Just a Trickle Now

Names and addresses for our coming servicemen's Christmas list are beginning to trickle in, but we need many more. If we are going to have a fairly complete list by the time it is printed in mid-November. If you know of some young man or woman serving in the armed forces, jot down his name and address and send it to The Wayne Herald so we can include it with the names we will be publishing very soon. The list will serve as a handy guide for anybody wishing to send cards or gifts to those serving in some branch of the service this holiday season. Remember to include the complete address of the person in the service and make sure spelling is correct. Deadline for names and addresses is Nov. 13. The list will be printed Nov. 20.

Laurel Boy Killed In Tractor Accident

A 10-year-old Laurel boy, Gerald Hirschman, was killed late Friday afternoon when he fell off a tractor he was riding on and was run over by the tractor wheels. The accident happened about five o'clock near the farm of the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Hirschman. The Hirschmans farm about two miles northwest of Laurel. The youngster is survived by his parents, six sisters and two brothers. The other Hirschman children range in age from 19 years old to two years old. Entitled "Circle of Sound," the concert is scheduled for Tuesday evening in the high school lecture hall. It will begin at eight o'clock. Included in the night's program are such selections as the popular "Aquarelus/Let the Sunshine In," the Israeli folk song "Tum Kalalaka" and the English folk song "O No, John." Performing during the evening will be the concert choir, the freshman choir and four small singing groups.

Allen Co-op Robbed

A safe was broken into and considerable property taken from the Farmers Co-op Elevator Co. in Allen during a robbery sometime Friday night or early Saturday morning, according to Richard Schaefer, manager of the Co-op. Schaefer said early Saturday morning that he could not determine what was taken from the safe. The break-in was discovered when the Co-op opened for business Saturday morning. The thief or thieves gained entrance to the store by breaking in a door. The robbery comes on the heels of one which occurred in Allen some time Wednesday night or early Thursday morning. In that incident, the thief or thieves reportedly took a number of shells from the Allen Lumber and Hardware Co. Whoever broke into that store also tried unsuccessfully to break into the Hutchings' Locker in Allen, scene of two break-ins within the past six months or so.

ARCHBISHOP IN WAYNE: Wayne State looked considerably different to Archbishop Daniel E. Sheehan of Omaha than it did in his student days of 1933-34. This was his observation during an hour's visit to the campus last Wednesday. But the archbishop, a native of Emerson, met many students and faculty members at a reception after he visited the Cooperative Campus Ministries house which is sponsored by five major denominations, including the Catholic Church. At the reception are (from left) Dr. Rafael Sosa, Leonard Gabriel of Fullerton, Grace Jeddicks of Schuyler, Father Paul Begley, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Wayne, Dr. Charles Heppburn, Archbishop Sheehan and Mrs. Heppburn. The Co-op's executive board was meeting as the archbishop came in, and he told them to "keep up the good work."

Nuernberger Lists CAP Aims for '70

The chairman of the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, Gordon L. Nuernberger of Wayne, has listed the following aims for the recently announced Agricultural Conservation Program (ACP) for 1970: Stronger emphasis on enduring conservation practices. Addition of measures for abatement of water or air pollution. Continued encouragement for low-income farmers to donate conservation work. Development of special conservation projects having community-wide benefits. With the recent announcement of the program by Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin, farmers were assured of the continuation of this conservation program on farmlands, Nuernberger noted. "Under ACP the federal government shares approximately half the cost of needed conservation work with farmers who install approved measures," he said. The fund allocation for the 1970 ACP for Nebraska is $5,008,000, and this will soon be allocated to the 93 counties. Accordingly, requests for cost-sharing the 1970 ACP can now be approved by county ASC committees, said the chairman. Harry Heilmann, acting chairman of the local county ASC committee, said that some requests are still being approved under the 1969 ACP for conservation work which will be completed before the end of the year. More complete details on funds available in this county and approved conservation practices, rates of cost-sharing and sign-up dates for the 1970 ACP will be announced soon, Heilmann said.

'Courtship' Cast At Allen Named

"Hillbilly Courtship," a three-act farce about the matrimonial problems of a hillbilly area in the deep South, will be presented by the junior class at Allen High School in mid-November. Selected last week for parts in the comedy were Gary Troth as Luke Stilsby, Sandra Jeffrey as Emmy Peppin, Rhonda Schultz as Ma Peppin, Ginger Heckens as Lulu Triffet, Sandra Jones as Seddie Triffet, Brian Lina-felter as Wash Jeddo, Bill Hall as Sol Silverstein, Jerome Roberts as Louis Cattaro, Charles Asbra as Pappy Stilsby, Linda Book as Bridget O'Flannigan and Loren Puckett as Reverend Boswell. Directing this year's play will be Mrs. Betty Dahlquist. The whole trouble starts after two old enemies, Widow Peppin and Pappy Stilsby, plan their second marriages. They use the village idiot, Wash Jeddo, to write to a matrimonial agency, but Jeddo gets things messed up by including pictures of Pappy's son, Luke, and the Widow's daughter, Emmy, along with their letters. To top things off, the two young people are secretly in love with each other. That just starts a series of events which lead up to a calamitous courtship on Hog Mountain. Adding spice to the comedy are three hillbilly singers, the Triffet girls, and two characters who respond to the matrimonial letters, a temperamental Italian lad and a wild Irish girl. How the various mates are properly selected is a triumph of hillbilly dexterity.

Victor Honored by State

Wayne's sanitation commissioner, Henry "Heinie" Victor, has received state recognition once again for his work. It is the second time he has been presented the Scott Wilber award which is given by the water pollution control board each year to sanitation men with outstanding achievements. He first received the award in 1965. Representatives of the state department of health inspect sewage lagoons and mechanical treatment plants annually. They recommend men for awards on the basis of general excellence, high standard of operation and overall appearance. Victor was invited to attend the annual Nebraska Water Pollution Control Association meeting in Omaha Wednesday through Fri-

Dixon County Cancer Drive Produces Over $2,000 During 1969

The Dixon County chapter of the American Cancer Society collected $1,268.20 this year, according to Irma Foulks, county chairman. The money received by the American Cancer Society is used primarily for research into the causes and cure for cancer and for education to help people understand more about cancer so they know what to do when they notice one of the symptoms. Helpful films are available through the Nebraska division of the American Cancer Society which clubs or other groups may use without a rental charge. Mrs. Foulks says she has a catalog showing films and filmstrips available and that she would be glad to help anyone select a film for their group. Some of the larger chapters have organized groups of volunteers who have recovered from certain types of cancer. These volunteers talk with others and help those who are going through the same operation. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Manz of Dixon were the area co-chairmen for Clark, Concord, Galena, Logan, Springfield and Wakefield Townships, and Mrs. Delva Rick- See CANCER DRIVE, page 10

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Did You Ever Dream of Spending $100,000?

Most anyone who hurriedly agree that even $70,000 is a considerable sum of money. Have some fun for a moment by imagining things you could afford to do if you suddenly had $70,000 deposited in your bank account and it was tax free! Or how about a $100,000 deposit!

The sum of $70,000 represents seven years of income for a $10,000 a year executive, or it represents 14 years of labor for the $5,000 a year employee.

One would have to work more than 11 years earning $500 a month to receive anything near $70,000, or if you were earning $1,000 a month, you would have to work 70 months or nearly six years to earn such a large sum.

We who drive in Nebraska litter-ly throw $70,000 annually "out the window"! How? By throwing litter out of our automobiles on the Interstate! An additional $30,000 is spent in Nebraska picking up litter from other highways.

Nebraska spends over $100,000 each year to clean litter from its highways and right-of-way areas! The money could be better applied to safety projects or special road beautification programs if it weren't needed for cleaning up debris-laden highways. Can you think of better ways to spend $100,000 if it belonged to you?

Promoting litter-free highways in Nebraska, the State Department of Roads has some 100,000 litter bags ready for distribution according to Marvin L. Nuernberger, director-state engineer. The litter bags are available at dispensers in safety rest areas.

Nearly all Americans agree that littering is a serious problem but they don't seem to see the connection between their throwing something from the car window and the overall problem.

The same philosophy that evidently prevails in the mind of the average driver concerning accidents, which seems to be "it can't happen to me!", is the same type of ideology which permits a man's conscience to be at ease when throwing trash from the car window with the idea, "This little bit won't hurt." The philosophy is that it is always "someone else" who is involved in an accident and "someone else" should stop littering the road.

Just as sure as you have to pay the bill when you turn on an electric light in your home, make a long distance telephone call or turn up the thermostat on your gas furnace, you surely have to shell out the tax shekels when you throw garbage and trash onto state-owned property.

We don't let youngsters throw banana peels on the front room carpet or drop egg shells, beer cans and other debris in the front yard. One great sign of maturity is responsibility. Let's be responsible for making Nebraska beautiful and put all garbage in its rightful place. How did you say you'd spend $100,000? — MMW.

That Time of Year Again

Pheasant and quail seasons arrive over most of the state Saturday. Hunters from out-of-state will join local and area hunters for the annual sport usually resultant in some good eating. The seasons for pheasant and quail hunting will close Jan. 11, 1970.

There is something about the challenge, adventure, companionship and sport of hunting which is so appealing that hunters may easily forget good rules of sportsmanship. One of those rules is to respect the rights and property of others.

Rural residents have been criticized for posting their land with "No Hunting" signs, refusing to allow hunters in the area. Farmers are oftentimes justified, however, in doing so for several reasons.

There have been occasions when sportsmen have destroyed private property. Crops have been trampled, fences damaged, gates left open, debris scattered, or perhaps the hunter has shot dangerously close to livestock.

At other times farm folk have reported equipment damaged by a thoughtless hunter. Putting yourself in the farmer's shoes, just what would your attitude toward having anyone hunt on your property after it had been damaged in previous seasons?

How easy it is for only one or two thoughtless hunters to spoil hunting for many by disregarding common courtesy.

A good sportsman is going to remember that the land upon which he is privileged to hunt is likely owned by another man just like himself. The man's family may consist of several children who have pets. Careless hunting could maim, injure or kill either a child at play or a pet. No one wants such a thing to happen, but it can and has happened.

Suppose you are a farmer. Doesn't it seem reasonable that you would also like to have a chance at shooting some of the pheasant and quail on your own place?

A good rule to remember when hunting is to treat the farmer, land and property in the exact same way as you would want treated if you were the tenant or owner.

By stopping at the farm home and asking permission to hunt on the land, you will help eliminate many hard feelings and likely have a lot more fun. The bird may even taste a little better when you eat it! It pays to be courteous. — MMW.

Is Our Country Confused?

Comment related to the recent moratorium has been made by most every journalist. Some believe the moratorium was a splendid expression while others believed it a near act of treason.

If nothing else the moratorium revealed another instance where, because of freedom of speech, "it could only happen in America!" The freedom of speech is a tremendous privilege. We must guard and protect it with life itself.

There are a few confused people in America. Some of us demand the privilege to speak freely, but do not want our fellow American to have the same right. This is "freedom by selection" and ought not to be. The Nazarene had it right with "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you." Such a rule eliminates a lot of confusion.

For instance, if you hold a moratorium for what you believe to be right, then by that action you openly approve the man next to you who sees things in a different light, to also hold a moratorium for what he believes. If the American people should begin holding moratoriums for each and all of their causes and beliefs, we would then have "a government of the people in the street, by the people in the street and for the people in the street." This is confusion.

Is it "American" to protest fighting in Viet Nam while being willing to fight in demonstrations at home? Peace-niks appear to abhor violence in Viet Nam but too often favor violence in America. Is this confusing?

Demonstrators who seem horrified at shedding blood in Viet Nam do not seem to mind shedding blood rioting on American streets. Die for my flag and country? No! Die rioting in the streets? If I have to! This is real confusion!

You are right, the October moratorium was peaceful. Will the next one be?

Thousands upon thousands of American youths are 12,000 miles away from home in Viet Nam. They are, in a sense, demonstrating that as Americans, they are obedient to their government. While we here at home worry about living with a tax increase, the GI worries about living.

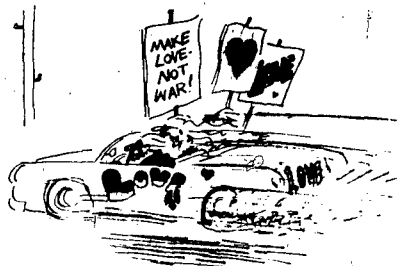

While the crowds in the American street declare their privilege of speaking freely, on occasions rioting for peace, the 18-year-old, tight-muscled GI in Viet Nam has also taken his place in a crowd — a crowd of American sons who are putting life itself on the line in attempting to combat that terrible ideology which not only forbids free speech, but has oftentimes murdered those who speak out against the system.

The GI has wept in public and in private unashamed because of his fallen buddies. He has become self-sufficient, cooks his own meals, can fix his own hurts and mend his own rips, mental or material. He doesn't go to a public street to demonstrate for or against anything, although he has that privilege as an American.

That young American male in uniform will share his water with you, break his chow in half for you, split his ammunition, do the work of two civilians and draw half the pay of one.

It seems obvious that the genuine demonstration for "peace" and for maintaining and protecting the right of "free speech" is on the front in Viet Nam.

As a loyal American, believe what you will, but allow fellow citizens the same rights of expression. The privilege comes at a high price. — MMW.

"Now they won't be able to do either."

Local and Personal Everybody is invited to the C. E. social at the home of Mr. Mark Springer on Friday evening, Oct. 27. Bring your ten cents for initiation fee of the Secret Society.

The fine rain Tuesday, while it delayed the cornhusking, was a grand thing for pastures, and will be of untold benefit to trees and shrubbery. Last winter owing to the extreme dry weather fruit trees, rose bushes, etc., died in vast numbers.

Little Gladys Goldie celebrated her first birthday yesterday afternoon. A large number of little babies and their mamas were invited and while the babies don't say much about it their mamas do. It was a happy crowd and a well behaved one too, but the babies were not the only ones who enjoyed the party.

We occasionally hear it reported that this paper is not supporting Bert Brown as it should. We want it distinctly understood that we are for Brown from start to finish and he is going to be elected. He is as clean, as upright and honest, and as competent as any man who ever run for office in Wayne county. During the past four years he has attended strictly to his business as clerk of the district court; he is courteous and obliging and will make a model county clerk, always at his post of duty, and when you have any business to transact with the clerk you will know just where to find him. Vote for Brown and help elect a deserving and worthy young man.

Miss Meyer, living between Edholm and Octavia, swallowed a sandburr while endeavoring to pick it from her mitten with her teeth while picking corn. The burr lodged in her throat, but did not hurt much until evening when at supper. Next day she was brought to Bellwood and it was much trouble that a physician removed it.

Many of our farmers have had to stop threshing on account of the weather this week. The unprecedented hot weather and high wind Monday made this work very unpleasant, and the rain of Tuesday and Wednesday added to the discomfort. Those who are husking corn report it as being well matured, and, in spite of not having had any hard freezes, it is said to come out of the husks easily.

Gustav Boetel, living southeast of Winside, while assisting in threshing Thursday, had his right hand caught in the machinery and suffered the loss of part of the third finger.

M. P. Jensen is very ill, his recovery being despaired of by his family.

Your Place in the Stars

by Tom McDermott

I mentioned once before that Benjamin Franklin was an astrologer, which is true. I don't mean to disgrace him, nor do I wish to "pull him over" to our side as a proponent. Doctor Franklin's "Poor Richard's Almanack" was chocked full of astrological platitudes. Whether he believed in the subject of astrology or not will never be known. However, it is not surprising to know that Ben Franklin did possess a basic knowledge, to say the least, of astrology. Franklin was a jack-of-all-trades.

Franklin, who was the recipient of an honorary doctor of laws degree (LL.D.), was a signer of the Declaration of Independence, and later the Constitution. Now the purpose of all this is not to educate the reader, but to build an intriguing story.

You may not realize it, but the approximate time of the signing of the Declaration has never been known. This is a rather odd problem, since no historian has ever been able to even fathom the solution. Some writers believe it was signed at noon, others at 3:00 p.m. and the list goes on and on.

John Adams did write a letter to his wife commenting on the Declaration. He alluded ambiguously concerning the time, but never really mentioned it.

All this uncertainty has puzzled the astrological world. Should astrologers cast a chart for noon or some other time? Common sense tells me that there are many more important questions to be answered, but just the same this is interesting. Let's say that the Declaration was signed at 12:00 noon. If so, the rising sign (the astrological sign on the east horizon at the time of inception) would then be Gemini. However, if it was signed two hours later, another sign, Taurus, would have been on the rising. Whatever the case, it is impossible to ever cast an accurate chart without the correct information.

Enter, once more, Ben Franklin. Some authors say that Franklin purposely stalled or hurried (whatever the case might be) the proceedings to get the Declaration signed. This is quite feasible, but if true we will never know.

So much for that. About six months ago I promised to finish writing about planting according to the moon and its phases. For the next several weeks this space will be "donated" to that cause. Everyone that is in the least interested about planting anything should be likewise interested in what will be said.

TAKING PART IN THE Wayne Federated Women's Club 50th anniversary meeting Friday, Nov. 2, were three state officers who are pictured at the noon luncheon at Les' Steak House. # Blue Devils Slip Past West Point CC, 18-11

By Keith Tietgen

The key and most decisive play in the Blue Devil-West Point Catholic football game Wednesday night came with only 1:10 remaining in the game when Randy Helgren picked off a Mark Westerman pass at the Wayne seven-yard line to stop a fired-up Blue Jay drive with Wayne leading by only an 18-11 count.

The excitement wasn't over as the Blue Devils were penalized five yards for delay of game on the next play. This put the ball on the two with 39 seconds still remaining on the clock. Wayne ran the clock out on three quarterback keepers as West Point had used all of their time-outs.

The first half was all Blue Devils as they built up an 18-3 lead as it looked like another romp was in order for Wayne. The Blue Devils scored 18 points then scored for Wayne from four yards out at 7:14 in the first quarter. The point after touchdown on pass from Helgren to Doug Maurer was no good.

On the ensuing kickoff by Wayne the Blue Jays put together a sustained drive to the Blue Devil 27 before the defense prevailed. Mark Westerman then tried his first field goal but it was wide to the left. Wayne took possession on the 20 and was able to move out to the 47 before being forced into a punting situation. The pass from center to Wayne's punter Mike Biltott was high and there was a mad scramble before Biltott was tackled at the 21. The Blue Jays were stopped cold in three plays by Wayne's stout defense. Again Westerman attempted a field goal and this time it was good, cutting Wayne's lead to 3 at 6-3 with 9:11 remaining in the first half.

The Blue Jays kicked to Wayne with Helgren returning the ball from the 13 to the 41. Wayne wasn't to be stopped in this drive as they went 59 yards in 11 plays with Randy Robins capping it with a 12-yard touchdown jaunt. The PAT on a pass from Helgren to Maurer again failed and Wayne led 12-3 with 4:27 still remaining in the second stanza. About 30 seconds later Charles Weible recovered a Blue Jay fumble at the Wayne 35. After seven plays Dan Sutherland scored on a plunge from the two-yard stripe. The point after run by Randy Robins was stopped and the Blue Devils had a comfortable halftime lead of 18-3.

The second half was a different story as the Blue Jays didn't let Wayne get past their own 44 yard line until early in the fourth quarter, and then they stopped the Blue Devil drive with a fine defensive stand at the Blue Jay 11.

The second time West Point got their hands on the ball they marched 81 yards in 12 plays. The drive was ended with a 37-yard scoring pass from Westerman to Bill Baumann as Baumann beat Wayne's pass defender by five yards. The extra points were produced on a pass from Westerman to Robert Hassler, leaving the Blue Devils with a lead of only seven points, 18-11, with 3:24 remaining in the third canto.

while limiting the Blue Jays to only two scoring attempts, both field goals and only one good. West Point looked like another team the second half as they held the Blue Devils scoreless and stopped Wayne's only scoring threat at the 11-yard line of West Point early in the fourth stanza.

West Point kicked off to the Blue Devils to open the game. Dan Sutherland took the ball at the 22 and returned it to the 30 and from there the Blue Devils marched 70 yards in 11 plays for their first TD. The big play in the drive came when Randy Helgren ran 32 yards after getting two fine blocks from Gary Heitbold and Ted Armbruster. Helthen until 1:10 left in the game when a Biltott punt was blocked by West Point's Gary Schlecht. The fans then came to their feet as it looked like the Blue Devils were about to lose their first game of the season after winning six straight. It was two plays later that Helgren played the hero's role as he picked Westerman's pass out of the air with the intended receiver in the end zone. Helgren was stopped at the seven-yard line. One penalty, three plays and 39 seconds later the Blue Devils had capped their seventh straight victory of the season.

The Blue Devils face one of their toughest opponents of the season when they travel to Laurel, a team which last year ruined Wayne's perfect record.

Wild Turkey Season Opens on Saturday

Hunters in Nebraska shouldered their shotguns and strung their bows Saturday for a crack at wild turkey in two units of northwest Nebraska.

This year, 2,000 permits were authorized for the fall hunt, and all 1,500 for the Round Top Unit in the Pine Ridge area have been sold out for several weeks. Of the remaining 500 permits in the Nobrara Unit, all but a few licenses had been issued as of Oct. 16.

The 1969 turkey season runs through Nov. 9, overlapping the opening weekend of firearm deer season in those areas and giving hunters a chance to "double up" with two big-game trophies on the same trip.

Turkey hunters have the option of using a shotgun, 10" through 20 gauge or a bow and arrow. The same season dates, shooting hours and management unit restrictions apply to both shotgunners and archers.

Allen Eagles Embarrass Randolph Cards, 48-0

By Bruce Linafelter

It was Allen's night to play football Wednesday as the Eagles won over Randolph High, 48-0. Allen completely dominated the conference game from start to finish, gaining 19 first downs and tallying 431 yards offensively.

The victory, coming on the heels of the 26-0 whipping they suffered at the hands of a tough Coleridge squad, gives the Eagles a 4-3 record for the season. They have two more games yet to play, both at home. They meet Hartington this coming Friday night and Emerson-Hubbard a week later.

In Wednesday's game, played early in the week because of district teachers convention at Norfolk, Allen kicked off to open the game. Randolph gained a first down but the Cardinals were forced to kick shortly after. A 52-yard pass play set Allen up on

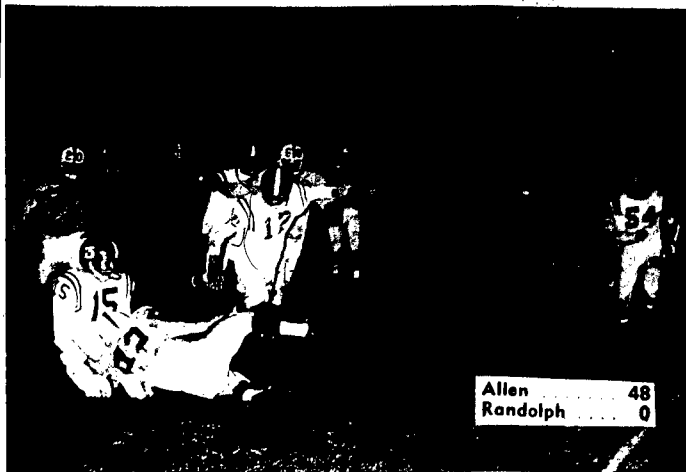

After forcing the hosts into a punting situation after the kick, Allen took over on the Randolph 38 and began another march toward the goal. The drive yielded points when Bob Smith dove over for the touchdown with only 23 seconds left in the period to put Allen ahead 12 to 0.

Randolph took Allen's kick on their own 14 but were again forced into a punting situation by the stout Allen defense. Quarterback Troth connected on another pass for Allen's third TD of the game. The pass went to Bob Mitchell and capped a drive which began on the Eagles' 45. Highlight of the drive was a pass from Troth to Mitchell which penetrated from the 45 to the Randolph six. The successful two-point conversion by Loren Reuter put the visitors out front 20 to 0.

Terry Trube set up the next Allen score when he punted a Randolph aerial on the Randolph 42. It took Allen only three plays to score, on runs by Loren Reuter, Bob Smith and the five-yard TD romp by John Warner with 5:36 left in the half. The extra point again failed, but the Eagles carried a comfortable 26-0 advantage into the locker rooms at intermission. Allen gave the the Randolph two-yard line and with 5:47 left in the initial period quarterback Gary Troth scored on a quarterback sneak to begin Allen's potent scoring attack. The PAT failed as the Randolph defense rose to the occasion.

Allen Randolph 48 0

HITTING THE TURF on this offensive play is Allen's Loren Reuter (42), leading rusher for the Eagles in their 48-0 romp over Randolph Wednesday night. Credited with this tackle is Randolph's Darwin Rossbach. Moving in on the action are Allen's Bob Smith (20) and Mark Roebber (48), and Randolph's Loren Hansen (12).

hosts possession of the ball late in that quarter on the only Allen punt of the evening.

Brian Linafelter grabbed the opening kick in the third quarter on the 20 and returned it to the 44 before being hauled down by a Randolph defender. That began another drive into the hosts' territory which was ended on a Troth-Mitchell pass for another six points. Loren Reuter scampered across the Randolph goal on the extra point attempt to give Allen a 34-0 lead.

Randolph returned the Allen kick to their own 14, but two plays later the Eagles were on the offense again. Allen gained possession on a Cardinal TD on the very next play but the score was nullified because of a forward lateral violation. However, two plays later the Eagles called on Loren Reuter to cross the goal for the sixth Allen score. The TD came with 3:15 left in the third period and put Allen by 40 points.

For the rest of the third quarter and for the whole fourth quarter it was a battle of the second and third teams. Freshman Pete Snyder made his debut as a rebounding success when he took the second of his two pass interceptions over the goal from 44 yards out. The TD came with only 1:17 showing on the clock. Brian Linafelter added the extra two points on the conversion attempt to give the Eagles their lopsided 48-0 margin of victory.

Leading the ground game for the visiting Eagles was Loren Reuter. He came up with 123 yards in 16 carries. Bob Smith was next in line, compiling 92 yards in 11 carries. Dave Lewon led the losers with 40 yards in seven carries.

Coach Don Kruse cited Mike Isom and Jon Pastede, the two leading tacklers for the evening, as defensive standouts during the action. Kruse and his assistant, Clair Jordan, also praised two offensive guards, Rick Gensler and Joe Ankeny, for their night's efforts.

Trojans Hitting .500 Now; Lose 28-6 Battle to WPH

Wakefield, unable to put together a series of victories this season, is back at .500 after losing a 28-6 tilt to visiting West Point High Wednesday night. The defeat, which knocked the Trojans' record back to 4-4, came on the heels of a 32-13 loss to Oakland. Friday night the Trojans have a chance to improve on that record when they host Scribner, last year's Husker conference champion.

And the defeat came about primarily because of West Point's strong showing in the second period. After the intermission, Trojans dominated much of the game and gave up only one more TD while racking up one themselves. But that second quarter hurt the hosts when West Point came up with two scores on passes and rushed for 128 yards. Wakefield gave up one TD in the first period on a pass. The hosts also allowed West Point to cross their goal again in the fourth period, again on a pass completion.

West Point High	6	16	6	0	28
Wakefield	0	0	0	6	6

Wakefield's lone score, which came early in the final stanza, was made possible by an alert Kip Bressler. He picked up a West Point fumble and scampered 60 yards for the TD.

Erwin's Aerials Molest Madison, 34-0, Wednesday

Junior quarterback Steve Erwin fired five touchdown passes as Laurel rolled past host Madison, 34-0, Wednesday night.

The victory, sixth of the season for the Bears, keeps Laurel in the running for the championship crown in the west division of the Husker Conference. The front runners—Wayne and Pierce remain undefeated, but that's almost certain to change before too long—those two squads meet at Wayne on Nov. 7.

But before Laurel can even think about that, it has to get by Wayne in a game this coming Friday night. Vince Brammer, Laurel mentor, said he expects a very tough battle when the two traditional rivals meet Friday. He is not reluctant to praise Wayne's offense and defense.

In that Wednesday evening tilt, the Bears apparently wanted to make up for a dismal showing against Crofton in their previous contest. Laurel eked out a slim 22-8 contest against the class C school.

And leading the attack against Madison was young Steve Erwin. And here's how he did it:

—On a four-yard pass to Paul McCoy early in the second quarter;

—On a 12-yard pass to Jerry Sarha about two minutes later;

—On a 28-yard pass to Allen Hanson about midway in the third period;

—On an eight-yard pass to Paul McCoy near the end of the third quarter;

—On a 17-yard pass to McCoy near the middle of the final period. Running for extra points after two of those touchdowns was George Schroeder.

Erwin hit on better than half of his passing attempts during the action, finding his receivers in the open eight out of 13 times for a total of 102 yards. Madison's quarterback fired one fewer than Erwin but he was unable to complete any of them as the Laurel defense remained tight (it came up with three pass interceptions). Those defenders were even more stingy when Madison attempted to run against them—Madison ended up with a minus nine-yard rushing.

Laurel, a team which has been up and down several times this year, started off the game in a faltering manner. The Bears fumbled three times in the first period. They ended the game with five fumbles, four of them ending up under a Madison defender.

Leading defenders for the winners were Paul McCoy and Jim Kirchner. Both had 10 tackles and assists. Getting about seven tackles and assists each were Regg Wakefield made a better showing in the statistics than on the scoreboard. The Trojans came up with one more first down than did the visitors, 13 to 12, and nearly outruled their opponents, 200 to 218. But in pass completions, Wakefield ended up on the short end, hitting not one of 12 attempts. West Point connected on six of 13 attempts for 140 yards.

Leading defenders for the losers were Lyle Brown (who made his first appearance for the Trojans after suffering a broken collar-bone in the opening game of the season), Chuck Ellis, Kirk Gardner, Bill Gustafson and Bob Mavis (who blocked one of West Point's few punts).

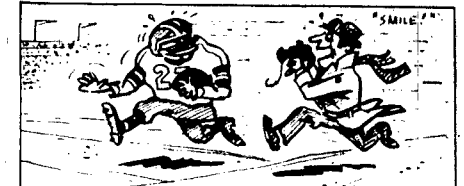

Gaining most of the yardage for Wakefield were Leland Miner, Kip Bressler and Rich Kline.

Junior High Grid Team Raps Laurel

Led by the consistent ground gaining runs of quarterback Marty Hansen, the Wayne junior high football squad kept its season record unscathed by knocking off Laurel, 14-0, in a game last week.

The game marked the second time in a row that the young gridlers were able to dominate the game so completely that the opponents were never able to penetrate into Wayne territory. The squad did the same feat at Wakefield a week earlier.

Two more games remain on the season schedule for the local squad, both at home. Tuesday night the Wayne seventh graders will meet the Wakefield junior squad in a seven o'clock tilt. A week later the Lions squad will play here. Following that contest there will be two weeks of intramural action before a short rest and then the beginning of recreation league basketball.

Kerry Jech and Gordon Cook were the two Wayne players who compiled touchdowns in the contest at Laurel. Jech took the ball over from six yards out in the first quarter. Cook took it over from the two in the final quarter. Jech's TD, which was made possible by the blocking of Kevin Helthold and Jim Chapman, came two plays after a Bill Schwartz-Farlie Overlin pass took the ball from Laurel's 40 to the eight.

Cook's TD came one play after an end sweep pass from Marty Hansen to Overlin took the ball from the 35 to the two. A Schwartz-Overlin pass accounted for the PAT following the first TD.

The game also saw two Wayne touchdowns called back because of violations. The first nullified score came with seven seconds left in the second quarter on a Schwartz-Jansen pass which covered 60 yards. The second came just before Wayne's final touchdown when Kevin Jech went over from two yards out on an end sweep. Set back to the 17 because of the violation, Wayne moved immediately to the Laurel two on a Scott Ehlers-Clark Clantonoff pass. Then Cook scored.

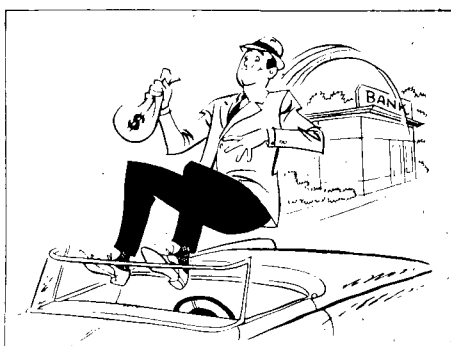

Frank Overlin, coach for the junior high squad, cited Marty Hansen for his outstanding running during the game. Hansen repeatedly ripped through the Laurel line for gains of seven and eight yards. Other outstanding offensive efforts were turned in by Farlie Overlin, Kerry Jech and Gordon Cook. Shining on defense were Greg Swinney, Ed Sandahl, Jim Chapman, Kerry Jech, Kevin Helthold and Todd Higelow.

Winside Girls Will Compete at Orchard

Winside's volleyball team will join teams from 15 other schools in northern Nebraska for the Orchard Invitational Tournament on Nov. 24-26.

The Winside girls will see action on the opening night of the tourney at 8:45 when they meet the team from Clearwater. Should they win that opening contest they would play the following night at 8:00 against the winner of the Stuart-Vardigre contest. Semifinal rounds are slated for 7 and 7:45 the final night of the tourney. Championship rounds will be played that night at 9:15.

Other towns scheduled to send teams to the tourney are Pierce, Elgin, Elgin Catholic, West Holt, Niobera, Fwing, Chambers, Wheeler County, O'Neill, Spencer and Petersburg.

Winside 'Cats Tied for L&C Conference Honors

The Winside Wildcats, working toward their best record in several years, grabbed a momentary share of the lead in the Leys and Clark Conference Wednesday night by knocking off conference leading Coleridge in a home game.

The 20-6 victory for the 'Cats upped their season record to six wins and one defeat (a 17-14 loss at Allen early in the season) and leaves them tied with Coleridge for top honors in the conference.

But the Winside squad has its work cut out for it if it wants to at least tie for conference biggie, according to coach Doug Barry, in his first year of teaching. Barry, a Wayne State grad, said late last week that Winside's final game of the season is against a tough Norfolk Catholic squad. Coleridge goes up against Hartington Catholic for the Bulldogs' final conference game this year, according to Barry, and that team has yet to mark up a win this season.

Wednesday night the Wildcats showed the fans some of the results of what Barry calls exceptionally hard work this year. They held the strong Coleridge squad scoreless for three full quarters before permitting them to cross their goal on a runback from a bobbed ball. Quarterback Gary Soden lost that ball when he faded back to pass about midway in the final quarter and got hit hard enough to knock the ball out of his grasp. A Coleridge defender picked the ball up on about the Winside 15 and took it in for the score.

But Winside quickly recovered its composure and with about two minutes left in the game Phil Witt raced about 50 yards around his end for the game's final TD.

Winside came up with one other touchdown in both the first and second periods of action, both of them coming on passes from quarterback Soden. With time running out in the first period Soden fired an aerial to Dave Witt which covered 70 yards for the first Winside score. Bob Jackson ran the ball over the stripe for the extra two points. Then near the middle of the second canto Winside came up with another touchdown when Soden hit Fritz Weible. The play covered about 16 yards.

Coleridge came off the field with one statistic topping Winside's: the Bulldogs gained 10 first downs in the action while giving up only five to Winside. But Winside compiled 125 yards on the ground and 100 in the air. Coleridge was held to 85 yards rushing and 70 yards passing.

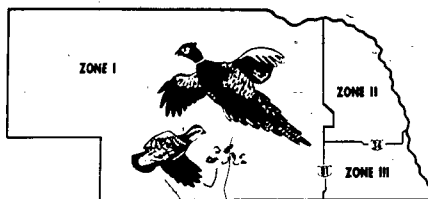

Soden hit just under 500 in his aerial game, completing six of 13 passes. The Coleridge passer completed seven of 22.

Although the evening was chilly, Winside fumbled the ball only one time during the contest. Coleridge did not fumble the ball once.

Defensive standouts in the action included Phil Witt with eight tackles and six assists, Dave Langenberg with eight and two and Dave Witt with six and five. Other strong tacklers included Doug Deck, Larry Cleveland and Gaylen Stevens.

Leading rusher for the winning Wildcats was Phil Witt with 52 yards in five carries. Trail-

Pheasant, Quail Hunt Opens for NEN on Nov. 1

Pheasant and quail seasons arrive over most of the state on Nov. 1, making the arrival of fall complete for thousands of Nebraska hunters and their out-of-state counterparts.

Only the southeast portion of the state, the area east of U.S. Highway 81 and south of U.S. 34, will stay closed on Nov. 1. That area opens to pheasant and quail hunters the following weekend.

Bag limit for ringneck west of U.S. 81 is three and possession limit is nine. Quotas for the rest of the state are two in the daily bag and four in possession. Bobwhite limits are six daily and 12 in possession throughout the state.

Outlook for the 1969 ringneck hunt is brighter than originally expected, according to M. O. Steen, director of the Game and Parks Commission. One reason for the improved outlook is a late hatch of birds, according to Steen. A severe winter was thought to have taken a heavy toll of both pheasants and quail, but the pheasants have apparently bounced back, he said.

Northeast Nebraska is the only area of the state where last year's winter weather will be felt in this year's hunt. Pheasant populations there are considerably lower than last year. The Panhandle and the southern one-third of Nebraska should have pheasants in about the same quantity as in 1968.

Quail numbers over most of the state will not be up to last year's level because of the severe winter, but bobwhite numbers in the southeast are up slightly. Quail prospects there last year are termed good to excellent.

This year's pheasant and quail hunts close at sundown on Jan. 11.

We Are Proud To Announce Irene Jeffrey

As Our New

Social Director

The position of social director has just been devised at Dahl's and we've chosen Irene Jeffrey to fulfill the duties it entails. Activity programs are becoming increasingly more important in the nursing homes for several reasons:

- 1) Remotivation of the stroke patient
- 2) Occupy idle hours
- 3) Provide occupational therapy for the mentally retarded and senile patients
- 4) Re-establish patients' role in society and their sense of belonging to a group.

We feel that Irene will successfully accomplish these objectives in addition to coordinating the activities of the numerous volunteer groups. We are proud to have Irene as our new social director.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor: I was surprised but happy to receive SWAY's gift. Thanks for the support.

I am presently stationed at the Presidio of Monterey at the Defense Language Institute. I am enrolled in a forty-seven week course in Vietnamese which will end next May. Besides studying the language, we also study background subjects such as the history, culture and geography of Viet Nam. Although Vietnamese is a tonal language and a little troublesome from that point of view, it is not a difficult language. The basic structure and grammar are fairly simple.

The instructors are all native Vietnamese, which makes studying more interesting since not all speak fluent English. Vietnamese is the language of the classroom after the first twelve weeks except at times when a point can adequately be explained only in English.

The Presidio is one of the more interesting army posts. The classes at the Defense Language Institute are made up of personnel of all ranks of the four branches of the service. Presently there are over two thousand students studying twenty-four languages at the Presidio. About seven hundred of these are studying Vietnamese in courses varying in length from twelve weeks to forty-seven weeks. Before I close, I want to thank SWAY again, not so much for the ten dollars, but for the thought behind it.

Michael Porcay
Fort Lee, Va.

Dear Editor: Received the check of $10 from SWAY on Friday the 17th, but did not get to open and read it, as we were getting ready for the captain to have foot and wall locker inspection. My class for the second week came out on top and all of us received a pass of three days. Have been working on typing and tonight we take a test on how to fill out forms.

My mom and dad told me on the phone that it snowed and was cold there. It is a warm 85 to 90 degrees here most of the time.

Again, I appreciate that my name was picked and I thank SWAY for the $10 as I am planning a trip to Washington, D.C. some time in the future. Thank you.
Earl Koch
New London, Conn.

Dear Editor: I would like to thank all the members of SWAY for the gift I received. My parents will appreciate it too because I won't have to write them for money for awhile.

We have just passed the midpoint of the first semester. I am taking basic required courses this year such as calculus, physics, English composition, graphics and nautical science.

Participation in the fine athletic program is encouraged. Almost every cadet is a member of a varsity team. I am presently on the freshman swim team. Competition between companies in football, softball and tennis is also an important phase of the athletic program.

The academy football team won its first game of the year this Saturday which ruined our chances for breaking the longest losing streak record which we were rapidly approaching. But we are all hoping that we will retain our winning spirit now that we have finally won one. I have been following the Wayne

High School team in The Wayne Herald and am very proud of their fine record.

Cadet Steve Johnson
U. S. Coast Guard Academy
Aberdeen, Md.

Dear Editor: I recently received a gift from SWAY and want to express my appreciation to the merchants, veterans and all of Wayne County.

I know of very few places where the people show such concern and the guys here also think it's great. Many thanks.
Terry Magdanz

Dear Editor: I wish to thank the members of SWAY for the generous gift of $10. It really came in handy as I was home on a two-week furlough.

I am on my way to Fort Dix, N. J., where I will be processed and sent to Germany. I do not know where I will be stationed there. I have to take a more training and it is very interesting.

Thank you again and may God bless each and every one of you.

Evidently, we who govern ourselves with a government "of the people, by the people and for the people" have not informed ourselves (government) as to the rulings we have previously made for our postal system regarding the mailing of material related to lotteries! Postal laws are not to be played with, of course, but if the "lottery" system is adopted for military conscription, under present postal regulations the young man who is called "through the fishbowl" may have to receive such a notice from Uncle Sam via telephone!

Section 1302 of the U.S. Postal Laws concerns the mailing of matter related to lotteries. Following is a partial quote of the law: "Whoever knowingly deposits in the mail, or sends or delivers by mail: Any letter . . . ."

In announcing the available educational grants, the National 4-H Service Committee noted that winners will be selected on the basis of their applications as judged on four points. These include interest and desire to enroll in college, financial need, high school scholastic record, and overall 4-H record.

The Committee also indicated that half of the scholarship will be paid at the time the winners are announced with the other half paid when the recipients enroll for their sophomore year.

Additional information about the scholarships is available from the county extension agent or state 4-H Office.

SUPER VALU HOME ECONOMIST

Suggests:

COLCANNON

Mrs. Clyde Russ (Ann) gave me this recipe. Her mother made this Irish dish, and she always served it with ham. At Halloween she put a penny, a thimble, and a ring into the dish just before serving. Ann suggests warning the family and guests so they won't bite on the objects. The one who gets the penny is supposed to get rich, the one drawing the thimble is likely to be a bachelor or old maid, and the one who draws the ring will be first to marry. A fun idea, and, incidentally, Colcannon is very tasty.

- 3 medium potatoes, peeled, and cut in pieces
- 1 cup chopped rutabaga
- 1 cup finely grated cabbage
- 1 cup peeled, sliced carrots
- 1/2 cup butter or margarine
- warm milk
- 1/2 cup finely diced onion

Cook potatoes, rutabaga and carrots separately until very tender. Drain. Shake dry over low heat. Cook cabbage 'til barely tender. Drain. Mash potatoes and rutabagas together 'til smooth. Beat butter and milk into them 'til fluffy, and a little thinner than for mashed potatoes. Fold in cooked cabbage, carrots and raw onion. Season with salt and pepper. Serves 6.

TURKEY IN THE STRAW

A recipe developed in the Home Service Department of Land O' Lakes.

- 3 tablespoons cornstarch
- 3 cups milk
- 10 1/2 oz. can condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 3 oz. can chopped mushrooms, drained
- 8 oz. can water chestnuts, drained and sliced
