A DRIPPINGLY DEFEATED B. J. Hirt walks away from the tug of war after he unsuccessfully led his Lions Club in a test of pull against the Kiwanis Club Thursday night. Spraying water between the two teams is LaVerle "Curly" McDonald as Kiwanis members pull the Lions into the stream. The next time, however, the Kiwanis' lead puller, Vern Fairchild, quickly lost his cigar as his team got doused. The Kiwanians won two out of three pulls, redeeming themselves after losing last year's test. Other pictures, page 10.

Lions Get Doused in 2nd Tug-of-War

A bunch of very confident Lions from Wayne got very wet Thursday night, losing two out of three tug of war battles with local Kiwanians.

Some of the victorious Kiwanians even said they let the Lions win the second contest after the losers started pulling before the signal.

"There was just no contest," said one of the winners who requested to remain anonymous. "We could have won 100 times if they would have wanted to keep pulling," he quipped.

The losing Lions might argue that point, however. Several of them said they were immediately at a disadvantage because their feet got wet early in the pulling contest in front of the fire department building on Pearl Street.

The victory which will force the local Lions to fork over $50 to the Local Community Chest fund drive — was sweet revenge for the Kiwanians, sound losers in last year's initial tug of war.

That $50 helps boost the total in the fund drive to nearly $9,000.

Total collected by Friday evening was $8,835, reports fund drive secretary Vera Hummel. Goal in this year's drive is $11,450.

Drive chairman Ernie Thayer has urged workers and captains to turn over all the donations they have collected as soon as possible.

"We are almost to our goal, and a little more effort by volunteers will let us reach it," he said.

Funds collected in this year's drive will be distributed to nine different agencies. They are the local recreation program, the city's Senior Citizens Center, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, Florence

Drivers, Passenger, Helper Hospitalized After 2-Vehicle Crash

A Wayne man, Cecil Wriedt, 62, was listed in good condition at Wayne Hospital Friday following a two-vehicle accident northeast of Wakefield late Thursday afternoon.

Two other persons injured in the accident, Rose Ekeroth, 61, of Wakefield and her brother, Milton Ekeroth, 48, of Laredo, Tex., were hospitalized at Wakefield with minor injuries.

A third person, A. D. Brown of Wakefield, received minor injuries when a Wakefield fire truck rolled into the ditch and over him while volunteer firemen were attempting to extinguish the fire which started in Wriedt's pickup after the crash. He also was hospitalized at Wakefield.

All three persons hospitalized at Wakefield were reported in good condition Friday.

Wriedt suffered a broken hip in the mishap, which happened about 5 p.m. two miles north and two miles east of Wakefield on Highway 35. He was alone in his vehicle when the accident took place.

The investigating officer, state patrolman Bill Watson of Wayne, said the accident apparently happened when Wriedt drove onto the shoulder of the highway as he was headed west and then pulled back onto the highway. The Wakefield woman, traveling east, slammed on her brakes and skidded into Wriedt's lane where the vehicles collided head-on, Watson said.

Brown, who is an ex-fireman at Wakefield, was spraying water on Wriedt's vehicle when the parked fire truck began rolling down the shoulder of the road and struck him, Watson reported.

Wriedt's pickup received extensive damages in the wreck and fire, and the Ekeroth car, a 1974 model with about 1,900 miles on the odometer, received extensive front-end damage, according to Watson.

Homes, Hunting Needed For Medical Students

Wayne area residents who would be willing to have medical students as guests in their homes in the opening weekend of the season are asked to contact either the Chamber of Commerce office or Rowan Wittse in Wayne.

Also being sought are farmers in the area who would be willing to let the future doctors hunt on their property that weekend. They also should call either the Chamber office or Wittse.

Local and area residents who would be able to hunt with the medical students also are needed, he noted.

Letters were sent Friday to the medical schools of Creighton University and the University of Nebraska, inviting medical students and their wives to the Wayne area to hunt when pheasant season opens on Nov. 2.

"Now we need to know what families would welcome the students and their wives as guests in their homes and what farmers would let them hunt on their farms," said Wittse.

The invitation to the medical students will give those who come to Wayne an opportunity to see what the community has to offer, said Wittse. They likely will be given a tour of the new hospital under construction on the northeast edge of the city, he noted, and there probably will be separate activities for their wives.

Hopefully, some of the medical students will like the community and will decide to move here to set up practice after they graduate, Wittse said.

Public Meeting Scheduled At Wayne High on LB 772

The public is invited to a meeting at Wayne High School next week to hear an explanation of the state aid to public schools issue which will be voted on in the November general election.

The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. next Monday, Oct. 28, at the high school lecture hall.

Wayne Carroll superintendent Francis Haun said the meeting is a good opportunity for people who are confused or uninformed about the issue to ask questions.

Conducting the program will be Larry Vontz, an official with the State Department of Education in Lincoln. Expected to help with the program is M. L. Christensen, also with the state education department.

The question of increased state aid to public schools across the state has been a controversial subject ever since the legislature voted earlier this year to override Gov. J. J. Exon's veto of the bill boosting that aid.

That override spawned a state wide petition campaign by opponents of the bill, LB 772. The campaign succeeded in obtaining enough signatures to force placing the issue before the voters in the Nov. 5th general election.

Some 37,000 signatures were obtained in that drive, more than 150 of them coming from Wayne County.

And that petition campaign spawned an effort by the Nebraska State School Boards Association (NSSBA) to keep the issue off the ballot.

The association, arguing that it is the legislature's duty and not the general public's duty to determine the amount of state aid to public schools, is now awaiting the State Supreme Court's ruling on whether the issue should be placed before the voters. A lower court has already held that it is proper for the voters to decide the issue.

The state's high court is scheduled to meet next Monday, the same day as the public meeting in Wayne, to try to decide whether to uphold or overrule the lower court.

The petition campaign also spawned resolutions and statements from school boards who favor retaining LB 772. The Wayne-Carroll school board has gone on record twice in recent months as favoring the law and urging voters to support it in the general election next month.

LB 772 is designed to shift about 50 per cent of the state wide cost of education in public schools from local property tax to the state sales tax and income tax.

State officials have estimated that a one per cent hike in the state sales tax — currently 2.5 per cent — and a four per cent hike in the state income tax — currently 11 per cent — would be necessary to fund the bill.

If LB 772 is retained, it will mean that state aid to public schools will grow from its present $55 million a year to some $144 million when it is fully implemented two years from now.

Revenue from the increased sales tax and income tax would be pumped back into school districts, permitting many of those districts to lower their mill levies.

Proponents of the bill say that too much weight is currently put on property tax in supporting public schools. They argue that sales and income taxes are fairer than the property tax.

Opponents of the bill argue that many school districts will not see a lowering of their mill levies and that some school districts would receive much more tax relief than others.

Pork Banquet Set for Emerson

The Northeast Pork Producers annual awards banquet will be held Sunday, Nov. 10, in the Sacred Heart Auditorium in Emerson. Starting time is 7 p.m.

Over 20 awards will be presented to 4-H members, producers and industry representatives during the banquet.

The 1975 Northeast Pork Queen contest will be held Nov. 10 also, with the queen being announced during the banquet.

Rodney Bonderson of Emerson, president of the Northeast Pork Producers Association suggested that all pork producers, pork industry associates and pork lovers come to the banquet and support an industry that plays a vital role in the economy of the area.

Taxpayers Get Questions Answered

About 50 Wayne County taxpayers got some of their questions answered about property tax equalization during Thursday night's meeting in the city auditorium at Wayne.

Giving them those answers was Joe Vick, administrator of the property tax division of the state revenue department.

Noting that property tax is a fair tax if properly handled, Vick told the group that all property values in Wayne County will be equalized by Jan. 1, 1977. The deadline established by the state to reevaluate all property in the state.

He pointed out that all property in the state will be reevaluated by that date, marking the first time in the state's history that a uniform system of evaluating property has been applied across the state.

Vick emphasized that the efforts by county assessor Doris Slipp and her staff to equalize property valuations inside the county borders does not necessarily mean that taxes will go up. Taxes could go down if property is appraised at less value than it is currently listed at, he said.

He also emphasized that the constant equalization of property in the county after 1977 will be fairer to property owners than the old method where property values were equalized about every 10 years.

That constant equalization will be done by a person employed by Wayne County and possibly by one other county since there are not enough pieces of property in Wayne County to keep one person employed fulltime, he said.

Vick noted that there are inequalities in all taxes, but he said that "property tax is a far better fiscal instrument than critics say it is."

"Property tax is the only tax that is locally collected, locally spent and locally administered," he said.

JOE VICK, administrator of the property tax division of the state revenue department, answers questions about equalization of property valuations during Thursday night's public meeting in Wayne.

State Department Dissent Is Organized

Contrary to popular opinion, the State Department of the United States is not a monolith, not just a building. It is people, deeply concerned about difficult, vexing problems. And because of this, dissent has come to the State Department.

If this sounds as if the department is torn with dissent — not so, says an official who helped organized the mechanism of dissent, a young woman who spoke at Wayne State College Thursday and Friday.

She is Sandra Vogelgesang, a State Department employee since 1967, now with its Bureau of European Affairs.

Not only is there a legitimate channel of dissent, it has the blessing of Secretary Henry Kissinger, Miss Vogelgesang said.

Several years ago she was among several employees who believe the varied opinions of State personnel needed more adequate hearing, and they worked to create what they call "a channel of dissent."

Now it is in operation under this rule: any employee who feels he or she has not been able to get differing opinions aired may write directed to the secretary. And the secretary must answer within two weeks.

It's working, said Miss Vogelgesang, who now serves as chairperson of the dissent procedure. She said officials of foreign ministries in other nations are amazed that such a thing can exist — "I do not know of any other nation where it does," she added.

Besides the channel of dissent to the secretary, Miss Vogelgesang said, there now is an inter-office journal of opinion that is classified open to all State employees with something to write. The journal circulates to State personnel all over the world.

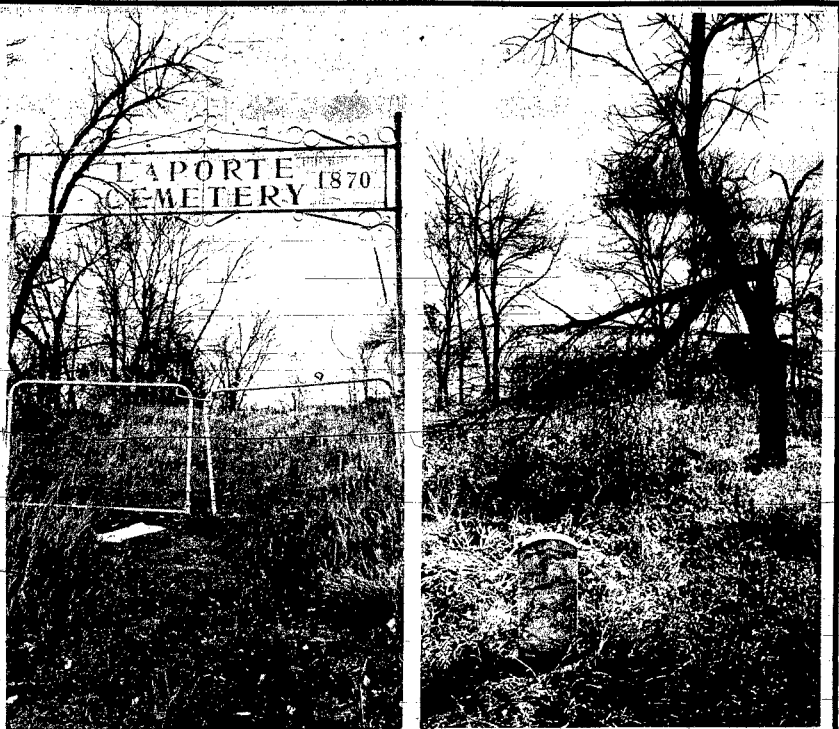

In another appearance, Miss Vogelgesang shared a forum discussion on "Intelligence Communities" with former Ambassador Val Peterson and former foreign service officer Norman Nordstrand, both now on the Wayne State faculty. Dr. Charles Heppner and Allen O'Donnell of the WSC social science faculty, and two students, Sandra Nash and Terry Sullivan.

Miss Vogelgesang expressed concern with some operations of the Central Intelligence Agency which interfered with internal matters of other nations. The intelligence gathering purpose of CIA is necessary, she said, but not its covert meddling abroad, which she called out of character with American ideals.

Peterson took a similar view, but he said that in world conditions as they are, there is no alternative to intelligence operations — "We know other nations do it, and always have." He added, however, that the CIA should stay clear of interference unless U.S. security is in serious danger.

Nordstrand recalled his own experience with Russian spies during his duty in Scandinavia and declared, "We need the CIA, but under control."

Miss Vogelgesang said the CIA has many achievements to its credit. She cited particularly its role in the Pentagon Papers case, but in her opinion the CIA did not come off so well in Watergate events.

Historical cemetery looks pretty shabby

ALTHOUGH the LaPorte Cemetery southeast of Wayne is more than 100 years old and is one of the true landmarks in Wayne County, there seems to be a growing lack of concern about its upkeep. This may be partly responsible for the occasional disrespect shown toward the graves and tombstones located in the cemetery. A few days ago somebody picked up one of those tombstones and tossed it near the gate. The cemetery is in an unsightly, rundown condition even though there have been efforts in recent months to clean up the trash, knock down the weeds and carry away old branches. Those efforts are commendable, especially when they involve youngsters like those from the middle school in Wayne who worked at the cemetery last spring. But those efforts are not getting the job done. Maybe it is time for all county residents to share the responsibility of seeing to it that the landmark does not deteriorate even more. One way that could be done is for the county to allocate money for its upkeep as provided in a state law. Tied with volunteer help, that money might be just the thing to make the cemetery into something the county could be proud of. And that might put an end to the occasional acts of vandalism.

OBSERVATIONS

Just jogging around

My deadline has crept up and past, so this issue I'm going to do no more than some editorial jogging, looking at things as they go by.

—Noted with interest that the West Point volunteer fire department received much of the credit for helping put out an elevator fire in Bancroft recently. The reason was the department's aerial ladder which was extended to its full 45 feet to enable firemen to pour water on flames at the top of the structure. Fighting fires in elevators and other tall structures in the city was one of the reasons cited by local firemen when they recently asked the council to take steps to buy a truck and aerial equipment. When you start thinking about it, there are many tall buildings in Wayne which would pose difficult problems for firemen if they ever caught on fire. In a couple years, after the firemen have the equipment the council agreed to take bids on, those buildings shouldn't give firemen quite as many nightmares.

—People are really funny. An undercurrent in discussion during Thursday night's meeting on equalization of property values in the county was the complaint about high taxes. As the speaker noted, people should be taking that complaint to budget hearings held by local and county boards which have control over how much money from taxes is being spent. I've attended a lot of budget hearings, but seldom do you see the complainers there. Even more seldom do you see them at regular meetings when they could be voicing opinions about how local tax money is being used. They apparently would rather do their carping over cups of coffee at the local cafe.

—Am happy to see that some of those bird droppings at the corner of Second and Pearl Streets have been cleaned up. Now that the leaves are nearly gone from those trees, maybe many of those birds will go elsewhere and the elements can return the natural smell to the area. Let's hope the birds get fouled up next year and forget that some of their favorite nesting areas are located in Wayne. If not, let's try to do a little better housekeeping for them.

'Public meeting is in order for LB 772'

Dear Editor:

The voters of Nebraska have probably never been faced with a decision as broad in range or as costly in dollars and cents as the state aid to education bill, LB 772, which was narrowly passed during the last legislative session.

There are several special interest groups making public statements and figures trying to persuade the vote of the people.

In order to make the best decision, each voter must take the time to become informed of both the pros and cons. The voters must know not only what to expect to receive under LB 772 in their schools but also what it will cost both at present and in the future.

Then there is the problem of reading and studying carefully the wording on the ballot so we know which box to check if we are for LB 772 as it now is and which box to check if we are against LB 772 as it now is.

It surely would be in order for all the community organizations to join forces and arrange for a time and location and invite both Senators Ramey Whitney, who led the research in opposition to LB 772, and Jerome Warner, who sponsored the bill, to Wayne to give us their best information side by side and encourage people to attend so every voter could hear and see firsthand what Nebraska is involved in.

We will live a long time with the decision we make on LB 772 on Nov. 5th.

—Mrs. Frederick Mann.

'Is Congress digging a hole in the sand on inflation?'

When two herring gulls with adjoining nesting areas get into a dispute, they are likely to wind up confronting each other at their mutual borderline, settling with rage but inhibited from direct combat.

To attack, one would have to cross into the other's territory. That is unpalatable. So, on the other hand, is retreat in the face of a threat at the border. But all that pent-up energy must be spent somehow.

What happens? The two gulls begin furiously tearing up grass. This is known as "displacement activity." It is seen throughout the animal kingdom. In similar circumstances, the three-spined stickleback "fish" will stand on its head and dig a hole in the sand; a roe deer buck will attack a convenient tree.

This behavior is described in Robert Ardrey's fascinating book, "The Territorial Imperative." In it, Ardrey draws parallels — some scientists say too many — between certain instinctive forms of animal behavior and our own.

Once you get started, this game of drawing parallels is irresistible. Congress, for example, appears about ready to engage in "displacement activity" with respect to fighting inflation.

The congressmen are confronted with a classic case of a challenge that cannot be met and cannot be ducked. If they cut spending and tolerate temporarily high interest rates to control inflation, they will "offend" many separate interest groups. And if they don't do these things, inflation will continue, and the general public will be angry.

Since the congressman must do something that finds either of the two options equally undesirable, displacement theory suggests that he will seek a third alternative.

And that's just what's happening. Fighting inflation is unpopular and difficult. But fighting a recession is popular and easy. Therefore, more and more senators and congressmen are beginning to "see" recession as our major national problem. Less is heard about inflation.

Unfortunately, the classic medicine for fighting a recession — federal budget deficits; easy money; stimulation of demand — has a nasty side effect: It worsens inflation.

As I have said time and again, there is no easy way to fight inflation. Inflation is an outgrowth of the nearly universal human urge to get something for nothing.

Here in America, we have learned to rationalize that impulse by telling ourselves that the government has an unlimited supply of the "something" and that the nobility of our particular goal, or the gravity of our particular peril, justifies the expenditure.

But justifying an expenditure is not the same thing as creating the resources to pay it.

For years, we have tricked ourselves into believing that we really were getting something for nothing. Now, the bills for that binge are coming due.

If we want to end inflation, the federal budget must be balanced and credit will remain tight until it is: both business activity and employment will decline. The economy will remain sluggish as inflation winds down, until the growth of the money supply is again in balance with the growth in our output of goods and services and until our inflationary expectations have subsided — perhaps two or three years. Then we will have earned a return to prosperity.

Otherwise, you'd better brace for increasing inflation. And when you see any members of your congressional delegation during the campaign this fall, be sure to notice if they're standing on their heads and digging a hole in the sand.

A LOT of couples would do headstands if they were lucky enough to have twins.

The Gary Longes of rural Wayne now have two sets of twins, the latest set being born at Wayne Hospital Wednesday afternoon. That makes the family pretty unusual, since about the only other area family with two sets of twins is the Leonard Roberts of rural Wakefield.

Mary Longe gave birth to two boys Wednesday to give the male population in the family a little more say Robert Allen, born first, weighed seven pounds and 11 ounces; Gary Allen weighed seven pounds and one ounce. Physician was Dr. Walter Bentback.

Nearing their seventh birthday are Lisa Ann and Cathy Ann, who were also born at the local hospital. Physician then was Dr. Robert Bentback, son of Dr. Walter.

The rural couple also has one other son, nine-year old Joe Patrick.

Grandparents of the new twins are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Longe of Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lewis of North Sioux, S. D.

Hospital workers said they can think of no other family in the Wayne area with two sets of twins except for the Leonard Roberts. Anybody else know of some other lucky family in the area?

HAVE to pass along some of the latest gobbledegook I've run across. Among the ruminations of the English language: "Environmental threshold assessment" for a study of what the abandonment of the railroad line between Wayne and Dakota City would do to this area of the state. Sounds like something a science fiction writer would come up with.

"Needs were prioritized" for listing things according to their importance. Maybe when you "prioritize" them you make them more important.

"Electronic application" for using transistor batteries for different purposes.

Anybody else got any favorites? If so, send them in. Maybe we can hold off pollution of the language.

THE FEDERAL government is constantly finding new ways to spend our tax dollars. The latest is the push to develop mandatory safety standards to eliminate or reduce unreasonable risks of injuries associated with book matches. Book matches, says the U. S. Consumer Product Safety Commission, were associated with an estimated 6,200 injuries requiring hospital emergency room treatment between July and December of 1972.

Wonder if that commission was the same one which studied what causes bicycle accidents? That was really a tough assignment.

SEE by the Omaha World-Herald that several Northeast Nebraska communities and feeders have received tentative approval to make sewage discharges into public waters.

The communities: Winside, into South

The feeders: Werner Janke, Wayne, into Deer Creek; N. L. Ditman, Winside, into South Logan Creek; Jerry Weather, hold, Stanton, into Payne Creek; Arden Melcher, Stanton, into Payne Creek; Harlan Peters, Pierce, into north fork of Elkhorn River; Louis Dinklage, Wisner, into Elkhorn River; Schroeder Cattle Co., Wisner, into Elkhorn River; Kvots Feed lots, Inc., Wisner, into Elkhorn River.

They are among 16 communities and 70 livestock feedlot operations which have received tentative approval to make the discharges, according to the Nebraska Department of Environmental Control. Preliminary reviews indicate the discharges will be made in accordance with the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System; the state department says. Public comment can still be made on the proposals, however.

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

FIRE destroyed a three-building complex on the LaVern Hass farm southwest of Wisner on Oct. 13.

Both the Wisner and Pilger volunteer fire departments were called to the farm but the fire destroyed a large barn, milking parlor and storage building. Hass told firemen he noticed smoke curling up from the buildings about 10 a.m., but the three buildings were enveloped in flames by the time he ran into the house and called the firemen.

Completely destroyed were some 700 bales of hay and straw, a riding lawn mower, tractor and other items. Hass, a dairy farmer, said he hopes to rebuild as soon as possible.

RANDOLPH voters apparently won't be voting in the November general election on a proposed bond issue for construction of a new fire hall.

The proposal was not filed with the Cedar County clerk at least 50 days before the election because of lack of adequate information, according to Randolph officials. Voters may decide the issue later this year, officials note.

BEEMER'S new Jaycee chapter was officially chartered in a banquet at the high school auditorium Oct. 17.

The charter, certificate and Jaycee creed banner were presented to Beemer Jaycee president Doug Steffensmeier by state president Paul Childers of Omaha and area three chairman Augie Henderson of Albion. Childers was the guest speaker for the event, which included a dance at the Beemer ballroom following the banquet.

PETE GLAUBIUS, employee of Einung Sand and Gravel at Wisner, narrowly escaped a serious injury Oct. 10 when the vehicle he was driving had its brakes fail as Glaubius was descending a steep hill in Wisner.

Glaubius attempted to steer the tractor off the street and onto a lawn, but the tractor flipped onto its side. He escaped with a minor head injury; the tractor received extensive damage.

Of Hall-Walsh Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Walsh, who were married in Oct. 12 afternoon rites at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Winside, will be making their first home in Hubbard.

Mrs. Walsh, nee Linda Rae Hall, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hall of Carroll. She graduated from Wayne High School in 1973 and is employed at St. Vincent's Hospital in Sioux City.

The bridegroom, a 1970 graduate of Emerson High School, is engaged in farming. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walsh of Hubbard.

The Rev. G. W. Gottberg of Winside officiated at the double ring ceremony and Jack Conrad of Newcastle sang "Color My World," "For Baby" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. G. W. Gottberg.

Two bouquets and a spiral candelabra entwined with greenery appointed the church altar and lighted lapers extended to the front of the church. A wedding candle was lit by the couple.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a Victorian gown, styled with an accoridian pleated bib effect bodice with pearl edged ruffle. Matching ruffle trimmed the high neckline and the wrists of the accoridian pleated bishop sleeves, and Venice lace accented the waist and the deep flounce which edged the semi-full skirt, falling into a chapel-length train. Her Venice lace cap was held by a double veil of bridal illusion and she carried a cascade of red roses and white stephanotis with long bridal streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sam Schram of Omaha, sister of the bride, and bridesmaids were Shelly Glass of Norfolk, Lisa Einung of Wayne and Mary Walsh of Hubbard, sister of the groom. All wore identically styled floor-length dresses designed with pink and burgundy velvet bodices, square necklines outlined in Venice lace, and bishop sleeves. A band of Venice lace encircled the empire waistlines, which fell into semi-full organza skirts with flounce hemlines. They carried nosegays of pink and burgundy pompons with long streamers.

The bride's personal attendant was Kim Schmitz of Wayne. Best man was Paul Kuhl of South Sioux City and groomsmen were Tim Beacom of South Sioux City, Dennis Rohde of Emerson and Tom Walsh of Hubbard, brother of the groom. Ushers were Robert Hall of Wayne, Kenneth Hall of LeMoore, Calif., brothers of the bride, Stanley Martneck of South Sioux City and Mike Brennan of Ponca.

The men wore gray oxford tuxedos, with the groom's ruffled shirt in white and the attendants in pink.

Candles were lighted by Peggy Walsh of Hubbard, sister of the groom, and Mike Kephart of South Sioux City. Kent Stinger of Wayne was ringbearer and Tori Hassenger of Sioux City was flowergirl.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Hall chose a sky blue double knit in floor-length dress in rose pink.

A reception for 200 guests followed at the Carroll city auditorium. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hansen of Neligh and Mr. and Mrs. Giles Beacom of South Sioux City. New County Officers Named at Fall Meet Wayne County American Legion Auxiliary members held their annual fall meeting in Winside Tuesday evening. Twenty-four members were present from Wayne, Carroll and Winside.

County officers in charge of the meeting were Gladys Reichert of Winside, president; Mrs. Faye Hurlbert of Carroll, vice president; and Mrs. Leonard Anderson of Winside, secretary. Mrs. William Wendt, president of the Winside unit, gave the welcome. During the business session, conducted by Gladys Reichert, new county officers were named for the coming year. They are Mrs. Robert I. Jones of Carroll, president, and Mrs. Norbert Brugger of Wayne, vice president. The new president will appoint a member from her local unit to serve as county secretary.

The county auxiliary vice president, Mrs. Faye Hurlbert of Carroll, presented poppy corsages to past county presidents attending the meeting.

Mrs. Hattie McNutt of Wayne was named delegate to attend the District III auxiliary meeting in Homer next spring. Alternate is Mrs. Keith Owens of Carroll.

Plans were made for the three county units to hold a bingo party at the Norfolk annex after the Christmas holidays. Members of the Winside unit will serve dinner for County Government Day in Wayne in March.

A memorial service was held in memory of Mrs. Ray Surber of the Wayne unit. A poem, "Oh the Other Side of Death," was read by Mrs. George Farran of Winside.

Unit reports were given by Mrs. Keith Owens of Carroll, Mrs. Norbert Brugger of Wayne

Devils Close In on West Husker Title

Sports

By BOB BARTLETT
Wayne High overcame a 12-7 halftime deficit with a three-touchdown performance in the second half to down Columbus Lakeview, 29-12, and virtually sew up the West-Husker Conference title Friday night.

The Devils, scoring twice with about four minutes left, boosted their record to 7-0. Emerson, Hubbard and Hartington Cedar Catholic are the only two hurdles remaining before Wayne can officially march to the East division winner's home field for the Husker title bout next month.

End Dave Hix gave the Devils the needed insurance to close out Lakeview's upset hopes with a 4:26 left, grabbing quarterback Paul Mallette's 32 yard TD aerial to put Wayne ahead, 20-12. Senior Marty Hansen then added his third PAT for a 21-12 count.

Fullback Rod Hoops, who ran 18 times for 68 yards, teamed up with Mallette with 11 seconds left in the contest to add frosting to the cake. After Rob Mitchell intercepted a Lakeview pass near Columbus' 40, Mitchell ran out of bounds on about the 23-yard line before the sophomore signal caller hit Hoops from the 10-yard line. Wayne went for two points and made it.

Insurance is one item the Devils needed after Lakeview jumped off to a 12-7 lead with about six minutes gone in the first quarter.

The visitors wasted little time in scoring after picking off two Wayne fumbles on kickoffs. Runningback Rich Workman grabbed both kicks, giving up the ball on some hard hitting at Wayne's 21- and 32-yard lines. Quarterback Rick Thomas scored the first TD after the Vikings' leading rusher, Paul Muhle, who had 63 yards rushing at the half, went 17 yards. With the aid of an interference call against Wayne, Columbus was able to move the ball in eight plays from Wayne's 32 on the second kickoff fumble into the endzone on Muhle's one-yard dive.

Columbus dominated the first quarter with 106 yards rushing. The Vikings had the ball almost the entire quarter, allowing Wayne only two plays in the period.

But two plays were all the Devils needed as senior running back Marty Hansen who led rushers with 12 yards in 19 carries, raced 48 yards on Wayne's second play to chase the lead to 12-7.

"We had to change our defense if we were going to stop Lakeview's running," said coach Al Hansen. "Lakeview ran the ball only 23 plays the remaining three quarters and collected 13 total yards on the ground."

The main reason for Wayne's strong play the rest of the game, Hansen pointed out, was the off-standing defense led by Rick Mitchell with 15 tackles. Gary Hansen had 14, Jack Froehlich had 12 and Hoops collected 11.

Both clubs played stalemate defense the second period and most of the third, but Wayne changed the scope of the game after Columbus' third punt, which landed on the Vikings' 42-yard line. A Lakeview person al foul, as well as some strong running by sophomore Mark Brandt for 14 yards and Hoops for another nine, moved the locals inside Columbus' 10 yard line where Hoops charged over for a 13 yard gain with 2:25 left in third period Hansen's PAT was good.

Hansen noted that Lakeview had a strong defense, once stopping Wayne from taking control of the game in the second period. Lakeview was forced to punt inside its 10 yard line after Wayne held. Froehlich got a hand on the ball, allowing Wayne to down the ball at the three yard line. However, Lakeview's defense stiffened, stopping Wayne's three drives up the middle before catching Hansen at the one yard line on an end run.

Wayne also was able to turn back a Lakeview drive when lineman Doug Straight recovered the visitor's only fumble near midfield.

West Husker May Split?

The possibility of the West Husker Conference dividing into an A and B division for football playoffs may be decided later this month when school representatives meet at Norfolk. Representatives met Wednesday to discuss the possibility of holding separate playoffs among the four larger schools and four smaller schools in the division in order to give smaller schools a better chance to win in the league, said Wayne High athletic director, Harold Maciejewski.

Maciejewski emphasized that the schools are only looking at the matter now and will discuss it further when members meet Oct. 30.

Wayne High is the largest school in the division and often dominates the league, creating a feeling among smaller schools such as Stanton, Wakefield and Emerson Hubbard that they never are in contention for the title, he said.

If the school approved and the West Husker goes along with the idea of splitting each division into larger and smaller teams, the door would be open for teams to play more clubs in their own classes, Maciejewski pointed out.

Emerson JVs Blast Winside

Winside High's junior varsity ran into a stone wall Tuesday night when Emerson-Hubbard blanked the visitors, 36-0.

The Cats, losing their third game against one win, scored on quarterback Bryan Denklau's pass to Bob Bowers late in the fourth quarter, but an offside penalty nullified the touch down.

According to coach Carter Peterson, the team worked the ball well in the drive as Denklau ran 21 yards to the 10-yard line after hitting Bowers on a Runningback Pat Nicholson scored on a 12-yard pass in the second quarter and teammates Randi Kahl and Loren Victor collected 133 yards of Wakefield's 273 rushing total to lead the Trojans past Stanton Friday night, 33-0.

Nicholson scored on a 28-yard run early in the second stanza after quarterback Mike Soderberg hit Nicholson for gains of 17 and seven yards in the drive. Then on Wakefield's next possession Soderberg and Nicholson teamed up for a 15-yard TD strike to cap a 74-yard scoring drive.

"We really looked good tonight," said Trojans coach John Torczon after his club chalked up its second victory against five losses.

O'Neill Stops Bears, 26-0

O'Neill High, scoring on Laurel fumbles, maintained its first place rank in the Northeast Nebraska Activity Conference with a 26-0 blanking of Laurel Friday night at O'Neill.

The Bears' closest scoring threat was in the fourth period when Laurel marched close to O'Neill's 20-yard line, coach Bob Bozied said, adding that Laurel ran out of downs to stop its drive.

"The score doesn't reflect the actual game," Bozied pointed out. O'Neill had a 19-0 first half lead, but both defenses dominated the remainder of the game, with O'Neill scoring once in the fourth, he said.

Senior Mark Anderson led the Bears' rushing with 40 of the team's 47 total rushing yards. Defensively, Warren Hanson had 15 stops for the team's top performance. Robin Gade, Phil Dallan and Mark Martindale had 13, 12 and 11 tackles respectively.

Laurel stands at 1-6.

Wecker: Eagles Look Good Despite Loss

Allen High football coach Ron Wecker was very pleased with his team's performance despite the losing 28-6 to Coleridge Friday night.

"We came within two mistakes of upsetting the No. 2 ball club in Class C 2," Wecker said after Allen dropped its fifth ball game in seven starts.

Coleridge had a 12-6 command in the third period before the Bulldogs capitalized on Allen's fumble and a blocked punt to score two quick touchdowns for a 24-6 lead going into the final period.

Allen coughed up the ball on the 43-yard line early in the third frame and Coleridge marched to paydirt six plays later when quarterback Alan Benson, who scored two TDs and threw for two others, blasted into the endzone from the one-yard stripe.

Allen tried punting from deep in its own territory late in the period, only to have Coleridge block the kick and recover the ball on the nine. Benson hit Kevin Hanna for the six-pointer three plays later before Brad Kalin can in for the two-point conversion.

Coleridge had a 12-0 lead before the Eagles got on the scoreboard in the second period. The Bulldogs, twice stopping the Eagles' inside Coleridge's 20, marched 82 yards and 76 yards, with Benson scoring on a one-yard plunge before hitting Russell Janssen with a 21-yard touchdown strike with 7:24 left in the half. Both PATs failed.

Allen closed within six when Dave Dunn blocked a punt and Allen recovered on Coleridge's 22-yard line. Quarterback Jeff Cremer ran 20 yards the second play of the series to score. The try for the two points was no good.

Coleridge scored a safety in the fourth when Kerry Hefner blocked Doug Kluever's punt in the endzone after the Allen freshmen recovered the ball.

"The kids are improving," Wecker pointed out. "If they would have played all season like they did against Coleridge, Allen would be in the conference playoffs," he added.

A strong offensive and defensive showing by senior Loren Papehausen, who led the Lewis and Clark Conference in receiving last week with an 18.4 yard per catchage ratio.

Coleridge tried to zone him, but Loren didn't allow Papehausen any receptions." Wecker pointed out, adding "Wecker had two interceptions for the night."

Another thing Wecker was pleased with was the total offensive yardage — we beat Coleridge," he said. "Allen had 271 yards to Coleridge's 270."

Steve Shortl led Eagles' rushing with 47 yards while Paul Snyder was second with 39. Snyder, however, may be lost for one or two games after he suffered a neck injury in the third period.

Wecker pointed out that Snyder's loss — plus the loss of running back Rick Chase with torn foot ligaments and defensive man Merv March with a separated shoulder in the first quarter — hampered the Eagles from possibly upsetting Coleridge.

Doug Smith and Don Kluever were the top defensive players drags each. Randy Gensler had seven.

The Yardstick:

	Allen	Coleridge
First Downs	10	11
Yards Passing	154	152
Yards Rushing	117	118
Total Yards Gained	271	270
Passes	9:22	8:21
Punts	7	5
Fumbles Lost	2	2
Yards Penalized	10	55

Scoring by Quarters:

Allen	0	6	0	0	6
Coleridge	6	6	14	2	28

Wakefiled 9-2 Entering Loop

VB Tournament

Wakefiled High's girls volleyball team will go into the West Hucker tournament at Madison today (Monday) with a 9-2 record after posting a pair of wins last week.

The Trojanettes, seeded third in the eight-team meet, 'downed Stanton and Lyons in matches Tuesday and Wednesday nights on "overall good team play," said coach Ernie Kovar.

"We looked better than we have in weeks with our strong net playing and blocking," Kovar said after rapping Lyons Wednesday night. Wakefiled scored 15 and 10 wins to take the match originally scheduled for Monday night. Tuesday night seniors Ruth Bressler and Les Gardner led Wakefiled to a pair of 15 to 10 victories over Stanton.

Both the reserves and freshmen teams ended their seasons Wednesday night. The reserves, boasting a 10-1 record, went three games to beat Lyons, 15-7, 4-15 and 15-2. Lynn Holm played a strong net game, Kovar noted. Against Stanton, balance was the key to 15-5 and 16-14 wins, he added.

The freshmen, ending a 3-4 campaign, lost both matches in three games. Stanton won 15-4, 7-15 and 15-11, and Lyons won 15-8, 13-15 and 15-12.

Blakeman's TD Power Reds Past Blues, 18-6

Clark Blakeman scored all three Reds' touchdowns as his team defeated the Blues, 18-6, in the second game of the sixth-seventh-eighth grade recreation football series Tuesday night.

Blakeman ended a 6-6 tie late in the third period with a 55-yard scamper down the sidelines in an off-tackle play. An interception by Jeff Zeiss set up Blakeman's third TD with four minutes left in the game. Zeiss, tabbed as one of the outstanding offensive and defensive players in the game by recreation director Hank Overin, pirated the Blues' desperation pass on the 50 and scrambled to the six-yard line. Tim Mater took the ball to the one before Blakeman scored.

The Reds look a 6-0 lead in the first period when Blakeman rambled from the Blues' 40 yard line to the 15. Robbie Harmer ran to the one before Blakeman scored.

The Blues came back just before the half to tie the game when Steve Sorenson pounced on a Blues' fumble in the endzone.

The TD resulted when Bob Kenny kicked a punt from the Reds' 40 yard line and passed to Loren Murray, who scooted to the 15. With the ball on the two-yard line, Tim Thomas pushed to the one before the ball fell into the endzone.

Another outstanding defensive player, Dan Mitchell, will move up to junior high football only. Overin pointed out after the seventh grader made 10 tackles and 12 assists for the Reds.

Other players praised by Overin: Reds — Maier and Zeiss; Blues — Kenny, Sorenson, Murray, Keith Turner and the interior line.

NAIA Ruling Is Delayed

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics' ruling on Wayne State's player violation was expected to be given at the district college meeting in Kearney over the weekend, said WS athletic director LeRoy Simpson.

Simpson said the NAIA had not completed the work necessary to present its decision last week.

The ruling stems from an ineligible WS player involved in the Wayne William Penn game Sept. 7 at Oklaheola. La Simpson said he expects the college to forfeit the win.

Newcastle Rips Allen VB Girls

Allen High's girls volleyball team jumped off to a 7-1 lead in the first game but scored only two more points in two games as Newcastle dropped the Eagles' record to 1-4.

"We started out fine, coach Steve McManigal said, "but somewhere along the line we failed to work as a team," he noted about his team's 15-8 and 15-1 losses. McManigal pointed out that Newcastle's serving "got us down." They had some good serves.

The C team was the only one of three Allen clubs to chalk up a victory, downing Newcastle, 15-2 and 16-4. The C team, which holds a 2-1 record, got help from servers June Stapleton and LeEtta Keil with 10 and 11 points each, McManigal said.

The B squad remains winless after four starts, falling 4-15 and 5-15. Kris Young, for Allen played good, McManigal added.

Winside Man Earns Medal

Spec. 4 Daniel Jaeger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jaeger of Winside, has been awarded the Army commendation medal for "meritorious service during the period August 1973 to August 1974 while serving as Chapparral squad leader" in the Republic of Korea.

Jaeger now is stationed at Fort Hood, Tex. His wife, Gail, lives at Belton, Tex.

Laurel Spikers Regrouping for NENAC Meet

Laurel High's varsity volleyball team will take a break before resuming action in the Northeast Nebraska Activity Conference tournament Oct. 29th at Plainville.

Coach Carol Woodward hopes to have her girls regrouped and ready to break into the win column in the nine team meet after dropping their ninth contest Tuesday night.

Laurel bounced back from a 16-14 first game loss to beat Bloomfield 15-7. But the visitors scored a 15-7 third game win to take the match.

The B and C teams ended their seasons winless. After Laurel's reserves won the first game 15-11, Bloomfield scored 15-4 and 15-3 to take the match. The reserves finished with an 0-6 mark.

Laurel's C team fell in two games, 15-11 and 16-14, for an 0-4 record.

YDs Sponsoring Candidates Day

Wayne State's Young Democrats will hold a "Candidates Day" Tuesday at the college's Student Union beginning at 3 p.m.

Former Nebraska Governor Frank Morrison, running for attorney general, will be among three guest speakers at the afternoon session. Also appearing will be HESS DAVIS, congressional candidate from the First District, and Catherine Dahlquist, who is running for secretary of state. The talks, followed by a question-answer period, are open to the public.

"WE'RE ON THE ENERGY TEAM!"

I'm trying to use energy more efficiently—in my store and in my home. I don't have as many lights burning in the store as I used to, and I keep the place a little warmer in the summer and cooler in the winter. We don't burn as many lights at home either. And we use the car less—not so many short, one-stop trips.

These are all little things and he's only one person. But that's the way to beat the problem—a lot of people all doing little things to save energy. They add up.

I'm with an oil company, and I'm doing a lot of public speaking these days about the energy situation. Talking to all sorts of groups about how to conserve energy. And what the oil industry is doing to help solve the energy problem. I also listen to what people say and pass along their feelings and opinions to my company so we can be more responsive.

Solving the energy problem is a big job. Let's do it together.

Winside Reverses Roles; New 1st in Loop Defense

When weekly statistics on Lewis and Clark football teams started coming out, Winside High led the 12 team field in scoring, but the Wildcats have made a complete turnaround and now lead the loop in defense, according to last week's statistics released by conference secretary Jim Winch of Winside.

The Cats were first in total defense going into Friday's game, giving up 151.8 yards a game. Winside also was first in defense against the rush with an 85 yard average per game and fifth against the pass with a 66.8 average.

Closing in on Winside were two other undefeated clubs: Coleridge of the West L.C. division and Walthill in the East.

Walthill ranked second in total defense with a 161.8 average, second against the rush at 90.8 and sixth against the pass, giving up 71 yards. Coleridge, ranking third in total defense at 176 yards a game, was first against the pass, allowing on average 47 yards in the air per game, and fourth against the rush with a 133.3 average.

Walthill was the top team in scoring, collecting 35.8 points a game. Winside was third, scoring 23.7 points, and Coleridge was fourth at a 20.7 point clip.

Senior Mike Anderson of Winside remained first in kick scoring with 14 points. Allen High's Loren Book was tied with Craig Bobier of Ponca for fifth with 11 points.

In individual kick off returns, Allen's Rick Chase was second with a 22.8 yard average. Another Eagle player, senior Paul Snyder, was third in individual punting with a 35.8 yard average.

Kevin Kraemer and Darwin Ruback suffered a broken arm and a cracked ankle, respectively, during the third period, said coach Robert Manley.

With the score 22-0 at the half, the home team scored in the third period on quarterback Greg Carr's 30-yard keeper and Bart Golch's two-point conversion.

Allen, now 1-2, is scheduled to finish its season Oct. 31 against Emerson Hubbard.

Ponca Topples Allen Jr. High

Allen's junior high football team, suffering from the loss of two starters with broken and cracked bones, fell to Ponca, 34-8, Wednesday afternoon at Allen.

Kevin Kraemer and Darwin Ruback suffered a broken arm and a cracked ankle, respectively, during the third period, said coach Robert Manley.

With the score 22-0 at the half, the home team scored in the third period on quarterback Greg Carr's 30-yard keeper and Bart Golch's two-point conversion.

Allen, now 1-2, is scheduled to finish its season Oct. 31 against Emerson Hubbard.

Punts, Fumbles, Hurt Allen JVs

Blocked punts and fumbles hurt Allen High's junior varsity football team Wednesday as Ponca capitalized on two blocked punts, a pair of fumbles and an interception to down the Eagles, 37-0.

"We gave them (Ponca) everything we had," said Allen coach Ron Wecker after his club lost a scoring opportunity the first period with Brad Chase ran 55 yards to the five-yard line but failed to score. Ponca pushed the club back to the 35 when a blocked punt and a 35 yard return started the visitor's scoring.

Allen ends its season with a 1-3 record.

New 4-H Club Being Formed

An organizational meeting for a new 4-H club in Wayne is scheduled at the Evan Wecker home at 919 Main at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Limited enrollment will be accepted for both boys and girls in the new club. Don Spitzer, Wayne County agent, and Linda Sander, home economist at the Northeast Station near Concord, will be present to explain 4-H projects and help organize the new club.

More information is available from the county extension office.

School Hosting Chamber Coffee

The public is invited to attend the Chamber of Commerce coffee this morning (Monday) from 9:30 to 11 a.m. at the middle school in Wayne.

"This is a good opportunity for businessmen, employees and others to look over the facilities at the school while taking in the morning coffee," said Chamber manager Howard Witt.

The coffee is the latest in a series of monthly coffees being sponsored by the Chamber in an attempt to get businessmen to visit other firms and stores in the city.

Tri-Cog Narrows Field To Three

The Tri-county Council of Governments (Tri-Cog) has narrowed the number of candidates for the post as its new director from eight to three during Wednesday night's monthly board meeting.

The director will be named during a special committee meeting next Monday, Oct. 28, at Hartington, said secretary Ken Linafelter of Allen. On that committee are Tri-Cog chairman Maurice Kniffel of Hartington, treasurer Ed Hesse of Crofton and Linafelter.

THE MOST EVIL MAN IN THE U.S.A.

A few notes on the evil he created in 1969.

He found a quarter of a million "unemployables" who never could hold steady jobs.

He trained them and put them into work that pays money they never dreamed of earning before.

He's a businessman.

For poor kids who couldn't otherwise go to college, he took three hundred and fifty millions and saw to it that those who earned them got scholarships.

He gave eight hundred million to non-profit organizations for medical research, to help stamp out cancer and heart disease and a hundred other dread diseases of the world.

To build new housing for the poor and middle-incomes in U. S. cities, he put up one billion and a quarter dollars, so more people can live in decency.

Sure, he's been a polluter — as has everyone from the U. S. government to ordinary citizens. But last year he scraped up two and one half billions to fight pollution of air and water and nature. This year he plans to get up four billion more, to keep up the battle.

After that, he put up fifteen billion dollars in Social Security taxes to help provide support and medical care for senior citizens. And he added forty-one billion dollars in income taxes to help pay the bills of the U. S. A.

And all the while, he was contributing millions of hours of personal and business time to virtually every humanitarian cause you've ever heard of.

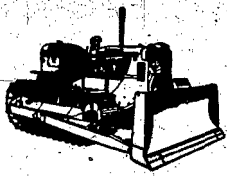

He's a businessman. The most evil man in the U. S. A.

Isn't it time somebody had a good word for this evil man who happens to do so much good for so many people?

We think so.

Voters to Elect NRD Directors in Nov. 5 Election

The November 5 general election will be the first opportunity for voters to vote for directors of the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District. When the Lower Elkhorn NRD consolidated soil and water conservation districts, watershed advisory boards, watershed conservancy districts met in July, 1972, the members of those boards were also consolidated into the Board of Directors of the Lower Elkhorn NRD.

State law provides for a range of 5-21 board members. A nineteen man board was chosen by the Lower Elkhorn NRD as the best representation of the NRD concerning population, valuation and watershed drainage.

Thirty-seven candidates have filed for the nineteen positions open on the Lower Elkhorn NRD's ballot for the November 5 election.

Thirty-Seven File for Board of Directors of the Lower Elkhorn NRD

Thirty-seven men from the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District have filed for the 19 directorships to be elected in the November election.

For nomination purposes, the district has been subdivided into nine subdistricts. Two directors will be elected from each subdistrict plus one man at large for the 19-man total.

Though the candidates must live in the subdistrict they represent, all voters will vote on the complete ballot of all subdistricts in order for 19 directors.

The director receiving the most votes in a subdistrict and director at large will serve a four year term. The runner up will serve a two year term to initiate the alternating re-election system for future elections every two years.

The Lower Elkhorn NRD covers all of Pierce, Wayne, Stanton, and Cuming Counties and parts of Knox, Cedar, Madison, Thurston, Dixon, Burt, Dodge, Colfax and Platte Counties.

SUBDIVISION 1 (Vote for two): Robert E. German, Dale Robert Green, Dale Lingenfelter, Paul Meierhenry, William J. Meyer. SUBDIVISION 2 (Vote for two): John K. Hansen, Ray J. Vogel, Robert H. Warrick. SUBDIVISION 3 (Vote for two): Richard C. Hahn, Dennis E. Newland. SUBDIVISION 4 (Vote for two): Don W. Arduser, Howard F. Hansen, Werner Mann, Verne M. Mills. SUBDIVISION 5 (Vote for two): Richard R. Alexander, Robert Freiberg, Jack Kingsley. SUBDIVISION 6 (Vote for two): Richard Glodowski, Harlan F. Hamefink, William Roemer. SUBDIVISION 7 (Vote for two): Melvin Hanson, Richard A. Heyne, Fred Hinrich, Lowell D. Johnson, James E. Mattison, Glen A. Olson, Myron Tullberg. SUBDIVISION 8 (Vote for two): Alwin Fullner, Leo W. Knievel, Clinton Von Seggern, Harold C. Wagner. SUBDIVISION 9 (Vote for two): Ivan McKenzie, Bert Peterson, Russell Uehling, Melvin Von Seggern. DIRECTOR AT LARGE (Vote for one): Val Peterson, John Thor.

Voters will elect 19 directors at the General Election, November 5, 1974. Individual receiving highest number of votes in each subdivision and director at large will serve a four (4) year term and the second highest in each subdivision will serve a two (2) year term. In other words, 10 directors will serve a four (4) year term and 9 will serve a two (2) year term. All directors will take office in January, 1975.

Each voter may vote on all nineteen directors. By using the subdistricts for nomination, fair representation for all areas and natural resources problems is assured.

The individual receiving the highest number of votes and the director-at-large will serve a four-year term and the second highest in each subdivision will serve a two year term.

In subsequent elections, an alternate director will be elected to a four year term.

COMMENT . . .

By General Manager Steven G. Oltmans

First: I am concerned that in some Nebraska natural resources districts, cities, counties and other subdivisions, it is not possible to persuade enough citizens to file for public offices to fill the slate of candidates. Why is this true? Is it because we elect public officials to be whipping posts, or punish them socially if their actions do not please us?

What rights do the taxpayers and or citizens have to expect from those elected to office? 1) Honesty and integrity by all elected officials. 2) open communications, for it is the public's right to know what decisions are being made for their behalf, 3) public opinion, the elected official should be willing to listen to the total citizenry whether they be rich or poor, male or female, young or old.

Second: What are the responsibilities of citizens to their local elected officials? 1) Do not tolerate dishonesty or the lack of integrity; however, this is inclusive of the citizens not asking the elected official for special favors or concessions not available to others. Also, remember the American privilege of utilizing the ballot box, which is a sound and proper method of reform if the majority of the citizens are dissatisfied with the current office holder(s); 2) Citizens have a responsibility to participate on public issues, this means speaking and listening with an open mind, 3) Realize that very few decisions made by public officials will please the total citizenry or you as an individual each time, 4) recognize the need for conflict as being legitimate but also desirable in public decision making. How else can anyone or governing body consider all aspects of an issue?

Conclusion: It is too much to expect unanimity and total consensus on every decision made by a public entity. However, if we can achieve an atmosphere of equable respect from the interested citizens and elected officials, all of whom behave responsibly in line with a few basic rules; an achievement of good government at the local level can be of great influence on our total governmental system.

Fortunately, you, the elector, have a rather competitive choice in electing your 19 NRD directors to govern the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District, I hope all eligible voters will capitalize on this privilege. . . and get out and VOTE on November 5th!
