hosack admits is a "tremendous reduction."

Most of the work scheduled for the primary highway system is to widen the narrow and hazardous

Application blanks are available at all county Extension offices, or the Nebraska Crop Improvement Association, East Campus, Lincoln, Nebraska according to Dean Lancaster, Association secretary-manager.

It is suggested that all certified seed growers clear their application through the county Extension office. This would establish a local record as to whom is growing certified seed of the various crop varieties, Lancaster explained.

Applications on these crops must be sent in at an early date to allow the Nebraska Crop Improvement Association to arrange for proper field inspection prior to harvest.

Those who make application by May 20 and find out at a later date that the crop cannot be certified due to some unforeseen circumstance—such as hail, drought, or flood—may cancel the application and the field inspection fee will be refunded with the exception of $1.00.

Cancellations must reach the Crop Improvement office at the University of Nebraska East Campus prior to field inspection. Late applications are subject to a late fee of $5.00.

Applications for the certification of other crops are due as follows: June 20—Hybrid Corn July 10—All sorghums, warm season grasses, red clover, second crop alfalfa, seed, field beans.

August 1—Soybeans, sudan grass, third crop alfalfa seed, millet.

Check Furniture Comfort There's no such thing as a chair or sofa to fit every person and purpose. If you're considering the purchase of a seating unit look for one that fits its potential user.

For maximum comfort check back support, arm rests, seat angle, leg height, and size before purchase.

The back of a chair or sofa should tilt back slightly. It should be well constructed and high enough to support both the upper and lower back. Arm rests should be high enough to meet the elbow and forearm comfortably when the shoulders are in normal position.

The seat should be angled so that there is a 90 degree angle at the sitter's hips and knees. If the angle is less than this, the knees will be uncomfortably higher than the hips.

Be sure the chair or sofa legs are just the right

Letters to The Editor

The following letter was written by Dan Lorenz, Hoskins, now in Vietnam, to Ed Kollath, Hoskins mayor and bank president. The letter has been shared with you—Editor.

Dear Ed: Hi. How's everything in your corner of the world? I hope this letter finds you in good health.

We just completed a 9-day operation today. We are now back at Ton Tru for about a week to rest up and pull security for the base camp. We had a hard operation. It cost us 23 more men. Only 1 was killed. The rest were wounded.

Yesterday morning we hit a mine field. At three o'clock my platoon leader hit a mine. At midnight last night he passed away. There were 170 of us who left Ft. Riley together. There are 50 of the original people left. The new men I don't even try to get to know because it makes it that much harder if they get hit. It seems like every time a man dies or gets wounded a piece of you dies because you are so close together. You eat, sleep and drink together. When you get to the field and the bullets start to fly you wonder if the bullet is meant for you or your buddy next to you.

We lost a great leader when we lost Lt. Payne. He was really a great man. His only worry was to get all 50 of us in his platoon back to the US. He was really close to us. It was the first time I have ever seen 30 men actually cry on the battlefield. It seemed like it just took all the energy out of all the men. They were just like robots all the way back to Ton Tru.

I guess this is the way the dear Lord had his life planned for him. We as human beings just can't seem to understand how things like this should happen. Combat is hell. You see people get hurt and some killed. You wonder if it is really all worth all this. Lt. Payne could have been delayed from coming to Vietnam because his wife was to have a baby in February, which he will never see now. But he told us: "You are the men I want to take into combat with me so I'll go with you." He did a lot for us; more than we should have. We will miss him greatly. We are going to start a college fund for his boy. Payne each person will put in $10 a month. This way Lt. Payne's boy should have a little money to go to college with when he gets old enough to go.

Some nights you sleep in the rain but this is one of the prices we have been chosen to give for the freedom of our loved ones and friends. Ed, sometimes it takes a lot of balls to keep moving on. We got hit seven times in nine days after we hit the mine field and Lt. Payne died. I was scared as hell to move anywhere. This is the first time I have been this scared since my arrival in Vietnam. When you see a man like Lt. Payne die for his country, you think about these people who burn draft cards and say, "I'll go to jail before the army and Vietnam." You think: "Are these people really human or are they apes?"

Before we hit the mine field we used to hear about it and say, "Big deal. So what? But now it means a lot to me. I am proud that I am good enough to serve my country and people in Vietnam. Every day you face death face to face but you never scare because if you die you died for your country, your loved ones and friends. Ed, I am proud to serve for the people. Your whole life just seems to change and you realize the true meanings of life.

The other day when we got hit, they called in artillery on our position. They overtook the objective, landing 10 feet from our position. An artillery round has a killing radius of 50 meters. By rights we should all be dead but the dear Lord must have had His arm all the way around us. I figure the Lord has a day planned for you to die. If it isn't your day to go, you won't go.

There are things you will never forget about war. I saw my leader fall and die yesterday. Last night I saw it all over again just as plain as day. It's funny how yesterday Mrs. Paul Reppert from West Point sent me a letter. I was in the service with her son. Her husband passed away in February. She sent me a Psalm out of the Bible. I was really confused, but that message really explained everything for me.

Ed, a letter from you means a lot to me. Will close for now. Write soon. Dan

Unicameral May Consider State Highway Proposals

LINCOLN—A special session of the State Legislature on highway construction proposals appears likely in the wake of statements by the Governor and speaker of the unicameral.

Gov. Norbert T. Tiemann recommended a special session "as early as this fall" to consider a highway bonding plan and other road matters.

Speaker Elvin Adamson of Valentine said there is insufficient time remaining in the regular session to consider the bulky highway study report which has triggered considerable curiosity and controversy.

"If there is not a general urgency, maybe this can be carried over to the next general session in

Sen. Jules W. Burbach of Crofton, chairman of the Interim committee that conducted the study, said the three-phase analysis will be released soon.

Burbach also said there is sufficient time and interest in the current session to enact necessary legislation resulting from the report.

Tiemann said his disagreement on timing was based on the climate of the legislature, where other important matters are also pending.

"To attempt to jam it down now is wrong," he said. "Those interested in pushing legislation at this stage, without a complete study, could create a complete anti-feeling and the legislation could be rejected just out of hand for no valid reason."

In line with his recommendation, the Governor reported he has recalled from the bill drafter his proposed highway bonding plan to finance

Relatives enroute home to California and Colorado from Expo 67 offer a little advice. The US pavilion is nothing to see except it's big; the Czech and Bell Telephone displays are probably the best (with the Oriental exhibits next); change to Canadian money in Canada and you'll save money; take galoshes in case it rains because there are "holes" where you'll really wade; stop at J. P. Marcell Tobacco Service Station, 14701 1/2 Road, Rainville, Vt. J. and G. Cartier, Montreal, (Now isn't that last one a suggestion for going to a world's fair? Still, they insist they have never had any friendlier or nicer service and they're going to recommend their friends stop there even those who operate service stations—so they can get a load of how nice a station can be in a city teeming with millions when everyone has a tendency not to be especially nice).

After saying his usual night prayers, Johnny was heard bawling out: "Dear God, I pray that I will get a new bicycle for my birthday if that isn't too much!"
"What are you shouting for?" asked his little brother. "God isn't dead."
"I know," said Johnny, "but Grandma is."

Our bumper of the week goes to Darrell Siden. He is the one who originated the idea of reuniting servicemen. It proved too much of a job for him to do alone so veterans and business men are joining in sponsoring the unique SWAY setup so each week one or two Wayne County boys in uniform will hear from the businessmen back home letting them know they are appreciated. The project has received splendid praise. One thing, the plan is open to businessmen in all other towns in the county and is a project of Wayne or Wayne civic groups. Service organizations in the other towns can also help. Will your name be on the list sent to the men in uniform each week? Get busy do it now. First drawing is June 2. Orchids, M. Soden, for originating a fine project.

"I always eat in this restaurant. In most places the waiters grab your plates before you finish eating and it is most aggravating."
"And they don't do that here."
"Yes, they do but the cooking is so bad you don't mind it."

In our 25 Years Ago This Week items Monday we gave you an example of how items that were not really news lighting a new manure spreader, going to the dentist, etc. were used in those days. We hope you get the point. A few years later those items were omitted and the papers concentrated more on someone in Carroll visiting someone six miles north of Winslow (and similar items). Again, it might have been news then. Now we try to limit space to happenings that are of real interest. If you have visitors from a distance or have some special occasion, it is news and it is wanted. Please don't turn in items about getting a new manure spreader or visiting your neighbor over the hill and expect to get them printed—even if you kids out in California do want to read that sort of tripe. We've said it before, we're saying it now and we'll say it again in the future: We want your real news.

"Why are you so glum?"
"My doctor told me I can't play golf."
"Is that all? I could have told you that, and I've just played a couple of rounds with you."

It's funny how the state legislature is taking so long to get around to doing something about Nebraska's roads, possibly the worst in the nation. You would think that the men all got to Lincoln or the Interstate and never had to travel anything resembling Highway 15. Of course, anything about Highway 15 that resembles a highway is purely coincidental, especially from Pilger north. We doubt if any of the senators went to Lincoln this way. If they did, we'll expect them to bounce info action on this matter for risk take a another route home.

We were hoping the Carroll mail box beautification contest would be entered with so much enthusiasm by so many people it would be a model for other area towns to follow. There have been several entries but we would like to see more sections on the mail route enter in competition with other sections. Well, it's up to you Carrollers: we can't enter the competition for you.

CATTLE MOVING to the brome pastures at Concord are shown. Walt Tolman, animal husbandman, is in the inset.

Concord Cattle Out to Pasture
A group of beef steers and heifers wintered on corn silage and alfalfa hay at Northeast Station, Concord, are being fed in two different brome pastures now to study the value of feeding grain to cattle on good pasture.
Walt Tolman, animal husbandman at the station, reports one group will have full feed of rolled corn and the others no grain. All have been implanted with stilbestrol before being sent out to pasture.
As pasture becomes dry or short, corn will be fed to the pasture-alone group. Both groups will be fattened on the fall market. Tolman pointed out that steers wintered on brome grain with four pounds of rolled corn gained well on brome pasture without grain for 56 days but no comparison was made with cattle getting pasture plus grain.
Visitors are welcome anytime at the station. Pleasant weekends find many visitors looking over cattle experiments, crop tests and the buildings and grounds.

Wayne County History Contained in Andreas History Published in 1882

Mrs. Charles Hoffmeister, who was born north of Wayne, grew up at Sholes and Carroll attended Wayne State College and now lives at Champion (near Imperial) has a copy of an 1882 Andreas History from which she sent the following information about the history of Wayne County.

The pioneer settlers of Wayne County were B. G. Whitten and Mr. Bean, who came into Township 26, Range 5 east near the Hogan, in the summer of 1868. William Jones followed shortly afterward, and selected a homestead. Mr. Whitten did some breaking on his land in the spring of 1869. Whitten and Jones returned with their families and made permanent settlements in Wayne County. In the same year a small colony from Illinois, at the head of which was Willard Graves, entered the county, and settled mostly in the southeast corner, on Conon Creek.

Some of these were William G. Vroman, Isaac and Nathaniel Miner, and Andrew Hosier. Early in the summer of 1869, C. E. Hunter, Nathaniel Allen and his two sons, Alonzo and W. H., A. A. Fletcher, James A. Fisher, and H. B. Crawford settled in La Porte. In 1870 M. T. Sperry, W. E. Duffin, George and Cnoch Butler, D. F. Crane, Albert Miner, William F. Agler, Benjamin Harmon, George and Alexander Scott, and M. B. and L. O. Richardson came into and settled mainly in the vicinity of La Porte.

The first P. O. was established Sept. 8, 1870, near the Logan bridge and called Taffe, after Hon. John Taffe, of Dakota County. William Agler being appointed first postmaster.

The first child born in the county was Patience E. Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lnoch Hunter, Dec. 16, 1870. The first marriage that of Mr. T. Sperry to Miss Sarah Ann Cavers, May 14, 1871, and the first death that of a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Vroman, August, August 6, 1870.

The first sermon preached in the county was by Elder Miner near the Logan bridge, in October, 1870.

The first school was taught by Miss Jane Olin, in the summer of 1871, at La Porte, the whole county being then in one school dist.

The first practicing physician was R. B. Crawford.

The county was organized by the proclamation of Gov. David Butler in the fall of 1870. The first election to vote bonds was held Feb. 24, 1871. At this time the sum of 15,000 dollars for the purpose of building a court house. The total vote cast was 47; for the bonds 26, against 21. The court house, a fine, two-story brick building, was erected at La Porte, the county seat in the year 1874.

The saddest incident in the history of the county, was the burning to death by a prairie fire of Mrs. W. L. Darin, and her little girl, on Oct. 18, 1873. She had gone out to do what she could towards saving a shed from the fire, and in attempting to cross a strip of grass not over four rods wide, with the little girl, stumbled and fell, and being large and clumsy, was caught by the fire, and so badly burned as to die from the injuries received. While burning she held the little girl in her lap, but could not save her.

Donop post office is situated in the southwest part of Wayne County on the Norfolk branch of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha Railroad. The first settlement made here was by Frank Pule in 1869.

Leslie was a post office in the southeastern part of the county, established in 1871; Joseph Roekenbauer postmaster. It was discontinued in 1876.

July 1th, 1871. The people of Wayne County celebrated the republic's natal day very early in their own history. On the 4th of July, 1871, they nearly all assembled near La Porte to rejoice together over the success of the Revolutionary Fathers in establishing American Independence. M. T. Sperry was orator of the day; C. E. Hunter read the Declaration of Independence, and H. B. Crawford had charge of the singing.

Wayne—This little town is phenomenal in its growth. The town site was laid out by the St. Paul & Sioux City Railroad Co. in June 1881.

C. S. Munson, who had settled in the southeastern part of the county in the spring of 1870, was engaged in breaking land, when 5 young Winnebago Indians came upon and killed him without provocation or warning. They had been advised by one of the medicine men of the tribe that they must do such a deed in order to be BRAVES. They cut off Munson's head, hid it in a badger hole, and reported to the agency having found a man dead on the plains. Suspicion was aroused, the five Indians were arrested, tried for the murder and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. One of them was named White Breast, and was a son of the Winnebago Chief, FROM HISTORY OF THE

"I WILL PREPARE MYSELF"

The Old Man, by Stephen Mitchell

There was the wise old man who lived in a little village. It was said that he knew all the answers; that no one had been able to ask him a question that he could not answer. The little town was located on the side of a hill, and the old man lived at the end of a winding street, up at the top.

The boys of the village were continually trying to think of a question that would fool the old man.

One day, two young fellows were playing under some trees, down in the valley, near a brook. They were shaking the branches of a tree when a small bird fell to the ground from a nest above. One of the boys ran over to the bird and picked it up in his hand.

The bird was frightened and tried desperately to get away but he could not. He called to his playmate and said, "Alas! I have it! You have what?" asked his friend. "I have a question that will fool the wise old man up on the hill," he answered. "I don't understand," said the other boy. "Come with me to see the old man," said the boy with the bird, and I will show you."

Together they climbed the hill to the old man's modest house and knocked on the door. The man of wisdom came to the door and asked what they wanted.

Probably, the boy stepped forward and stood with his hands at his back. He said, "Wise Old Man, I have a question for you. Tell me, what do I have in my hand behind my back?" The old man said, "I would say that you have a bird." "That is right," said the boy, "but now can you tell me, is it alive or is it dead?" The old man stood in utter silence for a few moments and then, with piercing eyes, he looked into the face of the arrogant lad and replied, "If I say it is alive, you will close your hand and crush it. If I say it is dead, you will open your hand and let it fly away." "The answer is in your hands."

If more of us could see the parallel of this story to our lives, it would realize that each of us is, in fact, "the master of our fate and the captain of our soul." Surely, man determines his own destiny. We look around us, we see people who are successful and happy, enjoying life. And then, we see those who are despondent and distressed and, for the most part, just existing. We ask ourselves, "What is it specifically, that makes one person happy and another miserable? Is it money? No, it can't be, because when we begin to study people, when we know, we soon find that some of them have an abundance of material wealth but are most unhappy. Others have a modest or average income and live rich and joyous lives. Money is important, of course, but in itself it will not bring happiness. It will help, if held in proper perspective. The happiest and most successful person, however, is the one who has learned to enjoy life; the one who has learned to appreciate what he has, whether it be a fortune or just an average income, as most of us have. It is the state of our mind that determines our happiness and success. Fortunately, we are endowed with the inalienable right and power to think as we choose. No one can invade the privacy of our minds unless we consent. We allow the negative to dominate us, with the result that we will be unhappy, morbid and miserable. Or, we can cultivate the positive, by looking for the best... by keeping our minds open so that we don't fall into a mental rut. We can read wholesome literature. We can cultivate the friendship and association of positive, success-minded people. We can exercise our minds through the process of continuous learning and thus keep them keen. We can expect the best, and always look, and plan and work for the best. This is the simple difference between success and failure... developing habits that are mentally healthy. The great Emerson said, "Cultivate only the habits you are willing should master you." Of this, we can be sure. The habits we cultivate will master us... whether they be negative or positive, "the answer is really in our hands."

Dixon County to Honor Families

Dixon County will honor the oldest member of each family that has had continuous residence in Nebraska for 100 or more years. It was announced this week. Honors will be announced at the county fair in August at Concord.

Kenneth Linafeller, Allen, chairman of the Dixon County Centennial Committee, has announced the plans. Proof of continuous residence in the state by the family is necessary to rate awards, he pointed out.

Ak-Sar-Bon awards have been made for several years to those families whose land has been owned by the same family for 100 years. The new awards have a separate recognition.

Linafeller is being assisted in the search for Dixon County families to be honored by L. F. Millie and Mrs. Adeline Breslin, Newcasale; Mrs. Laurel Miner, Wakefield; Mrs. Irma Foulks, Ponca; and Norman Anderson, Concord.

Dixon County residents who believe their family qualifies for the honor should contact one of these committee members.
