4-H Show-Sale Wednesday

The time of year for the annual Wayne County 4-H beef sale has arrived. This year's event will be held Wednesday, Sept. 13, at Wayne Sale Barn.

County Agent Harold Ingalls reports this is the second of two sales in which county 4-H beef feeders will participate. The first is at Norfolk Monday, Sept. 11, when 33-41 members from this county will sell calves.

The sale in Wayne will include pens of five with 135 calves slated to be sold. A show will begin at 2 with weighing and appraising at 4. All cattle must be unloaded before 1 p.m.

The Spook Speaks

A 10-year-old Wayne boy may have heard this somewhere else or he may just be smart enough to have thought of it himself. His father asked him what he was doing. "I'm looking through a cookbook," the boy responded. "Well, that should be interesting." "Yes, there are several stirring items in here."

Winning second were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kerstine. They have a miniature windmill authentic in detail with the mailbox resting on the horizontal supports. Below the mill is a pot of growing flowers, goldenrod, the state flower.

Correspondent Dies

Mrs. George Boskirk, 80, Wakefield, for over 50 years a Leslie Precinct correspondent for the Wayne Herald, died the past week at her home. She had not been ill prior to her death. Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Wakefield Christian Church with Pastor Merlin Wright officiating and burial in the Wakefield Cemetery. A complete obituary appears on an inside page.

Licenses Here!

The new driver's license forms have arrived in the office of County Treasurer Leona Bahde. Residents of Wayne County can pick them up anytime between now and Oct. 31. Old licenses should be sent or taken to the treasurer's office for renewal since information from them is needed on how long the new licenses will be issued. One member of a family can bring in all licenses for that family. No tests are required in order to renew.

WHS Pupils Tested

Pupils in the freshman and junior classes at Wayne High School will be tested this week. IQ tests will be given to the freshmen Wednesday and Thursday and the juniors Friday. All testing will be in the commons area on the main floor. Counselor Ken Deissler is in charge of the annual IQ tests for these two classes.

Pilgerite Misses Out on Big Check

Mrs. Fred Siegert, Pilger, missed out on a big check Thursday night. She could have claimed a check for $400 had she been in Wayne for the Silver Dollar Night drawing.

Housing Authority Meets to Plan

A meeting of the Wayne Housing Authority was held Saturday night. Details on the meeting will be carried in the Thursday issue of The Herald.

Jensen Rites Set

Otto Jensen, 73, Wayne, died Friday, Sept. 8, at his home. Funeral services will be held Tuesday, Sept. 12, at 2 p.m. in the Witte chapel, Wayne. An obituary will be published Thursday.

New Nurse on Duty at Wayne Schools

Mrs. Mary Ann (Larry) Cottrell is the new school nurse for the Wayne-Carroll school system. She will serve the public schools in Wayne and Carroll plus St. Mary's Catholic School (pupils from St. Mary's going to the public school for her services).

Tax Levies Rise and Fall

Wayne County residents are going to see both a rise and a fall in the property tax levy, depending upon where they live. Some districts will have a levy increase almost equal to the decrease brought about by the removal of the state tax levy while others will have decreases of as much as 15 mills.

Winside's city levy is up one mill, going from 18.60 to 19.60. Total levy for residents of that town will be 76.18 mills, down from 85.01 mills a year ago.

Sholes city levy remains at 5 mills, same as a year ago. Total levy for residents of that community is 46.39 mills, down from 46.16 in 1966.

Residents of District 74 enjoy the greatest tax decrease, their levy going down around 14 or 15 mills, depending upon what other tax districts they are in.

County Clerk Norris Weible reports county valuation up almost a million dollars. This year it is $89,629,020. A year ago it was $29,699,345. Valuation not including Wayne, Winside, Wakefield and No. 45 (Cedar County) school districts is $14,129,000 compared to $14,046,000 a year ago.

The District 17 tax levy is 61.49 mills, up over 1 mill from the 50.28 levy in 1966. The state levy which has been removed cut the total 12.03 mills so the rise all but erased the cut.

Carroll's city levy rises from 17.56 mills to 20.08. Including all levies, residents of Carroll will pay a levy of 94.08 mills compared to 90.49 a year ago.

The levies had been figured before it was found out the state would put the mental institutions levy on the county levy. They then had to be refigured, but all computations are now done by Clerk Weible and his staff.

In Hoskins the city levy is down almost two mills, 39.67 now, 37.58 in 1966. Total levy for Hoskins residents will be 74.13 mills, a drop of 5.20 mills from the 1966 levy.

Hamburg Watershed District is a new taxing unit. It will cost .75 mills for residents of the district, all in the southwest corner of the county.

Free high school tuition will cost 10.54 mills for county residents this year, an increase from 9.49 a year ago. This comes about, Weible reports, because there is a rate of $3.50 per student per day for 185 days this year whereas the rate was $3 per student per day for 185 days last year. In spite of the fact there are 10 less free-high students this year, the rate goes up, $148,925 being needed this year compared to $133,200 needed a year ago.

Seek Road Work Promise

The never-tiring Wayne Chamber of Commerce has not given up in its efforts to get definite commitments on improvements of all of Highway 15 from Pilger north. Another trip to Lincoln is set to seek promises for work on what some believe is the worst surfaced state highway in Nebraska.

Gene "Swede" Fredrickson and a committee from the Chamber of Commerce will head the delegation. Concord, Laurel, Coleridge and Hartington have been asked to join in the caravan.

The groups will meet at Bill's Cafe in Wayne Friday, Sept. 15, for coffee before proceeding to Lincoln in a caravan. In Lincoln an appointment has been made for a meeting with State Engineer John Hossack.

Farmers, businessmen and anyone else interested in improvement of the highway are invited to go along. It is hoped at least one carload will come from each of the other communities and several carloads from Wayne.

Offer Psychiatrists' Services

Another new service has been announced for the Wayne Hospital. Psychiatrists are to be available for consultation twice a week starting Thursday, Sept. 14.

Dr. Daryl Stephenson, MD, staff psychiatrist from Norfolk State Hospital will be here Thursdays from 4 to 9 p.m. He will also be here one-half day each Saturday but at the time of this writing the hours had not been set. Those calling the hospital can get information on his Saturday hours.

Inc., Norfolk, is furnishing the services of the staff. There is no connection with either Norfolk State Hospital or Northeast Mental Health Clinic, both of which are state-supported and both having psychiatrists and psychologists from PSI on their staffs.

Dr. Richard Sanders, PhD, is clinical psychologist at Northeast Mental Health Clinic, and is administrative head. He accompanied Dr. Stephenson here for the meeting with pastors Thursday.

Dr. Sanders and all members of PSI are on the staff at Wayne State College. Their work at the college is also a state-supported function, however, and has no connection with the new service at Wayne Hospital.

The service is available to the public and to WSC students. Pastors were invited to meet the doctor because they often know better than anyone else who needs help, advice or counseling.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to arch all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

That 'Hurting' One-Fifth

Wayne High School is starting with 443 pupils this year. Will 88 of them drop out before their full four years are up?

Winside has 142 in high school and Allen 131. Will 28 quit before they graduate from Winside and 26 drop out before receiving diplomas at Allen?

Why the figures 88, 28 and 26 for the three schools? Because in this nation almost 20 per cent of the young people between the ages of 16 and 24 were high school dropouts last year.

The 20 per cent represents the figure for the entire country. It is not necessarily a true picture of the situation in Wayne, Winside and Allen, however, since it includes poverty areas, blum areas and schools in congested areas where the incentive to stay in school and achieve is not very strong.

But the fact that there will even be one drop-out in any of our three local high schools should be cause for concern. It was bad enough to have a drop-out 10 or 20 years ago, but the consequences of dropping out are becoming worse each year and never have been worse in this nation's history.

Fortunately for some who quit, they join some branch of the service. They mature and suddenly come up with the realization that education is important. With the armed forces offering the chance to work for diplomas, many drop-outs do it the hard way and get their education then—better late than never.

But for those drop-outs who do not go into the service, the outlook is dark. Education is no longer a luxury but a necessity. In spite of the jokes about the uneducated man making more than the educated one in some instances, the matter is not funny and the instances of where the uneducated make more than the educated are fewer and farther between.

In the first place, the more drop-outs there are, the more competition there is bound to be for the few posts open to the unskilled, untrained and unqualified. In the second place, as our nation progresses, the need is more and more

You may not agree with an editorial—but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

for the qualified and less and less for the unqualified.

It's easy to see why a young person drops out of school. He sees his friend, Dropout Dracula, driving a car, pulling in a paycheck and having time on his hands, while in school there are assignments, rules, little free time and subjects in which he is not particularly interested at the present time.

The funny thing is, a drop-out starts learning faster when he quits school than he ever did in the classroom. He learns that some employers won't even consider him even though they need help; he learns that the pay that looked so big is not going to be enough; he learns that the future in any job he can handle is limited; he learns that the money for car, clothes and cigarettes does not go far; he learns that those who stayed in school are really the lucky ones, not those who have time on their hands, gas pedals under their feet and a few bucks in their billfolds.

The really smart ones go on to college and aim at a goal. Difficult as it may be for others to believe, the years will go fast and they will soon be over the hill. What they find over the hill will be a world which they are not prepared to cope with.

It is your job, whether a parent, a teacher or a friend of high school pupils, to encourage those pupils you know to stay in school. For every reason they give for quitting, you ought to come up with ten better ones for not quitting. For every rainbow they see, you should point out a pot of gold that is always just out of reach. For every complaint they offer, you should be ready with a reason for being grateful that in this country everyone can get an education.

Don't be a drop-out, kids. Don't let your youngsters drop out, parents. Help hold the national average for dropping out down this year—encourage every Wayne, Winside and Allen pupil to at least finish out this year (and we'll take care of the following year when we get to it).—CEG.

Wanda Owens Moves Up

Wayne business and professional people greeted word of the resignation of Wanda Owens as Chamber of Commerce manager with mixed emotions. They hate to see her leave but they are glad to see her move up.

This will be a fortunate city if another Wanda Owens can be found to take the position. Frankly, the city has been spoiled by Mrs. Owens as she gave so much of her own time to projects that were beneficial to the city, never counting the hours spent at extra meetings, traveling to other areas and working harder than expected of her.

Her work on the vocational-technical school project alone was worth a lot. She was one of the first to recognize the value of such a school and she represented Wayne as the first moves were made toward forming a steering committee, publicizing the need and boosting a favorable vote.

Unless you worked with Mrs. Owens, you cannot know how much effort she put into her job. Many do not realize that her work often lasted after others had gone home from their work and started in the mornings before some were even up.

Wayne on the Airline Route

There are some who snicker because Wayne is now on an airline route. "Who ever heard of West Central Airlines anyway?" they ask.

Lots of people have heard of WCA. Many more have heard of similar airlines, dedicated to the proposition that it is more economical and safer to fly and to ship by air than it is to drive or to ship by surface transportation.

Years ago every town in the area had rail service. In many places now the railroads offer tri-weekly service or maybe once-a-day service. But, there are also places where there are not even any railroad lines, the ties and rails having been pulled up and taken away.

Wayne is one of the biggest cities in the state without daily rail service. This has proved to be a disadvantage more than once, not just for travelers but for those considering this city as a site for industry.

But give a moment to the situation in Lincoln as an example of what is happening other places. Lincoln lost its air base but turned the land involved into an industrial park. Many business firms and industries have located there because it provides "instant air service" so to speak.

We're in the air age. What will supersede it we do not know. Within our lifetimes it seems destined to dominate. An airport and air service will be more vital than ever.

Whether you have ever heard of West Central Airlines or not, it is hoped you are prepared to give the company a chance. For a month and a half Wayne will get this service. Whether or not it is continued after that depends on you as potential passengers and shippers.

Those who try WCA and find it satisfactory should let others know. The airline is going to need all the help it can get. Wayne CAN use the air service but it has to show it WILL use it.

Give the airline a try. Help convince WCA officials they did not make a mistake by coming into Wayne with daily air service.—CEG.

Out of Old

Fifty Years Ago at the State Fair

Fifty years ago, in 1917, the State Fair took place in a war-time atmosphere. The crowds that year reported a low attendance record despite the war. Newspaper accounts of that fair, and all the state fairs, may be found at the Nebraska State Historical Society. In 1917, the fair was six days long, Sunday, September 2, through Friday, September 7. The first day, Sunday, was not a regular fair day, but was devoted to concerts.

The war in Europe made its presence felt throughout the fair. Stories about the fair shared newspaper headline space with accounts from the front, reports of a Chicago race demonstration, and charges that the University of Nebraska harbored faculty members who were opposed to the war. One of the most popular fair concessions was a booth where people paid to throw baseballs at a representation of the German emperor.

That year, 1917, prizes were awarded to babies as well as livestock. Only babies under 27 months qualified and a large number of ribbons were awarded. This contest had been a fair feature for several years. The Lincoln Star noted that "Only a few of the babies were unqualified enough to voice any protestations to the draft." One of the more unique patriotic exhibits was a life-size replica of "The Spirit of '76"—molded in butter! On the midway, the tattooed man cursed at the Nebraska "hicks" for "their lack of patriotism in not allowing him to prick (tattoo) the national colors on their arms," according to the Star. The paper also reported that "Only a few charmer sold certain postcards, sealed to curious young men with a knowing wink. She did a big business." Nebraska had voted in prohibition the year before, and the fair-grounds police were taking "special precautions to see that no boot-legging goes on around the grounds."

At that time, automobiles as well as farm machinery were displayed on the grounds. Auto salesmen reported a booming business. The livestock displays included about 2300 head of cattle and about that many hogs. There were 300 head of sheep, but the number of horses had been declining for several years. Except for the horse and fruit displays, the fair was judged one of the best ever.

In the six days of the 1917 fair, over 200,000 persons passed through the gates. One reason for the exceptionally high attendance was thought to be the families of draftees coming to Lincoln to see

Their sons before they were sent off to war. In 1917, fair officials announced that 14,178 cars had parked on the grounds. Officials expect that the 1967 State Fair will attract over 420,000 persons.

Nurses to Get Tour

Nurses of the area are invited to tour a major naval medical facility in October as a guest of the navy. Registered or graduate nurses pending registration 20-35 years of age may visit Great Lakes Naval Hospital, Chicago, to see opportunities open to many nurses. Free air transportation will be provided. Information is available by calling 402-221-7302 collect and asking for Lt. Cmdr. Dorothy Yeale.

Local Welsh Go on Journey to Expo '67

Several residents of Wayne County were among those on a trip to Expo '67, Montreal, Aug. 27 to Sept. 6. A chartered bus took the group from Lincoln and back.

Highlights of the trip were the National Gymanfa Ganu, annual Welsh singing festival in Toronto; Expo '67; Niagara Falls; a banquet in Princeton, Ill.; and many other Canadian and United States points of interest.

Over 3,000 registered for the Gymanfa Ganu. The singing festival broke up in the early morning hours as people "caught the spirit" of singing the old Welsh songs and clamored for more and more.

People from almost every state and Canadian province, Colombia, South America, and many from Wales joined in the singing. Alum John, professor at the University of Wales, directed singing.

Taking the tour were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Jones, Carroll; Mr. and Mrs. George Noakes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Owens, Judge and Mrs. David Hamer and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Roberts, Wayne; Mrs. Janet Neilson and Mrs. Inez Cloys, Cambria, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thomas, Valentine; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Maldwyn Gioss and Margaret Thomas, Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Brake, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Brokaw, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Humphreys and Mr. Dan Jones, Leonard, Egan, Lincoln; and Dr. and Mrs. Donald Wills on and Mrs. Hazel H. Harper, Omaha. Jerry Haeffer was driver and John Mitchell the escort for the tour agency.

60 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

The Wayne Herald—Sept. 11, 1907
 Mr. Eichoff with his balky team created quite a little amusement for the spectators on Main street, Wednesday. The team balked twice and required a great deal of persuasion before they would move, but when they did it was on the run.

Wayne market prices (corrected every Thursday): Spring wheat .88; fall wheat .88; corn .46 1/2; old oats .40; new oats .40 1/2; flax .99; barley .60 1/2; rye .67; hogs 6.10.

The Winsor Chronicle says it was misinformed as to the wedding of F. K. and Miss A. P., which the alleged groom positively denies.

The next railroad legislation undertaken in Nebraska ought to be in the enactment of a law requiring the Omaha line to illuminate its passenger train from Wayne to Carroll. As it is today a passenger never knows when a footpad may appear out of the dark recesses of the next seat and lay him out with a sandbag. (Norfolk News).

All of the teachers in the county were listed. There were 76 rural districts plus Hoskins, Sholes, Carroll, Winside and Wayne schools.

Wayne faculty members were: E. P. Wilson, superintendent; Ethel Blake, Ora Moine, Alice Everett, Edith Banks, Winnifred Hunter, Mammie Wallace and Abigail Manning, high school; Josephine Graves, Lena Tyler, Eva Beauchemin and Edith Stock, ward school.

Winside teachers were J. A. Dimmick, Minnie McAdams, Gertrude Bays, Nellie Palmer and Josephine Carter; Carroll, Jennie Vennerberg, Blanche Young, Pearl Sewell and Myrtle Robinson; Sholes, Ben F. Robinson, Clara Burson and Mary Pawelski; and Hoskins, Jas. Siminon, Maude Surber and Minta Lewis.

The districts in the rural area were listed with teachers. All numbered districts from 1 to 84 were listed except these: 31, 49, 52, 68 and 76. Hoskins was 9, Wayne 17, Winside 39, Carroll 52, Sholes 67.

The State Bank has plans prepared for almost an entire new building on their present site. The appearance of the present structure will be entirely changed at least.

The midnight freight down the branch went up against a wreck at Sholes on the early morning run Tuesday. A loaded car of grain flew the track, tearing up the ties in a bad shape and no trains were able to pass until nearly noon and then only after a wrecking train had arrived to clear the track. The morning passenger did not arrive until after dinner.

Lightning performed its second freakish trick of the summer Monday night at Winside when it struck the home of Will Baldwin. Mr. Baldwin, who was standing in the door way, had a shoe ripped to pieces, a dog, lying on the floorstep, was instantly killed, while other members of the family all sitting near by, were uninjured except from the shock. Mr. Baldwin is suffering greatly from his foot. The house, a new one recently built, was badly riddled.

Cement walks have been completed on the campus and in front of the buildings, extending from the east to the west dormitories. This improves the looks of the grounds and gives us permanent walks. We will have the hill in good condition before spring. (Normal News).

Harry Prescott and sister, Mrs. Harry Tidrick, sold 160 acres of their land this week for $10,000. (Winside News).

A number of farmers in this vicinity have just finished threshing oats yielding from ten to twenty bushels an acre. (Sholes Items).

Both schools were fumigated with foliamative vapor, last Saturday. (Wayne School Notes).

A runaway, with rather a miraculous windup, in that either or both of the horses were not killed, took place Monday afternoon. S. W. Elder, left his team standing in front of Durkin's Marble works for a few minutes when they became frightened at a passing motor bicycle and started off at a dead run down Main street. Attempts were made to stop them but this only added to their speed. At Second street they started to turn west but instead just missed the row of hitching posts along the south side and smashed up against the wall of the State Bank. The compact was terrific and the horses fell into a silent heap on the cement walk. It happened that the tongue of the heavy wagon penetrated the veneered wall, going clear thru so as to remove the plastering on the inside. After the horses were loosened from the wagon, they got up apparently unhurt. It appears that the only damage done was to the brick wall of the bank building.

Carmen L. McCune-Donald W. Meyer Repeat Vows In Rites At Greeley

Carmen Lynn McCune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McCune, Greeley, Colo., and Donald Wayne Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Meyer, Wayne, were married Aug. 13 at 18th Avenue Church of Christ, Greeley.

Rev. Charles Partain officiated at the double ring ceremony. Dorothy Johnson sang "I Love You Truly," "Always" and "Whither Thou Goest." The church was decorated with baskets of yellow and white gladioli and seven-branch candelabra accented with yellow flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of sheer crystal taffeta fashioned with a scalloped neckline and bridal point sleeves. The semi-bouffant skirt had two tiers of crystal taffeta bordered with lace. The detachable waterfall train was held by a tiny bow. Her tiered veil of bridal illusion tulle was held by a Swedish crown of pearls and iridescents. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow carnations centered with white roses and tied with white satin streamers.

Sandy Hedlund was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Diane Tregoning and Hinda McClellan. They wore sleeveless floor length gowns of yellow linen trimmed with brown velvet. Each wore a net veil held by circular bands of brown velvet. Jean and Nancy Meyer, Wayne, lighted the candles.

Wayne Girl Suffers Broken Arm in Fall

Swinging in a swing can be fun, but it can also be hazardous. That's one of the lessons learned by Peggy Pinkelman, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Pinkelman, Wayne. Peggy fell from a swing at St. Mary's Catholic School Sept. 1. She landed on her left arm, breaking it at the wrist.

This will not be too hard to overcome since she is right handed. However, she will have to wear a cast from fingers to elbow for several weeks, the doctor has told her.

Allen Girl Breaks Arm in School Fall

DeAnn Troth, 11, was one of the first accident victims of the school year at Allen. She fell while playing at school Aug. 31, breaking her right arm.

This is her writing arm and she is now handicapped. A cast covers the arm from the fingers to the elbow and it will have to remain there for six weeks or more.

The playground mishap resulted in breaking her arm at the wrist. DeAnn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Troth, Allen.

Hoskins Man Alive

Henry Walker, 76, Hoskins, is alive. This is contrary to a report carried under "Funeral Notices" in the Norfolk Daily News.

Thursday's edition of the News carried a report that Walker is alive but had been dismissed from the hospital. The News said a hospital clerical error had resulted in a report that he had died, rather than reporting he had been dismissed.

No explanation was given for one part of the News story on the "death" of Walker. The Norfolk paper reported "Funeral services are pending." It was not made known where the information was obtained, but Walker told the News he was very much alive.

Winside Class Saves School Money

The advanced shop class of Pete Kropp's at Winside High School is saving the district money. Mem- bers of the class are putting up an addition to the industrial arts build- ing.

A 24 by 48 addition will be used for auto mechanics and metal work, new courses in the school. It is located just north of the frame ag building which was put into use after two rural schools were at- tached to each other.

The rural schools were almost identical in size and design, the eavesline differing a little. Windows are the same size and height and inside the shop it is all but impossible to tell where the schools are joined.

Winside's district is pay- ing for the addition. The auto mechanics course which the boys will be taking when the 12-foot-high metal building is put on the foundation and floor put in by the class has almost too many pupils for one class, 24 signing for the instruction.

Bill Schmidt teaches in the main shop building. He has woodworking, intro- ductory shop, Shop I and advanced shop in wood- working.

Laurel Girl Escapes Accident Uninjured

Peggy Tuttle, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Wiemers, Laurel, had another one of those all-too-frequent close calls in the area Thursday afternoon. Her car just clipped off a utility pole and missed a guy wire after swerving to miss a school bus.

Miss Tuttle was southbound on Highway 15. She told sheriff's office investigators she had been having trouble with the car hood and had fastened it down about 1 1/2 miles north of the spot.

She kept checking the hood to see that it did not come loose again and 3 1/2 miles north of Wayne noticed a school bus ahead that had slowed down in order to make a right turn into a lane. She applied her brakes, realized she could not stop in time to avoid the bus so swerved to the left, hoping to make another lane but instead going into a field.

Richard Baker, Wayne, was southbound driving the bus. He turns each day into the Watson lane to let Connie Watson out, then turns around to go north with more Wayne pupils.

The Wiemers vehicle started on its trip into the field in Wayne County but came to a stop on the right side of the line in Dixon County. Damage to the car came to $325, but it would have been worse had she hit the pole or the bus.

A FEW MORE yards were added to Wayne's offensive attack when quarterback Dave Tietgen (10) ran a keeper around the right end. Tietgen completed 10 out of 12 passes for a total of 156 yards in Friday night's 19-0 victory over Madison.

Devils Win Season Opener

The Wayne High Blue Devils won their football season opener 19-0 at Madison Friday night. Wayne scored twice in the second quarter and once in the third stanza while holding the Dragons scoreless throughout the game.

One Blue Devil scoring attack at the start of the second quarter was stopped by a fumble on the Madison four yard line. Wayne's defensive team set up the first Devil touchdown following the fumble as they forced Madison into a fourth and thirteen punting situation. Wayne returned the punt to the Madison 30 where one of the first down quarterbacks Dave Tietgen threw a touchdown pass to Dave Brown. The Devils missed the extra point but led 6-0 with 8:31 remaining in the first half.

Six more points were added to Wayne's score with 42 seconds left in the half when Steve Kerl carried the ball over from the two yard line. The TD capped Wayne's second scoring attack which began with a recovered Dragon fumble on Madison's 38. Again the extra point was missed but the Blue and White held a 12 point lead as the half ended.

Neither team posed a serious scoring threat during the first nine minutes of the third stanza but Wayne got a big break when Gordie Jorgensen picked up a fumbled Dragon punt return and ran it to the Madison 7 before he was brought down from behind. The Devils scored easily on the next play when Tietgen hit Jorgensen with a pass over the middle. Dan Sutherland kicked the PAT and the Devils led 19-0.

Madison made a vain attempt to score in the fourth quarter when they recovered a Devil fumble and moved the ball to Wayne's 20 before time ran out. Leading defensive players for Wayne were Larry Lindner (seven tackles and two assists), Lavern Brown (seven tackles) and Bernie Binger (six tackles and three assists). Lynn Lessmann intercepted one Madison pass.

Leading ground gainers for the Devils were Lynn Tesmann with 63 yards, Steve Kerl with 40 and Dan Sutherland with 15. Gordie Jorgensen caught eight passes for a total of 106 yards.

Wayne will travel to Wisner next Friday night (Sept. 15). The first home game will be Sept. 22 against Neligh. Box Score:

Coaches' Coffee for Sports Fans Tuesday

All Wayne area sports fans are invited to the inaugural coaches' coffee Tuesday, Sept. 12, from 8:30 to 9 a.m. at the Boys Club. The times are not flexible since the coaches from Wayne High School are on a set schedule.

Coffee and rolls will be served. The coach of the in-season sport (in this case football) will speak, answer questions and predict.

Allen Hansen will be present along with coaches of other sports. He will discuss the season and what is going on, giving an idea of what to expect in weeks to come.

Those promoting the weekly gatherings hope to promote good sportsmanship, greater fan interest and closer relations between the staff and the patrons. In no way is the series intended to be a set-up where the coach is put on the spot.

No invitations are being sent out but everyone is invited. It is intended to keep the project going throughout the sports season, but the interest of fans will determine whether or not this is possible.

Finalists in the state will get to go to National Football League games. Finalists in the nation will go to the NFL play-off tilt in Miami Jan. 7.

Registration is underway now at Wortman's. Full rules and a list of prizes can be obtained there.

KEITH WACKER, Winside, carried the ball several times for good gains against Emerson-Hubbard. Tony Hale is the Pirate coming in to try to stop him.

Winside Scores First, Then Loses

The Winside Wildcats broke the touchdown stride in the first three series of plays but couldn't hold on for the victory Friday, as Emerson-Hubbard gave the Wildcats their defeat of the season on the WHS field 19-6.

The Allen Eagles will host the Wildcats next Friday night and will be starting their first Lewis and Clark conference game. Coach Pete Kropp's Wildcats will work hard this week to even up their record for the year.

On the kick-off Randy Jacobsen took the ball on the 10 and returned it to the 22 before being stopped. The first play from scrimmage was off side EHS then, Keith Wacker went for 4, Jacobsen 3 and a first down. Roy Wagner went for 3, Wacker 1, pass from Jacobsen to Dave Witt gained 22 and another first down. Wacker went for 3, pass from Jacobsen to Bob Wacker for 8, then Jacobsen on an end sweep scored from the 29 for the first TD for the Wildcats. Winside kicked off to Emerson's 15 with a return to the 34. Emerson was stopped by the Wildcat defense on the first series of plays and was forced to kick. K. Wacker went for 2, pass failed, then a first down by penalty gave the Wildcats the ball on the 30 but they were forced to kick ending the first quarter with Winside leading 6-0. Emerson received the ball on Winside's 31 and marched in for the score with Rick Anderson traveling the last 11 yards. The extra point was no good and it was 6-0.

On Emerson's kickoff Jacobsen went from the 10 to the 31, where WHS failed to move and was forced to kick only to find it blocked and Emerson took over on the 22. Two plays later Emerson had the lead 12-6 with Doug Jepsen scoring from the

Allen Opens Season With Victory

The Allen High Eagles celebrated a victory Friday night at home by tossing the coach and a few in-lucky onlookers into the showers after the game. The Blue and Gold were happy over a 27-0 win over Wynot, the win assuring them of a good season as last year when AHS won a single game.

A different prospect faces the high-flying Eagles this Friday. They face Winside, a team that will be bouncing back from a loss on the WHS gridiron to Emerson-Hubbard.

Wynot was playing 11-man ball for the first time Friday. While showing ability at times, the visitors simply did not have the horses to stay even with Allen once the Eagles found themselves, the winners' blocking and tackling improving as the game wore on.

The first quarter went scoreless. Wynot kicked to Craig Schultz on the 21, Schultz returning to the 43. Jim Ellis gained 5, Kevin Hill 2, Schultz 8, Hill 6 and 3 and Wynot took over on a fumble recovery. Three plays produced 17 yards, 11 on a completed pass, and Larry Carr gave Allen possession by recovering a Wynot fumble on the 43.

Schultz went for 5, Alan Smith 3, Ellis 3, Hill 2 and 2, Schultz 6, 8 and 10, Ellis 1 and Smith 1 before the quarter ended and WHS took over on their own 21. The visitors were is the only other Allen player identified but there sure seem to be a lot of Wynot boys coming after Schultz.

returning to the 35. Ellis gained 9 on a key block by Rasmussen but Allen gained one of its numerous penalties, 15 yards. Hill turned groans into cheers the next play, scooting 42 yards to paydirt. Ellis had to go 7 yards for the extra point after a penalty and it was 20-0. Just before the quarter ended, Smith kicked to the 26. WHS returned to the 30, gained 3 yards in three plays and quick-kicked on third down to the Allen 11 in a brilliant ground-gaining maneuver. Smith bulled through for 3 and 6, Ellis 4 and then 33 and 4. Allen was forced to kick, the ball going to the 28 and being returned to the 36. Lanser and Smith threw the Blue and White back 7, they had to kick and the ball went straight up, coming down on the line of scrimmage.

Schultz gained 6 but a penalty cost 15. Schultz passed to Hill for 13 and ran for 14. Hill gained 2 but with the ball on the Wynot 3 Allen fumbled, Wynot recovering. Two plays later Hank intercepted on the 12 and again Allen scored on an intercepted pass. Reserves went in and the game was over after Wynot gained 33 yards on a pass play.

Allen was penalized 85 yards, garnering eight five-yard penalties on infractions. These penalties cost possession and possible scores at times. Mike Prescott led Coach

School Patrol Gets New Hours of Duty

The crossing patrols for school children at Seventh and Main and Seventh and Sherman have new hours. From the length of time school has been in session it has become apparent that the original hours were not ideal.

No patrol will be offered at Seventh and Main during the noon hour. So many youngsters are staying for lunch, there is virtually no one to assist in crossing Main.

In the afternoon the children are taking longer than expected to get to the crossings so the patrol hours have been lengthened 15 minutes. In the morning the children are getting to Seventh and Main before they do Seventh and Sherman so the patrol is needed at Main before it is needed at Sherman.

Supt. Francis Haun, Mrs. Mary Ann Larsen and Mrs. Bernice Locking have worked out a new schedule. The times will be in effect until notice of change is given. In the morning at Seventh and Main the patrol will be on duty 8:05 to 8:40. At Seventh and Sherman the patrol functions 8:15 to 8:40. At noon the patrol will be on duty at Sherman Street only 11:20 to 1. In the afternoon both crossings will be patrolled 3:30 to 4:30 15 minutes longer than before.

Final Rites for Mrs. Buskirk at Wakefield Church

Funeral services for Mrs. George Buskirk, 80, were held Sept. 9 at the Wakefield Christian Church. Mrs. Buskirk died Sept. 6 at her home in Wakefield.

Pastor Merlin Wright officiated at the services. Music included "Face to Face" and "In the Sweet By and By" sung by Mrs. Per Pearson. Merle Ring was organist. Pallbearers were Roy Wiggins, Bryan Johnson, Kenneth Packer, Maurice Olson, Chauncey Agler and Ivar Carlson. Burial was in Wakefield Cemetery.

Grace Elizabeth Dawes, daughter of Charles Edward and Etha Naomi Dawes, was born Jan. 15, 1887, near Running Water, S.D. At the age of five she came with her parents and younger sister to Dixon County. They traveled by covered wagon and crossed the Missouri River on a pontoon bridge. The family lived a short while near Allen, later purchasing a farm east of Wakefield.

In 1904 she finished Wakefield High School and in 1907 graduated from the teachers' course at Fremont Normal. She taught in rural schools for six years.

June 29, 1910, she was married to George Buskirk, jr., of Leslie Precinct, Wayne County, at the Christian Church parsonage in Fremont. They lived on a farm in that precinct until 1937 when they purchased the A. E. Nimrod farm southwest of Wakefield, where she lived until 1962. She became a member of the Christian Church in 1902 and served as a Sunday school teacher, as superintendent and in various other offices. She had been a newspaper correspondent about 50 years and was first secretary and a charter member of Wakefield Hospital Auxiliary. For 17 years she was a member of Pleasant Valley Aid, Leslie.

Mr. Buskirk died Mar. 14, 1962. A grandson, Gaylin Buskirk, also preceded her in death.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Victor (Arlene) Trook, Denver; a son, Clare Buskirk, Lincoln; a sister, Mrs. Wallace Ring, Wakefield; and three grandchildren.

KTIV Salutes Wayne

KTIV, Channel 4, Sioux City, will salute Wayne, Wednesday, Sept. 13, on the 6 p.m. newscast. The station salutes area communities each week under sponsorship of a Sioux City bank, State National Bank, Wayne, and Wanda Owens, Wayne C. of C. manager, furnished information for use on the telecast telling about Wayne. Pictures of buildings and scenes and information on the city, college and county have been furnished.

Housing -

The question submitted to the city council and offered to the public is whether to build units (number unspecified, so far). Costs would be paid by rents, according to WIA. Any deficit would be made up from government housing funds, thus "no additional financial burden upon the local taxpayers and without adding to the bonded indebtedness of the City or the County."

There is some opposition to the plan, but both those in favor and those opposed have been lax in turning in opinions or facts. Some of those expressing opposition have been asked to turn in their information for publication, while the ones in favor have promised a report following Saturday's meeting.

There are only two issues of The Herald before election. Considerable information is needed before any further writeups can be carried, those so far being based solely on the reports prepared by the members of Wayne Housing Authority prior to the decision to ask for a vote on the issue.
