

WS Special Programs Begin Soon

Wayne State College will open its Special Programs series of 1970-71 Wednesday, Sept. 30, presenting the National Band of New Zealand and the Maori Dancers.

The 8 p.m. concert is open to the public, with tickets available at the door or in advance by writing the college business office.

The New Zealand Band, now on a world tour which includes its second visit to the United States, comes from a music-minded nation where every city and town has at least one band. In 1962 the National Band was judged best among 215 competing in the International Band Contest in Holland. Its 1965 tour in America evoked superlative descriptions from audiences.

Featured with the band is an exotic group of Maori dancers presenting the dances and songs of the ancient Maori, New Zealand's original people.

Also on the Wayne State Special Programs schedule:

Victor Tretyakov, brilliant young Russian violinist, Oct. 22; Evelyn Williams as Charles Dickens; Jan. 25; the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, Feb. 5; the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra, Feb. 25, with Danish pianist Mogens Dalsgaard as soloist. Dalsgaard, who spent a month last spring as musician in residence at Wayne State, also will play a March 7th concert on the Special Programs series.

'I Can Order It Quicker'

The following story about a well known Wayne businessman—known for his unconcern for organization—was told during a meeting of a small group of people recently:

"He (the businessman) had a telephone call from a person who wanted to buy something, he told the caller that he was sure he had it in stock, but that he could order it quicker than he could find it."

The businessman the story is about doesn't have to be named.

Freshmen women who aim for high academic achievement were entertained Wednesday by Alpha Lambda Delta, an honorary sorority of students who already have achieved high grade honors. Among the ALD hostesses at the reception were (front row) Ellen Hummel, vice-president of Scribner; Yvonne Kloepfel, president, Sioux City; Judy Nissen, secretary, Plainville; and Rita Heggemeyer, treasurer, Tilden; (back row) Diana Ross, Nehawka; Erling Gleason, Ponca; Wanda Mackey, Bancroft; and Diann Stigge, historian, Wisner. The sorority told prospective members at the reception that it offers help to freshmen women wanting to attain membership. The standards are high: a 3.5 grade point average. Co-eds who qualify in one freshman term and wish to join are inducted the following term. Officers are elected to serve during their sophomore year. Upperclassmen remain as members but not officers.

Crowned at Laurel Homecoming

June Kvols and Steve Erwin were named Homecoming Queen and King following Laurel's 62-0 victory of Neligh Friday night. Parents of the youths are Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kvols of Laurel and Mr. and Mrs. Veedel Erwin of Concord. The two were crowned in ceremonies following the football game. Runners-up were Star Dirkey, Nancy Dirks, Jean Haskell and Debbie Fuoss for the queen title and Regg Swanson, Jim Kirchner, Brent Johnson and Steve Smith for the king title. Following the candidates from the junior class were Penny Brugerman and George Schneider. Anne Schultz and Ronnie Kirchner were crownbearers. Results of the Laurel-Neligh game -- plus those of other area contests -- can be found on the sports page of this issue of The Wayne Herald.

Tourism Subject Of Coming Meet

Tourism—or the lack of it—will be the subject of a coming meeting of Wayne businessmen.

Being sponsored by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, the meeting is being scheduled in order to come up with ideas on how to attract more tourists to the city.

To be shown during the meeting will be a film outlining how Broken Bow took advantage of its name to attract tourists.

The meeting is scheduled for Wednesday evening, Oct. 14, at the lecture hall at Wayne High School and is open to the public. Being invited by chairman Bob Merchant and Leo Wortman are the businessmen who first come into contact with the tourists.

Those in charge of the meeting would like to attract from 50 to 100 people to the affair in order to come up with the best possible suggestions on how Wayne can attract more tourists.

Class Officer

A Winside youth, Walter Bleich, has been elected vice-president of his class at St. John's Academy in Winfield, Kan.

Bleich, a junior at the academy, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bleich, Winside.

Highway 20 Open

Motorists are now using the stretch of Highway 20 from the Dixon corner west to Laurel.

The project, under construction for about a year and a half, involved widening existing pavement from 20 to 24 feet and surfacing it with asphalt. A few sections had to be regraded and paved with concrete. Also, 10-foot wide shoulders surfaced with asphalt were installed.

The stretch of highway, from the junction of Highway 116 north of Dixon, is just over eight miles long.

$100 Prize Uncollected

Mrs. Neddie Mader of Wakefield apparently went home too early Thursday night, missing out on a $100 gift in the weekly Cash Night drawing.

Mrs. Mader's name was called in the eight o'clock drawing but she did not stop forth in any of the participating stores to collect her prize. She was reportedly in Wayne earlier in the evening. As a result, this week's drawing will be worth $150.

No purchases are required to be eligible for the prize. Area residents need only register in one of those stores which take part in the drawing. The person has to be present to win.

New system ranks big Charlais tops

3 Youths Take Honors at Annual Calf Sale

Ed Bull's big Charlais steer — It weighed in at 1,565 pounds. — took Grand Champion laurels at the Wayne County 4-H calf sale Thursday night.

Taking those honors among the heifers was the Hereford owned by young Kevin Davis of Carroll. The pen of five sold by Michael Dunklau was ranked top under the new system used during the annual event. The system, which is reportedly liked by a great number of the youths and others, ranks cattle according to their rate of gain and packer appraisal. The system is more "scientific" than that used in previous years.

Ed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Bull of Wayne, had his calf purchased by State National Bank in Wayne for $32 a hundredweight, nearly three dollars over the packer bid of $29.25.

Purchasing the heifer belonging to Kevin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Davis of Carroll, for $29.50 was Wayne Veterinary Clinic. The calf had a .527, 50 tag put on it by the packer.

Young Dunklau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Dunklau of Wayne, had his pen of five purchased for $31, two more dollars than the packer bid, by Wayne Grain and Feed.

Two individual calves sold for higher prices than the Grand Champion steers: the Hereford Champion Charlais steer owned by Don Nelson, purchased for $32.25 by Dean Phipps Insurance, and the Angus steer owned by Kim Baker, purchased for the same price by Fredrickson Oil.

Taking top money in the pens of five was Don Janiec's group, which sold for $31.75 to State National Bank. Packer bid on the group was $29.

The new system put into effect this year is better in at least one way, according to Harold Ingalls, Wayne County agricultural agent. Ingalls says the system ranks the money-making cattle first since it uses the important aspect of rate of gain. Because of that new system, the show portion of the annual event was not held.

The cattle entered by the 4-H youths were weighed late in February, giving the young feeders 200 days to show how much weight they could put on cheapest.

Six of the youngsters showing individual calves earned purple ribbons in the competition: Ed Bull, Don Nelson, Connie Roberts, Mike Hansen, Patty Roberts and Kevin Davis. Blue ribbons went to the next 19 youths; red ribbons to the other 22.

Michael Dunklau, Ron Janiec, Lou Ann Dunklau, Alan Ekberg, Sandra Ekberg, Randy and Ricky Gathje and Ron Magnuson earned purples on their pens of five. Ten youths earned blue ribbons and five earned red ribbons in the group competition.

Local Youths to Enter Ak-Sar-Ben Show

A group of Wayne County youths will be in Omaha this week showing animals in the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show. The show starts Friday.

Scheduled to have entries in the dairy show are Melinda Anderson, Linda Baier, Mitchell Baier, Alan Finn and Ellen Finn. Three Stevers from Wakefield—

Jack, Jacqueline and Natalie—will be showing animals in the beef competition. Showing in the horse competition will be Mark Fleer, Robin Fleer, Brad Frank, Brian Frank, Dan Frank, Jani Lange, Toh Lange, Bill Langenberg and Roger Langenberg.

The 43rd annual show and rodeo will run for nine days with seven states to be represented in competition. The rodeo, starring Jimmie Rodgers, will have 10 performances with a matinee and twilight performance on Sunday, Sept. 27.

The 1,750 4-H exhibitors will be housed and fed on the Ak-Sar-Ben grounds and 3,235 head of livestock will fill the livestock building and many of the horse barns.

"Ak-Sar-Ben's facilities are among the finest in the world and we are delighted to have these outstanding youngsters here to display their livestock and their talents in the field of agriculture," Chairman John Dieing said. "We are able to hold both the livestock show and rodeo completely indoors for the comfort of both exhibitors and patrons."

The seven states will be represented.

Train School Crossing Guards at St. Mary's

Wayne City Police were on hand at St. Mary's School Thursday to assist teachers at the school in training their school crossing guards. The officers showed the young guards the proper way to halt traffic as well as other aspects of their duties.

Police intend to return to the school next week to observe the guards and help them with any problems they may encounter.

Businessmen to Welcome Teachers

New teachers in Wayne, about twenty, are being invited to a welcoming party at the Wayne Country Club early in October.

Sponsoring the get-acquainted affair is the education committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Being invited are teachers new to the Wayne-Carroll school system, Wayne State College and St. Mary's Catholic School.

The event is scheduled for Sunday evening, Oct. 4, with hospitality from 6 to 7 and dinner will follow.

Each new teacher will be sponsored by a local businessman, similar to the outdoor barbecue held for the all-star basketball players recently.

New at St. Mary's Catholic School is Mrs. Wilma Roberts. New in the public school system are Deryl Lawrence, Inge Atkins, Judith Zobel, Cheryl Tames, Marvin Steffen, LeWayne

Eleven People, Eight Charges, Eleven Fines

Eleven persons appeared on eight different traffic violations in Wayne County court last week. The eleven people appeared before Luverna Hillton, county judge, on charges ranging from reckless driving to illegal parking.

Paying fines were Terry L. Loden, Humboldt, Ia., $10 plus $5 court costs for improper turn; Klipp C. Kruse, Wisner, speeding, $14 plus $5; Russell L. Burcham, South Sioux City, passing on right, $10 plus $5; Michael J. Hefferon, Ponca, no license plates, $10 plus $5; Linda J. Melzerdicks, Pender, reckless driving, $15 plus $5; Douglas Pinkley, Leigh, no muffler, $10 plus $5; Richard G. Watts, illegal parking, $10 plus $5; Thomas J. Folger, Wayne, illegal parking, $10 plus $5; Ella Lindner, failure to stop at stop sign, $10 plus $5; Raymond L. Kudera, Richfield, Minn., speeding, $13 plus $5; Jonathan C. Lambert, Wayne, illegal parking, $10 plus $5.

Registered to Vote? Better Start Checking

If you have moved recently—even within a ward or precinct—you will have to register at the Wayne County courthouse if you plan to vote in the general election on Nov. 3.

That word of warning comes from Morris Weible, county clerk, who says that if you have moved, changed your address or turned 21 you have to register at his office in order to be eligible to vote. Deadline for registering is Oct. 23.

Anybody who has moved into Nebraska recently has to live in the state six months, the county 40 days and the ward or precinct 10 days in order to be eligible to vote.

Classroom Creativity Subject of Workshop

How to develop creativity in the classroom will be the subject of three workshops to be attended by two members of the Wayne-Carroll school system.

The workshops, to be held this Thursday, Oct. 15 and Nov. 15, will be held at Westside Community Schools in Omaha and will be financed by a Title V grant. They will be followed up by a one-day meeting in January.

To attend the meetings from Wayne will be Loren Park, middle school principal, and Janet Woodward, teacher of the academically talented.

Busker Activities Begin in October

Activities in the Husker Conference get into swing early next month with the cross country meet at Pierce. The meet is slated for Monday, Oct. 3.

Dates and sites for the other conference activities:

Instrumental music, Dec. 2, Madison for West Side Community schools, East Husker site chosen; one-act play, Jan. 23, Neligh; wrestling, Feb. 6, Neligh; vocal music, Feb. 15, Wakefield for East, Neligh for West; speech, Feb. 27, Wayne; track, May 6, Lyons; golf, May 7, Wakefield; faculty golf, May 8, Wayne; junior high track, May 10, Madison.

WHS Juniors To Be Tested

Juniors in Wayne High will get a chance to see what occupation they might best fit into when they see results of a coming test.

The test, the Kuder Vocational Interest Inventory, will be given Wednesday at the city auditorium in Wayne. It takes about an hour to complete and gives the students an idea how much their occupational preferences are like those of people in various occupations and fields of study.

The test is not graded as correct or incorrect. Variations in vocational interest patterns among people account for varieties of responses to the inventory questions.

Results of the test will be available to the students about two weeks after it is given.

Stevenson Named Merit Semifinalist

Wayne High senior James Stevenson has been named a semifinalist in the 1970-71 National Merit Scholarship Program.

Stevenson, one of the highest ranking members of his class, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Stevenson of Wayne.

The 14,750 semifinalists in the national program are among the country's most intellectually talented high school seniors. They will compete for about 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1971.

The semifinalists were the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQT), given last February to some 710,000 students in 17,000 schools. They constitute less than one percent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

The students show high promise for leadership in their adult careers, according to Edward C. Smith, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC). "They have already demonstrated both high intellectual capacity and a readiness to develop their abilities," he said.

"These students deserve credit and honor. They bring honor to their families, who deserve much credit, as do their teachers, and their communities. The future success of these young people will, however, depend upon their ability to become productive at the high intellectual levels that they are capable of attaining."

Semifinalists must advance to finalist standing to be considered for the Merit Scholarships to be awarded next spring. Semifinalists become finalists by receiving the endorsement of their

Choice for Orchestra

Diane Olds, a 1970 graduate of Wayne High School, is among 83 students chosen for membership in the University Symphony Orchestra at the University of Kansas at Lawrence.

Miss Olds is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Olds of Wayne.

To Annual Meeting

Floyd Bracken, manager of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, will attend the annual meeting of the Nebraska Association of Commerce and Industry scheduled for Lincoln next week.

The meeting, which will be held next Tuesday, will feature University of Nebraska Chancellor Durward Varner as featured speaker.

Trial Site Change Being Considered

A request to have the first-degree murder trial of Rick Hamilton of Allen changed from Dixon County to some adjoining county is being considered by the district court judge handling the case.

The request for the change of venue by Hamilton's lawyers came during a hearing in the Dixon County courthouse Friday morning. After the hearing, which ended before noon, Judge Joseph E. Marsh of South Sioux said he would make his decision this Thursday.

He died from a wound from a .22 caliber bullet in the chest. The bullet pierced his heart.

Smith was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith of Allen, former residents of South Sioux.

Hamilton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hamilton of Allen.

Young Hamilton, 18, is charged with murder in the shooting death of John Smith. Smith was 18 years old and a senior at Allen High School when he was shot to death the evening of May 1 in Allen.

Who is Responsible?

The Wayne city council Tuesday night will probably discuss whether to continue with its agreement to help the Wayne-Carroll school board in supplying crossing guards at the corner of Seventh and Sherman. It may be, if the council leans toward the feelings of the mayor, that the city will no longer help supply those guards and will leave that duty to the school system.

A few months ago this subject came to a head when the previous council all of a sudden stopped sending guards to help the small students get across the streets safely. The school board, of course, complained. The result was a compromise whereby the city and the school would share equally the costs of the crossing guards and the city would have the responsibility of hiring and training them.

Although we felt at the time that the city was hedging on its responsibility to make sure that people can walk safely about the city, we thought the compromise was about the best which could be worked out at that time. We do not, and we said so at that time, think that the school system should have to furnish crossing guards for that corner. We think the crossing guards should be supplied by the city, for the youths are crossing city streets. That the youths crossing those streets happen to be students is, we think, immaterial.

True, the amount of money which is being spent to have those guards there is very small. However, there is a principal involved. That principal is simple: the city is responsible to see that traffic within the city limits—whether it's cars, trucks, motorcycles or students—can move about the city easily, quickly and safely.

We think the principal is important enough for people to become concerned about. —N.L.H.

Comments on Letter Writers

Elsewhere on this page is something which is highly prized around this newspaper: a letter to the editor. The letter gives us a chance to make several comments.

First, the writer of the letter is interested in and concerned about a problem presently facing the city. As such, he is using one of the best methods we know of to make his opinions known to others. Most newspaper editors will say that their letters to the editor columns are among the top features with their readers. Of the thousands of people who read this newspaper, a very high percentage make the letters to the editor column a standard feature.

Second, the writer of the letter is having his say—in effect, his editorial—on a subject which he considers important enough to speak out about. You would have to search hard and long to find a newspaper editor who would not go out of his way to give his readers their chance to be heard. Editors of newspapers are adamant about having freedom of speech on their editorial pages. That freedom of speech, if it is to really be exactly that, has to be extended to the public.

Third, the writer of the letter decided he would rather not have his name printed with his letter. Although we would rather print the names of all letter writers, we do permit people to use a pseudonym if they wish. We can see where forcing all letter writers to sign their names might be the same thing as forcing a few of them to remain completely silent. We think that would be a oblique method of limiting freedom of speech.

Finally, the writer of the letter reinforces our belief that the public should not remain silent while a problem is being settled and then speak out afterwards. If you have a suggestion, comment or complaint, make it known while it can do some good. —N.L.H.

JUST WRIGHT

by Merlin Wright

An elderly Wayne woman who lives alone was surprised recently when she discovered a young man asleep on a couch in her home around one o'clock in the morning. Leaving the stranger undisturbed she returned to her bedroom and a night of sleep. Upon arising at 6:30 a.m. and noticing the unidentified youth was gone, she called the police. Evidently the lady had learned in the wisdom of her years that most things that worry a person can wait until morning. It does, however, require a bit of nerve.

A Wayne State College student trying to get things squared away for classes two weeks ago suddenly realized he had lost a $100 bill. He notified police of the loss.

Meanwhile, Judy Longe, a WSC senior, had quite a surprise when she found a $100 bill laying on the floor of the college bookstore where she holds a parttime job. Judy said she first thought it was play money, but recognized it as genuine and put it into an envelope for safekeeping until claimed.

After 36 hours later the bill and its owner were reunited. A student's sad experience had a happy ending all because of Judy's honesty and we think she deserves a special tribute for it.

In a world filled with all too many people who would have pocketed the money and said nothing about finding it, how refreshing it is to see the jewel of honesty sparkle again. Great going!

Gremlins seem to have a way of always getting into a newspaper's print shop with a result that can often bring laughter. Articles in The Wayne Herald are proof read several different times before they are put on the press, but it seems that no matter how hard we try, we slip up more often than we should. One of the proof readers recently burst into laughter and kept the following statement from going to press in a wedding story: "Mrs. were a turquoise knot with an orchid corsage." Dear Editor: I would just like to make a prediction in regards to the parking resolutions that will be coming up Tuesday night at the council meeting. The council will adopt the recommendation of the planning commission which will be the 2 a.m. to 5 a.m. resolution. After all, they spent a lot of time setting it up with the aid of our Chief of Police and a couple of councilmen.

This is the resolution they adopted to the satisfaction of a few councilmen and our Chief. The vast majority of our people are not being considered or represented. If you recall, the council turned down flat the recommendation of the planning commission the first time because they made the mistake of going against this group and finding in favor of the people that are affected.

The planning commission made an about turn after they received a letter from these people who are supposed to be

Saturday afternoon wedding of Rosemary Donohoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Donohoe, Norfolk, to Gary Johnson, Hoskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward J. Johnson, Hoskins, father La-Touche, Norfolk, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Marie Rank, Norfolk, sang "The Lord's Prayer," "Ave Maria" and "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Sister Cecilia, Norfolk.

Given in marriage by her father the bride appeared in an empire styled gown of floor-length lace accented pail, fashioned with portrait neckline, bishop sleeves and chapel length train caught to the back waist. Her waist length veil fell from the edge of a lace daisy cap, and she carried a cascade of pink baby roses, centered by a lavender cattleya orchid.

Maid of honor was Patti Tavenner, Lincoln, and bridesmaids were Marlene Hunkle and Marjorie Schoch, both of Norfolk. They were gowned identically in floor-length fashions of purple French lace and orchid Saraka cloth, styled with high necklines, long, full cuffed sleeves and ribbon-accented waistlines. Puff veils were caught to their caps of purple flowers, and they carried colonial bouquets of light and dark lavender pompons.

Flowergirl Maelyn Willers, Hoskins, was dressed similarly to the bridesmaids. Ringbearer was Brent Pohlman, Norfolk.

Kevin Johnson, Hoskins, served his brother as best man and groomsmen were Dick Gries and Bob Smith, both of Norfolk. Tim O'Connell, O'Neill, and Terry Progren, Denver, ushered. The men wore white dinner jackets with black tuxedo trousers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Donohoe chose a purple knit dress with multi-colored the accent at the neckline. Mrs. Johnson wore a green knit with purple trim. Both had gossamer of pink baby rose buds.

Serving as hosts for the reception for 275 guests held at Burns Hall, Norfolk, following the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Piper, Norfolk. Mrs. Dick Gries, Norfolk, registered guests and Betty Mullen, Linda Praeger and Gary Pat Francis, all of Norfolk, arranged gifts. Mrs. Martin Kliggler and Mrs. Ed Reibwisch, Norfolk, cut and served the cake and Mrs. Eugene Donohoe, Fremont, poured. Mrs. Dave Soverini, Lincoln, and Gloria Whitner, Norfolk, served punch. Waitresses were Vicky Slaver, Pierce, and Joette Piper, Norfolk.

For her going away ensemble the bride chose a blazon-front pink knit with puff sleeves. The couple took a wedding trip to Spencer, Iowa, to the Clay County Fair and Lake Okoboji, and will make their home at 1006 S. 8th, Norfolk.

The bridegroom, a 1965 Winside High School graduate, attended Northeastern Nebraska College in Norfolk two years and is a 1970 graduate of Kearney State College. He is employed as a manager/trainee at Sherwood Medical Industries, Norfolk. The bride, a 1968 graduate of Norfolk Catholic High School, is a two-year graduate of Northeastern Nebraska College, Norfolk, and is employed by North-western Bell Telephone Company, Norfolk.

Devils Score 18-6 Win Over Wisner-Pilger in 'Bruiser'

by Jack Manske

A broken pass play, a blocked punt and a series of key defensive maneuvers paved the way to Wayne High's second gridiron win of the season Friday night, an 18-6 decision over Wisner-Pilger.

The hard-hitting contest, pitting two Husker Conference powerhouses (Wayne from the west division, Wisner-Pilger from the east), was played on Wayne State's Memorial Field.

Three turnovers following Wisner-Pilger's opening kickoff, the Blue Devils were on the scoreboard via a 67-yard run by quarterback Mike Creighton. The touchdown came on a first down pass play when Creighton, a 154-pound senior, scampered down the east sideline after failing to spot an open receiver. The PAT was attempted from Creighton to Don Maud failed, but Coach Allen Hansen's griders savored a 6-0 advantage over the highly respected Gator crew with 6:32 remaining in the first quarter.

Wayne's next break came near the end of the first stanza when Wisner-Pilger suffered a blocked punt on its own 22 yard line at the hands of junior guard Ken Frahm. Four plays later, with only 30 seconds expired in the second period, Creighton hit Lonnie Billoft in the end zone on a fourth and eight aerial from the 20. Again the extra point attempt failed, but the Blue Devils' lead was increased to 12-0.

Then the Gators, hampered by injuries which sent seven starters to the sideline, displayed the aggressive power which puts them in contention for top honors in the eastern division of the Husker Conference. One turnover following Wayne's kickoff, Wisner-Pilger blocked Steve Berning's punt at his own 16 and downed it at the three yard line. From there it was a simple matter for Warren Stork, a highly respected 205-pound senior fullback, to plunge off right tackle for the score. The conversion attempt failed, but with 7:20 left in the first half the Blue Devils' advantage was cut to 12-6.

Neither squad posed a serious scoring threat for the remainder of the half, but Wayne was backed

Benefit Game Slated

The annual benefit football game for crippled children at Sioux City is scheduled for Saturday.

The game will pit the Morningside Chiefs against the Augustana Vikings and will be played in Roberts Stadium at 7:30 p.m. Pre-game ceremonies and the show will start at 7.

Tickets, which can be purchased from all Abu Bekr Shriners in Sioux City and the sporting goods stores, will sell for $1. Tickets at the door will sell for $3.

All proceeds from the annual event go to the Shriners Crippled Children's Hospital in Minneapolis, Minn.

yards to the goal line following Wisner-Pilger's unsuccessful fourth and 20 screen pass attempt. Again Billoft assumed the honors, sprinting around right end from seven yards out with 2:21 left in the game. Lynn Gunderson's PAT veered to the left, but Wayne's 18-6 lead remained intact for the rest of the evening.

Prior to the Blue Devils' final TD, Wisner-Pilger was repeatedly stymied by timely WHS maneuvers. For example:

—Bill Fletcher's pass interception at his own 20 when the Gators enjoyed a first and 10 situation at the start of the second half.

—A roughing-the-passer penalty after Creighton's aerial, on a third and seven play, was picked off and returned to Wayne's 14 late in the third stanza.

—Mike Creighton's interception of a W-P pass at his 40 midway through the fourth quarter.

Creighton was the Blue Devils' leading ground gainer, carrying the ball 20 times for 107 yards. Lonnie Billoft followed with 38 yards in eight carries. Billoft also snared two aerials for 19 yards.

Don Maud led Wayne's defensive unit with eight tackles and four assists. He was joined by Charles Weible (7-7), Bill Fletcher (6-4), Lynn Gunderson (5-6), Ken Frahm (4-4), Chuck Kudrna (4-3), Dave Johnson (4-1) and Steve Kamish (2-1).

The Blue Devils will travel to Neligh next Friday night. After that they will host Stanton (coming) on Oct. 2 before journeying to Plainview on Oct. 9.

Winside Reserves at Hartington Tonight

Winside High School's reserve football squad will open its season today (Monday) against Hartington's B squad.

The game is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the Hartington field. The Wildcats, under the direction of Harold Simpson, brings an undefeated record into the 1970 gridiron season.

Nappin' Trojans Ripped, 26-12

A spread formation caught Coach Lyle Trullinger's Wakefield Trojans napping Friday night, allowing Emerson-Hubbard to down the Trojans, 26-12.

The formation, used effectively for passing plays, accounted for three of the four Emerson touchdowns.

Emerson opened their attack early in the ball game, scoring two touchdowns in the first quarter. Both of the Pirate tallies came on the effective pass play combination of Allen Moody to Ron Carder. The scoring came on passes of 46 and 23 yards.

The Trojans, who dominated the rushing aspect of the contest, contained the Emerson-Hubbard team in the second quarter, with the score remaining 14-0 when the halftime gun sounded.

Pass plays added six more points to each team's scorebook. The passing team of Kevin Peters and Dave Scheel accounted for the Trojan TD on a play from 22 yards out. The Pirates coupled quarterback Moody with Terry Von Seggern for a 71-yard bomb and six points. Both teams' attempts for bonus points failed.

The fourth quarter saw the Emerson eleven score on another long scoring play. Their final six points came when Moody intercepted a pass by Doug Seidburg, freshman quarterback for the Trojans. The interception was good for 70 yards and six points for the Pirates.

Wakefield's final six points were by Kevin Peters, scoring on a 20-yard run that topped off a sustained march up the field. Kevin Peters was the offensive standout for the Trojans, carrying the ball 15 times for a total of 146 yards. Kirk Gardner and Jerry Nicholson were also elected for the offensive efforts, Gardner carrying 11 times for 95 yards, with Nicholson adding 59 yards in three carries. Gardner and Nicholson were also credited with leading the Wakefield defensive attack.

Trullinger's Trojans edged out

Wakefield	0	0	6	6	12
Emerson-Hubb	14	0	6	6	26

Emerson-Hubbard in the first down department, chalking up 14, compared to 10 for the Pirates. Twelve of the Trojan first downs were racked up on the ground, with two more gained through penalties. Emerson passed for six first downs and added their other four on the ground.

The teams were reasonably even in total yardage with Emerson gaining a total of 426 yards, compared by 344 yards for Wakefield. The Trojans completely dominated the rushing game, racking up 322 yards. The heavier Pirate team was able to move the ball only 61 yards

Wanted: NU - Army Fans

A few tickets are still available for anybody wishing to attend the University of Nebraska-Army football game on the bus chartered by the Wayne Lions Club.

As of late last week about thirty fans had signed up for the trip to Lincoln. The bus holds 38 people.

Anybody wishing to take in the football game, slated for this coming Saturday, should contact John Vakoc at 375-3091 as soon as possible. Cost of the trip, including bus trip and admission to the game, is $12 for each person.

The trip is a new venture on the part of the local service group. If it proves successful, more than one bus trip may be planned next football season.

Better ideas make better cars. THE 1971 MERCURYS.

Bramer: I Hope We Saved Some Scores

There's little doubt now about Laurel's strength on the football field. Not after Friday night's 62-0 blanking of West Husker foe Neligh.

The victory, which topped off Laurel's 1970 Homecoming celebrations, came from an awesome offensive attack which produced eight touchdowns—five of them in the first quarter. Needless to say, the Bears dominated the works, blasting to a three-touchdown lead on their first three offensive plays.

But that victory, the second easy one in a row for Laurel, is certainly no prelude to this Friday night's contest at Pierce.

Laurel	14	6	6	6	6	62

fine running backs, said Vince Bramer, Laurel mentor.

Said Bramer, "I just hope we saved some touchdowns for Friday night."

A quick look at Laurel's scoring attack in Friday's runaway:

First Quarter: —54-yard pass from Steve Erwin to Jerry Sarha on second play after taking opening kick-off. Erwin ran for the point after.

—32-yard run by Erwin after Laurel recovered Neligh's fumble of the kickoff; Erwin passed to George Schroeder for the PAT.

—60-yard punt return by Jerry Sarha; Erwin ran for PAT. —47-yard pass from Erwin to Sarha; Steve Smith ran for PAT.

—27-yard run by Steve Burns. Erwin ran for PAT.

Second Quarter: —6-yard return by Bill Dalton of a punt blocked by Paul McCoy; no PAT.

Third Quarter: —17-yard pass from Erwin to Smith; Erwin ran for PAT.

Fourth Quarter: —60-yard run by Sarha; Erwin ran for PAT.

Laurel's Sarha garnered the most yardage during the night, scratching out 86 yards in five carries. Burns had 58 yards in eight carries, Smith had 38 in six.

Leading pass receivers for Laurel: Sarha, two for 101 yards; Smith, two for 29; McCoy, two for 19; Schroeder, two for 18.

Defensive stars for the winners included McCoy with four tackles, five assists and a blocked punt; Schroeder with five tackles and one assist; Smith with five tackles and an intercepted pass, and Regg Swanson with two tackles, two assists and a fumble recovery. Jim Kirchner had the other fumble recovery for Laurel and Sarha racked up a aerial theft.

schools, substantiating their high NMSQT performance on a second examination, and providing information about their achievements and interests.

About 96 per cent of the semifinalists are expected to become finalists, and each will be considered for one of the 1,000 National Merit $1,000 scholarships which are allocated by state. Many will also be considered for the renewable four-year Merit Scholarships provided by some 500 corporations, upon enrollment as full-time students in accredited colleges or universities.

High school grades, accomplishments, leadership qualities and extracurricular activities of the finalists are evaluated, along with test scores, in selecting Merit Scholarship winners.

NMSC identifies the semifinalists to all regionally accredited colleges and universities and to certain scholarship-granting agencies and other sources of financial aid. Studies in former years have shown that about half of the semifinalists received financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program.

Names of the winners in the 1970-71 Merit Scholarship Program will be announced in the spring of 1971. Some 24,800 students have received Merit Scholarships in the 15 annual programs to date. About $74 million in financial assistance to Merit scholars and their colleges has been expended or committed through the Merit Program.

Business Notes

A Wayne couple, Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCright, were among 24 Nebraska, Iowa, Colorado, Missouri and South Dakota residents to attend the Gooch Feed Sales and Nutrition Training Seminar recently. McCright is the Gooch territory manager located at Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schrader, owners and operators of the Gooch feed dealership in Wayne and South Sioux City, were the official hosts to the people attending.

Calf growing rations formulated through the use of energy values were given major attention the first day of the two-day seminar. Schrader gave a demonstration of a tractor-powered portable grind and mix unit the second day.

A tour on the Missouri River aboard an excursion launch highlighted the program for the wives.

Off-Campus Students Now Have Own Niche

Wayne State students living off campus now have their own place on campus - labeled the Off-Campus Corner and located in the southeast corner of the Student Center ground floor. Janet Hassbrook, left, and Mary Shier, center, both of Wayne, and Cheryl Bessy, Omaha, are among organizers of the idea to form a club for off-campus students. Mrs. Vivienne Brady, associate dean of students, said the corner, equipped with a bulletin board for notices, should be a gathering point for those who do not live in dormitories or fraternity or sorority houses.

Education Association To Meet Wednesday

The Wayne County Education Association will hold its organizational meeting Wednesday night at Winside Public School. The association, made up of elementary and secondary teachers from Winside, will appoint committees and set meeting dates for the coming year.

Business Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Linafelter returned to Allen Wednesday night after spending three days at the National Association of Life Underwriters convention in Minnesota. The convention, which permitted the Linafelters to attend the Twins-Angels baseball game.

Traffic As Usual

Traffic will be routed as usual over about four miles of county roads northwest of Hubbard during installation of guard rails. The project, being engineered by J. L. Lowe of Wayne, calls for 350 linear feet of rails to be located beginning 2.5 miles northwest of Hubbard and thence 1.7 miles west.

Local Students to Attend Convention

On Saturday, Sept. 26, 200 high schools from various parts of Nebraska will send students to the Wisner-Pilger High School in Wisner for the sixth annual northeast division Nebraska Association of Student Librarians convention and workshop. The students in attendance will be aspiring young librarians and audio-visual workers.

The association, the first of its type for high school library assistants in the state, is sponsored by the Nebraska Educational Media Association.

On hand at the convention will be five Wayne students, including Tom McDermott, the organization's president and editor of its quarterly newsletter, and Jana Reg, the secretary-news reporter. The other three students from Wayne (High attending will be Charlene Frances, Leah Mooman and Donna Doescher.

Highlight of the convention will be a talk given in the afternoon by Marlon Marsh Brown, nationally known author of teenage novels and other books.

Four morning sessions will comprise a workshop for the students in both library and audio-visual skills. The seminars are: controversial books and their placement in the library, student produced films, book repair and library videos.

Mrs. Beverly Merriman, librarian at Wayne High, will show films made by students in her special class. Nancy Wert, a senior at Wayne State, will demonstrate book repair techniques.

Other activities include the showing of a contemporary library film.

All high school and junior high school students are invited to attend. The afternoon session with Marlon Marsh Brown will be open to the public, but a small admission charge will be made.

Instructor at WSC Attends Conference

William Hagerman of Wayne State College, instructional television coordinator for the Nebraska Educational Television Council for Higher Education, Inc. (NETCHE), attended an annual NETCHE-TV coordinators conference at the Nebraska Center in Lincoln last week.

NETCHE is a non-profit corporation of public and private schools who offer supplementary and credit course aid in Nebraska colleges and universities via the Nebraska Educational Television Network.

BIG is the only way to describe the Grand Champion Steer of the Wayne County calf sale Thursday night. Ed Bull of Wayne showed the animal, a Charolais weighing 1,565 pounds.

KEVIN DAVIS of Carroll showed this Hereford to Grand Champion honors in the heifer division in Thursday's county calf sale at Wayne.

Farm Management Help Possible

Farmers in Wayne County next year might be receiving help in making decisions affecting the organization of their farms, according to Harold Ingalls, extension agent.

A Farm Management and Analysis Program organized by the farmers themselves would assist the farmer with records, give a business analysis and provide on the farm counsel on management problems, says Ingalls.

Wisner Farmer Cited for Work

Herbert W. Albers Sr. of Wisner has been cited for leadership in livestock feeders' activities by a state organization.

Albers is one of six Nebraskans named to receive the 13th annual Ak-Sar-Ben Agricultural Achievement Award for outstanding work in various phases of agricultural development. The recipients were named last week by Frank P. Fogarty, president of Ak-Sar-Ben.

The six recipients will receive walnut and bronze plaques at a special dinner at Ak-Sar-Ben Field in Omaha on Monday, Sept. 28. They will then be guests at the Ak-Sar-Ben World Championship Rodeo, which is staged in conjunction with the livestock show from Sept. 25 through Oct. 3.

Candidates for the awards were nominated by a panel of farmers, ranchers, agricultural journalists and radio-TV farm editors who are in constant touch with the Nebraska farm and ranch people.

WH Students Attend Workshop on Annuals

Five Wayne High students attended an all-day workshop Saturday at Concordia College at Seward for students working on high school annuals.

Attending the workshop were Debbie Kerl, Leah Moomaw, Jill Fletcher, Penny Rees and Randall Miller. Miss Kerl is editor for the Wayne High annual this year. Also making the trip was Bob Porter, sponsor again this year.

Included in the workshop was information on photography, writing and laying out pages.
