

Political-Economist To Lecture at WS

Sandra Louise Vogelgesang, political-economist with the U.S. State Department Bureau of European Affairs, will be a guest lecturer at Wayne State College Thursday and Friday. On Thursday at the WSC Ramsey Theatre she will take part in a 10 a.m. panel discussion, "Intelligence Communities." At 8 p.m. that evening at the Student Center she will speak on "Dissent in the State Department." Friday morning at 9:10 she will give a class presentation, "The Significance of Language Preparation for Foreign Service Careers" in Room 104 in the Humanities Building. The public is invited to attend any or all of the sessions. Miss Vogelgesang has a PhD from Fletcher School of Law

Diplomacy and has served with the State Department since 1967. At the U.S. Embassy in Helsinki, Finland, she served as youth affairs officer, and she has served as Scandinavian analyst in the Department of State Bureau of Intelligence and Research. She edited the State Department periodical, "Current Economic Developments," and served as chairman of the Secretary of State Open Forum Panel in 1973 and 1974. During her stay in Wayne, Miss Vogelgesang will be the guest of Val Peterson, former Nebraska governor and former ambassador to Finland. Peterson has been serving as distinguished professor of political science at WSC since 1977.

Fire Does Damage Friday Near Carroll

A fire at the Delmar Eddie farm north of Carroll about 5 p.m. Friday burned two small haystacks, three small stacks of straw and a small hog shelter, reports Carroll fire chief Harold Loberg. Loberg said Eddie was burning trash and sacks in a trench silo when the wind whipped some of the burning material into the nearby haystack. Carroll's volunteer fire department kept the fire from spreading. The firemen were forced to detour around Highway 57, which is under construction, in order to get to Eddie's farm home four miles north and about a half mile west of Carroll.

Tri-Cog to Tab New Director

The Tri-County Council of Governments (Tri-Cog) will meet Wednesday night in Hartington to select a director. Two people have applied for the job, said Allen representative Ken Linafelter. They are Fred Opegaard of Concord and Terry Bailey of Wayne. Linafelter, said anyone interested in the position has until Wednesday to contact Morris Knief of Hartington. Last week Tri-Cog received a $7,900 federal Public Employment Program grant to help pay administrative salaries. The council will use that money and part of $6,750 of its state money to pay for the director's salary, Linafelter said.

Superintendents To Meet at WS Wednesday

About 100 school superintendents from across Northeast Nebraska are expected to attend the fall meeting of the Northeast Nebraska School Superintendents' Association at Wayne State College on Wednesday. The all day program includes three panel discussions and a talk titled "As Superintendent, Who Am I?" by Dr. William Anderson, superintendent of the Sioux City school system. Panels will discuss "Equal Opportunity for Girls in Athletics," "Teacher Education Programs at Wayne State College," and "Teacher Credential - Open or Closed?"

CLINT NELSON
Wayne Youth
Will Receive
Scout Honor

Clint Nelson, 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Nelson of Wayne, will receive the Eagle Scout award in a ceremony at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Wayne on Sunday, Oct. 27.

Nelson, who has been in Scouting since he was eight years old, is a member of Troop 271. He is the first Scout in the Troop, led by Robert Carhart, to earn the Eagle Scout rank. A member of the Order of the Arrow, young Nelson worked at the children's regional development center at Pile Hall on Wayne State's campus as his public service project. He played with the youngsters, planned activities for them, helped feed them and did errands for the director.

Nelson began his Webelos training at the age of 10, then became a Boy Scout when he was 11 years old. He has been quartermaster and patrol leader of his troop. A member of Redeemer Lutheran Church, Nelson has at tended two district camporees, both at Wisner, and a Mid See YOUTH, page 10

Drive Tops Halfway Point

Wayne's 1974 Community Chest fund drive went over the halfway point Friday, with a total of about $6,150 turned in by volunteers who have been canvassing the community the past two weeks. Although the total collected is more than halfway to the $11,450 goal, half of the cards have yet to be turned in by the workers, said Vera Hummel, secretary-treasurer of the annual drive. "If all the other workers do their part, the goal will be reached this year," she noted. Workers are being urged by

The Community Chest board of directors to turn in their remaining cards either today (Monday) or Tuesday so the drive can be all wrapped up this week. Workers should turn donations they have collected over to their drive captains, who in turn should give them to members of the board or drop them off at either bank in Wayne. Board members, at a meeting Friday noon, expressed their thanks to the many workers who are helping conduct this year's fund drive and to the numerous business owners and managers who conducted drives within their stores and firms. Those owners and managers who have not finished seeking donations from their employees are asked to do so early this week so the donations may be added to those collected by other volunteers. Drive chairman Ernie Thayer said the advance gifts efforts conducted this year coupled with the business owners taking on some of the collection chores proved very worthwhile. "The board appreciates these efforts; they are what should help us reach our goal this year," Thayer said. If the fund drive reaches its goal this year, something which three previous drives failed to do, the money will be distributed as follows: $2,600 to the city's recreation program, $2,000 each to the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, $700 to the Red Cross. ## Chamber's Quarterly Meeting Is Tonight

Chamber of Commerce members will name officers for the coming year during the Chamber's quarterly general membership meeting tonight (Monday) at 8 o'clock at the community room at Villa Wayne. The meeting is open to all Chamber members. Moving up to the presidency of the Chamber at the first of the year will be Rowan Willse. He will replace Dr. Wayne Wessel. Named tonight will be a new president elect in place of Willse and a treasurer who will take over the post held by George Thorbeck. Going off the board of directors of the Chamber this year are Wessel, Thorbeck and Dick Keidel. They will be replaced by

Roger Nelson, Al Wittig and Larry Johnson, selected by the Chamber in an election several weeks ago. Also on the board are Dale Gutschall, Dick Sorensen, Bill Workman, Roy Hurd and Willis Meyer. Dr. LeRoy Simpson, director of athletics at Wayne State, is a member of the board as liaison officer to the college. Expected to be discussed tonight is the Chamber's annual Farmers Appreciation Night, an event scheduled for Nov. 23. Speaker for the evening will be Dr. Robert Mahley of Lincoln, an expert on the state's history. Dr. Ken Liska has taken over as chairman of the event in place of Lee Foote, who has

Voter Deadline Nears

Voters in Wayne County who have moved recently are reminded by county clerk Norris Weible that deadline to register as a voter is Friday, Oct. 25, at 5 p.m. Voters not properly registered will be unable to participate in the Nov. 5th general election, Weible warned. Weible said voters who have moved out of one ward into another ward or from one precinct to another have to register at his office. Women who have married since last registering also are required to re-register, he said. Voters who wish to change their party affiliation before the general election need to register again, according to Weible. Weible said persons who will be gone Nov. 5 or who are disabled and unable to travel to the voting places may obtain absentee and disabled ballots at his office. Deadline for applying for absentee ballots to be returned by mail and deadline for applying for disabled ballots is 4 p.m. on Nov. 1. Deadline for filling out absentee ballots at the courthouse is 4 p.m. on Nov. 4. Disabled persons may have an agent pick up application forms for them or fill out the application which appeared as an advertisement in last Monday's issue of The Wayne Herald, according to Weible. The agent has until noon on Nov. 5 to pick up the ballots for the disabled person he represents, according to Weible. Ballots have to be returned by 8 p.m. that same day, he added.

Voters at Allen Quiz Candidates

Improvements in Allen's school systems ranging from restroom facilities for the foot ball field to more playground equipment were on the minds of five of the six school board candidates during a question-answer session Thursday night. Three of the candidates seeking the three open seats on the Allen board said they wanted to have restroom facilities ready for next year if it can be handled in the budget. Incumbents Ray Brownell and LeRoy Koch, along with Wayne Stewart, agreed the school needs the facilities since none is provided during Allen's home football games. Mrs. Norma Warner said she

New King Alive at WSC

Maybe it's like that old saying about royalty - "The king is dead, long live the king." Homecoming at Wayne State once was dead, but its successor looked quite alive the past week, with big and peppy crowds at all events. Last November the State Senate took note of waning interest in traditional homecoming events. A senator moved to abolish homecoming, and suddenly it was dead. The motion did say the Senate might consider some alternatives. So it did consider. And the result happened under the name of Wildcat Days, which looked quite similar to old homecoming. First major event: crowning of the queen, Cindy Haase, winner of an all-school vote among eight candidates. In ceremonies Wednesday, she mounted to the throne of the most beloved set ever-built for a WSC coronation. It was the work of drama students, who also presented improvisational See ALIVE, page 10

Those Mosley Kids Really Carry On

Two Wayne Herald carriers have been honored for delivering more than 17,700 newspapers without receiving one complaint from their customers. The two are 13-year-old Greg and 14-year-old Sydney Mosley, children of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Mosley of Wayne. The newspaper has given each youth a $25 savings bond in recognition of their accomplishments. The two received their savings bonds on Friday, a day before national Newspaper Carrier Day. The two have delivered newspapers since April of 1972 when carrier distribution was introduced by the Herald. The 17,700-plus newspapers they have delivered to their customers in twice-weekly trips on their routes in the northwest part of the city are equal to more than four complete press runs on the Herald's publication day. Those 17,700-plus newspapers also are equal to the number of newspapers which are delivered by all 16 carriers in Wayne over an 11-week period. A total of 804 newspapers are delivered each Wednesday and Saturday by carriers in Wayne. No other carrier has built up a record like the two Mosleys.

Death of a child is tragic... but avoidable death is even more tragic!

A four-year-old boy, recovering from measles, is stricken with encephalitis and suffers permanent brain damage. A young woman, two months pregnant, is found to have rubella, a disease that seriously jeopardizes the life of her unborn child. A young girl, away at summer camp, falls victim to polio and becomes paralyzed from the waist down. Years ago, reports such as these were common. Epidemics of such diseases as polio and rubella and the annual occurrence of measles were accepted as unavoidable risks of childhood. In the 1950s, thousands of children died during epidemics of polio. In 1963-64, a rubella epidemic resulted in 20,000 miscarriages and left 20,000 babies seriously disabled. Year after year, measles relentlessly took hundreds of young lives and was a leading cause of encephalitis among children.

One by one the diseases were conquered. Vaccines became available and appreciative parents took their children to the doctor to make sure they were fully protected. A feeling of security followed. And then apathy. The diseases were no longer feared. Parents became less diligent about having their children protected. As a result, a disturbing trend has developed. The percentage of young children protected against childhood diseases has dropped steadily. Outbreaks of the diseases have become increasingly common, and experts fear that widespread epidemics could occur unless more children are immunized. Dr. John J. Wille, director of the immunization division of the Center for Disease Control, puts it this way: "The statistics are really disturbing. In 1963, 8 1/2 per cent of all children in the one-to-four age group had been immunized against polio. Ten years later, only 60.3 per cent had been immunized. Measles immunization had fallen to 61.2 per cent, and rubella immunization was down to 56.9 per cent. This simply isn't enough to assure that we won't have major epidemics." Dr. Henry Smith, state health director, notes: "The state's preschool immunization levels have improved and are better than the national average. But unfortunately diseases cannot read statistics." To prevent outbreaks in Nebraska the obvious alternative is to make sure that children are vaccinated, and Dr. Smith urges parents to do so: "Parents should check their records to make sure each child is protected against polio, measles, mumps, rubella, diphtheria, tetanus and pertussis. Children who are not fully immunized should be taken to the doctor or local health department. Parents who aren't sure whether their children received all the inoculations should call the doctor or health department to find out."

When should the child be immunized? "As a general rule, the earlier the better," says Dr. Smith. "One of the serious problems is that many parents wait until their children approach school age before having them vaccinated. This leaves the child vulnerable to disease during the first four years or so of life, and creates a large group of young children who could quickly fall prey to an epidemic." "Polio and DTP (diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis) immunization should be given at about two months of age. Measles, mumps and rubella vaccines should be given shortly after the child's first birthday. "You know," Dr. Smith concludes, "the death or severe disability of a young child is always a tragic occurrence. But think how much more tragic it is to know that it could have been prevented—that someone overlooked one of the vaccinations or didn't know about it, or intended to take care of it later. This is what we're trying to prevent. And the only way to do it is for more children to be immunized."

This special feature article from the state department of health is being printed this month in an effort to fully inform parents about the need to immunize their children at an early age. October has been designated Immunization Action Month by the state health department.

OBSERVATIONS

Give your fair share

If you haven't already contributed to this year's Community Chest fund drive in Wayne, please consider all the things the drive helps make possible and then give your fair share.

Besides helping make possible the Senior Citizens Center and the city's recreational programs, the drive helps support seven other agencies — Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Florence Crittenton Home in Sioux City, Arthritis Foundation, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation and the Red Cross.

We discussed in recent stories on the front page of The Wayne Herald some of the things provided through the two local agencies which receive funds from the Community Chest. The Senior Citizens Center provides numerous activities and centers for elderly people in and around the community. The recreational program offers local and area youths a variety of sports and recreational activities.

Not pointed out in the story on the city's recreational program is some of the other, less publicized activities which the Community Chest helps support. They include the summer park program which was expanded last summer to offer activities for retarded youngsters, the swimming meets conducted during the summer and the proposed winter swimming activities. Also, some of the Community Chest funds will be used to help pay for the tennis court built a few months ago near the swimming pool.

These are just a few of the things the Community Chest does in Wayne. They sound worth supporting to me. I hope they sound that way to you. — Norvin Hansen.

Let's update the equipment for our fire department

I'm not going to do much more here than print the report given to the Wayne city council by the local fire department concerning the aerial fire fighting equipment the firemen want the city to purchase.

I happen to believe that residents of Wayne and the surrounding area are pretty lucky to have a group of men who are willing to put out the time and sweat in fighting fires whenever and wherever they crop up.

I also happen to believe that the major pieces of fire fighting equipment the city owns are woefully inadequate, amounting to a 1936 Ford truck and a 1960 International truck. It's interesting to note that the 1960 truck is just six years away from qualifying as an antique.

Don't let the $98,000 figure the firemen mention in their report scare you. The truck and boom equipment will cost that much, possibly a little more, but by the end of this fiscal year the city will have about $80,000 which it could use toward that total purchase price. The city now has about $29,000 in securities, about $39,000 in federal revenue sharing funds and about $10,000 in that current budget which can go toward the equipment. That means the city need only budget about $20,000 in each of the next two years to bring the total up to the purchase price. That money could come from local tax funds or from federal revenue sharing funds, according to a city official.

Here are the points made in the firemen's report given to the city council Tuesday night:

"The volunteer fire department hereby makes formal request to the city council for allocation of approximately $98,000 for the purchase of aerial equipment. Additional storage facilities will be needed for this equipment and is not included in the above request. There is approximately two years lag time in the manufacturing of this special equipment after a firm bid has been committed so it would not be necessary to disburse the entire expenditure at this time. In order to facilitate the needs of the city of Wayne, it is requested the city council make the necessary arrangements to assure full payment of this equipment two years hence. The two-year delay will also afford the opportunity to research, plan and complete a proper storage unit at the most desirable cost to the city. The department's justification for this equipment is as follows:

"1. The department has no viable means of rescue for its own personnel as well as for the lives of anyone who might be involved in situations that require lifesaving apparatus. "Examples are: many multi-unit apartment houses, the building now known as the city hospital, grain elevators and bulk fuel sites, county court house, numerous buildings located on WSC campus, middle school, municipal power plant. "The department presently has ladder equipment that is functional only on a routine basis and the maneuverability and capabilities of it is limited.

"2. Other than 'ladder' safety and the extinguishing of fires, the singular most important function of the department is to control the spreading of a fire in a confined area. The most effective method of controlling large fires is by depositing a huge volume of water, when necessary, in strategic locations which will not only extinguish fires quicker but control them, thus reducing risk and preserving loss of adjacent property. The department presently does not have equipment to do this effectively.

"3. Fuel and chemical storage areas throughout the city are of course necessary, but present equipment is simply not adequate to arrest and control fires in the areas of this nature. Once a fire is fully involved, strategic placement of suppressing agents is an absolute requirement in order to control and hold the loss areas to a minimum.

"4. The city has on hand as its own equipment one 1960 International pumper and a 1936 Ford pumper. The 1936 Ford pumper should be retired and is used in dire emergencies only. This results in a heavy reliance on the rural district equipment, which consists of a 1961 International 1,000-gallon tanker and a 1967 International four-wheel drive pumper which are used in city fires but must carry a rural priority in the event fire or disaster strikes concurrently. As you can see, if approved at this time, it will be the first fire truck purchased by the city of Wayne in over 15 years.

"5. An additional aspect to this request is that the city has been, and will be in a growth period for some time. The nature of building materials and contents of buildings have changed rapidly and some of these changes create new problems in fire fighting techniques. Updating of fire fighting equipment will enable the department to fully utilize the new techniques which are necessary to be an effective fire fighting unit. The valuation of any given portion of the Wayne business district, the industrial tract or the lives involved in multi-unit dwellings are but a few of the sound reasons the department makes this request.

"We are also keenly aware of the magnitude of this request as well as the council's duty and desire to allocate city funds, as needed. This request has been under consideration and study by the department and council since 1971. Since then, the cost has increased by 30 per cent. Further delay will undoubtedly result in further expense and possible loss of extensive property and life. We strongly encourage the council to approve this request at this time." — Norvin Hansen.

Common sense, where are you?

Despite a woman screaming "the city council cannot poison our water," the Los Angeles council passed an ordinance to go ahead with fluoridation of the city's water supply.

The screaming woman "was hauled kicking from the council chambers," reported United Press International recently. During a 90-minute debate on the measure, UPI said, two women who demonstrated against fluoridation were carried from the council chamber on a stretcher on misdemeanor charges. "This is one thing wrong with the democratic form of government — screaming nuts come out of the woodwork and disrupt what otherwise is a rational consideration of pros and cons. And by so doing, they get coverage by the news media.

But that's what you have to put up with in this country, and I would be the last person to say we should stop people from expressing their opinions even though those opinions verge on the unbelievable. Hopefully, common sense will win out, at least in the majority of cases. — Norvin Hansen.

EDITORIAL PAGE

Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost. — Thomas Jefferson, Letter, 1786.

Fluoridation foe: Have we lost our love of freedom?

Dear Editor: Is this a free country? After January 1st when the state law goes into effect to fluoridate our water supply, will we not have lost a lot of our freedom of choice?

To not be able to draw even one glass of water from the tap without having spiked with poisonous sodium fluoride is not my idea of freedom. I resent having a little group of men in our legislature take it upon themselves to prescribe poison to every citizen in every town and village in Nebraska. If I need medication, I prefer to have a choice of which doctor prescribes it, not a group of politicians.

Doctors and druggists tell us sodium fluoride can only be obtained for human use by a doctor's prescription because it is a dangerous poison. Have we lost our love of freedom to the extent that we will permit ourselves to be mass medicated much as a farmer can experiment with his livestock as he chooses?

If others want to drink poisonous sodium fluoride, I have no objections. They can get it by prescription. Are we so naive and permissive as to let this curse come upon us when we can stop it at the November 5 election?

If they can tell us what to drink, how long before they tell us what to eat? A patient is not obliged to take medication his doctor prescribed if he decides to refuse it. I think we should have the same right when the legislature prescribes medication to use which we never asked for.

I doubt if it was the people's welfare they had in mind when the fluoridation law was passed. — C. V. Agler.

WHEELS ARE TURNING

to get an up to date attitude survey conducted in Wayne and some of the surrounding area. The survey won't be conducted for several weeks and compiling results will take several more weeks, but once the survey is finished it should give some interesting insights into what people think of the community.

It will likely ask questions like: Do the townspeople and farmers work well together? Are services like education, law enforcement and parks adequate? Is housing adequate? Should there be a county city jail facility? What are the most serious problems facing the city? Where do you do your shopping? Why? Are job opportunities adequate? Should more industry be brought into the city? How?

Several local people reviewed the questions that will be included in the survey Tuesday morning with two representatives of the state economic development department, research analyst Elaine Carpenter and development trainee William Martin. Present were Rowan Willise, soon to be president of the Chamber of Commerce, Howard Will, Chamber manager, banker Bob Jordan, city administrator Fred Brink, Jaycee Bill Wooster and Mrs. Jaycee Pat Dolata. Wayne Industries will pay the $25 per 100 cost of the surveys.

Willise noted that Wayne Industries is interested in finding out how city and rural folks feel about attracting industry, whether there should be more effort in this area, and if the general public is willing to help foot the bill. The state department is now in the process of drawing up a preliminary questionnaire, which will be looked over by local residents before it is printed and distributed. Volunteers are expected to be asked to help canvass the community when the surveys are ready.

A couple interesting sidelights. All of the 100-plus seniors at Wayne High are expected to fill out the surveys, and rural folks will be given their chance to comment by having surveys distributed through rural students. It sounds like a good thing, getting an idea of what people think of the town. There's one danger, however. That is to get the results and then let the statistics gather dust, like happens in too many other surveys. Hopefully, that won't happen here.

THE Northeast Station's swine research facilities east of Concord got some nice ink in last week's Farm Weekly in the Sioux City Journal.

Feel and leg problems in confinement swine operations have been called the second greatest problem in the hog industry by the National Pork Producers Council, but up until 1971 there was little if any research being done on the subject. That was the year the council provided a grant to the University of Nebraska research facility to study the subject, and since then swine specialist Robert Fritschen has been going hog wild doing exactly that.

It makes interesting reading, complete with good close-up pictures of what happens to a pig's feet when raised under different conditions.

WAYNE HIGH principal Don Zeiss sends along this note:

"Special thanks to Mrs. Susan Daugherty, the Pep Club and the students of Wayne High School for the manner in which they organized and conducted both themselves and the past week's (homecoming) activities.

"Without cooperation and support of this nature these activities could not meet with the success they have.

"Congrats to everyone concerned. We look forward to even bigger and better things next year."

THREE LOCAL ladies — Mrs. Dale Johansen, Mrs. Ed Wolske and Mrs. Gerald Jackson — deserve a special thanks for the work they went to in organizing the free feed for bandmen, sponsors, instructors and others after the Band Day parade in Wayne recently.

Businessman Roger Nelson, who helped ramrod that free feed, passes on thanks to those three and to the approximate 60 other volunteers who helped serve that free meal.

Things like that can't help but reflect favorably on the community.

MRS. MAUDE AUKER responds to my request for "Do You Remember" items by asking how many people remember Charlie Marlen, the town crier, announcing the Democrat rally which featured William Jennings Bryan as the featured speaker.

Here's what she says the Democrats were singing around that time:

"East side, west side All around the town, Silver votes come rolling in Last senses being found, Bets like these were plenty, Plenty as three cent pork, 16 to 1 my Republican friend That Bryan will carry New York."

Don't know if Bryan carried New York, but imagine local Demos thought he could carry the nation.

VOTERS who favor LB 772, the state aid to schools bill, may like to get involved in "Citizens Committee for 300" which will seek a favorable vote on the issue in the general election a few weeks hence.

Co-chairman of the group are Mrs. Helen Green of Greenwood, a mother and housewife, and John Gottschalk, publisher of the Sidney Telegraph.

The group is seeking support of at least 300 community leaders from across the state as members.

Say the co-chairmen: "Equality in education for our youngsters and in the financial support system for our schools is one of the goals we are after. We recognize that in LB 772 we have the law which is going to move us a long way down the road toward those goals."

WAYNE AREA youngsters who like spooky things can start building up their courage to go through the Haunted Chamber at 419 Main on Oct. 29, 30 or 31. The haunted place will be open from 6 to 9 o'clock each evening, with admission 25 cents. Special group rates are available.

Note to mothers: Don't worry, the local Mrs. Jaycees will be doing the haunting. Doubt if some of them can take the shocks a lot of kids can nowadays.

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

A STEER belonging to Elder Schultz of rural Wisner got its head stuck in a hole in a tree early last week, and about two days went by before anybody noticed and helped the animal out of its predicament.

Reported the Wisner News-Chronicle along with its picture of the trapped animal: "The market has been so bad over the past several months that quite a number of cattlemen in Cuming County have gone into the tote. But who would have guessed the situation would get troublesome enough for the cattle to lose all hope and get into it too?"

THE CEDAR COUNTY ASCS office in Hartington is now accepting nominations for ASCS community committee candidates.

The ASCS mail election will be held from November 22 to December 2, according to the Hartington office. Eligible farmers will be provided with instructions for filling out the ballots and returning them to the county office.

CHOSEN king and queen at Bancroft High School Oct. 4 were Merlin Vogt and Patty Beutler. Senior attendants were Patty Larsen, Jeff Konicek, Laurie Daberkow and Doak Wegner. Attendees from the other classes included juniors Bill Schilling and Glenda Cooper, sophomores Mark Gehring and Tammie Doht, and freshmen Mary Kieldgaard and Terry Bergman.

JOAN ERWIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Quinten Erwin of rural Concord, is one of seven coeds chosen by Midland College lettermen to compete for the title of homecoming queen.

Midland's homecoming is slated for Friday and Saturday, with coronation of this year's royalty scheduled for Friday. Midland plays Dana College Saturday afternoon.

HOMER farmer Alfred Miller was hospitalized following a fall from a hayloft while moving equipment several days ago. He fell about 20 feet to the cement floor in the barn, suffering a broken hip and two broken bones in his leg.

ALLEN NATIVE Bruce Linafelter will take his Albion High School band to the Sun Festival Parade at the Sun Bowl football game in El Paso in January. The nine-day trip will cost a total of $10,000, said Linafelter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Linafelter of Allen, and a graduate of Wayne State College. He is currently organizing fund raising efforts in the community.

Signs of Autumn

AGAINST A cloudy sky, dry cattails stand in a ditch a few miles southeast of Wayne. Fall is quickly painting the countryside as days get shorter and farmers spend long hours in the fields harvesting corn and soybeans. Many cornfields have already been stripped by farmers seeking low yield disaster aid payments from the government because of last summer's drought and the early frosts.

Club Convention Draws 200 to Wayne

Approximately 200 Women's Club members representing over 50 clubs in a 10-county area were in Wayne Tuesday to attend the District III convention of Federated Women's Clubs held in Wayne State College's Ramsey Theatre.

Presiding at the morning sessions were Mrs. Vernon Predeh of Wayne, district president; Mrs. Eldon Fox of Plainview and Mrs. Gordon Bleich of Norfolk, first and second district vice presidents, and Mrs. Bernard Clatanoff of Beemer, district director of juniors. Members of Wayne's Cadet Troop 145, directed by Mrs. Jean-Ley, presented the colors and led in the salute to the flag. Group singing of "God Bless America" was led by Mrs. Robert Neu of Coteridge and accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Clouck of Clarkson. The Rev. Harry Cowles of the Wayne First Baptist Church gave the meditation. Greetings were extended to the group by Dr. Lyle Seymour, president of

Wayne State College, Mayor Freeman Decker, Rowan Wilste, president-elect of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Mahdiel Harms, Wayne Woman's Club president. The response was by Mrs. Eldon Fox of Plainview. Mrs. Fox presented the program of the business session and Mrs. Alvin Daum of Wisner gave the first credential report. Convention rules were read by Mrs. William H. Hasebroock of West Point.

Elected to serve on the district nominating committee were Mrs. William Hasebroock and Mrs. Vern Hagedorn, both of West Point, Mrs. Gordon Bleich of Norfolk, Mrs. Jack Faudel of Oakland and Mrs. Vernon Predeh and Goldie Leonard, both of Wayne.

Following the election of the nominating committee, reports were given by county residents and a meeting of juniors was held with district III director, Mrs. Bernard Clatanoff.

"Speaking during the morning was Mrs. William H. Hasebroock of West Point who told about her position as chairman of legislation of the Nebraska Federation of Women's Clubs. Also talking were Mrs. Laurence Dillard of Blair, president of the Nebraska Foundation, and Mrs. Paul Aspen of Hastings, state director of juniors.

The afternoon program got underway with organ selections presented by Mrs. Douglas Hankins of Norfolk. Speakers were Mrs. Don Kolterman of Seward, chairman of the Energy Education division of the Conservation Department of the General Federation, Mrs. Eleanor Cross, member of the American Federation Birentennial commission of Lincoln, and Mrs. Floyd Buckley of Bartley who spoke on community improvement project ideas.

Following a skit presented by the Oakland Junior Woman's Club "Kids Will Be Kids," reports were given by district directors.

Featured speaker at the convention was Dr. John Furbay, representative of the General Motors Corporation. Dr. Furbay's speech, "Let's Join the Human Race," focused on people's needs and problems.

Opening the afternoon session was an open forum conducted by Mrs. Eldon Fox. Business resolutions presented by Ruth Ebniser, chairman of the committee, and adopted by the club were to support the requirement of a driver education course for persons under 16 as necessary to obtain a driver's license, and a greater emphasis of driver education courses in the regular school curriculum; greater consumer education in schools; adult education and woman's club programs, and a repeal of the Monday holiday law.

After a report on elections of the nominating committee, the afternoon closed with the retiring of the colors by Cadet Troop 145 followed by a tour of Wayne State College.

The convention ended with a banquet that evening in the college's Student Union Birch Room. Keith Boughn of Norfolk, eighth time winner of the Freedom's Foundation Awards, was banquet speaker. The program, presented by Wayne State Madrigal Singers under the direction of Dr. Cornell Runestad, featured several selections from Beethoven's "Missa Solemnis" Christmas Tradition program.

Honored were the honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, state and district officers and chairmen, past state and district presidents, county presidents, club presidents, special guests and members of the Wayne Woman's Club.

Awards were presented the Shuyler Civic Club which had the largest increase in membership. CONVENTION, page 7

Nebraska Homemakers To Gather in Lincoln

Nebraska homemakers will be in Lincoln Oct. 23 for the annual Home Economics Day, for Homemakers. This year's program, according to Bobbie Sward, acting state leader for extension home economics, will focus on home economics research and extension projects aimed at serving Nebraskans.

Scheduled to speak during the morning session are Dr. Patricia Sailor, associate dean of the NU College of Home Economics, and Dr. John Woodward, chairman of the college's Department of Human Development and the Family. Dr. Sailor will present an overview of current home economics research. Dr. Woodward will be on hand to discuss his ongoing research of loneliness among various age groups, specifically college students.

State Extension specialists will discuss some of the current home economics programs available in Nebraska counties. Elaine Skucius, associate state 4-H leader, will tell of new developments in the 4-H program and of the two new district 4-H camps planned for Nebraska.

Visiting homemakers will have an opportunity to tour the new Home Economics Building on the East Campus during the afternoon and observe home economics classes. Dedication ceremonies for the new facility will be held the following Saturday.

Gail Skinner, extension clothing specialist, will host a panel in the afternoon focusing on career opportunities in home economics. Panel participants are John Wiederspan, counselor for the Lincoln Information Service for the Elderly; Nancy Hickman, dietitian on leave from the State Health Department; Jane Menninga, consumer reporter for the Lincoln Journal newspaper, and Gail Schilling, county extension home economist.

The one day program will get underway at 9:30 a.m. at the Nebraska Center on the NU East Campus. Sessions are open to the public and luncheon tickets will be made available.

WAYNE HIGH'S leading cross-country runner, Ken Daniels (No. 1) closes in on the field of about 34 runners before the conference's top runner, Jon Michelsen of Tekamah Herma (No. 6) nears the end of the two and a half mile course.

Devils Blast Madison

Wayne High displayed a strong balance in its passing and ground attack Friday night to wipe out Madison's hopes of tying the Devils for first place in the West Husker Conference.

Wayne, collecting 111 yards in the air and 284 on the ground, exploded for six touchdowns to blast the Dragons, 39-12, at Madison.

Senior, Marly Hansen, finished with 87 yards in 12 rushes, and sophomore Mark Brandt finished with 65 yards in nine carries.

Both Hansen and Brandt scored twice in the second and third quarters after Hoops put the team on the board with a 10-yard end sweep the first period.

Wayne started its initial scoring drive on the 35-yard line following Madison's kick. With 7:59 left in the quarter, Hoops scored after quarterback Paul Mallette hit Hansen for a 30-yard aerial to put the ball at the 10. Hansen's PAT was good.

Madsen put a quick score into the undefeated Devils (6-0) when Mark Brandt raced 36 yards late in the first period to cut Wayne's lead to 7-6.

Madison took a quick lead in the second period when Mallette's pass was fumbled near the Dragons' 36-yard line on Wayne's next series and a Madison player ran the ball 64 yards for a 12-7 ball game. Both of Madison's PATs failed.

"After those two touchdowns, we had the game in control," Wayne coach Hansen said.

Mallette mixed his passing and ground game to move Wayne into scoring positions in the second period. Hansen scored the second TD on a 15-yard run before Brandt made the score 20-12 at the half on a 19-yard scamper. Hansen's third PAT attempt failed.

Brandt and Hansen stoked Wayne's scoring machine in the third period, crossing the goal on runs of 26 and 10 yards respectively, before defensive back Rob Mitchell scooped up a fumble on Madison's 30 yard line and took it in for the final TD. Hansen made one of three PAT kicks that period.

Wayne's pass defense also showed improvement. Hansen said, limiting Madison to five completions in 15 tries for 64 yards.

Credited with tough defensive play were senior Jack Froehlich with 11 tackles, Mitchell with nine, Hoops with eight and Mike Meyer, Doug Straight and Steve Brandt with seven each.

Fumble Leads To Red Victory

A recovered punt fumble on the Gold's 26-yard line late in the fourth quarter set up the Reds' winning touchdown when quarterback Jere Morris capped the drive in eight plays with a one-yard sneak for an 8-0 victory Thursday night in fifth and sixth grade recreation football.

A 49-yard reverse play by Chip Carr put the Reds in scoring position when the winners were faced with a fourth and three situation. With the ball on the four yard line Brian Flemming blasted to the one before a center infraction made it fourth and one.

"It was a defensive ball game most of the night," said recreation director Hank Overin. Overin tabbed defensive efforts by the Gold's Pat McCright and John Schroeder and the Red's Todd Skokan and Flemming as the players who stopped most of the opposition's scoring drives.

Flemming, playing as line-backer, was so effective blitzing that the Golds had to go to the shotgun offensive formation to move the ball, Overin noted. Morris made several saving tackles that also stopped the Golds from scoring, he added.

The Reds, holding a 10-0 record, need to win Tuesday night to end the series before new teams will be picked. If the Golds win, the teams will go into a playoff, Overin said.

Serving, Hustle Sparks Winside

Serving accuracy and hustle were keys to Winside High's varsity volleyball team winning its fourth game in 12 starts, defeating Hartington High Thursday night at Winside.

Going three games — 15-13, 8-15 and 15-12 — Winside missed only five serves out of 56 for the night, said coach Don Leighton.

"There weren't many spikes because it was team play that won the match," Leighton pointed out, adding his team played a "defensive game Winside hasn't played before."

The B-team, also playing a good match, went two games to drop Hartington's strong reserve club to a 4-2 mark. Winside, now 3-4, won 15-13 and 15-13.

The C team record fell to 2-5 after Winside won the first, 15-13, but dropped the last two, 4-15 and 11-15.

Blues Rip Whites, 36-6

A pair of touchdowns each by Tim Thomas and Jeff Kenny led the Blue team past the Whites, 36-6, in the opening game of sixth seventh eighth grade recreation football Tuesday night.

Thomas scored his first TD in the first half to aid the Blue team to a 14-0 first half lead before he and Kenny combined for three six-pointers in the last half. Keith Turner also scored in the first half. Only three two-point conversions were good.

The White team opened with a 6-0 lead the first period, making the Whites look like the favorites, recreation director Hank Overin said. But with two players hurt and one sick, the White team could not keep up, he added.

Stuart Nissen and Kirk Powers were limited the game. Nissen with four minutes left in the first half when he got a slight head injury — Powers had a 105.67 wind, but was fine after the game. The third player, Kirk Peters — the teams' fastest runner — was sick.

Outstanding offensive players for the White team were Ricky Johnson and quarterback Jeff Dion, Overin said. Top defensive players were linebacker Doug Hummel and Mark McCright.

For the Blue team, Steve Sorensen was tabbed for his offensive plays that gained 20 and 25 yards a crack after the game.

The rest of the schedule: Oct. — 15 Reds vs Blues; 22 Reds vs Whites; 29 Blues vs Whites, Nov. — 5 Blues vs Reds; 12 Whites vs Reds.

Laurel Spikers Drop No. Eight

Pierce High's volleyball team gave Laurel its eighth loss without a win, Thursday night, when the visitors netted 15-9 and 15-11 wins.

"Pierce has a good team," said coach Carol Woodward. "But I thought we gave them a good run for their money." Mrs. Woodward pointed out that senior Julie Watlin played a steady game and junior Julie Hirschman has good set ups.

The B team, however, didn't play as well, as they should have, the coach said. The club lost 15-5 and 15-7 for an 0-5 record. Freshmen Cheryl Abis got credit for her good spiking.

Laurel's C team looked good in its 15-5 first game-win-over-Pierce, but the area club "kind of died out," losing 5-15 and 0-15 to remain winless in three matches, Mrs. Woodward said.

Norfolk Rips Wayne Frosh

Norfolk High's freshman football team crushed Wayne, 46-7, Thursday at Norfolk to drop the freshman record to 1-3.

Brian Haun scored the Devils' only TD when he broke across from the one yard line in the last period, capping a 40-yard drive in nine plays Haun, who had rushes with 83 yards in 23 carries, ripped through the line for an 11 yard gainer to put the ball at the one.

"Our defense couldn't stop them from scoring," said coach Eugene Biemenkamp.

Norfolk took a 25-0 command at the half. Norfolk recovered a Wayne fumble on the 12 yard line and scored the team's second touchdown the first quarter.

Wayne completed five of 12 pas-

ikes to Name Three Directors

Three new board members will be named to the Wayne Isaac Walton League board of directors tonight (Monday) during the club's monthly meeting at 7:30.

Club members will name replacements for Glenn Walker, Norris Weible and Ed Skeahan, who have completed their three-year terms.

Following the meeting, the board will select new officers for the coming year. Ending their terms as officers are president Walker, vice-president Merlon Hillon and treasurer Al Shuffell. Secretary Gary Wiebelhaus has resigned from his office to move to Fort Scott, Kan.

Nips AH Girls

Allen High's A and B volleyball teams suffered defeats to Winnebago Tuesday night.

The varsity, 1-3, went three games to settle its match. Allen lost the first, 12-15, before tying the match with a 15-3 victory.

The Eagles lost a close 14 game. Less Carpenter led Allen servers with 17 points, said coach Steve McManigal.

In the B team game, Winnebago won 15-5 and 15-10 to keep Allen winless in three starts.

Novice HCC Wins Husker Title

Hartington Cedar Catholic's coaching staff isn't having any second thoughts about having a cross country team in the future. After Wednesday's performance the issue is settled — HCC will continue cross country.

For the first time in the school's history, the Trojans sported a team, and the team won the Husker Conference tournament at Wayne.

"Boltstered by a 'bunch of basketball players,'" coach Dale Weinberger picked up the school's first cross country title.

as Dick Uhing paced his team with a fifth-place finish.

But Uhing gave most of the credit for the win to his team's last-place finisher, Bob Neuhalf er, Neuhalf er, the only sophomore on the junior team, was 20 yards from the finish of the two and a half mile course at the local golf course when he fell from exhaustion. But his teammates encouraged him to get up, and he finished 14th — good enough to give the club 33 points and the crown.

Also picking up points for the Trojans were Joel Ankeny and Paul Stevens. Collin Schuller ran but did not place.

Cross country was started at Hartington CC to condition the basketball team, Weinberger pointed out, and now Weinberger is convinced the program will continue.

Hartington CC nudged out second-place Tekamah-Herman by seven points — despite the Tigers' placing two runners among the top six finishers. Brothers Jon and Monte Michelsen ran first and third respectively, with Jon setting a winning time of 13:52. Monte ran a 14:20, two seconds behind second place, Bob Hayes of Emerson-Hubbard.

Tom Moler placed 17th in 15:49. Jon Lay placed 19th in 15:57, and Jeff Backstrom came in 20th in 16:01.

Wayne coach Harold Mclacjewski said he was satisfied with his team's performance, noting that the competition was tough.

Bloomfield's Air Game Stops Laurel

By BOB BARTLETT
Laurel High football coach Bob Bozied knows that game statistics don't always tell the true story about a game, and Friday night's 21-0 loss to highly ranked Bloomfield of the Northeast Nebraska Activity Conference is proof of that.

The Bears stopped Bloomfield for the most part from moving on the ground as they keyed on leading rushers, senior Steve Peters and sophomore Dorrance Atherton. So the Bears were forced to go to the air to score all three touchdowns.

"I have to give a lot of credit to our defensive line for stopping Bloomfield from scoring on the ground," Bozied pointed out after his team lost its fifth game against one win. "I just wish our pass defense would have been better."

Bozied noted that Mike Dalton and Robin Gade led Laurel defenders with 11 and nine tackles. The 145-pounders are the strongest linemen Laurel has, Bozied said.

Bloomfield went to the air on two fourth-down plays in the second and third periods, to take a 14-0 lead. Sophomore quarterback Neal Bloomquist hit junior Steve Willits on 30-yard and nine-yard TD strikes with the two-point try good in the second quarter. Then late in the fourth period Bloomquist passed to sophomore Rick Hagge for a 10-yard touchdown.

Laurel's fumble on its 24-yard line set the stage for Bloomfield's first score. Four plays later Bloomquist found Willits in the endzone for a 6-0 lead. Bloomfield then faked a kick for the extra point and Bloomquist passed for an 8-0 lead.

A pass interference call in the third period rejuvenated Bloomfield's scoring drive when, on a third and 12 play, Laurel senior Sterling Slope was flagged with the call. With the ball on the 16-yard line Bloomfield moved in for the score seven plays later.

Both clubs battled back and fourth across midfield most of the night, with penalties killing Laurel's touchdown hopes in the first half.

Leading rusher Mark Anderson, who had 90 yards in 13 carries, broke open for a 30-yard run in the first period to reach inside Bloomfield's 15-yard line, but a clipping penalty ended that scoring drive.

In the second half, the Bears marched near Bloomfield's 30, only to get hit with several penalties to again halt their scoring hopes.

When Bozied's club was able to sustain a drive through quarterback Brad Erwin's passing, Bloomfield's all state defensive candidate, senior Doug Schmeckpeper, managed to blow through Laurel's line to sack Erwin for big losses. "We tried to double team him," Bozied said, "but you have to give credit where credit is due. Schmeckpeper is a good nose guard, and he's quick."

Laurel had the ball on the Bee's six-yard line in the second period after Erwin's passes of 20 and 16 yards, but Bloomfield's defense forced Laurel to turn the ball over on downs.

Ruling Expected Today on WS Player

Wayne State athletic director LeRoy Simpson said he expects the college to forfeit its football game with William Penn of Oskatoosa, Ia., but he hopes to know more following the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' (NAIA) ruling today (Monday).

Simpson, speaking at Thursday's "Senior Guessers" luncheon said the college and staff were aware sophomore line backer John McKay was a transfer student but in the confusion of the opening game forgot McKay only had 15 of the required 18 weeks class attendance completed. As a result, McKay was ineligible to play in the Penn game, according to Simpson.

The NAIA investigation arose after William Penn asked Wayne State to check on the athlete in question. Wayne State, after conducting the inquiry, notified the district NAIA chairman, district eligibility chairman and the NAIA national office in Kansas City of the violation. Simpson said Simpson, referring to an article in a Lincoln newspaper last week, said he knew about the ineligible complaint a week earlier but did not mention it because he was unsure how the NAIA might rule in the case.

As far as McKay's eligibility, Simpson pointed out that McKay has two choices sit out the remainder of this year in sports or play the rest of this year and lose two years of eligibility.

McKay, of Knoxville, Ia., previously attended Centerville (Ia.) Junior College and Simpson (Ia.) College.

Winside Halts Strong Class D Ponca, 14-6

Winside High, scoring on a 77-yard romp by Dwight Lienemann and an eight-yard blast by Gregg Lage after Mike Anderson's interception, turned back a strong Ponca team, 14-6, Friday night to remain undefeated in six games.

Lienemann's romp put the Wildcats in front, 6-0, with 9:19 left in the second period before Anderson converted the first of two PATs for a 7-0 lead.

But Ponca came back on Winside's next series of downs to shave the lead to one when the Indians blocked a Wildcat punt at the 36-yard line and recovered it at the six. Ponca's leading rusher, Bob Curry, bottled in from the two-yard line with just under five minutes in the half for a 7-6 game. The PAT failed.

"We underestimated Ponca," coach Doug Barclay admitted after the 10th-ranked Class D team nearly broke the game open in the first period.

Curry scrambled 30 yards in the opening period for a touchdown only to have it called back on a penalty. Later that period, Tyler Frevert intercepted the first of two thefts to halt Ponca's drive within Winside's 30.

Barclay pointed out that Frevert's interceptions in the first and fourth periods helped preserve Winside's unbeaten string.

Winside finally found some breathing room with about 45 seconds left in the third frame. Anderson intercepted a Ponca aerial at the 10-yard line and raced seven yards to Ponca's three. Two plays later Lage scored after an offside penalty put the ball at the eight.

The Indians, who only had the ball for eight plays in the fourth period, mounted a drive late in the quarter and moved to Winside's 27 where Brian Wade recovered a fumble. Winside started a drive of its own, going to Ponca's 14 only to have the Indians steal Frevert's pass.

Lienemann had 93 yards in eight carries, to lead rushers with an 11.7 yard average per rush. Lage was second, carrying the ball 16 times for 57 yards while Brad Brummels had 41 yards in nine tries.

Defensively, senior Bob Hoffman had 13 tackles, nine of them unassisted. Brummels and Neil Wagner were next with 10 each.

Snyder Leads Allen Over Newcastle, 13-10

Allen High halfback Paul Snyder raced for 83 yards and scored one of two Eagle touchdowns to lead his team over Newcastle, 13-10, Friday night at Newcastle.

Snyder collected 55 yards in the Eagles' 75-yard scoring drive the first time Allen had the ball. Following Newcastle's kickoff, Allen marched from its 25-yard line to paydirt in 12 plays, with Snyder scoring from two yards out. Loren Book converted his only PAT to give the visitors a 7-0 command.

This was the first night Snyder played as a halfback, coach Ron Wrecker pointed out after his club notched its second win in six starts. Snyder was the starting quarterback until a leg injury in the Wakefield game forced Wrecker to call on junior Jeff Creamer to take the reins. "Jeff's been coming along, he should be better with more experience," Wrecker said.

Creamer proved himself under fire against Newcastle, guiding Allen to its first score, then rallying his squad in the third period with a 65-yard march for the Eagles second TD after Newcastle pulled ahead, 10-7.

Senior backs Rick Chase and Steve Shortt plowed through the middle. Shortt who had 68 yards rushing, set up the six-pointer on a 35-yard gallop to Newcastle's one-foot line where Creamer dove over for the go-ahead score.

Newcastle whittled Allen's lead in the second period when the Red Raiders downed a bad Allen punt on the Eagles' 45. Quarterback Scott Miller then rifled a 40-yard pass to Rod Finnegan before John Harding bulled over from the two-yard line. Miller booted the ball for a 7-7 ball game.

Newcastle capitalized on Allen's unsuccessful first down attempt on a fourth and two situation at Allen's 25 that same period. With 21 seconds left the half Miller kicked a field goal to put his club ahead, 10-7.

Allen's defense got another stiff test, Wrecker pointed out, but the unit held Newcastle twice when it was in scoring position.

Newcastle had the ball on Allen's 28-yard line in the first period when the hosts were forced to give up the ball after failing to convert a fourth and two into a first down. The defense lined up an excellent job. Wrecker said, adding that the team's leading tackler, senior Don Kløver, had 14 stops for the night.

In the third period, Newcastle attempted a field goal from Allen's 38, again after the defense stopped the home team.

"Our defense just stiffened up," the Allen coach noted.

Besides Kløver, Doug Smith, Rick Chase, Loren Book and Brad Chase did a good job of stopping Newcastle from scoring. Book especially did a good job, knocking down two Newcastle passes in the endzone, Wrecker said.

Wayne Girls Take Three

Wayne High's volleyball teams went two games in each of three matches to beat Wisner-Pilger Thursday night in the locals' final home contest of the season.

The varsity, boasting a 6-1 mark, whipped the visitors 15-2 and 15-10 with the aid of good team playing from juniors Mary Kovensky, Susan Jacobemer and Kris Nedergaard, said coach Mavis Dalton. Nedergaard and especially did well serving, the coach added.

Wayne's reserves, also 6-1, won a pair of 15-13 games. Sophomore Julia Queen played a good game. Mrs. Dalton pointed out, with good bumps, setups and spikes.

In freshmen action, Wayne captured its fifth win against two losses, winning 15-10 and 15-7. Lori Johnson served 16 serve points to lead her team.

Brandt Attends CHEANN Meet

Dr. Irv Brandt, Wayne State College staff member, was one of the board members present for the initial meeting of the board of the Community Health Education Association of Northeast Nebraska (CHEANN) at Columbus recently.

"As their major item of business, the board voted to continue to move forward on implementing CHEANN as a needed community health service agency."

Other business included approval of a workshop to be held in November on "Sexual Needs of the Aged" and naming of a committee to plan a workshop on management techniques.

Expected to take place to help raise money for the fund drive is a tug-of-war between members of the local Lions Club and the Kiwanis Club. Heavies from the Lions Club won last year's tug-of-war, the first such event held to boost the Community Chest.

Members of the board of directors noted that rural families, especially those whose children participate in city recreation programs, are invited to make donations to this year's drive.

Children of rural families around Wayne are eligible to participate in recreation programs for a fee of $10. The $10 fee, which helps pay for supplies, equipment and the like, enables a youth to participate in a whole year's activities.

DeBorde emphasized that special education depends mainly on the cost and if the budget can afford it. Brownell added that adequate special education depends on having enough teachers for every child.

On the subject of discipline, all pointed out that the parent must stand behind the teacher if discipline is to be carried out.

Prior to the session, candidates for county supervisors on the Dixon county board were introduced. They are Republican Merle VonMinden, and Democrat Dale Furness, both of Allen. Both men, who have served on various boards, pointed out the need for better roads in the area.

Cool Weather Doesn't Hamper Parade

COLD TEMPERATURES didn't keep bandsmen, float drivers and costumed characters from going ahead with their parade Saturday morning, one of the last big events on the Wayne State Wildcat Days schedule. And it didn't keep people—especially kids—from turning out to watch the parade travel from First Street to the college campus. However, some of the spectators huddled inside stores along Main to keep out of the nippy 40 degree fall weather. Getting ready to lead Wayne High's band in the parade are banner carriers Ann Fredrickson, left, and Steve Bodenstedt, bundled up warmly in a winter coat is queen Cindy Haase of Denmark, Ia., as she waits to get on her float, menacing spectators is Joe Manley, of Wayne, dressed up like a wolf man.

Local Resident Campaign Head

Paul Douglas, Republican candidate for Nebraska attorney general, has announced that former Nebraska Governor Val Peterson of Wayne is serving as campaign chairman in Wayne County.

Douglas, Lancaster County attorney for the past 14 years, is making his first bid for statewide elective office.

He announced that his campaign is mobilized statewide with organizations set up in 70 of the state's 93 counties.

Douglas cited implementation of state consumer protection and anti-trust laws, improvement of crime prevention information and state-level assistance to county attorneys upon request as key issues in the campaign.

"Given the opportunity to serve as Nebraska Attorney General," Douglas said, "I would intend to be actively involved in the courts and in the prosecution of cases, and not be merely an administrator." He said he views the attorney general race, his first bid for statewide elective office, as a continuation of his legal career.

Meeting

accepted a banking position in Manning, Ia.

Also to be discussed is the community attitude survey which will be conducted in and around Wayne in several weeks. Officials of the Department of Economic Development in Lincoln are currently drawing up the questionnaire which will be distributed for people to fill out.

Chamber members also will discuss the annual banquet tentatively scheduled for Jan. 27. Dean Pierson is general chairman for that event.

Alive

skits for the coronation program.

Queen Cindy is a junior, majoring in art, member of the madrigal singers and concert choir, a twirler with the marching band, member of Chi Omega sorority, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Haase, Denison, Ia.

Thursday night the action moved down town, for a street dance, something new for homecoming. It was a blast. Students by hundreds—hard to count as they moved around—turned out to dance, and what did they dance? The polka.

Obviously the Wayne State stage band had come prepared. It played nearly three hours of polkas.

Friday there was competition. The Greek Olympics gave fraternities and sororities their annual chance to match skills in such endeavors as pyramid building, the egg toss, sack race, tug of war and such. Soemthing over a thousand turned out for the Olympics in the Willow Bowl. In the end they cheered the Phi-Mu champion of sorority events and Tau Kappa Epsilon, fraternity winner.

As a result, Phi Mu could proclaim Deb Longe as Helen of Troy while the Takes honored Craig Hellwege as Alexander. Each Creek unit had selected one member as a candidate for these honors.

From the Olympics, the crowd moved to Rice Auditorium to laugh at freshman skits. Here again there was competition, and a panel of judges decided Berry Hall performed the best skit.

A bonfire pep rally finished off Friday's schedule.

So far, weather had smiled on Wildcat Days. Saturday morning was something else—under chilly, cloudy, windy conditions for the parade, a revival of an old homecoming custom, dormant eight years.

Diane Lindsay

Funeral services were held Thursday at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Wayne, for Diane Marie Lindsay, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lindsay of Wayne. She was born Oct. 7 at Wakefield and died the same day.

Father Tom McDermott officiated and honorary pallbearers were Jeffrey Loberg, Dennis Brugger, Terry Brugger and Ervin Brugger. Burial was in Greenwood Cemetery.

Survivors include her parents, two brothers, Alan and Daryl, one sister, Brenda, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walden Brugger of Winside and Clifford Lindsay of Randolph.

Group Seeking Queen Hopefuls

The Northeast Pork Producers Association again this year is sponsoring its Pork Queen contest.

Any girl between the ages of 16 through 19 may enter the contest if she lives on a farm in Wayne, Dixon, Dakota, Cedar or Thurston County on which pork is raised or is the daughter of parents now actively engaged in pork production.

There will be a $25 cash prize given to the winner, to be named Nov. 10. The winner will also compete in the state contest next year.

Girls interested should contact Mrs. Rodney Bonderson of rural Emerson, for an entry form and list of rules. Deadline for entering is November 1.

Villa Wayne Tenant Club met Tuesday with 23 present. Mrs. Rose Heithold was a guest, and Edna Creamer and Mrs. Emma Franzen served. On Wednesday morning the Bible study group met.

Monta Bomar's daughter and her husband from Washington State have been visiting in the area for the past two weeks.

The club plans to have a Halloween party. The Halloween committee is to meet Monday (tonight) at 7 p.m. at the community room at Villa Wayne.

Fire Cause Unknown

The cause of a house fire two weeks ago that badly damaged the ground floor of a two-story building will go unknown, said fire chief Cliff Pinkelman.

Pinkelman said state fire marshalls examining the house at 414 Walnut could not find a cause for the smoldering fire that apparently started in the basement. The house, being remodeled, belongs to Robert Frey.

Friday afternoon about 2 o'clock the Wayne department quickly extinguished a small grass fire about four miles south and a quarter mile east of Wayne.

Victims of the system?

In some circles, it's "in" to be down on the system. After years of thought and action we still believe that the system is a good one—that it works for your good.

We're referring to our economic system that runs on profit—the system that has provided America with the highest standard of living in the world by far. (Four out of 5 families own TV sets,

3 out of 5 own their homes, and 1 out of 3 own 2 or more cars.)

We've lived with this truth so long it has become trite. Some people just take for granted the system that has put men on the moon. Some seem bored by abundance. Others are attacking the profit system with false arguments. Our system isn't perfect. It does have its faults. But it deserves to be judged on its record.

In a nationwide public opinion poll, a majority of people interviewed said they believe that business profits average 28% of sales after taxes. They are wrong. The fact is that over the past 20 years profits have averaged about 5% on sales—or 5 cents on a dollar.

We all profit from profits.

Mrs. K. Olson is Program Leader

Friendship Women's Christian Temperance Union met Tuesday afternoon at the Dixon Methodist Church. Mrs. Kenneth Olson was program leader and gave devotions.

Mrs. Olson read the department articles on home protection, education and legislation with members also taking part in the program.

Members voted to give a monetary gift to help buy literature to be distributed at the District Teachers' Convention Oct. 24 and 25 at Wayne State College.

The group discussed legislation bills.

Mrs. Oliver Noe and Mrs.

Allen Prescott served refreshments.

The Nov. 12 meeting will be at Concordia Lutheran Church, Concord, with Mrs. Arvid Peterson, program leader.

12 Meet Monday

Three C's Home Extension Club met Monday evening with Mrs. Detlov Lindquist, hostess. Twelve members answered roll call with a book they had read this summer.

Mrs. Roy Hanson and Mrs. Fred Opegaard gave the lesson on "The Many Faces of Vegetables." They had also made some of the new recipes for members to taste.

Concord News

Mrs. Roy Hanson and Mrs. Clifford Lindgren received the two hostess gifts.

Recognition of the club's tenth anniversary will be held at the November meeting with Mrs. Glen Magnuson, hostess. Charter and former members will be invited to attend.

Honor Host

Guests in the Arthur Johnson home Wednesday evening honoring the host's birthday were the Evert, Marlen and Dwight Johnson families, the Jim Nelson, the Oscar Johnsons, the Arvid Petersons, the George, Glen and Melvin Magnusons, the W. E. Hansons and Tommy Magnuson.

Bon Tempo Bridge

Bon Tempo Bridge Club met Wednesday evening with Marge Rastvede, hostess. Helen Pearson and Ann Meyers won high score. The Oct. 23 hostess is Agnes Serven.

Birthday Guests

Birthday guests in the Roy Hanson home Tuesday evening honoring Monica were the Bob Hansons, Big Timber, Mont, the Dick Hansons, and Mrs. W. E. Hanson and Jill.

Society Meets at Concord

The Northeast Nebraska District Womens Mission Society met at the Evangelical Free Church of Concord Oct. 8 with a noon luncheon being served by the host church.

Presiding at the afternoon meeting was Mrs. Dennis Kment of Stanton, president of the northeast district. Local president Mrs. Kenneth Kardell, had scripture and offered prayer.

A report on the retreat held at Polk Camp in September was given by Mrs. John Walters of Stanton. An offering was taken for the camp.

Mrs. Wilmer Benstead of Allen sang "I Ack the Lord" and Pastor Detlov Lindquist of Concord gave the devotional entitled "What is Your Gift?"

The Robert Andersons and Lorie spent Oct. 4 to Oct. 7 in the Donald Anderson home, Rapid City, S. D.

The Glen Magnusons spent Tuesday in Omaha, where Mrs. Magnuson attended a church meeting. They also visited in the Veldon Magnuson home. The Arlen Magnusons and Tommy of Chambers, were Tuesday overnight guests in the Glen Magnuson home. Tommy's spending a few days with his grandparents while Arlen Magnusons went to Omaha for the weekend.

The John Puhmans and Jonathan, Cushing, Ia., spent the weekend in the Dwight Johnson home. The Gene Quists and Jeremy joined them Sunday afternoon.

A new 1,200 foot television tower is among the structures helping East Berlin shake off a reputation for architectural drabness. National Geographic says in the current Western tradition, the tower has a rotating restaurant near the top.

Digging Footings

TRENCH WORK for laying the foundation of Concord's new addition to its fire department building began last week. According to Duane Harder, village chairman, construction is scheduled this fall; with inside work and additions to be completed during winter. The 40 x 40-foot structure will include a kitchen, meeting area and parking space for trucks and equipment. Working on the project are Keith Fiscus of Coleridge, left, and Harder, who is in charge of the construction.

Close to the Finish

DIXON BOARD chairman John Young and his 10 year old son, Chip, nail bracings for the roof over the new addition to the village's auditorium. The work, under the supervision of Duane Harder, started about two weeks ago when a group of village residents helped lay the foundation. Plans are to have the outside construction finished in the next week or two, Young said.

On June 7, 1892, John Doyle of the Cleveland Spiders became baseball's first pinch hitter. (He hit a single.)

Allen Board Hires 2 Men

The Allen village board has hired Dixon County sheriff Dean Chase and LeRoy Roberts as the town's new law enforcement officer and maintenance man, said chairman Ken Linafelter.

Chase takes over for Jack Mitchell, who retired Oct. 1. He will be paid $100 a month. Roberts, replacing Ed Asbra, will get $3 per hour with a guaranteed 30-hour work week.

Linafelter said the board decided to release Asbra "due to additional amount of work brought on by the Environmental Pollution Agency standards." The board felt it could not pay him for the time he was putting in since Asbra is limited to the amount he can make while on social security. Linafelter added.

Asbra has worked as city maintenance man for about a year. Mitchell has been town marshal since 1967.

During the village meeting Monday night the board appointed Roberts and board member Jerry Schroeder to secure prices for a tractor. The members will meet Oct. 14th to study the prices.

Also, the board decided to turn over delinquent sewer and water use fees and hookup charges to village attorney Craig Monson.
