School Funds to Be Affected By Court Appeal

Nine area schools will continue to face an economic squeeze this school year due to late developments in the matter of securing non-resident tuition funds.

Sixteen taxpayers signed and filed in Wayne County District Court Friday a notice of intention to appeal to that court the order of the Wayne County Board of Equalization levying taxes for the current year.

Those signing the notice of appeal also posted a $2,000 appeal bond. Signers were Frederick H. Mann, Cornelius Leonard, Roland Victor, L. E. Hugelmann, Merlín Heinrich, John Heinemann, Robert Thomson, Bernard Kinney, Leslie Youngmeyer, Bernard Barelman, Julius Baler, Dean Sorenson, Gerald Crane, Glenn Loberg, Lester Menke and William Hanson.

Mann explained Saturday, "We are not objecting to the actual per pupil cost, but to the method by which that cost is determined. We feel that cost legislation should have set some guidelines as to how the actual per-pupil cost was to be set."

Mann pointed out, "We feel we are not getting benefit of the state aid money as far as our non-resident students are concerned." The Wayne County farmer said he feels that the schools, when determining their per-pupil costs, have not allowed for state and federal aid received.

Each student is credited with so much money, as state aid funds are paid out on a per-pupil basis, Mann explained, "We feel when schools go to determine the non-resident tuition per pupil, the amount of aid received by the schools for each pupil should be taken into consideration." If the student was not attending the school, the school would not receive the aid for that pupil, he noted, continuing, "The aid seems to follow the student."

"Since the legislature failed to set guidelines for determining per-pupil cost, we hope the courts will. This is the whole reason for going to court," Mann explained.

District Judge Merritt L. Warren ruled earlier in last year's suit questioning the legality of the 65 per cent of the non-resident tuition money tied up by the law suit should be released so schools could continue educating the high school students attending from outside the taxing district. That suit relating to establishment of non-resident tuition rates at actual cost per pupil is now being appealed to the Nebraska Supreme Court.

After the intention to appeal the 1970 tax assessment was filed Friday, Leona Bahde, treasurer of Wayne County, noted, "There is not enough money in the funds to pay the balance of the 65 per cent going to the schools last year."

Partial payment of non-resident tuition was made by the county to nine area schools early in July. Payments amounted to 34 per cent of the 65 per cent, since the county was short of funds. Treasurer Bahde said she had thought there would be sufficient funds available at the end of September to pay the balance of the 65 per cent released to the schools, but said Friday there was not enough money to '90 so. The treasurer cannot release any of the 35 per cent of the tuition funds as a result of the judge's ruling.

Carroll Men See State Engineer

Three Carroll businessmen went to Lincoln Sept. 24 to confer with Marvin Nuernberger, state engineer, concerning area road improvements.

Phil Olson, Fred Gildersleeve and John Rehwisch visited with Nuernberger about the condition of Highway 57 north of Carroll and about plans the state has made for the highway in the future.

Olson said upon returning that he feels there is a great need for improving Highway 57 as it is used heavily for marketing livestock.

Fire Patrol Classes Set

Members of the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department have scheduled another series of Junior Fire Patrol classes which will meet on Monday evening of each month for eight months at the fire hall. The local firemen offer the class to all fifth grade pupils each year.

Cochairmen in charge of the 1970-71 program are Harvey Brasch, Paul Koplin, Clete Sharer and Bill Kugler.

The first class will meet Oct. 12 at 7 p.m. to study fire inspection. Instructors will be Clete Sharer, Harvey Brasch and Bill Kugler.

Speeding Is Costly

Fines for speeding were paid by five persons appearing before Judge Luverna Hillton in the Wayne County Court Wednesday through Friday.

Boosters Meet Set

All parents of music students in the Wayne Carroll school system are being urged to attend the meeting of the Wayne High School Music Boosters Monday night.

The meeting, the first one of the new school year, is scheduled for eight o'clock at the high school lecture hall.

Wakefield Youth Gets Scholarship

Robert V. Johnson, son of Rev. and Mrs. Robert V. Johnson of Wakefield, has been granted a $300 Lutheran Youth Leadership award by Lutheran Brotherhood, Minneapolis-based fraternal insurance society.

The award is one of over 150 being presented by Lutheran Brotherhood to 1970 high school graduates enrolling at Lutheran colleges as part of its extensive support of Lutheran higher education in the United States and Canada. Recipients are selected on the basis of leadership in school and church activities and financial need.

Area School Officials Meet at Morningside

School superintendents from northeast Nebraska will converge at Morningside College in Sioux City for the annual meeting of school officials. Superintendents from northwest Iowa, southwest Minnesota and southeast South Dakota will also be present.

Wanted: Ticket Buyers

Members of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce will hit the streets next week in order to sell tickets for the coming tourism clinic.

The clinic, scheduled for the Wayne High School lecture hall at 7:30 on Wednesday, Oct. 14, is designed to give people in business in the area a chance to offer suggestions on how Wayne could attract more tourists.

Heading up the ticket selling will be Bob Merchant, Lee Wortman and Floyd Bracken, Chamber secretary. Selling tickets will be Les Latt, Claude Harder, Lee Tietgen, Roger Nelson, Max Landstrom, Bob Lund and Don Mangers. The tickets will sell for 50 cents.

Charles Chace, executive secretary of the Nebraska Petroleum Council, will give

Students Commended On Test Performance

Letters of Commendation honoring them for their high performance on the 1970 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (NMQT) have been awarded to two students at Wayne High School. Principal Deryl Lawrence has announced.

The commended students are Jane E. Owens, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Orvid Owens; and George C. John, son of Dr. and Mrs. George L. John, all of Wayne.

They are among 35,000 students in the United States who scored in the upper two per cent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1971. Commended students rank just below the 14,500 Semifinalists announced in September by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC).

Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC, said: "Although Commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship competition, their standing in this nationwide program deserves public recognition. Their high performance on the NMQT gives promise of continued success in college."

Scout Troop 176 Held at Laurel

Laurel Boy Scout Troop 176 held a court of honor Tuesday at the Laurel Auditorium for the presentation of awards earned during July at Camp Eagle near Fremont.

Colors were presented by the troop and the Rev. Douglas Post spoke on the scouting program and the God and Country Award.

Porkers to Meet Nov. 11

The Northeast Nebraska Pork Producers Association's annual pork banquet will be held at the Wayne State College Student Union on Sunday evening, Nov. 1, at 7 o'clock.

The after dinner speaker for the banquet this year will be Stan Scheelkopf, manager of Cornhusker Farms at Shickley. Cornhusker Farms are known throughout the country for the volume and quality of purebred SPI breeding stock they produce.

Leader Club To Organize

An organizational meeting for a county-wide 4-H junior leader club has been slated in the courtroom in the Wayne County Courthouse at eight o'clock Tuesday night.

Harold Ingalls, agriculture agent, said "We haven't had an active junior leader club on a county-wide basis and hope to get one started."

Rev. Peterson Named Ministerial President

Rev. Doniver Peterson was named president and Rev. C. Paul Russell was named secretary of the Wayne Ministerial Association during the group's meeting last week.

A lengthy discussion was held during the meeting about the alleged discrimination against four Indian youths by Wayne police a year ago.

Taking part in the discussion were Don Weible, Wayne County sheriff; S. C. Thompson, Weible's deputy; Melvin Lamb, city policeman; Rev. Homer Neley, Norfolk minister, and one of the Indian youths.

The local ministers and police officers felt after the discussion that there was no discrimination in the incident, according to Rev. Peterson.

W. C. Coryell Dies Thursday

William C. Coryell, 83, died in Wayne Thursday. Funeral services for the well known Wayne businessman will be held today (Monday) at 2 p.m. at the Wittke Chapel in Wayne.

Evaluation Meeting Planned at Winside

A member of the State Department of Education plans to be in Winside Thursday to address about 50 people from the Winside community and school concerning the carrying out of the school's self-evaluation program this year.

Ron Kramer, principal, said Ralph Gray, Lincoln, will meet with members of the eight self-evaluation committees at 8 p.m. Thursday in the school gymnasium.

Purpose of the orientation meeting, Kramer said, was to see EVALUATION, page 8

'Salmonella Can Be Guarded Against'

Salmonella—a word that has gained notoriety in northeast Nebraska recently—can be guarded against by proper precautions, advises Gladys Stout, area extension home economist at the University of Nebraska Northeast Station near Concord.

The disease, which causes sickness to a great number of people in the area after they ate infected food at a South Sioux City restaurant, is caused by bacteria in food. When food with these bacteria are eaten, the bacteria live and grow in the intestinal tract, causing diarrhea, abdominal cramps, vomiting, chills and fever.

Says the home economist, "Sanitation is the best prevention."

Sanitation involves care to wash hands after going to the toilet or after handling pets, common carriers of the bacteria.

Also frequently spreading the disease are mice, rats, birds, flies, cockroaches and turtles. These pests should be eliminated in an effort to avoid contact or spreading salmonella, says Mrs. Stout.

The bacteria which cause the disease actually spread in a continuous cycle, from animal to man, man to man and man to animal.

They can be picked up by food at any time during the various stages of production, processing, storage or preparation for human or animal consumption. Making detection difficult is the fact that infected foods give off

Radios in School Buses?

Would you ever say your telephone is too expensive, or is its use inexpensive when you consider the outlets it provides? Most of us seldom consider the phone as an expense, but rather an instrument that may not only save money but may also save a life. It is the same with two-way radios.

How important is good communication in the everyday world? Is it important enough and inexpensive enough to be used to protect the lives of children riding school buses?

Many schools are realizing the importance of installing two-way radios in their buses.

Two-way citizen-band radios provide communication between the school and its buses or between buses. Schools having the radios have found it extremely convenient for bus drivers to be able to communicate when two or more buses are taken to a football game, basketball game, or some other type of outing.

One school in northeast Nebraska is presently securing radios for its buses after one bus loaded with children of all ages was stuck on a muddy road for more than half of a school day. The driver walked to a farm house but the telephone lines were not operative as the result of an earlier storm. A two-way radio would have solved the problem.

A bus having mechanical trouble, mud or snow trouble, or one involved in an accident, or coming upon an accident, would have fewer problems if the driver could reach for the radio and contact help.

At one time it was considered telephones were too expensive, but most everyone now has at least one because of their value. Two-way radios could easily save many hours of time or a precious life. For no more than they cost over a period of time, wouldn't it be a good idea to have them in all school buses? — MMW.

Fire Prevention Week

Fire can be a servant or monster. Lives are lost daily in fires that "accidentally" started. Recent fires along the coast in California wiped out families, and all they owned, as well as hundreds of acres of wooded area.

If you have never had a fire or reason to call upon the local fire department to help you save your home, garage, barn, car or some other possession, then you can only imagine what such a loss would mean. Those who have been through the experience of having a fire want no more of it and take immediate precautions against any further blazes.

Why wait until you have to endure losses through a fire before being convinced of how important it is to take daily precautions against disaster?

Oct. 4-10 has been designated on a national basis as Fire Prevention Week. Our local firemen had not been called to a fire for over a month, but did answer a call Friday afternoon.

Is it possible that by everyone becoming aware of potential danger and by using extreme caution that local record books can be kept free of fire calls for at least another month? It is possible, but will everyone be that careful?

Fire can easily start since we all goof. If we are all cautious, however, a new record could be in the making. — MMW.

The manager of any business firm must crack down on employees occasionally or else find he is paying people who do little work. The following notice appeared above the time clock in our newspaper office.

TO: All Employees
FROM: Personnel Department
RE: Absenteeism

It has been brought to the attention of Management that the attendance record of our company is a disgrace. It has now become necessary to revise some of our policies. The following changes are effective immediately:

SICKNESS: No excuse — we will no longer accept your doctor's statement as proof as we believe that if you are able to go to the doctor, you are able to come to work.

DEATH: (Other than your own). This is no excuse — there is nothing you can do for the deceased, and we are sure that someone with a lesser number of obligations can attend to the arrangements. However, if the funeral can be held late in the afternoon, we will be glad to let you off one hour early; providing that your work is sufficiently ahead so that you won't inconvenience other employees by your absence.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE: (For an operation). We are no longer allowing this practice. We wish to discourage any thought that you may need an operation since we believe that as long as you are an employee here, you will need all of whatever you have, and you should not consider having anything removed. We hired you as you are, and to have anything removed would certainly make you less than we bargained for.

DEATH: (Your own). This will be accepted as an excuse, but we would like two weeks notice as we feel it is your duty to teach someone else your job.

Also, entirely too much time is being spent in the restrooms. In the future, we will follow the practice of going in alphabetical order. For instance, those whose names begin with "A" will go from 8:00 to 8:15; "B" will go from 8:15 to 8:30, and so on. If you are unable to go at your time, it will be necessary to wait until the next day when your time comes around again.

Signed: Personnel Director

How would you like to work for a boss like that? The whole thing was in jest of course and brightened up a rainy day.

Northwest Nebraska must be one of the most beautiful places in the state during autumn, as the entire area appears to be one vast panorama of magnificent color. Autumn is the favorite season for many. Living in an area where we get a taste of all four seasons is a good bargain in life. There is something special about fall weather that is just like a good

AIR POLLUTION:

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM? WHAT DOES IT DO?

Air Pollutant	Percent of Total Pollutants Produced Per Year	Where It Comes From	What It Does to Humans
carbon monoxide	52%	buses, trucks, cars, etc.	Produces headaches, dizziness. Slows reaction time (at heavy traffic levels).
sulfur oxides and nitrogen oxides	18%	industry, incinerators, waste-burning, power plants	Irritate eyes, nose, throat. Produce brown haze that shuts out sunlight, endangers airplane take-offs and landings. Where levels of these oxides are high, levels of lung and throat diseases are high.
hydrocarbons	12%	buses, trucks, cars, etc.	In cigarette smoke, may cause cancer.
particulates	10%	smoke, dust and soot particles in the air	Over the years, some particulates have a slow poisoning effect.
photochemical smog	included among other pollutants	oxides produced when sunlight acts on gases and particles	Makes eyes and throats sting. Makes breathing hard, especially for people who have bronchitis and other lung and throat diseases.

* An estimated 125 to 300 million tons of air pollutants are produced in the U.S.A. yearly. (The 2% not included above are miscellaneous gases.)

As you grow older, does it ever seem to you that you are tearing last month's page off the calendar at a much more rapid rate? As we went to town of September, it hardly seemed but a few days ago when August ended in the wastebasket — the calendar page, that is. Here it is Oct. 5 already and in about four short weeks it will be time to re-set those clocks back an hour to regular time.

You folk who have not as yet taken advantage of seeing one of the free star shows at the Wayne State College planetarium should by all means give your family a treat and take them to see the present program, "The Moon: Our Neighbor in Space."

Have you ever been in a planetarium? If not, then you have a thrill coming. You may sit in a comfortable seat and watch the huge dome-shaped screen overhead take on the likeness of the night sky. Sixteen speakers bring stereo music to your ears while you relax and listen to Carl Rump, planetarium director, verbally take you through space. Present shows open to the public are scheduled each Wednesday evening at 7:30 and 8:30 on Sunday afternoons.

Children under five are not likely to enjoy the program, but the rest of your family certainly will. Here is a tip. Get to the planetarium about 10 minutes early as no one may enter after the show begins due to the nature of the darkened theater.

The planetarium is located in the new Carhart Science Building and may be easily reached through the south door.

Did you get involved at all in one of the area high school homecoming programs Thursday or Friday? We hope you did as it is always a special event with a lot of enthusiasm spent rooting for the old home team. You are aware, of course, that no matter how the college alumni travel to the game, they all end up riding the coach.

Kathryn Hepburn, first Wayne student to study abroad through the Americans Abroad program, writes home to her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hepburn, about many of her interesting experiences in Germany. She recently wrote during a visit in Munster, "We American girls get stared at downtown when we wear our jeans, but we've decided to take advantage of this last time to wear 'grubbers'. Besides, they're warm. By the way, I bleached some clothes blue because I couldn't read the Germany label, and thought I had detergent instead of bleach, and naturally I poured goods of it all over my clothes!"

She added a note to her letter, "P.S. We just had an orientation on washing. Harold (language teacher) said most German families take a shower only once a week on Saturday afternoon. The common notion among Hausfrauen is that washing wears the clothes out. Also dry-cleaning is very expensive."

Kathryn does an excellent job describing some of her adventures. She and a roommate took a 12-mile hike after which she wrote, "Along the Autobahn we saw many entire families out bicycling together — including a white-haired amputee with just one leg. We caused a near traffic jam at one intersection when two carloads of young men (many people thought we were hitchhiking) stopped to offer us a ride. They spoke no English and were very persistent. What a task we had trying to explain to them in our crude German that 'yes, we're tired, but no thanks, we'd like to walk away!' We also met two visitors from Greece who spoke only Greek, but nevertheless invited us to ride into town on the back of their bicycles. It was a real struggle to turn that offer down!"

These experiences about which she writes occurred during an orientation period prior to her going to live with her German family where she is now.

"We had an unusual semi-formal dancing party last Saturday night," she said in one letter, "and the chaperones attempted to teach us the typical German dances used at young peoples' parties here. Would you believe the foxtrot and the Viennese Waltz? Such mass confusion! I've never had my foot so meticulously stepped upon by inept partners as I did that night. The Viennese Waltz is beautiful to see done correctly, but with all the dips and turns, I'm afraid we AFS'ers have a lot of practicing to do."

If you are looking for something to do, jump in the old jalopy and take a drive around the area some time soon. The prairies and farmland are beautiful now. Most of the acres and acres of corn are harvested and you may wonder where and how all that corn is used, but anybody with teenage children finds it difficult to understand how farmers can possibly grow a surplus of food.

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

Two people were killed and another seriously injured in a shooting spree at South Sioux City on Sept. 25.

Dead are Leona McArthur, wife of the accused slayer, and Michael L. Koskovich. Koskovich, 19, was killed when his father tried to wrestle the shotgun away from Robert McArthur after he had apparently shot his wife.

McArthur was moved to the Wayne County Jail shortly after the shooting incident because it is more secure and because there had been threats made against him. He was being held awaiting a hearing on a first-degree murder charge.

The annual Beef Barbecue Day in Wisner has been slated for Sunday, Oct. 11.

New to the program this year will be a slave sale of FFA and FHA members in the Wisner-Pilger school. The sale starts at 7 p.m. The barbecue itself is planned for 4 p.m. at the Wisner city auditorium.

An expert in community growth recently told the Pierce Chamber of Commerce that Pierce should strive to become a "bedroom community." That is, the small town should try to provide the housing for the people who work in Norfolk.

Workers at The Plainview News had a chuckle recently when they noticed that others in the printing business also make mistakes. A news release had been sent them from the University of Nebraska which said, "... they will get an overview of career possibilities in the fairy field." The school actually meant to say the "dairy" field.

Telesilda Velasquez of Ecuador will be the guest of the Charles Puls family at Pender through Oct. 20. She arrived at the Pender home last Friday.

Dear Editor:

I am not one to be iconoclastic or antisocial, but I do believe in the basic concept of law against the institutions that make and enforce those laws. I received two warning notices in three successive nights. The fourth day I was given a summons to appear in court.

I was asked to pay $15. To those who might call this a trifle, I wish you happiness in the future. The elected judge was on vacation, so her secretary presided. Why not the janitor or maybe the postal clerk?

When court began I asked why I received only two warnings while it was customary to receive three. She reported that it was customary but the warnings were only courtesy. It did not matter if I only received one. I was accused of receiving three, but I had substantial evidence that I found two on my car. I was out of the area the day the officer was issued. I can believe that the officer was deluded by the pizza that he normally eats.

"Recently the federal government announced that the Choctaws had been assimilated into the American culture and would no longer be treated as an Indian nation.

"A Sioux and a Choctaw were visiting about it, and the Sioux asked what it meant.

"It means that you're next," said the Choctaw. "They're going to make a white man of you."

The Sioux thought for a moment and then snorted at the idea.

"I'll be damned if they're going to make me wear beads and long hair," he said.

And borrowed from Marlin Waechter's "Pot Shots" column in the Stanton Register:

"They say golf is a game in which the ball lies poorly and the player well."

And from the Oakland Independent and Republican's "Thought of the Week" column:

"They tell us that sewing circles darn more husbands than socks."

is a healthy and pleasant town, but it is turning into a speed trap for pizza-eating police.

Finally, to those who don't know, if you need a policeman after twelve, call Andy's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hyspe, Wakefield, observed their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday by hosting a dinner for 20 out-of-town guests Sunday noon, at the Cornhusker Cafe, followed by an open house for about 300 guests at Salem Lutheran Church. That evening they were guests of honor at a buffet supper at the church parlors, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hugelman, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Eaton,

Honor Mrs. Behmer's 88th Birthday Monday

Mrs. Anna Behmer, Hoskins, was honored Monday afternoon at an open house in her home honoring her 88th birthday. Forty-five guests were present from Norfolk, Wayne, Stanton and Hoskins. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Behmer's daughters, Mrs. Edwin Kollath and Mrs. Edward Schaefer, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Behmer and Mrs. Bill Wilbers. The birthday cake, decorated in yellow and orange, was baked by Mrs. Edwin Brogie.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn Kline, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Sandahl, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sandahl and Mr. and Mrs. James Hyspe, Spencer, Iowa. About 80 attended the supper.

Hosts to the open house reception were the couple's children, Mr. and Mrs. George Inman, Port Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Coburn, Eugene, Ore. Mrs. Edla Collins, who had been attendant at the wedding, registered guests. Mrs. Frances Hyspe arranged gifts.

Mrs. Geneva Griggs baked and decorated the cake and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Hubert Eaton. Mrs. Blanche Erickson, Sioux City, poured, and Mary Ring, Omaha, served punch. Waitresses were Amy Smith, Beth Erickson, Sioux City, and Anita Sandahl, Wayne. Mrs. Lloyd Hugelman was dining room hostess and Circle III women worked in the kitchen.

George Inman, Port Angeles, Wash., was master of ceremonies for the program and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coburn, Eugene, Ore., sang "Beautiful Savior." Mrs. Charles Pierson read an original poem and Paul Briggs, Oshkosh, Ill., spoke, followed by devotions by the Rev. Robert V. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Hyspe were married Sept. 28, 1910 in Salem Lutheran Church, Wakefield, and have lived since in that community. They have two daughters.

Bridal Shower Held

To Honor V. Backers

A miscellaneous bridal shower was held Monday evening in the Marvin Isom home, Carroll, to honor Vera Backers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Backers, Randolph. About 30 guests were present. Hostesses were Mrs. Bob Petersen, Mrs. Martin Hansen and Mrs. Marvin Isom. Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Isom read poems and games were played with prizes being presented the honoree, who with her mother and her fiance's mother, also received corsages.

Miss Backers was to be married this weekend to Ronnie Wacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Wacker.

Shower Held in Wayne Honors Recent Bride

A shower honoring recent bride Mrs. Richard Mulhair, Norfolk, was held last Sunday afternoon at the Wayne Woman's Club rooms. Hostesses were the bride's aunts. About 30 guests were present. Decorations were in pastel colors and penlight games served for entertainment.

Mrs. Richard Mulhair, nee Donna Woodward, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thaine Woodward, Concord. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mulhair, Bristow. The couple were married Sept. 5 in Norfolk, where both are employed.

About thirty relatives and friends gathered in the Alvin Longe home Sunday to observe Linda's birthday. Mrs. H. S. Moses, O'Neill, spent Friday to Wednesday in the J. G. Sweigard and Mrs. Eva Lewis homes and with other area relatives. Norma Dather, Van Nuys, Calif., was an overnight guest Monday in the Jack Brockman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morris entertained at dinner Sunday for Mrs. Wallace Cadwallader, Bayliss, Iowa. Mrs. Lella Bennett and daughters, Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmus Nielsen, Hoskins, who were observing their 55th wedding anniversary, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Janke and daughters, Wayne.

Washington — Mailmen in the United States have difficulty with dogs, but things could be worse, the National Geographic Society says. Egyptian mailmen complain of being ripped by camels, mailmen in Brazil have been bitten by jaguars, a Tongan Island mailman was killed by a shark, and Afghanistan had to suspend rural deliveries a few years ago because leopards ate the mailmen.

Gene Bartlings Marry Sept. 12

Emice Marie Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson, Ponca, became the bride of Gene Bartlings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bartling Jr., Ponca, in Sept. 12 rites at Trinity Lutheran Church, Martinsburg. The Rev. James Brammiller officiated at the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a lace-trimmed satin gown, fashioned with floor length skirt, cuffed long, full sleeves, high rise lace collar and chapel train. Her illusion veil was caught to a petal headpiece and she carried white mums, pink roses and lily.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Earl Johnson, and bridesmaids were Evelyn Johnson, a sister of the bride, and Sally Gensler. All wore floor length gowns of pink crepe and white lace with matching headpieces and carried pink and white mums. Flower girl was Pamela Keoppe, and ringbearer was Bruce Keoppe, Americus, Kan.

Francis (Bitch) Anderson was best man and groomsmen were Jerry Harder and Earl Johnson, brother of the bride. Ushers were Larry and Lynn Stallbaum. The couple are making their home at Jackson after a wedding trip to the Black Hills.

Awards Banquet Held

Bridge tournament winners presented their awards by Bridge Chairman Mrs. Werner Janke last Tuesday evening at the Country Club Women's awards banquet where Mrs. Carl Wright, Mrs. Wilmer Gress, Mrs. F. G. Decker and Mrs. C. F. Maynard. The tournament ended last week. Bridge and rummy were played following the banquet Tuesday with Mrs. Dean Backstrom, Mrs. Dell Stoltenberg, Mrs. Fred Dale and Mrs. Bernice Workman winning. Mrs. Werner Janke received the door prize.

At Sight Conference

Three people from the Wayne-Carroll school system took part in last week's conference for teachers of the visually handicapped at the Nebraska School for the Blind at Nebraska City. Attending the conference were Dick Mettner, principal, and Teachers Etha Fisher and Twila Wiltsie. The conference was held two days. The school system has only a few students with badly impaired vision.

Blue Devils Squeak Past Mustangs, 16-13

by Norvin Hansen

Exceptional efforts by a couple Blue Devils, in about all that stood between them and defeat in Friday's homecoming tilt against Stanton. Wayne ended on top, 16-13.

Junior Lonnie Biltfot, leading rusher and leading tackler, and senior Tony Pflueger were singled out by Coach Allen Hansen after the game for their efforts in the surprisingly tough game. Biltfot, a 155-pound halfback, came up with 96 yards rushing in 14 carries and sparked on defense to the tune of 11 solo tackles, five assists. Said Hansen: "He saved the game in more ways than one."

Pflueger, a quick halfback at 153 pounds, was close behind Biltfot in the rushing department, garnering 66 yards in 12 carries. If the Blue Devils were expecting easy sailing against the Mustangs, they had their eyes abruptly opened. In fact, the Blue Devils had an "easier" time against bigger and reportedly tougher Wisner-Pfleger.

Stanton, fired up by Ron Bunkers, first-year coach for the Mustangs, rode herd over the Devils most of the first quarter, nearly all the third and had mounted a drive in the fourth that penetrated to Wayne's 27 before Wayne took over on downs with just seconds left on the clock.

Two Wayne fumbles and a pass interception by workhorse Doug Podoll gave Stanton the first score in the tight game. The Mustangs took the ball over the goal with 2:30 left to play after covering Wayne's second fumble within six minutes on Wayne's 20.

Wayne had fumbled a Stanton punt earlier after the Devil defense held Stanton on the 40. The aerial theft came shortly after that when Podoll picked off quarterback Mike Creighton's first attempt to go to the air. Podoll took that pass near the 50 and returned it about five yards. Podoll stole another aerial moments later on the Stanton 10 to halt a Wayne drive.

Wayne scored quick in the second period, once with 9:09 to play when Creighton hit Jim Kenny for a TD covering 17 yards and

WSC to Host Thinclad Team

Wayne State College will be host to an invitational cross-country meet Tuesday on the WSC course.

Scheduled to line up for the 3 p.m. start are at least six college teams, from Concordia, Westmar, Southern State, Yanickton, Dana and Wayne.

Wayne already has run duals with two of them, defeating Yanickton and losing to Southern.

The University of South Dakota downed Wayne in a dual at Vermillion Tuesday, 24 to 22. Al Johnson of USD toured the four-mile course in a fast 22:00. The next four came in at close intervals - Paul Eaton, Wayne, in 22:24; Mark Oswald, Wayne, 22:32; Rick Coolignon, USD, 22:34, and Roger Gemor, USD, 22:35.

Trailing them were Ed Kehrwald, USD; Ron Keller, Wayne; Dave Case, USD; John Wright, Wayne; Mike Floyd, USD; Ron Zurovski and Ron Kluck, Wayne.

Coach Leroy Simpson had special praise for Eaton and Oswald - the latter running a minute and a half under its previous best time.

Reign at Wayne High Homecoming

Holly Roggenbach and Mike Creighton were crowned Wayne High queen and king during the pre-game homecoming ceremony Friday night at Wayne State. Crownbearers for the affair were Tonya, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnson of Wayne, and Brad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lipert of Wayne. Runners-up were Marsha Johnson, Liz Otte, Nancy James and Merry Ellis for the queen title and Dick Tietgen, Rich Wall, Tony Pflueger and Rod Cook for the king title.

once with 2:36 left, when Biltfot broke straight through a hole opened by Lynn Gunderson and Charles Weible for a TD covering three yards. Pflueger ran for the first point after and Biltfot caught a pass from Creighton after Podoll - again in where the action was hottest - batted the ball into the air.

Stanton narrowed the score to 16-13 with just 29 seconds left before intermission on a one-yard run by Marland Erbst. The drive started when Hill took Wayne's kick on his 18 and returned it in fine fashion to Wayne's 36 before being hauled down by Jerry Itteg and Gunderson, spoilers of what looked like a possible touchdown.

After being forced to play all of the third period in their own territory, Wayne punted toward the 50 for the only penetration into Mustang country, the locals put together

Buster Leads Sonny's Squad Past Crofton

Buster Yannon took over the Allen Eagles for hospitalized Sonny Retzlaff and guided them to a sparkling 22-6 win over NENAC opponent Crofton Friday night.

Retzlaff was moved to an Omaha hospital from the one in Wayne Thursday night, suffering once again from the ailment which has been bothering him since about the opening of school at Allen High.

But Retzlaff would probably find little to criticize in Friday's showing. The Eagles had the game in their hip pocket almost from the word go after a scoreless first quarter.

Allen will take on Wakefield Tuesday night in the annual square-off before getting another shot at a Lewis and Clark foe. The Eagles host Coleridge Friday night for homecoming.

Going into the game with a 2-1 mark, the Eagles displayed some fine defensive work for the fans in the win over Crofton, holding the visitors to just 151 yards (96 on the ground and 55 in the air). Meanwhile, the Allen skeddaddlers carved out 290 yards on the ground and 87 in the air.

On most of that defensive action were four Eagles - Gary Tansler with seven solo tackles and six assists, Mike Isom with six and seven, Jerry Gelger with four and six, and Kenton Emry with four and four.

Gelger turned in his second straight week of stout defensive play - last week he led his teammates with eight solos, four assists.

After penetrating to the Crofton 15 without scoring in the first period, the hosts came up with a touchdown with about seven minutes gone in the second quarter when junior fullback John Warner went up the gut for five yards to cap an 80-yard drive.

The pass attempt by quarterback Gary Troth failed.

Crofton tied the score at 6-6 three minutes later when Joe Berendsen, a 150-pound senior halfback, went over the goal from perfect balance in the statistics. Wayne had 11 first downs, Stanton 10. Wayne gained 213 total yards (19 in the air and 160 on the ground) and Stanton gained 208 (61 in the air and 147 on the ground).

Wayne will take on Plainview in an away game Friday night. The Blue Devils now hold sole possession of second place in the West Inisher Conference, right behind Laurel.

After the hard winter of 1856-57, food was very scarce in Nebraska. A sack of flour cost from $10 to $15, and potatoes were $5 per bushel. One settler sold a small hog for $45 and bought 80 acres of land.

An early-day sheriff in Dawson County once chained a Union Pacific locomotive to the tracks because the company did not pay county taxes. After his action, the company paid up.

Slashin' Sam 2nd in Rushing

Wayne State's slashing Sam Singleton stood second in rushing among the Nebraska college football players going into Saturday's contest at the University of Nebraska at Omaha.

Singleton had collected a total of 300 yards in 61 carries in two games for the Wildcats, putting him behind Kearney State's John Markovicka. The Kearney runner had 455 yards in 76 carries in three games.

Wayne's quarterback, Marty Goling, was in ninth place in the passing game, collecting 107 yards with his successful aerials. Leading in the air was Chadron's Tim Turman with 27 passes for 558 yards.

Jim Clark, punter for the Wildcats, was among the top in booting, averaging 33.6 yards. Leading that department was Jeff Mollring of Doane with a 38.9 average.

The Wildcats' running game gives them the distinction of gaining four times as much yardage on the ground as in the air. Average yardage gained going into Saturday's tilt: 275. Kearney led in average offense with 416 yards.

Wayne State stood fourth in defense, giving up 267 yards an outing. Top defensive squad in the state was Dana with 211 yards per game.

"Whew!" That might have summed up the feelings of these Blue Devils when they pushed into the endzone for a touchdown in the second quarter against Stanton Friday.

In on the play are Dave Baier (54), Mike Creighton (24), Dick Tietgen (30), Jim Kenny (32) and Tony Pflueger (14).

Homecoming Brings Trojans 34-10 Victory

By Ron Anderson

Coach Lyle Trullinger's Wakefield Trojans finally able to add scoring to statistics Friday night. The Trojan club, coming into their homecoming game with an 0-3 record, handily downed the Ponca Indians, 34-10.

Trullinger enjoyed a good week of practice, plus the added incentive of a homecoming victory, were the right ingredients for the first Trojan win of the season.

Ponca came into the game with a 2-2 record after downing Allen last Friday night by a 30-28 margin.

Ponca	0	0	10	10
Wakefield	6	14	12	2

The Trojan gridlers took early command of the game, moving the ball to the Indian 24-yard line before giving the ball up on downs. A fine defensive effort by the Trojans held Ponca deep in their own territory through a series of downs before Wakefield defensive end Dave Gardner blocked a Ponca punt on the Indian four-yard line.

In control of the ball once again, Wakefield put the first six points of their 34-point total on the scoreboard with a four-yard run by fullback Kirk Gardner. An attempted run for the wounding conversion fell short, leaving the Trojans with a 6-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter saw the first of two touchdown passes by junior end Jerry Nicholson add six more points to the Trojan score. That pass play came from Kevin Peters to Nicholson and covered 35 yards. Kirk Gardner added two points to give the Trojans a 14-0 lead.

A punt from the Indians' end zone to their own 45 gave the Trojans field position for their second touchdown of the second quarter. Quarterback Steve Erwin hit Steve Diederik for the Trojan six-pointer, scoring on an 11-yard run. The point after attempt failed, leaving Wakefield with a commanding 20-0 lead as the halftime gun sounded.

Lee Miner, all-conference halfback for the Trojans, opened the scoring in the second half. A senior, he took the ball over from 15 yards out to stretch the Trojan lead to 26-0.

Cats Cap Homecoming with 40-6 Win

Winside posted a 40-6 win over Walthill to cap homecoming activities Friday night. The win gives the Wildcats a 3-1 season mark going into Friday's home tilt against Ponca.

Having a big hand in that Winside scoring spree was senior Kevin Frevert. The 163-pounder statistics, gaining seven first downs while giving up four and collecting 287 total yards to Walthill's 78.

Walthill	0	0	6	6
Winside	14	14	6	40

Jerry Wacker with 64 yards in a dozen carries and Gaylon Stevens 39 in nine were leading rushers for the winning squad. Top receivers were Kevin Frevert with two receptions for 49 yards and one touchdown and LaRue Langenberg with one reception for a touchdown.

How the scoring went:

Soden on a 55-yard return of a Walthill punt with about 4:15 minutes left in the first period; kick by Frevert.

Jerry Wacker on run from nine yards out with 1:01 left in opening quarter; kick by Frevert.

Soden's pass to Frevert covering eight yards with just over a minute gone in the second period; kick by Frevert.

Stevens on a 49-yard plunge with three minutes before halftime; ditto.

Soden on a sneak of about one yard with about eight minutes gone in the second half; kick by Frevert.

Soden on pass to LaRue Langenberg covering 50 yards; kick by reserves failed.

Walthill hit paydirt with 1:40 left in the game on a pass play.

Winside will get back into divisional competition in the Lewis and Clark Conference a week from Friday night when the Wildcats travel to Handloph, one of the contenders for the divisional title this year. Winside is left in the East L&C Conference.

Again the point-after attempt was short.

Jerry Nicholson added another six points in that same quarter when he teamed up with Bruce Luhr for 16 yards and the touchdown, giving the Trojans a 22-0 lead at the end of three quarters of play.

Acting as the fourth quarter set the final two points for the Trojans come with the tough Wakefield defense blocking an Indian pass attempt in their own end zone.

It was the closing minutes of the ball game before the Indians were able to cross the Trojan goal line. Their scoring came from Don Moore blocked a Trojan punt in the end zone to give them their first two points of the ball game.

The only Ponca touchdown of the game came late in the last quarter when Dennis Hurley, sophomore quarterback, connected with end Steve Diederik on a 15-yard touchdown play. The points after attempt was good, giving them a total of 10 points for the final quarter of play.

Steve Oswald, senior halfback, was cited for his offensive efforts for the Trojans. Oswald carried the ball eight times for a total of 105 yards, one for 62 yards. Nicholson, snaring two touchdowns passes, was also credited with adding the strong Wakefield offense.

Dave Gardner was the defensive workhorse for the Trojans. Playing defensive end, Gardner recovered two Ponca fumbles and blocked an Indian punt.

Offensively for the Ponca eleven, Steve Diederik was in the limelight, snaring four Indian passes for 61 yards.

Trullinger's club will be looking pirated a Plainview aerial and ran it eight yards into the end zone.

Third quarter scoring:

—Smith ran Plainview punt 55 yards for TD; Jerry Sarha ran for PAT.

—Erwin fired a pass to George Schroeder for a 27-yard score; Erwin hit Schroeder for the point after.

—Smith took the ball into the end zone from 12 yards out.

Laurel upped its 48-0 lead by another eight points in the final quarter, striking when Bill Dal-

Some Farmers Getting Notices

Some farmers have complained that they have received, in error, IRS notices proposing penalties for failure to file estimated tax, Richard Vinal, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska, reported last week.

These notices involved situations where taxpayers misinterpreted the proper reporting of farm rental income or where it was questioned whether the return was filed on time.

Vinal said that many of these farmers erroneously reported crop share income as miscellaneous income on Form 1040. The only income to be reported on miscellaneous income schedules, as outlined in IRS instructions, is that in which the taxpayer did not participate materially in the farm.

Under the law, Vinal said, farmers are required either to file an estimated tax return by Jan. 15 or file Form 1040 by a special due date for farmers. The Tax Reform Act of 1969 changed the date for farmers to file timely income tax returns in lieu of estimated tax from Feb. 15 to March 1, in 1970. March 1 was a Sunday so the deadline was extended to March 2.

TV Helps Teach Counselors

If learning by doing is a good technique, then seeing how you did it, by way of television, should be even more effective. So reasoned Dr. Donald G. Merriman as he planned his graduate course in counseling technique this fall at Wayne State College.

He enlisted the help of both the television and the drama departments for his class—in education parlance, this is called interdisciplinary teaching.

Dr. Merriman's plan works this way: A drama student is delegated to act the role of a student with some sort of problem. For a recent class, Jill Lamson, a senior speech major from Neligh, pretended to be a high school graduate perplexed by the question 'should I go to college?'

One by one, members of the counseling class entered the college television studio and took the role of a school guidance counselor to hear Miss Lamson pour out her problem. Students of William Hagerman's television production classes manned the cameras and control console to record the interviews on videotape.

Miss Lamson came to her role-playing session well prepared with questions and dilemmas. "Do you think I can make it in college? ... Well, I'm just an average student. What do I want to be? Oh, I don't really know. I like English, but I don't get along with math at all. I hate math. I was a nurse's aide once, but I don't believe I could be a nurse. ...

"All my girlfriends are going to college, and I don't want to be the only one left. ... My boyfriend's going to college, and I'd like to be with him. I don't know if I could trust him up there. ... No, money's not really a problem. My folks think I should go to college, but I don't know. What do you think, Mr. Jones? Should I?"

After all the counseling students finished talking out the worried role-player's problems, then came the moment of anguish—seeing the videotape playback.

Dr. Merriman peppered the showing with comments like "That's great, you gave her good advice then". "Oops, now you're lecturing. The object is to let the student talk". "Good, let her make the decision."

Miss Lamson also gave her candid reactions to each counselor, sometimes not so gently: "You didn't seem very understanding". "You scared me". "You talked too much about money". "But she handed out praise too: 'I really felt you made me think'. 'Your attitude was warm and friendly.'"

Dr. Merriman has thornier problems scheduled for future interviews, each time with a different drama student acting a role. Among the problems: "My English teacher is picking on me," a high school girl who tells the counselor, "What'll I do? I'm pregnant," an irate parent complains about a teacher, a student asks what's the meaning of life, and a student has bitter hostility toward authority.

All real problems these, Dr. Merriman explains. His purpose is to let each counseling student be in consultation with our attorneys to see what course of action we may be able to take. We are still short money from last year. If the suit puts us in a rather severe position, it-named-falls."

Earlier this summer when the administrator was asked if there were any possibility of the school having to turn away non-resident students due to a lack of tuition money, Haun replied, "If for another year we were unable to collect revenue planned for in the budget, we would have to take a long hard look at the continued acceptance of students who are not paying the cost of their education."

Schools in Pierce, Madison, Cuming, Thurston and Cedar Counties are affected by the suits, for these high schools also educate students who live in Wayne County but outside their own school districts.

Other schools directly affected by the issue are Pierce, Norfolk, Wisner, Pender, Wakefield, Laurel and Randolph.

cope with real-life problems under make-believe conditions—and then see on television how well they counseled.

Charged After Mishap

A charge of driving-while-under the influence of alcoholic liquor was filed in the Wayne County Court last week against a Wayne woman after a two-car collision near the intersection of Third and Logan Streets.

Wednesday afternoon around 1:55, Debra Wolff, Norfolk, was northbound in a 1968 Ford pickup on Logan Street, Wayne police said, and was turning left onto East Third Street. Her vehicle was hit by a 1960 Ford driven by Leona Vrtiska, Wayne. Police reported witnesses testified that the Vrtiska auto failed to stop at the stop sign. Mrs. Vrtiska was charged in county court for driving while under the influence of alcoholic liquor. Her drivers license was revoked for six months and she was fined $100 and court costs of $22.50.

Emela Heller, Wayne, admitted trying to steal $4,400 worth of goods at Saw Mer Drug Wednesday afternoon, according to police. She was charged in Wayne County Court with petit larceny and paid a $15 fine and costs of $5.

Police officers were informed

Wednesday that someone cut a rope and stole the American flag from a pole in the front yard at 720 Logan Street.

Officers investigated two accidents Thursday. A 1959 Ford dumptruck driven by Jerry L. Jacobs, Canton, S.D., stopped at a traffic light at Third and Pearl Streets. Larry J. Meier, Wayne, pulled up and stopped behind the truck, police said. The dumptruck started to back up to allow a third auto into a parallel parking stall and struck the hood of Meier's 1964 Buick.

Around 5:45 p.m., Thursday, police were called to investigate when a 1968 Chevrolet driven by Gladys Stout, Wayne, was backing from a parking stall on Third Street near Main and collided with a 1969 Pontiac driven by Terry Lutt, Wayne. Lutt had stopped for the traffic light to change, according to the police record, when hit by the Stout auto.

Officers were called at 6:15 p.m., Thursday when four college students damaged a house trailer at 703 N Valley Drive. Police said there was damage to the front room rug and the bathroom.

Governor Candidate

Albert C. Walsh, r., American Party candidate for governor of Nebraska, made Wayne one of his campaign stops Tuesday morning. Here, he talks with Rev. Frank Anderson, minister of the First Baptist Church in Wayne, during a walk through the downtown business district. Walsh, 41, is a lawyer in Gretna. Continuing theme in his campaign is his emphasis upon Christianity and morality as necessary at every level of government. His "Christian necessity" platform proposed last week in Omaha during the American Party convention was defeated in favor of one similar to George Wallace's 1969 party platform.

ON CAMERA, Mile Burnett, a graduate student in counseling, interviews Jill Lamson, a drama student acting the role of a high school graduate wondering if she should go to college. Television production class students manning the cameras and sound are, from left, Sharen Gibbons, Ron Fazio and Terry Schomberg.

Railway Commission Hearing Set Tuesday

A public hearing is slated in Wayne for 10:30 a.m. Tuesday concerning whether or not Arrow Stage Lines should be granted their request to permanently drop bus service from Hartington to Pilger, via Wayne.

The State Railway Commission has scheduled the hearing Tuesday morning in the city auditorium, however, the Chamber of Commerce transportation committee has made a request to the Commission asking the hearing be re-scheduled at a later date, according to Floyd Bracken, Chamber manager.

Attorney John Addison said the Chamber committee met with representatives of the Arrow Stage Lines Wednesday evening. The possibility of some type of substitute service using smaller units was discussed.

The bus company made the request to the Commission some time ago to drop the service due to a loss of revenue on the route.

cluding the construction of the new elementary school, remodeling of business firms and homes, and street improvements. Other projects entered in the competition were the addition of a rescue unit and police car, park improvements and the building of a new solid-waste disposal.

A single shrimp may produce more than a million eggs. But most of the billions of larvae spawned each year never reach adulthood. In their early stages, they starve unless food floats to them, and they are food for everything that swims—including older shrimp.

Gardon R. Nelson, right, found out Thursday night that being in a Wayne business at the right time can prove profitable. Nelson's name was called in last week's Cash Night drawing while he was in Little-Bill's. The result was his receiving this check for $200. Presenting him with the check was Martin Meier, bar tender at the business. This week's drawing will be worth $100.

Salmonella - (Continued from page 1) no abnormal odor or flavor. Sickness usually occurs within 18 hours - eight to 72 is the range - after the organisms are taken into the body. The illness is usually not fatal except in infants, elderly people and persons suffering from other diseases, says Mrs. Stout. It runs its course in three days. Once infected, says the home economists, a person may become a carrier and possible source of infection for many months. Salmonella grow best at room temperature, she says, and keeping foods refrigerated is the precaution homemakers should practice. Also helpful is thorough washing of dishes, work surfaces, cutting boards and sinks. Foods containing meat, milk and eggs are the ones which usually carry the disease, Mrs. Stout

District Hospital Plan Explained by Foundation

Board members of the Wayne Hospital Foundation have been speaking before various groups and organizations in the area during the past few weeks pointing out the need for a hospital district and explaining preliminary work already accomplished. Bob Lund, president of the WHF, said last week, 'We have written letters to all of the ministers in Wayne and area organizations stating our availability and willingness to present information regarding the creation of a hospital district.' Bob Carhart is slated to explain the program before the Holden Commercial Club at 6:45 p.m. Oct. 14 and also in Windsor at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Oct. 26. Lund noted there are no fees for these programs. He said the board members are hoping more clubs, groups and organizations will contact them for speaking engagements so more people in the proposed district will be aware of the potential plans of drawing up a district. The Foundation president said people interested in hearing of the planned hospital district should contact either himself, Adon Jeffrey, Dr. Lyle Seymour, Dr. Bob Bentback, Bob Carhart or Ken Olds. Numerous organizations in the area have already heard the program, Lund said. He also stated that plans call for beginning to circulate petitions throughout the area in early November. Circulating petitions is the first step. After 10 per cent of the freeholders sign the petitions, the signatures will then be presented to the county commissioners, who, in turn, call an election so everyone affected could vote on the formation of the district. If formed, then a hospital district board would be appointed by the commissioners.

Royalty Crowned at Trojan Homecoming

Donna Johnson was named queen and Kim Klina was named king during Wakefield High School homecoming festivities in the elementary school gym Friday afternoon.
 Runners-up for queen were Connie Twite, second attendant, and Janet Gustafson, first attendant. King Klina's royal helpers were Dick Olson, second attendant, and Steve Oswald, first attendant.
 "A Time for Us" was the theme for the royal coronation which got underway with a welcome by Devon Fischeg and trumpet fanfare by a trumpet trio consisting of Leslie Swanson, Miles Pearson and Jacques Sievers.
 Crownbearers for the coronation were Kristine Fredrickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Fredrickson, and Hodges Kinney, son of Mrs. Marlys Finnes. Last year's queen, Betty Johnson, had the honor of crowning the new queen and king. Queen Donna was presented a bouquet by Linda Swanson in behalf of the Pep Club.
 The Patriots sang "A Time for Us" and Myron Olson, representing the alumni, spoke on the same theme.
 Vicki Carlson played both the professional and recreational on the piano. Royal Pages were Doug Fischer, Jerry Minter, Doug Soderberg and Sam Teecht. Trojan cheerleaders and the Pep Club gave a number of yells for the royal party, concluding the 3 p.m. festivities.
 A homecoming dance was held in the elementary school gym starting at 10 p.m. Friday. The Mandels provided music.
