

OBSERVATIONS

Consider alternatives

'Tis the season to be jolly but don't get carried away.

In making plans for upcoming holiday parties, persons should consider alternatives to drinking hard liquor for the safety of their guests... and innocent uninvited persons.

The AAA Cornhusker Motor Club is promoting an Un-Drink it holiday safety program which supports alternatives to drinking hard liquor without the stigma of being a "prude" or "party-pooper."

For the party-pooper, the club is urging "go slow" drinking — consuming only an ounce of liquor per hour; an amount the body can absorb without dulling the senses.

For the in-between times, AAA is suggesting that celebrants consume "look the same" drinks, noting that a tonic and twist looks just like a gin and tonic; that a spicy tomato juice looks like a Bloody Mary; that a "punchless" punch looks just like spiked punch.

For the party-giver, the AAA urges a de-emphasis on liquor and a greater emphasis on food, with the ready availability of liquor-less drinks. The party spirit can remain while giving the guests a better chance of a safe return home.

Here are some party tips the AAA suggests for safety-minded hosts:

1) Serve the first drink to each guest yourself if you wish. After that, however, have a self-serve bar set up. Drinks the guests mix themselves often tend to be less potent. Guests also probably drink less at self-serve bars. Let guests come to you for refills rather than circulating and filling glasses.

2) Offer plenty of non-alcoholic beverages, such as liquor-less egg nog or punch.

3) Serve rich and starchy snacks, main dishes and desserts throughout the evening. Food tends to slow down the absorption of alcohol into the bloodstream. Starchy foods are most effective here.

4) Plan activities such as games or dancing that will draw attention away from the bar.

5) About an hour after the party ends, put away the liquor and serve plenty of coffee.

As the host, set an example, don't overindulge.

If these precautions fail, be sure guests go home as passengers, not drivers.

What the AAA is trying to say is confine your Christmas spirit to the spirit of Christmas and not the bottle. — Chuck Barnes.

Our liberty depends on the freedom of the press, and that cannot be limited without being lost. — Thomas Jefferson, Letter, 1786.

More about trees

Dear Editor: Last summer the Wayne Jaycees, a non-profit organization, asked for and received permission to order and sell Christmas trees from the same supplier that furnished trees for R&R tree sales (Bill Workman).

In last Wednesday's Wayne Herald was a "Letter to the Editor" condemning the Wayne Jaycees for competing with a local seller. Our purpose in selling Christmas trees is naturally to make a profit. These profits will be used to donate money to numerous community projects instead of into the hands of private individuals.

Over the past few years, the Jaycees have donated $1,500 to Providence Medical Center, $200 every year to July 4th fireworks, high-school scholarships, Region IV and the Red Ball Fire Safety program to mention a few. Currently the Jaycees are promoting, and financially backing, an expanded softball park for the City of Wayne. All of these projects take money and many hours of voluntary labor. In short, we feel that the remarks made were highly critical of a community service organization, and last but not least, that competition is the foundation of the free enterprise system. — Wayne Jaycees.

Football... 1905

Early in this century, the manly game of football, then comparatively new, drew extravagant support from some quarters but was darkly condemned in others. That it was a favorite topic of debate is proved by the frequent appearance of articles in Nebraska newspapers, files of which are preserved by the Nebraska State Historical Society.

In 1905 Nebraska University Chancellor E. Benjamin Andrews at a session of school administrators in Washington, DC, came out in favor of the game. "I approve under reasonable regulations all the usual forms of college athletics — tennis, baseball, basketball, football, and rowing, though rowing is not to be specially commended, partly because it is not a safe sport."

"Football itself does not deserve the censure it is now fashionable to give it. The game is strenuous, which is its glory, for men need training in that quality. Played under due oversight, football breeds not callousness, but kindness and restraint. As schooling in alertness, courage, self-mastery, motor efficiency, exact discipline, and determination to achieve, it has no equal short of Army and Navy service. There are evils to the sport as in everything worthwhile. These are to be deplored and repressed, not exaggerated or paraded."

Opposition by others at the meeting was so strong, however, that a consensus could not be reached, and a statement regarding the game was not issued as planned. Support of an even stronger nature came from another department at NU:

Dr. H.B. Ward, zoology professor and dean of the Medical College at NU stirred up the American Academy of Medicine in Chicago with this argument: "American youth, being full of red corpuscles and vinegar, must have some strenuous method of venting his exuberant energies, or he will take to drink and other forms of wickedness. Football is the most strenuous, and therefore the best." The doctor admitted the game had its evils, but so, he said, "does everything else, and we should make war on the evils instead of condemning the game."

The World-Herald of Omaha commented: "Though Dean Ward has an unfeeling way of putting it, there is no denying the one great truth he enunciates: the human heart is desperately wicked. And it is also true that if a man by having his ear chewed off can be saved from the various sins of intemperance, he had better part with the ear. When Dr. Ward says, 'As physicians, you cannot afford to go on record against football,' it is to be hoped that he is not appealing to a sordid spirit of commercialism."

In an age when players were essentially untrained, the World-Herald warned of the evils of the "paid coach."

"The coaches are not there in the interest of justice or honorable regard for the ethics of the game, and sportsmanlike treatment of opponents. If they fail, it means that other men will take their jobs. ... A hero during his college days, every comfort has come too easily; when he graduates he finds that little of what he has studied stays with him. Coaching offers a lucrative easy living."

"The coach is the repository of all that is known of dirty play... choking a man, giving him the elbow, pushing the knee into his stomach, and otherwise taking a chance on maiming him for life. ... The coach offends doubly by bringing into college a class of men who have no right among decent people."

So strongly did Nebraska Central College (Quaker) at Central City come to feel about discontinuing the sport that it cancelled its 1905 Thanksgiving game, which would have capped a winning season. The college issued this proclamation:

"Whereas... having tested the game of football during two seasons and having lost only one game last year, having tested the game at home and on other grounds; and

"Whereas, we have found by actual experience the game... a menace to health. ...

"Whereas, only in church schools can we be reasonably sure of finding a class of men in whom a generous and upright spirit of sport prevails during the game; and

"Whereas, the intense desire to win... has led to semi-professionalism. ...

"Resolved... the Athletic Association of Nebraska Central College does hereby declare the game of football to be out of the list of athletic performances."

FANCY THAT!

The most expensive fabric obtainable is an evening wear fabric 40 inches wide, hand embroidered and sequined on a pure silk back ground in a classical flower pattern. It has 194,400 tiny sequins per yard and costs $382.50 a yard.

The cost of a lot of material may be of the recent past because of recent inflationary pressures. Many people are writing their letters to learn their stand on these unnecessary new rules that could cost the cotton industry up to $2.6 billion to meet the new requirements.

The oldest surviving fabric snorer was discovered in Catal Huyuk, Turkey and has been radiocarbon dated to 1000 B.C.

Blue Devils Outwrestle Schuyler 47-12

Wayne's wrestling team opened up to a quick 26-0 lead and poured it on to defeat Schuyler 47-12 Thursday night in the home opener for the Blue Devils.

Steve Pospishil put Wayne on top early as the 98 pounder jumped out to a 17-6 lead after two periods and held on to win by major decision 17-7. The decision gave the Blue Devils a 4-0 lead. Larry Hank received a forfeit in the 105 pound class to add six points to the total. Rick Luff came onto the mat and took control of his opponent adding near-fall points in the final seconds to win 12-2. This 112 pound class major decision pushed the score to 14-0 and a

Schuyler forfeit to David Schock at 119 upped the Wayne total to 20. Kevin Echtenkamp used an escape and takedown to put his opponent on his back and secured the victory with a pin at 1:13 into the match in the 126 pound class.

Schuyler won its first match in the 132 pound class as Don Zruch proved a little too tough for David Doescher and pinned the Wayne wrestler with :52 seconds left. Marlen Mason made it as he decisively John Anderson 7-0.

Rick Johnson reversed the trend as he pinned Lynn Schmale in 3:13 in the 145 pound class. Ward Wacker followed Johnson with a pin in 3:21 to give the Blue Devils an insurmountable 38-9 lead.

Jim Carlson of Schuyler stopped Wayne's Dusty Ruback 5-0 in the 167 pound class to score three final points for the Warriors. Brett Frevert responded in the 185 pound class by taking an 11-2 lead and then pinning his opponent with 1:39 left in the second period.

Dan Mitchell scored a take down with 30 left in the heavy weight match to protect his lead and win 8-4 pushing the final tally to 47-12.

"They had to give us two weights but we really feel our two wrestlers (Hank and Schock) would have done well anyway," Coach Don Koenig said after the meet. "We wrestled pretty well. It's important to win that first one."

Wakefield Opens With 59-54 Loss

The Wakefield Trojans suffered more than one loss Thursday night as they opened up their basketball season, losing to Pender 59-54.

In addition to losing the game, Wakefield lost two starters when Scott Hallstrom and Barry Jones collided early in the second quarter. Hallstrom received 12 stitches and both players suffered minor concussions forcing them out of the game.

The Trojans opened up an early 16-2 lead and held on to lead 18-8 after the first quarter. With Hallstrom and Jones out, Pender surged and pulled within four at half, 26-22.

Pender carried the momentum into the third period and outscored Wakefield 19-11 for a 41-37 lead. Led by Von Portwood off the bench, the Trojans pulled within three points late in the game but could close the gap no further.

Laurel Turnovers Hurt In 55-53 Loss

Although the Laurel Bears saw a seven point lead diminish, and fell to Norfolk Catholic 55-53 Friday night, Coach Joel Parks said that he saw a lot of good things.

"I'm still enthusiastic and optimistic. I've got a good bunch of kids to work with and if anyone can put it together, they can," Parks said. "We play probably as tough a schedule as anyone. We play conference favorites all season, so we'll have to get used to playing tough games. I saw a lot of good things."

Laurel led during the whole game and at one time took a seven point lead. But, turnovers and played an important role and with two minutes remaining in the game, Norfolk Catholic pulled within one point. The Bears had an opportunity to increase the lead at the free throw line but missed a one-and-one situation and Catholic took the lead.

With time becoming a factor, the Bears were forced to foul and Tim Belitz hit a free throw for a two-point margin. His second free throw rolled out but time expired before the Bears could move down court, and the Knights won 55-50.

Laurel committed 25 turnovers and Parks termed this carelessness as the determining factor. "I was pleased with the defense," Parks pointed out. "We didn't turn the ball over 25 times. Our shot selection sometimes was not the best."

Steve Anderson led the Bears in scoring with 21 points. Don Dalton and Ron Gadenken both finished in double figures with 10 points each. Leading scorers for Norfolk Catholic were Tim Brungardt with 17 and Tim Belitz with 15.

Portwood was the game's leading scorer with 18 points. Dauri cleared the boards with 11 rebounds and Tom Preston contributed to the team with nine assists.

The Wakefield reserves lost 38-28 to Pender in an earlier game. The junior Trojans were led by Dean Miller with 12 points.

Randy's RECAP

According to Randy Hascall

The five high schools will play about 67 boys basketball games, not including eight tournaments that are scheduled in girls basketball. 55 games will be played amongst the area schools. Once again this does not include seven tournaments that are scheduled.

The three schools with wrestling programs have 21 meets scheduled and 16 tournaments. Then throw in Wayne State's schedule and you've got a heap of sports. The men play about 28 games while the women play 22 with three tournaments. Add wrestling to that with 13 duals and 3 tournaments.

THE WAYNE HERALD will be announcing an "All Area" team for football and volleyball within the next week. The area coaches and The Wayne Herald sports department will select top area players from Allen, Laurel, Wakefield, Wayne and Winside for this "All Area" squad.

All members of the "All Area" teams will receive certificates designed by The Wayne Herald. These certificates of accomplishment will be presented at a later date. By selecting "All Area" teams, The Wayne Herald hopes to recognize athletes for their achievement.

I hope to continue this procedure for future "All Area" squads in other sports. Sometime in late February, I hope to announce "All Area" teams for wrestling and boys and girls basketball.

Because of the number of quality athletes, players will be selected on their abilities and performances regardless of positions played in other words, more than one player may be selected at any one position in football. There is a possibility that two quarterbacks or four tackles will be chosen for the team, for example.

The selections will be announced in The Wayne Herald.

TRYING TO GET SOMEWHAT organized for the winter season, I really ran into a tangle attempting to arrange eight tournaments that are scheduled in girls basketball. 55 games will be played amongst the area schools. Once again this does not include seven tournaments that are scheduled.

Here's where I'm going to run into problems. The schedules for the three sports overlap so much that it really gets confusing. On certain days, different teams will be competing in all three sports at the same time. Decisions will have to be made as to which athletic events will be covered first hand.

Boys basketball will be the main attraction on most Fridays so the Wayne Herald will emphasize coverage of these games on Fridays. Boys games on Thursday or Tuesday are less likely to be covered because of girls basketball and wrestling on Saturdays, who knows which sport will be covered?

Anyway, it's going to be a hectic schedule but we'll try as usual, to give as equal coverage as possible to each school and each sport. Some of the teams may not receive much early coverage because of schedule arrangements but these teams will receive more in the later parts of the season. And vice versa.

The Winside High girls team has only three basketball games scheduled before Christmas and two of them are on the road. Therefore, the team will receive more coverage when the new year has arrived.

ONCE AGAIN I'm asking assistance from the area coaches to report results to me after games and meets. Because of press time on Wednesdays and Saturdays, I will need information from Tuesday night athletic events on Wednesday mornings. After Friday night games, I will be in my office at the Wayne Herald and hope to receive information at this time.

With cooperation from the area coaches such as that given during the fall season, sports coverage for the winter should move smoothly. Any assistance is always appreciated.

PARENTS OF WAYNE High basketball players chartered a bus to the Wayne-Blair game Friday night. Although it was a project successful only because of the dedication of many parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sorenson were responsible for organizing the trip.

Fighting adverse weather conditions, the crew of 40 plus traveled to Blair to cheer on the Blue Devils. I was fortunate enough to ride on the bus and had a really good time, although it was a long trip.

The outcome of the game didn't come out the way the Wayne fans had hoped but it was a good, scrappy overtime game and they weren't disappointed. The parents hope to make this an annual affair and they're off to a good start.

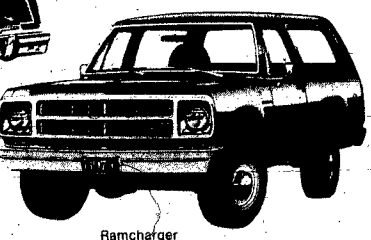

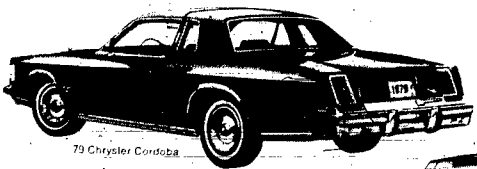

When we returned from the game, I had a difficult time finding my car under a huge pile of snow. But that's life. It was worth it.

AT THE GAME was Harvey Watson of KTCB. He drove down in the nasty weather and set up to broadcast the game. At half time, Harvey invited me over to discuss the game on the air. It was quite a switch for me since I'm not a vocal person and am used to expressing myself on a typewriter.

Record Even Now Trojans Dump Morningside

BY MARK LARSON
After a disappointing loss to Pender, the Wakefield Trojans came back with a decisive win over Morningside Christian 70-49 in a non-conference game Friday night.

Wakefield, with a man-to-man pressure defense, kept the Eagles from scoring until three minutes remained in the first quarter. But the Trojans were also finding it hard to score as they couldn't hit the basket. The only scoring Wakefield could get was inside as Doug Starzl, a 6-1 senior, put in six points early in the first quarter to put Wakefield on top 12-6.

In the second quarter, Wakefield started loosening up and slowly pulled away from the cold shooting Morningside team. Long shots by Dean Miller and Doug Starzl and inside scoring kept the Trojans in command.

Morningside could not find the range and made mistakes under the tough Wakefield defense. The first half was all Wakefield as the Eagles managed only 11 points in the second quarter.

Doug Starzl led the scoring in the first half with 13 points to post Wakefield to a 30-17 lead at half time.

In the second half, Scott Hallstrom, the leading scorer for Wakefield, started to find his range as he hit the first three baskets. Hallstrom played hurt after he was injured in the Pender game Thursday night. Head coach Joe Coble felt that Hallstrom played well considering that he was injured.

In the third quarter, Hallstrom and Bryan Fannon traded scoring as Fannon connected on three baskets to give the Eagles hope of catching the Trojans. Wakefield defense again proved to be too much for the Eagles holding them to 11 points in the third quarter. The Trojans were dominating the game and the third quarter ended with Wakefield on top 46-28.

In the fourth quarter, Wakefield kept its same pace and moved inside against the smaller Eagles. Scott Hallstrom connected on three long shots and Doug Starzl was hitting the boards and scoring. Starzl led the Trojans in rebounding with nine.

Morningside went to a half court press and a man to man defense with 5 minutes left in the game but the Trojans controlled the ball and were fast breaking against the press.

With two minutes left in the game, both coaches put in their reserves. Wakefield went into a stall and ran the clock out with the Trojans on top 70-49.

Wakefield hit 54 percent from the field making 29 out of 52 shots. High scorer for Wakefield was Scott Hallstrom with 22 points followed by Doug Starzl with 17 points.

Morningside was led by Bryan Fannon with 19 points. Coble said it was good to come back with a victory after the loss to Pender the night before. "We played without Barry Jones who injured himself in the Pender game," said Coble. "It was a rough game and it was nice to play an easy game."

"Out next few games will be the taster as we get into conference games with Osmond, Hartington, and Wausa," said Coble.

"Osmond lost a lot of seniors," he said. "But they are going to be a tough team to beat."

Devils Fall 75-70 In Overtime

The Wayne Blue Devils ran their style of play Friday night but came up short in a barn-burner at Blair as the bears scored nine points in overtime to top Wayne 75-70.

The two teams played nip and tuck ball throughout most of the game. The Blue Devils cracked Blair's zone defense with outside shots in a balanced attack during the first half.

Blair took an 18-14 lead after the first quarter in a fast paced game. Wayne shut off the Blair attack in the second half as they double teamed junior Mark Otto under the hoop. The 6-2 Otto had never played a varsity game before because of a back injury he sustained as a freshman. But, he seemed to be the key to Blair's offense.

The Blue Devils outshot the Bears in the second quarter and quickly jumped in front. Sepamore Perry Nelson was a big factor as he hit six free throws in six attempts to boost the Wayne lead. The Blue Devils went into the locker room at half-time leading 35-29 as Tom Ginn hit a basket at the buzzer.

Blair came out in the third quarter and reorganized its style of play, gradually cutting the Wayne lead down, and eventually taking a 33-52 lead. When the fourth quarter began the crowd knew it would witness a hard fought finish. Blair got into foul trouble and with five minutes remaining, John Jaross, their six foot senior, fouled out. Their lead jumped back and forth and with 3:55 remaining and the Blue Devils leading 58-57, Blair's big pivot man fouled out.

Perry Nelson went to the free throw line and pumped in two charity shots to give Wayne a 60-58 lead. Blair quickly responded with two field goals and jumped on to 62-60.

Brad Emry swished a 15 foot jump shot with 1:21 left to tie the game again. The Wayne defense shut Blair off and took possession of the ball. With 1:05 remaining, Jeff Zeiss drove the lane and dropped in a layup for a 64-62 lead.

Two Blair free throws knotted the game up again. Ginn worked inside for the Blue Devils and added another basket to take a 66-64 lead with 35 seconds left. Blair's Joe Peterson hit a short basket with 16 seconds left and drew a foul, giving him an opportunity for the three point play. The free throw missed its mark and the Blue Devils had 15 seconds to win the game.

Ginn drove in toward the basket and nearly drew a foul as he attempted to shoot. The referee called a jump ball as Ginn was tied up in the lane with two seconds left. Blair controlled the jump and time expired in regulation, with the game tied 66-66.

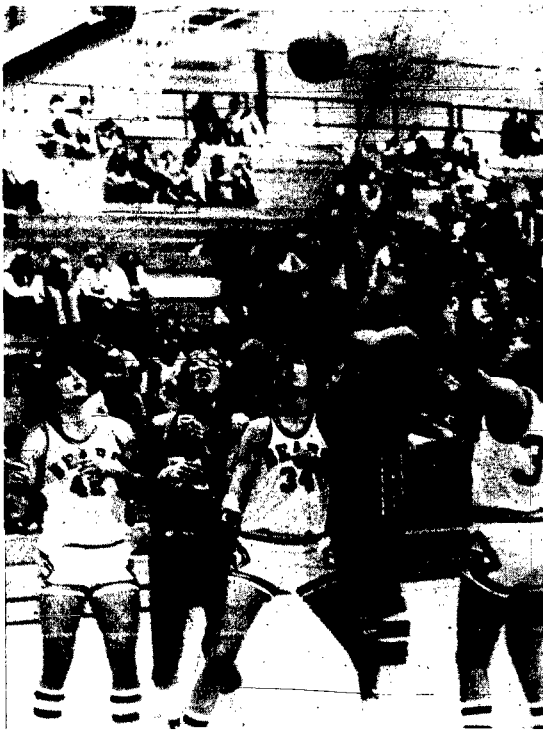

The Bears came out smoking in the overtime period and used two three long jumps shots to post a 72-66 lead. The Blue Devils rallied with two baskets to get within three at 73-70.

Then with 20 seconds left, disaster struck as Wayne threw the ball away and Blair's Terry Lantz hit a layup for a 75-70 finish.

"We played well and hard," Coach Bill Sharpe said following the game. "Blair is a good ball club. I was pleased with our performance but disappointed we got beat."

Tom Ginn was the leading scorer with 24 points.

Wayne Girls Win Double Overtime Thriller

Wayne girls coach art Frye found it difficult to his Blue Devils to run on the clock Thursday night. LaVonna Sharpe hit a three-point play in double overtime as Wayne pulled past Madison 57-52.

Paced by Peg Inkelman, the Blue Devils jumped out in front and held the lead through three periods of play. During the third period, the clock quit working and both teams were forced to play without knowing how much time remained.

Wayne took a 12-11 lead after one quarter and went into the locker room at halftime ahead 24-21. The Blue Devils added to their lead in the third period, outscoring Madison 15-12 for a 39-33 lead.

Madison came out shooting in the fourth quarter and outshot the Blue Devils 15-9 to knot the game at 48 all. Wayne worked the ball, trying to get the last shot but not knowing how much time was left and inadvertently let the clock run out forcing an overtime.

The two teams played evenly in overtime and the game remained tied 52-52 at the end of the period saving the game into double overtime.

LaVonna Sharpe scored a three point play and Lesa Barclay scored the only points in the second overtime as the defense held Madison scoreless for an opening season win, 57-52.

Led by Peg Inkelman's 18 points, the Blue Devils outshot the hosts at the free throw line.

Boys basketball will be the main attraction on most Fridays so the Wayne Herald will emphasize coverage of these games on Fridays. Boys games on Thursday or Tuesday are less likely to be covered because of girls basketball and wrestling. On Saturdays, who knows which sport will be covered?
Anyway, it's going to be a hectic schedule but we'll try as usual, to give as equal coverage as possible to each school and each sport. Some of the teams may not receive much early coverage because of schedule arrangements but these teams will receive more in the later parts of the season. And vice versa.

PARENTS OF WAYNE High basketball players chartered a bus to the Wayne Blair game Friday night. Although it was a project successful only because of the dedication of many parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sorenson were responsible for organizing the trip.
Fighting adverse weather conditions, the crew of 40 plus traveled to Blair to cheer on the Blue Devils. I was fortunate enough to ride on the bus and had a really good time, although it was a long trip.
The outcome of the game didn't come out the way the Wayne fans had hoped but it was a good, scrappy overtime game and they weren't disappointed. The parents hope to make this an annual affair and they're off to a good start.
When we returned from the game, I had a difficult time finding my car under a huge pile of snow. But that's life. It was worth it.

AT THE GAME was Harvey Watson of KTCH. He drove down in the nasty weather and set up to broadcast the game. At half time, Harvey invited me over to discuss the game on the air. It was quite a switch for me, since I'm not a vocal person and am used to expressing myself on a typewriter.
ALBION NEWS CLIP: Named to the Boone County All County football team as coach of the year was Dennis Paul. Paul, coach of the Cedar Rapids Tigers was chosen from the four team area after coaching his team to a 7-2 record. This record broke a string of 21 straight losses for Cedar Rapids.
Paul, who has been at Cedar Rapids for three years, is a Wayne State graduate. Five members of his team were selected to the All County team, also.

IT DOESN'T SEEM THAT long ago, that grade school children were out in their yards barfing baseballs and playing touch football. At the same time, older students were competing in football, volleyball and cross country.
But, here it is December and the winter sports schedule is rolling right along. The winter calendar will be cluttered with games and meets scheduled on six days of the week from now until mid-February.
In the area, there will be approximately 250 athletic events this winter including area high schools and Wayne State College.

Trojans Dump Morningside

BY MARK LARSON

After a disappointing loss to Pender, the Wakefield Trojans came back with a decisive win over Morningside Christian 76-49 in a non-conference game Friday night.

Wakefield, with a man-to-man pressure defense, kept the Eagles from scoring until three minutes remained in the first quarter. But the Trojans were also finding it hard to score as they couldn't hit the basket. The only scoring Wakefield could get was inside as Doug Starzl, a 6-1 senior, put in six points early in the first quarter to put Wakefield on top 12-6.

In the second quarter, Wakefield started loosening up and slowly outlasted away from the cold shooting Morningside team. Long shots by Dean Miller and Doug Starzl and inside scoring kept the Trojans in command.

Morningside could not find the range and made mistakes under the tough Wakefield defense. The first half was all Wakefield as the Eagles managed only 11 points in the second quarter.

Doug Starzl led the scoring in the first half with 13 points to post Wakefield to a 30-17 lead at half time.

In the second half, Scott Hallstrom, the leading scorer for Wakefield, started to find his range as he hit the first three baskets. Hallstrom played hurt, after he was injured in the Pender game Thursday night. Head coach Joe Collier felt that Hallstrom played well considering that he was injured.

In the third quarter, Hallstrom and Bryan Fannon traded scoring as Fannon connected on three baskets to give the Eagles hope of catching the Trojans.

Wakefield defense again proved to be too much for the Eagles holding them to 11 points in the third quarter. The Trojans were dominating the game and the third quarter ended with Wakefield on top 46-28.

In the fourth quarter, Wakefield kept its same pace and moved inside against the smaller Eagles. Scott Hallstrom connected on three long shots and Doug Starzl was hitting the boards and scoring. Starzl led the Trojans in rebounding with nine.

Morningside went to a half court press and a man-to-man defense with 5 minutes left in the game but the Trojans controlled the ball and were fast breaking against the press.

With two minutes left in the game, both coaches put in their reserves. Wakefield went into a stall and ran the clock out with the Trojans on top 70-49.

Devils Fall 75-70 In Overtime

The Wayne Blue Devils ran their style of play Friday night but came up short in a bar-burner at Blair as the bears scored nine points in overtime to top Wayne 75-70.

The two teams played nip and tuck ball throughout most of the game. The Blue Devils cracked Blair's zone defense with outside shots in a balanced attack during the first half.

Blair took an 18-14 lead after the first quarter in a fast paced game. Wayne shut off the Blair attack in the second half as they double teamed junior Mark Ote under the hoop. The 6-2 Ote had never played a varsity game before because of a back injury.

he sustained as a freshman. But, he seemed to be the key to Blair's offense.

The Blue Devils outshot the Bears in the second quarter and quickly jumped in front. Sophomore Perry Nelson was a big factor as he hit six free throws in six attempts to boost the Wayne lead. The Blue Devils went into the lockerroom at half time leading 35-29 as Tom Ginn hit a basket at the buzzer.

Blair came out in the third quarter and reorganized its style of play, gradually cutting the Wayne lead down, and eventually taking a 53-57 lead.

When the fourth quarter began the crowd knew it would witness a hard-fought finish. Blair got into foul trouble and with five minutes remaining, John Jarosz, their six foot senior, fouled out.

The lead jumped back and forth and with 3:55 remaining and the Blue Devils leading 58-57, Blair's big pivot man fouled out.

Perry Nelson went to the free throw line and pumped in two charity shots to give Wayne a 60-58 lead. Blair quickly responded with two field goals and jumped on to 62-60.

Brad Emry swished a 15 foot jump shot with 1:21 left to tie the game again. The Wayne defense shut Blair off and took possession of the ball. With 1:05 remaining, Jeff Zeiss drove the lane and dropped in a layup for a 64-62 lead.

Two Blair free throws knocked the game up again. Ginn worked inside for the Blue Devils and added another basket to take a 66-62 lead with 35 seconds left.

Blair's Joe Peterson hit a short basket with 16 seconds left and drew a foul, giving him an opportunity for the three point play. The free throw missed its mark and the Blue Devils had 15 seconds to win the game.

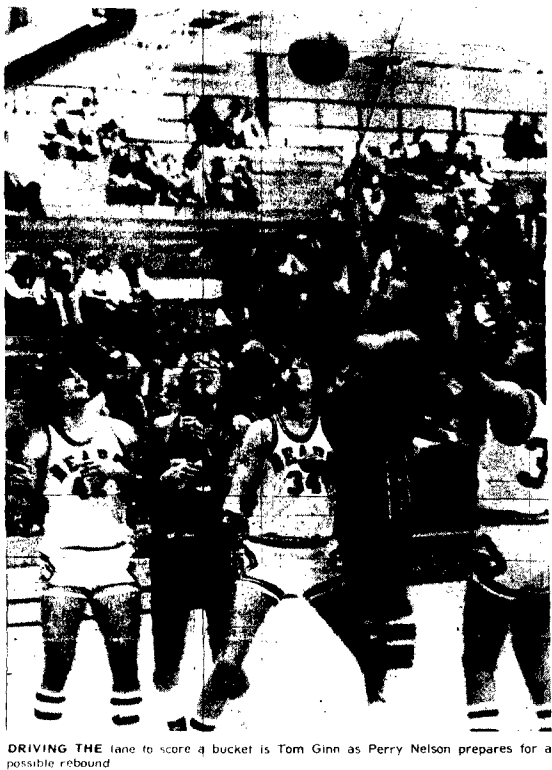

Ginn drove in toward the basket and nearly drew a foul as he attempted to shoot. The referee called a jump ball as Ginn was tied up in the lane with two seconds left. Blair controlled the jump and time expired in regulation, with the game tied 66-66.

The Bears came out smoking in the overtime period and used two three long jump shots to post a 72-66 lead. The Blue Devils rallied with two baskets to get within three at 73-70.

Then with two seconds left, disaster struck as Wayne threw the ball away and Blair's Terry Lantz hit a layup for a 75-70 finish.

"We played well and hard," Coach Bill Sharpe said following the game. "Blair is a good ball club. I was pleased with our performance, but disappointed we got beat." he added.

Tom Ginn was the leading scorer with 24 points.

DRIVING THE lane to score a bucket is Tom Ginn as Perry Nelson prepares for a possible rebound.

Wayne Girls Win Double Overtime Thriller

Wayne girls coach, Curt Frye, found it difficult for his Blue Devils to run out the clock Thursday night but LaVonnia Sharpe hit a three point play and Lesa Barclay scored a hoop in double overtime as Wayne pulled past Madison 57-52.

Paced by Peg Pinkelman, the Blue Devils jumped out in front and held the lead through three periods of play. During the third period, the clock quit working and both teams were forced to play without knowing how much time remained.

Wayne took a 32-11 lead after one quarter and went into the lockerroom at halftime ahead 24-21. The Blue Devils added to their lead in the third period, outscoring Madison 15-12 for a 39-33 tally.

Madison came out shooting in the final quarter and outshot the Blue Devils 15-9 to knot the game at 48 all. Wayne worked the ball, trying to get the last shot but not knowing how much time was left and inadvertently let the clock run out forcing an overtime.

The two teams played evenly in overtime and the game remained tied 52-52 at the end of the period sending the game into double-overtime.

LaVonnia Sharpe scored a three point play and Lesa Barclay scored a two pointer for Wayne's only points in the second overtime as the defense held Madison scoreless for an opening season win, 57-52.

Led by Peg Pinkelman's 18 points, the Blue Devils outshot the hosts at the free throw line, and four players scored in double figures. LaVonnia Sharpe led the team with 10 offensive and 15 defensive rebounds.

"Overall, we had too many turnovers," said Coach Curt Frye following the victory. "I was pleased with individual play."

Winside Wins Area Showdown Over Allen

BY MARK LARSON
Wayne Stater Sports Editor

The Winside Wildcats lead by Paul Roberts' 24 points, defeated the Allen Eagles 58-52 in a non-conference battle, opening the season for both teams, Thursday.

Even though Allen was giving up at least two inches to every man, they gave the Wildcats all they could handle.

Both teams came out with zone defenses and played control ball, looking for the easy shot. Allen found it hard to get in under the basket but with fine shooting from the outside by Richard Stewart and Lee Hansen kept the first quarter score close.

Winside with 6-4 Chuck Peter and 6-3 Bob Hawkins was controlling the boards and getting the layup shots but with both defenses playing tough, the first quarter ended 10-8 with Winside on top.

The second quarter saw both teams sharing the lead back and forth. With Paul Roberts finding the basket early in the second quarter and the big men getting inside, Winside tried to pull away with the lead.

But, the Eagles kept it close with outside shooting and getting offensive rebounds to score. Allen connected on free throws and with minutes left in the first half had a four point lead 26-22.

Winside's Roberts hit a shot from the outside and put the Wildcats within two points. The Eagles trying to keep the half time lead, turned the ball over and Winside had a chance to tie the ball game up. With three seconds left on the clock, Roberts put up a 15 footer and with no more time on the clock, the ball went through the hoop and the score at half was 26-26.

The second half saw both teams at one time have a lead of six points.

Late in the third quarter, the Eagles started to pull away from the Wildcats and appeared to be taking charge.

The Wildcats were having trouble scoring as they hit a cold spell. They kept within reach, however, when Paul Roberts hit three baskets in a row.

A steal by Roberts and baskets by Bruce Smith and Chuck Peter put Winside on top 42-36, at the end of the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, Winside started like they finished the third quarter and built up a 10 point lead, 50-40, with about four

Allen, trying to catch Winside, went to a man-to-man defense and a full court press. But, scoring by Roberts and Peter kept Allen from making its move and with two minutes left in the game Winside was on top 56-46.

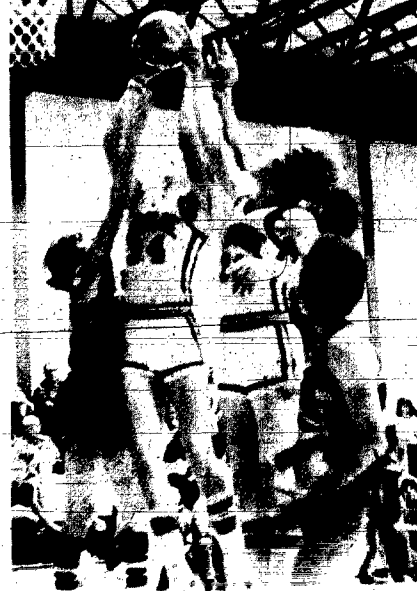

Allen never gave up though and baskets by Golch and Steve Stewart kept them close. Two charging fouls by the Eagles turned the ball over to Winside and with seconds left in the game they stalled with the ball and the game ended with Winside winning 58-52.

Paul Roberts-lead all scorers with 24 points for Winside followed by Chuck Peter with 18. Bruce Smith and Bob Hawkins had 8 points. Winside shot 51 percent from the field to Allen's 35 percent.

Leading scorer for Allen was Bart Golch with 18 followed by Bob Stewart with 11.

"It was a good game to win," said Winside Coach Dennis Gorneman. "We executed very well on offense. One of the big factors in the game was our height. In the fourth quarter we were getting inside and scoring," he added.

ALLEN AND WINSIDE took offensive drives to the hoop in the opening season matchup Thursday night. Winside won the opener 58-52 in a tough struggle.

YAMS OR SWEET POTATOES?
Yams make a colorful and nutritious addition to fall and holiday meals, but did you know that the yams you buy in the store are really sweet potatoes?

There are no true yams grown for food in America.

Louisiana farmers, however, call their sweet potatoes "yams" to distinguish them from Jersey sweet potatoes.

Louisiana yams belong to a group of sweet potatoes known as the "moist-fleshed" group. Jersey sweet potatoes are dry, firm and less sweet than those called yams. And they remain dry and firm, even when cooked, while the "yams" cook up moist and soft and are sweet tasting.

Louisiana yams and sweet potatoes also differ in skin color and vitamin A content. The moist-fleshed yams have a coppery colored skin and their flesh is a bright orange, indicating high vitamin A content.

"Dry-fleshed" Jersey sweet potatoes have yellowish to pale brown skins, and their flesh varies from pale yellow to light orange — a clue that the vitamin A content is lower.

When buying fresh sweet potatoes, choose those that are smooth and plump. Also, buy those that are similar in size, shape and color to ensure uniform cooking and attractive ness.

Regardless of your choice, however, sweet potatoes are a good addition to fall meals. One medium sweet potato, boiled and peeled, provides more than twice the RDA of vitamin A for an adult. 36 percent of the vitamin C and a tenth of the

A lot more progress than many people realize has been made in energy conservation in the last few years.

THEN Back in 1973, truck and bus manufacturers, and users were interested in saving energy. By having fuel conserving devices installed on new large trucks and buses, they saved 49 million gallons.

NOW Over the past five years, the trucking industry's voluntary efforts have managed to save over 1.7 billion gallons of fuel, thanks to a variety of new conservation devices and methods. Thus, the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association points out, also saves money and so helps fight inflation.

Poet to Present Public Reading

Nebraska poet Charles Waterman will present a free public reading at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Dec. 11, in the KWSC television studios in the Fine Arts Building at Wayne State College.

Waterman, a native of McCook, Neb., is one of a number of poets to appear at WSC through the "Plains Writer's Circuit" arrangement initiated by WSC which includes UNL, Kearney State, Concordia, Hastings, Nebraska Wesleyan, Morningside and Briar Cliff.

Waterman is currently writer in residence for the Southwestern Minnesota Arts and Humanities Council in Marshall, MN, and has authored several works, including "An Anthology of Contemporary Poetry," "A Geography of Poets" and "A Coloring Book of Poetry for Adults." He has also authored the books

"Eleven Poems," "The Place," "Talking Animals" and "First Snow."

Jim Brummels, WSC poet in residence, said Waterman's writings reflect his Midwestern background, using narrative poems to tell stories and using Midwest plains type characters in his work.

His subject matter is definitely something that all Midwesterners would easily be able to identify with, Brummels said.

Waterman will also present readings to writing classes at WSC Tuesday, Dec. 12 and will present several readings at Macy and Fremont-Bergan High Schools. Arrangements for other free group readings can be made by phoning Jim Brummels at WSC at 375-2200.

Dress For Less

You don't have to lose your shirt paying for your family's clothing. If you know how to shop smartly and stop some things that could drive up the cost of clothes.

ARE YOU CAREFUL about the cost of your clothes?

To get your money's worth from a garment, check the threads. They should be running straight. The sleeves should be set in correctly with the cross threads running straight and the lengthwise threads running down, not at angles.

The stitches should be firm and the buttonholes set in precisely in regard to the grain of the garment. Patterned clothes should be matched where pieces join in the back center seam, side seam, armholes, where the edge of the collar rolls over and meets the coat or dress in the back, where the jacket buttons in front, and at the pocket openings.

A number of concerned congressmen are also trying to help keep you from paying more than you should for clothes. They are opposing a recently issued set of new regulations for the cotton industry that will cost that industry almost $3 billion for new equipment. These costs could drive up clothing prices because of the estimated 17-24 cents increase in the cost of producing cotton fabric.

Card of Thanks

WE WANT TO THANK our children and their families, relatives and friends for making our 50th wedding anniversary such a wonderful event. Thanks to all for the flowers, gifts and cards, and for all of the nice things you did for us. Special thanks to all those who braved the weather to make this a special day for us. God bless you all. Max and Esther Brudigan. n4

I WAS NOT going to let the Wayne Herald say my thanks to you but you were so generous with cards, gifts, flowers and visits I realized I had to help. You may all be surprised with a letter about July 4th recalling my birthday of Nov. 27. That date will be next year. Don't worry — your name is on the list. In the meantime, I will be reading the many cards, enjoying your gifts and eating from the many boxes of candy. Maude Auker. n4

ENERGY SAVING IDEAS

Here are two simple tests to check your weatherstripping needs. Tape a sheet of plastic film over a window on a windy day. If the sheet billows, you need weatherstripping. For doors, try pulling a strip of wrapping paper through the space where the doors open and close or slide. If you can pull the paper through, it means you can use weatherstripping.

To avoid throwing money away on inefficient heating you can invest in an efficient computer-controlled heat pump. The heat pump extracts heat from the outside air and pumps it into your home in winter while removing heat from your home in summer. An electric heat pump is one of the most energy efficient systems available, usually giving out two or three units of heat for each unit of electricity.

Don't close off more than one or two rooms when trying to cut energy use. Closing off too many will cause the furnace to quickly cycle on and off repeatedly.
