

Better Understanding Of Complex Issues

In a time when the topics of the day are becoming increasingly complex, the Wayne State College (WSC) Public Affairs Institute is helping to make issues easier to understand for the average person.

Several major programs held since the institute began include the 1975 "Nebraska State Government Conference," covering operations of state government; "Law and Judiciary," featuring several federal and state judges and attorneys; the "Nebraska Water Policy Conference" and "Morality in the U.S. Foreign Policy Conference" held last fall at WSC.

The next major program, entitled "The Energy Question," will be held April 19 at WSC. The conference will include open public discussions on the various dimensions of and possible solutions to current energy problems.

Cliff Ginn, WSC political science instructor and institute administrator, said the institute tries to provide authoritative speakers and panelists to help the public learn about complex issues.

"We try to provide a forum of discussion to facilitate better understanding of today's major issues," he said. "Our purpose is essentially an informing and educating purpose." Ginn said the institute also attempts to bring in prominent speakers that can provide new perspectives for the general public on current issues. The first speaker for 1978, Martin Y. Hirabayashi, will speak March 29 at WSC. His speech, entitled "The Japanese Economy and the American Connection," will deal with the relationship between the Japanese and U.S. economies.

"We attempt to bring people to the region who can discuss issues, who are knowledgeable and work with the issue," Ginn said. "They provide open discussions and can answer many questions people may have."

The institute also sponsors field visits to help college students learn about government operations. Included in such visits is the WSC Model U.N. Seminar to New York. Students meet with members of the U.N. and participate directly in mock U.N. discussions.

"That dimension of the institute's activity is to promote student activities that are outside the classroom," Ginn said. "You can study in the class, but you also gain new dimensions through outside study."

Ginn said although the institute's seminars and discussions are generally held at Wayne State, they are designed to help every citizen.

"We are attempting to bridge the campus and the general public or community," he said. "These are strictly programs of public information for both students and the general public."

4-H Leadership Workshop at WSC

A 4-H Leadership Improvement Workshop will be held Thursday, March 16th, 1978 at Wayne State College.

From 7:30 to 8 p.m. a Video Film "Role of a 4-H Leader" will be shown by Don Spitzer, Wayne County Extension Agent. All 4-H Leaders should attend this workshop.

Workshops are as follows: 4-H Project Workshop, 8:05 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. Instructors will be Roy Stohler and George Biermann. This workshop will consist of a review of the expectations of 4-H members in filling out their record books. Also a discussion of how a leader may help 4-H'ers in establishing goals and objectives of filling out record books.

Recognition Workshop, 8:05 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. Workshop will identify ways to give specific recognition to 4-H members and 4-H leaders. A film "Climber in the Snow" will be shown. Instructors will be Mrs. Neil Sandahl and Mrs. Dwayne Rethwisch.

Outside Resources Workshop 8:05 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. Instructors will be Don C. Spitzer and Sam Schroeder. The Outside Resources Workshop will include helpful hints in pepping up your club and reducing your 4-H club workload. It will also explain different methods where Outside Resources can be an asset to any 4-H Club Program.

All of the above workshops will be repeated at 8:50 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Members may choose 2 or 3 of these workshops.

Coffee 'N Conversation will be from 9:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. This will be an informal meeting with Extension Agents and 4-H leaders. It will be a chance to ask any number of questions with a cup of coffee in your hand. All Wayne County 4-H leaders are urged to attend this 4-H Leadership Improvement Workshops session.

The News in Brief

Lions Club Dance

The Wayne Lions club will hold its St. Patrick's dance on Saturday, March 18, at the National Guard Armory, Wayne, beginning at 8 p.m.

The dance will feature the music of "The Blue Max." The dance will end at 12:30 p.m. because of Palm Sunday the following day.

Admission is $2.50 per person. The proceeds of this dance are used locally for the club's projects with sight and hearing problems being priorities.

Tickets are available from any Lions club member. They will also be on sale at both banks in Wayne.

Final Neihardt Book

"Patterns and Coincidences," the second and concluding volume of the autobiography of the late John G. Neihardt, poet and teacher, has been published by the University of Missouri Press.

This volume picks up where the first, "All is But a Beginning," leaves off in 1901, with the "sacrificial" burning of Neihardt's first published book — and continues through 1908, the approximate beginning of his maturity as a writer.

On Advisory Committee

Val Peterson, Wayne, is a member of a Citizens Advisory Committee which has been formed by Rep. Charles Thone, Republican candidate for governor. The advisory committee is headed by former Nebraska Gov. Robert Crosby.

Open House

Northeast Technical Community College, Norfolk, will hold its annual Open House Wednesday, March 15, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

This year's Open House will feature the theme: "See How We've Grown." There will be tours through the new Science-Agriculture Building, and greenhouse, plus numerous other activities and displays.

Flurry of Last-Minute Filings

Two Wayne residents clocked in at the last minute to get their names on the primary ballot for the post of mayor of the City of Wayne.

Lee E. Echtenkamp and Walt Tolman ended speculation that a Wayne mayor would have to be picked by petition as the deadline for filing was 5 p.m. Friday. They got in just under the wire as County Clerk Norris Weible and his staff were kept busy Friday with filings. Weible, who has served as Wayne County Clerk for the past 12 years, decided not to run for reelection. His decision opened the gate to six candidates who are seeking the post.

Five Republican candidates are making the charge for the nomination while a single Democrat is vying his time until after the primary.

The five GOP candidates are Orretta C. Morris, Wayne; Melvin Myers, RR1, Wayne; Wendell Korth, Wayne; Henry A. Arp, RR1, Carroll; and Jewell Caver, Wayne.

Waiting to learn who his opponent will be in the general election is Democrat Stanley C. Hansen, Wayne.

Wayne City election activity evolved from a lackluster swell to a sweeping wave that washed into the clerk's office in the final week.

Candidates for the Wayne City Council are Leo Hansen, third ward; Carolyn Filter, second ward; Frank Woehler, second ward; and Larry N. Johnson, fourth ward. Hansen, Filter and Johnson are incumbents.

No one filed for the first ward council post currently held by Vernon Russell who declined to run for reelection.

On the county level, there are two other primary races besides that for the county clerk office. Wayne City Policeman Ron Penlerick, a Republican, is challenging incumbent Don Weible, also a Republican, for the office of county sheriff. Jerry Pospisil and Ed Watkins, both Republicans, are seeking the post of county commissioner, third district. Floyd Burt, present district three commissioner, is not running for reelection.

Those seeking other Wayne County offices include Doris Stipp, Republican, county assessor; Joann M. Ostrander, Republican, clerk of district court; Leon F. Meyer, Republican, county treasurer; Budd B.

Barnhoff, Democrat, county attorney; Merlin Beiermann, Republican, county commissioner district 1.

Incumbents Karel and John Owens filed for reelection to the Wayne County Nontoxic Weed Authority. Three are running for election to the Wayne Airport Authority. The candidates are Stanley A. Morris, David R. Ley and Gerald Allen Conway. The term of office is six years.

Candidates for the Winside Village Board of Trustees are E.J. Svoboda, Floyd C. Burt, Mike Thompson, and Dallas D. Puls. They were nominated by caucus. Filing is Ray J. Jacobsen.

There are six candidates for Winside School Board of Education, District 95R. They are Melvin Meierhenry, Hoskins; Lynn H. Lessman, Sharen A. Haller, Pat Miller and Dennis Bowers, all of Winside and Ray Roberts of rural Carroll.

Filing for the Hoskins Village Board of Trustees are Lloyd Ave, John Scheurich, Kenneth Elkins and James Miller.

Candidates for the Carroll Village Board of Trustees are Kenneth Eddie and Dennis L. Rohde.

Those filing for the Wayne-Carroll School Board of Education, District 17, are Gary D. Vopalensky, Milton Owens, C. Don Keck, Dale Stoltenberg and Wilbur Giese.

Board Turns

Thumbs Down

The Wayne County Board of Supervisors met with Thomas Goodman of Goodman and Associates, surveyors who are locating the corners on the right-of-way for the NPPD transmission line.

A motion to adopt a revamped resolution died for lack of a second.

The reworded petition, among other things, did not require the surveyor to post a $10,000 cash bond.

Report Theft

At Work Site

More than $1,000 worth of carpenter and electrical tools and supplies were reported stolen from a work site southwest of Wayne.

Tools were reported missing by Oke Construction of Wayne. Electrical tools and supplies were reported missing by Ellis Electrical of Allen.

The Wayne County Sheriff's office is investigating the theft.

City Council

Meeting Tuesday Contest Set by Eagles Club

The Wayne City Council Tuesday night will consider the final plat of the Tara Ridge Addition. Other business will include a hearing on a Class C liquor license for Gerald O. Brandstetter, doing business as the Stratton House (formerly Les' Steakhouse).

The Wayne Eagles Club announces an art contest for children in grades three through six. The contest is sponsored by the Grand Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles. Subject of the contest is "What I Like Best About My Home Town." Rules and entry forms are available at the Eagles Club, 119 Main Street, Wayne, NE 68787.

Locally, all entries will be judged by a group of Wayne High School Art students. A $5, $3, and $2 cash prize will be awarded in each of the four grades.

All entries received will be sent to the national headquarters of the F.O.E. at Milwaukee, WI. There a committee headed by Patrick Rowan, a renowned artist who is associate professor of art at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, will judge the entries. Entries will be judged

PHIL DALTON (right), president of the Alpha Beta Sigma fraternity at Wayne State College, presents a check for $30 to Dale Gutshall, a member of the Downtown Improvement Committee, for a tree to be planted in the improvement area. Dalton, who is a tutor at WSC from Laurel, said his organization felt it should participate in the improvement project because it feels a definite relationship to the Wayne business community. In accepting the check, Gutshall congratulated Dalton and his fraternity for their foresight and concern. The tree will be 1 of 40 to be planted in the downtown district.

Allen Board

Hears Program

Lee Remer discussed the Allen High School Guidance program with the Allen Board of Education at its regular meeting March 6.

In other action, the board voted to offer Marcia Rastede a full time contract after turning down a request for half a day contract.

The board voted to employ Debra Snyder for $3.75 per hour for eight hours per day for the 1978-79 school term. They also voted to employ Eva Durant for 7 1/2 hours per day for the 1978-79 term.

They also voted to employ Martin Gensler for $4 per hour and Virgie Gensler for $3.75 per hour, both for 52 weeks.

OBSERVATIONS

Allen is a winner!

Everyone from the Allen area was a winner following the state girls basketball tournament at Lincoln.

The Allen girls were defeated in first round action in the prestigious tournament. But they still earned one of the coveted awards in the tournament.

They received the "Sportsmanship Award" for Class D. While winning is the ultimate aim of the game, we feel what is learned while playing the game is even more important.

While the trophy, which will be presented to the team at a sports banquet in April, will have Allen High School on its name plate, Allen students, parents, fans, cheerleaders, teachers all had a part in earning it.

We intentionally use "earn" in place of "win" when referring to the honor. There are but few instances when a tournament team and its coaches and fans intentionally set out to win the sportsmanship award. It is earned through unselfish and spontaneous actions during the course of the game.

Winning the game is a moment of glory while the traits of good sportsmanship remain for a lifetime. Good coaches stress sportsmanship as a basic fundamental of the game. Coaches bent on winning the game at any cost are looking out for number one... themselves. Their win and loss record rates high when it comes to select jobs in coaching.

We don't mean winning isn't important. Setting goals in life and achieving them is important. But even more important is how those goals are achieved.

The achievement by the Allen girls is one about which they can take justified pride. Working their way to a state tournament berth is a mighty effort of teamwork and ability. But to play the game in such a manner that those who judge the element of sportsmanship are impressed is perhaps just as great an achievement.

We congratulate Coach Steve McManis, the assistant coaches, the school administrators and teachers, parents, students and fans for their part in earning the sportsmanship award. And we especially thank the Allen girls for being outstanding representatives of the area and for making it possible to earn the award for sportsmanship — Chuck Barnes

The balloon was one of many which were released mid-morning Oct. 27 during the Wayne Downtown Improvement celebration. Select balloons contained slips for "Birthday Bucks." A total of $25 in slips were included in the barrage of balloons.

Most of the balloons containing the slips landed nearby and all but $2 of the total $25 had been accounted for until receipt of the letter. The Chamber can now close their books on the promotion.

Before doing so, however, the Chamber board voted to send the Iowa farmer a check for $2 with an invitation for him to

"How much are your eggs?" she asked the manager of one small store. "Ninety cents a dozen," he replied. "That's outrageous!" she exclaimed. "The store across the street has them priced at only 50 cents a dozen."

"Why don't you buy them over there?" asked the grocer.

"He's out of them," the woman replied. "Lady," said the storekeeper, "when I'm out, you can buy them here for 40 cents a dozen."

LETTERS

Not giving up

Ravenna, NE

Dear Editor:
I have gotten the impression that the people in Northeastern Nebraska think that they are not involved in the farm strike. They had better back up and take another look.

The AAM (American Agriculture Movement) is not giving up, it is growing in size and strength. Canada had over 400 strike offices before they went on strike, and four other countries are thinking of a movement on the same line as AAM.

—Everyday—the AAM uncovers something in our government that should be corrected. Did you know that your tax dollars are helping to buy foreign meat in our school lunch programs? How about this, countries that ship meat to the United States have embargoes or discretionary licensing that prohibits U.S. meat from entering those countries. If this interests you and you want to know more, all one has to do is call a strike office and check this and many other things out, or find out for yourself.

With luck I plan on being in Washington.

Board meeting

Winside

Dear Editor:
In referring to your paper dated Feb. 9, 1978, we realize this letter is long overdue. We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the excellent coverage you gave the February meeting of the Winside board of Education.

When looking back upon that night, it still amazes us that you managed to hear a number of the points we tried to put across to the board, administrators, teachers and other patrons of the district.

Due to uncontrolled outbursts from the crowd everywhere we attempted to explain our and other parents' dissatisfaction with the school, we left the meeting fully convinced that nobody had been allowed to hear what we were saying. After reading The Wayne Herald write up, however, we realize that you did hear us, and again, we say thank you, Mr. Barnes.

In being heard by even one, we did not fail.

The only statement you made where our opinion differs is that you referred to us as having been "roasted" and we feel "char-broiled" would have fit the situation better. — Mr. and Mrs. Gary Farrants.

A thank you

Wayne

Dear Editor:
May we at this time, thank you for your help in our Spelling Contest. Thank you for the bond for the winner and also for the coverage you gave us in your paper.

It was very thoughtful of you. — Mrs. Jeannette Carlson, President of Wayne Rural Teachers Association.

Auxiliary Meets

Twelve members of the American Legion Auxiliary met at the Vet's Club in Wayne Monday evening with president Mary Kruger. Advancing of the colors was by Marguerite Hofeld and Emma Soules.

Chaplain Linda Grubb read the opening prayer, followed by the flag salute and singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Plans for the District Convention at Beemer on April 16 were revealed in a letter by district president Irene Mueller of Emerson. A thank you was read from the William Kugler family.

The auxiliary made a donation to Radio Free Europe.

Legislative chairman Ethel Johnson reported on health care bills for veterans which have been signed by President Carter.

Marie Brugger, leadership development chairman, explained the first half of the preamble to the auxiliary's constitution.

Linda Grubb gave the prayer for peace, and the group sang "America." President Kruger gave the service committee reports and closed the meeting with the retiring of the colors.

An American Legion birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Ethel Johnson, was served for lunch. On the serving committee were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Merton Hill, Mrs. Helen Sommerfeld and Mrs. N.P. Christensen.

Next meeting is set for April 3.

Honor Medal Presented To Lori Von Minden

Lori Von Minden of Allen is among five Nebraskans to receive special recognition from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Penn.

Miss Von Minden, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marie Von Minden, was selected by the National and School Awards Jury to receive the George Washington Honor Medal for her youth public address, entitled "Our Constitution - A Miracle of Democracy."

Selections are determined by an independent National Awards Jury comprised of state supreme court justices and national executive officers of patriotic, veterans and service club organizations in accordance with established procedures.

The award is presented to individuals who have helped to transmit an awareness of American history, a knowledge of justice, law and an orderly society, and an understanding of constitutional government. Judging is also based on the individual's initiative and personal responsibility of citizenship and love of country.

Lori will receive her award in April during a ceremony in Omaha. This is the second year she has received this award.

Faculty Wives, Women Are Selling Cookbooks

Wayne State College Faculty Wives and Women are selling cookbooks which the organization compiled. Persons who would like to purchase a cookbook for $3.50 should contact Mrs. Don Merriman at 375-2919. Proceeds will go to the Wayne State Foundation.

Faculty wives and women can purchase their cookbooks during a series of coffees this Tuesday. Co-chairmen for the coffee meetings are Mrs. Charles Maier and Mrs. J.S. Johar.

A morning coffee, from 9:30 to 11, is planned in the homes of Mrs. R.L. Rasmussen and Mrs. Carl Rump. In the afternoon, from 2 to 3:30, there will be coffee meetings in the homes of Mrs. Robert Foote and Mrs. Lyle Seymour. Mrs. Fred Webber and Mrs. Anthony Garlick are hostesses for the evening coffees, beginning at 8.

Joan Gustafson Presents Recital

Joan Gustafson of Wakefield was scheduled to perform an organ recital Sunday evening, March 12, at Lincoln. The recital, which began at 8 p.m., was held at The Cathedral of the Risen Christ, 33rd and Sheridan Blvd.

She performed selections from Suite du Premier Ton by Louis-Nicolas Clerambault (1676-1749; French classic Period); Dorian Toccata and Fugue by J. S. Bach (1685-1750; baroque); Pralude, Fuge et Variation by Cesar Franck (1822-1890; romantic); and Hymne D'Action de Grace "Te Deum" by Jean Langlais (contemporary).

Miss Gustafson, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gustafson of Wakefield, is a Junior at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and is a student of Dr. George Ritchie. She is a former student of Prof. Anthony Garlick of Wayne State College.

Norfolk Theater Changes Play

Due to problems in casting, the second play of the season for the Norfolk Community Theater has been changed to "The Silver Cord" by Sidney Howard.

The three-act play will be presented March 16, 17 and 18 at the Norfolk city auditorium. Holders of season tickets are asked to note that dates for the play have been moved to a week earlier because of the Easter weekend.

"The Silver Cord" is an entertaining play depicting a domineering mother trying to hold onto her two sons.

Curtain time is 8 p.m. each night. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Announce Programs To Aid Area Farmers

Some 16 projects have been approved for the Wayne County Agricultural Conservation program in 1978. Projects approved include: Permanent native grass vegetative cover establishment, conservation tillage systems, permanent vegetative cover establishment, terrace systems, diversions, windbreak restoration or establishment, permanent vegetative cover on critical areas, water impoundment reservoirs, irrigation water conservation, sediment retention, erosion or water control structures.

Ak-Sar-Ben Is Complex

In the mathematics of Ak-Sar-Ben, the equation ACE equals $1,200.00.

That is the approximate sum the Omaha-based organization is distributing this year for its ACE projects in Nebraska and Western Iowa, Harold Youngren told Kiwanis Club at its Monday meeting.

As public information officer for Ak-Sar-Ben, Youngren explained that ACE stands for the agricultural, civic and educational enterprises "of which Ak-Sar-Ben is most proud."

It is a complex organization, he said, "and we like to call ourselves the world's largest civic organization." Membership currently is about 57,000 — a figure that is more than doubled because it represents families.

Ak-Sar-Ben may be known most commonly for its thoroughbred horse racing, Youngren said, and racing does produce most of its revenue. AK's racing programs ranks fifth in attendance among about 125 race tracks in the nation, and its mutual betting handle rates from eighth to tenth, depending on the season, he added.

From the total mutual handle (that is, the money wagered), Ak-Sar-Ben takes 15 percent and returns 85 percent to bettors. The 15 percent is divided 5 percent each to the state, to the horsemen, and to the track.

Math Contest

Outstanding high school math students will have the opportunity to show their skills, Monday, March 20 at Wayne State College (WSC) in the College's Fourth Annual Math Contest.

Students from over 50 high schools are expected to compete at the event, designed to provide outstanding math students academic competition.

Winners will be selected based on highest test scores during the competition. Registered high schools are allowed to enter two contestants in each of four events. Prizes will be given in areas including 9th grade algebra, 10th grade geometry, 11th grade advanced algebra and senior math.

Plaques and A.V. Teed math scholarships will be awarded to the top three senior contestants planning to attend WSC as math majors. Plaques will be given to the top three students in each of the four test divisions.

Contest

on the basis of originality as well as artistic merit. Prizes will be awarded in each of the four grade categories. The national grand prize winner will receive a $500 savings bond.

Four prizes in each of the four grade categories will also be given savings bonds ranging from $25 to $200. Entries must in by April 15, 1978. Mail or return to Wayne Eagles Club. The contest is part of the Fraternal Order of Eagles "Boost Our Home Town" program. Initiated four years ago, the program has been adopted by the majority of Eagle lodges across the country. It seeks by means of awards to single out for recognition individuals, agencies and businesses that have contributed to the well-being and growth of the home town. Eagles sum up the program by saying, "Our Town — we like it here."

Roundup Set For Friday

A kindergarten Roundup will be held Friday, March 17, at the Wayne school. Children with last name initials A through L will register from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and children with last name initials M through Z will register from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. During these times, administrators and instructors will be working with the children with the assistance of the Educational Service Unit. The school needs a copy of the children's birth certificate. Principal David Lutt said parents should bring the certificate with them and the school will make a copy of it.

Area Students Are Initiated

Four area students recently were initiated into the Wayne State College chapter of the National Lambda Delta Lambda (LDL) physical science honorary.

New members include Leon Koehlmoe of Filgar. He is a graduate of Wisner-Pilger High School and a senior chemistry major at WSC.

Scott Swigart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Swigart of Wakefield. He is a 1974 graduate of Omaha Northeast High School and a junior chemistry major at WSC.

Connie Wragge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Wragge of Pierce. She is a 1975 graduate of Pierce High School and a junior physical major at WSC.

Pam Glassmeyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Glassmeyer of Wayne. She is a 1975 graduate of Wayne-Carroll High School and a junior medical technology major at WSC.

Modify Grain Storage Rates

The U.S. Department of Agriculture will modify, beginning July 1, its current system for determining grain storage rates, under contracts with the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC).

Ray Fitzgerald, Executive Vice President of the CCC and Administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS), said the storage rate system applies to grain and rice owned or under loan by CCC and stored in commercial warehouses under the uniform grain storage agreement (UGSA) or the Uniform Rice Storage Agreement (URSA).

Under the current offer rate system, warehouse operators charge different storage rates as long as the rates charged the Government are no higher than rates charged to other customers.

The following modifications will be made in the offer rate system: Storage and handling charges will be deducted from Commodity Loans.

Rates offered for CCC-owned and CCC-loan commodities will be the same, with an allowance for insurance on CCC loan grain and rice.

Rates will be reviewed and subject of negotiation: Rates accepted will be open for public review in ASCS State and County Offices.

CCC will accept decreases in storage and handling rates. The schedule of rates under UGSA will be modified to reduce the number of commingled storage rates required; and Under URSA, storage rates will continue to be submitted for identity preserved, modified commingled and commingled storage.

This week's action also directed ASCS to incorporate into a revised UGSA all supplements added since the last revision, and any other necessary changes. Additional details will be published in the Federal Register and available soon in ASCS State and County Offices.

About 6,500 warehouses are approved under UGSA, and 280 under URSA.

Offering 330 Jobs for Youths

The Nebraska Youth Conservation Corps (YCCC) will provide a record 330 outdoor jobs for teenagers in its 1978 summer program, according to the Game and Parks Commission.

Sponsored by the Departments of Agriculture and Interior, YCCC offers employment to Nebraskans between the ages of 15 and 18 to complete conservation and recreation projects on public lands and waters.

Responsible for the administration of all state and city projects and the recruitment and selection of enrollees for all camps and projects, the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission is accepting applications from eligible youth for participation in one of the 22 camp or project sites available this summer.

Of the planned camps for 1978, Scottsbluff, McCook, Chadron, Valentine, Halsey, Santee, Winnebago and Macy will be federal camps. State camp and project sites include Crawford, Chadron, Ogallala, North Platte, Kearney, Sacramento-Wilcox, Lexington, Bassett, Norfolk, Lincoln, Schramm and Two Rivers State Recreational Areas, and Humboldt. The City of Lincoln Parks and Recreation Department will operate a camp at Wilderness Park in Lincoln.

All YCC workers will receive $2.65 per hour for the 30 hours of each week devoted to the projects. Daily rate of pay depends upon the type of camp or project, since deductions are made for meals and lodging at some camps.

Ten hours of each week will involve environmental awareness activities, for which YCC workers will not be paid. However, the State Department of Education will recommend that their school consider granting academic credit for the environmental training should the camp director approve.

Application forms and recruitment brochures for the 1978 Nebraska YCC program are available from secondary school principals and counselors, Nebraska Job Service offices, affirmative action employment groups, the City of Lincoln Parks and Recreation Department, or any office of the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission.

Applications must be filled out correctly and in to the Lincoln office of the Game and Parks Commission by 5 p.m. Friday, March 31. Applications received after the deadline will not be considered.
