Open Winside School Bids

Bids were opened Apr. 24 at Winside for the construction of the new half-million dollar elementary school building.

Voters in Winside's school district 95 II gave overwhelming support to the $495,000 bond issue for the new structure early last December. The issue passed by a vote of 424 to 70.

Inna Larson-Roubel and Associates of Omaha designed the new elementary school of around 30,550 square feet which will be built with a steel structural system surfaced with brick and precast concrete. The interiors will be finished with concrete block, vinyl tile and an acoustical ceiling.

George Farran, president of the Winside school board said about the bid openings, "Though all the bids were close, they all seem to be right down to the line."

Superintendent M. J. Masten led this to say about the meeting, "The way bids have been going for other schools, I think we got a lot for our money."

The lowest base bid on the electrical contract was submitted by Simpson Electric of Pender for $33,383. Second lowest bid was made by Krueger-Jule Inc. of Norfolk for $34,744, and a bid of $35,822 by Bisor Electric was third lowest.

Low bidders on the mechanical contract were Northeast Engineering of Norfolk with a base bid of $27,996; Fleming & Heil, Inc. bid $101,738; and Plato Valley Plumbing & Heating made a base bid of $101,930.

On the general contract bids, Structures, Inc. was lowest with a bid of $327,381; next lowest was J. H. Hesse Co. at $336,480 and Abbott Construction, Inc. with a base bid of $336,900.

Superintendent Masten said it appears the building's cost will be around $508,800 which will include carpeting, library and the science room.

Bicycle School Set June 9-12

Wayne police officer Pat Halley said Thursday that plans are under way for the police department's annual bike safety school June 9-12. The school is a week later this year so as not to conflict with vacation Bible school dates which many Wayne churches have scheduled June 2-6.

Halley said bike safety classes will meet from 9 to 10:30 a.m. June 9-12 and both films and lectures will be given to bike riders six years old and over.

Classes will be held at the Wayne fire station. The school is one of the many "extra" duties performed by the police department in the interest of teaching youngsters proper riding procedures, safety signals and general bicycle safety.

Deadline to License All Dogs Is May 10

Several hundred dog owners in Wayne had better get on the ball and buy licenses for their dogs before this Saturday or run the risk of paying a fine, according to Dan Sherry, city clerk.

Sherry said Friday 77 people have already licensed their dogs, a long way from the 300 or so who purchased licenses last year. And Sherry said there were probably many more than 300 dogs in the city last year.

Licenses sell for $1 for male dogs, $3 for female dogs. After May 10 there is a 50 cent penalty tacked onto this charge and the possibility of the owner being fined.

Police are authorized to pick up any dogs not having a license after the May 10 deadline. These will be impounded for three days and will then be killed if they are not claimed. Owners of licensed dogs will be contacted by the police to pick up their dog.

Chief Vern Fairchild to Law Institute

Wayne police chief, Vern Fairchild, said Wednesday that he plans to attend the sixteenth annual Nebraska Law Enforcement Institute May 5-9 at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education in Lincoln. Fairchild is president of the Police Officers Association of Nebraska which, in cooperation with the University of Nebraska College of Law, is sponsoring the Institute.

Wayne's Chief will not be able to attend the entire institute but does plan to attend several sessions and the Board meeting later on this week.

Designed to improve the skills and knowledge of law enforcement officers in Nebraska, the Institute is expected to be attended by more than 200 officers from 60 different law enforcement agencies.

During the mornings, officers will attend programs on a variety of different topics. Each officer will be enrolled in one workshop session that will meet each afternoon and additional programs will be held at night.

Officers will receive 16 hours of instruction in one of these six workshop areas: Traffic law enforcement, basic police school, criminal investigations, police report writing, departmental planning or advance police school.

Of particular interest will be two presentations by William J. Martin, associate professor of law at Northwestern University, who was chief prosecutor during the widely publicized Richard Speck murder trial and led prosecution which grew out of disturbances during the Democratic National Convention in Chicago.

Martin will discuss preparations for the Richard Speck trial at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, May 6, and speak on the police officers role in preparing criminal cases for trial at 8:30 a.m. Wednesday.

The board elected Willmer Murr to serve another term as president of the council. Council members made no changes in the people who are on the committees within the council.

The council also decided to hire Al Hansen, coach and instructor at Wayne High School, as the swimming pool manager this summer. Although Hansen will be able to hire his assistant, the council recommended that he hire Darrell Fontenay, Wayne State College student.

The Satellite Clinic is designed to serve Wayne, Dixon, Cedar, Knox, Dakota and Thurston Counties. However, people from other areas in Nebraska are also eligible for services.

A psychiatric team will travel from Norfolk once a month to see people with mental and emotional problems for evaluation and treatment. The psychiatric team will be composed of a psychiatrist, clinical psychologist, psychiatric social worker and psychiatric nurse.

Persons wishing to refer someone for clinical services or seeking information about services may contact the clerk of the District Court at the Dakota County courthouse, phone 987-3442.

Dr. Sander's, director of NEMHC, indicated that it is preferable for a person to be referred by a physician, minister, school administrator or some other responsible authority in the person's home community, but self referral may also be accepted.

The Satellite Clinic plans to be open the third Thursday of each month from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m., beginning May 15.

Erosion Creeps Into Limelight

Two men from the State Soil and Water Conservation Service and several area SWCS people toured the Humbag watershed in late April in order to view problem areas and possible structure sites and come up with a structural plan for the watershed.

The watershed, which begins west of Winside and ends at the Elkhorn River east and south of Pilger, has caused much erosion damage. At its worst spot the watershed has created a gully about 30 feet deep and 60 feet wide.

About 200 people who have land in the watershed created the Humbag Conservancy District in an attempt to obtain federal funds to help build structures to control flooding and erosion.

A 45-mile air tour of the watershed was conducted last June. Touring the watershed recently were engineers Carroll Reese and David Burris and economist Glenn Booth of the state SWCS. Area personnel were Arnold Marr and Gene T. Phillips, district conservationists of Wayne and Stanton counties; Jack Chase of Pilger, chairman of the Humbag Conservancy District; and Ralph Cregler of Blair, area conservationist.

Additional information had been gathered previously through a flood-damage survey by the local people and an engineering See EROSION, page 2

This information will now be summarized by Reese, Burris, and Booth to determine the number and size of structures needed to control flooding and for grade stabilization. The feasibility of the project can then be determined by comparing the benefits expected over a fifty-year period with the costs of the structures, land easements and rights-of-way. To be feasible, benefits must exceed costs by 25 per cent.

A geologist, yet unnamed, will also be working on the plan this spring and summer. It is expected that more detailed information on progress will be available later this summer.

Keep Her Smiling! Visit A Nursing Home Patient Mother's Day, May 11

"A Better Life through Community Concern" is the theme for National Nursing Home Week, May 11-17. On behalf of their patients, nursing home leaders throughout the nation are encouraging members of the community to visit a nursing home. Many of the patients are all alone in the world, often chronically ill. Those people need to know that the community which they helped to build has not forgotten them. That's why many American Nursing Home Association member homes and their patients are holding an Open House on Mother's Day, May 11. It's the first day of National Nursing Home Week. You are urged to take part by visiting a nearby, participating nursing home.

Hurler Sets New Record

Wayne High had to come from behind to salvage a 5-2 victory at Dodge Thursday afternoon. Wayne Mazdanz posted his sixth win on the mound as the Blue Devils increased their season record to 8-0.

Dodge's two-run rally began in the bottom of the second inning with one out when the bases were loaded via a double and two walks. The next two batters were hit by pitched balls, allowing the lead runners to cross home plate unmolested. A pair of grounders to first baseman Jerry Titze ended the inning.

Coach Mike Mallette's batsmen came right back in the top of the third to even the score with a two-run home by Titze. The four-bagger came after Rod Cook connected for a single. Mazdanz flew out to the second baseman and Steve Hix struck out.

Wayne jumped ahead in the fourth inning after Dodge went down in order when Dennis Redel hit a single, Terry Hurlbert drew a base on balls and Butch Meyer gained an RBI by getting a one base hit. Two ground outs halted Wayne's attack.

Another insurance run was added to Wayne's score in the top of the sixth when Redel singled, Hurlbert struck out and Meyer reached first on a fielder's choice that forced Redel out at second. Mazdanz was credited with the RBI when he came up with a single after Meyer stole both second and third. Hix ended the inning by grounding to the shortstop who forced Mazdanz out at second.

Wayne's final run of the day came when Randy Helgren connected for a triple with one out and then scored on Dave Tietgen's sacrifice fly to centerfield. Hurlbert hit an infield fly to the second baseman to end the inning after Redel reached first base on an error.

Dodge was unable to erase the deficit in its last time at bat as three ground outs cinched a Blue Devil victory.

Wayne will see action twice this week as it hosts Walthill today (Monday) and Bancroft Thursday. Both games will start at 3 p.m.

Frank Burgasser, a senior at Wayne State College, shot into the record books on the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics when he heaved the javelin 253-3/4 in a triangular track meet at Wayne State College last week.

He also had a 252.4 throw in a triangular meet with Southern State of South Dakota and Yankton.

NAIA officials in Kansas City said both distances top the year's previous best effort, 245-4, though Burgasser's effort last week came too late for this week's national statistical chart.

A transfer student from the University of New Mexico, he has thrown the javelin 281 feet in practice and several times in the 270's. His best effort at New Mexico was 266 feet.

4 All-American Ratings Earned by WS Grapplers

Four Wayne State College wrestlers rated All-American recognition for the 1969 season, the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics announced.

All four placed in the national NAIA meet at Omaha in March. Headlining the Wayne honors is Tom Firestack, a first-team All-American as heavyweight champion. A year ago the Canon City, Colo., junior was second All-American for a second-place finish.

Senior Larry Michelson of Jackson, Minn., is a second-team All-American for his second place at 152 pounds. Last year he was national champion at that weight.

Michelson also gained another honor this week in the 1969 edition of Outstanding College Athletes of America. He is among some 5,000 athletes to be listed in the annual volume recognizing "athletes who have proven themselves outstanding in sports, campus activities and curriculum." Nominations for the publication are made by athletic departments of colleges and universities throughout the nation.

Two other Wayne wrestlers rated All-American honorable mention: 123-pounder Bill Schwarz, senior from Cedar Rapids, Ia., who won third in this year's national meet and fourth in last year's; and 160-pounder John Yoder, junior from Woodstock, Ia., a national fourth placer.

This was the second straight year Wayne State has placed four in NAIA All-American ranks, and both years Coach Don Pate's team has finished fourth nationally.

Norfolk Stock Car Track Opens Season

Riviera Raceway, located just south of Norfolk, opened its 1969 stock car racing season Sunday night. Eleven races were scheduled for the evening.

Main attraction during the night's racing was a memorial race for Merle Hamm who died of a heart attack last year. Hamm was originally from Wayne County.

Owner of the track said last week that he plans on having 11 races each Sunday night. He noted that he hopes to increase this to about 14 or 16 as the season progresses. Races get underway each Sunday at 8 p.m.

Included in this year's action are races on Friday, July 4, and on July 30 when the Riviera '500' will be held.

Horse Show Slated

The Capital City Horse and Pony Club's sixth annual Horse Show will be held at the Nebraska State Fairgrounds Coliseum in Lincoln May 25 and 26. Afternoon performances start at 7, evening performances at 7.

There will be over $5,000 in prizes and awards given out, including a drawing for a $500 bill and a $100 bill.

Hartington Cedar Edges Coleridge in Lewis & Clark Conference Track Meet

A strong Hartington Cedar Catholic track squad set two new records as it captured first place in Thursday's Lewis and Clark Conference track meet.

Held on Wayne State's track and field, the meet was dominated by Hartington (C) and Coleridge. Together they won 11 of the day's 17 events. Coleridge pulled down six first places, Hartington five, but the depth of Hartington's squad enabled it to rack up 72 1/2 points to Coleridge's 62 1/2.

Coming in third and shut out of all but one first-place showing during the day was Winside with 27 1/2 points.

Emerson-Hubbard and Norfolk Catholic tied for fourth with 22 points, followed by Ponca with 17 1/2, Randolph with 14, Wynot with 9, Hartington High with 7 and Allen with 3.

Hartington's record-setting efforts came in the high jump where tall Steve Becker cleared 5-10, bettering by one inch the record set by Crofton's Walter in 1962. Their other record came in the two-mile relay with a run of 8:43.3 to erase Randolph's record of last year of 8:46.2.

Coleridge set records in the 880-yard run with a 2:05 effort by Fericks, one second faster than the record set by Winside's Jacobsen last year.

Emerson-Hubbard's Oetken ran the two-mile run in 10:46.2, almost eight seconds faster than Hartington C's record set last year of 11:04. And Norfolk Catholic managed to etch its name

Decatur's in NEN League

Decatur has joined the Northeast Nebraska League, making the loop an eight-team circuit for the 1969 season. The newcomers will open the season June 22 at Crawford, Ia.

Several Decatur players will be familiar to northeast Nebraska baseball fans since they previously have made up part of Walthill and Lyons entrants. They will be managed by Dan Sears.

Ponca, which had earlier asked for an extension of time in reorganizing its team, has also committed itself for the season. They will be headed by Gary Bennett and assisted by Don Kruse, Allen High School coach.

Completing the opening day pairings are Wakefield at Ponca; Wayne at Whiting and Kingsley at Homer.

Schuyler Nips Local Golfers

Wayne High golfers had their share of trouble on the tough par 36 golf course at Schuyler Thursday afternoon. Schuyler clipped the locals, 174-179, for their second defeat of the season.

Jim Sturm turned in the lowest score of the day for the Wayne squad, a 42, after playing the nine holes, which feature numerous water hazards and narrow fairways lined with plenty of trees.

Coming in behind Sturm was Chuck Fisher with a 43, Kyle Wills with a 46 and Joedy Hoogner with a 48. Jack Suhr's 50 was not used in the scoring.

Low scorers for Schuyler: Roger Faltyis and Jeff Johnson, both with rounds of 42. Schuyler's Curtis Woods and Paul Parolek turned in rounds of 44.

Now with a record of five wins and two defeats, the Wayne squad will play host to West Point and West Point Central Catholic Tuesday afternoon at 3:30.

Rummaging around in the storerooms usually doesn't produce much of worth, but in the case of Marvin Wheeler, janitor at the Allen High School, it recently did.

Recently Marvin spent some time digging through the dusty items in one of the school's storerooms and he came up with something of value—two baseball pennants the Allen High School had won back in 1921 and 1922.

The pennants—deep orange colored with black lettering and symbols of crossed bats—were given the school those two years for being champions of the "NENISAL."

Marvin, a student at Allen during those years can't remember for sure what the letters stand for but he thinks they stand for "North-east Nebraska High School Athletic League."

The does remember some of the boys who played on the Allen baseball team in the early 1920's. On those champion teams were Russell and Maurice Wheeler, brothers to Marvin. Everett Wheeler, cousin to Marvin, Walter Harper, Boss Gahrheim, Lloyd Bagley and Alvin Glaze. Everett Wheeler was a catcher on the team and Garbime pitched.

Bagley, according to Clarence Larson of Allen, another longtime resident of the Allen area and a student of Allen during that time, could not remember what the initials stood for or who the other members of the team were. But he could remember that Allen had "one whole of a baseball team back then. This Bagley was a great batter—he hit like a professional."

The two pennants Marvin found at one time hung near a trophy case in the old part of the High School. When the building was enlarged and a new trophy case was built they were stuck in the store room. Marvin said he just got curious the other day and wondered if they were still there. They were and they now hang in the high school auditorium.

Creighton University Takes Doubleheader At WSC Thursday

Creighton University, after a series of losses, downed Wayne State twice in baseball Wednesday, 7-5 and 9-5.

The opening victory was a piffy second-inning runs on two walks and two errors, then in the seventh let a 5-4 lead evaporate when an easy third-out fly dropped out of center field Bill Godwin's glove and three runs scored.

Relief pitcher Duane Mendlik, taking over for starter Jerry Nicolson in the seventh, took the loss—his third due to subpar fielding or batting.

Wayne outfield Creighton, 7 to 4. Among the Wayne blows was a first-inning homer by Bob Brandt, scoring two.

The Bluejays' nightcap victory—their eleventh against 17 losses—came on a 13-hit barrage including home runs by Mancuso and Schicker, in the third and fifth innings.

Wildcat bats produced eight hits, but several threats died.

180-Yard Dash: 1. Wacker, Winside, 2. Witt, Winside, 3. Brandt, Coleridge, 4. Steffen, Cedar Catholic, 5. Cooper, Hartington, T-22.2.

Laurel 4th In NENAC Track Meet

Laurel High School's track team raked up 41 points to tie fourth place in the annual Northeast Nebraska Athletic Conference track meet at O'Neill Thursday afternoon.

Taking first with 70 1/2 points was Pierce. Bloomfield came in second with 63, Crofton third with 48 1/2, Plainview fifth with 35 and the hosts last with 14.

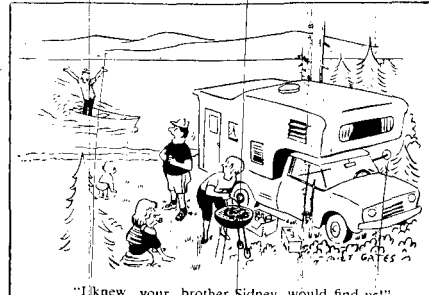

Dave Dietrich, Laurel speedster, won two events during the day—the 100-yard dash in 10.6 and the 220-yard dash in 24.1. Steve Erwin gave Laurel its only other first-place showing by winning the high jump with a leap of 58.

Larry Smith tied Bloomfield's Melrose for second in the high jump, clearing 5-8 also but with more misses.

Laurel's 880-yard relay team of John Dalao, Jim Schroeder, Steve Erwin and Dave Dietrich came in a close second behind the winning Bloomfield team. Winning time—1:39. Laurel's

WINSIDE'S Gary Soden hands off the baton to Dale Vansodall in the second heat of the mile relay event during the Lewis and Clark Conference track meet at the Wayne State track and field Thursday. The event was won by Hartington Cedar Catholic in 3:41.6, just over three seconds slower than the record time set by Ponca in 1965 of 3:38.3.

"I knew your brother Sidney, would find us!"

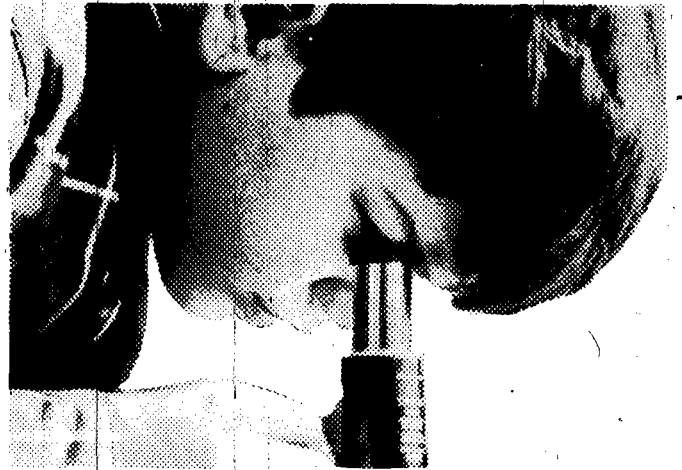

RELICS OF THE PAST. Marvin Wheeler, janitor at the Allen High School, found these two pennants while rummaging in a storeroom at the school. Nobody knows for sure what the initials stand for, but the pennants prove that Allen at one time fielded a championship baseball team.

THIS OLD HOUSE WON'T STAND MUCH LONGER according to Alfred Morris who said Tuesday the old jail and sheriff's residence of the court-house block is scheduled for demolition in June. Morris pointed out that plans were made to dismantle the old structure earlier but weather and the unavailability of crewmen prohibited it. Bricks and some of the other materials will be salvaged, Morris noted. Although once an attractive building, it has been exceptionally unsightly since the jail cell pens were removed.

AK-SAR-BEN STILL Searching for Pioneer Farms

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben and the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers continue their search for Nebraska Pioneer Farm Families whose land has been owned by the same family for 100 years or more.

Roy Moeller, Cuming County, chairman of the Nebraska Pioneer Farm Award Committee, pointed out that 380 farm families have been honored at various county fairs during the first thirteen years of the project, and each year more and more

Nebraska families are eligible for this honor.

Moeller and other members of the committee, Leonard Glantz, Merrick County, and Howard Mortensen, Furnas County, said that again this year the honored families will be special guests at a banquet during Ak-Sar-Ben's annual Livestock Show and Rodeo and each family will receive a beautiful engraved walnut plaque and an aluminum gate post marker for their farms from the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben plus a special framed citation from the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers.

All nominations must be submitted by June 1 to the secretary of the local county Fair Board, Moeller said.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

It is the duty of an editorial writer to search all available facts before he sits down to write. From this basis the writer should be able to give a clear picture of important topics.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Our One Hundredth Birthday

According to the "Nebraska Atlas" written in 1964 by N. D. Searcy and A. R. Longwell, professors at Kearney State College, Wayne County was organized in 1870.

Also, a book published by the Nebraska State Historical Society in 1936 shows a map on page 89 under which is stated, "County boundaries based on map by E. L. Sayer of Union Pacific Railroad 1867 and Laws of Nebraska 1869." The map shows the boundary lines of Wayne County.

In 1869 the University of Nebraska was founded. On the 10th of May, 1869 the completion of the Union Pacific Railroad came, meaning the continent was spanned from ocean to ocean by iron bands.

So people in Nebraska and Wayne County were busy making great strides in progress just 100 years ago. Did they have problems? Yes, they had problems that you might find difficult to believe!

Theirs were the "sizzling states." The civil war broke out in 1861. In 1864 and 1865 the Indians gave the whites a lot of trouble. On July 25, 1865, an attack was made on Platte Bridge station by 1000 Indians. The state adopted a constitution in 1866 and on March 1, 1867, President Andrew Johnson issued a proclamation declaring Nebraska a state. The first state legislature had to find a site to locate a building. Nebraska U. was founded in '69; the Union Pacific Railroad drove the "golden spike" in '70. Grasshoppers invaded the land by the "cloud" in '74.

Nebraskans, one hundred years ago, faced political, economic and racial turmoil. Though a tremendous amount of modernization of methods has come about, we still face problems in each of those mentioned areas.

Whether or not Wayne County residents want to mark the 100th year in 1969 by some sort of special county-wide celebration, or celebrate in 1970, is up to those in position to make such declarations. It is my opinion that this generation with plans to land on the moon this year, might well salute, in some way, those industrious forefathers which saw to it that Nebraska and Wayne County were given birth.

Nebraska really is "where the West begins." Whether it is this summer or next, just as an idea to chew on, Wayne merchants could create an "old west" environment in the downtown business district by covering storefronts with slabs of treacher giving a "log" effect and erecting temporary hitching posts at intervals.

Actually, it would be a "Double-W" idea to "Westernize Wayne" for a month or so during the summer. Money could be "Wayne Wampum"; somewhere an organization could sponsor a "Wayne's Wishing Well"; folk could attend "Wayne's Worship" services; cafe's could take on names such as "The Wayne Wigwag"; perhaps teenagers could come up with a "Wayne Waddle" dance; hundreds of inexpensive, walking-sticks could be made up to sell at a slight profit advertising "Walk With Me In Wayne"; plans could even be made to invite tourists for a one hour "Tree swim" in our "Wayne Waterhole."

The idea behind the "double-W" theme is of course being able to "double your pleasure, double your fun" in Wayne County's summer sun where we are more than a part of the "gift of the Earth," and progress was born here. In the last 100 years the only thing that hasn't changed in Wayne County is the daily "friendliness" of her population.

There are undoubtedly ideas throughout the County that are far better than this. Be sure to speak up because it isn't every day that a 100th birthday comes along! MMW

Tornado!

Imagine that it is late in the afternoon on one of June's hot, humid, sticky days. Above you is a sky that is mostly overcast. There is a prevailing southerly wind.

Big bulging thunder clouds swirl rapidly overhead with an occasional ladder of lightning coming down out of the sky. All of a sudden greenish-black clouds roll in seeming torment. Everything is all too quickly quiet! Then a torrent of rain commences and a bombardment of hail pelts the wet earth.

The bottom seems to fall out of the clouds with huge penulous arms sagging constantly downward, only to pull up and reform. You stand in the doorway watching the brewing storm knowing that with such conditions, everything is "go" for a possible visit from a tentacular storm... the tornado.

Far above you and the Earth's surface roars an immeasurable raging violence occurring as two air currents of different temperatures, density and moisture meet head-on. As they collide, a whirling vortex of low pressure is formed, grows and deepens, lengthening into a furious twisting arm of terrible power, wrapped in a cloud.

The funnel-shaped cloud, something like a lash in the hand of an uncontrollable monster, dips earthward and those of us who have heard its terrible wall and terrifying cry, describe the roar as "like a thousand thundering freight trains."

Moving in a northeasterly direction around 30 miles an hour, the velocity of the whirling winds inside the cloud will reach an incredible speed of 250 miles an hour. The cloud stacks the land, buildings explode, cars and animals or whatever gets in the way may be carried hundreds of feet high, and the pendulum of power sweeps a swath of destruction.

Leaving behind it a path an eighth of a mile wide and often many miles long, the tornadoic arm dips, twists, and sucks its rage relentlessly, only to be suddenly gone.

Wayne County residents should make advance plans as to what action to take when "tornado" weather seems to be developing.

Wayne residents will hear the fire siren sound for 30 seconds, then a 15 second pause, then a 30 second blast again, as a warning that a tornado has been spotted and may endanger the city.

When the storm is no longer a threat, the siren will give one long blast as an all-clear signal. Let's be ready "just in case." MMW

Location of Wayne County

As this writer was perusing through the pages of a "History of Wayne County" written by Dorothy Huse Nyberg and printed by the Wayne Herald in 1938, he found this article of particular interest. We thought you might enjoy it.

"Wayne county is a tract of fertile slightly rolling prairie in northeast Nebraska, lying at 42.20, degrees of latitude and between the 98th and 99th degrees of longitude. The county contains 444 sections of land or about 284,000 acres.

Wayne's location on latitude 42.20, which is 42 degrees and 20 minutes north of the equator, would in circling the globe touch 15 miles south of Sioux City, enter the city of Chicago, pass close to Detroit, across Lake Erie, through New York state 110 miles north of New York City, and cross the ocean about 750 miles south of London and 500 south of Paris, pass through northern Spain, about 30 miles north of Rome in Italy, north of the Himalaya mountains and on through the desert of Dobi north of Peking, China, some 150 miles, through northern Japan, and on around to the Pacific coast through southwestern Oregon, across Idaho, Wyoming, and back to Nebraska. Wayne county is bounded on the north by Cedar and Dixon counties, on the east by Dixon and Thurston counties, on the south by Curlew and Stanton counties and on the west by Pierce county. Wayne county's extreme length from east to west is 28 miles, and its greatest width from north to south is 18 miles." MMW

Clean Blades Cut Best

Just about everything is liable to end up in a can these days. In fact, the average household opens from 900 to 1500 metal cans every year. For convenience sake many women have been placing electric can openers in their kitchens.

Every electric opener has either a cutting wheel that revolves freely, or a stationary cutter wheel or blade, that pierces the can. Any type of cutting device must be kept clean because it is sure to become encrusted with food. This clogs its action, is highly unsanitary, and can transfer flavor from one food to the next. When dull blades are forced through a can, metal particles may fall into its content, so both the cutting wheels and stationary blades should be kept sharp. A clean cutter remains sharp longer. It should be wiped with a sudsy cloth after each use, then frequently removed and scrubbed in hot sudsy water.

One precaution to take—never immerse the electric can opener in water because of motor damage and personal safety, so the cutting assembly must come out for

Have you lived in Nebraska very long? Let's take a look at some interesting information about this great State which lies just north of the geographical center of the United States.

Did you know that a tourist traveling from Boston, located on the Atlantic Coast, to San Francisco, located on the Pacific Coast, would be exactly half way on his trip when he reached Kearney? Nebraska covers the 37th state of the Union in 1867, at which time most of the state was inhabited by Indians numbering around 40,000. The Pawnee and the Sioux, deadly enemies, were the most numerous.

Our State has 77,227 square miles, of which 564 square miles are inland water. At its greatest north and south length, Nebraska is 205 miles long, while at its greatest width, east and west, it is 415 miles.

Wayne County is a part of the Loess Hills which is made of the fine-grained soil blown in by the wind and is a hundred feet thick in places. Most of it makes real good farming land. When the winds are extremely strong we wonder if perhaps it isn't all going to be picked up and blown away again.

Nebraska's earlier white settlers were fur traders. Not many settled here, however, until after the Territory of Nebraska was brought into being in 1854. Late in the 1850's, large numbers of Germans moved into the area. After the Union Pacific Railroad started building its line west out of Omaha, in 1865, the company started an advertising campaign in order to bring more people out here. As a result, Norwegian, Danish, Swedish and Bohemian farmers arrived during the 1860's. A large migration of the German-Russian came in the 1870's.

Wayne County was organized in 1870 which means, of course, we will have a 100th birthday coming up soon! Do you happen to know of anyone living in Wayne County who was born here in 1870? We should give them special recognition. J. W. is wondering who in Wayne County has lived here for the longest period of time? If you have some ideas as to who it could be, let me know.

In just 100 years transportation has changed from prairie schooner to jet transports. A teenage son used to be extremely proud of his horse, but is now disappointed if he doesn't have about 300 "horses" purring under the hood of a shiny car. We've moved from heating sod houses with whatever was available through washing. Some types are difficult to remove so this is a factor to consider when buying an opener. First, unplug the appliance, then follow the manufacturer's directions for disassembling the gears. The importance of scrupulous cleanliness is emphasized in use-care and warranty manuals.

For the home without an electric can opener the conventional can opener still can be kept sharp and sanitary with proper cleaning after each use.

Bellevue is the oldest existing town in Nebraska, established in 1823 as a fur-trading center. Now the State is populated with many cities and towns, hamlets and villages, inter-connected by roads, railroads and airports. What will the next 100 years bring?

Let's do some guessing about the future. Likely in 2069 A.D., only those licensed to do so will have children. Each new baby would receive a designated number by which he is identified through his lifetime in all business transactions via computer. Homes may be equipped with sensing devices which automatically either heat or aircondition the prefab house to a selected temperature, using a derivative of nuclear power.

Celestiallography may be a main course in "schools" where computers have replaced human instructors. The landing of "men on the moon" in 1969 will, in the year 2069, appear to be more primitive than traveling by ox cart appears to us today. Eighty-five per cent of the medicines used a hundred years from now remain yet to be discovered. Chances are that no one will have to do the work you are involved in today after 2050 A.D.

Transportation will continue in its never ending revolution. You will not be able to buy a wrist-watch or time piece that doesn't function correctly within hundreds of a minute, all powered by tiny cells of energy that will last a lifetime.

Communication will be carried, most likely, on laser beams or lines. Earth's inhabitants will of necessity be multi-lingual, with the possibility of a standardized computer language used between Earth, Mars, Venus and manned orbiting laboratories.

The power and capabilities inherent in lasertronics will enable individuals to communicate from any place on Earth with both sound and a three dimensional picture. But what will most likely ruin or mar the future?

Man has always had the age-old problem of getting along. Most likely there will still be wars. There are some indications that if earthmen move toward collectivistic and socialistic "bigger the better" governments, there is the possibility that in 100 years only those wearing the insignia of a "big brother" totalitarian government will be able to trade or do business. Such a government would function from orbiting offices filled with computers and their electronic memories. Earthlings would be

No one "wanted to contest" the granting of the saloon licenses on the ground that the notices asking for permits had not been published in a legal paper. It is not our intention to bore our readers or the public concerning our business, but we desire to state, and emphatically, too, that the law was complied with in so far as publishing the notices in a paper with the largest circulation in the county, is concerned. For the benefit of advertisers we wish to further state that from the 7th day of April, 1899, a little more than three months, 193 new subscribers have joined The Herald's subscriber list, through our efforts and that of a few friends, and our books are open to our patrons to prove the correctness of our statements. It is a record to be proud of and we are. At the same time we do not wish to be understood as speaking against our competitors, for they have splendid lists.

Preparations for holding a rousing Fourth of July celebration in Wayne this year should be begun at once. Wayne did not celebrate last year and should do the handsome thing this year.

New Court House

The bids for the court house were opened by the Board of Commissioners on Tuesday and after a thorough examination of all bids the contract for the building complete was let to Rowles & More of Omaha, for $25,600. The structure will be a handsome building and be constructed of the best Omaha pressed brick trimmed with Porrage entry red stone, with slate roof. The contract for the heating and plumbing was let to Sid Relyea, of this city, for $2,400 making the total cost of the building about $28,000.

Work will be commenced at once and the contract calls for completion by October 1st.

Curfew Whistles

"Curfew shall not ring tonight!" No, but it will ring, or rather whistle, next Monday night and every night thereafter. Instead of ringing the bell the water works whistle will be blown at nine o'clock every night. When the whistle blows next Monday night our citizens should remember that it is not a fire, and all boys under the age of 14 should remember that it is time for them to be at home! Marghal Mincer will enforce the monies until Sunday, June 29, according to the pastor, the Rev. Fred Jansson.

A banquet is planned for the evening of June 28 with three special services scheduled the following day on Dedication Sunday.

Guest speakers at the banquet and dedication will be Dr. Milton B. Engerbreton, president of Evangelical Covenant Church of America, and the Rev. T. W. Danielson, Midwest Regional Conference superintendent.

Charles Tubbs is lying at his home at Kearney dangerously wounded. He went to the army to get his daughter, who was attending an entertainment. Charles Collins, formerly of Broken Bow, followed them and insisted on talking with the girl. A quarrel ensued resulting in Tubbs being stabbed twice in the back, also in the neck and face. Collins stole a dark bay running mare and escaped. He is a heavy gambler, and desperate character.

Destroyed by Lake Waves

The gale of April 28 wrought havoc at Crystal Lake Park in Dakota County. The water bank full from the recent overflow of the Missouri, whipped into a frenzy and waves eight feet high beat ceaselessly against the water soaked banks. The encroachment was astounding. A strip of the park fifteen feet deep and eight rods long and wooded with many beautiful trees was swallowed. Then the ground beneath one of the big unfilled ice houses was washed away and the structure, together with about fifteen hogs belonging to some farmer floated away, and the animals were drowned. The loss amounts to $4,200.

Woman Badly Hurt

John Krause, a farmer residing north of Dixon, was gone to town with his family, and on crossing a railroad track Mrs. Krause was thrown out, striking on the back of her head on a rail. A gash about three inches long was laid open to the skull and her injury may prove to be quite serious.

The Nebraska committee joined ASC committees from eight other States in this first orientation for committee men. Much of the orientation was presented by Department authorities on specific farm program areas and included the policies and aims for program operations. Committee members met with a number of key Department officials not in ASCS whose work relates to farm program activities.

As the season got underway on Monday, committee men were addressed by ASCS Administrator Kenneth E. Frick, Associate Administrator Carroll G.
