

Weigh 85 Calves for New Rate of Gain Competition

County agent Harold Ingalls reports 85 calves weighed at the Wayne Sales Co. Thursday and Friday. Most of them are expected to be eligible for the county's first Rate of Gain contest.

Winners will be announced at the county fair in the fall. For those winning ribbons there will be extra cash incentives for the gain shown by the calves.

A few of the calves brought in were over weight, the 550-pound weight limit having been set for this contest. However, a little leeway may be given since any one of the calves could vary a few pounds at a given time.

Agent Ingalls reports the usual fine cooperation of the Wayne Sales Co. Stockyards, scales and other facilities were provided for the project of the 4-11 members without any charge.

In addition, Lawrence Backstrom and Virgil Kardell, employed at the sale barn, helped out both days with the weighing and tagging work. The county agent expressed appreciation for the way the people connected with the auction firm have responded wholeheartedly to every project connected with 4-11 work in the county.

Half the People Avoid Checkups

Wayne County Cancer Society reports over half the people avoid physical examinations, including cancer tests. Members find this hard to figure out since health-even life-is at stake.

Taking information from a national survey, WCCS reports eight basic reasons people have given for not having physical examinations that include cancer tests. They are as follows: (1) They are healthy and feel they have no need for checkups. This reason ignores the fact that it is better to prevent illness than pay for being cured.

(2) They have had little personal contact with cancer, having little knowledge of cancer, they adopt an "it can't happen to me" attitude. (3) They are somewhat less hopeful about chances of recovery. See CANCER, page 8.

Elderly Resident at Dahl's Breaks Bone

Mrs. Woodward Jones, 93, suffered a broken left hip at the Dahl Retirement Center Dec. 31. She misjudged her step getting into her wheelchair and suffered the injury.

Dr. Walter Benthack took care of the injury. He reports Mrs. Jones faces a long period of recuperation.

This is at least the ninth broken hip in the last part of 1967. At one time there were five people in the Wayne Hospital confined due to broken left hips. With Mrs. Jones there, five are still patients who have broken left or right hips.

Little Thawing Noted in Region

Little thawing was noted in this region since Christmas. It has been below zero much of the time.

Peoples Natural Gas Co. figures are surprisingly high for daytime readings. Most people had assumed the temperature had rarely risen much above the zero mark, but readings were as high as 25 Jan. 2.

Lowest reading the past week was 22 below zero. That means it was 52 degrees colder than the warmest reading, 30. Not once did the temperature get above the freezing mark.

Fortunately, there was little wind and no snow following the Christmas card snow the day after Christmas. Had there been a wind and snow storm with such intense cold, it would have been the blizzard of '88 or '49 all over again.

Community Contests in State Again

Wanda Owens, former Wayne Chamber of Commerce manager now with the Office of Economic Development, Lincoln, sends word that area towns are invited to take part in the 1968 Community Improvement Program.

Gov. Norbert Tiemann has called it a good way to kick off Nebraska's second century. Natural gas companies of the state, including Northern, Kansas-Nebraska and Peoples, are putting up the cash which will be awarded top winners.

This year's program has been expanded to be more comprehensive in community improvement than the community betterment program, contests of the past. The OED and the University of Nebraska are administering the program.

There will be three areas of competition, Community Awards, Special Program Awards and All-Nebraska Community Competition. Judging will be based upon projects carried on at any time during 1968.

Community Awards Contest entries may be made as late as Mar. 1. Entries in Special Program Awards and All-Nebraska Community Competition can be accepted until Oct. 15.

Detailed information will be distributed to leaders in all communities. Further news reports as communities start organization plans will be carried from time to time.

Dates had been listed previously. This week the county assessor gave the locations in each of the communities where his deputies will be working.

First of all, the courthouse assessor's office will be open weekdays except holidays throughout the January-February assessing period. Arrp and Art Storm will do the assessing work there.

Irv Jones, Charles Millie and Owen Jenkins are the assessors who will visit the various towns. All have been trained for the work ahead, which is slightly different from that of past years.

Following are the towns, the building sites where assessing work will be done and the dates the men will be at each: Winside, light plant, Jan. 8-9; Feb. 5-6 and Feb. 19-20; Hoskins, fire hall, Jan. 15-16; Feb. 12-13 and Feb. 26-27;

Carroll, Farmers State Bank, Jan. 10-11; Feb. 7-8 and Feb. 21-22; Sholes, Nelsen's Lounge, Jan. 12 and Feb. 9; Altona, Altona Store, Jan. 22-23; Feb. 1-2 and Feb. 23.

The new law of self-assessment means assessors will not call in homes or at farms. Owners of taxable property must list and See ASSESSORS, page 8.

Chadron State Games Help Decide Early Leader in Conference Race

Three basketball games in Wayne's Rice Gym Friday, Saturday and Tuesday may go a long way toward settling the Nebraska College Conference championship.

Wayne State meets defending champ Chadron State at 7:30 Friday and Saturday nights, then Hastings Tuesday night.

The Chadron Eagles, undefeated in eight conference games last year, have a 10-1 record going this season, and they won their own holiday tournament. However, star performer Jim Rhodes was dismissed from school last month, and his replacement, Mike Kinnaird, injured a knee and is out for the season.

Wayne, 8-1, has the potential to handle Chadron, observers think, if the Wildcats recover their pre-Christmas form. A long layoff after the Dec. 11 game plus illness of several players made the Cats look less than their best in the Holiday Tournament.

Hastings boasts the conference's tallest team with a full quintet at 6-5 or more. Against the Broncos Wayne will have to use its speed and pressure at full power, Coach Dave Gunther believes. Last year Wayne and Hastings tied for second in conference with 4-4 marks.

Westmar and Wayne State dominated final-round games and the all-star selections as Westmar won the Wayne Christmas Holiday Basketball Tournament Saturday night. The Eagles from LeMars, Ia., downed Kearney State, 73-61, in the finale.

Wayne handled Kansas State of Pittsburg, 66-47, for third place.

Named to the all-tournament first team were Roger Moller of Westmar, who got the added distinction of most valuable player, Curt Strathman of Westmar, Bill Goodwin of Wayne State, Steve Fisher of Kearney and

Winside, Allen Lose in Openers of Lewis & Clark Conference Tourney

Winside and Allen bowed out of the Lewis & Clark Conference tournament at Emerson in the first two games Tuesday night. Allen lost out to Emerson 67-52 in the tourney opener and Winside lost 72-62 to Hartington Cedar Catholic in the next tilt.

Next game for Winside is Tuesday, Jan. 9, at Wisner. Friday, Jan. 12, the Wildcats play host to Osmond. Allen's next game is Jan. 12 at Randolph.

Allen's inability to hit a field goal hurt the Eagles' cause the first half. The Blue and Gold managed only three field goals the first two quarters. It allowed Emerson to take a 16-6 first period lead and a 26-13 lead at halftime.

The rest of the game the teams battled on even terms with both coaches substituting freely. Emerson outscored Allen 22-13 in the third quarter but Allen came back to outscore EHS 26-17 the last period. In one flurry, AIS outscored Emerson 12-0, moving from a 58-30 disadvantage to a 58-42 lag.

Mike Roeber led Allen in rebounds with 20. Dave Abts had 12, Dennis Geiger 6, Kevin Hill, Bob Mitchell and Bob Meyer 5, Rick Hank 4, Jim Ellis 3, Alan Smith 2 and John Abts 1. Hank stole the ball 4 times and Geiger and Hill 1. Hank had 3 assists, Roeber 2 and Geiger and Ellis 1.

Dave Bross Receives Honorable Mention

Dave Bross gained another honor last week when the NAIA announced All-American football selections. He rated honorable mention as a defensive end for Wayne State.

Wayne has had at least one player earning some degree of All-American recognition for several years in a row.

Nebraska did well this year in the NAIA honors. Three Nebraska colleges are represented on the 23-player first team—Kearney's linebacker Lee Jacobsen, Omaha's quarterback, Marlin Briscoe and Doane's offensive tackle Fred Davis.

Final NAIA statistics for 1967 football show Wayne State 29th in rushing defense, giving the opponents an average 87.1 yards.

Concord Church Has Memorial Carillons

New carillon chimes have been dedicated at Evangelical Free Church, Concord, in memory of Dwayne Bloom, a member of the church who was killed July 14 in an automobile accident. The chimes were made possible by his parents, the Adolph Blooms of Laurel, the family, relatives and friends.

The youth was a member of the Concord Church. He was seven miles away at Allen and Laurel.

Pastor Christensen wrote a poem of dedication "Tribute to Dwayne Bloom" for the dedicatory services. Space was purchased to have this poem published here.

Dwayne was born in a humble home, He grew to manhood, no never to roam The ways of the world, but for Christ to live; Yes, even while young his life to give.

None in the Lord ever die in vain, Tho death may give our loved ones pain Resurrection swallows death by life anew This is known only by God's faithful few Because Dwayne died the chimes we hear, It makes him seem a wee bit near Heaven seems not such a far off place Since Christ and loved ones meet face to face.

May the chimes ring on and on and on, Drawing attention to a crown that's won And announcing clearly the worship of God As homeward we his pilgrims trod.

Let the chimes the message of holiness ring, Helping us redemption's song to sing, Let sorrow and sighing then flee away As we listen to hope from day to day.

Fought in memory of our dear Dwayne We dedicate the chimes with this refrain: All glory be to God on high For in Christ we never say goodbye.

musically inclined and took part in vocal and instrumental numbers, both in the church and at school in Laurel.

Dedicatory services were held Sunday, Dec. 31, at the evening services at the church with Rev. M. D. Christensen, interim pastor, in charge. The chimes have been heard almost daily in the Concord area.

The chime system consists of a clock-controlled magnetic tape player and an audio amplification system. It can be set to play automatically a pre-determined number of carillon selections or bell-ringing programs at chosen times of the day.

Chimes can be heard throughout Concord and the surrounding area, including Dixon. On clear days, the chimes can be heard ing in the air force in February, 1964.

After basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex., he was stationed at the Anarillo AFB, Tex., and then went to K. I. Sawyer AFB, Mich.

For the last year and a half he has been in Okinawa. He cannot give a description of his duties since his work is classified. However, he is scheduled to get out of the air force in February.

He attended school in Japan three weeks and visited the Philippines, liking both places better than Okinawa. His SWAY present came at an appropriate time as his name was drawn Dec. 29 and his birthday is Dec. 31.

His address (which includes a promotion he received in October) is: Sgt. Gene D. Kay, AF 17676326, Box 199, 40th Munitions Sq., APO San Francisco, Calif. 96239.

Weiershauser is a 1962 graduate of Wayne High School and enlisted in the air force in 1964. He served at Lackland AFB, Tex., Mountain Home AFB, Ida., and Keesler AFB, Miss., before going overseas as a communications and electronics specialist, working on instruments of airplanes.

He spent one year in Vietnam, returning home in October. He had two R&R leaves while there, one to Thailand and the other to Japan.

His address now is: Sgt. Jerry W. Weiershauser, CMB, Box 1951, Eglin AFB, Fla. 32542.

ers from cancer. In other words, they do not know that early cancer cases can be cured and they do not know how prevalent cancer really is.

(4) They are afraid of what they might find at checkups. They know they might get good news but they are afraid they might get bad news.

(5) They focus on negative aspects of checkups rather than on rewards from sailing through an examination. Peace of mind has to be numbered as a benefit of passing a cancer test with nothing wrong.

(6) They "look down" on those who get cancer checkups but in some ways they also "look up" to them. Looking down, they feel people are overly cautious or hypochondriacs, "nervous Nellie" types. At the same time they recognize it is probably the intelligent and responsible thing to do.

(7) Non-goers think cancer checkups cost too much and take too much time. This is especially true among lower-income and less-educated families.

(8) Some think doctors themselves are not in favor of cancer checkups. This is not true about doctors—they encourage Pap tests, female checkups and other tests but the contribution they can make is only partially realized.

Wayne County Cancer Society realizes it is not enough just to remind people to go to doctors for cancer checkups. It is recognized that the American Cancer Society and the WCCS should urge checkups as the first line of defense against one of the nation's foremost killers.

It will take individual action to accomplish much, however. The cancer groups can inform the public, but it is up to each person to decide what he is going to do about it for himself and his family.

Assessors -

assess property at actual value by Mar. 1, 1968, with penalties provided for omitted property or for late filing.

Household goods and personal effects are exempt from property taxes when not owned or used for financial gain or profit. This does not include such goods used in apartments, rooms or in other ways rented out for gain or profit.

Jewelry, watches, wearing apparel and other possessions worn on the body are considered personal effects and will not be taxed. There is no more head tax, poll tax or taxes on intangibles such as money in the bank, stocks, bonds and others.

Improvements on leased land must be listed. New improvements, additions to improvements or removal of improvements must be recorded.

For those owning machinery, the 1967 schedules should be brought to help determine year and model of each piece of equipment. Automobile notices have already been sent out listing the tax to be paid.

While the tax will not be levied for state use this year, there will be property taxes levied for cities, counties, school districts, fire districts, cemetery districts and other governmental subdivisions, making it necessary for all of the state to be uniform in assessment under the new system.

that has not been available for these parcels since 1958.

There will be no changes in charges for special delivery, special handling, registered mail, certified mail, cash on delivery or insurance, the postmasters point out. Second-class, bulk rate third-class, controlled circulation and educational materials in fourth-class mail all have rate increases but these concern mass-mailers and not the general public. Information on those rates can be secured at post offices.

Postmasters at Wayne, Winslow, Allen, Hoskins, Carroll, Dixon, Concord and Wakefield are ready to answer questions about the new rate schedule. They point out that anything mailed before Jan. 7 will be at the old rates and will be delivered, but anything mailed Jan. 7 or thereafter must carry the added postage.

Railroad - cemetery and fire district taxes; $4,462.12 in school district taxes and $1,029 in city or village taxes.

Other counties in the area and their total taxes for the railroad the past year include: Cedar, $8,055.68; Cuming, $5,142.36; Dixon, $7,520.60; Madison, $9,325.74; Pierce, $5,109.06; Stanton, $4,918.69; and Thurston, $2,667.16.

Biggest amount of taxes was in Douglas county where $6,750.52 was paid outside Omaha and $24,064.24 inside Omaha. Cherry County was second high with $22,412.54 in taxes and York County was lowest with $64.69 in taxes.

The railroad's total tax bill in the state came to $252,792.87 for the year. This is to be paid in 32 counties. The railroad pays its taxes in two parts, the first in November with the second half due and payable in June, 1968.

WCA Calls Now Free; Wayne in Air Guide

West-Central Airlines has announced two new advantages for Wayne area residents: (1) Reservation calls can be made to a new central office in Omaha free of charge; (2) Wayne is listed in the Jan. 1 issue of the Official Airline Guide, one of the smallest cities in the nation listed on scheduled air service.

A new reservations center in Omaha can be dialed from here by dialing 1-800-642-9312. Information and reservations will be available there at no charge whatsoever.

WCA is now serving Wayne with three round-trip flights daily to Omaha and Lincoln, timing them to connect with regional and national airline flights in every direction.

Stevan McCarthy, director of marketing for WCA, called the listing of Wayne in the Official Airline Guide "of great importance to the community in attraction of outside industry and business, due to the fact firms use the guide in their transportation departments as well as its being used by travel agencies and airlines."

Wayne should feel proud to be one of the smallest communities to be listed in this widely-used publication, WCA President R. E. Lucas said. This city now has a director on the WCA board and is seeking support of area residents and those in nearby towns in making the airline service pay off.

Trailer Damaged in

First Fire of Year

A mobile home was the scene of the first fire of 1968 in Wayne. The trailer is occupied by Chick Molino, now manager of the flaking mill being built in Wayne.

Firemen were called Tuesday evening to the fire in Wright's Trailer Court on the east edge of Wayne. They had to use little water as the fire was extinguished quickly.

Molino said he had been thawing out a sewer line with a torch when the bottom of the trailer caught fire. Gas was shut off at once, helping to hold down the flames and minimize the damage.

Allen Woman Injured

Mrs. Ralph Isom, Allen, fell Saturday in the business district of Allen, breaking her kneecap. She was taken by ambulance to Wakefield, where she underwent surgery Monday. She is recuperating in the Wakefield hospital.

On the record, we say "Yes" to loan applicants about 99.44% of the time. That's because we WANT to lend. We strive to help people meet their personal problems, buy automobiles, do all those things that people borrow for. Any other reason for saying "Yes"? We admit it... Loan interest is an important part of our income. Even though our rates are low, we make lots of loans and the total adds up. So every loan works two ways. It helps you, the borrower. It helps us. ARNIE'S

Babson's Predictions for 1968 Given

The coming year threatens to be one of varied and recurring crises. Virtually no area of human activity will be spared... social, economic, political, or international. After years of progress and prosperity, the American people will be faced in 1968 with many decisions that will prove difficult to make and even tougher to carry out.

Don't expect the final solution to 1968's many problems to be worked out during the year ahead. But the manner in which our nation tackles its predicament will determine whether the U.S. will be able to strengthen its position as world leader... or be toppled during succeeding years and reduced to an inferior standing.

To be without hope is to sin. And we do have hope that our citizens and their government will rise to defeat the many antagonists—inflation, social corruption, greed, crime, fear, and despair—that are pressing upon us as the new year begins. It is said that the Oriental concept of crisis is opportunity. In that sense, we predict without reservation that 1968 will hold opportunities unlimited for our country.

1. Now that the pound has been devalued, perhaps our greatest opportunity for the year ahead is to prepare a strong defense for the dollar. We forecast that after some early fumbling both the Congress and the Federal Reserve will move with determination to protect our dollar.

2. The effects of the battle to save the dollar promise to be unpleasant. After an early-year surge to new highs for dollar values and production, business will find the going rougher as the months unfold. Scarce and more costly money will take its toll of growth.

3. Major stimulation to the economy in the early part of 1968 will come from a scramble by auto and allied lines to make up for production lost in 1967, combined with a stockpiling of steel and aluminum in anticipation of strikes later next year in these activities.

4. Some additional escalation of the Viet war will occur next year. But we have already experienced the major impact on business of the massive buildup in arms outlays; whatever additional procurement comes will not be a determining factor on the course of 1968's business.

5. President Johnson is torn between a desire to "pour it on" in Vietnam and bring home victory before voting time next autumn and his sincere wish to go down in history as a peacemaker. If recent and prospective tightening of the military vise on North Vietnam fails to bring results by late spring... look for spectacular moves toward negotiations. Under these circumstances we feel the chances are 60-40 that 1968 will mark the phase-out of our military operations in Vietnam.

6. But the most decisive conflict next year will not be fought on the battlefields of Southeast Asia. It will be here at home against the one enemy that has the power to destroy the U.S... INFLATION.

7. Contrary to the old adage that Congressmen won't commit political suicide by voting a tax hike in an election year, we do expect a revenue act in 1968. It may include excise imposts as well as income levies.

8. The Administration will be forced to reduce total expenditures for the coming year by $6-to-$10 billion. While the war continues, most of this will have to be lopped off non-defense areas.

9. Congress will remove the 25% gold backing for Federal Reserve notes early in the year.

10. The amount of goods tourists will be permitted to bring into the country duty-free will be reduced to zero in 1968.

11. Further restrictions will be put on foreign investments by U.S. corporations in the coming year; our government will encourage American companies to increase dividend payments by foreign subsidiaries.

12. Rationing of credit by the Administration and the Federal Reserve is a distinct possibility in the months ahead.

13. U. S. outlays for foreign aid will be slashed in 1968.

14. Our money managers will slow down the current high rate of money-supply increase as soon as Congress takes action to curb aflation.

15. But the tremendous outpouring of money during the whole of 1967 will continue, for some months, to exert upward pressures on interest rates and the general price level. It will also have an energizing effect on business. Hence, as money flow is cut back next year, there will be a delayed depressing effect on interest rates, prices, and business... probably after mid-year.

16. There will be repeated raids on the dollar; but it will not be devalued in 1968.

17. There will, however, be many discussions between financial experts here and abroad to develop a long-range plan for revaluing in terms of gold—on a more realistic basis—the currencies of all of the Free World.

18. The early-1968 uptilt in business volume will give a lift to corporate profits; the fanning out of wage boosts, however, along with rising costs and taxes will later have a squeezing effect on profits.

19. Short-term interest rates will rise faster than long-term in the months ahead.

20. This will have a restrictive impact on the availability and cost of mortgage funds.

21. In turn, the recovery now under way in home building will be restrained and perhaps reversed as 1968 moves along... but apartment construction should remain in an uptrend.

22. Inventories will rise—perhaps sharply—in the first half of 1968... taper off later.

23. Business capital expenditures should start the year on a strong note; but as the year advances, prospects for further gains will become dimmer.

24. With wage guidelines now definitely junked, there will be a stampede by labor generally to bring contract gains in line with the huge advances made by the United Auto Workers; the annual salary concept for production workers will gain further acceptance in 1968 by a number of American industries.

25. A labor feature for the coming year will be widespread stoppages by state, city, and local public employees; the battle on this front will surely be long and bitter.

26. With elections coming in the autumn, Congress will not vote any restrictive labor legislation in 1968. Although we anticipate that credit controls may possibly be invoked in the Administration's struggle with inflation, there is no chance that any serious attempts will be made to impose wage controls.

27. Upward pressures on the cost of living will be intensified during the first half of the new year, with advances tapering as autumn approaches. Over-all, we look for another increase in living expenses of over 3%... and it would not surprise us if the toll should rise to the 4% level. The "bad boys" will continue to be soaring service costs—especially medical—and upspirals in transportation and finished-goods tags. Food may inch up a little more as processing costs mount further; but prospective plentiful supplies will act as a controlling factor.

28. Total cash receipts from farm marketings should advance moderately over figures for 1967; however, the relentless up-push of costs will take its toll, and farmers' net income will do well to improve even slightly... notwithstanding some relief from higher government payouts.

Large marketings promise to restrain cattle quotes and hold this source of farm income in its recent low profitability groove. Meat prices, however, propped by bulging expenses, will be well maintained to firmer for the year. The consumer with storage facilities may benefit from time to time by watching carefully for sales and taking advantage of any buying opportunities provided by occasional runs of cattle fed to extra-heavy weights.

Apparent determination by growers to cut back on poultry output threatens to deprive the housewife of one of her most prolific sources of reasonably priced meat.

29. Real estate will be a many-sided market in 1968. Prices for single-family homes will continue to advance as construction fails to satisfy rising demands and as all building costs move higher... particularly during the first half. Demand for rentals in the middle and lower brackets will gain steadily; however, ability to satisfy these needs will be severely hamstrung by even more costly and scarcer mortgage money. Speculative purchases and the salability of vacant property—especially that in less desirable areas—will suffer from the drying-up of funds to carry such parcels. Broadly, the betterment that set in during the final six months of 1967 will probably not be maintained long in 1968.

30. Higher pay scales, the effect of recent increases in total money supplies, bigger social security outlays, and further advances in disposable income promise to give very strong support to retail trade during the early months of 1968 and for some time beyond. Only minor shadow is the evident reluctance of consumers to go as heavily into debt as in recent years. The purchasing power will be there, and only an optimistic shift in consumer attitudes will be necessary to ring up record sales gains—maybe 8% to 10%—at least during the first half-year. Later, efforts of the Administration and of the money manager to cool the inflation through taxes and cutbacks in government spending may slow the rate of retail upturn.

31. The trend in recent years has been toward a dwindling margin of U.S. exports over imports. This has come at a bad time for our chronic condition of imbalance in our international payments position. Devaluation of the pound and other currencies has hurt our ability to expand exports at a crucial moment for our balance of payments. Greatest hope for us in 1968 is that European nations that have been in a business slump will enjoy recovery... making a better market for our products there. We forecast that our government will discuss, and perhaps implement, export subsidies during the year ahead.

32. Current talk of the possibility of an even "hotter" summer ahead in our racially imbalanced big cities should be discounted. Preparations already made and in the making should reduce the danger of the firestorms suffered in 1967. We feel that real advances have been made through the ballot box in major mayoralty elections. Another hopeful sign is the rising trend toward responsibility for bettering conditions on the part of businessmen and the private sector. We are willing to stick our necks out and predict that the summer of 1968 will not be as "hot" as was 1967's.

33. However, we are not optimistic on the course crime is pursuing. Recent reports indicate that Americans will be in even greater danger of being murdered, maimed, or robbed in 1968 than in 1967 (a frightening one out of 44).

34. Money pressures—from lessened availability and higher cost—point to lowered liquidity next year... with an attendant increase in bankruptcies, more difficult collections, and rising foreclosures.

35. We anticipate a year of rapidly shifting attitudes toward the stock market and toward groups of stocks and individual issues. Early-year upsweep in business and selectively higher profits—combined with a liberal supply of money following the Fed's huge outpourings in 1967—should pave the way for further progress by the popular stock averages. Later, as the battle against inflation intensifies, the stock market may become subject to a painful reassessment.

36. A year ago we predicted that in 1967 the "old aristocracy of the blue chips based on past performance" would be replaced by a new aristocracy of superable management based upon hopes of good future performance. Now it looks as if many of the issues representing concerns with super-able forward-looking managements have just plain become overvalued in the market place. We believe it will be unwise in 1968 to chase after such.

37. As a consequence of the developing money squeeze, high-quality (only) bonds of long maturity—both taxable and nontaxable—should provide excellent long-range investment opportunities for those seeking income during the first half-year.

38. If we are correct in the above assumption... we cannot be far wrong in predicting that the better electric-utility common stocks may also prove to be outstanding purchases for long-term growth.

39. Among the "old aristocracy of the blue chips" there are a number of industrial areas that have been pounded down in price to a point where real solid substance is clearly visible. One such group is the chemicals. The old-line major companies here—ones that enjoyed a great bull market in the 1950's—may be in a buying range during 1968.

40. Still not among today's much-sought-after "performance" stocks... the big multiple-risk insurance concerns represent another type of equity investment that could well afford high opportunity over an extended period of time to those who have the courage and foresight to pick them up when they have few friends. And they may have more "glamor" than many think... as they are showing a developing trend toward "conglomerating."

41. Another group that could reach long-term buying levels next year is banks. Although their profits are up now, they have not been popular. The reason: Every period of money squeeze raises doubts as to the degree of "wringing out" that bond portfolios and loans will have to take when money passes its crisis. That time may come during 1968.

42. High Money rates have raised havoc with the prices of many of the large finance company stocks listed on the N. Y. Stock Exchange. Some of these have broad holdings in other lines; yet they are selling close to their "cellar" lows. When money rates froth up and crest over next year—as we predict—a good investment opportunity will be presented in this group.

43. It seems almost a foregone certainty that auto production will soar... when the strike-struck plants finally get back to work. For a while then there might develop a speculative wave in these issues. But we predict it would be unwise to chase after auto stocks on any great early-year strength. They are cyclical in nature, and may experience some rough going during the upcoming battle against inflation. We think there are better opportunities in strongly situated aggressive merchandising outlets.

44. Despite pressures to cut back on spending next year, there will be a renewed flare-up of the anti-ballistic-missile scare. Look for additional appropriations to build a thicker shield than the thin one proposed by Mr. McNamara. This flap will be accompanied by a renewed buying wave in stocks associated with the program.

45. When discussions of inflation got into high gear in 1968, attention will again be focused on ways to "protect" against it. You will be told to buy stocks as a hedge. But remember then that stocks go up because their earnings climb, not because they are a "hedge against inflation." We predict that many will find More: BABSON, page 3 to their sorrow that stocks hastily bought as inflation "protection" had no such mystical value.

46. There will also be a great buzzing in the coming months about gold stocks as a way to make money out of a dollar jump in the price of the precious metal. The devaluation of the pound caused a big rush into gold stocks. Since the dollar will not be devalued in 1968, we warn recent purchasers of such issues that they may have losses for a long time; although they may be right on some distant day, not next year.

47. We predict that a number of huge international concerns with shares traded in the U.S. and not subject to the interest-equalization tax—particularly those that do a big business with the "hard money" nations of the European Common Market—may do better than gold stocks during the year now opening.

48. War issues—so-called defense stocks—may not do so well in 1968 as equities of those concerns that will benefit from an end to the war buildup. Do not get "locked into" war stocks... simply because they boast high current profits and order backlogs.

49. Building issues are excellent examples of peace stocks. They look a little high now following 1967's recovering in home building; however, we predict that when the money pressure gets intolerable sometime next year, there may develop another opportunity to get into building equities with an eye to future substantial gain after the Viet phaseout.

50. In conclusion, under the stimulus of the Fed's 1967 "money bath"—and spurred by heavy strike-catchup output and strong activity to hedge against coming labor stoppages—business could soar during some of the early months next year. Gross National Product and the Fed Index of Production will both advance smartly. Sooner or later, however, the government will have to beat back the onrushing inflation. We do not believe that the American people will stand by and see their great country scuttled. And when the money managers stem the money flood—and the Administration and Congress shrink the budget deficit—the upthrust of business and profits will be curbed. This may not be so pleasant for a while. It could be downright unpleasant. But it will surely hold far greater promise for a longer and sunnier tomorrow.

Two Years Service Needed for Benefit

Chris Bargholz, Wayne County veterans service officer, has had inquiries concerning school benefits for veterans. He points out that two full years of active duty are required to qualify.

Some veterans have been on active duty 21 months, which means they lack three months of meeting requirements. Others have been on duty for eight, nine or ten years and are eligible to go to school.

Another point that comes up is who receives the "death gratuity" if a serviceman dies on active duty. Bargholz points out that the army, navy, air force, marines and coast guards all pay $800 to $3,000, depending upon rank, to surviving spouse or children. Those who have no spouse can designate parents, brothers or sisters or any combination to receive money paid in case of their death.
