

PLANTING CORN on the back side of a terrace is Marvin Anderson, Winside. This is one of the soil conservation measures various Wayne County farmers are using.

Construct More County Terraces

Corn yields have increased 10 to 15 bushels per acre over a period of five years, an Illinois University study shows. This may explain why Wayne County farmers are putting in more terraces this year.

Arnold Marr, conservationist, reports almost 15 miles of terraces were constructed in Wayne County this spring. All were built to accommodate four-row equipment.

New terracing went in the farms of Don Langenberg, Alvin Wagner and LeRoy Graves, Hoskins; Stanley Ote and Robert Peterson, Carroll; Wilbur Deck, Winside; and Wilbur Giese, Wallace Anderson, Don Johnson and Warren Shulteis, Wayne.

Where the slope is steep and permitted, the terraces were built parallel. This is done to eliminate "point" rows. SCS technicians do this to make terraces more acceptable to farmers.

The Illinois study shows that terraces slow runoff, let rain soak in and supply more moisture over the growing period, boosting yields. Moisture is usually the limiting factor in producing crops, Marr points out.

He adds that run-off water takes valuable top soil and soil nutrients with it. By farming on the contour with terraces, farmers save valuable moisture as well as soil fertility.

Carroll Woman Misses $400

Thursday night was the night for Mrs. Alice Hadden to be in Wayne for the Silver Dollar Night Drawing. Her name was called at 8 p.m. and she was not present to claim the prize.

This leaves the prize fund for this coming Thursday at $400. Someone can claim that amount by being in one of the business places sponsoring the drawing each Thursday. Because there was no winner, the reserve prize goes up another notch. This means the reserve fund goes up to $350 and if there is a winner Thursday, May 25, the prize the following week will be $350.

Anyone who is new in the area and who is 18 or over can register for the drawing and then should be present at 8 p.m. each Thursday. A list of participating firms is carried at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Carroll Club Plans

Hose Down Clean Up

Carroll Community Club is planning an old-fashioned hose down that's right, a hose down, not a hordona. It's all part of a clean up.

Meeting Monday night at Marlene's Cafe, the members voted to have a spring cleaning and to urge residents to take part. Volunteers will use fire hose to hose down the paving and contribute to the general appearance.

The club is also working See CARROLL, pg. 8.

Graduation in Three Schools

Commencement is scheduled Monday night at 8 in three high schools in this paper's coverage. Wayne, Winside and Albia will have graduation at that time.

The Wayne-Carroll district will have graduation at the Rice Gym on the WSC campus. Winside's ceremony will be in the WINS gym and Allen's will be in the AHS gym.

Dr. H. V. Phelps will speak at the Wayne commencement; Zachariah Boughn at Winside's; and Dr. Billy Ross at Allen's. Special numbers are scheduled and many honors will be given.

Classes end Wednesday, May 24, in Wayne with teachers workshop May 25-26. Seniors went to their last classes Thursday. Students will be back for report cards May 26 between 1:30 and 2:30.

Carroll school also ends Wednesday but report cards will be given out at 8:30 May 26. The Carroll Band Parents will have their picnic at 8:30 in Carroll.

Winside seniors went to classes for the last day Thursday. High school report cards will be out later this summer and grade school report cards will be out by the day of the annual picnic, Thursday, May 25, at 2 p.m.

Allen's last day of classes will be Tuesday, May 23, with honors day at 3 p.m. when perfect attendance, athletic and other awards will be given. There will be no school May 24 but teachers will work. May 25 the picnic will be held and the report cards out at 8. Just teachers will report May 26.

Those giving awards at the picnic May 25 will be LeRoy Welch in athletics, Wes Wingett and Mrs. Erickson in dramatics and English, Mrs. Mitchell in FFA and home-making, Jan Olson in commercial work, Mary Ducey in Pep Club and music, Roger Sandman in FFA and agriculture and Noelyn Isom in attendance and scholarship.

Hog Cholera Crisis Exists

Use of a new vaccine against hog cholera may have contributed more to the problem than to the solution, veterinarians and a state senator confirm that a hog cholera epidemic exists in the state.

In a call to Sen. Elmer Wallway, Emerson, who represents this district in the state unicameral, it was learned that there are around 50 cases in the area. A year ago there were seven or eight cases.

Getting the blame and called dangerous by some is a crystal violet vaccine that is thought to produce cholera. In fact, Sen. Wallway told The Herald over 50 per cent of the cases in the state were thought to be caused by the crystal violet vaccine.

The 1965 session of the unicameral set Jan. 1 of this year as the date to start using crystal violet vaccine to reduce modified live virus vaccine. Big and small dairies at the time supported this idea as being prudent.

Fortunately, the senator reports, the unicameral also gave the department of agriculture the right to repeal or amend the law as deemed necessary. The department has seen fit to issue permits for using modified live virus vaccine again and has authorized veterinarians to stock modified live virus vaccine.

Sen. Wallway says the present law required quarantine for 46 days after vaccinating with modified live virus vaccine. He said efforts are being made to change this to 30 days.

Ear-tagging is also required and Sen. Wallway says this is another thing the legislature wants to get rid of. Notching ears would replace the tagging, he said.

Another effort along the same line is to permit the use of the modified live virus vaccine in sale barns. Action is being carried on at various levels on all proposals.

Sen. Wallway said there is no indemnity program at present but after the first of July there probably would be. Depending upon how the state gets along in cutting down the incidence of cholera, the indemnity program is set to start around the first of September.

Under this program, farmers with cholera in hogs would be contacted after the vaccine supply was shut off. The places where cholera was found would be forced to destroy the hog with the disease and the farmer would be paid for the stock they had to kill.

Sen. Wallway admits the danger of crystal violet. He said some advocate use of a serum with vaccine but although this may keep hogs from dying it is no guarantee of immunity to the disease.

The Emerson senator said he was most anxious to get the story before the people. He said the situation needs to be made clear to all hog breeders of the area.

Anyone having questions about the matter should contact their veterinarian, their extension agent or the hog experts at the University of Nebraska North-east Station, Concord.

Hoskins School Has

Closing Activities

Hoskins Public School closed with a mother's day and dental clinic program Thursday. There were 72 pupils taking part in almost exactly the same number of guests present.

Mrs. Ruby Nelson and Mrs. Helen Chmelar presided at the tea table and Mrs. Zita Jenkins and Mrs. Ethel Malmborg served refreshments.

Seek More Military Names

Many names are now included in the drawing scheduled to start June 2 and to be held each Friday after that. However, in fairness to all Wayne County servicemen, it is hoped parents will turn in the other names this week.

At a meeting Wednesday night, directors of SWAY, Inc., which stands for Servicemen We Appreciate You, voted to put some money in time deposits due to the success of the drive for funds. This means that the money will be drawing interest, until needed, and earn more for the drawing.

Each Friday a serviceman's name will be drawn. He will get a check for $10 or more from SWAY, a letter from the folks at home telling him he is appreciated and a list of the business and professional people who are making the project possible.

Veterans organizations of Wayne wanted all of the money turned in by the business people to go to servicemen. They therefore agreed to pay for all administrative costs.

Those who called on the offices and business places reported a generous response as of Wednesday. Call-backs were required for some places.

Altona is the only community in the county so far that has given any money to add to that given in Wayne. Business places in Winside, Carroll, Hoskins and Sholes are invited to take part so their names will be included in this county wide appreciation project.

Kern Oels has drawn up the official paper including the by-laws. Notice of incorporation has been filed with the state and the county.

Alfred Sydow is acting chairman and Cletus Sharpe is acting secretary-treasurer. Several other members are on the board of directors.

Anyone having a relative in the service should send the name to SWAY, c/o Chris W. Rucholz, Box 404, Wayne, Neb. 68787. A file system has been set up so there will be no duplication.

First drawing will be Friday, June 2, at 8 p.m. in the Vets Club. A picture will be taken of the initial drawing, the picture of the winner will be printed each week and some servicemen (or woman) away from home will get a reminder from Wayne County that his service to the country in the armed forces is appreciated.

We Goofed!

The name of the J. M. McDonald company was inadvertently omitted from the list of advertisers sponsoring congratulatory ads for high school seniors in Thursday's Wayne Herald. The name should have been included. The Herald regrets this omission and takes this step to correct it.

The Spook Speaks

The kindergarten teacher at Wakefield told the pupils to look at their names on the blackboard and then to write them on paper. They did fine. "Now do it without looking," she said. They did terrible. She asked why. One little girl replied: "You told us not to look so we closed our eyes."

Allen's FFA members are told by their parents that "FFA" does not necessarily mean "Future Farmer of America." Some parents think it means: "Father Farms Alone."

Girls dressed as nuns for "Sound of Music" in Wayne were outside during one performance. Strangers walked by and attested to the authenticity of the costumes by cordially greeting the girls: "Good evening, sisters."

Dixon Girl Elected Queen

Bonnie Herfel, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Herfel, Dixon, was elected "Truckers' Queen" at the 24th annual Truckers Barbecue Friday in Sioux City. Over 700 attended the affair.

Selection of the queen was made from among twelve candidates. Truckers and their wives voted for their favorites, choosing the queen on the basis of beauty, charm, personality and other factors.

Miss Herfel is a native of Dixon and grew up on a farm north of that town. Her parents now live in Dixon.

She attended Kellbert School (Obert-Maskell) where she graduated two years ago. The picture accompanying this article was taken for graduation.

A capable horsewoman, she owns her own mount and has appeared many times with her horse in various events. She also competed in the Dixon County queen contest at Concord and was in the Miss Dixon contest last year until a case of poison ivy kept her from competing.

Business Notes

Three winners in Chevrolet's Nebraska Centennial Essay contest will be announced Thursday according to an announcement from Roy Coryell Friday. Staff members at Wayne State college are busy now judging the entries, Coryell said.

She works in Sioux City at Hartford Livestock Exchange and was sponsored in the competition by her brother, Larry Herfel, Lawton, Ia., (trucker formerly from Dixon, a sister, Mrs. Bob Dempster, is a resident of Wayne.

WSC Fine Arts Camp Plans Revealed

Wayne State's fine arts division has a reminder for high school students, now that school is nearly finished and vacation close.

The annual Summer Fine Arts Camp is something to plan for. It is scheduled for July 30 to August 6, open to all high school students, including those graduating this spring and those starting as freshmen next fall.

The camp program includes the well-known features, says Director Raymond Kelton, except art, which is not on the schedule this year. There will be band, orchestra, chorus, stage band, small ensembles, piano and organ, and for students interested in dramatics, a drama workshop.

Winside Pupils Love Savings Stamps

Winside Grade School pupils love those savings stamps that they turn in for US savings bonds. They have purchased over 60,000 of the stamps in the last four years.

Credit for the savings stamps program goes to Mrs. Lester Deck, farm wife who is active in other fields but still finds time each week to go to school to sell the stamps. She is a familiar sight with her pages of stamps and her red bank money bag making the rounds.

Mrs. Deck was appointed chairman for the school savings stamp program in 1963. She has been selling stamps ever since and has missed only twice in four years.

Postmaster Jean Boyd and Clerk Mrs. Rosemary Minz praised Mrs. Deck for her work. They said her program has resulted in an increase in savings stamps each year and the children are regular bond purchasers when they get the necessary amount.

Mrs. Deck gets pledge cards each year and signs up as many stamp purchasers as possible. She gets into town each Thursday regardless of the weather.

In addition to her work as a farm wife, a mother and a stamp salesman she is past president of PTA, attends St. Paul's Lutheran Church, belongs to an extension club and is a member of the Hoskins Saddle Club.

Concord Streets Get New Surface of Oil

Mayor Robert Sherry reports this week the town of Concord has started another street improvement program. A Randolph construction firm is putting down asphaltic oil on many streets.

The work is being done where needed the most and in all 14 blocks will get the improvement work. This program carries on a project started several years ago where the streets needing repair the most were the ones that were re-rolled.

Johnson Construction Co., Randolph, started work on the project Thursday.

Farm Buildings Burned on Purpose

A farm home and two outbuildings were destroyed by flames Wednesday night. Firemen from four departments were there, putting out the flames, rekindling them, putting them out, throwing on diesel fuel, putting out flames and fanning them alive.

It was all done on purpose. The home had outlived its usefulness on land Dale Krusemark farms eight miles south and six miles east of Wayne. Wisner Fire Department shared the fire with departments from Pender, Wakefield and Wayne.

Representatives of the state fire marshal's office were present to supervise the fire and to give firemen instruction on ways to get fires out. As a result, they no sooner had the fire in the house going than they put it out. More fuel was added, the flames built up and the firemen put them out. The result was a long drawn out process over two hours. The house finally caved in which is exactly where the instructors had said it would fall. Then the two outbuildings were burned.

Krusemark wanted to burn the house but he found out you cannot just burp a building that is standing. You have to demolish it and burn the debris unless, of course, you can get a small scale fire school scheduled, which is what he did.

Wisner firemen were a little disappointed. They wanted to burn a granary too but Krusemark wanted to keep that. Another disappointment was the barn. The wind blew that down a few days before the fire was scheduled.

Trees around the farmyard were also taken down. See FIRE, pg. 8.

once the house collapsed it would fall in and not out. The picture on the right was taken just before sunset with smoke still pouring from the chimney, the roof caved in the porch almost gone and flames leaping out of every side.

Make Plans for Fun Fair

Wayne Jaycees are making final plans for the Scout Fun Fair to be held Saturday, May 27, at the Wayne City Auditorium. Representatives of most Cub Scout packs, Boy Scout troops and Explorer Scout posts will be present.

The Jaycees point out that the fair is one of demonstrations, not just static displays to look at. Adults will supervise, but the boys themselves will be in charge.

Three competitive events will be held for Cub Scouts and Scouts. Each group will have a tug of war. Cubs will roll tires and break balloons and Scouts will saw logs and tie knots.

There will be the traditional pinewood race for cars and the space derby for "rockets." Winners for each of the events in the district will be eligible to compete.

Scouts and Cubs are selling tickets in a contest. They will get prizes on the basis of the number of tickets they sell.

The show opens to the public at 1 p.m. At 1:30 p.m. the derbies will start followed by contests and booth judging. Awards will be presented around 5:30 p.m.

Jaycees point out that you need not be connected with Scouting in order to enjoy this fair. It is aimed at young and old and as the initial event of its type in Wayne and the Lewis & Clark District it is hoped it will attract a large crowd.

Men in Vietnam Benefit from Poppy

That little red Buddy Poppy that will be sold Wednesday and Thursday helps out more than veterans of the VFW Auxiliary point out. Men now fighting and living in Vietnam as well as dependents—could benefit from funds raised by the sale of the little red flowers, members claim.

The poppies will be sold in downtown Wayne Thursday, May 25. A house-to-house sales campaign is scheduled for Wednesday.

One cent from the sale of each poppy goes to support the VFW home for orphans and widows of veterans at Eaton Rapids, Mich. This unique child-village has a world-wide reputation for providing orphans the type of home they need.

More than 200 orphans of veterans are living there. Other hundreds have been housed and educated at the town and are now top-notch adults, their lives alone being worth more than ever paid for the poppies that helped make their lives worthwhile.

The women of the VFW Auxiliary will be out early and late selling the Buddy Poppies. They do not set the amount the poppies bring, so you are encouraged to give according to your conscience.

Rural Teacher Misses Final Day of Classes

Mrs. Ralph Olson, Carroll, teacher in District #0 four miles north and two miles west of Carroll, missed out on the last day of school. She was hospitalized with a broken leg on the very last day of school, Monday.

It was a nice day so the class went nature studying. Walking along a road, Mrs. Olson stepped in a hole that had been covered over by a manila paper. Her left leg was broken.

This is the same leg that was broken two years ago. However, the leg was not broken in the same place where it was broken before.

Mrs. Olson was brought to Wayne for hospitalization, Friday a cast was put on the leg.

Teaching the final day was Mrs. Bob Bodenstedt. She also took the youngsters to Randolph for the final day picnic which Mrs. Olson had planned for them.

Winside Pupils Take Trip to Orange City

A busload of pupils from Winside High School went to Orange City, Ia., Friday for the annual tulip festival. They are members of the Math-Science Club and had earned the money to pay all transportation costs.

Mrs. Jim Troutman and Darrel Faelberth are instructors for the classes. They had arranged for a chartered bus to leave at 8:30 in the morning and returned at 8 p.m.

A town crier met the bus in Orange City and was in charge of their tour through the town. They saw the only wooden shoe factory in the world, the colorful displays of tulips, the hundreds of Dutch costumes and many other interesting features plus the program numbers presented.

Each year the club takes a trip to some interesting place. Orange City being the most distant point they have visited. Last year they visited the experiment farm at Concord and in years before that they visited points in Wayne, Lincoln, Norfolk and other cities.

The Orange City festival, in its 27th year, includes queens, dances, visiting dignitaries, windmills, rides, flower displays, Dutch souvenirs and many other features, almost all with a Dutch accent.

Beverly Daum Weds William Hutchins In Ceremony May 13 at Altona Church

Beverly Catherine Ann Daum, Upper Marlboro, Md., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Daum, Wisner, and William Ward Hutchins, jr., Washington, D.C. were married May 13 at 7 p.m. in First Trinity Lutheran Church, Altona. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. B. Hutchins, Poughkeepsie, N.Y., and William Hutchins, sr., Washington, D.C.

Rev. Ervin A. Haugner, Wakarusa, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Ruth Ann Meyer, Lincoln, sang "Whither Thou Goes" and "The Lord's Prayer." Christine Bernthal, Wayne, was organist. The church was decorated with pink gladioli, pink carnations and white mums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory silk organza over taffeta. The gown was fashioned with long sleeves and was accented from the neckline to the knee with appliques of alençon lace. The chapel train was held at the waistline. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was held by a circlet of orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink tea roses and white pompons featuring a detachable orchid corsage.

Marcia Haugmeister, Leavenworth, Kan., was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pastel pink taffeta, styled in princess lines with a scamp neckline, cap sleeves and matching velvet waistline bow. The flowing back panel was held at the waistline. Her

Many Take Part in Free Twirling Show

Many twirlers taking lessons from Jeanne Karol will take part in a baton show Thursday, May 25, at 8:15 p.m. in the Wayne City Auditorium. The program is open to the public and there is no admission charge.

Taking part in solo routines with one or two batons will be Mary Ellis, Connie Ritze, Angela Paulson, Julie Stephens, Kim Dill, Ann Ellis. They are in beginner, intermediate and intermediate-advanced classes.

Barbara Kay, LaVon Beckman and Jennifer Sandahl will do a one-baton routine; Dianne Gildersleeve and Carolyn Pfeiffer a one-baton routine; LaVon Beckman, Sue Brown, Mary Ellis, Barbara TWIRLING SHOW, pg. 6

OPEN HOUSE will be observed Sunday by the H. H. Mosleys, Belden. Story is on page 3.

Carroll Contest Deadline Later

The Carroll Community Club has decided to extend the mailbox decorating contest. New deadline is in August, giving residents all summer to get flowers in, paint, decorate and install innovations.

Response so far has been disappointing. There are a number of entries but no lively competition has come up between certain areas on the rural routes and the individual entries are not as numerous as had been hoped.

The CCC has offered three cash prizes for the winners. Members hope the idea will catch on and the rural residents will catch the spirit of the centennial year project to make it a success.

Variety Offered at Allen's PTA Meeting

A fast-moving program wound up this term's activities for Allen PTA Monday night at the AHS auditorium. Cub Scouts, junior band and science department had parts in a program that offered variety.

The band, made up of fifth and sixth grade pupils, had 28 members directed by Mary Ducey. They played nine numbers, one featuring the trombone section, another the percussion instruments and a third featuring the trumpets.

Cub Scouts, sponsored by PTA, presented projects for display at the last meeting of the year. This time they played several numbers in a rhythm band and showed items they had made. Den mothers with their ten boys from two dens were Mrs. Ramona Sulphin and Mrs. Diane Klaver.

Nelwyn Isom, science and chemistry teacher, and Mrs. Lelloy Welch, biology teacher, had pupils present with displays. These included: Engine study, Richard Hank; generator, Richard Kraemer; magic box, Linda Rasmussen; structures and functions of plants, Nancy Swanson;

Life processes of man, Bob Anderson; microscopic technique, Kathy Jackson; dissection technique, Steve Green; osmosis, Nancy Sullivan; fingerprinting, Bob Meyer; weather station, Agnes Brentlinger;

Mice, Paul Calvert; clay model of earthworm, Margaret Ankeny; clay model of vertebrate heart, Linda Rasmussen; taxidermy, Doug Witte; nylon rope trick, Jean Durant; principle of transpiration, Jill Fahrenholz; and water softener, Kathy Gaidler.

Following a short business meeting and a lunch the group adjourned until school resumes this fall.

ALLEN JUNCTION was the scene of the AHS athletic picnic Wednesday night. The families scattered out so all are not included in this photo.

Allen Athletes Hold Picnic at Junction

A Club members at Allen, the ones who have altered in sports, held a picnic at Allen Junction Wednesday evening. The family potluck feasted the place of an athletic banquet. Fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters of A Club members were guests. Games were played and visiting enjoyed by around 60. Hamburgers and hot dogs were barbecued and mothers brought plenty of other food of all types. Attendance was held down due to the number still engaged in field work in the area.

Over 900 at Bowling Party Friday Night

Over 900 attended the bowling amboree given by Melodee Lanes Friday night at the Wayne National Guard Armory. AMF, manufacturer of bowling equipment, co-sponsored the event. The odd dark spot was the taking of artificial flowers in a vase, intended for use Memorial Day. Those in charge would appreciate it being returned so it can be used as intended.

Otherwise everyone had fun. Mr. and Mrs. Al Bahe, Jim Pokett and Gene Redanz hosted the affair. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mrsny had charge of the lunch counter and the Six Fat Dutchmen played for the dance. Bowling balls went to Mrs. Merleand Lessmann, George Claycomb and John Wack and bowling bags to Mrs. Anita Glover of Piller. Miss Gerald Johnson of Winside and Marvin Anderson of Winside.

Johnson, Wacker, Kerl, Helgren, Tops

Four players on the Wayne High School baseball team had averages of .400 or above in batting this year with the Blue Devils, according to Coach Mike Muller. Mark Johnson, Delmar Wacker, Stevd Kerl and Randy Helgren were the leaders. Johnson, a senior, had 14 hits in 26 times at bat for a .538 average. The other leaders were: Wacker, 5 for 11, .455; Kerl, 12 for 27, .444; and Helgren, 5 for 12, .417. Wacker is a senior, Kerl a junior, Helgren a freshman.

Leading in runs batted in was Johnson with 13, Larry Hix being right behind with 12 followed by Kerl and Jordan Jorgensen with 8 each. Steve Schram 7, Lynn Lessmann 6 and Helgren 4. Kerl scored the most runs, 15. Schram 8, Helgren and George Lynn 6, Jorgensen and Wacker 5 and Helgren and Herb Swan 4. Lessmann led input-outs with 57. Kerl had 9, Swan 7 and Johnson 6. Johnson led in assists, 18. Swan had 8 and Lynn 5. In pitching Lynn won 5 and lost 0 and Wacker won 3 and lost 2.

Wayne won 8 and lost 2 this year while outscoring the opposition 76-20. The Blue Devils lost in the finals of the district tournament 2-1 to Dodge. Boys playing besides those named above include Bob Morris, Doug Arrrens, Cal Comstock, Butch Meyer, Ken Jorgensen, Jerry Titzer, Ted Armbruster, Jerry Harber, Terry Harber, Mike Biltoff and Terry Ellis.

Seven Winners in Tuesday Night League

There were seven money-winners in the Melodee Lanes Tuesday Night Sweeper League last week. According to Mrs. Al Bahe, the league will continue to be held each week at 8:30.

Jim Pokett won first place with a total of 709 pins. Roy Lemert was second with 605, Terry Baier third with 634, Otto Baier fourth with 614, Wayne Tredgen placed fifth with 606, and John Schensdorf and Bob Kirt tied for sixth place with three-game totals of 602.

KSC Wins NCC's Golf Crown Here Saturday

Jack Hamer paced Kearney State to the Nebraska College Conference golf championship here Saturday as he carded a one-under-par 143 for 36 holes. Teammates Jim Tschepel and Jerry Rockwell finished second and third with 148 and 149; Craig Madson of Chadron State and Tom Wisdom of Kearney tied for fourth at 152.

Medalist Hamer combined rounds of 74 Friday and 69 Saturday. His 33 for one-nine-hole trip Saturday was one short of the Wayne Country Club record.

Team scoring: Kearney, 592; Chadron, 633; Hastings, 643; Peru, 668; Wayne, 683. Veteran golfers at Wayne said the Kearney foursome's 592-only 10 over par for a 36-hole match was among the best ever shot here.

Go-Go Bowling

A new ladies league is being organized at Melodee Lanes to be held each Monday afternoon at one o'clock. Anyone interested in joining the group should either form a team or notify Melodee Lanes to hold a spot on one of the already-organized teams.

Winside Third in Two Track Meets

Winside won third place in both the ninth grade and the seventh and eighth grade divisions of the junior high invitational track meet Wednesday. Hartington Cedar Catholic won the ninth grade division and Osmond the seventh and eighth grade.

Team standings for freshmen looked like this: HCC 65, Ponca 52, Winside 47, Coleridge 33, Emerson-Hubbard 28, Norfolk Catholic 20, Hartington 14. For seventh-eighth grades it was Osmond 46, Newcastle 15, Winside 43, Emerson-Hubbard 26, Coleridge and West Point Central Catholic 23, Ponca 9, Hartington Cedar Catholic 8 and Hartington 8.

Following are the winners in each division of the ninth grade meet plus all Winside placers: 880, Jeff Kirtz, Ponca; 2,449, Bob Jackson, Winside; third, 113-yard low hurdles, David Hively, Hartington, 1:13; Dave Witt, Winside, third; 100-yard high hurdles, 1:13.

The 400-yard high hurdles, Duraid Hively, Hartington, 1:32; Dave Witt, Winside second; mile, Sylvan Thoben, HCC, 9:27.9; 220, Merle Anderson, Ponca, 2:40; high jump, Bob Litz, HCC 5'2". Terry Cleveland second and Dave Witt fourth; discus, Kirtz, Schlenberg, Winside, 132'11".

The 440, Merle Anderson, Ponca, 56.6; shotput, Schlenberg, Winside, 44.2; 42'9"; pole vault, Dan Shaw, Emerson 9'0"; Terry Cleveland third; broad jump, Bob Litz, HCC, 19'6"; 440-yard relay, HCC 51.4, Winside fourth.

Seventh-eighth results were: 60-yard dash, Ray Richards, Newcastle, 7.6; 220, Ray Richards, Newcastle, 26.2; 110-yard low hurdles, Larry Thiesen, Osmond, 16.0; Dennis Wade, Winside fifth; 90-yard high-low hurdles, Ed Hall, Coleridge 4, 14.3; shotput, Larry Cleveland, Winside, 42'8"; Dennis Wade fifth.

The 440-yard run, Pat Claussen, Osmond, 60.7; Dale Miller second; broad jump, Ray Richards, Newcastle, 17'4"; pole vault, Ed Kirtz, Coleridge, 9'12"; Dennis Wade second, Jerry Wacker third, Larry Cleveland fifth; high jump, Dennis Wade, Winside, 4'8"; Charles Moritz fifth; discus, Steve Zechman, Osmond, 118'10"; Larry Cleveland second; 440-yard relay, W.P.C., 52.2 (new record), Winside third.

Kearney Takes NCC Track Crown Again

Wayne State's short-handed track team placed fourth Tuesday in the rain-delayed Nebraska College Conference track meet at Kearney.

The winner, as usual, was Kearney State, which totaled 133 points to 67 2/3 by Chadron State and 60 by Peru State. Wayne scored 24, Hastings 1/3. Wayne's best placing was the second by Bob Cordes in the 330 intermediate hurdles. Jerry Poulson hauled the javelin 198-8 for third place. A. D. Benson ran fourth in the mile, Dennis Kasischek fifth in the mile, Stan Thorpe fourth in the 120 high hurdles and fifth in the triple jump at 42-9.

In the relays the Wildcats placed third in the two-mile, fourth in both the mile and the 880.

The meet produced five records, the most notable a 15-7/8 pole vault by Kearney's Dennis Dukesherer—highest vault in history by a Nebraska collegian. Kearney's two-mile relay posted a 3:20.9 record.

The other three marks were Chadron products: a 48.6 quarter-mile by John Sides, breaking the 1959 record of 49 flat by Wayne's Fred Kjer; the 164-2 discus throw by Bennie Francis, and the 44-6 triple jump by Jack Neigham. Warren Christensen of Kearney turned a rare trick with a triple win, in the 880, the mile and the two-mile. The meet started Friday afternoon at Chadron after a three-inch morning snow. Then rain Saturday forced postponement and transfer of the meet to Kearney, where the NAIA District 11 track meet was scheduled for Wednesday.

Wayne State Track Team Wins Ribbons

Wayne Staters brought home three first places from the NAIA District 11 track meet Wednesday at Kearney.

Bob Cordes won the 440 intermediate hurdles in 55.9; Jim Betts the 880 run in 1:59.3; Jerry Poulson the javelin at 191-3.

Betts accounted for another Wayne placing with a fourth in the mile, and Dennis Kasischek was third in the mile.

The small Wildcat team scored 23 points for third place behind Kearney State's 166 1/2-point landslide and Chadron State, 46. Concordia was fourth with 20, Midland fifth with 7.

The district meet ends Wayne track activity except for the national NAIA at Sioux Falls June 9-10. Coach Dale Pennybaker probably will take a few of his team there.

KEN JORGENSEN, left, Mike Mallette (instructor), David Ellis and John Sandahl posed with three items the boys made in industrial arts. Ken made a desk, Dave a coffee table and John a night stand.

Wayne High Frosh Learning Tool Use

Industrial arts pupils from the freshmen class at Wayne High School are learning the proper use of all types of tools. Most of them have completed projects that indicate the creativity they have shown in shop work.

Stan Mallette teaches the industrial arts class one semester and Allan Hunsch has them in drawing one semester. Plans are being made for changes next year with the additional facilities available in the new high school.

Now the school can offer woods, drawing, basic electricity and a little welding. Next fall the curriculum will include woods, metals and welding, electricity, drawing, and crafts.

Wayne State Divides Twin Bill with Peru

Baseball of 1967 ended for Wayne State Saturday with a split doubleheader at Peru State. The host Bobcats broke an 11-inning marathon with a home run by Richard Ideus to win the opener, 7-6.

Wayne pitcher Jim Rasicot relieved in the seventh, took the loss, then pitched the entire second game for a 4-1 win, his fourth against five losses.

Rasicot drove in the winning runs with a two-run single in the seventh after singles by Bob Gaeta and walks to Bob Symonds and Bob Rabe, and an error that put Jerry Kinnan on base. Another error allowed Rasicot to score the fourth run. The hosts had scored their only run in the fourth.

Wayne, in the first game, built a 6-2 lead before Peru caught up with three in the sixth and the tying tally in the seventh.

Wayne closed with a 3-4 Nebraska College Conference record, 8-10 for the season. Kearney State's double win over Chadron Saturday gave the Antelopes the championship with a 6-2 mark.

Wayne and Hastings decided not to reschedule their rained-out game.

First game batteries: Mau, Hulme (6), Rasicot (7) and Jurka, Tegelhutter, Rains (4), Jensen (11) and Mizerski, Hammer (7).

Second game batteries: Winfield, Jensen (6) and Hammer, Rasicot and Rabe, Jurka (7).

Baseball Games Schedule Given

Hank Overin has released an incomplete schedule for Junior, Midget and Town Team baseball clubs. Peewee, Pony League, Little League and girls' softball schedules will be given later.

Parents of boys playing are asked to post this schedule so they will know when games will be played. All of these games are at night while the smaller kids will play in the afternoon.

Following is the schedule with T for Town Team and M for Midget Legion:

May 21, West Point here, TT; May 28, Ponca here, TT; June 2, at Norfolk M.; June 4, Schuyler here, M.; June 8, at Wakefield, TT; June 8, at Homer, TT; June 11, Emerson here, TT;

June 12, at Laurel, M.; June 13, at Pierce, M.; June 15, Lyons here, TT; June 16, Weisner here, M.; June 18, at Ponca, TT; June 19, at Ponca, M.; June 22, Homer here, TT; June 25, Wakefield here, M.; June 29, at Lyons, M.; July 2, at Emerson, TT;

July 7, Laurel here, M.; July 7, Ponca here, TT; July 10, at Wisner, M.; July 11, Pierce here, M.; July 12, at Schuyler, M.; July 14, Hender here, M.; July 16, at Wakefield, TT; July 17, at Wakefield, M.; July 19, Norfolk here, M.; July 20, Lyons here, TT; July 23, Emerson here, TT; July 30, at Homer, TT.

Junior Baseball Players Wanted

Manager Hank Overin wants more boys for Junior baseball. The Legion team (for boys 17-18) will practice Wednesday, May 24, 6:45 to 9 p.m., and all boys interested should show up then.

Overin has the following schedule for various teams this week: Tuesday, May 23, Pony League practice (13-14 years old), 4 to 6 p.m.; Town Team, West Point here, 8 p.m.;

Wednesday, May 24, Midgets (15-16), 4 to 6 p.m.; Legion, 6:45 to 9; Thursday, May 25, Pony League, 10 to 12; Peewees (boys 8-10), 1 to 2:30; Little League (boys 11-12), 2:30 to 4; Midgets 4 to 6; and Legion, 6:45 to 9.

Two Uninjured When Car Overtakes Here

Two were uninjured but a 1967 car was heavily damaged in a county road intersection mishap in Dixon County three miles north and three miles east of Wayne Saturday afternoon of last week.

A belated report on the accident was given by Trooper B. L. Cooper of the Nebraska Safety Patrol, investigating officer. He reported John Matson, Wayne, was driver of the car but did not have the name of the passenger since no one was hurt.

Matson's car overturned on its top in a ditch on the south side of the road when he hit his brakes as he approached a bridge at a diagonal crossing of the ditch at the intersection. The car sustained extensive damage to the top, side, windshield and other parts of the car.

Navy Takes Men Back

Donald Hopkinson, recruiter for the navy at Norfolk, points out an unusual offer the navy has. Few employers would take a man back after he had left, give him his old job back plus an increase in pay and training for new fields but that is what the navy offers. All ex-enlisted men of the navy can sign up, get their rating back and go to school at navy expense to learn about the changes in the service. Hopkinson invites all former navy men to look into what that branch has to offer.

School Bid Nets Saving of $3,100

There was a $3,099 difference between two bids on music room equipment Tuesday afternoon when the two bids were opened, Supt. Francis Han reports. Four firms failed to turn in bids.

One firm had a bid of $8,293 on millwork for storage equipment for uniforms and instruments. The winner, Christiansen Construction Co., Pender, bid $5,200 for the same work.

Two more bid lettings are coming up. Bus bids and carpeting bids, both categories open to local firms only, will be opened Tuesday, May 23.

Latin American Boys Visit Winside Club

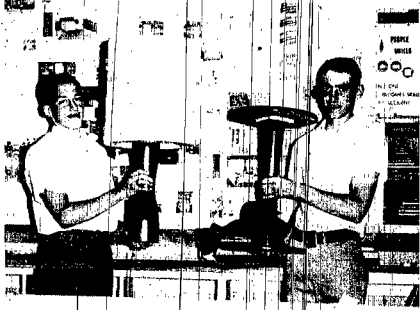

Two boys from South America attending school in Norfolk were guests of the Winside High School Spanish Club at the May 8 meeting. They told about their experiences in this country.

German Alcobia is from Bolivia and is staying in the Hollis Francis home while attending Norfolk High School. Carlos Moor is from Argentina and stays in the Orval Kennedy home while attending Norfolk Catholic High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schmitt are sponsors of Spanish Club. They report the club has joined the State Spanish Club Association.

Gaeta, Symonds, Helgren Chosen

Rich Symonds was Wayne State's most valuable player in baseball this season. Teammates chose the junior second baseman from Cumberland, Ia., on the basis of his all-around play.

The team also named co-captains—seniors Don Helgren, shortstop from Wayne, and Bob Gaeta, third baseman and left fielder from Omaha.

Symonds compiled a .328 batting average, led the team in doubles, six, and tied for the most runs, 15, with Doug Townsend. He was credited with 11 runs batted in, second to Gaeta's 15.

Gaeta topped the batting at .367. Tom Zimmerman of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Bob Symonds, brother of Rich, ranked second in batting among regulars with .333. Claire Jordan also had .333 but with only six at-bats.

Other averages of regulars: Roger Parr, .261;

PLACARD CARRYING PUPILS appeared outside Wayne High School May 9. It was no protest. The campaign for student council officers for next year was on so the young people took advantage of the nice weather and held the campaign on the school lawn on the east side of the building which will be "middle school" after this term.

WAYNE JUNIOR HIGH ORCHESTRA appeared in concert May 16. Gordon Buchholz, student teacher, is shown giving last minute instructions. Many of the members will move up to senior high orchestra this coming year.

Stand Taken on Master Education Bill

A discussion of I.B. 641—a bill to set up a master plan for education in Nebraska and create a commission on higher education—occupied much of the Chamber of Commerce legislative committee's time Wednesday noon. Norman Nordstrand reported on the bill after studying it and discussing its content with other educators. He said educators with whom he has discussed the bill show no enthusiasm for it as it now is written, although they do feel that a master plan as outlined in the bill is needed.

Many educators felt the proposed Nebraska Commission on Higher Education would be another bureaucratic department added and overlapping already existing departments.

In other action the committee heard Police Chief Vern Fairchild discuss I.B. 641—a bill that would create a training school for policemen in Nebraska. The committee had earlier asked Senator Elmer Wallway to support the measure, feeling it would provide valuable aids to small town police forces. The senator, however, did not support the bill on first reading and the committee will ask him the reason for his feelings.

Funeral Services Held at Laurel For Mabel Carlson

Funeral services for Mabel Carlson, 49, were held May 20 at World Missionary Fellowship, Laurel. Miss Carlson died May 17.

Pastor Gerald Smith officiated at the rites. Mrs. Don Arduser sang "Only Glory By and Bye," LeWayne Carlson sang "God Is There." Mrs. Milton Carlson was accompanist. Pallbearers were Dennis Forsberg, Norman Peterson, LeWayne, Ronnie, Eldon and Verlyn Carlson. Burial was in Concord Cemetery.

Mabel Carlson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carlson, was born Apr. 6, 1918 at Concord. She attended school there and was graduated from high school in 1937. She had been employed in Sioux City and Wayne. About a year and a half ago, when her health began to fail, she returned to make her home with her parents.

She was preceded in death by a sister and a brother. Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carlson, Laurel; four brothers, Milton, Sioux City, and Harold, Clifford and Melvin, all of Laurel.

Twenty-Five 'Graduate' at Winside

The Winside High School Auditorium was the scene of a special graduation ceremony Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Friends and relatives came from virtually all over the country to watch twenty-five Winside kindergarten students receive their diplomas. One student's uncle even came all the way from Maine to witness the graduation rites.

Following a short play by the children, Elementary Building Coordinator Mrs. Lena Miller presented the diplomas. Mrs. Pat Kropp provided the music for the professional and recessional. The Winside PTA served lunch after the graduation certificates were given out.

'I Will Prepare Myself ...'

By Mike Rosenblyer
Staff Representative
Copyright 1965, Daily Courier & News, Inc.

They tell the story of the young man who was convicted of spying against Persia and was brought before the General before his sentence pronounced. The General rose to his feet. With piercing eyes he looked into the face of the condemned man.

After a few minutes of silence, he spoke. "Young man," he said, "you have been found guilty of spying against my country and now you will receive your sentence. If you will look down the corridor to my right you will see an open doorway. Beyond the open door is the courtyard. You may walk through that door and face the consequences, whatever they may be. But you have a choice. Down the corridor to my left, is a black door that is closed. Of course, you have no idea what lies beyond that door, but you may choose. You may walk through the open door to my right, or the black door to my left. You will have twenty-four hours in which to decide."

The young man was taken back to his cell. He paced the floor, trying to decide which door he would choose. The next morning he was again taken before the Persian General. He stood erect as the General asked, "Have you made your choice?"

"Yes," the young man replied. "I shall walk through the open door." With fear and apprehension the condemned young man slowly walked down the corridor and through the open door. There he was met by a firing squad.

Man after man was brought before the General and was convicted. To each man the choice was offered, but after much deliberation, the open door was always chosen.

And then one morning the Persian General stood in preparation to pass sentence on another convicted spy. He said, "You may walk through the open door or the closed black door, and you will have twenty-four hours in which to make your choice." The young man quickly replied, "I won't need twenty-four hours General. I have made my decision. I'll take the black door."

He walked briskly down the corridor and, with his trembling hand, reached out and pulled the black door open. There, to his delight, he found a life of freedom. He walked away a free man.

Often we are inclined to hold back. We are prone to sidestep anything that is unfamiliar. We hesitate to pursue that which has not been tried and prove. This trait can cheat us out of many worthwhile accomplishments.

Wasn't it Thomas Carlyle who said, "Go as far as you can see and, when you get there, you can see farther."

When we develop a strong faith in ourselves and our own abilities, when we become willing to choose our course of action and go as far as we can see, then we have taken another important step toward the self-preparation that will enable us to achieve much more in life.

AFS Officers Announced

Officers of the American Field Service for the coming year have been named. The AFS is the group that sponsors a foreign exchange student in Wayne.

Alvin Ehlers is president and F. R. Haun vice president. Mrs. Max Lundstrom is secretary and Al Kern treasurer.

On committees, Mrs. Howard Witt heads student and community liaison; Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown, student and family liaison; Kenneth Deissler, school liaison; Mr. O. K. Brandstetter, home selection and coordinator; Ken Deissler, Americans Abroad coordinator.

Jo Merriman, student representative from the student council, and projects chairman and publicity chairman are to be filled yet.

Word from Margot McKay, exchange student coming from Australia, is that she will arrive in Los Angeles July 21 and will be here 48 hours later. Information about her has been sent to Deissler and her host parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wolske.

The treasurer's report shows total income for the year of $815.05. After paying the fee to bring Miss McKay here ($750) there is $282.51 left.

Deissler reported several Wayne pupils would like to go to a foreign country for a year under the Americans Abroad plan sponsored by AFS. The chapter will have to wait another year before this can be done.

Mrs. Howard Witt reports Phaded Gawsombat has spoken at 16 or more formal meetings and several times on an impromptu set-up. He has been speaking in the Wayne, Winsite and Wakefield areas for the most part with some appearances in the country.

The AFS will be meeting regularly this coming school term. The meeting night will be the third Thursday of the month at 8:15.

Hoskins Firemen Go to Three Fires

Hoskins firemen were called out three times in the period of Saturday, May 13 through Wednesday, May 17. Two of the fires were in the Hoskins area and the third was a "mutual aid" run.

Saturday of last week the mutual aid call came in. Hoskins firemen were asked to go to the rural district served out of Norfolk. The Zastrow Electric Hatcher south of Hoskins and east of Norfolk State Hospital had a fire. Four stacks of hay burned, the cause thought to be an electric fire.

Wednesday the firemen were called to the William Marquardt farm three miles east of Hoskins on Highway 35. Again it was a hay stack fire, three of the stacks catching afire.

Concord School Has

Final Activities Set

Concord Elementary School is in its final week of activities. School gets out Wednesday and report cards are to be out Friday.

The picnic for the pupils will be in the Concord Park at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday. A wiener roast is one of the features.

Teachers are to work on reports and have them complete by Friday. Pupils will be able to pick up their report cards that morning.

Teachers in the kindergarten through fourth grades at the school this year are Mrs. Helen Pearson, Mrs. Phyllis Dirks and Mrs. Ethel Ebmeier.

Wakefield Hospital Notes

Admitted: Hilda Brown, Emerson; Jacqueline Wilkerson, Wakefield; Ed Pearson, Wakefield; Ed Miller, South Sioux City; Reka Nobbe, Allen.

Dismissed: Milton Myers, Ponca; Ed Miller, South Sioux City; Elmer Anderson, Wakefield; Mary Giese, Allen; Floyd Kilburn, Waterbury.

Allen FFA Officers Go to Curtis Course

Officers of the Allen High School FFA chapter will leave Wednesday for Curtis where they will take a three-day leadership training meeting at the University of Nebraska school of agriculture.

Allen Future Farmers officers will join those from Emerson-Hubbard for the trip. Between the two schools there will be three cars taking the officers from the two chapters to Curtis.

Roger Sandman is advisor for the group. Officers going are Wayne Rasmussen, Melvin Johnson, Terry Beacom, Bill Sachau, Bob Anderson and Jerry Knoell.

The officers will learn the duties and responsibilities of their respective offices. They will also get other training, have fun and bring back some knowledge to share with FFA members this coming year.

Sandman's home is on a farm within 10 miles of Curtis on the Cambridge mail route. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sandman, will entertain the Allen officers at a dinner while they are at the training course. Sandman also took a group to Curtis for training last year.

Final Rites for Patrick Garvin

Funeral services for Patrick Garvin, 85, are planned today (Monday) at 10 a.m. at St. Anne's Catholic Church, Dixon. Mr. Garvin died May 18 at Osmond Hospital.

Father John Rizzo will officiate at the rites. Pallbearers will be Tony Mills, Frank Tomason, Anthony McGowen, M.P. Kavanagh, John Young and Frank Boeshart. Burial will be in the Church Cemetery. Rosary was recited Sunday evening at Wilts Mortuary, Laurel.

Patrick Garvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Garvin, was born Mar. 23, 1882 in Dunlap, Ia. He was married Sept. 1, 1909 to Nellie Harrington, at Dixon. The couple farmed in the Dixon area until 1948 when they moved into Dixon.

Three brothers and a sister preceded him in death. Survivors include his widow; three sons, Leo and William of Dixon, and Carlyle of Wayne; two sisters, Mrs. Teresa Sullivan, Redondo Beach, Calif., and Mrs. A. Glasco, Boise, Idaho; 10 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Hoskins —

(Continued from pg. 1) ten and first grade, accompanied the girls' choir with selections by girls from the second and third grade taught by Mrs. Nelson, fourth and fifth grade taught by Mrs. Malmberg, sixth, seventh and eighth grade taught by Mrs. Jenkins and the grades taught by Mrs. Chmelo. The tribute to mothers was a reading by Jean Mann, A pageant, "In Those Days of Nebraska's Early History," was given by Mrs. Malmberg's and Mrs. Jenkins' rooms.

Carroll —

A new carnival has to be secured for the Carroll festival. The one that was booked originally had to be open date, Memorial Day, which was fine until plans were made to have the celebration some other date.

A dozen members attended the Monday meeting of the club.

Fire —

(Continued from pg. 1) by bulldozers. The county did this since the blind corner has been a hazard for years and since the trees would have been in a corner of a field and not added much besides a hazard to motorists they came down.

Many people from the area knew about the fire and came to see it. Others could see the flames leaping high and drove from miles around to see what was burning. It was a great sight for a fire and no better purpose could have been found than helping firemen learn how to fight similar fires that are accidentally set.

SNEAK DAY at Allen started off Thursday at 9 p.m. with this lively looking bunch. It is doubtful if they were quite so chipper when they arrived in the Black Hills.

Allen Seniors Take Trip to Black Hills

Their bus came a half-day early but the Allen seniors had to wait until they were ready before leaving on the "sneak" day trip to the Black Hills Thursday night. The bus was taken back to Sioux City and brought back 12 hours later.

The driver and the bus were on hand at 8:30 a.m. Unfortunately, the plans called for leaving at 9 a.m. and since the bus could be used elsewhere it was taken back, used and then returned to Allen.

Taking the trip were 22 seniors and six sponsors. They were on a schedule which called for seeing most of the sights of the Black Hills and returning Saturday night so they could have a good night's rest before the commencement Sunday evening.

Chaperoning the group were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Noelyn Isom, Harold Durant and Mrs. Clarence Rastved. Isom is class sponsor.

Court Has Busy Period in Week

Judge David Hager had a busy three-day period last week. Nine cases were heard May 16 through the morning of May 18.

Appearing May 16 were three Wayne residents. Terry Lutz was charged with speeding, paying $15 fine and $5 costs on charges brought by Trooper B. L. Cooper, Nebraska Safety Patrol.

Kevin Victor was fined $10 and $5 costs for improper use of a school permit. Officer Ron Penberlich of the Wayne Police Department signed the complaint.

A speeding charge cost Leo Wortman $14 plus $5 costs. Patrolman Cooper was the complaining officer.

Five cases were heard May 17. First of these involved Gene Laase, Wisner, who paid $100 fine and $5 costs on a charge of possession of a alcoholic liquor by a minor. Trooper Louis Svoboda was complaining officer.

Kenneth Smith, Belden, was charged with speeding, paying $20 fine and $5 costs. Patrolman Cooper brought charges.

Also charged with speeding was Jerome Eulberg, Wayne. His fine and costs came to $15 and $5. Trooper Cooper signed the complaint.

Ronald Kleinschmidt, Hartington, paid $10 fine and $5 costs for having an overwidth vehicle on the highways. Trooper C. Hoeman filed charges.

Larry Pfeiffer, Winside, was charged with following too closely, paying $10 fine and $5 costs. Trooper Hoeman was the officer in-

Women Tractor Drivers Sought

Dixon is coming up with something new for its annual Aug. 15 celebration, according to plans discussed at the Dixon Community Meeting Monday evening at the Dixon Cafe.

A women's division in the tractor-pulling contest is being considered.

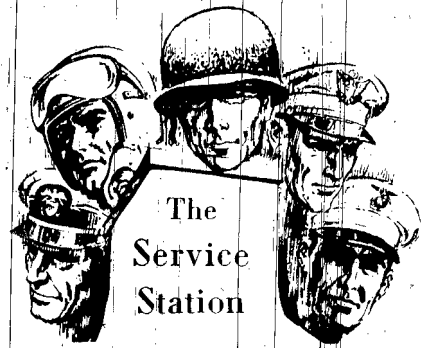

Other plans include honoring those in the Dixon area who will be 77 or older by Aug. 15 at the afternoon program. Lowell Saunders and J. C. McClew are making the list. Plans for a concert by the Allen band are complete, that musical group already having agreed to appear in the parade.

Mrs. Lowell Thompson served lunch for the group Monday. Mrs. Dick Hanson will serve at the next meeting, Monday, June 19.

The Service Station

Sgt. George Laase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Laase, Wisner, received his second award of the good conduct medal serving with the 10th Artillery in Germany. He is a liaison sergeant in headquarters battery of the third battalion in that unit. Sgt. Laase entered the army in 1958 and was stationed in Ft. Riley, Kan. He has been overseas since June, 1963. His wife, Fay, is with him in Germany.

A promotion has come to Kenneth Soden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Soden, Wayne. He is now Sp-4, Stationed in Korea, he is first cook in his company. He writes that the Korean people are most friendly and he enjoys talking with them and taking pictures of the scenery in various parts of that nation. His address looks like this: Sp-4 Kenneth E. Soden, US 5385720, Co. C, 2nd Bn. (Mech), 17th Inf., APO, San Francisco, Calif. 96206.

Here are a couple of fellows who should get together. Identical news releases were received on them the same day. Boat-swain's Mate Third Class Daniel Anthony and Fireman Larry Lambing are both aboard the USS Montrose, an attack carrier anchored in Vung Tau Harbor, 35 miles southeast of Saigon, Vietnam, as a support ship for the first US Rivierine assault since the end of the Civil War. River Assault Flotilla One and units of the army's ninth infantry division are using the ship as a base, from which they conduct operations. In the swamp that surrounds the major shipping channel to Saigon, Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Anthony, Sr., Concord, and Larry is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Lambing, Randolph.

Lt. Col. William Podoll is at Mountain Home AFB, Idaho, for training in the RF-4C Photo reconnaissance phantom jet until the last of August. He leaves in September for Vietnam. His wife and family will join him in Idaho for the summer but will go to Montgomery, Ala., for the year he will be overseas. Col. Podoll is the son of Mrs. Joy Podoll, Winside.

SFC Garry Stamm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Stamm, Randolph, was assigned to the fifth special forces group, first special forces, Vietnam, as of May 1. The special forces were created by the army to provide a unit through which the army can develop and employ guerrilla warfare forces against the enemy in support of military operations. Sgt. Stamm is a light weapons leader. He graduated from Randolph High School and entered the army in 1948. Before going overseas he was stationed at Ft. Bragg, N. C. He holds the purple heart and an army commendation medals.

Up at Elemendorf, Alaska, Airman Second Class Merle Krusemark is based. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krusemark, Wakefield. He writes that the weather has been warmer there than it has been here, which is believable considering the cool spring in this area. How warm has it been? He sent for his short sleeve shirts and his fishing rod! Merle is in electronics work and is taking technical training as an air force air craft equipment repairman at an air force school. His new address is: A2c James A. Serven, Al 8738142, APO No. 2, Box 11201, Chgo AFB, Ill. 60666. He is a 1963 graduate of Allen High School.

Jim Serven, son of the Alden Servens, Concord, has been transferred from Lackland AFB, Tex., to Chanute AFB, Ill., where

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

Another Poppy Sale

Seems just last week the women of the American Legion Auxiliary were out selling poppies and here this week the women of the VFW Auxiliary will be out selling poppies. Is there any sense in this?

Yes, there sure is. Do you really object to spending another dime for quarter or half dollar?

Never Read an Editorial

A Wayne High teacher asked if The Herald could furnish copies of the paper for classroom work. She said she was especially interested in the editorial pages.

Asked more about this, she explained that almost all of her pupils were honest enough to admit that they had never read editorials.

In a group which includes seniors, juniors and below, this is deplorable. Somewhere along the line someone has neglected some training at home or in school.

Editorials are an institution of long-standing. They are a form of expression that has helped mold the history of the

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

VFW Auxiliary are made by disabled veterans. They work at making those poppies to earn their own money to buy some things they need and some things they may not need but would like to have.

You are not offered a choice between either making the poppies for spending money or buying one to wear. If you had your choice, is there any doubt about which you would choose?

Buy with a smile; wear with pride; glow with appreciation for the fact that you have been spared. Except for the grace of God you might be making poppies to wear instead of buying them. — E.G.

nation and the world. True, those in The Herald are not earth-shaking, but the young people should have started many years ago looking over editorials in the Omaha World-Herald, Christian Science Monitor, New York Times, Manchester Guardian, Wall Street Journal and even some magazines.

This never-read-an-editorial situation is enough to get an editor upset so he would write a scathing editorial about how wrong it is not to read editorials. The trouble is, the ones for whom such an editorial was intended would be the ones who would not read it because they don't read editorials. What a plight. — E.G.

The Road Emergency

Nebraska has a road emergency in more ways than one. Something needs to be done to the roads all right but there must be something hardware in the department of road headquarters too that could be righted with a little study.

Taking last things first, look at the high-priced multi-colored report sent out this month. It has several maps. One shows the highways according to their "sufficiency" and another shows the work planned. For the present let's consider these two.

In this area Highway 15 north of Wayne is shown as "under 50," the rating before becoming emergency. Highway 15 south is shown 50-59, which means it is approaching the emergency stage. Highway 35 between Hoskins and Norfolk is in the next-to-the-highest rating group — that is, almost as far away from "emergency" as is possible.

Looking at the other map we find the work projected for the 1967-1969 biennium. What is planned on Highway 15 where the sufficiency rating is near emergency? Nothing? What is planned on Highway 15 where the rating is just one more step away from emergency? Just nine miles of the 15 to be resurfaced. What is planned on Highway 35 with the next-to-the-highest rating? Complete resurfacing for seven miles. This makes sense?

So much for the office work. This is just one example. More attention could be given to points such as Grand Island where the state has spent more money on highways than in the next three towns (populationwise) combined; Norfolk where a new bridge and inter-section are planned before a lot of other areas get surfaced highways where gravel conditions are much more dangerous than the present arrangement at Norfolk; Brule to Paxton on Highway 80 where no road work is planned but the highway sufficiency rating is just above the emergency rating; Arthur to Angora where there is no north-south road (even gravel) for over 80 miles; and so on ad infinitum.

Gov. Tiemann has asked for an emergency session to consider highway needs. He has proposed bonded indebtedness to pay for a "crash" program to bring Nebraska out of the 1940's and into the 1960's highways.

Against this plan is the Omaha World-Herald, basking in the glory of being the only big daily in the state. Unaware of highway needs elsewhere, it apparently is content to go along as is because the Omaha area is getting plenty of highway work. Instead of representing all Nebraska, that paper is considering only the situation in the immediate area of Omaha.

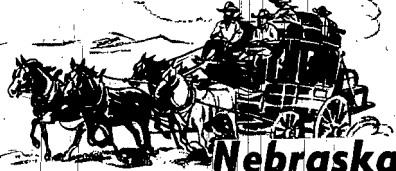

The World-Herald is for a raise in the gas tax to pay for roads. Heavens to Betsy, World-Herald, Nebraska already has one of the highest gas tax rates in the nation and this has not resulted in Nebraska having one of the best road systems in the nation, mainly because all of the gas tax money does not go to highway needs.

Let's go along with Gov. Tiemann on this issue. Let's ask for road work and support his plan to get it. All you have to do to find out how far behind in highways Nebraska is right now is to drive any direction to any other state. Without exception, Nebraska's roads are the poorest of any state in the region, possibly the nation. Where other states spend millions, Nebraska spends thousands.

In the long run, people are going to avoid Nebraska because of its roads. Sure, they'll go through on the Interstate but they will hurry through as fast as possible, avoiding the other roads like the plague, especially if they have been warned by friends to avoid those Nebraska roads (this has happened and is happening).

Nebraska has problems with roads, in the department of roads and in the highways themselves. Now, ten years from now, is the time to act to change this. — C.E.G.

Out of Old

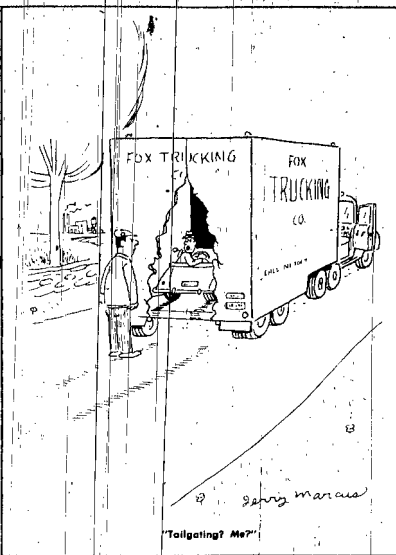

Nebraska

Irrigation Meeting The settlement of Nebraska was confronted with many difficulties and probably none was more important than the lack of water. The files of the Nebraska State Historical Society contain many items relating to this important aspect of settlement and the following speeches at a meeting of the State Irrigation Association meeting in Kearney in late February 1894 point out the importance of adequate water supply to early settlers.

A. Fort, North Platte, addressed the meeting and told the delegates that the irrigation question had been a matter of importance for some time, but that what only $2 per acre was now valued at from $40 to $50 an acre, primarily because of the widespread utilization of irrigation. He commented that the time had come for the West to end its periodic economic cycles of "ups and downs" and that a recent international irrigation convention in California was a good beginning point for further investigation into the matter.

Judge J. E. Emery from Lawrence, Kansas, said that the question before all of the people of the United States was "What will we do for homes for our young men? The homesteads are all gone. There is no Kansas or Nebraska to go to. The only salvation is to irrigate and divide our lands into smaller farms." He felt that experiment stations could do testing to determine what were the best methods of utilizing water and said that definite results could be attained and cited California as an example. "All they have is sand and water and look at the fruits they raise." He called the Platte Valley an "immense canon filled with sand and water, nobody knows how deep" and that consequently there was a plentiful supply of water available. The Judge concluded by drawing a word picture of the important influence water could have on civilization by "lighting the world and turning the wheels of commerce, and that the arid lands of the West will have to be irrigated to catch and support the drift of population westward."

Following too closely is a dangerous practice.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Editor: Why isn't the American Cancer Society in the United Fund?

As a volunteer you have or will hear that question asked some time by your friends or neighbors.

It's a fair question. It deserves a thoughtful answer. And it provides another welcome opportunity to explain why the door-to-door crusade is the best way to fight cancer.

For the issue is simply federation or freedom of action by your American Cancer Society, freedom of choice by the millions who work with you and give to you in the Cancer Crusade. That freedom has produced results.

Providing the ammunition for a massive attack on cancer, keeping the medical world abreast of progress in cancer research and teaching the use of it, what we can do to protect ourselves and our families.

Providing more than $100,000,000 since 1945, for scientific exploration of promising avenues of research helping to increase the cancer cure rate from one in five a generation ago to one in three today.

The majority of units which joined united funds fell behind nonfederated units in the rate of increasing funds raised.

They found that federation set up a collection agency between the crusade and the public. Volunteers who are the heart of the society lost interest as federation took over. Without the vitality of volunteers the whole service and education program of the society dwindles.

So when you hear the question, "Why isn't the Cancer Crusade in the United Fund?" You can reply with pride, "I'm glad you asked me that." Then tell them why—

Because Americans are in a hurry to find the answer to cancer and the crusade is the fastest voluntary way to get the job done. Because the American Cancer Society's direct appeal has resulted in more and more dollars being raised for cancer control.

Because the crusade is an integral part of an educational campaign that has helped save many thousands of lives from cancer.

And because the crusade is a time-tested, effective method of fighting cancer, its success is vitally important to an estimated 48,000,000 Americans now living who may get cancer—60% come back to Nebraska; 10% is national. Over two dozen volunteer businessmen will call on their business neighbors. No employees will be contacted because it is presumed that they have already given at home. Only business heads will be called upon.

The residential campaign is almost complete. Mathilde Harms Publicity Chrm.

School Change Made

The Merrill Baier farm, 160 acres, has been transferred from District 70 to District 68, Supt. Gladys Porter reports. Children in the Baier family have been going to schools outside the district for several years. District 70 has not been holding school, prompting the request for transfer by the Baiers.

60 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

Wayne Herald—May 23, 1907

Norfolk is showing enterprise by organizing and establishing a pickle and vinegar company and last week advertisements in the papers told that they were ready to contract for the growing of cucumbers for this season's pickling.

It's evident that if Norfolk can't have heart's desire, a Union depot, she is ready to take up with any kind of an industry, even if it is a sour proposition.

Dr. Osler, who reached for notoriety by saying a man's age of usefulness was passed at forty and suggested that he should be chloroformed at sixty, has of late been deluged more sensibly conclusions. His latest is that physicians and people in general are using too many drugs, and that it was all moonshine to contend that medicine could cure all diseases.

Graduates at Wayne High School this year will be Rokie Conger, Leo Gaertner, Katherine Gamble, Edwin Grothe, Maria Hyde, Edna Neely, Jennie Nelson, Maria Rennick, Jessie Strickland and Leslie Welch. The class motto is "Push!"

Members of the board of education are D. C. Main, Theo. Duerig, E. Hunter, P. L. Neely, S. R. Theobald and Dr. E. P. Hecker. High school teachers are E. P. Wilson, Mabel Christian and Ann Paine. Among the features of graduation will be "Shades of Shakespeare's Women" and "A Shakespearean Conference" (two plays) and a recitation, "The Lotus-Eaters" by Carl Grothe with illustrative poses by three girls in the class.

Missionary E. B. Young reorganized a Sunday School in the Baird school district about ten miles south west of town. It is to be known as the Fairfield Union Sunday School.

"There is a growing enthusiasm for agriculture as a means of livelihood," says an exchange. "The farmer has less trouble to keep his boys on the farm, and some day will have to figure how to keep the town boys off of it. The telephone and the rural delivery gives farmers dwellers even greater advantages than most people who live in cities, and these will increase as electric railroads place them practically in the suburbs. Each year shows that farm life is not only the healthiest but best, but is fast becoming the pleasantest as well. There is less drudgery and more independence about it now than about almost any other calling."

The local bank at Winnebago City in Thurston county was visited by bank robbers early Tuesday morning, wholly open the safe and escaped with funds estimated at between $1000 and $2000. The explosion aroused the entire town and a few of the citizens got out in time to catch a glimpse of the robbers, four in number, who fled with a team and buggy, evidently in the direction of Sioux City.

One of the swellest as well as one of the most unique of this season's entertainments was the junior party given in honor of the senior class, at the home of Will Weber, last Friday evening. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and the colors of the two classes. As the guests arrived each was given a program of the evening's fun. These were quickly filled out and the opening exercises, a five course dinner was begun. As the dinner was prepared by Mrs. Weber, description is unnecessary. It was "just fine," and for over an hour justice was done to it. The other prizes then followed. Maria Rennick received the prize in the "showing gallery," Hazel Weber and Harry Ringar in the "botany examination" and Weldon Crossland and the Misses Maria Rennick and Linnie Abbot in the "literature examination."

Musical numbers by Pearl Hughes, Alma Farr and Hazel Weber and a reading by Linnie Abbot added much to the enjoyment of the evening. Dismissal came at 11:30 and the company departed, adding another to the list of good times that they have had so often at Mr. Weber's.

A story illustrating the many impossible requests made of telephone girls is told of a Pierce woman who was going out shopping for a few hours put her baby to sleep in his carriage and taking down the receiver, placed it beside the sleeping child. She then notified central of the arrangement and asked if she would please sing to the child if it woke up and cried.

Silage Loader Top

A silage loader at the Lyle Hansen feed lots near Pender will be one of the top attractions on the annual Northeast Nebraska Livestock Feeders Tour Friday, June 2. All area residents are invited.

Hansen's feed yards will be the final stop of the evening tour. Both corn and sorghum silage are treated with limestone and urea at the yards and stored in a huge hillside silo. Hansen has several feeding devices which he made himself. They are not costly but show what can be done by using a little ingenuity.

The tour itself starts at the George Olson farm 7 1/2

Dixon Firemen Go to Farm Fire Last Week

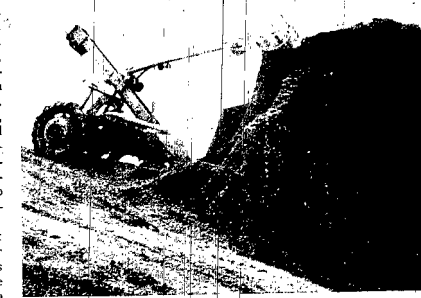

Dixon Rural Fire Department members were called out to a fire Sunday last week. Little damage was done by the blaze but strong winds threatened to spread the fire.

John Pehrson had burned corn shocks three or four days earlier. Sunday when the wind came up it kindled sparks and started blowing burning husks around.

Rather than let the fire get out of control, Pehrson called the fire department and members had the flames out in short order. Nothing burned except the corn shocks.

4-H CLUBS

Leslie Livewires 4-H Club met May 15 at the Gordon Jorgensen home. The topic on beef was presented by Leon Svoboda, Mike Gust, Jeanette and Jerold Meyer, Steve and Keith Jorgensen and Kim Baker. Discussion at the next meeting will be on ear markings on hogs, given by Gary Krusemark, and marking of beef by Dale Hansen. The next meeting will be at the Ed Krusemark home. Jeanette Meyer, reporter.

THIS LOADER is one of the pieces of equipment livestock tour members will see on the Lyle Hansen farm near Pender June 2.

Dozen Honors Presented to Graduates of Wayne High

An even dozen honors were handed out to Wayne High graduates at commencement exercises Monday night in Rice Auditorium on the WSC campus. Over 2,000 were in attendance for the services.

Principal speaker was Dr. H. V. Phelps, superintendent of Omaha Westside. He spoke mainly to the graduates in language they could understand, telling of three imaginary young people and the different roads each would pursue as they left the life of a high school pupil and entered the world of young adults.

Mrs. Ruth Ellis and Mrs. Mildred Witte were given special citations and awards by Supt. Francis Haun. Both are leaving the Wayne school system this year to retire.

In a tribute to Mrs. Witte, fifth-grade teacher who has served 33 years as a public school teacher, Supt. Haun said: "She has proven beyond doubt that she is a dedicated professional teacher who always placed the welfare of her students above that of her own."

Speaking of Mrs. Ellis, who served four years as secretary to the board and 11 years as office secretary, Supt. Haun said: "Mrs. Ellis is dedicated to her work, loyal to her employers, efficient and

Stores to Close

Wayne business places will be closed for Memorial Day, Tuesday, May 30. There will be a Sunday schedule of mail delivery with no mail service at the various post offices in the area. No carrier or rural service will be offered. Because of the loss of one day, The Herald will appreciate having news and ads turned in early for the Thursday edition.

Need Flower Girls

All girls of the area interested in being flower girls for the Memorial Day program are asked to be at the Wayne City Auditorium at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, May 30. Mrs. Julia Haas is in charge and anyone wanting information on what is expected of the girls can contact her. Girls taking part should plan to bring flowers to be placed on the graves of veterans and servicemen.

Winside Memorial Day Rites to Be at Cemetery

Winside's Memorial Day services will be held Tuesday, May 30, at 10:30 a.m. in the Winside Cemetery. Z. L. Bouglin, Randolph, will be the featured speaker.

Bought is no stranger to the Winside area. He gave the talk Monday night for commencement at WIS.

Rev. H. M. Hilpert, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will give the invocation and benediction.

Music will include a trumpet solo by Keith Krueger. Winside's firing squad will get a full workout. They will go to the Thompson and Springbranch Cemeteries and two Hoskins cemeteries prior to the Winside service. They are scheduled to visit the various cemeteries for salutes to the dead starting at 7:30.

The American Legion Auxiliary will serve a smorgasbord dinner at the Legion Hall following the memorial rites. The public is invited to attend.

Winside Pastor Coronary Victim

Rev. H. F. Otto Mueller, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Winside, was stricken with a coronary Tuesday morning at Freeport, Ill., where he was visiting. He was taken to the intensive care ward of Freeport Memorial Hospital.

A telephone call Wednesday morning from Mrs. Mueller revealed that the pastor is feeling well. It is not known, however, how long he will be hospitalized.

Arrangements have been made through Rev. Robert Swanson, synod president, to have services at Trinity Lutheran conducted by students from Central Seminary, Fremont, during the absence of Rev. Mueller.

Woman With Briefcase Not Selling Anything

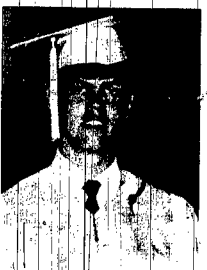

Should a distinguished looking woman approach your home during the next few weeks with what appears to be a sales kit, don't turn her away until you're sure who it is. It's quite possible it may be a census taker for the schools of District 17.

Mrs. Julia Haas reports in the past when she took the school census some thought she was a magazine encyclopedia salesman. She is neither but is employed by the district to take the census required by state law before July 1.

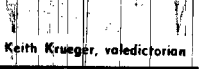

What she will want to know is how many there are in each home between the ages of 0 and 21. She will cover the entire district by personal calls or by telephone.

Cooperation of the public in getting this information as promptly and as accurately as possible will be appreciated.

Six Winside Graduates Receive Special Honors

Keith Krueger, valedictorian

Linda Gohring, salutatorian

Al Bahe, secretary of the Wayne County Fair

Six members of the Winside graduating class were given scholarships at the Monday night commencement exercises. Zachariah Boughter, Randolph educator, gave an inspiring talk for the benefit of the grads and almost 600 spectators.

Keith Krueger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Krueger, received the honor as valedictorian of his class for the highest four-year grade average and also received a scholarship to Midland College on the basis of his record.

Salutatorian was Linda Gohring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Gohring. She received a scholarship to Norfolk Junior College on the basis of her high average.

Don Longe, son of the Alvin Longes, and Mary Jane Hansen, daughter of the Gurney Hansens, received scholarships to Wayne State College on the basis of grade averages.

Bob Dangberg, son of the Gilbert Dangbergs, received a scholarship to John F. Kennedy College, Wahoo, for leadership and scholarship.

Judy Stephens, daughter of the Guy Stephens, received a scholarship to School of Beauty, Omaha.

The girls' double sextet sang "May You Always" and the mixed ensemble sang "Moments to Remember." See WINSIDE GRADS, pg. 8

Few Changes Have Been Made for Memorial Day

Wayne's Memorial Day programs have followed pretty much the same schedule over the past few years. There are few changes anticipated in this year's observance.

Supt. Francis Haun of Wayne High School will give the principal address at the cemetery following the parade from the Wayne City Auditorium to Main as far as Seventh and then west to the cemetery. In case of rain, the parade will be omitted and the program will be in the auditorium at 10:30.

Those in the parade are asked to assemble by 9:30 a.m. Tuesday. The parade is scheduled to start at 10 a.m. and the cemetery program is to start at 10:30.

Units in the parade will be the WIS band, the color bearers and color guard, firing squad, veterans groups, auxiliaries, Gold Star Mothers, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts.

Upon arrival at the cemetery, the Star Spangled Banner will be played.

First Summer Course Starts

The first of the summer courses to be offered at Wayne High School is to get underway Monday. Driver's education has been signed up for by 82 pupils.

Supt. Francis Haun reports each trainee will get 30 hours of classroom time and six hours of driving time. Mike Mallotte will be in charge with Ron Carnes driving instructor.

It is hoped to wind up the course in the fore part of July. Pupils taking part will get the regular driver's training course credit.

Remedial reading, remedial math and recreation are also to be offered this summer. The remedial courses are for pupils who have ability but are not performing up to ability levels. A bus will be sent from Carroll to Wayne daily for pupils but the schedule was not complete at the time this was written.

Scout Fun Fair Saturday at City Auditorium in Wayne

With the Wayne Jaycees giving a big boost, the first annual Lewis & Clark District Scout Fun Fair is set to go Saturday afternoon at the Wayne City Auditorium from 1 to 5:30.

Action booths will be featured with Cubs and Scouts demonstrating what they can do and what they have done. The boys will be doing the work and telling the stories and adults will be in the background to supervise only.

Three competitive events have been set up for Cubs and Scouts. Tag-of-war will be held for both. Tire rolling and balloon bust will be held for Cubs and log sawing and knot tying relay for Scouts.

Then there will be the two big races, one among the winners of the local pinewood racing car derby and the other among the winners of the various local space derby rockers.

Tickets are on sale by Scouts and Cubs. Prizes are being awarded to the ones selling the most tickets so those planning

Plan Centennial Day

Plans are moving along for Wayne's Centennial Day observance Aug. 11. A committee meeting Tuesday night more details were ironed out as it was planned to Send letters to all churches, businesses and organizations in Wayne asking for their participation in the parade. In the parade, small organizations may sponsor floats in conjunction with other small groups.

Include in the parade a special section for children and children's floats, and to write letters to other communities in the area inviting their participation in the parade.

In other action Mrs. Dan Titze was appointed finance chairman for the Centennial Day celebration. Robert Boeckenhauer attended the meeting representing the Wayne County Historical society.

Persons wishing to enter the parade should contact Cletus Sharer.

Thursday Prize Total Still $400

Someday someone is going to win that $400 Silver Dollar Night prize in Wayne. It could be Thursday when another name will be announced at 8 p.m. for some Wayne area resident.

Mrs. Alice Halleen, Carroll, received $10 last week as consolation for not winning the $400 prize. She was not in Wayne when her name was announced as potential winner.

The fact that there was no winner gave a boost to the reserve fund. This now stands at $350 and if there is a winner this week, next week's prize will be $350.

If there is no winner, next week's prize will be $400 and the reserve fund will also stand at $400.

Anyone 18 or older who has not registered previously may do so at participating stores. Names of the firms taking part can be learned from the Chamber of Commerce office.

Two Area Men Named Members of Foundation

John Carhart, Wayne, and R. J. Pearson, Concord, are among the newest members of the board of trustees of the Wayne State Foundation. Third new member is Esper Boel, Copenhagen, Denmark.

Val Peterson, president of the foundation, announced the election of the trio this week. A special meeting of the board was held a short time previous to the announcement.

Carhart is secretary of Carhart Lumber Co., Wayne, and has been a longtime friend of the college.

Pearson, who farms and feeds cattle east of Concord, is the youngest trustee ever named to the 23-member board.

Boel is head of Boel Foods, Ltd., one of the largest producers of blue

Bicycle Licenses To be Sold Here

The Wayne Police Department announced Monday that beginning May 31 bicycle licenses will be sold and registered at the police station. Licenses may be purchased for fifty cents from 8 to 12 and 1 to 4 every day except Saturday, Sunday and holidays.

Chief of Police Vern Fairchild reports that even bicycle in Wayne must be licensed. Residents are reminded to take the bike to the station when buying a license so that the serial number and a description may be recorded with the Police Department. The licenses are good for one year.

Man, Wife Outstanding; Others Also Get Honors

Lynn, We're Sorry!

Lynn Gay Danielson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Danielson, Wayne, deserves an apology. In some way the program got switched before it reached The Herald office and the asterisk beside her name was omitted. An asterisk was supposed to be there to denote her high scholarship which had earned her a place as one of the honor students in the graduating class. All concerned apologize to her and congratulate her.

Winside Has Reunion for WHS Alumni

The annual reunion of the alumni of Winside High School will be held Monday, May 29, at 7:00 p.m. in the Winside City Auditorium. It will be the first major event in the auditorium since it has been remodeled.

A professional catering service will prepare and serve the meal for the several hundred grads expected. Special guests of the alumni will be the members of this year's graduating class.

The centennial theme will be carried out and special attention will be given the Class of 1917 that graduated 50 years ago. The classes of 1907, 1927, 1937, 1947 and 1957 will also be honored.

Entertainment will include numbers by the young people of the Winside schools directed by Mrs. Pete Kropp. A social hour and dance will follow the dinner and program.

Tickets are on sale at various stores in Winside. Hollis Francis, Norfolk, president of the Winside Alumni, and all other committee members ask that as many as possible purchase tickets in advance so the catering service will know how many to plan on serving.

A quarter of a million dollar cut in the budget for the fiscal year was approved Tuesday night by the Wayne City Council. It indicates a cut in the tax levy also.

The council cut the budget in five departments and increased the budget in one to achieve the $250,000 decrease in city operation compared to costs the past fiscal year.

Biggest cut was in the electric department where no large purchases are anticipated and where revenue will take care of most needs, a $200,000 decrease in costs being outlined.

The only increase is in the fire fund, raised by $10,000. Other decreases are: Street fund, $20,000; auditorium fund, $5,000; park fund, $30,000; and water fund, $5,000.

While the mill levy for the city has not been set, it is quite probable that a decrease will be approved. Until the total valuation of the city is known, the levy cannot be set.

Two ordinances were passed. Ordinance 674 prohibits the selling or keeping of goods on streets or sidewalks within the life limits of the city except in and in conjunction with a citywide sale or promotion, to provide penalty and to provide when the ordinance will go into effect.

This does not stop anyone from selling off trucks and similar operations but it does provide that such selling must be outside the fire limits.

The other change is Ordinance 648. It amends Section 14-104 and Ordinance 589 of the city ordinances. See CITY COUNCIL, pg. 8

Carroll Rite Tuesday at Auditorium

Memorial Day services will be held Tuesday, May 30, at 2:30 p.m. in Carroll under sponsorship of the American Legion and Legion Auxiliary. Leroy "Bing" Jones, South Sioux City will be featured speaker.

Jones is well-known throughout the area for his work with veterans and his speaking ability. He appeared in the Memorial Day program in Wayne two years ago.

Invocation and benediction will be by Rev. E. J. Kess, Methodist Church pastor. Other program numbers are being lined up.

The Legion firing squad will have short services at the Carroll cemetery. The Auxiliary will have charge of memorial services at the auditorium.

Prior to coming to Carroll for services, the firing squad will visit the Bethany Cemetery southwest of Carroll to fire a tribute to the veteran and service dead.

The council cut the budget in five departments and increased the budget in one to achieve the $250,000 decrease in city operation compared to costs the past fiscal year.

Biggest cut was in the electric department where no large purchases are anticipated and where revenue will take care of most needs, a $200,000 decrease in costs being outlined.

The only increase is in the fire fund, raised by $10,000. Other decreases are: Street fund, $20,000; auditorium fund, $5,000; park fund, $30,000; and water fund, $5,000.

While the mill levy for the city has not been set, it is quite probable that a decrease will be approved. Until the total valuation of the city is known, the levy cannot be set.

Two ordinances were passed. Ordinance 674 prohibits the selling or keeping of goods on streets or sidewalks within the life limits of the city except in and in conjunction with a citywide sale or promotion, to provide penalty and to provide when the ordinance will go into effect.

This does not stop anyone from selling off trucks and similar operations but it does provide that such selling must be outside the fire limits.

The other change is Ordinance 648. It amends Section 14-104 and Ordinance 589 of the city ordinances. See CITY COUNCIL, pg. 8

Man Injured in Rural Accident

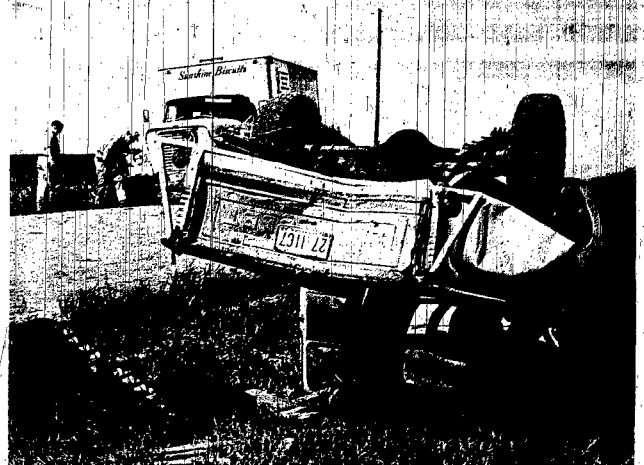

William Noonan, 66, Wayne, suffered multiple bruises Monday when his pickup was struck by a truck on a county road nine miles south and two miles east of Wayne. Deputy Sheriff S. C. Thompson investigated.

Noonan told the deputy he had gone by an intersection where he intended to turn. The intersection was at the crest of a hill.

He stopped to turn around and a truck owned by Sunshine Biscuit Co. came over the hill. The driver, Arthur Holz, O'Neill, was unable to stop in time to avoid striking the left half of the rear of the pickup.

The lighter vehicle was sent off the road on the north side, overturning in the ditch. The truck was damaged in the radiator, bumper and fender, and could not be driven the rest.

AN OVERTURNED pickup lies in a ditch. This was the scene Monday after William Noonan's pickup went over when struck by a biscuit company truck east of Altona. Deputy Sheriff S. C. Thompson and the truck driver are seen inspecting the truck.
