WH to Offer Environment Course

Students at Wayne High School will be offered an opportunity to take a six-week course on environmental studies this summer.

The course, to be taught by science teacher Verne Mills, gained the school board's approval during Monday night's regular meeting.

Mills told the board there is a "need for environmental awareness" by the general public, something the course will attempt to accomplish by having the students use the out-of-doors as a laboratory for investigating the environment and man's environmental problems.

The course, unique for the school system, will be divided into two parts—a two-week section during which students learn and study about the environment in Northeast Nebraska and a four-week section during which they delve into environmental issues having local or regional significance.

Cost of the course will be small, according to Mills. He told the board that about $50 to $75 will be needed in bus expenses for short field trips the students will take and about $50 will be needed for supplies. Mills will receive $1,000 for teaching the course.

He noted that the course is promising because there are many opportunities for students to cooperate with local and regional groups and agencies in collecting information about the impact of man on the environment.

Working with people from the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District or the Soil Conservation Service would give the students the feeling "that they are doing something useful," he noted. Those two agencies have expressed great interest in working with the students, he said, and there is no doubt the students could be helpful to them.

Mills, who drew up the outline for the project, said he knows of no other high school in the state offering a summer course on environmental studies.

He said he doesn't know how many students might sign up for the course, but the class probably will be limited to about 20 students.

In other action during the meeting, board members approved hiring the three school principals for the 1974-75 school year. Salaries for the three—Richard Metzger in elementary, Loren Park in middle school and Deryl Lawrence in high school—will be discussed at the March board meeting. Salaries are now $12,700 in the elementary school, $14,200 in middle school and $15,900 in high school.

Board members also agreed to meet this afternoon (Thursday) to discuss salary negotiations with teachers.

The board will be represented in the negotiations by Irvin Brandt, Milton Owens and Morris Sandahl. Representing the teachers will be Ted Blenderman, Dan Johnson, Don Koenig, Elizabeth Barclay, Bob Porter and Rodella Wacker.

The two committees will meet on Wednesday next week to begin hammering out salaries for the coming school year. Teachers currently receive a base salary of $6,800, with 5.5 per cent salary hikes for each step up in professional training and four per cent hikes for each year of experience.

The board also discussed the step taken recently because of daylight savings time going into effect across the nation. Superintendent Francis Haun said the steps, running busses and starting class for kindergarten students several minutes later each morning, have been of some help. He noted that all pre-school activities have been halted.

Reviewed information collected by Haun showing that there is more than a month's supply of fuel oil on hand for all three schools in Wayne should a cold spell hit and force the city out of natural gas for heating. The school has about 22,000 gallons of diesel fuel in storage.

Received a signed contract from Haun for the 1974-75 school year. Haun will receive $21,250 for the year. He now receives $20,250.

Koester Fund Near $10,000

The Danny Koester fund was about $50 short of $10,000 Wednesday as Allen area residents attempt to raise $25,000 to help the rural lad through a costly bone marrow operation.

As of Wednesday morning the amount stood at $9,950.56, with two area activities pledged to help raise the total even higher. Tonight (Thursday) the Concord fire department will hold its annual smoker with a share of the ticket money going to the Koester fund. Friday night Allen's junior high will hold a girl boy benefit basketball game followed by a teacher pudding-eating contest.

Koester, 14-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Koester of rural Allen, is reportedly improving after the first bone marrow transplant about two weeks ago in a Seattle hospital.

Concentration

Starman is the latest person to take home the consolation prize in Wayne's weekly Birthday Bucks promotion. The $50 in coupons he received in the event may be spent just like cash in any participating store or business in the community.

He won the prize last Thursday night by being the shopper with the birthday closest to the date drawn at random earlier in the day. He was shopping in Sav-Mor Drugs when the winning date was announced at 8:15 p.m.

Although enrollment always declines from TIFST to second terms, the drop this year is less than usual — in this case, less than six per cent. Typically, the second term has been 10 to 12 per cent down, mainly because of December graduation.

Local Girl Injured in Accident

Jill Froehlich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin "Bud" Froehlich of Wayne, remained in intensive care in a Lincoln hospital Wednesday after suffering chest and lung injuries in a two-car accident on a gravel road east of David City Sunday afternoon.

Also in intensive care at Lincoln General Hospital was Nancy Ritter, a Wayne State College student from Lincoln who was a passenger in Miss Froehlich's automobile. She underwent surgery Monday for a broken jaw and facial injuries.

Treated and released from the David City hospital Sunday evening was Ann Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Ellis of Wayne, who was riding in the Froehlich car.

Miss Froehlich's car reportedly was northbound on the gravel road when it hit a patch of snow and ice and went out of control. See ACCIDENT, page 10

Winners of the weekly drawings will be given their choice of where they want to spend their vacation, with two nights accommodations at any Ramada Inn or Holiday Inn plus $67.50 in spending money provided for them. Transportation is not provided in the promotion.

Those who win in the weekly drawings may choose to take their vacations any time during the next six months, offering them a chance to take a vacation now to get away from the cold winter weather or to wait until summer comes along so they can travel to some place they've been wanting to visit for a long time.

Couples who win in the promotion may take up to three unmarried children with them. Single persons may take an adult friend on their vacation.

Hall Won't Run for 2nd Term as Mayor

Wayne mayor Kent Hall said Wednesday he will not file for re-election.

Hall said he hopes to become more active in attracting new industries to the community and working with the Wayne State Foundation, a non-profit organization which promotes Wayne State through such activities as awarding scholarships.

Mayor since June of 1970, Hall pointed to several achievements during his term, including going from a second class city to first class status, attracting new industries and improving cooperation between the city and Wayne State.

Hall served two two year terms on the city council from 1962 to 1966.

council is March 15. Ending their terms on the council are Vernon Russell in the first ward, Pat Grass in the second ward, Keith Mosley in the third ward and Harvey Brasch in the fourth ward. Third ward councilman Frank Prather may have to give up his post since he has moved from the third to the fourth ward. He has two more years to serve out his term.

City elections will be held during the May 14 primary.

Government Day Is Subject of Legion

Members of the American Legion post in Wayne discussed a variety of subjects during their regular meeting last week.

Among the items taken up during the meeting was the coming Wayne County Government Day. The event, which brings high school students from Wayne and Winslow into county offices for a taste of what county government is like, is slated for March 27.

Also discussed was the purchasing of new uniforms for the Legion baseball team. Friends of the team will be asked to See LEGION, page 10

WH Students To Compete At Hastings

Eight Wayne High School students will be competing in the Broken Heart Forensic Invitational at Hastings College Friday and Saturday.

Taking part will be Mike Schmidt in extemporaneous and informative public speaking, Mark Crager in extemporaneous speaking, Erin O'Donnell in original oratory, Phil Koerber in after dinner speaking, Janet Splitterger in interpretation of prose, Donn Dutton and Jo Tomrde in interpretation of poetry, and Phil Koerber and Lisa Tooker in duet acting.

The students, members of the school's speech and drama club, will be accompanied by sponsor Ted Blenderman.

A total of 250 students from 27 high schools in the state will be participating in the event. Twenty-one awards and trophies will be presented during the concluding ceremony. In addition, two grants in aid of $250 each will be offered to competing seniors who plan on attending Hastings College.

Blenderman said the speech and drama students also plan on entering several coming events, including the Husker Conference speech contest March 2 at North Bend and the district speech contest March 21-22 at Wayne State College.

Drama students will take part in the fine arts festival slated for the high school lecture hall on Feb. 25. Also participating in that event will be the high school stage band and stage choir.

Getting a New Look

PLANS for Hoskins' new downtown look were revealed recently, giving the town-board and residents a glimpse of what the community's business district may soon look like. According to Duane Upton of Consolidated Engineers of Wayne, the board will have to wait until its February meeting to award bids and find out the starting time for the proposed $117,000 project that will include two blocks on paved streets, storm sewer and underground water line to accommodate expected growth in business. Nebraska Public Power District will install new utility poles in the downtown area, Upton pointed out, to help beautify the main street. In addition, trees will be planted to enhance the shopping area. In the drawing, south is to the left. The town's post office is located in the lower right corner.

2 Days Left To Sign Up For 'Vacation'

Area shoppers have two more days to sign up for the first of eight Free Vacation packages which will be given away by local businesses.

1,865 Enrolled At Wayne State

Enrollment at Wayne State for the winter term totals 1,865, Mrs. Virginia Wright, registrar, said after a final tally.

This figure compares with 1,970 a year ago and with 1,983 in the fall term.

Although enrollment always declines from TIFST to second terms, the drop this year is less than usual — in this case, less than six per cent. Typically, the second term has been 10 to 12 per cent down, mainly because of December graduation.

Weekend workshops have been a strong factor in current enrollment. They attracted about 100 students, and many of these students are taking more than one workshop, Mrs. Wright said.

Registration for Wayne's third term, which opens April 24, is continuing this week. Provost Stanley Willis said the advance enrollment will give the college a guideline on planning for the term.

Winners of the weekly drawings will be given their choice of where they want to spend their vacation, with two nights accommodations at any Ramada Inn or Holiday Inn plus $67.50 in spending money provided for them. Transportation is not provided in the promotion.

Students Lose Rights At St. Mary's School

During their first month of a year-long program planned to help them become more aware of their roles in society, students at St. Mary's Catholic School learned the importance of civil rights.

According to Sister M. Jamesine, principal of St. Mary's, the pupils spent two days during January finding out what life without civil rights would be like. They found themselves literally deprived of the right to free speech, to write what one thinks, to privacy, to private property, to religion, to an education, to move about freely, to contract about affairs, to vote on issues, to assemble, to recreation, to work in callings and localities of the individual's choice and to habeas corpus.

Some of the students, carried marks on their foreheads which set them apart as slaves and endured severe punishments

Other students were discriminated against because they were too short, too light complexioned, or had hair that was too curly.

Some of the youngsters became angry over their deprived freedoms, according to Sister Jamesine, and were relieved when the experiment was over. Social studies lessons during January focused on the Bill of Rights, the Constitution, the Declaration of Independence, the Emancipation Proclamation, and what the documents mean, to every individual.

During February, the program will concentrate on the use of tradition to solve community and international problems.

Close Watch

Devils, Trojans Clash Tonight in Tourney

Two running clubs, armed with quick guards and long-range shooters, will settle two questions tonight (Thursday) in the semifinal round of the West Husker Conference basketball tournament.

Wayne and Wakefield, going head-to-head at 6:30 at Wisner-Pilger High School, will find out which team is the quickest and has the most scoring ability.

The Trojans looked impressive in the first round of tournament action Monday night when coach Joe Coble's crew knocked out Emerson-Hubbard, 66-62.

Senior guard Doug Fischer, popping in 18, guided the taller Wakefield crew to a 32-29 lead before sophomore Scott Keagle nailed one at the halftime buzzer for a 34-29 advantage.

Both clubs came out in the second half as they did in the first running and shooting. The Trojans kept their composure and built a 13-point margin at one point before Emerson's guard, Dale Belt, beat his game average of 20 points with set shots from top-of-the-key.

Belt, who collected 21 points, and Scott Sorenson, who had 19, brought the 8-6 Mustang team within six points, but Belt exited the game with five fouls and left coach Al Porter without his outside scoring threat.

The local Blue Devils could have displaced Stanton in the first round a lot easier than they did. The Blue Devils, now 13-3, mastered the 4-11 Mustangs, 52-39, after jumping out to a 15-4 lead going into the second period.

Coach Bill Sharpe's crew banged in nine straight points before Stanton finally scored.

The locals started to slow down their game in the second period, giving coach Leon Portrey's team an opportunity to narrow the lead. Wayne led 27-14 at halftime.

Wayne's slowdown tactics all most backfired in the second half after Stanton narrowed the game to four points, 33-29, going into the last period. But the locals rallied with their break-away tactics to advance into semi-final play.

The winner of tonight's game will face the winner of Madison-Columbus Lakeview game. Both the Dragons and Vikings beat their opponents in the second night of tournament play Tuesday.

Madison dumped Hartington Cedar Catholic, 57-48, in the first game before Lakeview knocked off Wisner-Pilger, 56-34.

Eagles Win 3rd Straight, 72-43 Over Walthill

Allen High made it three victories in a row Tuesday night with a 72-45 whipping of host Walthill.

Balanced scoring from four players in double figures plus another night of outstanding defense did the job for coach Bob Moore's players as they racked up their sixth win in 16 starts.

Senior Scott VonMinden, after connecting for 32 against Wakefield, Saturday night, led his team again with 16 points. Neil Blohm and Scott McAfee tallied 14 each while Roger Anderson contributed 11.

Also for the third straight game Allen's defense held its opponents below 50. Wakefield scored 48 against the Eagles Saturday night, Ponca managed only 42 Friday.

"Walthill plays a game similar to Ponca," Moore said, "which means we must have patience in coping with a controlled offense." The Eagles displayed that patience very well, halting Walthill's scoring for the most part in the second and third frames.

Both McAfee and Anderson hit highs for the year as the pair showed strong scoring from the inside.

Allen's B team evened its mark at 7-7 with a 47-43 loss to Walthill reserves. Dave Dunn led the Eagles with 15.

Allen takes a week off before heading to Hartington Tuesday night and rounding out its season on the following Friday at Emerson-Hubbard.

Wausa Drops Winside Quint

Winside played one of its better games Tuesday night, but the area team still ended up on the short end of the score, 79-66.

The Wausa Vikings, behind double figure shooting by four players, put together hot first and last quarters to give the Wildcats their 12th loss against one win.

"Our kids are showing a lot of offensive improvement," coach Korlin Luft noted about his Cat club. Sophomore, Tyler Frevert, led the area team with 20 points followed by senior Larry Weible's 18 and sophomore Tyler Frevert's 13.

"Wausa is a much improved club from earlier in the season," Luft added. "But our team did to a good job."

The reserves also fell in the preliminary match, 43-36.

8th Grade Loses To Norfolk, 41-37

Norfolk's eighth grade team dumped in two quick baskets to pull away from a 35-35 tie in the last minute of play Monday night to down Wayne, 41-37.

For the second game in a row, Marco Garlick paced the locals, this time scoring 15 points. In last week's game against Norfolk Catholic he pumped in 10.

Wayne, now 3-4, goes against Emerson Sacred Heart tonight (Thursday) following the seventh grade game at 4:15 p.m. in the city auditorium.

Wanted: Person Responsible for Lining Up Allen's Weekend Tilts

by BOB BARTLETT
Allen coach Bob Moore is looking for the man responsible for setting up this year's basketball schedule.

Not to reprimand him for lining up Ponca and Wakefield in two successive nights, but to thank him.

"This is the first time I have seen that many faces in almost a year and a half coaching at Allen," the head mentor said after Saturday night's 61-48 victory over Wakefield. "People were coming from all over shaking my hand and congratulating me—even people I didn't know," he smiled.

The night before the Eagles staged their first upset with a 43-42 win over Ponca—ranked No. 1 in the Lewis division of the Lewis Conference as of Monday.

The large attendance both nights may be partly responsible for the upset wins, but the head man believes his team's wanting the games more than anything was the driving motive. "We started running the ball more," the coach emphasized in reflecting on his club's fourth and fifth wins.

Previous to last weekend's games the Eagles were in a slump, holding a 3-10 mark and seeing little hope of their abundant talent cashing in during district action. But that all has changed now.

The only thing that may hurt the Eagles now is a week's layoff. After Tuesday night's game at Walthill, the players are idle until next Tuesday when they travel to Lyons.

The action for two area teams centers on the West Husker Conference tournament semifinal game tonight (Thursday) between Wayne and Wakefield. The winner of that game will advance to Friday's final against the winner of Tuesday night's Columbus Lakeview-Madison game.

The only other games on tap this week are Laurel at Bloomfield Friday and Beemer at Winside Saturday.

As might be expected the flu has taken its toll. Coaches report their teams have been hit by the bug but are slowly recuperating. However, none blames the virus for last week's losses. Coaches agree it would be great to blame the losses on the flu, but it is a pretty poor excuse. It's a team that wins or loses a game, not the flu.

Heck, I was going to use the flu bug as a reason for my 7-4 showing in picking games last week.

Allen started it with a pair of victories that have been long in coming, beating Ponca and Wakefield back-to-back. O'Neill did its share with a victory over Laurel, 62-58, Friday night before Wausa beat Winside, 79-66, Tuesday.

My percentage drops to about 72 with 38 right against 15 wrong. With limited action this week, chances are my record will not change too much either way. Here are my prep-picks:

Friday	Saturday
Laurel at BLOOMFIELD	Bloomfield at Winside
BEEMER at Winside	Tuesday
ALLEN at Lyons

Schuyler Hangs 67-55 Defeat On Blue Devils

Wayne High dropped its third game Saturday night against a tall Schuyler club, 67-55, but it wasn't the Warriors' height that stopped the Devils.

"We managed to wear some of their big men out," commented coach Bill Sharpe, "but they put in smaller players to take over and they started scoring."

That scoring started in the third frame after Wayne trailed by one point going into the second half, 33-32.

The Devils used fast-breaking plays to set up a 16-12 first period lead, then moved ahead as far as 10 points before Schuyler cut the gap and went ahead.

The Devils (13-3) resume regular season play Feb. 15 in an away match at Creighton.

VonMinden Hits 32 In Upset Over WHS

Many basketball coaches stress shooting from the free throw line because that often determines whether a team wins or loses. Saturday's Allen-Wakefield game proved the value of that thinking.

Both area clubs sank 24 field goals in the contest at Allen, but the Eagles won 61-48 when they hit 13 of 19 at the line. The Trojans were scoreless at the line because they never got a free shot all night.

Allen committed only six fouls while the Trojans were tagged with 16, most of them in the last quarter.

For Eagle mentor Robert Moore it was the climax to an exciting weekend. The Eagles upset Lewis and Clark Conference division leader Ponca Friday, then came back to knock off coach Joe Coble's crew.

Leading the Eagles' to their fifth win against 10 losses was 6-2 senior Scott VonMinden, ripping the nets for 32 points.

"Scott played a most remarkable game," Moore pointed out, adding that VonMinden made 11 points in the last frame to help the Eagles widen the 40-38 lead the Eagles held after three periods.

The weekend contests marked the first time in years that Allen got back-to-back wins over two traditional rivals. Both nights the Eagle gym was jammed with rosters anxious to see the rivals battle in what Moore calls the best two games Allen has played in quite some time.

The Eagles took control of the game in the second period by limiting Wakefield to only six points while collecting 11. That gave Allen a four-point margin, 26-22, going into the third frame.

After Wakefield whiffed the lead to two going into the last frame, the Eagles started taking charge on VonMinden's fielders combined with torrid free throw shooting in the closing minutes of the game to drop Wakefield to a 9-5 season mark.

Senior Gary Addink led the Trojans with 14 while another senior, Sam Utecht, made 12 in the team's futile attempt to get out of a two-game losing slump. West Point beat Wakefield Friday night.

In the preliminary game, Allen scratched out a 43-42 overtime win. The victory put the reserves above the 500 mark with a 7-6 record; Wakefield fell to 7-5.

Winside Polishes Off Pirates After Tie in Meet

Winside High's 98-pound wrestler proved Saturday that it takes determination to be a winner.

That's how the Cat grappler won his three matches en route to a first place in the Plainview Invitational and a share of the outstanding wrestler award for the meet.

The sophomore pinned Tony Leach of Atkinson-West Holt in 26 seconds in their overtime match after both matmen finished regulation time at 2:22 in the final round.

Bowers shared the outstanding grappler honor with Plainview's Steve Halsey, 132-pounder who won his weight class in strong fashion.

Bower's win, however, wasn't quite enough to give coach Doug Barclay's team its sixth tournament victory. Wisner-Pilger put a stop to that with a total of 98 1/2 points while Winside and Plainview tied for second at 90.

One reason for the Gators' win was that the majority of Winside's and Plainview's top grapplers were in the same bracket, consequently knocking off one another in the meet.

Coming in fourth in the eight-team meet was Elgin Pope John with 43 1/2 points. Creighton and Stanton tied for fifth at 25, followed by Atkinson-West Holt at 23 and Niobrara at 14.

Winside had two other champs, Dwight Lienemann at 167 and heavyweight Mike Anderson. Lienemann pinned Rich Heller of Wisner-Pilger in 2:53 before Anderson nailed Randy Nissen, also of Wisner, in 3:08 in the final round.

Both Lage boys, Gregg and Doug, lost their title bids in the 132 and 138 categories. Underdog Dale Bonge of Plainview took an 8-3 match over Doug, and Halsey beat Gregg, 5-4.

Finishing third was Monte Pfeiffer (112) and Dan Bowers (185). Both wrestlers gained pins, Bowers taking Ken Parks of Elgin Pope John in 2:36 and Pfeiffer beating Mike Richling of Creighton, in 4:07. Lynn Langenberg (126) took fourth when Dave Hamilton of Plainview won a 9-6 decision.

"We might have won the tournament," said Barclay, "if our 105-pounder, Keith Suehl, would have been ready." In previous wrestling meets, the sophomore averaged almost 11 points, usually winning his weight. The head man hopes Suehl, who broke his finger last week, will be ready for districts next week. "Our problem is that we don't have the depth this year," he said. "Otherwise we might have got by."

Winside snapped back Monday night at home with another dual win, boosting its mark to 6-1 going into tonight's (Thursday) season finale at West Point.

The varsity, again with strong showings in the upper weights, turned back Plainview, 36-25. Lienemann, Bowers and Anderson each won their weights on pins to bring Winside up from a 25-18 deficit.

Despite Bert Schwedhelm's 22-3 loss to John Guinn (145), the young Cat grappler stayed in the match even when he was down on his back, Barclay said. "Bert (who normally wrestles 132-138) showed a lot of fortitude in not giving up."

Missing from Winside's lineup, was 138 pound Doug Lage, who had reached his 25th match, one short of the state limit. "We're saving him for tonight's dual against West Point," Barclay noted.

Norfolk's freshmen team ripped Wayne, 68-41, Monday night, the locals' sixth loss in nine games.

The visitors jumped off to an 18-4 first period lead before sending in the second string of the following frame. Once the varsity returned in the third period, Norfolk again increased its lead before taking the match.

Wayne will rest until Monday night when the frosh take on Hartington Cedar Catholic in the eight-team Randolph freshmen tournament at 7:30. Also playing in the tourney are Laurel, Pierce, Randolph, Norfolk, O'Neil and Neligh. Laurel is slated to play Neligh in the afternoon contest.

Matmen Rip Schuyler To End Dual Season

Wayne High wrestlers had a fitting end for their dual season Tuesday night. After starting the year with a win over Randolph, the locals nailed Schuyler, 38-18, for the team's third victory in nine duals.

The Devils, who finished right behind the fifth-place Warriors in Saturday's Albion tournament, swept the meet with relative ease.

Wayne won five classes on pins and four on decisions while giving up matches on a forfeit, pin and two decisions to the home squad.

Seniors Mike Dunklau (Hwt.) and Barry Rubek (132) boosted their season marks to remain as coach Don Koening's top two wrestlers.

CHARLIE BROCKMAN

Brockman easily decided Kruger, 10-0, to hold an 18-3 mark going into Saturday's Husker Conference meet at Wayne State's Rice Auditorium. Rubek, now 15-6, handed Faltys a 9-4 loss.

After the locals started with two pins by Randy Surber (98) and Ken Daniels (105), they spotted Schuyler six points in the 112-pound class when veteran Scott Brummond missed his match due to the flu.

The Warriors temporarily took command, 15-12, on two decisions at 112 and 126 before Wayne rallied to tie the match at 15 on Rubek's win, Steve Meyer (138) and Tom Frahm (155) won on decisions before Gordon Cook (167) and Mike Dunklau (185) gained pins.

Wayne scored 44 points in Saturday's 10-team match for a sixth-place showing at Albion. Six grapplers made the top four positions, with Brockman again leading the way with a 5-4 decision over Charles Henery of Neligh for first in his division. Rubek settled for second after Fisher of Albion pinned the Devil matman in 3:38. Finishing third was 167-pound Gordon Cook with a 4-2 decision over Fullerton of Neligh. Surber, Ken Daniels (105) and Tom Frahm (155) came in fourth.

As was expected, host Albion took the meet with 87 1/2 points followed by Lexington 70, Neligh 65, Randolph 60 1/2, Schuyler 51, Wayne, Plattsmouth 33, Central City 18 1/2, St. Paul 18 and Stromberg 12.

WS Swimmers Still Unbeaten

Still unbeaten — that's the cheerful fact for Wayne State swimmers after a pair of dual victories last weekend. Friday night they swamped Chadron State by 64-38, then Saturday they baffled Kearney State to the last event by a 61-52 decision margin.

Both meets produced two school and/or pool records in Carlson Natatorium.

Against Chadron, Bob Floerchinger booted to his second straight 200 butterfly record of 2:10.5 — a school and pool mark. The 400 medley relay team of Dave Just, Dan Carney, Floerchinger and Doug Krecklow posted a pool mark of 3:58.4.

Against Kearney, Floerchinger duplicated his 200 butterfly mark — and growled because he needed an extra half stroke to reach the pool end, so missed a faster record.

In a strategic move, coach Bob Cooper inserted Just into the 200 backstroke for the first time this year. The freestyle specialist took Kearney by surprise when he won the race in pool record 2:16. The switch was a gamble to offset Kearney strength in the backstroke.

As it turned out, Wayne went into the 400 freestyle relay, final event, leading by 54.52, but a loss in the relay would lose the meet. Result: Wayne won by a 16-second margin with a quartet of Just, Bill Walters, Tom Carney and Krecklow.

There was a special attraction in the meet, Kearney entering a coed diver, Cindy Foote proved to be not only attractive but talented. She won both the one-meter and three-meter diving.

Two road meets are on Wayne's schedule this week, at Concordia Wednesday night and at South Dakota State University Saturday afternoon.

Westmar coeds, always strong in the past, were scheduled for a 5:30 p.m. Wednesday game with Wayne in Rice Gym. Then on Friday evening, 7:30 in Rice, Wayne will entertain the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in a rematch. Back in December the Wayne girls edged UNL, 55-53, at Lincoln.

The loss to South Dakota State came as a fourth-quarter shock. Wayne, down 12-9 after the first quarter, battled to a 20-17 half-time lead and stayed on top, 31-27, after the third quarter. Then disaster. SDSU coeds outscored Wayne 18-10 in the final stanza for a 45-41 decision.

Sportsbeat

By Bob Bartlett

TO GIVE you an idea how fast the winter sport season is closing, next week high school wrestlers will begin district competition.

All three area clubs will be finishing their seasons before heading into district play Feb. 15-16.

Winside grapplers will host Class C foes from Wakefield, Norfolk Catholic, Osmond, Pender, Plainview, Stanton and West Point as they bid for state recognition the following week. Seedings for the district will be determined Tuesday night.

Where Wayne matmen will be seeded also will be determined next week, coach Don Koening said. But as to the exact date the pairing will be released, he wasn't sure. The meet will be held at Albion, with teams coming from Columbus Lakeview, Creighton, Randolph, Albion, Wayne and Wisner-Pilger.

District basketball pairings also will be released next week. In Class C, Allen and Laurel will be in the same meet at Wayne State's Rice Auditorium. They will be bidding for a ticket to the regional tournament along with Coleridge, Ponca, Bloomfield, Wauw, Wynot and Hartington. Pairings are Wednesday night.

Also Wednesday seedings will be released for teams in the Lyons district, which includes Wakefield. That tournament will field clubs from Emerson Hub bard, Pender, West Point, Bancroft, Walthill, Oakland-Craig and Lyons.

Pairings were decided last night for the Class C Norfolk meet. Since the release was too late for publication all, we can give you are the teams in the district: Winside, Battle Creek, Norfolk Catholic, Osmond, Pierce, Plainview, Stanton and Tilden-Elkhorn Valley.

BESIDES ALL that action, the town of Wakefield also will be full of activity, especially the next two Wednesday nights.

On Feb. 13 world champion Oakland Athletics baseball coach, Vern Hoscheit, will conduct a baseball clinic at Wakefield's school auditorium.

The Plainview native will hold two clinics, both dealing with fundamentals of making a good baseball player — throwing, sliding, bunting, base running, etc. The 7:30 p.m. clinic will be for youngsters 13 and under, the 8:30 p.m. session for youths over 13.

Following both clinics, the A's coach will be available to answer questions. According to baseball coach Paul Eaton of Wakefield, parents and interested fans are welcome to attend the meeting.

A week later, on the 20th, Wakefield's Lions Club will sponsor a benefit basketball game between Wakefield players and University of Nebraska griders.

About 18-19 Husker seniors are expected for the game. Included on the NU team will be the star quarterback of the Cotton Bowl, Steve Runtly, as well as pro draft picks John Dutton, Darrell White and Steve Manstedt. Area natives Brent Longwell of Homer, Dave Goeller, of Pilger and Randy Borg, whose grandparents live in Wakefield, also will be there.

Advance tickets may be purchased from any club member at $1 for adults, 75 cents for students. At the door they will be $1.25 and $1. Proceeds will go to the Wakefield summer recreation program.

IF THAT ISN'T enough, on Feb. 19 the Lewis and Clark Conference will hold its basketball playoffs at Wakefield's school auditorium.

2 Down — Big Game Tonight Against UNO

A couple of decisive wins on two consecutive nights lifted Wayne State cagers within reach of an elusive goal — an even season.

They mastered Southwest Minnesota State Saturday, 70-71, on the home court, averaging an earlier loss at Southwest Friday as the Wildcats downed Briar Cliff, 87-79, in Sioux City.

But the 9:10 Wildcats are looking at a formidable barrier ahead: the University of Nebraska Omaha, coming to Wayne for a rematch tonight (Thursday) at 7:30. The Mavericks beat Kearney State and Emporia State over the weekend for a 12-8 season. Among their wins was a 66-65 squeak over Wayne at Omaha in December.

That one-point margin is no rarity in Wayne Omaha combat. Four of their six games since 1977 ended a point apart, one of them in overtime. Omaha won all the one-pointers plus another in that span of six games.

Going back to 1961 when Wayne and Omaha revived a dormant rivalry, the record is even — five wins each.

UNO mounts a balanced attack with six players averaging from nine up to 14.4 by Calvin Forrest. He is close to becoming Omaha's all-time scoring king and might do it here tonight.

For Wayne, Neal Walde remains the point leader at 18.7. Charles Henderson, after a recent flurry, has his highest average of the year at 16.6. Ronnie Jones is 10.1, and Chuck Collins is up to 8.6 on a late surge.

Wayne handled the 4-16 Mustangs of Southwest Minnesota with relative ease in a game with 66 foul calls, the Wildcats held command all the way leading by margins up to 23 points. Before it was done, coach Ron Jones cleared his bench, and 12 of 14 Wildcats raised the score.

Chuck Collins of Butte, who did not start either half, had his best scoring game of the year at 22 points, tying his peak of last year. In the free-throw marathon, Collins connected on 10 of 13. Charlie Henderson hit four of five giffers in his 18 point total. A night before he tallied 31, including 13 of 15 free tosses. That 13 is a team high for the year, and his 31 equals Neal Walde's record.

Rod Erwin of Concord, continuing as a starter on the strength of aggressive play-making, scored 13 for a college career high. With seven of eight free throws he more than doubled his season at the charity line, while Wayne totaled a season-high 28 free shots against Southwest.

Beckman, along with two other winners, will compete in a field of eight for the right to represent Wayne at the annual tournament in Omaha April 21st.

V A Q & A

Q. Can I pay more than market value for a home I would like to buy with a GI loan from the Veterans Administration?

A. Yes, provided you pay the difference in cash between the VA appraisal and the price of the home. The VA cannot approve a loan which exceeds the reasonable value of the home.

Scott VonMinden
Charlie Brockman

Athlete Of The Week

For the second week in a row two area athletes split this week's "Athlete of the Week" award, but this time the award is divided between two sports.

Wayne High's top heavyweight wrestler, Charlie Brockman, and Allen's leading basketball scorer, Scott VonMinden, are recipients of the award.

Charlie proved to area combatants that the second time is a charm with a decisive 5-4 win over Class C's leading heavyweight, Charles Henery of Neligh, during Saturday's Albion invitational. During the early part of the season Henery gave Brockman one of his three losses.

"Charlie very seldom loses," pointed out coach Don Koening, "but when he does, he becomes even stronger in a rematch."

South Sioux City's top heavyweight Ron Stingley gave the senior veteran his first loss of the season during the Blair invitational, but the two-year letterman-battled back in a dual with the Class A club to even that series.

Charlie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brockman of rural Winside, is aiming to win his division in the Class B state tournament. He made it to state last year — his first year wrestling for Koening.

Although Brockman hopes to wrestle and play football in college, he hasn't forgotten about the academic end of school. He maintains a strong B average.

Allen's VonMinden is no stranger when it comes to winning awards. This is the second year for the Eagle senior to earn the award in basketball.

Member of The Wayne Herald's all-area basketball team a year ago, he displayed his scoring talents with a 32-point spree in his team's 61-48 upset of Wakefield Saturday night.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle VonMinden of Allen, he blistered the nets throughout the entire game, missing only one fielder in the second half.

"Undoubtedly this was one of Scott's best games," said coach Robert Moore. "Scott was in a slump during the early part of the year, but like the rest of the team, he has shown the leadership needed to win ball games."

WSC Matmen Rip Concordia Team 5 Still Atop A League

Concordia and Wayne State wrestlers tried something unusual in a dual meet Saturday. Instead of wrestling in the traditional order—from light to heavy weights—they went in an order chosen by lot.

Concordia coach Roger Meyer suggested the change, and Wayne coach Marion Haayer, after consulting his team, agreed. So in a drawing about 20 minutes before meet time, the 150-pound class came up first.

Whether it made any difference in the outcome would be hard to know. Haayer mused afterwards. He wondered if the rather short notice of order might upset a wrestler's "psych-up" timing—especially going in to a touch match.

Whatever theoretical results came out of the experiment, the practical result was a 40-9 victory for Wayne State, giving the Wildcats a 5-6 dual record. There were four falls among Wayne's seven wins, including Randy Humpal's pin in 1:08 at 142 pounds, the quickest Wayne pin this year.

Wayne's next action will be a home dual with Midland Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Results in order of wrestling:

150—Gary Schneider, Wayne, pinned Roger Spath in 6:00

190 Fred Spale, Wayne, pinned David Glasgow in 6:31

177 Larry Traub, Concordia, decided George Bixback, 2-1

134—Craig Helwege, Wayne, decided Joel Pinnit, 16-4

158—Glenn Going, Concordia, decided Bill Garrott, 3-1

118 Steve Ellis, Wayne, won by forfeit

126 Jim Meyer, Wayne, pinned John Merz in 7:11

142—Randy Humpal, Wayne, pinned Kelly Mattes in 1:08

Team 5 stays atop city recreation A League basketball this week after claiming its fifth win, an 80-71 win over Team 4 Monday night.

The league leaders broke a 55-all deadlock at the end of three periods, then erased a one-point deficit with two and a half minutes left to take a 5-1 record in league competition Monday night against Team 3.

Herb Swan and Butch Reiten paced the victors with 24 and 18 points respectively while Dave Schulte and Rex Murray hit 21 and 18 points for Team 4.

Team 3 evened its mark at 3-3 by getting by Team 1, 74-69, despite hot shooting from John Warner. Warner had 31 points.

As a result, Team 3 is third in the five-team league with Team 1 second at 4-2. Teams 2 and 4 are fourth and fifth with 2-3 and 1-5 records.

Monday night Teams 1 and 2 will play at 7:15 followed by Teams 5-3 in the eighth week of city recreation basketball.

Others scoring:

Team 5—Mike Creighton 13, Ray Vrtiska 10, Dennis Spangler 9, Paul Eaton 6; Team 4—Bob Weisenberg 13, Randy Nelson 10, Morris Beckenhauer 6, Larry Straitman 3.

Wayne County residents have just 14 more days to buy their 1974 license tags and pay their motor vehicle taxes.

Although the deadline for getting those chores done is March 1, the courthouse will be closed two days this month — on Tuesday next week for Lincoln's birthday and the following Monday for Washington's birthday.

Those two holidays coming during a short month give county treasurer Leon Meyer reason to believe his office will once again be swamped when the final few days of February roll around.

As of Monday afternoon his office had handled about 2,800 motorists wishing to pick up their tags and pay their taxes. Although that was about 350 more than had been processed on the same date a year earlier, Meyer still anticipated a flood of work the final few days of the month.

"We have to average about 200 a day, but up to last week we were averaging only about 125 each day," he said.

About 6,000 motor vehicles — cars, pickups, trucks, trailers and motorcycles — were licensed last year before the March 1st deadline, according to Meyer. This year he expects an increase in the number of vehicles being licensed, a trend which has been evident in recent years.

If more motorists don't come into his office before the final week, Meyer expects a repeat of last year when about 330 vehicle owners were processed the final day in February.

Motorists this year are purchasing small blue license tags which go over the 1973 tags in the lower left-hand corner of the license plate. License plates will be issued next year unless the legislature extends the use of the present plates, according to Meyer.

Motorists wishing to license their vehicles should take their tax statement, vehicle registration and payment to Meyer's office in the courthouse. Persons may order their tags and pay their taxes by mail by including their statement, registration and check for the appropriate amount. The license tags will be returned by mail, Meyer noted.

Persons owning motor vehicles may check to see what their registration fees are by looking on the list of fees included with their tax statements, Meyer noted.

WSC Project To Be Done By Deadline

"The building is coming along as expected and will be done by the deadline," said the foreman of the Christianson Construction Company, which has been working on campus for several months.

Masonry work is almost fully completed on the new industrial arts building. Painting is expected to be started this week.

The L-shaped building will house the industrial school. Glass windows line the halls so students walking through the building can observe other student's work.

As a person enters from the south side, there is a long hallway running the length of the building. On either side, classrooms. About the middle of the first floor on the left side is the furnace room.

At the north end of the building the hall turns right and runs along the south side of the north end.

The industrial arts building is scheduled to be finished in May. This building will provide larger classrooms and will have all new equipment.

WSC Radio Now on Air 7 Days Week

KWSC radio is now on the air seven days a week. Station manager, Doug Goeder, said Fridays and Saturdays were added to the broadcast schedule "so we wouldn't look like a suitcase radio station."

Programming on the weekends will be primarily "oldies," hopefully starting February 15.

Broadcast hours were expanded earlier this term when KWSC began broadcasting until 1 a.m. instead of signing off at 12 midnight as in the past.

KWSC is also broadcasting on the audio portion of KWSC-TV cable 10 in Wayne, beginning at 1 p.m. Saturday and continuing until the "Wayne State Tonight" show at 10 p.m.

Goeder also pointed out that KWSC radio has expanded its coverage. News can now be heard at 8:10 and 12 p.m.

Goeder explained this not only makes for a better balanced station, but gives all the announcers a chance to gain experience at reading news.

THE MOST EVIL MAN IN THE U.S.A.

A few notes on the evil he created in 1969.

He found a quarter of a million "unemployables" who never could hold steady jobs.

He trained them and put them into work that pays money they never dreamed of earning before.

He's a businessman.

For poor kids who couldn't otherwise go to college, he took three hundred and fifty millions and saw to it that those who earned them got scholarships.

He gave eight hundred million to non-profit organizations for medical research, to help stamp out cancer and heart disease and a hundred other dread diseases of the world.

To build new housing for the poor and middle-incomes in U. S. cities, he put up one billion and a quarter dollars, so more people can live in decency.

Sure, he's been a polluter — as has everyone from the U. S. government to ordinary citizens. But last year he scraped up two and one half billions to fight pollution of air and water and nature. This year he plans to get up four billion more, to keep up the battle.

After that, he put up fifteen billion dollars in Social Security taxes to help provide support and medical care for senior citizens. And he added forty-one billion dollars in income taxes to help pay the bills of the U. S. A.

And all the while, he was contributing millions of hours of personal and business time to virtually every humanitarian cause you've ever heard of.

He's a businessman. The most evil man in the U. S. A.

Isn't it time somebody had a good word for this evil man who happens to do so much good for so many people?

We think so.

Allen Board Meets Today On Salaries

Allen's school board is scheduled to meet in special session this morning (Thursday) to discuss salaries for bus drivers and salary negotiations with teachers.

During Monday night's regular board session, the members were not able to complete the agenda, forcing them into the extra meeting.

Superintendent Gail Miller explained that with increasing gas costs, the board will discuss bus drivers' salaries in connection with the hike in fuel prices. Also the members will look into Allen Teachers Association's proposed pay scale for the coming school year.

During Monday night's meeting, the board instructed Miller to further investigate plans for setting up a career education program in the elementary grades.

After learning that the state department of education notified the school its present program should be reduced from K-12 to just elementary grades, the members okayed Miller's revision in order to acquire Title III funds for the project.

From Lincoln: Latest news is good, bad for state's drug pushers

LINCOLN — The news last week for drug pushers was good and bad. The bad news was that the Legislature's Judiciary Committee sent along to the floor a half-dozen bills designed to assist in the arrest and conviction of persons who deal illegally in drugs.

At the instance of Senator Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff, the staff was told to provide appropriations large enough to do a good job. "Let's go for the brass ring," Carpenter said.

never got behind the desk. Governor J. James Exon had selected Hesser to succeed Victor Walker as the chief of the state's correctional institutions, but legislative officials quickly pointed out that Hesser, though he was universally described as an excellent police officer, didn't meet the qualifications for the correctional services directorship.

was 11 per cent for 1974 last week, but legislation which would increase it to 13 per cent — as Governor Exon wants — was alive and kicking.

The veteran (who also is seeking the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor) said the State Board of Equalization (made up of the governor, tax commissioner, secretary of state, auditor and treasurer) should keep the rate job because they can do it in November when more information is available on the economy.

City officials telling public all the truth?

Dear Editor: Some things have been bothering me. I can't believe, the mayor, city council and city manager are being completely honest with the citizens of Wayne.

WAY BACK WHEN

30 YEARS AGO February 3, 1944: Grand opening of Wayne's new Firestone store, A. R. Ellis owner, will be held this weekend.

20 YEARS AGO February 4, 1954: Wayne city payroll was upped to $335 a month.

25 YEARS AGO February 3, 1949: A railroad snowplow has gone through Wayne and on Wednesday two miles east of Magnat.

15 YEARS AGO February 5, 1959: Marcelle Barellman, Wakefield, and Juanita Boeckenhauer, Wayne, were among 406 University of Nebraska graduates honored at mid-year commencement exercises Saturday morning in Lincoln.

10 YEARS AGO February 6, 1964: Clifford Dahl, Wayne, filed for the Nebraska legislature, from the newly formed 18th district.

James, Wayne, became executive director of the Prairie Hills Girl Scout Council Monday.

OBSERVATIONS

Let's look at what Hoskins is doing

Wayne might learn a thing or two from the town of Hoskins. That small community in the southwest part of the county has decided to go ahead with a $117,000 street improvement project.

Impressions of Buffalo Bill Cody and Wild Bill Hickok, 1872

In 1872 W.E. Webb of Topeka, Kansas, wrote an interesting book-length account of an expedition on the Plains.

being a good scout and most excellent guide, but the fact that he can slaughter buffalo is by no means remarkable, since the American bison is dangerous game only to amateurs.

Webb concludes his narrative by scolding the "ability" of the majority of other frontier scouts. He stated: "For money they would take you through a land they knew nothing about, and that unless they happened to stumble across one of the Pacific railroad lines there was a good chance the party wanting to go west would be equally liable to get among the Northern Sioux or the Ku-Klux of Arkansas."

FEEDING BEEF COWHERDS
Driving around Wayne County, I find a large number of beef cowherds — in fact, sometimes you would think you were in the Sandhills cattle country.

Until about 70 days before calving, the main concern should be on putting adequate amount of energy, protein, phosphorous and vitamin A into the cows' feed.

If supplemental feed and hay are fed, young cows need to be separated from the old cows. Otherwise, the older cows will fight the young ones away from their share of the feed. Yearling-bred heifers and two-year-old cows carrying their second calf can be run together, and older cows as another group. Both groups can be fed the same ration, but heifers are fed a little better than the cows.

If you have plenty of roughage, bred cows will not need special energy supplements before calving. If you are short of hay or pasture, either grain or silage can be used if managed properly. Protein is needed to supplement stalks and stubble after most of the grain and leaves have been eaten.

A good protein supplement includes five pounds average alfalfa hay and one pound of range cake.

Mineral Needs
Liquid supplements can be used, but the non-protein-nitrogen in these is not efficiently converted to protein on low quality roughage winter rations. You must prevent over consumption of liquid when snow covers the forage.

Phosphorus will be needed for cows on low quality forage. About two to three grams of phosphorus will be needed daily in most herds. This can be furnished with the protein if the supplement contains as much as 1.5 per cent phosphorus. It can also be supplied in a mineral supplement.

The other nutritional concern is Vitamin A. If you don't feed the current year's hay during the last one third of pregnancy, you should provide an average of at least 20,000 International Units (IU) of Vitamin A daily. This can be added to the protein supplement if one is fed. It can also be added to the salt or salt-mineral mixture. The cow will need about 300,000 IU per month. On the average, the cow will consume about one pound of salt per month, so you should add about one million IU's per pound of salt.

If you're concerned about trace minerals, use a protein supplement or mineral supplement with trace minerals added or feed trace mineralized salt.

NATIONAL APPALOOSA QUEEN Mary Walsh is spending several days visiting relatives in Wayne before heading for Omaha Friday to reign over Expo Appaloosa '74, the association's four-day national meeting. Miss Walsh, 19, is the niece of Anton Netherda and the granddaughter of Mrs. Nora Netherda of Wayne. Seated with the national queen are, from left, Mrs. Anton Netherda; her mother, Mrs. J. R. Walsh of Portland, Ore.; and Mrs. Netherda. Miss Walsh was named queen in competition with state winners last July, scoring higher on the written examination than any queen in recent years.

10th Show for Swine Raisers Scheduled

The 10th annual Norfolk Swine Show, sponsored by the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee, will be held Feb. 26, and the carcass show will be held March 1, reports John Corkle, show chairman.

The live show will be held at the Norfolk Livestock Market and will be judged by Terry Schrick of the animal science department at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. The carcass show will be held at the Roman Packing Co. and will be judged by Keith Gilster of UNL.

The show will again include an FFA judging contest. A certain number of hogs will be selected and sorted into four classes: three-market hogs and one-breeding gilt. Two official teams of four boys from each school, in both junior and senior divisions, will judge as teams.

In the regular show there will be a commercial (crossbred) and a purebred division. An exhibitor may not have more than one entry and the animals must weigh between 190 and 240 pounds. Trophies and cash prizes will be awarded winners.

Hogs will be selected from each class for carcass evaluation, and hogs not qualifying for the carcass show will be sold at auction on Feb. 27.

Entry blanks for this show are available from county agents, v.o.g. instructors, the Norfolk Livestock Market or the Norfolk Chamber.

Temperatures at the earth's core may reach 10,800 degrees F., the National Geographic Society says.

Fertilizer Use Expected To Outpace '74 Supply, Warns ASCS Director

"Demand for nitrogen and phosphate fertilizers may exceed supplies in 1974 said Ray Butts, executive director of the Wayne County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"Fertilizer prices have gone up considerably since last October when they were freed from federal price controls," he said, "and present indications are that in 1974 prices of fertilizers with a high nitrogen content may go up 50 per cent from last October's levels. Phosphates may go up 40 per cent," he added.

Prospective potash prices look set for a rise in the area of 20 per cent, although prospective North American potash production capabilities stand far in excess of current demand, according to Butts.

"It looks as if a ton of fertilizer may cost over $100 this year — compared with $78 in 1973," Butts continued, "and the American farmer's fertilizer bill may run over $4 billion — a 40 per cent rise over 1973."

Perhaps eight per cent more nitrogen and phosphates will be available this year, but at current prices agricultural demand may not be satisfied because the number of cropland acres looks to be on the rise, according to Butts. Potash use may rise about five per cent, he noted.

"That's the fertilizer outlook," said Butts. "I think a 'back look' is interesting, too." While national fertilizer use rose three per cent from June 30, 1972 to June 30, 1973, fertilizer exports rose 38 per cent, he said.

"I also notice that due to exports of ammonia and ammonium phosphates, the United States exported twice as much nitrogen fertilizer as it imported," added Butts. "World demand for phosphates and nitrates has far from slackened."

Thought for Today

By Rowan Wiltse

"Don't make excuses — make good." — Old Adage

Whatever our endeavor, "making good" is apt to be quite an accomplishment. Making good is likely to call for direction and determination, plus other qualities including a certain amount of skill in the line we tackle.

Determination by itself is a long step toward success. It is often the drive that encourages us to try again when success fails to come easily. It encourages us to seek out and try new, more effective methods, which eventually will carry us to our goals.

Our goal is to be always available to serve you, with sympathy and understanding, when you need us. For complete information on our pre-need arrangement plans, drop in or phone for an appointment to our office or in your own home, as you prefer.

PERF-A-LOT
... A Totally New Concept in Feedlot Flooring That Eliminates the Problems Caused by Stress and Increases Livestock Performance.

THE CONCEPT OF PERF-A-LOT!

Perf-A-Lot™ has been designed and patented after perforated steel matting that was proven highly successful by the military to provide a durable surface that would support heavy equipment over soft ground, and was fast and easy to install, even under adverse conditions.

Perf-A-Lot™ is a perforated steel barrier to the soil, designed to eliminate mud and dust, that flexes with animal weight—reducing hoof and leg problems; and generally, relieves animal stress by providing a dryer lot condition than either dirt or concrete.

Over the past five years the patented Perf-A-Lot™ concept has been researched and proven highly successful in extreme weather conditions varying from 10 to 50 inches of annual rainfall, heavy snowfall, as well as with many types of lot management. Close confinement permitted with the use of Perf-A-Lot™ provides reduced feed costs and in many instances faster daily weight gains. Perf-A-Lot™ is ideal for conditioning calves, just off the range. Weight gains in the first 30 days have been excellent.
