Wayne Youth Club Opening Slated Today

Doors to the new Wayne Youth Club at 306 Main St. will officially open today (Monday) following months of planning and occasional opposition.

Equipment, including three pin ball machines, juke box, pool tables, candy bar and pop machines and a ping pong table, were delivered to the club Friday.

Starting today the club will be open from 4:30 to 10 p.m. Monday through Thursday 4:30 to 11 p.m. on Fridays, 1 p.m. until midnight on Saturdays and 1 to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

High school age youths through age 19 in and around the area are eligible to participate in club activities which will include monthly suppers catered by a local business firm, talks and community service programs.

A club spokesman said about 20 youths have participated in painting and clean-up operations preparing the building for use. Area residents have donated tables and chairs. St. Mary's Church has presented the youth center with two large pews.

Tom McDermott, one of the youths heading up the project, said more than 21 young people have volunteered to manage the club during open hours. Club managers will answer telephone calls at the youth center to help parents with locating their young people whenever possible. The club's phone number is 375-9945.

The club is managed by four officers, four board members and four adult advisors. One of the advisors, Marvin Sword, will soon be leaving the community. Any parent interested in serving as a club advisor is asked to contact either McDermott or Iowan Wilfse.

McDermott said the public is invited to visit the club at anytime. Grand opening ceremonies will likely be held later, he said.

Walls in the youth center have been painted blue. Future plans call for decorating them with large astrological symbols made by local high school students.

Other improvements in the building include the remodeling and enlarging of two restrooms.

McDermott said the club has drawn the attention of young people in Norfolk who recently inquired concerning the club's organization, procedures used in getting it set up and other details in anticipation of getting a similar center started in Norfolk.

Some opposition to locating the club on Main Street in what was formerly Bill's Cafe occurred earlier this year when the city council approved the location.

Businessmen voicing their opposition said they did not oppose the idea of the youth club but were opposed to having it occupy a building on Main that could be used for a retail business.

Opponents were told by Mayor Kent Hall that the lease specifically states that the building is for the youth center or for any other legitimate use. That wording allows the council to sublease the building if the youth club should disband or if a retail business wants to move into the structure.

$150 Is Up for Grabs During Show

Visitors to the 1971 Farm and Home Show at the Wayne city auditorium this week will have a chance to win $150 in cash drawings.

Fifty dollars will be given away each evening of the show. The cash gifts must be spent at any of over 25 businesses which will have booths set up for the show.

Another attraction during the show—slated for Thursday through Saturday—is the slave auction being planned by the veterans organization at Wayne State College. About 20 vets will be sold during the evening, with proceeds going to help set up scholarships and help representatives of the VWSO organization who attend state and national conventions. The auction will get underway at 7:30 Thursday evening.

Dick Hammer, one of the Wayne County Jaycees in charge of putting on the show this year, said that bands may play at the show on Friday and Saturday nights.

Visitors to the show Thursday night are reminded that the winner in the weekly Cash Night drawing, worth $200 this week, will be announced at 8 p.m. in the auditorium, saving them the bother of leaving the show at that time in order to hear the name.

Smoker-Fry Set at Allen For Saturday

A fund-raising smoker and fish fry are being planned for the Allen fire hall Saturday.

Proceeds from the smoker-fry, scheduled to get underway at 6:30 in the evening, will go to the Allen rescue unit to provide equipment to keep it in operation.

Tickets for the evening are available from any firemen in the community. Price is $1 each. Donations—either money or equipment and supplies—for the rescue unit can be sent to either Bill Kier, chief of the Allen department, or Keith Hill, secretary for the firemen.

There is some thought being given in the Allen area to starting a drive to purchase a rescue unit which would be better equipped than the one now being used.

Charles Olesen Is New Chief At Wakefield

Charles Olesen, 35, has been hired as the new chief of police at Wakefield, replacing Carl Scheel.

Scheel, who took over the job last August, has accepted a position as manager for the Farmers Union Co-Op at Wakefield. He resigned duties as chief recently.

Olesen, operator of Olesen's Shoe Service in Wakefield, was hired during a meeting of the village board Thursday. He will take over his duties effective March 15.

The present night policeman, Erwin Lubberstedt, will change over to day hours when Olesen becomes chief. Olesen will be on duty from 7 p.m. to 5 a.m.

Olesen will resign his position as police magistrate when he takes over as chief.

Dixon Co. Towns Get $3,500 from NPPD

Communities in Dixon County will receive a total of $3,513.85 from the Nebraska Public Power District, according to Bernard M. DeLay, member of the NPPD board of directors.

The total payments of $224,016.15 to 224 towns in the state represent two per cent of gross retail revenue realized by the district within the corporate limits of the communities during 1970.

Payments are being made to fulfill terms of power contracts between the district and the towns it serves.

Largest payment in Dixon County is the $1,412.19 to Ponca. Also receiving payments: Allen, $694.53; Newcastle, $626.60; Concord, $289.21; Dixon, $187.12; Martinsburg, $132.79; Waterbury, $96.17; Maskell, $75.24.

Six Unhurt In Smashup

Six persons escaped injury around 10:15 p.m. Tuesday when the two vehicles in which they were riding collided one mile west and slightly more than two miles north of Wayne.

The Wayne County Sheriff's office investigated the mishap and said 16-year-old Robert Hank was driving the Scout and reportedly had just pulled onto the road from out of a farm lane prior to the collision.

Damage to the Hank car was estimated to be total. The Sheriff's office report said there was about $450 damage to the Scout.

Another auto mishap investigated by the Sheriff's office occurred Wednesday at Fourth and Dearborn Streets when an auto driven by Alice Patreldt reportedly backed into a parked truck belonging to the City of Wayne. There was not reported damage to the truck and only minor damage to the auto.

Firemen Called Out

Firemen were called to the new youth center located at the former site of Bill's Cafe in Wayne early Thursday evening when a heater hanging from a ceiling overheated.

Cliff Pinkelman, fire chief, reported there was no damage.

Been wanting to get a professional photograph taken of your children or your family lately? If so, you might want to take advantage of a valuable offer being made by The Wayne Herald and Lyman Photography.

Anybody who purchases or renews a year's subscription to the newspaper will receive a free 5x7 color photograph through an offer which will be effective during this week's Farm and Home Show at the city auditorium.

Anybody who wants to take advantage of the $15.25 offer should stop by the Herald booth during the show, scheduled for Thursday through Saturday. The picture will be taken at the Wayne studio between April 15 and 30. They can be of a single person, a couple or a group.

An advertisement explaining the offer is located elsewhere in this issue of the newspaper.

Dalsgaard to Perform at Midland

Mogens Dalsgaard, Danish concert pianist at Wayne State, will be on the Midland College campus during this week and will present a public recital Monday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Swanson Science Hall auditorium.

Dalsgaard is presently artist-in-residence at Wayne State College. Born in 1942, he was educated in Copenhagen during the year. He was 21.

Through various scholarships he studied at conservatories in Spain, Switzerland, and Poland, and has received an invitation to study in Italy.

The music critic for the Copenhagen newspaper "Politiken" wrote, "He belongs to the kind of pianists who will become real virtuosos. Tremendously gifted technique."

His appearance at Midland is made possible, in part, by a $500 matching grant from the Nebraska Arts Council. The grant is from private funds made available to the Nebraska Endowment for the Arts by the Woods Charitable Fund of Lincoln and Chicago.

according to Leonard Thiesen of Omaha, executive secretary of the Nebraska Arts Council.

During the rest of the week he will conduct classes and give lessons in the Midland College music department.

County Court Judge Sets Fines for Six

Exceeding the speed limit made it necessary for three area residents to appear before Judge Luverna Hilton in Wayne County Court late last week. Three other persons paid fines on varying charges.

Paying $5 court costs and speeding fines: Charles Warrick of Norfolk, $10; James Rogers of Norfolk, $14, and Mary Albin of Winside, $14.

Michael Todd of South Sioux City was fined $5 and costs of $5 for making an improper turn.

A fine of $10 and costs of $5 for illegal parking was paid by Gary Eldridge of Iowa Falls, Ia.

Grey Wunderly of Auburn, Ia., was fined $100 and costs of $7.50 for the attempt to purchase alcoholic liquor by a minor.

Summer Classes Set at Winside

Winside Public Schools will conduct a summer school program starting June 7 and ending July 16.

Classes in reading, math and speech are planned for the curriculum as are swimming lessons at the Pierce municipal pool each Monday morning.

The program is federally funded by Title I and will be a joint See CLASSES, page 2

Strings Workshop Here Friday

The Wayne Middle School string students and the Norfolk junior high string students are planning a workshop at Wayne Friday.

The afternoon session at the Wayne High lecture hall will last from 1:30 to 4.

Dr. Benjamin Bernstein, professor of strings and conductor of the orchestra at Wayne State College will be the guest clinician.

The string program at Norfolk is directed by John Grossman; the Wayne strings are directed by Mrs. Bonita Day.

Increments, Base Explained Inside

Base salary, increments, credit for additional study and other terms used when talking about salaries for teachers is all pretty confusing.

Now, residents of the Wayne-Carroll school district are being offered a chance to see quickly and easily what the recently approved salary schedule means in dollars and cents.

Inside this issue you can find a schedule showing how much a teacher can increase his salary by taking more college courses or staying in the system for a year or longer. The schedule makes sense out of increments, base salary and so on.

No Winner Thursday; Cash Jumps to $200

Linda Hrudigan of Wayne missed out on winning $150 when she was not present to accept a check for that amount during last week's Cash Night drawing.

Consequently, the drawing will be worth $200 this week.

Shoppers planning on taking in the Farm and Home Show at the Wayne city auditorium Thursday night should remember that the name which will be drawn that evening at eight o'clock will be announced at the auditorium. If the person whose name is called this week is at the show, he can collect the gift there.

Local Boys Club To Receive Cash From Cage Tilt

Money made from the benefit basketball game tonight (Monday) at the city auditorium will go to the Wayne Boys' Club.

The benefit game will pit members of the local men's recreation league against members of the TKE, social fraternity at Wayne State College.

Admission to the game is 25 cents for grade school youths, 50 cents for high school students and adults. The game starts at 7:45.

Ken Dahl, Lynn Lessmann, Jim Florine, John Dorcey, Tom Denninger, Ron Dalton and Dean Elston are among the men who will be playing on the local club. Tote-members include Ron Jones and Jim Merchel.

LAUREL HIGH cheerleaders Kim Gowery reveals her concern over the outcome of the Laurel-Aurora game in Thursday's opening round of the state tourney at Lincoln.

Aurora Ousts Bears

Any hopes the Laurel High Bears had of going one step beyond last year's runner-up finish in the state Class B basketball tournament were shattered by Aurora Thursday.

The high-scoring Huskies handed the Bears a 91-71 defeat in the opening round of the tourney at Forshing Auditorium. The legs knocked the Bears out of the state meet. Last year the Bears battled to second place in the tourney before bowing to a strong Cozad crew.

Results of the Laurel-Aurora clash, pictures of the action affair and other sports stories can be found on the sports page of this issue of The Wayne Herald.

Wakefield Planning 90th Birthday Celebration

By Merlin Wright

Sewing needles and razors are becoming more in demand every day in the Wakefield area as residents of that city plan for a 90th birthday party set for June 14, 15 and 16.

The ladies will soon be using the needles for making and sewing old-fashioned dresses to be worn every Saturday before the celebration starting May 1 and during the three-day event. Each dressmaker will strive for detail in old-fashioned styles as there is to be a contest and prize for the most authentic old dress at the celebration.

Wakefield gents started growing beards and other fashionable chin finery early in January in a race to see who can come up with the prize-winning whisker display in June.

Ray Lund, chairman of the whisker club, said Friday that Brother-of-the-Brush buttons are priced at 50 cents while shaving permit buttons sell for $2.

Five and eight-year-old young ladies are being urged to enter the "Little Miss Wakefield" competition, according to Esther Turney, publicity chairman. She said the youthful entrants will walk across a stage in fashion-show style to compete for the coveted title, Savings Bond and award plaque.

Bill Yost, celebration chairman, said planning committees met Thursday night and decided to start the celebration on June 14 at 6 p.m. with a horsemesh contest followed by a children's and pet parade at 7 p.m. Whiskers will be judged at eight o'clock that night with area firemen having a water fight at 8:30 p.m.

Yost said activities on the second day will include a ball game at 1:30 p.m., the "Little Miss Wakefield" contest at 2 p.m., a second round of horsemesh competition at 6 p.m., the celebration's main parade at 6 p.m., a talent show by area organizations at 7:30 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m.—an exhibition-of-square dancing.

On schedule for the final day of celebrating are a baseball game at one o'clock, an afternoon swim meet beginning at 3 p.m., final horsemesh events at 6 p.m., and a repeat of the main parade at 6 p.m. A 7:30 p.m. horse show has been scheduled as the grand finale.

Yost said effort is being made to get residents to display their antiques in downtown stores during celebration week and that area organizations are being in- See CELEBRATION, page 2

1st WS Choir Clinic Set for March 20

Seven high school choirs will climb to Wayne State Saturday, March 20, for the first annual Wayne State Choir Clinic-Festival.

Dr. Cornell Runestad, director of choral music at WSC, expects choirs from Bloomfield, Osmond, Plainview, Randolph, Westwood of Sloan, Ia., Wisner-Pilar and Winside.

The choirs, with about 400 singers, will rehearse twice, at 10:30 and 1:30, for a public concert at 3 p.m. in Rice Auditorium.

Each choir will have several minutes for its own number, in addition to massed choir selections on the concert program. The Wayne State choir also will sing a special number and form the nucleus of the massed choir.

The clinic's purpose, Dr. Runestad adds, is to provide high school choirs with performance opportunity beyond their own communities, to furnish their musicians with a clinical, massed choir experience of high quality, and to let singers hear other quality choirs.

There will be no charge for the concert.

Area Residents To Be Surveyed

A sample of residents in the Wayne area will be included in a nationwide survey of employment and unemployment to be conducted the week of March 15 by the Bureau of the Census, U. S. Department of Commerce, it was announced by Gay A. Lutz, Director of the Bureau's regional office in St. Paul.

The survey is conducted monthly for the U. S. Department of Labor. Results are used to calculate the number of persons who have jobs, the number looking for work and the monthly percentage of unemployment, an important measure of the nation's economic well-being.

In addition to questions on work experience, this survey will have questions on income, labor union membership, family composition, ethnic origin, any change of residence the past year and date of first marriage, if married.

The information is used for statistical purposes only, and facts about each family are kept completely confidential.

Census Bureau interviewers who will visit households in this area are: Catherine N. Moeller of Wisner and Ruth Koehler of Norfolk.

'Pete' Haberer Rites Saturday

Pete Haberer, well known farmer in the Wayne area for the last 30 years, died Thursday following a lingering illness.

Peter Hufer Haberer was born Feb. 1, 1914 at Beech, N. D. While yet a small boy, he moved with his parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard Haberer, to Cedar County, Nebraska.

After being united in marriage to Mabel Marie Calson on Mar. 30, 1937 at Crofton, he and his wife lived near Coleridge for a year before moving to Wayne where they farmed for about 30 years.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Catholic Church with the Rev. Paul Begley officiating. Music included "Oh Paradise," "Pans Angelicus," "Veni Jesu Amor Me," and "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," by Mrs. Jean Nuss, Mrs. Cletus Sharrer and Joe Nuss. Pallbearers were Jim Haberer, Charles Haberer, Richard Haberer, Dennis Mines, Arthur Jansen and Pete Jansen. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Proceeding him in death were his parents, one brother, two sisters and one grandchild. Survivors include his widow, one son, Robert of Wayne; four daughters, Mrs. Paul (Virginia) Otte of Wayne, Mrs. Burnell (Esther) Baker of Morningside, Sioux City, Ia., and Mrs. Tom (Cecelia) Mau and Dianne Haberer, both of Wayne; one brother, Lawrence Haberer of Yantou, S. D., one sister, Mrs. Altonse Jansen of Fordyce and 10 grandchildren.

Celebration

Plans for a golf tournament at Wakefield golf course are in the making. Tournaments will be during the birthday celebration but Yost said a definite date has not as yet been set.

Other committee chairman working on various projects include Berneal Gustafson, parade chairman; Paul Byers, carnival chairman; Mrs. Don Laase, chairman of Sisters of the Swish, and Harry Mills, chairman of the Lion's Club activities. The Young at Heart Club is taking charge of the kiddies parade.

Wakefield was plated as a town in 1881 on a 40-acre tract contributed by Philo Graves. Graves was a pioneer resident arriving in the Wakefield area from Illinois in 1869.

A railroad went into operation in the fall of 1881 and track was added from the existing line at Emerson on west to Wakefield. Wakefield's first merchant was a man by the name of John T. Marriott who was also the postmaster. Mail service was by a buggy that traveled from Ponca to LaPorte via Wakefield twice weekly.

Graves planted walnut trees on a four-acre plot of ground which is still retained by the City of Wakefield as a park.

Classes

Any student enrolled in Hoskins public or parochial schools, or in the public schools at Winside, is eligible to enroll. Bus service will be provided for students attending from Hoskins.

A newsletter concerning the summer program will soon be sent home with individual students, according to M. J. Masten, superintendent of schools at Winside. He said anyone not receiving such a schedule and interested in having a pupil enroll should contact either himself or Ruth Puls at the Winside Elementary School.

North American farmers use about 390 million feet of baler twine per year.

City, County In Fund Drive

Residents of Wayne will again take part in the "Neighbor-to-Neighbor" fund drive for the Nebraska Easter Seal Society, it was announced by Wayne Mann, state campaign chairman.

Mathilda Harmes is telephoning block volunteers to start the fund raising kits on their blocks. The kits contain 1971 Easter Seals and envelopes for contributions. When the block volunteer has taken out her Easter Seals and made a contribution, she will pass the kit along to her neighbor. When the kit has completed its trip around the block, the last family to receive it should return it to the block volunteer.

Block volunteers may begin circulating the kits upon their arrival, between March 15 and April 1.

Other areas of Wayne County will receive the county appeal letter for contributions. Through gifts to Easter Seals, Wayne County residents will help provide physical and speech therapy, transportation to medical facilities and special schools and hospital equipment to Nebraska's handicapped.

Set Home Repair Sessions

Joyce Lynn Smith, Area Extension Home Economist at the Northeast Station at Concord, has announced the training session dates for the extension club lesson, "Lady Fair Does Home Repair."

The lesson will be presented to extension club leaders and other organization leaders at the Nebraska State Bank in South Sioux City March 23; the firehall in Walthill, March 25; the Hartington Courtroom, March 26; the Wayne County Courtroom, March 29, and the Northeast Station at Concord March 30. All sessions will begin at 1:30 p.m.

"Lady Fair Does Home Repair," will include remedies for squeaking hinges, sticking doors, broken latches, loose tiles and a variety of other problems most annoying to a wife whose husband is too busy to take care of them. Persons interested in attending any of the meetings should contact the Northeast Station in advance so that lesson material will be available.

Sixteen Attend Extension Club

Sixteen members attended the Klock and Klatter Home Extension Club Meeting Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Alex Liska, who played two selections on the organ for the group. Members read "We Prepare for Tomorrow."

Mrs. Harold Gathje read, "Lord, Use Me," and Mrs. Liska reported on "Ten Things to Tell Your Wife About Pollution." The lesson, "Trends in Carpets and Rugs," was given by Mrs. Harold Field. Mrs. Paul Slevers received the hostess prize.

April 13 meeting will be with Mrs. Harold Ingalls at 2 p.m.

Three Guests Attend Merry Mixer Meeting

Guests at the Merry Mixers Home Extension meeting Tuesday were Mrs. Morris Backstrom, Mrs. Harvey Reeg and Mrs. Hazel Jones. Eight members attended the meeting hosted by Mrs. Lawrence Backstrom. Roll call was answered with favorite proverbs.

Mrs. Ray Butts gave the lesson, "Trends in Carpets and Rugs." Plans were made for an 8 p.m. party Apr. 3 in the Ray Butts home. Next regular meeting will be at 1:30 p.m. April 13 in the home of Mrs. Robert Peters.

Want Refund Early? Mail Returns Early

Refund checks are less likely to be delayed when tax returns are filed early. Richard Vinal, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska, said last week.

Vinal urged taxpayers to send their returns in now if they have not already done so. It will help taxpayers get their refunds sooner and reduce government processing costs by enabling the IRS to spread workloads more evenly, he said.

Vinal advised taxpayers to use the pre-addressed name label that came with their Form 1040 to expedite processing. Returns should be sent directly to the Service Center in the envelope provided.

UP WITH MINISKIRTS: The staid British Medical Journal has come out in favor of miniskirts. They're good for a woman's back, it seems, because they require her to bend at the knees rather than the trunk, when picking up objects.

Concert Set

Wakefield High School Music Department, under the direction of Mrs. Diane Trullinger, will present a pops concert at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the elementary auditorium.

The program will include selections by the band, triplets, boys' octette, Patriots, boys' and girls' glee clubs and varsity choir.

Popular music to today and yesterday will be featured.

Circle Meeting Held In Mrs. C. Bard Home

St. Paul's Lutheran Church Martha Circle was held Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. C. A. Bard. Mrs. Florence Siemers was co-hostess.

The lesson was "The Parable of the Yeast. April 14 meeting will be at 2 p.m. with Mrs. Julia Haas.

Use Character Portrayal at Redeemer Lenten Services

The defiant thief (portrayed by Irvin Hagemann of rural Wayne) was a special guest at Redeemer Lutheran Church Lenten service Wednesday evening. The program, which centered on dialogue by the defiant thief, was on "The Face of Selfishness."

This Wednesday's special guest will be the repentant thief, Keith Lech, another Biblical character, who will emphasize "The Face of Repentance."

Pastor S. K. deFreese explains that the Redeemer Church is using the character portrayal system to emphasize the Lenten service messages, which will continue each Wednesday evening.

Pastor S. K. deFreese of Redeemer Lutheran Church welcomes the defiant thief at Lenten services Wednesday evening. Each Wednesday a different Biblical character makes his appearance, with a special message for the congregation.

University Offers Free Insect Control Pamphlet

With spring nearly upon us and summer not far behind, many area homemakers will be interested in a circular prepared by Extension Entomologists at the University of Nebraska.

The pamphlet, "Insect Control guide for the Household and Pets," lists insecticides to use in control of ants, boxelder bugs, crickets, spiders, etc., and is available at the Northeast Station or the County Extension Office. Ask for pamphlet E.C. 71-1506.

VAIN HOPE: From the current issue of the Harvard Business Review: "Once, when asked what his company did, Charles Revson of a cosmetic company said: 'In the factory, we make cosmetics; in the store, we sell hope.'"

Laurel High Ousted from State Cage Tourney

By Norvin Hansen

Laurel High ran into a sawmill named Aurora and got dumped out of the Class B state basketball tournament with a 21-71 loss in the opening round of action Thursday afternoon at Lincoln.

Playing before a packed house at Pershing Auditorium, the Bears stumbled in the third period after battling back from several points to trail at 25-24 at the first break and then go ahead at 44-42 at intermission.

Tom Kropp, field general for the high-scoring Huskies, led that third-period surge when Aurora outscored the Bears by 32 to 11 to go into the final stanza with a 74-55 lead.

Spid Larry Moore, coach of the Bears: "We got a little tired and were not used to playing that kind of competition."

The Huskies threw a full-court press against the Bears the full game, a tactic Moore said had a lot to do in determining the outcome of the contest.

The Bears, who played against a man-to-man defense only a few times this year, were unable to break through the Aurora press several times in the third period and made several bad passes, which the Huskies quickly turned into points.

The Huskies' fast break, very similar to Laurel's, helped wear down their foes. Kropp, high scorer in the game with 35 points, led that charge as soon as he grabbed the rebounds—much the same way Laurel's Erwin led his squad's fast break.

Erwin closed out his high school career by dumping in 21 points, one more than junior George Schroeder. Steve Smith, sick earlier in the week, came up with 14 points for the other Laurel cager in two figures.

Brent Johnson, sick early Thursday morning, canned four points, the same as Regg Swanson and Paul McCoy. Steve Burns and Rick Smith had two each for the other Laurel points.

Kropp, who scored over 40 points in Aurora's loss to Fairbury, was joined by three other players in two digits.

The Bears outrebounded the tough Huskies, 40-36, but they committed a costly 16 turnovers. Aurora played a nearly flawless game.

Laurel closes out the 1970-71 season with a 18-6 overall mark.

Hastings to Host Cage Enthusiasts

Wayne area basketball enthusiasts between 10 years of age and the 11th grade are invited to participate in the third annual Hastings College Basketball School.

The school will be held in two sessions, May 30-June 5 and August 8-14, and will be under the direction of Lynn Farrell, head cage boss at Hastings College.

Participants will be housed and meals will be served in the air-conditioned college facilities. A modern athletic facility,

Wildlife Week Is Nearing

Wildlife is one of Nebraska's most important natural heritages as well as an indicator of the quality of our environment, according to a proclamation issued by Governor J. J. Exon which designates March 21 through 27 as Wildlife Week in Nebraska.

The governor's document said that increasing amounts of pollution, industrial expansion and land development projects are rapidly depleting wildlife populations and destroying the environment for man. The proclamation urged Nebraskans to take a closer look at their world and the criteria by which they judge it by asking the question "Wildlife: Who Needs It?" This question has been selected as the theme for National Wildlife Week for 1971.

The environment is threatened on many fronts throughout the world, but in Nebraska the main problem is the destruction of natural areas that provide wholesome outdoor recreation and wildlife habitat. Even though Nebraska's environment is better shaped than most states, evidence of its deterioration is evident in many places, according to the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission.

That is the reason for National Wildlife Week, an annual observance sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation, which is equipped with swimming pool, will be used during the school. A staff of 13 has been assembled for each session. The group includes top college and prep coaches from various sections of the nation.

Wildlife Federation to focus attention on vital conservation issues and to promote wise use of our natural resources. It was launched by Presidential proclamation in 1938 and is scheduled each year to include the first day of spring. Nebraskans wanting to do something for the state's wild birds and animals can take action during Wildlife Week. Information packets that give details on just what can be done are available by writing: Elizabeth Huff, Game and Parks Commission, State Capitol, Lincoln, Nebr. 68509.

Wayne High Adopts Revised Training Rules

A newly revised set of training rules for Wayne High School athletes has been established by the coaching staff after a series of meetings with the school's W Club members.

The new training rules clarify a number of items and are more comprehensive in several respects than the old set of training rules. The old rules did not clearly specify the procedures and penalties to be imposed on violators, and did not include provisions for handling the possession, use or influence of drugs.

Standards for acceptable general appearance are also more specific, as are the penalties. Harold Maciejewski, director of athletics, conducted the series of meetings with the coaches and athletes after inquiries had been made regarding the interpretation of some of the old rules. The new rules are more specific and the standards more clearly stated, said Maciejewski.

The new rules state that an athlete's general appearance must be accepted by the members of the coaching staff. An athlete's hair should be above the eyebrows, tapered so it doesn't touch the ear and tapered from the bottom of the ear.

Beards or mustaches are not acceptable under the new rules. Except for the rules regarding general appearance and hours, the training rules are in effect the entire calendar year.

A student who possesses, uses or is under the influence of alcoholic beverages or drugs shall be suspended for the first half of the season in each sport in which he participates during the school year, the rules state.

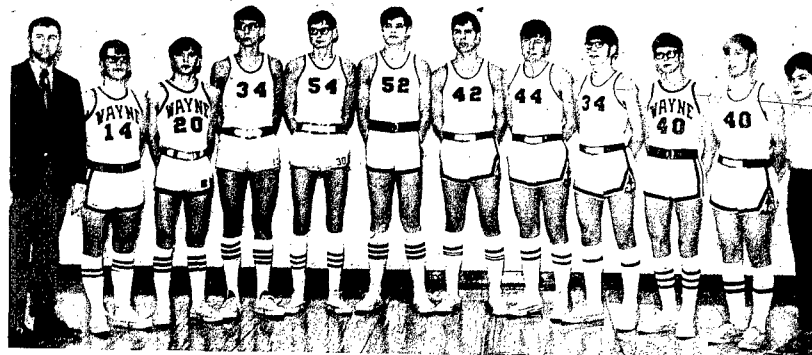

Athletes caught smoking will receive a verbal warning the first time. The second time they will miss the first competitive contest of each sport they take part in.

Curfew hours set under the new rules are 10:30 during the week and "a reasonable" time on weekends. The night before a contest, athletes should be home by 10 p.m. Failure to do so would mean the loss of participation in the next contest.

According to the new rules: "Pride should be taken by the athlete in the school and in himself. Courtesy and respect should be shown to fellow students, athletes, faculty, and the coaches. This should be exhibited at home and away from Wayne High School."

Violation of the rules more than once during any school year will result in suspension from participation in all sports for that year and will result in the loss of all earned letters and W Club membership privileges and benefits.

Dixon Cops 2nd in Annual Cage Tourney

Hubbard's smooth seventh-grade basketball team cut out a 42-23 victory against Dixon to win the fifth annual invitational tournament at Dixon Wednesday night.

Dixon's Brian Bloom with eight points and Brian Hirschert with seven were high in the 42-23 defeat.

The hosts moved into the championship game with a Monday night victory over Belden, 36-18, and a Tuesday night squeaker over Wynot, 27-26. Hubbard downed Hoskins the first night, 36-15, and Concord the second night, 36-31, to earn its berth in the finals.

Concord's club posted a 51-33 win over Wynot to earn third-place trophy in the tourney, directed again this year by Bill Garvin of Dixon. Concord whipped Wayne St. Mary's, 40-27, in the opening round.

Hoskins, winner of fifth place trophy with a 32-26 decision over Belden, lost to Hubbard the first night and then spoiled St. Mary's completely out of the tourney Tuesday night by a 36-30 score.

The tourney was played to a full auditorium crowd all three nights.

Dixon's cheerleading quartet—Laurie Stanley, Lorraine Stanley, LeAnn Lubberstedt and Cindy Garvin—earned top trophy in the cheer-leading contest. Taking second in that competition was Wynot. Hubbard placed third.

Garvin was presented a plaque by his players for the work he has done in coaching the Dixon youngsters and for the work involved in putting on the meet each year. Don Kramer, former Dixon, received a plaque for announcing the tourney. Also receiving a plaque for his coaching work at Dixon was Dave Ains.

Bowl on TV Station

Dale Mayberry of Emerson, representing the Wakefield Recreation Center, bowled Sunday at noon on the Big Bowl program on television station KCAT in Sioux City.

Mrs. Marion Keagle will bowl this coming Sunday on the noon program.

Reserves End Cage Season

Rescue Unit Drive Hits Halfway Mark

A drive for funds to purchase a rescue unit at Wakefield was described by Art Doescher, In-town chairman, as being at about the halfway mark in the number of people contacted. No figure was available as to how much of the $20,000 goal had been raised.

Doescher said Saturday morning that the drive for the $20,000 was going slow but that volunteers hope to complete the campaign by the end of this week.

About 30 people are enrolled in a Red Cross training course meeting at the Wakefield fire hall at 7:30 p.m. each Monday night.

The 10-week course is being instructed by Dakota City firemen to teach procedures in emergency rescue operations.

SOME FOLKS THINK IT PAYS TO GO SHOP OUT OF TOWN...

but have they stopped to think about what happens to that dollar they spend away from home? Part of it will go to support the schools, churches and public projects of the community in which that dollar was spent. All well and good. But what about the schools, churches, etc. in our own community? These must also be supported. Don't short-change our hometown and yourself by scattering dollars elsewhere . . . keep them working right here for you and yours!

Salary Schedule for 1971-72 For Wayne-Carroll School

Last week the Wayne-Carroll school board approved a new salary schedule for teachers in the system in the 1971-72 school year.

The schedule includes a change in the base pay—the amount paid a teacher with a college degree but with no experience—from $6,300 to $6,500.

It also includes a change in the amount of money a teacher can earn by obtaining more college hours beyond his undergraduate degree. For each step beyond the four-year degree, teachers receive a five and one-half per cent increase over their base salary. As can be seen by the schedule, salary increases are possible after nine additional hours, 18 additional hours and so on.

Also, teachers in the local system receive a four per cent increase for each year of teaching under the new schedule.

For example, a teacher next year fresh out of college and with no experience would receive $6,500 as his base salary. However, a person who has been in the school system for two years and has obtained nine college hours above his undergraduate would receive a salary of $7,378 next year—eight per cent increase over his base for his two years of experience and five and one-half per cent increase for his additional training.

The present schedule calls for increases of five per cent for each step in professional training. It also calls for increases of four per cent for each year of experience through the first three. There is a five per cent jump between the third and fourth year, then a return to the four per cent formula. That extra per cent jump has been dropped in the recently approved schedule. Its purpose was to keep teachers interested in the system about the time they considered moving, according to the board's feelings a year ago.

Only minor changes were made in the schedule for pay for extra duties taken on by the teachers. The changes: a $75 increase for the sponsor of the Pep Club and a $50 increase for the assistant.

Examples of the extra pay which can be earned by teachers: $500 for the head football or basketball coach with no experience, $300 for their assistants with no experience, $450 for the band director with no experience. As with the salary schedule, teachers staying with their extra duty jobs can earn more each year. The raises for each year are either $25 or $50, ceasing after a varying number of years on the same job.

Superintendent Francis Haun said that the new schedule will cost the school district $19,107 over what would have been paid the present teachers next year under the current schedule.

Cost of the new schedule plus costs from teachers advancing on the training and experience ladders will amount to $29,371 over the 1970-71 payroll, Haun said.

If there is no major change in the valuation of the school district and if state and federal aid amounts to about the same as it does this year, the new schedule will call for a mill increase of about 2.7, said Haun.

How to Ruin a Town

1. Attend no meeting of any kind. Criticize the way they are doing things.
2. Remind others of the cold winters, hot summers and ruggedness required of those who live here.
3. Complain about the police department, the fire department, the Chamber of Commerce and other governmental and civic groups.
4. Convince yourself that your attendance at school programs, service clubs, concerts, ball games, exhibits and benefit programs is not important. You'll never be missed.
5. Knock your city council or commissioners. Talk up the kickbacks the politicians at city hall must be getting.
6. Stay away from your church. You might attend on Easter Sunday or during the Christmas season just to reassure yourself that all those who attend are hypocrites.

7. Purchase most of your requirements through discount or mail order catalogues. These firms are the first to come forth with donations and services to your community.
8. Remind others that your local newspaper is no good. It misses more news than out-of-town media get by accident.
9. Remember that all kids are delinquents, all businessmen are crooks and that uncomplimentary remarks about the town are the order of the day.
10. Above all, always be skeptical, cynical and negative about anything that is designed for the community's progress and betterment.

Without a doubt, everybody in the area has probably been guilty of one or more of these criticisms at some time. Continually committing them would soon be very detrimental to any community. — NLH.

No Need for Help?

Attempts were made at the end of 1970 and early this year to set up a confidential farm counseling association available to farmers in Wayne, Cedar, Dixon, Thurston and Dakota Counties.

In a day and age of complex farming operations involving intricate financial operations and ever increasing administrative processes, it was thought that the need for agricultural counseling was such as to justify the creation of a farm counseling service.

We understand plans for such an association have been dropped due to lack of interest.

Turning away from cooperative counseling is a new twist in this day of increased farm problems, complex marketing know-how and fewer profits.

Carrying on any type of competitive business in 1971 requires extensive planning and paper work. Most businessmen at one time or another turn to consultants who are acquainted with problems related to a particular area of modern commerce.

Was there no need in the five-county area for agricultural counseling by a trained farm management consultant? — MMW.

Visiting Wayne

A group of elementary students from the Ponca area were in Wayne Thursday touring various places of interest.

The students toured Wayne Herald Publishing where they observed the offset printing process; visited Radio KTCB studios where one student was interviewed on the air; discovered how a modern bakery operates at Johnson's; learned many things about the Milky Way Galaxy during a star show at the WSC planetarium and got a glimpse of college life by touring the local college campus. Two places among the many the students did not have time to visit are the local museum at the courthouse and the fire station.

This class of young people spent the major portion of a day learning by seeing. Floyd Bracken, manager of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, was their host and accompanied the students and adult sponsors on the tour.

Wayne is the only city of its size in the 100-mile stretch between Norfolk and Sioux City offering area students the opportunity to see some of these things. In fact, the only planetarium in northeast Nebraska is here as is the only college campus having an enrollment of nearly 3,000 students.

Is it possible that many of us living here are victims of the old phrase that familiarity breeds contempt? In other words, are there places of interest right here but we discount them because we have them under our noses?

We're convinced there is everything in the world to gain by inviting people to tour places of interest in Wayne.

The Chamber of Commerce is certainly on the right track in encouraging people to visit Wayne, not only for a good time, but showing them that the city has many assets for making it a good place to live. — MMW.

JUST WRIGHT

by Merlin Wright

What a wonderful month is March — too late to put up the storm windows and too early to worry about the screens. The only thing a person need be concerned about is that sometimes winter lingers so long in the lap of spring that it can cause a lot of talk.

God gave us two ends, one to sit on and the other to think with. A man's success depends on which he uses most. It is a case of heads you win and tails you lose, right? Right!

Those folks who sit around on their you-know-what, complaining of the noise when opportunity knocks, are not much more than gawky-talkies. They really stop, look and listen. Their accomplishments amount to looking and listening. They seldom become involved in anything. Sad case.

Be honest. If you had the opportunity of trying to help a man who was wailing for his family, discouraged with his station in life, hungry for home-cooked food prepared by the hands of his loving wife, often in tears because he has been unable to see his children for some time, would you make any effort to lend a hand? Are you sure you would? There is a way you can!

We're talking about nearly 4,500 American soldiers classified by our government as either prisoners of war or missing in action in Southeast Asia. Hundreds of wives and kiddies do not know whether their daddies are alive or dead. But then, who cares? Do you?

Many of the men have been victims of torture, starvation and public harassment. Some have been put in pyramids on public display like animals. At least 18 of them have been murdered or died from lack of nourishment. But then, who cares? Do you?

Maybe you are not like many Americans who live in the comfort of a non-military life, eat lots of good food daily, chat on the phone, carry on daily business, and have time for fun but have few minutes to really get serious about getting something done for the American war prisoners.

Are you sure you have time to care? It may cost you an envelope and postage stamp.

Express your concern for these American men held in enemy prisons

Dixon

Dear Editor:

How about a few Dixon pictures in the paper? They had a basketball tournament two weeks ago and one going on now. Also, a group of cheerleaders and pep club back the teams well.

Mrs. Larry Lubberstedt

Editor's Note: Hold on. If the pictures of that annual tournament aren't in this issue of The Wayne Herald, they'll be in the next one. We're more than happy to oblige our readers in Dixon. If something's going on which you would like to have reported in pictures or story, just give us a call.

The Tittle Pulpit

It is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for it is portion.

— Ecclesiastes 5:18 and your abhorrence for their mal-treatment by writing to: President Ton Duc Thang, Democratic Republic of Viet Nam, Hanoi, North Viet Nam, and to Minister Xuan Thuy, North Viet Nam Delegation, Paris. Peace Talks, Paris, France. Air mail postage is 25¢ for the letter to North Viet Nam and 20¢ to France.

You say you don't have time? Time is about all those prisoners have who were out there on the front lines pulling the trigger for you when they were captured.

Letters should be brief and to the point, but not abusive. Remind President Ton Duc Thang and Thuy that in 1957 North Viet Nam signed the Geneva Convention relative to the treatment of prisoners of war.

If their government is to be recognized or respected in any way, it must abide by signed agreements.

If you care enough to write, ask that names of all prisoners of war be published; all sick and injured prisoners be released immediately; all prisoners be permitted to exchange mail with their families; impartial inspections be made of prison facilities; prisoners receive proper diet and medical care, and that all prisoners of war be released as soon as possible.

There is evidence that Hanoi has responded in the past to the pressure of world opinion. You can add the weight of your personal concern in attempting to get the Communists to abide by the Geneva Conference. But then you've got all those important meetings to attend today and, after all, what difference would your letter alone make? Your busy schedule is the envy of a prisoner of war who would give most anything just to be back home, kiss the wife and hug the kids.

The world is hardened but there still remain a great many people who do care one of fellow human beings. You're likely one of those who put off your own work occasionally in order to give somebody

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

Several landowners in the South Sioux City area have complained to county officials about the practice of spreading paunch materials on Dakota County farmlands.

The material is spread west of Dakota City, providing farmers in the area to contend the practice creates a health hazard and offensive odors.

Iowa Beef Processors, where the material comes from, has promised new equipment to alleviate the problem. Company officials have described the situation "almost intolerable," according to the last issue of The South Sioux City Star.

About 20 irate landowners met with IBP officials and county authorities last week to discuss the practice. Another meeting is slated for April 6, offering the company time to see if the new process under study is worthwhile.

The county officials told the IBP representatives that the practice is contrary to state law and ordered them to stop or suffer the penalty provided by law.

About 80 boys in grades five through nine have started workouts in wrestling at Randolph High School. The workouts will last for about three more weeks, giving the youths chance to learn tricks of the trade from 10 members of the high school team. Instructing the workouts are Dean Miller and Russell Jensen.

George Wilson of Uteka will be the new superintendent at Pierce High School next year.

The Pierce school board has issued a contract to Wilson for $15,500 per year. Wilson has been superintendent at Uteka for the past 12 years.

The Hartington High school board recently turned down a request to recognize the teachers' negotiating committee as representative of the teachers in the public school system there.

Since the board does not recognize the committee, the board may offer contracts to teachers on an individual basis as in the past.

A regular board meeting was held last Wednesday night.

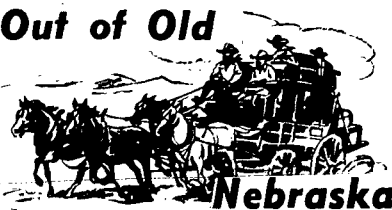

West Point last week received a grant of $62,070 from the Federal Environmental Protection Agency to help build a secondary sewage treatment plant.

The grant will cover nearly a third of the total cost of $188,100 of the plant.

The primary plant which now serves the city separates the settleable solids but allows the remaining liquid to dump into the Elkhorn River. The new facility will aerate this sewage with large beaters, cultivating bacteria to break down most of the impurities in the sewage.

De Valera in Omaha

President Eamon de Valera, a leader of the Sinn Fein the Irish revolutionary party, in 1919 paid a visit to Omaha, where he was enthusiastically supported by Irish-Americans and others interested in Irish independence. De Valera, who was born in New York in 1882, joined the insurgents of the 1916 Easter Rebellion in Ireland, which was suppressed by the "Black and Tan" British troops. He was sentenced to death, granted amnesty, but finally imprisoned in Lincoln, England, in 1918. He escaped in 1919, then sailed for America to solicit support for the Irish Free State movement. Collections of the Nebraska State Historical Society contain information of his visit to Nebraska. A photograph of the Valera holding a huge bouquet of roses and surrounded by Omaha admirers, was recently presented to the Society by John G. Bltzes, Omaha history teacher.

Arranging for his Omaha visit was Liam Mellows, commander of the Irish Republican army and special envoy to de Valera. On October 22, 1919, in the "Irish Determination Hall" of the Labor Temple, Mellows spoke on "The Case of Ireland as it Exists Today." On the eve of a helping hand, right?

An example of people helping people is not hard to find. There are all kinds of harvesting bees held each year in this area of the country where good neighbors go to aid a friend in need.

If you have a son in the Wayne-Carroll schools you may already know that the high school wrestling team has put in a good many hours of its own time working with and teaching the younger lads the sport of wrestling. The high school youths recently worked with the elementary boys in three days of dual meets and then helped in the tournament held last Tuesday night at the high school gym.

WHIS wrestlers discovered the satisfaction there is in responsibility and in passing on the techniques of a competitive sport. The small fry found out that all those big high school boys are not mean and can actually be loads of fun. Observing the older and younger youths working together was a satisfaction in itself. J. W. comments the school personnel making the arrangements for such a co-operative venture.

Well, spring is nearly here. Clothing stores in Wayne have their windows decked out in colorful bawls. A new hat is not only a tonic for a woman, but it makes her feel strong enough to buy a suit and four pairs of shoes to go with it.

Some of the gals out shopping are bride-eyed. After all, springtime comes in a boy's life when he notices that a girl notices he is noticing her.

Love starts at an early age these days. One little girl walked angrily away from two small boys. One of them muttered, "She broke our engagement. She returned my frog!"

There are lots of big problems in childhood. That is the reason children need mamas and daddies. Just remember those tykes that will go to bed in America tonight not knowing whether or not their daddy is alive in a Southeast Asian prison camp.

You will write those letters now, won't you?

ning of October 27 de Valera was met at the Burlington depot, from which he was escorted to the Fontenelle Hotel. Following Mass at 8 p.m., he was welcomed "by thunderous applause" from a crowd of 4,000 persons in the Creighton University gym. After a few sentences in Gaelic to show the older Irish immigrants that "the English have failed to kill our language," he launched into an attack de Valera asked his audience: "Do you accept the principle of self-determination?" After a loud "yes we do" response, he continued: "Then how can you deny it to Ireland? You went into the recent war (World War I) to show that right is might and to be consistent, you must now recognize the Irish Republic..."

When I make a special appeal to the people of our race, I do it because I know there are no truer Americans (wild applause). He called the League of Nations an "unholy alliance," contending it was attempting to preserve the "loot and plunder" which powerful nations "obtained by unjust means." His recital of the "Injustices" of Britain was long and concluded with: "If England's empire were not the rotten thing it is at heart, it would not control the world." A resolution read by Louis Cavanaugh calling for the U. S. Senate to vote against American entry into the League, to recognize Eire immediately, and to deny credits to Great Britain was unanimously adopted.

The following day a full round of appearances awaited "DeV": visits to Catholic schools, a handshaking tour at the stockyards, and the unveiling in Holy Sepulchre cemetery of a monument to Civil War veteran, General John O'Neill, Irish nationalist whose activities in the 1860-70's led to quixotic armed attacks on British Canada. (Later, O'Neill promoted Irish settlements in Nebraska, and the county seat of Holt County is named for him.)

That evening a banquet for de Valera attracted 250 men and women to the Fontenelle. There he continued his criticism of "perfidious Albion," which he said had "a foot on Ireland's neck for 700 years." Toastmaster was John Rush. The Rev. James Ahearn, pastor of St. Agnes Church, John Maher of Lincoln, and E. H. Whelan of O'Neill also spoke. Father Burke sang "The Soldier's Song of Sinn Fein" and the audience joined him in "The Star Spangled Banner" and "God Save Ireland."

President de Valera, accompanied by Sean Numan (later Irish ambassador to the U. S.), took a pullman that night for Denver to continue his campaign for American support for his cause. He made another swing across America in 1920, at which time he attended the presidential nominating conventions of the major parties. Numan, now retired in Eire, recently assisted his country's Embassy in Washington in following some of the men in the photograph given the Society by Mr. Bltzes.

Throughout the next 50 years de Valera was to hold major posts in the government of Eire, which now is completely separated from the British crown. Alert today at 88, he is his country's president, serving the fifth year of a seven-year term. He has been one of the world's most durable statesmen. North Ireland (Ulster) is still a part of Great Britain, but nationalists in Eire hope that some day the entire Emerald Isle may be one nation.
