

Wayne Lad Recognized By State Optometrists

A local 16-year-old youth, who is a member of the London Astrological Society and writes a column on astrology for The Wayne Herald, was selected for an "Eyes on Nebraska" award last week. Making the announcement was Dr. L. R. Wallace of Broken Bow, president of the Nebraska Optometric Association which sponsors the award. Dr. William A. Koerber of Wayne, past president of the NOA, presented Tom McDermott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDermott, the "Eyes on Nebraska" plaque in a brief ceremony Friday afternoon. "Koerber told the youth, "Tom, the young people of your generation must get tired of hearing about what is wrong with them. You-and-hundreds of thousands of young men and ladies like you are the fine example of what is right about your people." The local optometrist continued, "It makes me very proud to represent the Nebraska Optometric Association in presenting the "Eyes on Nebraska" award to you as a symbol of honor brought both to yourself and the State of Nebraska in your unique pursuit of the study of astrology at your early age. With this award you join a group of very distinguished Nebraskans who have received it before you." In his astrology work, Tom uses a series of testbooks and a knowledge of mathematics. He then determines where the various planets were located at the time of a person's birth. Then the fun begins, says Tom. He tries to interpret it all: He doesn't feel he yet knows enough to do much predicting he's only been at it three years, but he does tell the person about his tendencies and the kind of career for which he might be suited.

Traffic Directors Needed by City

Two people are needed to serve as traffic controllers at Seventh and Main, and Seventh and Sherman Sts., according to officials at Wayne High School. The two people, who will replace Mrs. Vern Fairchild and Sheryl Kemp, will be paid by the city for their work in helping youngsters cross the streets on the way to and from the public schools and St. Mary's Catholic School. The person working at the Seventh and Main intersection would direct traffic each school day from 8:05 to 8:45 in the morning and from 3:25 to 4:25 in the afternoon. The person at the Seventh and Sherman intersection would put in a few more hours each week: 8:15 to 8:45 a.m. 10:45 to 12:30, 1:20 to 1:40 and 3:45 to 4:25.

Two Districts Plan Merger

Wayne County rural school Districts 68 and 72 are in the process of merging, according to Mrs. Gladys Porter, county superintendent of rural schools. Supt. Porter said Friday that the scheduled hearing Wednesday at the courthouse was held to consider the merger. She said five people turned out for the hearing, including two members of the Wayne County School Reorganization Committee and three district residents. The vote to merge Districts 68 and 72 was unanimous, the superintendent reports. Supt. Porter has now scheduled a hearing Dec. 22 to determine the validity and sufficiency of the signatures on petitions coming out of the Wednesday meeting. If valid, then the papers will be sent to the State Department of Education in Lincoln which will in turn either accept or reject the merger. The Dec. 22 hearing has been set at 10 a.m. in the courthouse. All rural and town school board members are being invited to another meeting Dec. 22 at 1:30 p.m. in the courthouse to determine the number of board members on the Wayne County School Reorganization Committee. Supt. Porter states that there would be around 120 persons present if all school board members turned out for the meeting. After it has been determined as to the number of reorganization board members there are to be, nominations for board members will be made.

Name Neligh Native Wayne Stater Editor

Jerry Black of Neligh will be editor of the Wayne State College newspaper, the Wayne Stater, in the second term starting in January. Her assistant editor will be Carol Tegeler of Madison, and the business manager, Maurice Groth of Schaller, Iowa. All three are juniors majoring in business. Miss Black and Miss Tegeler both have worked on the Stater news staff during the first term. Dr. Freeman Decker, chairman of the college publications committee, announced the appointments Thursday. Miss Black, a 1968 graduate of Neligh High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Black of rural Neligh; Miss Tegeler, a 1966 graduate of Madison High School, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tegeler of Madison.

WSC Graduates Record Class Thursday

Dr. Michael F. Paradise, president of Northeastern Nebraska College at Norfolk, will be the speaker for winter commencement at Wayne State College Thursday. His audience of graduating students will include 173 senior candidates for bachelor's degrees and two for master's degrees—largest number ever for a Wayne winter commencement. The ceremony is scheduled for 4 p.m. in Rice Auditorium. Dr. Paradise, a native of Greece, fought with the Greek underground during World War II, before he was 20 years old and twice was cited by the Allied military forces for his activity. After the war, he served in the Greek Air Force and later was secretary to the minister of reconstruction in the Greek Cabinet. On coming to the United States, he made his home in Sioux City, graduated from Morningside College, then earned master's and doctor's degrees from Colorado State College at Greeley. He served as dean of students and professor of mathematics at Chadron State College before he moved to Norfolk in 1968 as president of Northeastern Nebraska College. He is active in numerous professional organizations, including the Nebraska Commission on Higher Education facilities.

Smoker Attracts Large Crowd

Wayne's Vaughn Korth and Wayne State's Tim Frankl proved their fighting ability during the second annual St. Mary's Men's Club boxing smoker Friday night. Held at the Wayne City Auditorium, the smoker drew a crowd of approximately 700 people, considerably greater than last year's weather-plagued smoker. On the night's card were 15 matches plus two "heavy-weight" matches which opened the action. Like last year's, the smoker drew fighters from as far away as Sioux Falls, Bassett and Lincoln. Korth lost his first effort in the ring. Frankl had to battle back for his win after nearly knocking out his opponent in the first round. Turn to the sports section of this paper for a complete story and pictures on this year's boxing smoker.

Grad of Wayne High To Get CSU Degree

Another Wayne State coed, the second in the past month or so, failed to pickup some easy spending money by not being at hand when her name was called in the weekly Cash Night drawing. Name called in Thursday's drawing was Linda Primmer. If she had been in one of the stores taking part in the weekly drawing she would have won $150. This week's prize, which will be given away at eight o'clock if the right person is hand, will now be worth $200.

Holiday Concert Slated at WHS

This year's Wayne High School Christmas holiday concert is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 21. The concert will be held at 3 p.m. in the high school lecture hall. The concert, which will also feature groups from the Middle School, is under the direction of Bonita Day, Aylene Cook and Ron Dalton. Groups which will be performing include the Middle School strings and choir, ninth grade chorus, high school chorus and orchestra and miscellaneous ensembles. Highlight of the day will be the combined presentation of "The Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's "The Messiah." Also on the afternoon program are "The Christmas Song" by Porme and Wells, "Carol of the Drum" by Davis, "Jesus, Joy of Man's Destrine" by Bach and the "Choral Fanfare for Christmas" by Nelson. There is no admission and the public is invited to attend.

Local Bandsmen Going 'Bowling'

Wayne's Phil Kellton and Don Rees will perform before a national television audience as members of the Cornhusker Marching Band in the Sun-Bowl halftime show on Saturday. The Cornhusker bandsmen will fly by chartered plane to El Paso, Texas, Wednesday. They will spend part of their time in rehearsals and the remainder in sightseeing in El Paso and Juarez, Mexico. The bandsmen will return to Lincoln by plane Saturday night.

Hiway 98 Work Starting Today

Work is scheduled to begin today on gravel surfacing of eight miles of Highway 98 west of Wayne. The gravel surfacing will be done west from the junction of Nebraska Highway 57. The grading work is not complete yet, and the surfacing will be done as grading progress permits. The project engineer for the Nebraska Department of Roads is Orville Fernau of Wayne. The Mid West Bridge and Construction Co. of Norfolk was awarded the $17,691.45 contract for the work.

Coed Misses Prize

A 1965 graduate of Wayne High School, Jean M. Christensen, is one of 504 Colorado State University students eligible for graduation after completing the fall quarter. The fall quarter ended Friday. She and 380 other students will receive their undergraduate degrees by mail. Those students and the ones receiving graduate degrees may return to CSU for the fourth June graduation ceremony. Miss Christensen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Christensen of Wayne.

Area Youths Earn Honors At Academy

Two Wayne area youths are among those earning academic honors for the second six weeks grading period of the first semester at Wentworth Military Academy, Lt. Col. Cordell Thomas, dean, has announced. The youths, who earned superior grades to qualify for the dean's Honor Roll, are Cadet Robert J. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Meyer, Allen, and Cadet Douglas A. Witte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold B. Witte, Concord. Cadets who earn academic honors during the specified grading periods at Wentworth are accorded extra privileges and are permitted to wear the Scholastic Bar on their uniforms.

$50 Will Help Santa With Christmas Bills

A rural Wayne resident was in town around 2:30 Friday afternoon and copied the 20 numbers posted for the $50 drawing. Mrs. Amos Echtenkamp then checked her tickets and discovered she had the first number on the list, although she had left the tickets at home. So she returned home, five and a half miles north of Wayne, where she and her husband have farmed 38 years, and got the ticket. "With Christmas on hand and four grandchildren, it will go for Christmas shopping," the happy winner commented upon being asked if the $50 would be spent for Christmas. The Echtenkamps have two daughters. Virginia is at home and Mrs. Merlin Frevert lives south of Wayne. There will be three $50 drawings this week. Fifty dollars will go to a lucky winner today, Tuesday, and again Friday. The Cash Night drawing is worth $200 Thursday since Linda Primmer, a Wayne State College student, was not present in a participating store on Thursday night last week when her name was called for the jackpot of $150.

Police Patrol Will Study Drug Problem

The Wayne City Police Department will hold its third youth education class Tuesday night at 7 p.m. in the Middle School gymnasium, according to Vern Fairchild, police chief. Designed for students in the sixth grade, the Junior Police Patrol meets monthly to study subjects related to law enforcement. The meeting tomorrow night is third in a series of eight monthly classes. Alcohol and drugs are the subjects to be studied this month. Sixth graders learned of duties and operations of police in October and of weapons and explosives in November.

City Light Plant Plans Open House

Its open house time once again for the municipal light plant in Wayne. The open house, being held to introduce people in the city and area to the huge new engine recently installed, is scheduled for next Sunday afternoon from one to five o'clock. It will be the second open house in just over two years for the light plant. The most recent one was held in November of 1967 after the completion of the Norbert Brugger Addition and the installation of what was then a huge new engine. Although no guided tours through the plant are planned, everyone in the area is welcome to visit the light plant next Sunday, look over its facilities, talk to the employees and get a view of the new 5,125 KW engine. And that engine—if you didn't get a chance to see it during installation, or a picture of it in the newspaper—is quite a sight. A Cooper-Bessemer 20-cylinder monster, it is reportedly the largest dual-fueled engine generator in the state of Nebraska. Reliable sources say there are only about four of its kind in use across the nation. To put it in more understandable terms, the recently installed engine has a rating of 7,120 horsepower, quite an increase over the 4,892 hp rating of that 3,500 KW engine featured in the open house two years ago. It gives the city light plant six engines—it can call upon to generate electricity for the city and rural users. Those other engines at the plant, one of which is temporarily out of order, are rated at 1,000 KW (1,440 hp), 1,250 KW (1,750 hp), 2,000 KW (2,798 hp) and 2,000 KW (2,320 hp). Reason for having so many engines' dependability. Not all six engines run at one time, but up to three may be producing electricity at peak periods, according to Norbert Brugger, plant superintendent. The other engines are always there, he explains, in case something goes wrong with one of those in operation. The city light plant has to be dependable, Brugger points out, because it never shuts down, never closes its doors for even one hour during the entire year. That's quite a difference from when the city's light plant was started in 1897. Then the light plant was in operation only during the evening hours so electricity was available for lights at night. But shortly after that 1897 began the city light plant began expanding, something which since then has hardly ceased as the city officials have attempted to keep pace with the city's growth. And that expansion and modernization program has had several important points—morning service for electricity users in early 1898; purchase of an additional generating unit in 1904, switch from direct current generators to alternate current generators in 1913; change from coal as fuel for the engines to the use of oil in 1928, full operation with diesel by 1932, switch to natural gas in the late 1940's, purchase of the large Cooper-Bessemer engines in the 1960's. The 12 people working at the light plant make it one of the biggest "industries" in the city. Employees besides Brugger at the plant are Bill Mellor, wire chief; Al Grashorn, line man; George Henderson, line man; Don Neilsen, ground man; Herman "Bud" Wacker, plant engineer; Ray Berg, assistant plant engineer; Chris Stokes, operator; Gerald Carmichael, operator; Delmar Carlson, operator; Robert Lamb, operator, and Albert Anderson, assistant operator. City officials and light plant personnel plan on serving coffee and cookies and doughnuts during the open house hours. A special four-page section in Thursday's issue of The Wayne Herald will include stories, pictures and advertisements about the new engine now in operation at the city light plant.

State Guard Picks Wayne For Orientation This Week

A military department spokesman announced Saturday that the Nebraska State Guard will hold an orientation meeting at the Wayne National Guard Armory on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Colonel Henry G. Jacoby, commander of the State Guard and Captain John J. Glisan, director of administration, will conduct the meeting. It will be open to the public. Wayne is one of 30 communities throughout the state of Nebraska in which a State Guard unit is located. The Nebraska State Guard is funded by the state and is not subject to the call of the federal government. It has been set up to act as a reserve force for the National Guard. In case the National Guard were called up by the federal government, the State Guard would be at hand should the governor decide that an emergency of some sort exists. It would go into operation in cases of floods, torpedoes, civil disturbances and so on. Anybody who has service obligations is not eligible to enter the State Guard. Other cities in Wayne's security area are Omaha, Norfolk, Columbus and O'Neill. Omaha is the headquarters for this area. Present members of Company A, 1st Security Battalion, located in Wayne are Captain Ernest Carlson of Homer, Commander, and 1SG Donald J. Schroeder of Wymot. The State Guard is looking for other qualified men who have completed military training in any of the active armed services or their reserve components to complete the cadre. Commanders of other units in the 1st Security Battalion, commanded by LTC Thomas Hanson of Omaha, are Captain Glenn Zobel of Norfolk, Captain William Fulton of Columbus and Captain Kenneth Huston of O'Neill. All questions will be answered following the orientation and applications for membership will be available.

Kiwanis Contest Will Be Judged In Wayne Friday

Wayne residents may win prizes in the annual Kiwanis home decoration contest again this year, however the time is growing near when the decorations are to be judged. Two out-of-town judges have been selected to choose the winners in the decoration contest. It is not necessary to make formal entry in the contest for judging will be done on every home that is lighted the night of the judging which will be no later than Friday. Winners will receive awards Dec. 22 at Kiwanis meeting and announcement will be made in The Wayne Herald Dec. 25. Prizes are gift certificates from the Wayne Power Plant in denominations of $25, $15 and $10. To be applied toward the purchase of electrical appliances. Downtown businesses will also be judged although no prizes will be awarded. Home decorating will be judged on originality, detailed construction and for varied uses of colored effects, both still and animated. Prizes will be given by Kiwanis and the power plant.

Offers State Tax Help

Anybody having difficulty with their state sales or withholding taxes will have a chance to have them cleared up when a representative of the State Tax Commissioner comes to Wayne Friday. That representative, James Cleveland of Norfolk, will be in the Chamber of Commerce office from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. that day. He will also be able to make visits with anybody who is unable to meet him at the Chamber office after 3 p.m.

Swine Conference Set

Residents of northeast Nebraska and adjoining states will have an opportunity to attend a swine farrowing house conference on Jan. 15 and 16. The conference will be held in the Wayne City Auditorium. Starting time is 9:30 a.m. The program will take up subjects including farrowing house arrangements, heating, construction methods, costs, insulation, ventilation and many others. Program participants include University personnel, equipment and construction representatives as well as producers. The program has been tailored for business, industry and producers. Advance registration should be made to Harold Ingalls, Wayne County extension agent, or Bob Fritschen, area swine specialist at the Northeast Station near Concord. The conference is sponsored by the University of Nebraska, Wayne County Extension service and the Northeast Nebraska Pork Producers Association.

Pfc. R. Woehler Injured in War; Flown to Japan

William F. Woehler of Wayne has received word that his 20-year-old son, Robert, was wounded late in November while serving in Viet Nam with the U. S. Army. Extent of his injury is as yet unknown. Woehler was moved from Viet Nam to a hospital in Japan, according to his brother Bill Woehler, also of Wayne. Bill said Friday that his brother has indicated he will likely be back in the states by Christmas. Pfc. Woehler entered the Army March 1959, completed basic training at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and Robert Woehler arrived overseas in August 1969. He has been serving as a rifleman with Company C, 1st Battalion of the 4th Infantry Division's 14th Infantry. Bill Woehler said his brother's hospital address is: Pfc. Robert E. Woehler 507 70 8334, Ward 1, U. S. Army Hospital, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96343.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

You may not agree with an editorial—but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

A Smart Little Box

Most all of us have acquaintances to whom we would like at times to give a gift-wrapped box of "smarts." They, in turn, would undoubtedly like to give us a case of "smarts" in return. It would be an advantage, indeed, to have a little box that was smart enough to always know the right answer at the right time for the right question.

Nebraska safety patrolmen come nearer to having such a little "smart" box than perhaps anyone else. Many of the law officers carry the small box of brains with them in their patrol units.

This dandy little contraption even has a nickname. "VASCAR" is short for Visual Average Speed Computer And Recorder. The heart of VASCAR, a digital computer, is jammed with a lot of little electronic components, which when working together as a team, can come up instantaneously with the right number of miles per hour a vehicle is traveling. It is smart enough to give the officer your speed on a "read-out" module quickly enough to allow him to give chase and give ticket.

Though not impressive by its size nearly as much as by its rapid arithmetic, the mini-mind assists our state patrolmen to clock speeders accurately and fairly in five basic ways.

First the officer can follow your auto up to a mile away and know your speed in less than a minute. This little box is smart and quick.

Secondly, an officer may be meeting you on the highway and his dashboard gadget turns informer and gives away your secret of being in too big a hurry.

Thirdly, if you should be dashing down the road at a hefty 80 or 90 mph and come up behind a patrolman... you are likely sunk. His "smarts" box has probably already told him your feet-per-second headed right into the courtroom. Fourthly, the officer may sit on a side road and as your vehicle flashes by at 65 mph on a sunny afternoon, VASCAR gives the trooper the truth... you're only going 65 mph.

Then last but not least, the officer's computer comrade may be by his side as he has the patrol car parked at the side of a road or street and it is sure to give him your speed regardless of your directions of travel.

The little outfit is now carried by many of our friendly Nebraska patrolmen and can measure distance up to 5.39 miles, measures time up to 6.48 minutes and can display speeds up to 199.9 mph.

This smart computer has a very moral duty, that of saving the lives of you and your family. Such an important duty! Even when that smart-box between your ears goes a little cockeyed and allows the speedometer on your car to creep even higher beyond the legal speed limit, the trooper's electronic companion will tell you and he in turn will stop you and graciously present you with a ticket.

The ticket isn't the kind you would use as a pass into a theater, but it may well represent a few more days added on to the drama of your life, as you may have killed yourself, your family and another man's family by driving too fast.

You are a lucky individual that VASCAR is a smart little box. Slow down and it isn't apt to say anything nearly so expensive as is the bill for last rites. — MMW.

by Merlin Wright

She is a smart girl to whom men are no problem—they're the answer.

Knowing that a woman's idea of keeping a secret is to refuse to tell who told it to her, I made some smart remark about not wanting her around during my court treatment. Well, she gave me a look that should have been in a scabbard and then left. She is really a nice person and one of those who, when there is an idea in her head, you know it has got to be in solitary confinement.

"Now, let's get down to the business of writing those terrible news stories so doc don't upset your readers," doc said. "Fine with me," I replied. "You're scheduled to write a story today about the underprivileged. It's a tough assignment to write in such a way so as not to upset their mental health," doc commented. "Oh," I replied, "that one is easy. I'll just call them overfunded instead of underprivileged." Doc agreed.

"Let's see," murmured doc as he shuffled through my writing assignment schedule. "You are supposed to write the advice column today and it concerns a letter from a college youth worried about our form of government." "Oh, that is a tough one," says me, "because I sure wouldn't want to say anything that would contribute to his mental deterioration. Doc, the reason you are here is to help us on such toughies, so what shall I reply to the young man?" "Well," doc quickly answered, "just remind him that an American is free to choose his own form of government—blonde, brunette or redhead. You really haven't said anything, but he'll get a chuckle out of it. If you have attended a movie lately you understand that if you can get people to laugh at your subject, they won't yell for a censor, right?" "Right!" I then proceeded to give him a smile with nothing behind it but teeth.

"Say, doc, before I leave this morning and get to my newsstrip-writer, tell me how am I going to describe that accident story going on page one in the early edition? It concerns four people completely mangled in a bloody highway accident involving four cars on Highway 32. How can I possibly write that up without contributing to the reader's mental anxieties?" Old doc pulled his glasses down on his nose, looked at me circularly in the eye (nothing, not even a look can be "square" here) and advised, "Just tell

Now immediately before we can get this therapy thing really going about the news so I must first confess a few of my own personal problems. "Doctor, why is it that now I've got the shags for the job, my kids no longer believe in Santa Claus?" "Doctor, did you also hear the staff singing 'Bells and cocktails ring, making spirits bright!'"

Being as impatient as a kid who has just malled in a boxtop, I blab everything to old doc: "It will get me in fine shape to go to work writing. Surely, after a session with doc I won't be so tactless with editorials. Being tactless these days is saying what everyone else is thinking."

My doctor helps get the day off the ground by informing me that it just seems to be a part of my nature to be the type who hits the nail squarely on the thumb. "Well," he thinks, "why doesn't he tell me something new." Just then the company's nurse walks in. I don't know exactly how old she is, but it is obvious that she is on the "pray-as-you-go" plan.

The Greeks Did It

When we speak of the "Greeks," we're speaking of such Wayne State College campus organizations as Delta Sigma Pi, Sigma Tau Gamma, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Kappa Delta Gamma and Tau Kappa Epsilon, just to mention a few. There are more such organizations at WSC but these will do to illustrate our point.

Wayne's Community Chest drive got off to a slow start this year although there was nothing wrong with the planning part of it. Planners did a fine job, but too many folk in town figured somebody else would make the donations which are so vital to our local youth program. Seeing that the chest drive needed a boost, the Delta Sigma Pi business fraternity put on their thinking caps and challenged local businessmen to a basketball game in the city auditorium. It was a fund raising game for the Community Chest resulting in another $50.

Though the WSC students make Wayne "home" only a portion of the year, they were interested in seeing the Chest drive reach its goal. It was a much appreciated gesture and the "Greeks" did it because they wanted to.

Sigma Tau Gamma came up with a project which would result in some cash for the Senior Citizen's Center. The fraternity figured the SCC could use the money on equipment of their choice. It was a good idea, that of selling Christmas candles to raise funds, and the "Greeks" did it. Crippled children at Glenwood, Iowa, needed bus transportation. A drive was on to raise funds to purchase a bus so the members of Phi Sigma Epsilon on the WSC campus decided they were going to help buy the bus. How? The men set up a schedule and ran all the way to Sioux City in early November as a fund raising stunt. They set a goal, planned the affair and were successful in donating a generous contribution toward buying the bus for children they didn't know. When not many others would, the "Greeks" did it.

Phi Sigma Epsilon pledged volunteered and raked the Dan Retirement lawn. That's right, the "Greeks" did it. You probably read all about it in the last issue of The Herald as to how the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, their auxiliary the Order of Diana and Kappa Delta Gamma sorority planned a giant Christmas party at the city auditorium Saturday for youths in the area. These college people worked and planned for weeks so as to let no detail escape their attention in making hundreds of youths happy for at least a few hours just before Christmas. Then they decided to share some of the big party with youths at the Norfolk Opportunity Center by going over there and entertaining. You bet your boots, the "Greeks" did it.

These are the types of "demonstrations" beneficial to so many, but seldom are they given the news coverage they deserve.

Our editorial "hats off" to all of you "Greeks" at WSC who have been involved in far more worthwhile projects than we have space to mention. Keep up the good work. — MMW.

Dear Editor: When towns consolidated their schools, the school took the name of the town. It is not understandable why the Wayne City School isn't called Carroll-Wayne school district or Wayne-Carroll.

We see the school names as Tolamah-Herman, Wiener-Pliger, etc. across Nebraska. This should be discussed at the school board meetings. The people of Carroll and the students deserve to be recognized to be from Carroll and not thinking they are residents from Wayne. What do others think? Claire Vogel

Roxie Romans-Gary Friend Wedding Takes Place December 1 in Norfolk

In 1 p.m. rites Dec. 1 Roxie Avice Romans became the bride of Gary James Friend at Community Bible Church, Norfolk. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Romans, Norfolk, and Mary Friend, Hoskins, and James Friend, Wayne.

The bride's uncle, the Rev. William J. Romans, Fereka, Mo., officiated at the ceremony. Vocal soloist was Mrs. Jack Hampton, accompanied by Judy Hampton, both of Norfolk.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a Victorian styled toe length gown in white satin, fashioned with pearl detailed wedding band neckline and lace accented, a tulle wide, detachable train. Her veil repeated the lace trim and she carried a bouquet of lavender carnations and baby mums with removable center corsage.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Don Van-Asperen, Norfolk, who wore a toe length gown of lavender brocade with long sleeves and wedding band neckline, styled identically to the bride's gown. She carried a bouquet of large white mums.

Serving his brother as best man was Daniel Friend, and Jerry Painter, Hoskins, and Don Van Asperen, Norfolk, were ushers.

Seventy-five guests were present for the reception held later at the church. Becky Sue Romans registered guests and Mrs. Don Victor and Rebecca Clinesmith arranged gifts. Assisting at the reception were Debbie Strong, Iva Jo Towler, Mrs. George Waddell, Angie Laebe and the women of the church.

The bride attended Norfolk High School and has been employed at the Norfolk State Hospital. The bridegroom attended Winside High School and the University of Nebraska and has served with the U. S. Air Force. He is presently employed as assistant manager of the McCrory's Store at the West Roads in Omaha.

The couple took a wedding trip to California and will reside at 1345 South 76th Street, Omaha.

L. Wenstrand Feted

At Wakefield Shower

Laurene Wenstrand, Sloux Falls, S. D., was honored Saturday afternoon at a bridal shower in the C. R. Wenstrand home. About 20 guests were present. The bride-elect's chosen colors, red and green, were carried out in table decorations and refreshments. Game prizes were presented the honoree.

Miss Wenstrand's mother, Mrs. Kenneth Wenstrand, also of Sloux Falls, poured. Hostesses were Mrs. C. R. Wenstrand, Mrs. Ronnie Wenstrand and Mrs. Michael Nanos, Omaha.

Miss Wenstrand and Dennis Hochhalter of Tripp, S. D., are planning a Dec. 29 wedding.

Card Club Members, Husbands Have Supper

Members of Bidorbi Club met with their husbands for a no-host supper Wednesday evening at Les' Steak House. Sixteen were present with guests, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woods. Card prizes were won by Werner Janke and Mrs. William Stipp. Mrs. Werner Janke will host the Jan. 13 meeting.

Concord Woman Receives Honor

Another area woman whose biography will become part of the annual compilation, "Outstanding Young Women of America," is Mrs. Marlen (Arlene) Johnson, of Concord, who was nominated for the honor by The Merry Homemakers Extension Club of Concord, of which Mrs. Johnson has been a member about seven years. Though Mrs. Johnson says she has done no more than anyone else to deserve the honor, her fellow club members apparently felt otherwise.

Before joining the Merry Homemakers Club, Mrs. Johnson belonged to a Dixon Extension Club about five years, has served in about every possible office, and at present is serving a term as county secretary for the Dixon County Extension Council. In addition, she babysits, is a 4-H leader, a present officer and past-president of the Lutheran Church-Women's Association and a Junior Missionary Society leader for her church.

Mrs. Johnson attended Wayne State College two summers and taught four years. Her present occupation is farm-wife and mother to Pam, 12; Brian, 11, and Layne, 6.

Mrs. Johnson is one of 5,000 women between the ages of 21 and 35 whose names were submitted by women's organizations and college alumnae associations across the country for Outstanding Young Women of America. Fifty of these women (one from each state) will be selected to receive state awards.

Mrs. Griffith Hostess To Christmas Luncheon

Mrs. Pearl Griffith was hostess to nine members of PNG at their 1 p.m. Christmas luncheon Tuesday. A gift exchange was held. Mrs. Hilma Peterson will be hostess to the Jan. 12 meeting at 2 p.m.

Nine Pounds Total Is Loss for Wayne TOPS

A nine pound total weekly loss was recorded Wednesday evening by the Blue Swinging TOPS Club members at their meeting at the Wayne Elementary School building. The weekly queen lost four pounds. Seven members were present.

The Christmas party date has been changed to Friday, Dec. 19. The regular meeting will still be on Wednesday.

P. Lessmanns Observe Golden Anniversary

At Open House Dec. 7

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lessmann observed their golden wedding anniversary Dec. 7 with an open house at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Wakefield. Hosting the event were the couple's children, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lessmann and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nelson. Mrs. Susie Miller, Wakefield, an attendant at the wedding, was present.

Debbie Nelson had charge of the guest book and thank-you table. Mrs. Bernard Pehrson and Mrs. Everett Hank served punch and Mrs. Dale Lessmann and Mrs. Marvin Nelson poured. Mrs. Theron Culton served the anniversary cake, which was baked and cut by Mrs. Elray Hank.

Doug Nelson acted as master of ceremonies. The program was opened with the ladies' choir singing "Let Us Walk With Jesus." The Rev. A. W. Gode gave a sermonette and the history of the Lessmanns was given by Mrs. Dale Lessmann, Doug Nelson and Lowell Johnson.

A trio, consisting of Mrs. Ben Hollmann, Mrs. Ed Meyer and Mrs. A. W. Gode, sang two German songs, "Nun Danket Alle Gott" and "O Du Froehliche." "Teach Us To Pray" and "Jesus Loves Us, He Is Always Near" were sung by Don Nelson and David, Terry and Lori Lessmann, accompanied by Debbie Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lessmann and Brent, Doug Nelson, Mrs. Marvin Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Johnson sang "How Great Thou Art," accompanied by Mrs. Dale-Lessmann.

Piano selections were played by Mrs. Theron Culton and Lori Lessmann and readings were given by the grandchildren. The program was closed with the ladies' choir singing "The Lord Is My Shepherd," accompanied by Mrs. Marvin Nelson.

Mrs. Lowell Johnson presented the couple with a gift from Immanuel Ladies Aid. Members of the Aid were in charge of the kitchen and tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessmann were married Dec. 25, 1919 and have lived all of their married life northeast of Wayne.

Hospitality Tea Punch

Happy the holiday hostess who has an easy trick or two up her sleeve. A good punch recipe, for instance, will come in handy at many festive occasions. The one pictured above, easy in color, is a delightful blend of fruit juices with a strong tea base. The tea acts as a silent partner in the punch, giving it body without masking the flavors of the other ingredients. For holiday glamor a colorful ice ring filled with orange and lemon slices, red and green candied cherries, floats in the bowl. Cup cakes made from a cake mix and decorated with a variety of holiday motifs are also easy to do, yet effectively festive.

Holiday Punch
(Makes about 60 punch-cup servings)

1 quart cold water	1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup loose tea or 15 tea bags	2 quarts water
3/4 cup sugar	1 (28 oz.) bottle ginger ale
2 quarts cranberry juice cocktail	Ice ring
4 (6 oz.) cans frozen orange juice, thawed	Lemon and orange slices
	Red and green candied cherries

Bring 1 quart cold water to full rolling boil; remove from heat; add tea all at once. Let stand 5 minutes. Strain into punch bowl; add sugar and stir until dissolved. Cool at room temperature. Add juices and water. Refrigerate. When ready to serve, add ginger ale and ice ring.

*To make ice ring, freeze water in ring mold, adding lemon and orange slices and red and green candied cherries.

Your Place in the Stars

by Tom McDermott

Dear Tom:

You are to be congratulated for your sustained interest in astrology, and at the youthful age of only 16, I am sure that you can go far in trying to help other people with your knowledge.

I have found astrology to be quite helpful for character analysis, describing the circumstances and the problems that are most likely (but not necessarily) to be met on the pathway of life—and some indications about what would be the best way to handle the affairs of the twelve departments of existence. Dr. Carl Jung used astrology in his psychological work with difficult patients, although the general public considers astrology entertainment and fortune-telling, which is another area of being misinformed. I consider the subject to be a scientific art more than anything else. But others have their own opinions.

C. W. Schafer, Baltimore. A. Whether astrology is a science or an art is questionable. Science-wise, astrology is concerned with mathematics and astronomy in a degree little realized by most people. I have said before that drawing up the horoscope chart is "mathematical." In fact, up until the time that the astrologer begins to delineate the horoscope, no astronomer or mathematician can disagree with what the astrologer has on paper (planetary symbols, etc.). The real body of astrology is the delineation (or interpretation) of the horoscope chart. This part of astrology is an art. Finally, on the whole I believe astrology to be an art. No subject that is totally a science can be so mishandled as astrology has and still call itself a science.

Dr. Jung did indeed use astrology. Jung, a psychologist, was often considered a "successor" to Freud, the psychiatrist. Jung said, "Astrology is assured of recognition from psychology without further restrictions, because astrology represents the summation of all the psychological knowledge of antiquity."

The Wayne public library's paperback book section just received a number of books on telepathy and ESP. It also has some good books on astrology.

Last week, just shortly after I had come to the decision that Bozwell, Nebraska, was nonexistent, I received a number of letters bearing a Bozwell postmark. The natives there were quite aroused by my articles on moon phase planting and proposed that I write a series of articles on cricket lore, for which they would generously provide the necessary information!

The next installment of "Your Place in the Stars" will contain President Nixon's horoscope chart and interpretation. Be watching for it in one of the issues near January 1.

As the 25th is nearing, I want to wish everyone a Merry Christmas. I'll see you next year.

Conyers, Pullan Wed December 6

Wedding vows were exchanged between Jean M. Conyers, daughter of Mrs. Herbert Conyers and the late Mr. Conyers, formerly of Wayne, and Benjamin A. Pullan III, son of Mrs. Benjamin A. Pullan Jr. and the late Mr. Pullan, on Dec. 6 at the Central Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, Mo. The Rev. Frank A. Flint and the Rev. John C. Weiss officiated at the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Robert L. Conyers of DeGraff, Minn. She wore a white crepe stein length dress and her veil was held by a small pillbox hat. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Serving her sister as maid of honor was Leslie A. Conyers. She wore a dress of aqua crepe with a matching veil and carried yellow carnations. Gerald L. Bos was best man and J. Edward Mutt was usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Conyers chose a blue wool dress and rust ensemble and Mrs. Pullan wore a dress of green wool.

A dinner was held immediately following the ceremony at the hotel Bellerive.

The bride was graduated from Wayne High School, attended Wayne State College and is employed at Bankers Life Nebraska Insurance Co. in Kansas City. The groom was graduated from Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, and is employed by Old Security Life Insurance Co. The couple reside in North Kansas City, Mo.

Police Report Nine Wrecks

Eighteen vehicles were involved in nine accidents in Wayne during the seven-day period Dec. 6-12, according to the Wayne Police Department's accident file. Ice-coated streets were a major factor contributing to the rash of fender benders.

Roy Day was attempting to back a 1968 Ford pickup away from the curb in the 100 block on West First Street Dec. 6 when the vehicle slid sideways and hit a parked 1966 Chevrolet owned by Martin Hansen of Carroll. Another of four accidents occur-ing the same day took place in the 200 block on East Fairground Ave. when Leroy Johnson was backing a 1954 Jeep from the driveway at Shrader-Allen Produce. According to police, he backed into the left front fender of a parked 1968 Chevrolet belonging to Reggie Smith of West Point.

At about 2 a.m. Dec. 6 a 1962 Chevrolet driven by Patrick Ivers of Chicago, Ill. was in collision with a parked 1960 Volkswagen owned by Linda Boyce. Damage to the Boyce auto was estimated at $126.99. According to the police file, Ivers left the scene of the accident without reporting.

A 1965 Mustang southbound on Main Street, driven by Keith Simmons of Omaha, was in collision with a northbound 1966 Pontiac driven by Dennis Schuyler of Grand Island. Police report that the Schuyler's auto spun on the ice and hit the Simmon's auto. Damage to the Mustang was estimated to be $276. The collision occurred Dec. 6 in the 900 block on Main Street.

On Monday Harold York of Grand Island was southbound in a 1959 Ford on Windom Street. In the 800 block he had passed several parked cars when he was struck on the left rear by an oncoming 1963 Corvair driven by Frank Woehler of Wayne who was northbound. Woehler's auto continued up onto a terrace on the east side of the street and struck a parked 1964 Rambler belonging to Kenneth Iadenfeldt of Marengo, Iowa, police said.

In the 100 block on Pearl Street Tuesday, officers were called to investigate when a 1966 international pickup driven by Emil Dangberg of Wayne was southbound and drove too far to the right, police said, striking a parked 1968 Pontiac owned by Irma Utecht of Wayne.

A 1966 Mercury belonging to Orval Hickerson was parked in the 1000 block on Pearl. A 1968 Buick driven by Craig Wicker of Wayne was northbound, turned to make a parked car on the east side of the street and slid into the Hickerson auto. Street was ice-coated at the time.

Another accident Wednesday occurred on private property. A 1966 Ford driven by William Hruza was backing up at Carl's Conoco Station at 502 Main St. when in collision with a 1966 Chevrolet driven by Jude Milliken who was pulling in to get gas, according to the police report.

Friday Edith Wightman was westbound on Ninth Street. A 1961 Chevrolet driven by Evan Bennett was northbound on Sherman Street. According to the police report the Wightman auto crossed in front of the Bennett car. Bennett tried to avoid hitting the Mercury but the two vehicles collided as the Wightman auto attempted to enter a private driveway.

Korth, Frankl, Zimmerer Please Area Boxing Fans

700 Fight Fans See 2nd Annual Smoker Friday

By Norvin Hansen

Vaughn Korth, Tim Frankl and Dick Zimmerer gave fight fans about all the action they could have wanted during Wayne's second annual boxing smoker Friday night.

Korth, a 176-pound senior at Wayne High, nearly made his debut as a fighter a success by the relentless pressure he put on his lighter but more experienced opponent. He constantly stalked 170-pound Jim Nelson of South Sioux City through three full rounds only to lose the fight by decision.

But his ability to both give and take a punch brought him a good round of applause from the approximate 700 fans who turned out for the boxing event, sponsored for its second straight year by the St. Mary's Men's Club in Wayne. And announcer Ron Dodd, certainly a competent judge of a fighter's ability, had nothing but praise for Korth: "He shows promise of being a very good fighter once he gets some experience." Dodd should know—he's announced his share of professional fights.

Those two others fighters mentioned earlier—Frankl and Zimmerer—also brought their share of applause from the fight fans in attendance.

Frankl, an experienced and well known fighter who entered the ring at 134 pounds, nearly ended his fight late in the first round when he caught Jerry Turgeon with a powerful right cross. Turgeon, who gave four rounds to the Wayne State student finally convinced the authorities he could continue after the bell rang before he had taken the manda-

CORNER HELPERS: Mark (left) and Monte Lowe, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lowe of Wayne, received a trophy for their work in helping in the corners during Friday night's boxing smoker. Posing with them and their trophy is referee Bill Engle of South Sioux City.

Kicking off the smoker this year were matches between the Brown brothers and the Gill brothers.

Vincent Brown of Sioux City and Dan Gill of South Sioux fought to a tie and a trophy apiece in the 50-pound class. Norm Brown and Mike Gill, fighting at 60 pounds, also fought to a draw and a trophy for each of their collections. The two heavier fighters pleased the fans as much with their dazzling footwork as they did with their boxing prowess.

Only two technical knockouts were chalked up during the night's boxing, one by Doug Moyer of Creighton over Bob Hoffman of Lincoln and one by Art Porter of Bassett over Jack Zimmerer, a Wayne State student from Creighton and brother to Dick Moyer, using something close to the "peekaboo" style made famous by Floyd Patterson, ended the fight. In 1:55 of the third round when he caught the heavier Hoffman with several good blows to the head, Moyer, at 155 pounds, had Hoffman dazed in the first round but was losing the fight on points, according to the referee. Hoffman weighed in at 161 pounds.

That other TKO came after very little action when Zimmerer's right forehead was gashed early in the fight. The gash, probably caused by being cracked by his opponent's head, was dangerous enough for the ring doctor to order the fight stopped.

The other 10 of the 15 fights ended by decisions. The results: —Tom Harrington, 116, Bassett, decisioned Bill Manigan, 115, Creighton.

—Steve Pelster, 123, Petersburg, won by decision over Mike Springer, 123, Norfolk.

—Steve House, 127, Norfolk, decisioned Jim Buss, 125, Norfolk.

—Jeff LeMair, 130, Sioux Falls, decisioned Roger Carmichael, 130, Lincoln.

—Neal Harrison, 132, Norfolk, decisioned Mike Wagner, 135, Creighton.

—Ed Combs, 151, South Sioux City, won by decision over Mike Luce, 149, Bassett.

—Steve Sears, 154, Sioux Falls, won by decision over Gene Stout, 154, Winnebago.

—Mike Keller, 155, Bassett, decisioned Doyle Pilgrim, 158, South Sioux.

—Rick Battley, 174, Sioux City, decisioned Jim Ross, 164, Sioux Falls.

—Larry Jackson, 210, Norfolk, won by decision over Dennis Arrowsmith, 265, Bassett.

—Gary Wiebehaus of Wayne, matchmaker and promoter for the event, said he was more than pleased with the large crowd which turned out for the night's action, a crowd almost twice as large as last year's.

He noted that the smoker was made possible only by the help of the members of the St. Mary's Men's Club and the sponsors who purchased tickets. Helping Wiebehaus with the work were Ron Dendlinger, Warren Hillson, Harold Murray and Joe Lowe. Well known people who took part in the smoker include referee Bill Engle of South Sioux, over 100 professional fights; time keeper Sallor Anderson, approximately 190 professional fights and Joe Stanek, state boxing commissioner.

Allen Clenches 59-57 Cage Win Friday at Homer

A fourth quarter offensive surge was the decisive factor in Allen High's 59-57 win at Homer Friday night. Trailing 42-40 at the end of three periods, the Eagles came up with 19 tallies in the final eight minutes of action to salvage their first victory of the cage season.

Dennis Geiger and Bob Mitchell each connected for 14 points in the first successful effort for Coach Claire Jordan's hardcourt artists. Previous disappointments included losses of 70-60 to Porca and 83-54 to Oleridge.

The Eagles hopped off to an early 16-9 first quarter lead in Friday night's competition, but the score knotted up several times in the next two stanzas as the host team pulled within two counters, 25-23, at halftime before forging its slim lead after intermission.

All but 13 of Allen's points

Frosh, Junior High Cagers Win, Lose

A laurel competent defense held Laurel to only 10 points in the middle two quarters as Wayne's freshman basketball team went about chalking up a 50-42 victory in its opening game of the season Thursday night.

In the junior high game, Laurel edged the locals, 35-34. Wayne's frosh squad jumped off to a 19-14 lead at the end of the first quarter of play and then pumped in 16 points while holding Laurel to 10 in the next two quarters. The local squad was unable to defend against the laurel team in the last period and ended up getting outscored 18 to 15.

Leading the Wayne attack was Doug Sturm with 16 points, eight of them coming in the first per-

At Laurel Thursday

Laurel's Keith Olson with 13 points. Other scorers: Bill Dalton, eight, Chuck Hirschman, six, Gene Sarha, five, Dave Anderson and Greg Hatchford, two each. The freshmen meet Pierce Thursday in a 8:30 tilt.

Wayne's junior high effort was marked by balanced scoring, leading their share of points were Kerry Jobb with nine, Scott Walters and Bill Schwartz with seven each and Gordon Cook with six.

Also hitting in double figures were Mark Johnson with 13 and Roger Saul with 10. Adding points to Wayne's total were Tom Kerstine with six, Dave Scheel and Ron Magnuson with two each, and Randy Nelson with one. High scorer for the night was Laurel's Keith Olson with 13 points. Other scorers: Bill Dalton, eight, Chuck Hirschman, six, Gene Sarha, five, Dave Anderson and Greg Hatchford, two each. work. He has been a star performer the past three seasons of Wayne State football, recently was named to the All-Nebraska College first team as an offensive back, and also was elected by teammates as a co-captain of the 1970 squad.

He is a 1967 graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School at Elizabeth.

WH Grapplers Nip Bergan

By Kieth Tietgen

Thursday night Wayne High coach Don Koenig's grapplers were tralling Fremont Bergan 19 to 22 going into the final match of the evening.

And 58 seconds later Wayne had racked up a 24-22 win over that highly respected foe when heavyweight Alan Wischhof pinned Russle Yonkie.

That victory, which came as the result of three decisions and two wins by forfeit earlier in the evening, gives the Wayne High squad plenty of incentive to at least equal last year's season record of seven wins and four defeats, which included a loss to Fremont Bergan.

The results of those matches which led up to the game-winning pin by Wischhof:

Robert Locking in the 96-pound class was defeated by Bergan's Jim Costello, 7-0. Mark Willse lost a 13-0 decision to Bergan's Bernie Cernie in the 107-pound class.

Tim Rounph failed to make his weight in the 115-pound class and had to forfeit to Wayne's Mark Peitermann to give the Wayne wrestlers their first points.

Bruce King of Wayne wasted little effort in rolling up a 10-0 decision over Pat Ward in the 123-pound class to put Wayne in front for the first time in the evening, 8-6.

in the 155-pound class to give Bergan a 17-11 lead.

In the 165-pound class Doug Maurer defeated Tom Thierolf, 5-0, but Bergan's Bob Love came back in the next weight class to gain a 14-0 decision over Gary Hethold. That win gave the visitors a 22-14 edge.

But a forfeit to Wayne's Glen Teeter in the 185-pound division set the stage for the Wischhof-Jonkie match.

In the two preliminary matches, Wayne's Ron Ring pinned Joe Rezac in 3:30 in the 130-pound division, and Wayne's Brad Plueger decisoned Bill Reader, 11-2, in the 137-pound division.

Wayne's grapplers see more action tonight when they travel to Blair.

Teams III, V Leaders

At End First Round

In City BB League

Teams III and V ended deadlocked for first place with four wins and one defeat each at the end of the first round of action in the city basketball league following Wednesday night's competition.

Team III knocked off I, 59-58, after trailing most of the game, and Team V edged II, 64-57.

In third place is Team I with a 3-2 record. Teams II, IV and VI trailed the pack in a tie at two wins and three losses each.

Tonight (Monday) the six teams see more action to kick off the second round of play. Pairings and times have been figured out

Team III	W	L
Team V	4	1
Team I	3	2
Team IV	2	3
Team II	2	3

for tonight's and Wednesday's games. The other pairings and times will be printed when available.

Team III had to depend on the strong finish of Ron Dalton to pull out its late-game victory. Team III trailed I, 48-40, going into that final quarter, but Dalton canned nine of his 25 points in that period to help pull his team ahead. Dalton hit 17 points in the last half.

Keeping Team III in the game before intermission was Mark Robinson. He came up with 11 of his 15 points in those two periods. Bill Blecke, although not in double figures, helped Team III's cause, with nine points.

Team I led 20 to 14 after the first period, 32 to 28 at intermission.

Hitting in double figures for the losers were three players: Roger Lintz and Lynn Lessmann with 18 each and Hank Overlin with 12.

Team V rocketed away to an early lead in its game with Team II, going out in front by 13 points, 18-5, after only eight minutes of play. Then Team II used a balanced scoring attack to narrow that lead to 28-19 at intermission and 45-39 at the end of the third period.

Tim Robinson kept Team II in contention during most of the second half by scoring 20 points. He ended the night with 24 points.

Ray Vrtiska, substituting on the winning squad, set a new record for scoring in the contest, hitting 28 points during the game. Also in two figures for the winners were Dick Nelson with 20 and John Rebensdorf with 14. Contributing to the losing team's score were Bill Carlson with 12, Darrell Doescher with nine and John Matson with eight.

In the final game of the night, Team VI evaded sole possession of the league basement by embarrassing Team IV, 63-39.

The losers, hurt once again by unbalanced scoring, had only three men getting into the scoring column: Kieth Tietgen with 14 points, Harlan Freese with 13 and Jack Manske.

Team VI displayed just the opposite kind of scoring, ending the game with six players scoring, four of them in double figures.

JOLTING JABS such as this one earned Creighton's Doug Mozer a TKO over Lincoln's Bob Hoff during Friday's boxing smoker.

Class B District Cage Tourney Set for Norfolk

Norfolk High School will again be the site for the Wayne area district basketball tournament.

That decision was reached by members of the eight schools in this district during a noon meeting at Norfolk Wednesday. Members decided against Wayne State as the site because of a possible conflict should Wayne State gain a berth in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics play-off.

Schools who will be sending teams into this year's tourney include Wayne, Laurel, Wisner-Pilger, West Point Central Catholic, Oakland-Craig, Pierce, Hartington Cedar Catholic and Creighton. That lineup includes three schools who only this year joined the ranks of Class B schools: Creighton, Oakland-Craig and Wisner-Pilger.

The tournament will be held March 2, 3, 4 and 6. It will be held March 5 and 7 (a Thursday and Saturday) because a Class A tournament will also be held on that court this year.

Officials will be Sam Baker of Fremont, Larry Sheppard of Fremont and Ray Westover of Waverly.

The tournament games will hit over 10 points were Sid Hillier with 21, Grant Halse with 14 and Don Johnson and Brent Lessmann with 11 each.

City League Games

Following are the games scheduled for tonight (Monday) and Wednesday night in the city basketball league:

—Tonight: Teams V and VI at 7 p.m., Teams I and II at 8, Teams III and IV at 9.

—Wednesday: Teams II and III at 7 p.m., Teams I and VI at 8, Teams IV and V at 9.

Wayne's rebounding was led by Sutherland and Armbruster with seven each. Close behind were Tietgen and Echtenkamp with six each and Mike Biltorf with four.

Coach Don Johnson's reserves upped their record to 2-0 for the season with low scoring and erratic play. They downed the Monarch reserves, 24-23, although they committed 30 turnovers. David City Aquinas reserves had 16 turnovers.

Kyle Willis led the reserves with seven points and 18 rebounds. Assisting him were Lonnie Biltorf, six points and 10 rebounds; Craig Johnson, five points and three rebounds; Breck Giese, four points and five rebounds; Steve Peterson, one point and nine rebounds, and Mike Creighton, one point and one rebound.

Nelson's squad had a chance to chalk up its first win of the young season Saturday night when Papillion traveled to Wayne for a contest at Wayne State's Rice Auditorium. The locals see action Tuesday night in another home game when they play host to highly-touted Laurel. That game is also slated for Rice. Game time: 6:15 and 8.

Norfolk Picked for 'C' District Tourney

Winside and the other seven schools in its Class C basketball district will play their district tournament at the Norfolk auditorium on Feb. 23, 24, 26 and 27. The decision was made recently at a meeting at Winside.

Schools competing with the Wildcats will be Stanton, Norfolk Catholic, Madison, Tilden Elkhorn Valley, Leigh, Humphrey St. Francis and Battle Creek. That lineup includes one school, Madison, which dropped from Class B ranks this year.

Members of the schools in the tourney will meet Feb. 12 at Norfolk to decide which teams will be seeded and to decide the pairings for the tourney.

Officials are Swede Hawkins and Co. of Oakland.

The tournament which will include the two other Class C schools—Allen and Wakefield—may be held at South Sioux City. As of last week that site had not been confirmed.

The tournament, which will be held the same week as the one Winside will compete in, will also include Emerson-Hubbard, Pender, Homer, Walthill, Winnebago and Ponca.

Seedings and pairings will be decided for that tourney during a meeting at Homer on Feb. 2. Officials will be out of Fremont.

Turnovers, Fouls Spell Defeat for WH Blue Devils

By Kieth Tietgen

The Wayne High Blue Devils were soundly demolished by the David City Aquinas Monarchs Friday night on the latter's court.

The loss, 92-45, resulted largely from the embarrassing number of turnovers, 30, and fouls, 40, the local eagles committed in the game. David City took full advantage of those numerous fouls, which resulted in five Blue Devils being forced out of the game, by making 40 of 65 attempts.

The Blue Devils, unable to begin clicking as a unit in their first two games, Friday were able to connect on only 18 of 52 field goal attempts, a lackluster 38 per cent team shooting mark.

David City wasn't much better off, hitting at a 41 per cent clip, but the Monarchs monopolized on that seemingly endless string of fouls. They hit 66 at the charity line compared to Wayne's 39 per cent.

The Blue Devils were in easy reach of the Monarchs through the first two periods as they trailed 19-11 at the first quarter break and 32-23 at half-time.

But in the second half Aquinas steadily pulled ahead of Wayne as they built up as much as a 19-point lead at one point. Wayne trailed 53-36 after three quarters of play.

The fourth quarter really found Wayne in a whirlwind as the Blue Devils committed 28 of their 40 fouls, resulting in starters and two substitutes fouling out. The Monarchs led by 67-40 at 4:24, 76-42 at 3:17 and 83-42 with 1:35 remaining in the game. From then on, the Monarchs easily coasted to their 92-45 victory over the local squad.

The Wayne scoring was led by Randy Helgren and Dan Sutherland with 13 and 11 points. They were followed by Les Feltenkamp with six, Ted Armbruster with

"Boarding House Reach"—Two Hours of Fun

By Merlin Wright

Wakefield High School juniors provided a good night out for the funny bones of about 300 people with their presentation of "The Boarding House Reach" Wednesday in the school auditorium. Plot and lines were good for a solid 120 minutes of fun. Directed by William Schnoor and Mark Beiler, the play centers around a 13-year-old lad named Wilbur who is obsessed with the idea of having a bicycle.

Wilbur is characterized by Kim Kline and if there was to be a nomination for the high school actor best cast for his part, Kline would certainly have an excellent chance of winning. His performance was absolutely convincing. He talked like a 13-year-old, walked like one, and handled lines such as "When I'm 49 I'll still be bleeding for a bicycle" with such realism that it surely would ring a bell of familiarity in the minds of parents.

Moving along at an unburied pace-permissible in a two-hour production, the comedy had a homelike plot of restless teenagers. Wilbur wanted a bicycle, so when his parents decide to take a business trip, he turns their home into a boarding house through an ad in the newspaper stating, "People in best circles get three squares."

Wilbur has the help of his best pal Hercules, played by Keith Boeckenhauer; a sister, Betty (Rhonda Anderson) and a sister, Connie (Mary Kaufman) who help run the new business adventure. Purpose of the business is, of course, to raise enough funds to buy a bicycle.

After Wilbur's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Maxwell (David Gardner and Anne Leonard) leave on their trip, they cut it short and return at 2:30 a.m. one morning only to find a "boarding house" occupied by such characters as Limpy McGuire (Alan Paul) and his wife, Nora (Connie Twite) who are gangsters. Other guests are "Ninety-Volt" Jones (Larry Schantell) who is a beat-up pug, and his wife, Roughhouse Ruby (Barbara Brownell).

Comment must be made concerning these four portrayed personalities: Alan Paul carried a tough snarl in his line work which projected well; Connie Twite's make-up, dress and actions told the audience, along with her dialogue, the kind of hussy which Limpy had for a wife, and many laughs originated with Schantell and Brownell's fine efforts in portraying a husband-wife team who had been around the fight circuit too long. It should be noted that the backstage make-up crew excelled in assimilating Schantell's bruises and Brownell's disheveled appearance.

The Wayne (Cabr.) Herald, Monday, December 15, 1969

Also in the boarding house upon the Maxwell's return were Mr. Potter (Douglas Samuelson), Lucy Burns (Rita Bargholz), Mrs. Mott (Janelle Schroeder), and finally a Detective Connolly (Leland Miner), Bernadine Smith (Marjorie Sorensen) and Aunt Mary (Debbie Heckens) helped round out the cast of the colorful comedy.

In the third and final act, Wilbur and his buddy (most of the time these fellows worked on stage seemingly unmindful of an observing audience) had more money than they knew what to do with. Hercules made himself ill by overeating and Wilbur had enough cash for a dozen bicycles.

The only thing wrong was that some of their cash was "hot" or stolen. Detective Connolly got it straightened out although Wilbur's father lost his job and was in jail for a while. The very funny production demanded a lot of memorization which the juniors had well in hand.

Following are the names of those who served on various committees:

—Properties: Randy Schantell, Mike Benson, Lyle Anderson and Harlan Woodward.

—Ushers: Marilyn Kraeger, Peggy Stalling, Steve Oswald and Paul Jensen.

—Programs: Jody Anderson and Greg Holm.

—Promoters: George Hansen and Donna Johnson.

—Tickets: Rick Olson, Bruce Luhr and Cerele Johnson.

—Stage and Lighting: Doug Backstrom, Chuck Ellis and Gary Krusemark.

—Publicity: Donna Johnson, Barb Turner, Rob Mavis, Jerel Schroeder and Larry Heikes.

—Make-up: Mrs. Goodwin, Peggy Schroeder, Mary Preston and Bob Puls.

Class mothers served lunch after the play. Those on the planning committee were Mrs. Robert Paul, Mrs. Don Schantell, Mrs. Merwyn Kline and Mrs. Robert Twite.

Providing special music between acts of the play were the Patriots and a triple trio.

Undoubtedly, 13-year-old Wilbur would sum it up with his oft repeated line, "Shoot a mile!"
