Council Hires New Clerk-Treasurer

A 22 year old graduate of Wayne State College, Bruce Mordhorst, has been hired to replace Dan Sherry, as Wayne's city clerk treasurer.

Mordhorst, who graduated from Wayne State in August with a bachelor of science degree in business administration, will take over the job officially at the start of the year, but he will work with Sherry for several days before that. Hired on a six-month probationary basis, Mordhorst will receive $250 a month.

Sherry has worked for the city since the fall of 1965 when he resigned his city council post to take over as city clerk. He was elected to the council that spring.

MANSCKE MORDHORST

Mordhorst, whose wife Carol is from Meadow Grove, is a 1970 graduate of Wayne High School. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mern Mordhorst, live in Wayne.

He was hired by the council during Tuesday night's regular meeting following Monday's interview with some of the council, mayor Freeman Decker and Sherry. Four persons applied for the post, according to Decker, who recommended Mordhorst for the job.

Also Tuesday night, the council named Mrs. Roberta Welte, housemother at Wayne State College, as honorary chairman of the local bicentennial effort.

Mrs. Welte will direct activities and efforts which will be the community's contribution to helping this country mark its second hundred years of existence in 1976.

The council also approved Todd Manske for membership in the volunteer fire department.

Manske, whose 19th birthday was Tuesday, is the first person to join the department who participated in the department's junior fire patrol when he was in the fifth grade. A spring graduate of Anoka High School in Anoka, Minn., he has moved back to Wayne to attend Wayne State College. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Manske of Anoka, who moved from Wayne several years ago.

Young Manske was a member of the junior fire patrol, a program aimed at teaching youngsters about the dangers of fire, when Bill Kugler and Cleve Sharer were co-chairmen. The patrol has been in existence since the fall of 1961. Youngsters attend meetings once a month for eight months, receiving certificates when they graduate in the spring.

Persons are required by state law to be 19 years old before they can join a volunteer fire department.

In other action, the council voted 7-1 to charge $4 a front foot for hooking up residential, outside the city limits to the city's water system and to place the fee for business and industries outside the city upon negotiation. John Vavrus cast the lone vote against that proposal in favor of it over Jim Thomas, Ted Baker, Carolyn Fitter, Ivan Beeks, Vernon Russell, Leo Hansen and Darrell Fuetterber.

Set a public hearing on the city's one year and six year street improvement program for Dec. 30 at 8 p.m. Priorities have been established for street work in the city in coming years, but a public hearing is required to give citizens a chance to comment on the programs.

Voted 8-0 to pass an ordinance which required every body in the city to clear their sidewalks within 24 hours after a snowfall. The existing ordinance applies only to those sidewalks in the downtown area.

Voted 8-0 to give $75 gift certificates to all city employees as Christmas gifts. Excluded from receiving them are council members and the mayor.

Learned from city admin. See Council, page 10.

Everybody changed the oil in their cars in their 2 by 4 back yard garages and kept the mileage record on the rough boarded walls.

Cage Treat Inside

A special treat awaits basketball fans inside this issue of the Wayne Herald.

It is a 16 page section devoted completely to West Husker Conference cage teams. The league opens the season with games this weekend.

Stories and pictures on seven of the eight teams are included in the supplement. They are Wayne, Wakefield, Emerson Hubbard, Hartington Cedar Catholic, Wisner Pilger Madison and Stanton. Pictures and stories on Columbus Lakeview's basketball team were unavailable.

Extra copies of the supplement were printed for inserting this week in all seven newspapers covering those West Husker cage teams.

Winter Class To Graduate at WSC Sunday

Wayne State College will graduate its winter class Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Rice Auditorium. The list of candidates for degrees numbers 115, including five receiving master's degrees.

Speaker for the ceremony is J. Alan Cramer, publisher of The Wayne Herald and member of the State College Board of Trustees the past six years. His topic is "Life Is Not a Spectator Sport."

The Rev. Thomas E. McDerrott, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, will give the invocation and benediction.

The public is welcome to attend commencement. All seats in Rice Auditorium are open for visitors except those reserved for the graduating class.

Christmas Gifts Wrapped Free

Wayne shoppers can get their Christmas gifts wrapped free on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from now until Christmas.

The gifts will be wrapped without charge by members of the local Youth Association for Retarded Children at Wayne Federal Savings and Loan. The business has contributed materials for the project. Wrapping will be done from 3 to 4:30 p.m. on Mondays and Tuesdays from 3 to 4 p.m. on Thursday.

Although no charge will be made for the Christmas wrapping, donations will be accepted from those who would like to give money to help the YARC chapter conduct its various activities and programs throughout the year.

Winside Rejects Fluoridation

Winside voters Tuesday rejected fluoridation, 109-75 in a special election.

The community becomes the third one in Wayne County to turn down boosting the fluoride level in their water supplies. Also rejecting fluoridation have been Huskings, $9.79, and Carroll, 73-3.

Wayne is the only community in the county to approve fluoridation, giving it a 703-687 margin of victory in the November general election.

A state law passed by the 1973 legislature requires communities to add fluoride beginning the first of the year if their fluoride level is below that stipulated in the law. The law provides, however, for voters to reject fluoridation.

Party Fun

HANDS CLASPED lightly, young Tresha Barner gets a sturdy prodigious piggyback ride aboard Bob Nemeck during Saturday Christmas party at the city auditorium in Wayne. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Barner of Wayne, Tresha was among the kids who filled the auditorium for several hours, getting treated to everything from hot dogs and pop to games supervised by the college students in their annual party. Other pictures, page 6 of the first section.

$500 Prize Comes at 'Best Time'

"It couldn't have come at a better time of the year," said Mrs. Ron Von Seggern after she won Monday's $500 Christmas Bucks drawing in Wayne.

Mrs. Von Seggern held the ticket matching the second number on a list of 50 posted in all participating stores Monday afternoon.

And the number was good enough to win the $500 prize, since the person with the top number on the list failed to show up at the Chamber of Commerce office by the 8 p.m. deadline.

Mrs. Von Seggern's lucky number 152984.

She picked up the ticket with that number on it when she purchased a new dishwasher at Swansons Television in Wayne a few days earlier. Now she can consider that dishwasher her special Christmas gift from Wayne merchants and still have Christmas Bucks to spend as she wishes in any of the Chamber parties in the annual thank-you promotion.

The coupons will come in especially handy because she is and doing some of her last major Christmas shopping, she noted after winning the prize.

Her prize was the first of seven Christmas Bucks prizes which will be awarded in the city throughout the Christmas shopping season.

Drawings for $100 prizes will be held on Friday, this week and on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday next week. A drawing for another $500 prize will be held on Monday, Dec. 23. See Herald, page 10.

Bicentennial Flavor Is Planned for '76 Wayne County Fair

Wayne County's 1976 fair will be one with a bicentennial theme and may be held in conjunction with bicentennial activities in Wayne and throughout the county.

Stockholders of the Wayne County Fair and Agricultural Society agreed to giving the 1976 fair a bicentennial flavor during their annual meeting Monday at the fairgrounds, according to secretary manager Marilyn Koch of Wayne.

Koch said she hopes the decision by the stockholders will spur local interest in holding events and activities with a bicentennial theme during the year. This country marks its second hundred years of existence in 1976.

The city of Wayne apparently will have some type of activity or event tied in with the bicentennial.

The city council Tuesday night approved naming Mrs. Roberta Welte as honorary chairman of local bicentennial activities. Mrs. Welte, a housemother at Morey Hall on Wayne State campus, volunteered her services in that post several weeks ago, according to mayor Freeman Decker.

Decker told the council after suggesting her for the job that the city council should consider spending some money to help promote local bicentennial efforts. That money, likely will be in the $700 or $300 range, he said.

Communities across the country are beginning to organize efforts with a bicentennial slant to them. Several in Nebraska towns, including Ponca, Walthill and Verdigris, already have begun work on their bicentennial efforts.

Verdigris, for instance, has a 100 year-old grist mill which has been moved to the downtown area to serve as a museum, and the 1976 Kiwanis days in that community will stress more than usual the heritage of the town.

Walthill plans to turn its old city hall into a museum as well as building a mini park for the area surrounding it. The community also plans to open a youth center as part of its bicentennial effort.

In other action at Monday's stockholders' meeting, all five board members were named to another three year term and present officers were elected for another year.

Board members include Leiland Herman of Wayne, Robert Shuffelers of Wayne, Don Peters of Wakefield, Al Topp of Pilger and Werner Janke of Wayne.

Present officers are Herman as president, Marly Wilfers of See County Fair, page 10.

AH Teacher Resigns

The Allen school board Monday night accepted the resignation of Colin Weddington of Wakefield as part-time industrial arts instructor.

According to superintendent Carl Miller, the school hopes to name a new full-time instructor before second semester classes begin Jan. 15.

Intruder Is Now Plural

Wayne police are now investigating more than one instance of a person, possibly masked, entering local homes within the past several weeks.

Chas. Vera, Fairchild said Tuesday that two other possible instances of an intruder entering a home were reported after news spread about the person who ran from the Ralph Barclay home early Friday morning when the "Barclays returned home.

There may be more instances of a similar nature, he noted.

Also being investigated are reports of a window peeker in the northeast part of the city, the same area where the people, who have reported intruders live.

Fairchild urged local residents to report unusual events to the police immediately.

It's better to report something and find out nothing was wrong than to not report it if it might help to catch whoever is responsible," he said.

The person who entered the Barclay home may have been Shovel, a man in a mask, as a mask, according to Fairchild. The person who apparently entered the other two homes may also have been wearing a mask of some type, he added.

Youngsters Planning To Jump for Crowd

First and second grade students at Wayne's West Elementary School will present a rope jumping program during half time of the Wayne Columbus Lakeview basketball game Saturday night at the high school auditorium.

Parents with students in West Elementary's first and second grade have been asked to let their children participate, said phys ed teacher Don Koening, in charge of the program.

WH Students Preparing for Sunday Concert

The public is invited to admission to Sunday's Christmas concert scheduled for 3 p.m. at the Wayne High School lecture hall.

The concert will feature about 100 students and will last about one hour, according to high school vocal music teacher Larry Straitman.

Performing will be the freshmen choir, girls glee and choir.

The freshmen choir, a new group at the high school this year, will sing "Sing We Noel," "No Golden Carriage," "No Bright Toy," "Silent Night," "Rockin' All Night" and "The Lord Is My Strength and My Song."

The girls glee will sing "Sing See Concert, page 10.

Christmas Tree Auction To Aid '74 Fund Drive

Wayne's 1974 Community Chest fund drive will get a seasonal boost tonight (Thursday) when a $140 Christmas tree is auctioned off in front of McDonald's.

The auction, with Stan Baier of Wayne taking bids, will be held at 7:30.

McDonald's has donated the artificial Christmas tree which comes complete with decorations and lights — in an attempt to help the Community Chest reach this year's goal of $11,450. The fund is now about $1,000 short of that goal.

The seven and a half foot tree sets for $59, according to McDonald's manager Neil Dinges, but the numerous decorations and lights bring its value to $140. It is just like the one given away by the store to Mrs. Merlin Fahn of Wayne, winner of the store's annual drawing Saturday.

"I knew the Community Chest was short of its goal, so I thought donating the tree to that cause would be better than giving it away in a drawing," Dinges noted.

Ernie Thayer, chairman of this year's drive, complimented the store on the donation. "It's a mighty fine gesture on the store's part, and I just hope we can get a good crowd for the auction."

He noted that with a few more community minded efforts like that of McDonald's plus work by volunteers who have yet to complete all their calls — the fund drive could surpass this year's goal.

If the drive does top the goal, it will be the first time in several years it has done so, according to drive officials. See Auction, page 10.

City's Bicentennial Head Is Named

A farmer woman mayor of Oto, Ia., has been named honorary chairman of Wayne's bicentennial efforts.

She is Mrs. Roberta Welte, a housemother at Wayne State College who resigned her mayor's job in 1965 to take the housemother position at the college.

She was the only woman mayor in Northwest Iowa at the time she held the post.

Mrs. Welte, who was elected mayor in Oto by one vote her first term and by a large majority the second time around, was named to the chairman post by the city council at Tuesday night's regular meeting. She was recommended for the post by mayor Freeman Decker.

"There just doesn't seem to be much being done about the bicentennial in Wayne," Mrs. Welte said after her appointment, "and I feel very strongly that we should do something and that we should become a bicentennial city."

She noted that she has discussed bicentennial activities with officials in Lincoln who work with communities on their efforts, but she said she will not start promoting local events and activities until after the first of the year.

She said she is considering asking art students at the college and high school to take on some bicentennial project, possibly one similar to the one undertaken at O'Neill. That community has tackled the job of painting fire hydrants to look like Minutemen.

The daughter of a former mayor at Oto, Mrs. Welte said she ran for the mayor's job because she "saw some things wrong and wanted to do something about them. Oto, a community of about 300 population, is 32 miles south of Sioux City.

Mrs. Welte should have some help in sparking public interest in bicentennial activities.

The Wayne County Fair and Agricultural Society Monday decided to give its 1976 fair See Bicentennial Head, page 10.

Chamber Honors Car Dealer

ROWAN WILTSE, president-elect of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, presented this plaque to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coryell Tuesday evening during the pre-grand opening showing of the new Coryell Auto Co. on the west edge of the community. The plaque is given by the Chamber to businessmen who remodel, expand or make other major changes in their businesses. The new Chevrolet dealership, open for about the past month, includes a large showroom, a spacious service area and extensive parking space for customers as well as new and used vehicles. Coryell Auto had been located for many years at the corner of Second and Logan Streets.

Fair Features Gifts, Food

Club Studies

Christmas Island

Mrs. Joe Corbit was co hostess for the Minerva Club luncheon held Monday afternoon in the home of Minnie Rice. There were 16 members attending.

With a population of approximately 3,000, Christmas Island is governed by Australia but claimed by both the United States and England. From 1942 until 1962 the island was a U.S. airfield and a test center for nuclear warheads.

Minerva Club members will hold their next meeting Jan. 13 with Mrs. William Koeber at 2 p.m.

Rev. John Epperson Gives Bible Study

The Rev. John Epperson conducted the Bible study at the Wayne Senior Citizens Center Monday afternoon. Eighteen center members attended.

The next study will be at 3 p.m. Monday, Dec. 23.

Winside Grapplers Sweep Wakefield Tourney

Eight of Winside High's 12 wrestlers won at Saturday's four-team Wakefield Invitational to lead the Wildcats to their first tournament win of the season. The calls scored 105 1/2 points while Pender received 59 1/2 points to squeeze out host Wakefield by a half point for second. Hartington High finished fourth with 42 1/2.

Winside senior Mike Anderson (140-pound) won the 120-pound class. Dwight Lienemann (167) and Bob Bowers (105) led the Cats in the finals by pinning their opponents.

Lienemann had the fastest pin, nailing Wakefield's Steve Grove in 1:51. Bowers struck Darrell Thoen of Hartington in 2:30 and Anderson pinned Pender's Joe Hastings in 3:31.

Juniors Monty Pfeiffer (119) and Brad Brummels (126) had the closest matches for fourth. Pfeiffer beat Hartington's Bob Lauer 2-0 on a reversal in the last period and Brummels scored a two-point reversal in the last 10 seconds of the match to win 4-2 over Wakefield's John Polen.

"I was pleased with the kid's performances overall," said Barclay. But "there are a couple of things we'll have to improve upon, of course," he added.

Barclay said senior Brian Wade (185) revealed some good moves in his varsity debut. "Brian's quick as well as physical. He does have potential," the coach noted after Wade beat Pender's Michael Hastings, 6-1.

Senior Greg Lage scored the tournament's only major decision in the finals when he beat Hartington's 145-pounder, Stan Jones, 15-0. A major decision, worth an extra half point, is awarded when a wrestler beats his opponent by 10 points or more.

Teammate Keith Sueli, who collected three of his eight points on a near fall, won the 112-pound class over Hartington's Grant Wohlman, 6-1. One of Wakefield's two winners also won by a pin in the finals. Senior Pat Nicholson (155) stopped Winside's Neil Wagner in 1:23. Senior Ken Dolph, Wakefield's other champion, edged Pender's Wes Dunn, 2-1.

"We wrestled about 85 per

WAKEFIELD'S 112-pound Lyle Borg tries to escape from Pender's Roger Reith in a battle for third-place.

cent of our ability," said Wakefield coach Lyle Trullinger. Wakefield needs to work more in the lower weights if the Trojans are to do better this season, he noted.

"Taking second place in the finals was Wakefield's Steve Lühr (138), pinned in the first period of the finals by Pender's

Ed McQuistan. Two of Trullinger's lower weight wrestlers, Bill Pender (98) and Lyle Borg (112), finished third. Terry Borg (105) and Brian Newton (119) failed to qualify for the finals, however.

Also gaining three place finishes were Wakefield's 185-pound Dave Gustafson and vyweight Merrill Hale. For Winside, LaVerie Miller (132) and Dave Mann (138) took third. Winside doesn't have a 98 pound wrestler.

In the 98 pound class John Weddington (98) of Hartington defeated Willy Sassoana of Pender.

Trojans, Gators Open Loop Action on Friday

When West Husker basketball coaches started talking about the 1974-75 season, many began pointing their fingers at Wisner-Pilger as the top team to beat.

And why not? Coach Gerald Kassin has four returning letters off last year's 12-7 season, which fell one point short of going to the state Class B basketball tournament. The team has height, too, thanks to seniors Steve Heiler and Kevin McClure, both 6-5, and 6-2 Danny Kane.

What has Wisner got to do with area teams this early in the season? Friday the Gators host Wakefield in the first West Husker action of the season.

Trojan coach Joe Cabell has height in senior Don Myers, 6-3, and junior Scott Keagle, 6-5, but Cabell knows it will take more than height to beat the Gators.

Last week against Winside, the Trojans took advantage of their height to nail their first win of the young season, 67-32. Wisner, however, was crushed by Class B powerhouse West Point Central Catholic, 74-25.

If I were comparing scores, I'd go with Wakefield to win, but not this time. Wakefield is young and has some bugs to iron out, so I'll go with Wisner.

My record is now 5-0 after picking all five contests right last week.

Wayne, Laurel and Wakefield were winners in their initial white. Winside and Allen both suffered defeats.

Other selections (winners in boldface):

FRIDAY

Wayne at South Sioux City — South Sioux has height again, which means the final score might be as close as last year's one-point Devil victory.

Laurel at Hartington-Cedar Catholic — Laurel's scrappy play and strong defense leads me to believe coach Joel Parks' team is going to win this one.

Wynot at Winside — Early reports show Wynot has several key people on the injury list. Since Winside is improving, I'll go with the Cats to score their first win in three slants.

Allen at Winnebago — This could be another close call. However, Winnebago should prevail.

TUESDAY

Wayne at Laurel — Neither team really has an advantage, but the Devils have an edge in height.

Winside at Osmond — Not in the cards for Winside.

Newcastle at Allen — See Newcastle winning this one, too.

Thomsen Leads Wayne at Blair

Wayne High junior Les Thomsen led the Blue Devil wrestlers to a 10th-place showing at the Blair Invitational Saturday when he won the team's only first place medal.

The third-year grappler took all four matches on decisions.

Foosball Kings Here

Two international foosball players will be in Wayne tonight (Thursday) to demonstrate the game.

Bob Sumption and Tom Hansen, both of Minneapolis, will visit Melodee Lanes at 6:30. Black Knight Bar at 8 and Mike's Tavern at 9:30 to answer questions about foosball. In addition the players will analyze individual games.

Sumption and Hansen are 1974 runners up in the international foosball tournament. In 1973 they finished second in the U.S. championship tourney. Both are the Minnesota state champs.

Foosball is a game of skill similar to table hockey. Opponents use miniature men to try to knock a ball into holes at the end of the table.

defeating Steve Beierman, Fremont Bergan, 7-4; Dave Hunter, Tekamah Herman, 10-6; Ken Talmor, Gretna, 10-2; and Mark Lee, Elkhorn, 5-4.

That last match was his best showing," said coach Don Keoing. "Les was behind 4-0 nearing the end of the second period when he scored two points on a reversal and three on a near fall to take a 5-4 lead." In the last period Thomsen got one point on an escape and almost had Lee pinned when time ran out. Keoing pointed out.

Thomsen's win, plus fourth and fifth place showings by Ken Daniels and Don Nelson, and sixth place showings by Reg Godsey and Randy Surber gave the Devils 38 points in the 13-team meet.

Tekamah-Herman won the tournament with 91 points. West Point was second with 71.

Other finishers: Blair, 68 1/2; North Bend, 63 1/2; Gretna, 42 1/2; Fremont Bergan and Hooper Logan-View, 59 1/2; South Sioux City, 56; Arlington, 43; Wayne, 38; Randolph, 23; Oakland Craig, 20; Elkhorn, 25.

Daniels (119) posted two wins and one loss in winning fourth. The junior drew a first round bye before beating Bobby Ellis of Gretna, 6-2. After a 6-0 setback to Mark Peterson of Tekamah-Herman, Daniels pinned Jeff Hour of Arlington in the third period.

Nelson (155) opened his match with a 6-4 win over Tom Westberg of Gretna before losing to Bruce Fleming of North Bend 5-1. Nelson's other wins were over Mike Wolfard of Arlington, 3-0, and a last period pin against Gene Korth of Randolph.

Both Godsey (185) and Surber (105) won two and lost two matches. Godsey pinned his first man and won his third match by default.

Surber won his first and third matches 10-3 and 7-1.

Results of other Wayne wrestlers:

98 — Kirk Echtenkamp, drew a bye, was pinned, lost 14-1; 112 — Kirk Wacker, was pinned; 126 — Alan Ekberg, lost 7-5; 132 — Kelly Hansen, lost 6-0; 145 — Mike Hank, won 6-0, was pinned, lost 6-0; 167 — Rick Straight, lost 6-2. No heavyweights.

Frosh Rally To Nip HCC

Wayne High freshmen, trailing by seven points, used a strong fourth quarter press to beat Hartington-Cedar Catholic, 38-35, Monday at Wayne.

Jeff Backstrom, leading scorer with 14 points, and John Keating each hit six points and Vic Sharpe scored four in the final quarter to rally the Devils in their season debut.

Cedar built its lead in the second and third frames when Wayne started throwing the ball away and allowed the visitors to score under the basket, said coach Duane Blumenkamp.

Wayne shot 40 per cent from the field and hit 60 per cent from the free throw line. Kevin Murray was leading rebounder with nine.

Score by quarters:

Hartington	6	11	12	6	35
Wayne	8	6	8	16	38

Other scoring — Sharpe 6, Danny Ahlvers 4, Kevin Murray 4, Steve Bodenstedt 4.

Keith Sueli (112) stopped David Zaretto in 32, Gregg Lage (145) beat Paul Powley in 47, and Dwight Lienemann (167) pinned Kevin Pittipi in 46. Scoring major decisions were Monte Pfeiffer (119), 18-1, Brad Brummels (126), 11-0, and Brian Wade (185), 12-0.

Winside coach Doug Barclay said he was pleased with the team as a whole, but he pointed out "we have a lot of experience whereas Pender is rebuilding." Barclay noted that Pender has two strong wrestlers in Wes Dunn and Ed McQuistan, both winners Tuesday.

"We'll find out Saturday how good we are when we go to the Stanton Invitational, West Point, which took second at the Blair meet last week, will be there, so I'm looking forward to it (the meet)," he said.

Reserves Kevin Cleveland and Brad Langenberg have shown a lot of improvement. Barclay said after the reserves beat Pender, 18-9. Both execute well and showed a lot of hustle, he noted.

WS Coeds Set Record

Wayne State's basketball women started their quest for a third straight Nebraska championship with a pair of record scores over the weekend, the first an 82-49 win at Kearney State Friday, the second a 106-55 decision over the University of Nebraska Omaha Saturday in Wayne.

The previous high score for a Wayne coed quest was 73, over Kearney last year.

Next on the schedule is a 6 p.m. Friday game on the home court against the junior varsity of J. F. Kennedy College. The time is one hour earlier than originally scheduled.

Wayne girls got scoring from practically everybody in both weekend games, opening the season. Against Kearney, only two scored in twin figures, Martha Schuck of George, Ia., and Connie Kunzmann of Evely, Ia. 19 and 14. The Wildcats held a 31-16 halftime lead.

Against UNO the Schrick Kunzmann touch produced 25 and 17 points, accompanied by the 15 from Lora Lange of Remsen, Ia. 10 by Janelle Huelman Schaller, Ia. and nine by Mary Steinbauer of Omaha.

After a 49-28 half, substitutes had a considerable playing time and added 57 points.

Gators Pin Six Trojans To Grab Dual, 42-15

Wisner Pilger won six of eight matches on pins Tuesday night to "down" the Wakefield Trojans in their first home dual of the season, 42-15.

The Gators captured all but the 105, 132, 155 and 185-pound classes.

Senior Ken Dolph scored Wakefield's only pin, who she stopped 132 pound Keith Rathke in 3:26. Winning decisions were Terry Borg (105), Pat Nicholson (155) and Dave Gustafson (185).

Both Dolph and Nicholson, also a senior, boosted their records to 3-0 after the pair won two matches at Wakefield's four team tournament Saturday.

Overall, the head coach pointed out "there's an awful lot of work to do. We have to quit giving up pins."

In reserve action, Wisner blanked Wakefield, 22-0. The Gators won three matches by decision, three by pins.

Ikes Plan Game Feed

Members of Wayne's Izak Walton League will hold their annual wild game feed at the city auditorium on Sunday, Feb. 9.

The annual dinner will feature pheasant, fish, venison and other wild game, according to chapter secretary Norris Weible.

Members are being urged to save any wild game they have so it can be served at the 6:30 p.m. feed, he said, and anybody else who would like to donate game is welcome to do so.

Randolph Pins Devils

Randolph wrestlers stopped Wayne from scoring in the middle weights to post a 30-21 dual win over the Devils Monday night at Randolph.

The home team won all but the 155-pound division in the middle weights in the locals' dual opener.

Senior Don Nelson scored a 5-2 decision over Gene Korth to end Randolph's hopes of completely dominating the middle weights. According to Wayne coach Don Koenig, Nelson and senior Reg Godsey (185) "really looked tough."

Godsey and 105-pound Randy Surber pinned their opponents. Surber, another improving sen-

Sportsbeat

By Bob Bartlett

THAT Tami Thompson is the first girl to earn a spot on Wayne State's swim team is interesting, but more interesting is how the freshman was selected in the first place.

Tami, a 5-7 99-pounder, didn't step up to coach Ralph Barclay and say, "Hey, I want to be on your team." It was almost the complete opposite.

The Iowa City resident casually mentioned to her roommate that she was a diver while at West Plains High School. "It didn't take long before word spread to a couple varsity swimmers, Tom Carney and Craig Wilson, that Tami was a diver — just what Barclay needed to complete his two-man diving team."

Carney and Wilson asked Tami if she would like to be on the college team, and just nine days before the team's opening home double dual with Concordia and Buena Vista, Tami showed up for practice.

"I didn't think I'd have a chance to make the team as a diver since I last entered a pool, she said, pointing out that her back still is a little tender after a trampoline accident.

Just before her high school senior year Tami was practicing back flips on a trampoline when she landed face down on the canvas, injuring her back. Despite pain, she continued competing. "I like diving. I didn't want to give it up," she said.

Tami's doctor agreed she could dive, but she'd have to take it easier. However, during a dive her back collapsed, and she decided no more diving.

"I wasn't even sure I could remember how to dive anymore when I tried out, but I thought it would be fun trying," she smiled, adding that her back was in better shape than she thought. Proof of that: she finished second in the team's opener, and took third along with teammate John Kerns against Concordia.

WHY DID Tami pick Wayne State? "It's a small college where you can get to know the teachers and students. You're not one of 500 students in a classroom like in a big university." Her boyfriend is transferring from Iowa University has to do something with it, too, she noted.

Although Tami liked swimming in high school, she says swimming in college is no place for a girl. "College swimming is endurance. It's something a male swimmer can do better because he is stronger," she said.

But when it comes to diving, both men and women can compete, she added. "Judges tend to judge a girl on form while judging a guy on strength."

Tami isn't the first girl to try out for the college team. Last year two girls tried out but didn't make it. The reason she made it, Tami believes, is that the team needed another diver.

She's treated almost like one of the guys, she said. "They still tell dirty jokes when I'm around, but they kinda clean them up a little," she laughed.

WS Captures Loss

The Bears of Northern Colorado certainly were not in hibernation when the Wildcats of Wayne State came visiting Saturday night.

The hosts mauled Wayne, 83-65, after a 38-35 half.

Charlie Henderson led the Wildcats with 18 points, John Redmond with 15, was the only other major scorer. NC had four in twin digits.

Athlete Of The Week

LES THOMSEN
Wayne High School

Not too often does a wrestler get chosen for "Athlete of the Week" honors when he gets beaten. This week's selection, however, is an unusual young man.

Wayne High's Les Thomsen, the first area athlete singled out for the distinction since football action closed, lost a 9-3 decision to Randolph's Lester Loberg in Monday's dual at Randolph. But that loss isn't the reason Thomsen earns the award.

Saturday the three-year veteran on coach Don Koenig's team won four straight decisions to win the 138-pound division at the Blair invitational wrestling tournament.

At Blair, Thomsen took on all comers, gaining 7-4, 10-6, 10-2 and 6-4 decisions on his way to top honors.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomsen of rural Wakefield, Thomsen apparently has all the qualities necessary to become one of Koenig's leading wrestlers. "He's quick and very aggressive," Koenig pointed out, "and he doesn't give up."

Thomsen was behind 4-0 in the second period of his final match at Blair when he made a quick takedown to score two points and added another three points on a near fall. He finished the match by scoring one point on a reversal.

Last year was the first time Thomsen made the varsity squad. He came in at the fall end of the year and finished fourth at the district meet.

Eagles Drop Cage Opener

Rich Hanson's 32 points and Alan Benson's 16 combined to mar Allen High's opening basketball game as the pair led Coleridge to a 63-50 win at Allen Saturday night.

Hanson, who scored 17 the first half, led his club to a 23-18 first half lead when the Eagles failed to get off enough baskets to stay in the game.

Allen shot about 51 per cent for the night, said coach Bob Moore. But, he noted, the percentage wasn't "indicative of the game." Allen wasn't able to get a lot of shots because Coleridge dominated the offensive and defensive boards throughout the game, he said.

Senior Dave Dunn sparked Allen the second half, scoring eight of his 10 points the third quarter. Both seniors Don Kluever and Brian Hirschert, team leader with 12 points, hit six the last period as the Eagles narrowed Coleridge's 19-point lead.

Allen had consistent shooting from all five starters, Moore pointed out. "But what I need now is three reserve players who can take over for the starters so I can give them a rest," he said, adding strong reserve power might have helped when Kluever and Loren Book fouled out in the final period.

Coleridge's reserves also opened the season with a win, beating Allen 36-19.

The visitors took a 23-9 half time lead, never relinquishing the lead throughout the game. Leading scorer for Allen was Shawn Persinger with six.

WS Reserves Hit Norfolk

Wayne State's junior varsity cagers pulled out an overtime win the hard way Tuesday at Norfolk.

After trailing as much as 16 shortly after the half, the young Wildcats put the brakes on Northeast Tech's run and shoot game, caught up for a 76-76 tie at second half's end, then won in overtime, 83-82.

Coach Tim McCarthy said, "We took a time out after we got down 16 and decided not to stop their game and make them play our way. Our guys just kept their posse-and made it work."

The Blackhawks, defeated themselves with fouls — 30 of them, which gave Wayne 39 chances at the charity line, and 31 shots scored.

Andy Kaptain, the former Northeast Tech player, made a spectacle of himself, hitting 35 points for Wayne. Lenie Adams poured in 18, Joe Curt 14.

Randolph wrestlers stopped Wayne from scoring in the middle weights to post a 30-21 dual win over the Devils Monday night at Randolph.

Senior Don Nelson scored a 5-2 decision over Gene Korth to end Randolph's hopes of completely dominating the middle weights. According to Wayne coach Don Koenig, Nelson and senior Reg Godsey (185) "really looked tough."

WH Cage Fans Asked to Help Avoid Problems

Students attending Wayne High's first home basketball game to be held in the school auditorium Saturday night are being asked to park in the elementary school parking lot south of the high school.

That will leave the parking lot west of the high school open for adults and should eliminate any parking problems, according to high school principal Don Zeiss.

The Blue Devils play Columbus Lakeview Saturday night, their third game of the season. Friday they play at South Sioux City. Reserves play at 6:30.

Zeiss noted that seating is not expected to be a problem now that new bleachers are installed in the auditorium. Students and spectators members will be seated in the west bleachers, leaving the east bleachers open for adults, he said.

Entrance to the auditorium will be through the west door of the high school building, he added.

Home wrestling matches, which also will be held at the high school for the first time this year, will be handled in the same manner as basketball games except that only the east bleachers will be used, said Zeiss.

Wayne hosts Blair in a wrestling dual tonight (Thursday) for the Blue Devils' debut in the auditorium.

Members of the local volunteer fire department will help in parking vehicles during home basketball games, according to Zeiss. No parking problems are expected at the wrestling matches, he said.

'Buying Real Trees at Christmas Is Popular'

Contrary to some beliefs, buying freshly cut Christmas trees is not a thing of the past. According to Chicago, Ill., guest speaker at Monday's Kiwanis luncheon, there may be an increase in buying newly cut trees rather than artificial trees. The biology professor at Wayne State college pointed out that the variety of Christmas trees is one reason for the increasing sales. There are four kinds of trees on the market, Maier explained. They are pines, Douglas firs, white firs and spruce. Maier said many are using a Christmas tree to celebrate the holiday season didn't begin until about the year 800 when German farmers would gather after the harvest and dance around a tree.

Maier, who recently received his doctorate, said during his studies he discovered that growing Christmas trees in Nebraska is a big business. "Apparently people still are buying Christmas trees every year instead of buying artificial trees," he said. During the meeting, four Kiwanians from Yankton visited the Wayne chapter.

'Christmas Sky' Showings Near End at College

Wayne State's Dale Planter will present his current show, "The Christmas Sky," two more times, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 and Wednesday evening, Dec. 18, at 7:30.

The show presents the winter sky as it is now and as it was in the time of Copernicus. The Star of Bethlehem astonished observers watching middle eastern skies.

Planetarium director Carl Rump explains how astronomers calculate the scientific possibilities of that star, but he also leaves the possibility that science never can explain what it really was. Rump says a few dates remain open for special showings of "The Christmas Sky" up to Dec. 20. Organizations or school classes can arrange a showing by contacting Rump at Corbair Science Hall, where the planetarium is located.

Don Weible, sheriff of Wayne County, has been named president of the Nebraska Sheriffs and Peace Officers Association. Still to be named is the Chamber's representative on the Wayne County extension council. The council recently decided to reduce its membership from 15 to nine and to include a Chamber representative among its membership.

Named by Wittse to head up the 1975 membership drive were himself, Wessel, Jacobsen and Jim Marsh. The Chamber currently has 142 members. Wittse takes over as Chamber president in January, replacing Wessel.

'Tax Help Is A Call Away'

The Internal Revenue Service will again provide toll free telephone help to Nebraska taxpayers.

Everett Louny, IRS district director for Nebraska, noted that tax help from the IRS is still just a toll-free telephone call away for Nebraska taxpayers.

Taxpayers outside Omaha should call 800-642-9960 toll-free to get help.

"The toll free numbers are also listed in the tax instructions that accompany this year's forms," said Louny. "Taxpayers should be sure to check their instruction booklets for the correct number to call."

"If a taxpayer has a question while filling out his return, we encourage him to call for assistance from one of our taxpayer service representatives," he continued.

Youngsters Treated at Christmas Party

SATURDAY'S ANNUAL Christmas party at the city auditorium in Wayne was another big success, with youngsters filling the auditorium during the four-hour event put on by students at Wayne State College in cooperation with local businessmen. The party started several years ago to give parents, an opportunity to get their Christmas shopping done while the youngsters play, included everything from games to students dressed up in costumes to talks with Santa Claus. It also included hot dogs, pop and socks of candy for the ever-hungry youngsters. Sponsoring the party again this year were the men of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and their auxiliary, the Order of Diana, and the Kappa Delta Gamma sorority. Businessmen donated prizes, food and money to help make the party a success. Photo-identification, clockwise from top left—Youngsters make a pyramid as two big college students start bending under the weight; Santa (Mike Farley of Dubuque, Ia.) and Mrs. Santa (Sharon Best of Dodge) talk with youngsters about what they want for Christmas; Gary Boehle of St. Libory, left, and Al Anderson of Sioux City cook hot dogs and prepare buns for the youngsters; Pat Baumann of Spencer, Ia., holds young Traci Graef, daughter of Mrs. Mary Graef of Wayne, as she talks with big nosed Big Bird (Pat Doherty of Norfolk).

Candy Cane Lore From Days of Yore

Christmastime would not be complete without clusters of delicious and colorful candy canes adorning the Yule tree, on table and gift decorations, in holiday stockings, and of course, for sweet eating.

The origin of the candy cane goes back almost as far as the tradition of Christmas itself, according to the National Confectioners Association. In Europe, where most of our Christmas traditions originated, it was customary to decorate the tree with symbols of the newborn Christ. Candies represent the light of the world; the star recalled the first Christmas night. Those who came to worship the new King were portrayed in symbols — musical instruments representing the angels; crowns and golden scepters to signify the Magi; and the Shepherd's crook or cane to symbolize the three wise men who came with gifts.

Another European tradition currently finding a revival in modern Christmas celebrations is decorating the tree with ornaments made of food such as candy and cookies. In addition to symbolizing the Nativity, these foods expressed thanks for the daily bread, as well as provided Christmas treats for all to enjoy.

The candy cane as we know it today is principally an American creation, adapted from the European tree symbol. Even the colors used in the modern candy cane have their origins in antiquity. From ancient times colors were thought to have mystical associations with the earth, sea, air, fire and sun. Candy canes came to be red, white and green, as white represents purity, red symbolizes the Holy Spirit and green signifies cheerfulness, new life and the birth of Jesus.

One of the first candy canes to appear in America was in a Thomas Nast cartoon with Santa in his toy shop busily building toys and keeping tabs on good and bad children. The 19th century American cartoonist was primarily responsible for the fat, rosy cheeked appearance of our modern Santa.

For most people, almost anything bearing red and white stripes brings to mind the delightful cane-shaped confection. Legend has it that this association with the candy cane led a patient in an American hospital during World War II to coin the phrase, "candy striped," when referring to the nurses' aids clad in the red and white striped uniforms.

This striped confection even has influenced fashion and home furnishings where the term "candy striped" refers to a cheerful red or green and white striped design.

While the candy cane makes its most prominent appearance during the Christmas holidays, it is a year round favorite that can be considered as all American as its red and white stripes.

The story is expected to run between two and three minutes, however, about three or four hours of film was shot in the county.

Winside Board Rejects Pay Negotiative Group

The Winside school board Monday night rejected recognizing the Wayne County Education Association as the bargaining group of Winside teachers.

The members voted to recognize the group if it changed its name to the Winside Education Association and if the teachers agree to discuss five of the group's seven proposals for 1975-76 salary talks, said superintendent Don Leighton.

The board agreed to talk about the salary schedule, pay increments, extra-pay duty, health and accident insurance and teachers working on curriculum development, he said. In addition the board requested a list of teachers negotiating for new contracts, placing teachers on probation and salary ceilings.

Winside teachers wanted the board also to discuss grievance procedures and the final date for accepting signed contracts, according to Leighton.

During Monday's meeting, the board also rejected a junior high athletic lettering program. Leighton said any letters purchased for such a program will have to be returned.

Concerning girls basketball, the board held off making a decision until a later date.

In other action, the board approved the special education budget of approximately $11,000 retroactive to Aug. 26 in order to be reimbursed by the federal government, according to Leighton.

Also, members okayed paying for cleaning of band uniforms once a year. If cleaning is needed more than once, the student would pay for it, said Leighton.

a bicentennial theme and flavor. Marilyn Koch, secretary-manager of the society, said stockholders hope having a bicentennial fair will spur bicentennial activities in Wayne and throughout the county.

Mrs. Wette, whose son graduated at Wayne State, said she hopes local clubs, organizations and individuals will help her with any activities or projects that are undertaken. "It's going to take a lot of work," she admitted.

Prize

(Continued from page 1) to conclude the promotion. All drawings are held in the same way. Lists of numbers drawn at random will be posted in all cooperating stores at 1 p.m. and persons with tickets matching those numbers have until 8 p.m. to present their tickets at the Chamber office at 108 W. Third St. A total of 25 numbers will be drawn for the $100 prize and $50 will be drawn for the final $500 prize. The drawings correspond with the special nights Wayne stores will remain open until 9 p.m. for the convenience of local and area shoppers. Stores also will remain open on Thursday nights as usual, with the weekly Birthday Bucks drawings held on those evenings. Area shoppers may pick up their numbered tickets from local merchants.

Council

(Continued from page 1) istrator Fred Brink that the Wayne County Selective Localized Accident Prevention committee will discuss traffic speeds on the highways leading to the city at a coming meeting. Councilman Vakoc told the council that dangerous conditions now exist on at least Highway 25 on the west edge of the city. Brink noted that the city has no authority to set speed limits on the state highways except within the city limits. Voted 5-3 against doing away with the restriction prohibiting smoking during council meetings. In favor of wiping the ordinance off the books were Bane, Russell and Thomas. Voted 8-0 to put the city clerk's duties under the supervision of the city administrator rather than the council. The treasurer is required by law to remain directly under the council, according to city officials. Agreed informally before the start of Tuesday's meeting to back efforts to get a state law passed which would permit cities such as Wayne to subsidize public transportation up to one-half mill. Mayor Decker said after the meeting that the council likely will not agree to the city's providing public transportation but might agree to subsidizing a private taxi service. The former taxi business in Wayne closed several months ago because it could not make a profit, according to owner Vern Schultz. Agreed that persons seeking to erect signs along the highways in the city be required to get state approval before asking for council approval. Brink said that will eliminate problems which might arise if the city approves a sign and the state rejects it. Renewed the agreement with the state roads department which permits the state to maintain the highways within the city limits. That agreement costs the city $407.50 a year, according to Sherry.

Concert

(Continued from page 1) Gloria. "He is Born," "Two Christmas Songs" and "On Christmas-Night All Christians Sing." Accompanying the group of flutes for the last song will be the Kathy Dranselka and Susie Fredrickson. The choir will perform several pieces of music. "Pretty Little Baby" will feature Pat Dorsey and Beth Baier as soloists. "How Still He Rests" will feature Kay Pierson as soloist and "Standing In the Rain" will feature Bob Bergl as soloist. The second movement of "Chichester Psalms," written by Leonard Bernstein, will be performed with Larry Creighton as soloist. The piece is done in Hebrew, with the text taken from The 73rd Psalm.

County Fair

(Continued from page 1) Wayne as vice president, Dave Ley of Wayne as treasurer and Koch as secretary-manager. Stockholders agreed to hold a four-day fair in 1975, with the fair running Aug. 7-10. That is one week later than it has been in past years, according to Koch, but it will not conflict with any county fairs in this area of the state. Stockholders also agreed to try to get present stock into hands of new people, possibly some young people. Koch said that would bring new ideas into the organization, he noted. Koch said any area residents who would like to purchase stock in the society is welcome to do so.

Santa Visits Offered

Wayne parents who want to give their children a special treat this Christmas can have Santa Claus visit their home on Christmas eve, Christmas day or any other time before Christmas. Wayne County Jaycees are making the treats possible, dressing up as Santa to make the stops at local homes. ### Local Resident Wins $25 in Weekly Drawing

A Wayne woman, Marjorie Bennett, won $25 in last week's Birthday Bucks drawing in Wayne. She was at Wittig's Super Valu when the winning date was announced in all participating stores at 8:15 p.m. last Thursday night. Her birthday was the closest to the winning date drawn at random earlier. As a result of another week going by without the grand prize being claimed, that prize climbs to $750 this week. If there is no winner again this evening (Thursday), another $25 consolation prize will be awarded and the grand prize will jump to $775 for next week's drawing. All shoppers in the area are eligible to participate in the weekly drawings, and there are no restrictions on the number of times a person may win. No purchases are required to be eligible for the weekly drawings, but a person must be present in one of the participating stores in order to win either the grand prize or the consolation prize. Twenty-three million Americans have high blood pressure. Half of them don't know it. A simple test by your doctor will tell you for sure.

Statements Out

The 1974 real estate tax statements were mailed out to property owners in Wayne County this week, reports county treasurer Leon Meyer. Property owners may pay their taxes yet this year, Meyer notes, or they may wait until next year, to do so. Taxes are due Dec. 31 this year but do not become delinquent until May 1st of next year, he points out. The first half of the payments become delinquent in May and begin drawing nine per cent interest, he says.

Thought for Today

By Brian McBride
"Profit is a by-product of work; happiness is its chief product." — Henry Ford

The above bit of philosophy is not one we would normally attribute to the first Henry Ford, genius of the production line and beneficiary of immense profits from manufacturing cars. Ford comes to mind as a man dedicated solely to work, business and profits.

In retrospect, it seems probable that Henry Ford was so successful because he enjoyed his work. He was happy in his mission of providing low-cost transportation for the masses and, perhaps because he was happy, his work was financially well-rewarded.

Our memorial services are carefully planned to provide comforting memories and thus ease the emotional adjustment to loss.

Driving Exams To Be Given Here Wednesday

Driving license examinations will be given at the Wayne County courthouse in Wayne next Wednesday, Dec. 18, according to county treasurer Leon Meyer.

It was incorrectly reported in Monday's issue of The Wayne Herald that driving license examinations will be in Wayne only one more time this month to test those seeking driving licenses. The examinations were here on Wednesday this week and will be here again on Wednesday next week.

Exams may be taken at the courthouse between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. each Wednesday.

This month no exams will be given the last two Wednesdays because those days are holidays. In addition, license examiners will not give tests anywhere in the state on Jan. 2 and 3 because of a state meeting they will be attending, according to Meyer.

Those planning on taking driving exams in Wayne in the next few weeks will have to take them on Wednesday next week or else wait until Jan. 8, the next time the exams will be given in the city.

NU Head: 1974 Crop Yields Good Compared to Drouths of '36, '56

Nebraska's crop yields were relatively good in 1974 compared with the drouth years of 1936 and 1956, according to Dr. D. S. Hanway, chairman of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of Agronomy.

Precipitation for the cropping season from the previous Oct. 1 to Sept. 31 averaged 18.38 inches in 1974, 15.40 inches in 1956 and 16.50 inches in 1936. Annual precipitation across the state averages 22.33 inches.

Hanway used the cropping year for comparison because, he said, the moisture that falls during that period determines how much is available to the crop.

In spite of the drouth, and the extreme heat in July, corn, grain sorghum, and alfalfa yields in 1974 were considerably higher than in either 1936 or 1956, he said.

Improvements in varieties and technology can be traced by comparing yields in the drouth years, he said.

Per acre yields in 1936: corn, 3.2 bushels; grain sorghum, 6.5 bushels; alfalfa, 1.1 tons per acre.

In 1956 they were, respectively: 22 bushels, 14 bushels, and 1.5 tons.

The figures for 1974: corn, 26 bushels on dryland, 101 irrigated, for an overall average of 71 bushels per acre; grain sorghum, 35 bushels, and alfalfa, 2.3 tons.

The 1936 and 1956 averages for corn include that which was raised under irrigation, while the figures for 1974 separate irrigated from dryland corn for the first time, Hanway pointed out.

Soil moisture supplies across Nebraska in the spring of 1974 were excellent, Hanway pointed out. Heavy rains in September of 1973 built up a moisture reserve in the root zone that was a very significant factor in maintaining yields in 1974, he said.

The 101 bushel average for irrigated corn is significant to the Nebraska economy because Nebraska now has about five million irrigated acres, with irrigated acreage nearly doubling in the past 10 years, he said.

Soybean yields, 24 bushels per acre this year, cannot be compared with 1936 because beans are relatively new to Nebraska. The average in 1956 was 11.5 bushels per acre.

Improvements in yields since the great drouth of the 1030s have been steady because in-cresed irrigation and constantly improved varieties, pest and disease control, fertility practices, tillage practices and irrigation practices, Hanway said.

Much of this improvement can be attributed directly to research and extension by scientists of the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources, he noted.

A few examples:

- A succession of improved breeding lines and varieties.
- Identification of effective chemicals and determination of the best ways to use them to control pests and diseases.
- Development of conservation tillage methods that place seed in contact with moist soil but leave crop residues on top to help hold the soil in place and reduce evaporation of moisture.
- Development of irrigation practices that maximize production and minimize water and energy use.
- Development of terrace designs that hold rain where it falls.

One example of an improved tillage practice that will have a large impact on Nebraska agriculture in "ecofallow", developed by NU scientists at the North Platte Station over a period of 10 years, Hanway said.

Fallow is leaving a field idle for a year between wheat crops so it can store up a reserve of moisture from the rain that falls.

Conventional fallow consists of plowing and cultivating to control weeds (black fallow), or substituting to control weeds; yet leave straw on to keep the soil from washing or blowing.

Either way, tillage is needed to keep weeds from using up the stored moisture. However, stirring the soil results in evaporation of moisture from the soil zone loosened by tillage, Hanway said.

With ecofallow, weeds are controlled with chemicals and corn, sorghum or wheat planted directly into the untilled stubble, he said. The soil is protected by surface residues from blowing or washing, and considerable extra moisture is saved.

Some farmers are now using ecofallow to grow corn and sorghum in low rainfall south western Nebraska and getting good results, he said.

Proper employment of the practice could result in one of the biggest boosts to crop production in western Nebraska in many years, Hanway concluded.

ASC Committeemen To Gather in Wayne

Newly elected members of the Wayne County ASC community committees will meet in the ASC office in Wayne today (Thursday) at 1:30 p.m. to vote a member of the county committee.

Currently ending his second three-year term on the committee is Ralph Olson of Carroll. He is eligible to be named to the three-man committee for one more term.

Also named today will be the chairman and vice chairman of the three-man committee. Currently holding the chairman's post is Aiden Johnson of Wakefield. Norris Hansen of Winside is vice chairman. The chairman and vice chairman serve one-year terms.

Delegates also will name two alternates to the three-man committee in case any member is unable to serve his term.

Johnson said that ballots mailed out to farmers in the recent community committee elections have been counted.

The election resulted in a chairman, vice chairman, regular member and first and second alternates being named to the committees.

Results of that election, with members listed in the order given above:

Brenna, Plum Creek Precincts — Otto Baler, Walter Vahkamp, Ernest Sietken, Warren Holt, Grew, Melvin Myers.

Chapin, Deer Creek — Russell Hall, Gurney, Hansen, Dean Owens, John Peterson, LeRoy Petersen.

Garfield, Sherman — Vernon Rudebusch, Alfred Baden, Alfred H. E. Mangels, Hans Burmester, Lester Keage.

Hancock, Hoskins — Vernon Behmer, Lanny Maas, George Jaeger, LeRoy Darmer, Reuben Puls.

Hunter, Leslie, Logan — Elvis Olson, Kenneth McQuistan, Stan Baver, Melvin Wilson, Cornelius Leonard.

Srahan, Wilbur — Henry A. Arp, Aiden Dunklau, Lowell Rehnwisch, Howard Mau, Donald Carlson.

The first three listed in each case are eligible to participate in today's convention.

Kid Power

Twelve members of the Kid Power 4-H Club met Dec. 2 in the Edward Gnirk home for their Christmas party. Leaders, parents, and members participated in games.

The group discussed selling 4-H cookbooks as a money raising project and cookie exchange was held.

The Jan. 4 meeting will be in the home of Kim McCallison. Lynette Gnirk, news reporter.

EXTENSION NOTES

By Anna Marie Kreifels

Flaming Fabrics Take Lives

Each year thousands of deaths and injuries result from burns associated with clothing and fabrics that ignite and burst into flame. These accidents often happen in the home, and children and elderly folks are the most frequent victims.

What can you do to keep your family safe from fire related accidents? Practice fire safety all the time!

In a recent survey, 98 per cent of the fire chiefs across the nation answering the survey identified "lack of public fire and safety education" as the nation's primary fire problem.

Children's sleepwear in sizes 0-6x is required by law to be flame retardant. All such garments manufactured after June 29, 1973 must comply to the fire safety standards. Consumers should look for safety standards on the labels.

Some garments manufactured before the compliance date might still be on the market. Launder the garment as directed to preserve the flame retardant features.

Look around your home, especially during the winter holidays, and become aware of possible fire hazards. Alert the family to exercise special care around the open fireplace, burning candles, the flame on your gas range, hobby activities that might involve open flames and ash trays when in use.

Preventive fire safety education takes continuous alertness. A moment of carelessness can result in tragedy.

Home extension clubs in Northeast Nebraska will be studying a lesson on fabric flammability in 1975.

House Mice

Mice are entering homes now. They will continue to be pests in the home during the fall and winter, and will remain all year if given a chance.

Use of poisoned baits in the home is not recommended. Fast or slow acting baits may result in a dead mouse that cannot be located to be removed. The odor is highly offensive. If baits are used, use them outdoors in bait stations.

In the home, use mouse traps. There is a variety of traps on the market. The old fashioned wood base spring mouse trap is hard to beat. Bait the trap with bacon rind, peanut butter, margarine, flour, bread or pieces of chocolate bar pressed into the bait pit. Where mice are numerous use a half dozen traps at several locations. Place them along a wall, or behind appliances. Put a few in the garage.

Swine Ulcers

Stomach ulcers in swine are a real problem. It is estimated that as much as 70 per cent of swine going to slaughter have either active ulcers or a least inflamed stomachs.

Some reasons for ulcers in swine include raising pigs in confinement, type of ration, fast gains and conditions of stress. Studies have shown that pelleted feeds or re-dough pelleted feeds increase ulcers.

This increase of ulcers usually occurs regardless of protein source — soybeans, fish meal or meat meal. Fibrous feeds such as alfalfa, oat hulls and wood shavings have been used with varying results to reduce ulcers. The feeding of oat hulls and/or wood shavings of five per cent of the ration resulted in a higher percentage of normal stomachs. There is no research to support that antibiotic feeding is a cause of ulcers.

If ulcers are diagnosed as a problem, the following procedures should be considered by the producer:

- Avoid the use of pelleted feeds.
- Provide a medium grind (16 to 20 sieve).
- Add oats to ration.

Laurel to Host Swine Meeting

A swine production workshop will be held in the Laurel city auditorium Friday beginning at 9:30 a.m. with registration and coffee, courtesy of the Security National Bank.

A registration fee will cover the luncheon and a special swine production notebook.

The program will cover new and improved swine management methods and confinement housing. William Anischwede, state extension swine specialist, and Robert Fritschen, district extension swine specialist at the Northeast Station near Concord, will be featured speakers. Programs are available upon request from the Cedar and Dixon County extension offices.

Area swine producers and interested businessmen are invited to attend the workshop, which should be adjourned by 7:30 p.m.

The event is being sponsored jointly by the Cedar and Dixon County extension services and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln in cooperation with the Laurel bank.

Tax Guide Available

The 1975 issue of Farmers Tax Guide, a timely publication for area farmers getting ready to pay their taxes, is now available at the Wayne County extension office or any of the five banks in the county.

The 64 page booklet can be picked up at the extension office and the banks or it can be mailed to farmers who telephone and request a copy, according to county agent Don Spitzer.

A Department of Treasury publication, the free guide includes a list of dates important to farmers, information on filing requirements, explanation on how to determine the basis for gains and losses, information on investment credit, employment taxes, farm business expenses, fuels tax credit and other information.

Included in the guide are samples of records and tax forms used by farmers, illustrations on how good records help a farmer prepare an accurate tax return and information on how a farmer can pay only the correct amount of tax.

The booklet is available at either the First National Bank or State National Bank in Wayne, Winside State Bank, Commercial State Bank in Hoskins or the Farmers State Bank in Carroll.

Singing for Christmas

SANTA CLAUS was a few moments late, forcing youngsters to sing their last tune more than once, but he finally made his appearance at the Christmas concert put on by Carroll Elementary School students Monday night in the village auditorium. The concert, titled "Everywhere, Everywhere, Christmas Tonight," included seasonal songs and readings from around the world. Among them were the American spiritual "Mary Had a Baby," the English carol "I Saw Three Ships," the German folk tune "Christmas" and the French song "The First Noel." A couple of the youngsters eye the cameraman (above) as the full group of students present their last songs. On the left are the seven youngsters who dressed up in special costumes for the presentations. Clockwise from bottom: Jodi Olson, fourth grade; Curtis Brockman, fourth; Karen Long, second; Brian Loberg, third; Lenne Schmaie, third; Sharon McLain, third; and Becky Janssen, second. They presented songs and readings from Sweden, France, Germany, Mexico, Holland and England, respectively. Their parents are the Lowell Johnsons, Bob Brockmans, Richard Longes, Ray Lobergs, Darrell Schmaies, Howard McLains and Richard Janssens.

Mrs. Marvin Nelson of rural Wayne has been named to the 403 Advisory Committee, the committee which will make recommendations dealing with the law (LB 403) which provides for funding educational programs for the handicapped.

Members of the committee were announced Friday in Lincoln. Mrs. Anne Campbell, who will become Nebraska's commissioner of education next year, was named chairman of the committee.

LB 403 allows the state to pay 90 per cent of the additional expense of educating handicapped children. School districts pay the other 10 per cent.

Administration of the law became an issue recently when it was learned that some districts which had no handicapped children were being sent payments to cover costs of services from Educational Service Units.

College Institutes Combine Travel, Learning

Individuals interested in combining travel abroad with an education program will be interested in several international programs planned for this summer.

Wayne State College is offering, for the seventh time, the Nebraska-Scandinavian Summer Institute, to run June 30-July 27, and for the second time, the Nebraska British Summer Institute, to run July 1-July 30.

Also to be offered this summer are three separate Nebraska-European Institutes. These institutes, set up through a joint effort of the Nebraska college system, will be the Spain Institute, July 3-Aug. 7, and the France and Germany Institutes, both scheduled for July 1-30.

Up to six hours graduate and undergraduate credit can be earned through participation in the programs. Cost is $450 each for all the four-week programs. The Spain tour, a five-week program, costs $835.

This cost includes round trip airfare, full tuition, room and board, all scheduled tour fees, service charges and tips and most meals. Not included will be health and travel insurance, passport costs, transportation to and from the departure site and personal spending money.

Deadline for application is March 1 for Scandinavian and British Institutes and March 15 for any of the other European institutes. Further information is available from the WSC registrar or various tour directors.

The Scandinavian Institute, directed by Professor Norman Nordsrand, will begin with five days in Copenhagen, and Environs. The group will spend July 6 to 19 at Solsted with side trips and classes at Lolland Folk High School.

The four-departing Solsted July 20-for-Oslo-Bergen, Norway, with sight seeing and special visits planned en route. The remainder of the institute will be spent touring, sight seeing and studying in Norway.

Scandinavian Institute classes will emphasize Scandinavian culture and contributions to the Western world, politics, social institutions and their democratic development.

The British Institute, directed by James R. Phifer and Sayre Anderson, will include five days in Edinburgh, three days in York, four days of unlimited free travel in the United Kingdom on a British Rail pass and 18 days in London.

London offers, in addition to palaces, castles, courts, museums and churches, a superb theatre season.

This institute provides a series of lectures on modern British culture at the University of London. Special features will include a trip to Stratford, William Shakespeare's home, and tickets to two performances by the Royal Shakespeare Company.

The Nebraska-Spain Institute will begin with a choice of one of two 10-day tours. The Northern Spain tour will visit Madrid, Avila, Segovia, Valladolid, Burgos, Santander, San Sebastian, Barcelona, and Zaragoza. The Southern Spain tour stops at Madrid, Avila, Segovia, Cordoba, Seville, Granada and Alcala.

All tour participants will meet at Valencia for the academic program. Classes will be taught by qualified professors and teachers from Spain and the United States at the University of Valencia campus and the Manganil Institute of Languages. Classes will run from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. each day, allowing plenty of time to enjoy the sandy Mediterranean beaches in the afternoon.

The courses offered are not only for students who have some knowledge of Spanish, but also for those with no background in the language who wish to learn about the Spanish culture and civilization.

Details are being completed for the Nebraska German Institute, to feature tours in Cologne, Koblenz and Mainz, and study at the Mainz Bingen area by the Rhine River, and for the Nebraska France Institute, to be located this year in Paris.

The Nebraska European Institutes are directed by Dr. Rafael Sosa Brochures on the programs in France, Germany and Spain can be picked up at Room 202 of the WSC Humanities Building.

Some Surveys Back; Others Needed Soon

Some 500 of the community attitude surveys distributed in Wayne several weeks ago have been sent to Lincoln so they can be prepared for computer analysis, according to Chamber of Commerce manager Howard Will.

Another 150 of the surveys have been picked up or returned to the Chamber office in recent days, he noted, and they will be sent to Lincoln so responses on them can be fed into the computer.

However, several hundred of the questionnaires are still in Wayne homes and will not be used in the survey unless they are returned as soon as possible, says Rowan Wittse, president-elect of the Chamber.

Wittse, who helped organize the distribution and collection of the surveys, urged local residents who still have the questionnaires to fill them out and mail them to or drop them off at the Chamber office. Surveys may also be left at either bank in the city or at Saw Mor Drugs on the north edge of the community, he noted.

Local Kiwanians plan an asking for the surveys when they cover part of the community in their popcorn sale within the next few days. The Kiwanians picked up many of the surveys when they sold bags of popcorn on the west edge of Wayne several days ago.

The survey, the first comprehensive one conducted in Wayne in several years, asks a variety of questions, including ones on industrial development, job opportunities, housing, community services and the like.

Results of the survey will be compiled into a booklet which will be made available to the public.

Tax Forms Are Nearly Ready For Distributing

A total of 587,636-1040 and 1040A individual income tax packages will be distributed in Nebraska within the next few weeks, according to the Internal Revenue Service.

For the first time, the tax packages for farmers, ranchers and commercial fishermen will be printed on recycled paper as an experiment, says Everett Loury, IRS district director for Nebraska. Eventually IRS hopes to print all tax forms on recycled paper for environmental and economic reasons, he notes.

The forms include the addition of a "red" box in connection with the 1976 Presidential Election Campaign Fund check off, allowing taxpayers to check "yes" or "no" in answer to the question of whether they want to designate $1 ($2 on joint returns) to the fund. A check off designation does not decrease any refund nor increase the tax liability of taxpayers.

Loury said the new forms are much like last year's and that taxpayers will be able to use their 1973 forms as a guide in preparing their 1974 returns. He said the main difference between the 1973 and 1974 forms is the reintroduction of Schedule B for the reporting of dividend and interest income.

On 1973 returns taxpayers listed the total for all dividends and interest income. On the 1974 forms, taxpayers who have more than $100 of dividend income or $100 of interest income must file Schedule B.

A section headed "Highlights" on the front page of the forms package draws attention to the IRS toll free telephone service, the new rule regarding the interest and dividend ceiling, and that IRS supervisors occasionally monitor telephone calls.

The director stressed that monitoring calls is solely for the purpose of spot checking on the quality of this service. He emphasized that no telephone calls are recorded and no record is made of the taxpayer's name or address unless, at the request of the taxpayer, a follow-up telephone call is necessary.

Some people believe that bubbles clustered in the center of their coffee means they will soon receive money!

The Canada and whitefront harvest in the western portion of the state was reported lower than in previous years. The late arrival of the dark geese in the west was partially to blame for the slow hunting, and low water at McConaughy provided extensive sandbars and resting places for the late arriving birds leaving them inaccessible to hunters.

'Yup, They're Angels'

"ANGELS" that's what a kibitzer called Wes Beckenhauer, left, and Stan Morris after they hurriedly made repairs on Santa's mobile sleigh when it broke down in Wayne Monday. Within about half an hour, the sleigh was back in business, giving rides about the city to youngsters still captivated by that jolly old man with a flowing white beard. Some of those youngsters crowd around Santa (really Larry Fairmon of Lawrence) as he hands out candy during one of his stops. The Chamber of Commerce brought the Superior based sleigh to the city.

Medicare Helping In Kidney Cases

Medicare is now paying $3 million a week for health care expenses of over 15,000 people who have chronic kidney disease, according to Dale Branch, social security district manager in Norfolk.

Medicare health insurance became available July 1, 1973 to workers insured under social security or their dependents who have chronic kidney disease.

Medicare coverage begins the fourth month after renal dialysis (artificial kidney treatment) starts. Coverage lasts for 12 months after dialysis ends or the patient has a successful kidney transplant.

Medicare also helps pay for a wide variety of the health care expenses of people 65 and over and disabled people of any age who have been entitled to social security disability payments for 24 consecutive months or more, he noted.

LINCOLN — Terry Carpenter may not be there... Excitement brewing (minus Carpenter?) for legislature

Excitement brewing (minus Carpenter?) for legislature

Excitement brewing (minus Carpenter?) for legislature... After the court decision might not be final because the state constitution makes the legislature the final judge of its own membership.

Excitement brewing (minus Carpenter?) for legislature... which finances most of the services — has encouraged him in his planning for the human services department so it can get a better return on its dollars.

Excitement brewing (minus Carpenter?) for legislature... The new freshmen are senators-elect Douglas Bereuter of Ulica, Walter George of Blair, Bill Burrows of Adams, Donald Dwork of Columbus, Ron Cope of Kearney, Myron Rumbery of North Platte, Jack Mills of Big Springs and Larry Stoney, Jerry Koch, Tom Fitzgerald and Warren Swigart, all of Omaha.

Excitement brewing (minus Carpenter?) for legislature... They will be replacing senators Walter Epke of York, Blair Richendler of Walthill, Fred Carstens of Beatrice, Herb Nore of Genoa, Gerald Stromer of Kearney, James Waldron of Callaway, Ramey Whitley of Chappell and Omaha Richard Fellman, Richard Proud, Duke Snyder and David Stahmer.

All but Epke and Richendler decided against seeking new legislative terms... The new team gathers Jan. 8 to start the 1975 session and, by secret ballot, choose its leaders.

OBSERVATIONS

Worth a compliment

Those Wayne State College students who treated Wayne area youngsters to a Christmas party Saturday in the city auditorium deserve a big "thank you"...

In Washington

Those notes from teacher may be coming to light

By RON HENDREN WASHINGTON — Just how much access should students and parents have to information collected about them by educational institutions?

Parents and students be allowed access to school records about them. In that effort, Buckley had the help of the National Student Lobby, a level-headed group and certainly the most powerful student organization in Washington since the Vietnam war.

Thoughts for today

THURSDAY — The love of Christ is too large for any heart to hold it. I Corinthians 13:8 — The love of Christ constraineth us. FRIDAY — Don't try to hold God's hand or Him hold yours. Isaiah 41 — I, the Lord thy God, will hold thy right hand saying unto thee, Fear not. I will help thee.

'Non-Workers Are 10% Of County Work Force'

How many Wayne County men are non-workers by choice? How many men in the local area, over age 16, are unemployed — neither working, looking for work nor going to school? As in most parts of the nation, their number is increasing year-by-year.

According to the latest figures from the U.S. Department of Commerce, there are now some 401 Wayne County men in this inactive class. Of this total, 106 are under 65, 295 over 65.

They represent 10.3 per cent of the over-16 population. Elsewhere across the country, the average is 14.9 per cent.

For the most part, they are people who have a source of income or who have acquired sufficient resources or financial backing to enable them to not work, often at a comparatively early age.

Although there are many among them who are unable to work because of physical or mental conditions and although there are some shirkers who rely upon the rest of society to provide for them, the great majority are quite different. Because their funds are adequate for their needs, they don't have to work and they don't choose to do so.

Throughout the United States as a whole, the total in the non-work, non-schooled category is close to 10 million, the Commerce Department reports. It compares with 6,800,000 in 1960. More than half of them are 65 or older.

In Wayne County, some 43.7 per cent of the male population over 65 are still in the labor force. Nationally, figures show, 24.8 per cent remain on the active rolls.

What keeps the others going financially? Outside of savings, interest, private pensions, dividends and other income from investments, their chief source of funds is government "transfer payments."

These include social security, unemployment insurance, welfare and veterans benefits.

During the past year, when personal income in the United States amounted to $936 billion, no less than $104 billion of it came from transfer payments, according to the Commerce Department.

Chiefly because of these payments, retirement has become feasible for more and more people. As a result, the proportion of non-workers to workers has been rising.

A Special Treat

LITTLE three-year-old Lori Sue Perry got a special treat during Santa's visit to the city Monday. Santa Claus (really Larry Fairmon of Lawrence) holds her on one of the reindeer which leads his special mobile sleigh as it gives rides to youngsters. Lori, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Perry of Wayne, was one of several hundred youngsters who boarded the sleigh for free rides around the city.
