

Northwestern Bell to Raise Rates in Wayne, Winside

Northwestern Bell Wednesday outlined the provisions of a new rate schedule containing the company's first general increase in telephone service charges in Nebraska in nearly 15 years.

According to Mr. D. Smith, Northwestern Bell manager for Wayne and Winside, the schedule, approved by the Nebraska State Railway Commission, will increase Wayne's residence phone charges by 65 cents to 95 cents a month.

In Winside, residence phone charges will increase by 10 cents to 40 cents.

The new rates will be effective Feb. 26, or when the Federal Price Commission lifts its freeze on utility rate hikes if this occurs at a later date.

Smith said the rate schedule is designed to raise the company's net income from its Nebraska operations by the $3,325,000 granted recently by the State Commission.

Only basic exchange rates for residence and business customers are affected in the two towns, Smith said. There are no changes in long-distance rates. Monthly rates for extension phones, Trilline phones and most auxiliary services also remain unchanged. Charges for color phones are eliminated.

Smith said Wayne phone users will see the following increases in basic monthly rates: one-party residence—95 cents; two-party residence (rural)—65 cents; one-party business—$3.05; eight-party business—$1.15.

In Winside the following increases will apply: one-party residence—40 cents; two-party residence—25 cents; eight-party

Weight Limit To Be Placed On Concord Spur

Spur S-26-A, from Concord east to the state farm, is one of several highway-and-spur connections included in the weight limitation of axle loads imposed by the Nebraska Department of Roads.

Roads Director Thomas Doyle says the temporary limitations affect March 1, as necessary, where subgrade or surfacing will be weakened by climatic and soil conditions.

Doyle adds that the four-mile stretch has a low grade bituminous surfacing.

Axle limitations are imposed each spring during the thawing period to prevent the breakup of this surfacing. Restrictions are lifted when climatic and soil conditions are such that normal weight limits do not damage the highways.

Limits of 14,000 pounds on single axles and 24,000 pounds on tandem axles will be enforced on the Concord area spur.

Editor Seeks Board Of Education Post

Mrs. F. H. (Velma) Price, editor and publisher of the Newman Grove Reporter, has announced that she will file for the State Board of Education from the Third District.

Dr. Allen Burhardt of Norfolk, who now holds the position is not a candidate for re-election.

Mrs. Price is a former rural teacher, grade school teacher, and principal at Valentine and a former teacher at Newman Grove.

She earned her masters degree at the University of Nebraska while teaching at Newman Grove High School. She was graduated from NU with a bachelor of education degree.

Pork Promotion for Wayne, Laurel

Several northeast Nebraska hog producers and their wives will soon be coming face-to-face with consumers in Wayne and Laurel to promote pork products.

The special "Nebraska Pork Producers Days" activities has been planned for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Gowry's Shopping Center in Laurel and Wittig's Super Value, Safeway, Arnie's and Bill's supermarkets in Wayne.

The event is being co-sponsored by the Northeast Nebraska Pork Producers group, the five supermarkets, a packing company and a livestock feed firm.

Following the theme, "Treat Yourself to Pork," the producers will be stationed in each of the stores distributing cooked pork and "pork" samples and special pork recipe booklets. In addition to special prices on pork products in the store, there will be a free drawing for pork products.

Area hog producers participating in the event include: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klein, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Papenhausen, Mr. and Mrs. Don Feehlauer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Uecht, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danberg, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Luth, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Neelan, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Longe, Mr. and Mrs. Denny Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Venstrand, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Everingham, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Felt, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sorenson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Longe, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Bleche, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gustafson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keagle.

Pal Danberg, Northeast Nebraska Pork Queen, receives a skimmer hat, labeled "Enjoy Pork Often" from Ken Gregersen, director of advertising for a Midwest feed firm. Miss Danberg will use the skimmer to help promote pork products at the "Nebraska Pork Producers Days" promotions in Wayne and Laurel Thursday through Saturday. Miss Danberg is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Danberg, Rt. 1, Wayne.

State President At 21

Doug Nelson, a 21-year-old junior at Wayne State College, was elected state president of the Nebraska Tractor Pullers Association recently at Columbus. Doug, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nelson, who live six miles north and 2 1/2 miles west of Wayne, has been competing in the increasingly popular sport since he was 15. He won state championships in the 5,000-pound class in 1969 and 1970 and finished second in 1971 with his 3010 John Deere. Doug is shown here standing beside the tractor with which he won two state titles and one runner-up.

Board Studies Road Closing

The Wayne County Commissioners Tuesday approved a resolution to direct the County Highway Superintendent to make an inspection and file his written recommendation within 30 days in regard to the proposed closing of a section of county road.

The section of road, approximately one-fifth of a mile long, is located two miles south and two miles west of Wayne. The road curves to follow railroad right-of-way. The railroad tracks are to be taken out and the owner of the land on which the road is built has asked that the road be closed to enable him to farm the land. An alternate road is nearby.

The Commissioners had written to Congressman Charles Thone, to request his support for an amendment which would exempt non-manufacturing businesses with 25 or fewer employees from the rules set forth in the Occupational Safety and Health Act. The Commissioners stated that compliance with the regulations would be financially prohibitive for small businesses.

In other action, the Board approved warrants for payment of claims.

County ASCS Office Will Be Closed Feb. 21

Since Monday, Feb. 21, is a national holiday in observance of George Washington's birthday, the Wayne County ASCS office will be closed that day, according to Harry Heinenman, chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

"We're right in the middle of the sign-up period for the 1972 Farm Set-Aside Program, so it's particularly important that farmers know the office will be closed that day," he explained.

The sign-up period for the 1972 Feed Grain, Wheat and Cotton Programs continues through March 10, and farmers may come in to sign up any time between 8 and 5 Monday through Friday except for Monday, Feb. 21, it is the only holiday which will occur during the sign-up period.

The actual anniversary of Washington's birthday is Feb. 22, but since passage of the "Monday Holiday" law by Congress, the holiday is observed on the third Monday in February whatever the date.

Barn, Livestock Lost to Fire at Allen Farmstead

Allen Volunteer Firemen were called about 3:45 a.m. Sunday morning to extinguish a burning barn on the Dwight Johnson farm near Allen (the Isom homestead farm). The flaming barn had been noticed by a passerby, who notified Johnsons. Johnsons turned in the alarm.

Lost to the flame were the barn, 18 sows, 150 small pigs, hay and feed, and a feed wagon which had been standing near the barn. The livestock was not insured.

The fire is believed to have been caused by a heater. Johnsons recently purchased the farm from Larry McAfee.

Muhs Files for Weed Control

Ernest Muhs, rural Wayne, has filed for another term on the Noxious Weed Control Authority. Muhs' term expires this year.

County Clerk Norris Weible and City Clerk Dan Sherry, both reported that they had received no additional filings for the May ninth primary election. Filing deadline is March 10.

VA Expend Half-Million On Wayne County Vets

The Veterans Administration disbursed $454,927 in Wayne County during fiscal 1971, according to C. W. Nixon, director of the Lincoln VA Regional Office.

Statewide, the total ran over $74.4 million, an increase of more than $2.9 million over the previous year. Half of that total represents disability compensation and pension payments to veterans, their dependents and survivors.

More than $7.5 million provided for GI Bill educational and vocational rehabilitation pro-

Public Invited To Hear Folk Mass in Wayne

Looking on during a rehearsal for the three guitarists, a harpist and their director, Mrs. Fred Weber, were Father Paul J. Begley and the Rev. Frank Kirtley. The musicians will be backing up the First Methodist Church Chancel Choir in a folk Mass to be held at the Catholic and Methodist Churches this weekend. In the back row are (from left) Begley, Kirtley, Dennis Souba and Kathy Reinhardt. Front row: Mrs. Weber, Gail Parr and Peggy Howe.

Doing their thing for ecumenicalism, the first United Methodist Church choir, accompanied by a group of young musicians from various church denominations, will present the folk mass, "Rejoice!" composed by Draisel, during services at St. Mary's Catholic Church and the First United Methodist Church in Wayne this weekend.

The Rev. Frank Kirtley, Father Paul J. Begley and Father Anthony Milone, who serve the two Wayne churches, have issued an open invitation to the public to attend the services. The group will provide the musical accompaniment to the regular 6 p.m. Saturday night Mass (designated the college Mass) at the Catholic Church, and will appear in an innovative service of Holy Communion at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. Sunday morning services at the Methodist Church.

The group consists of the 25-member choir, harpist Peggy Howe, a WSC senior, and guitarists Kathy Reinhardt and Gail Paar, both Wayne High School Juniors, and Dennis Souba, a WSC freshman. Director is Mrs. Fred Weber of Wayne.

Eugene Dunns Wed February 4 in Allen

JoAnn Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose of Allen, and Eugene Dunn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dunn of Columbus, were united in marriage Feb. 4, in 8 p.m. rites at Peace Lutheran Church in Columbus.

The Rev. Otto Schlegelmilch of Columbus officiated at the double ring rites and Mrs. Lorane Joseph sang "The Lord's Prayer," and "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Marilyn Sundermeyer. Both are of Columbus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor length gown of white nylon lace over satin, fashioned with empire waistline and stand-up collar. She wore an elbow length veil.

Dalene Rose of Columbus, wearing a floor length gown in royal blue, mirrored, served as maid of honor. Anita Dunn of Bellwood was flowergirl and candlelighters were Mike Shannon of Columbus and Steve Ober of Allen. Tommy Dunn of Bellwood was ringbearer.

Best man was Duaine Dunn,

Bellwood, and ushers were Jerry Watterer of Norfolk, and Andy Jacecke of Platte Center.

The bride's mother wore a blue wool knit and Mrs. Dunn wore a blue bonded knit.

Vivian Spauld of Columbus registered the 125 guests and Kay Watterer of Norfolk and Rosamie Dunn of Bellwood arranged gifts for the reception held at the church hall after the ceremony.

Mrs. Richard Blohm of Allen and Mrs. John Tate of Columbus, cut and served the cake, and Dorothy Dunn of Columbus poured. Cheryl Blohm of Neligh served punch and Jennelle Hessler of Dixon was a waitress. The couple are at home at Parkview Traylor Court, Columbus, where the bridegroom is self-employed. The bride is employed by Dale's Electronics.

Farewell Scheduled

The public is invited to attend a farewell party honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Loge and family of Concord, to be held this Sunday evening at the Concord Evangelical Free Church, where Pastor Loge serves. The event is scheduled to get underway at 7:30 p.m.

L. Jenness Woman of Year

Highlighting the Northeast Nebraska Deaneary Day of Recollection held at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Hubbard Tuesday was the unannounced presentation of a Wayne Woman, Mrs. Myron Jenness, as Woman of the Year of the Rural Northeast Deaneary of Catholic Women. The presentation was made by the Rev. Paul J. Schwaab of St. Joseph's parish, Ponca, who is moderator of the NEN Deaneary.

Mrs. Jenness' name had been submitted by Mrs. George Goblech in late December, and was chosen from a list of 15 candidates representing the 15 parishes in the Northeast Nebraska Deaneary.

With this honor, Mrs. Jenness becomes eligible for the Diocesan Woman of the Year award, to be presented in Omaha later this year. (The late Mrs. F. S. Wayne of Wayne, at one time held this title.)

In naming Mrs. Jenness Woman of the Year, the judges took into consideration her hours spent, and her family's participation in church and community projects, and her contributions to the health and welfare of the community and to individuals within the community.

The Jennesses have two sons, Carl, 14 years old, and Vincent, 13 years old, both of whom received Eagle awards in Scouting this past year, and a daughter, Anne, who was named Miss Buddy Poppy in 1970.

Mrs. Jenness also received the Good Neighbor Award presented by Aksar-Ben during the 1971 Wayne County Fair.

Mrs. Jenness is operating room supervisor and surgical nurse at the Wayne Community Hospital, and with her husband takes ambulance calls. She has also taken time to teach first-aid to aides and personnel at the hospital.

Louise spent many hours learning to use, and teaching others to operate, a kidney machine purchased during the illness of the late Pete Haberger of Wayne. More recently she accepted the chairmanship of solicitations from hospital employees for the proposed new medical center.

She has been active and held offices in the Church Guild, and her husband, who teaches in the Wayne School system, serves as CED principal for St. Mary's Parochial School.

Father Paul J. Schwaab of Ponca and Mrs. Myron Jenness, 1971 Woman of the Year for the Northeast Nebraska Deaneary of Catholic Women.

Missionary Meet Open to Public

The Rev. George Francis, of the Wayne Wesleyan Church, has issued an invitation to the general public to attend a meeting Monday, evening, Feb. 21, at which the Rev. John Putt of Bartlesville, Okla., will speak. His topic will be "Wesleyan Indian Missions."

Wesleyan Indian Missions, missionary work among the American Indians, includes a national radio broadcast, a Bible school and a children's home, all headquartered at Hot Springs, S.D.

Putt, a gifted singer and speaker, appears extensively in camp meetings throughout the midwest. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Surveys In?

Area women are reminded to turn in their completed survey forms, found in the Monday, Feb. 14, issue of The Herald, before the Feb. 21 deadline. The survey, concerning women's liberation, and the employment situation for today's woman, was compiled by the Lincoln Chapter of the National organization for Women (NOW).

If there are enough replies to warrant it, the results of the local survey will be published at a later date, and perhaps will be compared with results in other surrounding areas.

Questionnaires may be dropped off at the Herald Office, or mailed to the Herald at 114 Main Street, Wayne, but must be in the office by Monday.

If you have misplaced your paper with the questionnaire in it, another may be obtained at the Wayne Herald.

Grandson Married

Making their home at 1109 North 28th St., in Lincoln, are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Allen Eldhart, who were married in Dec. 26 rites at Shelton. The bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Mary Eldhart, Laurel, and the late Julius Eldhardt. The new Mrs. Eldhart, nee Sandra Kay Meadley, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Meadley of Shelton. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Holgar Eldhart of Pierce.

Fifteen Couples Renew Vows

Fifteen Laurel couples renewed their wedding days Sunday evening at Sweetheart Night, sponsored by the Presbyterian Church Members Club in Laurel.

Vows were renewed at the altar and prayers of thanksgiving for health and happiness were offered. Mrs. Norma McCorkindale provided organ music. Couples displayed their wedding pictures and marriage licenses, and Mrs. Douglas Potter played a recording made of their wedding.

The couples left the church in a shower of rice to find their cars decorated with streamers, tin cans and the traditional signs, reading "Remarried." The stream of cars paraded through the streets of Laurel, returning to the manse for a reception featuring a three-tiered wed-

NE Extension

Doing the laundry becomes a scientific procedure when one considers the many laundry aids, plus the variety of fabrics and fabric finishes found in the average wardrobe.

Fabric softeners have become more important since the popularity of synthetic fabrics. Softeners provide the fabric with softness to prevent a build up of static electricity. Use of fabric softeners can also prevent matting of woolen and pile fabrics. Wrinkling can often be kept to a minimum if fabric softeners are used in the final rinse of the wash load which is to be dried in the automatic dryer.

Fabric softeners must be used with care—not just dumped in the washer whenever you think of it. When too much is used, the absorbency of the softener is reduced and dull clothing will result.

Thirty at Center for Bible Study

Thirty Wayne Senior Citizens were at the center Monday for the Bible study, conducted by Pastor John Epperson from the Wakefield Christian Church. Epperson presented a film, "The Temptations of Christ," and discussed Matthew 3. Epperson will return to the center for the Feb. 28 Bible study and sing-a-long, to begin at 3 p.m.

The birthday song was sung for Mrs. Anna Mohlfeld and Mrs. Louise Hoeman who served refreshments. Heart cookies were furnished by Mrs. Glenn Sumner. Fifty-eight were present for the Valentine party held last Monday.

Ed Johnson called white telephone bling. On the committee in charge were Mrs. Emma Soules, Mrs. Annie Ruebig, Mrs. Besse Peterson, Mrs. Alma Spitzweber, Mrs. Miss Bunikau and Mrs. Bernice Eckert.

Winners of pencil games were Mrs. Mary Kleper and Mrs. Myrtle Weber, winner of the number game was Mrs. Anna Mohlfeld, and door prize winners were Mildred Wacker and Mrs. Christine Dillon.

Valentine cookies, cupcakes and tea sandwiches were served.

After their party, Senior citizens were visited by members of Brownie Troop 132 and their leaders Mrs. Donlev Peterson and Denise O'Brien. The scouts presented puppet skits, "The His-

Hospital Benefit Performance to Be Staged Friday

The Wayne Hospital Benefit performance of "Oedipus Rex" will be staged this Friday evening at 8 p.m. at Ramsey Theatre in the WSC Fine Arts Building. Tickets for the benefit performance are $3.00 per person or $5.00 per couple. Blocks of choice seats will be made available for groups wishing to organize theatre parties for that evening. "Oedipus Rex" is scheduled to run from this Friday through Monday, with 1 p.m. matinees scheduled on both Friday and Monday, and 8 p.m. evening performances on all four days. Tickets for all performances except the Friday evening benefit are $1.50, with group rates available. The box office opens at 12:30 p.m. daily. "Oedipus Rex," one of the most famous Greek tragedies by Sophocles, is planned as an educational as well as an entertaining experience, with staging, costumes and music all as nearly true to the original Greek theatre as possible. The five-episode play is being directed by Dr. Helen Russell, who has hit the 1,000 mark by Tuesday. Appearing in weekend performances will be a junior from Schuyler, as Oedipus, and Mark Hamm, a junior from South Sioux City, as Creon.

Bears Hot from Line, Nip Crofton, 66-57

Coach Joel Parke's Laurel Bears shot poorly from the field and gave up more than their share of turnovers, but despite the shortcomings, ran up a shaky lead and held it to the final buzzer, to nip host Crofton Saturday night, 66-57.

The bright spot for the Laurel cagers was free throw shooting. As in past games, the Bears demonstrated pinpoint accuracy, canning 24 for 30 from the line. George Schroeder tipped the charts, missing just once in 11 tries, to add another 10 counters to the Bear's attack.

Floor shooting was again the primary problem for the Laurel five, as they hit a chilly 27 percent in the first half. The Bears seemed reluctant to shoot, with Schroeder taking only 12 shots and converting on seven for the game.

The host Warriors jumped to a 3-2 lead in the early going, but a Laurel field goal soon quashed the rebellion, and the Bears never trailed from that point. The low first-half shooting percentages belied the fact that Laurel showed through 10 first-period points to take a six-point edge into second-quarter action.

The Bears weren't able to improve on that six-point advantage in the second quarter, matching their hosts with 12 points to lead, 31-25, at the intermission.

The scrappy Warriors held on like bull-terriers, and by the end of the third stanza, the Bears were wondering if they had taken their hosts too lightly. The Laurel crew kicked the advantage up to 11 points midway through the third frame, but a late Warrior uprising whittled that lead back down in short order, as the Crofton cagers outplayed Laurel, 15-14, to trail by five as the fourth quarter began.

Now assured they had to play good basketball to beat the tenacious Warriors, the bears mounted a 21-point final stanza attack that kept the host club out of the running. The Warriors canned 17 counters, but dropped an additional four points to the invaders for the nine-point deficit at the buzzer.

Schroeder was again high point man for the Bears, on 24 counters, of that total, 10 came from the line, with the balance coming on seven field goals, a below-average figure for the 6-4 senior. Bruce Johnson and Gary Chace took up the slack, with 12 and 10 points respectively. Rebounding statistics were tipped heavily in Laurel's favor, with Schroeder grabbing a game-leading 34, and Chace contributing 11. Chace, a 6-1 senior, has been consistent this season, contributing about a dozen rebounds a game.

Balanced scoring was the keynote of the Crofton attack, which found Jan Ausdemore leading on 18 points Mike Zimmerman added 16, and Ronnie Frisbie hit for 15.

The Bears closed out regular season play Friday night, hosting the Pierce Bluejays.

Hartington, Lewis League Champ, Edges Past Allen

Hartington, which recently wrapped up the Clark half of the Lewis and Clark Conference, nipped Allen, 68-63 Saturday night in a game on the winners' home ground.

Allen got off to a bad start, scoring only eight points in the first period to trail by 10. The Eagles cut the gap to 32-28 by halftime and then again dropped off the pace in the third to trail by 51-40 entering the fourth.

Barry Carlson's club gave it a valiant try in the closing stanza, scoring 23 points to Hartington's 17, but the comeback attempt fell five points short.

Larry Elckhoff was the biggest reason for Allen's fifth loss in 17 games this season, pushing through 10 fielders and the same number of free throws in a dozen chances for a grand total of 30 points. Teammate Pat Guy chipped in 17 more for the winners.

Allen had four more fielders than Hartington, 26 to 24, but hit only seven of 16 at the free throw line, no comparison to the 20 of 27 by Hartington in that department.

The Eagles wound up with a 36 per cent shooting average while trying 77 shots. Scott Von Minden had losers' tops with 18, along with eight rebounds, John Warner pulled down 16 rebounds, and contributed 14 points and Duane Mitchell added a dozen counters in a losing cause.

Allen players pulled down a total of 42 rebounds and committed only 10 turnovers, one of the season's lowest in the error department, according to Coach Carlson.

The Eagles had dropped a one-point the previous night to Emerson-Hubbard, winners of the Wayne St. Mary's and Hoskins squared off in the second contest, which saw the Wayne crew pouring it on, to win, 41-23. John Keating led Wayne with 20 points, and Tom Ginn contributed seven. Joed Brunetti paced Hoskins with 11 counters, and Clifford Tillema chipped in nine.

Finals are set for Thursday night, with Concord meeting Hoskins in the consolation match at 7 p.m., and Dixon and Wayne battling for the title at 8.

Area fifth and sixth graders fought it out on the hardwoods Tuesday night at Dixon, with the host Dixon club and Wayne St. Mary's emerging the victors.

In the first matchup, Dixon whalloped Concord, 35-18. High point man for Dixon was Ryan Labberstedt, with 15. Derwin Kordell added eight. Topping the charts for Concord were Bob Dahlquist and Steve Anderson on seven and five points respectively.

Men's Recreation League Championship to Team 5

Team 5 members apparently were carrying their lucky charms during the wrap-up of the Men's City Basketball League Monday night at City Auditorium.

A combination of events enabled Team 5 to claim an undisputed championship. The titlists defeated Team 1 by a 59-43 score, but Team 2 was upset by Team 4 by 53-42 and Team 3 was surprised 78-57, by Team 6.

That left Team 5 at the head of the pack with a 7-3 record. Teams 2 and 3, which had been expected by many in the league to tie for the crown, dropped into a three-way tie for second, a group which also included Team 6, with 6-4 records. Team 4 had a 3-7 history and Team 1 was at the bottom of the heap with a 2-8 mark.

Team 2 fell when it scored only eight points in the fourth period. The two teams were locked at 34-all entering the final quarter, but Team 4 posted another 19 points on the scoreboards. Darrel Doeschler and Dennis Sprangler had 13 apiece in a winning cause, while Sid Hillier and Randy Robins garned the losers with 16 and 12.

Don Koerber's 34-point production still wasn't enough in Team 3's setback at the hands of Team 6, which took command after a 16-10 first-period deficit to move on top by 31-22 at halftime and a wide bulge at 55-37 to begin the fourth. Team 6 had a trio of double-figure men, John Dorcex with 17, Dick Dittman with 13 and Larry Meier with 11.

Koerber's 34 points ranked second high for the year, next to teammate Herb Swan's 40 counters earlier in the season. Swan was not on hand for Monday night's game.

Team 1 scored only three points in the fourth period after pressing at 47-40 after three quarters of play.

George Eynon had 22 and Mike Bittorf, 16, for the winners. Mike Ginn scored 12 and Scott Niemann, 11, for Team 1.

The playoff begins Monday, Feb. 21, with Teams 1 and 2 matched at 7:30, Teams 3 and 4 at 8:45 and Teams 5 and 6 drawing byes.

Losers will meet in a "just for fun" 7 p.m. game Monday, Sept. 28, with the winner of the Team 3 and 4 game meeting Team 5 at 8 p.m., and the winner of the Team 1 and 2 game tangling with Team 6 at 9 p.m.

The championship and consolation games will be played Monday, March 6.

Area Matmen Win Trips to Lincoln

District wrestling action was plentiful last weekend, with Wayne, Winside and Wakefield all involved in mat contests. The three schools will send a total of 13 local grapplers to the State Tournament Friday and Saturday at Lincoln.

Winside posted the most spectacular district record, hosting the Class D meet Saturday, and sweeping the competition to cap the team championship, with 89 points. Clarke was second with 79, and Butte placed third with 61.

Seven Wildcat grapplers earned state tournament berths, Greg Lage, a freshman with limited varsity experience, finished first in the 98-pound competition, winning the deciding final match on a surprisingly lopsided 5-0 count. Doug Anderson who provided consistently good showings throughout the season, placed second at 105.

Dave Jaeger won his three pre-final matches with little trouble, and topped the day off with a fall at 2:40 in the final, to win championship honors in the 112-pound class. Doug Rager, brother of the 98-pound champ, kept it in the family, with a third-place effort at 126.

Rob Langenberg, at the top of his season's form, placed second in the 132-pound division, and Dean Krueger added a second-place finish in the 155-pound class.

Putting the icing on the cake was Larry Cleveland, who copped the championship at 185.

The Wayne mat crew placed seventh in the 14-team Class B tourney at Fremont. Three of Coach Don Koenig's grapplers earned trips to Lincoln with third-place finishes: Jim Niemann at 126, Mark Belermann, at 138 and Brad Pfueger at 145 will all be competing at the State Tourney this weekend. All Competing for Wayne High School at this weekend's state wrestling tournament will be (from left) Mark Belermann, Brad Pfueger and Jim Niemann.

Three won four matches and lost one.

In the Class C affair at Howells, the Wakefield Trojans finished seventh in the 12-team field, with Dave Rouse, one of the area's premier matmen, winning the 105-pound championship. Steve Sorenson placed at 138, and salty Kirk Gardner finished first at 155.

The State Tournament starts Friday with opening round action at Pershing Auditorium. Semifinals and the consolation round will be wrestled Saturday, with the final round set for Saturday night.

State Mat Fans To See Tourney On ETV Sunday

Fans and participants of the State High School Wrestling Tourney finals will be able to see the final competition on television when a repeat broadcast of live coverage is aired Sunday at 3:30 p.m. on the Nebraska Educational Television Network.

The statewide network is carrying a live broadcast of the finals Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Ken Johnson, NETN producer of the special sports program, said the repeat broadcast was scheduled to enable the 576 contestants from 183 high schools, their families and fans to see the finals. Over 25,000 people are expected to attend this year's competition, which is being held in Pershing Auditorium, Lincoln.

Host for the program is Dick Janda, Ord, University of Nebraska junior and campus radio station sports announcer. He will be assisted by Vic Smith, Lexington, "FNL" senior and former member of the University of Nebraska wrestling team.

Rainbow Trout To Be Stocked in Lake McConaughy

LINCOLN—Several Nebraska streams that do not normally produce trout will harbor thousands of rainbow fingerlings this spring, thanks to the Game and Parks Commission project being conducted in the North Platte drainage above Lake McConaughy.

Some of the streams lack the gravel and rock-bottoms that rainbows need for spawning, but are suitable in every other way for raising trout. Others have everything rainbows require, including the rock and gravel bottoms, but rainbows for some reason do not spawn there.

In April, both types of streams will be stocked with two-inch rainbow fingerlings—artificially cultured in Commission hatcheries. Nature will then take over. When the trout reach about eight hatchery in length next spring, they will migrate downstream to Lake McConaughy.

A significant advantage of this procedure is the fact that the rainbow fingerlings released in these streams should return there to spawn when adults. In streams where conditions are right, this will mean natural reproduction to add to Lake McConaughy's rainbow population from a stream that now contributes no trout.

Secondly, even if the stream will not support natural reproduction, it serves as an economical way of rearing rainbow fingerlings. If trout were to be raised from the egg to the eight inches they reach before heading to the lake, about 10 months of fish hatchery time would be involved. By letting the natural environment of the "nursery" stream take over after the eggs hatch and the fish reach an inch or two, about five months of hatchery time are saved.

About 80,000 eggs were collected and fertilized during the fall spawning run. These eggs are now being cultured at Commission fish hatcheries. Another smaller batch will be collected from spring spawners.

Brook trout in Nebraska spawn in the fall from September through November.

Wildcat Matmen Drop Green Briar Cliff

Wayne State wrestlers tuned up Saturday with a decisive 45-9 victory over Briar Cliff as a prelude to their Wednesday night (Feb. 16) dual with the University of Nebraska at Omaha, scheduled for 7:30 in Rice Gymnasium.

The Wayne-Omaha collision was billed as probably the top collegiate mat attraction of the year in Nebraska, matching teams both highly rated nationally in the NAIA.

The biggest crowd of the season was expected — no admission charge — for the unpredictable meet. Unlike the past two years, when Omaha slumped, lopsided victories on the Wildcats, the outcome this year appeared close to a tossup, with the burden of Wayne effort falling on the top six weights — and perhaps on the heavyweight match — between unbeaten Ron Coles, 17-0, of Wayne, and Gary Kipfmiller, 13-1.

Coles, who weighs about 215, would be about 140 to 150 pounds lighter than Kipfmiller. But Coles had one advantage, having twice beaten the one wrestler who beat Kipfmiller this year, Jim Woods of Western Illinois.

Western Illinois drew with Omaha in their one dual. Northwest Missouri defeated UNO, 21-15, after losing to Wayne, 18-15.

Against Briar Cliff, a young and inexperienced team, Wayne posted five falls out of seven match wins and won two others by forfeit. Jim Meyer, freshman from Wayne, missed the meet because of illness and injury, but returned to practice this week. Though not ready for the Wayne-Omaha meet, he is expected to be back in condition for the Nebraska College Conference Feb. 26 at Chadron. He has a 9-3 record at 126 pounds.

Results with Briar Cliff:

118—Bob Berle, BC, won by forfeit.

126—Kent Irwin, WS, won by forfeit.

134—John Kinney, BC, declassified Dave Nieland, 2-1.

142—Loren Hansen, WS, declassified Rick Switzer, 5-0.

150—Mitch Emery, WS, pinned Bob Rush in 3:05.

158—Steve Gregory, WS, pinned John Rutherford in 6:27.

167—Tom Luth, WS, pinned Dale Monroe in 1:09.

177—Ken Monroe, WS, pinned Greg Bruns in 4:07.

190—Dennis Reid, WS, won by forfeit.

11wt.—Ron Coles, WS, pinned Tom Burkhardt in 1:09.

posting 31 points, to keep Norfolk out of the running. Three of the locals notched double-figure charts, with Earl Over in leading on 23 points, Marty Hansen adding 18 and Bob Keating contributing 10.

Wayne outrebanded the taller Norfolk club, 48-30, as Keating cleared the boards for 13 and Overin hauled in 11.

The tourney championship will be on the line Thursday night, when the Wayne crew will meet the winner of the Laurel-Pierce game. Tipoff time is 8:30 at Itandolph for the championship showdown.

In Monday night's first-round action, Wayne's freshmen had eliminated Creighton, 50-46, coming on strong after a slim 14-13 first-quarter lead to take complete command at the next two rest stops, 33-19 and 53-30.

Coach Dan Johnson used substitutes the entire fourth quarter, but his team still chalked up a 48 per cent average from the field for the entire game. Creighton was sizzling, too, with 47 per cent accuracy.

Marty Hansen scored 24 points for the locals and also was credited with six of the yearlings' 17 steals. Bob Keating cleared the boards 15 times, a department in which the Wayne club had a 37-33 advantage.

Wayne Frosh Blast Norfolk Public

Wayne's 12-2 freshman round-ball club came a step closer to the title Tuesday night, whipping Norfolk Public, 74-49, at the Randolph Freshman Tourney.

In one of their sharpest games this season, the Wayne youngsters used a fast break, aggressive defense and 64 per cent shooting at the foul line to take command.

The locals jumped to a 19-12 edge at the end of the first quarter, and then got the scoring machine rolling, to notch 24 second-stanza points, while limiting Norfolk to five. The 40-17 halftime lead put the game out of reach for the Norfolk five.

The young Blue Devils scored consistently in the second half,

Look Ma! One Hand

Scott Ehlers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ehlers of Wayne, does it the hard way, since he broke his arm in a basketball game with Norfolk earlier this year. The mishap occurred as Ehlers was attempting to stop a fast break in the sophomore contest. Ehlers still shows up for most practices, and has worked up an excellent left-handed hook shot. The cast should be off by mid-March.

Five in Double Figures As WSC Trips Briar Cliff

Dan Quinn needed about 10 seconds to score Wayne State's first field goal Tuesday night, and that started a wild-running romp by Quinn and his Wildcat mates as a 90-77 win over Briar Cliff.

The 6-2 sophomore Quinn, a guard, went on to 23 points, high for Wayne and his best since an opening-game 26. He also dashed through Briar Cliff defenses with a show of ball handling and nabbed five rebounds, unusual for his customary outside play.

Another guard, 5-11, Tom Erwin of Concord, had a stellar night and season high with 14 points and a dandy display of floor work to match Quinn's. As usual, Erwin came off the bench in the first half, but he started the second half. His point average was 4.4.

Dana Troholtz, a 6-4 forward, likewise came off the bench for a keen shooting exhibition totaling 12 points, his best since early season.

The trio accounted for a high percentage of Wayne field points—Erwin hitting 60 per cent, Quinn 55 and Troholtz 50.

Otherwise, the Cats had a chilly night, with a team percentage of 37, well below their normal 44. Still, Wayne had five players in double figures the first time this season. Denny Siefkes posted 13, half his Nebraska-leading average, and Jon Harvey took 12, almost double his norm.

All in all, it was not one of Wayne's better games in execution. The Cats won by outshooting the Chargers, who managed only 35 per cent shooting but gave the Wildcats a strong treatment of "muscle all the way."

Briar Cliff's Jim Krieger led scoring with 33 points, best of the year on a team with a 4-19 record.

The win left Wayne 10-7 before going to Chadron State Friday for a crucial conference game. The Wildcats are 3-3 in NCC play and can tie for second if they trip Chadron, 3-4, then Peru, 1-6, here next Wednesday.

Wayne survived a stubborn threat from Mount Marty Saturday at Yorkton, Iowa, 73-67, in the first half and trailing 38-32 at the half, the Cats came back for a 65-61 decision. Again it was Quinn who helped the second-half cause with 10 points (his total), matching Siefkes' 10 to pull the game out. Siefkes posted a team season high free throw mark with 12 out of 13 tries. He totaled 26.

Gun Club Meeting Held

About 30 men, a couple of women and several young people turned out for the meeting held Tuesday evening at Bill's Cafe to discuss the possibility of organizing a gun club in the Wayne area. Also on hand was Mr. Barelman from the recently organized Wisner Gun Club.

A second meeting is set for 8 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 29 at Bill's Cafe. All interested persons are urged to attend. Further information may be obtained by contacting Bill Wilson, who conducted the Tuesday evening meeting, Dr. Richard DeNayer, Stacy Swiney or Alaf Van Buskirk.

Immediate goals of the group are to determine if there is enough interest to organize a club, then to set up gun safety training courses and find a location suitable for rifle, pistol and shotgun shooting ranges.

Six Wayne State Students in Recital

Six music students at Wayne State College presented a recital Tuesday, one of a series this term giving musicians opportunity to perform publicly.

The recitalists were Carl Bisanz and Loralee Nelson, both of Tekamah, in a soprano-French horn duet; Larry Teager, trumpet, South Sioux City; Peggy Myer, piano; Woodbine, Iowa; John Leonard, tuba, Woodbine, Iowa, and Pat Karo, alto, Stuart.

Their accompanists were Jeanne Kniff, Newcastle; Bonnie Siefken, Wakefield; Lynette Ammons, Ue, Iowa, and Marcia Schieffer, Crofton.

The recital had an unusual feature, a talk by Dr. Morris Anderson, director of student teaching, on the subject "What is expected of you in the teaching profession," followed by a question-answer period.

A bluegill taken in Nebraska must weigh at least one pound to qualify for a Master Angler Award.

Another minor mishap occurred at Fourth and Main Monday at 7:15 p.m. Jack Glese of Route 2 told police that he had hit a car in the rear but the driver left the scene without reporting the accident to authorities. There was slight damage to the front end of the Glese car.

Phone Rates -

The manager advised... the rates will affect Northwestern Bell's customers. A customer having one-party dial service is now paying $4.40 a month in Wayne. He probably pays at least $5 a month for long-distance calls, although the average residence phone user spends less than this. The rate schedule also provides a flat fee for installing new services or changing existing services. The fee locally will be $8 for residences and $12 for businesses.

OMAHA - Nebraska taxpayers were warned today against misleading advertisements conveying the impression that the tax law greatly complicates their 1971 returns. Richard P. Vinal, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska, said the ads placed by some commercial preparers of tax returns picture the Form 1040 as extremely complex and discourage taxpayers from attempting to fill out their own returns. The average salaried taxpayer is capable of preparing his own tax return if he carefully reads and follows the instruction book that comes with the tax form. In most cases, this booklet contains all the information a taxpayer needs to accurately prepare his own return, said Vinal. "Taxpayers should be careful of 'guarantees' offered by some commercial preparers of returns that make it appear that they will represent the taxpayer in any subsequent audit, Vinal said. Generally, only attorneys, CPAs, and those who, by demonstrating their qualifications, are enrolled for practice, can represent a taxpayer before the IRS. Taxpayers should be sure of just what is meant by a "guarantee" offered by a preparer.

Thone Bills Would Aid Firefighters

Congressman Charles Thone has introduced legislation into the House of Representatives which would aid the firemen of Nebraska and the nation in obtaining up-to-date firefighting equipment. One date fire-related bills Thone is sponsoring also would impose more stringent standards on building and insulating materials.

Thone Bills Would Aid Firefighters

According to Thone, "Firefighting is now the most dangerous major occupation in the nation." One of Thone's bills would provide federal aid for professional and volunteer fire departments for the purchase of newly-developed protective clothing and updated equipment. Another measure would establish a national clearinghouse for information about fires and firefighting. Local fire departments could call the center 24 hours a day, to receive advice on combating particular kinds of blazes.

SOME FOLKS THINK IT PAYS TO GO SHOP OUT OF TOWN...

but have they stopped to think about what happens to that dollar they spend away from home? Part of it will go to support the schools, churches and public projects of the community in which that dollar was spent. All well and good. But what about the schools, churches, etc. in our own community? These must also be supported. Don't short-change our hometown and yourself by scattering dollars elsewhere . . . keep them working right here for you and yours!

William A. Holm Funeral Services Held Wednesday

Funeral services for William A. Holm, 71, of Laurel, were held there Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the St. Mary's Catholic Church. Rosary was recited Tuesday evening at the Willcox Chapel. He died Saturday at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital, Norfolk.

The Rev. Michael Kelly officiated. Pallbearers were David Miller, Michael Tribble, Pat Tribble, Gary Rohde, Daniel Gildersleeve and David Brockman. Burial was in the Laurel Cemetery.

William A. Holm, son of Stephen and Lena Meyer Holm, was born Oct. 5, 1900 at Pender. In 1903 he moved to a farm northeast of Laurel with his parents. On Feb. 4, 1925 he was married to Martha M. French at Laurel. He farmed for three years before moving into Laurel where he entered into construction work and operated a cafe. He retired in 1968.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one son. Survivors include his widow, Martha, two daughters, Mrs. Floyd Overton Miller of Belden and Mrs. Marlon (Mavis) Tribble of Lincoln; two brothers, Jack of Laurel and Ivan of Lawton, Ia.; three sisters, Mrs. Frieda Voss of Laurel, Mrs. Albert (Dad) Hansen of Laurel and Mrs. Clara Ohlman of Laurel; eight grandchildren, five great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Ella Welch Dies

Mrs. Ella Welch, 86, of California, formerly of Omaha, died last Monday at the home of her nephew, John McIntyre of California. She was the sister of the late Mrs. B. M. McIntyre of Winslow.

Funeral services were held Thursday in Omaha.

Heart Fund Drive in Wayne Underway

The Heart Fund drive in Wayne got underway this week under the leadership of co-chairmen Mrs. Harry Bressler and Mrs. Thomas Stevenson.

The city has been divided among 13 area chairmen, with each chairman having workers who are responsible for solicitation in a small area, normally the block in which the solicitor lives. Some workers are making arrangements for passing the solicitation kit from home to home.

Area chairmen east of Main are Mrs. William Caver, Mrs. William Filter, Mrs. George MacKibb, Mrs. Paul Otte, Mrs. Larry Meier and Gladys Vath.

West of Main area chairmen are Mrs. Lyle Seymour, Mrs. Richard Keld, Mrs. Verlin Oles, Mrs. Morris Anderson, Mrs. Del Stollenberg and Mrs. Thomas Stevenson.

The Greek Societies of Wayne State College will solicit their residences, the area north of 10th and east of Main, the area bounded by Highway 35, Dearborn and the railroad and the mobile homes north of Fairgrounds Ave. Carl Adamson is the chairman for that drive.

Mrs. Wayne Gilliland, rural chairman, reports the material has been mailed to the rural areas.

Robert Jordan at the State National Bank is the Wayne County Heart Fund treasurer, Mrs. Charles Jackson is the Winslow chairman and Mrs. Richard Jensen, chairman at Carroll.

There will be no solicitation of the business district. In the event that a home is missed, anyone wishing to contribute may contact an area chairman.

Mrs. Carl Lentz, Wayne County Heart Fund chairman, says this year's goal for Nebraska is $300,519, an increase of 8 percent over last year.

Rainbow trout migrate more extensively than other species of trout and can tolerate warmer waters.

Weather

PIG PROBLEMS?

GET KENT

Flav-R-ized Pig Nuggets TS-200

Is there a history of pig scours on your place? If so, Kent Flav-R-ized Pig Nuggets TS-200 can change a disease history into a bright future. Fed from the time pigs start eating until they reach 25 pounds, this 16% protein ration helps baby pigs get a fast, strong start.

KENT Flav-R-ized Pig Nuggets TS-200 contain Tylan and Sulfa to combat scouring and rhinitis problems. The mild, 16% protein ration won't irritate tender digestive systems, and, extra amino acids balance the protein to keep pigs gaining the way they would on a "hotter" protein ration.

Palatability? You bet. We guarantee Flav-R-ized Pig Nuggets TS-200. If you aren't completely satisfied, bring the unused portion back within 30 days and we'll refund the whole price.

To help prevent pig problems, depend on Kent Flav-R-ized Pig Nuggets TS-200 as your baby pigs' first ration. We have all the information you need to get your pigs started right and going strong to market.

Stop in soon.

Environmental Action Month Is April

Mrs. Les Anderson of Omaha, chairman of the Governor's Council to Keep America Beautiful, warns that "we could smother in the waste of our affluence but the fault lies not with the progress of technology, but rather with the lag of conservation measures." Conservation, "if it is to have any meaning for man, must relate primarily to man."

Mrs. Anderson, in her letter to all Nebraska mayors and project chairman, adds that "the quality of the environment, like freedom, must be protected. Conservation with an ecological emphasis is a way of happily relating man to his natural resources.

"Conservation, which began with wildlife protection and grew to habitat preservation, must extend its concern to the man-made environment," she concludes.

Nebraska Environmental Action Month begins April 15 and Mrs. Anderson has urged every citizen of the state to be awakened to the urgent need that each must be a steward to protect our natural resources.

Some of the projects suggested are cleanup of yards, alleys and parks, junker car control, busness and industry air pollution control, trash recycling, water pollution control and planting of trees.

Various films and slides are available and brochures may be obtained through the Governor's Council to Keep Nebraska Beautiful, 102 S. Sixth, Omaha.

Indians in California believed swarms of butterflies that arrived every autumn came to wait for the souls of persons who would die that winter. With spring, the legend went, the butterflies would take these departed souls to an island far across the Pacific.

Methodists Nominate Omaha for Bishop

Dr. Alva H. Clark, pastor of St. Paul United Methodist Church in Omaha, has received the unanimous endorsement of the Nebraska Conference delegation for the office of bishop of the United Methodist Church.

In an unprecedented move, members of the delegation, meeting without Dr. Clark present, moved to support him as a person with high qualifications for the episcopacy.

The South Central Jurisdiction will elect four new bishops during a meeting in Houston, Texas in July. The new bishops will replace in office Bishops Noah W. Moore Jr. of Nebraska; Paul V. Galloway of Arkansas; Aubrey G. Walton of Louisiana; and Kenneth W. Pope of Dallas-Fort Worth (Texas), who are retiring.

Seventy-one specific areas will be made at the elections. States involved in the jurisdiction are Nebraska, Missouri, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Kansas and Texas.

School Bells Ring

Feb. 21 at 'TV High'

School bells ring Monday, Feb. 21 at 6:30 p.m. for Nebraskans participating in "TV High School." On that date a six-week in-school study begins on the Nebraska Educational Television Network. The course is the fourth in a series of five courses aimed at preparing adults to pass high school equivalency diploma tests.

Presented in cooperation with the Nebraska State Department of Education, "TV High School" consists of 60 half-hour lessons related to the five areas of General Educational Development (GED) tests.

The 12 lessons of the social studies course will be shown in sequence for six consecutive weeks on Monday and Wednesday, of each week beginning Monday, Feb. 21 with a repeat of both lessons on Friday of each week.

Nebraska Contributes $154,835 to CROP

The CROP Community Hunger Appeal in 1971 secured $2,073,838 from canvasses and walks, in 32 states, and from agribusiness firms.

The 16 regional programs registered the second largest one-year increase in CROP's 25 campaign years. Twelve of the 16 programs recorded gains in 1971. The increase over 1970 was 24 per cent.

The Mid-Atlantic Area (Delaware, D. C., Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia) led CROP campaign totals with $244,540—largely secured through CROP "walks to end hunger."

Illinois raised $207,884; Kansas, $195,350; Iowa, $191,403; Indiana, $173,289; Ohio, $171,414; Nebraska, still largely a commodity campaign, $154,835; and Missouri, $136,669. The Mid-Atlantic Area, Iowa, and Missouri showed spectacular growth over 1970.

Hearing Test Set for Wayne, Nebraska

Electronic hearing tests will be given at Hotel Morrison in Wayne on Friday, Feb. 18 from 10:30 to 3:00 by Jack Jennings, Beltone Consultant.

Anyone who has trouble hearing or understanding is welcome to come in for a test using the latest electronic equipment to determine his or her particular degree of hearing loss. Diagrams showing how the ear works and some of the causes of hearing loss will be available.

Everyone should have a hearing test at least once a year if he has any trouble at all hearing clearly. Even people now wearing a hearing aid or those who have been told an aid won't help should have a hearing test and find out about the very latest hearing aids.

The free hearing tests will be held at Hotel Morrison, Wayne, Neb., on Friday, Feb. 18 from 10:30 to 3:00. If you can't get there on Friday, call or write the Beltone Hearing Aid Service, 1201 Nebraska St., Sioux City, Iowa, phone 259-1960.

trying to tell you it needs attention: Dimming of lights when a pump motor or freezer starts, poor performance from heaters, motors and the like, or a shrinking or a flickering television picture. When the system is loaded and operating, check cables, cords and fuse boxes to see if they are hot. If they are hot the system needs attention. The need for larger fuses on a particular circuit may indicate an overload and a need for electrical system first aid.

Discolored, hardened and cracked insulation on wires may also indicate that you need to give the whole system a good going over.

ORGANIC FARMING
"No," said Dr. Robert Carolus,

Michigan State University horticulturist, "We have passed the point of no return to nature's way except as a hobby or recreation or therapy for a few people." He says we must keep researching for new practices and varieties and chemicals that will keep our food supply ahead of our population.

Two billion people (two thirds of the world's population) go to bed hungry each night. This hunger leads to 10,000 deaths from starvation every day. Malnourished children and adults fall prey to diseases you and I may never see or hear of.

WHERE'S THE DANGER?
Dr. T. C. Tucker, soil scientist with the University of Arizona, doesn't believe increased usage of inorganic fertilizers will create a health hazard. Take a look at Holland, he suggests. Holland has the most concentrated use of commercial fertilizer in the world with all effects. The Dutch have both the highest yield of products and the highest standard of health in the world. They also have the highest birth rate, the lowest mortality and a life span two years longer than ours. "Somehow the idea that organic food is healthier than regular food has been widely publicized," Tucker says, "but all available evidence indicates that just the opposite is true."

PRODUCING IRRIGATED CORN

Irrigated corn production costs for Adams County producers in 1971 ranged from 57 cents to $1.16 per bushel, averaging 85 cents. Yields ranged from 105 to 175, averaging 149. This was the fourth year that a group of producers have kept detailed records in a corn cost project under the direction of Paul Swanson, Adams County Extension Agent. The number of producers participating in the group has ranged from 22 in 1968 to nine in 1971.

Some problems still occur in obtaining total production costs.

Conservation -- Yesterday and Today

An example of modern gully control on a Douglas County farm is this grassed waterway. It is seeded to native grasses to prevent rainwater from washing away the soil.

Soil erosion has etched a small gully into this Gage County farm. Conservationists will fill it with soil and plant the gully with grasses to prevent future erosion.

Gov. Exon Proclaims State Wildlife Week

LINCOLN—A variety of wildlife is one of America's natural heritages and a necessary part of Nebraska's environment, according to a proclamation issued by Governor J. James Exon, which designates March 19-25 as Wildlife Week in Nebraska. The governor points out that wildlife plays an important role in the world's ecosystem and vividly reflects the livability of man's environment.

"It may be a wild idea to believe we can reverse environmental destruction to protect wildlife and create a quality life for man. However, this country was founded on the wild idea of independence and not long ago a wild idea took us to the moon," the proclamation said, "urging Nebraskans to be ecologically aware, he asks them to make a wholesome environment 'another wild idea which will work.'"

The proclamation endorses the National Wildlife Week 1972 theme, "Ecology—A Wild Idea." The annual observance is sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation, and in recent years has attempted to focus attention on the pollution of our environment.

In Nebraska, environmental deterioration is most apparent in the destruction of natural areas that provide wholesome outdoor recreation and wildlife habitat. Even though Nebraska's environment is in better shape than most states, signs of its deterioration are evident in many places. That is the reason for observance of Wildlife Week in Nebraska.

Nebraskans who want to do something about the environment can take action through Wildlife Week. Information packets are available by writing the state chairman, Rex Amack, Game and Parks Commission, P. O. Box 30370, Lincoln, Nebr., 68503.

Announcing the most complete warranty ever put on a used car.

Covers engine, transmission, rear axle, brake system and electrical system for 30 days or 2000 miles. And you get special savings on all parts and labor for the first 24 months.

USED VEHICLE DEALER WARRANTY

This Warranty is issued by the undersigned, an authorized Chevrolet Dealer (hereinafter called the Selling Dealer) to

Name _____ Address _____
City _____ State _____

(Hereinafter called the Purchaser) in consideration of the purchase of a used motor vehicle (hereinafter called the Vehicle) as described on page _____

Year _____ Make _____ Type _____
Motor No. _____ Serial No. _____ Stock No. _____
Mileage shown on odometer at delivery _____

STATEMENT OF WARRANTY
Subject to the provisions and conditions stated below, in the event of mechanical failure of the Vehicle, the Selling Dealer agrees as follows:
(1) For a period of 30 days beginning _____ or 2000 miles after delivery (whichever occurs first) the Selling Dealer agrees to repair or replace the engine, transmission, rear axle, brake system, or electrical system—without charge—in the event necessary to keep the Vehicle in a serviceable condition under normal use.

PROVISIONS
(a) Mechanical failures resulting from collision, accident, abuse or lack of maintenance, are expressly excluded from the above coverage.
(b) Repairs are to be made in the Selling Dealer's Service facilities.
(c) Such repairs do not qualify under any new vehicle warranty still applicable to the Vehicle.
(2) Upon the expiration of the warranty period specified in (1) above and for a period ending 24 months from the date the warranty period specified in (1) above commences, the Selling Dealer will allow a discount of _____ off the normal retail charges for parts and labor repair necessary to keep the Vehicle in a serviceable condition under normal use.

PROVISIONS
(a) Repairs are to be made in the Selling Dealer's Service facilities, or other participating franchised Chevrolet Dealer at such Chevrolet Dealer's regular retail price.
(b) EXPRESSLY EXCLUDED: This Warranty coverage and savings from collision, accident or abuse or normal maintenance services such as lubrication, oil changes, tune-ups, etc.

GENERAL CONDITIONS
This Warranty is issued by the Selling Dealer only, and not by the manufacturer of the Vehicle.
This Warranty is, inasmuch as it is, in lieu of any other warranties, expressed or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, and any other obligations or liabilities on the Selling Dealer's part, and Selling Dealer neither assumes nor authorizes any other person to assume for it any other liability in connection with the sale of the Vehicle.
This Warranty must be available with the Vehicle at the time of application for any repairs or adjustments, and is not transferable or assignable. (This clause shall constitute part of the contract.)
In witness of all the above conditions, we have attached our signatures this _____ day of _____, 19____.

Many Chevrolet dealers are announcing the most complete warranty ever put on a used car. Count your blessings.

First, you're protected where it counts most: on the most important parts of the car you buy. And that lasts a healthy 30 days or 2000 miles, whichever comes first.

Second, you get special savings on any parts or labor you need. From the day you buy for 24 months. Third, the special savings are good all across the country at most Chevrolet dealers. Say you're on a vacation trip and find you need service. You just get in touch with a participating Chevrolet dealership.

All you do is show an OK warranty identification card you receive when you buy your car.

Your Chevrolet dealer's new OK warranty. It takes the guesswork out of used car buying.

Rural Ramblings

Unneeded Help Offered

One day about midmorning old Duke howlingly heralds a visitor. You sneak one glance through the half-open barn door and see a new, shiny, expensive and unfamiliar car coming in the lane. Looks like the driver is all dressed up.

Immediately you know it is either an Internal Revenue agent,

So until you've had time to think this thing over you reveal your presence to him. You continue to work on some not-too-important job in the barn.

Old Duke sure sounds exceptionally vicious. You laugh to yourself about how he has that city-gent buffaloid.

On second thought maybe he is an inspector. And the government has so many inspectors that maybe he's inspecting an inspector. Anyway, it's too late to make any changes on whatever he has come to inspect. Therefore he can just go look at it or wait until you're ready.

But then, you get to thinking, most likely he is a salesman. And there sure are plenty of them around. Selling everything from kitchen kettles to insurance to feed to goodness knows what.

And this morning you aren't too anxious to buy anything as you're just going to let him wait.

Can't Hide

The garage door is closed and the pickup is in the yard so he must know you and the Mrs. are home. And if whatever he wants is very important he could get out and find you.

Then you remember that old Duke is guarding him. Well, you just as well go relieve old Duke and solve your own curiosity.

So you saunter out of the barn and call to old Duke. You give him a rewarding pat on the head. You soon learn that you had completely misgessed the visitor.

He is from a livestock commission firm. Oh, not completely misgessed you tell yourself, he just happens to be in a different, yet similar category.

Now how in the world did he know you had hogs about ready for market when his office is over 50 miles away?

But since you and the Mrs. have been guessing at their weight for the past week or more, you decide to let him look at the hogs.

He agreed that several of the hogs weigh over 200 pounds. But you want to know which hogs and how many.

He returns to his car and comes back with some marking chalk. Before long he has moseyed through the herd and has about 40 hogs with yellow marks on their backs.

"Have them on tomorrow's market," he says.

Although you've been selling your hogs to his commission firm for years you wonder what's suddenly gone wrong with him?

Didn't he hear Eddie Collins telling over the radio this morning that you should keep your hogs home for another day?

But Eddie Collins didn't see your hogs today. And you haven't seen the markets either.

No Promises

You bid the commission man farewell and tell him to watch for your hogs in the yards. But you didn't commit yourself by saying exactly when to watch for them.

Later, over a cup of coffee with the Mrs. you discuss the pros and cons about shipping today or tomorrow. But she tactfully leaves the final decision up to you. Before you finish the coffee or come to any definite decision, old Duke announces another visitor.

Seems like the entire county knows you're about to sell something. So you decide to go see who it is and what they want.

Oh yes! It's your feed salesman with the dairy feed that he was supposed to have brought yesterday. He and old Duke are well acquainted so old Duke doesn't exert much energy by barking at him.

He pals old Duke on the head and starts unloading feed into the barn.

You decide that you might as well put your coveralls and overshoes back on and go find out what he knows about fat hogs. You arrive just in time to help him put up the tall gate of his pickup.

He knows he's a day late in bringing your feed so he'd better take time out to listen to you. The problem is that he can't figure out if you want to be talked into shipping today or talked out of it.

Yep, he agrees that all the marked hogs look heavy enough. Then he has the nerve to ask you how old they are.

Should Know

Since he sold you the first feed for them he should know their exact age. It's his job to keep track of your livestock, isn't it? Well, maybe he does have one or two other customers.

Between his calculations and your memory you decide the hogs should be about six months old. Gosh, at that rate there should be more than 40 ready for market.

Then the feed salesman has the audacity to ask you what you've been feeding the hogs. When he sees your reaction to his question he laughs and reminds you of the USDA drug withdrawal period before shipping livestock.

Well, luck was with you, you'd been feeding his feed to the fat hogs. So he assures you that they could be shipped any time.

That decides it! Eddie Collins or not. Markets up or down. The markets might be up or down today and up a $1.50 tomorrow and Eddie Collins might have had an "if" in there that you didn't hear.

The feed salesman offers his help to sort the hogs but you send him back to town. Whether she agrees or not, this is a job for you and the Mrs.

Farm Program Is Ideal for Grass Seeding

The 1972 Feed Grain Program gives farm owners and operators an excellent opportunity to establish new pastures. Many agricultural leaders see a definite trend toward more cow-calf operations. Many areas in northeast Nebraska are better suited for grass than other areas.

Considering the above statement, farmers should plan ahead for grass planting. What kind of grass is best? When is the best time to plant pastures? Answers to these and similar type questions depend on several factors such as soil type, topography and season of use.

Farmers considering seeding more grass next spring should contact the ASCS Office, County Extension Agent or a SCS representative for more details.

Area Hog Breeder's Barrow Places 6th

Robinson Farms of Randolph took sixth place for overall breeds of barrows, sharing the $500 in premium money, at the week-long Sioux Empire Farm Carcass Show at Sioux Falls, S. D.

The area entry's barrow weighed 200 pounds live weight and had carcass cuts of 29.8 inches length, .75-inch backfat, 6.25-square-inch loin eye and 45.50 percent ham-loin index which is used in determining the placings.

Of the top 20 carcass consignments in the 500-head show, coming from an eight-state area, were 10 crossbreds, five Hampshires, two Chester Whites, one Duroc, one Hybrid and one Landrace.

Elson Robinson also took eighth place with a live Hampshire.

4-H Club News

It was decided to donate $5 to the Allen Rescue Unit Fund. Projects for the new year were discussed and 4-H goals were set. Elaine Wemelkamp gave a demonstration on how to place a bobbin in its case. Colleen Chapman was elected to serve as sentinel for this year.

Host and hostess were David Moore and Mrs. Richard Chapman. The next meeting is Feb. 26 at 2 p.m. at the firehall. Lori Von Minden, news reporter.

A Swingin' Week in Wayne

A fascinating collection of cast iron miniatures, hand-made wooden doll furniture, dolls, doll dishes and doll clothes comprised Mrs. T. H. Stevenson's exhibit at the Wayne Woman's Club hobby show held Friday at the city auditorium.

Mrs. Chris Tietgen was one of the 35 exhibitors at the hobby show, sponsored Friday by the Wayne Woman's Club. Her display included crocheted jewelry (a fairly new idea making the rounds in craft circles) and favorite Christmas Cards, mounted on heavy backing and covered with contact to make colorful holiday place mats.

Time to chow down at Saturday's Boy Scout campout on the city baseball diamond. Scouters from Troops 174, 175 and 221 were present for a two-day session of "roughing it" which included man-sized meals prepared over an open fire. For many of the adult leaders, chow lines like this one were all too reminiscent of the old Army days.

Scouters found pitching tents a cold proposition last weekend at the campout commencing 65 years of scouting. These hardy souls managed to erect their tent in short order. A good night's sleep was the result of heavily insulated sleeping bags and straw to take the edge off the winter chill.

Batter up! Dick Keidel readies his griddle for another batch of cakes, as Don Kosber prepares a half-dozen more. The steady stream of hungry diners kept the hosts busy at the annual Wayne Kiwanis Club Pancake Feed, Feb. 16.

It was a big job, whipping up pancakes for 825 people, and it took a big mixer to do the trick. This one is a massive power dolly, with twin beat propellers attached. Not the kind of mixer you'd use in your home, but then when was the last time you served 1700 pancakes?

Big eater at work. The satisfaction of young Jeff Simpson is evident, as he samples the wares of the Wayne Kiwanis Club at the annual flapjack feast.

Family Medical Record Valuable Book

Ever wish that you had a family health record, easy to read and complete with the facts you should have on hand?

The National Foundation-March of Dimes, in conjunction with the American Medical Association and Woman's Day magazine, has devised an important new tool to make keeping track of a family's medical history simple and clear.

It is a four-page form called the Family Medical Record and, when kept up to date, it becomes a valuable document upon which both the family and physician will depend. It provides a quick, comprehensive profile of each family member's health status as well as a record of possible contributing factors in certain conditions.

The record, accompanied by an article by Dr. Virginia Aggar, the Foundation's vice president for medical affairs, appears in the January issue of Woman's Day, currently available.

Ideally, the Medical Record should be started before a couple marries, so that when the woman becomes pregnant—or even before—the doctor will already have information about her health history and background and that of her husband, and their parents, sisters and brothers.

Family Data

Since many conditions may follow a definite genetic pattern,

One woman to another: Dr. Virginia Aggar shows Karen Sinclair how the Medical Record will help her keep track of her family's health.

awareness of a disease in one member of the family may alert a doctor to early symptoms in time to avert advanced disease or disability. The age of the family member when the disease first appeared is relevant to the

Feb. 22 Conference On Aging at Norfolk

An area Conference on Aging will be held at the Norfolk Auditorium Feb. 22, from 1 to 4:30 p.m., according to Ron Jensen, director of the Nebraska Commission on Aging.

The Norfolk area conference is one of 10 such meetings which will be held throughout the state during February, March and April at the direction of Gov. J. J. Exon.

The conferences will include local community leaders, White House Conference delegates, members of the Commission on Aging and older persons themselves.

Senior Citizens Program Director Says Expanded Facilities Are Needed

Mrs. Eldon Bull, program director for the Wayne Senior Citizens Center at 315 Main, held the Wayne Kiwanis Club Monday that the organization, since its founding 2 1/2 years ago, had grown to 400 members.

"We have outgrown our facilities," Mrs. Bull said, "and we are looking for a larger building where we can conduct our activities in one section and add a Senior Citizens Industries in the rear."

State funding automatically ceases after the third year so that the source of revenue will be lost after June 30. The first year the state allocated $4,700, which was 75 per cent of the operating cost. The second year the grant was 60 per cent and the current year, 50 per cent.

The reverse is true with city financing; 25 per cent the first year, 40 per cent the second year and 50 per cent the third year. After that it is up to the city to support the project, with the help of civic groups, businesses and Community Chest.

Offered at the Center are educational programs, arts and crafts, knitting and sewing, cards, pool, once-a-month potlucks, guest speakers, Spanish-class, square dances and programs by youth and civic groups.

The "grand generation," as they are referred to by Mrs. Bull, said there are many other activities for the senior citizens, who seem to enjoy most of all visitations by local ministers.

Kiwanian Gene Bigelow was honored for being the top salesman for the Pancake Feed, held Thursday, which netted the club over $900 to help finance community projects.

Cub Scouts Have Meet

Den IV, Pack 175 Cub Scouts met last Tuesday afternoon in the Don Manglers home with Mrs. Paul Rockwell, leader, and Mrs. Manglers, assistant.

The group worked on achievements and continued preparations for the Blue and Gold Banquet to be held Feb. 20 in Wayne. Warren Rockwell served treats.

February 15 meeting will be held in the Manglers home also.

munization record; periodic physical examinations; medications; allergies, and a record of family illnesses.

"The importance of a Family Medical Record cannot be emphasized enough," says Dr. Aggar. "With it a family and its various doctors are in a much better position to maintain good health and plan for better medical care. A record of the health of the family as a whole demonstrates responsibility, and being responsible is an important part in the battle against congenital disease, periodic illness and birth defects."

Diagnostic Tool

Dr. Aggar developed the widely used Aggar score, which rates newborn babies' respiratory muscle tone, reflexes, heart rate and color. It is a quick check, one minute after birth, to determine whether the baby needs special attention in the delivery room. Sometimes this score also will provide a clue to some difficulty in the child's early years in life. For that reason, it should be included in the Medical Record.

"If the Medical Record is faithfully kept, it can help with school, travel or insurance requirements and routine medical consultations and also can be a valuable diagnostic tool for the family physician," says Dr. Aggar. "Doctors have less and less time to delve into a person's health background, and many people don't remember or aren't equipped to answer some of the questions the doctor does ask."

The Medical Record is also valuable because it prompts a person to think about his family history, and to do his own detective work, rather than putting that burden on the physician who simply cannot be expected to know all the details.

A free copy of the Family Medical Record can be obtained by writing—on a separate, self-addressed envelope—to Family Medical Record, The National Foundation-March of Dimes, Box 2000, White Plains, N. Y. 10602.

Heart Attack Victim 'Lucky to Be Alive'

John Smith considers himself lucky to be alive. The punchy, 42-year old father of twins has beaten heart attack, the number one killer in the United States. However, outside the coronary care unit where he's a patient, more than half of the 670,000 estimated heart attack victims this year will die without getting to a hospital that can give them special coronary care.

The major reason for these needless deaths is the failure of heart attack victims to recognize or accept the warning signs that signal the onset of heart attack, and their delay in receiving prompt medical treatment. When heart attack occurs, according to the Heart Association, these are the usual warning signs or symptoms:—A prolonged heavy pressure or squeezing pain in the center of the chest behind the breastbone. —The pain may also spread to the arms, shoulder, neck, or jaw. —The pain or discomfort is often accompanied by sweating, nausea, vomiting, and shortness of breath may occur. Sometimes these symptoms subside, and then return. One weekend following a heavy lunch, Smith was doing his usual chores around the house when he was struck by chest pains that radiated up into his neck, across his shoulders, and down his arms.

At first he thought he had a bad case of heartburn, but as the pain intensified, his wife took the initiative. After a hurried conversation with their family physician to describe the symptoms, Smith was rushed to a hospital and admitted to its coronary care unit. According to the Heart Association, which trains personnel to man these installations, the coronary care unit is the most important single development to emerge in the 1960's.

It is estimated that if all heart attack victims who survive the first few hours could receive immediate treatment in these intensive care units specially equipped to treat heart attack, probably 50,000 lives yearly could be saved. When Smith was admitted to the CCU, one of thousands in hometown hospitals across the country, he entered a special unit designed to anticipate and treat the crises and complications of heart attack. Located within instant reach are the special drugs, ment to control irregular heart rhythms, oxygen, and the knowledge and skill of doctors and nurses specially trained to use these and other resuscitative measures to control heart attack. Smith's bed is in view of a central nursing station that overlooks all beds in the unit. Like other patients, electrodes run from his body to individual monitors over the bed. As his heart rhythm flashes continuously across the screen, the "beeps" lend a reassuring sound to his ears. Should any heart irregularity occur, the monitor will sound an alarm, and in seconds, nurses and physicians will be summoned to correct whatever is wrong. When he is recovered, Smith will be ready to leave the hospital in a shorter time than ever before. He will then be able to resume his regular pattern of activities.

No longer will he consider it just "luck" that he's alive. For he will be one of the many thousands of Americans who have survived heart attack because his family recognized the early signs of heart attack, and acted quickly in getting him to a hospital where he received the life-saving benefits of modern coronary care.

People Ask Us--

QUESTION: When a deceased person is entitled to both a Social Security and Veterans death benefit allowance, how is the distribution made?

ANSWER: The lump sum Social Security benefit is paid to the veteran's widow without regard to funeral cost. If she was living with her husband, the $250.00 Veterans funeral benefit usually is paid to the mortuary.

If there is no widow, or the widow was estranged from her husband, Social Security will pay as a death benefit only the difference between the Veterans allowance, and the cost of the funeral. The maximum payable under these circumstances may not exceed the Social Security entitlement, this ranges from $165 to $255.

Feel free to contact our office for copies of the latest official bulletins concerning Social Security and Veterans benefits, as well as other survivors rights and benefits.

Annie Cosson Joins Crusade for Christ

Annie L. Cosson of Wayne is joining the staff of Campus Crusade for Christ International and will be working with the French ministry, beginning in the summer of 1972.

Mrs. Cosson, now a faculty member at Wayne State College, will complete two weeks of new staff training at Linz, Austria, the organization's European Headquarters and two weeks of practical training in Normandy, France.

Campus Crusade for Christ International is an interdenominational Christian movement of students and laymen who have united to help introduce individuals to Jesus Christ. As an evangelistic arm of the church, Campus Crusade works closely with churches of all denominations, presenting the gospel

Annie Cosson

In areas of the student and adult worlds to which it may not extend.

Founded in 1951 at UCLA by Bill Bright and his wife, Vonette, the organization has since been extended by request to hundreds of campuses in this country and in 45 foreign nations. The staff numbers approximately 3,000. Successes on the college campus have prompted the development of other field ministries including lay, high school, faculty, athletic, and military ministries. These are undergirded by an extensive mass media ministry operating from the Arrowhead Springs International Headquarters.

As an international representative, Mrs. Cosson will assist the executive director in bringing a message to students and laymen.

Questions and Answers

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q—I'm a working mother. What are the limits on the deduction my husband and I may claim for babysitting expenses incurred while I am working?

A—The child care deduction for tax year 1971 is limited to the amount you actually spent, but in no case more than $600 for one dependent or $900 for two or more. Although there are no income limitations on the amount a single woman may earn and still be able to claim a child care deduction, a working wife generally must reduce such expenses by the amount the adjusted gross income of her and her husband exceeds $6,000. Thus, no child care deduction may be allowed if the parents' combined adjusted gross income is $6,900 or more. The rules for claiming the deduction are explained in Publication 503, "Child Care and Disabled Dependent Care," available free from IRS offices.

Q—Where can I get information on tax law changes affecting my 1971 return?

A—Internal Revenue Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax," describes in easy-to-read language all the tax law changes affecting your 1971 return. It can be purchased for 75 cents from your IRS district office, many post offices throughout the country and the Government Printing Office in Washington, D. C.

Q—What happened to the income tax surcharge?

A—The surcharge was eliminated for tax years beginning in 1971.

Q—Is it true that the Internal Revenue Service will compute my retirement income credit for me?

A—If you qualify to have the IRS compute your tax and choose to do so, the IRS will also figure your retirement income credit. You merely need to answer the question for Columns A and B and fill in lines 2 and 5 of Schedule R. Attach Schedule R to your Form 1040, enter "R" on line 20 of Form 1040 and mail to the appropriate Service Center.

Q—What taxes can I deduct on my return?

A—If you itemize deductions, then your state and local income taxes, personal property, real estate, general sales and state and local gasoline taxes may be deducted. List these on Schedule A of your return. You can use the sales and gasoline tax tables in your tax form instructions to determine your deductions for these taxes.

Federal taxes such as Social Security tax or those on alcohol or tobacco are not deductible.

Hunting licenses, driver's licenses or auto inspection fees are also not deductible.

Q—I'll be filing an income tax return for the first time. Where can I get a Form 1040?

A—Call or stop in at your local IRS office. Tax forms are also available at many banks and post offices.

Q—I want to deduct the interest I paid on my department store charge account purchases, but all my statements show a "finance charge." Is there any way I can figure out the interest?

A—The amount of the finance charges which constitutes interest can be deducted. Interest has been defined as money paid for the use of money. However, if the interest cannot be ascertained, a deduction for the lesser of six per cent of the average unpaid, monthly balance of your charge account or the total finance charge allocable to the year may be taken. IRS Publication 545, Income Tax Deduction for Interest Expense, shows these methods of computing your interest deductions. It is available free from IRS district offices.

Chemicals Banned in Predator Control

MINNEAPOLIS—Chemical control of predatory animals, field rodents and nuisance birds by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service was halted Tuesday Feb. 9, in 11 north central states.

The halt is in response to an executive order issued Monday which prohibits the use of federal lands of chemical toxicants for the purpose of killing predatory animals and birds.

Travis S. Roberts, regional director of the Service, said all bird and rodent control work using chemical agents and field tests also has been halted until studies of the secondary effects of these chemicals can be completed and guidelines developed.

All federal bait mixing plants used in the predator control programs were closed Feb. 9 in compliance with the executive order.

Beginning Friday, Feb. 11, service employees will be authorized and destroying all 1,080 baits on federal lands in the Dakotas and Nebraska. The compound 1080 is used primarily in coyote control in the western states.

Cessation of the predatory animal control program will affect only North and South Dakota and Nebraska in this region, states where the service has a cooperative control program operated jointly with state or local agencies.

Field rodent and nuisance bird control programs, also conducted cooperatively with local sponsors, are carried out on a lesser scale in several other states of the 11-state north central region of the service.

One nuisance bird control program halted was the service's blackbird experimental program being field tested in Ohio and Michigan. In those states, blackbirds cause losses primarily to the corn crop.

To protect crops and livestock, service efforts will continue but will be confined to using non-chemical techniques, Roberts said. These may include the use of traps and aircraft as well as den control techniques where these methods are legal.

While the executive order ban on chemical toxicants applies to all federal lands except Indian
