

County Board

Approves $3,500 Raise

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners, at their Dec. 21 meeting, voted unanimously to increase the county commissioners' salaries to $6,500 a year, to be effective in January of 1973.

The present annual salary of the commissioners is $3,000. The salary hike was allowed by the passage of LB 374 in the Unicameral. The bill, which went into effect Aug. 27, provided that the county commissioners could set the annual salaries for that office.

Since elected officials cannot, by law, raise their salaries during their own terms of office, the increase will not become effective until the first of the three staggered terms has expired. In this case the term of Commissioner Kenneth Eddle in January of 1973.

Re-election of Eddle or the election of a new county commissioner to take his place will make all three board members eligible for salary increases at the beginning of that term.

The board, which, in addition to Eddle, is composed of chairman Floyd Burt and Joe Wilson, meets twice monthly at the Wayne County Courthouse.

Former Wayne Resident Hurt

Francis D. Moul, a former Wayne State College instructor, now publisher of the Syracuse Journal-Democrat of Syracuse, Neb., was seriously injured in a two-car head-on collision five miles south of Syracuse on Highway 50 Monday, Dec. 27.

Moul, who suffered two broken legs and other injuries, was first taken to the Tecumseh Hospital and later transferred to St. Elizabeth Hospital at Lincoln.

The former Wayne resident, alone in his car, was struck by a car driven by Steven D. Avey of Lincoln.

Livestock Producers Are Reminded Of Diethylstilbestrol Certification

WASHINGTON - The U. S. Department of Agriculture reminded livestock producers that the mandatory certification program for diethylstilbestrol (DES) begins Jan. 8.

Cattle and sheep producers and feeders are warned that animals must be taken off feed containing DES at least seven days prior to marketing. Producers and feeders planning to market animals on Jan. 10—the first full marketing day under the mandatory program—must withdraw their cattle and sheep from DES rations no later than Jan. 3. USDA meat inspection officials said.

USDA explained that no official certification form is required, but the party presenting the livestock for slaughter must certify in writing the following:

(1) That he has had custody

Friday, Jan. 14, will mark the end of the first semester of the current school year at Wayne High School.

Before that, on Friday, Jan. 7, Dr. Frank Wentz, assistant dean of the University of Nebraska College of Dentistry, and staff will be visiting with Wayne students who have an interest in dentistry and related fields.

Dr. Wayne Wessel, a Wayne dentist, also will be present for the 1 p.m. discussion.

Inquiries regarding the program should be addressed to Ken Carlson, guidance counselor and coordinator of the program.

Dixon Exam Dates Set

Drivers license examiners will be at the Dixon County Courthouse in Ponca on Thursday, Jan. 13, and Thursday, Jan. 27, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

Farm Program Sign-up Begins Jan. 17

Wheat and Feed Grain farmers who plan to enroll in the 1972 Set-Aside programs may sign up beginning Jan. 17, according to Harry Heineemann, chairman of the Wayne County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee.

Jan. 17 through Feb. 25 is sign-up time at all county ASC offices for the voluntary farm programs," Heineemann said. Heineemann emphasized that the sign-up period is earlier than usual, and also pointed out no extension of the Feb. 25 deadline will be made. Farmers who know they will be out of the county through the sign-up period may arrange with the county office to sign up in the programs by mail or by other procedure.

"Since no extension of the Feb. 25 sign-up deadline will be made, Wayne County farmers can insure their participation by enrolling early in the sign-up period. It would be a shame for farmers to miss their chance to participate because 'bad weather' kept them from coming in to sign up," Heineemann said.

To qualify to participate in the ASC set-aside programs for crops, farmers will set aside 83 per cent of the farm's domestic wheat allotment and/or 25 per cent of the feed grain base.

The Agricultural Act of 1970, which established the set-aside concept, has opened the way for major shifts in the patterns of American farming. By using set-aside acreage to limit general overproduction, individual farmers are free to plant the rest of their cropland to crops which will give them the most profit.

In 1971, 90 per cent of U.S. farmers altered the cropping patterns from their established bases and allotments in order to increase their profits. The set-aside programs encourage this.

Under the 1972 set-aside programs, a participant who complies with the set-aside acreage he has signed up for then maintains his conserving base, is free to plant the rest of his cropland to anything he chooses, except a few crops which are under marketing quotas.

With the set-aside program, farmers can decide what and how much to plant on their farms. Notices of wheat allotments and feed grain bases plus projected yields, and payment rates along with leaflets on the various voluntary farm programs offered in Wayne County, will be mailed to area farmers the first week in January.

"If farmers have any other questions on program participation, County ASC Committee and County ASC Office officials will be glad to answer them," said Heineemann.

Wayne Baptist Church Approves Unaffiliation

Members of the First Baptist Church of Wayne Sunday voted in favor of a resolution to become unaffiliated, a resolution recommended to the congregation by the church board.

The action was taken Sunday morning following the worship service and Lord's Supper. At the meeting, the board recommended the following resolution be accepted:

"Be it resolved, that our Church, the First Baptist Church, Wayne, Nebraska, is an unaffiliated church."

The resolution was accepted by ballot with 80 per cent of the members present voting for the resolution. Later, the members, by acclamation, unanimously declared First Baptist Church unaffiliated.

Pastor Frank Pedersen and members of the church board, with Clifford Peters as chairman, said "the church decided to declare its independency and unaffiliation to clarify the church's position on Biblical Christianity, to strengthen its ministry and fellowship of the Gospel of Christ, and to hold a stand of separation from the National Council of Churches, World Council of Churches, modern ecumenicity, liberalism with its unbelief and from its past affiliation with the American Baptist Convention, Nebraska Baptist Convention and Omahaland Baptist Convention."

Pastor Pedersen added "The First Baptist Church will operate solely as an independent and unaffiliated local Baptist New Testament Church in Wayne, even including its influence, ministry and fellowship throughout northeast Nebraska."

At a Sept. 19, 1971, special meeting, church members present voted to accept the new, revised Constitution of the Church. On Oct. 10, 1971, also at a special meeting, church members present voted to accept the Revised Articles of Incorporation in compliance with the state laws of Nebraska and filed the same with the Department of State at Lincoln and with the office of the Wayne County Clerk.

Grocery stores in Wayne and Laurel are participating 100 per cent in this effort to push pork.

Pork producers and their wives will be present in each grocery store these "pork days" to give consumers pork samples, recipe booklets as well as pork facts. Free pork prizes will be contributed by Hormel Inc.

'Typical' or Risky Diet?

Many healthy persons may unknowingly be increasing their risk of heart attack by eating a typical American diet, the Nebraska Heart Association warns.

But moderate changes in such a diet can reduce this risk.

One aim should be to cut down on the intake of cholesterol and saturated fats, which contribute to atherosclerosis, a form of hardening of the arteries underlying most heart attacks. At the same time, there are other goals to keep in mind—maintenance of nutritionally-adequate diet and, through caloric control, remaining at a desirable weight.

To help achieve these aims, the Nebraska Heart Association suggests specific foods that should be used more frequently, and others which should be used sparingly, or not at all. Changes in eating habits can be applied to every meal of the day, and in every course of the meal from appetizer to dessert—literally from soup (skimmed of fat) to nuts (which have no cholesterol and are low in saturated fat).

Chicken, turkey, veal and fish are low in saturated fats, and should be used in most of the meat meals during the week. No more than five meals a week should include beef, lamb, pork or ham. At that, the housewife should choose lean cuts of these meats and trim off visible fat before cooking. Bake, broil, roast or stew the meats and discard the liquid fats which cook out.

Certain high-protein vegetables—dried beans and peas, baked beans, lentils—occasionally may be used in place of meat.

Three to four ounces of cooked meat or fish (not counting bone or fat) or a similar amount of a high-protein vegetable is recommended as an average serving.

Among the fat-laden foods to be avoided are duck, goose, spare-ribs, mutton, frankfurters, sausages, fatty hamburgers, bacon and luncheon meats. (Cholesterol-rich foods to be restricted in use include egg yolks, the organ meats—liver, kidney and sweet-lobster, shrimp and clams.

Since lye is very rich in vitamins and iron, it should not be eliminated completely from the diet. A four-ounce serving of liver in a meal no more than once a week is permissible. A four-ounce serving of shellfish may be substituted for meat no more than once a week.

Virtually every fresh fruit and vegetable may be used generously and regularly, except for olives and avocados, which are very high in fat calories. The daily intake of margarine and oils should emphasize the polyunsaturated fats, which tend to lower cholesterol levels in the blood.

A note of caution also applies to the use of butter rolls, commercial biscuits, muffins (but not English muffins), doughnuts, sweet rolls, crackers and commercial mixes containing dried eggs and whole milk. Sources of both cholesterol and saturated fats. But skin milk fortified with vitamins A and D, skim milk cheeses, butter milk and yogurt should be used often.

An explanation of the relationship of diet to heart disease, as well as lists of foods to have, and not to have, recipes and tips on food preparation can be found in two new Heart Association publications.

"The Way to a Man's Heart" and "Recipes for Fat-Controlled and Low Cholesterol Meals" are available from the Nebraska Heart Association, 3624 Barnum St., Omaha 68131.

Laboratories Help Consumers

Millions of dollars are spent by large retail stores for consumer product testing in extensive testing laboratories. Testing facilities are becoming important both as a service to their customers and as a protection for their store against possible consumer action because of defective merchandise.

Decisions made in the testing laboratory can have an important influence on what is finally offered for sale to the public. Quality control and laboratory testing programs can be a two-way street between the retail store and the manufacturer that results in improved products.

Another function of a testing laboratory is to develop care instructions for the consumer who buys the products.

Head designer in the apparel division of a major retail store says: "Men's jacket manufacturers use special shaping machines for each part of a jacket and employ steam to achieve the shape. Then the garment is dried to keep the shape. Along comes the uninformed consumer and turns on the hot water in his bathroom to steam out the wrinkles in his jacket. What the consumer is doing, of course is destroying the effect the manufacturer tried to get, and wasting the money invested in the process."

Several large retail chains are ready to move forward in giving the consumer more specific care instructions on textiles. This voluntary effort is the result of cooperation between fiber producer, fabric and garment makers.

Ron Sock (43) of the Norfolk Catholic Knights applies the pressure, as Laurel's George Schroeder (54) hauls down a rebound Thursday night at the Wayne State Holiday Tourney. Other Knights on hand to render aid are Ken Throener (33), Brad Merchant (44), and Dave Hermans (31). The Knights captured the high school division championship with a 56-53 squeaker over the Bees.

Norfolk Catholic Repeats As Holiday Meet Champs

Norfolk Catholic won its second tournament championship in four nights by edging Laurel, 56-53, in a thriller and Wayne High lost its fifth game in six outings with a 56-53 showing during a 75-40 loss to Bloomfield in the consolation division of the Wayne State Christmas Holiday basketball tournament Thursday night at Rice Gymnasium.

Norfolk Catholic had won its own Christmas Invitational tournament Tuesday night and got no rest before heading into two more nights of action at Wayne College, disposing of Bloomfield the first night and posting its eighth win in a row this season in the Thursday finale.

Laurel had fallen by a 16-point margin to the Knights in an early-season clash.

In the return bout, Laurel trailed by as much as 13 in the fourth quarter's early going, closing the gap to 50-47 with 3:37 left, only to fall behind again by nine with only 1:35 remaining.

Local Bees' Bees then started the comeback trail and it appeared for a time that they might pull the rabbit out of the hat.

Gary Chase hit a pair of free throws and then an out-courter in a 26-second span and it was 56-51. But Laurel couldn't get on the scoreboard again until George Schroeder's rebound of an errant shot with seven seconds to go and the Knights were able to kill the clock.

Schroeder had earlier missed a field goal attempt and Ken Sarha was charged with traveling in a rare Laurel turnover that hurt the comeback effort.

The Norfolk parishionals had too much height and rebounding power from its front line of Joe Mueing (6-6), Ken Throener (6-5) and Brad Merchant (6-3).

Laurel led by as much as 11 early in the first but Mueing's fielder with 2:20 left in the opening quarter gave the knights a lead they never relinquished except for a 26-26 tie with 2:40 left in the half, ahead by 17-14 at the first rest stop; by 34-30 at halftime and, following a five-point third quarter by Laurel, by 48-35 entering the stretch.

There was never more than a four-point spread between the two evenly-matched clubs until midway in the third stanza.

Laurel's Chase wound up with scoring honors at 23, teammate Schroeder being held to 13. Dariusson topped Norfolk scoring with 18. Mueing had 15 before fouling out with 1:27 left in the game.

Laurel's Johnson had 14 points, Sarha 10, Olsen 7, and Olsen 7. Norfolk's Mueing had 14 points, Olsen 7, and Olsen 7. Norfolk's Mueing had 14 points, Olsen 7, and Olsen 7.

Wayne High turned in probably its most unimpressive performance of the young season during its 35-second wallpog at the hands of Bloomfield in the opening clash.

It was obvious from the start that this wasn't going to be a Wayne "night to remember." Except for a happening little short of a miracle, the outcome was hardly in doubt before the first half was completed.

The Blue Devils dropped behind early after a 2-2 deadlock, trailing by 21-12 at the first quarter's end and by 41-23 at intermission.

Things were to get worse for the locals, however, during a third-quarter shell in which the Blue Devils managed only five points to Bloomfield's 21 to drop completely out of contention at 62-28.

A complete reserve unit took the court for Bloomfield to start the fourth and Wayne Coach Don Johnson swept his bench shortly after.

Kyle Willis hit 10 points, the only Blue Devil to double-figure. Bloomfield had a well-balanced scoring attack, the four-pronged led by John Scott with 15, Lars Gezelius with 13, Perry Brothers with 12 and Sam Colvin with 11.

The Blue Devils will head into the 1972 portion of the cage season with a 1-5 mark, the next game being against Madison at City Auditorium Jan. 7.

point play by Marty Hansen with 29 seconds left. At the buzzer, the Devils trailed, 37-34.

The final period looked like the Battle of Waterloo all over again. The Bees managed to stay out of reach until Wayne's Kyle Willis converted two free throws, bringing the Devils to within one, at 43-44. Both clubs traded field goals, and Schroeder added a free throw to put the Bees in front by two. Willis added another Wayne free throw, and Randy Nelson gave the locals the go-ahead, 48-47, via a field goal with 55 seconds left in the game.

Eight seconds later, Schroeder hit two from the charity stripe, putting the Bees ahead again, 49-48. The lead held, Laurel didn't drop another field goal, but put the game out of reach with six converted free throws in the waning seconds.

With 16 seconds left, Wayne's Marty Hansen fouled Sarha, and Nelson was charged with a technical foul. Sarha cashed in on his two, and Schroeder, shooting the technical, connected to give the Bees a 53-48 lead. Hansen fouled Sarha again with 12 seconds remaining, and the 6-9 junior canned another pair. Nelson pushed through a desperation shot with two seconds on the clock, but the Blue Devils trailed 55-50 at the buzzer.

Schroeder led the visitors with 31 points. No other Bees were in double figures, but Sarha helped with impressive floor work.

Point leaders for Wayne were Randy Nelson with 14 and Doug Sturm with 11. Nelson and Sturm sparked an offense, and Kyle Willis controlled the boards for the Blue Devils, with help from Larry Shupe and Roger Saul.

Outscored, 17-13, the Bees never threatened seriously in the final stanza. Norfolk's defense was tough throughout the game, with the going particularly sticky under the boards. The taller Knights refused to allow the Bees clear shots, and hauled down the lion's share of the rebounds.

The Bees battled gamely behind the aggressive floor play of Lars Gezelius and Greg Suh. The 14-point scoring of John Scott led Bloomfield's offensive attack. Sam Colvin added 10.

Three Knights were in double figures, Larry Sock leading on 13, with Mueing and Bob Pofahl contributing 12 and 11 respectively.

Norfolk jumped to an 11-8 ad-

Laurel Wins Berth

Laurel's powerful Bears lightened their defense and got their offense rolling in the second period to drop Plainview, 65-48, Tuesday night at the Northeast Nebraska Conference Tournament at Crofton.

The potent Bear offense elicited for 21 points in first-period action, but the defense allowed the Pirates to stay in contention with 15.

The second period put the game out of reach for Plainview, with Laurel using a high-pressure man-to-man defense to limit the Pirates to seven points. The Bears hit for 17 counters in the second stanza, to take a 38-22 lead into the dressing room.

Sparkling for Laurel in first-half action was George Schroeder, who accounted for 24 of his 28 total points, hoisting Laurel to that substantial lead.

With Plainview unable to mount a serious threat, Laurel coach Joel Parks began substituting freely midway through the third period. His reserves managed to run up a 20-point lead, 54-34, as the fourth period began.

The Pirates outscored the Bears for the only time in the contest during fourth-quarter play, holding a 14-13 edge, but coming out 65-48 losers at the final buzzer.

The Laurel crew shot effectively, showing a 45 per cent mark from the field, while the Pirates could manage only 39 per cent. The game was marred by numerous turnovers, with Laurel losing the ball 23 times, many of the losses coming on fast breaks. Plainview balanced the books in this category, turning the ball over 21 times.

Schroeder and Gary Chace headed the Laurel attack, with Schroeder hitting 28 points, and hauling down 28 rebounds, while Chace contributed 12 points and 12 rebounds. The only other Bear in double figures was Bruce Johnson, with 10. Johnson, Keith Olsen and Gene Sarha turned in good floor games.

The losers' Jeff Hoffman led the Pirates on the scoreboard, with 14 points, and Rich Rivers added 13.

Next tourney action for Laurel will see the Bears meeting Crofton Thursday night at 8:30 in the semi-final round.

The other teams fighting it out for tourney honors are Pierce, O'Neill, Neligh and Bloomfield.

LAUREL: Johnson 10, Olsen 10, Hoffman 14, Sarha 24, Rivers 13, Chace 12.

Plainview Tops Wayne Matmen

The Wayne High Blue Devils grapplers were unable to register a pin, and managed only four decisions, falling to an alert Plainview-Pirate squad, 33-12, on the home mats Monday night.

Wayne's David Owens sparked early Blue Devil hopes with a 7-5 verdict over Plainview's 92-99 Hanemann in the 98-pound division.

Wayne's next decision came in the 132-pound class, when Ron King blanked Mark Brookhouser, 4-0.

Mark Becker managed another Blue Devil decision, downing the visitors' Mark Hoffman, 7-0, at 138.

The final Wayne victory came in the 145-pound class, with Brad Pflueger dropping Don Norris, 6-1.

Other results, with Wayne grapplers listed first: 105—Steve Meyer was deci-sioned by Bob Gentrler, 8-3. 112—Blek Ray was decided by Paul Hoyer, 7-0. 119—Durrell Hank was pinned by Barry Weber at 2:59. 126—Jim Nieman was decided by Dale Bonge, 4-2. 155—Arnold Siefkes was decided by Doug Fusselman, 4-0. 167—Ken Otte was decided by Tim Spatz, 7-0. 185—Don Nelson was pinned by Doug Pellatz at 3:59. 197—Roger Frahm was pinned by Bob Lingenfelter at 2:18.

Wayne's 31 mat provided one of the few hopeful notes of the evening, dropping the Plainview B squad, 31-15, in preliminary action. The locals put together two pins on their way to a sweep of all but three weight classes.

At 98 pounds, Tim Ebers blanked Mark Hanemann at 3:33, while teammate Tom Frahm pinned Plainview's Roger Greenmeyer at 3:20, in the 145-pound class.

Other Blue Devil winners, all by decision, were Alan Elberg at 112, Roger Meyer at 119, Harry Hubeck at 126, Charlie Roland at 132, Arlin Cars at 138 and Gordon Cook at 157.

Plenty of mat action is scheduled this week for the Blue Devils, with a dual on tap at Norfolk Thursday night, and the Blair Invitational set for Saturday.

Wayne State Wildcats Win Tourney Honors

Another trophy went into Wayne State's showcase when the Wildcat cagers regained championship of their own Christmas holiday Basketball Tournament last Thursday.

It was the fifth time in 14 tournaments that Wayne claimed the title. Previous championships were in 1969, 1968, 1964 and 1961.

One other tourney honor belonged to Wayne—the top scoring performance by Dennis Siefkes, who hit 33 and 21 points for a 54 point total. Second best scorer was Larry Generally, who totaled 51 for Missouri Valley, Wayne's final victor by an 87-69 count.

The 33 points by Siefkes in Wayne's first-round 101-84 victory over Sioux Falls also was the highest single-game score by a college or high school player.

Sioux Falls came back in the third-place college game to post 107-74 over Lea. It was the highest score since McKendree ripped South Dakota Tech, 112-77, for third place in 1964. Missouri Valley downed Lea in first-round action, 86-74.

Wayne State's wildcats displayed their finest offense of the season against Missouri Valley, though they scored their season high, 101, in the first round over Sioux Falls. In both outings the Cats came off a slow start to put their fast break into gear. Siefkes was a demon on the break in the finale's first half. Time after time he led the dash and swished driving layups before Missouri Valley ever arrived to defend. He had 19 points in that half, then coasted with only two points and limited playing time as Coach Tom Jones cleared his bench in the second half.

Before Tuesday night's game, "Mountain" Siefkes had averaged 26 points per contest, which likely will rate among the nation's leaders when NAIA statistics come out. Guard Dan Quinn totaled 27 points in the pair of games, and following the tourney averaged 12.5. Jerry Woodin, a guard and the only starting senior, had a 9.9 pace while junior forward Ron Jones was 9.4.

Winside Chalks Up First Cage Victory In Consolation Game at Newman Grove

Winside registered its first victory of the season after seven losses in the consolation game of the Newman Grove Holiday Tournament Friday afternoon, defeating Wolbach, 72-59.

Winside had fallen in first-round play to Silver Creek, which ultimately earned the championship trophy by defeating Newman Grove, 46-37.

The tournament's first round had been slated for Wednesday night but had to be delayed because of bad roads. The preliminary games then were played Thursday night and the consolation and championship games Friday afternoon.

Winside used a 26-point, second-period explosion to bomb out Wolbach, wiping out a 15-14 first-quarter deficit to chalk up 40-29 and 53-46 advantages at the next two rest stops.

Leading the third-quarter barrage were Lalue Langenberg with seven, Greg Titterington with six and Jon Behmer with five. Behmer led a quarter of double-figure scorers with 24, nine of those coming in the fourth, followed by Bob Krueger with 11 and Langenberg, Larry Weible and Titterington, all with 10.

Wolbach, which had a 9-4 season record entering the consolation game, had a different stand-out each quarter—Bob Rother had eight of his 10 points in the first quarter, Steve Berny collected eight of his 15 in the second and Milford Shepherd had eight of his 16 in the third. John Steenson also hit the doubles, with 10.

The championship finals saw several oddities. Silver Creek won a low-scoring affair even though scoring only two field goals in the second half after Newman Grove had connected on only four two-pointers in the first half, which ended 28-13 in Silver Creek's favor.

Silver Creek's 11 fourth-quarter points all came at the free throw line.

Kevin Egger paced the winners with 15 points, second by Larry Vlasak with 13, including nine of 11 at the charity stripe. Tom Wallin had 16 for the losers, 14 of those in the first half. Sophomore Wes Christensen, with 10 points, and Dwayne Nelson, credited with a good defensive game, turned in top performances for Newman Grove.

Winside Falters, Drops Tourney Game

The Winside Wildcats, beginning to show mid-season form, came out on the short end of a 66-62 verdict in a Tuesday night tussle with Coleridge at the Coleridge Invitational Tourney.

According to Coach Jim Winch, the Winside crew put together their best effort of the season, with balanced scoring and sound defense throughout the contest.

The lead traded hands frequently in the early going, with the Winside crew putting on a minor scoring burst to lead 18-14 at the end of the first period.

Coleridge parried the Winside lead down to one point in second-quarter action, which saw the hosts tightening up on defense and hitting well from the field. At the half, the Wildcats held on to a precarious one-point lead, 31-30.

Though outscored by two in the third stanza, Winside managed to retain the advantage until the final seconds, when Coleridge pushed through a field goal to take the lead, 49-48.

The Wildcats never led throughout the tight fourth quarter, but managed to whittle down the Coleridge lead several times. An alert Winside defense, pulling out all the stops late in the game, managed to intercept two Coleridge passes in the final minute. The Wildcats parlayed both turnovers into easy baskets, but the buzzer sounded with Winside four points shy, 66-62.

Second-half play made the difference for Coleridge, as the hosts missed only 10 field goals, allowing Winside few chances to clear the boards. Free throws played an important role, with nine of Coleridge's 17 final-quarter points coming from the charity stripe.

Jon Behmer led the scoring attack for Winside with 25 points. Teammates Greg Titterton and Larry Longberg dropped 16 and 11 respectively. Behmer and Bob Krueger capped rebounding honors with nine apiece.

Providing most of the competition for Behmer was Coleridge's Stan Sim, who accounted for 24 points. Fred Kalin added 14 for the winners, and Kevin Kiele contributed 13.

Tuesday night's loss dropped Winside from the eight-team tourney. Other schools participating are Wynot, Hartington Cedar Catholic, Hartington Public, Ponca, Osmond and Newcastle.

The Wildcats will take a post-tournament break, seeing next action Friday, Jan. 14, at home against Osmond.

Star-Studded Lineup for Ak-Sar-Ben

OMAHA—Willis A. Strauss, chairman of the Ak-Sar-Ben Member Shows Committee, has announced the entertainment package which will be offered to 1972 Ak-Sar-Ben members.

Carol Lawrence, George Kirby, Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass. Jeannie C. Riley, Sonny James and Debbie Reynolds headline the star-studded lineup.

"We believe that we have put together one of the most exciting entertainment packages in Ak-Sar-Ben history," Strauss said.

Members will receive more than $75 in entertainment at a cost of only $12 per couple.

Announcement of the shows coincided with the official kickoff of the drive Tuesday night with a meeting for the more than 700 volunteer workers. Membership Drive Chairman J. Allan Mactier said that the 1972 goal again will be 50,000 members, which Ak-Sar-Ben hopes to reach before the drive ends on March 1.

Kicking off the summer shows schedule will be a family show, July 24-28. Complete with fireworks, the show will be hosted by Loretta Long of the popular Sesame Street television series.

Carol Lawrence and George Kirby will combine their talents for a members show, Aug. 7-11. Miss Lawrence, the wife of singer Robert Goulet who performed in the Ak-Sar-Ben spotlight in 1969, feels at home on a Broadway or concert stage. Kirby is returning by popular demand after receiving standing ovations every night during his appearance here in 1970.

The second family show, Aug. 14-18, will feature the Bugs Bunny Show. Bugs will be joined by Porky Pig, the Road Runner, Wile E. Coyote and Yosemite Sam.

Danny Davis brings his Nashville Brass to the Ak-Sar-Ben stage, Aug. 21-25. Jeannie C.

Wildcats Down SW Minnesota, Host Kearney State Friday Night

The preliminary skirmishing is done, and Wayne State eagens now plunge into the serious business of conference warfare.

The Wildcats dispatched their eighth victim Tuesday night, Southwest Minnesota State by a 78-64 score, and will entertain Kearney State at 7:30 Friday in Rice Gym to open the Nebraska College Conference season.

Kearney brings a 6-2 record and a potent team loaded with veterans plus the freshman whiz, Tom Kropp. A main Wayne goal in basketball is to accomplish the same job that Wildcat grid-deriders did in stifling the power-running Kropp.

Wayne and Kearney junior varsities will meet in the 5:30 preliminary. The Wayne JV suffered an 84-70 loss Tuesday, when former Wayne ace Bill Goodwin came in late several minutes into the second half and proceeded to rack up 15 points for the victorious Morningside Pizza quint. Wayne fans recognized the old Goodwin polish. Last month the junior Wildcats whipped the Morningsiders 98-63.

Another stiff test awaits Wayne's varsity Saturday when Hastings (8-5) invades Rice at 7:30. Tall as usual, Hastings has nobody under 6-2 and the average is about 6-4.

Preliminary action Saturday will feature Wayne's JV against Chadbyville — including several stars of the Wayne championship years, Paul Emanuel, Dave Schneider and perhaps others.

Wayne had little trouble handling Southwest Minnesota for the second time this season, and there was nothing like the nerve-wracker which saw Dennis Siefkes hit the winning shot at the buzzer when Wayne played at Marshall last month.

This time the Cats got off to their usual tentative start, before the fast break warmed up the scoreboard for a 41-30 lead. A harassing defense consistently stymied Mustang shooting, and the visitors finished with a meager 24 per cent from the field.

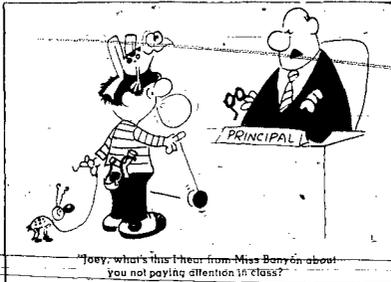

Still, Coach Don Jones didn't like the season-high number of turnovers, 17, as the Wildcats muffed passes and catches more than usual. Part of it resulted from the hectic fast break, but turnovers will be fatal against Kearney and Hastings, Jones said.

Siefkes padded his scoring average to 25.6 with a 29-point burst against Southwest while Jerry Woodin added 14 and Jon Harvey 13.

Tires should be checked for proper inflation pressure when they are cool, before starting out on a trip. Pressure can increase several pounds when tires are hot from driving.

Old Man Winter at His Easel

His bites at your nose, makes your eyes water and chills you to the bone, but the beauty Old Man Winter creates cannot be denied, especially after he frosts the countryside with fluffy, white icing, painting scenes of incomparable beauty, using as his media, only the most common objects.

barren branches, become fulfilled as they cradle snow in their lonely, heaven-lifted arms.

abstraction, too, finds a place in the Old Man's masterpiece.

... rusty fence and weather beaten wood are renewed with a glistening coat of ice.

Mishaps Blamed on Icy Streets

Icy streets have been responsible for several of the five minor traffic accidents recorded in Wayne since Dec. 26.

A 2:35 p.m. collision Wednesday, Dec. 29, was apparently caused by icy road conditions. J. D. Kohl, 1218 Sherman, was eastbound on Seventh, when his car was struck by a car driven by Richard D. Anderson, Route 1, Tecumseh. Kohl had slowed, and Anderson, unable to stop due to the icy streets, struck the Kohl car from the rear. Damage was estimated at $215 for Kohl's car, and $150 for the Anderson vehicle.

A second Dec. 29 mishap resulted from slippery driving conditions. The collision occurred about 3:30 p.m. at the intersection of Seventh and Sherman and involved cars driven by Scott Niemann, Route 1, Carroll, and Douglas E. Pinkelmann, 1115 Sherman. Pinkelmann, eastbound on Seventh, stopped for the stop sign at the intersection, but due to icy conditions, slid about 10 feet into the intersection. Niemann, southbound on Sherman, attempted to stop for the Pinkelmann car, lost control, and struck the other vehicle.

In the final traffic accident listed for 1971, a car driven by Evelyn K. Doeschner, 719 Lincoln, collided with a car driven by Donald J. Boyce, 614 Pearl. The Doeschner vehicle was turning left out of an alley, and the Boyce car was backing out of a driveway when the collision occurred. Estimated damage to the Boyce vehicle was $270.

The first mishap of 1972 occurred Jan. 2 at the intersection of Seventh and Walnut, as a car driven by Larry Shupe, 1106 Douglas, struck a car driven by Phyllis M. Waters, 503 Pearl. The Waters car was stopped at a stop sign. Shupe, unable to stop on the icy street, struck the other car from the rear.

Damage to a tail light was the only result of a minor collision in the 300 block of Pearl Jan. 3. In another ice-related incident, a car driven by Robert Coon, 702 W. Third, was struck by a car driven by Eugene Draht, 714 E. Sixth. The Coan vehicle was stopped for a stop light, when struck from the rear by the Draht car. Cause of the accident was listed as icy streets.

of the animals for at least seven days, or has in his possession a certification from someone else who had custody for the required period.

(2) That if the livestock was fed DES it was fed in accordance with requirements of the Federal Food and Drug Administration; or that the animals were not fed DES-containing feeds.

On Dec. 22 USDA announced (USDA press release 4251-71) the new mandatory certification program. Details of the program were published in the Dec. 24 issue of the Federal Register.

The new program provides three alternatives for handling cattle and sheep at slaughter:

(1) The animals may be slaughtered if certification requirements have been met; or

(2) The animals will be held alive for the required seven days; or

(3) The animals may be slaughtered, with samples sent to a USDA-approved laboratory for testing. Meat from the animals cannot be marketed until the tests prove they are free of DES residues.

Wayne residents felt the first real blasts of winter Tuesday morning when the mercury plummeted to eight below zero, wind gusts during the night making the weather picture even more miserable.

The Tuesday reading was the first sub-zero recording of the season.

Only .70 inch of moisture was recorded during December, according to daily postings of Pat Gross. Snowfall on Dec. 8 was 2 1/2 inches and .12 moisture, the Dec. 27 snow measured three-eighths of an inch and .13 moisture and Dec. 30 snowfall was three inches deep and .43 inch of moisture.

Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost. — Thomas Jefferson, Letter, 1786

Once Is Enough

It's not a very pleasant topic, and pardon us for bringing it up, but as 1972 begins, the United States still possesses enough poisonous gas to kill every man, woman and child in the world three times.

Though outlawed by the Geneva Conventions, gas is a novel way to wreak havoc, and we suppose it behoves our government to keep a few of the sinister canisters on hand . . . just in case.

But it seems we have a surplus. The question now is, "What to do with it?" Unlike other surplus commodities, we certainly wouldn't want our supply to fall into the hands of hostile nations.

We could try dumping it in the ocean, but that's been done before, and the hoopla generated by the move makes another such attempt inadvisable.

Alas and alack, it looks like we're going to be stuck with the stuff for awhile.

However, we have evolved a plan which may yet provide an economical solution to the problem. (Keep in mind, now, that we have enough noxious gas to kill every person three times.)

The solution? Why, not kill everyone only once? It's a simple notion, and rather obvious, we think, so we can't understand why the government didn't arrive at the proper conclusion before turning out the extra canisters at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

We all agree that where the amihilation of the human race is concerned, efficiency is a desirable thing, and should be of paramount importance—but even efficiency can be carried too far.

—Joel Kinsion

Wanted: Technical Skilled

Assuming the Nebraska Technical College Placement Report is correct, there is no problem whatsoever of unemployment for those persons with technical skills.

"The Technician," published by the Nebraska Technical College at Millard and sent to The Herald by Kenneth Quinn, counselor, School District of Wakefield, the statement was made that there were 1,686 job openings listed by the Nebraska Tech Placement Office for the 438 students who were graduated during the 1970-71 school year.

The report also stated that a greater percentage of the graduates took jobs in Nebraska this year than in previous years, while fewer jobs were taken out of state.

Of the 1,288 Nebraska jobs offered, 22.9 were filled, while only 8.4 per cent of the available out-of-state job openings were accepted by Nebraska Tech graduates.

Additionally, the report said that wages over the past year show a $5 per month increase over last year despite economic conditions.

The placement mailing list now numbers in excess of 1,800 employers.

A recent Associated Press story confirms the fact that technical skilled jobs are going begging, stating that, although about 6.1 per cent of the nation's work force is unemployed, many blue collar and other jobs requiring a broad range of technical skills are unfilled.

Prof. Hollis Baird, director of Lincoln College in Boston, states there is a demand for people with more technical and less theoretical backgrounds, adding the job situation is much better for those graduates with associate degrees than those with a bachelor of science or masters degree.

Associate degrees are awarded upon completion of programs taking less than four years to complete.

In 1970, more than a million persons received bachelors, masters or doctorate degrees. This, coupled with other factors, such as cutbacks in the aerospace industry, has resulted in an oversupply in college-trained personnel in several fields.

'Off-Year' Legislative Session Is Underway

LINCOLN — The constitutional gong has sounded and the 1972 Legislature is underway.

The Nebraska constitution, which now requires the state's lawmakers to convene every year, calls for the gavel to fall at noon on the first Tuesday in January. This will be the first regular session during an even-numbered year and it's limited to 60 meeting days by the constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 1970.

When the senators gathered this week to launch the new session, they could get right down to work. There were 123 bills—109 of them on first reading—carried over from the 90-day session last year and awaiting action.

Furthermore, all the officers and committee assignments of the 1971 Legislature were renewed.

That all started all the intramural electioneering that usually dominates the opening day of a session.

Also, there was no outgoing governor to give a farewell address or an incoming governor to be inaugurated.

Taxes in Spotlight

There will be a lot of issues inspiring a lot of fiery oratory before the senators complete their work, but taxes appeared certain to hog the spotlight. The major battles will involve the attempts to exempt at least portions of business and farm personal property from taxation—Gov. J. James Exon and Crofton Sen. J. W. Burbach are the chief antagonists in that fight—and totalling a budget to fit the dimensions of the existing tax rates.

Before he took off for Miami and the Orange Bowl last week, Exon called a press conference to restore his opposition to Burbach's personal property exemption proposals.

And to give the details of his own plan.

Burbach wants to inaugurate a sliding scale of exemptions, beginning at 30 per cent in 1973 and working up to 90 per cent by 1977. Twice in 1971, similar plans ran into Exon vetoes and both times the vetoes stuck.

Exon says there'll be more vetoes in 1972 if the lawmakers send him more bills along those lines.

The governor has his own proposal. He would excuse half of the personal property tax burden on business and agricultural inventories and equipment—but there would be a dollar limit.

No more than $50 in taxes would be excused in 1973, but the ceiling would rise each year until it reaches $1,000.

On the budget front, the legislative committee has completed its policy decisions and has its bill ready for floor consideration. Exon is making recommendations of his own and will have them available in the first days of the session.

Income Tax Hiked

Both the senators and the governor are expected to offer prospective appropriations which could be financed by the revenue from a 2.5 per cent sales tax and a 15 per cent income tax.

The 15 per cent income tax rate was established for the 1972 calendar year last week by the State Board of Equalization. In response to tax reform legislation recently adopted by Congress.

In November, the board had set the 1972 rate at 13 per cent—just where Exon had said in his campaigning before the 1970 election the rate would be.

At that, it was 30 per cent greater than the 10 per cent rate for 1971. But Nebraska's individual income tax is a portion of federal liability and, when congressional action decreased the base, the state had to increase its percentage rate in order to get the same amount of money.

According to Tax Commissioner Williams E. Peters, the 15 per cent rate actually won't take any more money out of taxpayers' wallets than the 13 per cent rate would have.

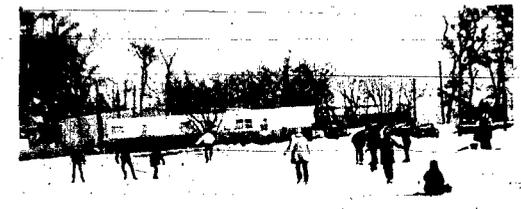

Also on the tax front this session, battles may be expected over efforts to increase the corporate income tax and to restore the intangible and household goods taxes repealed in 1967. The home-stead exemption law adopted in 1969 also is threatened.

The session also is expected to include an attempt to give the Legislature, instead of the equalization board, the job of setting the tax rates.

Sparks to Fly

Sparks will fly, surely, over the governor's plans to eliminate the collection of food sales taxes at the grocery counter.

State law now permits a $7 per person credit on the income tax as a refund of the sales taxes paid on food, but Exon calls this a gimmick.

The cigarette tax increase adopted over an Exon veto a year ago will cause some hot debates. The governor has agreed to allow some of that revenue go for construction of a new University of Nebraska fieldhouse, if the project is financed by a bond issue, and if the half of the revenue earmarked now for a new state office building is diverted to the general fund.

There is a large group of senators, however, who say they don't want to change their minds. They still want the extra nickel a pack to be split between the fieldhouse and the office building.

Other issues you'll be reading about the next few months include no-fault insurance, natural resource districts, motor vehicle inspections, school aid, a self-defense law, the Missouri Plan for judicial selections, and penal reform.

Letters to The Editor

I am quite impressed with the Wayne city snow removal. Last year the streets were not adequately cleared and so far this year it has been the same.

Snow can more easily be cleared before it becomes packed. Once it is packed, driving becomes very hazardous. Since there is an ordinance for residents to clear their walks 24 hours after a snowfall, shouldn't there also be one for the city to clear the streets in the same amount of time?

I feel this is a very important issue for city officials to consider. The safety of Wayne's residents is at stake.

Rural Ramblings

There is nothing quite like the anxiety, congestion, sociability and general atmosphere of a fair sale.

To some it's a time for speculation, to some inequity and to one it's a time for farewell. Some farmers attend farm sales to buy, some to visit and a few attend to help their neighbor who is moving to the city. Perhaps it's a move for happy reasons and, unfortunately, sometimes it's a move for sad reasons.

And some farmers attend farm sales just to reassure themselves about the value of their own property. And some, just to have something to do on a wintry afternoon.

And that is exactly what you decide early on a wintry morning. Early for a wintry morning anyway. The hog feeders are full, the fat cattle have enough feed for a couple days so you decide that you deserve an afternoon off.

When you go in for your second cup of coffee you inform the Mrs. of your intentions for the afternoon.

And you casually mention the absolute necessity of a few things listed on a sale that just happened to be scheduled for this afternoon.

But she keeps right on putting pins in a pattern laid out on some new checkered material. You should have guessed when you saw her sewing all strung out that she was one step ahead of you.

With "pins" in her mouth she mumbles something about your clean coveralls being out on the dryer.

You can't quite remember the exact directions to the farm sale so you take a chance and follow a red pickup in front of you. Soon it is like following the leader. There is a steady stream of traffic all going in the same direction.

And some people think they have congested traffic on the expressways! They'd probably panic if they ever got into a traffic pile-up like this. Well, at last you're there. Almost that is.

By the time you've walked the quarter of a mile across the pasture to the buildings it feels like the temperature has dropped 20 degrees.

Wouldn't be so bad if the wind would have stayed down. Guess you were around the buildings all morning. Maybe it was colder than you thought.

A short survey of the condition of the livestock and equipment gives you a sneaking hunch that you might take home more than you'd planned. That is, if the price is right.

The only problem is that almost every farmer there is moseying around and "hot looking at" the same things that you aren't looking at.

That loader sure looks like it has had good care and you could sure use another good wagon. The feeder cattle are just about the right size for you to put in the stocks.

Presently the greetings from the auctioneers gathers everywhere around the tool shed, and the sale officially begins.

The auctioneer is holding up a pretty good looking loader. This sure would save you from using buckets and planks everytime you wanted to climb on something.

And really, as long as you're here you might as well keep someone from getting something for nothing. So you crowd closer to the auctioneer and start to bid on the loader. For only $50 more than that ladder cost you, you could have had a piece of machinery that would have saved you more work than you care to think about. But, you suppose, it probably would have brought at least $200 more if you had been bidding on it. It's a consoling thought.

By now it's getting close to chime time. And you can't decide if you should stay until the feeder cattle are sold or leave before you get another bargain.

If you get them cheap enough, they'll probably weigh a hundred pounds more than you'd guessed their weight. Or else you'll pay more than you'd planned to pay. And you know from recent experience that when you start bidding you forget to quit.

Yep, just as well go home. Anyway, you haven't had time to check the fence around the stocks and you sure couldn't leave them penned up for a week.

And your explanation to the Mrs. about that $4.65 on the side of the ladder is enough for one time. Besides, it's a long time till spring and you have to have a good excuse for going to another sale, don't you?

But the next time—allowed in Nebraska is $2,500 of the total cost of a project, although some counties may have set lower limits according to the priorities they have established.

In applying for REAP funds, feeders should be aware that while the government will help build the pit floor for a slatted-floor building, it will not cost-share on pumps or other portable equipment for handling the manure. It will cost-share on lagoons, liquid storage tanks, settling basins, diversion ditches, waterways and seeding and fencing around these facilities.

Midwest farmers will have a chance to learn more about the various aspects of financing agriculture and to take a look at the future of agriculture at the Mid-America Livestock Forum on Thursday, March 2, at the Omaha Hilton Hotel.

During the morning session, three different bankers will be speaking about lender relationships and competition in borrowing in agriculture. The afternoon will be an outlook session covering cattle, hogs and grain. The day-long program is held to present an insight into the latest changes and challenges in the agriculture industry.

Though mainland China covers a vast 3,691,506 square miles, only 12 per cent of the land is cultivated.

For only $50 more than that ladder cost you, you could have had a piece of machinery that would have saved you more work than you care to think about. But, you suppose, it probably would have brought at least $200 more if you had been bidding on it. It's a consoling thought.

Social Security Questions, Answers

Q—I was 63 years old last April. I'm still working but I plan to retire on June 30 of this year. Do my earnings from January through June count toward the $1,680 that I can earn? A—Yes, your earnings from January to June count toward the $1,680. But even though you might earn over $4,000 before you retire, you can still receive a Social Security check for any month in which you neither earn over $140 a month in wages nor render substantial services in your business.

Q—My friend retired recently. He says that he gets his Social Security check and that his son in college also receives a monthly check. Is that right? A—Yes, benefits can be paid to an unmarried full-time student under age 22 on the Social Security record of a retired, disabled, or deceased parent.

Social Security

Questions, Answers.

Q—If I retire before age 65 and take my benefits at a reduced rate is it reduced the full 20 per cent?
A—No. Your benefits are reduced 20 per cent only if you start it with the month of age 62. It is reduced less the closer you are to age 65. Each individual month makes a difference.

Q—Can a woman receive both her own social security retirement benefit and also her wife's benefit?
A—No. She receives her own retirement benefit first. Then if she is entitled to more as a wife the difference is added to her own benefit.

Q—No. She receives her own retirement benefit first. Then if she is entitled to more as a wife the difference is added to her own benefit.

How much life insurance is enough?

Enough life insurance depends on how much monthly income your family would need if you weren't supporting them, and how much income you want at retirement if you live.
