

Real Lamb Visits Students in Wayne

The children's tale about Mary and her lamb came true at West Elementary School in Wayne Tuesday morning. This small lamb, only a few days old, visited the youngsters in Mrs. Shirley Straight's second grade class as part of a program where the students learn about animals and pets by having them visit them in school. The lamb belongs to young Walter Otte's grandfather. Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Otte of Wayne, is one of the youngsters in the second grade. Only about half the students got to see the lamb — nine of them were home in bed with colds and flu.

Museum Project Needs Aid

Wayne County Historical Society board members held a planning meeting Tuesday night and sketched out work plans, according to Goldie Leonard, secretary. If there are enough contributions made in time and money, the society hopes to be able to move the Wayne County Museum from its present location on the

LeRoy Wachter

Hoskins Farmer To Seek Office

A rural Hoskins resident who has lived in Wayne County for the past 23 years filed Friday afternoon as a candidate for one of the two offices of county commissioner to be filled in the upcoming election in May.

LeRoy Wachter, 58, complied with the necessary filing procedures in the office of the county clerk Friday and said he will campaign for county commissioner in the third district as a Democrat.

Wachter is a lifetime resident of Nebraska. He and his wife see FARMER, page 8

College Will Host NEN School Heads

Northeast Nebraska school administrators will get together at Wayne State College Wednesday for a day of idea-sharing on the problems of education. Headquarters will be in the Fine Arts Center.

Speakers on the schedule are Mel Olson, chief of supervisory services for the State Department of Education; Dr. H. Vaughn Phelps, superintendent of Omaha District 66 and president of the Nebraska Council of School Administrators, and Dave Gunther, Wayne State basketball coach.

Three panel discussions are planned. One on legislative topics will have Stanley Hawley, deputy commissioner of education, as the resource leader, and Dr. Freeman Decker, former state commissioner of education, now on the Wayne State faculty, as moderator.

Panelists discussing letter of recommendation will be Glen Shafer, director of approval and third floor of the courthouse into its new home about one mile east of town on Highway 35 this year. Late last summer the society had a house moved from the 600 block on north Main Street to a location east of Wayne on land contributed by Mrs. Mabel Sorenson to the society for the location of a museum. Secretary Leonard reports that the house-moving expense is paid and the foundation under the house is nearly complete.

The officer also noted that the society discussed at their meeting the need for more financial assistance as well as donated labor to put the new museum building into acceptable shape for occupancy.

Water lines need to be put in; walls and floors need re-doing; painting inside and out; furnace needs to be checked and put into operation, chimneys need rearing and the roof needs attention, the secretary said.

Miss Leonard said the society welcomes organizations, the city or individuals who might want to help out with the museum work or a part of it as a project. She emphasized the society's need for assistance in the project of bringing the Wayne County Museum into reality in its new home.

Hundreds of museum pieces reflecting the culture of Wayne County during the last century are presently kept in a small area in the courthouse. The items are priceless and in no way could they ever be replaced if something should happen to them. It is for this reason the Wayne County Historical Society is issuing a call for help in getting the new building east of town in condition so that the valuable museum pieces may not only be given proper display, but also proper care.

The panel on the successful teacher will have Dr. Arnold Emry, assistant professor of education at WSC; Hugh Harland, director of junior high education for the State Education Department; Gene Lavender, superintendent at Norfolk; Darold Sea, director of personnel for Sloux City schools, and the moderator, Dr. Arthur Dugan, professor of education at WSC.

A tour of Wayne's new Carhart Science Hall and its planetarium are on the late afternoon schedule and, after supper, the 6 p.m. Wayne State-Midland wrestling meet followed by Wayne State-Peru State basketball.

Six County Officers To Norfolk Meeting

Six Wayne County officials attended a meeting at Prengers in Norfolk Friday conducted by the state tax commissioner and staff members.

Commissioners Roy Davis, George Stolz and John Surber were accompanied to the meeting by Clerk Norris Weible, Assessor Henry Arp and Deputy Assessor Doris Stipp.

Murrell McNeil, state tax commissioner, was in charge of the meeting for area county officials which got underway at 9 a.m. Topics discussed were related to area equalization, equalization and related problems and homestead exemption rules and regulations.

The workshop is one of several scheduled throughout the state by the state tax commissioner to acquaint county officials with changes in state legislation.

Judge Fines 13 Total of $245 In County Court

Thirteen people appeared before Judge Laverna Hilton in the Wayne County court Tuesday through Friday. Nine of the 13 paid fines and court costs for speeding.

Ronald Olsen of Wayne was fined $15 and costs of $8 on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

Bernard J. Macke and Steven Mrsny, both of Wayne, paid $10 fines and $5 court costs for no auto safety inspections.

James Schutz of Mallard, Iowa, was charged with driving left of center line and paid a fine of $25, plus $5 court costs.

Paying $5 court costs and fines for speeding were Charles Pederson of Sloux City, $25; Gary Pick of Norfolk, $10; Richard Rutar of Thurston, $20; Lorna Luben of Wisner, $10; Kenneth Dahl of Wayne, $12; Donna Skalberg of Wausa, $10; Thomas Houtchens of Wayne, $10; Dennis Fleming of Wayne, $10, and John Cannon of Norfolk, $10.

Wayne School Given Memorial

Wayne High School alumni who graduated in the class of 1954 decided during a business meeting at a reunion they held in August 1969, to create a fund with which to purchase some type of usable equipment for the school, which is now the Middle School. The equipment was to be presented in memory of Alvin Peterson Jr. of Wayne, a deceased classmate.

The memorial has been purchased and presented to the Middle School. It consists of a chrome-plated panel and a steel chalkboard. The latter may also see MEMORIAL, page 8

Liska Program Set at Carroll

Danny Liska, native of Nebraska, is slated to appear at the Carroll City Auditorium at 8 p.m. Monday, March 2, for the presentation of a narrated film of a trip he made into Africa.

The Liska program will feature the film, "My Wife for 20 Cows," and is sponsored by the Emerson, Coleridge, Hartington High, Hartington (Cedar Catholic), Randolph, Winside, Wynot, Norfolk (Catholic and Ponca).

Five students from Winside will present "The Storm" written by Donald Thuston. Cast members are Dave Witt as Jeff Mulkey; Sharlene Brockmoller as Mary; Gregg Troutman as the hunter; Debbie Reter as the woman, and Lisa Jenkins as the girl.

Plot of the Winside production is centered around a young couple in a cabin during a blizzard. Jeff Mulkey stands at his cabin window and peers out at the blizzard and ever-deepening snow.

Five years ago he was involved in an auto accident on a snow-swept highway that took the lives of a mother and her daughter. A knock on the door, and a man enters. As he sips coffee, he tells them the story of a man who lost his daughter in an auto accident—that he has sworn revenge on the man that did it.

It dawned on the young couple that they are trapped with the crazed husband.

Tickets are one dollar for adults and 50 cents for children. Liska's adventure film presents many of the strange native and tribal customs in Africa related to black magic, superstition, raising livestock and farming.

2 Charged in Theft

Two Wayne youths are out on bond after being charged with grand larceny in Thurston County, according to Thurston County Sheriff Clyde Storie.

The youths were charged with grand larceny following the theft of six tires in early January from Janke Auto in Pender. They were charged just over one week ago.

A preliminary hearing date is being set up for the two young men. Both are reportedly under 18 years of age.

Soap Boxes, Beards Are Next Jaycee Projects

By Norvin Hansen

The Wayne Jaycees are getting things rolling—both literally and figuratively.

First, they're looking for Wayne youngsters between 11 and 15 years old who would like to take a shot at winning the All-America Soap Box Derby by entering the upcoming local contest in Norfolk.

Second, they're one of the first groups in the city to come up with ideas for promoting the coming centennial of Wayne County. Not surprisingly, one of those ideas centers around beards . . . or the lack of them.

Last week the group met with members of the Optimist Club at Norfolk to learn about what must be done before local youngsters can enter the soap box race at Norfolk later this year. The group also saw a film of one of the races held in Akron, Ohio. That film will be shown in Wayne again this week and any youngsters interested in learning about the event is invited to attend. It will be shown Wednesday evening at seven o'clock in the Wayne Middle School.

The two Jaycees heading up the drive to enlist young racers to enter the event in Norfolk, Bill Taylor and Darrell Moore, urge the youngsters to start working as early as possible. Taylor said that although the

AFS Pupil to Speak At Winside Tuesday

A guest speaker from the Philippine Islands will address parents and teachers of the Winside PTA in a monthly meeting Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school lunch room.

Tessie Urian, American Field Service student from the Philippines attending Wayne High School, is slated to speak concerning customs and habits of her homeland.

Miss Urian arrived in the United States last August and attends Wayne High School as a senior.

Winside Pupils To Give Drama At Hartington

Winside High School will be one of ten Lewis and Clark Conference schools represented at Hartington (Cedar Catholic School Monday, March 2, in one-act play competition, according to Glenda Hammer and Lois Bertsch, co-sponsors of the Winside drama team.

The one-act plays will get underway in Hartington at 9 a.m. and continue through the day. Schools participating are Allen, Emerson, Coleridge, Hartington High, Hartington (Cedar Catholic), Randolph, Winside, Wynot, Norfolk (Catholic and Ponca).

Five students from Winside will present "The Storm" written by Donald Thuston. Cast members are Dave Witt as Jeff Mulkey; Sharlene Brockmoller as Mary; Gregg Troutman as the hunter; Debbie Reter as the woman, and Lisa Jenkins as the girl.

Wayne Man Files For Board Term

Mike Karel of Wayne filed Thursday as a candidate for one of two vacant offices on the Nuxious Weed Control Authority, according to Norris Weible, county clerk. Karel complied with filing regulations at the county clerk's office for the non-political office.

Five men make up the NWC, three of whom are rural and two urban representatives. Rural members are Henry Doring, Ernest Muhs and Dwayne Bethweisch. John Owens of Wayne and William Swanson of Carroll are the townsmen whose terms expire this year.

Karel is the first to file for one of the two offices.

School Board Will Consider Teachers' Salary Proposals

About a dozen residents of the Wayne-Carroll public school district last week sat in on much of the discussion between the school board and the committee of teachers concerning the salaries to be paid teachers in the system next school year.

The school board reached no decision on the teachers' requests—basically the same as had been requested earlier—and decided to meet again tonight (Monday) at 7:30 in the high school to discuss the proposals.

Several of those residents of the district attending the meeting told the board that they hoped the board and teachers could reach an agreement which would not cause the mill levy to be increased in the school district.

Dave Fwing, one of those taxpayers at the meeting, told the board and the teachers that there is great alarm among all taxpayers over the seemingly endless increases in taxes, he said he was willing to support the present school system, which he termed a fine one, but emphasized that both groups should try to reach an agreement which would keep the mill levy down.

He expressed disagreement with the request by the teachers for what he called a flat percentage increase to all teachers. He said school systems should operate like other businesses, rewarding those who are the most competent, and should not agree on blanket increases in wages for all teachers.

The committee requested, among other things, that the salary base for beginning teachers with BA degrees be raised from the presented $6,000 to $6,400, a drop of $100 from the base salary originally proposed by the teachers. Also requested was a change in the system used in paying teachers for additional teaching experience and education. The teachers are asking for a five per cent increment in pay for each step on the salary See SALARY, page 8

2 Area Youths Earn Academic Honors at Wentworth Academy

Two Wayne area youths are among those earning academic honors for the grading period of the first semester at Wentworth Military Academy in Lexington, Mo., Lt. Col. Cordell Thomas, dean, has announced.

The youths, who earned superior grades to qualify for the Dean's Honor Roll are Cadet Robert J. Meyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer of Allen, and Cadet Douglas A. Witte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold B. Witte of Concord.

Cadets who earn academic honors during the specified grading periods at Wentworth are accorded extra privileges and are permitted to wear the Scholastic Bar on their uniform.

Named Honor Student At Norfolk College

Among the 21 students to be named to the Honor List at Northeast Nebraska College in Norfolk for the first semester is Richard P. Beckenbauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beckenbauer of Wayne.

To be named to this list of honor, students must have attained a grade point average for the semester of 3.5 or above (4.0 being equivalent to an A) and must have been enrolled as a full-time student.

$2,000 Gift

The Wayne Hospital Foundation received a $2,000 check from the Hospital Auxiliary Friday which is the first major contribution to the Foundation since it announced plans to seek a new hospital and hospital district. Mrs. Robert Casper presented Adon Jeffrey, treasurer of the Foundation, the $2,000 gift in final action as president of the Auxiliary. She completed her term of office Friday. Mrs. R. E. Gormley was installed as the new president. Members of the Auxiliary earn most of their funds through such projects as the annual bazaar. They decided in a business meeting Friday to contribute the $2,000.

County 4-H Beef Cattle Weighing, Tagging Set

Four-H members in Wayne County can weigh and tag all their market beef cattle this coming Saturday, according to County Agent Harold Ingalls.

The cattle can be weighed either at the Wayne sales barn or the Stanley Morris farm west of Carroll between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m.

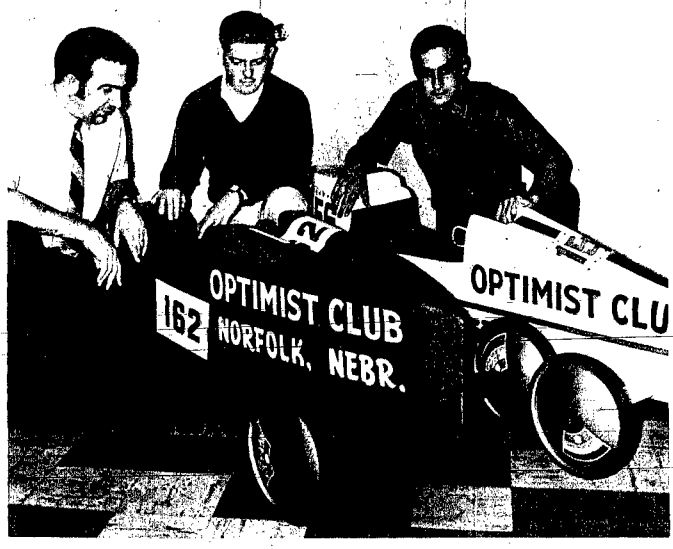

The starting weights on individual cattle are used for making up county fair classes. Fair premium monies are divided between conventional placings and rate of gain. For the first time, reports Ingalls, the youths' sale orders of individual calves will be made on a combined score from rate of gain and packer appraisal. Last year the day for the weighing and tagging of the cattle had to be postponed several times due to the bad weather.

Finally, on Apr. 12 some 214 head were weighed.

The weight and identification is used for a comparison of rate of gain over a uniform feeding period. Many feeding trials confirm that rate of gain is the best single measure of efficient performance.

Both individual and market pens are to be weighed. The pen project, started five years ago, consists of five steers weighing not more than 3500 pounds on weigh day. Pens are not shown at the county fair but are placed at the annual sale held in September. Placings are based on rate of gain, packer appraisal and accuracy and completeness of records.

The records of gain over the past several years are interesting. See 4-H, page 8 race in Norfolk is not planned until late in June, it will take the young boys a lot of time and work to build their cars.

But that work and time might pay off in the long run. Prizes available in the Norfolk race include a $500 U. S. Savings Bond from the Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corporation, sponsor of the annual derby, and a free trip to Akron for the International competition. Money is provided for the parents of the Norfolk winner to make the trip with the youngster. Also, trophies go to the heat winners in the Norfolk event and prizes are awarded for such things as the best designed or best upholstered soap box.

The winner at the International competition in Ohio will receive a $7,500 college scholarship. In all, over $250,000 in prizes and scholarships are handed out during the local and International races.

A winner of the local competition in 1969, Taylor said that there may be clintcs held in Wayne later this spring. If there is enough interest shown by the youngsters, later on this spring there will be inspections of the soap boxes to make sure they meet specifications and regulations.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The editorial department of a weekly newspaper is an important department. Normally it is one person's opinion of topics that concern most of the readers.

You may not agree with an editorial — but if you read the editorial and give serious thought to the subject discussed you have gained. You, as a reader, have given careful thought to an important problem and the writer is proud to have called your attention to an important subject that you may have overlooked.

Interest Is Satisfying

Within the past few days in Wayne we witnessed two fine examples of the ways our form of government can operate.

First, there was the petition drive started by parents concerned about the possibility of losing the city hall park and the Girl Scout cabin in the east part of the city. There is a chance the elderly housing development would be built on that land and the parents wanted the city council to hear the subject.

Second, there was the group of taxpayers who attended the meeting before the board of education and the salary committee as the two groups met to discuss the salaries which will be paid the teachers for the coming school year. These people are concerned about the seemingly endless rise in taxes on all levels and are looking for ways to find relief from that burden.

We were very happy to see both of these things take place, for there is too little interest shown by the public in the workings of the local public bodies. We are sure that the people who serve on groups such as school boards or city councils—whether they are in Wayne or any of the surrounding communities—are more than happy when they find their constituents taking an interest in the job they elected them to do. Whether the people agree or disagree with them on the decisions they are making isn't very important. That they do agree or disagree shows at least that the people are taking an interest in what they are doing.

We just wish such interest in local government were shown more often.—N.L.H.

Any Wonder Youth May Get Confused?

It appears that in the midst of the Paris peace talks, Chicago trial outbursts, Viet Nam war, and a myriad of other headline subjects, many of us Americans don't know which way to look, what to do or what to think. Many consequently become a part of the silent majority, withhold our opinions to a private expression, and attempt to find varied ways to keep our minds occupied so as not to be overwhelmed by our own feeling of inadequacy.

One of the most relentless foes we have to battle is our own feeling of personal inadequacy. Persons who seem to have a great deal of self-confidence are often insecure inside and are trying to gain acceptance.

We fool ourselves if we think we are alone in such thoughts as: "I don't amount to anything... nobody cares what I do... I can't do anything right... and I fail at everything."

Everybody feels this way at times, and in young people the feeling is even more severe than in children and adults. There are all kinds of sociological, physiological and psychological explanations, but the reasons can be summed up briefly.

Society continues handing out a contradiction in meanings of success. On one hand we seem to say, "Get grown up. Get with it! Decide what you're going to be. Settle down. Establish yourself in a stable business. Get married—have a home. Be a good citizen."

So young people are apt to feel inadequate when they make mistakes, don't know what they want to be and don't seem to be doing so well toward getting married.

On the other hand we seem to say, "Think young! Have fun. You're only young once! Don't get tied down. Bus-bus-bus!"

Besides this the competition between people at the youth level is severe for grades, for honors, for leadership positions, for spots on the team, for dates, for teachers' favor, for attention, for everything.

It is not difficult to sink into depression or despair. How dreadful to be a failure at 14-16 or 18.

It must be a little confusing for youth to be told "Grow up" while the grownups tell each other, "Think young and have fun." Do we want our young people to hurry up and grow up—like dating steady at 14-years of age so they can be adults and think young?

Television commercials which place great emphasis upon the mother-daughter look-alikes portray the daughter's boyfriend as not being able to read; tell the difference between his gal and her mother. The commercial is only one illustration of frustrated adults trying to act and look like youth. Simultaneously we tell the youth, "Why don't you grow up!" In other words, "Grow up so you can attempt to act young."

It's a great world if you can figure it out.—M.M.W.

Quotable Notables

Let us believe neither half of the good people tell us of ourselves, nor half the evil they say of others. — J. Pettit-Senn.

Society prepares the crime, the criminal commits it. — Buckle.

WRIGHT

By Merlin Wright

J. W. has often thought how interesting it would be if a person in each field of work would take the time to sit down and tell it like it is from his or her viewpoint (at the job's worst moments). Most anyone who works in a public office or government would be able to tell how a certain percentage of the public always waits until the last minute to get license plates, get assessed, get drivers licenses or a half dozen other things.

School personnel could likely write volumes concerning the myriad mysteries of people called parents, while parents could write a set of books dealing with instructors entitled "Anyway, What Made You Decide to Teach?" Those in the auto service stations might take pen in hand and tell of choice types of customers who always charge their purchases and who are offended when approached to pay the bill, in fact may take their business elsewhere and leave the station operator holding the sack.

Customers who are "just looking" could likely do a good job writing a chapter or two about clerks in stores who nearly pester them to death asking, "May I help you?" Then when the customer is in a real hurry, knows what he wants and tries to buy it, there isn't a clerk anywhere to be found. Naturally the clerks would want to put out their edition of the situation under the title, "Eye-ing, Buying, and Extremely Trying."

There is no doubt about it.

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

The Osmond school board recently accepted the Department of Education recommendation to offer breakfast to the students in its school system. Last week the newspaper in Osmond printed a letter for an irate parent which said that soon we will bus our students to school Monday mornings and not get them back until the weekend. The letter writer, a mother, said this is working toward the "one school in the county" idea.

Bill Cox, editor of the Pierce newspaper, predicted that the Department of Education would suggest that Osmond drop the breakfast program in order to save face.

Madison's two grain elevators are still plagued by a shortage of box cars, according to The Madison Star-Mail. Manager of one of those elevators reported to the newspaper that he had 20,000 bushels of corn on hand that he would like to ship but that they couldn't get cars for. The other manager had 13 car loads of corn sold and waiting for delivery. He is afraid to contract for more deliveries because the supply of cars is so irregular.

About 144 people turned out last week at Hartington for the first of a series of classes on sex education. The program, presented by Dr. Charles Vlach, was for ninth, tenth and eleventh grade students and their parents.

The instructor, who at the end of the program received a round of applause, used slides and diagrams in his presentation regarding the human body reproductive system. The Cedar County News called the entire lecture "very candid."

The school board at Randolph is planning on telling the public this week how it plans on absorbing the 300 St. Frances Catholic School students into its school system next fall. The information will be published in the coming issue of The Randolph Times.

Plans include purchase of the present Catholic school plant, additions to that building, purchase of additional equipment and some remodeling of the present public high school.

A bond election to provide the money for these proposed changes is set for March 24.

In Coleridge a bond election for a swimming pool has been set for April 7, at the same time as the regular local municipal school elections. Total estimated cost of the pool is $49,000. The pool would be 75 by 30 feet, including a 24-foot

From the Plainview News: A NEW LOW... Last week the Plainview Public School had published a questionnaire asking residents of the community for their opinion on possible expansion of the vocational department of the local school system. NOT ONE REPLY WAS RECEIVED! If persons were opposed to such expansion, they could have circled all suggestions "no." Or if they had ideas, they could have directed the school administration. But there were no replies! It seems like this is apathy in the fullest degree—concerning something important—the education of our youth.

Cattle feeders attending the coming Feeder Day at Oakland will have a chance to hear an Armour representative tell them about trends in packer demands. The program is set for the Oakland city auditorium on Wednesday, starting at 9:30 in the morning. Speaking will be Sherrill Wiggins.

A total of over $400 was raised in the magazine subscription campaign by the veterans in Pender in order to buy new hospital equipment for people in Pender and the county. Purchased were two wheelchairs, one walker, two sets of crutches, two sets of junior crutches and one commode. The equipment is available by contacting Mrs. Clarence Dye in Pender.

operates from Norfolk, Wayne to Sioux City and returns daily, except Sunday. At Sioux City connections are as good or better than before for Omaha and all points east. Package express and passengers have never been interrupted from any major city. The service was discontinued from Wayne to Piger Junction and Wayne to Laurel.

So, the article that appeared in your paper was not entirely correct and we feel that the editor should have corrected the article in this particular case.

If you have any questions in regard to this matter, please contact the Arrow Stage Lines in Norfolk or our bus agent in Wayne, Carl's Conoco.

We are enclosing an existing schedule showing service between Norfolk and Sioux City. However, we will have new folders out in March and at that time, we plan to publish it in your newspaper.

J. H. Busskohl, Arrow Stage Lines Inc. (Editor's Note: Mr. Busskohl is referring to the editorial in the Feb. 12 issue of the newspaper. It does sound as if all service to Wayne by Arrow Stage Lines had been dropped. This is not the case and we apologize for making it seem so. The person we said to write letters to said he had received "a great many" from people who had read the editorial and become concerned about the situation. These people might wish to write another letter, directed to Mr. Busskohl, explaining their feelings about Arrow's dropping part of its service to Wayne.)

Rural Lady Attends NSEA Helpmobile

Mrs. Wilma Roberts of rural Wayne attended the Nebraska State Education Association (NSEA) eighth annual helpmobile demonstration of outstanding teaching techniques Feb. 14 at Hastings.

The all-day sessions included these subject areas: English, science, reading, physical education and teacher aides.

More than 8,000 teachers have attended since the program was launched in 1963. Helpmobiles are paid for by the Nebraska State Education Association from the teachers' dues. Further evidence of the value of these demonstrations is the fact that those attending do so on their own time and travel at their own expense.

Devils Fall to West Point CC, 81-74

By Kloth-Tietgen

A frigid third quarter cost the Wayne High Blue Devils a chance to win their fifth game of the season as the West Point CC Bluejays slipped past Wayne, 81-74.

Fans at the game were treated to a torrid scoring duel between 5-8 Randy Helgren and 6-3 Paul Ridder. Ridder won the duel, 37 points to 33 points by Helgren. Both players collected 12 field goals, Helgren 12 of 25 for 48 per cent and Ridder 12 of 19 for 63 per cent. Helgren hit nine of 12 free throws for 75 per cent and Ridder connected 13 of 15 for 86 per cent.

In that frigid third quarter Wayne managed only three of 15 attempts from the field for a dismal 20 per cent. On the other side, West Point hit on six of 14 attempts for 43 per cent. The Bluejays made five free throws to Wayne's four. As a result the Blue Devils found themselves trailing by eight points, 55-47, a far cry from the one point they trailed going into the quarter, 38-37.

In the first half the Blue Devils found themselves in a hole twice but came roaring back. The first time they fell behind, 9-2, but tied the score at 11-all at 2:05 of the first canto. Through the following four minutes the Blue Devils were at the heels of West Point but fell to a 10-point deficit with 3:50 remaining in the half. Again they charged back, knocking off nine of those points and trailed by 38-37 at intermission.

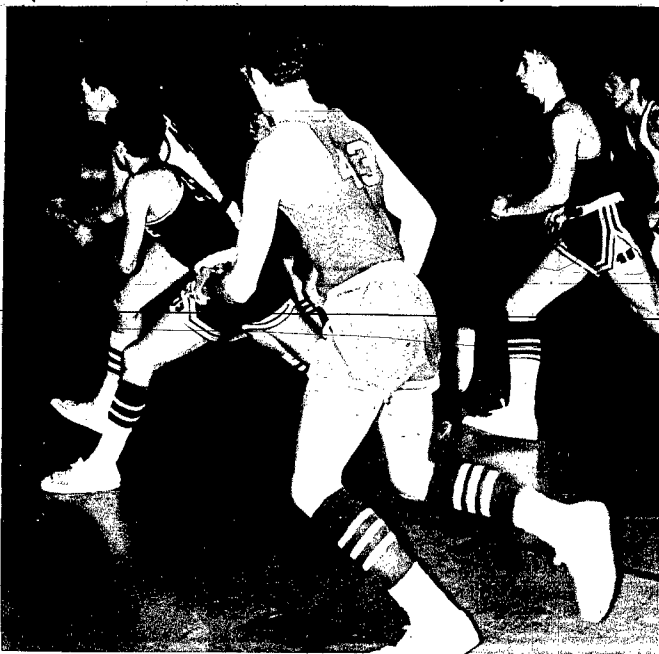

Twenty-five seconds into the second half the Blue Devils knotted the score at 38-all but that was the closest they would get to the Bluejays as the roof caved in for the Wayne players. After the artie freeze settled in for the next eight minutes Wayne couldn't overcome the lead the Bluejays grabbed.

Even outscoring the Bluejays in the last eight minutes, 27-26, wasn't consolation enough to put Wayne ahead.

Adding to Helgren's 33 points was Dick Tietgen with nine points, Don Mau with eight, Lonnie Biltoff with seven, Mike Creighton with six, Rod Cook and Ted Armbruster with four each and Les Echtenkamp with three.

Helgren led the Wayne rebounders with nine caroms. He was followed by Echtenkamp and Armbruster with seven apiece and Lonnie Biltoff with five.

The Blue Devil reserves won the preliminary, 44-41. Wayne trailed 12-9 after one quarter but battled back to gain the lead at halftime, 22-21. Again in the third stanza they fell behind, 34-33, and once more produced a strong rally to move out ahead.

Kyle Wills and Lonnie Biltoff led the reserves with 10 counters each. They were supported by Rod Cook and Doug Sturm each with six, Steve Peterson with five, Donnie Hansen with four and Breck Giese with three.

Wills and Peterson provided the needed muscle under the boards, garnering 10 and eight rebounds as the yearlings out-rebounded the host reserves, 36-32.

Local Cagers Settle For 4th at South Soo

Wayne's recreation basketball squad had to settle for fourth place in last week's junior high invitational tourney at South Sioux.

The locals tripped up their first opponents, St. Michael's of Sioux City, 57-40, but then fell to South Sioux, 37-30, to throw them into the consolation bracket. In that bracket, Epiphany of Sioux City blasted Wayne, 60-40.

Laurel's squad got dropped in the opening round by Epiphany.

Top scorers in the three-game stint were Scott Ehlers with 27, Todd Bigelow with 24 and Gordon Cook and Bill Schwartz with 22 each.

Leeds St. Michael's swept the tourney with victories over McCook of South Dakota, Epiphany of Sioux City and South Sioux.

Conference Events Set

The dates—but not the sites—for two upcoming Husker Conference sporting events were set by representatives of the schools in the conference in a meeting Wednesday evening.

The group decided to hold the conference golf meet on May 8, one day after the conference track meet at Wayne, and decided to hold the conference faculty golf meet on May 9. Sites were not determined for certain. The Junior high track meet, usually held at Wayne, will be held this year on May 11.

Seems Untrue, But Trojan '5' Loses to Ponca

By Norvin Hansen

It's one heckuva way to get beat. That probably summed up the feelings of the Wakefield Trojans Saturday morning when they awoke following the 64-58 loss to Ponca the night before.

The Trojans, playing one of their best games in about eight or nine outings, suffered the loss even though they hit 21 field goals, while limiting Ponca to only 13. But it was at the free throw line where the Indians, shooting a blistering 79 per cent, wrapped up the season finale for both squads.

Taking advantage of the numerous fouls committed by the Trojans—four players fouled out for Wakefield, including one who fouled only in the fourth quarter—the Indians made 38 points on gift shots, over half of their total for the evening. Meanwhile, the Indians were hitting at a miserable 27 per cent from the field (13 of 49 for the night).

Wakefield	14	11	14	19	58
Ponca	16	24	7	17	64

but their ball control enabled them to hold off the Trojans in the second half after they took advantage of a Wakefield cold spell and built a lopsided 40-25 advantage at intermission.

Wakefield, trailing by 16-14 at the close of the first quarter, was unable to stuff many points in for several minutes at the close of the first period and the opening of the second, enabling the visitors to amass that huge lead.

A rally in the second half proved not enough for the hosts as they were only able to out-score Ponca 33 to 24 in the final two periods.

Trojans Bob Johnson, Lyle Brown, Kip Bressler and Rich Kline fouled out in the contest, all in the closing moments of the final period. Kline, sick much of the week, played only the final period but still fouled out as he was forced to make contact in order to break Ponca's ball control game.

Low Ponca pulled off that victory may still be bugging the Ponca coach. For example, the Indians emerged winners even though they hit only one field goal in the final half. The other 22 points they obtained in the closing two periods all came on free throws.

Dennis Crawford, coach of the Wakefield quintet, remarked that he had never seen another team win a game with that kind of shooting from the field.

Denny Paul, husky senior who suffered a minor eye injury toward the close of the game, took over the scoring duties in the contest, pumping in 22 points to take scoring honors for both teams. Trailing him on his squad was Lyle Brown with nine. Leading scorers for the victors were Steve Forney with 18, Wayne Morrow with 17 and Kelly Asmussen with 12.

The Trojans, who ended the season under the .500 mark at eight wins and nine defeats, see more action Tuesday night in district tournament at South Sioux. They will go up against Pender, a team they knocked off by 58-55 earlier this year, at seven o'clock to see if they can advance to Thursday's semifinal round.

Wakefield took a 56-55 overtime loss Feb. 14 at the hands of a team from Westfield, Iowa, after seemingly having the game stuffed away following eight minutes of play.

The Trojans put 15 points on the scoreboard and held the Indians to five in the first period, but then the tempo of the game started switching to the visitors. Wakefield still held a lead after two quarters, 32-23, but then Westfield pulled into a 49-49 tie at the end of regulation play.

Leading scorers for Wakefield were Rick Olson with 12 and Lyle

Local Frosh Frolic To Win Over Laurel

Wayne's freshmen rolled to a 70-39 hardcourt victory over visiting Laurel Thursday afternoon to end the season with a 14-3 mark.

The victory came largely as the result of balanced scoring by the locals as only one player hit in double figures, Mark Johnson with 12. Two Laurel players broke into two figures, Keith Olson with 14 and Clark Hirschman with 10. Wayne led at the quarter breaks by 14-8, 26-21 and 53-28.

In the game by the freshmen reserves, Wayne pulled off a 40-12 win over Wakefield Wednesday. Again, only one player managed to break into two figures for Wayne, Shane Giese with a dozen counters. The frosh had an 8-2 lead after the first quarter, increased that to 21-2 at intermission before pulling into a 33-7 lead going into the final stanza.

Greyhounds of Yankton Pinned by Wayne, 30-8

Wayne State wrestlers defeated Yankton College, 30-8, here Thursday night in the first of three home meets closing their dual season.

The next meet brings Midland College to Wayne for a 6 p.m. dual preceding the Wayne State-Penn State basketball game

Wednesday. The date with Midland is a change from the scheduled Mar. 3. Also on the Wayne sports agenda Wednesday is a 4 p.m. basketball match between the junior varsity and the intramural all-stars.

Against Yankton Wayne won five decisions, one match by default when the Yankton wrestler was unable to finish and two by forfeit. The Greyhounds got their only victory, besides a forfeit on Nick Da Padre's 9-2 decision over John Kletnick at 167 pounds. De Padre is undefeated in 14 matches. Kletnick now is 12-3-1.

Max Branum, 134-pounder, retained Wayne's best record, 18-2-1, with a 10-3 verdict over Lindy Peterson, and Ken Monroe, 18-3, moved up to 190 for a 6-3 decision over Bob Savage.

Monroe and Savage are hometown friends from Arlington Heights, Ill., though they attended different high schools and never met on the mat.

Wayne's other wins: Vince Emery, 150, with a 5-2 decision over Ken Schafer; John Yoder, 158, a 7-2 decision over John Mazzochi, and heavyweight Daryl Stanfield's 8-4 defeat of Tony Abbott, plus forfeits to Tom Mann at 118 and Lee Hall at 177.

WHS Cagers Lose;

No Details Available

The Winside Wildcats reportedly suffered a defeat in their road game at Emerson-Hubbard Friday night.

No details of the contest were available.

The loss would give the cagers a record of 11 wins and seven defeats, quite an improvement over last year's record.

Winside sees action tonight (Monday) in the opening round of the Class C-7 district tournament at the Norfolk city auditorium. That game is set for seven o'clock. Should the Wildcats win, they would go up against the winner of the Battle-Creek-Stanton game Thursday night at the same time.

Laurel Tourney Set

A most valuable player from both the girls and the boys divisions of the coming intramural basketball tournament at Laurel High School will be chosen by the players in the tourney. The girls will vote for the player in the boys division and the boys will vote for the player in the girls division during school next Monday, March 2.

The tourney is set for this coming Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The first round in the boys division is set for Wednesday, the first round in the girls division is set for Thursday. Finals will be Friday. Admissions is 10 cents.

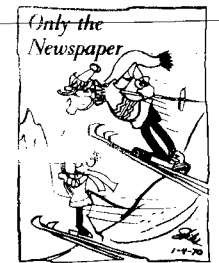

Last year, the first production year for resident Canada geese at the Sacramento Game Farm, resulted in 41 goslings produced by 10 pairs of nesters.

Gridders on Film

Chevrolet regional and zone offices throughout the nation now have available free-lan copies of a film featuring the official 1969 All-America football team selected by college coaches.

Copies of the 26-minute color film may be borrowed through branches of Modern Talking Pictures Services, Inc., located in most major cities.

Co-sponsored by Chevrolet's sports department and Eastman-Kodak, the film includes action highlights of each player during the last season as well as comments by the players and their coaches.

There's more depth to the news, even in sports. Everything from the longest jump to how many fractures. And you can read it at your leisure. Like when recuperating.

Lead Cheers for Top Team in State

Local, Area Matmen Advance at State

Two wrestlers from Wayne, one from Winside and one from Stanton won their matches in the quarter-final round in the state wrestling tournament at Lincoln Friday. The wrestlers went into the semifinal and final round Saturday.

Wayne's Doug Maurer defeated Mike Brickell of Lincoln Plus, 7-6, in the 167-pound class and Alan Wischhof pinned his heavyweight opponent, Terry Hansen of Utica Centennial, in 1:07.

In Class C action, Winside's Steph Carlson dethroned Jim Thomas of Hebron, 9-4, at 111 pounds and Mike Jaeger at 125 pounds dethroned Tim Bilde of North Platte St. Patrick, 4-1. Stanton's Joel Pinnit won his match in the 98-pound class, a 6-0 decision over Bayard's Vern Wickard.

Losing in the quarter-finals were Winside's Terry Jaeger, an 8-1 victim of Hebron's Jeff McLaughlin in the 107-pound division, and Dennis Wade, a 1-07 pin victim of Hebron's Dan Lee in the 147-pound class.

Wayne's Sam Hepburn and Mike Poole teamed up to roll a 544 series to take first place in the Junior Bowling action Feb. 14 in Wayne. Coming in second with a 488 were Chris Lueders and Pat Hochstein.

Taking honors for high game was Poole with his 174, followed by Lueders with his 159.

Mrs. Lois Clemens of Clay Center holds the state record for Buffalo, a 53-pound, 8-ounce whopper taken from Seitz' table in Fall in September of 1966.

Forgetful Nebraskans Delay Tax Returns

Many Nebraskans are falling to attach necessary documents or information to their Federal income tax returns, according to Richard P. Vinal, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska.

Missing documents or information delay the processing of returns, and frequently require IRS to contact the taxpayers for the missing items.
Individuals should be sure that all Forms W-2 are attached to the back of their returns, Forms 1040, to verify the amount of wages and income tax withhold-

Census Makes Jobs For Elderly People

Any elderly people in the Wayne area are being urged to apply for jobs as census takers for the 1970 census.
The census will require the temporary services of 160,000 enumerators, according to the Nebraska Advisory Committee on Aging, and older people are ideally suited for these jobs. There is no maximum age limit and most older people can meet the general qualifications. Also, no prior experience is required and the Census Bureau will provide paid training for all employees.
The average length of service will be four weeks, with compensation at the rate of $2 per hour usually. Census takers should be able to work six to eight hours each day for five days a week.
Openings will be publicized as they occur and elderly people should apply for them at that time.

Business Notes
Mr. and Mrs. Mel Elofson, owners of the Coast-to-Coast store in Wayne, returned early in February from the annual Coast-to-Coast meeting in Kansas City. They were among about 2,000 owners of the chain stores, their wives and their employees who attended the meeting.
Conducted by representatives and department heads, the meeting included introduction of new lines of merchandise and clinics to provide more product knowledge.

Cub Pack 221 Banquet Features Genius Kits

Wayne Cub Scout Pack 221 held their annual Blue and Gold Banquet at 5:30 p.m. Feb. 15 at the Wayne Elementary School with about 150 Cub Scouts, parents and scout leaders in attendance. Steve Brasch, cubmaster, was master of ceremonies for the program following the potluck dinner.
A part of the fun pack-members have at the banquet each year is finding out which father-and-son team is judged to have created the best "genius kit" creation.
In days prior to the banquet each father and son team is challenged to create something from a given list of articles. This year the list included two scrap-wood blocks, six pipe cleaners, a coat hanger, six straws, cubes, eight peanuts, four feet of string, two screws, six nails, one piece of scrap cloth, 12 beads, four buttons, one tin can, two spoons, one piece of craftstrip, 12 tacks, two foil pans and two feet of telephone wire.
Judges who had to decide Sunday evening which kits were best were Rowan Wiltsie, scoutmaster of Troop 173; Robert Lund and Robert Porter. Their decisions were as follows: Jay Hummel and his father, Jim, won first place for having the most scientific creation; Steve Lockling and his father, Kenneth, won second place in the same division; David Hamm and his father, Deard, won first place for having the best workmanship; and Mike Niemann and his dad, Ed, took second place. Mark Bliss and his father, Cecil, was awarded first place for having the most creative item, and Scott Carhart and his father, Bob, were named in second place.
The six father-and-son teams won out of a total of 39 entries in the competition.
Many awards were handed out to members in each of the four dens. Parents' names are in parentheses.
Eddie Fleer (Mrs. Judith) and Timmy Thomas (Jim) were awarded the Bobcat pin as new Cub Scouts, Steve DeForge (Larry) was presented Webelos colors.

Den II awards:
-Mark Shufelt (Al), bear badge; Clint Nelson (Gordon), silver arrow; Richard Cook (Richard), wolf badge; silver arrow and gold arrow; Steve DeForge (Larry), bear badge.
Den III awards:
-Jeff Backstrom (Dean), bear badge and gold arrow; Scott Carhart (Bob), bear badge and gold arrow; Jay Hummel (Jim), bear ling and son Steve; Ed Niemann and son Mike; Gerald Hamm and son David; Bob Carhart and son Scott; the Rev. Cecil Bliss and son Mark; Jim Hummel and son Jay. See story for details.

Den IV awards:
-Robert Fleer (Mrs. Judith), silver arrow and denner bar; Dean Carroll (Ed), bear badge and assistant denner bar; Dennis Carroll (Ed), wolf badge and gold arrow; Peter Manes (Andy), bear badge; Steve Lockling (Kenneth), gold arrow and two silver arrows; Paul Brum (Mrs. Carmen), bear badge, gold arrow and two silver arrows.
Receiving utility mess kits from the State National Bank for achieving Webelos during the past year were Mark Bliss (Cecil); Steve DeForge (Larry); Danny Ahlvers (Chuck); Jon Letstad (Dana); Mureo Garlick (Anthony); Darren Froitt (Maurice) and Joe Teeter (Jim).
Recipients of one-dollar-savings accounts from First National Bank to new cubs in the past year are Mike Nieman, Dean and Dennis Carroll, Mike Locking, Jay Stoltenberg, Steve Lockling, Timmy Thomas, Paul Sutherland, Eddie and Robert Fleer, Richard Cook, David Hamm, Daniel Beeks, Doug Hummel, Peter Manes, Duane Smith, Jeff Dion and Joel Pruden.
Guests at the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sword, scout executive for the Lewis and Clark District and Mr. and badge and gold arrow; Doug Plerson (Dean), bear badge and gold arrow; Mike Niemann (Ed), wolf badge, silver arrow and gold arrow.

Den 221 committeemen are Jim Hummel, chairman; Loren Park, secretary; Chuck Ahlvers, awards chairman; Ed Niemann, activity chairman; Al Shufelt, Webelos leader, and Mrs. Vera Hummel is den leader coach.
Den mothers and assistants are: Den I, Mrs. Vida Sutherland; Den II, Mrs. Nancy Ahlvers; Den III, Mrs. Marilyn Carhart and Mrs. Vera Hummel; Den IV, Mrs. Bernice Lockling and Mrs. Marian Manes.

Eagles Demolish Wynot, 78-35, in Season Finale

Allen High presented visiting Wynot a sound 78-35 thumping Friday night to give the Eagles a final regular season record of four wins and 14 defeats.

The win, first in nine outings following the victory over Randolph, gives the Eagles a boost going into the Class C-B district tournament slated for South Sioux tonight (Monday), Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Tuesday the Eagles meet Homer, a team they have beaten and been beaten by in the regular season.

Friday's victory ended a long streak of losses for the Eagles following that slim 77-76 win over figures. Mitchell pumped in 17 points on seven field goals and a perfect three out of three at the charity line; Ellis hit 14 on seven field goals.

Wynot's scoring was dominated almost completely by one player, Dennis Driver. He hit nine field goals and one of three free throws for 19 points.

Also getting into the scoring act for the winners were Gary Troth with nine points, Loren Reuter and Dave Geiger eight each, Jerome Roberts six, Dennis Geiger five, Jerome Roberts and Brian Linafelher four each and John Warner two.

Leading rebounder for Allen was Bob Mitchell with eight retrieves.

In the reserve game, Allen rolled to a 52-20 victory after taking a 30-16 edge into intermission. In the volleyball game preceding the night's cage action, Allen won the first two sets.

Randolph. There was little doubt the Eagles would pull off the victory after the opening moments of the contest, played at Allen because Wynot lacks a home court.

Allen surged to a 16-1 first quarter lead and then the Eagles' scoring machines went to work to pour in 28 points while limiting Wynot to only seven to take a 44-8 lead into the dressing room. Allen added another 21 points in the third quarter and gave up only 18 to take a huge 65-26 bulge going into the final period.

Leading that scoring attack for Allen, the highest point production for the Eagles this season, were 6-1 junior Bob Mitchell and 5-10 senior Mike Ellis, the only two Eagles to break into two

Pierce Becomes Laurel's 19th Victim

Consistent scoring, that's what led the Laurel quintet to a victory over Pierce Friday night, and, consequently, to dual conference championship honors for the second year in a row.

The Bears rolled to a 64-50 win over the Pierce squad on the Laurel floor and by doing so won the West Husker Conference and the Northeast Nebraska Athletic Conference. They were scheduled to play West Point High, a team they narrowly defeated by 63-60 in the Wayne State holiday tournament, Saturday evening.

ning at West Point to determine who would wear the Husker Conference crown this season. Last year the Bears won that honor by knocking off Scribner.

With one of their top scorers playing only part of the time because of sickness with the flu, the Bears displayed some of their most even scoring this season to make up for George Schroeder's being on the bench much of the time. Three players—Steve Erwin with 18, Jim Schroeder with 12 and Steve Smith with 10—hit double figures and two others—George Schroeder and Rod Erwin, both with eight counters—came close.

That balanced scoring attack—highest individual scoring effort in one quarter was by Steve Erwin with his six points—enabled the Bears to pull into a 33-27 intermission lead after holding the slim 17-16 edge following the first eight minutes of play. The Bears' defense began telling in the third quarter as the hosts pumped in 17 points to Pierce's seven to take a 50-34 advantage into the final period.

The Bears ended the night shooting a respectable 42 per cent from the field (25 of 60) and 64 per cent from the stripe (14 of 22). Pierce hit 35 per cent from the field (20 of 57) and 77 per cent at the line (10 of 13). Rebounding honors went to the hosts, 40 of 33, as 6-6 Steve Erwin with 16 retrieves led both teams under the boards.

Also in on much of the rebounding play for Laurel were brothers Jim and George Schroeder, nine and seven respectively.

Now with a 19-0 mark for the season and the pressure nearing its peak, the Bears have one more regular season game left, a Tuesday night conflict at Wisner-Pieter. Then it's into the district tournament at Norfolk High next week. The Bears open that tourney against West Point Central Catholic.

Schneider's 32 Leads Wildcats Past Chadron

Dave Schneider hit 32 points, his career high, to lead Wayne State in an 82-65 conquest of Chadron State Friday night at Chadron.

The win lifted Wayne to 28-5 and set up the season finale with Peru State at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in Rice Gym. It will be the final scheduled game, that is, but the third quarter as the hosts pumped in 17 points to Pierce's seven to take a 50-34 advantage into the final period.

Wednesday's sports agenda actually will be a triple header with a Wayne-Midland wrestling meet at 6 p.m. preceding the varsity basketball. Also, the junior varsity cagers will play the intramural all-stars at 4 p.m.

Fans will do well to arrive early. Traditionally, the Wayne-Peru cage clash always draws an overflow crowd and the added wrestling makes the attraction even brighter.

Wayne led Chadron all the way after an 0-1 deficit as Schneider and Dean Elfson paced a diverse Wildcat attack. Elfson went seven points over his average with a 21 total, many of them on neatly executed drives.

Schneider's 32 topped his previous 29, setting not only his career high but the team's individual season high. And he accomplished it before fouling out late. However, two Chadron Eagles assigned to guard the 6-9 Schneider fouled out earlier while trying to stop his onslaught.

The Wildcats led at the half, 39-31. They scored 48 per cent from the field to 41 by Chadron and outscored the Eagles, 54 to 32.

The candidate said he will campaign for office believing that everyone in the district needs to be represented as individuals on an equal basis.

Three men have now filed for the office of third district commissioner. Floyd Burd of Winside filed in mid-January and will run on the Republican ticket. Roy Davis, incumbent candidate, filed for a second term Tuesday. Davis will also run as a Republican.

Deadline for filing as a candidate for a county office is Mar. 13.

to be used as a bulletin board with the use of small magnets.

Mrs. Evan Bennett, school librarian, noted that the equipment will be stored in the library for easy accessibility to teachers for use in their classrooms.

Principal Loren Park has expressed the school's appreciation for the gift and said Saturday that a small inscribed plaque is to be attached to the equipment identifying the memorial and donor.

schedule and for each year of experience. The present salary schedule provides for increments of three and a half per cent for each step, and three and one half and five per cent for each year of experience.

Total cost of the proposed salary schedule over the one now in effect would be approximately $86,800, according to Clarence Lippert, chairman of the negotiating committee.

Lippert told the board that the cost of the new schedule is high and cannot be explained away. However, he said, if the school system doesn't keep pace with other schools in the area, the system will begin losing some of the qualified people it has attracted over the past few years.

Lippert told the board that it should not regard the salaries paid to the teachers as an "economic leak" in the community. About 83 per cent of the money paid out to the teachers in salaries is pumped back into the city, according to Lippert. That figure was derived from a survey of the spending habits of about one half of the teachers currently in the system.

The committee also presented other material to the school board, including results of surveys which show that Wayne's salary schedule and benefits will have to be raised to somewhere near the committee's proposals if the system hopes to be competitive.

Mike Mallette, one of the committee members, noted that several area school systems have recently adopted new salary schedules which are much in line with the one the Wayne-Carroll teachers are asking for. Among those systems he mentioned were Coleridge, $6,200 base and five per cent increments for experience and education; Walthill, $6,500 base and four per cent increments, and Pender, $6,300 base and four and five per cent increments.

boxes which competed in the Norfolk race in the past on display about Wayne from this coming Wednesday through Tuesday, Mar. 3. Youngsters can then inspect the racers and see what kind of work and care has to go into them.

Taylor also noted that boys will get a rule book when they sign up to take part in the race at Norfolk. If they want, they can get advice from their parents or friends, but they must build the car completely by themselves.

Tuesday night there will be a chance for local youngsters to sign up in Norfolk for the coming derby. The local Jaycees will provide transportation to any youngsters in the city who want to go over and sign up for the event. Those boys should meet at Carhart Lumber in Wayne at 6:30 Tuesday night.

About the other thing the Jaycees are getting rolling. The local group hasn't decided for sure on the things it will sponsor to help celebrate the county centennial, but one of the things being considered is handing out "fines" and "jail sentences" for any men not growing beards, mustaches or sideburns.

Jerry Rose, one member of the local organization, said that more information about the Jaycees plans will be made public later.

estimating but perhaps not too scientifically accurate, says the county agent. Some of the problems encountered were varying length of feeding period and lack of a controlled uniform weighing condition.

The 1969 average daily gain on pen calves was 2.6 pounds for 153 days. In 1968 the average daily gain of pen calves was 2.9 pounds for 192 days.

The top gaining pen in 1969 averaged 3.7 pounds daily. The top figure for 1968 was 2.6 pounds daily.

The general over-all performance was better in 1968 than in 1969, Ingalls notes. Nine of 16 pens gained three pounds or over per day in 1968, but only seven of 19 pens did as well in 1969.

Individual steers gained approximately two pounds per day for 117 days in 1969; heifers in the same period gained about one tenth pound less than steers.

There are some surprising changes taking place in the cattle business today, says Ingalls, noting these recent happenings.

The 1969 champion steers at Lincoln, Omaha and Chicago were big crossbreeds. Placings at a recent national all-breed bull show were made by computer combining scores for visual appraisal, weight per day of age and electronic survey for meatiness.

A recent article in a farm magazine by a noted national beef judge tends to defend our conventional judging system. Yet in the article he cites an incident at a judging clinic where a disagreement in placings arose. A third party was asked to arbitrate. His remark: "The bull in question is certainly the best bull in the class but the way he looks today he's got to be last."

The author further says, "When a judge gets through lining up a class the top animal may not be best in the class—a second place or a fifth place or even a tenth place may be the best overall animal in the class."

A legitimate question at this point might well be, what is the purpose in judging?

Horse racing is purely a spectator sport, but winners are not picked on the basis of a person's opinion, Ingalls emphasizes.

Club Sates Supper

The Carroll Saddle Club will hold its annual supper at 7 p.m. Sunday, March 1, in the Carroll Auditorium.

Following a business meeting, cards will be played for entertainment.

Autos Hit Various Objects

Wayne police records show officers investigated when different autos struck a tree, a fire hydrant, a pedestrian, ran over lawns and ran into each other over the weekend of Feb. 14, 15 and 16.

Police were called Saturday when a 1966 Chevrolet driven by William Myers of Lyons was westbound on Tenth Street and turned north onto Lincoln Street. The vehicle struck a parked 1954 Ford, officers said, belonging to Robert Stanley.

Early Sunday, around 12:39 a.m., a 1969 Pontiac driven by Terry Meyer of Wayne was southbound on Main Street, attempted to turn east on Fairground Ave., and in so doing, officers reported, skidded and hit a parked pickup belonging to International Harvester Co.

Residents on Pine Heights Road awakened Sunday morning to discover someone had driven across yards all the way north of Pine Heights Road on the east side of the street, turned around and drove back south on the west side of the street, also running over three signs. The vehicle broke off a wooden post at Pine Heights Road and East Tenth Street, police said.

Officers said someone also drove up the sidewalk on West Third Street in the 200 block and hit a big tree in front of the Presbyterian Church.

Later Sunday morning, police were informed that some mail boxes and street signs were knocked down some time Saturday night in the Wriedel Trailer Court. An auto had knocked over the mail boxes and then proceeded to drive around through several

Allen Store Robbed

Approximately $1,000 in tools, appliances and cash was stolen from Christensen Electric in Allen sometime after the store closed Tuesday afternoon.

The thief or thieves gained entrance to the store by removing a screen and breaking a window on the south side of the building.

Owner of the business, Ezra Christensen, reportedly did not know for sure exactly what was taken or how much money it amounted to.

Hoskins Candidates

Due to the new laws governing elections, Hoskins, along with other towns in Wayne County, will not hold elections caucused this year. Candidates desiring to hold office on the town board must file with Mrs. Carl Mann, Hoskins' city clerk, by March 13. Names of those who have filed will be placed on the election ballot.

Ed Kolbath is mayor of Hoskins. His term expires in 1971. Other present members of the board are Ward Johnson, George Langenberg Sr., Herman Geyer and Richard Doffin. Langenberg, Johnson and Doffin complete their terms this year.

Valentine Telegram Helps AFS

When the new American Field Service student arrives in Wayne in August, he or she will do so partly because of Valentine's Day, cupid and an imaginative American Field Service club at the Wayne High School.

During the week of Feb. 9-14 the AFS club at Wayne High School sold Valentine telegrams to students and teachers. Students had a choice of three types of telegrams at two prices. Two telegrams were for sale at five cents each, or for ten cents, a student could make up a valentine message of his own and the AFS would deliver it.

Valentine telegrams were sold Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, then delivered to the lockers of students on Thursday afternoon after school.

There was an exception. It was a singing telegram sent by the band to the choir which was sung during class.

Total proceeds realized from the project was approximately $16 which was turned over to the AFS Chapter—treasurer, Al Ehlers, and will be used toward supporting the AFS student arriving in Wayne in August.

Seminar Offers Help in Treating Problem Drinkers

Clergymen wishing more information about alcoholism and how to help families with problem drinkers are urged to register for the seminar being offered by the University of Nebraska Extension Division.

Sessions will begin on Thursday, March 5, 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. at the Northeast Station east of Concord. There will be eight sessions, one each week, on Thursday afternoons in March and April.

Several of these seminars have already been completed in various locations across the state. Clergymen who have attended expressed their appreciation for a down-to-earth approach to the frustrating problems related to alcoholism.

Clergymen from northeast Nebraska are invited to pre-register for this seminar by sending their name, address and a $25 registration fee to Monty McMahon, University Extension Division, 511 Nebraska Hall, Lincoln, Nebr. 68508.

Scholarships are also available. For scholarship information write to John W. North, director of the Division on Alcoholism, Box 94728, Lincoln, Nebr. 68509.

For further information about this seminar or the problems related to alcoholism, contact Neal P. Boeshart, community alcoholism counselor at Laurel.

Allen Youngsters Get Chance to Fly Today

The eighth grade class at Allen will get a special treat today (Monday)—a chance to see what it is really like to fly in a small airplane.

The class, under the direction of Noelyn Isom, will visit the Wayne airport this afternoon and will be taken up for flights in small groups by Don Johnson.

About 26 youngsters will make the trip to Wayne and most of them will take the trip in the airplane.

The field trip ties in with a unit-of study the youngsters are involved with at the present time.

Winside Candidates Told Where to File

Winside will hold its municipal and school board elections May 12 along with other Wayne County communities, according to Vern Hill, mayor.

Residents at Winside who want to file as candidates for the school board should file with the secretary at the high school, Hill said. He noted that petition blanks are also available at the school.

The mayor said those who want to file as candidates for the village council should file with the village clerk by March 13. No one had filed for any of the offices as of Thursday afternoon.

Police Investigate Accidents, Larceny

Wayne police were informed Wednesday that a wheel and tire for a car were stolen sometime between midnight and 9 a.m. Feb. 15 from a residence at 814 Wildom Street. The tire is a wide oval with a red streak.

Around 4:05 p.m. Wednesday in the 200 block on Main Street, Mrs. Robert Lund was westbound, according to police, on East Third Street in a 1967 Olds. Warren Marotz of Winside was reportedly backing a 1969 Dodge out of a parking stall when the two vehicles hit. Damage was minor.

Three fire extinguishers and a first-aid kit were reported stolen from buses parked at the Middle School Wednesday.

Richard Stone of Nehawka told police Thursday that he had his 1970 Volkswagen parked behind Berry Hall on the Wayne State College campus when it was struck by an unknown vehicle which left the scene of the collision.

Another Week and Allen Sewer Work Could Get Underway

The tentative starting date for work on the Allen sanitary sewer system is just one week away, according to one of the village officials.

The contractor for the construction of the sewer lines was given the starting date of May 1 by the village following a meeting in Allen earlier this month. The contractor will have 150 days to complete the project after the starting date passes, Bill Snyder, village clerk, said.

Overall contractor for the job is Western Plains Construction Co. of Lincoln, subcontracting some of the work is Fisher Construction of Allen.

Total cost of the project will be about $113,000. Up to 30 per cent may be provided in matching funds from the federal Water Pollution Control Administration for the construction of the lagoon just west of town. The village is also eligible for up to $30,000 in aid from the Farmers Home Administration in the form of a grant to help construct the sewer system in the village.

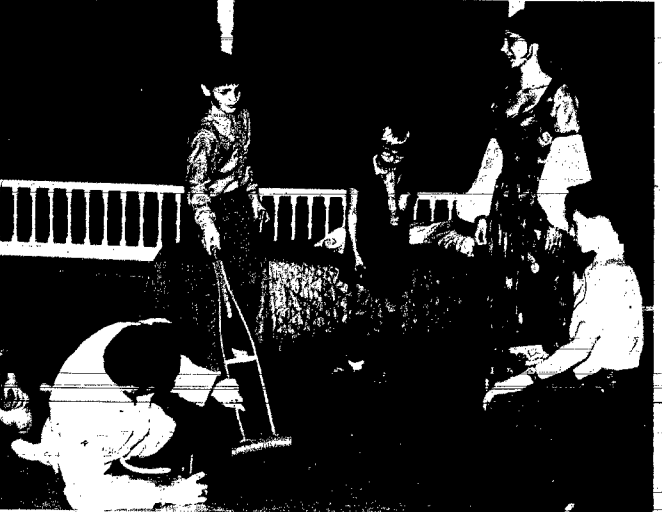

Snyder said the construction company may not begin work immediately because the 150-day completion period will probably give the company plenty of time to do the digging required in the village.

Well, Add One More

And the list of unlucky people grows longer in Wayne's Ash Night drawing. Latest addition: Mrs. Dale Schram of rural Wakefield.

Mrs. Schram was not present when her name was the one drawn Thursday night at eight o'clock. Had she been present in one of the participating stores she would have taken home a $400 check compliments of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce.

This week's drawing will still be worth $400 and the reserve pot will advance to $350.

Local Youngsters Begin Acting Career

"CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF," which opened yesterday at Wayne State College, features Kevin Hall in the role of Brick (on the floor). Also cast are (from left) Margaret, David and Lisa Nuss as Trixie, Buster and Dixie; Susanne Froull as Maggie, the Cat, and Mike Sharer as Sonny. The play will run through Tuesday evening. Curtain time is 8 p.m. "Cat" is the third Wayne State Players offering this season.

The Carroll Saddle Club will hold its annual supper at 7 p.m. Sunday, March 1, in the Carroll Auditorium.

Following a business meeting, cards will be played for entertainment.
