Election Filing Cutoff Near

With less than three weeks remaining before the March 12 deadline, candidates aren't rushing to file for elective offices for which Wayne County electors will vote in the May 11 primary, but that isn't unusual, according to a spokesman for the Nebraska Secretary of State's election information center.

Few candidates have filed either locally or with the Secretary of State's office, but the spokesman there said many candidates avoid filing until the last minute in hopes of cutting down on competition by not drawing attention to the election.

Offices filed for with the Secretary of State's office, for which Wayne County voters will be casting ballots include: —Board of Regents, District 3. Incumbent Kermit Wagner has filed.

Open House Will Compare Swine Facilities

An open house at the Concord Northeast Station swine facility is scheduled for Wednesday, said swine specialist Bob Fritschen.

The meeting and tour will begin at 1:30 p.m. Fritschen and Steve Pohll, extension agricultural engineer, will present information on design construction and management of the modified open-front growing-finishing units. There will also be a tour of two different modified open-front units, which will include a comparison of bale hovers, wood pallets and catalytic heaters.

Producers will also be able to observe pigs on eight-inch wide concrete slats and five-inch wide plastic slats. Another item of interest will be the use of clear acrylic panels for solar heating in a single slope-modified open-front unit.

The meeting is co-sponsored by the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service and the Northeast Pork Producers Association.

Public Service Commission District 3. Blair Richendier of Blair has filed. Duane Gay of Columbus is the incumbent.

State Board of Education. No one has filed. Walter Motter of Wayne is the incumbent.

Nebraska State Legislative, District 17. No one had filed as of Friday. Incumbent John R. Murphy of South Sioux City has announced that he will seek reelection.

First Congressional District. Incumbent Charles Thone, Republican, is seeking reelection. No other candidates have filed.

Offices for which candidates filed with county clerk Norris Weibbe are city council, county commissioner, Educational Service Unit-1 county representative, school commissioner, and school board. Candidates for delegate to county conventions also file in Weibbe's office. City

'Right to Life' Will Organize Locally

An organizational meeting will be held Wednesday evening at Wayne to consider forming a Wayne County Right to Life organization. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Woman's Club room.

Guest speakers during the evening will be Dr. Jerome Dalton, psychologist for the Sioux City schools, Jerry Reicks, a member of the Dakota County Right to Life organization, and Mrs. Leo Krampfer, regional director for the Nebraska Coalition for Life and program chairman for Dakota County Right to Life. A film, entitled "Abortion: A Woman's Decision," will also be presented.

Heading up Wednesday night's meeting in Wayne is Mrs. Jerry Dorcey, rural Wayne.

Fire Damages Bank

The Wayne First National Bank sustained between $5,000 and $6,500 in damage as the result of a fire Thursday afternoon.

Firesmen arrived on the scene to find thick black smoke rolling up the basement stairs, and fought the blaze for nearly an hour before it was completely extinguished.

The fire was caused by sparks from a welder being used to repair a hand railing on the stairs igniting materials in a storage area underneath the stairway.

Damage was confined to the basement and bank personnel were able to resume business as usual an hour after the fire was out. Bank spokesman Bob Reeg said no bank records were destroyed in the blaze and said damage from the fire won't result in any interruption of regular business hours.

Wayne firefighters were also called out Friday morning, to extinguish a blaze caused by an overheated brake drum on a cattle truck.

FmHA Offering $50 Million In Loans

Farm owners in Nebraska can share in some $50 million of funds now available in the nation for loans to develop, conserve and improve land and water resources, according to LaVern Ostendorf, county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA).

Measures to alleviate problems of waste, disposal, and pollution control on farms may be eligible for financing through this source.

"These funds are available on a first-come, first-served basis throughout the nation," Ostendorf said.

He explained that soil and water loans from FmHA can be used to develop water supplies for home use, livestock watering or irrigation. The funds also can be used for drainage projects, to install water or waste facilities associated with pollution abatement and control and to build other structures that contribute to conservation and meet health, safety and environmental requirements.

Funds also may be used to level land, establish permanent pasture, develop farm forests, and to carry out basic soil treatment practices such as liming, fertilizing, and subsoiling.

Applications may be obtained at the FmHA county office at 112 West 2nd St. in Wayne.

Farmers in both Wayne and Stanton Counties are serviced by the Wayne office.

Terms of loans are as long as 40 years with an interest rate of five percent charged on the unpaid principal.

Applications may be obtained at the FmHA county office at 112 West 2nd St. in Wayne.

Farmers in both Wayne and Stanton Counties are serviced by the Wayne office.

Liquor License Hearing Planned

A public hearing on the granting of a Class C liquor license to Dick's Tavern, Inc. is scheduled for 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the Wayne city council meeting.

Herald news editor Jim Strayer will ask the city council to sign a proclamation endorsing the city's entry in the Nebraska Community Improvement Program.

Ordinances dealing with permits for bars and tavern buildings will be considered. City administrator Fred Brink will report to the council on the city tax service and studies underway for building a new restroom in Bressler Park, and for extending a water main in southeast Wayne.

'Let's Try This Color'

WITH THE help of kindergarten instructor Mrs. Vi Hartman, young Jill Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jordan, colors part of her drawing during the Friday morning session of kindergarten roundup at West Elementary School in Wayne. Two sessions were held during the day to register youngsters who will be attending kindergarten classes this fall. For another picture and more information, turn to page 3.

Sales Up Report Reveals

Taxable retail sales in Wayne County picked up somewhat during the third quarter of 1975 (latest figures available) but total sales for the nine-month period in 1975 were still below sales during the same period of 1974.

According to a report issued by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln bureau of business research, sales for the third quarter of 1975 totaled $4,789,000, compared with $5,627,000 during the same period in 1974, for a 20.7 per cent increase.

That should be good news for businessmen. However, of the five counties comprising state Planning Region 11, only Wayne County showed total sales for the first nine months in 1975 as being lower than the same period in 1974. The '75 total amounted to 93.1 per cent of sales for the comparable 1974 period.

The other four Region 11 counties, and their totals '75 through the third quarter, as a percentage of the '74 figure, are: Antelope, 107.8 per cent; Madison, 111.1 per cent; Pierce, 109 per cent; Stanton, 108.7 per cent. Dixon County sales during the third quarter totaled $4,453,000, compared with $2,864,000 during 1974, a 20.6 per cent increase.

Total for the first nine months in 1975 amounted to 110.6 per cent of sales during the same period in 1974.

Cedar County shows only a slight increase for the nine month period, the '75 total being 101.5 per cent of the '74 figure.

Looking at the third quarter by itself, however, shows an upswing in sales, $7,404,000 in 1975, compared with $6,695,000 in 1974.

Thurston County, in Region 6, had sales through the third quarter 1975, equal to 100.7 per cent of sales in the same period in 1974.

For the state overall, the 1975 third quarter total represented a 9.6 per cent increase over the total for the same three-month period in 1974.

The 9.6 per cent figure exceeds, for the first quarter since See SALES, page 10

Third State Payment Received

Wayne city clerk Bruce Mordhorst Friday received the third of seven payments for the current fiscal year which will be made by the state as reimbursement for loss of personal property tax revenues.

County treasurer Leon Meyer explained that in 1967 the Legislature removed personal property tax from most items. To make up for the revenue lost by local governmental subdivisions, the state annually remits a portion of the revenue it collects through income and sales tax.

Until fiscal 1975-76, the payment was always made in a lump sum during January. A cash flow problem in state funds made a special legislative session necessary last summer, and it became apparent that the funds would not be available for the January payment. The Unicameral decided to pay the money in seven equal installments during the last seven months of the fiscal year.

Municipalities in Wayne County collectively will receive about $52,000 total. Approximate amounts paid monthly to each community are: Wayne, $6,200; Winslow, $528; Hoskins, $316; Carroll, $274; and Sholes, $25. In addition, Wakefield receives about $12 for the portion of the community in Wayne County.

The total amount which the county will receive for the fiscal year is about $30,000, Meyer said, with some of that money going to smaller governmental subdivisions.

NARC Planning April Convention

The Nebraska Association for Retarded Citizens (NARC) will begin its three-day annual convention in South Sioux City on April 30.

Theme for the convention, to be held at the Marlinton Inn, is "Together We Can Work It Out."

Irving Segal of Philadelphia will conduct a workshop entitled "Reaching Out for Responsible Social Growth."

Dr. Frank Menolascino, president of the National Association for Retarded Citizens, will be the featured speaker.

Mid-Winter Concert Is Tuesday Night

Wayne High School musicians are tuning up for the 23rd annual Mid-Winter Concert to be presented Tuesday night.

The varsity band will begin its concert at 7:30 p.m. in the high school lecture hall.

A special feature of the concert will be a Bicentennial tape titled "Panorama U.S.A."

Under the direction of bandmaster Ron Dalton, a 78-piece band will perform a medley including "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "America," "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "The Marine's Hymn," and "The Entertainer."

The four-part concert will also include marches, and selections of serious, and light numbers.

Bids Let for Sholes Road Grading, Culvert

Two Norfolk construction firms, in a joint venture, were low bidders for grading and culvert work to be done on the Sholes Road project in Wayne County.

Thiessen Construction and C and H Construction, together submitted bids of $21,171.50 for grading and $22,388 for installation of culverts on the projects. The two low bids were accepted by the State Department of Roads.

Both bids were substantially below the engineering estimates which indicated a high at $50,000 for each of the two projects.

Only one bid for gravel for the project was received and it was rejected because it did not comply with the advertised specifications for the project. The Roads Department will advertise again for bids for that portion of the road improvement project. County clerk Norris Weibbe said.

Concord Makes It Official

THE TOWN of Concord Thursday night received its official Bicentennial designation when State Bicentennial chairman, Mrs. Margaret Hasebrook, presented the Bicentennial flag and certificate to Norman Anderson, who is head of Concord's Bicentennial program. Prior to the presentation, about 60 persons gathered at the Northeast Station near Concord for a potluck supper to mark the occasion.

Lone Nebraskan Helps Launch USS Omaha

Former Wayne State College student Allen Bilau is the only Nebraskan in the crew of the nuclear powered USS Omaha which was launched Saturday.

The sleek black attack submarine, which slid into the ice-blue water of the Thames River at Groton, Conn., was the third U.S. Navy ship to be named for Nebraska's largest city.

Bilau, a Machinist's Mate First Class, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bilau of McLean and is married to the former Ruth Petersen, daughter of Mrs. Helen Petersen of Osmond.

Following graduation from Concord Community High School where he played football and basketball, Bilau attended Wayne State College for two years, before being faced with the draft.

"I chose the Navy and volunteered for nuclear-power training because the education is so good," the 26-year-old Navyman said.

Construction of the 6,900-ton USS Omaha began at the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics in Groton in January 1973. Bilau and the rest of the pre-commissioning crew began arriving last June.

At that point, Bilau said, the sub looked like a big cigar. The Nebraskan is a crewmember of the high-speed, quiet-running Omaha because he asked for it. "I wanted to be assigned to a new construction ship," he said. He was completing a three-year tour aboard another nuclear-powered attack submarine, the USS Narwhal, when he volunteered.

Most of Bilau's Navy career has been spent aboard submarines. After recruit training and machinist's mate school, Bilau spent three months aboard his only surface ship, the USS Bryce Canyon.

Next came an intensive 12 months of training, first at Navy Nuclear Power School at Vallejo, Calif., then at the Nuclear Power Training Unit at Idaho Falls, Idaho, for advance work.

Following that came his transfer to the Narwhal. Three years and several extended cruises later, Bilau has no desire to get out of submarines.

Bilau noted that on one voyage to England and Scotland, the crew of the Narwhal had a chance to meet and exchange visits with the crew of a British submarine with the same name.

"That was the only time during my six year Navy tour that I've been in a diesel-powered submarine. I prefer nuclear subs because they're bigger, better and faster," he says.

Bilau is happy about his assignment to the deep-diving Omaha where he performs duties in the ship's engineering spaces where the ship's nuclear propulsion system is located.

Bilau has two years to go on this enlistment and he frankly admits that he's not certain if he will remain in the Navy.

"If I do get out, I want to return to the Midwest and stay in the nuclear field. There's plenty of opportunity in the field of nuclear power for a man with the specialized Navy training that I have."

OBSERVATIONS

Project not a 'plot'

We've heard mutterings recently that project Predict and Prevent is "part of a government plot to take over control of our children."

The facts seem directly opposed to that belief. (Some folks make emotional decisions and then avoid facts like the plague.) Mrs. Beverly Scovill expressed the basic tenet of the project at a meeting Tuesday: "The parent is the best teacher."

Rather than being mandatory in nature, Predict and Prevent will offer a service. Parents who wish may have their pre-school children tested to determine if they have any developmental problems. If problems are discovered, it is then up to the parent to decide if they will accept the findings, and if so, whether or not they will enroll in the program.

Parents who do decide to enroll will attend meetings which will show them what they can do in the home to help their youngsters reach their potential.

Parents, and the home, are the central focus of the program, not taking children out of the home. The program is voluntary and degree of participation is up to the parent. It seems to us that if some parents are concerned enough about their future well-being of their children to seek assistance in helping the youngsters develop, no one has anything to squawk about. —Jim Strayer

Out of Old

Nebraska

Nebraskans go by the name of Corn-huskers. Kansas are called Jayhawkers and Oklahoma, Sooners. It would take some explanation to define the latter two state monikers, which history really relegated to the textbook area decades ago. But not so, Cornhuskers, they still exist in the cornfield as well as on the football field, though they are an endangered species down on the farm. Each year it becomes less likely that the traveler on some back road may witness the spectacle of a farmer with team and wagon harvesting corn just as his ancestors did years ago.

Corn husking (or shucking, or picking, depending on the local idiom) once had almost the manliness of sport about it. There were corn husking contests, local, state, and national. Farmers "kept score" on the bushels shucked in a day. They fudged like fishermen or golfers. If wet weather intruded in the fall, corn husking might go on through the bitterly cold months till spring. It was not much fun then.

Hordes of transients, usually from the Mid-South, descended on the corn belt—Nebraska to Ohio, Minnesota to Okla. hama—each fall to pick corn. Hundreds of the crop was harvested "in the field" and called "commo" because the men who only tools were "pegs or hooks" strapped to their palms. The hook was best of standing corn.

In 1914 replies from 300 cornbelt farmers indicated the yield would average 44 bushels per acre and that the average man shucked 159 bushels a day. The husking cost per bushel averaged 3 cents, not all of which went to the picker. In the Depression 1930's, workers got a cent a bushel—and board. Newspapers and agricultural reports at the Nebraska State Historical Society tell the story of corn's importance to Nebraska. A columnist for the Omaha Valley Blade of Seward signing himself Yellow Dent (a descriptive term for a then newer variety of corn) wrote this tongue-in-cheek essay in 1886.

"Corn shucking! Well, what about it? Not very much, only you never catch corn shucking itself. Sooner than have that much commo, I'd rather have it stay in the field until the (next) Fourth of July. No, we must shuck it out ourselves, with only the aid of a hired man and a shucking pin. We must grasp each ear firmly with one hand quietly but quickly peel off the shucks, toss it into the wagon and make a jump for the next ear. The commo of a man who has a family depending upon him and the winter bearing down on him at the rate of five degrees a week on the thermometer.

"The best place for corn shucking is in the corn field, although more bushels can be shucked around the stove in a grocery store or on the sunny side of the street. There is a great difference in corn shuckers in regard to the amount of bushels they can gather in a day—it ranges all the way from thirty to over a hundred bushels depending of course upon the amount of practice, the quality of the corn, the weather, and the natural ability of the man as a liar. Fifty bushels is enough to make the average man or boy sleep so soundly that an earthquake would scarcely wake him unless it was a full sized one and gave severe shakes. There is something about corn shucking which exercises every muscle in the body and causes one to sleep as sound as an Egyptian mummy for the time being.

"Corn shucking is about the only hard work on the farm or elsewhere that no labor-saving machine has come into general use to take the place of man. Several have been patented and are a grand success if they do all that is claimed for them. A youth in this county saw one of them advertised in an eastern farm journal. The advertisement said it was a perfect corn husker—the greatest labor-saving invention of the age and it sold for the remarkably low price of seventy-five cents. So he took a dollar and a half he had saved up and sent it off to the liberal manufacturer.

"He received a small package through the mail, and out fell two ordinary shucking pins exactly like one he had bought at the hardware store for fifteen cents. This shocked him considerably and shook his faith in advertisers in general, but he didn't tell anyone, he just took the two corn huskers home and remarked to his father that he thought he had better buy a couple of shucking pins as they were liable to lose the old ones and these would come handy if they should. "Yellow Dent."

News of Note around Northeast Nebraska

CHAIRMAN of the Bellevue Bicentennial Committee reports that a capsule, measuring 7' 10" long and 17 1/2" wide, will be buried July 4 in the concrete vault in the old Presbyterian Church yard. Purpose of the capsule is to provide the residents of Bellevue in 2076 with true data from the Bicentennial year in Bellevue, and to exhibit some of the materials used in 1976 to better explain present life style.

PIERCE Emergency Medical Services Council met last Monday night to hear progress of plans being outlined by Area 4 of Emergency Health Services for obtaining federal funds to upgrade medical services in the 23-county area of northern Nebraska. The areas discussed for upgrading local emergency medical services were communications and backup transportation.

WAHOO City Council members have instructed the city clerk to deposit a condemnation award of $30,500 with the County Court for purchase of a landfill site located on the Vernon Schmidt property. Instructions came after council members rejected a proposed lease with the Vernon Schmidts for the landfill site.

CEDAR Counties who reside within the Crofton school district will vote March 16 in a special bond election for a proposed new school building and costs. The $9,000,000 square foot school is expected to cost about $1.5 million.

THE American Legion Auxiliary at Ponca is planning to sponsor a Bicentennial doll dressing contest. The Auxiliary will furnish the dolls but material for clothes must be provided by the entrant. Costumes of the dolls must depict the American dress styles from 1776 through 1876. Following the contest, the dolls and costumes will be distributed to the children's hospitals and homes.

AN APPLICATION has been submitted to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for construction of 24 low-cost units in West Point. According to Doris Kukul of the Nebraska Office of Economic Development, it will be at least a month before a review of the application can be completed.

THE CITY of Wisner was asked at their regular meeting last Monday night to consider a long-range and comprehensive zoning plan along with Cumling County. When the board of supervisors undertake the project in the near future, the county has held up any decision to undertake the long-range and comprehensive zoning plan until all towns in Cumling County were contacted and asked to join in the project. Cumling County has undertaken a zoning plan. Beemer and Hancock have not indicated they would join in the county zoning request.

LETTERS

In The Mail

Writers should sign

Dear Editor,
Letters to the editor permit citizens to exercise a basic American heritage—freedom of speech.
In order to retain this freedom we must bear the burden of being identified.
The information Council to dig into its library files and dust off the records of yester year's most famous gasoline mileage contest—the Mobil Economy Run.
Organized in 1936, the contest became an annual event (except for the 1942 era when cars, gasoline and tires were in short supply) until it was discontinued in 1968 because of the public apathy toward "economy cars."
Performance-oriented car buyers in the mid-sixties weren't concerned with gas line consumption because it was cheap and plentiful. The original economy run was a 352-mile, one-day jaunt from Los Angeles to Yosemite. The next step was to expand into a transcontinental event.
The 3,000-mile cross-country run was intended to alert motorists to the relative fuel economy of cars in comparable classes by price, engine displacement and size. Economy of operation was the key word.
But the drivers were not above such fuel-savings tricks as if the trade as coasting down hills in neutral with the engine off or "saliboating" by opening the doors and catching the breeze from a strong tailwind.
Naturally, the governing officials ruled out such devious fuel-conservation tactics before the next year's run, but some ways drivers always dreamed up new ways to stretch mileage, some very useful today.
Since speed was not a criteria for winning the "run," drivers quickly discovered that driving at a steady 50 miles an hour saved 50 per cent of the fuel burned at 80 mph.
When one reporter, driving an official entry in the 1968 finale, got 23.2 miles per gallon compared to 22.7 mpg for an identical official entry, he credited his victory to the fact that his car's wheels had been aligned while his opponent's had not.
Now that fuel-conservation is "in" once more, all drivers can benefit from some of the Economy Run techniques. Like slowing down gradually when approaching a red light so he won't have to stop completely and shutting off the engine rather than allowing it to idle for more than one minute.
Incidentally, the highest mileage ever recorded was by a four-cylinder Willys in the 1936 run of 33.2 mpg. Compared with 1976 new car mileage figures, the Willys would be hard pressed to win. And if completed without today's emission controls.

STRAYEr Thoughts

By Jim Strayer

I feel an addendum is needed to the story in last Monday's paper regarding the Child and Family Services Act.

First, a reader called to tell me the anonymous flyer containing misinformation about the bill had been circulated by the Wayne and Cedar County Farm Bureau with their regular news letter.

Second, I failed to attribute a statement that the Nebraska School Improvement Association is known to have disseminated the flyer in Wayne County. The information came to me from county superintendent Fred Rickers. (In fact, I received a copy of the flyer during one of my regular visits to the court house, but not from Rickers.)

Finally, the above information is in no way meant to imply that either organization distributed the flyer knowing the information was false. The original source of the misleading material hasn't been identified. The two organizations apparently accepted the flyer at face value, as did many other individuals and organizations.

Mothers and sons seem to have a language all their own. Lois Lambley said in the El Cetera column in the Albion News.

She offered the following common phrases in alphabetical order—with X deleted.

- TEENAGER TALK
- A. All my friends are going.
- B. But I don't need a haircut.
- C. Can I go, do have, etc.
- D. Do I have to? (Take out the trash, dry the dishes, clean my room, etc.)
- E. Everybody else gets to do it (wear their hair this long, go out on a school night, play ball in the house, etc.)
- F. For you to tell you Mom (I need three dozen cookies for tomorrow, Grand ma called and you were supposed to call right back, etc.)
- G. Gross!
- H. How come?
- I. I've got to go. Mom! (usually in the middle of a program, after being sent to bed, or in the car miles from a place to go.)
- J—Just once, Mom!
- K—Lack this!
- M—Make him leave me alone.
- N—Nobody else has to do it (wear boots to school, go to bed this early, etc.)
- O—Ouch! Ow! Oh! Okay! Oh yeah! etc.
- P—Please! (only after being told "no")
- Pretty please! (after "please" gets him nowhere) Both are used often in connection with A, B, C, D, E, J, N, etc.
- Q—Quack, quack, quack. (common gully in households where young duck hunters practice their calls all year around.)
- R—Raunchy!
- S—Sorry (Used only occasionally, to ward off punishment.)
- T—Ten four.
- U—Ugh! Do we have to eat this?
- V—Very funny! (usually means it isn't.)
- W. When I have kids of my own, I'll sure treat them differently.
- Y. You just don't understand.
- Z—Zitch!

(The middle of a program, after being sent to bed, or in the car miles from a place to go.)

- PARENTAL PHRASES
- A—Act you age
- B—Because I said so, that's why
- C—Close the door
- D—Don't talk with food in your mouth
- E—Eat your supper
- F—Feed the dog
- G—Grow up
- H—How many times have I told you not to do that?
- I—I don't care if no one else does it, you're not going to (or I don't care if everybody else does it, you're not)
- J—Just wait till your dad gets home
- L—Let me show you the right way to do that
- M—Maybe
- N—No

- O—Only if (you clean your room first, your homework is done, etc.)
- P—Pretty soon
- Q—Quit that, quiet down, etc.
- R—Run upstairs for me and get (or run downstairs for me and get)
- S—Slow down!
- T. This is the last time I'm telling you.
- U—Ugh! Get that out of here.
- V. Very funny (usually means it isn't).
- W—When I was your age
- Y—You're too young to (or you're too old to)
- Z—Zip up your coat

The Nebraska Educational Television Commission (NETC) has filed suit against the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) for trademark infringement.

The suit, filed by the Nebraska attorney general on behalf of NETC, seeks preliminary and permanent injunctions against NBC's continued use of the "N" logo.
As most of you probably know, NBC spent a bundle developing the new corporate symbol, only to discover NETC was using a symbol identical except for coloring, developed at a cost of about $100.
As I'm writing this, no one has filed for any elective offices in Wayne County. The deadline is only about three weeks away (Some folks have asked me, with tongue in cheek, not to publicize the deadline. They theorize that not having anyone file for office might be one way to end up with "less" government!)

Doctor replies to Heart Association

In a recent issue of the Wayne Herald we published the American Heart Association Cookbook regarding a cookbook published by the association, and the restriction in diet of certain substances, including serum cholesterol.
Poultry industries, Inc. submitted the following article, by Dr. Kurt Oster, M.D., which was first published in January, 1974, in Medical Counterpoint.
We offer the article in keeping with our policy of presenting both sides of issues. Neither editorial should be construed as representing The Herald's view, but rather as an opposing point of view on a subject pertaining to health.
Dr. Oster is a Fellow of the American College of Physicians, the American College of Cardiology, and the American College for Clinical Pharmacology. — Jim Strayer stated that medical research has shown that too many fatty foods can be damaging to the heart and blood vessel system. This is a specious statement, the same may be said of too much salt, too much sugar, or too much protein. Who knows how much is too much? The statement that excessive fats are silted in the form of cholesterol along the walls of the arteries is untrue. If the process of silted too much cholesterol could be assumed, then such a process would occur in the venous system, not in the arterial bed. It is known that cholesterol in atherosclerosis is found in the lesions regardless of its being elevated, normal, or diminished in the blood. By some statistical manipulations, certain associations with elevated serum cholesterol may be construed, but no causal effect was ever demonstrated in human beings. Similar, it has never been established that a reduction of serum cholesterol, especially by diet, has resulted in a reduction of atherosclerosis or has prevented heart attacks or strokes.

It is difficult to understand why the warnings of responsible investigators in this field of dietary prevention of heart attacks go unheeded. They state very clearly that the time is not ripe to recommend to the American people a change of diet to prevent atherosclerosis.
The scare technique employed by the apostles of lowering serum cholesterol will create hypochondriacs who are afraid to eat wholesome food. The book may be misused by faddists and fanatics creating dietarily untenable nutritional conditions which may be harmful. Cannot too much polyunsaturated fat cause as many problems as the alleged danger of saturated fats? Peanut oil, which contains unsaturated fats, is mentioned as a potential cause of arterial wall injury. Where is it stated in the cookbook that peanut butter, which contains about 40 per cent peanut oil, should be logically avoided?

rather than tampering with the diet of all American children.
This sound advice should be followed by children and adults alike, and especially by the elderly who might enjoy a palatable meal regardless of its health protecting qualities. Because of "cell panic," the elderly are the most frightened, the most concerned, and probably the least helpful segment of our society.
The motivation of the American Heart Association is based on an unproven hypothesis. Because it is sponsored by a prestigious organization, many people will accept this diet at face value and with an uncritical attitude. Here lies the most serious danger of propounding half truths and generalizing isolated recommendations of a dietary lad.
The usefulness of the cookbook may lie in its therapeutic application by prescription from a physician. Day of Recollection Scheduled March 2 At Emerson Church

The annual Rural Northeast Nebraska Day of Recollection has been scheduled for Tuesday, March 2, at the Sacred Heart Church in Emerson.

Father John Connealy of Emerson will speak. His topic will be "Before the Ashes, A Day For Remembering."

Registration is set for 10 a.m., with adjournment at 3 p.m. The Woman of the Year Award will be presented during the meeting.

Library Hour, Monthly Dinner Held at Senior Citizens Center

Mrs. Ann Waggoner, assistant public librarian, conducted the library hour for members of the Wayne Senior Citizens Center Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Waggoner presented a film, entitled "Hawaii's History: Kingdom to Statehood."

Books, which may now be checked out from the center for one-month periods, include "Hawaii" by William Graves; "The Rails Push West" by Max

Brand; "Hawaii and Its People" by A. Grove Day, and "Women in Television" by Anita Klevor.

Twenty-eight attended the library hour and refreshments were furnished by Mrs. Nellie Brockman and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bull.

Next library hour will be at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 18. Mrs. Waggoner will bring a new supply of books to the center and will show a film, entitled "Denmark, The Netherlands."

Fifty-four members were at the center Wednesday for the noon potluck dinner.

Mrs. Ann Witkowski talked about the visiting nurse program which began recently for Wayne residents and persons in the surrounding area. Mrs. Witkowski said the program is designed to help persons living at home who need health care and counseling, and is being conducted through the cooperation of Drs. Wiseman and Ben-thack Clinics in Wayne and Providence Medical Center.

The program is operated on Tuesdays and Thursdays, starting at 10 a.m. Persons who would like information on health care and counseling, and have their doctor's permission, can contact Mrs. Witkowski by calling 375-4509 on Mondays and Wednesdays from 10 a.m. to noon.

Following Mrs. Witkowski's talk, Mr. and Mrs. Harris Heinemann gave a slide presentation of Japan, China, Hawaii and various places of interest in the United States. The remainder of the afternoon was spent visiting and playing games.

Mrs. John Weper arranged the floral centerpieces for Wednesday's dinner. The invocation was given by Mrs. Virgil Chambers.

On the volunteer setup and cleanup committee were Anton Pedersen, Annie Ruebig, Mathilde Harms, Goldie Leonard, Virgil and Cordelia Chambers, Eldon and Jocelyn Bull, Mildred Wacker, Gladys Petersen and Lora Johnson.

The next potluck dinner will be at 12 noon on Wednesday, March 17. Students in G.I. Wiloughby's recreational and group leadership class will be dinner guests and will conduct a St. Patrick's Day party beginning at 2 p.m.

Concentration Gets Job Done

DEANNA LaPOINT may have found the best way to color her drawing. Just relax the lead on the arm, point your eyes in the direction of the drawing and begin work. For the four and half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert LaPoint, the job turned out to be a lot easier than she had anticipated.

Deanna and her partner, Angela Dwyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dwyer, were two of 36 youngsters who attended the morning session of kinder-garten roundup at West Elementary School in Wayne. A total of 21 boys and girls attended the afternoon session Friday, according to principal Richard Mettger.

June Rites Planned at Pender

The engagement of Joann Marie Larson and Mark Beiermann has been announced by the bride elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verdel Larson of Pender.

Miss Larson, a 1974 graduate of Pender High School, is attending Wayne State College.

Her fiancé, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Beiermann of Wayne, graduated from Wayne High School in 1972 and is employed with Claussen CEJ Electric in Norfolk.

A June 26 wedding is planned at the Covenant Evangelistic Church in Pender.

Public Invited to Seminar on Marriage

Couples planning marriage, those recently married, and other interested persons are invited to attend the fourth session of a live-part seminar on marriage at Wayne State College Tuesday evening.

The 7:30 p.m. meeting will be held in the Senate Room of the WSC Student Union. The topic, "Communication in Marriages," will be led by the Rev. Paul Reimers of Trinity Lutheran Church in Winslow.

The fifth session, on March 2, will be devoted to a summation and response by participants, led by a panel.

200 At Open House For Clifford Loeb's At Laurel Auditorium

An open house reception at the Laurel city auditorium Feb. 15 marked the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Loeb of Laurel.

A buffet dinner, noted by the couple's children, was held that evening in the Oberst Buss home with 42 friends and relatives attending.

The open house event, also hosted by the couple's children and their family, was attended by 200 guests present from Faulkton, Mitchell and Sioux Falls, S.D.; Amberst, Colo.; Geneva, Ill.; Sioux City, Ia.; Laurel, Wyo.; Carroll, Belden, Norfolk, Weifield, Aitona and Grand Island.

Guests are registered by Valerie Loeb of Geneva, Ill. and Jeff Nort of Sioux City, and gifts were arranged by Mrs. Jim Flotche and Beth Loeb of Geneva, Ill. and Julie Buss of Laurel.

The couple's children and grandchildren presented the 2:30 p.m. program.

At Tom Hughes of Wayne and Mrs. Edgar Friedrich of Norfolk cut and served the cake which had been baked by Mrs. Alter Chace of Laurel. Mrs. Randy Emrich of Norfolk

AFS Student Speaks To Methodist Women

United Methodist Women met Feb. 11 with 50 present for a 1 p.m. luncheon. Also present were Alain Guillot Pingue, this year's American Field Service student at Wayne High School, and his American mother, Mrs. Duaine Rothwisch.

Ruth Luhr opened the luncheon by reading about the purpose of United Methodist Women, and asking each member the location of Guatemala.

Following a discussion on the recent earthquakes in Guatemala, members voted to send a monetary gift through the Methodist mission program to help victims of the disaster.

President Mildred Jages began the business meeting with a poem and called the roll for each interest group. Reports were given by each group. A thank you was extended to the Naomi group for cleaning the church kitchen. Betty Dugan talked about the reading program and emphasized a need for more reading among members.

Norma Ehlers introduced the Treble Clef Singers who sang "God, Creator Bless!" Kay Catlett gave devotions on the need to keep the candle of care for other burning, and introduced the guest speaker, Alain Guillot Pingue, who entertained members with his talk and slides of his native country of Belgium.

The next meeting will be a 1 p.m. luncheon March 10, followed with a Bicentennial program conducted by Joyce Niemann.

Women Touring Lundstroms Top

Wayne State College Faculty Wives and Women will meet at the Dale Johansen home at 2 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 28, to look at Johansen's antique collection.

From Johansen's, members will travel to the Max Lundstroms to view more antiques, and then will proceed to the Charles Mater home to see their collection of clocks.

A story which appeared in Thursday's Wayne Herald inadvertently omitted Lundstroms from the list of houses the group will tour.

Members will gather at the WSC Student Union Walnut room after the tour for refreshments and to elect new officers.

On display during the meeting will be the group's Bicentennial quilt. Co-chairman of the committee planning to honor the Bicentennial with the quilt are Mrs. Dick Manley and Mrs. LeRoy Simpson.

Music Boosters Meet

Wayne Carroll Music Boosters met last Monday evening at the lecture hall with Mrs. Ver Jacobemier president.

Ron Dalton, high school band director, talked about the role of Music Boosters and urged parents to support their children at the very beginning of their music program.

Coming activities we announced they include a variety band concert this Tuesday evening, the high school musical, "Godspell," scheduled April 8, 9, and district music contest April 22-24 at Wayne State College.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by small ensemble groups: the high school stage band and swing choir, and the middle school sixth grade band.

The meeting concluded with coffee and cookies served by February committee members Mrs. J. J. Liska was committee chairman.

No date was set for the group's next meeting.

Free Throw Shooting Hampers Wayne

Devils Fade in Final Quarter

BY DAN VODVARKA

Wayne faded in the final minutes and fell to invading Tekamah-Herman in the regular season finale for the Blue Devils Friday.

The Devils, who led almost all the way, fell prey to the shooting of six-foot-two Mike Bryant as the Tigers scrapped up a 67-61 win.

After trailing the host since early in the second quarter, Tekamah rallied to tie the game with 1:55 left in the third quarter but then fell behind again in the final period. With 2:00 left in the contest, Rick Lade put the invaders up by one but Monte Lowe quickly tied the game with a free throw.

From that point Bryant took over as the quick junior forward hit a jumper from the sides to put Tekamah on top for good and then hit two clutch free throws with 19 left. After a Wayne turnover in the waning seconds of the game, Bryant got loose again and added injury to insult with a layup right before the final buzzer.

The loss dropped Wayne to 8-10 on the year. The Blue Devils have this week off before opening district tournament play in Norfolk March 2 against Pierce. Pierce dumped the Devils in Wayne in overtime earlier this season.

"When we needed it we just didn't have it," Wayne coach Bill Sharpe commented after the contest. The "it" Sharpe referred to was the Devils' ability to put the game away in the final quarter. "One thing that really hurt us was our own free throws," the coach pointed out as the Devils hit on only nine of 20 attempts at the line.

"If we had hit more one-and-one free throws the contest wouldn't have been close," he said.

The post-game stats were very even with Wayne hitting on 26 of 48 shots from the floor and Tekamah hitting on 27 of 45 shots. Tekamah had two more turnovers and Wayne led in the rebound department by three.

The loss darkened the final home appearances for the two leading Wayne scorers, at the night, Lowe and Paul Mallette.

Lowe had a hot hand as he flipped in 26 points and Mallette added 14 tallies to the losers' cause.

After a week start, the Devils trailed in the late going to grab a 14-14 tie at the end of one quarter. Lowe got the final six points of the first quarter including a shot that swished at the buzzer.

Wayne looked to take control of the ball game early in the second quarter as the Devils sallied to a 26-16 lead with 3:40 to go in the half. But as been the problem so much during the WHAT'S THAT? Wayne's Vic Sharpe (33) looks a little surprised as Dave Hix (40) pulls down a rebound while Tekamah's Rex Stillman (33) tries to get into the action. In the contest, Wayne held an edge in the rebound department but Tekamah came away with the win.

Pirates' Elsasser Sinks 32 in Win Over Wildcats

It was a case of the unexpected Thursday night when Emerson Hubbard knocked off Winside 74-60.

The unexpected was the Pirates' scoring leader, 6-1 junior Bill Elsasser, who pumped in 32 points in the home contest to hand the Wildcats their sixth loss against 10 wins.

"We didn't do a very good job of defending him," said Winside coach Korin Lutt, who later pointed out that he didn't expect Elsasser to be the Cats' main defensive problem going into the game.

The Cats mainly were concerned with junior Steve Belt and senior Al Fuchter, who have been the Pirates' scoring leaders throughout the season. Winside's strategy to stop the pair worked for the most part as Fuchter had 13 and Belt made nine.

Both clubs played about even ball the first three periods. Emerson took a 37-31 halftime command before Winside cut it to 56-51 heading into the last period. Behind their scoring leaders, Emerson pushed its margin to 10 in the early going of the fourth to virtually shutout the Cats.

Plugging Winside in the second half was the absence of senior Bob Hoffman who picked up two quick fouls early in the third to give him four personals. As a result, Lutt benched Hoffman until the final period. Also in foul trouble was Senior Tyler Frevert, who had three personals in the first half.

Hoffman and Frevert led Winside in scoring with 26 and 18 points respectively. Also scoring in double figures for Winside were sophomore Cliff Tietz with 12.

Tuesday night at 8 the Cats head into Class C district action at Norfolk High against Plainview. To stop Plainview, Lutt pointed out that his team will have to play better defense. See PIRATES, page 5

Harder's 28 Leads Ponca To 64-63 Win over Trojans

By BOB BARTLETT
Ponca got a 28-point performance from junior Kevin Harder Friday night and a stout man to man defensive show from the rest of its crew to stun Wakefield on its home court, 64-63.

The Indians, who were in control of the game for almost the entire night, didn't have the victory sewed up until Trojan Al Johnson missed a shot from the free throw line with six seconds left and Wakefield failed to get off another shot.

For Wakefield, the loss marked the Trojans' eighth in 17 games and set up what coach Joe Coble labeled as an uphill battle when the Wakefield clan meets district favorite Walthill tonight (Monday) in an 8 p.m. contest at Norfolk High School auditorium.

"We persisted in playing as stupid as basketball as we can play," said a disgusted Coble after his club blew its best chance of going into district play with its third straight win.

"Stupid basketball and 11 for 23 from the line—that's exactly what we did," the coach pointed out.

Also hurting the Trojans was turnovers—18 for the game, 11 of which came in the first period when Ponca capitalized to go out in front in the first quarter and stay until the final minutes of the game.

Harder's inside scoring plays kept coach Larry Bufl's Indians in control of the game, which was marred by a total of 45 fouls.

The 6-2 senior out-maneuvered Wakefield's 6-5 Scott Keagle for 10 points in the first period to lead the visitors to a 18-11 command. Harder garnered six more points in the second frame and got scoring help from teammates Kirk Mabeus and Jim Calvert to put Ponca in front at the half, 32-27.

Wakefield closed the gap to three at one point in the third period, but Ponca rallied for its biggest spread of the game, 38-27. Going into the fourth period, Wakefield cut the margin to 50-43, mainly behind the shooting of Keagle, who finished the night with 25 points.

Keagle banged in eight of his points midway in the first stanza to help bring his club to within four points of Ponca, 57-53. After Mabeus fouled out with 2:22 left, Wakefield started to comeback on the shooting of Mike Soderberg and Garry Roebber. Roebber sank two gift shots and Soderberg hit for two points for a 61-59 score.

Keagle's final basket brought Wakefield to within one point, 62-61, before the team's leading free throw shooter, Johnson put in two free throws for Wakefield's first and only lead of the game, 63-62.

"Our game plan was to go to Keagle, but I told Al that if Keagle was blocked out to go ahead and take the shot," Coble explained about his last second shot strategy with 17 seconds left in the game.

Wakefield's game plan went awry when Ponca's full court press prevented the Trojans from getting the ball down court in time to set up the play to Keagle.

Harder who was fouled in an attempt to get a rebound, went to the line where he capped in both shots for Ponca's 64-63 victory to mark the club's 10th win in 14 games. Brad Jones led the junior varsity with 10 points.

District Cage Action Starts Tonight

Four area basketball teams this week begin their long journey for a berth in the Class C state tournament in March.

Opening district action tonight (Monday) finds Wakefield going against top seeded Walthill at 8 p.m. at the Wisner Pflger High School auditorium.

Tuesday night tournament favorite Laurel meets another area club, Allen, and the Winside Wildcats take on Plainview. Both games are at 8 p.m.

The Laurel-Allen contest is at Wayne State's Rice Auditorium while the Winside-Plainview match is at Norfolk High School.

Third in Meet

Tom Ginn scored 20 points Thursday night to lead Wayne's freshmen to a 71-67 win over O'Neill for third place in the eight team Randolph Tournament.

The win evened Wayne's record at 7-7 going into a game with Laurel today (Monday) at 4 p.m. in the Wayne High auditorium.

As a team the Blue Devils shot 49.9 per cent from the field and garnered 32 caroms. Ginn also was the leader on the boards with 10 rebounds.

Wayne led at the half 39-27 but fell two points behind early in the fourth period. "The game went in spurts," said Wayne coach Duane Blumenkamp, adding that Wayne scored on several plays before O'Neill started scoring in spurts.

Also scoring for Wayne were Brad Emry and Al Nissen with 12 each. Dave Hamm and Dave Schwartz with eight each, Jay Dewitt and Dennis Carroll with four each and Mark Ganseborn with three.

Pirates —

"This will probably be the first game which we have any height advantage to speak of," he noted.

Two Plainview players Luff feels Winside has to stop are senior guard Kim McCrady and Gordon Rasmussen. Both are good outside shooters. Luff added, noting that both "can penetrate and take quick jump shots."

Winside's junior varsity closed its season on a losing note, falling to Emerson, 55-21.

PLAYERS from Wakefield and Ponca are all tied up in an attempt to grab a loose ball. An unidentified Trojan player (in the middle) was the first to get a hold of it before Ponca's Kevin Harder, left, and Dave Forney quickly closed in to make it a three-way tie. Looking on is Wakefield's Tim Rouse (32).

County Veterans Will Receive About $14,000 In Dividends

The Veterans Administration has good news for war veterans living in Wayne County. Some 160 of them will receive approximately $14,000 as their share of a record payout of $376.8 million being made to various classes of service men and women.

The payment, representing dividends declared under their GI insurance policies, is being accelerated by the government. Normally, when such dividends become available, they are paid on the anniversary dates of the policies and, as a result, stretch out over a period of 12 months.

This year, however, distribution of most of the money will be completed by the end of this month. About $23 million of the total will be paid out by that time, according to Richard L. Roddebush, Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

The dividend checks will be going only to World War and Korean War veterans. Those who participated in the Vietnam War will not share at present because of the type of insurance they hold.

Most of the recipients have National Service Life Insurance, issued to those who served in World War II. The World War I vets who are eligible carry U.S. Government Life Insurance policies and those who were in the Korean War, Veterans Special Life Insurance.

The 160 residents of Wayne County who will be on the receiving end are those who retained their policies. They constitute about 71 per cent of the World War and Korean veterans in the local area. The total, according to the latest VA tabulation, is 760.

Just how much each recipient will get depends upon the size and age of his policy and the kind of insurance he holds. The general average, for those who were in the first World War, is $184. For the World War II vets the average is $93 and, for the others, $18.

The VA insurance officials explain that the dividends represent returns to the policy holders of excess money that is available due to high interest rates earned by the funds and due to savings realized because of a lower than expected death rate among veterans.

Some of the recipients will be using their money to buy additional insurance. The rest will be putting the cash to other purposes.

Drug Abuse Series Continues on KWSC

The third in a series of programs on drug abuse will be shown by KWSC-TV Thursday night.

The Wayne State College television station, which broadcasts over Cablevision Channel 10 will present "Role of the School and Home in the Prevention of Drug Abuse."

The program advances the idea that one of the keys to preventing drug abuse is adequate provision for growth of attitudes in relation to self and others.

Two other programs remain to be shown in the five-part series. A telephone question and answer session will be held following the final program, March 11.

CHICKEN WITH SNOW PEAS

3 whole chicken breasts (about 8 ounces each) boned and cut in thin strips. Salt and pepper to taste. 3 tablespoons vegetable oil. 3 cups diagonally sliced celery, cut 1/4 inch thick. 1 1/2 cups sliced onions. 1 package (16 ounces) frozen (or 2 cups fresh) snow peas. 1 1/2 cups chicken broth (canned or made with bouillon cube).

Season chicken with salt and pepper. Sauté in oil for 1 minute or until tender. Add celery, onions, snow peas, and 1/2 cup broth. Cover and steam for 1 1/2 minutes. Remove cover and stir once. Blend cornstarch, sugar, salt, soy sauce, and remaining broth. Stir into chicken-vegetable mixture. Cook and stir about 1/2 minute or until sauce is slightly thickened. Serve at once over beds of fluffy rice. Makes 6 servings.

Wool Growers Plan Meeting

The Nebraska Wool Growers Association annual meeting will be held at the Holiday Inn in Columbus March 1, according to president Maynard Jensen of Aurora.

The session will begin at 9:30 a.m., with the following speakers:

—Dr. Charles Wempe, York, the Old West Regional Commission proposal for a veterinary college, possibly to be located at Lincoln.

—Dr. Phil Gipson, University of Nebraska extension wildlife specialist, with an update on his coyote research project.

—Marvin Sitorious, chief, Bureau of plant industry—State Department of Agriculture with a report on the new predator programs and an update of problems and regulations facing agriculture in Nebraska.

The day's agenda also will include a discussion of wool preparation and grading, a wool grading contest and business session. A free lamb luncheon will be served at noon. For planning purposes, Jensen urged those attending to send in a noon luncheon reservation to Nebraska Wool Growers Assn., 101 27th Ave. S. E., Minneapolis, Minn., 55414.

Discover the better way to save.

There's a new way to get the most from your money. It's called The Money Service, TMS, and it's better than a passbook. Better, because it gives you extra things no passbook can. Extra interest. Extra security. And extra convenience.

With The Money Service savings account, you receive a magnetically coded plastic identification card. Your card, along with your individual security code, speeds transactions and assures complete security.

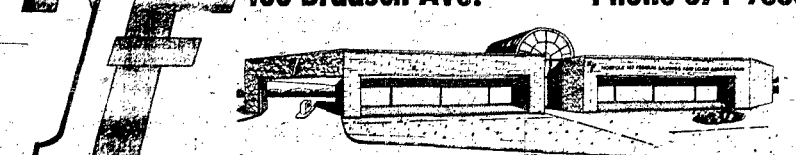

With The Money Service, you can choose from two savings accounts. Each pays maximum legal interest, continuously compounded and credited monthly, instead of quarterly.

And the best thing about The Money Service... you can save the way that's easiest for you. In lump sums, by mail, at convenient intervals, in person at an office, or with optional automatic monthly additions from your checking account in the amount you choose.

You might say the Money Service card pays you to carry it around. Apply for yours now at The Norfolk 1st Federal Savings & Loan Assoc.

'Automation' Is Right Word for Bee Winner

Twelve-year-old Kim Blecke Friday won herself a $25 savings bond and a trip to the state spelling bee finals in Omaha when she correctly spelled the word "automation."

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Blecke topped a field of 74 other students from rural Wayne schools during the third annual Wayne County Rural Schools Spelling Bee at Wayne State's Student Union.

Kim now qualifies for the state meet which will be held at the Hilton Hotel on Saturday, March 20.

Taking second place was Lynette Hansen, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Hansen. She received $10. Third place went to Marcia Rethwisch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Rethwisch. She received a dictionary.

Youths finishing fourth through 10th place each received $1. They included, in the order they finished, Gregg Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Bennett; Randy Flier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flier; Doreen Bilbery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Frevert; Jeff Loberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Loberg; Brett Frevert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Frevert; Mary Kay Lange, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Lange; and Jeff Westerhaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Westerhaus.

Wakefield Will Give Repeat of History Pageant

A meeting is scheduled for today (Monday) at 9:30 a.m. at the Wakefield community hall for everyone who was connected with a historical pageant presented in 1941 and again in 1956.

Wakefield Bicentennial chairman Mrs. Virgil Ekberg announced the pageant will be presented again late in the coming summer.

Anyone who took part in the pageant, served on a committee or could provide any information about the pageant is asked to attend today's meeting.

'Let Freedom Ring' Theme for WSC Bicentennial Night

"Let Freedom Ring" will be the title of a Bicentennial program to be presented March 13 through the cooperation of several Wayne State College departments.

Dr. James Phifer of the history department wrote the script for the program, which will depict the principles on which the United States was founded, and what has been accomplished since then.

Various WSC music groups will provide music from the various periods in American History Dr. Cornell Runestad will direct the choir. Dr. Ray Kelton, the band and Mike Pa Jumbo, the orchestra.

The program is to be presented in Rice auditorium, is open to the public, free of charge.

Local Boy Scout members will carry a parade of flags representing American history from pre-revolution days to the present. Dancers will perform both square dances and minuets, showing a contrast between eastern and western settlers.

Governor Proclaims 'Minute Man Week'

In special ceremonies today, John F. O'Neill, state chairman for U.S. Savings Bonds, presented two awards to Governor J. James Exon for outstanding participation by Nebraskans in the purchase of U.S. Savings Bonds.

One award was a miniature Liberty Bell mounted beside a piece of wood from the original structure of Independence and a plaque citing Nebraskans' purchase of more than $2.6 billion in savings bonds since 1941. The other award was a tricolor savings bonds ceremonial flag for the State House, which depicts the "Minute Man," the official symbol of the Bond Program.

O'Neill pointed out that since the beginning, the sales of savings bonds has been a volunteer effort with many thousands of Nebraska citizens contributing to the outstanding success of the program in the State. He said the Department of the Treasury estimates that more than $925 million of savings bonds are held by citizens of Nebraska at the present time.

In accepting the awards, Gov. Exon, who serves as Honorary state chairman for the program, said: "By encouraging thrift and financial reserves among our people, savings bonds have provided their value to the economic stability of our State, and are a safe convenient means of personal savings for the men and women of Nebraska."

The governor also proclaimed the week of February 22-28 as "Minute Man Week" and urged all citizens to continue and increase their purchase of savings bonds during the Bicentennial year.

and 1975. The combined increase in the level of retail commodity prices, 8.1 per cent, and in increases in population, about one-half per cent.

That means physical volume and per capita sales are once again equal to or above those of the same quarter in the previous year.

Sales figures used in compiling the report were obtained from sales tax reports from the counties.

Elections

county weed board incumbents Dwayne Rethwisch of rural Wayne, and Lester Menk and Enos Williams, both of rural Carroll, have all filed for reelection.

Three positions on the Wayne-Carroll School board are up for election. Incumbents are Irv Brandt, Dorothy Ley and Milton Owens.

Three positions on the Winside board of education are open. Incumbents are Bob Koll, Harlin Brugger and Earl Duering.

Anyone wishing to be a delegate to a county convention must also file at the county clerk's office by March 12. Weible said Friday that Loren Park had filed for the Democratic county convention, and Robert G. Foote and Jane March had filed for the Republican convention.

Both county parties will convene on June 3, at the county courthouse. Republicans will meet at 10 a.m., Democrats at 3 p.m.

The March 12 deadline for filing for office holds true except for incumbent candidates seeking another elective office. Weible said in that case, the deadline is March 2. Filing fees equal one per cent of the salary of the office.
