Scouts Hit a Few 'Snags' During Canoe Trip

A 50 MILE TRIP down the Elkhorn River provided good times and sore arms for Scout Troop 175. The boys and their Scoutmaster Vern Fairchild, and leaders Don Cattle and Bob Porter, earned the Boy Scouts of America's 50-Miler award for their trip from Norfolk to the Dead Timber recreation area near West Point. The troop left Sunday and arrived at Dead Timber on Thursday. They returned to Wayne

Three Rural Schools Slated for Axe

Three Wayne County rural schools are slated to be merged and dissolved, according to action being taken by the county superintendent's office. County Superintendent Fred Rickers Rural School Districts No. 1, No. 75 and No. 23 have been petitioned by patrons to be dissolved and the students be placed in area schools. Rickers said the dissolving of the three districts will only affect some ten students. There were 253 rural students in Wayne County at the end of the 1977-78 school year, according to the superintendent. There will be two public hearings June 15 concerning the dissolution of Districts 75 and 23. The first hearing is set for 8:30 p.m. in the county superintendent's office in the court house. The Special Joint Wayne County Committee for Reorganization of Wayne and Cuming Counties will be in session to hear any input regarding District 23. The second hearing will follow at 9 p.m. in the superintendent's office with the Special Joint Wayne County Committee for Reorganization of School Districts in Wayne and Cedar Counties in session. Rickers said District 75 students will be absorbed by the Randolph Community School district. The district is located four miles north of Carroll and eight miles from Randolph. There were five students in District 75 with two of them being graduated. District 23 is located eight miles south and two miles west of Wayne and involves Cuming County School Districts 40 and 30 and Wayne County School Districts 57, 51, 5 and 9SR (Winside). The district will be split among the several districts involved in the petition following final action. Rickers said following the hearings June 15, the petition and his recommendation will be sent to the State Reorganization committee which has 40 days in which to return the petition and a decision with or without a recommendation. After receiving the findings of the state committee, Rickers has 15 days in which to call a meeting of the Wayne County Reorganization board who can then make a final decision. The county superintendent said the decision will be on file for a period of ten days after which time he will canvass the signatures on the petitions for validity. Police Plan Bike Safety

The Wayne Police Department is sponsoring a bicycle safety school from Wednesday through Friday, June 14-16, for children 6 to 12 years of age. Each of the three day sessions will last from 9 to 11 a.m. Wednesday, a film on bicycle safety will be shown in the Firemen's meeting room of the Wayne Fire Hall and children will not need their bikes. A review of bicycle safety will be presented Thursday and then the children will ride their bikes around residential Wayne. Friday, riding ability tests will be given at the Rice Auditorium parking lot at Wayne State College. Bikers will be judged and certificates will be awarded to those children who complete the safety school. In case of rain everyone should meet at the National Guard Armory. The Police department hopes that parents will urge their children to attend the safety school which is free and important for safe bicycle riding. The program will be under the direction of Sgt. Melvin Lamb. All bicycles should be registered with the Police department.

Checking for Leaks
MAKING AN electrical survey of the People's Natural Gas lines in Wayne are Steve Bodenstedt, Wayne; Dave Smith, Ralston; Jim Johnston, Valley and Mark Matthews, Norfolk. They have been working the past week under the supervision of Corrosion Technician Wally Peterson, Ralston. They make a line check every ten feet using an electrical flow chart to detect possible leaks.

Earns Place On Dean's List

A local girl was named to the Dana College Dean's list for its second semester. JoAnne Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Roberts of Allen, was one of 84 students named to the list of the Blair school. To qualify for the list, a student must maintain a minimum grade average of 7.50, with 9 being the highest grade.

Two Awarded WSC Grants

Two local students were awarded Scholarships to attend Wayne State College (WSC) for its 1978 fall semester. D. Jeffrey Warnemunde, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Warnemunde of Winside, and Penny Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Roberts of Wakefield were 2 of 13 recent high school graduates to receive Cooperating Schools Scholarships. The scholarships are awarded to outstanding students graduating from high schools participating in the WSC student-teacher program.

County Shows Population Decline

According to Special Headcount
Dakota County, part of the Sioux City, Ia. metropolitan area, has grown much more rapidly than the rest of the Sioux City area and more rapidly than counties in Nebraska's other metropolitan areas — Douglas, Sarpy and Lancaster — since 1970. Researchers said the obvious reason is for the growth in employment in manufacturing (primarily meat-packing and processing). Employment more than doubled from 1970 to 1975 in Dakota County, according to the researchers. The researchers pointed out there are signs, however, that Dakota County's rapid growth rate stabilized from 1976 to 1977, perhaps as a result of the lengthy meatpacking strike, they said. Stanton and Madison Counties also reflected a growth in the report. Stanton was estimated to be up 9.5 percent with Madison County showing a 7.4 percent increase. Researchers said the growth in the two counties reflects the rapid growth of Norfolk. Both Madison and Stanton Counties have recorded net in-migration of nearly four percent since 1970, whereas during the 1960-70 decade both counties registered net out-migration. The net out-migration for Wayne County for the period 1970 to 1977 was estimated at 14.9 percent.

Partial Results Show Strong Cancer Support
Partial results of the 1978 Cancer Crusade in Wayne County have been announced by county president Mrs. Lester Hansen. The crusade provides funds for the fight against cancer in three vital areas — research, education and service. Mrs. Hansen said all area towns increased their support this year. Towns, chairmen, and amount collected are: Hoskins, Mrs. Pat Northrup, $75.50; Carroll, Mrs. Gary Landanger, $84.35; Winside, Mrs. David Warnemunde, $130.58. The total amount donated this year in the rural area was $1,171.45. Mrs. Neil Sandahl served as county rural chairman. Precinct chairmen and amounts contributed by precinct are: Brenna, Mrs. Harvey Reeg, $87; Chapin, Mrs. Terry Janke and Mrs. Harlan Brugger, $66; Deer Creek, Mrs. Lynn Roberts, $40; Garfield, Mrs. Roy Jenkins, $40; Hancock, Mrs. Randall Bergstadl, $50; Hoskins, Mrs. Scott Deck and Mrs. Ron Mann, $50.75; Hunter, Mrs. Del Sorenson, $181.50; Leslie, Mrs. Kenny Thomsen, $56.50; Logan, Mrs. See CANCER, page 9

Weather Doesn't Deter from Reunion

By MARK CRAMER
Slightly inclement weather was no deterrent for last week's annual Old Settlers Reunion held in Winside. Tuesday's warm weather gave area youngsters ample opportunity to compete in the "Youth Day" activities, but the cold temperatures and stiff breezes on Wednesday moved several of the final day's activities indoors. The two-day event, which traditionally has been held in July, sponsored events for all ages, including bike races, parades, horseshoe pitching, "Anything Goes" contests, band concerts, a water fight, and a dance. A tractor pull, scheduled for Tuesday night, was cancelled due to the non-arrival of a mechanical sled. Results of Tuesday's "Youth Day" activities are as follows: Bike Races. Girls 6-10 years old slow races. First, Konnie Siedschlag, Norfolk, Second, Julie Warnemunde, Winside, Third, Kerrt Leighton, Winside. Girls 11 and up slow races. First, Tammy Brudigen, Winside, Second, Kathy Gottberg, Winside. Girls fast bike races. First, Kathy Gottberg, Winside, Second, Karen Reeg, Wayne, Third, Kerrt Leighton, Winside. Boys 6-8 last bike races. First, Mace Kant, Winside, Second, David Beckner, Winside, Third, Max Kant, Winside. Boys 9-10 fast races. First, See WEATHER, page 9

Truck Damaged In Accident

The left side of a truck being driven by Carl L. Sievers, RR 1, Carröil, was damaged when the truck wheels ran into a soft shoulder of a county road under construction and was pulled over onto its left side. County sheriff's officials said Sievers stated the pulled over to the side of the road to miss a ridge of dirt pushed up by a See TRUCK, page 9

OBSERVATIONS

Need for more room

The city of Wayne is a growing community and so is its summer sports program. With a program consisting of a men's team, a midjet team, a Legion team, a Pony league team; Little League, Pee Wees, two girls' softball teams, 12 men's softball teams and 10 women's teams, the facilities are simply inadequate.

The city has only one baseball diamond for all of the baseball teams. This means there is only one diamond for all the basketball games and practices. This is a heavy burden for one field.

There are 24 organized softball teams in the community and the city has one softball field, that is sometimes used. Without the use of the Wayne State College fields, these teams would be out of luck.

Making a comparison of Wayne with other cities, it appears Wayne has one of the lowest ratios of fields to ball teams around. West Point, with a population of about 3,500 people, has four softball diamonds and one baseball diamond. Seward, with an approximate population of 5,200, has five softball fields and one for baseball.

David City, 2,400 people, has two softball diamonds, one baseball field and two little league fields. York, 10,000 people, is "swamped" and is going to expand from its present two baseball fields, three softball diamonds, and three little league fields. O'Neill, 3,800, has four softball diamonds, and two baseball fields plus five men's slowpitch fields.

The statistics tell the story — Wayne has less facilities per capita than these cities and probably less than most of the communities in Nebraska.

New fields would be a good investment. With the expanding sports program, the diamonds would constantly be in use and interest in summer sports would probably expand. As things are now, the facilities can't satisfy the program.

The summer program is well established and interest is not going to decline. If Wayne is going to compete successfully with the neighboring communities, the city is going to have to build new ball diamonds.

Mark Overin, summer coach, suggested that the city first improve the present baseball diamond, rebuilding the bleachers and dugouts to make it the best diamond in Northeast Nebraska. Then softball-Little League diamonds could be built in another location.

According to Overin, the present baseball diamond is "heavily located" because the wind is usually 10-15 miles per hour less than the college fields.

This idea would solve most of the problems, improving playing conditions for the Midjets and Juniors and providing fields for the softball teams and younger boys' teams to play on. Under the present situation, Little League games are played on the three corners of the baseball field.

The other possibility mentioned by Overin was that the city and high school combine forces and build a new baseball field on the high school property.

The high school could use the field during the school year and the Midjets and Juniors could play there during the summer.

Then the old baseball field could be revamped into two softball little league diamonds. Sharing of these diamonds would take much of the load off of both sports. If the city did this, they probably wouldn't have to apply for a grant, which would eventually have to be repaid.

One idea suggested to the city was to build one baseball and two softball diamonds at the present baseball field.

According to Overin, by the time room was made for fences and backstops there wouldn't be enough land to build three fields. It would be foolish to even try this idea.

In one way or another the city should take action to improve the quality and quantity of ball fields in Wayne. — Randy Hascall.

Savings of $1 Million a Year

RICHARD L. LESHNER, President Chamber of Commerce Of The United States
WASHINGTON — You might think — if you're sufficiently naive — that Congress would jump at an opportunity to save the U.S. taxpayer $1 billion a year and help our small business people, both at the same time and all without any diminution of public services.

You might think so, but it doesn't work that way. At least not when the required action would violate the first rule of the federal government: Save the bureaucrats first and let the public fend for itself.

The issue is "contracting out." Time after time, it has been proven that private businesses can furnish the same or better service for less cost, in comparison to letting government do the job — 20 percent to 30 percent less, in fact. Thus, there is a general policy that the government should seek a private contractor for as much government work as is practical.

There are roughly four exceptions to this policy:

1. No satisfactory source is available outside the government.
2. The agency involved or another federal agency can provide the same product or service at a lesser cost.
3. Contracting out would disrupt or delay an agency's program.
4. Contracting out would jeopardize national security.

As the way will immediately recognize, these four exceptions are big enough to drive an outrage through. And there's a lot of traffic of that kind.

For example, "national security" would seem to be the least arguable category. And yet, while government guards are deemed necessary at the Central Intelligence Agency's headquarters, the Pentagon, and the State Department, the government's nuclear testing facility in Nevada has somehow managed to survive with a private guard service for the past 13 years.

But exotic exceptions aside, the real field of battle in this game involves comparative cost estimates. When a private contractor submits a bid for government work, he must calculate all of his costs, including federal and local taxes, wages and fringe benefits, and whatever he hopes to make when all the other expenses are paid.

You can see immediately that a private contractor starts with two disadvantages: He has to pay taxes that a government agency would not have to pay and he hopes to make a profit, whereas the government makes only losses.

Even so, given an honest contest, the private contractor can usually come out the low bidder. That distresses the bureaucrats — especially the public employee unions or "bargaining groups." If too much work goes to the private bidder, then there will be less need for federal employees.

Well, how does the private contractor still wind up as low bidder? Simple: Federal pay and fringe benefits are so far superior to pay in the private sector that even taxes and profit seldom close the gap. Private actuaries, for example, have calculated that the federal pension system is equal to a generous 42 percent of an employee's salary. That figure compares to 9.2 percent for the private sector.

Obviously, if the true cost of federal fringes is taken into account, then the government cost for doing a given job will seldom be as low as the private bidder's cost. But who establishes the "official" cost figure for these federal fringe benefits? The federal government, of course. Overall, that figure has been pegged at an unrealistic 14.1 percent of federal pay. It is slated to rise soon to a slightly less unrealistic 20.4 percent of federal pay.

But, under an amendment passed hurriedly last year, the Department of Defense is required to use a figure of only 8.4 percent. And let me stress here that we are talking about services like laundry and trash collection, not combat infantry. No service relating directly to military preparedness may be contracted out.

On top of that ridiculously fictitious cost estimate, Congress last year passed a one-year moratorium on any contracting out by Defense where existing federal jobs might be jeopardized. It may be extended.

According to a recent study by the Randy Corporation, the Defense Department alone could — if it wanted to — save $1 billion a year by using private firms to perform work now done by 250,000 civil service employees. It's enough to make you go to war.

BarneStorming

With Chuck Barnes

Being a father isn't bad when it comes to Father's Day.

Our brood gave us an "early" Father's Day present in the form of two tickets to a concert and show by Lawrence Welk and his musical family. Hilton Coliseum on the Iowa State University campus was packed with Welk fans and sprinkled here and there were some 30 years of age and younger.

It was a wonderful, wonderful experience to watch Welk and his television troupe provide delightful music and dance, ranging from the big band "oldies" to a concert number with the strings and the whole works.

We're not died and tried Welk fans, but his music does bring back memories. We had the pleasure of meeting Lawrence Welk several years ago when he and his group played the Iowa State fair.

Serving in an ambassadorship for the community of Audubon, Ia., home of "Albert, the world's largest bull," we had a replica of "Albert" to present to Welk. We were fortunate enough to be one of four persons to be allowed in his dressing room following the performance. He accepted the replica and gave it to Ken Fulk, then the Iowa State fair manager, to be shipped to Welk's home in California.

A couple of weeks later we got a call from Fulk who said he just had a call from Welk who said the replica had arrived at his home in a hundred pieces. He wanted to know if he could have another one. We allowed as we could handle it and went across the street to the dime store when the replicas were being sold for $3.50 and sent it on its way.

We got a "Lawrence Welk key chain" out of the deal.

As we said, it was a great experience shared by everyone who gave the Welk people a standing ovation at the end of the performance.

We had a great time at the Winside Old Settlers celebration. And we thank those taking part in the water fight for not hosing us down.

The new 15c post office ripoff is producing some queer combinations of stamps on letters coming across our desk. One had five 3-centers and another had an 11-cent stamp plus a 4-cent stamp.

And that, for another week, is that!

Diane Marie Morris is Bride of Ensign Frans

The Rev. Gall Axen of Stanton officiated at the wedding ceremony June 3 uniting in marriage Diane Marie Morris of Wakefield and Ensign Mark Frans of Ames, Ia.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Morris of Carroll and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frans of Sioux City.

The wedding ceremony took place at the Bethany Presbyterian Church in Carroll. Joanne Hansen of Blair sang "Evergreen," "The Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Kathy Hine-line of David City.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length white Renaissance gown of Chantilly lace. Satin trimmed cape, lace accented high neckline and bodice of the gown. Matching lace overlayed the self-fabric ruffle which edged the hemline and extended into a chapel-length train. Her floor-length veil edged in Chantilly lace fell from a cap head-piece. She carried red roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Glenda Schluns of Carroll, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Nancy Deck of Hoskins, June Wacker of Norfolk and Angie Graef of Council Bluffs, Ia. The attendants wore sleeveless princess-style gowns of light blue polyester in floor length featuring sheer floral capes. They wore baby's breath in their hair and carried a white rose.

Attendants for the bridegroom were Kip Axtell of Sioux City, who was the best man, and Doug Goodyear of Norfolk, Monte Hobbs of Iowa City, Ia and Roger Less of Ames, Ia., as groomsmen.

The bridegroom wore his U.S. Navy Ensign uniform for his wedding. His attendants wore light blue tuxedos with satin inserts, light blue ruffled shirts and white roses on the lapel.

Deanna Schluns of Carroll was flower girl. Candlelighter was Cara Frans of Sioux City. Guests were ushered into the church by Edward Morris of Carroll and John Dye of Sioux City.

Mrs. Hilda Thomas of Hoskins pinned flowers. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Morris chose a sleeveless, polyester princess-style dress. The peach fashion was designed with a long floral cape. The bridegroom's mother wore an A-line dress of mint green polyester with long, sheer sleeves.

ward at the church. Guests were registered by Amy Schluns of Carroll and Mrs. Peg Deck of Battle Creek.

Nancy Gallop and Carol Bergman, both of Fremont, arranged gifts. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Eva Hoemann of Hoskins, Mrs. Judy Rath of Ft. Calhoun and Mrs. Joyce Jones of Norfolk. Mrs. Lucile Jenkins of Carroll poured and Mrs. Shirley Pudell of New Hartford, Ia. served punch.

Waitresses were Ronda Rath of Ft. Calhoun and Shauna Roberts and Jill Malchow, both of Carroll. The lunch was catered by Mrs. Claudia Grubb of Tilden. Women assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. Alice Jenkins of Norfolk and Mrs. JoAnn Owens. Mrs. Frances Roberts, Mrs. Helen Malchow and Mrs. Eleanor Owens, all of Carroll.

The bride graduated from Winside High School in 1972 and from Wayne State College in 1976. She is employed at Educational Service Unit 1 at Wakefield. The bridegroom graduated from East High School in Sioux City in 1972 and from Iowa State University in 1978. He was commissioned in the U.S. Navy on May 27 of this year.

The couple's address is 2721 Luther Dr., Ames, Ia., 50010.

ENSIGN AND MRS. MARK FRANS

The engagement of Patricia Purcell to Robert Puls has been announced by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Purcell of Norfolk and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Puls of Wakefield. The bride is a student at Wayne State College and the bridegroom is employed at Farmer Union in Wakefield. An August wedding is planned.

Ladies Day Is Tuesday

Luncheon hostesses for Ladies Day this Tuesday at the Wayne Country Club are Gay Bates and Ginny Seymour.

During Ladies Day each Tuesday, the full 18-hole golf course is reserved for women only until noon. The front 9-hole course is reserved until 2 p.m. for women only. The upstairs of the club house is reserved for the women until 5 p.m.

During June, breakfast is served at 8 a.m., with tee-off at time of 8:30. Luncheon is at noon, with bridge following.

Reading For Luncheon

MAKING TABLE DECORATIONS for the Farm Ladies Appreciation Luncheon sponsored by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce are these 11 women. Theme for the luncheon, which is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. June 29 at Wayne State's Student Union, is "Town and Country Fun Party." Helping make the decorations were Jan Liska, Jill Perry, Kay Swercek, Marilyn Carhart, Vicki Pick, Joyce Reeg, Becky Keidel, Norma Carr, Donna Schumacher, Wilma Moore and Diane Bruggeman. The luncheon is held to stress the importance of farm women in the area's economy. Businessmen have been invited women to the free luncheon, which last year drew some 500 farm wives and women. Women need only register once at any of the businesses. Highlights of the luncheon will be the naming of an Outstanding Farm Women. Area organizations and individuals are encouraged to nominate women for the award. Nominations should be sent to the Wayne Chamber of Commerce office by June 22.

Barker-Johnson Marry June 3 at Ragan Church

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Lee Johnson were married June 3 and are making their home at 502 Garfield St. in Holdrege.

Mrs. Johnson is the former Erma Ruth Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barker of Wakefield. She graduated from high school in Wilcox in 1976 and is employed at Clausen's Shoe Store in Holdrege.

The bridegroom is a 1977 graduate of Wilcox High School and attends Hastings College. He is farming this summer with his father near Ragan and will return to college in the fall. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson of Alma.

Johnsons were married at the United Methodist Church in Ragan in a 7 o'clock double ring ceremony. The Rev. Don Johnson of Kearney, brother of the bridegroom, and the Rev. Stan LeRider of Holdrege officiated.

Patricia Barker of Minden served her sister as maid of honor. Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Gary Johnson of Beatrice.

Bridesmaids were Ardith Barker and Kelly Barker, the bride's sisters from Wakefield, and groomsmen were Jeff Reiss of Wilcox and the bride's brother, Roy Barker of Wakefield.

Libby Stabler of Holdrege was flower girl and Kyle Bendroff of Holdrege was ring bearer. Candles were lighted by the bride's sister and brother, Roy Barker and Kelly Barker, both of Wakefield.

Guests were registered by Joan Johnson of Kearney and ushered into the church by Steve Johnson of Elm Creek and Merrill Hale of Wakefield.

Wedding music included "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song," sung by Melinda Pease and accompanied by Ellen Erickson, both of Wilcox. Pianist was Mrs. Jurgens of Wilcox.

The bride wore a white floor-length gown of organza and veil lace for her wedding day. The dress featured an empire bodice, lace trimmed neckline and bishop sleeves accented with lace motifs. The chapel-length train was held by a rib ban bow at the waistline. She wore a fingertip veil attached to a crown of seed pearls and miniature leaves, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses, white daisies and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids wore daisy print, princess-style gowns of pastel polyester crepe in floor length. Each carried a candle surrounded by painted daisies.

The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and shirt with a yellow rose boutonniere. His attendants wore white tuxedo jackets with black trousers, pastel shirts and matching carnations.

Mrs. Barker selected a floor length blue double knit dress for her daughter's wedding, and Mrs. Johnson chose a yellow double knit, also in floor length. Their corsages were yellow roses and white daisies.

Mrs. Gary Johnson of Beatrice served punch. Waitresses and gift carriers were Robin Murphy and Julie Murphy, both of Ragan, and Kim Gustafson and Shari Gustafson, both of Wilcox.

Assisting in the kitchen were Mrs. James Erbom, Mrs. Ray Wing and Mrs. Dale Guthrie, all of Ragan.

The couple's grandparents who were honored are Mrs. Ernest Johnson of Holdrege, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Murphy of Ragan and Mrs. Thelma Young of Wayne. They were presented carnations.

Reading Program Begins

Children in grades one through six are invited to take part in the annual summer reading program at the Wayne Public Library, according to librarian Mrs. Kathleen Tooker.

The program begins today (Monday) and will run through July 15. Theme is "The Mighty Dragon."

Mrs. Tooker said youngsters need not pre-register for the program.

To participate in the program, youngsters must check out books from the library and report on them for credit when they turn them back in to the library. To complete the program, each child must read and report on at least 15 books. Youngsters will receive a free paperback book for every 15 books they report on.

A closing party will be held for those who complete the program.

Helping Mrs. Tooker with the program are Jennifer Johnson, Chris Vokoc, Laura Tooker and Diane Lindsay.

Summer hours at the public library are 2 to 8 p.m., Monday through Thursday; 2 to 6 p.m., Friday and 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday.

New Books Available at Center

New books which may be checked out by senior citizens at the Wayne Senior Citizens Center include "The People's Pharmacy," "The Helper," "Emma and Laura," and "Tara."

Library hour was conducted at the Senior Center Thursday afternoon by assistant public librarian Judy Bienderman.

Books can be checked out at the center and returned there or to the Wayne Public Library. Persons requesting a special book should call the public library at 375 3135 or the Senior Citizens Center at 375 1460.

Larry Ostercamp of the Evangelical Free Church in Wayne. Cookies were furnished by Mrs. Nora Netherda. Mrs. Katie Leuenhagen, who is the mother of Mrs. Tony Netherda of Wayne was a guest.

The next Bible study will be at 1:30 p.m. on Monday, June 26. Persons attending are asked to bring their favorite translation of the Bible.

Several members of the Senior Citizens Center and director Mrs. Joceli Bull toured the iris garden of Roger Nelson on Friday, June 2. Nelson plans to present a slide show and talk on irises at the Senior Center in the fall.

The band plans to entertain at the Care Center again on Thursday, July 6, at 2 p.m.

Bingo is played each Monday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. at the Senior Citizens Center. All area persons who are 55 years of age or older are invited to participate and are asked to bring a wrapped article worth at least 30 cents for prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Chambers recently shared a bouquet of homegrown irises with members of the Senior Citizens Center.

Recall Wedding

Nine members of the Central Social Circle answered roll call Tuesday with a wedding memory. Darlene Helgren was hostess for the 2 o'clock meeting.

Guests were Leone Jager and Eileen Jager, both of Wayne. New officers were elected during the business meeting. They are president Verdelle Reeg, vice president Lillian Granquist, and secretary Kay Gilfert.

The program was presented by Mrs. Adelle Maurer of Norfolk, who collects dolls. Mrs. Maurer brought 40 of her dolls and talked about her hobby.

The club will not meet during the summer. Next meeting will be on Sept. 5 at 7:30 p.m. with Cleve Willers.

Advisory Board Meeting Slated

The Advisory Board of Region IV Services will meet Wednesday night at 8 o'clock at the Children's Development Center in Wayne.

Town Team Hangs On For Close Victory

The Wayne Town Team took a commanding 12-2 lead after six innings, faltered in the stretch as they gave up eight runs in the last three innings but held on to win 12-10 over Wakefield Thursday night.

Walks by Mike Green and Ray Nelson and hits by Mike Meyer and Earle Overlin gave Wayne four early runs in the second inning. They scored once more in the third on singles by Aaron Nissen and Green and a Wakefield error. Wakefield scored one run in the bottom of the third, when Bell reached home plate after an error, a wild pitch and two fielder's choices to make the score 5-1.

Wayne continued their scoring spree with four runs in the fifth. Nelson and Overlin batted in three of the runs with singles and Rod Cook hit a sacrifice fly to bring in the other run. Scoring were Dave Hix, Green, Nelson and Mike Meyer.

In the sixth inning, Hix reached base on an error, Bill Schwartz walked and Green drove the two in with a single. Then Nelson singled to advance Green to third base. Meyers sacrificed fly brought Green in for the twelfth and final run for Wayne.

Wakefield added one run to their score as Eaton poked a solo homer in the seventh. Wakefield got something going with two outs. Soderberg reached base on a fielder's choice and Kay and Lueth walked to load up the bases. Then Polan slashed a single driving in two runs.

Emerson scored early runs in the third, the first as Pfanz added a solo home run to his previous double. The other run came on an error and single. Wayne didn't let Emerson keep the lead long and responded with two runs of their own. Tim Pfeiffer walked, and Dennis Carroll and Rick Meltzer both doubled to tie the score 3-3.

Wayne held Emerson scoreless in the fourth inning and took a two run lead on some strong hitting. Tim Thomas led off with a double and Jeff Zeiss poked a single to bring him home. Carroll scored Zeiss with another single to put Wayne on top for good.

SHORT STOP BILL SCHWARTZ steps on second base and begins his throw to first in an attempted double hit against Wakefield. Second baseman Dave Hix ducks out of the way of the throw as Wakefield's runner begins his slide.

Emerson managed one last run in the fifth when Fuchser showed his power by smashing a home run. Wayne countered the attack as Dion scored in the bottom of the fifth to give Wayne a 6-4 lead. Carroll struck out the last three batters to end the game and pick up the win with 11 strike outs.

Emerson scored early runs in the third, the first as Pfanz added a solo home run to his previous double. The other run came on an error and single. Wayne didn't let Emerson keep the lead long and responded with two runs of their own.

Wayne held Emerson scoreless in the fourth inning and took a two run lead on some strong hitting. Tim Thomas led off with a double and Jeff Zeiss poked a single to bring him home.

Murray Leads Legion To Win

The Wayne Juniors collected only three hits all night but scored seven runs to beat Emerson 7-4 Friday night in Wayne.

Winside Loses Pair

The Winside Midgets and Juniors lost a pair of games to Wisner Friday night as they couldn't get their bats working effectively.

Outhit Midgets Edge Emerson

The Wayne Midgets were outhit 7-5 Friday night but consistent baseball lifted them over the Emerson Midgets by a score of 6-4 to push their league record to 3-0.

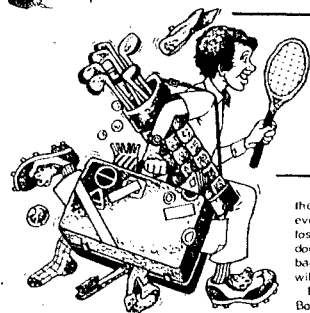

Wakefield Sweeps

Wakefield scored 12 runs in the opening game and Brad Jones pitched a three hitter for the Juniors to sweep Pender Friday night.

Winside Loses Pair

The Winside Midgets and Juniors lost a pair of games to Wisner Friday night as they couldn't get their bats working effectively.

SPORTS

Randy's RECAP
According to Randy Hascall

SOUTHERN CAL took home its twelfth NCAA World Series trophy after a 10-3 victory over Arizona State. USC's pitching was too tough for the Sun Devils who were hoping to repeat as champions of the College World Series.

the World Series. Both teams are tough every year. This year, both of ASU's losses came at the hands of USC, in the double elimination series. But they'll be back next year. Only one problem -- so will Southern Cal.

KEN NORTON didn't keep his World Boxing Commission world championship very long. In his first title defense Friday night, Norton lost a split decision to Larry Holmes.

The 28 year old Holmes has won 28 straight boxing matches and now has the boxing championship to his name. Holmes is not very well known but his name will become familiar soon after whipping Norton.

Norton was presented the crown when Spinks failed to defend against him, but didn't hold on to it well enough. The fight was a toss up until the 15th round and two judges gave that round to Holmes.

NEITHER BOXER came away a loser though. Norton walked out of the ring $2.3 million richer than he was when he stepped in. The new champion won a mere $500,000 which will become pocket change if he can defend his title successfully a couple of times. Between boxing income and promotional income, Holmes should never have to worry about paying rent the rest of his life.

Boxers go through a beating, without a doubt, but just figure out how much money they make per hour for stepping into the ring. I said it before and I'll say it again -- no athlete is worth that much money.

Health Tip OF THE WEEK

"Preventive medicine" is most important — to avoid illness, or to catch and cure it early, before the illness becomes serious. This is why an annual medical check-up is so advisable. Just as "preventive maintenance" on your car can avert major breakdown and repair — so "preventive medicine" can nip an illness in the bud, and probably avoid great discomfort and surgery.

Wayne State Tennis Coach Gives Formal Resignation

Wayne State head tennis coach and associate professor of chemistry, Wes Fritz, submitted his formal resignation recently after seven years of coaching and eleven years of teaching at WSC.
Fritz, 32, has accepted the position of division chairman of the math science division at St. Clair County Community College in Port Huron, Mich., beginning July 1, 1978.
Fritz said he will not be coaching at St. Clair, but that he is looking forward to the new position.
"I have enjoyed my association with the college and with the people of Wayne," Fritz said. "But the opportunity for advancement was offered and I chose to accept it."
Fritz, a strong tennis player himself, helped develop tennis into a successful sport at WSC compiling a 1977-78 dual record of 15-3 for the men's team and 11-6 for the women's.
He came to WSC in 1967, receiving a master's degree from the University of

TRU-TEST PAINTS
SOLD EXCLUSIVELY BY True Value

Wake up weary rooms with the warm, sunny colors now so popular among Trend-setting decorators. For example: a pure, pale yellow like "Lemon Chiffon" for kitchen or bathroom, takes on a warm welcome when combined with the cozy browns and deeper golden tones like "Honey Crunch" or "Carmel Nut" for accents.

Put Some Sunshine In Your Life!

You'll find these new decorator inspired paint colors for walls and woodwork in Tru-Test Latex Flat and Semi-Gloss paints... as well as the dramatic new "accent" colors so popular today.

For ease of cleaning and built-in durability, the wise homemaker will choose these colors in Marvelux Latex Semi-Gloss, especially for kitchen, bath and woodwork that gets constant abuse. This soft, satin-sheen finish resists grease and soiling. Stays good looking despite steam from cooking and moisture from showering. And it washes up beautifully.

You'll also find these same sunny colors in flat finish Tru-Test Paints as well. Stop in and see them, today!
