Scouts Get Peek at State Government

Thirteen Boy Scouts in Troop 175 in Wayne told Gov. J. J. Exon last week that they were interested in promoting the governor's "Keep Nebraska Beautiful" project for April.

The Scouts made the trip to the Capitol Building in Lincoln Thursday to get a glimpse of what goes on during the time the state legislature is in session.

Gov. Exon told the group that he was pleased at their interest in the beautification program since some areas of the state show little interest in it. Each of the boys received from the governor a flag emblem they can use on windows, doors or cars to promote respect for the country and the American flag.

First stop during the day was to see the General Session of the Unicameral. The group, which was introduced to the legislators, received a guided tour of the Capitol and met with John L. Sullivan, administrative assistant to the governor, who explained the "Keep Nebraska Beautiful" program.

The Scouts also visited a public hearing of the public works committee.

Last stop for the group was at the office of Henry Ley, Wayne resident who was named by Gov. Exon to serve as state banking director. Ley earlier in the day introduced the boys to the new chief executive of the state.

Boys making the trip were Mike and David Nuss, Brad and Brian Hedrick, Carl and Vincent Jenness, Kevin Jech, John Rockwell, Jimmy Brasch, Tim Wittig, Ralph Aret, Randy Kiehn and Marty Hansen. Leaders accompanying the boys were Rowan Witke, Scoutmaster, and Jean Nuss, Patrol Dad.

Allen Plans for First Aid Course

Residents of the Allen area are being offered a chance to take a Red Cross first aid course early this month at no charge.

The course, which will be sponsored by the Allen volunteer fire department, is tentatively scheduled to begin Thursday, Feb. 11.

Meeting each Thursday evening for 40 weeks, the training will cover general first aid instruction and will entitle each person who completes it to his first aid badge.

Only cost for the course will be the charge for the books.

Anyone who would like to sign up for the course or who would like more information should contact Bill Kier or Ken Linafelter at Allen, Kier, Clarence Jeffrey and Benford Keil took a similar first aid course a couple years ago in South Sioux City.

Rural Couple's Son Earns Perfect Grades

The son of rural Wayne residents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Claus earned perfect grades for the fall semester at Kansas State University at Manhattan.

John H. Claus, a 1967 graduate of Wayne High School, earned a 4.0 (straight A) average.

Young Claus is a senior in animal science and industry, works in the KSU meat laboratory and is an active member of Alpha Zeta, national agriculture honorary, and the ASU Pre-Vet. Club.

Heart Drive Set to Start Next Week

"Give—So More Will Live" will be the theme for numerous volunteers as they carry out the annual Heart Fund Drive in Wayne next week.

An effort will be made to call at each residence in the city sometime during next week, according to workers in charge of the drive, but there will be no drive in the business district.

The city has been divided into 14 areas, each headed by an area chairman who is now busy lining up block chairmen.

Send to Right Place

All federal income tax returns should be mailed to the IRS Service Center in Kansas City, Mo., Richard Vinal, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska, said.

An envelope addressed to the center has been included in all tax packages for the convenience of Nebraska taxpayers.

Check for money orders in payment of the tax should be made payable to "Internal Revenue Service," he added.

Films on Littering Slated for Pupils

Several classes of students in the West Elementary School will view two films at noon today (Monday) concerning anti-pollution.

Norris Weible, president of the local Izaak Walton League, said he has been invited to the school to show "Litterbug" starring Lassie, and "Litterbug" featuring Donald Duck.

The films are made available by the Izaak Walton League, were viewed with great interest, Weible said, when shown at the Carroll Elementary School on Thursday.

Pupil on Honor Roll

The list of Winside Public School honor roll students printed in the Jan. 25 issue of The Wayne Herald should have included the name of Tammy Gramberg.

The school said her name was unintentionally left off the list of 34 honor pupils.

Two from Wayne Area Receive NU Doctorates

In addition to the two men receiving their doctorates, several Wayne and area people received degrees during the exercises, held at Pershing Auditorium.

Also graduating:

- Kathy Lynn Nelson Kilpatrick, Wayne, bachelor of arts in education.
- Robert Van Cleave, master of arts, and DeWayne Davenport, bachelor of science in agriculture, both of Allen.
- Carolyn Meyer, Pender, bachelor of science in home economics.
- Randall Kumm, Stanton, bachelor of science in civil engineering.
- Ronald Johnson, Wakefield, bachelor of science in civil engineering.
- Hoger Hill, Winside, bachelor of arts in education plus certificate in physical education and athletics.

Senior Center Organized at Carroll

A senior citizen's center has been organized and is underway at Carroll, according to Mrs. Marie Herrmann of Laurel, a senior opportunity aid representative of the Goldenrod Hills Community Action Council of Waltham.

About two dozen Carroll residents and guests turned out for the organizational potluck dinner and meeting held at the Carroll fire hall at noon Monday.

Mrs. Herrmann said the Carroll Senior Citizen's Center is located at the fire hall and is open from 10 a.m. until noon and from 1 p.m. to 5 Monday through Friday. She said the center plans to have a potluck dinner the last Monday of each month.

Mrs. Lloyd Texley of Carroll won a plant, a door prize donated by the Wayne Greenhouse. Mrs. Ivor James and Dewey Jones, both of Carroll won door prizes donated by Norma Jensen.

Confinement Tour Nears

Reservations are needed by today (Monday) for the bus tour of confinement cattle feeding plants in Iowa.

The tour will be Wednesday, but plans must be made ahead to order buses and to arrange pickup stops.

Reservations, $6 each, may be made with Bob Boals at Dakota City or Walt Tolman at the Northeast Station at Concord.

The tour is organized by the Northeast Nebraska Livestock Feeders Association but is not limited to members of this group.

Federal Funds for School Step Closer

The superintendent of the Wayne-Carroll school system is encouraged about the possibilities of receiving federal funds to help set up a program for students with specific language disabilities.

Francis Haun, administrative head of the school system, said that the school has been told to write a complete proposal for such a program, a step beyond the summary proposal the school has already submitted to the Nebraska Department of Education.

The school was given the okay to make the proposal during a meeting in Lincoln Thursday. Dick Metteer, principal of the elementary grades, and Dorothy Ley, member of the local school board.

A partial program for students suffering from specific language disabilities (difficulty in focusing the eyes, tendency to read from right to left and so on) is already included in the school's program. It is being funded with the help of Title I funds.

If the school receives additional money for a more complete program, from Title III funds, more teacher hours could be spent on helping more students suffering from this problem.

Experts who work with youngsters suffering from specific language disabilities estimate that between 10 and 15 per cent of the students need help in this area. Severity of the problem can vary greatly.

The detailed proposal the school has been asked to complete must be submitted by March 1.

Superintendent Haun said he had little idea about the amount of aid which the school might receive if the state department approves the proposal.

Haun said he was happy that two years of work was beginning to result in some action.

Area Youth Group Plans 2nd Meeting

The second meeting of the Northeast Nebraska Rural-Urban Youth Organization has been scheduled for Saturday evening, Feb. 20, at the Northeast Station near Concord.

Six young people were in attendance at the first meeting, held Jan. 23. The group felt that this type of organization is needed in Northeast Nebraska.

Alvin Skow, state RV vice-president from Winnebago, visited with the group and explained the various activities which a local group might have. He also discussed the district, state and national activities of the RV program.

All young adults between the ages of 17 and 30 are invited to attend the coming meeting.

Students at Beatrice For Orchestra Clinic

Eight Wayne High students left Wayne Sunday for Beatrice to take part in an orchestra clinic today (Monday).

Students planning to make the trip included Bill Fletcher, Pam Wittig, Ann Owens, Duane Grosse, Jane Owens, George John, Virginia Predohl and Stephanie Mendyk. Accompanying them was Mrs. Bonita Day, strings teacher at the school.

The orchestra, which will be conducted by Harry Lentz, will number 170, including 124 string students. Sponsoring the clinic is the public school system at Beatrice.

FHA Schedules Meeting Here

All building contractors, developers and regulators in Wayne and Stanton Counties are invited to attend a meeting Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Farmers Home Administration office at 112 West 2nd Street, Wayne, Nebraska.

The meeting is being held to better acquaint the interested in the FHA Rural Housing Program and to discuss Packaging of Applications for the RR Loan.

The district and county supervisors of the FHA will conduct the meeting. Every effort will be made to answer all questions.

Area People at CIP Meet

Nebraska Community Improvement Program, a program which helps stimulate greater interest and action in the well being of communities across the state. This year there are three areas of competition: Community Improvement Club, an outgrowth of the now-disbanded Allen Commercial Club.

No officers of the Allen group have been named yet, although board of directors were named in December. Directors are Vic Carpenter, Don Klaver, Norris Emry, Jule Swanson, Cliff Gotsch, Keith Hill, Ken Linafelter, Craig Williams and Matt Stapleton.

The club is currently working on getting itself incorporated.

People interested in the program at Laurel met last Wednesday to help explain the details involved in entering this year's program, the need for an over-all chairman and the need for weekly meetings. Acting as temporary chairman at Laurel is Duane Purcell, president of the Lions Club.

The Laurel people are asking church youth groups and students in the area to send representatives to the next meeting of the group, slated for Monday, Feb. 8, at the city auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Communities wishing to enter the contest have to have their entry into the sponsoring state organization, the Department of Economic Development, by March 15.

2 Taverns Violate State Liquor Laws

One tavern in Wayne has been temporarily closed for five days and another one will have to close its doors for the same length of time for violation of state liquor laws.

The Pub, owned by Len Latt, was closed for five days starting Jan. 24 for selling liquor to a minor.

The Place, owned by William Scott and Norman and James Fletcher, will be closed starting Feb. 14 for five days for having punch boards in the business establishment.

NFO Members Urged To Turn Out Tonight

Members of the National Farmers Organization in Wayne County are urged to attend the NFO meeting tonight (Monday) at the ASCS office in Wayne.

Main item of business will be election of officers for another year. Men finishing their one-year terms include Hollie Victor, county chairman; Floyd Glassmeyer, secretary, and Howard Gaunt, treasurer.

The meeting is scheduled to start at eight o'clock.

Linda Weible Latest To Miss $400 Prize

One of these Thursday nights there's going to be a winner in the weekly Cash Night drawing. And when that happens the lucky person will take home a fat $400, compliments of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce.

Linda Weible of Wayne last week became the latest person to have her name added to the list of people who happened to be absent when their names were called in the weekly drawing.

As a result, the reserve pot in the business promotion will go to $250.

About the only qualification for those who want to be eligible for the weekly affair is that they register and be present for the eight o'clock drawing.

Auto Tag Deadline Draws Near

The deadline for getting 1971 motor vehicle license plate tags at the treasurer's office in the Wayne County courthouse is Feb. 28.

Leon F. Meyer, treasurer, said Friday that considering the two holidays and four weekends in February, there are actually only 18 days left for residents to purchase the tags.

Drivers of vehicles operated without the new tags after Feb. 28 will be subject to penalty.

Meyer said residents who plan to order their tags through the mail should include the tax receipt, registration certificate and a check for the amount.

He emphasized that those who wait until the last week in February to order their tags by mail will be taking the risk of not getting their tags in time. "We can't guarantee they'll get them by the 28th," Meyer said.

ETV Slates Series on Drug Abuse

A narcotics agent, a college student who hasn't yet turned on to drugs, a nurse whose son is on heroin, Arnold Palmer, David Suskind, the "Bugaboos" and several other junkies are all on the list of people participating in a new ETV series starting tonight (Monday) at 6 p.m., dealing with drugs called "The Turned-On Crisis."

These people and others join forces on NETV in what is probably the most comprehensive series on drugs in the history of telecasting.

New Officers Named By Circle K Club

Members of Circle K, an organization of Wayne State College men sponsored by the local Kiwanis Club, recently elected officers.

Elected to serve during the winter term are Charles Wendi, president; Keith Wachter, vice-president; Randy Hrouda, secretary; Mark Strong, treasurer; John Macklin and Robb Smith, directors.

Heart Drive Set to Start Next Week

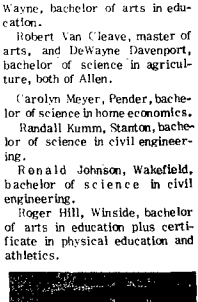

"Give—So More Will Live" will be the theme for numerous volunteers as they carry out the annual Heart Fund Drive in Wayne next week.

An effort will be made to call at each residence in the city sometime during next week, according to workers in charge of the drive, but there will be no drive in the business district.

The city has been divided into 14 areas, each headed by an area chairman who is now busy lining up block chairmen.

Frank Prather

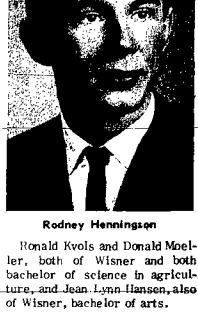

Rodney Henningson

Receiving his doctor of philosophy degree was Rodney James Henningson, a graduate of Wakefield High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Henningson of rural Allen.

Prather, one of 17 to receive their doctor of education degrees, is an associate professor of mathematics at Wayne State College. His field of study was secondary education.

Henningson was one of 44 who received doctor of philosophy degrees, majoring in sociology. He is an assistant professor at Memphis State University in Memphis, Tenn.

The record mid-year graduating class of about 900 increases the number of degrees awarded by the university to more than 4,400 since classes were first begun in 1871.

Ronald Kvois and Donald Moeller, both of Wisner and both bachelor of science in agriculture, and Jean Lynn Hanson, also of Wisner, bachelor of arts.

Royal Ballet Here Friday

The first ballet company in the English-speaking world to be granted the prefix "Royal" to its name will perform at Wayne State's Fine Arts Center Friday at 8 p.m.

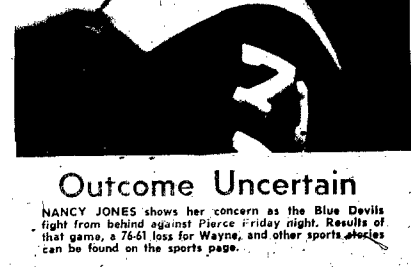

The show is a Special Programs feature, open to the public with tickets available at the door.

The Royal Winnipeg Ballet received the honor of the royal title in 1958, shortly after Queen Elizabeth II ascended the British throne.

It was 1951 the Winnipeg Ballet, as it was then called, became the first Canadian ballet company to perform by Royal command when it appeared before the then Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh.

The subsequent action of permitting the Winnipeg company to include "Royal" in its corporate name represented the first charter granted by Queen Elizabeth. The Winnipeg troupe then was the first and only "royal" company in the British Commonwealth — three years before the Sadlers Wells became the "Royal Ballet" in England.

The ballet's artistic director, Arnold Spohr, gained individual honor in 1970 when Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau directed that he be entered in the Order of Canada, receiving the Service Medal — a signal honor in Canada.

A City Mall for Wayne?

The Wayne city council last week was asked by a Wayne State College group to consider making a city block in the downtown area into a permanent mall as a step toward beautifying the area and as part of the city's effort toward focusing the public's eye upon the constant and dangerous pollution of our environment.

The idea is a commendable one. We think the council should take action as quickly as possible to study the proposal.

For instance, a committee of councilmen — or, even better, a committee of concerned citizens — could be named to find out if a downtown mall would be worthwhile.

The council did take one step toward keeping itself more informed about the damages of pollution — named one of its members to meet with the college group as its representative. He can help the group with its plans to hold an environmental fair in the business district this spring and at the same time keep the council informed about what the college group is doing.

Park A Fitting Memorial

The council should be complimented on at least one of its decisions last week. The group decided to name the park which will be built on the landfill site in the south end of the city in memory of Henry "Helen" Victor.

There are probably few people in Wayne who don't know who "Helen" was. His rasping voice, result of speaking without vocal chords and with the aid of a small instrument, was familiar to many residents. He was difficult to understand at first but with a little practice you could easily talk with him.

Need for Another Feature?

Would a feature in The Wayne Herald similar to the "Action Editor" in the Omaha World-Herald be successful? We have been asked that question. Now we would like to find the answer.

There is little doubt in our mind that such a feature — concerned with problems affecting readers in Wayne and the surrounding towns — would be well read.

Are there enough people among the several thousand Wayne Herald readers who have questions of a local nature they would like to have answered but do not know how to go about getting those answers? Are there enough readers who seem to get little satisfaction when trying to find out those answers — possibly because somebody is "passing the buck" or because they are asking the wrong people — to support such a feature? There is little doubt in our mind that such a feature — concerned with problems affecting readers in Wayne and the surrounding towns — would be well read.

The Hospital Situation

Most of us take for granted that when we need a doctor or hospital, both will always be available. After all, aren't hospitals and doctors just always automatically there?

meet Medicare standards, does not meet the state fire marshal's standards, and is not a modern facility that is going to induce new doctors to come to the area to practice in the future.

After taking the Wayne Hospital for granted for years, it is difficult for many to imagine that the local hospital is now inadequate.

Wayne has doctors and good ones, but their lives and practices are as temporary as that of all other humans. They aren't always going to be around. The area is in need of a facility that will be attractive to new doctors.

Anyone who has had to go to the hospital can testify they are glad Wayne has one. Any first class city the size of Wayne needs an up-to-date hospital that can serve the area. It is for this reason there is a present drive for the creation of a hospital district.

Some people question the cost of a district hospital which would run about two mills. Everything costs something and first things must come first. Is that too high a price for a facility in which even our lives may at some time be saved?

Somewhere along the line of growing up we soon learn that all services cost something. If we want a hospital we must pay for it. No one in Iowa or South Dakota is going to build a hospital for us.

We may not need the hospital today, or a doctor, but our being human puts the odds on the fact that we some day will.

If the Wayne area is going to have a hospital that can care for the area's sick, including those using Medicare, then it is urgent that plans be made now to build such a hospital rather than waiting until the present one is so outdated that it cannot legally function.

Let's give the need for a hospital district some very serious thought. — MMW.

February is American Heart Month!

HOW TO SAVE 50,000 LIVES YEARLY!

CORONARY CARE UNITS, with an ultimate potential of saving 50,000 lives yearly in this country, are only one of many heart-saving developments sponsored by your Heart Fund dollars. The advances since 1950, when massive research programs were inaugurated by the Government and your Heart Association, have yielded a dramatic dividend — a decline of 20.1 per cent in the cardiovascular mortality rate for persons under 65 years of age. Despite this impressive gain, heart and circulatory diseases continue to kill more Americans under 65 than the next three causes combined — cancer, accidents and pneumonia-influenza.

After reading your daily paper, do you ever sort of sit back and wonder at the complexity of problems in the old world? As we understand it, the world will be wrecked if any nation fails to get down to what it wants. Anybody who says he understands international affairs these days is two weeks behind the headlines, right?

Take those fellows at the peace talks in Paris, for instance. It appears they have been talking for days without mentioning what they are talking about. When it comes to talking about peace in 1971, a country is fortunate to know which foot it has in its mouth. From all we've read, peace negotiations pretty much amount to a few well-frozen words. When J.W. leans back in his chair to read international news he figures most stories fit into one of the three following classifications: erotic, myrotic and commyrotic.

Times do change, don't they. We got into a conversation in a local cafe one noon last week concerning the many changes that have come upon the world in the last few years. There are too many new inventions to even count them. Space travel to the moon has our attention this week, but what will it be in a short decade?

We know this for one thing, that a lot of mothers in the last generation had their daughters vaccinated in places they wrongly thought would never show. Yup, times do change.

An 81-year-old friend of ours by the name of Wallace Ring dropped into the office for a chat recently. We got to reminiscing about the changing times. Ring, who lives in Wakefield, told us he has his son Merle on the farm three miles east of Wayne, said he started farming when he was 20 years old. He said he always liked horses and bought about 3,000 head from throughout the Dakotas, Wyoming and western Nebraska over a period of time in years gone by. Ring then sold the horses at auctions in eastern Nebraska and some in Sioux City. Most horses were shipped by rail before trucks became popular.

Ring said that one time he drove 40 horses cross-country from Hubbard to Wakefield. He pointed out that there were no cars to bother the horses in those years.

He loaned us the picture taken when he and Wes Rubach, who farms west of Wayne, Jim Ring and Eric Johnson drove 67 horses from Wakefield to Wayne for an auction.

In our visit about some of the past years on the farm, Ring recalled when he sold fat cattle for $4.25 per hundred, corn for 12 cents a bushel, and hogs hardly paid for their freight and commission. Tax on land was 80 cents an acre and federal bank loans were made at three per cent interest. Ring said he hoped such prices didn't happen again.

He also remembers a day in the mid-1930's when his haying crew could hardly see the sun due to such a cloud of grasshoppers.

Memory is certainly a spectacular mental ability. That automatic tape re-

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

In commenting on the dangerous trend toward having the federal government collect and disburse tax money, Joe Flack, editor of The Madison Star-Mail, had this to say:

"We hear a lot about honesty in advertising. Cigarette packages must carry a warning about smoking and the contents of many items must be printed on the label. We would like to see the day when the amount of taxes on each item would be included on the outside of the package. If people could realize what a tremendous amount they are getting back we would soon pare our government down to a small fraction of what it is now."

Janet Harris, 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harris of Homer, reigned as queen during the Winter Festival in South Sioux City recently. She was chosen from 15 contestants.

The Winter Festival, sponsored by the Seneca Club, drew a total attendance of more than 3,000 people to top all estimates of the number who would attend.

A Dakota County farmer suggested that Dakota Avenue in South Sioux City be renamed "Knot Head Lane." "That's for the crazy drivers," he said. The city recently renamed West 93rd Street Atokad Drive.

The question of an airport in Pierce County suffered another setback last week when the voters in Plainville voted 392 to 174 against creating a city airport authority.

The principal of the Ponca school system, Robert Schilling, has resigned effective the end of this school year. He has been principal at Ponca for the past four years.

Beards, kangaroo courts and shaving permits will be the talk of the town at Wesner for the next few months as residents there get ready for the July 16-18 centennial celebration.

The Salvation Army is conducting its annual drive for funds in Cedar County. Goal for the drive is $200.

The Federal Land Bank Association in Hartington has reported that it has closed slightly over $1,000,000 in long term real estate loans during the past year, according to last week's issue of the Cedar County News.

The Hartington office now has 793 loans outstanding, totaling $10,633,100, the newspaper reported.

Loans are made from the Hartington office to farmers in Cedar, Dixon and Knox Counties.

Taken from the "Thought of the Week" column in the Oakland Independent and Republican: Anger is only one letter short of danger.

Here's a choice story making the rounds in area newspapers: "I used to think I was poor. Then they told me I wasn't poor, I was needy. Then they told me it was self-defeating to think of myself as needy — that I was culturally deprived. Then they told me deprived was a bad image, that I was underprivileged. Then they told me underprivileged was overused, that I was disadvantaged. I still don't have a dime, but I have one hell of a vocabulary."

Three young boys from Lyons have died as a result of a two-truck wreck near Oakland weekend before last. Dead are Sam Bacon, 10, and Kevin Bacon, 12, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon, and Thomas Kroger, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Kroger. The three boys were riding in the rear of a pickup when the wreck occurred.

spending the year studying in Germany as an American abroad student.

She wrote: "Early Friday morning we started out in a double decker bus with our cameras all loaded — on a tour of West Berlin. Just like typical American tourists. What an experience! We flashed past so many monuments, palaces, and historical places of interest, and frustratingly enough, our British guide spoke so indistinctly that no one could understand the explanations of the famous sights we were seeing. So we contented ourselves with careening from one side of the bus to the other, flashing photos like mad, and I bought a little book in German on Berlin to read along when all 66 of my slides are developed! One thing which didn't require much explanation was the Wall. We all felt the difference between hearing about it and actually seeing it in cold, stark reality. It's such a huge, ugly symbol of cruelty that I found it hard to believe that it had actually been erected by civilized human beings. At those points where it's not topped by barbed wire, thick, jagged fragments of glass have been placed along the top. In the French sector we saw several simple memorials to those persons who had been shot down while trying to escape.

Those of you on the farm know what it is all about, but for those of you who are not acquainted with hog prices, the thing that the farmer today is fighting is paying 1971 expenses and getting the same price for his hogs that his granddaddy got. If the modern shopkeeper today wants to find out how the hog-raiser feels, then he should mark all of his stock down to the prices that merchandise brought 40 years ago, right?

Too many of us living in town expect the man on the farm to be like the optimistic fellow who fell off the skyscraper and as he passed the second-story window on the way down he was heard to say, "So far so good!"

Not many of us have that kind of optimism, but we expect those in agriculture to continue doing their thing so we can go into any grocery store and buy all the products we need to feed the family. The problem arises when we don't see to it that the man producing all those products gets his fair share of profit.

It only takes one short drive out across Wayne County to be impressed with the number of abandoned farm houses and buildings. We just wonder who is going to raise all the food when everybody moves to town?

Kathryn Hepburn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Hepburn of Wayne, is to Fascism and militarism; and here we were able to see the changing of the guard on the hour.

"Our tour guide (a woman) told us flatly that she was a Communist. We, of course, were aghast at this horrible thought and looked upon her as not being human! She was really floored trying to defend her political beliefs in the face of our attack of questions. The one outstanding characteristic of all her answers is that they never directly answered a question, but went round and round in circles instead! Her theory upon why the Wall was erected is that it provided economic unity and stability for East Berlin, and that although so many people are unhappy under Communism today, it is the government of the future, and not the present."

Sounds like she is having quite an adventure. We felt her comments on the Wall were particularly interesting. It makes a person glad to live in America, right?

Marks 89th Birthday in Winside Home Last Week

Observing her 89th birthday Wednesday at her home was Mrs. C. E. Nelson, who has spent her entire life in the Winside area. Friends and relatives from Wayne, Carroll, Winside, Beemer, Norfolk, and Tacoma spent the day with her.

Mrs. Nelson's children are Bob and Ray Nelson, Wayne; Sig Nelson, Winside; Gus Nelson, Norfolk; Harold Nelson and Alton Surber, California; and Leonard Nelson, Arizona. She has several grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Mrs. Nelson

James Ver Planks Wed January 23

Marilyn Beed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Beed, Meadow Grove, and James Ver Plank, Norfolk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Ver Plank, Wakefield, were married Jan. 23 in 7 p.m. rites at the Meadow Grove United Methodist Church. The Rev. Douglas Jones officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Sherry Ver Plank, Wakefield, and Loretta Sullivan, Tilden, sang, accompanied by Steve Reinke, Tilden.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white chantilly tulle lace, styled with high rise waistline, high neckline, lace edged, long, tapered sleeves and bouffant skirt. Her illusion veil was caught to bows of pearl, and she carried royal blue spider mums.

Maid of honor was Diane Warmke and bridesmaid was Jane Tegeler, both of Meadow Grove, who wore gowns of royal blue in a style similar to the bride's dress. They carried single stemmed royal blue mums.

Best man was Steve Huss and groomsmen were Ben Wyatt, both of Norfolk. David Biecher, Terry James, Garry McIntosh and Jack Smith, all of Norfolk, ushered.

Karen Granslow, Columbus, and Jeff Ver Plank, Wakefield, were ringbearers. Bradley Granslow, Columbus, and Tammie Huss, Norfolk, distributed bags of rice.

Mrs. Janice Granslow served as hostess for the reception held later at the church parlors for about 250 guests. Mrs. Steve Huss registered guests and Cindy Reinke, Debbie Dales and Mrs. Kenneth Granslow, Tilden, arranged gifts.

Others assisting were Virginia Ver Plank, Wakefield; Mrs. Dorothy James, Ifta Gnauset, Kathy Keilly, Paulette Schulze, Margaret James, Mary Halsey, Mrs. Glen Black, Mrs. Clyde Horrocks, Mrs. Wayne Tegeler, Mrs. Hans Eymann, Mrs. Kenneth Berg and Mrs. Harold Suckstorf.

The bride, a 1970 graduate of Elkhorn Valley School, Tilden, is employed in Norfolk. The bridegroom, a 1969 graduate of the Elkhorn Valley School, is a sophomore at the Northeast College, Norfolk, and is employed in Norfolk by Felco Co.

The couple took a short wedding trip and are making their home at 600 E. Phillip Ave., Norfolk.

Winside Plucks 68-66 Win from Eagles

The Winside Wildcats won a big one Friday night, a 69-66 decision over visiting Allen High, to lengthen their winning streak to three and up their season standing to 6-7.

If the Allen Eagles, now 3-8 for the year, walked off the court muttering "blatant foul" to themselves, there are probably few who would argue with them. The reason is that Winside led in the game only once — with six seconds left to play.

Allen 19 17 22 8 -- 44
Winside 14 18 15 21 -- 48

play on a 15-foot jumper by Kevin Frevert — and had trailed the Eagles by as many as 10 points midway in the final period. Frevert's connection on the shot the Winside coach told his club to work for to try to break the deadlock was his only field goal of the night.

The Eagles shot a blistering 12 of 18 at the charity strip in the first half to help them open up a lead as big as 10 points a few times, but the outstanding performance turned in by Winside's Gary Soden (plus only four fouls the second half) helped keep his club within striking distance.

Soden, the 8-1 senior named "last week's 'Athlete of the Week'" by the Wayne Herald, set a new mark for himself by tossing in 33 points to lead the scoring parade for both squads. His jump shot with just 41 seconds left pulled the Wildcats into their 66-66 tie. In fact, he scored 13 of Winside's 21 points in the final frame — all of them in a row until Frevert broke his string and put the game in the safe.

The game turned into something of a scoring duel for Soden and Allen's Loren Reuter-Reuter, also a senior but standing only 5-8, specializes in a jump shot which enabled him to score 26 points to keep his season average well above the 20-point mark.

Statistics for the two squads were very similar: Allen shot a blistering 72 per cent at the line (18 of 22), Winside 60 per cent (14-23). Allen outbounded the hosts, 40-33, as Jerome Roberts pulled down 19 and John Warner nine. Winside's Jim Behmer had 15 and Soden and Frevert had five each. Both teams hit 40 per cent from the field.

Behmer, 6-2 junior for Winside's Jim Winch, hit 18 points in the game to equal a personal high he set for himself in the tournament at Rosalie. Only other cagers in two figures were Eagles — Gary Troth with 14 and Roberts with an even dozen.

Winside has a tough assignment in its next game — the Homer Knights on the road Friday night. Saturday Allen went up against Wakefield, a team which Eagles clipped by 57-40 in a tournament at Emerson over the holidays. Next Saturday night,

Feb. 6, the Eagles host Wakefield.

Schedule Gets Tough For Hoskins Cagers

Hoskins will host two basketball clubs from Belden tonight (Monday) at 7 p.m. as Dan Bruggeman starts putting his clubs through some vigorous competition over the next few weeks.

Playing tonight will be the seventh-eighth graders and the fifth-sixth graders.

Games slated later this month: Feb. 6, at Dixon, 7 p.m., seventh-eighth graders and fifth-sixth graders; Feb. 11, at Winside, 3 p.m., seventh-eighth graders; Feb. 19, St. Paul's at Norfolk, 7:30 p.m., seventh-eighth graders; Feb. 25, Wayne at Hoskins, 7:30 p.m., seventh-eighth graders.

Hoskins will play again this year in the invitational tournament scheduled for Wayne early in March.

Opens Winside Meet

Ponca will meet Osmond in the opening game of the Winside freshman-sophomore basketball tournament next week.

Also in the tourney are Allen, Wakefield, Stanton, Beemer and Hartington High.

The Ponca-Osmond game is slated for next Monday, Feb. 8, at 7:30 p.m., the only game that night. Games slated for Tuesday: Allen vs. Stanton at 6:15, Winside vs. Beemer at 7:30 and Wakefield vs. Hartington at 8:45.

Semifinals in the tourney are set for 7 and 8:15 Wednesday. Consolation and championship action is slated for 7 and 8:15 Thursday night.

Hartington Falls to 'Cats, 49-3

Seven come eleven was the story Thursday night in a dual grappling meet at Hartington when Winside pinned seven of their hosts, decided three and picked up one forfeit on the way to a 49-3 win.

The Cats started the evening off with three consecutive pins in the 98, 105 and 112 pound classes and ended the meet on a similar note in the heavier weights.

The healthy win gives the Wildcats an 8-0 dual record which they will lay on the line while hosting Wakefield at 4 p.m. Tuesday on the home mat. The meet had been scheduled for the evening but had to be moved ahead because of a meeting that night.

Hartington, far outclassed by the hustling Cats, got its only win when Lucio Perrin was decided, 2-1, in the 126-pound class.

Ninety-eight-pound Doug Anderson set the pace by pinning his opponent in the second period just one second short of the buzzer.

Young Dave Jaeger, whose only loss this season was handed to him in tourney action at Lagan View, took his enviable 15-1 record to the mat and added another win by pinning Hartington's Wohlman in just 34 seconds.

Results in other matches: 112 — Steve Suelplinned Dendlinger in 3:26.
119 — Doug Lage decided Olsen, 6-0.
126 — Lucio Perrin was decided by Evans, 2-1.
132 — Rob Langenberg decided Schumacher, 6-0.
138 — Dale Miller pinned Prostad in 3:43.
145 — Terry Jaeger won by forfeit.
155 — Dean Krueger decided Fellmeier, 8-0.
167 — Brian Hoffman pinned Hively in 3:59.
185 — Larry Cleveland pinned Anderson in 1:07.
Heavyweight — Dennis Wade pinned Pembroke in 1:18.

Pierce Quint Muscles Past Blue Devils Friday, 76-61

By Norvin Hansen

Badly outbounded and stung repeatedly by a tight press, Wayne High dropped a 76-61 decision to West Husker Pierce in a road game Friday night.

The loss, which cut short a two-game winning streak the Devils stitched together the previous weekend, drops the locals' season mark to 4-7, the exact reverse of the season record for the Bluejays after the victory. Wayne is now 2-5 in West Husker competition.

Down by 13 points going into the final period (60-47) following a miserable run of luck at the free throw line — the Devils hit two of 10 gift attempts in the

Bears Drub O'Neill for 2nd Time

Laurel's Steve Erwin and George Schroeder combined for 44 points to help the Bears to an 82-56 handling of host O'Neill High Friday night — the Bears' eighth win in a row.

Playing one of their best defensive games of the season, the Bears held O'Neill to only 30 points in the first three periods while tossing in 64 themselves for an insurmountable edge going into the final frame.

The Bears, now 10-1, had two tough assignments this coming weekend: against Bloomfield at Laurel Friday night and at Elkhorn Valley Saturday. Both teams sport winning marks and Saturday's foe was rated fourth in the state in Class C by the Omaha World-Herald before Friday night's loss to Norfolk Catholic, first-rated in Class C.

Erwin hit 24 points and pulled down 18 rebounds while Schroeder tallied 20 and came up with seven caroms, the same number as teammate Regg Swanson swiped, as the Bears steamrolled the first three periods. Paul McCoy, the other Bear in two figures, had 10 points for the night.

Laurel outbounded the hosts, gaining 42 in the shooting, 42 per cent (34 of 81) to 35 per cent (23 of 65). Laurel managed 11 steals in the contest, including three each for Brent Johnson and Erwin.

Leading scorer for O'Neill — 76-42 victims of Laurel in the championship game of the recent NENAC tourney at Bloomfield — was Harold Johnson with 15.

Hubbard Friday night at Emerson, filling an open date. Saturday the Devils host Schuyler at the city auditorium.

The 13 points scored by Bob Nelson and the even dozen added by Doug Sturm went for naught as the reserves dropped their match with Pierce, 61-56. Wayne took a 44-40 lead into the final period.

Also hitting for Wayne: Tom Kerstine with eight, Larry Shupe and Don Hanson with six each, Ron Magnusson with four and Scott Niemann with one.

Leading rebound action for Wayne were Shupe with 19, Magnusson with 10 and Sturm with eight.

Wayne's tally: eight offensively and 27 defensively. Kim Thorndis, 6-2 senior, accounted for 21 of his team's 54 rebounds. Wayne outdid the hosts in accuracy from the field — connecting on 23 of 51 shots for 45 per cent. Pierce hit just under 39 per cent, 28 of 72.

Credited with two steals each in the contest were Devils Creighton, Mau and Lottie Billoff. Wayne goes up against Emerson-Hubbard Friday night at Emerson, filling an open date.

Jones: Cagers Deserve Rest

Friday was a rare day for Wayne State's basketball players. They got a holiday from practice.

This might seem strange after they lost a game Thursday, but Coach Ron Jones and Assistant Darryl Lehms reasoned that the Wildcats needed and deserved a rest.

Why? Because they had battled for a 21-point second-half deficit to force an overtime against UN-OMaha, then led twice in the extra period before losing, 80-79.

Additional reason for the holiday: The Wildcats had beaten formidable foes Peru State and Hastings in less than a week. Both games were nerve-stretchers. But neither strained the nerves—of players, coaches or spectators—like the UN-OMaha.

The Wildcats and Indians kept fans roaring for the first nine minutes while nearly every score changed the lead. UN-OMaha, on hot field accuracy and crisp rebounding, zoomed to a 46-34 half, then rampaged to a 56-35 margin two minutes after intermission and 64-42 eight minutes into the second half.

What followed in the next 12 minutes was to rank with the all-time Wayne miracles of comeback courage, long-time observers declared. The Wildcats stifled the Indians with nine points while they poured in 31 to forge a 73-73 tie. If seconds before the end of regulation time—Sophomore center Dennis Siefkes knotted the count with a short hook shot. In overtime Siefkes twice put Wayne ahead before Omaha's Paul Siczekowski hit the winning basket with 21 seconds left.

Omaha missed a free throw at nine seconds, and Siefkes narrowly missed what would have been the winning field goal just before the buzzer.

Siefkes finished with 31 points, the only Wildcat in double figures among 10 who scored. Siczekowski led Omaha with 29.

The loss left Wayne at 7-10, Omaha at 9-7. Wayne plays Dana Monday at Blair.

7th Graders Nip Norfolk

Wayne's young seventh grade cage crew battled back and forth with Norfolk last week before emerging with a 40-36 win. The win gives the youngsters a 3-0 season mark.

Figuring importantly in the scoring in the closing moments as Wayne battled from a 31-30 deficit going into the final period were Larry Creighton and Rick Workman, high scorers with 13 each, and Paul Mallette and Randy Park.

Creighton led the game by connecting on two free throws with 15 seconds left after Park made one gift shot to give the Wayne team a 38-36 lead.

Also in the scoring action for Wayne were Mallette with eight, Park with four and Monte Lowe and Bob Mitchell with one each.

In the eighth grade game, Farrell Overlin tallied 10 points and Bob Keating and Mike Meyer had 10 each to help the locals to a 60-36 victory.

Wayne led at 37-17 at intermission and 47-25 going into the final period.

Also scoring: Marty Hansen with eight, Dick Mitchell with five, Gregg Blinn and Jack Froehlich with four each, Rod Hoops and Dave Nuss with three each, and Randy Workman with one.

The eighth graders are also carrying out a perfect season, extending their unbeaten mark to eight straight.

While campaigning for president in 1896, William Jennings Bryan rode in a carriage drawn by 16 white horses and one yellow one. A 16 to one ratio of silver to gold was the main issue in Bryan's campaign.

Trojans Unable to Stop WP Cadet 'S' Friday

Wakefield was unable to hold down West Point's competent Dennis Broekemeier while suffering a 75-46 defeat to the Cadets in an East Husker Conference duel on the Wakefield campus Friday evening.

The Trojans, who went up against Allen in a home game Saturday night, got another taste of tournament action this week as they compete in the Invitational tournament at Stanton. They meet Battle Creek in the opener tonight at 6:30. Stanton plays Howell at 8 tonight. Other teams in the tourney is Leigh.

West Point dominated Friday's game from the opening minutes, moving the ball into 6-2 Broekemeier and hitting well from 22-9 lead at the first quarter break and a 42-17 intermission lead.

Wakefield was hurt by the subpar performance of regular Rick Olson, who went into the game after missing some school because of sickness. Olson came up with just three points to throw the scoring chores on the shoulders of Pat Starzl, who tallied 14, and Dave Scheel, who hit 11. Starzl took over rebounding duties, grabbing off 13 during the tilt.

Meanwhile, West Point's stand-out contributed 31 counters. Dave Logren, a 5-11 junior, was the only other Cadet in two figures

Piece of Cage Title Up for Grabs

Team I has a chance to rap up a title for championship honors in the city recreation basketball league in the 9 p.m. game against Team V tonight (Monday) in the city auditorium.

If it does result in regular league competition, no play-off is scheduled, however, the play-off series after regular competition will get underway on Wednesday, Feb. 10. The series will continue on the following Wednesday and will conclude on Monday, Feb. 22. The public is invited and there is no charge for the league games.

Team V, winners over Team IV Wednesday night by a 56-42 mark, trails Team I in standings, five wins and two defeats to six wins and one loss.

Team I depended on sharpness at the free throw line to get them by Team VI Wednesday night, 68-63. Both teams had 27 fieldgoals each, but the losers, trailing by a couple points late in the game, had to foul to get the ball.

Aroused WSC Grapplers Nearly Upset Adams State

Wayne State wrestlers came close to knocking off No. 2 ranked Adams State of Colorado in a dual here Thursday night. The 23-16 score suggests a wider difference than the match points reveal.

Adams gained a five-point jump when Wayne had to forfeit the first weight at 118 pounds. Other factors in the closeness: Wayne's 177-pounder Lee Hall lost to national champion Harvey Gray, who managed only one point on an escape before adding two pounds on riding time for a 3-0 decision. At 190 pounds, Billy Dunlap eked out a 4-3 verdict for Adams over Dennis Reid, and Wayne heavyweight Jack Hobble drew, 1-1, with his former Adams teammate, Andy Poljan.

Aside from the forfeit and the draw, the teams each won four matches. Adams got two pin victories, by Roger Vigil over Mike Lamer at 134 and Ken Taylor over Mitch Emery at 142. Wayne counted one pin by freshman Tom Luth of Grand Island who decked Steve Sage in 4:47.

Three Wayne sophomores registered the other wins: Kent Irwin of Council Bluffs, 9-2 over Hill Haby at 126; Max Branum of Park Forest, Ill., 10-5 over Mike Childers; Ken Monroe of Arlington Heights, Ill., 11-2 over Jack Thaw.

Branum stretched his season record to 12-0; Monroe is 10-2; Irwin 5-1.

Loss to Adams followed Wayne's 25-13 win over Concordia (College of Seward) Wednesday night. It was the Bulldogs' first dual loss in six outings.

The Wildcats won seven matches, including pins by Irwin, in 4:39 over Wayne Norman at 126 pounds, and Branum, in 4:47 over Jim Smith at 150.

John Yoder defeated Todd Zierler, 9-0; Monroe blanked Bruce Groin, 10-0; Hall decided Bruce Neely, 8-3; Dennis Reid decided George Vasilauka, 10-4, and Ron Coles downed Gerald Luhrs, 8-3.

Cocondria scored on a forfeit, Tim Phendick's pin of Lamer at 3:55, and Bruce Hertz's 9-0 decision over Emery.

Next Wayne action: a Friday triangular with Mayville State, N. D., and Hemdill State, Minn., at Mayville.

West Point 22 20 13 20 — 75
Wakefield 9 8 4 23 — 46

Wakefield was unable to hold down West Point's competent Dennis Broekemeier while suffering a 75-46 defeat to the Cadets in an East Husker Conference duel on the Wakefield campus Friday evening.

The Trojans, who went up against Allen in a home game Saturday night, got another taste of tournament action this week as they compete in the Invitational tournament at Stanton. They meet Battle Creek in the opener tonight at 6:30. Stanton plays Howell at 8 tonight. Other teams in the tourney is Leigh.

West Point dominated Friday's game from the opening minutes, moving the ball into 6-2 Broekemeier and hitting well from 22-9 lead at the first quarter break and a 42-17 intermission lead.

Wakefield was hurt by the subpar performance of regular Rick Olson, who went into the game after missing some school because of sickness. Olson came up with just three points to throw the scoring chores on the shoulders of Pat Starzl, who tallied 14, and Dave Scheel, who hit 11. Starzl took over rebounding duties, grabbing off 13 during the tilt.

Meanwhile, West Point's stand-out contributed 31 counters. Dave Logren, a 5-11 junior, was the only other Cadet in two figures

Girl Scout Cookie Sales Begin Friday

The 10-day 1971 Girl Scout cookie sale in Wayne starts Friday with five varieties of cookies, being offered this year.

Mrs. Charles Denton of Wayne is cookie chairman of Girl Scout Neighborhood 16, which includes Wayne, Thurston, Pender and and savannahs.

Twenty-five cents from each sale will remain with the troop, thirty-three and a half cents will be used for developing and maintenance of Crossed Arrows Girl Scout camp, one cent will be used to assist the girls in scouting, forty-seven and a half cents go for cookies and three cents go to pay tax.

Orders will be taken by canvassing Girl Scouts Feb. 5-15. Cookies will be delivered in April as usual.

Iowa Tests Slated At Winside Schools

Students at the Winside Public Schools will take basic skills and educational development exams this month.

Mrs. Karen Hram, guidance counselor, said students in grades three through eight will take the Iowa Test for Basic Skills starting Tuesday. The exam is given during one period each day and will end Feb. 8.

Freshmen and Juniors will take the Iowa Test for Educational Development slated Feb. 9-15.

Junior students are scheduled to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Tests on Feb. 15.

Forms Bugging You? Let IRS Figure Tax

The Internal Revenue Service this year can do the income tax computations for a greater number of taxpayers than in previous years, according to Richard Vinal, IRS district director for Nebraska.

IRS will compute the retirement income credit if the taxpayer otherwise qualifies to have his tax computed, Vinal said.

The taxpayer may have his tax computed by IRS if he has no more than $20,000 income consisting of wages, tips, dividends, interest, pensions and annuities, and does not choose to itemize deductions.

The computation is made by the IRS Service Center after the return is filed and not by local IRS offices, cautioned Mr. Vinal.

In prior years, IRS computed the income tax only for certain taxpayers with less than $5,000 income.

Page two of the 1040 instructions explains what information must be shown on the return to have the tax computed. These instructions also explain how the taxpayer indicates he wants IRS to compute the retirement income credit.

WHS Thespians Excel in Pretending

By Merlin Wright

It is fun to pretend and pretending is that part of the imagination that has brought all action onto the theatre stage.

Wayne High School Thespians, by pretending in four one-act plays presented Tuesday and Thursday nights in the lecture hall, helped their audiences escape a world of reality and enjoy the world of make-believe for about two hours.

Dry wit, subtle humor, comedy and hilarity were all ingredients making up the recipes for "The Egg" by Babette Hughes, "The Marriage Proposal" by Anton Tchekov, "Here We Are" by Dorothy Parker and "Childhood" by Thornton Wilder.

Cast members did a superior job of acting and overcame any psychological handicap that may have been created by too many empty theatre seats. Though the crowds on both Tuesday and Thursday nights were small, the audience response was enthusiastic to the on-stage comedians.

Ted Blendenman directed the Thespians productions which were offered in an experimental fashion including the absence of a curtain between plays and the use of abstract sets.

"The Egg" is a story using the box-meets-girl situation with the prospective bride and groom exchanging barbed remarks, but never-the-less heading for the altar and the father-in-law declaring, "So it is with marital bliss," or something to that effect. The play is extremely funny in that it allows the audience to look into a theatrical mirror of human frailty.

Elaine Lundstrom and Dale Tomler are newly-marrieds in "Here We Are." The couple board a train and the dialogue between the new bride and groom reveals the new bride's nervousness and sudden feeling of being away from her father and alone with her husband. These two Thespians did a splendid job with their lines, but the play itself is not nearly so humorous as the play preceding it and consequently appeared to be anti-climactic as far as humor is concerned.

At the risk of appearing prudish, we did not care for that part of the dialogue indirectly emphasizing personal intimacies on the first night of the honeymoon.

Thornton Wilder's plays are always much different than others. His "Childhood" has numerous humorous lines but is actually a sad little story.

Haney Stanley and Randy Miller played the parents of Dianne Stoltenberg, Cathy Barclay and Joe Manley. The children only got to see their father on weekdays and he, after working all week, is more interested in re-

Public Hearing Set

The Wayne County commissioners voted during their meeting January 19 to hold a public hearing Feb. 19 at 2 p.m. in the courthouse for the purpose of adopting one year and six year road improvement programs.

The state requires such hearings and plans in order for communities to be eligible to share in certain of the state's financial programs.

Norris Wetble, county clerk, said representatives from Consolidated Engineers were present to explain the details of the new road program to the commissioners.

The county board also heard representatives from the Wayne Hospital Foundation explain the current plans for a hospital district.
