Free Pork Is Offered To Shoppers

Area shoppers will get some free meat and the pork industry will get a shot in the arm during Wayne's Pork Days promotion all this week.

Highlight of the promotion, being sponsored by the local Chamber of Commerce, will be a drawing Saturday for four pork loins. That drawing will be held at 3 p.m. in front of the Chamber of Commerce.

All during this week, shoppers can register in participating businesses for that drawing as well as individual drawings for free pork chops conducted by the businesses.

The promotion ties in with Tuesday's Area Swine Day scheduled for the city auditorium.

One of the featured speakers at that program will be Bobby Moser, assistant animal science professor at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. He will discuss "Sow Feed Alternatives" during the program, one of three scheduled around the state this week. The program begins at 10 a.m. and runs through the afternoon.

Also speaking during the day will be other UNL animal scientists. Topics will include herd health management, avoiding problems through board management and selection for increased ovulation rate.

Wayne's Pork Days promotion was scheduled by the Chamber's retail committee to emphasize the importance of the farmer to the area's economy.

New Decorations

THIS IS one of the plywood figures created by students at Wayne High School to help decorate the auditorium now that the school is playing athletic contests there. Also created were pennants of all the schools in the West Husker Conference. The decorations prompted a letter to the editor, which appears on the editorial page inside this issue of The Wayne Herald.

Wayne's 1974 Community Chest fund drive has fallen about $500 short of its $11,450 goal, but it has surpassed the $10,000 figure for the first time in at least seven years if not the first time since the drive began. A total of $10,933.14 had been collected in the drive by last Friday, according to an annual report presented at a meeting of the board of directors.

"We came pretty close to the goal this year, and we're getting closer every year," said retiring board president Sid Hillier in reflecting back on the drive.

After naming four new board members and the board president and vice president for 1975, the board voted to distribute a total of $9,800 to nine different agencies according to percentages agreed upon earlier.

Receiving shares of the $9,800 will be the local recreation program, Wayne's Senior Citizens Center, Red Scouts, Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Salvation Army, Arthritis Foundation, Florence Crittenton Home in Sioux City and the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

Wayne's recreation program one which provides every thing from flag football for youngsters to basketball and volleyball for adults will be the biggest beneficiary of the funds. The program will receive 27.7 per cent of the total disburse.

Named to three year terms on the board were Dave Ley, Neil Dinges and Kay Swerczek. Dick Manley was named to a one year term.

These four replace Hillier, Jan Liska, George Phelps and Marilyn Carhart. Mrs. Carhart took over the first of the year as secretary of the board, replacing Vera Hummel.

Kim Swartz was named to see "CHEST", page 4.

Mandigo: Very Little of the Pig Is Wasted

What comes from a pig? If you say "ham and bacon," you're just scratching the surface. Every 250 pound hog that goes to market produces about 180 pounds of carcass, but also yields 70 pounds of by products such as gelatin and pharmaceuticals.

The old adage, "Everything is used but the squeal," still holds true in today's pork processing industry, says Roger Mandigo, University of Nebraska-Lincoln meats specialist.

Mandigo will tell what every part of the pig is used for and its current dollar value during the Area Swine Day program set for Tuesday at Wayne.

The biggest portion of the pig, of course, eventually turns up on the consumer's table as high quality pork product, including retail cuts such as ham, bacon, spareribs, sausage, pork chops or roasts," Mandigo explains.

"But other parts of the animal have value, too. For example, the front foot, which is edible, is worth about 30 cents, while the hind foot goes to the rendering plant at a value of about seven cents.

"Many of the organs go into sausage or specialty meats. The skin from the head is used to make gelatin, and the jawbone is used in bone meal for animal feeds. Blood is used to produce pharmaceuticals, adhesives and animal feeds.

"About 99.9 per cent of the pig can be accounted for," he notes.

The Area Swine Day program will begin at 10 a.m. in the city auditorium.

Being held in conjunction with the program is a week-long pork promotion in the city.

That city-wide promotion will result in numerous shoppers winning certificates for pork chops through drawings in participating stores. In addition, the Chamber of Commerce will give away four pork loins on Saturday.

Matson Fund Grows

More than $1,000 had been contributed to the Dr. Roy Matson memorial fund by Friday morning.

The fund was set up by the Wayne Hospital Foundation and Dr. Matson's family following the death of Dr. Matson late in December. Dr. Matson had practiced in Wayne for nearly 30 years.

Most of the money donated to the fund will be used to equip a patient room in Dr. Matson's memory and the other half will be contributed to the American Cancer Society.

Donations may be sent to either the First National Bank or State-National Bank in Wayne.

Felony Charge Results in Hearing Date

A preliminary hearing has been set for Thursday at 11 a.m. in Wayne County court to determine whether William Ingram is to be bound over to district court for trial on a charge of auto theft.

The hearing will be before district county judge Joseph Hunker of West Point.

Ingram was freed on $5,000 bond Friday after being brought back to Wayne Thursday following his arrest several days earlier in Flagstaff, Ariz. He was returned to Wayne by county sheriff Don Weible and city police chief Vern Fairchild.

Ingram was charged with auto theft, a felony, on Dec. 18, several days after he allegedly left Wayne in a 1973 automobile belonging to Pat Dendinger of Wayne.

Although his bond was set by associate county judge Luverna Hilton at $5,000, a state law See FELONY, page 4.

Shoplifting — Who Pays the Biggest Price?

By BOB BARTLETT
A person caught shoplifting isn't the only one who pays for the criminal act. The consumer also gets billed.

It's no secret that part of high prices of today's goods reflect the increasing costs of shoplifting. This time businesses, spend in court prosecuting shoplifters plus money spent to set up systems to detect shoplifters.

Most retail businesses figure about two per cent of their profits are eaten away by shoplifters, Townsend pointed out.

It doesn't look like the prices of goods will drop, says Townsend, who believes that if money continues to tighten, there will be more cases of people shoplifting because they can't afford some items.

"If we didn't have to spend the time in court or watch the aisles for possible shoplifters, prices of goods might decrease," Townsend said.

What is Gibson's trying to do to stop shoplifting? The store has a system that electronically screens each person as he or she enters and leaves the store. If a person tries to leave the store without paying for merchandise, the alarm is triggered.

Not all goods will trigger the alarm, Townsend explained, but the shopper doesn't know which items will. He is taking a big chance of being caught if he tries to take anything, Townsend noted.

"The purpose of the electronic screen isn't to catch people, but to serve as a deterrent," Townsend emphasized.

Since the opening of Gibson's in November of 1973, shoplifting arrests have been increasing in Wayne. In 1973 only three shoplifters were charged in Wayne County court. Last year the number jumped to 20.

"People don't realize what the penalty for shoplifting is," said associate county judge Luverna Hilton. The penalty can run as high as $500 or six months in jail or both, she said. In addition, a person found guilty of shoplifting establishes a criminal record that will be with him for the rest of his life, she noted.

The second shoplifting offense is a felony resulting in a mandatory jail sentence of up to one year in the Nebraska Penal Complex, judge Hilton pointed out. "There isn't any alternative for the second offense. We have to send the guilty person to jail," she said.

There isn't any one single age bracket of men and women which dominates in shoplifting cases. Since Gibson's installed its system in October, people between the ages of 14 and 75 have been caught trying to leave the store with unpaid goods, according to Townsend.

The hottest item on the shoplifter's list is women's cosmetics, Townsend said. The reasons cosmetics are stolen varies, but shoppers involved usually cite increasing prices, he said.

In most cases those involved in shoplifting have enough money to pay for the stolen goods. See SHOPLIFTING, page 5.

Wayne Herald to Have Its Own Legislative Reporter

WAYNE HERALD publisher J. Alan Cramer looks over a recent issue of the newspaper with Ivy Harper, the newspaper's legislative correspondent who will be writing stories on statehouse happenings throughout this session.

Thanks to a grant from the Garnett Foundation, The Wayne Herald and eight other newspapers in the state will be able to offer their readers in-depth stories on legislative activities this session.

The $11,500 grant was made to the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Journalism school to finance a program aimed at improving legislative coverage, according to NU journalism director Neale Coppel.

Other cooperating newspapers are at Norfolk, Oakland, Papillion, York, North Platte, Ogallala, Sidney and Crawford.

In addition, about five UNL students will be assigned to radio stations around the state to cover legislative activities for their listeners, Coppel said.

Reporting on the legislature for the Wayne Herald will be Ivy Harper, a 22-year-old senior who will graduate in May. A native of Lincoln, she is majoring in political science and journalism.

working with, meet regularly with the senators or senator from the area covered by the newspaper and likely produce one major story at the end of the legislative session for use by all the newspapers, according to Coppel.

Also, students will meet once a week in a seminar to listen to talks by legislators and other governmental officials as well as meet regularly with instructors.

Sandwiched in with coverage of the Nebraska legislature will be coverage of a two-house legislature. Nebraska is unique in having a one-house legislature, said Coppel, and students will benefit from covering a two-house legislature.

Coppel said the grant making the program possible is a one-time grant, but there is the possibility it will be renewed next year if it is successful.

He said the program is possibly the only one of its kind in the country.

Miss Harper, a 1970 graduate of Pius X High School in Lincoln met last week with Herald publisher, J. Alan Cramer and editor Norvin Hansen to map out stories she will do during the coming weeks. She will keep in regular touch with the newspaper by telephone and trips to Wayne throughout the legislative session.

Her first story is scheduled to appear in Thursday's issue of The Wayne Herald.

Irrigation Meeting is Today

Wayne area farmers interested in learning how corn irrigators in Wayne County fared last year are invited to attend a meeting today (Monday) at 1:30 at the National Guard Armory in Wayne.

County agent Don Spitze and George Rehm, district agronomist at the Northeast Station near Concord, will report and present statistics on 15 farmers in the county who kept information on their irrigated corn fields last growing season.

Handed out during the meeting will be an approximate 55-page booklet filled with information on those farmers as well as comparisons of irrigated and dryland corn fields. Information will cover such areas as yields; herbicides used; fertilizers applied; water pumped and production costs, according to Spitze. In addition, the booklet will contain a complete analysis of each field and suggestions on how profits might be improved, he noted.

"This is probably the most complete survey of irrigation that has ever been done in this part of the state," Spitze noted.

Applicants should be near the top in their class scholastically and should be strong leaders both in the school and the community, he noted. Applications, which must be submitted by Feb. 10, are available from Carlson. Eat Breakfast And Be More Alert In most homes, breakfast is a hurried, fix-it-yourself meal since each family member starts the day at a different time. But breakfast is still important. Studies at the University of Iowa have shown that people who eat a nutritionally adequate breakfast work more efficiently and are more alert than people who skip breakfast. What is a nutritionally adequate breakfast? Many nutritionists recommend that breakfasts provide about 25% of the daily need of protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals. This does not mean that breakfast has to be a big meal or take a long time to prepare. A bowl of cereal with milk is a good start toward the day's supply of needed nutrients. Ready-to-eat and instant or quick cooking hot cereal furnish needed vitamins, iron, carbohydrates and protein. To complete this easy-to-fix breakfast add a citrus juice or fruit, enriched toast and milk to drink.

PLANS are underway to make next year's Wayne State Christmas holiday basketball tournament better than this year's.

According to college athletic director LeRoy Simpson, plans are to have a breakfast for all high school and college players in the tourney as well as people helping to make the tournament possible. Simpson, speaking at a recent Second Guessers meeting, said plans are to advertise the tournament by giving tournament T-shirts to youths helping out.

The only problem in the 1975 tourney will be the dates — Dec. 30-31, Jan. 2. Because the second day of the tourney is New Year's Eve, only college teams will play, Simpson pointed out. Other arrangements will be made for the high school games, he said.

This year's tourney grossed about $3,570 and showed a profit close to $760, according to a financial statement Simpson handed out.

DURING the meeting, members learned that a former WS football standout, defensive end Stan Lewis, probably will be drafted between the fourth and eighth rounds of the professional football draft when it starts Jan. 28, according to football coach Del Stollenberg.

In talking with scouts from professional football teams, Stollenberg learned the 6-4, 240-pound senior is rated as the 18th best lineman in the nation.

CONCERNING next year's football team, Stollenberg said he's in the process of looking for tackles and defensive backs.

Stollenberg has several prospects in Nebraska and Iowa, but it will be a while before he finds out if they commit themselves to Wayne State.

Already Stollenberg has landed one of the area's top fullbacks when Kirk Gardner of Wakefield decided to transfer from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Gardner is attending WS this term and is planning to attend classes this summer to be eligible for football. Although Stollenberg says he isn't hurrying for running backs right now, Gardner will be a welcomed addition.

You may recall that Kirk tripped out for the Cornhusker team in 1973 as a walk on. Gardner was a strong candidate until a knee injury sidelined him.

Stollenberg said Gardner hasn't decided if he wants to participate on the college's wrestling team. While attending Wakefield High, Gardner twice won the state Class C 155-pound title in his junior and senior years.

A NEW series, "Husker Basketball," premiered on the Nebraska ETV network last Thursday at 7:30. The half hour live program featured coach Joe Cipriano and Lincoln sportscaster Dick Perry as co-hosts along with a guest player.

replace Hillier as president of the group, and Joan Potts was named to fill the vice presidency position held by Mrs. Carhart before she became secretary.

Bill Workman will be chairman for next fall's drive, replacing Ernie Thayer, who guided the 1974 drive to about 95 percent of the goal. Workman had served as vice chairman of last year's drive.

After paying bills from last fall's drive, the board had a total of $9,834.80 to distribute to the nine different agencies. The board agreed to keep $34.80; plus and late donations which may come in to help launch the 1975 drive.

Shoplifting

Item or items, Townsend noted. One recent case involved a woman who purchased about $33 worth of goods. As she tried to leave, the alarm went off. Later it was discovered the woman tried to steal a pair of gloves worth $1.44.

What was really sad about the incident was that the woman was with her children, Townsend said.

"How do you explain what happened to your children?" he asked.

VA Q & A

Q. I have just discovered that I've lost the National Service Life Insurance policy that I have carried since World War II. Will the Veterans Administration provide me a copy?

A. Yes. You should request a copy from the Veterans Administration Insurance Center where you pay your insurance premiums.

Art on Display

SENIOR art majors at Wayne State College are displaying a selection of watercolors and prints they created in the past year. A pair of exhibitors, Sally Mariens of Schuyler and Bill Piercy of Omaha, arrange one of her prints. The display will remain about two weeks in the foyer of Wayne State's Fine Arts Center.

IRS Q & A

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. I work as an auto mechanic but I plan to start a part-time business building hot rods from Model A's. Although I expect to make a profit from this business eventually, there will be losses in the beginning due to the large investments I'll make in equipment and advertising. Can I deduct these losses even though my business won't show much income?

A. Yes, you can. An activity is considered a business if it is entered into and carried on in good faith for the purpose of making a profit. Two characteristic elements of a business are regularity of activities and transactions and the production of income. In a given year, if no income or a small amount of income is coupled with expenditures that produce a loss, there may be a question whether a business was carried on in that year. However, absence of income in itself does not prevent you from deducting the ordinary and necessary expenses connected with your business.

Q. I just finished doing jury duty on a two-month long case. Will I have to pay tax on the fee I received for serving on the jury?

A. Yes, jury duty fees represent earned income and they are taxable.

Q. My great uncle died recently and left me some trust income in the form of some dividends. How do I report this on my tax return?

A. Each item of income retains the same character in your hands as it had in the hands of the trust. So, if items of income distributed to you include, for example, dividends of domestic corporations, tax exempt interest or capital gains, they will retain the same character in your hands for the purposes of tax treatment. You should report your dividends on line 10a of Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Return.

Q. I rent a large safe deposit box for keeping some small pieces of art and important papers. Is the rent on the box tax deductible?

A. Safe deposit box rent is deductible if the box is used for the storage of taxable income-producing stocks, bonds, and investment-related papers and documents. The rent is not deductible if the box is used for personal effects or tax-exempt securities.

Devils Rip Stanton In Home Debut

Wayne High's first home basketball game of the season Friday night was a success — a 78-43 win over Stanton.

The Blue Devils shot a season high 83 times, hitting on 35 for 41 per cent to take their sixth game in nine outings.

Leading the torrid pace was senior Bob Keating, who collected 23 points. The 6-5 Keating poured in 21 points the first half as Wayne walked to a 42-18 lead before coach Bill Sharpe started substituting.

"I don't know if taking over 80 shots a game is such a good thing," Sharpe reflected, "but I wanted to get the kids to shoot more on our fast breaks."

"Wayne's fast break definitely was a factor in team scoring. Both seniors Marty Hansen and Jack Froehlich netted 10 points, many of them on break-away shots, while teammates Dave Hix and Rick Mitchell scored eight points each and Rob Mitchell had seven in the balanced scoring attack. Hansen had 11 of the team's 18 assists.

Wayne's defensive board work was another strong factor in the outcome of the game. The Devils pulled down 54 rebounds to 38 for Stanton, with Keating getting 13 and Froehlich 10.

"The kids played real good defense," Sharpe said, pointing out that his goal was to hold Stanton to under 50 points. "Although we played almost the entire bench, we were able to keep Stanton to just 43 points," Sharpe noted.

Wayne's junior varsity evened its record at 3-3 with a 65-28 stomping of Stanton.

Again, balanced scoring highlighted coach Ron Carnes' club as Monte Lowe scored 12, Paul Mallette and Rob Mitchell had 11 each, and Mike Sharer came up with nine.

New Game Dates Set

Blizzard-postponed basketball games on the Wayne State schedule have new dates now, with one exception.

Athletic director LeRoy Simpson said the women's basketball game with Midland College will be played here Monday, Feb. 3. The away game at the University of Omaha apparently will not be rescheduled. In its place, two other opponents are on the women's schedule: the J.F. Kennedy varsity at Wahoo Feb. 12 and Kansas State University Feb. 16 at Manhattan.

The men's basketball game with Doane College is set for Feb. 5 at Wayne.

8th Grade Defense Helps Clip Norfolk

"Defense was the name of the game," said recreation coach Hank Overin after his eighth grade basketball squad scored a 35-29 win over Norfolk Thursday.

Led by Tom Ginn and Brad Emry under the boards, Wayne held Norfolk to 13 points the first half while the locals scored 22. Emry poured in 10 of his 12 the first half to lead the team while Dave Schwartz scored six.

Norfolk slowed Wayne's scoring the second half with a press, narrowing Wayne's lead to 32-29 with four minutes left. But the locals stalled to force Norfolk to foul, Overin pointed out.

Schwartz finished with 11 while Sean Witts had seven, Ginn four and Al Nissen one.

The eighth grade will be going after its sixth win against no defeats Thursday at 4:15 against Schuyler at home. Meanwhile, the seventh grade, 3-0, is idle until Jan. 30 when Norfolk Catholic plays here.

Bears' Loss Is 'Same Old Story'

"It's the same story as Tuesday (against O'Neill). We got over 30 more shots than they did, but we still lost," said

Laurel basketball coach Joel Parks after his team's 59-56 loss at Neligh Friday night.

Neligh took only 38 shots, but the Warriors converted 21 for a 55 per cent.

The second half told the story, Parks said. Neligh hit 10 of 14 shots the last two quarters as well as being "hot from the line, making 12 of 17 free throws."

Laurel had a five-point lead midway in the third period after both clubs deadlocked at 36-all in first half action.

"But we let them come back to take a one-point lead where they stayed until 20 seconds left," Parks pointed out. Then the Warriors cashed in on a pair of free throws to hand the Bears their first loss in the Northeast Nebraska Activities Conference and their fourth against eight wins.

Mark Murphy led Neligh's second-half attack with 14 of his 20 points. Also hitting in double figures for Neligh was Marty Gralotte with 14.

Senior Mark Anderson was top shooter for Laurel with 10 points. Both Greg Pippitt and Sterling Stolpe had nine, with seven of Pippitt's points coming in the second half. Greg also had 12 rebounds to lead Laurel.

Stolpe and Brad Erwin were the only Bear players to foul out in the fourth period as Laurel committed a total of 24 fouls.

WS Is First In Defense

Wayne State holds the No. one spot on defense among Nebraska's small college basketball teams, according to last week's NAIA weekly statistics.

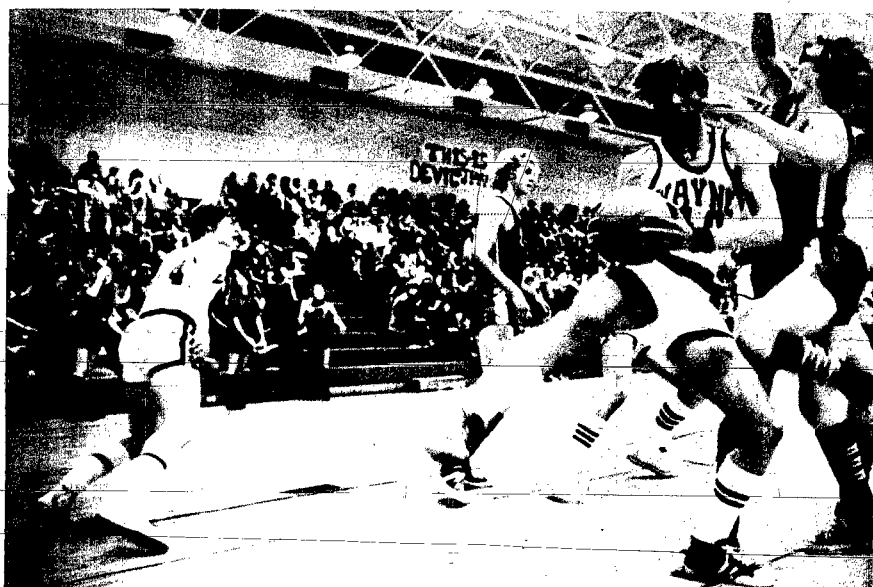

Prior to Tuesday night's 106-71 loss to Hastings, Wayne allowed its opponents an average of 70 points.

Offensively, however, the Wildcats rank sixth out of seven teams, averaging almost 77 points a game. Leading that division is Hastings with a 98-point clip.

In individual statistics, Wayne's John Redmond is third in rebounding at averaging almost 10 cars a game, sixth in scoring with about 17 points a game and 10th in free throw shooting with a 74 per cent accuracy.

Teammate Charlie Henderson ranks fifth in field goal shooting at 53 per cent and ninth in scoring with a 15-point average. Rick Anderson is ninth in free throws with 75 per cent accuracy.

A bluegill weighing one pound or more and taken on hook-and-line qualifies for a Nebraska Master Angler Award.

Mike Sharer, Monte Lowe and Paul Mallette: Jack Froehlich grimaces as he pulls down a rebound and Mallette breaks down court. Meyer gets beat out of a rebound by a Stanton player.

Team 4 scored a 60-54 victory over Team 3 after building a 14-point lead midway in the second period. Randy Shaw kept the winners in front the second half with 16 of his game-high 20. High man for Team 3 was Bob Reeg with 16.

Team 1 remains on top of the five-team loop with a 3-0 record while Team 3 is fourth at 1-3 and Team 5 is 0-2. Teams 1 and 5 play at 8:30 Wednesday.

A New Coach Makes Debut

ALLEN HIGH'S new head basketball coach, Brian Brede, studies his team in his coaching debut against Ponca Friday night. As expected, there were some good moments and then there were some bad ones. During the contest at Allen, Brede saw his Eagles jump to lead in the first period only to have Ponca catch up and go ahead. Ponca won, 88-61.

Brede: Our Free Throw Shooting Will Pay Off

By BOB BARTLETT
Allen High's new basketball coach, Brian Brede, is convinced his team's practicing free throws is going to pay off.

He bases that feeling on Friday night's contest against Ponca.

Allen High's 25 of 42 charity shots, including 24 in the second period — Allen's entire scoring that frame.

"We've been practicing free throw shooting all week long and we're going to continue," Brede said after his first high school game as head coach. Brede, from Kearney, took over coaching when Bob Moore resigned two weeks ago.

The Eagles played even ball with the taller and more experienced Ponca club in the opening frame, trailing only 18-14 going into the second period. But the visiting Indians soon shut off Allen's shooting with a strong press.

"The problem in the second quarter is that we had too many turnovers," Brede pointed out, noting that Allen gave up the ball 37 times in the game.

Senior Don Kluger, who led

Ponca, Allen hit 25 of 42 charity shots, including 24 in the second period — Allen's entire scoring that frame.

"We've been practicing free throw shooting all week long and we're going to continue," Brede said after his first high school game as head coach. Brede, from Kearney, took over coaching when Bob Moore resigned two weeks ago.

The Eagles played even ball with the taller and more experienced Ponca club in the opening frame, trailing only 18-14 going into the second period. But the visiting Indians soon shut off Allen's shooting with a strong press.

"The problem in the second quarter is that we had too many turnovers," Brede pointed out, noting that Allen gave up the ball 37 times in the game.

Senior Don Kluger, who led

Allen with 20 points, dropped in seven free throws in the second period to keep the Eagles within striking distance at the half as Ponca took a 47-38 command at intermission. Ponca continued its nine-point edge after three quarters when both clubs scored 17 points each. Again Kluger scored seven that period.

Although Brede cleared the bench as part of his strategy to keep fresh players in the fast-breaking game, the absence of senior Dave Dunn made a difference.

Dunn, who averages about 10 points a game, was sidelined with a severe sprained ankle he suffered in practice Thursday. According to Brede, Dunn will be back in the lineup soon, although he might see limited action at first.

"I think we've got something going here," Brede pointed out after Friday night's contest. "There were a lot of people here and I want them to return. That's why I believe we're going to start winning," he said after the Eagles recorded their eighth straight loss.

"We play Ponca again, and next time we're going to show them something different. I don't like people to get us twice," he emphasized.

Allen's reserves also fell prey to Ponca, 41-22. Ryan Lubbers and Todd Koester led Eagles with seven and six points.

Allen 8th Graders Clipped by Ponca
Darwin Kluger's 18 points and 15 rebounds weren't quite enough for Allen's eighth grade as the club lost their first game in three outings, 43-35, at Ponca Thursday.

Ponca jumped to a 12-0 lead early in the first half and at one time held a 22-2 lead before coach Ron Wecker's team regrouped to climb within three points with about three minutes left in the game.

Also scoring for Allen were Mark Kraemer with six points, Kevin Kraemer with five, Rich Stewart with four and Nick Mitchell with two.

Ponca also was victorious in the seventh grade contest, downing Allen by 23-16. Bobby Stewart and Duane Stolle were high for Allen, scoring nine and five points. The seventh grade record stands at 1-2.

Albion Wrestlers Down Wayne

Albion wrestlers won eight of 12 matches to defeat Wayne High, 37-18, Friday night at Albion.

Ken Daniels, Les Thomsen, Randy Surber, Reg Godsey posted wins for Wayne as the Blue Devils lost their fifth dual in six matches.

Two of Wayne's losses were to last year's top wrestlers in the state, Pete Borer, winner over Kelly Hansen, 132-pound state champion while teammate Dan Oliverius, winner over Alan Ekberg, finished second, according to Wayne coach Don Koenig. "Our four winners did look good in their matches," Koenig pointed out, adding that Reg Godsey had one of his best matches, pinning Bob Redler in 2:08 in the 185-pound class. "One of the referees pointed out that, Reg is one of the strongest wrestlers he has seen in this area," Koenig noted.

In reserve action, Albion took advantage of five Wayne forfeits to take a 45-18 victory.

Pair of Losses Drops Frosh To 4-2 Record

Wayne High's freshman basketball team hopes to break into the win column again today (Monday), hosting Wisner-Pilger, after the locals dropped from the unbeaten ranks last week.

The frosh record fell to 4-2 after losses to Norfolk High Thursday and Madison Tuesday. Against Norfolk, Wayne simply played "its poorest game against the best team," said coach Duane Blomenkamp about the team's 54-30 loss. The locals went scoreless the first four and a half minutes and trailed 21-5 at the end of the first period.

Vic Sharpe, high in both games, pumped in 11 points while Keyin Murray scored eight, Jeff Backstrom five, Marco Garlick four and John Keating two.

In the Madison game, Sharpe had 10 points, six of them coming in the team's 21-point fourth quarter spree. Wayne's rally was two points short, 29-27. The frosh scored only six points in the first three quarters to trail 23-6 going into the last period. With about 25 seconds left in the game Wayne took command, 27-25, after Madison started using its reserves.

Also scoring for Wayne were Backstrom with eight, Murray with seven and Keating with two.

"Will you please throw out my amplifier?"

Laurel Jr High Loses in OT

Laurel's 16 points in the second half was enough to send the game into overtime against Bloomfield's junior high Tuesday, but the Bears came up four points short in the OT to drop their second contest, 24-20.

Both clubs were tied at 20 each after fourth period.

Rusty Gade and Mark McCorkindale led Laurel with six points each, also scoring for Laurel were Shannon Hopkins with four, and Don Casey and Ron Gadeken with two each.

Bloomfield took a 10-4 first half lead and marched to a 19-10 cushion after three quarters. Bill Woodward's club then untracked with a stout defense, holding Bloomfield to one point scoring 10.

Laurel, now 1-2, plays at Norfolk Tuesday.

Laurel Frosh Face Norfolk

Laurel Jr High's freshmen basketball team will be going for their fourth straight victory when the Bears travel to Norfolk Tuesday.

Laurel won 42-23 over Bloomfield.

Mike Martin sparked coach Don Frauson's club with a 14 point spree. Both clubs were tied at nightfall after the first period when Martin and teammate Dave Lindgren helped to guide Laurel to a 24-12 halftime lead.

Lindgren was second high with 10 points. Others scoring for Laurel were Tribby Cunningham with eight, Pete Dabique with six and Randy Bloom and Randy Slagle with two each.

Winside's 1st 98-pounder Leads Cats to Win

Winside wrestling team scored a pair of firsts in its 48-9 dual win over Harlington High Thursday night.

Sophomore reserve Kevin Cleveland made his varsity debut as the Wildcats first 98-pounder this season, taking a 6-1 decision over veteran John Weddingfield, who had a 9-1 record going into meet.

"Kevin was going to wrestle at 98 in our tournament (last week)," but he was overweight," said head coach Doug Barclay. Winside hasn't had a 98-pounder in earlier action this season.

Another reserve, Ed Morris, also showed promise as he defeated his opponent, 15-7, to win the 119-pound class. According to Barclay, Monte Pfeiffer usually wrestles at that weight, but Pfeiffer already has wrestled 15 matches. The slate limit is 26 matches before district and state tournaments.

Trojans Dump Omaha, 63-52

A second-quarter surge put the Wakefield Trojans back in the lead en route to their eighth win in nine outings Friday night as the Trojans downed visiting Omaha Dominican, 63-52.

Balanced second-quarter scoring by Tim Rouse, Scot Keagle and Scott Mills enabled the Trojans to overcome a 20-15 first-period deficit. Mills led the team with 17 points while Keagle and Rouse finished with 11 each.

One of the turning points in the game was Wakefield's rebounding. Coach Joe Coble's crew garnered 52 caroms, 18 of them by Don Myers and 13 by Keagle.

"We shot pretty well," Coble said, pointing out that his team hit 42 per cent of its shots. "But we're still not playing the caliber of ball it will take to win in the upcoming games."

After Saturday's visit to Bender, Wakefield travels to Madison Friday and to Laurel Saturday night.

Mills, nine points in the third quarter sparked Wakefield to a 49-38 advantage going into the final period.

Free-throw shooting could have been a big factor in the outcome. Wakefield converted 11 of 29 while Omaha missed all nine tries. Both clubs had 26 field goals.

Wakefield's reserves pushed their record to 5-2 with 62-45 blasting of the Omahans.

Gary Munter was the only

Trojans to score in double figures, pouring in 12 points.

Coleridge

Dominates

Winside

Rick Hansen's 25 points led Coleridge to a 57-44 win over Winside Friday night, dropping Winside's record to 1-6.

Hansen scored 10 points the first half as Coleridge took a slim 23-15 lead into the locker room at intermission.

Despite trailing by at least 10 points throughout much of the game, Winside had strong scoring from juniors Bob Hoffman and Tyler Frevert. Hoffman made 18 points while Frevert hit 14, the majority of them coming in the second half.

Although Winside out rebounded Coleridge, 39-37, the taller Coleridge club kept the Wildcats from covering many of their offensive rebounds into baskets.

said coach Kerlin Lutt. Hoffman led the team with 16 rebounds while Frevert garnered eight.

"There were some strong points in tonight's game," Lutt pointed out. Besides Hoffman and Frevert's scoring and defensive board work, the team performed better as a unit, said Lutt. "Although we might be a little tired for tomorrow's game (Saturday, against Wausa), I think we're going to be ready for them."

Winside's reserves lost their fifth game against two wins, 64-31.

The junior varsity trailed Coleridge 19-16 at the half, but Coleridge dominated second half play with 24 points in the third period and 19 in the final stanza.

Despite trailing by at least 10 points throughout much of the game, Winside had strong scoring from juniors Bob Hoffman and Tyler Frevert. Hoffman made 18 points while Frevert hit 14, the majority of them coming in the second half.

Although Winside out rebounded Coleridge, 39-37, the taller Coleridge club kept the Wildcats from covering many of their offensive rebounds into baskets.

said coach Kerlin Lutt. Hoffman led the team with 16 rebounds while Frevert garnered eight.

"There were some strong points in tonight's game," Lutt pointed out. Besides Hoffman and Frevert's scoring and defensive board work, the team performed better as a unit, said Lutt. "Although we might be a little tired for tomorrow's game (Saturday, against Wausa), I think we're going to be ready for them."

Winside's reserves lost their fifth game against two wins, 64-31.

The junior varsity trailed Coleridge 19-16 at the half, but Coleridge dominated second half play with 24 points in the third period and 19 in the final stanza.

Winside 48, Harlington 6

128 — Lynn Langenberg (W) pinned Bill Olson, 2-18.

167 — Kevin Peterson (W) pinned Kurt Carlstrom, 5-1.

Filing Early Means Prompter Refunds

Nebraska taxpayers expecting tax refunds will receive them much sooner if they file their returns now, says Everett L. Lounsbury, district director of Internal Revenue for Nebraska.

"If you file now, there's a good chance you'll receive your refund in four to five weeks," he pointed out. "If you file later, you may have to wait as long as eight weeks."

January is a slow month at IRS Service Centers, he said, but during late March and April returns come in at an accelerated rate and the processing cycle takes longer.

Taxpayers also can speed processing of returns by using pre-addressed label and special envelope included in the tax package they received in the mail, the IRS spokesman said.

Since taxpayers cannot file returns until they have received all W-2 statements of earnings forms, he also urged employers to issue these forms as early as possible before the Jan. 31st deadline. He also asked banks and loan associations to issue interest and dividend statements to their depositors as early as possible.

'It's Not Like Home!'

THE LATEST Japanese guest at the Dick Sorenson farm two miles north and a mile west of Wayne couldn't strike this kind of pose in his home of Okinawa where there never is any snow to drive snowmobiles on. Mitsuru Teruya, better known around the Sorenson farm as "Mitch," is the ninth Japanese to stay with the Sorensons under the Japanese Agricultural Training Program. Their eighth visitor, Tetsuaki "Chuck" Yamaguchi, is currently studying at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln prior to returning to Okinawa this summer after two years of study and work in the United States. "Mitch" will live with the Sorensons for a year, then study at UNL before he takes what he has learned back to his family's two-acre farm. The farm, which raises some and sugar cane, supports "Mitch's" parents and their six other children.

VA Q & A

Q. How can I get a job with the Veterans Administration similar to the one I had in a medical laboratory before discharge from service?
A. Suggest you contact the personnel office of the nearest VA hospital for information on employment opportunities at the agency's hospitals and clinics. You may qualify for a Veterans Readjustment Act appointment. If you do, it would eliminate much of the paper work connected with Civil Service appointments.
Q. How many nurses are caring for the nation's veterans at Veterans Administration hospitals?

A. The VA's corps of registered nurses increased seven percent, or 1,551, during fiscal year 1974, a total of 22,566 nurses, provide quality medical care for veterans at 171 hospitals and 212 outpatient clinics. Assisting them are 6,078 licensed practical nurses and 25,027 nursing assistants.
Q. Do I have to be a member of a veterans service organization to volunteer my services to patients in a Veterans Administration hospital?
A. No. All that's required is a desire to help hospitalized veterans. Suggest you phone the voluntary service office at the nearest VA hospital. If you'd like to help.

Q. With conditions as they were the past year, how many veterans were able to get GI home loans?
A. The Veterans Administration approved 306,200 loans in fiscal year 1974, which adds up to a good year, considering market conditions. In fact, with the exception of fiscal years 1972 and 1973, it was the best since the peak years of the mid-1950's.
An estimated 100,000 wild furkeys will be bagged by marksmen this year in the 29 states that have hunting seasons for the wily birds.

USDA News

Feed Grain Tonnage Down
Nebraska farmers harvested 34 per cent less feed grain tonnage during 1974 than their record high production in 1973. This was also 11 per cent below the 10-year average production.

Nebraska corn growers produced 381 million bushels of corn in 1974, down 31 per cent from the record high in 1973. The average yield of 48 bushels per acre was 26 bushels below the last year and 36 bushels below the previous record high. Farmers harvested for grain 5 per cent less acres in 1974 in spite of 5 per cent more acreage planted to corn than a year earlier. Dryland corn totaled 66.6 million bushels in 1974 compared to 234.4 million bushels for the 1973 crop. The drought held the average yield per acre to 26.1 bushels compared with 26.1 in 1973. Farmers produced 314.2 million bushels of irrigated corn compared to 318.1 in 1973. The irrigated yield of 103 bushels per acre in 1974 compared to the 1973 crop year's yield of 114 bushels. Sorghum producers harvested 64 million bushels of grain sorghum in 1974, less than one half of the previous year's production. The average yield of 33 bushels per acre compared to 68 bushels per acre in 1973. Harvested acres for grain was also down 2 per cent from 1973. The crop was late in developing because of the drought and hot weather and then was severely damaged by early September frosts.

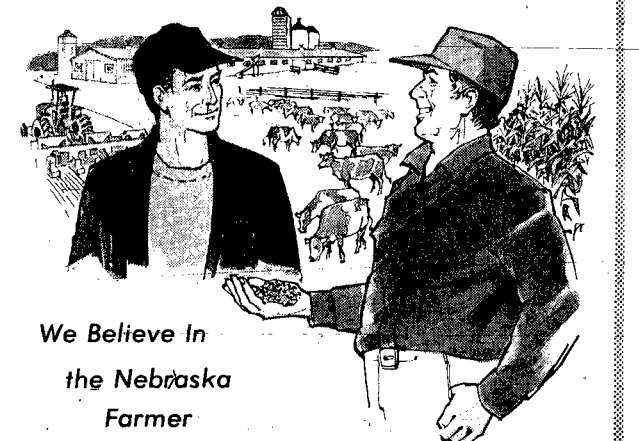

Soybean production in Nebraska totaled 29 million bushels, 21 per cent below the record high for 1973 but still the second highest of record. Soybeans made a remarkable recovery from the drought after August rains. Soybean yields averaged 24 bushels per acre, down 6 bushels from the previous year. Harvested acreage of soybeans was down 2 per cent. Hay production in Nebraska totaled 6.1 million tons during 1974, down 14 per cent from 1973. Harvested acreage for hay was down 1 per cent but yields were down nearly 1/2 ton per acre from the 1973 crop yield. Most caviar sold in the United States is made from the roe, or eggs, of red salmon or whitefish, rather than from sturgeon, the National Geographic Society says.

'The Worst Since '58'

TWO ENGINES of a 46-car Burlington-Northern freight train were caught in drifts that nearly covered both engines near Dixon during the season's worst snow storm Jan. 10. Workmen started digging out part of the train Monday after 26 cars were taken to Belden. According to Jim McTaggart of Emerson, one of the foremen in charge of the cleanup crew, two bulldozers were used to free the engines. McTaggart said the drifts that nearly buried the engines were the worst he has seen since 1958 when a similar snowstorm blocked the line for about a month.

Rates Going Higher for Natural Gas Customers

Natural gas customers in Wayne, Wakefield and several other Northeast Nebraska communities will pay higher rates for their gas services on bills issued after today (Monday), according to a Peoples Natural Gas official.

The increase applies to residential, small volume commercial and industrial users, said Richard Mayne, regional vice president for Peoples.

It will add approximately $12.40 a year to the utility bill of the typical Peoples residential customer who uses natural gas for heating, according to Mayne. The 5.8 per cent increase in retail rates represents the higher wellhead price of gas paid during the past year by Peoples' wholesale supplier, Northern Natural Gas Co., Mayne noted. The increase amounts to 7.74 cents for each thousand cubic feet (mcf) of natural gas consumed, he added.

The increase is the second to be put into effect by Peoples in recent months.

In November, Peoples placed higher rates into effect due to a general rate increase requested by Northern. However, a portion of that increase could eventually be refunded if the Federal Power Commission decides not to allow Northern all of the request it is now collecting under bond. That increase amounts to an average annual increase of about $9.75 for the typical Peoples customer who heats with natural gas.

Northern says the general rate increase was necessary to offset the higher costs of operating its 25,000 mile pipeline system. The latest increase does not represent additional earnings or profits to either Peoples or Northern, according to Mayne. "This represents the higher cost that Northern paid producers for the gas they discover, produce and sell," he said.

Mayne also pointed out that these costs will likely increase each year as the search for new supplies sends drilling bits deeper into the earth. "Gas is now being found and produced at depths of 25,000 and 30,000 feet," Mayne said, adding that the cost of a single well can run into the millions of dollars.

The Federal Power Commission is also permitting producing companies to charge interstate pipeline companies such as Northern somewhat higher prices for new gas reserves.

"By allowing higher prices, the FPC hopes producing companies will dedicate more of their new discoveries to companies like Northern," said Mayne.

"Right now, most of the new gas being discovered is sold to non-regulated intra state companies.

Regulated companies like Northern have been unable to compete for new discoveries with the intra state carriers."

LAUREL'S Masonic Lodge held installation ceremonies for new officers Jan. 9. Installed as officers for 1975 were Howard Dellefsen, worshipful master; David Curtiss, senior warden; James Lipp, junior warden; Roy Thomas, treasurer; Morlon Fredrickson, secretary; Everard Burns, chaplain; Roger Peterson, senior deacon; Tom Fredrickson, junior deacon; Walter Brachvogel, senior steward; Craig Munsom, junior steward; and Robert Mason, Tyler.

JOAN STEFFENSEMEIER of Dodge was named 1975 Pork Queen during the first annual Cuming County Pork Producers and Porkettes banquet in Wisner Jan. 12.

Named runner up in the contest was Cindy Simonsen of Pender. Also competing for the title was Joan Schademann of Pender.

HARTINGTON High superintendent Jim Addison has resigned from his post effective June 30 when his current contract expires. He has held that post the past six years.

RANDOLPH'S city council earlier this month unanimously voted to reject the offered resignation of city clerk J. F. Alwood.

The rejection opened the door for accepting an earlier proposal by Alwood. He had proposed late last year that the clerk's office remain at its present location and that he be paid for rent and utilities and be given a deputy clerk.

After rejecting his resignation, the council voted to set the clerk's salary at $250 a month, pay $35 per month for rental fee for his office and pay between $35 and $40 a month for utilities. Alwood now has a deputy clerk, Mrs. Ed Kessler.

THE RECENT snow storm forced postponement of the Bancroft High band concert until Jan. 27 at 8 p.m. Directing the band will be Roger Praener.

JOHN KERR of Rapid City has purchased the Crofton Journal from Ed Liewer, publisher since 1943. Liewer said Kerr and his family will move to Crofton late in January and take over the newspaper in February.

MARTIN BELLING JR. of Beemer has been named Cuming County veterans service officer. He will take over the post, subject to county board approval, on Feb. 1. He will succeed John Solt, who is retiring after holding the office for 14 years.

CATTLE FEEDERS in Stanton and Cuming Counties stand to lose as much as $5 million because American Beef Packers, Inc. of Council Bluffs has filed bankruptcy proceedings.

Several farmers from the two counties were interviewed by an NBC television news crew early last week. Among those interviewed were Herman Dinklage Jr. of Wisner, Vern Beckman of Pilger, Bob Feiler of Wisner, Myron Deck of Hoskins and Jim Downey of Wisner.

GAIL SKINNER of Wisner was unable to return home from a two and a half week European trip because she broke her leg in a skiing mishap. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Skinner, she was hospitalized in Innsbruck, Austria. Two bones in her left leg were broken between the knee and ankle. She was touring Europe with Joan Lynn Hansen, who flew back to the United States Jan. 12. Miss Skinner is expected to fly back early this week.

Bentleyville, Pa. Courier "You would think he had some kind of magic wand. Alladin's lamp, rabbit's foot or four leaf clover. We're talking about President Gerald Ford. It's alarming how so many people feel that he can solve all of our problems. There are those who think that all that's needed to end inflation is for the President to give some kind of order. We think it stems from big government and the fact that so many people have grown to depend upon it rather than upon their own resources."

Batavia, Ill. Herald "The nation has an energy crisis, and it's going to be a lot worse before it gets better. The world is suffering from inflation, and correcting this economic situation is going to take a lot of doing. There's a need, of course, for protecting the consumer, preserving the forests and other natural resources. The loudest of carriers of the Save Our Environment banners recommend we return to the inconvenience and hardship of pioneer days. We like the past as well as anyone, but reflecting on it alone is enough... once is plenty!"

OBSERVATIONS

One more opportunity

Persons who either favor or oppose county zoning are reminded that the Wayne County commissioners will discuss that subject once again at a public meeting Tuesday at 3 p.m. Although the commissioners have sided against county-wide zoning in the past, there is a possibility they may swing the other way now that a new commissioner is on the three-man board. We have argued in the past that county-wide zoning is probably a worthwhile project to undertake. However, somebody else could easily argue the opposite, especially considering that it may cost between $10,000 and $15,000 to accomplish. We won't go into the points for and against county zoning, but we will note that the commissioners are unable to make wise decisions without knowing how the majority of the people feel. One way to let them know is to attend Tuesday's meeting and to express your feelings one way or the other. If you don't, you won't have much to stand on when you come out against any decision the commissioners might reach, as a result of that meeting. Here's some other editorial observations we came up with while reading through the last issue of The Wayne Herald: —Although people opposed to fluoridation may not agree, Wayne's city council has no choice but to go ahead with installing fluoridation equipment so our water supplies can be fortified. We are in favor of fluoridating the city's water, but we can understand the concern of those who are against it. However, everybody should realize that the majority of the people who voted in the recent election favored fluoridation, leaving city officials no avenue open other than fluoridation. We must remember not to blame the city council or any local official for installing that equipment. —We add our congratulations to Paul Rogge for a job well done during his years of service to the Wayne volunteer fire department. Too often people contribute greatly to such important organizations without adequate recognition from those they worked with as well as those they helped serve. We're glad the fire department was thoughtful enough to point out that one of its members deserves a vote of thanks from all of us. —Some sports teams in the area are in the process of racking up some enviable records this winter. Some of the latest: The Winside wrestling team's third tournament victory this season, a feat accomplished at the school's own invitational tournament; the Blue Devil's fifth basketball victory in eight starts going into last weekend's action; the Wakefield basketball team's seventh win against one defeat prior to two games this weekend; if they can keep that up, it should get pretty interesting around this area when district competition begins in a few weeks. —Now that one mile road has been closed in the county, the commissioners would keep their eyes open for other roads that could be closed without causing anybody hardships. If we could eliminate, for example, a dozen miles of road, the savings in road maintenance would be substantial. It wouldn't take long, it seems to us, for those savings to trickle down to the taxpayer in the form of a reduced mill levy. —Wayne Carroll superintendent Francis Haun has been catching more than his share of criticism for not letting students out of school earlier on the day that big storm hit the area recently. We relied on the judgement of weather observers, who were saying up until about 10 a.m. that the storm would die out later in the day. They were wrong, of course, and by the time Haun learned that they were wrong it was too late to send the busses out on their routes. We agree with him when he says the students were much safer in town than they would have been in busses trying to make it over those country roads. —We tend to disagree with Wayne councilman John Vakoc when he argues against the city making a donation to the Wayne State Foundation. Although we understand his concern for spending public money for such a purpose, we think that all the citizens of this community have a stake in Wayne State College and that it is not out of order for the city to attempt to help an organization from which students have much to gain as its primary goal. —Norvin Hansen

Ag Students Being Offered Scholarships

High school seniors interested in studying agriculture at the University of Nebraska Lincoln next fall have several scholarship opportunities, according to Wayne High School guidance counselor Ken Carlson.

Scholarships awarded to next fall's freshmen at UNL include several hundred dollars from such organizations as Ak-Sar-Ben, Federal Land Bank Association, Norfolk Feed Mills, Lincoln Production Credit and the Nebraska Production Credit Association.

Students interested in any of the scholarships are reminded by Carlson that they have to take the American College Test, complete the NU admission application by Feb. 15 and complete the parent confidential statement income form three weeks prior to Feb. 14. All forms are available at the high school guidance office, he noted.

Carlson also noted that Wayne High seniors interested in a career in government service are eligible to apply for the Washington Crossing Foundation Scholarship Award. The $2,000 award may be used at a college chosen by the student.

Deadline for applying for the award is Feb. 29, noted Carlson. Interested students should talk with Carlson.

County Officials at Meet

'Now That's What You Call A Snowdrift!'

WAYNE AREA residents who think the "Blizzard of '75" was a bad one might reflect for a while on the winter of 1948-49. And those of us who can't remember that winter, might just ponder over this photograph for a while. It will prove in quick order that the recent storm couldn't hold a candle to the one which settled in on Northeast Nebraska some 26 years ago. This is a photograph of the famous "Kelly Cut" two miles east of Carroll as it looked after plows finally cut through the huge drift. Its measurements: 22 feet deep, 80 rods long (or about a quarter mile from one end to the other). The picture is a conversation piece out at Fredrickson Oil Co. north of Wayne every time people start talking about the worst blizzard they ever saw.

Nearly 7 Million Beer Cans, Bottles Recycled in State

Nebraska consumers turned in more than 6.5 million aluminum cans and beer bottles for recycling in 1974 under Olympia Brewing Company's container recycling program.

They received $91,653 in total payments, according to Thomas Prenger, president of Wayne Cold Storage Co., Olympia beer distributor in this area.

"Our recycling volume is expected to be even greater throughout Nebraska this year," Prenger said. His firm's recycling center, located on Highway 35, east of Wayne, is open from 8 a.m. to noon each Saturday.

Under Oly's "cash on delivery" program, consumers receive cash payments for all aluminum beverage cans and Oly beer bottles redeemed at the distributor recycling centers.

The cans are resmelted into aluminum plate, and the once disposable bottles are shipped back to Olympia, Wash., where they are processed for refilling in the brewing company's new $2 million glass recycling facility.

Olympia recycles its bottles and cans everywhere its beer is sold, including Hawaii and Alaska. President Leopold Schmidt said the program services a greater geographic area 18 states than any other "total container" recycling system in the country.

In 1974, Oly recovered nearly a third of a billion containers — including 256 million Oly bottles and 36 million aluminum cans.

The brewery and its 260 distributors paid consumers $5.9 million for empties last year — $1.1 million more than in 1973.

Olympia distributors say they expect to increase their recycling volumes by at least 20 per cent in 1975.

The program is publicly important, Schmidt said, not only for helping to reduce solid waste and litter problems but for its energy savings benefits as well.

For example, he said, reprocessing a pound of used aluminum requires only five per cent of the electrical power needed to make a pound of aluminum from raw ore.

Some 20 per cent of all aluminum beverage containers are now being recycled nationally, according to industry officials, and Olympia reports it is re-using three out of every five of its own bottles.

County Workers Losing Ground on Inflation Treadmill

To what extent have rising living costs and bigger taxes offset or wiped out the income gains that Wayne County workers have obtained in the last few years?

Where does the average local family stand today in the nip and tuck race between mounting costs and rising wages?

For a while, most families in the area were able to keep ahead of the game because their incomes were going up more rapidly than living costs.

In three of the last five years, however, the reverse has been the case. The erosion of income was most pronounced in the past year, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Nationally, it reports, although weekly earnings rose an average of seven per cent, consumer prices surged by nearly 12 per cent. As a result, there was a loss of close to five per cent in net spendable income in the year.

A study by the Tax Foundation, a non profit research organization, shows how inflation and higher taxes have been putting the squeeze on the family pocketbooks.

In Wayne County, on the basis of its figures, pay increases of less than 34 per cent in the last five years fell short of giving the average family the purchasing power it had with its smaller 1969 income.

As a result, local families that had an income of $7,500 in 1969, would have to be earning approximately $10,200 at this time to have the same purchasing power that they had then.

Those whose incomes were $10,000 previously would require close to $13,750 now to stay even. Families that were earning $12,500 five years ago would need about $17,300 to balance out.

For retired people in the local area who are living on fixed incomes and for the unemployed, the going is especially rough.

It is difficult, also, for working men who have to provide for their families alone. That situation is less common than it was at one time, however, because married women have been entering the labor force in growing number, producing second incomes.

Over 35 per cent of the married women in Wayne County are now holding down jobs, the latest figures indicate.

Veterans' Benefits Questions, Answers

Q. I am the widow of a World War II veteran who died as a result of a service-connected injury before using his GI home loan entitlement. I have not remarried. Am I eligible for this Veterans Administration benefit?

A. Yes. If they are not currently married, widows of veterans of World War II and later periods who died of service-connected causes, as well as wives of servicemen missing in action or prisoners of war for more than 90 days are eligible for this VA benefit.

First to Buy

IT DIDN'T take long before Wayne County Jaycees started selling tickets to the club's snowmobile races, set for Jan. 26 at the Wayne County fairgrounds. First to buy was Alert Hilton of Wayne, who bought tickets from JC Terry Stinger. Tickets can be purchased for $1.50 from any JC member before the races, but at the gate tickets will cost $2. Entry fee for the stock class, powder puff and junior class is $7.50 per vehicle; those entering the modified class pay $15. If there are enough women entering the powder puff with snowmobiles having larger engines than 340, new divisions will be added, according to the promoters.
