Six Girls Surprise Winners

Several girls were surprised during the presentation of awards at the Wayne County 4-H Achievement Program at the Wayne city auditorium Thursday evening. Six girls were announced as winners of special awards for their projects over the year in 4-H.

Receiving trophies for those girls at least 14 years old were: Sandra Hansen (clothing), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen; Connie Ekberg (foods), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ekberg of Wayne; and Jane Predoehl (home living), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Predoehl of Wayne. Receiving trophies for girls under 13 years old: Julie Hageman (home living), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hageman of Wayne; Pat Dangberg (foods), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dangberg of Wayne; and Jean Mann (clothing), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mann of Hixson.

Over 70 other youngsters were honored during the evening for their projects over the year. Presenting the awards were Harold Ingalls, Wayne County agricultural agent, and Mrs. Ed Grono.

Feature of the evening was a talk and showing of films by Art Moseman, Dakota County agent, of the recent citizenship trip taken to Washington, D. C., by himself and several area 4-H youngsters.

Master of ceremonies during the evening was Daniel Roberts. The Hixson Gals 4-H song group, led by Mrs. Delbert Roberts, performed for entertainment.

3 LHS Students Named 'Outstanding'

Three Laurel High School students have been named Outstanding Teenagers of America by the Outstanding Americans Foundation.

Students receiving the honor were Peggy Vollers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vollers of Concord; Larry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Smith of Laurel; and Jim Schroeder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Schroeder of Laurel. Smith and Vollers are seniors, Schroeder a junior.

The three will compete with the other students for the Governor's Trophy, awarded annually to the most outstanding teenager in the state. The 50 state winners will then compete for one of two National Outstanding Teenagers of America awards and college scholarships made available by the foundation.

The foundation selected the students on the basis of ability and achievement after receiving nominations from the schools across the state. The foundation is a non-profit organization which sponsors the awards annually.

Wayne Schools' PE Program Praised

Wayne public schools Thursday morning received awards for the outstanding physical education programs offered the students at both elementary and secondary levels.

Presenting the awards to the school was Roy Gray, health and physical education consultant for the State Department of Education, who said that the Wayne school system is one of the few in the state which has earned the award for having both outstanding elementary and secondary programs. "It is one of the few systems which has a daily elementary program," Gray pointed out. "I can't think of any school in the state which equals the K-12 physical fitness offerings of Wayne," he noted.

Wayne High School received the Flag Award for its physical education program, and the Middle School and West Elementary School received plaques. Plaques were also awarded teachers and administrators of the school. Signed by Governor Norbert Tiemann, the plaques were given to the following people for their individual work in physical fitness: Francis Ham, superintendent; Fred Blecher, high school principal; Loren Park, middle school principal; Richard Metteer, elementary principal; Mrs. Mavis Sip, girls PE instructor; Harold Maciejewski, athletic director and Don Koenig, boys PE instructor.

lettering, will hang in the high school auditorium. The first such flag was presented to President John F. Kennedy shortly before his assassination.

Nebraska probably instituted the unique awards, Gray noted. Now there are several states which have instituted similar awards to schools with outstanding physical education programs, he noted.

The awards program was started in 1960 by the late "Blue"

Howell of Omaha's Woodmen of the World Life Insurance Society and other fitness leaders. Any school, regardless of size, can qualify for the awards. Park pointed out that the awards have nothing to do with a school's sports program and are made solely on the basis of its physical fitness program.

Gray also pointed out that Park was recently appointed member of the Governor's Council on Physical Fitness by Governor Tiemann. His duties will be to promote better physical fitness programs in schools across the state. Koenig, Gray said, has also received appointment to a similar group. He will be a member of the Physical Education Advisory Council, a group which promotes better physical fitness offerings in the state's schools. He was recommended to the council by Mrs. Berniece Fulton of the women's physical education department at Wayne State College.

FLAG AWARD. Harold Maciejewski, athletic director for the Wayne schools, accepts the flag which was presented to the school for its outstanding physical education program at the secondary level. Also accepting the award are Don Koenig and Mrs. Mavis Sip. The school also received special plaques in recognition of the excellent program offered by the physical education department at the elementary level.

Scout Paper Drive Set for Saturday

Scouts of nine Northeast Nebraska towns will hold the first of several paper drives Saturday as a fund-raising project for their troops.

Drives will be in Wayne, Winside, Carroll, Wakefield, Allen, Dixon, Concord, Laurel and Belden, according to project chairman Rowan Wittse.

In all towns except Carroll residents are asked to put their papers on porches or steps where they will be visible from the street by 9 a.m. Scouts will start their pickups shortly after 9 a.m. Wittse said.

In case of windy weather, the paper piles should be weighted to prevent blowing away unless they are bundled or boxed.

Wittse asked that no magazines or slick paper publications be included in the papers. Only newsprint is wanted, as other papers contain substances that slow down reprocessing the paper.

In Carroll, residents are asked to take paper to the city auditorium where the Scout troop from Winside will pick up the paper about 1 p.m. Carroll has no Scout troop.

Midwest Newspaper Salvage Company of Omaha buys the newsprint to be processed for re-use.

Scouts taking part in the drive will be invited, along with their leaders, to be guests of the salvage company at a hockey game Dec. 29 between the Omaha Knights and a Memphis, Tenn. team.

Two Hoskins Firms Robbed

A thief or thieves broke into two Hoskins business firms early Friday morning, and although evidence doesn't thus far point to there being a big loss, there was considerable damage.

The Hoskins grocery store, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Duane Graves, was entered by a side door. Burglars or a burglar, broke the cash register drawer, although coins in the register were not taken. Cartons of cigarettes were taken, and some lunch meat was destroyed along with cartons of chocolate and white milk.

Total amount of loss is as yet unknown. Mrs. Graves went to work around 7:30 Friday morning and discovered the damage.

Hoskins Manufacturing Company, owned by Vernon Delp, Kyl Delp and Richard Doffin, was also entered by a back side door. Unknown thieves deliberately demolished the cash register, taking some loose change. Damage was discovered Friday morning by Richard Doffin when he went to work.

Wayne County Sheriff Weible is investigating.

Extension Boards to Meet

County extension boards of directors of the northeast Nebraska district will hold their annual district conference at the Wagon Wheel Steak House in Laurel all day Tuesday. Hosting the event will be the Cedar County extension board.

After registration at 9:30 a.m., Dr. J. L. Adams, director of Nebraska extension service, will speak on recent developments in Nebraska's extension programs.

In the afternoon Chalmer Wilkerson of Coleridge, member of the Nebraska Association of Extension Boards, will discuss developments in organization and programs of the Nebraska association.

At 1:15 in the afternoon Bob Ruhle, technical advisor of the Nebraska Educational Television Commission, will talk on the future of television.

Also planned for the day are question and answer periods.

Counties in the northeast Nebraska district include Wayne, Dixon, Dakota, Cedar, Knox, Madison, Pierce, Stanton, Thurston, Antelope, Boyd, Cuming and Holt.

Attending the all-day affair will be members of the various county extension boards and their wives.

Peterson Promoted

Paul Peterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Peterson, Wayne, has been named manager of the L.B. Murphy store in Alliance. He has been assistant manager of the L. B. Murphy store in Scottsbluff for the past six years.

The change will be effective Feb. 1, 1969. The Murphy stores are a seven-unit group of stores in Western Nebraska and Wyoming, including Crawford, Chadron, Alliance, Bridgeport, Scottsbluff, Mitchell and Torrington.

Tree Thief Sought

Wayne's police officers were notified Saturday morning that a blue spruce evergreen tree belonging to Jewell Schock, 1000 Lilac Lane, had been cut down and stolen sometime during the night. The tree was between four and five feet in height.

Another homeowner in Wayne reported that someone had thrown a bunch of garbage onto his yard during the night.

H. Gaunt Winner of First 'Car' Check

Gaunt, left, $50 Check and Phil Griess.

It was an agonizing wait for Howard Gaunt Friday night but worth the $50 prize when it was awarded to him.

Gaunt held one of the 20 numbers listed as potential winners of the $50 to be awarded to a holder of a Christmas 'Car Giveaway' ticket.

His number was third down the list, which meant that anyone holding the first or second number could claim the prize until 8 p.m. As the deadline neared, the tension grew and Gaunt figured each time the phone rang or the door opened as he waited in the Chamber of Commerce office in Wayne.

To add to the suspense, just 30 seconds after the 8 p.m. deadline, the phone rang in the Chamber office, carrying with it the possibility that the first or second place number was calling in. It was only a routine matter, however, and nerves calmed.

Minutes later, Phil Griess, head of the retail committee sponsoring the giveaway program, appeared to present the check.

Friday's $50 will be awarded to some lucky holder of a Car Giveaway ticket.

The list of 20 numbers will be drawn and distributed for posting at 1 p.m. in participating stores. Persons holding one or more of the numbers listed have until 8 p.m. to notify the Chamber of Commerce office of the fact.

At 8 p.m. sharp the money will be awarded to the person holding the number nearest the top of the official list.

Thus, in the case of Howard Gaunt, he won the money with the third place ticket. Seven other persons called in with numbers on the list but were farther down the order and lost out.

All tickets should be kept as they continue to be eligible for later drawings and for the grand prize of an automobile to be given away Dec. 21. The winner of the auto will have a choice of a Ford from Warrman Auto company, a Chevrolet from Coryell Auto company or a Buick from Harb's Buick.

18 Men Finish Dixon Fire Course

Eighteen men from the Dixon and Laurel area completed the basic firemanship training course recently conducted at the Dixon fire hall. All will receive certificates of completion from the State Fire Marshal's office.

Finishing the course were Bill Garvin, Don Peters, Duane White, Marvin Hartman, Lowell Saunders, Earl Eckert, Gordon Hansen, John Young, Clayton Stingley, Lloyd Wendell, Marvin Anderson, Leo Garvin, Carroll Hirschert, Melvin Lovelace, Marvin Nelson and Don Roeder (all of Dixon), and Virgil Buss and Jiggs Kent (both of Laurel).

The course lasted six weeks and was sponsored by the Dixon Volunteer Fire Department. Included in the training were ladder procedures, handling of gas masks, rescuing procedures, knot tying and pump operation.

Average attendance at the weekly meetings was about 21 men. The instructor, Walt Ebler of Walthill, noted that it was one of the best attended schools he has ever conducted.

John Young, Dixon fire chief, also noted that the department recently purchased 15 used fire coats from the Bellevue Volunteer Fire Department. The coats were obtained through the help of Chet McCaw, formerly of Dixon and now a member of the Bellevue VFD. The Dixon VFD has already purchased additional hose and other equipment for the truck they obtained last summer.

Pancake Day Plans Made at Carroll

Carroll's Community Club are busy making plans for the big pancake and sausage supper to be held in the Carroll Auditorium Dec. 14 from 4 p.m. until 8 p.m.

American Legion Auxiliary will be doing the cooking.

Dave Lühr, secretary of the Community Club, reminds everyone that the pancakes, sausages and coffee are all free. Everyone is invited.

Named Doane Scholar

Bruce Jorgensen, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arland Aulich of Winside and a 1965 graduate of Wayne High School, was one of 36 seniors at Doane College in Crete who received Honors in Course awards at the recent Scholastic Honors Convention.

In order to qualify for the award he had to average at least 90 hours in his major and maintain a grade point average of 8.30.

Jorgensen was also one of 21 seniors named Doane Scholars. Seniors named must have at least 90 hours with a 9.25 grade average for their first three years at Doane. He is also a member of Delta Kappa Pi, the fraternity which received the award for best overall grade average, 7.846. He will graduate with a liberal arts degree this spring.

4-H Stand at Fair Makes Over $500

Over $500 was made at the Wayne County 4-H stand during the county fair in September, according to figures released by Harold Ingalls, Wayne County agricultural agent.

The stand took in $1,356.32 during the fair and had expenses of $813.02, leaving a profit of $543.30.

Ingalls noted that for the past two years the profit from the fair stand has been used to help finance various projects for the youngsters, such as the recent citizenship trip to Washington, D. C. Prior to that it went to pay for the 4-H building on the fairgrounds.

The bank balance as of Nov. 1 for the Wayne County 4-H organization was $731.12, Oct. Jan. 1 it was $928.83. The largest outlay of expenses this year has been the citizenship trip. The organization spent $400 helping finance that trip.

New Movies Get A Rating Mark

For the first time in the history of the American motion picture industry, all essential elements involved in motion pictures have come together to institute a voluntary national film rating program to guide parents, with a special consideration for children. Jack March, Wayne, has announced that the Gay theater will participate in the rating plan.

All motion pictures released since Nov. 1 have been carrying a rating, according to Jack Valenti, President of the Motion Picture Association of America. In stating the reason for the new program, Valenti said, "Our primary concern is children, and that concern is the dominant reason for the voluntary film rating program."

Motion pictures exhibited in the United States will be rated in the following manner: "G" ratings will be applied to films for general audiences; "M" will be placed on films for mature audiences (parental discretion advised); "R" is a rating for restricted shows where persons under 16 are not admitted, unless accompanied by parent or adult guardian; and "X" will mark those movies where persons under 16 are not admitted, however this age restriction may vary in certain areas of the country.

Wayne Co. Swine Man Moderates

A Wayne county swine producer will be one of the moderators in the Nebraska Swine Council meeting in York, Jan. 7. Paul Everingham will moderate a discussion panel on area programs for local groups.

Creighton Knau, program chairman for the National Pork Producers Council, will be main speaker. He will address the group Thursday evening during the combined awards banquet and annual business meeting, according to Terry Schrick, council secretary-treasurer.

Included in the day-long program will be three workshops. John Stuart, Dawson County swine producer, and Paul Everingham, Wayne County swine producer, will moderate the workshop on area programs for local schools. Schrick and Knau will present a session on producer investments through the pork checkoff program. And, Bob Frittschen, Northeast area Extension specialist; Dr. Murray Danielson, North Platte Station Swine researcher; and Dr. M. J. Twiehaus, chairman, NU Veterinary Science Department will all give reports on research in their respective areas.

The day's activities will be held in the York auditorium and will also include a State Pork Cookout contest and the Nebraska Pork Queen contest. Contestants from the 12 areas in the state are expected to vie for the top titles.

At the evening awards banquet, a $250 scholarship will be presented to the "Outstanding Young Swine Producer". There also will be presented a Builders Award, Booster Award, Top Area Group Award and three Pork Chop Awards.

9-FT. DIAMETER BULK FEED TANKS

- For Small Feed Manufacturers
- Large Feed Dealers
- On the Farm Storage

ROOF:

The weathertight galvanized heavy gauge steel roof for 6-ft. diameter tanks is four pieces; for 9-ft. diameter, 9 pieces. One eighth turn opens the roof cap for ventilation or closes it for weathertight seal.

SIDEWALLS:

Precision-fabricated galvanized sidewall sheets have deep continuous corrugations for extra strength and rigidity. All vertical seams have a double row of bolt holes for added strength and tighter laps.

HOPPERS:

Either center or side drawoff hoppers have a sixty-degree slope for fast gravity discharge. The side drawoff hopper is especially designed to help prevent "bridging" of hard-to-flow feeds and ground grains.

SLIDE GATE:

A 14" diameter slide gate is furnished for emptying all tanks of the bottom of the cone hopper. Clearance from the gate to the base plate is 24" on both the 6-ft. and 9-ft. diameter tanks.

LEGS:

Cross-braces and struts give additional support to the heavy angle legs. The base plate on each leg anchors to cement footings.

Marva Lee and Connie Konken, Cole-ridge, arranged the gifts. They are grandchildren of the couple.

Mrs. Walter Johnson, Jr., Laurel, poured. Mrs. Alvin Henderson, Paulina, Ia., cut and served the cake. Mrs. Hermit Smith, Mrs. Albin Nielsen, Mrs. Merl Anfinson, Mrs. Adrian Burns and Mrs. Alvera Klandsted assisted with serving lunch.

Charles Johnson, son of the honored couple, was unable to attend the open house. He is in the armed forces stationed at Wilmington, Ohio. (Children present were Mrs. Elmer (Jean) Konken, Cole-ridge; Mrs. Wendell (Viola) Konken, Niobrara; Mrs. Clifford (LaVern) Strivens, Dixon, and Walt Johnson, Jr., Laurel. The honored couple have 11 grandchildren.

Betty Sabacky Weds Marcus G. McDonald

Betty Sabacky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Sabacky, Emerson, and Marcus G. McDonald, son of W. B. McDonald, Auburn-dale, Fla., were married Nov. 23 at 5 p.m. at Wakefield Christian Church.

Pastor John Erpperson officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Per Pearson, Wakefield, sang "Because" and "Whither Thou Goest". Merle Ring was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length skimmer gown of peau de sole crepe fashioned with a stand-up collar, long tapered sleeves of venise lace and a detachable train held by butterfly bows at the shoulder line. Her silk illu-son veil was held with matching petals of venise lace trimmed with cut crystals.

Mrs. Kenneth Sabacky, South Sioux City, and Sharon Agler, Denver, were the bride's attendants. They wore floor length gowns of turquoise in A-line styling with empire bodices.

Kenneth Sabacky, South Sioux City, the bride's brother, served as best man. Ronald Anderson, Wakefield, was groomsmen. Brice Nicholson and Dale Malmberg were ushers.

Jeanette and Ruth Sabacky lighted the candles. Trudy Hatt was flowergirl. A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Evelyn Billingsley, the bridegroom's mother, Jente Scott, the bridegroom's sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Guyton, all of Winfield, Ala.; William Horaks, Norton, Kan.; Billie Stenad and family, Belleville, Kan.; Blanche Horak, Sophia Hudson, Lois Stenad, Wes Rindus and Gene Hatt and children, all of Menden, Kan. The newweds reside at 423 West 20th, South Sioux City.

Fortnightly Club Meets

Fortnightly Club met Dec. 5 for a no-host luncheon at Miller's Tea Room. Mrs. Ed Smith was a guest. Prizes were won by Mrs. Marie Love and Mrs. Ralph Beckenhauer. Jan. 14 meeting will be with Mrs. Don Wightman.

Hillside Club Meeting

Mrs. Harvey Reeg entertained Hillside Club Dec. 3. Mrs. Everett Heikes, Portland, Ore., was a guest. For roll call the 13 members present displayed Christmas gifts they had made. The group voted to give a gift to a resident at Dahl Retirement Center.

Gifts were exchanged and games furnished entertainment with prizes going to Mrs. Ward Gilliland, Mrs. Charles Heikes and Mrs. Marvin Dranselka. A family party is planned Jan. 7 in the evening at Wayne Woman's Club rooms.

4-H CLUB LEADERSHIP TRAINING. About thirty 4-H livestock leaders from Dakota, Thurston, Pierce, Stanton, Cedar, Madison, Dixon and Wayne counties met in the Wayne city auditorium Thursday for training sessions beginning at 9:30 a.m. and dismissing at 3:30 p.m. Dave Williams, Lincoln, addressed the opening assembly. County Agent Harold Ingalls made necessary local arrangements. Dr. Crosby Howe, Lincoln, led the session in Vet Science. Tom Leisy, Blair, directed a session on Horse Clubs. Phil Cole, Lincoln, spoke on Livestock Nutrition.

Vicky Lee Miller, Dale P. Stanley Married at Dixon

Vicky Lee Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Miller, Dixon, and Dale Patrick Stanley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stanley, Dixon, were married Nov. 30 at 2 p.m. at St. Anne's Catholic Church, Dixon.

Father Anthony M. Milone officiated at the double ring rites. Music was furnished by Mrs. LeRoy Creamer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of imported chantilly lace, styled with an empire bodice with long tapered sleeves and a sweetheart neckline accented with seed pearls. The attached full chapel train was enhanced with a diamond point of lace. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a matching bow of peau and lace trimmed with tiny seed pearls. She carried white mums and yellow rosebuds. Marleen Miller, Omaha, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of yellow and gold and carried a single large white mum.

Rick Boeshart, Laurel, was best man. Ushers were Randy Lackas, Magnet, and Duane Stanley, Dixon. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark business suits.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece navy blue dress. The bridegroom's mother chose a tan and yellow ensemble. Each had a corsage of yellow and white mums.

A reception for 100 guests was held at Wagon Wheel Steak House following the ceremony. Donna Stanley registered guests. Suzanne Jugal and Cheryl Hirschman arranged the gifts. Mrs. Melvin Miller and Mrs. Murray Leley cut and served the cake. Mrs. Keith Lackas poured and Mrs. Gary Wickert served punch. Waitresses were Jackie Pflanz, Karla Miller and Rosanne Haisch. The bride was graduated from Laurel High School in 1968. The bridegroom, also a graduate of Laurel High School, is employed with a South Sioux City roofing company.

The couple will reside in South Sioux City.

Christmas Party Set For Concord Students

All the children at Concord Grade School will attend a program sponsored by the Laurel-Concord PTA on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 17, at the Laurel High School auditorium. Carol singing by the children, film showing and refreshments are planned during the afternoon. The meeting will take the place of the regular Christmas program at the Concord school this year. Concord children will hold their own Christmas party on Friday, Dec. 20, just before school is dismissed for the holiday vacation. There will be an exchange of gifts, tree lighting and snacks. Lunch will resume for the Concord school youngsters on Jan. 2.

In connection with the holiday season, the Concord youngsters are presently bringing toys, candy and clothing to school with them and will send all that they can gather to an orphanage in Vietnam.

AHS Book Fair Nets Over $50

Just over $50 was taken in during the recent book fair at Allen High School. The money will go into the library fund and will probably be used to purchase plastic cover cases for the magazines in the school library.

Girls working on the book fair included Janice Kraemer, chairman, Sue Thomas, Jean Serven, Margaret Ankeny, Lucinda Hirschert, Kathy Jackson and Patti Sullivan.

Blue Devils Post 67-62 Opening Win

The Wayne High Blue Devils opened the 1968-69 basketball season in winning style Friday night by slipping past Blair 67-62 on the Bears' home court. Despite first-game ball control problems, Coach Dick Nelson's local cagers managed to increase a one-point halftime lead to the final five-point victory margin.

Dave Tietgen led Wayne's first quarter scoring attack as the 6-1 senior forward collected three field goals while his teammates added another six points and forced Blair into a 12-12 tie after the first eight minutes of play.

Wayne exploded for six consecutive points while holding the Bears scoreless in the opening minutes and a half of the second stanza. The margin was short-lived, however, as Blair fought back and allowed the Blue Devils an uncomfortable one-point lead 25-24 at halftime.

Two more points were added to Wayne's lead in the third period as the Blue Devils advanced their score to 42 as the result of a six-point performance by Harry Lindner.

A harassing full-court press by Blair failed to stall the Blue Devils' offensive attack in the final quarter since they outscored the Bears 25-23 and walked away with the 67-62 win.

Wayne's leading rebounder was Joedy Hoogner with 10 recoveries. He was followed by Dave Tietgen with nine, Harry Lindner with five, Ted Armbruster with four and Chuck Fisher with three rebounds.

The B team also posted a season premiere victory by outscoring Blair 48-35. Coach Don Johnson's leading scorer was Ted Armbruster with 13 points. He was followed by Don Mau and Les Echtenkamp with eight points each, Dick Tietgen with six, Terry Ellis with five, Mike Billoft with three, Breck Gleese with two and Jim Sturm and Rod Cook with one point apiece.

Leading rebounder for the B team was Mau with 10. He was followed by Echtenkamp with six Ellis with four and Tietgen and Mike Creighton with three rebounds each.

Both Wayne teams will see double action next week by hosting David City Aquinas Friday night and traveling to Papillion Saturday night.

Frog Talk Sounds Like Ducks, Dogs

Frogs can sound off without opening their mouths. Air from the lungs is forced back and forth over the vocal cords, producing a variety of sounds. Some calls suggest quacking ducks, barking dogs or a regiment of men bawling th' pants.

To turn up the volume, a frog uses an air pouch under its chin. The sac acts as a resonator. In some species, it swells to half the size of a frog's entire head and body.

The effect sometimes keeps rural communities awake and outdoor musical festivals off key. The director of a Virginia orchestra once ordered noisy frogs evicted from around his bandstand. He relented when he discovered they croaked a pure C-sharp and would be an asset to the score.

Scientists join orchestra directors in applauding the frog. As vertebrates like man, the amphibians provide valuable clues to human physiology in laboratory tests.

Eagles Drop Opener to Ponca, 44-31

After getting off to a cold start in the first quarter and then moving to a five-point lead at half-time, the Allen Eagles lost their season opener in the final quarter, four of them gift shots.

The Eagles came out of the dressing room for the first time of the season and saw the traditional enemies build up an eight to nothing lead in the opening seconds of the first quarter. Rick Hank, a junior at 5-8, finally broke the Eagles' scoring drought with only five minutes left to play when he drove in for an easy layup. Three minutes later he hit from the side, followed by buckshot by Bob Meyer and Dave Gelger, both juniors, to tie the game at 8-8. Ponca finally scored again and then Allen's Bob Mitchell, a 6-1 sophomore, got into the act with a set shot from the side with only :05 seconds remaining, tying the two teams at 10-10.

Allen moved out front 20-15 at the close of the second quarter on three straight jump shots by Mitchell and two-pointers by sophomore Jerome Roberts and senior Tom Maggart.

But the short intermission put a damper on the Eagles' shooting ability and their ball control as they went another five minutes before scoring in front of a standing-room-only crowd.

Rick Hank finally came to the rescue again, scoring for the hosts on a free throw and then managing a jump shot for the only scoring in the quarter by the Eagles. Ponca moved out front 28-23 as they managed to keep control of the ball most of the quarter.

In the final stanza of action, Ponca widened their lead to ten points, 38-38, with only about three minutes of action left. Allen narrowed that down to nine points but time enough to turn the tide was lacking and Ponca took home a 44-31 victory.

But it wasn't without a strong finish by one Eagle—Bob Mitchell, who also led the Eagles in the rebounding department, scored six of Allen's eight points in the final quarter, four of them gift shots.

Mitchell also led his team in the scoring column, gaining 14 points in the season opener. Second highest scorer for the Blue and Gold was Rick Hank with seven, followed by Bob Meyer with four. Dave Gelger, Tom Maggart and Jerome Roberts each grabbed two points in the losing effort.

The Indians were led by the shooting of junior Jeff Knerl, who tallied 11 points. Aubrey Voss, a senior, had eight points for second high scoring honors.

The B Game couldn't have been much more exciting—Allen eluded out a 54-53 win over the Indians. Allen held a strong lead at the end of each of the first three quarters of play: 17-5, 30-21 and 41-35, but the Indians just about closed the gap in the final seconds of play.

Leading scorers in the reserve action for Allen were Loren Reuter with 18 points, John Warner with 13 and Brian Linafelter with 11. Bob Smith, Gary Troth and Mike Ellis each grabbed four points.

Ponca girls also made it a tough evening for the hosts as they won the first two sets in the volleyball match, 15-8 and 15-10. Leading scorers for Allen were Sue Thomas in the first set with six points and Linda Rasmussen in the second set with five points.

WSC-JFK Girls Tilt

Wayne State College girls basketball squad has scheduled a game with the JFK College of Wahoo for Saturday evening in the Newcastle Auditorium at 8 p.m. Admission prices, $1 for adults, $7.75 for high school students and $5.00 for K-6 students.

TWO MORE POINTS for the Ponca Indians are tallied by Mike Knerl in the Friday night at Allen. Looking on helplessly are Allen's Bob Mitchell (left), and Bob Meyer. Allen's 31 is unidentified.

'MIGHTY FINE BOWLING!' Erwin Baker (left) and Jim Pokett look over Baker's 287 score sheet following his high game Thursday evening at Melodee Lanes in Wayne. Baker's score is third highest rolled in league play last December. Pokett rolled a 297, second highest league game ever rolled.

Bowler Just Misses '300'

Erwin Baker of Wakefield almost attained that magic "300" Thursday night in league bowling at Melodee Lanes. He missed it by 13 pins.

Baker, a bowler for about the past 15 years, threw 10 straight strikes and was almost there. On his eleventh ball he left three pins standing, spared out and ended up with a 287. He was bowling in the Corvett Auto Co. team.

His 287 game is the third-highest game that has been bowled in league action at Melodee Lanes. Last December Jim Pokett threw a 297 and in 1966 Willis Meyer bowled a 299. No 300 has been bowled in league play, although a few have been bowled in non-league play.

Winside Loses Opener

Led by the double-scoring of 5-11 Gary Preston, the Wakefield Trojans outscored Winside Wildcats in every quarter except the last to take home a 55-37 victory in the season premiere of both teams.

The record must have seemed stuck for the Wildcats—they managed only eight points in the first three quarters of action, while the visitors tallied 13 each in the first two and 18 in the third to move out front 20 points after three quarters, 44-24.

Winside finally managed more buckets in the final stanza but not enough to overcome the large lead.

Winside's shooting ability matched the weather outside until the final quarter when Wakefield began giving away points at the free throw line. High scorer Dave Witt, a junior 6-1, gathered in six of his 14 points in the final quarter, four of them on gift tries. Witt's was the sole bucket scored in the last quarter as Doug Deek, 1 Fitz Weble and Bob Jackson each tallied two gift shots and Scott Duerling tallied one.

Senior Gary Preston at 5-11

paced his team to the victory, giving Coach Dennis Crawford his first win at the reins of the Wakefield Trojans. The rest of the Trojan scoring was fairly well balanced: Dennis Paul with nine, Lyle Brown with eight, Jerry Jensen with seven, Mike Berns with four and Bob Johnson and Kip Bressler with two each.

Dave Witt was the only Wildcat to get into the double figures in the score book, swishing the net for a total of 14 points in the action. Second highest scorers for Winside were Bob Wacker, a 6-1 senior, and Fred Weble, a 6-1 junior, with seven each. Juniors Bob Jackson and Doug Deek each had four points

WHS 'Cats Pin Down Trojans 32-23

Winside High School's matmen were hosts to Wakefield's wrestling team Thursday night in the season's opening tangle for both. The pinning contest got underway in the Winside gymnasium at 7 p.m. and ended at 8:45 p.m. with Coach Jeff Meineke's Wildcats wrestling a 32-23 victory over Coach Lyle Trullinger's Trojans.

There was one Winside forfeit to Wakefield's Steve Kraemer in the 103 lb. class; one draw in the 138 lb. match between Leon Hussmann and Marlin Kraemer; two decisions and eight pins, providing an evening of spectator thrills.

95 lbs.—Devlin Fischer, Wakefield, won over Jim Jackson in a decision.

103 lbs.—Forfeit to Wakefield's Steve Kraemer.

112 lbs.—Winside's Terry Jaeger pinned Rod Hank in the third period.

120 lbs.—Roger Anderson, Winside, pinned by Trojan Walter Hank with 21 seconds left in the second period.

127 lbs.—Wildcat Dale Miller pinned Greg Holm with 25 seconds left in the second period.

133 lbs.—Trojan Steve Oswald won over Lorence Johnson by decision.

138 lbs.—Winside's Leon Hussmann and Trojan Marlin Kraemer each won two points for their respective teams in a draw.

145 lbs.—Trojan Curt Liemann pinned Wildcat Dennis Weble in the 36 seconds remaining in the first period.

154 lbs.—Lee Troutwein, Winside, pinned Dick Johnson in the second period in a thrilling ex-

165 lbs.—Wildcat Dennis Wade pinned Trojan Tom Nicholson in the latter part of the first period.

175 lbs.—Winside's Chuck Moritz won over Trojan Mike Hammer with a fast pin.

Heavyweight—Clancy Cleveland, Wildcat, pinned Wakefield's Gary Jorgensen in a quick bout.

Bill Schwarz of Wayne State College was referee. Points are scored in the following manner: 2 points for a take down; 1 point for escaping the opponent's hold; 3 points for a near fall; 2 points for a reversal of holds; 2 points for a predicament; and 1 point for a penalty.

Winside Wildcats will host the Clearwater matmen in a 7 p.m. dual tonight (Monday). Wakefield's Trojans meet Noborara's

Bears Roll Over Norfolk

The Laurel Bears opened the season on a strong note Friday night by mauling host Norfolk Catholic High School 94-45 in a non-conference game.

Senior Brent Fahnstock paced the Bears with 32 points as the visitors built up a 47-16 half-time advantage. The Bears doubled their scoring in the final two quarters of play while limiting Norfolk to only 29 points.

Five scorers for Laurel hit double figures in the season opener: Brent Fahnstock with 32, Tom Erwin with 15, Larry Smith with 11 and Steve Erwin and Jim Schroeder with 10 each. Fahnstock's scoring was divided equally between field goals and free throws as the Norfolk squad attempted to hold down the lanky scorer.

Also scoring for the winners were Mike Olsen with five, George Schroeder with four, Rod Erwin with three and Doug Felber and Steve Smith with two each.

Norfolk scoring was led by Mark Ruhlman's 18 points and Larry Paul's nine.

Tom Erwin's six steals kept the Norfolk squad off balance; Larry Smith and Jerry Nelson were close behind him with four each. Three Bears were strong off the boards: Steve Erwin, Brent Fahnstock and Larry Smith each grabbed 11 rebounds; Tom Erwin grabbed nine.

Laurel takes on what may be a more taxing opponent Friday night when they travel to Hartington for a clash with Cedar Catholic, a team that knocked off Randolph 66-52 Friday night.

WSC Wildcats Win Over Macalester

Wayne State marked up a 78-76 come-from-behind win over Macalester College Friday night at St. Paul, Minn., before moving to LeMars, Ia., for a Saturday night clash with Westminster College.

Close margins prevailed until Macalester gained an eight-point lead about half way through the second half, then the Wildcats reversed matters to their six-point advantage three minutes before the end. They stalled off a late surge by the hosts.

Wayne demonstrated its usual scoring balance with five posting 10 points or more, topped by Marc Sommerfeld's 17-11 of them on free throws. Macalester's Mark Campbell led with 27, but only one of his teammates was in double figures.

Macalester, now 1-1 for the season, outscored Wayne from the floor, 31 field goals to 28, but Wayne made up for this deficit with 22 gift shots to the hosts' 14.

The win was Wayne's second in three games.

4 WSC Gridders Named All-Conference

Four Wayne State football players gained places on the All-Nebraska College Conference team, the conference football coaches committee announced Saturday.

Named to the official All-NCC offensive unit from Wayne: Terry Christensen, Fort Dodge, Ia., senior interior lineman, and John Perkins, Sioux Rapids, Ia., junior back. Wildcats on the defensive first team are linebacker Doug Barry, Battle Creek, senior, and deep back Don Grubaugh, David City, senior.

Seven from Wayne earned honorable mention: Interior lineman Mike Houlihan, Carroll, Ia., center Jack Ferrin, Shenandoah, Ia., and back Sam Singleton, Elizabeth, N. J., all on the offensive team; end Rosco Goodpasture, Norfolk; guard Dwight Stewart, Lynch; linebacker John Rickard, Rolfe, Ia., and deep back Doug Radtke, Pender, on the defensive unit.

Kearney, conference champion, landed nine on the first team units of 24 players, runner-up Chadron seven, Hastings four and Peru one.

Tips to Help Nebraskans Cope with Winter Storms

Each year in Nebraska and many of its neighboring states persons died from exposure, exhaustion or suffocation during blizzards or prolonged cold periods. Especially vulnerable are those who must drive cars or trucks on the roads.

With winter close at hand and the possibility of heavy snows or blizzards a constant source of danger, the Civil Defense Department of Nebraska has issued a list of tips to make life easier and safer for the winter driver.

Broken down into four categories, the tips are directed at preparation in the home, preparation of the car, list for a winter-storm kit and tips on how to act when trapped in your car by a blizzard.

Seven points are listed for the home:

1. Examine battery-powered equipment before the storm arrives. If you have an emergency generator, is it in working order?
2. Put in a full supply of heating fuel.
3. Check your pantry and stock an extra supply of food.
4. Eliminate any fire hazards. Especially guard against overheated coal or oil burning stoves, fireplaces, heaters or furnaces.
5. Unless you are in good shape, stay indoors during storms and cold snaps. If you must go out, avoid overexertion.
6. Dress to fit the season. Don't pile on long johns and sweaters, but select loose-fitting, lightweight, warm clothing in several layers which can easily be peeled off and put on again to avoid perspiring and subsequent chilling.
7. Don't kill yourself shoveling.

PREPARING CAR

the winter months, the wise motorist has his car winterized before the storm season begins. Put on snow tires and chains and be sure to check ignition, battery, lights, tire tread, cooling system, fuel system, lubrication, exhaust system, heater, brakes, wiper blades, defroster, anti-freeze and winter-grade oil.

WINTER STORM CAR KIT
 When your car has snowpower, pack a winter-storm car kit before starting out. This kit should contain:

- *Two or more blankets, sleeping bags or a box of newspapers.
- *Two one-gallon cans with plastic covers, or empty three-pound capped coffee cans for sanitary facilities.
- *Matches and candles.
- *Tinned food and juices.
- *Extra clothing, such as winter caps, mittens, galoshes.
- *Transistor radio or car radio for storm bulletins.
- *Compass and maps.
- *Large box of facial tissue.
- *A small sack of sand for traction in snow and ice.
- *Flashlight or signal light to be used for SOS or to find help.
- *Plastic scraper for the windshield.
- *Booster battery cable.
- *Two chains, 20 inches or longer.
- *Fire extinguisher.
- *Catalytic heater.
- *Compact alcohol stove.

BLIZZARD-TRAPPED?

Your car is prepared for winter, you have your storm kit and you are wearing appropriate clothing—and you get caught in a blizzard. Here are some pointers to follow until help arrives:

- *Stay in the car. You are more likely to be found there than if you go wandering around in a blizzard and become disoriented from the blowing snow.
- *Keep a window open a bit for fresh air. Freezing wet snow can completely seal you in and seal out oxygen.
- *Beware of carbon monoxide, the silent killer. Run the motor and heater sparingly and only with a window open for ventilation.
- *Clap your hands and move your arms and legs vigorously from time to time. Do not stay in one position for long.
- *Turn on the dome light at night to make your car visible to work crews.
- *If there are several persons in the car, don't all sleep at the same time. Take turns keeping watch.
- *Above all, don't panic.

Collect Clothing

Over 500 pounds of clothing was collected by the clothing drive of the Concordia Lutheran Church in Concord, according to Rev. John Erlandson, pastor of the Concord-Allen parish. The clothing has been sent to Omaha, Rev. Erlandson said, and will then be sent to New York for distribution to foreign countries. The clothing drive was in connection with the annual drive held in November by the Lutheran World Federation. Over 100,000 pounds of clothing was collected in Nebraska alone during November, Rev. Erlandson said.

PLAQUE PRESENTATIONS. Roy Gray (above) congratulates Fred Rickers, high school principal, during the presentation of plaques to teachers and administrators at the Wayne schools for the outstanding physical education programs offered students. Also receiving plaques were Harold Maciejewski and Mrs. Mavis Sip. Below, Gray congratulates Loren Park, middle school principal Don Koenig, center, and Richard Mettler, elementary principal, also received plaques. Francis Haun, high school superintendent, was not available to accept his plaque.

Allen Cantata Set for Sunday Night

"Night of Miracles," a Christmas cantata, will be presented by the Allen Community Chorus Sunday evening, Dec. 15, at 8 p.m. in the Allen High School auditorium. Soloists for the evening will be Herb Ellis, Larry McAfee, Debbie Carr and Bruce Linafelt. Organist for the program will be Mrs. Dean Wheeler and pianist will be Cindy Ellis. The cantata, written by John W. Peterson, will be narrated by Rev. Dwight Kemling of the United Methodist Church in Allen. Rev. John Erlandson, pastor of the Concord-Allen parish, will be directing the group again. He also directed the choir for the Easter cantata this year.

The program is being dedicated to the servicemen from the Allen area who are serving in the armed forces during the holiday season. No admission charge will be made, but there will be a free-will offering to help defray the expenses of the production. On sale during the evening will be 33-1/3 rpm recordings of "Gloria of Easter". The record

Area People Perform in WSC Recital

Several area young people will take part in a recital of ensembles Tuesday evening at 8 in Ramsey Theater to complete the series of student performances this term at Wayne State College. The recital is open to the public.

Among those taking part in the brass choir which will play three selections are Bonnie Dotson, Wausa; Bob Schleppebach, Pierce; Larry Teager, South Sioux City; Dan Praemer, Ne-ly; Wayne Moorhead, Norfolk; and Roger Grimm, Norfolk.

Included in the madrigal singers, which will complete the program: Sallie Bergt, Wayne; Joyce Sokol, Pender; Michael Albrecht, Thurston; and Roger Grimm, Norfolk.

One other major musical event this term at Wayne State will be the choir-orchestra performance of "The Messiah" at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 15, in Rice Auditorium.

Honor Roll

On the second honor roll (three A's, rest B's) were seniors Margaret Ankeny and Nancy Swanson, juniors John Hirschert and D'Vee Koester, sophomores Linda Hook, Gary Troth and Sandy Jones, freshmen Kathy Chapman and John Warner, eighth graders Janel Hassler and Susie Kjer, and seventh graders Kim Jackson, Roger Anderson and Melodie Javenport.

Four students made the third honor roll (two A's, rest B's): senior Val Koester, freshman Vickie Hirschert, and seventh graders Barbara Creamer and Randall French.

Randolph Schools To Give Concert

Randolph public school's music department will present its annual Winter Concert Dec. 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

The Sunday evening concert will be under the direction of Miss Georgia Wacholtz, vocal director, and Eugene Walden, instrumental director.

Appearing on the program will be the high school's concert band, girls and boys gleees, the high school's mixed choir, and a finale involving a combination of all the vocal and instrumental students.

Director Walden emphasizes responsibility for all the things I said in the letter.

Also, in answer to your comment on the same letter: I appreciate the fact that your paper did give us so much advance publicity. The point which obviously did not make clear was that we were hurt that no one from your paper came to see it and that no subsequent review of our efforts was published. Let me make clear that we were not hurt about the amount of advance publicity, but we are unhappy at the lack of a review.

I hope that this clears everything for everyone.

Sincerely,
 Mary Stevenson

CALENDARS

In the short time they have been available, the 1969 NEBRASKANAL Calendar of Color has already gone to 45 states and 9 foreign countries. While the spectacular collection of full-color photos is certainly a major attraction of the calendars, the other features are also mighty convenient. California, as usual, is second only to Nebraska in number of calendar sales.

Spending First Christmas in America

by Merlin M. Wright

At first, the plane appeared to be only a small speck above the horizon, then as minutes ticked by the big jet let down its landing gear and settled gracefully onto the runway of concrete ribbon. Unnoticed by the milling passengers at the huge terminal, there was on board this particular airliner a 17-year-old youth by the name of Eghon Guzman Bustamante from Santiago, Chile. It was August, 1968 and he was in America at last! So hard to believe!

Once again, after refueling, the giant metallic bird lifted off old Mother earth and blasted skyward. Not long afterward Eghon peered out of the window to see the breathtaking spectacle of New York City. Skyscrapers, appearing to reach upwards toward the craft itself, provided a welcome carpet of concrete. The large city did not frighten Eghon as he comes from a city having a during the past six years but his trip to America has given him his first experiences in speaking the language, which he does very well.

Eghon and his new brother, Steve, are both put for wrestling on Coach Koenig's team. Steve wrestles at 112 lbs. and Eghon at 125 lbs.

What have been the highlights of his visit in America so far? One of them was getting acquainted with a nice girl, and another was the wonderment of people's hospitality. "This is a wonderful country," he noted.

Eghon hopes to get a college education and become a medical doctor. This is, at least, his present desire and dream.

Like most fellows his age he likes sports, particularly soccer in Chile, and football in America. His favorite food at home is meat cake while he has developed a liking for steak in the States.

Guzman, in explaining customs and traditions of Christmas in Chile, said most families have a special bread that the mother bakes for Christmas and New Years. They also enjoy a punch made of milk and wine for these special holidays. Chilean children also dream of Santa Claus, exchange gifts and decorate trees. Father is Santa and buys a gift for each member of the family. Eghon worships in the Catholic church and spoke of the church buying gifts for the poor particularly at Christmas, plus having special midnight mass.

Santiago's coldest temperatures reach thirty-two degrees while the hottest weather would find the thermometer hitting the ninety mark. Eghon had never seen snow fall prior to his arrival in Nebraska and an elated smile stole its way across his face as he told of his first-time experience. So many of the traditional Christmas customs are very similar between Chile and the U.S. but Santiago never has a "white" Christmas, so if some fine day between now and Dec. 25 the snow falls ever so gently, covering hill and vale with a new carpet of white, you'll know the new brother in the Kent Hall family at Wayne, Nebraska, will be one happy lad as Steve and Scott teach him the art of building a giant snowman and having a snowball fight. And won't that be fun to write home about!

population of three million, however, the lad was in a hurry to get to Wayne, Nebraska.

Eghon had left his father Enrique and his mother Ana behind but they were well assured their son would be welcomed and loved in the Kent Hall home at Wayne, Nebraska, USA. And though his sisters, Erika, 19, Edith, 15, Berna, 11, and a brother, Milton, 14, would all miss him for the months he was to be gone to America, they knew their brother would find two new brothers and two new sisters in the United States about which he could tell them when he returned. And sure enough he did!

A phone call to the Kent Hall residence the other evening was answered by 16-year-old Steve and when questioned as to how many brothers and sisters he had, he replied, "there are five of us". And there have been five since August. Steve is sixteen, Eghon is seventeen, Lou Ann is fourteen, Scott is twelve, and Lori is ten years old.

Young Guzman has noticed some food differences and several differences in the school systems. In Chile there are only boys in his high school, and all subjects are those required. He likes Wayne High where there are both boys and girls and where there are some elective subjects. He had studied English WINSIDE LUCKY BUCKS. It was a long time coming but there was finally a winner in Winside's drawing November 23rd. The tenth name to be drawn was that of Allan Koch, at left, who won the $25 in certificates. Ted Hoeman, right, was in charge of the drawing. Roger Mastny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milan Mastny, Winside, did the drawing. Names drawn of those who were not present were Owen Hartman, Hoskins; Orva Jamer, Carroll; Norman Maben, Gene Kay and Merlin Topp, all of Wayne; Wesley Rice, Ronald Kittle, Eileen Damme, and Pearl Carr, all of Winside.

WINSIDE LUCKY BUCKS drawing resulted in three names being called November 30, with Chester B. Wylie, Winside, at left, winning the $25 in certificates. Two other names called were Art Magdara, Wayne, and Leon Backstrom of Carroll. Steven Bodensiedt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bodensiedt, Carroll, drew the names Carl Troutman, at right, was in charge of the drawing.

Officials to Omaha

Many of Nebraska's County officials will convene at the Castle Hotel in Omaha Dec. 11, 12 and 13.

Wayne County representatives planning to attend are: Leona Bahde, John T. Bressler, Ethel Martelle, Norris Wetlie, George Stolz, John Surber and Roy Davis.

I See By The Herald

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Helkes left Wednesday after a visit in the Mrs. Charles Helkes home to visit in the homes of Kermit Andrews and Lyle Stern, Blair. Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Stern are sisters of Mr. Helkes. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Helkes left Friday for their home in Portland, Ore.

Dixon School Sets Christmas Program

Students at the Dixon Grade School will give their annual Christmas program Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Planned for this year is "The Merry Christmas Fairy," a musical play.

The public is invited to the party and lunch will be served after the play. People attending the program are asked to bring cookies with them for the social hour following.

The youngsters will have their own Christmas party on Friday, Dec. 20, before school lets out for the holiday vacation. There will be an exchange of gifts and treats. School resumes Jan. 2.

Makes Honor Roll

Carol Otto, daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Otto of rural Wayne, was named to the fall quarter honor roll at the CE School of Commerce in Omaha. She was the valedictorian of the 1968 graduating class at Wakefield High School.

Adult Welding Class at Allen High

Lynn Schluckebier, vocational agricultural teacher at Allen High School, is presently conducting welding classes two nights a week at the high school for about 14 adults.

The course, lasting until Feb. 26, meets every Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at the high school and will include 14 meetings. Schluckebier said he was pleased with the response to the class.

He noted that the meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 17, is open to the public. Gary Metzger, sales representative of Geigy Agricultural Chemicals, will talk to the class about chemicals used in farming. There is no charge for this meeting and Schluckebier hopes for a large turnout by area farmers.

The course will cover all the basics in welding. Those taking it will probably be awarded certificates upon completion.

Final Rites for Myrtle Suhr, 70 Held Saturday

Funeral services for Myrtle Suhr, 70, were held Saturday, Dec. 7 at 1:30 p.m. at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Wayne. Miss Suhr apparently died Nov. 27 at her farm home near Wayne. A neighbor called at the home Wednesday and discovered Miss Suhr's body.

Rev. S. K. de Fresse officiated at the rites. Mrs. Fritz Ellis, accompanied by Ted Bahe, sang "Rock of Ages" and "Nearer My God to Thee". Pallbearers were Frank and Russell Lindsay, Henry Schmitz, Louis Test, Fred Hurd and Clarence Baker. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Myrtle Suhr, daughter of Alexander and Eliza Thompson Suhr, was born Aug. 22, 1898 at Wayne. She spent her lifetime on a farm near Wayne. She was a member of Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Her parents and a brother preceded her in death. Survivors include numerous cousins and an uncle.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers. It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

What You Can't Buy Me for Christmas

When he stepped out of the front door onto the porch of the old home place, he didn't realize it was the last time his folk's property would feel the press of his feet. As the mighty jet rode skyward on horses of flame, the 19-year-old knew it was a possibility that he would never see his beloved country again, for Vietnam was now his destination.

There he is now on yonder hill, shall we go over and take a look? That wonderful smile that used to race across his face from dimple to dimple is absent. A wisp of wind plays crazily in his curly hair above the square cut manly jaw inherited from the man who begot him; he'll not any longer need the weapon at his side nor the grenades slung from his belt, because the lad is dead. A Viet Cong slug caught him at the waist and burrowed deep into his life, snuffing it out. The only thing his parents would want for Christmas is his being alive again and seated at the family table, instead there will only be an empty chair. Family members will find tears getting in their way as they peer at photographs taken last year when the youthful soldier was home for his last Christmas on earth. I'd like to have that family all together again, but that's what you can't buy me for Christmas. Uncle Sam will give the family a medal of honor, but medals don't ring with laughter and fill a house with dimpled smiles, and medals don't close doors easily at night after having had a great date with the best girl. Medals don't have birthdays, nor do they eat peanut butter sandwiches. Medals don't die but boys do. You can't buy him back for Christmas, Communism with all of its viciousness removed the boy from this life in a single second.

I'd like to see every man who holds a government office be so patriotic to the United States of America that he would weep when the flag passed by. I'd like to see the surly lipped professional rioters, who work as communist agents but aren't willing to wear the name, all confess their organized crime as being traitorous to those men fighting and dying in Vietnam, but you won't be able to buy me that for Christmas either.

There is a fourteen year old that I know of who can remember nothing except life in an orphanage, and though charitable organizations saw there were many gifts for each child, it meant little because the gifts weren't from anyone special. They were just merchandise given out of dogoodism rather than genuine personal love and affection. So few folk take the time to express genuine personal concern and love anymore. That's what you can't buy me for Christmas.

Nursing homes across this great nation will attempt every conceivable way to tactfully remind the senior citizens that Santa hasn't forgotten them. It isn't that Santa has forgotten them that may cause tears to flow, but it's because their very own families have forgotten what it means to be old, lonely, and that having a wrinkled face doesn't mean having a wrinkled heart. The love to companion those sad hearts! That's what you can't buy me for Christmas.

For the whole world to momentarily forget its madness toward securing more and more of crass materialistic gifts and concentrate upon giving and receiving the gift of individual respect, concern and love. Ah! That's what you can't buy me for Christmas. — MMW.

Do We Want This Kind of Peace?

This story of ancient Rome may be fact or legend, or maybe a little of both. We do know that in the early days of Rome, it's citizens were its soldiers. When danger threatened the small city, every man laid down his tools and picked up his sword to appear. When danger passed, he went home. This was practical and effective in the days when each city was a little state all by itself. In those years Rome won a reputation for staunch defense of its city walls.

At some time in its early history, Rome prospered to the point where citizens became reluctant to leave their homes and business every time a mob of barbarians attacked the city walls. Each one insisted that in the interest of Rome he be excused. Eventually the defense of the city became the job of men who made a business of soldiering.

About this time a band of barbarians approached the city. Neither the people nor the hired defenders were over eager to engage them, due to the discomfort it causes everyone in reaching their own personal ambitions. Then the idea of peaceful negotiations came to the city fathers. Why not pay the attackers to go away? (Give them sufficient gold and trade to satisfy their whims. This would avoid bloodshed on both sides and not upset the peaceful life of Rome. Surely the barbarians would settle for a fair price! Undoubtedly, they had heard about Rome's past reputation for victories. Romans could defend their city if they chose to be war-mongers instead of a reasonable and sensible people willing to negotiate.

The barbarians readily came to terms. Why lose valuable men fighting for something which the Romans were willing to give them? The weight of the gold to be paid was agreed upon and the barbarians entered the city to accept the loot. The Romans put the agreed weight on one side of the scale and put enough gold on the other side to balance. It was then that the Romans learned the most important lesson. The barbarians did not agree that the scales were in balance. They demanded more gold.

When more gold was added, the barbarians were still not satisfied. The Roman negotiators began to protest vigorously, pointing to the scales heavily tipped in favor of the enemy. The answer was swift and final. The huge barbarian chief unbuckled his belt and tossed his heavy sword and belt onto the scales. "Use to be conquered," he said simply. The Romans paid. It cost them everything. So then there was "peace".

And who do you think is willing to negotiate now, as history attempts to repeat itself? — MMW.

High Stakes in Mistakes

It seems that someone described walking as a succession of falls forward. Perhaps it is. One first learns to walk by continuing to get up after falling down. That most important thing in life called success is learned only by getting back up after making a mistake.

Let's face it, a man who could stand at one hole and drive a golf ball into the next hole every time in one stroke, would not care to play the game. It would be too much like work. Besides, he would have a difficult time finding anyone to play the game with him, so perhaps he would end up joining a circus.

Why should our errors irritate us? For don't they help us to make progress if we are willing to learn from them? If we never erred in playing a game or doing our work, wouldn't we become bored or completely disinterested in it?

Likewise, why worry when your pen or your tongue slips, and you write, say or love the thing you shouldn't, if you recognize your fault and are sorry for it, promising to try to do better next time, hasn't there been a better quality of fibre formed in your character? And doesn't this do a great deal more for you than if you performed flawlessly?

Life should be like the experience of learning to walk. Standing up again after falling is all important. You may be bruised or confused on occasion by errors made, but stand up and try all over again.

Look in the mirror. Suppose that image you see actually had never made a mistake! Wouldn't you be lonesome? Would this earth be any longer challenging or fascinating?

Perhaps the recording angel doesn't so much observe all your errors as he watches the spirit in which you get up and go at it again when you have made a mistake! Most important, remember that your fellow man is having a similar experience. Maybe one of the most important gifts you alone could give to someone this Christmas would be the priceless gem of forgiveness. — MMW.

Out of Old

Nebraska

World War I Battleship

From 1907 until 1923, one of the battleships in the U.S. Navy's fleet was the U.S.S. "Nebraska". Joining the Atlantic Fleet for their famous round-the-world cruise in the summer of 1908, the "Nebraska" was engaged in convoy duty on the Atlantic during the First World War. Following the Armistice, the ship made several trips to France and brought back some 45 hundred troops.

The U.S.S. "Nebraska" first came into potential being March 3, 1899, when Congress passed an act providing for the construction of three ships. One was to bear the name "Nebraska".

One of the three ships was to be built on the west coast, and Moran Brothers of Seattle bid on the contract. Since they had not been able to raise the $3,700,000 necessary to construct the hull and machinery, Seattle residents had raised $100,000 to subsidize the project. On January 6, 1901, the Secretary of the Navy announced that the Moran Brothers had been awarded the contract for the construction of the battleship to be christened the "Nebraska".

Keel-laying ceremonies were scheduled for July 4, 1902, and Nebraska's Governor Ezra P. Savage was invited to participate. While a crowd of some seven thousand looked on, Governor Savage and Governor McBride of Washington drove the first rivet into the keel of the new ship.

The "Nebraska" was launched on October 7, 1904, and again the governor of Nebraska was invited to be present. Governor by this time was John H. Miley, and he stood with a crowd of several thousand persons as his daughter, Mary, officially christened the ship.

In the spring of 1905, the Nebraska Legislature passed an appropriation bill providing funds for the purchase of a silver service to be presented to the ship by the State of Nebraska. The Reichenberg-Smith Company of Omaha submitted the winning design, and an impressive service was manufactured by Caldwell and Co. of Philadelphia. When completed, the service consisted of 25 pieces of sterling silver weighing 1,300 ounces.

The U.S.S. "Nebraska" was officially commissioned into the United States Navy on July 1, 1907. In the spring of the following year, Governor George L. Sheldon arrived in San Francis-to present the silver service to its captain, R. F. Nicholson.

After serving during the First World War, the "Nebraska" was de-commissioned in 1920. The Five-Power Naval Pact of 1923 sounded her death knell. Under the provisions of this treaty, which was designed to limit naval armaments, the "Nebraska" was sold for scrap.

The silver service was returned to Nebraska, and although several pieces are missing, it has been used for many years at the Governor's Mansion.

Laurel 'Vittler' Whiles Away Spare Time

by Norvin Hansen
People can come and go but "vittlers" just while away the hours with a piece of wood and a sharp knife.
Viggo Kastrup is in his own words a "vittler" who spends most of his free time in the basement of his small home in Laurel carving decorative picture frames out of Masonite. The still-present Danish accent, even after living in the United States since 1910, accounts for the special pronunciation of "whittler".
Kastrup, son of a Danish carpenter, began his whittling as a small boy in Denmark when he worked on dairy farms. "In those days you had to work from early morning till late in evening, seven days a week," he pointed out. Much of the work was watching over the dairy herds in the field or shed and that left plenty of spare time. A good pocket knife and some small sticks got Kastrup started on his hobby.

REMINDER OF DENMARK. Viggo Kastrup also whistles away his time building windmills for his wife. This one has colored windows and an electric light on the inside. Viggo also made the small base for the miniature windmill. His wife says he can do anything — if he wants to.

He continued his hobby until he and his father came to America in 1910 — to see if it was a fit country to live in, Viggo chuckled. He must have had his doubts because he saved all the hardwood he could find on the journey across the Atlantic in an English liner until he had gathered a suitcase full by the time he and his father docked in New York. "We couldn't speak English and as a teenage boy I wasn't too sure we weren't going to starve," Kastrup said.
He and his father came by train to the Laurel depot and hired out the next day so they could begin paying off their uncle, who had borrowed money for their fare across the ocean.
About a year later the rest of the Kastrup family came to America. One daughter stayed in Denmark. The Kastrups rented a farm and all the boys in the family did the work on it. Viggo smiles when he points out that his father liked to farm but wasn't a very good farmer. "He couldn't be beat when it came to carpentry, but he just couldn't farm."
The hobby of whittling had to be put aside after Kastrup came to America. Working on a farm in this country, and then raising a family of his own following his marriage in 1921, didn't leave him much time.
He finally took the hobby up again last Christmas and has turned out about 95 picture frames of various sizes and designs since then. He has also made about 30 or 40 small wishing wells. Most of the picture frames and miniature wishing wells he gives away to his friends.
Kastrup whittles or notches pieces of Masonite for the designs on the frames. Usually, there are two or three pieces of Masonite, glued on top of each other to make a thick frame. Kastrup then varnishes or puts some type of finish on the frames as a finishing touch. He can finish one of the small frames in a day or less but the larger ones can often take as long as three days work to complete.

Farming most of the time around Dixon and Concord, the Kastrups raised six children — Edith, Inger, Arni, Esther, Viggo and Lilly. Esther is married to Howard Brentlinger and now lives in Allen. The other children live in the Midwest.
Kastrup also has several brothers living in Nebraska. Edmund lives in Laurel, Fgon in Wakefield, Svend in Concord, and Arne in Omaha. One sister, Carla Vester, lives in Wausa, and another sister, Mrs. Alfred Nelsen, lives in Omaha.
If you ever want a hand-made picture frame for one of your more important photographs, drive up to Laurel and talk to Viggo Kastrup. He probably won't even charge you anything.

Don't worry about directors about how to get to his house. Either ask around or just drive about town until you see a yard with several miniature windmills turning in the wind. You see, he also makes those small windmills to remind him of Denmark. But that's almost another story.

New Program Date

Carroll Elementary's school program originally scheduled for Dec. 9 has been changed to Dec. 10 at 8 p.m. in the city auditorium. Youngsters in kindergarten through sixth grade will participate.
Special productions of Chicken-licken, Frosty the Snow Man, and song presentations by various classes are included.
The audience will be asked to join in singing carols to close the program. Public is invited.

NEEDLEWORK TOO? Viggo looks at one of the picture frames he made for his wife. The needlework picture is one he made of the small country church where he and his wife were married in Denmark close to half a century ago. Mrs. Kastrup holds one of the small wishing wells her husband made completely out of pieces of wood picked up around town. Also on the table are some other picture frames he has made over the past year.

Ritze, Joliet, Ill., Chris Jensen and Jim Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ritze and family and Mr. and Mrs. John Ritze joined them in the evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Olson were dinner guests Sunday in the Handy Milnes home. Dennis, Barry, Milnes returned after visiting in the Olson home several days.
Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Meyers and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Holiday, Okaloosa, Ia., and Wilva Jenkins were visitors Thursday evening in the Ernest Eckman home. The Meyers were overnight guests Thursday in the Jenkins home.
Friday evening guests in the Wilva Jenkins home for oyster supper were Mrs. Margaret Cunningham, Lynn and Pam, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Dreezen and Chad, Westfield, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Eddle and Dorothy.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wittler were weekend guests in the Leroy Wittler home, Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wittler and Julie Wittler attended open house Sunday for the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wittler at Tallmadge.
Mr. and Mrs. Don Wacker took their daughter, Diane, to Sioux City Sunday where she left to return to school in Kansas City. She had been home for the Thanksgiving holidays.
Reed Wacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wacker, left from Omaha Monday for Oakland, Calif. He had been home on furlough for three weeks. Thanksgiving supper guests in the Don Wacker home were Fred Wacker and Mildred, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wagner and family, Mrs. Howard Wacker and children and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wacker and children.

Newcastle Is Sixth Post Office Located In Dixon County
Newcastle was the sixth community in Dixon county to have a post office. The original Newcastle post office was located on the farm now owned by Sam Curry.
The first postmaster was Mr. Curry's grandfather, Alexander W. Curry, who received his appointment from the federal government June 19, 1864. He chose the name of the village in northern Ireland where the Curry family had formerly lived for the name of the new post office.
Earl Curry, also a grandson of the first postmaster, now owns the original receptacle that was used in this early post office to store mail before delivery.
The post office was moved to the present location of the town of Newcastle in 1895 when Gustavus Smith was appointed postmaster. He was followed in 1881 by Thomas Hoy.
Thirteen postmasters have served the Newcastle post office in its more than 100 years of operation. The present postmaster is Mrs. Adeline Breslin. She is also the president of the Dixon County Historical Society.

Concord, Allen Give Away Turkeys
Both Concord and Allen are holding turkey drawings during the holiday season.
Concord held their first Christmas drawing Saturday afternoon in front of the fire hall. There will be another drawing Saturday and a final one on Saturday, Dec. 21. Five turkeys will be given away at each drawing and people must register before the 3:30 drawing. On the last day of the drawings Santa Claus will be in Concord and will be giving out small gifts and treats to the youngsters.
Winners of Concord's recent turkey drawing during the Thanksgiving holiday: Annita Fritschen, Vickie McAlliff, Mrs. Dick Rastede, Rex Rastede, Alan Nobbe and Mrs. Winston Wallin.
Allen planned a turkey drawing for Saturday afternoon also and will have at least two more before Christmas. The drawings will be held at 3 p.m. in the business district this coming Saturday and Saturday, Dec. 21. Santa Claus will be in Allen Dec. 21 to give small treats to the kids. Five free turkeys will be given away at each Allen drawing.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Thank you so much for the $10 and letter. It is so nice the merchants and friends do such a great thing for us servicemen.

I have been back from Vietnam for 13 days and expect to be back in by tomorrow for my 16 day shuttle. I plan to go see Ronnie Haase at Hue this time. I haven't many shuttles left before we come home April 1969.

We've seen quite a bit of the Philippine Islands, but of course there is more we hope to see. We have gone to Baguio City twice in the northern mountain area. It was so nice and cool up there. We went through the wood carving and silver smith factories. We had a very interesting trip both up and back.

We went to Corregidor Island and saw where the "death march" road began: rode an outigger across the South China Sea. It is really hot down there. Then we've been to Subic Bay which is a two hour trip from Clark. Roads were real rough due to the rainy season. We hope to go to Manila too.

On the 18th my wife Lyla and I came back from a week's leave in Japan and Okinawa. We really enjoyed ourselves. We bought a lot of nice things. Thanks again very much for the $10, prayers and thoughtfulness we get from the friends back home. Letters are always very welcome.

We both wish to express to everyone back home a very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Kenneth Haase
