

No Big Rush at Assessor's Office

There has not been any rush at the courthouse by people wanting to be assessed, according to Henry Arp, assessor.

Although the assessor is available in the courthouse from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily except Saturday and Sundays, not many in Wayne County have taken advantage of being assessed early there by avoiding the "standing room only" crowd that always develops in late February.

Arp noted Friday that people have not been coming in for assessment nearly as rapidly as he had hoped.

Personal property assessments started more than two weeks ago, but, according to Arp, only a comparatively few county residents subject to assessment have been into his office.

Those who put off being assessed until near the Mar. 1 deadline will discover that many others have done the same thing, and will wonder why he or she has to wait so long. Consequently, the assessor is urging everyone that possibly can to come to the courthouse soon and avoid the last-minute rush.

Benefit Dance Set For Early February

A benefit dance for Pete Haberer of Wayne, victim of poorly functioning kidneys, will be held Thursday, Feb. 11, at the National Guard Armory in Wayne.

Featured at the dance will be Bob Haberer and the Wranglers, the South Dakota Sandy River Boys and the Devils Nest Wranglers from Crofton.

Tickets are selling for $2.50.

Judge Sets 5 Fines

Three people were charged with illegal parking and two faced insufficient check fund charges in the Wayne County Court last week. Judge Luverna Hilton set fines for all five persons.

Darrel Mastonka of Walthill and Glen Dinslage of Elgin each paid a fine of $10 and cost of $5 for illegal parking. Donald Johnson of Pawnee City was fined $15 and costs of $5 on the same charge.

Larry Laclina of (Clarkson and Janice Cooper of Decatur each paid $10 fines and $7.50 court costs for issuing insufficient fund checks.

Surprise Award On Agenda for Chamber Dinner

Presentation of a surprise award to somebody in Wayne for faithful work over the past year will be one of the highlights of the Chamber of Commerce annual dinner tonight (Monday) at the city auditorium.

The dinner, which begins at 7 p.m., features well known public speaker, Emmett C. Butler of Newton, Ia. Tickets are available for $4 each.

Alan Cramer, master of ceremonies for the evening, will make the presentation of the surprise award and several other awards. Speaking to the group will be Arnie Heagy, outgoing Chamber president, and Larry King, his replacement.

College Boards Plan Legislation

A joint meeting was held in Norfolk Thursday by members of the Northeast Nebraska Technical College board, board members of the Northeast Nebraska College, presidents of both institutions, and two state senators.

The meeting was held, according to J. Alan Cramer of Wayne, president of the Northeast Tech board, as an effort to work out a community college legislative bill that both colleges in Norfolk can support.

Michael Paradise of North eastern, are assisting in working the legislation.

Unless the two colleges can get together in supporting a compromised bill, there is a strong possibility, that legislation, previously passed by the Legislature but vetoed by Gov. Norbert Tiemann, would be revived. The legislation proposed running nearly all of the activities of both colleges under the control of a state board.

The proposed bill would provide for community colleges such as Northeast Tech to operate on a similar basis as in the past, except for a few changes.

It would provide for Northeastern College to be taken into the present 14-county district and the election of an entire new board to operate both colleges in the 1972 general election.

Youth Group Subject of Meet Set for Saturday

A meeting to organize a northeast Nebraska rural-urban youth organization will be held at the Northeast Station near Concord on Saturday evening. Starting at 8:00 p.m.

The rural-urban youth program is sponsored by the University of Nebraska Extension Service. Any person between the ages of 17 and 30 may belong.

The program is designed to provide education, leadership, development, social activities and service.

Cramer said the boards are working to put a bill together, with the aid of two state senators, Thomas C. Kennedy of Newman Grove and Wayne W. Ziebarth of Wilcox, that can be supported by both schools on the floor of the Nebraska Unicameral.

The rural-urban youth program is sponsored by the University of Nebraska Extension Service. Any person between the ages of 17 and 30 may belong.

The program is designed to provide education, leadership, development, social activities and service.

200 Young Students Finish Unique Class

Over 200 elementary and middle school students in Wayne know a lot more about how to safely handle a gun, thanks to a short course in gun safety.

The unique class, taught by physical education instructor Dan Koenig, was for some 100 third and fourth graders and another 136 fifth and sixth graders.

SHARI HAMM is pure concentration as she practices safe gun handling.

Koenig says the class probably has no counterpart across the state.

Was it successful? Don Koenig, who said he really enjoyed the sessions, probably will never know the answer to that question. But, he said, if it prevents just one accident it will be worth it.

The course, Koenig's idea, included simple safety rules about how to hold a gun, how to shoot it and how to hand it from one person to another. Used during the sessions were six BB guns. However, the youngsters were given the chance to handle real firearms—unloaded, of course—the last day of the series of classes, Friday.

Investment necessary to start the class about $36, the cost of the six BB guns.

FIRING in approved manner during one of the sessions on gun safety at the middle school are sixth graders Jaci Beeks, Roger Wacker, Bob Johnson and Tom Steffen.

Area Lady Misses $400

A Laurel woman was not present Thursday night to claim the $400 jackpot in the Wayne Chamber of Commerce Cash Night drawing.

The name called at 8 p.m. was that of Sharon Dietrich who failed to step forward in a participating business firm to claim the free dollars.

Floyd Hraeken, Chamber manager, said the drawing will again be worth $400 Thursday night. A new jackpot of $150 is also started and will grow at a rate of $5 a week.

The new fund will be the jackpot prize for some lucky winner in the weekly drawing a week after the $400 is claimed.

Shoppers can become eligible for the drawings by signing up and being present in any of the participating businesses at 8 p.m. on Thursday nights.

Important Deadline For Employers Nears

Employers have an important tax deadline Monday, Feb. 1. That is the last day for reporting Social Security and withheld income taxes for the calendar quarter ending Dec. 31, 1970, according to Richard Vinal, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska.

Employers who received a pre-addressed Form 941, "Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return," should use this form to report their tax liability.

February 1 is also the last day for employers to report and pay the balance of federal unemployment tax due or the total tax, if unpaid for 1970, using Form 940. Deposits were required with an FTD Form 508 if one-third of this tax exceeds $100 for one or more tax quarters in 1970.

"Circular E—Employer's Tax Guide," Publication 15, furnishes detailed information on these taxes. The handy publication can be obtained free by sending a post card to the district director at the Federal Office Building, 15th and Dodge Streets, Omaha.

Garbage Service Soon at Winside

Plans are being made in Winside to establish a regular garbage pick-up service.

Siemon Hill, chairman of the village board of trustees, noted Thursday that the recent purchase of a pickup truck is a move toward putting regular garbage service into operation.

Hill said the pickup is to be modified and will then be used on regular in-town routes. The routes have not yet been planned, he said.

Although the date for starting the garbage service remains uncertain, Hill said residents will be informed ahead of time as to the time and place their garbage will be picked up.

Emil Swanson will operate the garbage truck for the village. Cost of the service has been set at $2 a month.

New Closing Hours Set for Post Office

Starting Monday, Jan. 25, the closing window hour at the post office in Wayne will be 4:30 instead of 5:00 on Monday through Friday, says Postmaster Don Wightman. The Saturday window will open as usual from 8 a.m. to noon until further notice.

Wightman urges all of the patrons to take note of the new closing time and make every effort to make purchases and mail their letters in advance of the closing time.

MRS. DEANNA MALCOM of Wayne was presented the Outstanding Patient Volunteer Award last week by Jack Brauntuch, national field director of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Deanna Malcom Earns State Award

Mrs. Deanna Malcom of Wayne last week received the Outstanding Patient Volunteer Award from the National Multiple Sclerosis Society's Nebraska-Iowa Midlands chapter.

Presenting the plaque to Mrs. Malcom was Jack Brauntuch, national field director of the Society.

Mrs. Malcom, although disabled by multiple sclerosis, a neurological disease that afflicts an estimated 500,000 Americans, raised over $1,000 in Wayne to help fight this crippling disease.

Brauntuch was in Nebraska reporting on the progress being made in research to find the cure for multiple sclerosis.

Hollis Francis, chairman of the northeast Nebraska chapter of the national organization, expressed the gratitude of the chapter's board of trustees for her leadership in efforts to raise money locally to fight the disease.

Mrs. Malcom said she hopes the northeast Nebraska chapter can be first in per capita support to find the cure for multiple sclerosis.

Magazine Sale Peek at Institutes Scheduled at WS

A look at the past to forecast the future is scheduled at Wayne State College Monday. It is billed as International Education Evening, at 7 o'clock in Ramsey Theater of the Fine Arts Center.

The program will explain the 1971 Nebraska-Scandinavian Summer Institute and the Spanish Institute, both scheduled from June 23 to July 23. Several students who attended the 1970 Scandinavian Institute will show pictures and tell of their experiences. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Students of all Nebraska colleges are eligible for the two institutes, which are sponsored cooperatively by the four state colleges.

For the Scandinavian Institute, students will be housed first at the Herring Folk School in Juland, then at the Hillekilde Folk School near Copenhagen and last at the University of Oslo, Norway.

For the Spanish Institute, students will study at the University of Valencia and at the Mangold Institute of Languages in Valencia, on the Mediterranean Coast.

Both institutes will take their students on tours as a finale lasting several days—the Scandinavian group traveling through Norway and Sweden, the Spanish group through the provinces of Andalusia and Castilla, including important cities such as Madrid, Cordoba and Granada.

Students of both institutes will fly to Europe on the same chartered jet.

Cost of the Scandinavian Institute is $560, and Spanish Institute $590, which includes all but personal expenses. Applications, due by March 15, should be sent to Norman Nordstrand, director of Scandinavian Institute, or to Dr. Rafael Soen, director of the Spanish Institute.

Environmentalists to Rap on Doors

Wayne residents will be hearing a knock on the door starting Wednesday as a second action project of the Wayne State College Environmental Action Committee gets in swing.

The project, organized by WSC student Richard Kuntzsch of Wahoo, Ia, is to conduct a door-to-door campaign of providing information to households on practical steps for fighting pollution in their own homes. A leaflet explaining the project, and listing 25 positive things to do, will be handed to residents.

The door-to-door project will go from Wednesday through Saturday, with extra days added if necessary, to cover the city. Teams of students will be assigned various parts of the city for coverage.

The first project sponsored by EAC has been the demonstration and explanation of the danger of phosphates in household detergents, in grocery stores in Wayne.

Further action programs are being planned, including the publication of an environmental newsletter for the Wayne area, a campaign to collect aluminum cans and newspapers at the college for recycling and the establishment of an environmental problems and solutions.

It is hoped that a city-wide environmental fair can be planned this spring, to cap the semester's activities.

EAC meetings, which are open to all interested persons, are held Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the WSC Student Union.

Local WAVE Is Honored

Verl D. Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jason Preston of Wayne, was honored by the Navy Jan. 8 after completing 10 weeks of basic training at Recruit Training Command (Women), Naval Training Center at Balnbrige, Md.

Dental Apprentice Preston graduated during a military review and was presented the WAVE Scholastic Award. The award is presented to the recruit achieving the highest average in all areas of the academic phase of training.

Youth Club Meeting Set

All interested junior and senior high school students in the area are invited to attend Wednesday's meeting of the Wayne Youth Club at Wilcox Mortuary in Wayne.

The meeting is being called to adopt a constitution and elect a secretary, treasurer and vice-president. Tom McDermott is the president of the group.

The group will also have four adults acting as coordinators. Anyone interested in that role is urged to attend the coming meeting.

Wayne's city council decided last week to help the group in its search for a building it can use for its activities.

Allen Church to Be Remodeled

Work was scheduled to begin this week on an extensive remodeling project of the First Lutheran Church in Allen.

The project, which is estimated will cost between $30,000 and $35,000, will take between two and a half and three months to complete. During that time, Sunday services will be held at regular times at the Allen High School auditorium.

Included in the project is work on the upstairs and basement. The church altar will be moved from its present location to the west side of the building. The roof in the sanctuary will be altered so it forms a V, the floor will be levelled rather than sloping and new pews with padded seats and carpeting will be installed.

The Rev. John Erlandson, pastor of the Lutheran churches at Allen and Concord, said the remodeling will result in a larger seating capacity, from the present 150 to about 200. He said it is the first major change in the church since it was first constructed in 1912.

Vets' Meeting Date Changed This Time

Wayne VFW members will hold this month's regular meeting on Wednesday night rather than Tuesday at the local Vets Club. Time of the meeting, 8 o'clock, is unchanged.

At the meeting Linda Burke, winner of the Voice of Democracy contest in December, will present her speech titled "Freedom—Our Heritage." She will be presented her prize, a $25 Saving Bond, for winning that contest.

The local organization is starting to formulate plans to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the chartering of the post.

THIS WILL SOON CHANGE to a new altar at the First Lutheran Church in Allen when workmen start remodeling the inside and basement of the church this week.

Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost. — Thomas Jefferson, Letter, 1786

Congratulations in Order To Students, Teachers, School Board

We would like to commend the Wayne-Carroll school board for the simple good judgment shown in approving the new dress code drawn up by a group of students and teachers.

For those of you who have not read the new code, here it is in full:

"Any mode of dress or grooming for either boy or girl is acceptable at Wayne High School providing that it does not detract from the school's educational purposes, cause unnatural disturbances, or endanger health and safety. Students electing to participate in clubs and extra-curricular activities which, representing Wayne High School, perform before the public shall adhere to the requirements of dress (e.g., uniforms) and grooming prescribed by the director or sponsor of such performing groups."

Simple isn't it? There are no involved explanations about how long a boy's hair should be, whether skirts should reveal only so much of a girl's leg above the knee or which styles of clothing are not acceptable. That simplicity is the new code's greatest strength because it makes the code adaptable to changing times and changing styles.

We feel that it took a good deal of foresight on the part of a great number of people — students, teachers and school board members — to come up with a dress code which everybody in the school system can live with. We congratulate each one of those responsible on their success in reaching that goal. — NLH.

A First Class City

Recent U. S. Census Bureau figures list Wayne as having a population of 5,379, or enough residents for a first class city.

If and when the official declaration is made that we are a first class city, it may mean that we will need four wards and eight councilmen instead of the present three wards and six councilmen.

Being a first class city will also mean that we may want to go to a fire department that has a paid staff, it is our understanding that having a paid fire department is optional.

There will likely be several other changes necessary in the city government when Wayne is declared first class.

Is there more to being a first class city than merely having a certain number of residents living in a particular area, governed in a specific manner? We think there is.

The population of a first class city should have the maturity of establishing excellent relationships with those surrounding communities that do not have quite so many residents.

A first class city can easily offend smaller towns surrounding it by merely using its weight to do as it pleases in making decisions that may affect the entire area.

There has always been some anti-Wayne feeling, probably due to Wayne's size. But a first class city, in order to be that, can well afford to have the maturity of being a stepping stone, rather than a stumbling block, for everyone in its area.

We hope those living in area communities will find reason to take advantage of any and all opportunities available in Wayne, including Wayne State College, recreational and entertainment facilities, the churches, business firms and the cordiality of friendly people.

A city that is first class is first class all the way to everyone from anywhere at all times. Let's make Wayne that kind of city. — MMW.

Quotable Notables:

Business is religion, and religion is business. The man who does not make a business of his religion has a religious life, of no force, and the man who does not make a religion of his business has a business life of no character. — Multiple Babcock.

Capital is a result of labor, and is used by labor to assist it in further production. Labor is the active and initial force, and labor is therefore the employer of capital. — Henry George in "Progress and Poverty."

A Wayne businessman returned home at 1:15 a.m. one night not long ago. His wife, upon hearing him come in, said from her bed, "This is a funny time for you to be getting home!"

"Why?" our friend asked, "What time do you think it is?" "It is a quarter to seven," she replied.

Hubby then showed his spouse that she had the alarm clock upside down.

O-O-O

There are a lot of troubles in life and times when one might just as well laugh as cry. A Wayne woman kneaded some bread dough recently and proceeded to put it in the clothes dryer. She had discovered earlier that the dryer had just the right temperature to make the dough rise.

She then stepped out of the house on an errand with plans to be gone for only a short while. She decided to have a quick cup of coffee at a friend's house and then hurried home only to find the dryer filled with dough and a broken plastic container.

Not to be defeated, she got it all out of the dryer and baked three loaves of bread. Though there is no home-made bread on the kitchen table, the dog is having a feast with a bread specialty at every meal.

O-O-O

While we're mentioning dogs, let's talk about a dog that brightens the home of the new Wayne County treasurer.

Leon Meyer, his wife and two sons, have had more than one occasion to marvel and laugh at their pet dog "Tip," a cross between a Welsh Corgi and a half Manchester terrier and half Mexican Chihuahua.

Tip is four years old, eats onions, carrots and cheese among other things, and hates mouse traps. Tip was handed a set trap while J. W. was recently visiting in the Meyer home and for some unknown reason the only thing Tip has on his mind when it comes to traps is to chew it to pieces.

Like many other dogs, Tip can roll over and obey other commands, however, unlike many dogs, Tip can put on an entire show by doing a balloon balancing trick that he learned on his own.

A member of the Meyer's family will blow up a balloon and toss it Tip's way. The high-spirited dog will jump under it and bounce it back into the air repeatedly. After he is tired of performing, Tip will allow the balloon to touch the floor and then pounce on it tooth and nail. When the balloon pops he has to go sit in the corner which he also apparently enjoys. Then he is ready for another balloon. Tip is quite a showman.

O-O-O

Late last summer we were fascinated with a freak carrot that grew in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Awalk Walker who farm southwest of Hoskins.

The three-poked vegetable had the appearance of an octopus or a six-finger hand. We saved the picture for you to look at here in the dead of winter. About all an enthusiastic gardener can do these days is to recall last year's production and dream about digging into the ground when Spring comes. Have you ever had any freaks, such as the one pictured, grow in your patch?

It won't be long now until the new seed catalogs with their multi-colored pictures of carrots, beans and lettuce will be on hand. Right now about the only thing a gardener can do is look out the window and estimate how deep the snow is that covers the garden plot. One thing for sure, the moisture is beneficial.

O-O-O

Let's change our thoughts from green lettuce that grows in a garden and talk about the green lettuce called foiling money which always seems to be scarce when bills come due.

This time of year has everyone thinking more and more about paying more and more in taxes.

The Federal government has to pay interest on its debts, just as any individual who borrows money, but Uncle Sam, unlike private borrowers, seems content to carry the debt — and add to it — as long as it can pay the interest cost.

Last year, interest on the national debt cost taxpayers $19,256,821,000, one of the biggest single items in the budget. In fact, the Federal budget itself ran a deficit of $2.32 billion in August. That wasn't too bad as the July deficit was $6.72 billion.

O-O-O

The interest on the national debt last year is the equivalent of the combined incomes of 2,231,000 average American families.

With the money spent on interest, the government could have bought $20,000 homes for 963,000 families, enough to house the combined population of Detroit, Houston and Wayne; paid weekly wages of more than $122 to over three million unemployed workers for the entire year; more than doubled funds spent for the war on poverty, office of education, narcotics, air pollution control, public assistance and housing; urban renewal and environmental control.

O-O-O

The spiraling costs of operating big government will stop only when the public demands it. Spending more and more without paying as you go can only end in eventual chaos.

If one were to put all of the income tax paid by residents of Wayne County into a common pot, the amount wouldn't begin to make a dent in the interest on the national debt for one day.

O-O-O

All of these figures are about to get us down and J. W. just saw another figure walk by on the street with motion that cats spend years trying to perfect, so we'll see you later.

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

A. J. Rice was renamed chairman of the Antelope County board of supervisors in a board meeting last week. New on the board is Julius Parr.

From the Oakland Independent and Republican's "Thought of the Week" column: The most valuable advice you can get will always be from one who is reluctant to give it.

Joe Flack, editor of The Madison Star-Mail, minced no words while expressing his dislike of Senator George McGovern of South Dakota in last week's column "The Way It Looks to Me." He said he is tempted to change to the Democratic party so he "can have the pleasure of turning thumbs down on one of the most obnoxious politicians to come on the scene in recent years."

A bid of $12,975 has been accepted by the West Point city council for supplying the city and rural fire district with an ambulance unit and equipment.

Residents in Plainview will vote on whether to create an airport authority on Tuesday, Jan. 26. If approved and if an authority were created, a new airport for the city could be planned. Considerable problems have arisen since the city council originally tried to create an airport authority several years ago.

A fire which was discovered about 1 p.m. Wednesday completely destroyed the Farmers Lumber and Grain Co. in Pierce. Firemen from Pierce, Norfolk and Plainview battled the blaze for several hours before bringing it under control.

Children and pets should be kept away from the dump at Emerson for another week because of the poisoning done there last Thursday.

Well known boxing enthusiast Bill Engle of South Sioux City has been named manager-inspector of the Nebraska State Barber Board.

Engel, 42, is in charge of giving all barber tests and reviewing licenses. He is required to personally inspect every barber shop in the state at least once a year.

Engel has been associated with boxing as a trainer, coach and referee for several years.

A total of 139 pints of blood were donated by Randolph area residents during a Red Cross bloodmobile stop earlier this month. The stop was sponsored by the Osmond Woman's Club.

Samuel Beards has been bound over to district court after a preliminary hearing on an alleged auto theft which occurred in Wisner in January a year ago.

Trial date for Beards has not been set but is expected to be placed on the docket very soon. He was released on $500 bond.

Borrowed from Ted Huettmann's "Speaking Out" column in the Wisner News-Chronicle: Then there was a sign on a bulletin board at the exit of Fort Gordon, Georgia, when I was stationed there that read "Notice! bride elect

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tegeler, Madison, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol, to Steve Jensen, son of Neil Jensen, Neola, Iowa.

The bride, a 1966 graduate of Madison High School, is in her senior year at Wayne State College. She is an active member of Theta Xi (Omega, business sorority) and Pi Omega Pi, business honor society.

Her fiancé, a 1965 graduate of Tri Center Community High School, received his degree in physical education, history and driver's education at Wayne State College in 1970. He is presently serving with the U. S. Army at Fort Sill, Okla.

Marry Sunday at Redeemer

Candelabra and white and blue carnations and mums appointed the altar of Redeemer Lutheran Church, Wayne, for the wedding last Sunday afternoon of Linda F. Meyer and Michael G. Atkins. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin D. Meyer, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Atkins, all of Wayne.

The Rev. S. K. deFreese officiated at the double ring ceremony and Lorraine Gibb, Lincoln, sang "Song of Ruth" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Paulette Merchant. Candles were lighted by Terry Meyer and Jim Meyer, both of Wayne.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, appeared at her father's side in a long length, empire styled gown of white lace and crystal organza over mist taffeta, fashioned with long tapered sleeves, A-line skirt and chapel-length lace train. Lace scallops accented the demi scoop neckline and red-rose effect skirt. Her bouffant, waist-length veil of imported illusion cascaded from a headpiece of silken leaves and organza petals and she carried a cascade of red elf roses, centered with a removable corsage.

Maid of honor was Sallie Beitz, Wayne, who wore a powder blue chiffon gown which featured a royal blue, velvet-edged, demi-scoop neckline, long bishop sleeves cuffed in velvet, and an A-line skirt. She wore a shoulder length veil caught to a blue bow and carried blue forget-me-nots and white and blue mums in a colonial bouquet.

Jim Pryor, Wayne, was best man and ushers were Warren Cook, Carroll, Bill Adams, Wisner, and Dennis Danberg and Gene Langenberg. The men wore dark business suits.

Both mothers chose navy blue ensembles and wore corsages of white pom-pom mums and blue tipped roses. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daniels and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Atkins served as hosts at the reception for 170 guests. Lonnie Fitch registered guests and gifts were arranged by Doris Baker, Mrs. Donald Hoeter and Mrs. Lynn Tomack. Giftbearers were Roger Meyer, Ralph Atkins and Kenneth Daniels.

Mrs. Stanley Morris and Mrs. Gilbert Bauss cut the cake and Mrs. Steven Glassmeyer and Nancy Wert poured. Barbara Daniels and Deanna Atkins served punch.

For her going away ensemble the bride chose a blue, princess style dress. The couple took a wedding trip to the southwestern states. The bride and bridegroom were both graduated in December from Wayne State College. The bridegroom has served 3 years in the U. S. Army.

Angie Ellis, accompanying herself on the autoharp, sang "Beautiful Savior." Pastor de Freese led the discussion, "The Pastor Speaks," and explained a new project, "Love Compels Action."

Your books were distributed and discussed. Mary Circle, with Dorothy Ley, chairman, served. Circle meetings are scheduled for Feb. 10.

Help Offered in Record Planning

Area extension agents from the University of Nebraska Northeast Station in Concord remind us that income tax return time is at hand. The records kept in 1970 will help in preparation of those returns. If you didn't keep any records you will be able to see that lots of money was spent, but you will have very little idea of what it bought.

Now is the time to start a 1971 record keeping system. The Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service has available two separate account books—the "Farm Account Book" for farm records, and the "Home Account Book" for household expenditures.

These books are available for a small fee from the county extension office or the Northeast Station. Records can help you plan your family spending. No records, no guidance!

Always remember that ants and other vermin don't go to picnics. People take picnics to them.

Brownie Scouts Meet

Model Reveals Secret

"Knowing that you look your best is the secret to feeling confident. If you don't feel that you look good, you're probably right—you don't." That's Todd Harris talking. He knows a lot of "secrets" about looking good because he's a professional model.

Todd is interested in helping people change the way they look to bring new confidence to their lives. His message is for everyone who wants to improve his appearance, but most directly for today's teenager who is often unsure of himself in these changing times.

"You've got to feel good before you can reflect confidence," Todd says. "The best way to start feeling good is to feel clean. A daily bath or shower doesn't take much time, and you really can't look your best without it."

Wig Demonstration Is Given at Club Meet

Pat Wert, from Pat's Beauty Salon, Wayne, presented a wig demonstration at the Merry Movers Club meeting held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Merlin Reinhardt. Mrs. Harvey Mohrldt was a guest. Roll call was answered by showing pictures taken in the members' teenage years.

Mrs. Ray Patts will host the Feb. 9 meeting.

"Guys have to be clean-shaven to look good, too. Smelling good makes you feel great. Most men like the smell of a brisk, crisp fragrance. It makes them aware of themselves in a new way... and makes others aware of them, too."

"Your clothes are very important," says Todd. "They should fit both you and the circumstances at hand, so that you can relax and not worry about your looks. If those around you are distracted by what you are wearing, it's hard to be yourself, dressing too casually or too far out at school or work doesn't make anyone stand out favorably. And wearing 'tie-dies' to a dressy family function won't win any friends for the guy who can't conform to his family's wishes once in a while."

Todd says that it's hard to feel sure of yourself when people are forever complaining about the way you look. "Why not meet people half-way? Take the time to care about the way others react to your appearance and there will be less friction in your life. Then you can relax and have a good time. Everyone looks better when they are relaxed than when they are troubled."

In other words, Todd feels that anyone who wants to can appear as confident as a professional model. All he has to do is start with basic body hygiene and good grooming, dress to suit the occasion and relax.

Todd Harris' professional "secrets" are basics... the real secret to a confident appearance is putting all the basics into everyday practice.

Your Place in the Stars

by Tom McDermott

Thirty or 40 years from now, I'm sure many will still remember seeress Jeane Dixon, the lady whose predictions made her famous. So many must remember that astrologer of equal fame who died in 1932, Evangeline Adams, descendant of John Quincy Adams. Even though an astrologer, her mark upon history was large enough to earn her a place in almost every national history biography.

Among her clients were King Edward VII, Caruso, Mary Pickford, and especially J. P. Morgan, the great financier.

She wrote of Morgan: "He was skeptical at first but I convinced him. During the last years of his life I furnished him with a regular service. It explained the general effects of the planets on politics, business and the stock market."

So phenomenal was her rise to nation-wide popularity that when she began broadcasting on radio three times weekly she received 150,000 requests for horoscopes within a span of three months. A year later, the requests came in at an average of 4,000 a day!

Evangeline Adams' popularity, like today's Jeane Dixon, had to be partly due to her seemingly uncanny ability to predict the future. Then, another reason might easily have been that astrology was then an interest not yet too popularized. Evidently, Evangeline came during a time when there were few other astrologers vying for her envied position.

Her fame began when she came to New York City from Boston and checked into a noted hotel. Being a friend of the owner, she cast his horoscope for him and was "shocked" to find impending disaster. The owner, Warren F. Leland, first presumed stock market tragedy, but that night the famed Windsor Hotel on Fifth Avenue burned to the ground, killing several members of Leland's own family. The next day the newspapers carried headlines covering the fire, with a full story on how an astrologer had warned Leland about disaster.

The much told true story of Evangeline Adams' court case also gave her a boost to popularity. In 1914, she was arrested on a charge of fortune telling and insisted on going to trial instead of paying off the fine. Louis MacNelle, the British poet, wrote of the incident: "She appeared in court loaded with reference books, explained how she made her forecasts, and then capped theory with practice by reading from a birth date of a person unknown to her, who happened to be the judge's son. The judge concluded that: 'The defendant raises astrology to the dignity of an exact science.'"

Contemporary astrologers in New York have reason to bless Evangeline Adams for this showdown: Fortune telling there is still illegal but, as is not the case in England, astrology is no longer deemed to be fortune telling.

When Evangeline Adams died on November 13th, 1932, thousands of people filed past her casket at her studio in Carnegie Hall. A few days later, the New York Times ran a column on the odd couple of radio and astrology, during a time of "intellectual emancipation." In no case, surely the annals of history will continue to reserve a special place for such history-makers as Jeane Dixon, Jeane Adams, and Evangeline Adams.

Cardinals Drop Allen Friday, 96-68

By Norvin Hansen

Allen, beaten badly under the boards and rattled by a quick defense, dropped a 96-68 contest to visiting Randolph Friday night. Both are Lewis and Clark Conference squads.

The loss was Allen's fifth in eight starts this season and leaves Coach Buster Yannon with a task of rebuilding his squad's confidence before it meets Emerson Sacred Heart in the opening game of the Newcastles

COME 'N GET IT Allen's Jerry Geiger might be saying to Randolph's Ric Sauer in Friday night cage action.

Invitational tournament Thursday night. Also in the game is Ponca, victors ever since the loss handed them by Allen in the opening game of the year. Consolation and championship contests in that order are scheduled for Friday night.

Allen turned in a respectable performance to trail the Cardinals by two points, 17-15, after the first quarter, but then Randolph's dominance under the boards—especially with 6-6 Jerome Roberts occupying a spot on the bench part of the period after drawing his third foul early in the game—and a fine defensive showing by guards Dave Boatman and the visitors to go in front by 20 points, 33-33, at halftime. Loren Reuter, with eight of Allen's 15 points in the first period, ended the evening with 20 counters to lead the scoring for the losers. He had six points in the second period, four in the third and none in the fourth as the Cardinals finally managed to ruin the accuracy of his high jump shots. Teammates Jerome Roberts hit 17 points, Gary Troch hit 10 and John Warner hit nine. Downfall for the Eagles was

Schroeder Makes Debut As Bears Trip Neligh

Aided by a fine debut from once-injured George Schroeder, the Laurel High basketball club eased to a 71-59 win over host Neligh Friday night.

The lengthened the Bears' victory string to five straight and gave them a 7-4 mark to take into Saturday night's home game against O'Neill St. Mary's. This coming Friday night the Bears host Madison, a club which has lost only to Battle Creek in an upset so far this season.

Schroeder, who suffered a knee injury in the last football game of the season, played about half of the game and came up with 17 points to nearly co-opt scoring honors from Steve Erwin, leader with 21 counters. Friday's game was first action of the year for this 8-3 junior.

The Bears, leaders at 37-23 at intermission, shot a fine 62 per cent from the field (28 of 47) for one of their better showings in that department. At the gift line they hit 56 per cent (15

Wakefield High, ambushed by the visitors the rest of the game but was unable to make up that big point spread from the opening period.

Pat Starzl, a usual offensive standout, managed to hit only eight points as most of the scoring duties rested on Olson's shoulders. Wakefield's Dave Scheel hit five, Doug Soderberg three and Dave Gardner and Don Rouse one each for the total Wakefield's scoring attack.

John Erksen with 14 points led a balanced T-H attack which saw 10 players scoring.

Wakefield was held to one field goal in six tries in the opening period while the visitors hit 10 of 17 to put the game nearly out of reach going into the second period.

Wakefield, now with a 1-7 mark, hosts Emerson-Hubbard, a squad which Wakefield lost to by a 54-38 score earlier this season, Friday night.

College students and other photographers are urged to enter their best photographs in the first NAIA (National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics) sports photography competition.

Entries of pictures of any NAIA sports taken since January, 1970, should be sent to the contest chairman, John P. Foster, Central Washington State, Ellensburg, Wash. 98926.

Prints, 8 x 10 in size, may be either action or mood. Magazine, newspaper, or other non-student photographers must show proof of publication with their entry.

The prints must have the photographer's name, date and location of picture and names of athletes in the shot and the final outcome of the contest.

Awards will be given to student and non-student photographers. Winning photos will be published in the NAIA News.

Two other Wayne swimmers won two events against Colby Seymour.

Overin Breaks Scoring Record In Jr. High Tilt

Young Earle Overin broke a two-year-old record set by Doug Sturm when he pumped in 27 points to spark Wayne's Junior High basketballers to a 56-25 win over visiting Norfolk Thursday afternoon.

The win, which gives the club a 6-0 mark, came on the heels of a 55-19 swamping of Randolph.

Overin had eight points in both the first and third periods as he displayed consistent shooting ability while breaking Sturm's 25-point mark. Hitting eight points to help him with the scoring chores was Marty Hansen.

Young Overin had 13 points in Wayne's win over Stanton. Also hitting were Rod Hoops with six and Bob Keating, Rick Workman and Kirk Wacker with five each.

Wayne had command of both games, moving to a 26-12 intermission lead against Randolph and a 28-10 intermission lead against Norfolk.

During 1968, Nebraska conservation officers drove a total of 1,813,168 miles while on patrol.

Draper Continues Record Pace

Double winner Bob Draper set another pool record, this time in Concordia College pool, as Wayne State defeated Concordia in a swimming dual, 66-61, Wednesday.

Draper, of Elgin, traveled the 1,000-yard freestyle in pool record 1:57, then won the 500 freestyle and swam on Wayne's winning 1971 freestyle relay.

Friday, the losers of the first round of action will meet at 7 for consolation honors and the winners will meet at 8:30 for championship honors.

Allen, Emerson SH Open Newcastle Meet

Allen will take on Emerson Sacred Heart in the first game and Ponca will tangle with the hosts in the second game of the Newcastle Invitational basketball tournament scheduled for Thursday and Friday.

Friday, the losers of the first round of action will meet at 7 for consolation honors and the winners will meet at 8:30 for championship honors.

Winside Club Mauls Oakland-Craig

Winside's wrestling corps lost only one match and was held ties in two others while carrying out a 37-7 victory over host Oakland-Craig Wednesday night.

Doug Anderson in the 98-pound division and Taylor Stevens in the 167-pound division ended up tied with their foes in the meet.

Doug Lage lost a 7-1 decision. All other grapplers from Winside turned in victories, six by decision and three by pin.

The victory, called Winside's best display of wrestling this season by Coach Harold Simpson, followed a 34-16 handling of Battle Creek a week ago. Against Battle Creek the Wildcats gave two pins and two decisions.

Winside, now with a 5-0 dual mark, wrestles at Randolph tonight (Monday). This is Randolph's first year for the sport. Wednesday the Cats host West Point.

Tiger Quint Rules Over Winside, 57-55

Junior Jon Behmer and senior Gary Soden pumped in 16 and 15 points respectively but the Winside Wildcats suffered their fifth loss of the season Friday night, a 57-55 decision to host Osmond. The loss gives the Cats a 3-5 mark for the year.

Winside trailed most of the game as Osmond depended heavily upon balanced scoring—Joe Borgmann with 13, Dan Garner with 11 and Brett Moritz and Robin Reed with nine each. Only other scorers for Winside were Greg Titterington and Bob Krueger, both with five each, and Kevin Johnson with four. The hosts led at the quarter break by 18-7, 28-26 and 42-35. Winside will go up against Wausa in an away game Tuesday night and will play host to a strong Randolph quintet Friday night. The Cardinals knocked off Allen by a 96-68 mark.

Winside	17	9	20	--	57
Osmond	19	9	14	15	--

Winside lost Friday night's reserve game, 41-34.

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

- Q The IRS says it will figure the tax for more people this year. Who can take advantage of the offer?
- A Up to 30 million taxpayers may have IRS compute their tax. To qualify, income should be less than $20,000 and consist only of wages or salaries, tips, dividends, interest, pensions or annuities. Previously, IRS could only compute the tax for those with less than $5,000 of income, primarily from salaries and wages. These limits disqualified many low and middle income taxpayers as well as retirees living on pensions or annuities.
- Q If you want IRS to compute your tax, just follow the instructions for entries on the return and mail it with attachments, to the IRS Service Center for your area.
- Besides computing the tax, the IRS will also compute retirement income credit for those entitled to it. This computation has proven confusing to many taxpayers in the past.
- Q When can I expect to get my W-2?
- A Employers are required to issue W-2 statements on 1970 wages paid and taxes withheld to their present employees by the end of January. Since this falls on a Sunday, the deadline for employers to issue these statements is February 1.
- Anyone who left a job before the end of the year should have received a W-2 within 30 days after his last pay check.
- Q Where can I get information on the changes that will affect my 1970 return?
- A A summary of the major changes in the law are listed on the cover of the 1970 income tax packages most taxpayers will receive in the mail. Information on how to handle these changes are explained in the instructions.
- Additional information on the tax law changes as well as other aspects of tax law may be found in Your Federal Income Tax. This publication may be obtained from most IRS offices for 75c.
- Q My husband is over in Vietnam in the army. What should I do about our tax return?
- A If you are not required to file a return until 180 days after he leaves Vietnam, if you want to file earlier because you are expecting a refund, indicate in the space where his signature should go that he is serving in a combat zone.
- Q Does the income tax surcharge apply to all money earned in 1970?
- A Yes. The income tax surcharge rate for 1970 is 2 1/2 percent.
- Q My teenage son earned enough money in 1970 to owe tax. Does that mean I will lose my exemption for him?
- A Not necessarily. As long as your son is a full-time student at least five months of the

Wildcats' Loss To Chadron '5' Is Disappointing

It was the keenest disappointment of the basketball season for Wayne State Friday night. Visiting conference foe Chadron State rallied to eke out an 83-79 win and stay undefeated, 2-0, in NCC play.

Wayne fans had considerable to cheer about most of the time as their Wildcats, down by as much as nine at mid first half, battled back to a mere 40-38 deficit at the half, then led past midpoint of the second half. Furthermore, the Cats made a tussle of it all the way to the final seconds.

Although Chadron's statistics were a bit better than Wayne's, the key factor was the long-range first-half shooting of Rick Brown. He swished nine fielders, most of them from 20 to 30 feet. In the second half Wayne held him to a pair of goals before he fouled out with 24 points, the game high, 9 1/2 minutes from the end.

Jim Meyer pulled Wayne up to a tie on two free throws seconds after intermission. This was the meat the Cats needed in their diet, and they had control for the next 11 minutes. Half a dozen Wildcats tossed in points in a balanced attack.

With 8 1/2 minutes left, Chadron regained the lead at 66-64 and soared to 78-69 with 3:50 to go. Wayne forces, still not whipped, whittled that margin to four points several times but could not stop the more experienced Eagles.

Denny Siefkes paced Wayne with 18 while Marcel hit 16, Steve Hoffman 13 and Ron Jones 12.

The loss dropped Wayne to 0-2 in conference, 5-8 for the season. Chadron is 11-4.

The preliminary game gave fans a fascinating spectacle, as Wayne's junior varsity suffered its first loss in six games. Who's better? The G.O.C. Jets. And who are they? A team composed mostly of former Wayne State cage ace, including Dean Pfosen; Dave Schneider, Paul Emmanuel, Ron Hintz, Dick Franzen, George Jones, among them. They downed the junior varsity, 80-63, meanwhile displaying much of the old skill that carried Wayne State to many a win in years past.

How did they beat a JV team that has averaged 87 points? Mainly on superior savvy, especially on that Wayne hallmark, defense. Then, too, the Jets had more height to dominate rebounding. They seldom gave the Jayvees a second chance to shoot.

The Jets are due for another go against the junior varsity Tuesday, January 26, before the Wayne-hosting varsity game.

Albion Matmen Rip Locals

Jim Meyer and Dave Johnson provided Wayne High's wrestling club with their only points in a 34-10 loss to host Albion Friday night.

Meyer stretched his perfect season to six straight dual wins with his pin in 1:14 of the second period in the 126-pound division. Johnson, Wayne's heavyweight, also scored a pin to win his match, registering it in 1:22 of the second period.

All other local varsity wrestlers lost, two of them by falls and eight by decisions.

In the reserve meet, Wayne ended up a 32-18 loser.

The loss to the potent Albion crew drops Wayne's dual mark to 2-4 for this season. Tuesday night the club makes the long trip to O'Neill.

Results of the varsity action:

98—Scott Hall, pinned in 3:01.
105—Jim Kenny, pinned in 1:23.
112—Darrell Hall, decision, 9-4.
119—Barry Rubek, decision, 6-0.
126—Jim Meyer, won by pin in 2:46.
132—Mark Belermann, decision, 1-0.
138—Chuck Pierson, decision, 6-2.
145—Tony Plueger, decision, 5-2.
155—Rod Slevers, decision, 6-4.
167—Jim Kenny, decision, 8-3.
185—Steve Kamish, decision, 1-0.
Heavyweight—Dave Johnson, won by pin in 2:38.

Local '5' Falls to Stanton

Stanton broke through Wayne's press in the opening moments of Friday's game to carve out a lead the Mustangs never yielded. Final result: Wayne 58, Stanton 77 for the Blue Devils' fifth defeat in seven outings this season.

Led by Lonnie Pochman in the opening moments, the Mustangs doubled Wayne's scoring to put a 22-11 lead on the city auditorium clock going into the second period. Wayne managed to cut that lead to eight points, 33-23, at the intermission but was unable to overtake the visitors after the break.

In the reserve contest, the Wayne club displayed some balance scoring to post a 55-43 victory. Sophomores Doug Sturm and Randy Nelson and junior Don Hansen share that honor with 10 points each.

Mike Creighton and Rod Cook, senior guards on the varsity club, pumped in 15 and 14 counters respectively to lead the scoring in their game. Sturm contributed eight points as he did double duty during the evening.

Rebounding effectively under the boards for the Devils were sophomore Roger Saul, junior Kyle Wills and senior Creighton with 10 each. Sturm pulled down eight.

The local quintet hosted Bloomfield Saturday night at Wayne State's Rice Auditorium in another West Husker Conference contest. Friday night they take on Neligh in the third game of a four-game home stand. Next Saturday they host East Husker opponent Tekamah-Herman.

Annual Meet Spurs Students' Imagination

High school science students—about 150 of them from 11 northeast Nebraska schools—have new ideas about science projects after meeting with Wayne State college science professors.

The students and their teachers attended the annual winter meeting Jan. 7 of the Northeast Nebraska Junior Academy of Science. Their college hosts suggested various projects they might prepare for the academy's spring conference at Wayne. The students in turn reported some of the projects they already have in progress.

Also on the program were demonstrations of new college equipment in chemistry, physics and mathematics laboratories, plus a planetarium show.

Schools represented were Crofton, Beemer, Norfolk Senior and Junior Highs, Logan View, Lyons, Humphrey St. Francis, West Point High, West Point Central Catholic, Wausa and Wayne.

and Jane Jones was born August 13, 1882 at Red Oak, Iowa. At a young age he was baptized and joined what is now known as the Bethany Presbyterian Church near Carroll, his father being one of the organizers of the church. May 25, 1911 he married Myra McMillan at Carroll, and they farmed in Nebraska and Colorado.

Preceding him in death his wife in 1969. Survivors include his daughter, Neva Jane and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Fred Brader of Winside.

Allen Girls Going 'Around the World'

Members of the Future Homemakers of America chapter at Allen High School will be going around the world today—on dinner style, that is.

The girls will be having a "Round the World Dinner" tonight and foods and dishes from different countries will be served. Helping the girls with the project will be sponsor Mary Klein, the home economics teacher at Allen High.

She was a member of the United Presbyterian Church and also belonged to the Fortnightly Club, the Tuesday Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Preceding her in death were her husband in 1933, her parents and a sister. Survivors include a son, Rodney Love, Norfolk; a daughter, Mrs. Allison Bahe, Fremont; a brother, Harold Nyberg, Yankton, S.D., a sister, Mrs. Lillian Benton, Sioux Falls, S.D. and eight grandchildren.

"The voters in the 14 County area served by NE Tech have voted to tax themselves for a vocational-technical school," Cramer said. "I am afraid that we would not be carrying out their intent if we decided to operate an academic institution with the money voted for technical education. I would like to see the taxpayers of the area have a chance to decide on the issue. I don't believe we can operate two institutions on the same budget (the proposed legislation calls for mill levy to remain the same) as levied for one. It looks like it would be unfair to the vote-technicians."

Cramer said the Northeast Tech board planned to meet Sunday afternoon to vote on a position on the proposed legislation. He said it is likely that the community college legislation will be introduced on the floor of the Legislature this week.

Rolland F. Jones Funeral Services Held in Colorado

Marie Love, 76, Funeral Services Held Saturday

Funeral services for Marie Love, 76, Wausa, were held Saturday at the United Presbyterian Church, Wayne. Mrs. Love died Wednesday at her home.

The Rev. C. Paul Russell officiated. Mrs. Fritz Ellis sang "For All the Saints Who from Their Labors Rest," accompanied by Ted Bahr, Henry Sellers, Bernice and Orto Birdsell, Jim Helo, Harold West, J.N. Elnung, Dr. Walter Bentback, John T. Bressler, Ralph Beckenhauer, Don Wightman, Henry Ley, Howard Witt and John Carhart. Pallbearers were Arnie Reeg, Clous Sharer, Robert Merchants, Daniel Soden, Bud McNett and Charles Carhart. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Helma Marie Love, daughter of August and Mahtilda Carlson Nyberg, was born July 21, 1894 at Yankton, S. D. Before her marriage she taught school in Crofton and Edgerton.

She was married to Edwin Ray Love July 14, 1921, at Yankton, and they lived in Bloomfield until 1922 when they moved to Wayne. Mrs. Love had made her home in Wayne since then.

New Porkette Officers Elected

New officers of the Northeast Nebraska Porkettes were named during a meeting last week at the Northeast Station near Concord.

President of the group is Mrs. Bob Hanson of Wakefield. Mrs. Dick Sorenson of Wayne is the vice-president and Mrs. LeRoy Wolfe of Coleridge is the secretary-treasurer.

The group, wives of members of the Northeast Nebraska Pork Producers Association, is conducting a "Happiness Is A Good Breakfast" campaign. Posters advertising the project will be put in grocery stores around the area.

Also at the meeting were the newly elected officers of the men's organization: Paul Everingham of Wakefield, president; LeRoy Wolfe of Coleridge, vice-president; Bob Fritschen of Concord, secretary, and Curtis Papenhausen of Coleridge, treasurer.

Wisner to Host CIP Enthusiasts

Wisner has been named to host one of 15 area meetings which will formally kick off the 1971 Nebraska Community Improvement Program during January.

The meeting at Wisner is set for 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 28. If inclement weather makes it unable to hold the meeting, it will be held one week later. The workshops are scheduled across the state so all persons and communities interested in the statewide competition can attend.

"Although many communities have already organized and begun planning for this year's program, the series of meetings will give us the opportunity to explain the 1971 program and to present ideas on the community development process," said Pat Mallory, community development specialist for the Nebraska Department of Economic Development.

The Economic Development Department and the University of Nebraska Extension Division are co-administrators of the NCIP. This year's competition is the seventh such program, designed to stimulate communities to conduct self-improvement projects and to reward those which are judged most effective.

IRS Q. & A. —

Q: Is it true college students aren't subject to income tax withholding any more?

A: Last year's tax reform law makes it possible for some students to avoid having income taxes withheld on part-time or summer jobs under certain conditions.

To qualify, the student must have had no Federal income tax liability in 1969 and anticipate none this year. If that is the case, the student should notify his employer. This covers only Federal income tax withholding. Social Security taxes will continue to be withheld.

This provision of the law affects any taxpayer who qualifies such as retired persons and others who may work part-time.

SS Q & A

Q - My wife is 62. Can she get social security retirement benefits if I don't retire?
A - If she has enough social security credit of her own to qualify as a retired worker, she can collect whether you retire or not. But she cannot get benefits based on your work record unless you are retired.

Q - I intend to retire this year and I recently purchased a 4 dwelling apartment building. I do a lot of maintenance and repair work on the premises and I don't know whether to report my income from the property as ordinary income or self-employment income. How will it affect my social security payments?
A - Unless you are actually providing personal services for your tenants such as doing their laundry and house cleaning, your income is considered to be regular rental income and you are not self-employed. Income from rent has no effect on your social security payments and need not be reported to social security.
