Hoskins Farmer Loses Foot

Art Schellpeper, farmer living six miles east of Hoskins, lost his right foot Friday afternoon in an accident involving a power-take-off. He was working alone at the time.
His foot was caught in the power shaft while grinding corn. Fortunately, he was able to shut the tractor off or it might have been even worse.
Mrs. Schellpeper was in the house. About one-half hour after the mishap, she came out to feed the chickens and heard her husband calling.
She went to the phone to call for the Hoskins Rescue Squad and at the same time Richard Miller, a neighbor just north of them, picked up the phone to make a call. He heard the call for a rescue unit and rushed over to help, arriving before the rescue squad did.

Miller, a son of Schellpeper, Stanley, of Stanton, and a hired man were unable to get the leg free. Finally, with rescue unit members helping, they removed the shaft and all, and took Schellpeper to Lutheran Hospital Norfolk.
Doctors said they had done the best thing possible. However, they had to amputate the right foot between the knee and the ankle.
Schellpeper is in Lutheran Hospital. Further information on his condition will be carried in Thursday's paper.

Allen Schrant Fund Goes Over $750

The Allen Schrant fund set up at Farmers State Bank, Carroll, has passed the $750 mark. Donations have come in from friends as well as from people who have never seen or heard of him before.
Contributions will continue to be received at the bank. All donations will be turned over to the Schrant family to help cover hospital costs, the family having no insurance to cover his stay of over a month and doctors fees following the loss of both hands in a corn husking mishap.

Something they acknowledge and face with courage and conviction that things will work out all right.
Donations not reported previously include: From Wayne, Adon Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Heeg, Chris and Edna Tietgen, Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, Lloyd Straight, David Rees, Vern Schultz; from Carroll, Pamela Olson, Mrs. Edith Cook, Dean Owens, Mrs. Minnie Sals, Adolph Kraft, Harry Nelson, Wayne Kerstine, William Swanson, Ted Winterstein;

From Winside, Carl Troutman, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Haller, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinemann, Lloyd Behmer, Mrs. Dennis Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Janke; from Wakefield, Dick Sandahl; from Randolph, Daryl Grandfield; from Howells, Mrs. Jesse Miller; from Norfolk, Irvin A. Nelson; from Pilger, Orville D. Lage, Mr. and Mrs. Daly Carson, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lovert, Mrs. Arlene Jackson, Howard Lorenson and Theo Otten.

Wayne in 'Vo-Tech Finals'

Wayne and four other communities have been chosen unanimously as the five cities in Northeast Nebraska from which the site for the Northeast area vocational-technical school will be chosen.

Jan. 25. No schedule other than the dates has been set as yet. The governors will travel to Milford and Hastings Dec. 11 to visit the vocational schools there.

Doctors' Advice on Cancer Trusted

Wayne County Cancer Society reports people really trust their doctors when it comes to advice on cancer. Most people asked, agreed that if their doctor recommended an annual check-up for cancer, they would get one.
In fact, 90 per cent of those asked, indicated they would go for a check-up if a doctor advised one. Even those who do not have regular check-ups said they would go for check-ups any time their doctor suggested one.
Regular cancer tests were suggested, but some of those in a survey said they did not know how their doctor felt about such tests. If they found out, they would abide by their own doctor's decision.
Some said their doctor never mentioned regular cancer checks so they did not give them much thought. This indicates, WCCS reports, that the people rely on their doctors to bring up the idea

Colombia Lady at Winside

A 22-year-old lady from Bucaramanga, Colombia, South America, is charming the residents of Winside these days. She is Nhora Cardoza, who will spend three months in Winside and then three months in Wisconsin as a student and teacher.
She is to live six weeks with the Walt Bleich family and six weeks with the Charles Jackson family. She is in Winside through cooperation with the National Foreign Language Teacher Aide Program.

In Colombia, Miss Cardoza was one of hundreds who put their names in to come to the United States. Everyone was carefully screened and then the top candidates were chosen to come to schools that had indicated an interest in participating in the program. Mrs. Schmitt and Supt. James Christensen made arrangements at WHS.

Miss Cardoza wants to stay in America at least a year after she completes her obligations in Winside and Wisconsin. When she returns to Colombia she wants to teach English in a school operated by her mother. The Los Laureles School has 100 pupils in all grades.
The Colombian lady likes little towns. In fact, her mother has a farm similar to a village square and she is used to rural life. She thinks she would like to ride American horses, but she would also like to slow down, finding Americans leading a dizzying

Plan Music Concert

The first middle school concert in Wayne is scheduled Thursday, Dec. 14, under the direction of Bonnie Vandegrift. Fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils will take part. Details on the concert will be given later.

Rural Lighting Contest Announced

Wayne County Public Power District is sponsoring an outdoor Christmas lighting contest again this year. Three subdivisions have been set up and first, second and third prizes will be awarded in each.
Prizes will range in value from $5 to $15. In addition, a $25 grand prize will go to the display judged best in the entire district served by WCPPD.
This is the third year the power district has conducted a display contest for those served with power through company lines. Deadline for entries is Dec. 19, entry blanks having been sent out the past week.

Entries will be judged on theme (religious or traditional), layout lighting and originality. Judges will be picked from outside the area served to visit all farms where lighting displays have been set up.

Give 4-H Awards Tuesday

The annual 4-H achievement program in Wayne County will be held Tuesday, Dec. 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Wayne City Auditorium. A social hour will follow the program.
Top awards will be three trophies and three bracelets, all to girls. In the over-14 age group, trophies will be awarded for the top girls in foods, home living and clothing. For those under 14, bracelets will be awarded to the top girls in those same three categories.
Gloria Pollard, president of the Wayne County 4-H Council, will be master of ceremonies. Program numbers will include a discussion of his European tour by Donald Liedman, songs by the Modern Misses 4-H Club directed by Mrs. Paul Dangberg, and presentation of awards by County Agent Harold Ingalls and Area Agent Margaret Stahly.

Medals will be awarded in the following categories (numbers following indicating the number of winners): Achievement 4; agricultural 4; beef 4; bread 4; clothing 4; conservation of natural resources 2; dairy 4; dairy foods 1; dog care and training 4; Dress revue 17; entomology 2; field crops science 4; food preservation 1; forestry 1; health 4; home improvement 4; home management 4; horses 4; horticulture 4; leadership 4; photography 3; poultry 1; safety 4; swine 4; public speaking 2; boys' records 1; market beef 1; news reporter 1; dairy foods 1.
Medals are being provided by Ford, International Harvester, DuPont, Standard Brands, Coats & Clark, John Deere, Oliver, Carnation Co., Ralston Purina, Simplicity Patterns, Hercules Inc., General Foods, Kerr Glass Corp., American Forest Products Industries, Eli Lilly, S & H Foundation, Tupperware, Merck, Allis-Chalmers, Sears Roebuck, Eastman Kodak, Heisdorf & Nelson Farms, General Motors, Moorman Feeds, Pure Oil, Folger's Coffee, Safeway Stores, Omaha World-Herald and American Dairy Association.

Plays Still Running

Three one-act plays are still running at Wayne State College under sponsorship of the drama department. "Tonight at Eight" is the annual production, this year's one-act plays include "Snow Angel," "Objective Case," and "Bedtime Story." They will be presented area style in Ramsey Theatre Monday and Tuesday nights after the opening night presentation Sunday. Reservations may be made by calling 375-9985. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

No Winners Either Night in Drawings

There were no Silver Dollar Night winners the past week. Names were drawn both Thursday and Friday nights.
Thursday, Mrs. Howard Weber, Randolph, was drawn for $150. Because she was not in Wayne, the amount in the fund this coming Thursday will be $200.
The following night, Mrs. Arnold Bartels, Belden, was drawn for a $100 prize. Since she was not here to claim the money, next Friday the drawing will be for $150.

Registration of Voters Low

Less than one-half the eligible voters in Wayne County were registered as of Dec. 1, County Clerk Norris Weible reports. This includes around 1,200 who registered Tuesday and Wednesday at six points throughout the county and 700 who registered at the clerk's office at other times.
Republicans have a 2; to 1 edge over Democrats. There are 1,397 Republicans, 526 Democrats and 62 Independents registered in the county.
According to Weible, there should be over 4,000 qualified voters in the county. He said some probably are undecided which party to register for, some did not get around to register on the right day and some simply forgot about it.
Of course, there is still time to register for the May primary but May 3 is the final date. Anyone not registered by then will not be eligible to vote at the primary.

Weible said he did not want a last-minute rush of registrations since his office is busy enough just before elections anyway. He said anyone wishing to register can stop by his office in the courthouse and fill out one of the forms any of the regular weekday office hours.
Here is how the registrations went at the various sites (Republicans first, Democrats second and Independents third): Altona, 56, 16, 3; Hoskins, 152, 30, 11; Winside, 192, 67, 5; Carroll, 103, 50, 0; Wayne, 894, 363, 43.
The figures do not necessarily mean the number of voters in a town or precinct. There was nothing to keep someone from another precinct registering at site outside his own precinct.
Independents will get little choice at primary elections. They will not get Republican ballots or Democratic ballots but just those for non-political offices. Republicans will get Republican ballots and Democrats will get Democratic ballots. Both will also get non-political ballots.

According to the county clerk, the registration went off without a hitch at all the sites, thanks to some efficient registrars. He had no trouble at any of the registration offices.
Mrs. Gerald Bruggeman, Mrs. Ernest Fenske and Mrs. George Langenberg, Jr., were added to Hoskins registrars. Others were Mrs. Ed Winters and Mrs. Clarence Hoemann. Also registering were Mrs. Arlene Zoffka, Mrs. Kenneth Brockmoller, Mrs. Frank Weible and Mrs. George Gahl, Winside; Mrs. Bob Johnson, Mrs. John Borgquist, Mrs. Keith Owen and Mrs. John Baas, Carroll; Mrs. Dean Pierson, Mrs. Harold Olson, Mrs. Jack March, Mrs. Cleo Sharer, Mrs. Arvid Marks, Mrs. Jerry Dorsey and Mrs. Paul Rockwell, Wayne; and Mrs. Helen Weible and Mrs. Leo Hansen, Altona.

Speech Therapy Work Offered Many

Harry Mills, Wakefield, administrator for Educational Service Unit One, reports several hundred pupils in the six-county district are to get speech therapy. The actual program was started after testing was conducted in all schools.
Raymond Ernster, Wayne, has tested 1,588 pupils and found 254 with speech problems in the Randolph, Coleridge, Laurel, Wayne and Winside areas. Mrs. Donald Beckman, Pender, tested 1,455 pupils and found 171 with a need for speech therapy in the Allen, Wakefield, Pender, Rosalie, Walhill, Winnebago and Emerson areas.
Mrs. Beckman has started work with 70 pupils and the rest will be put on a waiting list. Ernster will work with 90 pupils with the rest on a waiting list. Other specialists are at work in areas of the district outside this immediate area. A total of 1,114 were found to be needing speech help.

Ernster tested 60 at Belden and found 9 speech cases; Concord, 30 and 2; Dixon, 56 and 6; Hoskins Trinity, 76 and 13; Hoskins Public, 85 and 11; Laurel, 171 and 34; Wayne St. Mary's, 78 and 6; Wayne Elementary, 197 and 28; Wayne rural, 67 and 8; Sholes rural, 82 and 10; Carroll, 67 and 13; Altona rural, 71 and 5; Winside, 94 and 20; Winside rural, 50 and 7; Leslie District 25, 84 and 7; Randolph Catholic, 122 and 22; Randolph Public, 102 and 36.
Mrs. Beckman tested 153 at Allen and found 18 speech cases;

Pender, 102 and 20; Wakefield, 166 and 29; Wakefield High, 82 and 5; Dixon County rural, 118 and 13; and Thurston County rural, 236 and 21.
The reading consultant in Wayne, Mrs. Helen James, has contacted all K-12 systems on special reading programs. She has been requested to visit many schools a second and third time and has held workshops for elementary schools in many localities.
Also in Wayne, Dean Dartman, art consultant, has visited many schools and demonstrated art projects. He has been involved with workshops the past month and there have been many requests for his services.

Files For Senate

K. K. Mitchell, Allen, filed the past week for state senate for District 17. He would represent Dakota, Dixon and Wayne counties in the unicameral if elected.
Mitchell was a resident of Wayne County 14 years prior to becoming a resident of Dixon County. He is a graduate of Carroll High School and Wayne State College and holds a master's degree from the University of Nebraska.
He was superintendent of schools at Hoskins and Wynot before going to Allen, where he was superintendent for many years. He is presently secretary of the board of directors of Nebraska State Bank, South Sioux City.
Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell (she is the former Faye Bacon, South Sioux City) reside on a farm near Allen.

The Spook Speaks

A Wayne businessman reports this telephone conversation. He called an Omaha office for information. The woman in Omaha asked what he wanted. He told her the information he needed and she replied: "Just a second and I'll have it in a minute."
Relatives from Atkinson and Butte were enroute to Wakefield for a reunion. Another flew to Omaha first, the others going by car. One group, not knowing he went by air, were driving by the Wayne airport. One commented that the plane coming in sure looked like the one their relative flew. They turned around, waited for it to taxi over. The pilot stepped out, walked over to their car and rode to Wakefield, praising the service the Wayne airport has to offer, saving him a call to Wakefield and a trip over here by someone to pick him up.
A Wayne hunter went up on the Missouri River above Ponca to hunt. Out in the middle of the river the motor coughed out. It was 5 a.m., cold and he was alone but he kept oars stowed in the boat for just such emergencies. Then he found someone had taken the oars. All he could do was drift and the current sent his boat turning around and around as it carried him along. Two hours later he was below Sioux City and finally attracted another hunter's attention by yelling near decoys. The other hunter brought him and his boat in. The Wayne hunter then had to pay $7 to get towed back to where his car and trailer were, paid $19 to have the boat motor fixed and hadn't taken a single shot.

Award Contracts for Highway Construction

The state highway department awarded contracts for construction of new highway from Wayne south for 8.3 miles Friday. The new road is scheduled to go to the Cumling-Stanton county line.
Dobson Brothers, Lincoln, received the principal contract, $238,128 for asphalt surface, shoulder construction and related work. Thieson Bros., Osmond, bid $64,410 for grading work.
Einung Sand & Gravel, Wayne, bid $5,332 for the gravel for detour during construction; Gerhold Co., bid $58,343 for paving; C & H Construction, Fremont, bid $69,887 for culverts; and Hill Sand & Gravel, Polk, bid $6,688 for guard rail.

Winside Club Seeks More Lighted Homes

Winside Federated Women's Club is seeking more lighted homes for the Christmas season. Displays of all types will be judged for three cash prizes to be awarded by the club.
Judging will take place Monday, Dec. 18, at 7 p.m. All homes that have decorations lit up that night will be judged.
Members want to have out-of-town judges determine the best displays on the basis of originality, appropriateness and effort. They hope this year Winside will have more homes decorated than ever before.

Santa's House Open Again in Wayne

Santa Claus has set up residence in his little house on Main Street in Wayne. He will be there each night the stores are open.
Visitors to Wayne are asked to bring their children to the little house located on the east side of Main between Second and Third. Santa will have treats for all children stopping to see him.
Stores will be open Thursday and Friday nights of this week until 9. Next week, stores will be open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights and the week after that will be open Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights.

Silver Dollar Night drawings will be held each Thursday and Friday night. Minimum amount to be won will be $100 each of the nights. However, they can build up if there is no winner.
The Canyon Kid will be in Wayne Saturday, Dec. 16, from 10 until noon. He will be giving away prizes, conducting contests and entertaining the youngsters for two hours, giving parents a chance to shop.

Leader Dogs for Blind Offered Homes

Two Leader Dogs have been placed in Wayne and three more are available. Five-month-old German Shepherd pups, they will be raised until 12 to 14 months old and then be trained to lead the blind.
The project is being sponsored by the Wayne Lions Club. Ted Bahe and Stan Smith have taken pups at their homes and Smith is looking for three more homes, preferably with children, where pups will be raised.
Leader dogs are picked from friendly, healthy pups. German Shepherds are chosen many times as they are willing to lead out, accept responsibility, are good-looking and are accustomed to being around people.

"Foster owners" may teach commands to "come," "sit" and "down" but not "heel." Dogs are to be come used to leashes while in homes here.
When these pups are ready for school, they will be shipped to Rochester, Mich. First phase of training is obedience school, then basic training on the streets of Rochester where they observe curbs, pedestrians, parking meters, low awnings, traffic and other hazards.

Advanced training takes place in Pontiac, Mich. Problems of confusing situations, heavy traffic, crowded areas, revolving doors, elevators and noisy construction are confronted.
Following this, the blind person to get the Leader Dog trains for four weeks with him. "Graduation" means a man or woman can go out with confidence to school, work and a freer life.
What the Wayne Lions Club and local "foster owners" are doing is a small token of the entire job. It costs almost $2,000 to train each dog and the new blind owner.
Should any dog not "graduate," the people who raised that dog may have him back or the dog will be placed in a good home somewhere.

In this district of Nebraska, only four dogs were available last year and all four are now in school. The Wayne Lions Club considers this a real challenge to the club and people so the members are hoping they can get these other three dogs placed in homes for the next few months.
Anyone who would be interested, town or rural, should contact Stanley Smith, Wayne. He can supply further information on the program.

Ponca Tumbles Allen in Basketball

Ponca hosted Allen Friday night on the PHS court, taking most honors. In varsity basketball the Indians won 76-56 and in volleyball two out of three sets. Only in reserve basketball did AHS prevail, winning 43-30.

Another double-header is coming up Friday and Saturday for the Eagles. They play at home Friday against Pilger and travel to Homer Saturday.

The varsity contest was a great game until Allen's starters began fouling out. The Eagles lost Mike Roeber, David Abts and Rick Hank when trailing by from 2-5 points and Ponca took advantage of the situation to pull away.

Roeber had led the team in rebounds with 21 and was one of the two leading scorers. Hank and Abts were also among the top scorers and Hank had led the team in ball-stealing.

Other rebounds for AHS included 6 each by Abts and Charles Geiger, Alan Smith 4, Jim Ellis 3, Hank 2 and John Abts and Bob Mitchell 1. In steals, Hank had 5, Ellis 3, Roeber, Smith and Kevin Hill 1. In assists, Smith and Hank had 3, Ellis and Hill 2 and Roeber and Geiger 1.

Roeber and Smith each hit 14 points to lead Eagle scoring. Jim Ellis was right behind with 11. For Ponca, Terry Potter had 20, Randy Bottorff 18, Dale Johnson 14 and Jeff Knerl 12 for a well-balanced attack.

The lead had changed hands nine times and the score had been tied four times until Ponca went ahead 36-35 in the third period. Allen caught up one, tying the count at 48-all and then dropping back with three men going out on fouls. Ponca outscoring the Blue and Gold 28-9 from that point on.

Allen led 14-11 after one quarter and 31-27 at halftime. Ponca was in front 46-44 at the end of three periods and outscored the visitors 30-13 the final stanza.

In reserve ball, Ponca led 6-5 after one quarter and 16-15 at the half. Allen led 28-24 after three periods and outscored the host team 15-6 the last period. In one stretch Allen outscored Ponca 18-4 to move from a 24-21 deficit to a 39-28 lead.

Bob Meyer was the leading rebounder at both ends of the court. In scoring, Dennis Geiger and Loren Reuter each had 11, Meyer 9, Tom Maggart 6, Bob Mitchell 4 and Jon Abts 2. For Ponca, Lynn Lockwood had 10 and Wayne Morrow, Phil Lowe, Kelly Asmussen, Blair Lockwood and Warren Wood 4 each.

In volleyball, Allen won the first set 15-8 but Ponca won the next two 15-10 and 15-8. Barb Rastede was offensive star and Jill Fahrenholz defensive star for Allen. Rastede had 12 serves for points, Kathy Jackson 9, Fahrenholz 6, Sue Thomas 4 and Margaret Ankeny 1.

Following is the varsity box score:

Allen Teachers Hunt

Three Allen High School teachers went hunting in the Black Hills area of South Dakota last week. They were deer hunting with rifles in the Hill City region. Noelyn Isom brought back a five-point buck that weighed around 160 pounds dressed; Larry Ahrendt brought back a two-point buck dressing out at 110 pounds; and Leroy Wilch bagged a spike buck that dressed out at 100 pounds.

Laurel Here Thursday

Laurel cage teams will be here Thursday, Dec. 7, for two games. The Wayne High freshmen coached by Ron Carnes will play at 4. This will be followed by a junior high game with Hank Overlin the coach for the locals. The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

ALLEN HIGH SCHOOL has one of the largest FFA chapters in Nebraska. All posed for a picture last week with Adviser Roger Sandman. Around 10 are graduate members and Jim Mitchell was the only AHS member not present.
Second row, Tom McCoy, Mike Goodwin, Dave Abts, Paul Calvert, Alan Smith, Jerry Schroeder, Jerry Roberts, Randy Crombie;

Third row, Bill Sachau, Joe Ankeny, Richard Gensler, Bob Smith, Jon Rastede, Richard Kraemer, Jerry Warner, Bart Jorgensen, Loren Reuter, John Abts;
Fourth row, Dennis Hagan, Dan Kavanaugh, Kenton Emry, Dan Rooney, Dan Noe, Bill Rooney, John Smith, David Geiger, Dale Strivens, Jerome Roberts;
Fifth row, Mike Isom, Bruce Trube, Larry Carr, Bob Anderson, Gene Linafelter, Loren Puckett and Lynn Mattes

ALAN SMITH went up for two points against Ponca as Mike Roeber (25) watched. Attempting to block the shot was Jeff Knerl.

Carroll Drivers Have Bad Week

Nov. 24-29 was a bad week for Carroll area drivers. They had three accidents, two of them involving farm animals.

Mrs. Clair Swanson was the first to hit animals on the road. Nov. 24 she was coming over a hill just 20 rods from home on Highway 57 two miles south of Carroll, when she saw hogs in the road.

She was unable to avoid them all, hitting one, which was killed. The car was overturned. Although the car is thought to be a total wreck, men managed to set it upright and Swanson drove it the rest of the way home.

The hog belonged to a neighbor, Vermont Nelson. Mrs. Swanson had a stiff neck and Swanson was uninjured. Trooper H. Nielsen investigated.

Nov. 26, Delmar Eddie, Carroll, was northbound on a Cedar County road north of Belden. He collided with an eastbound car driven by Ladonna Biernbaum, Belden, who was accompanied by two younger sisters.

The right rear side of the Biernbaum car had about $300 damage and Eddie's car was considered a total loss. No one was injured but all three girls were shaken up. Nebraska State Patrol investigated.

At 11:15 on a foggy night Nov. 29, John Williams and his wife, Carroll, were southbound on Highway 57 just 1.7 miles north of Carroll. A black heifer weighing 350 pounds and owned by George Owens, Norfolk, crossed the road in front of the Williams car. He was unable to avoid it.

The heifer, valued at $115, was killed. About $300 damage was done to the Williams car. No one was injured, according to the report made by the investigating sheriff's department officer.

WS Club Has Election

The Spanish Club of Wayne State has elected and installed officers for the coming year. They are Leonor Reyes, Sioux City, president; Yolande Cole, Sioux City, vice-president; Elizabeth Ridaio, Kahului, Hawaii, secretary; and Jean Stading, South Sioux City, treasurer.

JOHN REES, Carroll, brought in top with market hogs on the Sioux City market one day in November. The hogs weighed an average of 208 pounds and sold at $18 per hundred.

Has Concord Air View

Another town in the area has aerial views on calendars. Win-side Community Club put calendars out with color pictures of the town for the 1968 calendars. Concord Produce, now Farmers Supply, has put out calendars for 1968 with an aerial view of Concord and the Dixon County Fairgrounds. There is a limited number of these for distribution.

Allen's FFA Ranks Among State Tops

The Allen Future Farmers of America chapter is one of the largest in the state, according to Roger Sandman, adviser. In addition to around 50 boys in school as members, there are ten AHS graduates who are maintaining membership. Rules allow FFA members to keep on with chapter work even after graduating until they are 21 years old. Several boys have chosen to do this and continue with projects and work in FFA. The Allen chapter is planning a civic project. New "Welcome to Allen" signs will be purchased, one to be put north of town and the other south of town, both on Highway 9. A new banner is also to be purchased. It will be used in various displays and activities of the chapter. Larry Carr, Bob Anderson, Wayne Rasmussen and Bill Sachau were delegates to the recent national convention in Kansas City. At the last meeting of the chapter, they reported on their observations and activities among several thousand FFA members.

Winside's Pep Club

Will Have New Look

Winside High School's Pep Club will have a new look by the first of the year. The Pep Club members are making new uniforms, the varsity cheerleaders have new uniforms and the reserve cheerleaders are getting new uniforms.

According to the club sponsor, Judene Zechin, the girls in the Pep Club are responsible for getting their own uniforms. Some are making them and others are having them made.

They will have A-line skirts, vest and white long-sleeve blouses. Varsity cheerleaders wore their new outfits Friday and Saturday nights and the reserve cheerleaders are to have their new outfits soon.

S. Grone - G. Clinch Set February Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grone, Wayne, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sharon Kay, to Gerald J. Clinch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Clinch, Madison.

Miss Grone, a graduate of Wayne High School and Lincoln School of Commerce is presently employed as secretary for F. Don MacLay, superintendent of Norfolk Public Schools. Her fiancé is a graduate of Burns High School, Norfolk, and is engaged in farming. He is serving with the National Guard. A late February wedding is being planned.

Police Activity Slow

Police activity has been slower than usual the past week. In addition to three accidents, the only other reports on the police record include a report of hubcaps being taken from a car and two business places being left unlocked at night. Routine patrol, door check and traffic and parking work have also been accomplished.

Icy Roads Put Cars

Off Hoskins Highway

Icy roads caused many cars to leave the road near Hoskins Wednesday. Full reports have not come in to the Nebraska State Patrol yet, however. The patrol station at Norfolk said troopers received numerous calls from people in the Hoskins area due to cars going off the road. Full reports were not expected until Sunday.

Trooper C. Hoeman did report on one accident just east of Hoskins on Highway 35. Stanley Reiss, Norfolk, turned over when he hit an icy patch. There was no injuries and no estimate was given on damage to the car.

Blue Devils Lose Season Opener Friday

The Wayne High Blue Devils opened the basketball season on a sour note Friday night by losing a 60-50 contest to Blair at the WSC Rice Auditorium. Only five points separated the two teams at the half but Wayne was unable to erase the deficit in the final sixteen minutes.

Blair's height advantage was evident from the start of the game as the Bears jumped to a 18-10 lead in the first quarter. The margin was reduced to five points in the second stanza as Coach Dick Nelson's cagers fought to a 28-23 halftime score. Dave Tietgen and Harry Lindner led Wayne's scoring attack in the second period with four points apiece.

Again in the third quarter Blair's rebounding power on both offense and defense was the determining factor as Wayne fell further behind. The Blue Devils began a full-court press with 1:58 remaining in the third stanza but the period ended with Wayne trailing 41-27.

In the fourth quarter Wayne's press hampered Blair's scoring attack as the Blue Devils managed to close the gap to 10 points before time ran out. Gordie Jorgensen led Wayne's last-quarter offensive attack with eight points. Jorgensen and Lynn Lessmann were Wayne's leading scorers with 15 and 14 points respectively. Dave Tietgen led the Blue Devils under the boards with six rebounds. Jorgensen followed with five.

Wayne's B Team won its season opener with a 46-31 victory over Blair. Harry Lindner led Coach Don Johnson's cagers in scoring with 13 points. He was followed by Randy Helgren with 10, Bernie Binger with 8, Les Echtenkamp and Chuck Fisher with 4 apiece, Ted Armbruster with 3 and Dennis Redel and Mike Billoft with 2 apiece.

Lindner was also the leading rebounder with 8. He was followed by Binger with 5, Echtenkamp with 4, Helgren, Fisher, Redel, Armbruster, Billoft, Doug Sturm and Bruce Pflueger with 2 apiece and Jerry Titze and Terry Ellis with 1 apiece.

Both Wayne High teams will travel to David City Friday, Dec. 8 and to Laurel Tuesday, Dec. 12.

Norma Lutt of Fort Lauderdale, Florida has been visiting with friends and relatives in this vicinity for the past 10 days. She left Nov. 30 by plane from Omaha. She is presently employed as a surgical nurse in a Fort Lauderdale hospital. Norma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lutt, Wayne.

Dave Bross on All-Star Team

Dave Bross, stalwart for Wayne State football defense, has received one more honor this season. He was named to the NAIA District 11 (Nebraska) All-Star first team as a defensive end.

Bross, a senior from Minneapolis, made the All-Nebraska College Conference team earlier and also was the Wayne team's choice as most valuable player on defense.

Three other Wildcats received honorable mention on the district team: offensive end Roger Parr, Scribner, defensive tackle Darrell Fenton, Aurora, Ill., and cornerback Ron Fox, Ponca.

The selection committee found the depth of talent at end so plentiful that they named three ends on both the defensive and offensive units. Nominees from 10 NAIA colleges were considered. Kearney State and Omaha each landed seven on the 24-player "dream team" while Doane had six, Chadron State two, Wayne and Peru one each.

Winside Home Ec Girls

On Norfolk Field Trip

Junior and senior girls in home economics classes at Winside High School took a field trip to Norfolk Wednesday, Nov. 22. Judene Zechin, teacher of the classes, reports it was part of class work on kitchen equipment in connection with general foods course. Home decorating and housing are next to be studied so information on them was also gained.

The girls visited a jewelry store where they were shown china, crystal, silver and table settings. At a furniture store, they toured the displays and had a discussion of furniture styles and selection.

At a mobile home sales outlet, the classes went through various sizes and styles of mobile homes to see how the professionals plan decorating and maximum use of space.

November Ends With Seek Addresses

November came to an end Wednesday and Thursday with a trio of traffic mishaps. No one was injured, according to police department records.

Nov. 29 in the 200 block on Windom, Barton Beatty, Lexington, was backing up. The bumper of his car caught the bumper of a parked panel truck owned by Shrader-Allen Hatchery, damaging the truck's front bumper and the rear quarter panel of the car. Officer Ron Penlerick investigated.

The following day, across the street east from the post office on Pearl Street, Leona Bahde, Wayne, parked her car. Unknowingly, she left it in gear and the car jumped the curb and hit the bicycle rack in front of the fire hall. Chief Vern Fairchild investigated, listing $50 damage to the car.

The same day at Fifth and Sherman, Chief Fairchild investigated an accident in which Alice Hollman, Wayne, stopped at a stop sign, decided to back up in order to make a left turn and backed into the car of Harold Brenden, Norfolk, who had also stopped. Damages were estimated at $50 to the Norfolk car and $15 to the Wayne vehicle.

Wayne State in NAIA Top Group

A 16th place in the national NAIA cross country meet was Wayne State's achievement Nov. 25 at Omaha. Ironically, it was the first national meet in years that did not have a Wayne runner in the first 20, but the team standing is believed to be Wayne's highest yet.

A. D. Bepson of Wayne finished 49th, far behind his customary pace ("It was just a bad day," he said, without excuses). The other Wildcats were farther back, but the last of them still beat several dozen of the 218 entries.

Two Wayne regulars, Jim Forbes and Larry Baehl, did not compete.

Peru State placed seventh with 196 points, best among Nebraska teams. Wayne's 16th place ranked next best, scoring 486 points, and Kearney State was 17th with 506. Peru's Jack Weyers was the first Nebraska college runner to finish, 14th with a 21:13. Last year Benson was 14th.

Eastern Michigan repeated as team champion, John Mason of Fort Hays State, Kan., was individual winner at 20:14.

Winside to Wrestle Wakefield Wednesday

Coach Bill Essman will send his Winside wrestling team into action Wednesday, Dec. 6. Wakefield will be the opposition in a meet at Winside starting at 7 p.m.

There will be both varsity and reserve wrestling. Plans call for the varsity wrestlers to compete first.

According to Essman, he has 18 wrestlers and will try to have matches in all weight divisions. At present there is no one in WIS to compete in the 127-pound division.

Select Tourney Site

A meeting will be held Tuesday noon to determine the site for the Class B district tournament in this region. The lineup of teams will be slightly different this year. Teams assigned to this area are Bloomfield, Tilden Elkhorn Valley, Norfolk Catholic, Hartington Cedar Catholic, Laurel, Madison, Pierce and Wayne.

Wakefield Takes Winside With Ease

The Winside Wildcats opened their 1967-68 basketball season at Wakefield, only to have their first set back by the Trojans 78-55.

Winside will go to Colorado Dec. 12, head coach Jim Cronk says. "The boys need a little more work" and they'll go on to have a fine winning season.

The opening tip went to Wakefield and the Trojans handled the Wildcats the rest of the game. The Trojans took an early lead and built up a 19-9 first quarter margin, aided by the outside shooting of Gary Preston.

Opening the second quarter the Trojans were still hitting from the field, making their lead a little larger at the intermission break with the score 43-22. Gary Preston contributed 20 points to lead first half scoring.

At the opening of the second half Randy Jacobsen, Keith Wacker, and Bob Wacker all started finding the range but not enough to bring the Wildcats back to contention. The third quarter ended with the Trojans still in the lead 59-37.

The fourth period the Wildcats were still shooting better but were not able to stop Wakefield from hitting, the Trojans keeping their big lead.

High scorers for Winside were Randy Jacobsen with 17, Keith Wacker with 17, and Bob Wacker with 17, for a real well-balanced

There were two cases Nov. 29. Robert McGowan, Ponda, Ia., paid $15 fine and costs on a stop sign violation charge brought by Sgt. Keith Reed.

James Brown, Omaha, also paid $15 fine and costs. His appearance was also on a stop sign violation with Sgt. Reed the complaining officer.

Middle School Class Eats Grecian Style

The English and social studies classes of Miron Jenness, Wayne Middle School, have both been studying Grecian topics. Friday a meal in the style of ancient Greece was eaten.

In English the class is studying Greek mythology. In social studies, Greece has been studied.

Each pupil was assigned to portray a Greek of ancient times for the banquet, some gods, some goddesses, some demigods, some mortals, some immortals. Following the meal a "Twenty Questions" type contest was held to see if others could guess who each was representing.

The meal consisted of fish, unleavened bread, figs, grapes, olives, cheese and wine (unfermented grape juice). Pupils ate sitting up, the one concession to modern customs in contrast to the reclining position Greeks ate in.

TREE SELECTION is an important aspect of extending the life of a Christmas tree, according to Dick Gavitt, extension forester at Northeast Station, Concord. His helpers are Mark and Michelle Kubik and Sally Gavitt.

Christmas Tree Can Last Longer - Gavitt

You can prolong the life of your evergreen tree, Dick Gavitt, extension forester at Northeast Station, Concord, reports. He points out that trees bring a freshness of forests into the home and should be kept in homes longer.

Gavitt suggests getting a tree early, obtaining a fresh-cut tree with green color and needles firmly attached. Trees should be kept moist and fresh by cutting a slanted notch an inch above the original cut and placing the tree in a bucket of water in a cool or moist place, sprinkling each day while in storage. When brought out for display, it should be fireproofed. A good formula for a fireproofing substance is 9 ounces of Borax, 4 ounces of boric acid powder and a gallon of warm water.

This mixture should be sprayed or sprinkled on trees and decorations to get good coverage. Although not absolutely fireproof, it will resist flame.

The tree should be mounted in a stand that has a container for water with the water supply maintained. A tree will use up a lot of water in the home. It will keep needles longer and stay beautiful and more forest-like over a greater period of time with water.

Christensen shot the bobcat when the animal attacked him as he was stalking a turkey. The photograph was reproduced from a colored slide, hence the lack of normal quality.

House, Setting, Sounds Steal Show

An old house, an unusual setting and sound and light effects all but stole the show for "George Washington Slept Here," Wayne school play presented Thursday and Saturday nights. The cast had a lot of fun but the workers behind the scenes had more than average roles in making the play a success.

The back-of-the-scenes workers had to create lightning and thunder, make smoke belch out of a fireplace, dim the lights as a storm gathered, brighten the stage through the windows as the sun came out, indicate tripping over wheelbarrows of manure, sound like cars driving up and creating other effects, all of them quite well.

As for the scenery, it was one room of an old house, but it developed from an uninvited house to a comfortable home by stages. The fireplace, the doorway, the french windows, the thick walls, and all other details were especially well-done, reflecting the artistic ability of the director, Mrs. Sheridan Frey, and the pupils.

In characterizations, the play lacked any really outstanding individuals. Each part was well-handled with Jaha Reeg, Dennis Ellermeier, Steve Carman and Bob Barr probably as outstanding as anyone.

Miss Reeg used facial expressions, hands, feet and body to show emotions. Ellermeier had a small role but he really lived it and was at ease in the portrayal of a smart-aleck boy. Bob Barr's makeup was good and he was easily understood in a small role.

Wayne Musicians to Clinic on Wednesday

Members of the junior and senior bands at Wayne High School will attend a Husker Conference band clinic at Neligh Wednesday, Dec. 6. Don Schumacher, instrumental music instructor, will take 48.

Senior band director will be Dr. Carl Holvig, Northern Iowa University. Junior band director will be Art Jensen, Valley View Junior High, Omaha. A concert open to the public will be given at 7:30 in the NIS auditorium. Senior band members going include: Mary de Freese, piccolo; Jane Predohl and Laurie Wolters, flute; Tom Havener, Diane Olds, Lynn Preston, Ann Haier, Ann Preston, Marcia Ehlers and Steve Carman, clarinets; Mary Jo Cook, Beth Bergt and Cindy Swinney, saxophones; Sue Ehlers, oboe; Jane Owens, bassoon; Mike Olson, Don Skokan and Keith Soden, cornet; Marty Willis, Joan Merchant and Marsha Hansen, horns; Doug Maurer, Seth Swanstrom and John Saha-dahl, trombones; Les Echtenkamp, baritone; Dave Brown, tuba; and Ron Seymour and Peggy Barner, bass.

Junior band members going are: Mary Ellis, Sue Brown and Connie Biltz, flutes; Jerry Manning, Lizanne Ote and Lavonne Beckman, clarinets; Penny Rees, Tim Hansen, and Nancy Robinson, saxophones; Connie Jones and Vickie Proett, oboes; Randy Cathie, cornet; Karen Shirek, Mary Swanstrom and Debbie Keil, horns; Larsee Jones, Terry Meyer and Charles Pierson, trombones; Steve Peterson, baritone; and Mike Marr, tuba.

that he made dominant each time he entered.

Carman was a crochety old man who brought laughs just by walking in. His characterization was excellent.

Ron Seymour had a long part that was well-handled but one offered little change from start to finish. Jeanne Whorlow played a good-looking young girl naturally, perhaps because she is a good-looking young girl.

Jon Merriman as a handy man offered little change of pace once the character part was established. Jo Merriman and Debi Armbruster portrayed characters that were satisfactory but did not offer the opportunity to display the talents these two have shown in previous stage productions at WHS.

Margot McKay played herself. That is, she was to be a charming and cultured person. That's what she is, so it was a case of type-casting. She fit the part.

In smaller roles were Ann Craig, Larry Magnuson, Linda Lesh, Doug Stanley, Marcia Ehlers and Mary Stevenson. None were on stage long enough to establish themselves but while they were on stage they performed capably.

The cast members knew their parts well. Mrs. Frey sat in front of the cast in the audience and watched the play Thursday, indicating the confidence she had in the cast and production crew.

Special credit must go to the make-up department for the work, especially on the cantankerous old uncle, the neighbor and the man who bought the house. It was the first play in the new auditorium and everyone could be heard, indicating no acoustic problems.

This is not her first trip to the United States. She spent three months in Winston-Salem, N. C., as an exchange student. She found it chilly there compared to Colombia but she will find it even cooler at Winside, Nebr., so is getting clothing she will need for the Nebraska and Wisconsin winter.

Miss Cardoza likes games, likes dances and enjoys meeting people. She brought pictures of her beautiful country with its modern cities and she is prepared to speak at meetings. She also has several native costumes to show wherever she speaks.

The versatile young lady flew to Miami by jet and took a bus to Omaha by way of Memphis, Birmingham, St. Louis and Kansas City. At five stops along the way she stayed in American homes, arrangements having been made previously by those in charge of the teachers aide program.

It is obvious she is going to have fun in Winside, but three months are going to go fast and already her "fans" in that community are dreading the fact that she will be leaving at the end of February. However, right now, they consider they are lucky to have her around for even that long.

Hoskins School Has PTO Program Planned

Hoskins Trinity Lutheran School is planning a Christmas program for the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Organization Friday, Dec. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the school. All three rooms will present numbers.

Included in the plans are music, recitations and three original television programs written by pupils in the upper grades. Treats for the pupils and lunch for all are on the schedule.

President Lane Marotz will be in charge. There will be no business session, the program taking the place of the regular December meeting.

In addition to this program, the school is working on a Christmas eve program, according to Principal Roland Menck.

els. Standing are Dennis Downs, Omaha; Gary Willett, Woodbine, Ia.; Bill Butler, Bossert, Clayton Fris, Oakland; Jim Humrich, O'Neill; Ron Dalton, Wausa; Randy Purdy, Crete; Morris Iversen, Mandamin, Ia.; and Jim Watson, Schaller, Ia. Jim Steinke, Council Bluffs, is also a member but is not shown.

Will Answer Queries On Social Security

Robert Swan, representing the Norfolk office of the Social Security Administration, will be in the Wayne County Courthouse Tuesday, Dec. 5, from 1 to 3 p.m. to answer queries about Medicare and social security. Anyone can contact him there without an appointment. He will have a desk set up in the lobby on the main floor of the courthouse.

Those who cannot be at the courthouse for these hours can get answers to questions and help on problems by calling at the Norfolk SSA office in the post office during the regular weekday hours. It is possible to make an appointment to avoid waiting when calling at his office.

FARM AND HOME SECTION
WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1951

...we hope you have a happy one!

by Jerry C. Curren

HAWAII THIS WINTER

Vacations . . . are for memories . . . are for good times . . . shouldn't cost a fortune. Now it's time for the yearly Farm and Home tour to the holiday islands of Hawaii.

This year's tour will be extended one day over those of other years. We will be together for 15 days instead of 14. But the biggest news is the price! This year's tour costs less than the price of the 1967 F&H Hawaiian Holiday.

For example, from Chicago the 1968 Once Upon An Island Hawaiian tour will be $557.00 plus tax per person. Compare that to last year's price of over $700.00!!

And once again only the best hotels . . . only the top accommodations will be utilized. Once again we will fly from the West Coast to Hawaii and return via the world's most experienced airline — Pan American. Once again we will not be spending all of our time in Honolulu, but will go "island hopping" throughout the Hawaiian chain of islands.

The Farm and Home Hawaiian tours over the years have gained a wide and enviable reputation as the most first class, the best conducted, yet the most economical Hawaiian tour being conducted from the Midwest! Ask those who have gone with us in other years, they'll tell you "F&H is the best I've ever been on."

What about departure dates? Well, we know that our Midwesterners like to "get away from it all" — especially the snow — in January and February so we have arranged five departure dates . . . all leave the West Coast on Saturdays . . . and you can choose any of the five following Saturdays: January 27, February 3, February 10, February 17, or February 24.

LOOK WHAT YOU'LL SEE AND DO:

- UPON ARRIVAL IN HONOLULU A BOTTLE OF SPARKLING CHAMPAGNE AWAITS YOU IN YOUR ROOM.
- GUEST AT A "CHAMPAGNE BRUNCH" ON YOUR SECOND DAY IN HONOLULU.
- SOAK UP THE WONDERFUL HAWAIIAN SUN WITH FIVE GLORIOUS DAYS IN HONOLULU SWIMMING ON THE BEACH AT WAIKIKI.
- ATTEND A "CHAMPAGNE COCKTAIL PARTY" ON TUESDAY EVENING IN HONOLULU
- TWO NIGHTS ON THE ISLAND OF KAUAI—THE "GARDEN ISLAND."
- RIVERBOAT EXCURSION OF THE WAILUA RIVER TO FAMOUS "FERN GROTTTO."
- VISIT HAUOLA—CITY OF REFUGE —AND THE ANCIENT TEMPLE OF MALAE HEIAU.
- TWO NIGHTS ON THE ISLAND OF MAUI—THE "VALLEY ISLAND." SCENIC TOUR OF IAO VALLEY.
- KONA—HERE TWO NIGHTS. DELIGHTFUL CRUISE TO CAPTAIN COOK'S MONUMENT INCLUDING A GLASS BOTTOM BOAT TRIP THRU CORAL GARDENS.
- OVERNIGHT AT HILO.
- TRAVEL THRU THE TREE FERN FOREST . . . SEE THE FABULOUS RAINBOW FALLS.
- STOP AT FAMED VOLCANO HOUSE ON THE RIM OF KILAUEA CRATER.
- STAY AT TOP HOTELS IN HONOLULU, KAUAI, MAUI, KONA AND HILO.

Keep in mind, there is not a Hawaiian tour in 1968 from the Midwest—no matter what or who—that is better priced than this year's Farm and Home Once Upon an Island tour of Hawaii. Won't you go with us? I personally guarantee the greatest vacation of your life! (Why not make this your Christmas gift to yourself?)

GRASSROOTS GLEANINGS

by Bill Miller

From The Ripon (Wis.) Commonwealth-Press comes the following: "A sensible girl is more sensible than she looks, because a sensible girl has more sense than to look sensible."

If men had no faith in one another, comments The Sibley (Iowa) Tribune, all of us would have to live within our incomes.

"Teen-age marriages are a risk, but so are the other kind," says the Pipestone (Minn.) County Star.

The Clear Lake (S.D.) Courier defines a high-brow as: A person who enjoys a thing until it becomes popular.

On the subject of men's colognes, The Lima (Ohio) News quotes a cosmetic expert as saying, "In many homes scents are already interchangeable, and the husbands and wives use the same fragrances and deodorants."

First the sexes start to look alike, then they start to smell alike. What next?

The Custer County Chief of Broken Bow, Neb., tells about the doctor who left the following instructions for his patient: "Give him a tranquilizer at three o'clock and my bill at four o'clock."

"Some roads are so bad," says The Clay City (Ind.) News, "that it seems as if the highway departments are promoting detourism."

"It's other folks' dogs and children that make most of the bad feelings between neighbors," claims The Jamestown (N.D.) Sun.

The Winner Advocate of Winner (S.D.), reports that, "A member of the Women's Auxiliary Corps of the Army may marry after enlistment but if she becomes a mother she must resign."

Does this mean that Uncle Sam doesn't like mothers or babies?

The trouble with today's young people, according to The Morris (Minn.) Tribune, is they all want to look different in the same way.

"Keeping your husband in hot water will not make him tender," advises The Slater (Mo.) News-Rustler.

The Devils Lake (N.D.) Journal reports the following item of natural science: "The unusual and twisted windpipe of a crane, a large bird, may measure five feet from the throat to the lungs."

You knew that all along?

The Marshall (Minn.) Messenger reported a mysterious purple man was seen in the area east of the Tracy cemetery.

Could it be that Santa Claus has got some kind of a new "hip" uniform?

"One thing about the speed of light," laments The Salem (S.D.) Special, "is that it gets here too early in the morning."

The Morris (Minn.) Tribune says, "Most people who insist their child is a thinker—liar."

"How can a horse full of hay give you such a rough ride?" asks the Lancaster (Pa.) Farming.

The best salesman is the one who knows how to miss a six-foot putt by one inch, says The Dell Rapids (S.D.) Tribune.

Uncle Sam is stronger than Atlas, claims The Traer (Iowa) Star-Clipper, because he carries the world—with both hands in his pockets.

The Macon (Mo.) Chronicle-Herald reports that at a recent women's club meeting it was estimated that 60 per cent wore rouge, 35 per cent of those present tinted their hair, 75 per cent plucked their eyebrows, 80 per cent had permanent waves, 85 per cent wore eye shadow, 90 per cent wore fingernail polish, 100 per cent used lipstick, and 10 per cent wore false eye lashes and other cosmetic camouflage.

The subject of their discussion was, "Deceptive Packaging."

This one comes from the Culver (Ind.) Citizen:

The bright pupil looked long and thoughtfully at the examination question which read, "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any given year."

Then his brow cleared and he wrote: "1492—None."

"Turtles and fowls have no teeth," reports the Tell City (Ind.) Thursday News, which means that the Christmas turkey cannot bite back, unless, of course, you make a pig out of yourself.

To Hawaii, Have a ball.

PAN AM

PAN AM

And one Pan Am® ticket does it all, including any connecting flights you might need.

It's First Class President Special from California to Honolulu or to Hilo.

It's the next best thing to the great Pan Am's Rainbow Rainbow service.

The meal is from Maxim's of Paris. The stewardess is from Paris or Pescara or Pocatello. The movies and music (with the occasional hymn) are from our easy-to-watch Thanksgiving film.

And the service is out of this world. The same kind of service you'll find on Pan Am flights to 121 cities in 34 lands round the world.

(Incidentally, we do have one other first-class service. It's called Thanksgiving. The only hitch is no Maxim's in Hilo.)

See a Pan Am Travel Agent and let him set up your whole Hawaii feast. He'll do the work. You'll have the ball.

Pan Am makes the going great.

MELTING MOMENTS

- | | |
|----------------------------|--------------------|
| 1 cup (½ pound) margarine | 1 cup flour |
| ½ cup confectioners' sugar | 1 teaspoon vanilla |
| ¼ cup cornstarch | Pinch of salt |

Sift together cornstarch, confectioners' sugar and flour into bowl. Have margarine at room temperature. Blend margarine into dry ingredients with a spoon until a soft dough is formed. Shape into balls about 1 inch in diameter. Place on ungreased cookie sheet about 1½ inches apart. Flatten cookies with lightly floured fork. Bake in slow oven (300°) for 20 to 25 minutes or until only the edges of the cookies are lightly browned. Remove cookies carefully from the pan while still warm. Frost when cookies are cooled. NOTE: If dough is too soft to handle, cover and chill in refrigerator about 1 hour.

LEMON FROSTING

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1 teaspoon margarine, soft or melted | 1 cup powdered sugar |
| | Rind and juice of ½ lemon |
- Mix to spreading consistency. If too thin, add more sugar.

THREE-WAY CRANBERRY COOKIES

- | | |
|---|------------------------------|
| ¾ cup margarine | 7½ cups sifted flour |
| 2¼ cups sugar | 1½ teaspoons salt |
| 6 eggs | 1 teaspoon baking soda |
| 2 cans (1 pound each) whole berry cranberry sauce | 1½ teaspoons ground cinnamon |
| 1½ cups chopped California walnuts | ¼ cup margarine |

Cream ¾ cup margarine until light and fluffy. Gradually beat in sugar. Beat in eggs, one at a time. Beat in cranberry sauce and walnuts. To 4½ cups flour add salt, baking soda and cinnamon; add to batter and beat well. Divide dough into thirds. Spoon ¼ into a well-greased 9-inch square pan. Bake in 350° oven for 35 to 40 minutes. Cool in pan; cut into 24 1" by 3" bars.

To the second third of the dough add 1 cup of the flour. Blend well and drop mixture by teaspoons on a well-greased cookie sheet. Bake in a 375° oven for 8 to 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes about 40 two-inch cookies.

To the last third of the dough add 2 cups of the flour and ¼ cup margarine. Knead dough on a heavily floured board until smooth. Roll out to ½-inch thickness and cut with cookie cutters into desired shapes. Bake in a 375° oven for 8 to 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes about 3 dozen cookies, depending on size of cutter.

WALNUT CRESCENTS

- | | |
|--|------------------------------|
| 2 cups finely chopped California walnuts | 1 cup margarine |
| ½ cup sugar | 3 egg yolks, slightly beaten |
| 2 egg whites, slightly beaten | 3 to 5 tablespoons milk |
| 3 cups sifted flour | 1 egg white, slightly beaten |
| 3 tablespoons sugar | Plain or decorator's sugar |

Blend together walnuts, ½ cup sugar and 2 egg whites; set aside. Sift together flour and 3 tablespoons sugar into mixing bowl. Cut in margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Blend together egg yolks and 3 tablespoons milk. Add liquid all at once to flour mixture, stirring until flour is moistened. If necessary, add more milk to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board or pastry cloth; divide in half. Roll out each half 1/16-inch thick. Cut out circles with floured 3-inch round cutter. Drop 1 teaspoonful walnut mixture in center of each circle. Fold in half; seal edges securely. Place cookies on greased baking sheets and shape into crescents. Brush tops with egg white; sprinkle with plain or decorator's sugar. Bake at 400° for 12 to 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Remove to wire racks and cool completely before serving.

Recipe: Dissolve one 3-oz. pkg. raspberry flavored gelatin in 1 cup boiling water; chill until slightly thickened. Fold in 1½ cups (1-lb. can) whole cranberry sauce and 1 cup (8¾-oz. can) crushed pineapple, drained. Pour into chilled 9-inch graham cracker crust; chill until firm. Melt 2 cups Kraft Miniature Marshmallows with ¼ cup milk in double boiler; stir until smooth. Add ½ teaspoon vanilla and few drops green food coloring. Chill until thickened; mix until well blended. Fold in 1 cup heavy cream, whipped; spread over pie filling. Chill until firm. 6 to 8 servings.

CRUNCHY FUN FROM THE COOKIN' COUSINS

NESTLÉ'S MORSELS AND DIAMOND WALNUTS

too skinny?
too short?
too green?
too much?

by One Tired Reporter

The assignment: Go out and work on a Christmas tree lot to see how people buy Christmas trees.

The report: To most people, buying a Christmas tree as a symbol of the season of good cheer is only slightly less serious than choosing a tombstone.

Buyers argue and bicker and pout, and one fellow struck me a glancing blow with the bough of a Norway pine, though he claimed he was only trying to brush the snow off a tree and I got in the way.

I arrived at the Christmas tree lot early, and listened while the owner told me where the various species were located — spruce over there in the corner, scotch pine out in front, etc.

My first customer was a portly lady who was being followed by a small man who had the look of an anemic beagle about him.

"Merry Christmas," I said, "can I help you?"

"No," the lady said, "I don't like the looks of your trees," and she turned and stalked out. Her beagle husband followed her. His ears were drooping.

Another couple came in, and I started to show them Christmas trees. The woman very nearly agreed to a fine spruce, but decided at the last second that it was "too skinny."

The next one was "too short." And then while I wrestled trees—sometimes two at a time—she said:

"The trunk is crooked."

"It's too skimpy in the middle."

"I don't like the color."

"That kind sheds its needles too soon."

"There's a branch missing on the right side."

"That one is not bad except it doesn't have a nice top."

The lady's husband, meanwhile, had gone over into a corner of the lot and dozed off, standing on one leg with his head under his arm, like a chicken.

The lady looked at every tree in the lot, some of them twice, and then she went and got her husband and left, remarking that maybe they would go get a metal tree at the drug store.

My next customer was a large fellow who looked at about fifty trees, and kept mumbling to himself, "I'll find a tree this year that will please her or die trying."

He didn't find a tree on our lot, but he didn't die there either, so in one respect we were lucky. I said Merry Christmas to him as he left and he just stared at me.

A kindly looking lady walked in next, and I bravely went up to her and said, "Can I help you?"

"No," she replied, "I live in back of the lot and I'm just going home from the grocery store."

A father with four sons came in, and each son picked out a tree that was just right. Two of the sons got into an argument and the argument developed into a fight, and they wrestled until just their feet were sticking out from under a pile of boughs.

The father more or less jumped on the boughs, as if he was trying to flush rabbits out of a brush pile, and then he sent the wrestlers to the car. He left shortly thereafter without buying a tree.

Then came a lady who looked like somebody's mother. I held up a tree for her, and she said, "I'll take it."

It was too much of a shock. I held onto the tree for support, and when my vision cleared I said, "You don't mean it!"

"Yes," she said, "it's just right. Would you put it in my car, please."

"Now, look," I tried to tell her, "you just don't buy a Christmas tree like that. You've got to look at about a thousand trees to see first what you don't want and then you . . ."

It was no use. I couldn't talk her out of it. I ran to get the lot manager. "What do I do," I panted, "somebody wants to buy a tree?"

"Charge them $2.50 and help them get it into their car," he said, matter-of-factly.

I was so nervous about making a sale that I could hardly tie the twine to hold the lady's car trunk cover down.

I wished her a Merry Christmas, and she returned the greeting with a smile.

It was a shattering experience. I went into the warmup shack and tried to collect myself.

The other tree salesmen tried to pull me out of my depression, but it was no use. I didn't return to normal again until I went back out onto the lot and asked a customer if I could show him some trees.

"Well," he said, "I didn't come in here to try on shoes."

Then I felt better.

Lt. Cmdr. Leon Pingel, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pingel, Hoskins, has been awarded the navy achievement medal aboard the nuclear powered attack aircraft carrier, USS Enterprise. He received the award for meritorious service while serving as meteorological officer on the staff of Commander Carrier Division One aboard the Enterprise. Cmdr. Pingel was responsible for providing weather advisory service to pilots of Carrier Air Wing Nine. As a staff meteorologist, his timely, definite analysis of weather trends provided the basis for confident, forehanded planning of strike operations for Carrier Group 77.8, thus increasing the overall efficiency of task group operations. A graduate of Wayne State College, he has been in the navy since 1957.

Visiting in Winside are S/Sgt. and Mrs. Leon Koch and family, guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Koch. They are preparing to go to Asmara, Ethiopia, Agency (he speaks and writes Arabic). This is the same city Lonnie Behmer spent much time in as a member of the Peace Corps. Sgt. Koch has been based at Ft. Bragg, N. C. in his years in the service he has been stationed in Japan, Germany and Luxembourg and in the States at Ft. Riley, Kan., Presidio of Monterey, Calif., Ft. Campbell, Ky., and Ft. Bragg. At the last-named base he was a platoon sergeant with the 36th Supply and Service Co. His wife has been with him at all his foreign stations. They figure they have been in 36 states and 10 foreign countries during his time in the service.

Sgt. LeRoy Koepke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Koepke, Hoskins, was home for Thanksgiving, spending five days with his parents. His address is: Sgt. LeRoy D. Koepke, AF 17732617, 319th OMS, SAC, Box 416, Grand Forks AFB, N. D., 58203.

Master Sergeant Don Simonin, son of Walter Simonin, Wayne, is serving in Okinawa. His wife and five children have been with him there the last 2½ years. Sgt. Simonin enlisted in the army Dec. 22, 1944. He has served in the logistics branch of military service during foreign duty. At Creighton University, Omaha, he was ROTC instructor from 1952 to 1957 before serving a second time in Europe for five years. Altogether, he has served in Europe 12 years. His address is: M/Sgt. Don C. Simonin, RA 17149547, Hq. 1st Military Police Group, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96331.

Larry Hansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hansen, Wayne, has a letter to the editor in this issue of The Herald. He sent a picture with his thank you letter for SWAY members but we don't print pictures on the editorial page so it is here. His address is given with his letter.

Darold Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Rice, Concord, is now based at Camp Pendleton, Calif., after returning from service in Vietnam. His address is: Lance Cpl. Darold N. Rice, 2277583, T Co., 13th MT Bn., 5th Marine Div., Camp Pendleton, Calif. 92055.

LeRoy Bronzynski, son of the late Arnold Bronzynski, Winside, is stationed in Vietnam. He was inducted into the armed forces June 15, 1967, and left for Vietnam Nov. 14. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. August Bronzynski, Winside, with whom he makes his home. His address now is: Pvt. E-2 LeRoy A. Bronzynski, US 67168097, Btry A, 6 Bn. 320 Arty, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96316.

Pfc. Garold Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Allen, arrived home Nov. 16 on leave from Ft. Eustis, Va., where he had attended school for aircraft engine repair. He will report to Ft. Lewis, Wash., this month and will leave for Korea Dec. 14 to serve 13 months. He is a 1966 graduate of Allen High School.

Sp-4 Dennis Otte, Wayne, is now a civilian. He arrived home Wednesday after receiving his discharge from the army the preceding day at Ft. Carson, Colo. He had served two years in the army, including one year in Vietnam. He was in infantry and supply work. He plans to return to work in the Wayne area. Otte is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Otte. He entered the army Nov. 29, 1965.

Leaving Dec. 5 will be Pfc. Larry Fuoss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fuoss, Wayne. He has been here on a 14-day furlough. A 1966 graduate of Wayne High School, he attended Wayne State College and then volunteered for service. He has been in since March, serving at Ft. Bliss for basic, Ft. Sill for AIT and at Ft. Carson, Colo., since then. He has been a battery clerk at the latter base. He reports running into Dennis Otte at that base before he came home. His address is: Pfc. Larry E. Fuoss, US 68543160, Svc. Btry, 2nd Bn., 84th Arty, Ft. Carson, Colo.

Stationed on Okinawa, A/1c Dennis Mitchell, has been on temporary duty in Saigon since Nov. 3. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell, Allen. Dennis and Sgt. Harold Isom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Isom and husband of Mrs. Christine Isom, Allen, met in Saigon and spent some time together. Both are members of the Class of 1966 at Allen High School.

Jerry Brudigan has returned from a tour of duty in Vietnam and is now based at Ft. Sill. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brudigan, Norfolk, former Wayne County residents. His address now is: Sp-5 Jerry L. Brudigan, RA 17732659, 1st Enlisted Student Battery (TVMC No. 15-86), US Army Artillery and Missile School, Ft. Sill, Okla. 73503.

Airman Stephen Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ross, Wisner, has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., and is now assigned as a supply specialist with a unit of the air training command at Myrtle Beach AFB, S. C. Airman Ross is a 1967 graduate of Wisner High School.

Airman Apprentice Earl Rasmussen, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rasmussen, Dixon, has reported for duty at the naval air station, Cubi Point, Philippine Islands. The air station is the closest naval air station to Vietnam and is the primary support base for the aircraft carrier striking forces of the Seventh Fleet.

Terry Nolte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Nolte, Norfolk, and a former Wayne resident, has enlisted in the navy, leaving Nov. 14. He is now in his boot training at San Diego. No picture of him in uniform is available yet but one is requested. His address is: SR Terry Ian Nolte, B-629488, Co. No. 666, USNVC, RTC, San Diego, Calif. 92133.

Gunnery Mate Third Class Dennis McFarland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McFarland, Randolph, is serving aboard an anti-submarine warfare support carrier, USS Kearsarge, now based with the Seventh Fleet in the Gulf of Tonkin. His carrier works on coordinating surface and subsurface surveillance operations, including tracking and reporting on all friendly and enemy shipping in the gulf. In addition, the Kearsarge is mail ship for Seventh Fleet craft in the area. McFarland is married to the former Julia Murray, Albuquerque.

First Lt. Donald Hubbard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hubbard, Allen, was awarded the bronze star medal with combat "V" at the marine base, Camp Pendleton, Calif., recently. He has been in the service since 1965, after graduating from Allen High School and attending the University of Nebraska, where he also graduated. The citation read in part: "For meritorious service as a forward observer, artillery liaison officer and subsequently as executive officer with Battery D, Twelfth Marines, from May 1966 to June 1967. As a forward observer he exposed himself to enemy fire to call in accurate artillery fire on the enemy. During Operation Prairie II, he positioned himself where he could best observe and direct counter-mortar fire on the enemy positions. Reassigned as artillery liaison officer, Lt. Hubbard demonstrated proficiency in the direction of timely and accurate harassing and interdiction fires on the enemy. While serving as battery executive officer, he directed the battery's fire during a period when the unit was under constant artillery and mortar attacks. In each attack, he exposed himself to heavy enemy fire to encourage his men and direct effective counter fire against the enemy."

Sp-5 David Stringer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stringer, Wayne, arrived home Monday of last week from Camp Humphrey, Korea, where he has been a helicopter mechanic the last 12 months. He will have 30 days at home and then go to Ft. McClellan, Ala., where he will do the same work. Stringer is a 1962 graduate of Wayne High School and entered the service Apr. 11, 1966. He took basic at Ft. Leonard Wood, mechanic school at Ft. Rucker, Ala., and went overseas Nov. 2, 1966.

Jerry Wehrer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Va. C. Wehrer, Wayne, and Doug Manske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Manske, Osage, Minn., got together in Germany and went to Rome for a weekend. They reported the trip was great and they are ready to go back to Rome any time. They were in the same graduating class at Wayne High School.

Stanley Whitney is serving in the inactive reserves aboard the SS Wingless Victory, which has been en route to Vietnam with supplies since Sept. He hopes to be back in the States in time for Christmas, spend the holidays with relatives and friends and then return to New York to prepare for his next trip. He is an ensign in the navy. His address is: Ensign Stanley A. Whitney, Third Assistant Engineer, SS Wingless Victory, Consolidated Mariners, 19 Rector St., New York, N. Y. 10006. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitney, Carroll.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

You Lucky Farmers!

You Wayne County farmers are lucky—as are all farmers. Look at all the government programs there are to help you.

You're destined to feed the world. You have kept up with the times, modernized your equipment, followed conservation practices, put land in soil banks, improved your stock, gone into debt to get devices to enable you to do the work without hired hands and somehow saved enough to send your kids to college.

But, you also have cut the cost of living for us whether you know it or not. If you operated as most industries do, all of this keeping-up, modernization and progress would have resulted in even higher prices than we have.

Oh, we know, food costs are high, but not at the farm level. You stockmen, for instance, know that there is a tremendous increase in the price of meat somewhere along the line after you have sold it "on the hoof." The price paid you is not so high but no one would guess it to look at the over-the-counter prices.

The same with grain. You farmers are using the latest farming methods to produce food efficiently. You're the best farmers in the world as proved by the fact that in no other country does such a small percentage of the population feed the people. Yet grain prices are not high. The high prices come on foodstuffs made of the grain.

Do you produce efficiently? The labor department points out that in the 1947-66 period the average non-farm worker increased productivity by 2.6 per cent. What did the average farm worker do in the same period? He increased his productivity by 3.9 per cent!

In 1950 a farm worker produced enough to feed 15 people. In 1966 each farmer or farm worker was producing enough to feed 39 people. That's almost triple the output in 16 years. What industry can show such efficiency?

So, you're deserving praise all right. You have helped the nation have the highest standard of living on earth; you have fed better animals; you get more production per acre; you look great! You would think the government would appreciate you, but what do you get when you try to explain that you want higher returns? You get sympathy. Never mind the fact that some of the prices in prosperous 1967 are comparable to those paid you in the depression of the 1930's. You're but a fraction of the people now. Labor has the big voice. That's where the votes are. What you get is sympathy.

You can't eat sympathy. You can't send a kid to college on it. You can't pay for new equipment or for modernization of your living quarters. In fact, your net worth today is actually lower than it was 16 years ago.

There are farm programs of all types, many aimed at keeping you from over-producing since you are so efficient. So far no one has come up with a program to help you get a bigger share of the consumer dollar, a share you earn through hard work and progressive methods.

Maybe you have to do something about it yourself. Maybe you have to pull together as efficiently as a group as you have alone. Somewhere there must be an answer to the paradox of farming: costing more than ever and yielding less income.

You're lucky, you Wayne County farmers. You and your fellow farmers are truly lucky. But if you're so lucky, how come so many find it necessary to leave the farms each year? How come in spite of being so efficient you are held down in trying to gain equality with labor? How come prices paid for farm products are not so high when when selling, but are high for anyone else when buying?

Perhaps you lucky farmers can tell us—if you have figured it out for yourselves. There has to be a reasonable answer to the problem of farming, but that answer is not evident right now.—CEG.

On Handling Court News

The handling of court news is not an easy matter for newspapers. Anyone who thinks editors get pleasure out of recording the fines brought about by peoples' mistakes has another think coming.

In the first place, editors are not beyond making mistakes themselves. They get fined. If they have recorded all previous court cases, they record their own.

However, rarely a week goes by but what someone calls or comes in with the request that their name not be printed in the court news. Some of the stories are really touching, and there is no reason to disbelieve them. Exceptions cannot be made, of course, since if one person has the right to keep his name out then the same privilege must be offered to all, and who is going to say, "Go ahead, print the information, even if you don't print it about others!"

There are exceptions only in the cases of juveniles. Then it is up to the judge. If the juveniles are in trouble often, after a while it becomes apparent that no good can come from withholding names so they might as well be printed. In all other cases the records of the courts are open and the newspapers are duty-bound to print all or none.

There is a disturbing situation that is entering some hearings. It is the difficulty law officers face in trying to prove their cases. In fact, it is so difficult, officers must be getting a little reluctant to even press a charge.

For instance, youngsters not old enough to have beer are found with beer bottles in the car.

Are You A Square?

Ted Hardy spoke on "Is Patriotism Old Fashioned?" last year. Deers Graphic Arts Center, Seattle, reproduced his speech. Perhaps if you want the full text you can write to that firm and get a copy, for Hardy had much to say, his reference to "squares" being especially appropriate.

He points out how "square" was a fine word in Mark Twain's day. You gave a man a square deal, a square meal, stood four-square for the right, were square with the world when out of debt and looked men square in the eye.

Now a square is an oddball. He's the guy who volunteers to do a job, the fellow who tries to do his job better than anyone else, the one who works longer than he has to in order to get his job done, a guy who chokes up when the band plays "America the Beautiful," who is honest, thrifty, loyal, brave and kind.

Some people have gained the "right" to keep their kids from saluting the flag. Families and students have found it distasteful to take an oath of allegiance to this country and now it is even illegal to pray to God or any other power during school hours.

Museums are exhibiting paintings by people who never learned to paint; non-books are being thrown together by non-writers who never bothered to learn to write; murky poems and songs are being ground out by scraggly writers who sing them to their friends because they are unreadable.

We used to have good old bellylaughs. Now humor is sick. Even Mother's Day brings out sick cards instead of the ones that expressed love, respect and devotion.

Hardy points out that there is still hope. There are more church members today than in 1947; cultural activities have increased 70 per cent in the last ten years, seven times more students go to college now than in 1900 and it appears that young people are realizing it pays to become educated.

"Is Patriotism Old Fashioned?" is too long to be reprinted here. It is worth having copies of, reading and agreeing with, especially if you are a square. May we suggest you write Ted Hardy, KXTV, Sacramento, Calif., and ask for a copy of his talk? Or maybe you can get one from Deers Graphic Arts Center, Seattle, Wash.

Some of you just might be square enough to want a copy. We do. But of course you've known all along we're square.—CEG.

Discuss your plans with your high school counselor. Consider very carefully before signing any contract agreement. Read the contract very carefully and consult a lawyer if you are in doubt about what you are signing.

All private vocational schools in Nebraska must be licensed by the Nebraska State Board of Education in order for them to operate. A recent listing issued by the Commissioner of Education names 23 schools licensed to operate in the state of Nebraska. Only 9 of these schools have been accredited by the Nebraska State Board of Education. The list of these schools is available in the high school guidance office.

Education beyond high school is a must for many of the highly specialized jobs which are now in great demand. Select this education carefully.

I don't mean to cut you so short! but everything is in sort of a turmoil around here this morning.

Again I don't know how to really thank you. I'm sure that the other fellows who've received this feel the same way. You don't realize what it does to your morale when someone remembers you from back home.

I'd appreciate it if you'd wish everyone a Merry Christmas and joyous New Year for me and all the other fellows who won't get cards sent to everyone they want to.

Thanks again very much. "Bye now and take care back on the home front, 'cause I'll be there shortly.

Out of Old Nebraska

Buffalo In The Street

Thousands of buffalo still roamed Nebraska as late as 1875. As the prairies filled with homesteaders, the buffalo inevitably came into conflict with the newly arrived civilization, occasionally destroying crops of sod corn or using newly plowed ground for wallows. Sometimes they even wandered into the small towns.

Such an instance, one of numerous such stories on file with the Nebraska State Historical Society, was reported in the Omaha Daily Bee of Wednesday, December 4, 1872:

"Last Sunday while the citizens of Sidney were quietly enjoying the repose afforded them by the Sabbath, a drove of eight buffalo came galloping over the rolling hills, and entered the town, and took a spin around the streets. In less than ten minutes the alarm had become so general that every man, woman and child in the place were armed with shot-guns, rifles, revolvers, dirk-knives, and pitchforks, while at the barracks every soldier was on duty at once, and prepared to meet and vanquish the foe, or die in the attempt. In fact, it was a question of buffalo meat or no buffalo meat with them.

The enemy was out-flanked, and a detachment of one buffalo became separated from the main body of the monarchs of the plains, and was driven inside the post. Then the grand hurrah began in dead earnest. The soldiers flew around the buffalo in the enclosure, as did the gladiators of old around the infuriated bulls in the amphitheatre. Col. Dudley, the commandant of the post, acting as Chief Director of the thrilling sport, which lasted some time.

The buffalo was finally cornered, and killed, after receiving shots too numerous to mention.

Music, too, lent its charms to the thrilling scene as a couple of Italian harpers, who travel on the Union Pacific, were engaged in thumbing their instruments during the hunt.

"In the meantime the seven buffaloes in the town were having a red-hot time. One of them effected an entrance into the dining-room of Rumsey's hotel, and broke several chairs in attempting to sit down at the table to make a square meal of antelope steak. Getting his back up at the toughness of the steak, he overturned a table and smashed the crockery ware.

"Information had in the meantime been conveyed to Mrs. James Rumsey, who was out on the warpath, and he returned to turn the intruder out, or else serve him up on the half shell. Just as Mr. R. entered one door, Mr. Buffalo ran out of another. R. levelled his gun, but it would not go off, and the buffalo escaped and joined the remaining six, who then turned tail on the town, and cantered over the hills, and far away, after having smashed several windows, creating an intense excitement, and playing the deuce generally."

Concord Has Drawing Concord Commercial Club is sponsoring three Saturdays of turkey drawings again this year, five drawings to be given away each date, Dec. 9, Dec. 16 and Dec. 23, at 3:30 p.m. A drawing was also held prior to Thanksgiving under CCC sponsorship.

60 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK

The Wayne Herald, Dec. 5, 1907.

Sholes is to make an experiment of the central school system that in several communities has been put into practice with good results. Three school districts No. 30, 67 and 76 comprising sixteen sections are within the boundaries of the new central school district. This new district voted $5000 bonds and erected a fine modern four room school building in Sholes. The new building is very much on the same plan of the school building at Winside except that it is of frame instead of brick. There is ninety-five or a hundred pupils within the new district and the farthest distance any of them will be from the school is two and a half miles, so that there will be no demand for free transportation, a feature that is of considerable cost in most cases where the central school is operated. This is the first trial of the central school in north Nebraska and school men will watch its progress with a great deal of interest.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold their bazaar in the Opera House Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Supper will be served cafeteria style. Menu: Roast pig 10 cents; roast mutton 10 cents; roast chicken 10 cents; mashed potatoes 3 cents; rolls 1 cent; graham bread 1 cent; apple sauce 3 cents; cabbage salad 2 cents; doughnuts 2 cents; pickles 1 cent; pie 5 cents; tea 2 cents; coffee 5 cents.

William Schulz a prominent farmer living five miles east of Hoskins had a very close call from death Wednesday at Norfolk where with his wife and baby daughter he had gone to attend "exchange day." Schulz was driving up the main street of Norfolk to get his family and start home when a runaway team hitched to an ice-wagon swung into the street and started in his direction. Schulz, with his buggy top up did not see the heavy team and wagon bearing down on him although a hundred people on the crowded street had time to mark the impending accident. The team struck the light top buggy squarely. It was overturned and crashed into pieces. All four horses were thrown and entangled in the mix-up. Schulz was thrown beneath the mixture of

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: Each year, many of our graduating seniors begin plans for some post-high school education at a private business, trade, vocational or correspondence school. Many excellent schools are available to choose from. Unfortunately, some schools provide very inadequate training, and a few, no training at all.

The American Personnel and Guidance Association has published the following list of pitfalls which should be avoided in the selection of a private school. (The following is a direct quote. I have received permission to have it published in the newspaper):

1. ...the salesman who offers you a "substantial" discount on the registration fee or tuition in exchange for an immediate cash payment.

2. ...the salesman who insists that you make up your mind at once because he is leaving the area and will not return for several months or because he just has one or two openings left.
