

WH Junior 1 of 75 in Nation to Win Trip to Germany This Summer

A Wayne High School junior, Mike Schmoldt, was notified this week by the American Association of Teachers of German (AATG) that he is the Nebraska winner of a free trip to Germany this summer.

Schmoldt, a fourth year German student, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Schmoldt of Wayne. He is one of 75 students from the United States to win the trip.

He and one other Wayne student, Bill Marr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marr, ranked among Nebraska high school German students who scored 90 or above in recent national German tests and who applied for the trip. About 16,000 German students participated in the tests.

Other Wayne High School students who scored 90 or above on the national German tests were Jo Tomrdie, Lori Lesh and Phil Koerber.

Given at high schools through out the United States during February, the national tests consisted of an hour exam which included written exercises and comprehension of tapes.

Superiors Omitted

Two other Wayne area high school musicians earned super or ratings in the district music contest held Thursday through Saturday at Wayne State College.

Omitted from the list of students earning superiors published in Monday's issue of the Wayne Herald were Jean Ring of Wayne High School, who earned a superior in piano solo, and Lori VonMinden of Allen High, who earned superiors in both flute and piano solos.

Also omitted from the list was the Wayne High girls triple trio, also a superior winner in the contest.

MIKE SCHMOLDT

Schmoldt is the second Wayne High student to receive such an honor. Lisa Lesh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lesh of Wayne was the first Wayne High student to win the free trip in her senior year in 1973.

Wayne High School German instructor is Mrs. Inge Atkins. The trip will begin at Philadelphia June 23, and students will arrive back in the United States July 21. The trip is sponsored by the AATG in connection with the German department of culture and education to enable winners to become acquainted with Germany and its people.

Winners will live with German families with other young people. Schmoldt will be staying in Nuernberg in northern Bavaria. The trip will include a tour of Berlin, Munich, Rothenburg and Regensburg.

Wayne State Schedules Six Workshops in May

Six weekend workshops have been scheduled for May by the Wayne State College department of continuing education. Three will be held in Wayne and three off campus.

"Problems Encountered in Teaching Business," a repeat of an earlier workshop at South Sioux City, is set for Friday through Sunday at O'Neill. This is a graduate seminar type course designed for secondary and college business teachers, worth one senior or graduate credit.

Instructor will be Darrell Werner, a member of the WSC business faculty.

"School Law for Educators," also scheduled for Friday Sunday, will be held at West Point and will focus on legal framework, tort liability, powers and function of the local board, pupil discipline, use of school funds and dismissals. The course is designed for teachers at any level and offers one senior or graduate credit.

Instructors will be Dr. Arthur Dugan, who has taught at all levels from rural elementary through university, and Dr. Morris Anderson, director of student teaching who has served See WORKSHOPS, page 5

City Gets $40,000 For Industrial Park

A $40,000 federal grant for improvement of Wayne's industrial park was announced Wednesday by Representative Charles Thone.

The funds from the Farmers, Home Administration are part of the rural development program. They will be used to help finance construction of an access road and streets and extension of water and electric service to the industrial park east of Wayne on Highway 35.

Bids Opened on Hoskins' New Sewage Facility

If the Environmental Protection Agency approves construction plans and the town obtains land, construction of Hoskins' new sewage lagoon could begin June 1, town board members learned during Monday night's meeting.

Christiansen Construction Co. of Pender submitted the lowest bid during bid opening at the meeting. The Pender firm estimated the project, to be built west of Hoskins, at $106,464.25. However, that total doesn't include price of the land, said board member Herman Opler. The board still is talking to land owner Walter Fenske about purchasing a 20-acre tract of land, Opler said.

A Broken Bow firm was the only other company to submit a bid for the lagoon. Its bid totaled $139,740.25.

Four companies submitted bids for a mechanical plant, with Christiansen submitting the lowest bid of $157,907. Other bids totaled $158,712.15, $158,624 and $161,090.

Because the bid for the lagoon is lower than the bid for a mechanical plant, chances are the EPA will approve construction of the lagoon, Opler said.

If the EPA approves plans, the federal government would pay 75 per cent of the cost. The state and Hoskins would split the remaining cost.

Tornado Siren To Sound in City Friday

Wayne residents will hear the tornado siren late Friday afternoon or early Friday evening as the community holds its second practice tornado disaster in, as many years.

The simulated disaster area and the time for the practice disaster are being kept from the public in an attempt to make the practice as real as possible, according to Ray Butts, one of the men helping plan for the practice.

Residents of the city are to take cover, when the tornado siren goes off, said Butts, and then should tune in the local radio station to receive information about where the simulated tornado struck and what they should do if they wish to help the injured.

Butts said he hopes many See TORNADO, page 5

Council Reverses Its Vote, Turns Down Salary Hikes

By NORVIN HANSEN

Three weeks after approving a cost of living raise for all city employees, Wayne's city council voted 5-3 to hold off on any raises until at least August.

The council's second vote on whether to grant the raises was prompted by an opinion by the city attorney which said that such decisions require passing of an ordinance.

The council voted 5-3 on April 8 to grant the cost of living raises on the recommendation of city administrator Fred Brink. Voting at that time in favor of the raises, which would have averaged about 4.7 per cent, were Leo Hansen, Vernon Russell, Ivan Beeks, Carolyn Filter and Jim Thomas.

Mrs. Filter and Hansen changed their votes this time around, siding with Ted Bahe, John Vakkoc and Darrell Fuelberth in voting against granting any cost of living raise at this time.

Had the raises been granted beginning in May as had been thought following the April 8th council meeting, the raises would have cost the city approximately $1,769 per month, according to Brink. He told the council April 8 that the city's current budget had been drawn up to accommodate a 5.5 per cent cost of living hike in the salaries of city employees.

Although Bahe voted against approving the cost of living raise, he noted that employees deserve raises in order to keep up with inflation.

However, he pointed to the financial problems being faced at the city's electrical generating plant as one reason for holding off on those raises, at least until Aug. 1 when raises can be figured in the city's budget for the next fiscal year.

Bahe made the motion to table the subject until the council's first meeting in August. It was that motion which carried on a 5-3 vote Tuesday night.

Bahe said that city officials still do not know exactly what the financial condition of the generating plant is and that the council should not consider any salary hikes until that condition is better understood.

The city is currently purchasing a large amount of electricity from Nebraska Public Power District because it is cheaper to do so than to generate power locally with diesel fuel and natural gas.

The vote to table consideration of the raises came in spite of comments by mayor Freeman Decker that the city employees are "a bargain" at what they are being paid.

Decker noted that he was opposed to a flat percentage increase for all city employees because it would throw the city's salary schedule out of kilter.

The cost of living hikes rejected Tuesday night actually ranged from 3.3 per cent to 4.9 per cent because each employee would have been advanced one pay step on that schedule.

The salary hikes would have ranged from a low of $15 per month to a high of $75.36 per month. Most raises, however, would have been in the $30-$40 range.

Later in the evening, the council voted 8-0 to go ahead with purchasing the building just south of the municipal power plant for use by the street department.

The building, which the city is to take possession of July 1, will cost $50,650, according to city officials. It is the building which formerly housed Marra Home See HIKES, page 5

August 1st Is New Completion Date for Hospital

Wayne's new 30 bed hospital is expected to be completed by August 1, according to Ken Olds, secretary of the Wayne Hospital Foundation.

That tentative completion date was agreed upon during a meeting in Wayne Friday of the Missionary Benedictine Sisters of Norfolk, the Wayne Hospital Foundation, architects and principal contractors.

Prior to the meeting, a completion date of late summer or early fall had been planned, according to the architectural firm handling the project, Davis, Fenton, Stange and Darling of Lincoln. However, recent progress has made the earlier date possible, the firm noted.

Involved in Friday's meeting were the three prime contractors — Christiansen Construction Co. of Pender, Simpson Electric Co. of Pender, and Kinning and Reil, Inc. of Norfolk.

Kinning and Reil replaced the original mechanical contractor, Hansen Plumbing and Heating,

Inc. of North Platte, several months ago after the North Platte's firm's contract was terminated because of failure to complete work, Olds noted.

The North Platte firm had provided a performance bond in the amount of $526,000, so there should be no financial loss to the owners of the hospital, he added.

Total construction costs of the hospital have been approximately $1,699,705. Pledges totaling $890,000 were received, and approximately $600,000 has been paid on pledges at this time, according to Olds.

Cost of construction of the 30 bed facility was aided by federal Hill Burton funds totaling $384,000.

The financial campaign to raise funds for the hospital began late in 1971, with pledges being made over a five-year period.

The hospital has been constructed with 30 original patient rooms, but there are service facilities for a 50-bed facility, said Olds. Construction of the additional 20 rooms was a part of the original plan for the hospital, he noted.

Equal funds have been provided for construction by the Wayne Hospital Foundation and the Missionary Benedictine Sisters, who will operate and maintain the hospital when it is completed.

Groundbreaking ceremonies on the project were held May 14, 1973.

Felony Charge Results From Cafe Burglary

No date has been set for a preliminary hearing in Wayne County court for Doug Einung of Wayne, charged last week with the April 19th burglary at the Gem Cafe in Wayne.

Einung, 18, was arrested Wednesday by Wayne police. He posted 10 per cent of his $1,000 bond during his appearance Thursday before county associate judge Luverna Hilton.

The preliminary hearing will determine whether there is sufficient evidence against Einung to bind him over for trial in district court on the felony charge.

He was arrested in connection with the burglary at the cafe during which about $370 worth of liquor was reportedly stolen. A front window was broken during the burglary, according to Wayne police.

Despite Holiday, WH Graduation Set for May 26

Although most Nebraskans will be observing Memorial Day on Monday, May 26, Wayne High School will go ahead with its plans to hold commencement exercises that evening.

Graduation will be held at 8 p.m. that evening in Wayne State's Rice Auditorium even though the Nebraska Legislature has passed a bill which brings the state into line this year with the national observance of Memorial Day on the 26th, according to superintendent Francis Haun.

However, no regular classes will be held that day, he added. Because of that, the final week of school will be extended into Saturday, he noted.

Regular classes will be held on May 27-28, makeup day is set for the 29th, report card day is the 30th and check-in day for the teachers is Saturday, the 31st.

Most Wayne stores are expected to close on the 26th, but local and area veterans' organizations are planning to hold parades and other Memorial Day activities on Friday, May 30, the traditional date for those activities.

2 WH Seniors Are Rated Best in Music

Two seniors at Wayne High School were recognized Tuesday night for having been chosen by fellow music students as being the best seniors in their areas.

They are Gordon Emry in choir band and Mark Cramer in choir. They will have their names inscribed on two permanent plaques at the school — John Phillip Sousa Band Award and National School Choral Award.

In addition to receiving the two top awards, both boys also received four-year band certificates for taking band since they were freshmen.

Parents of the two are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Emry and Mr. and Mrs. J. Alan Cramer, all of Wayne.

Students who received superiors at the district music contest held recently at Wayne were presented pins during the evening banquet, hosted annually by the Wayne-Carroll Music Boosters.

Twenty-nine students received their two-year varsity band certificates during the program.

Herald Tops in State in Use of Photos

The Wayne Herald beat out two dailies and another semiweekly newspaper in winning first place in the Best Newspaper Use of Photos Contest sponsored by the Nebraska Press Photographers Association and the School of Journalism at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Judges for the contest were Ken Paik, picture editor of the Kansas City Times; Randy Hampton, assistant chief photographer of the Lincoln Journal-Star; Roger Morgan, commercial photographer in Lincoln, and George Tuck, associate professor in the UN-L School of Journalism.

The top award comes less than three weeks after the Herald, won three top awards at the annual Nebraska Press Association convention in Lincoln. In those contests, the newspaper won Ak-Sar-Ben's Service to Agriculture award, first place for best personal column among weekly newspapers and first place for best use of color among weekly newspapers. The Herald also won second place in competition for best advertising idea and third places in competition for general excellence and best editorial in those contests.

"The recognition we received in Saturday's contest for our use of photographs in the newspaper during the past year is certainly appreciated," said Herald editor Norvin Hansen. "We spend a lot of time and effort in trying to come up with good photographs. It's nice to know that professional photographers think we do a good job in that area."

The contest placed emphasis on the use and display that photographs receive in the newspaper as well as the quality of the photographs themselves and the quality of reproduction.

Placing second in last year's contest was the West Point Democrat. Third place went to the Crawford Tribune. Charles Greenlee, former editor of the Herald, is editor at West Point.

Best Seat in the House

THE BEST place to watch a baseball game isn't necessarily from the bleachers. During Tuesday's Wayne-Wakefield games, Steve Overin, left, and Bart Moore, just climbed on top of a plank on the side of a light tower at the city ball park and stretched out for a doubleheader. The Wayne eight-year-olds are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Hank Overin and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Moore. For a story about the Wayne-Wakefield contests, turn to the sports page.

Wedding To Be

June 28

At Wakefield

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mills of Wakefield have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marlene Mills to Stephen Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker of Holdrege.

A June 28 wedding is being planned at the Evangelical Covenant Church in Wakefield. Miss Mills, a 1970 graduate of Wakefield High School and a 1974 graduate of Kearney State College, is teaching vocal music at Arapahoe, Neb.

Her fiancé is a 1971 graduate of Holdrege High School and will graduate from Kearney State College in May with a major in music.

Open House

Held for 90th

Mrs. Elizabeth Linafelter was feted Sunday afternoon at an open house reception held at the United Methodist Church in South Sioux City, in honor of her 90th birthday.

Tables were decorated in yellow, pink and white. Serving punch and coffee were granddaughters Mrs. Jerry Priddy of Omaha and Mrs. Forrest Smith of Allen. Mrs. Clair Schubert registered guests.

Mrs. Linafelter's children, Elmer of Red Oak, Ia., Melvin of Emerson, Albert of South Sioux City, Ellis of Waterbury, Mrs. Clair Schubert of Allen and Mrs. Martin Betcke of Sturgis, Mich., were all in attendance, as well as several of her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Norfolk Couple

Marking Golden Year

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Swartz of Norfolk will observe their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, May 4, with an open house reception at the VFW Hall, 102 S. Second St., in Norfolk from 2 to 4 p.m.

Hosting the event will be the couple's children, Mrs. Einer (Betty) Jensen of Indianola, Ia., Mrs. Myron (Violetta) Pilger of Hoskins, Mrs. Merald (Pat) Clausen of Neligh and John Swartz of Battle Creek. All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Swartzes were married May 6, 1925, at Wayne, and farmed in the Wayne, Carroll and Pilger areas before moving to Norfolk in 1951.

Students Play Sunday

Piano, accordion, organ and guitar students of Mrs. Gus Stuthmann of Wayne were presented in a recital Sunday afternoon in the Ramsey Theatre of the Fine Arts Center at Wayne State College.

Boys and Girls Staters

Attend Orientation Sunday

An estimated 180 persons, including 52 Boys and Girls State delegates and alternates, their parents and American Legion Post and Auxiliary members attended the third annual Boys and Girls State orientation Sunday afternoon at Wakefield.

The meeting was conducted by district president EVELINE Thompson of Wayne and district commander Merle Von Minden of Allen to acquaint the delegates and alternates with Boys and Girls State which will be held June 5-11 in Lincoln.

At the education table were Mrs. Robert I. Jones of Carroll and Mrs. Norbert Brugger and Marguerite Hofeldt, both of Wayne. Pages were Mrs. Gary Herbolsheimer and Mrs. Jerry Boatman, both of Wakefield. Men's color bearers were Dan Gustafson and Fred Utecht, both of Wakefield.

Other district officers attending Sunday's orientation were Mrs. Ardell Muller of Thurston, senior vice president; Mrs. Merton Hilton of Wayne, district secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Vern Hagedorn of West Point, department communication chairman; Mrs. Merle Von Minden of Allen, department education and scholarship chairman, and Chris Bargholz of Wayne, area commander.

Also attending the meeting was Mrs. Keith Owens of Carroll, who has been a counselor at Girls State and plans to attend again this year as a counselor.

Fast Boys and Girls Staters who spoke to the group were Cindy Lewin of Thurston, Lisa Kliver of Randolph, Julie Stephens of Carroll, Kathy Marie Hartwig of Pender, Pattie Holtgrew of Winside, Paul Snyder of Allen, Kelly Knerl of Ponca and Charles Leonard of Wakefield.

Lunch was furnished by all posts and units in the district and served by the Wakefield Auxiliary unit.

An invitation was extended by the Wakefield unit to again host next year's orientation.

Date Set

Making plans for a May 24 wedding at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne are Amy Echtenkamp and Michael Fletcher, both of Omaha.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Don Echtenkamp of Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Fletcher of Bennington.

Entertainer, Historian

To Speak at Spring Tea

Dr. Robert N. Manley, entertainer and historian, will be the featured speaker at the Wayne County Home Extension Council's annual spring tea and bi-centennial program.

The tea, originally planned for May 2, has been changed to Friday, May 16, at the Hoskins Public School.

Dr. Manley is head of the division for community development of Selection Research, Inc., in Lincoln, which helps citizens become more aware of their community, its heritage and its significance. He has been active in Nebraska Educational Television and three of his TV series have been used in Nebraska schools. In addition, he has written two books and many of his articles and reviews have been published in various history quarterlies and journals.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Manley's presentation, entitled "Listen to the Land." Registration is from 1 to 1:30 p.m. according to tea chairman Mrs. James Robinson of Hoskins.

engaged

Diane Bruggeman and Bill Borgmann, both of Norfolk, are making plans for an Oct. 18 wedding at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Hoskins.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bruggeman of Hoskins and Mr. and Mrs. John Borgmann Sr. of Osmond.

The bride elect, a graduate of Winside High School, is employed at Northwestern Bell Telephone Co. Her fiancé graduated from Osmond High School and is employed by Wedgewood Builders.

Home Sewing Sessions Scheduled

The University of Nebraska East Station at Concord has scheduled several sessions, open to the public, on a "Fit in Fashion" suitcase program.

According to Anna-Marie Kreifels, area home extension agent, basic fitting problems sometimes cause homemakers to become discouraged with home sewing. Solutions to some of these problems will be presented through the use of slides and visuals.

The program has been prepared by the Vogue-Butterick Fashion Marketing Co., and will be presented by area home extension agents Linda Sander and Miss Kreifels.

Meetings will be held May 5 at the Hartington city auditorium at 1:30 p.m.; May 6 at the Pender fire hall at 9:30 a.m. and in the senate room of the Wayne State College Student Union Building at 1:30 p.m.; May 8 at the Dakota City Courthouse annex meeting room at 1:30 p.m., and May 9 at the North-east Station near Concord at 9:30 a.m. and the REA building in Emerson at 1:30 p.m.

Homemakers who do home sewing are invited to attend the sessions. There is no pre-registration or admission charge.

Friendly folks of the Christian Church met Thursday in the fellowship hall of the Christian Church. Nineteen members were present.

The meeting was conducted by president Roy Wiggins. Hosts were the C. V. Aglers and the Maurice Olsons.

The Orville Henriksons and the Kenneth Packers will be the hosts for the May meeting.

Observes Birthday

Friends helped Mrs. Paul Fischer observe her birthday Friday evening. A cooperative lunch was served.

Dinner Guests

The Melvin Lundins and Mrs. Donna Langbehn, Omaha, were Wednesday dinner guests in the Myron Olson home. Mrs. Lundin's birthday was observed.

The Charles Norris family, Denver, arrived Friday in the Roy Wiggins home. They returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Weldon Schwarzen and Tricia accompanied the Herman Stollers, of Concord to visit in the Loren Anderson home at Ft. Collins, Colo. On Sunday, they attended the confirmation of Todd Anderson at the St. John's Lutheran Church. They returned home on Monday.

Mrs. Terry Carlson and children, Hiawatha, Kan., arrived in the home of Mrs. Pearl Carlson and also visited Mrs. Ebba Holm and other relatives. They returned Sunday.

Mrs. Pearl Carlson returned home Friday after spending several weeks visiting her daughter and family, the Pastor R. A. Louis, Indianapolis, Ind., and the Terry Carlsons, Hiawatha, Kan.

Mrs. Laue is the former Beth Carlson of Wakefield, and daughter of Mrs. Pearl Carlson. Harry, Herbert and Hazel Reed and Mrs. Mabel Swanson, Odebolt, Ia., are spending several days with Mrs. A. D. Carlson. Sunday evening callers in the Carlson home to visit the guests were the Vern Carlsons, the Laurence Carlsons and the Dennis Carlson family.

The Artland-Carlson family and her mother, Mrs. Paul Neubauer, Randolph, spent Sunday in the Dick Neubauer home, Yankton.

Bill and Carl Domsch and A. D. Brown attended MRVAA horse show at Sioux Center, Ia., Saturday. Mr. Brown was the announcer.

The Norman Wakefields, and Sarah, and the Lance Severson family, Underwood, Ia., were Sunday callers in the H. L. Eaton home.

The John McDanielses, Gering, Nebr., were Tuesday afternoon guests of the George Eickholts. On Wednesday, all were entertained for dinner in the Luie Henschke home.

The George Inmans, formerly of Fort Angeles, Wash., have moved into the Mrs. Walter Gross home, which they purchased.

LaVern Miner and Dan Bard drove their motorcycles, Sunday to Shickley, Nebr., to visit in the LaVerl Miner home.

The Elmer Palmbergers, Aurora, were Monday dinner guests of Mrs. Fred Lundin. They had attended the Midwest Conference in Sioux City.

The Bruce Olsons and Jennifer, Chicago, visited during their spring break in the Myron Olson home. Two Puerto Rican students of Bruce's, George and Augustine Monsiava, accompanied them. All returned to Chicago on Saturday.

Mrs. F. W. Salmon returned Sunday from San Diego, Calif. She assisted in the home of Pastor and Mrs. Harold Nilsson as Mrs. Nilsson underwent surgery. She is recovering satisfactorily.

The Sam Utechts and Aron were callers in the Pearl Carlson home Saturday evening to visit Mrs. Terry Carlson and children, Hiawatha, Kan.

Reception Planned

An open house reception honoring S-Sgt. and Mrs. William T. Gavin, Billy and Heather, will be held Sunday, May 4, from 2 to 4 p.m. in the Marlen A. Kraemer home in Laurel. Mrs. Gavin is the former Yvette Kraemer of Laurel.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Gavins will leave May 31 for Wiesbaden Air Force Base in Germany where they will be stationed for three years.

Bridal Fete Held Sunday at Allen

Bride-elect Sheri Kjer of Allen was feted Sunday afternoon at a miscellaneous and food shower held at the First Lutheran Church, Allen.

Hostesses were Betty Carr, Bessie Chapman, Betty Chapman, Mil Fahrnholtz, Rose Gotch, LaVerne Hall, Vickie Hingst, Polly Kjer, Diane Kluber and Lori Leeka.

Approximately 50 guests attended. Mrs. Betty Chapman was mistress of ceremonies for the afternoon's program. Introduction of guests was made with a wish for the bride and a food item added to the grocery basket.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Vickie Hingst, who also accompanied Lori Hall Leeka and Jennifer Hall in singing "We've Only Just Begun." Several readings were given by Mrs. Rose Gotch.

The serving table was decorated by the bride's cousin colors, lavender and blue. Mrs. Dorothy Schram of Sioux City, an aunt of the groom, poured.

Miss Kjer will be married May 10 at the Allen First Lutheran Church to Ed Wilberding of Fremont.

EXTENSION NOTES

by Linda Sander

ABC's of Misbehavior

Johnny slaps his little brother. Mary says a "bad" word. Bobby climbs on the cupboard and dumps all the cereal on the floor.

You parents may wonder why your children misbehave? Whether you realize it or not, your misbehaving child has a definite goal in mind. All children have a need to belong and are an important member of a family.

The problem is that some children find ineffective ways of getting this recognition. Your reaction of these can be very influential. You can either encourage constructive, positive behavior, or you can promote undesirable behavior. It is important for you to realize that there are motives behind a child's misbehavior. We might call them the ABC's of misbehavior.

A - Attention! Your child is trying to get attention, usually in an ineffective way. An example might be your child doing a poor job of sweeping the floor so you will come in and do it for him.

B - Boss and control. Your child will try to control you. If you reprimand your child, he may cry to your spouse, possibly creating a power struggle between parents.

C - Counterhurt to get revenge. Your child may really feel life is unfair and everyone is against him, and he will be constantly trying to "hit back."

D - Disabled. If your child gets to this point, he really feels alone, dejected and adopts the attitude of what's the use of trying. He may act very withdrawn. An example might be the child who always has a stomach ache when it's time to go to school.

In this extreme stage, it is time to take action. Don't moralize. Encourage your child and try to help him feel good about himself. Make him realize he is a worthwhile person.

All behavior has a purpose. A child wants to feel he belongs. Let's help children develop behavior that will let them reach that goal.

Flea Market Helps Aid Retarded

Minerva Club Continues Study Of Islands

In continuing the study of islands, Mrs. Harry Bressler reported on the island of Tierra del Fuego at the Monday afternoon meeting of the Minerva Club.

Mrs. Bressler told the group that Tierra del Fuego is the largest of a group of islands located at the southern-most tip of South America and is separated from the mainland by the Magellan Strait. About one-third the size of Nebraska, the island is populated mostly by Indian tribes and temperatures range from 10 degrees to 85 degrees above zero, with strong, constant winds. Most of the residents of the island travel by boat or airplane. Staples are sent for once a year. Several sheep ranches are located on Tierra del Fuego. One of the largest ranches, The Harberton, covers 50,000 acres with 90,000 sheep.

Fifteen members attended the Minerva Club meeting. The group met with Mrs. Gordon Nuernberger. The May 12 meeting will be with Mrs. Stanley Morris at 2 p.m.

Devils Blank Trojans in Doubleheader

Wayne High swept a doubleheader from Wakefield Tuesday to boost the Blue Devils' record to 4-1.

The hot bats of Earle Overin, Dave Nuss, Mike Manes and Mike Meyer guided the Devils past the Trojans in back-to-back shutouts, 3-0 and 4-0.

Overin's double and single knocked in all three runs in the first contest. Then, in the second game, Meyer and Manes doubled to score three runs while Nuss singled for an RBI and scored two other Wayne players on a Wakefield error.

Wakefield had a chance to knot the first game in the top of the fifth inning when the Trojans loaded the bases. Wayne pitcher Paul Mallette walked Tim Rouse in the top of the inning before Trojan first baseman Dan Byers connected for Wakefield's fourth hit of the afternoon, a double. Mike Soderberg scrambled to first on a Wayne error before Mallette chalked up his third three-strikeout inning to end the contest. Mallette finished with 12 strikeouts.

Wayne took a 1-0 first inning lead in the first contest when Overin singled to score Mallette, who had doubled in the third inning. Overin cracked a double to score teammates Dave Hill and Meyer.

The Blue Devils again struck quickly in the second game with a 2-0 lead in the first inning. Both Randy Park and Meyer walked to set up the runs on Nuss' grounder to Wakefield third baseman Mike Soderberg. Soderberg's throw to first base went wild, allowing both runs to score. Nuss singled in the third to drive in Wayne's third run.

In the fifth frame Meyer's double scored Mallette, and Manes connected for a two-bagger to score Meyer and Aaron Nissen.

Hix chalked up his first win of the season, going four innings before Overin finished Mallette. Overin had seven strikeouts and walked three.

Hix gave up only one hit while striking out six and walking two. Overin had seven strikeouts and walked three.

Doug Schwarten and Gary Munter took the losses on the mound for Wakefield, which holds a 1-2 mark.

Doane, KS Battle For Tennis Crown

The NATA District tennis tournament at Crete Monday turned into a Doane and Kearney domination, with five other teams scrapping for a few morsels. Wayne finished fifth.

Doane repeated as champion by sweeping every event in singles and doubles for the maximum possible points, 39. Kearney placed 23, trailed far back by Concordia with 8, Midland 6, Wayne 5, Hastings 4 and Dana 0.

Wayne gained its points from Russ Kirkpatrick and Rick Noyes, who lost semifinals matches in second and third flights, respectively. Kirkpatrick lost to Ed Hubbs, Doane's eventual champion, 4-7, 6-3. Noyes lost to another Doane champ, Rich Smith, 6-1, 6-1.

Following Wednesday's meet with Briar Cliff, the Wildcats travel to Sioux City Friday for a double meet with Briar Cliff and Morningside. Saturday, Wayne goes to Storm Lake, Ia., for another doubleheader, this time with Buena Vista and Wartburg.

UN-O Spoils Cats' Debut

Wayne State's baseball team finally played a home stand Tuesday after eight previous weather frustrations. But the Wildcats suffered a different frustration in their local debut, losing twice to the University of Nebraska Omaha, 10-3 and 11-3.

Meanwhile, Wayne's women's softball team finished its schedule Tuesday with a home stand.

Allen, Homer Split

Allen and Homer split a pair of baseball games Tuesday. Homer took the first contest, 3-2, and Allen won the second, 3-1.

Paul Snyder took the loss for Allen to drop his record to 0-1. Jeff Creamer for Allen chalked up his first win against no defeats. No other information was available.

UNO baseballers thoroughly dominated Wayne in scoring, except for the second game's first inning when Wayne jumped to a 3-0 lead. The Mavericks retaliated in the second frame with a six-run burst against Wayne starter Roger Saul. Five of those runs came after a throwing error, when Omaha had two outs.

In the opener, Omaha scored in five of seven innings, making good use of nine hits while Wayne scattered eight hits to score in only two innings. Pat Hill took the loss for Wayne before sixth-inning relief by Jim Mergen.

A gusty wind of 15 to 20 miles an hour made misery for batters, pitchers and fielders. Despite the wind blowing toward right field, there were relatively few long hits. The run that hit the top of the bleachers by Omaha's Rich Bernstein, three doubles and a triple.

First game —
Omaha 302 022 1—10 9 1
Wayne 000 010 2—3 8 2
Jim Kantor and Bruce Benedict, Pat Hall, Jim Mergen (6) and Nick Danze.

NEXT TIME Henry Weseloh attends a Wayne town team baseball game at home, he won't have to stand at the gate to take tickets. Henry is finished as a ticket taker for home games, and as far as members of the Wayne Baseball Association board are concerned, it's about time he sat down to watch an entire game.

Last week Weseloh told the board that he wanted to "retire" as a ticket taker. Board members approved, but to show their appreciation, they unanimously agreed that Henry can attend all future home games free of charge.

"I know I'm going to miss it (taking tickets)," the 82-year-old Concord native said. Henry started taking tickets for the Wayne team around 1954. Since then, he only missed one year because he broke his leg.

He expects to see every home game he can this year, and occasionally he may even help take tickets. About county fair time in August, he figures he'll have his job back again. "People will be busy at the fair, so I'm sure they'll need me. You bet I'll be there," he quipped.

CONGRATULATIONS to Allen High junior Diane Witte who won the girls and the Class C boys' divisions during Saturday's trap shoot held in conjunction with the Drake Relays in Iowa. She broke 72 of 100 targets for her best ever mark, despite pouring rains and gusty winds.

Diane wasn't the only Allen gunner to take home a first place award. Team mate Shawn Persinger won the Class B boys' title with an 83x100 score. Allen's five-man team of Persinger, Ric Chase, Todd Koester, Paul Snyder and Wayne's Randy Pinkelman finished second in the high school team event with a 409x500.

Next on Allen's schedule is the Scotts-bluff invitational trap shoot in late May. FISH ARE biting at the Izaak Walton lake northwest of Wayne Saturday. Mary Brummond caught a two and half pound, 14 inch large mouth bass with an artificial lure.

There are plenty of catfish and bluegill in the lake as well as bass. Brummond said. When warmer weather arrives, members plan to stock the lake with about 150 to 200 catfish fingerlings.

Anyone can fish at the lake if he is a member or if he accompanies a member. Membership fee is $13.50 per year.

A COUPLE new wrinkles will be added to this year's Northeast Nebraska Baseball League. The loop will have a "position" night on July 3 when the first and second place teams play, third and fourth teams play and so forth, and the loop will permit use of designated hitters for pitchers. The changes were approved during Saturday's meeting at Wakefield.

At least nine teams will make up the league — Wayne, Wakefield, Allen, Marquette, Newcastle, Ponca, Dakota City, Pender, Homer and Decatur. Still heading is South Sioux City.

A league play opens June 1 with Wayne at Dakota City, Wakefield at Allen, Newcastle at Ponca, Pender at Homer and Decatur at South Sioux. Games will be played on Thursday and Sunday nights. There is a possibility some teams will play Saturday nights to see what crowds they draw.

The annual all-star game with the Dodge County League will be played.

WANT TO see Johnny Unitas leading the Baltimore Colts in the 1958 "sudden death" victory over the New York Giants? What do six men who were there have to say about the day that New York Giants' Bobby Thomson hit a famous home run to defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers for the home pennant?

These are some of the great moments in American sports history that will be recaptured on "The Way It Was" when the series returns to the Nebraska ETV network Friday, May 9, at 7 p.m. The program will be seen for 13 weeks.

"The Way It Was" features films of fights, baseball, basketball, football and hockey games from a 20 year period beginning in 1941. Among series' guest stars will be Willie Mays, Joe Louis, Joe DiMaggio, Otto Graham, Sugar Ray Robinson, Johnny Unitas, Bob Cousy and Red Kelley.

Permanent host for the series is Curt Gowdy, popular sports commentator. Gowdy shares hosting duties with the guest sportscaster who describes the memorable event on the day it happened.

Wayne Golfers Earn Third

Wayne High's golf team, paced by medal winners Tom Johansen and Kirk Wacker, took third place in Saturday's eight team Bloomfield invitational.

Johansen fired an 18 hole round of 80 and Wacker finished with an 84 to lead the Blue Devils' links to a 345 total. Randy Sock of Norfolk took medalist honors with a 79. Trailing him were Johansen, 80. Steve Erwin, O'Neill, 81. Jeff Erwin, O'Neill, 84, and Wacker, 84. Wacker lost his bid for fourth in a playoff.

Wayne finished seven strokes behind medal winner O'Neill. Johansen, Prather and Workman led the five-man team with 45's while Roger Wacker shot 46.

with a 44. Other teams which competed were Plainville 362, Hartington High 392, Hartington Cedar Catholic 409, Wakefield 410 and Bloomfield 425.

Also scoring for Wayne were Si Prather, 90, and Ritch Workman, 91.

Kerry Bressler's 94 led Wakefield. Trojans John Polen fired a 99. Steve Pospisil 104 and Alan Johnson 113.

Former WH Golfers Vie In Dual Meet

Last year Mark Schram and Scott Ehlers, played golf for Wayne High School. This year Schram enrolled at Wayne State. Ehlers at Northeast Nebraska Technical Community College.

Tuesday the ex-teammates met as opponents on the Wayne golf course they know well, and finished as medalists, each carding 76, but not against each other.

Ehlers was paired against another Ehlers, Jim of Hartington, in the No. Four position, and Scott won 3-0 with rounds of 32 and 39, while Jim Ehlers shot 36 (best nine of the meet) and 40.

Schram, in the No. Five position, shot 37-39 for a 3-0 decision over Rex Rogers and his 46-49.

Other results:

Larry Franzen, Wayne, 44-40, tied 11-11 with Mark Johnson, Northeast, 40-44. Rob Dalton, Wayne, 40-41, won 2-1 over Tom Anderson, 43-39. Bill Scarborough, Wayne, 41-41, won 3-0 over Pat Hull, 47-47. Jim Steven, Wayne, 44-38, won 3-0 over Mike Surka, 46-47.

Wayne golfers will play in a meet with four or five teams, including host Creighton University today (Thursday) at Omaha's Elmwood Park.

The Wildcats also will compete in the NATA district meet at Kearney, 36 holes divided between Monday and Tuesday. The Tuesday round will serve as the Nebraska College Conference meet.

Pierce Girls Cop 5th NENAC Title

For the 14th straight year Pierce High girls have won the Northeast Nebraska Activities Conference girls track title, top ping a field of nine teams during Tuesday's meet at Creighton.

Pierce scored 40 1/2 points to outdistance Plainville with 36 1/2, Laurel 32, Crofton 29, Randolph 27 1/2, Bloomfield 13 1/2, Creighton 7, O'Neill 5 and Neigh 1.

Laurel sophomore Path Stark led her team with victories in the 880 and 440 yard runs. She also anchored Laurel's fourth place 880-yard relay team. Her time in the 880 was 2:31.5. She ran 1:06.7 in the 440.

200 Attend Farm Bureau's Annual Dinner

About 200 people attended Saturday night's Wayne County Farm Bureau banquet at Wayne State's Student Center.

Guest speaker Clare Porter of Lincoln, president of Agricultural Builders of Nebraska, said that farmers must do a better job of marketing through cooperation with each other in selling their products if they are to improve market prices.

In an example of farmer cooperation, Porter noted that 42 different farm organizations cooperated in getting the Nebraska Legislature to appropriate money for a veterinary science laboratory at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Two Wayne County youths, Sheila Gramlich of Wayne and Verne Neal Maroz of Winside, were presented certificates for attending the annual citizenship seminar in Lincoln sponsored by the Nebraska Farm Bureau women's committee. Presenting the certificates was Mrs. Lauren Boeckenhauer of Emerson, chairman of the women's committee.

The Wayne High School stage band, under direction of Ron Dalton, provided music for the evening. Welcoming banquet guests was Wayne County Farm Bureau president Marvin Felt of Wakarusa.

Besides music by the stage band, the Young Farmers quartet, composed of Lauren and Maurice Boeckenhauer, Brian Kai of Pender and Ron Ring of Wayne, sang.

Presenting a skit titled "The Farmer" were Scott Krusemark and Shawn Kai, both of Pender.

President of WSC New NETCHE VP

Dr. Lyle Spymour, president of Wayne State College, was named vice president of the Nebraska Educational Television Council for Higher Education (NETCHE) during the group's annual meeting Monday in Lincoln.

Named president of the organization was Earl Mezoff, president of Darg College at Blair. Executive committee members elected include Brendan McDonald, president of Kearney State, Phillip Heckman, president of Doane College at Crete, and Ronald Beer, vice chancellor for educational and student services at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

Approved during the meeting was an institutional supported budget totaling $29,299 for fiscal year 1975-76.

NETCHE is a non-profit consortium of 14 public and private colleges and universities in the state which have banded together to provide high quality television lessons to supplement college classroom teaching.

A total of 45 new lessons were produced last year, bringing the total number of lessons in NETCHE's videotape library to 612, according to executive director Lee H. A similar number of lessons are planned for production during the coming year, he noted.

The number of classes viewing NETCHE lessons during the first semester of the year increased 46 per cent over the same period last year, according to Rockwell.

Exon rings the bell on spending: it's time to stop, look, listen

CAPITOL NEWS

LINCOLN — Gov. J. Exon visited the legislators last week to give them some advice many of them agreed with but didn't like hearing from him.

Exon said he wanted to "ring the bell" of every senator and every citizen of this state. On spending, it's time to stop, look and listen!

"Yes, we know that, the senators said, in effect.

The governor, however, said that if the lawmakers know if they weren't hearing it because they were spending — authorizing spending — at a pace which could drive the state sales tax up to 3 1/2 per cent and the state income tax to 17 per cent for the 1976 calendar year.

The governor said he wanted the senators to call a one-week halt to spending, just to get their perspective back.

"By declaring this week-long moratorium, you could take a look at the total state spending picture and have an opportunity to learn from Mr. and Mrs. John Q. Nebraska back home, rather than those who claim your attention day after day here in Lincoln, the lobbyists and other special interest groups," the governor said.

That suggestion wasn't popular with legislators who said they must get busy on consideration of budget proposals because it is their responsibility to keep the state operating.

"The Exon displeasure with a school aid bill increasing the program by $15 million next year was decided by some legislators because it means, as they view it, he is against hiking state taxes, but doesn't care if the local property tax has to be boosted.

Sen. Jerome Warner of Waverly, one of those making that comment, said the governor has shown the same attitude in preferring to have technical community education provided through property taxation, instead of fully state — sales and income tax — financing.

But the governor, in his address last week, said the economy of the state is sagging and it is the wrong time to increase spending, especially if the sales tax gets pushed up a notch or two.

Under current state law, the impact of the sales and income taxes is supposed to be about the same, or as nearly so as possible. Because one increment of sales tax brings in more than one unit of income tax, there is some flexibility in the income tax before an adjustment needs to be made in the sales levy.

Exon indicated that current spending by the senators would force both the tax twins to increase. He called for legislation to uncouple the two, so the income tax could move up without affecting the sales tax rate.

"I have been concerned about triggering an increase in the sales tax, the most regressive tax of all, especially during these uncertain economic times," he said.

"With high unemployment and heavy losses in sectors of our agricultural economy, many will not be paying income tax, and I think it unfair to increase their sales tax, which they must pay regardless of their income."

Several senators, reacting to the Exon speech, said the same is true about property taxes — which must be paid, regardless of the income the property generates.

Exon also reiterated his plea to have the Legislature, which has the final word on spending, be the final authority as well on the tax rates. Now, the State Board of Equalization, of which the governor is chairman, sets the tax rates each fall for the coming calendar year.

The legislators should, Exon said, decide what the maximum rates are that they think they could live with politically and budget up to that level.

"I still recommend holding to my previous recommendations of 2 1/2 per cent sales and 13 per cent income, but I recognize some of the Legislature do not concur. I encourage those who do not agree to step forward and say so, and spell out clearly what increase in taxes they support and thereby exhibit the courage of their convictions," Exon said.

"This recommended procedure will go a long way to exploding the myth, unique only to the Nebraska system, that those who authorize the spending should duck the responsibility for setting the tax rates necessary to finance their authorizations."

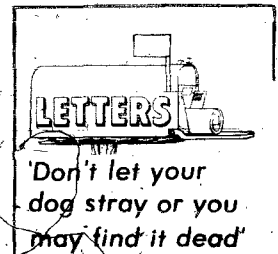

The Legislature, with the final days of the session just ahead, still had many of the big issues still unresolved when the governor made his speech.

The request for an increase in the income tax from the present 10 per cent to the 13 per cent Exon wants, retroactive to Jan. 1, was one of the pending issues. School aid was another.

The Budget Committee was winding up its recommendations for financing state government operations and capital construction for the coming fiscal year. Floor decisions still were to be made last week.

Ride it right... leave the clowning to us.

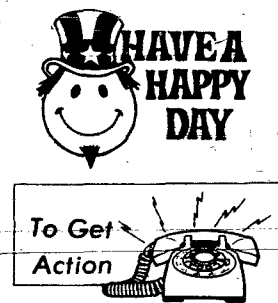

LETTERS
Don't let your dog stray or you may find it dead

Dear Editor:
Last week I lost my dog. As soon as I found she was missing, I tried contacting all the surrounding neighbors to see if they had seen her. None had. I advertised over the radio for three days in a row, stating she was missing and that I very much missed her and wanted her back. Still I received no response. Six days later I went to the farm where I was keeping her and found someone had brutally shot her to death and thrown her in the middle of the lane, where she was sure to be found.

My dog was a very nice dog. She never bothered anybody or anything. She wasn't the prettiest dog, nor was she a purebred, but still I loved her very much, and to me she was the best dog in the world. To see her lying there hurt me very bad.

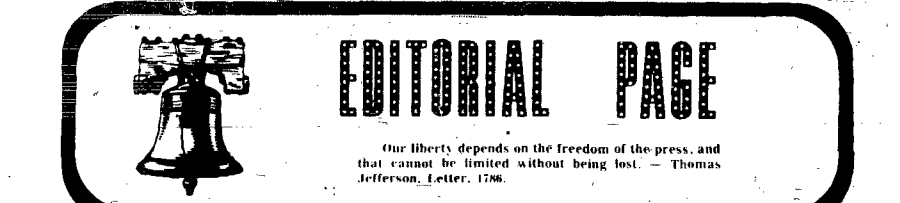

I guess I probably should have kept her tied all the time, but normally she didn't stray and on the farm I figured she had plenty of room for exercise.

Now this has happened. The reason I am writing this letter is not to publicize someone's idea of a sick joke, but rather to plea with all dog owners not to let their dogs run loose. I'd hate to have anyone lose their favorite pet like I have. — Concerned.

"Ever wonder how the income tax got started? The 16th amendment to the U.S. Constitution, legalizing federal income taxes, was adopted in 1913. It began as an amendment to a bill in Congress lowering the tariff on imports. The idea was that the small deficit from reduced tariff receipts could be taken care of by a tiny tax on prosperous incomes. On incomes from $4,000 to $20,000, the bite was one percent. On $100,000, it was four per cent; on $500,000, six per cent. Few made more than $4,000. Few people opposed the idea of the tax. It didn't seem important at the time. There must be a lesson there."

OBSERVATIONS

Guest editorial:
We need your help
Just to remind you, our wonderful country will be 200 years old on July 4th, 1976. Have you given it any thought? Do you want to get involved?
Several Wayne County and city residents have been attending planning meetings for several weeks now, but many groups haven't been there, especially patriotic groups.
In September of this year, we hope to have a Bicentennial event each month leading up to the big day, and we hope all organizations will come forward and help with these events. If your group is planning a Bicentennial program or fund-raising event, please let me know so it can be recorded in our files.
Our Bicentennial is now, right now! There are things that need doing right now — important things that will take until 1976 and beyond to accomplish. The Bicentennial bandwagon is already rolling. Climb aboard.
The next meeting of the Bicentennial committee is Friday night at 7:30 in the Woman's Club room at the city auditorium. Will we see you there? — Roberta Welte, Wayne's Bicentennial chairman.

Murphy: Tempo increases as session nears end

By John Murphy
State Senator
17th District
The tempo of the Legislature increased last week as it began to wind down to the final weeks of this year's 90-day session. The state aid to education bill advanced despite objections that it was similar to the state-wide referendum rejected last November by the voters. Still another objection was that the state tax burden had already been increased in replacing the $20 million of revenue sharing funds that were discontinued by the federal government.
State aid will be split into two equal funds: Foundation aid to be distributed on a per pupil basis to each district based on its enrollment, and equalization aid to be distributed on the basis of a formula which purports to transfer the taxable wealth of one district to another district to achieve equal educational opportunities for both.
As representative of the 17th District, I am in an extremely difficult position — the Winslow school district will receive its share of foundation aid based on the number of students enrolled. However, it will receive no monies whatsoever under the equalization aid.
On the other hand, South Sioux City will receive its proportionate share of foundation aid, and under the formula will receive one and one half times that amount in equalization funds.
With the balance of my school districts at varying levels of equalization funding, it becomes extremely difficult to vote either for or against this measure.
Monday and Tuesday were particularly hectic for me. The Legislature debated on general file, LB 269, a bill I introduced which provides for regulation and joint use of electronic banking terminals by state and federal banks. The savings and loans institutions and the federal banks already have the authority to do this — only the state banks are excluded.
This bill guarantees complete equality by all banks for the use of any terminal established under this bill.
Even though savings and loans are presently engaged in this practice, there was a very strong effort by them to piggy-back their institutions onto this bill.

'In Washington'

Finally, it's back to school for (some) lawyers

By Ron Hendren
WASHINGTON — Well, they're really going to do it. They're going to take all the lawyers in Iowa and Minnesota and send them back to school. Not that Iowa and Minnesota lawyers are more or less well educated than their counterparts in the rest of the country. It's just that the supreme courts in those states got around to the school idea first. It will probably catch on.
For years Americans have been complaining that most lawyers are too crooked, too expensive and too un-knowledgeable except when it comes to finding ways to charge more than they ought to. And for years nobody has done very much about any of those charges, even to finding out whether they are valid. Somebody in Iowa and Minnesota must think some of them are, because the high courts there have ordered that all practicing attorneys will have to attend 15 hours of refresher courses annually if they want to remain offices of the court. Failure to do so will result in demotion to private — private citizen.
This raises two questions. Will the 15 hours really do any good, or will they be like some of the army summer camps I used to attend: lots of commotion but very little training? And will the courses be used as an excuse to let up in the effort to reform some of the legal profession's more serious ills, those that have more to do with long-standing practices than with the inadequacies of individual lawyers?
It's that second question that bothers me most. The District of Columbia Bar Association recently conducted its first open hearings on the question of whether the public ought to have the right to know if a lawyer has been reprimanded by his colleagues for misconduct. Unbelievable as it may seem, lawyer after lawyer argued that the practice of keeping reprimands secret should be continued.
On the other side were those who argued that the public should know if a certain lawyer has been officially reprimanded by his fellow practitioners. Not wild charges, you understand, just confirmed misconduct. For example, a lawyer in Washington recently represented a husband in a divorce suit, while at the same time passing along confidential information to the wife. The public doesn't know who the lawyer is, and I presume that people are continuing to hire him. As for me, I'm postponing my engagement until I find out his name; you never know. But more important than my engagement, of course, is the bigger question of just how widespread this kind of conduct is, not only in Washington but around the nation.
Another of those serious ills in the legal profession is the practice of fee-fixing. For some antediluvian reason which I would like to have explained to me, the courts have ruled that lawyers are exempt from antitrust statutes. Thus, for example, you will have to pay $52 for a simple title search if you buy a house in the state of Virginia. Why? Because the Virginia Bar Association has "cream-milked" this figure to its members. So it doesn't matter whether your lawyer may never have searched a title in his life and doesn't even know where they are kept, or whether he may have committed to memory every property transaction in the state of Virginia — it will cost you $52, either way. (The U. S. Supreme Court argued the fee-fixing issue last month, and will probably decide on it in June.)
All of this gets us back to those lawyers going to school. The 15 hours of lessons may accomplish something outside the classroom even if they don't accomplish much on the inside. The mere fact that they are taking place at all is a warning to the legal profession that the public will no longer accept second-class work and inadequate, secret self-policing.
In fact, the American Bar Association already got the hint and just recently conducted hearings on whether disciplinary actions should remain confidential. I don't know much about what they decided, though. The hearings were closed to the public.

Pinewood Car Race

Cub scouts John Carhart and Mark Kubik won first place in Pack 221's pinewood derby race and design contest Sunday night at West Elementary School. Carhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carhart of Wayne, topped a field of 17 entries. Finishing second and third were Jon Jacobmeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Jacobmeier, and Scott Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brown, all of Wayne. Kubik, whose model won the design division, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Kubik of Wayne. Taking second and third were Paul Ahmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ahmann, and Terry Haller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haller, all of Wayne. Judging the contest were Richard Metteer and Rowan Witte.

Students Tackle Adult Roles

ALLEN STUDENTS in kindergarten through sixth grades demonstrate some of their learning about the different roles of merchants and businessmen during Friday night's career-education banquet and fair at the high school auditorium. Looking over a display on banking, top photo, are Brad Stewart, Eric Lund, Bobby Osbahr, Keith Rohde and Eddie Sturges. Below, students perform a skit about the Allen volunteer fire department. Also during the program, several musical presentations were given by the students under the direction of Lorna Stamp. Craig Williams, president of Security State Bank in Allen, was interviewed by fifth graders; students presented a square dance, and second grade youngsters gave a puppet skit under the direction of career-ed director Robert Manley. Mistress of ceremonies was Janet Peterson; Kevin Anderson was master of ceremonies.

"Do not attempt to do a thing unless you are sure of yourself; but do not relinquish it simply because someone else is not sure of you."
Stewart E. White

We admire the man who approaches a task with quiet self-assurance. He may not always be certain of complete success but he is sure that he can give a creditable performance. This should be our attitude toward the projects we face. Jobs that are too big, that demand skills or experience we do not have, should not be attempted. But, once satisfied in our own minds that we can do the job, let no skeptic dissuade us with his unfounded doubts about our ability. Whatever the cost of the funeral selected by a family, we have never given less than the most complete, most understanding service of which we are capable. We have only one grade of service... our best!

4-H AWARDS
The Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District each year awards several scholarships to 4-H'ers to attend camp and Club Week.

This year Judy Temme, Wayne; Penny Roberts, Wakefield, and Shirley Kleensang, Hoskins, received scholarships to 4-H Club Week at Lincoln June 3-6. Mike Rethwisch of Wayne received a scholarship for Leadership and Environment Camp at Halsey June 16-19.

MORE AWARDS
The Wayne Herald recently presented a $100 check to the 4-H Council to be used to purchase equipment for 4-H'ers. Two electric livestock plippers have been ordered. The Herald received this money for winning the 1975 Nebraska Press Association Ak-Sar-Ben Outstanding Service to Agriculture award. Many thanks to J. Alan Cramer, Herald publisher, for donating this award money to Wayne County 4-H.

NEW NAME
Two 4-H clubs, Hoskins-Hustlers and Hoskins Jr. Home-makers, have combined under the new name of Spring Branch 4-H Club. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wittler are organizational leaders, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Puls are project leaders. The club has 26 members.

SPEECH CONTEST
We recently completed a very successful speech contest with 38 4-H'ers giving speeches. Something new was added this year — the first-year speakers gave their speeches separate from the rest of the contest. There were 12 entries in this division, judged by Ted Blendenman, art and drama teacher at Wayne High School.

MORE ON SPEECH CONTEST
I visited with Kris Anderson and Mike Rethwisch, winners of the senior division, about the value of participating in speech contests. Both 4-H'ers agreed that public speaking increased their self-confidence. They also enjoyed the recognition they received.

MULE SKINNER POLITICS
The title of Kris Anderson's speech was "Mule Skinner Politics." Her speech was about the problems the dairy industry is having in making both the public and government understand the real needs of the dairy industry. The speech was a good review of what has been happening to the dairy industry on a national level.

Mike Rethwisch spoke on "Porkchop Patriot." Mike explained that hogs were one of the first "settlers" in this country. Hogs have always been important to our diet, and are now used to make paint brushes and dressing for burns. We even use the manure to make gas to run automobiles. It's easy to figure which 4-H projects are the favorites of Kris and Mike.

Allen FFA Names Bock as President

Rob Bock was installed as chapter president of the Allen Future Farmers of America during Saturday night's annual FFA banquet.

Bock, who will preside over the club for the 1975-76 term, took over for Loren Bock. Other new officers who were installed were Van Hanson, vice president; Diane White, secretary; Victor Schultz, treasurer; Gordon Lunz, reporter; Jack Warner, sentinel; Randy Dunn, parliamentary; and Steve Lunz, historian.

Thou shalt eat the labor of thine hands.

DOUG SMITH, left, and Don Bock were honored as the top senior and freshman member of Allen High's FFA chapter during Saturday night's banquet.

Smith, Bock Named Allen's Top FFA'ers

Two Allen youths were named Star Farmer and Star Green Hand award recipients during Saturday night's Future Farmers of America chapter banquet at Allen High School.

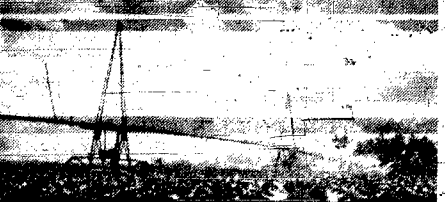

They were Doug Smith, who was named the chapter's Star Farmer, and Don Bock, who won the Chapter's Green Hand award. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Smith, is a senior, and Bock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Bock, is a freshman. Both attend Allen High School.

The pair were selected by chapter officers, based on their keeping of record books, participation in club functions and number and types of club projects.

Receiving the Outstanding Leadership award was Rob Bock. Bock also was one of five students to earn proficiency awards for his club project in swine production. Others who received proficiency awards were Loren Bock in agriculture mechanics; Loren Truby in sheep production; Todd Koester in fish and wildlife; and Jack Warner in dairy production. Bock and Warner also placed first and second during the chapter's built sales during the school year to raise money for the chapter.

About 160 attended the annual banquet in the high school auditorium. Guest speaker was Fred Dubs, a University of Nebraska-Lincoln student who is past state FFA secretary.

HAND-TOOL MAINTENANCE

The uncomplicated Valley Water Drive

Part of making top profits is not paying a fortune for maintenance and parts on your center pivot. The Valley Water Drive, a simple uncomplicated machine is repaired by farm workers about 95% of the time. You need only simple tools like a wrench and pliers. You never need high cost electricians and special equipment that the expensive systems require. Yet the yields are the same. Total parts are less than $150.00 year! And that's proved by more than 20 years of use. In initial costs, you'll save up to $9,000. Add it up. It means far less to own, far less to maintain and that adds up to more money in your pocket.

17 Attend Noon Luncheon

The Past Presidents of American Legion Auxiliary held a noon luncheon at the Up Town Cafe, April 22. Seventeen members attended.

Fourteen lap robes, which were on display, will be sent to the Veterans Home in Norfolk. In the past two years, 34 lap robes have been made by members.

During the year, 1,500 Christmas tags were made and sent to Nebraska Veterans hospitals. A donation of five dollars was made to the Past President's Scholarship Fund.

A picture of the group was taken and will be sent, along with a report on the group's activities during the year, to department headquarters in Lincoln.

Projects for the coming year will be bibs, booties, Christmas tags and lap robes. The next meeting will be May 17 at 9 a.m. at the legion hall to work on Memorial Day crosses.

27 WS Students Get Inside Look at How UN Operates

Skyscrapers, the Statue of Liberty, the Empire State building and the United Nations are now memories for 27 Wayne State College students who returned to campus Monday following a week's participation at the National Model United Nations (NMUN) assembly in New York City.

The students held their sessions at the UN headquarters and the Statler-Hilton. This year marks WSC's first year of participation in the NMUN and it also marks the first year that any Nebraska schools have attended the assembly. Nebraska also was represented by a delegation from Creighton University.

WSC students served in role playing positions, representing the Republic of Turkey and the United States. They simulated UN sessions over 120 colleges and universities from throughout the nation participated in the NMUN with the WSC delegation of 27 being the largest from any school.

Heading the Turkey delegation was senior Dan Stoller from Elkhorn. Sandra Nash of Orlando, Fla., a senior served as Elmer's chairman.

Karen Temme of Wayne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Temme, was one of the area students participating. She is a senior majoring in pre-law and social science.

She described the NMUN as a valuable learning experience which helped her "see more realistically the things that go on in the UN between countries and the importance of the UN in solving world problems."

Karen served on the New Economic Order Committee which is trying to get underdeveloped countries, such as Fiji, to the status of developed countries.

This was Karen's second trip to New York and it was highlighted for her by attending an off Broadway play, "Hot Baltimore," which she described as "something one reads about but that I got to see."

Another Wayne student, Erin O'Donnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen O'Donnell, also was an NMUN delegate. She attended committee sessions involving Food Production and Distribution, Population and Disarmament.

She also considered the model UN a valuable learning experience, but felt too much emphasis was placed on parliamentary procedure by the delegates. She especially enjoyed walking around New York City and shopping and browsing in the many small, quaint shops.

New York City, she felt, is a lonely place, with the majority of the people seeming to be impersonal.

A third student from the area was Mary Pat Finn of Norfolk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Finn of Carroll. A graduate student, she considered the course a rewarding learning experience which enabled her to better understand the complexities of international government.

Allen O'Donnell, faculty sponsor for the group and professor of political science at WSC, viewed the model UN as "an excellent learning experience for those who took part."

The trip provided "opportunities for students to simulate the actual workings of the UN, which gives them background and training for future careers in all fields," he noted.

Highlight of the trip for O'Donnell was being informed by the Secretary General that Wayne State will receive a certificate for excellence in participation in the NMUN, and the fact that the UN leadership recognized WSC as an important part of the UN.

William Hagerman, assistant professor of communication arts at WSC, also accompanied the students to New York.

He commented that "in order to attain and maintain and achieve world peace, it's necessary to understand world politics. What better way than through the assimilation of the UN, where we learn directly from the diplomats themselves as well as from the experiences of the students."

Both professors agreed that the enthusiasm shown by the 27 WSC students this year will be an important consideration in deciding whether to attend the 50th model UN program in 1976.

In its first year of participation in the NMUN, WSC achieved a high degree of recognition. Four of its delegates were named to top committee positions, with two being elected to chairmanship positions.

Elected to chair the 138-member Legal Committee of the General Assembly was Dave Mowitz of Hampton, a junior majoring in communication arts and political science. Senior Joanne Wilson, a public service major from Sidney, chaired the Food Development Committee of the Economic and Social Development Council.

Other students participating in the NMUN were Jane Barito Auburn, Iowa; Julie Tippy Norfolk, Iowa; Sue Koenig, Lindsay; Lorelei Hunt, Stanton; Sue Stoler, Sioux City; Bobbi Nichols, Plattsmouth; Barb Stoller, Elkhorn; Linda Canarsky, Rosalie; Pam McFarland, Omaha; Barbara Andrysiak, Bill; Bill Neld, Grand Island; Pat Meuret, Brunswick; Leo Dobrovolsky, Bellevue; Jeff Varner, Omaha; Ken Llesche, Ft. Calhoun; Carol Llesche, Ft. Calhoun; Leigh Jean Koza, Elgin; and Mary Sue Rickeltes, Nebraska City.

2 Nebraska Authors Spotlighted on ETV Two famous Nebraska authors, Willa Cather and Mari Sandoz, will be honored in programs broadcast on the Nebraska ETV Network during May.

"Willa Cather Remembered," a special hour-long program telecast Wednesday, May 7, at 8 p.m., offers some unusual glimpses of the part of Nebraska that Willa Cather considered home and reminiscences by friends and relatives of the great author.

Included in the program are remembrances by Elsie Cather, Carrie Miner Sherwood, Mildred Bennett and Emil Pavelka, the son of the famous "Antonia," taken from interviews recorded in 1962 and 1966 and preserved in the Nebraska Heritage TV Library.

"Willa Cather Remembered" was made possible in part by the Willa Cather Pioneer Memorial and Educational Foundation, which celebrates its 20th anniversary in 1975. Over the years this group has identified and marked more than 50 sites in Webster County associated with Cather's life and writings and has made her home town of Red Cloud into a unique literary monument.

Another famous Nebraska author is remembered in a special rebroadcast of "Mari Sandoz, Nebraskan" on Monday, May 12, at 8:30 p.m., the day following the anniversary of her birth.

This 30-minute program, also from the Nebraska Heritage TV Library, includes a biographical sketch and an interview conducted by Bertrice Stone, University of Nebraska-Lincoln professor.

60 Attend Lorenz Reunion

By
Mrs. Edward
Fork
585-4827

Children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lorenz gathered at the Carroll city auditorium Sunday for a family reunion. About 60 persons attended the cooperative dinner and social afternoon. The couple's children are Mrs. Ray Peterson of Wayne, Mrs. Ernie Sands of Laurel, Fred Lorenz and Mrs. Earl Shipley, both of Norfolk, Mrs. Bessie McMillan, Mrs. Ervin Wittler and Mrs. John Hamm, all of Carroll, and Gurney Lorenz of Randolph.

First Communion
Nancy Olson was honored Sunday at the first communion at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Norfolk. Dinner guests in the Tom Olson home were Mrs. Duane Heimes and family of Hartington and Bruno Becker of St. Helena. The Ralph Olsons were evening guests to honor the occasion.

No-Host Supper
AFY members and their parents held a no-host supper April 20 at the United Methodist Church social rooms. A short business meeting followed the supper and youths discussed plans for a summer trip. Games provided the evening's entertainment.

Club to Mark 50th
The 50th anniversary of the Carroll Federated Woman's Club will be observed May 8 with an open house at the Carroll city auditorium, beginning at 1:30 p.m. All former Woman's Club presidents will be honored. Past members and women of the area are invited to attend.

Attend Rally
Arnold Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Leicy and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fork attended the District III Lutheran Laymen's League spring rally and banquet Sunday evening at the Laurel High School auditorium.

Family Card Party
EOT members Mrs. Bill Blecke and Mrs. Dorothy Thun were hostesses for a family card party held Friday evening at the Wayne Woman's Club room. Prizes were won by Mrs. Harry Hofeldt, Mrs. Cyril Hansen, Mrs. Gilmore Sabs, Dale Claussen and Bill Blecke. Mrs. Harry Hofeldt will be hostess for the May 1 afternoon meeting. Co-hostess is Mrs. Wilbur Hefli.

Linda Fork, South Sioux City, was an April 20 weekend visitor in the Edward Fork home.

The William Williams family, Lincoln, were weekend visitors in the home of her parents, the Ervin Withers.

The Don Harmsers were in Lincoln last Tuesday through Thursday attending a meeting of Federal Crop Adjusters.

Sunday afternoon guests in the Robert Johnson home were Lawrence Johnson, Madison, S.D., Walt Johnson, South Sioux City, Kenneth Packer, Wakefield, Ivan Johnson, Concord, and Perry Johnson.

Scott Johnson, Plainview, came Sunday to spend the week with his grandparents, the Perry Johnsons.

Story Errs

A story in last Thursday's Wayne Herald incorrectly reported that Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Boettcher of rural Laurel purchased the Home Cafe in Allen. The couple leased the business from Harold Paul of Sioux City, who bought the cafe from Mr. and Mrs. Myron Osbahr Jr. of Allen.

Scholarships Provided From A.V. Teed Fund

The $60 scholarships won by three high school seniors for their efforts in a mathematics contest at Wayne State College were provided by the Wayne State Foundation from the A. V. Teed scholarship fund. It was incorrectly reported in Thursday's issue of The Wayne Herald that the scholarships came from the A. V. Teed scholarship fund. Winning the scholarships in the April 21st contest were Milton Mackay Hancock, first; Cindy Niedfeldt, Columbus Lakeview, second; and Jackie Hunke, West Point Central Catholic, third.
