

Large Voter Turnout Expected Tuesday

Just over 4,000 voters in Wayne County will have a chance to enter the polling booth sometime between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. tomorrow.

According to County Clerk Norris Welble, 2,749 Republicans and 1,325 Democrats are registered to vote in Wayne County in Tuesday's general election. There are also 148 independents and four American voters. No person has registered as a New Party voter.

Although Welble said he has no way of telling for sure, he expects a large turnout Tuesday. He bases this assumption on the number of absentee ballots already turned into his office. Sixty-one voters had cast absentee ballots and delivered them to his office by 5 p.m. Friday afternoon. This is a larger number than in the last general election, Welble said.

Although not as long as in some election years, the ballot Tuesday still poses several difficult problems.

Probably most important for the State of Nebraska is the income tax issue. Voters will decide whether to keep the present state income tax or throw it out. The issue got on the ballot by a petition drive only recently ruled legal by the State Supreme Court. It is a constitutional amendment.

There are 15 other constitutional amendments the voters of the state will speak out upon. They range from a proposal to raise the pay of legislators to a proposal to permit the state to go into debt to finance road construction.

Wayne County has a chance to vote out of Educational Service Unit One. Only one other county in this five-county unit is voting on this question. Dakota County voters will decide the same question.

On the presidential ticket are three parties. Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew for the Republican Party, Hubert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie for the Democratic Party and George Wallace and S. Marvin Griffin for the American Party. Wallace's selection of Curtis E. LeMay as his vice-presidential running mate came too late for LeMay's name to be included on the ballot. A vote for Wallace and Griffin is a vote for Wallace and LeMay.

Voters in this congressional district can choose among three men to represent them in Congress—Robert Denney, Republican, Clair Callan, Democrat, and Harry Bruce Hamilton, New Party.

Voters in Wayne County will also help decide the question of who represents the 17th district in the state legislature. Hunting for the non-political position are John R. Murphy and Elmer Wallace.

The rest of the non-political ballot varies slightly according to where a voter lives in Wayne County.

Welble warned certain voters that they must meet deadlines if they want to vote Tuesday and if they want their vote to count.

Paraplegics or blind people who need help in the voting booth have until 4 p.m. today to apply in person at the county clerk's office in the Wayne County courthouse. Disabled voters must pick up their ballots by the same deadline.

Disabled ballots have to be delivered to the county clerk's office or the election commissioner on or before election day if delivered in person. Absentee ballots have to be in the clerk's office by 10 a.m. Thursday. Disabled voters' ballots when delivered by mail have to meet the same deadline.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, it has been the utmost concern of the VFW Auxiliary to relieve the distressed of America's war veterans, their families, their widows and orphans;

and WHEREAS, throughout the passage of time welcome comfort has been brought to the untold number of persons by the devoted and dedicated leaders of this organization; and WHEREAS, once in each year the citizens of our country are given the opportunity to express their gratitude to these ladies by purchasing and wearing with just proudest the buddy poppies created by the willing hands of the nation's disabled veterans.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Alfred A. Koplin, mayor of city of Wayne, Nebraska, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Nov. 7, as VFW Auxiliary Poppy Day in the city and call upon all of our people to give generous and active support to this worthy effort.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have herewith set my hand and caused the seal of city of Wayne, Nebraska, to be affixed this second day of November, 1968, MAYOR

Allen Request Moves Another Step

Congressman Robert Denney's secretary called Allen Mayor LeRoy Roberts Saturday night and informed him that some progress has been made with Allen's application for a loan and a grant from the Federal Home Administration in Washington, D. C. The loan and grant would be used to construct a sewer system in Allen.

She didn't say how much progress has been made or how much money was being reserved for Allen, Roberts noted, but she did say that Allen has priority for part of January's third quarterly allotment.

Allen applied for a grant of $39,000 and a loan of $80,000.

Total cost of the sewer system would be $130,714.50. Allen would have to supply the rest of the money. It would presumably come out of the general fund, according to William Snyder, village clerk.

Allen first began working on the sewer system idea about 18 months ago. It is eligible for the loan and grant under federal plans which were set up to help smaller communities make improvements they would otherwise be unable to afford.

The sewer system, as now planned, would include a lagoon much like Wayne's just to the west of the town.

Seek Bond Election Date

Whinsie's School board has hired Dana Larson Roubal and Associates, Omaha, as architects for a proposed new elementary school building. Preliminary plans are drawn involving 30,550 square feet of floor space. At $13 a square foot the building would cost $397,150.00.

Site improvements would cost $10,000; kitchen equipment, $5,000; library equipment, $5,000; and stage lighting and rigging, $5,000. Total cost, including the architectural fee and contingency costs, is projected at $461,700.00.

Additions and alterations to the present high school building would add another 3,956 square feet of floor space. More classroom equipment is sought for the high school. Projected cost for both the new elementary building and the expansion of high school facilities would reach $524,617.00.

School board members plan to meet with John Addison, Larson Roubal and Associates; and fiscal agent, Mike Vanhorn of Omaha, tonight, to finalize legal aspects of a bond election. It is hoped that a bond election may be held Dec. 3.

Need Ride to Polls?

Need a ride to the polls Tuesday?

Sigma Tau Gamma, social fraternity at Wayne State College, has offered to give free rides to the polls to anybody needing them between 4:00 and 8:00 p.m. Fraternity members will have about eight cars available. For a ride, call Raymond Novak at 375-2108.

VFW 'Poppy Day' Scheduled Nov. 7

VFW Auxiliary, Wayne, will be offering citizens another opportunity to participate in the purchasing and wearing of buddy poppies on Nov. 7.

Men now fighting, many of them dying, and their dependents, will be helped by the funds raised. The VFW Auxiliary annually sponsors the Buddy Poppy project, offering the buddy poppies for sale on Wayne's downtown streets, as a way of financially helping veterans and their dependents.

Chest Drive Looking Good

Early reports from the Community Chest drive chairman, Darrel Fuelberth, show the 1968 fund drive is off to a good start. Approximately $1,000 had been turned in or pledged by Saturday morning.

Response to the 16th annual Chest drive has been good. Workers are co-operative and enthusiastic, knowing that funds solicited will help provide operating costs for Wayne Youth activities; Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Salvation Army, United Service Organization and the Florence Crittenton Home.

Most residents of Wayne realize the increasing costs for the USO program alone. More of our community's and nation's youth are entering the military service thereby creating more demand upon USO services. Few people, if any, would refuse to contribute a gift going to help a serviceman.

A big percent of Chest funds will be expended in local youth work providing many recreational activities for all ages.

The idea of making one contribution, rather than being contacted by a multiplicity of solicitors for various causes, is being well received again this year.

In that the "house to house" method of contacting the citizenry is not being used this

Attacks State School Plan

S. H. Brauer, Jr., secretary of the Nebraska School Improvement Association, speaking to about 100 people Thursday night in the Wayne city auditorium, attacked the Nebraska Master Plan of the Great Plains School District Organization Project.

Calling it "one of the most radical and far-reaching plans ever devised in Nebraska," Brauer said the master plan is not just a "study" as its proponents argue. "It cost $356,000 to do the four-state study and the overall purpose of the study was to strengthen state leadership for school district organization."

The purpose of the Nebraska plan, according to a condensed and analyzed version of the plan prepared by Brauer, was "to (1) present supporting data for the need for changes in school district organization in Nebraska, (2) recommend guidelines for school district organization in Nebraska, (3) make recommendations for adequate legislation to accomplish the task, (4) make recommendations for the implementation of the legislation, and (5) to make recommendations for adequate follow-up services to newly organized districts."

The four-state study took about 28 months to complete and the Nebraska plan was being completed simultaneously, Brauer noted. "It was completed in about June but Dr. Floyd Miller, state education commissioner, and the project chairman sat on the report and would not release it."

Finally, the State Board of Education had it known to them that they had better release it to them by Sept. 5 or there would be a boycott of the board's meeting and the lack of a quorum would halt the conducting of business," as Brauer put it.

"Now it finally has been released to the board, by condensed and analyzed version attempts to explain the lengthy report to the public."

Thursday night's meeting was advertised through flyers delivered to rural route patrons as an "emergency meeting on the Nebraska Master Plan for the mandatory and forced reorganization of all school districts in the state." Fred Mann of Wayne helped organize the meeting, describing himself as an "interested citizen."

The flyer states that the Nebraska version "calls for the enactment of laws for the forced reorganization of all local school districts into administrative districts" based on several minimum requirements or criteria.

According to the flyer, some of the requirements for sparsely populated areas are multi-county "unified K-12 administrative districts," "administrative districts" must be developed around a town with a population of 2,500 or more inhabitants, high school "attendance centers" must have 100 students per graduating class and all "administrative districts" must be organized to provide "pre-kindergarten programs. Some of the requirements for the densely populated areas, according to the flyer, are that each "administrative district" must enroll from 3,000-5,000 students and high school "attendance centers" must enroll from 700-800 secondary students.

"We have been criticized for using scare tactics in trying to explain this plan to the people in Nebraska. We are not using scare tactics—there is no way in the world to misinterpret or distort these guidelines, Brauer stated.

"What will this plan do to the school districts in Nebraska if the plan is adopted and implemented? It will create huge school districts that would no longer be under the control of the people. It would do this because the 'local administrative districts' in the state would number only 45 if the guidelines about minimum school enrollment were met. And there are only 30 out of 93 counties in the state which have population centers of 2,500 or more," according to Brauer.

"But my main opposition to the Nebraska plan is that it would be forced down the throats of the people by those who endorsed it. It may not come about all at once, but would be enacted slowly by legislation. What those people who have endorsed the plan are saying is that the people no longer know enough to operate their own small school districts."

Brauer said he opposes the present educational service units now operating in Nebraska because they are the intermediate step in the implementation of this master plan. They were created in 1965 and now have become administrative units although their proponents at the time of their creation said they would never become administrative.

"The boards of education of these service units have a tremendous amount of power in deciding the services to be offered. Shortly after their creation, there began to be duplication and overlapping of services offered children. Now much of the duplication has been done away with by the local districts stopping their services and letting the educational units take them over. This is the units' way of wiggleing their way into the program of the local districts," stated Brauer.

"However, I will admit that there is one limiting factor as to the services the units can offer—the economic factor. They are limited to operating on a levy of one mill. But the educational units can decide how much mill levy they need to operate. Not even the Legislature or the local school districts have this power of deciding for themselves how much mill levy they need to operate," noted Brauer.

"And now we are told that the educational units were poorly organized in 1965 since they should include more children in each unit in order to operate properly," Brauer emphasized and continued.

"The project staff for the Nebraska plan recommends that the boundaries of the units be stabilized and all the territory in the state be included in the educational unit. They say this despite the fact that by law a county doesn't have to belong to See SCHOOL PLAN, page 5

Pender Farmer Gets Conservation Award

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Krusemark of Pender were selected as the conservation award family from Wayne County this year. They were honored at an awards banquet at North Platte where Governor Norbert Tiemann presented them with a certificate. They also received a 16-inch by 20-inch colored aerial photo of their farm. This photo was presented through the courtesy of the Wayne County banks.

MR. AND MRS. KRUSEMARK display the colored aerial picture of their farm presented them by Governor Tiemann at an awards banquet at North Platte.

Mr. and Mrs. Krusemark and their three children, Jackie, Scott and Robin, own 240 acres and operate 240 additional acres. They have a complete conservation plan on their home farm. These conservation practices include terraces, waterways, drainage ditches, tile drains, farmstead windbreak, conservation cropping system and contour farming. They have also encouraged the owners of their rented land to apply conservation measures on their land.

Press Must Fight Government: Salinger

"If the press and the government ever become friends in America it will mean the beginning of the disintegration of democracy in this country," Pierre Salinger told a crowd estimated at slightly over 300 Wednesday evening.

"The framers of the Constitution created a powerful press so it could look over the shoulder of a powerful government. The two began in struggle and they continue so to this day," Salinger explained. Every president, even Thomas Jefferson, one of the strongest proponents of a free press, fought with the press, Salinger told the first Wayne State College Special Programs audience in the Rice Memorial Auditorium.

"Because of our open society there must be this battle between the government and the press even though it has its advantages and disadvantages," he said. "I believe the President has the right to withhold news from the public in cases of national security. But I also respect the right of the press to try to get that information. Any government to be effective has to be truthful and open. But a government also has a right to keep certain information from reaching the enemy. Some method should be devised which would halt the press from printing this kind of information but which would at the same time not be censorship of the press."

PIERRE SALINGER & TRADEMARK. Salinger answered several questions after his speech at the Wayne State College Rice Auditorium Wednesday evening.

United States has only recently evolved into a responsible and demanding job. Stephen Early, press secretary to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, began the movement.

The press secretary now has three main responsibilities—spokesman for the President, coordinator of information concerning the executive branch of government and advance planner of trips of the President.

Mistakes in fulfilling any of these responsibilities could lead to a world crisis, Salinger emphasized. Poor handling of the first responsibility occurred when the U-2 plane was shot down over Russia during President Dwight Eisenhower's time in office. Within 24 hours, he stressed, the United States had released three different stories about the incident. As a result, Khrushchev refused to meet with Eisenhower as had been planned, he added.

"The greatest danger inherent in the press secretary's job is that he might accidentally release classified information," Salinger explained. "The press secretary must read volumes and volumes of classified information and then meet with the press twice a day and quickly answer all kinds of questions without making a mistake."

Dixon Co. 4-H Council Has Supper

The Dixon County 4-H Council held a pot-luck dinner meeting at the Northeast Station at Concord on Friday evening, Oct. 25, with several visitors present. Howard Gillaspie, retired Dixon County Agent, met with the group and reported current situations and needs.

John Orr, associate state 4-H leader, presented an illustrated talk about the 4-H team. Using a football theme he explained how 4-H is an active community program which builds competent adults and stronger communities. Members, leaders, junior leaders and parents team up with county agents, specialists, sponsors and the state 4-H staff to oppose ignorance, selfishness, shyness, idleness, lack of skill and lack of initiative. He pointed out that 4-H is a team effort of involvement and building.

Dr. Orr also led a discussion about the needs of the youth in Dixon County and northeast Nebraska. Council members expressed the needs and concerns they see and the group discussed how these may be met. Plans were tentatively made for several meetings during the next year to strengthen the 4-H program and to help the 4-H members and leaders in the county and area.

Senator Answers Herald Questions

(Editor's Note: Senator Elmer Wallace, Emerson, state senator representing Wayne County and running for re-election Tuesday (tomorrow) stopped at The Wayne Herald office for an interview Friday afternoon. Following are questions put to the Senator and his answers.)

Question: The Little Hoover Commission recommends the Regents of the University of Nebraska take over the governing of the four State Colleges. Are you in favor of this or opposed to it?

Answer: Yes, I am in favor of an expanded board of some type to include the Normal Schools, the University and Vocational Education. This would take some time as it must be accomplished by constitutional amendment.

Q: Another recommendation of the Little Hoover Commission is that the building programs at the State Colleges be deferred

Vets' Wives and Widows Receive Aid

President Johnson has signed into law a precedent-setting bill giving education and training benefits to widows of men who died - and the wives of veterans who are totally and permanently disabled - as the result of military service.

After Dec. 1, 1968, when the new law goes into effect, these wives and widows will be eligible for the same Veterans Administration educational assistance now available to the sons and daughters of veterans who died or are permanently and totally disabled as a result of military service.

This marks the first time in the history of veterans' benefits

In the U. S., that widows and wives will be authorized a VA educational assistance allowance.

Payments will range from $130 a month for full-time training (up to a maximum of 36 months) to $95 for three-quarters time training and $60 for half-time training.

The new law, which was signed by the President Oct. 23, also gives veterans separated from service after Jan. 31, 1955, one and one-half months of education and training entitlement under the current Post-Korean GI Bill for each month of military service after Jan. 31, 1955. This is a change from the present ratio of one month of entitlement for each month of service. VA officials said that unchanged, however, is the maximum of 36 months of entitlement.

Under another provision of the law that goes into effect the first of December, veterans with 18 months or more of service after Jan. 31, 1955, who have satisfied their military obligation, will be entitled to 36 months of VA educational assistance.

It is estimated that during the first full year this new and ex-

State PTA Meet Set

"PTA Communications in Modern America" is the topic for the state convention of the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers, the board of managers announced.

About 40 officers and district directors meeting in Lincoln in a semi-annual meeting, made plans for the April 16 and 17 meeting in McCook.

Convention sessions will explore the communications between the parent and child, the parent and school and the parent and the community, according to Mrs. Harold H. Thompson, state PTA president.

Mrs. GEO. BRAMMER marks her 94th birthday. Daughters (from left) Mrs. Laurence Ruwe, Wayne, and Mrs. Henry Wieting, Axtell, helped her celebrate.

Daughters Help Mom Mark Birthday

Mrs. George Brammer who lives four miles north and one and one-half miles east of Wayne, celebrated her 94th birthday Thursday. Two of her daughters, Mrs. Laurence Ruwe, Wayne, and Mrs. Henry Wieting, Axtell, assisted her in hosting fifteen neighborhood guests at a coffee hour in the afternoon, marking the occasion.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1874, she moved with her parents to Nebraska by train when she was but five years old. She has remained a resident of Dixon County for 89 years.

On Oct. 22, 1897, just nine days prior to her 23rd birthday, she was united in marriage to George Brammer. The young couple farmed until they retired in 1925. Since her husband's passing twelve years ago, Mrs. Brammer has resided with her daughter, Mrs. Laurence Ruwe. Her other three children are Ernest Brammer, Wayne; Mrs. Ted Lessman, Hagata; Arizona; and Mrs. Henry Wieting, Axtell, Nebr.

She recalls that her first automobile ride was in an "Oakland Eight," which she and her husband purchased in 1916 as their first car.

Mrs. Brammer is the oldest living member of the Immanuel Lutheran church northeast of Wayne, of which Rev. A. W. Gode, is pastor. She is still a member also of the Ladies Aid.

With hard work as a life-time hobby, she continues to do some sewing, being blessed with excellent eyesight.

Always having voted since women were allowed to vote, she considers going to the polls as a definite privilege, and the Brammers always desired to vote for the man they believed to be most qualified, rather than staying with a particular party.

Being very alert and appreciative of her cake and flowers, Mrs. Brammer was afraid everyone was making too much fuss about her, but the smiles that continued illuminating her face were ones of deep gratitude.

Marlene Freudenburg Weds Dallas Wachter In Norfolk Ceremony

Marlene Freudenburg, Columbus, daughter of Mrs. Violet Freudenburg, Norfolk, and Dallas Wachter, Columbus, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Wachter, Hoskins, were married Oct. 27 at 5 p.m. at Christ Lutheran Church, Norfolk.

Rev. Leland Setgast officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was furnished by Mrs. William Blank, soloist, and John Moritz organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Marvin Freudenburg, wore a gown of bridal satin and Venice lace. The skimmer silhouette of satin was topped with a lace bodice and featured a detachable train edged in lace accented with dion bows. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by lace and organza flowers trimmed with seed pearls.

Shirley Kuta, Columbus, was maid of honor. Janet Uecker, Norfolk, and Diana Wachter, Hoskins, were bridesmaids. They wore floor length gowns of lime green chiffon with A-line skirts and empire waistlines. Their veils were held with satin bows and each carried a single large burnt orange mum.

Ivan Kratochvil, Pekin, Ill., was best man. Groomsmen were Don Neilsen, Wayne, and Myron Freudenburg, Norfolk. Rodney Wachter and Mark Freudenburg, Norfolk, were ushers.

Bonnie and Connie Bachman, Fremont, lighted the candles. Darwin Eucker, Madison, was ringbearer. Flowergirl was Donnell Eucker, Madison.

A reception was held in the church school basement following the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Eldor Eucker were hosts. Mrs. Milan Freudenburg was in charge of registering the 175 guests. Mrs. Dale Goodwater, Mrs. Robert King, Mrs. Dean Muhs and Mrs. Larry Williamson arranged the gifts.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. Arnold Schulz, Mrs. DuWayne Eucker and Rosella Klentz.

The bride, a graduate of Norfolk Senior High School, is employed by Consumers Public Pow-

CIP to Announce Winners

Judges are selecting winners in the two final phases of the 1968 Community Improvement Program. Wayne is one of the many entrants. Winners in these segments of the program, as well as those communities already judged best in the Community Awards competition, will be announced at the Community Improvement Program awards banquet at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education on Nov. 8. Keith Moseley, local chairman of Wayne's Community Improvement Program, and Bernard Schulte, Chamber of Commerce manager, plan to attend the fete.

The CIP is designed to stimulate local improvement projects and to reward those communities which carry on the best programs. It is administered by the Nebraska Department of Economic Development and the University of Nebraska Extension Division. Financial sponsorship is provided by eight area gas companies.

Teams of judges are reviewing nearly 50 final reports submitted by communities in the Special Awards segment of the CIP. Communities who have shown outstanding achievement in the areas of downtown improvement, community-wide beautification, parks and recreation, industrial sites, cultural enrichment, tourism and special events, or implementation of comprehensive development plans will be awarded a special program plaque.

Also being reviewed are the entries submitted by cities and towns for designation as "All-Nebraska Community". In order to qualify for this award, a community must meet the minimum criteria which has been set for their size town.

Best of these are new programs introduced to the Community Improvement Program this year.

Judging in the Community Awards competition was completed last week. Three top winners will be named in each of four population classes in this segment of the CIP.

The awards day activities on Nov. 8 will begin with the Governor's CIP Chairman luncheon at noon. A seminar will begin at 2:30 p.m. with the Awards Banquet slated to start at 6 p.m.

Winside Women's Club Hosts Party

Winside's Federated Women's Club sponsored a Halloween costume party Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in the auditorium with approximately 100 in attendance.

Prizes for first, second and third place were given to winners in four different age groups. After the contest, games were played and everyone received a treat.

Winners in the four different categories were: Pre-school and kindergarten, Darla Janke, first prize; Diana Luehl, second, and Troy Kramer, third place.

First and second grades: Jim Olson, first prize; Eric Vahlkamp, second and David Ritze, third prize.

Third and fourth grades: Cynthia Krueger, first prize; Darla Hintz, second, and LaNell Zofka, third place.

Fifth and sixth grades: John Gallop, first place; Lori Jenkins, second prize, and Nancy Morris, third place.

A fund for UNICEF was collected amounting to $13.

Winside Club Selects New Officers

Winside's Community Club met Monday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church with Earl Duering, president, presiding.

New officers elected were Earl Duering, president; Stanley Soden, vice president; Rosemary Mintz, secretary and treasurer. Board of directors are James Troutman, Richard Miller and Don Wacker.

Darrell Holdorf discussed the Lucky Bucks drawing which will be held each Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. beginning Nov. 16.

It was decided by the Club to add to the Christmas decorations. Christmas committee members this year are Dr. Don Verba, Leonard Anderson, Stanley Soden, Dale Kropp and Louie Willers.

Those serving on the Santa committee are David Warmunde, George Cahll, Fred Brader, Gus Hank, Clifton Burris and Earl Westfall.

The Nov. 25 meeting of the Community Club will be held at Trinity Lutheran Church.

Blue Devils out of conference race

Laurel Halts Wayne Winning Streak

Any Wayne hopes for a second consecutive Husker Conference (western division) championship were cut short Friday night at WSC stadium when the invading Laurel Bears outscored the Blue Devil gridders 19-7. The loss was the first of the season for Coach Allen Hansen's team which had chalked up seven straight victories.

Possession of the football changed five times in the first quarter before Wayne had its first opportunity to score. The stage was set when Bernie Binger recovered a Laurel fumble on the Bears' 25 and gave the Blue Devils control of the ball. On the first play from scrimmage following the fumble, Laurel's Jim Schroeder abruptly halted Wayne's drive by intercepting a Blue Devil pass on the six yard line and returning it to the 20.

Laurel was unable to successfully move the ball for the remainder of the first period and Wayne assumed possession of the ball on the first play of the second quarter when Jerold Meyer intercepted a Bear pass on Wayne's 49 and returned it five yards. Five plays later the Blue Devils fell short on a fourth down and five situation at the Bear 25 and gave the football back to Laurel.

Neither team was able to make a sustained drive in the next five turnovers until Laurel took control on its own 25 following a Wayne punt. On the first down and ten play the Bears surprised the Blue Devils with a reverse that saw Dave Dietrich scamper 44 yards to Wayne's 31. Five plays later the Bears were on the scoreboard when Quarterback Steve Erwin hit Brent Falmestock with a 16-yard touchdown pass. The extra point, an aerial from Erwin to Larry Smith, was good and Laurel held a 7-0 lead with 1:06 remaining in the half. The half ended with Wayne in control of the ball on its own 16.

Laurel struck again quickly in the third period when Wendell Hansen recovered a fumbled Blue Devil punt return in the Wayne end zone. The PAT run by Erwin was stopped short but Laurel led 13-0 with 7:27 left in the third stanza.

Both teams had trouble moving the ball for the rest of the quarter but Wayne began its lone touchdown drive on the first play of the final 12 minutes. The drive began on the Blue Devils' own 20 when Laurel fell short on a fourth and two situation and ended twelve plays later when Randy Helgren hit Jerry Titze with an 18-yard halfback pass. The PAT kick by Titze was good and Wayne trailed 13-7 with 8:27 left in the game.

Wayne's comeback hopes vanished six plays following the Blue Devils' kickoff when Erwin hit Larry Smith with a 42-yard scoring pass. The PAT attempt failed but Laurel held a 19-7 lead which was to remain intact for the remaining six minutes.

Wayne's leading rusher was Dan Sutherland who carried the ball 12 times for 60 yards. He was followed by Dwayne DeTurk who carried the ball three times for four yards. Laurel's leading rusher was Dave Dietrich who carried the ball four times for 34 yards. He was followed by Jim Schroeder who carried the ball 16 times for 38 yards.

Defensive leader for Wayne was Vaughn Korth who had 17 tackles and six assists. He was followed by Steve Mrsny with 12 tackles and four assists; Dan Sutherland with nine tackles and four assists; Randy Helgren with eight tackles and two assists; and Doug Maurer with seven tackles and two assists.

Laurel's balanced defense was led by Dwain Stanley with six tackles and one assist. He was followed by Larry Smith and Jim Schroeder with five tackles and five assists each; and Dick Wendell and Wendell Hansen with five tackles and three assists apiece.

Wayne's final gridiron contest will be a road trip to Pierce next Friday night.

Winside Volleyball

Winside high school girls will get out the volleyball Tuesday and start practicing for their first encounter in the Orchard Invitational tournament, Nov. 25-26.

Four out-of-town games in December are with Randolph on the 2nd; Ponca Dec. 7; Emerson Dec. 9 and Allen Dec. 16.

For their first home game the girls will play Laurel Jan. 6, at 3 p.m.

Frosh Lose Last Game

Wayne High Freshmen lost their last game of the season Thursday afternoon when they took on the West Point High Freshmen and sophomores. Playing at West Point, the squad brought home a 7-14 loss, their second loss of the season.

Wayne got on the scoreboard first in the game when they scored early in the first quarter. Lonnie Blittoff took the ball over and scored the extra point to give Wayne the lead.

West Point evened the score in the second quarter, and with only about 4:00 left in the game, the hosts scored again to finally take the lead.

Coach Don Johnson stung out Lonnie Blittoff, Scott Niemann and Bill Fletcher as outstanding on defense. Blittoff had 15 tackles, Niemann had 14 and Fletcher had 13.

The only other loss the Frosh suffered this year was at the hands of Norfolk, 6-12. The squad ended with a four-two record.

Follow the Blue Devils to Pierce Friday Night

Eagle Defense Shines in 14

Led by a sharp defensive line, the Allen Eagles came from behind in the fourth quarter and knocked off the Harrington High Wildcats 14-12 in a Lewis and Clark Conference tilt Friday night at Harrington.

Allen's defensive line caught the Wildcat quarterback behind the line of scrimmage seven times for a total of 48 yards. Harrington ended up with an embarrassing minus 36 yards rushing at the end of the game.

Both of Allen's touchdowns came after their line forced Harrington to punt deep in their own territory.

In the first quarter Harrington was able to gain only eight yards in three plays after accepting the opening kickoff. On the next play Bob Meyer exploded through the line and blocked the punt. Mike Isom smothered it on the Harrington 30 and Allen had perfect field position. A pass from Quarterback Rick Hank to Bob Mitchell put the Eagles out front with only just over a minute elapsed in the game. Freshman John Warner, the Allen extra point specialist, split the uprights for the first of two times to give the Blue and Gold a 7-0 advantage.

Taking Allen's kick the hosts moved out to their 47 before Mike Isom threw the quarterback clear back to the 38. Meyer came back into the picture when the Wildcats attempted to punt and the center threw a bad pass. Meyer caught the ball carrier on his own 34.

Penalties moved the visitors out to the 40 before they were stalled and forced to kick. The ball moved into Allen's territory for the first time in the game with 5:35 showing on the clock. Harrington kicked from their 41 to Allen's 23. They held Allen for only five yards in three carries and took the Allen punt on their 45. Harrington finally penetrated and disastrously into Allen territory with 3:13 showing on the clock. Quarterback Mike Fleming connected on an aerial which went 53 yards for a touchdown. Allen's line messed up the Wildcats' extra point attempt and the first quarter closed with Allen moving from their 30 to the hosts' 45.

Neither team mounted a sustained drive in the second quarter. Led by the hard tackling of Curt Wheeler, Mike Isom and Bob Meyer, Allen's defensive line repeatedly stopped Wildcat plays and only gave up two first downs, both on passes late in the first half.

Fullback Al Smith let the Wildcat third quarter opening kickoff scoot by him and all the way to the one-yard line before he could catch it and try for a return. He moved out to the 15 before

COACH ALLEN HANSEN was giving Quarterback Dave Tietgen sideline instructions when this picture was taken in the first half of Friday night's contest. Wayne was knocked out of the race for the Husker Conference (western division) championship as the result of Laurel's 19-7 victory.

College Band, Honoraries Elect Officers

The Wayne State College band, now making a transition from marching to concert performances, has elected the following officers: Gary Willett, Woodbine, Ia., president; Dan Praemer, Neligh, vice president; and Joyce Sokol, Omaha, secretary-treasurer.

Two honoraries also elected presidents: Larry Marik, Howells, head of Kappa Kappa Psi, national fraternity for bandsmen, and Jane Goodmanson, Glidden, Ia., head of Tau Beta Sigma, national sorority for bandswomen.

Dr. Raymond H. Kelton, director, said the 96-member band has outgrown the available uniforms, making it impossible to use all players during the marching season. But all will perform in forthcoming concerts, the first scheduled for Dec. 8 in Ramsey Theater.

WHS Band Students

Winside public school students interested in taking lessons on a band instrument will be meeting with instructor Young on Thursday. Lessons will be given each Thursday and Friday during the remainder of the school year.

Parents who would like to discuss the possibility of having their child play a band instrument are invited to meet with the music department head between 3 p.m. and 4:15 p.m. Nov. 7 in the elementary music room.

Other Winside school news this week was that Violet Damon, guidance counselor, has been elected chairman-elect for the Secondary Teachers Instructional meeting for the NSEA District III conference during the 1968-1970 school year.

being hauled down. Bob Smith scooted from the 19 to the 33, only to find the ball moved back to the 15 on a penalty. On an attempted pass, the Allen fans unhappily saw Hartington's Roland Becker pirate the ball on the 28. He got to Allen's 18 before he met up with Bob Smith, Al Smith and Jon Raetode. But on a Mike Fleming-Roland Becker pass, the hosts moved out in front for the first time in the game. Again the Allen line spoiled the Hartington extra point try and the scoreboard showed Hartington in front 12-7 with about 10 minutes left in the third quarter.

Allen's offensive line finally started opening some holes for the ball carriers as the Eagles moved all the way from their own 19 to Hartington's nine before being stalled on a fourth and six situation and forced to hand over the pigskin to the hosts. The long drive included repeated gains of four and five yards by Craig Schultz, and Al Smith. Smith started the drive out with a run from his 19 to the 38.

The Wildcats could gain only three yards in three tries before the third quarter gun sounded. Taking the Wildcat punt on Hartington's 32, the Eagles bulled to the 20 in three plays. And then Craig Schultz danced and accented by several would-be tacklers and raced into the endzone to give the lead back to Allen. Warner split the goal posts once again and Allen led 14-12 with about 10 minutes left to play in the game.

Hartington immediately threatened to score after they connected on two passes which moved them all the way from their own 37 to Allen's 21. But Rick Hank came up with what may have been the key play in the game when he pulled down their next pass and moved out to the 26. Allen was forced to punt from their 29, but the defensive line proved its worth once again when Curt Wheeler, John Warner and Mike Ison threw the quarterback for a loss of nine yards back to his own 40.

Allen took the Wildcat punt with only 4:10 left in the game, but the offense couldn't get going and the punting squad had to go back to business. Hartington's last scoring threat came on a pass which went from their 43 to Allen's 48 before Rick Hank and Bob Smith teamed up to haul down the runner.

Allen's defense, led by Wheeler and Meyer, threw the Wildcat back to his own 49 on the next play and then Mike Ison caught the quarterback clear back on his own 38 to give Allen possession with only :51 showing on the clock.

The offense followed the advice of Coach Don Kruse—they ate up the clock.

Friday night the Allen Eagles tackle the highly ranked Emerson-Hubbard eleven in an away game. The only loss Emerson-Hubbard has suffered this year came at the hands of conference-leader Randolph.

Allen is now five and two for the season and four and two in conference play.

LEADING RUSHER in Friday's Allen-Hartington battle was Craig Schultz. Here he lowers his head as he tries to grind out a few more yards before being hauled down by Ed Bottolfson (30) and another Hartington player. Schultz ended the game with 79 yards in 15 carries.

Field of Agricultural Engineering Almost Untapped, NU Prof Believes

Despite the fact that complete mechanization of American agriculture is within reach through the advanced technology of sophisticated machines and equipment, Agricultural Engineering as a profession is on the verge of a largely-untapped frontier.

This is the opinion of Dr. William Splinter, chairman of the Department of Agricultural Engineering at the University, expressed in a talk here Friday noon.

Speaking before the Nebraska Section of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers (ASAE), Dr. Splinter cited "biological engineering" as the potential for greatest growth and development in Agricultural Engineering.

Agricultural Engineers, long concerned with mechanical concepts, have little knowledge of the workings of plants and animals, which are the objects of the output of Ag Engineering know-how in machines, equipment and design, Dr. Splinter pointed out.

"Most any agricultural engineer can design a workable corn harvester," he said, "but how many can measure the allowable impact load on a kernel of corn."

"Hundreds" of agricultural engineers can design housing for poultry and swine, he continued, but few are familiar with the rate of growth of animals under different environmental conditions.

Agricultural Engineers have contributed greatly to "improving involved in foreign assignments, adding developing countries, and a significant number have become missionaries and ministers following professional training as an engineer, he said.

Ag Engineering can be credited with a large share of the effort to make American agriculture the most mechanized and efficient in the world, he said. Whereas it required two men and a boy to handle 640 acres (a section of farm land) a few years ago, one man can now handle 700 acres, with mechanization and an increase in the horsepower of tractors. It is projected that one man will be able to handle more than 1,000 acres in the future, he said.

Man himself, as an individual, is "a relatively inefficient machine" in terms of power output, being able to generate only about 1/10 horsepower, Dr. Splinter commented. Today's modern tractors in the 100 horsepower range "can literally do the work of 1,000 men." And man's labor for one day can be done by a tractor on a cup of gasoline—which can be purchased cheaply even at today's prices, he concluded.

HHH Wins College Mock Election

If the mock election of Omaha's College of St. Mary is any indication, Hubert H. Humphrey will occupy the White House in the spring.

Humphrey and Edmund Muskie received 65.1 per cent of the total votes cast on the college campus last week. Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew were second with 31.1 per cent.

The ticket of George Wallace and Curtis LeMay gained 2.7 per cent of the votes cast.

Dodge Pirates 12-6 Victims of Winside

Winside turned two Dodge fumbles into touchdowns to give them a 12-6 win over the southern visitors Friday night in a non-conference clash. The win got them back on the right track after suffering two straight losses to Randolph (8-6) and Colorado (45-13).

The fathers who came for Dad's Night saw a scoreless first quarter of action as both defensive squads did their jobs well. About the middle of the opening stanza the visitors started a drive on their own 25 and marched all the way to Winside's 28 before they ran out of steam. Winside took over and the first quarter ended with a scoreless tie.

The Wildcats finally keyed off on the first Dodge mistake when Winside's Doug Deck recovered their fumble at midfield on the second play following Winside's punt. On the first play Keith Walker broke loose for 11 yards, followed by Deck with another 11-yard run. Short-yardage gains moved the hosts from the 27 to the four before Quarterback Bob Wacker smashed over from the Wildcat's first score. Winside's extra point attempt failed and they held a slim 6-0 lead.

Dodge came close to scoring late in the second quarter when Kevin Emanuel intercepted a Wildcat aerial on the Wildcat 28. But on the next play the Pirates fumbled and Bob Wacker pounced on the ball as the half came to a close.

Early in the third quarter the Dodge eleven fumbled for the third time and Winside's Fritz Wellbe recovered on their 42. The rest of the third quarter was much like the first quarter as each team played hard-nosed defensive ball and neither offensive squad could get anywhere.

But in the fourth quarter the Wildcat offense started to click when they took the ball from midfield to the six on four consecutive first downs. The squad saw their work go to waste as the Dodge defensive line held the Wildcats at the two.

Dodge tried moving out of the cramped quarters, only to see their half runner loose the ball. Winside's Dennis Wade hauled in the ball on the two, and on the next play Bob Wacker scored the second and last touchdown for the winners when he cracked over his right side with only 4:35 left in the game.

The Pirates took advantage of a Winside fumble late in the game. They came up with the ball on the Wildcat 45. Moving well in the closing seconds of the game, the visitors marched to the Winside six and then Quarterback Jim Mandlik threw a strike to Ed Pat Werblow to end their scoring drought. The extra point attempt failed and the Wildcats held onto the ball for the 30 seconds left in the game.

Winside's last game of the season takes place Thursday night when they travel to Norfolk to challenge the Norfolk Catholic High School squad. Winside could end up with a win-

Allen Store Robbed Monday Night

Hutchings Appliances in Allen was robbed of two television sets some time Monday night, according to Mrs. Rubel Hutchings, wife of the owner of the store.

The person or persons gained entrance to the store by breaking the lock on the rear door. Taken were an 18-inch portable color television set and a 21-inch black and white set. They were found missing when the store was opened Tuesday morning.

The town sheriff, county sheriff and Robert Mavis of Wakefield, Inspector for the Nebraska Safety Patrol, investigated the robbery.

Mrs. Hutchings said thieves must be funny characters—they left several other color sets and some expensive tools untouched.

Cancer Society Workers Recognized

Presentation of awards for outstanding work over theyear were presented to several members at the Wayne County Cancer Society meeting in the Wayne State College Birch Room Tuesday night.

Women receiving certificates of merit photographed by the national president of the American Cancer Society and pins were Mrs. Chris Stietgen, Wayne, Mrs. Alfred Slevens, Winside, and Mrs. Rudy Longe, Wakefield.

Receiving service pins for 1968 were Dr. George Join, Mrs. Mathilde Harms and Mrs. J.N. Elmug, all of Wayne.

Two Wayne women, Mrs. Clifford Johnson and Mrs. Fred Gildersleeve, received special recognition at the meeting. They were given rhinestone pins for their many years of outstanding service for the society.

Fifteen people from Wayne County received the certificates of merit for their work over the past year. The women were: Mrs. Walter Bleich, Mrs. Glenn Everett and Mrs. Willard Jeffrey, all of Winside; Chris Stietgen, Mrs. Dorothy Kabisch, Mrs. Leo Hansen, Mrs. Matilda Harms, Mrs. Emil Uken, Mrs. Harold Sorenson and Miss Goldie Le-until the University Regents have prepared a comprehensive plan for their physical plant needs. From experience in other states such planning and implementation by the legislature will take from two to four years. Are you in favor of this recommendation or opposed to it?

A: Yes—I think this recommendation should be implemented as a long range program. I would oppose it as an immediate step because of the real needs of the schools such as the dormitory needs at Kearney.

Q: The Interim Study Committee of the Legislature has drafted a bill for introduction in the 1969 session which would create a coordinating board for all tax-supported post high school education. In other words, a "super board". Are you in favor of this or opposed to it?

A: Yes, an advisory committee should be established until the expanded Board of Regents can be implemented.

Q: Three of the four State Colleges offer a Master's degree program for area teachers. In the winter terms this is largely an evening program serving teachers who live within a radius of 50-75 miles of the colleges. Some people favor legislative action to stop these programs. How do you stand on this?

A: I am in favor of keeping the program.

Q: You were one of three Senators who arranged a hearing last spring to investigate the administration of Wayne State College. Do you count the matter closed or do you intend to continue the so-called investigation, if elected?

A: I haven't had a chance to study the report of the committee that worked on this matter. The report won't be available until Nov. 18 or 19. At that time I will be willing to go along with their recommendations.

feelings on the Nebraska plan. The board will then decide what to do about the plan, according to Brauer.

One of those at the meeting was Harry Mills, administrator of Educational Service Unit One, the unit which serves Knox, Cedar, Wayne, Dixon, Dakota and Thurston Counties. Wayne and Dakota Counties will vote Tuesday on whether to remain in the units.

He said he has nothing to do with the Nebraska plan. He emphasized that his educational unit is a service unit and not an administrative unit.

"All we offer the schools in this unit are supplementary services," Mills pointed out. "We only come into a school when invited and while there we work under that school's administrators."

"The backbone of the educational units, as I see them, are the speech therapy program and the help given the educable and trainable youngsters."

Brauer said that he does admit that the educational units have been beneficial in one respect. "They have made the parents more aware about the special needs of their children. But what object about them is that they have open-ended authority. There are no laws limiting what services they can offer. What I want to see is legislation that specifically spells out their powers and responsibilities."

greatly damaged North Vietnam through our massive bombing. "A friend of mine who recently visited North Vietnam," Salinger added, "told me that the Chid Minh said the nation survived two million casualties while the dikes broke and that it can survive two million more in this war."

Salinger thinks the next hot spot in the world is going to be Latin America. We are spending about $35 billion a year in Vietnam for the war there, Salinger explained, and only about $1 billion a year in Latin America on economic and technical aid. Several nations there could easily turn into Communist Cuba in a very short time, he added.

Asked to compare the great achievements and failures of Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, Salinger said that one of Kennedy's greatest feats was his handling of the Cuba missile crisis. His greatest failure was his decision to become militarily involved in Vietnam, Salinger noted.

Salinger drove to Sioux City after his lecture in Wayne and then flew to Massachusetts and the end of a three-week lecture tour.

Now working in Paris, Salinger will be a political commentator on America's election night, analyzing the outcome for the French people via television-speaking French.

the unit. They also recommend that some of the units be enlarged and their number be reduced. Dr. Miller says he has "a notion to make them more powerful."

Another recommendation is that there should be a study made of the county superintendents and that their offices be abolished.

The report concluded, Brauer noted, that "only local school districts with school populations of 20,000 can offer complete basic educational programs and services with maximum efficiency and economy." This is economically impossible in Nebraska because of the disparity in population. It is also impractical and unachievable. "The only way it could be achieved would be by the expansion of area and power of the education units."

In fact, Brauer added, Governor Tiegan's Little Hoover Commission recently advised that the county superintendent's office be abolished and that the educational units be strengthened. The recommendations he referred to were printed in the Oct. 10 issue of The Wayne Herald.

The Little Hoover Commission said that "there is an urgent need to reduce the unrealistic large number of school districts in Nebraska" and that each district be required to offer kindergarten through 12th grade programs and have minimum enrollment standards. About the educational units, the group noted that the expanded role of the service units should be adequate enough to allow the elimination of the old office of the county school superintendent, saving an estimated $400,000 per year for the county taxpayers.

It boils down to the question of whether the people want the educational service units to administer and supervise the schools or the county superintendent to do it, Brauer pointed out. The county superintendent is closer to the people, he added, and the people would therefore have more to say about what goes on in the school.

"The educational service units are like an iceberg," Brauer said. "You only see what is on the surface. Underneath, its planners are thinking far into the future when the units will be the school districts. Are you ready to give up your voice in the workings of the schools?"

Brauer noted that if the state board of education adopts this Nebraska plan, they would have the power to implement it. Once that precedent is set, he said, the board would have the power to begin writing minimum requirements.

Brauer pointed out that one of the reasons for Thursday's meeting in Wayne was to make the public aware that the state board of education will hold a public hearing in Lincoln in the latter part of November or early in December. The public will then have a chance to express their President Kennedy, "Either he's dead or I am." Later, news came of the death of the president. "Then I went out and saw Paris," he jokingly added.

Salinger digressed momentarily in his speech when he commented on what makes a president great. "It's not how many bills a president passes in his time in office which makes him great—it's the impact on and the change he brings about in the society whether for better or worse. A great president gives the nation new ideas and new direction when the nation needs them. By that basis I think President Kennedy will go down in history as a great president. Both President Kennedy and Senator Robert Kennedy demonstrated to the nation that government can be a thing of excellence, that an individual can have an impact on a nation and that government need not be inexecutable."

After his lecture, Salinger lit up a long cigar and answered more questions from a small group.

He told the students that he expected some sort of break in the Vietnam situation within about 24 hours. At 7:00 the next night the nation heard President Johnson announce his complete bombing halt of Vietnam.

A proponent of withdrawal from Vietnam, Salinger explained to the students that we have not

Police Chief Vern Fairchild

Fairchild to Head POAN

Wayne's Police Chief, Vern Fairchild, was elected President of the Police Officers' Association of Nebraska at their 17th annual conference, which was held in Falls City Monday and Tuesday. Chief Fairchild has served as vice president of POAN during 1968. He will serve a one year presidential term as head of the 1,380 member association. Outgoing President was Elaine Sailors, Chief of Police in Falls City.

Officer E. L. "Pat" Halley, Wayne, also attended the convention which started at 8:30 a.m. Monday. Meeting was called to order by President Sailors, Falls City, and the Honorable M. G. Armbruster, Mayor of Falls City, extended the official welcome.

Appearing on the program Monday were Judge Albert Maust, County Court, Falls City, who spoke concerning court room demeanor; Robert R. Franck, Assistant Special Agent in Charge, FBI, Omaha, who addressed the gathering in regards to the role of the FBI in combating crime and the overall national crime picture.

"Drunks—Is There an Answer?" was the subject of John W. North, Director, State of Nebraska Division on Alcoholism,

Wayne High Presented Voting Books

As part of its Voters Service activities this election year the League of Women Voters of Nebraska recently presented several copies of "Choosing the President," a League publication, to Wayne High School. Making the presentation on behalf of the League of Women Voters was Mrs. Gordon Nuernberger, member-at-large.

Mrs. Nuernberger explained that the booklet was compiled by the League of Women Voters of the United States, a non-partisan organization devoted to informing citizens about candidates and governmental issues. The book includes information on the organization of political parties, how delegates to the national conventions are chosen, campaign organization and financing and the importance of the electoral college.

Conduct Soil Tests at NE Station

Two soil sampling studies were being conducted at the Northeast Station near Concord Thursday afternoon.

Ulverd Alexander, Northeast Station area agronomist, was taking soil samples to a depth of five feet to determine the amount of nitrogen carry-over in the soil. The nitrogen would be from the fertilizer last applied by the farmers.

Purpose of the study is to determine how much the farmer can cut down on his nitrogen application next year, thereby

Carroll Elementary Marks Birthday

Elementary students at Carroll who had birthdays in October received special attention Thursday noon when head cook, Betty Morris, and her assistant Viola Morris, prepared cupcakes with candles.

Those having October birthdays were Robbie Harmeler, Rex Larsen, Sandra Bowers, Tommy Nelson, Bradley Frechette, Kevin Davis and Kimberley Loberg.

Adding to the festivity was a game in which each student and faculty member in school guessed as to how many peanuts were in

Church Women United Study 'Rights'

A program on human rights entitled "New World A'Coming" was the theme Friday in a World Community Day Service of Prayer, sponsored by Church Women United in Wayne.

Churches participating were St. Paul's Lutheran, First United Methodist, First Baptist, Redeemer Lutheran and the United Presbyterian.

Mrs. Julia Haas, president of Church Women United, welcomed 75 women attending the 2 p.m. service which met on the lower floor of Redeemer Lutheran Church.

The afternoon program was designed around the theme of human rights. Helps to guide the Christian woman in her understanding of some of the factors involved were given. Such subjects as the achievement of human dignity, human rights as related to the individual, adequate standards of living, civil and political points of view and work toward a world community, were all discussed.

In response to chaotic conditions in the Middle East and the needs of those people who cry for assistance, the Church Women United chose to make children's garments to be sent to Indonesia, as evidence of Christian concern from people who care.

Garments were made by members of the five participating congregations. Each church's women's group made a blouse, a boy's shirt, boy's pants, a skirt and two pair of under-clothing.

A trio consisting of Mrs. Fritz Ellis, Mrs. Kenneth Dahl and Mrs. Ted Bahe, sang "Let There Be Music." They were accompanied by Mrs. Bill Kugler at the piano.

Refreshments were served by the Redeemer Lutheran Church women following the benediction given by Rev. Kenneth Freese.

Nebraska Banks Tops in Farm Loans

Nebraska banks were providing farmers with more credit and other financial services than any other lenders at the beginning of this year, according to Harold F. Hein, chairman of the board of Wayne's State National Bank and Trust Co.

Hein represents the Nebraska Bankers Association as Wayne County representative. During 1967, he noted, the banks maintained their leadership in agricultural services.

Based on the 27th annual farm lending summary of the Agricultural Committee of The American Bankers Association, Hein reported that at the beginning of the year, Nebraska banks were helping farmers with $654 million in loans, nine per cent more than the previous year. This total included $623 million in production loans and $31 million in farm mortgages.

At the same time, $229 million in farm loans was held by life insurance companies; $198 million by the Federal Land Bank; $133 million by Production Credit Associations and $23 million in non-real estate loans, plus $10 million in real estate loans by the Farmers Home Administration. About 82 per cent of the production credit extended by lending institutions to Nebraska farmers came from banks.

Hein said that "bankers in Nebraska are conscious of the large capital investments required in agriculture today and are making a concerted effort through improved lending programs to meet these changing credit demands of the state's farmers."

The increased use of credit

Vocal Clinic Today

Whisper High School is host to the Lewis and Clark Vocal Clinic today. Conference schools participating in the all day clinic are Winside, Allen, Ponca, Wynot, Hartington Cedar Catholic, Hartington High, Coleridge, Emerate Hubbard, Randolph and Norfolk Catholic High.

Guest conductor for the clinic is Dr. Eugene Nelson of Midland College. He is the originator of a swing choir named "The Clef Dwellers," which will appear on the 7:30 p.m. program in the High School auditorium.

Adding variety to the evening concert, a special number will be presented by each school along with the selections performed by the 240 voice clinic chorus.

It was erroneously stated in Thursday's Herald that the clinic was being held Nov. 31. The right date is today, Nov. 4.

by farmers, according to Hein, has been accompanied by a substantial gain in the total assets of farm families. Therefore, in the aggregate, the equity position of farmers, contrary to public opinion, is being maintained at a satisfactory level. Nationally, farm families have $231 billion of their own funds invested in agriculture. This represents 82 per cent of the total capital requirements of farmers.

Hein stressed the importance of farmers and bankers working closely together to improve farm financial arrangements. He reported that nine out of ten insured banks throughout the country had agricultural loans outstanding, with nearly 99 per cent of the banks in Nebraska extending credit to farm people.

WSC Debate Team in UN-O Tournament

Wayne State's forensic team initiated its 1968-69 season with major competition at the University of Nebraska-Omaha Tournament Oct. 24-26. About 60 teams from throughout the United States competed.

The team of Millnitz-Wachholtz four of the six debate rounds. Peterson placed second in one of his rounds of impromptu speech; Green and Miss Fullner first in one of their interpretative address rounds; Armstrong sixth in original oratory. Miss Fullner placed ninth in over-all results.

Among all schools participating in novice debate, Wayne State placed in the top third on its won-lost record.

Halloween Pranksters Tote Tombstone

Wayne police were called Friday morning by a local businessman who had an extra tombstone on his lot containing monuments and grave markers. Evidently Halloween pranksters had removed the small stone from a grave just for "fun."

Other police activities during the last two days included investigating the report of a local businessman having his jacket stolen which contained his car keys, house keys and keys to his place of business.

Wayne Brownies Get Pins and Stars

Brownie Scout Troop 304 of Wayne held its Brownie Investiture Ceremony Tuesday, Oct. 15, at West Elementary School.

Seventeen girls received their Brownie pins. They were: Lea Barclay, Lori Branch, Debra Brummond, Carol Francis, Laurie Hendricks, Sandy Jacobmeyer, Nancy Lambert, Holly Lesman, Linda Lund, Iolyn Mallette, Susan Proett, Anita Sandahl and Christina Vakoc.

Two girls, Carman Bohm and Jean Carhart, were not present to receive their pins. They will be presented to them at a future meeting.

Nine girls received their membership stars during the ceremony. These were given for being Brownies for one year. They were: Pam Brummond, Cathy Cottrell, Patty Glass, Tammi Harder, Jeanne Kerl, Lori Lund, Sydney Moseley, Kayla Palmer and Charlyne Thiel.

Leader of the troop is Mrs. Dean Hendricks. Mrs. Steve Branch is the assistant leader. Refreshments were served to parents, relatives and guests who attended the ceremony.

ETV Will Telecast

A complete series of swine workshops will be aired over the Nebraska ETV network next January and February.

This is the first time that a complete workshop has been conducted through the network, according to John McLaughlin, NU Extension Radio-TV specialist. The program, which will be produced by the NU Department of Information, will be shown in color and will be transmitted to all areas of the state, he added.

Dr. Leo Lucas, NU Extension swine specialist who is coordinating the efforts with McLaughlin, says there will be a series of five shows on Jan. 6, 13-20-27 and Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m.

The main topics to be presented during the workshop will include: selecting and handling of replacement stock and boars prior to breeding; responsible facts for variation in litter size and appropriate management needed during gestation; factors involved in baby pig losses during early stages of growth; key items responsible for excellent nursery results; and a close examination of possible alternatives in management and facilities during the finishing period.

Pastor Recuperates

Rev. Jessie A. Withee, pastor of both Logan Center EUB Church and the United Methodist Church in Dixon, remains hospitalized in room 106 at Osmond after suffering a severe heart attack Oct. 15.

According to Mrs. Withee, the pastor is making good progress in recuperating although it will be some time yet before he is able to return home.

Rev. Withee is delighted and very grateful for all the mail he has received from friends. Reading the mail and watching some television is about all he is presently able to do.

Rev. Wesley Frank, South Sioux City, retired minister of the United Methodist Church, is serving as interim minister at both the Logan Center church, and the United Methodist in Dixon.

Area Schools Hold Halloween Parties

Elementary students at Concord, Dixon and Allen held their usual little party Thursday afternoon. Dressed out in their "bests" they cavorted around trying to scare each other in their Halloween costumes.

Dixon youngsters paraded around the gym and then had a party afterwards, much like the youngsters did in Allen. In Concord the youngsters did a parade through town. They had also made displays which were put in some of the stores in town.

In Dixon's judging of costumes, Laura Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hansen of Dixon, took first place in the kindergarten through second grade division. Kris Young won in the third through fifth grade division and Tim Garvin won in the sixth through eighth grade division. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Young and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Garvin, all of Dixon.

The Concord youngsters were judged for creative art displays

Cash Night Lacks a Winner

With the holiday season rapidly approaching, wouldn't you like to win a cash prize of $250? That is the amount that is up for grabs Thursday night at 8 p.m. when the winning name will be announced in all the participating stores.

There was no winner last Thursday night, so some lucky person may win $250 this week. Mrs. Bernice Hoestje's name was called Thursday night but she was not in a participating store and missed winning $200.

The person whose name is drawn must be present in a participating store at 8 p.m. Any person over 18 is eligible to win the cash prize.

Now wouldn't that $250 by a lot of nice Christmas presents should you be the lucky winner this Thursday!

YOU IDENTIFY 'EM! Getting ready for their Halloween party Thursday afternoon, were these kindergarten through second grade students at the Dixon Grade School. Identification pictures is always difficult—here it's next to impossible. The lady helping the students is Mrs. Mary Garvin, room mother.

International Caravan Open to Area 4-H'ers

Action-minded 4-H members in the Wayne area who are 17-19 years of age must hurry if they intend to join the 4-H "Teen Caravan International," according to Dr. John Orr, associate state 4-H leader at the University of Nebraska. Applications must be delivered to County Extension Agents by Dec. 1 in order for eligible youth to spend six weeks living and working with host families in Europe or South America. In addition to the host country international experience, a 10-day educational tour is provided at the end of the six-week program.

Show Others You Care

CHARACTER CITIZENSHIP FITNESS CONCERN

GIVE YOUR FAIR SHARE

THE AGENCIES' SHARE

Each year at this time the Wayne Community Chest volunteers to perform a duty of value, the duty of gathering funds that help support seven organizations of value to Wayne.

In its 15 previous years the Wayne Community Chest has been remarkably successful, probably because our citizens know and appreciate the Chest's agencies: the Wayne Youth Program, the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the USO, and the Florence Crittenton Home. Most of us have had some contact with — many of us some benefit from one or more of the seven.

All of them are concerned partly, some of them entirely, with young people. All of them need a small corps of professional workers, but the workers' number is small compared with the lives they influence. The professionals in most of the agencies guide many volunteer workers who directly influence many lives.

Of course, money is necessary to maintain the professional staffs and to provide meaningful programs, adequate facilities. The volunteers, though they get no pay and usually work at personal sacrifice, need money for their share of the effort.

What, then, is Wayne's fair share to support the seven agencies? Chest directors suggest $8,400 as the minimum goal for 1969, but they really would like to collect more. With our population, $8,400 seems a modest gift.

In these times of trouble when many of us ask what's happened to the fundamental values of America, the Wayne Community Chest believes in the values that our participating agencies stress — Character, Citizenship, Fitness, Concern.

This is how the suggested Wayne goal of $8,400 will be shared among the seven participating organizations in 1969, plus a small amount for Chest expenses.

HOW TO GIVE YOUR SHARE

This year the Community Chest will not conduct a residential campaign. Instead, we will visit employees where they work. We hope you will think carefully how much you can give so that the seven agencies can thrive in and for Wayne.

If you are not employed at a Wayne firm, or if somehow you are not visited and want to give, please send your gift or pledge to the Secretary, Wayne Community Chest, Wayne, Neb.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Your Vote Does Count — Cast It Tomorrow

Tomorrow is the first Tuesday after the first Monday in an even-numbered year. Remember when you had to memorize that phrase in your high school government class.

Tomorrow, you have the right (some say the obligation) to vote in a general election. Too often people do not vote because, they say, "my one vote won't make any difference anyway". But consider the following:

One vote elected three presidents.

1800: Thomas Jefferson was elected President over Aaron Burr by one vote in the House of Representatives, following a tie in the electoral votes.

1824: John Quincy Adams gained the Presidency by one vote when the contest was decided in the House.

1876: Rutherford B. Hayes won election by one vote over his opponent Samuel Tilden (who had the greater popular vote) in perhaps the most spectacular one-vote presidential upset in American political history.

One vote saved a President from removal from office. Andrew Johnson, the only President to have been impeached, would have been removed but for just one vote in the U. S. Senate.

Tomorrow, ask yourself what Jefferson, Adams, Hayes or Johnson would have said about that old excuse about one vote not counting. — N.L.H.

Hunters vs. Farmers

Hunters, whether from out of town or from the Wayne area, should remember when they go hunting that they do not own the land. More than likely, the land belongs to a farmer nearby and it should be treated as such.

Farmers have often been criticized for posting their land and not letting hunters onto it. But many times farmers are justified in doing so for several reasons.

Too often, hunters, either out of haste or the lack of common courtesy, are destructive of the farmer's property. They trample down crops, tear wires loose from fence posts and shoot dangerously close to livestock. Put yourself in the farmer's position. Would you want someone doing this to your property?

Too often, hunters have no respect for the farmer's family. If a shelter belt close to the house looks promising, many hunters will charge right in and begin walking it, failing to realize that they could easily kill or injure a child or a pet.

Too often, hunters will completely deplete a small area of its game birds before the farmer has a chance to hunt. This is especially true of quail, a bird which flocks together. All hunters and farmers, should have an equal chance to hunt an area. The game birds belong to every person in the state who purchases a permit.

To avoid any problems with farmers this time of the year, hunters should remember to treat the land and property in the same way they would want their land and property treated. It only takes a few moments to stop at a farmhouse and ask for permission to hunt a draw. And it would do away with many of the hard feelings during the hunting season. — N.L.H.

Tomorrow!

Andrew Carnegie remarked around the turn of the century, "There is no use whatever trying to help people who do not help themselves. You cannot push anyone up a ladder unless he is willing to climb himself."

Every American of voting age will be able to help themselves tomorrow by exercising the prized privilege of marking a ballot, thereby expressing a voice in government affairs.

Even though a car is new, if it is built minus a steering wheel, the vehicle isn't safe for public transportation. Likewise, government built without the proper guidance system of citizens, may also veer off the road to be demolished in a political ditch. Therefore, it is extremely important that every eligible voter go to the polls tomorrow.

Perhaps, as you near the voting booth, your memory will allow you to hear the cadence of distant drums which seems to ride the murmuring wind in any military cemetery. Those thundering voices from beyond the last heartbeat align themselves with thousands of little white crosses. Yesterday has claimed more than its share of youth's warm flesh and blood on the battlefield, but such sacrifice has made it possible for you to cast your vote according to your will tomorrow.

If your favorite candidate wins, undoubtedly you'll rejoice; however, if they should lose their race, though disappointed, you may still be delighted inasmuch as there is a victory in just being able to vote in freedom.

Help design your destiny! Vote tomorrow! Carnegie was right, "there is no use whatever trying to help people who do not help themselves." — M.M.W.

Vote . . . or Stand Mute

After one of the most lively and bitter fought campaigns in American history, some Americans will go to the polls Tuesday and vote.

Many others will not vote. They will try to justify their failure to vote in many ways, but few will have legitimate reasons. Most likely they won't vote just because they won't vote.

The vote you cast Tuesday could well be the most important vote you ever will cast. No matter what your political, moral or economic persuasion, America seems to be at a crossroads.

We have only one terse bit of advice for those of voting age. If you don't vote Tuesday, stand mute until next election. — W.W.R.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the editor may be published under a pen name if the writer desires, however, the true signature and address must be a part of the original letter. Letters must be pertinent and current, be brief as possible and contain no libelous statements. The Wayne Herald reserves the right to edit or reject any letter.

Dear Editor:

During the week of Oct. 28-Nov. 1, a flyer was sent out to postal patrons in this area concerning the Educational Service Unit. I would like to make a few pointers concerning that flyer.

No. 1. I would like to know the legal authority for the connotation of the Service Unit as a Super School District. From this point I call this flyer propaganda.

No. 2. Is the area of education for the trainable mentally retarded. Each school district is responsible for the education of all students in the district regardless of their mental capacities, although the state reimburses the district somewhat. It still leaves a terrific financial burden on the local district. Therefore, without the aid of the service unit, several districts in the area of Educational Service Unit I would each be hiring a special teacher in this area of education, whereas the Service Unit can hire one teacher to alleviate the situation in a number of districts. Teachers in the area of special education are difficult to find and the number available is still a larger problem.

No. 3. The program for the special education program has to be administered properly in order to be efficient and effective. The co-ordination of the program is essential and cannot be a haphazard operation. It is necessary to supervise the facility and evaluate its effectiveness. Administrators are concerned about the exceptional child and now, finally, something is being done for the TMR and EMR. Before the Service Unit entered the field, these students were left out and greatly neglected.

No. 4. The survey stating that a limited number of children with speech impediments were enrolled in a program of speech therapy, means this, that a speech program is administered to those children with the most direct need, which enhances his educational capabilities, through inability to factually understand what he has read. Therefore the conspicuous speech impediments are few when sampling the student population in any given system. Omaha and Lincoln have seen their need to provide for these children many years ago. Now, when we are capable of obtaining a service in this area, we want to kill it.

No. 5. The speech problem, to some, seems to be exaggerated because full recognition exists in the administration of the program because the capabilities of a child with a speech problem greatly curtails his performance in other subject areas. We as individuals try to meet our immediate needs in daily life, therefore why not do the same when administering the ESU programs?

No. 6. A note is made in regard to the salary of the administrator of the service unit. This writer would like to know the salary of the person that conscripted the flyer and he too is paid with taxpayers dollars.

No. 7. We are presently being provided these services at a rate of one-half mill. Can we afford not to have these services at this price? Check it over carefully, check the fallacies of the flyer and vote against exclusion for the Service Unit in your area.

Notice Wayne County is twenty thousand, five hundred dollars and twenty point nine cents, not what the flyer would want the casual reader to think or some twenty million dollars. Maybe you should check the rest a little more closely.

Concerned Citizens of Service Unit I.

Queer Deal Consummated

A queer deal was consummated at Beatrice when Wm. Razez purchased a team of mules from Peter Williams, and in addition to the equine purchase Razez secured Williams' wife to boot. The Williamses are late comers in Beatrice, while Razez, present owner of the mules and woman, only came there two weeks ago. Razez made the acquaintance of the Williams family and within a few days had won the wife's affections. Then Razez proposed purchasing the mules. When terms could not be made he proposed to Williams to pay a higher price and take the woman also. Williams consented, and it is said, received $150 for the team and the woman. Razez took his purchases and started toward Kansas City overland.

Driven Into River

Montreal: Eighty students from McGill University, who undertook to celebrate Halloween in Longueuil, just across the river, in a manner not appreciated by the citizens, were driven into the river, a number being severely beaten. About fifty were more or less injured.

Fatal Fight With Indians

Douglas, Wyo.: Sheriff McDermott has received word of a battle fought between Sheriff Miller of Weston County, and posse and a band of Indians. The sheriff was fatally wounded and Deputy Sheriff Falkenberg was killed. Three Indians were killed. A number of cowboys armed with rifles left Sunday morning, and another posse, headed by Deputy Sheriff Cook, left in the afternoon for the scene of the trouble. Another large posse left Lusk at night, and there is great excitement here and all sorts of rumors are current.

Sheriff Miller and his deputies left New Castle twelve days ago to arrest the Indians, who were in one band to the number of 25 or 30. Ranchman had reported that in addition to slaughtering large numbers of deer and antelope the Indians were killing cattle and sheep, stealing horses and committing other depredations.

In The Vicinity

Roy Motts, a school boy of Randolph, defeated Eddie Wood, a professional sprinter of Coleridge, in a foot race at the latter place recently. It is reported that Coleridge sports lost about $100 in backing their champion.

Wilson Bros.' store at Allen had a narrow escape from destruction by fire on Sunday of last week. Passers-by saw a pile of blankets blazing and notified Mr. Wilson who was in an adjoining building. The News says the store had been open for a short time in the morning and it is supposed that a spark from a cigar fell among the blankets.

The Carroll index thinks the corn crop will be a little less than expectations.

The Herald of Dixon reports that the first free delivery mail route from that town was to begin on Monday of this week.

It is reported that Bert Valentine and a 14-year old girl named Hill, both of Bloomfield, ran away from home the first of the week to get married. The couple were arrested at Niobrara Tuesday morning. They claim they had been in South Dakota and were married there.

Very little effectual work was done in Winside by the "property destroyers" Saturday evening owing to the efficiency of our marshal and the inclemency of the weather.

Joe Taylor Shot Himself

Joe Taylor, residing on a farm two miles from Sholes, in Wayne county, accidentally shot and killed himself with a shotgun this morning. He was out in his barnyard trying to kill a mink which had been bothering his chickens, and in some manner the gun discharged while pointed toward him and the contents entered his left side and death resulted within half an hour. Mr. Taylor was an old resident of this county and was well and favorable known. He leaves a wife and several children. Byron Moesman, of the Wayne Union hotel, is one of his relatives.

Last Family Life Meeting At Wayne High Monday

How good are communications within your family group? What do you talk about with your children? Do parents understand what children, especially teenagers, are saying? Parents, teachers, ministers and others who want to learn more about family communications are invited to a meeting, "Between Parents and Youth", which will be held on Monday, Nov. 4, 7:30 p.m. in the Lecture Hall of Wayne High School in Wayne, Nebraska.

Featured speakers will be Dr.

Beth Smith and Mrs. Ruby Gingles, Professors in the Department of Human Development and the Family at the University of Nebraska.

The program will consist of a dialogue presentation by Dr. Smith and Mrs. Gingles followed by group discussions. There will be opportunities for questions from the audience.

There is no admission charge. This is the final meeting in a series of four Family Life Meetings held in the Northeast Area in 1968 as a part of the Home Economics and Family Living Extension program. Area Extension Home Economists Anna Marie Krefels and Myrtle Anderson are in charge of meeting arrangements.

RE-ELECT ROBERT V. DENNEY

First District Congressman

DENNEY'S POSITIVE PROGRAM:

Bob Denney Accomplishes

Widely known as a man who produces, Bob is dedicated to solving problems. He serves the First District on the vital Public Works Committee of Congress. He is a member of subcommittees on Public Buildings and Grounds, Watersheds, Flood Control, and Roads. Bob Denney serves where the action is!

Bob Denney Cares

The plight of the farmer is not foreign to Bob Denney. Before election to Congress, he and a son operated a small farm in Southeast Nebraska. He understands the pressures facing farm families. Bob is an active member of the House Republican Task Force on Agriculture, a group dedicated to improving rural America.

You Count With Bob Denney

However you contact Bob Denney or his staff — by letter, phone, wire or in person — you get results. Your problems, your suggestions, your requests — are all researched and answered.

You don't have to go to Washington to meet with Bob Denney. He has held more than a dozen regional meetings throughout the District to listen . . . to help . . . to act!

Law Enforcement Experience

Bob Denney knows crime fighting first hand. He was an FBI Agent, Jefferson County Attorney and Fairbury City Attorney. Now, he is Vice-Chairman of the GOP Task Force on Crime and Delinquency.
