Christmas just won't be the same for this Wayne family

By LaVon Anderson

Christmas won't be the same this year for the Lebsock family.

David Lebsock won't be home to spend the day with his wife and children.

While other families gather in homes across the country to exchange presents and feast on turkey, David will unwrap his gifts from his bed at Immanuel Lutheran Hospital in Omaha.

ON SATURDAY, Dec. 4, while Nebraska football fans late in the night cheered the Cornhuskers' victory in Hawaii — tragedy struck the Lebsock household.

David, who had fallen asleep in his chair, woke up, went into the bathroom, fainted and fell.

"It was a freak accident," says his brother-in-law, Darrell Heier of Wayne.

The family isn't sure if David fell against the bathtub or sink, causing a burst fracture of his fifth vertebrae and immediate paralysis.

David was taken by the rescue unit to Providence Medical Center in Wayne. The next day, Sunday, he was transferred to Omaha.

ONLY LAST February David, 39, had moved his family to Wayne from Fort Collins, Colo., where he had made his home for 15 years.

Economic conditions in Colorado had reduced David's work as an electrician to one or two days a week.

Here, as a maintenance engineer and electrician at the Milford G. Waldbaum Co., David had a steady job and steady income.

His wife Carolyn, sister of Betty Heier of Wayne, began working in March for Kent and Lois Hall at Wayne Greenhouse, and the children were rapidly adjusting to their new school and friends.

Son Dennis, 17, is a senior at Wayne High and a member of the football and baseball teams. Sara, a 15-year-old sophomore, plays volleyball and softball, and daughter Betsy, 11, is a sixth grader at Wayne Middle School.

THIS WEEK, David underwent surgery in Omaha to fuse the broken vertebrae.

Doctors, who used a bone from David's hip to make the repairs, termed the operation "successful."

Although David regained movement in his left arm and leg shortly after his fall, his right arm and leg remained partially paralyzed.

Since the surgery this week, Heier said David has regained slightly more movement on his right side.

David is able to use his biceps, the muscle on the front of the arm, according to Heier, however the tricep, the muscle on the back of the upper arm, remains unresponsive.

HIS PROGNOSIS is for a long, slow recovery on the right side," says family friend Rowan Wiltse, adding that doctors are unsure if David will regain total movement.

In the meantime, Carolyn remains in Omaha with her husband, who is undergoing physical therapy daily, while David, Sara and Betsy are looked after by family and friends in Wayne.

"David is a working man," says his brother-in-law, "and who knows when he'll get back to work."

TO HELP the family with day-to-day expenses while David is recuperating, Heiers and Wiltse have started a Lebsock fund at both the State National and First National banks in Wayne.

"Money donated to the fund will be used primarily to help pay the rent, utilities and other necessities of the home during the winter months," said Wiltse.

Persons who would like to contribute to the fund may do so at either bank, he added.

Heier, who teaches business education at Wayne-Carrroll Schools, said a separate fund has been established at the school to help with the family's Christmas expenses.

While the majority of David's hospital expenses are covered by insurance, Heier said his income is not because the accident, which happened at home, does not come under workmens compensation laws.

"IT'S AN unbelievable thing that has happened," said Heier, adding that David's friends and co-workers have been equally unbelieving since the accident occurred.

Heier said many of David's friends at the Waldbaum Co. have brought food to the house and have even made needed repairs on the family car.

"A couple of guys from the company came to the house last night with an envelope for Carolyn," said Heier. "They said they'd come back and give it to her personally when she's home from Omaha."

DAVID AND Carolyn, who are both natives of Omaha, resided in Scriber for a short time following their marriage before moving to Wayne, where David had attended Wayne State College.

David worked at Kuhn's Department Store until moving to Fort Collins 15 years ago.

His parents, LeRoy and Marie Lebsock, are residents of Omaha.

Carolyn and her sister Betty are the daughters of S. E. and June Jones, also of Omaha.

WAYNE FUNERAL Director Rowan Wiltse receives his bachelor's degree diploma from Wayne State College President Ed Elliott in the Willow Bowl Thursday.

Diploma day

Willow Bowl wish comes true for Wiltse

By Randy Hascall

There was no audience at Thursday's graduation program in the Willow Bowl. There was no advance publicity. In fact, there were only two persons and a couple of photographers on hand.

It was the smallest graduation ceremony in Wayne State College history.

At the same location that his wife and daughter received their college degrees, Rowan Wiltse was awarded his diploma by WSC President Ed Elliott Thursday afternoon.

WILTSE, A MEMBER of the December 1982 graduating class, insisted that he receive his diploma in the Willow Bowl. Commencement exercises for the graduating class were scheduled Sunday in Rice Auditorium.

"I wouldn't have accepted my diploma on Sunday. I just would have taken a handshake," Wiltse said Friday after receiving his bachelor's degree in industrial technical education. The Wayne native enrolled at Wayne State during the post session term of 1979.

Rowan, who attended Wayne State from 1951-55, said he should have gotten his college degree years ago. "I wanted to prove I could go back and do it," he said.

Wiltse, who will be 49 in January, said he wanted to continue the tradition of a Willow Bowl graduation. His wife Twila and daughter Carol both received their degrees there.

ROWAN SWUNG by Elliott's office on Tuesday, stuck his head in the doorway of the president's office and kidding said, "See you in the Willow Bowl Sunday." It was a routine he had established over the past couple of years with former president Lyle Seymour.

On Tuesday afternoon, Elliott's secretary, Lucille Peterson, called Wiltse and informed him to meet the president in the Willow Bowl at 2 p.m. Thursday to receive his diploma. Rowan showed up in his cap and gown and so did Elliott.

"This just shows that Dr. Elliott is really supportive of the college and students. If a request is not unreasonable, he'll probably go along with it," Wiltse said. "Now, I can say that I got my diploma in the Willow Bowl."

The mortician said his dream of graduating in the Willow Bowl started as a personal goal and snowballed.

TO GET HIS degree, Wiltse took between 9 and 12 hours of classes each semester during the past several years. He set up his classes on mornings to limit interference with his work at the funeral home.

He said he received excellent cooperation from his instructors. "When I was busy at the funeral home, my teachers did everything they could to let me get caught

2nd-semester surcharge tacks $1 onto WSC tuition

Spring-semester Wayne State College students will need an extra dollar or two to meet the surcharge on the tuition bill.

Starting with the opening of second-semester classes on Monday, Jan. 10, WSC students will pay an extra dollar per credit hour.

The $1 surcharge on WSC's $23 per-credit-hour in-state tuition fee was approved system-wide earlier this month by the Nebraska State Colleges board.

NON-RESIDENT students will be paying the extra-dollar surcharge on top of the $40 per credit hour out-of-state tuition fee, according to Dr. Ed Elliott, college president.

That means, for instance, that a full-time resident WSC student (full-time minimum — 12 credit hours) will have to come up with an extra dozen dollars for the spring-semester tuition bill of $268.

And, the non-resident full-time student will have to pinch the pocketbook for another dozen dollars to handle the $492 tuition bill.

The across-the-board surcharge, which is subject to Unicameral approval, puts the credit-hour cost at midpoint on the ladder to an already approved $2 September 1983 increase, according to Elliott.

STATE COLLEGES board members approved the $2 September hike earlier this year.

The earlier tuition increase, which also is subject to approval by the state Legislature, sets resident per-credit-hour fee at $25 and the non-resident bill at $42, according to Elliott.

Essentially, this month's approval of the January surcharge allows WSC, and the three other state colleges, to pick up half the expected tuition increase eight months ahead of schedule.

According to Elliott, the $1 surcharge will be collected from WSC students for the second semester and the three special summer sessions.

THE SURCHARGE schedule will cross the fiscal year boundary on June 30, carrying into the next budgeting year as far as September's financial books.

At that time, the $1 surcharge will be absorbed by the $2 tuition increase, unless the Unicameral rejects either or both during the January session, according to Elliott.

Elliott explained that, basically, the college operates under two types of funds — general funds and cash funds.

General funds represent tax revenues and cash funds are generated by such things as tuition and fees.

"We operate under ceilings," explained Elliott. "Anything generated in cash funds over the ceiling is turned over to the state."

ELLIOTT SAID that unless the cash funds ceiling is raised by technical amendment in the Legislature, money generated by the surcharge would flow to the state, particularly under current budget reallocations.

"The (state colleges) board did not want to levy an additional charge if the money went to state coffers and not the colleges," Elliott said.

So, the board approved the surcharge contingent on legislative approval for campus use, added Elliott.

WSC will be collecting the additional $1 per credit hour with the spring semester. And, if the Unicameral rejects the surcharge, the money will have to be refunded, Elliott said.

"FOR THE TECHNICAL processes of the budget, it's a one-time surcharge," Elliott said.

The college president said that recent increases in the state income tax to cover budgeting shortfalls was a "front-end adjustment" that gave the surcharge better acceptability.

Elliott said that the board and college officials could see that making ends meet was not something the "students should have to face alone."

According to Elliott, the feeling was that state taxpayers should help. "So, when the income tax rate got bumped the surcharge acceptability was better," he explained.

"If it hadn't been for that front-end adjustment, we'd have been hard pressed to seek the surcharge approval," he added.

Chamber still seeking exec

The long search for an executive director for the Wayne Chamber of Commerce continues.

Chamber search committee members have rejected all applications for the post, according to Bob Enz, chamber president. Enz said the search for the executive will continue until the right person is found.

The search committee will continue to look for an individual who is clearly head-and-shoulders above the average applicant, Enz said.

MEANWHILE, Rozan Pedersen of Wayne will continue to serve as interim chamber executive director, according to Enz.

"Rozan is doing one heckuva job," Enz said, noting there is "no great urgency" to fill the position as long as Pedersen is willing to handle the work.

Pedersen assumed the duties of interim director last summer.

Santa kidnapped

Santa Claus was kidnapped Friday night. But, Wayne Police report the jolly old elf was found safe and unharmed at Wayne High School.

City Street Department workers discovered the larger-than-life statue of Santa Claus from the south side of Wayne High School early Saturday morning.

AT LAST REPORT, Santa Claus was being temporarily stored at the Street Department garage while awaiting a return to his spot at the southeast corner of City Hall.

Police suspect pranksters took the statue sometime around midnight Friday. The pranksters somehow carried the jolly old elf to the schoolhouse, where they hid him so he peered into a classroom window. No arrests were made, but the kidnapping is under investigation.

The last-minute shopper Wayne Christmas delight

It's the week before Christmas and all through the town, the shoppers are stirring to the holiday season. Many toys are still sitting on shelves in fear that the last-minute shopper will not make it home. But, the last-minute shopper flung on his cap and started out shopping for gifts he might wrap. And, the hopes of a Merry Christmas soon came to the toys, with the promise of presents for good girls and boys. With Wayne stores to be open on this Sunday, you see, the merriest of Christmases is surely to be. Why, the last-minute shopper will find even more, hours that run late and specials galore. And, the rushing Wayne shopper may find Santa's tap, a nice place to take a last-minute nap. Merry Christmas to all, shop at home is in sight for last-minute shoppers are a merchant's delight.

Letters to Santa

Dear Santa,

I would like a Stomper pickup, a new baby doll, and Bert and Ernie.

My little brother Casey would like a Tonka truck and some baby toys.

My mom will bake some gingerbread for you and Rudolph. Thank you. Merry Christmas.

Hailey Daehnke, Age 2
Casey Daehnke, Age 1
Wakefield, Neb.

Dear Santa Claus,

My name is Jennifer and I'm 3 1/2 years old. For Christmas I want a Stomper and a pony. I will leave cookies and milk for you and carrots for Rudolph. Your friend, Jennifer Johnson.

Dear Santa Claus,

I have been very, very good this year. I help mommy and daddy with the dinkers and clean my room everyday.

Since I have been such a good little girl I would like to get an Ishkabibble doll, a new set of wheels for my tricycle (my other ones got a hole in them cause I burned too much rubber). I also want a horse named Major and a new pair of tennis shoes.

My friend Pete also wants me to put in a good word for him, cause he wants some new goldfish.

Hugs and kisses,
Trisha Willers, Age 3
Wayne, Neb.

P.S. There will be some cookies and milk for you on your table. Oh, and some carrots for your reindeer too!

Dear Santa,

My name is Dennis Biggerstaff. I would like a GI Joe lunch pail for school. Also, a set of training wheels for my bicycle. My mommy is helping me write this because I can't spell very well.

And a new horse because my mom sold my last one.

Dennis Biggerstaff, Wakefield, Neb.

P.S. I love you Santa!

country boy. . .

Howdy, Santa.
All this country boy wants for Christmas is...
...but a few moments of your time...a few moments during the holiday rush to renew an old request for a few moments at Christmas time.
My only fear is that you, too, don't have the time to give because of all the giftling.

BELIEVE ME, there's nothing wrong with that. You're doing what you think is right.
And, it sure makes for a finsel-tangled Christmas.
But, you see, I don't really need all those pretty little packages under the tree.
Over the years, I've opened more than my share on a country Christmas morn.
Now, before you call be an Old Scrooge, just give me a few moments...hear me out.
If I'll only take a few moments...a few moments of your time. During those few moments, if you can spare them this year, I want you — just you and me — to experience the real gifts of a country boy's Christmas.

DURING THOSE moments, I would take time to smile at the country stars, and feel them smiling back.
I would take the time, precious as it might be, to search for the Christmas Star.
(Santa, a country boy can feel the warmth of that little Star of Bethlehem on a frigid prairie Christmas Eve.)
And, after I found it, I'd smile again...I'd smile the smile of a country boy who knows he can see forever for just a moment.
I'd catch the glimmer of that special star with my eyes twinkling right back.
And, I'd watch its light play across Nebraska's country sky like strips of finsel on a heavenly Christmas tree.

(SANTA, A country boy doesn't really need a tree when Christmas lights up the black night of a winter sky.)
I'd take another moment to let my wind-chilled face soak up the warmth of country Christmas spirit sent on that starbeam.

I wouldn't tarry, but I'd wait just long enough to let the tingle of that star's warmth put a glow in my country heart and a song in my country soul.
Then, I'd pause to listen to the silence of the country night until the spirit spilled out of my soul, singing the joys of country Christmas carols.
(Santa, a country boy doesn't need a songbook to sing the spirit of Christmas when the timeless notes are scored on the prairie wind.)

YES, I'D TAKE the time to let my country soul go caroling with a joy that would fill the silent night.
And, as my joyous noel heralded the coming of Christmas, I'd take my song to others, especially to the country children.
With them, for a few moments, I would sing. But, then, I would listen...listen to the innocent joy of country babes barely away from the manger.
I would take time to hear their tiny country voices singing freely of their feelings...musical moments that would fill storybooks.
And, I would better understand the meaning of Christmas by lending my ear to those voices.

(SANTA, a country boy doesn't need a storybook to understand the meaning of Christmas when he hears the voices of children vibrating with innocent excitement.)

WITH LESS TIME than it takes to slip down a country chimney, I'd still take a few moments to talk with my country elders, particularly those still wide-eyed about the wonder of Christmas past.
I'd sit with them in the spirit of Christmas as they warmed my mind with the wisdom of the wisemen.
And, I'd wonder with them as we shared the Christmas spirit, watching the twinkle growing in their eyes.
For a few precious moments, I'd revel in their ageless country spirit...a spirit marked in their memories and made meaningful by their willingness to share well-worn country Christmas stockings.
(SANTA, a country boy needs to have no Christmas stockings when he can have his mind filled with the care and blessings of wisdom and experience.)

BEFORE MY TIME ran out, I'd want to touch the heart of a country friend, so that we could feel the ribbons of love around us.
I would take the time to feel the spirit of Christmas as it wrapped us securely together in country strength and country beauty, lest the package be torn through misunderstanding.
The moments would add beautiful dimensions to our lives that would not be torn in a hasty effort to admire only the wrapper.
And, as we felt the love that lives at Christmas, we could learn together to keep that special package in our lives the year around.
Safely, we could examine it and even shake it sometimes without doing serious damage to the contents.
(SANTA, you see, a country boy doesn't need a surprise package under the tree when love and friendship live in the relationships-of-a-lifetime.)

WITH ONLY A FEW moments, I'd go Christmas shopping through the country general store of life, searching for that special goodness that has made growing up country the best thing that could have happened to me.
I'd spend less time comparing prices paid in my life and more time appreciating the quality and quantity of the country goodness I've received.
And, I'd help others do their country Christmas shopping so that we would better accept the blessings of spirit than the curse of personal costs.
I'd work harder to avoid the pitfalls of last-minute purchases, and spend more moments shopping for the richness of sharing the country Christmas spirit throughout the year.

(SANTA, A country boy doesn't need to be rattled by the Christmas rush, when he's had a lifetime scheduled with the spirit of love and the happiness of hope.)
In just a moment or two, I'd be sure to preserve the country

Christmas spirit by doing more and buying less.
I'd want those moments spent on deeds done in the spirit of giving rather than on time spent buying the tokens of good intentions.
And, with those deeds, I'd say the words that sing in my country soul so that they might sing in another's.

LONG BEFORE the time ran out, I'd find plenty of opportunity to smile at the Christmas Star I see in the eyes of other country boys and country girls, so that they might smile back.
That just might catch on with a tingling warmth that helps unwrap the true meaning of Christmas...Christmas lost in a pile of pretty wrapping-paper and tangled finsel.
(SANTA, a country boy doesn't need pretty wrapping paper or tangled finsel for Christmas when all he has to do is unwrap a smile, even a grin, to get the spirit glowing again.)
That's a lot to do in just a few moments, Santa. But, I've done more in less time with worse results.

SO, ALL I'M asking for this year is a few moments...a few moments to do the things that country boys like me must do to keep the spirit of Christmas alive in our country homes and country hearts.
I'm sure there are all kinds of demands on your time for things, but my thing is to ask of you your time.
I promise to be good and to share it with country brothers and country sisters I meet throughout the year.
And, I won't ask for a country minute more next year, honest. Christmas Eve is coming soon to the country, so please take a moment...a few moments, if you have the time...to think it over.

I'LL UNDERSTAND if it doesn't work out.
I'll just have to write my country boy letter to Santa Claus earlier next year, that's all.
It's time to say Merry Country Christmas.
And, Happy Country New Year.
Catch you next year...

letters

To the editor:
In response to the letter about the steps at the Post Office. There is someone hired to take care of steps. The Post Office personnel is not responsible.
The maintenance man is hired by a contractor, (not the Post Office Dept.) to clean only the interior of the Post Office.
This is to be done in so many hours per week, and the pay is not enormous, quite the opposite.
The clerks and mail carriers are all assigned to specific jobs and routes and I'm sure if their jobs were not done on time, our writer would be first to complain.
As for hiring welfare recipients, where were they or where are they? You don't see them rushing to the Post Office (only for their checks) for a job when it snows or any other place that needs scoopers — that's hard work!
The only ones you see are children, who really can't handle the job and school, or boys from Region IV or our retired men trying to supplement their Social Security checks to help with the rising cost of utilities.
I'm sure the people at the Post Office have been unhappy with the job on sidewalks and will do something about it in the future.
Maybe one of these days they will be swamped by people wanting the job! Ha!

Tough times

Times are tough.
That's what you hear everywhere.
Times are so tough that even the optimists are beginning to have second thoughts.
That's what you read everywhere.
Times are so tough that the pessimists are having third thoughts.
That's what you see everywhere.
Times are tough. Times are hard.
That's what you hear everywhere.
It's tough all over. It's not getting any better.
That's what you read everywhere.
We'll never make it. It can't be done.
If you think it's bad now, just wait until next year.
That's what you see everywhere.
Things are going to get worse. What's the use.
That's what we are starting to feel...everywhere...all the time...
It's a pessimistic plague upon our houses, in our stores, on the street, all over town and across the country.
It's a cynical cancer chewing our guts, lancing our skin, irritating our mind, debilitating our spirit.
It's no longer just a media hype, it's becoming a go-to-hell gospel that's turning hopes into hopelessness and our dreams into nightmares.
We've lost insight to see ourselves and we've become quite content with the shortsighted version of how others see us.
In fact, we rarely miss an opportunity to tell others someone else's version of how bad off we are.
We've even developed an eagerness to turn a concern into a catastrophe and a dilemma into a disaster.
We've come to relish problems over solutions and revel in yesterdays rather than tomorrows.
We've come to pick pain over pleasure, reaction over action, predicament over potential, victim over vision.
And, we are no longer a country of people with perspicacity.
You are what you think. And, we've become thoughtless at a time when it's tough to be unthinking.
Perhaps it is, then, that times are not that tough...that, instead, we are not tough enough for the times.
Now that's a tough one.

Guess again

There is no more room for domestic spending cuts, we are told by many concerned legislators of both political parties.
All the waste, fraud and undeserving beneficiaries have been removed from programs such as federal student aid, they say. Guess again.
Secretary of Education Terrel Bell reported recently that some $20,000 Americans owe the rest of us over $1 billion in defaulted student loans.
Nearly 50,000 of these individuals are now on federal payrolls in government jobs, prompting the secretary to begin a long overdue program of withholding portions of these scofflaws' wages.
Of course, some federal workers aren't the only deadbeats when it comes to student loans.
A team of federal investigators reported recently that about 50,000 medical professionals, including an estimated 6,000 doctors, were among the delinquents.
In one case, a medical school graduate had no problems making the payments on his $24,000 car, nonetheless failed to meet his student loan obligations for the past four years.

Highway bill shifts tax burden to truckers

Last week the House of Representatives passed the Surface Transportation Act which included a provision for a 5 cent increase in the gasoline tax and new highway user fees on heavy trucks. These new revenues will be used to finance a highway construction and repair program.
I supported the bill in the House for I have traveled the highways of Nebraska and several other states. I believe they represent one of our country's greatest assets. They carry truckers, tourists, people generally, and a complete variety of products and agricultural commodities.
The interstate highway system is especially important to Nebraska's economy. Of course, it makes it possible to get our agricultural products to market. These highways are a major component of our agricultural system.

WE HAVE A major investment in our highway system and we must protect that investment. The repairs and construction that this bill would finance are necessary. The program is a good program and the bill is designed to get the job done.
Unfortunately, to support the program, I had to support a bill that has some flaws. When I cast my vote in favor of the bill, I made very clear my objections to several of its provisions. I also indicated to my colleagues that, if these flaws are not corrected in the Senate or in conference, I may be forced to oppose the final bill.

I object to elimination of the 5 percent minimum allocation provision, which is unfair to rural states and unfair to those states which have completed their interstate construction.
That is an annual unsuccessful effort in the House for those large low-population states, but the Senate (where low population states have full representation) retains the one half per cent formula.
I AM CONCERNED that the bill has shifted a larger share of the financing burden onto heavy truckers too quickly in a time of great economic difficulties. In Nebraska, even many profitable intrastate trucking firms would not be able to pay the $2,000 to $3,000 per truck which this bill would impose in user fees.

They would have no choice but to pass the tax along to the end user — agriculture. The stockman, farmer or meat-packer would end up bearing the costs.
The administration now admits that it had inadequate contact with representatives of the trucking industry. Although there were meetings with some individual truckers as the bill was formulated, it is now apparent that the bill creates disadvantages for intrastate truck lines.
I suspect, however, the opponents of the bill have underestimated the benefits of elimination of the blockade effect of the existing weight and width restrictions in Arkansas, Missouri and Illinois, especially for interstate lines moving cargo through areas west of the blockade states.
ALSO, THE implementation of the user fee on truckers is prospective, with no part of the fee increase due before January of 1984 in the House version. The Senate bill provides a schedule phasing in the tax in January, 1984; July, 1984; and July, 1985.
I have objected to the 4R formula factors which have a long-term effect on our state highway budgets. Even shifts which appear small will have a significant net effect in future years.

Also, I am displeased that this bill provides only for a 4 cent exemption for gasoline, rather than a full exemption as we have in present law. The young alcohol fuel industry is just beginning to become a viable and self-supporting enterprise.
It is essential that the Congress not act counterproductively on an industry that has the potential to consume large quantities of agriculture products.
OBVIOUSLY, the usual way for a member to respond to serious objections to a bill is to try to amend it. However, many of the objectionable provisions were contained in a portion of the bill which was closed to amendment in the House. I voted against the rule that restricted amendments, but unfortunately a majority of my colleagues voted for it on a 197 to 194 vote.
Because this program is so important, I decided to vote in favor of the bill at this stage in the legislative process. I fully anticipate that changes will be made before a final bill emerges from the conference.
If most of these and other changes are not made, I stated in the "Congressional Record" that I would probably vote against the bill on final passage. I think that many of my colleagues feel the same way.

Love is.... The greatest gift of all

By LaVon Anderson

"The needs of the aged are the same as those of all people." Those words are mounted on the wall over Roberta Carman's desk at Wayne Care Centre.

"It's true," says Carman, activities director at the centre. "The needs of the aged are the same as those of all people — especially at Christmastime."

UNFORTUNATELY, for many elderly persons, Christmas can bring increased loneliness and depression.

"I don't really see that at Wayne Care Centre," says Carman. "In fact, we have so much going on during the Christmas season that I think some of the residents are glad to see me go home on Friday so they can rest on Saturday."

Carman says that while about 25 residents have no family to speak of, they are not forgotten at Christmastime.

"We don't have a problem with residents being forgotten. I sometimes think they're worn out. But I'd rather if be that way," Carman smiles.

FOR YEARS, Carman has acted as a go-between for the residents and for those who would like to assure them a merrier Christmas.

Each year, the Wayne Federated Woman's Club receives a list from Carman of all the nearly 80 residents at the Care Centre, along with gift ideas for items the residents can use or would especially like.

The names are distributed by the Woman's Club to about 70 other clubs throughout Wayne County, including home extension clubs, social clubs, church women's organizations, and veterans organizations and auxiliaries.

Each club then purchases or makes a gift for the resident whose name they received.

"Everyone gets a gift to open when Santa delivers them on Dec. 22," says Carman. "The residents get a real kick out of that. They pull Santa's beard and shake his hand."

For residents with families who live nearby, Carman said they traditionally open their gifts on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day.

"ACTUALLY, the townspeople are great for remembering the residents of the centre at Christmastime," says Carman.

"We try to keep the residents occupied and busy during the season. There are lots of programs, music, films and parties.

"My calendar is always full," she adds.

In addition to the many carolers who stroll the halls during the holiday season, Carman said the Wayne Senior Citizens Center's rhythm band also visits and plays for the residents.

Carman said many clubs, church organizations and veterans organizations also pay a special visit during the Christmas season to play bingo, present programs, or just spend time with the residents.

"They (the residents) love to play bingo," smiles Carman.

CARMAN SAID while gifts are always welcomed by the care centre residents, she would like to see more people visit the residents during the holiday season and throughout the year.

"More than anything, they just love a visit from anyone — to be read to or to have someone to write a letter for them.

"To let them know that somebody cares."

ANNA MEIER, a resident of Wayne Care Centre since 1978, agrees with Carman.

"We love to have people come in and visit," said Anna. "We love that even more than a gift."

"The trouble with gifts," adds Anna, "is that there is only so much room to put everything."

Anna also agrees there are lots of activities going on at the centre during the Christmas season.

"I think the Care Centre does a lot for the residents here at Christmastime," she smiles.

Laurel nursing home counselor offers holiday gift giving suggestions

"Needs of nursing home residents are usually the same as any other segment of society," says nursing home counselor Shirley Kraemer of Laurel.

"The motivator of the giver toward nursing home residents is the love and appreciation of the residents and in the fact that the giver is fulfilling a true need," Kraemer adds.

"Remember, needs and wants don't stop once a person reaches 65."

KRAEMER OFFERS several gift possibilities according to the individual's interests, capabilities and limitations. Kraemer suggests first visiting the nursing home to check the needs of the residents.

In the clothes line, Kraemer says brightly, colored clothing and accessories are preferred.

Clothing items include warm night clothes, cotton socks and underwear, sweaters, leg warmers, flannel shirts, or new shoes.

For the women, Kraemer suggests clothing items with front openings that are easier for the elderly to operate.

For the men, she says the bright Go-Big-Red suspenders are not only useful but brighten up a drab outfit.

PERSONAL grooming gift ideas include personalized bath towels, a soft-bristled brush (for tender heads), a comb, toothbrush, shavers and manicure sets.

Kraemer said it is important that each resident have a lighted mirror on the night stand so they can utilize a mirror that is low enough.

Desks or floor lamps also are useful for nursing home residents who enjoy reading or doing fancy work.

IN THE WORLD of music, Kraemer suggests records and tapes.

"Bible tapes can easily be obtained," says Kraemer, "and earphones are added for the auditory handicapped."

Kraemer said distant family and friends are encouraged to tape their holiday greetings and send the tape to the residents.

FAMILY members can help brighten up the room by giving colorful bedspreads, towels and chair afghans.

Pictures, large clocks, bulletin boards and a shell for knick-knacks also are appreciated.

Kraemer said many residents also appreciate the simpler gifts of pencils, stamps and stationery, or costume jewelry and cosmetics for the ladies.

Plants also add to a room, and Kraemer said the Aloe plant and other easy to maintain plants are musts for every room in a nursing home.

She suggests purchasing flower seeds for spring planting. "This will give the resident hope and a future to look toward," she adds.

Kraemer also suggests a dictionary for the puzzle-solver resident.

Other game players, she said, enjoy the large checker set, dominoes, cards and holder.

"Don't forget the old, but good, ideas for gifts such as music boxes, scrapbooks, dream books, paints and easel," reminds Kraemer.

FOR RESIDENTS who are physically handicapped, Kraemer suggests a beverage holder, pouch, or a carrier for a cane or crutches.

The electric reclining chair is for the resident that has a difficult time getting in and out of a chair.

And for the palsied person, a lidded cup with an opening for straws would be helpful.

Kraemer says the reader who is handicapped with one hand would appreciate an inexpensive metal bookmark to hold the pages of the book flat but still permit the pages to be turned with the other hand.

For the aphasic resident, Kraemer says a second-hand typewriter and a magnetic alphabet board with a pointer are necessary tools for communication.

"AS WE HEAD for the nursing home with our arms full of gifts of love, we share the need for family, friends, the church and society in general to be more aware of the needs of nursing home residents," says Kraemer.

"And we can only become aware by visiting the homes frequently throughout the year."

"The residents may not remember our names or our titles, or what we gave to them in gifts, but they will remember our gifts of touch, love and caring."

"And that is what Christmas is all about."

briefly speaking

Open house for 75th year

R. B. Michels of Laurel will be honored for his 75th birthday at an open house reception on Sunday, Jan. 2. All friends and relatives are invited to attend the event from 2:30 to 4 p.m. at the Laurel Senior Citizens Center. Hosts will be Dr. and Mrs. Dale Michels.

Mother to Mother meeting

A Mother to Mother meeting will be held at 7:30 tonight (Monday) at 118 South Maple St., Wayne. Persons with questions or who would like additional information are asked to call Marla McCue, 375-1985.

Club plans family dinner

Pleasant Valley Club members are planning a family dinner on Jan. 19 at 6:30 p.m. at the Black Knight in Wayne. Fourteen members attended a meeting Wednesday in the home of Marjorie Bennett for the annual Christmas party and gift exchange.

Members responded to roll call by describing a Christmas scene they have enjoyed.

Frances Nichols was in charge of entertainment. Pony races were played and prizes went to Mrs. Dale Thompson, Mrs. Erwin Fleer and Alta Baier.

Carroll man hospitalized

Vernie Schnoor of Carroll was admitted to the Veteran's Hospital in Omaha on Dec. 13. Cards and letters will reach him if addressed to Vernie Schnoor, c/o Veteran's Hospital, Omaha, Neb., 68105.

Candy, cookies exchanged

Hillside Club members answered roll call this month with a candy and cookie exchange. Guests were Bernadine Backstrom and Darlene Gathje.

Hostess for the Dec. 7 meeting was Dorothy Grone. Irene Temme won a pencil game, and pitch prizes went to the guests.

Next meeting, on Jan. 4, will be a family party in the home of Elaine Vahlkamp.

Baier in UN-L program

Jeff Baier of Wayne is among 127 students at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln who are members of the University Health Center's Health Aide Program.

The program trains "students to care for other students" in their living units.

The Health Aides fulfill functions such as providing first aid services, assisting with minor physical and emotional concerns, and enhancing the promotion of health through educational efforts.

Jones-Anderson wed in Omaha

Chapel of Offutt Air Force Base in Omaha was the setting for the 2 o'clock wedding ceremony Dec. 11 uniting in marriage Shoshanna Charisse Jones of Bellevue and Dennis Anderson of Laurel.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Jones of Bellevue, is a 1978 graduate of Bellevue West High School and a 1982 graduate of Wayne State College.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Anderson of Laurel.

A graduate of Laurel-Concord High School, he attends the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and works as an athletic trainer at the university.

THE COUPLE'S double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Harris of Offutt Air Force Base.

Guests, registered by Mona Johnson of Laurel and Renae Dunklau of Carroll, were ushered into the church by Christopher Jones and Terry Jones, both of Bellevue, Clark Maxon of Laurel, and Randy Dunklau of Wayne.

Flower girl and ring bearer were Tina Luft and Jeremy Luft, both of Wayne.

Janice Coffey of Columbus sang "The Lord's Prayer."

THE BRIDE appeared at her father's side in an ivory chapel-length gown of Quiana and polyester fashioned with pearls and sequins at the bodice.

She carried navy, baby blue and cream roses and carnations.

The bride's honor attendant was Debbie Mateha of Omaha, and bridesmaids were Destini Derice Jones of Bellevue and Joni Ryan of Omaha.

They wore light blue Quiana dresses in floor length styled with draped backs and ties in front.

BEST MAN was Blake Maxon, and groomsmen were Dwight Anderson and David Anderson, all of Wayne.

They were attired in navy blue tuxedos and cream shirts with wing tipped collars.

The bride's mother chose a lavender polyester dress, and the bridegroom's mother selected a light blue dress of chiffon crepe.

A RECEPTION for 200 guests was held at the Chapel of Offutt Air Force Base following the ceremony. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White of Randolph and the Rev. and Mrs. Philip Jenkins of Bellevue.

Gifts were arranged by Mindy Luft of Wayne and Janice Coffey of Columbus.

Lynn Brummels of Norfolk and Pat White of West Point cut and served the cake.

Waitresses were Tami Mitchell of Walthill and Tami Barth of Stanton.

THE NEWLYWEDS are at home at 1503 Knox St., Apt. 1A, Lincoln, Neb., 68521.

news and notes

mary temme extension agent-home economics

With the holiday season here, more candles are used throughout the home to add a festive atmosphere.

Accidents can happen and when that involves spilled candle wax, quick action is necessary.

Candle wax dripped on a carpet or rug will hold onto dirt and make a spot soil more quickly.

There are basically four ways to remove the wax. Each has its drawbacks and a certain degree of effectiveness.

SCRAPING THE wax off the carpet with a rounded spoon or the dull side of a dinner knife will remove most of the wax.

This method works best with dense loop pile carpets. Too much scraping can result in unsightly fuzzing of carpet fibers.

Ice cubes can be applied to the wax to make it brittle. The wax can then be pulled out of the carpet. If the wax is deeply embedded, this can also cause fuzzing and is less effective.

THE FASTEST method is to apply heat to melt the wax and at the same time, absorb the wax out of the rug pile. To do this, place a white paper or cloth towel over the wax and touch the spot with a warm iron. Use a permanent press setting and don't set the iron down for a long period of time. Some carpet fibers may melt along with the wax.

To remove the last traces of wax a dry cleaning fluid may be used. Test the fluid on an inconspicuous area to see if it will damage dyes or fibers. Then apply small amounts with a paper towel and absorb the dissolved wax with a clean paper towel.

It is important not to soak the carpet with fluid in order to prevent permanent damage.

THE FOUR methods described will work as well on tablecloths, clothing and other fabrics. The important thing is to remove wax quickly and thoroughly.

If you have dripped candle wax on wood furniture, the methods of removal are similar. Extra precautions must be made not to damage the wood's finish.

Begin by scraping away most of the wax with your fingernail, a stiff card or a smooth stick. You may be able to wash off the remainder with a cloth wrung out of mild warm soapsuds.

If this fails, use just a drop of cleaning fluid on a soft cloth. Be sure to polish the area carefully after you remove the wax.

USING THESE cleaning methods will help get your furnishings through the holidays without permanent damage.

If you have questions about removing permanent stains, there is a Home Economics NebGuide available on stain removal. Contact the Extension Office for a free copy.

policy on weddings

The Wayne Herald welcomes news accounts and photographs of weddings featuring families living in the Wayne area.

We feel there is widespread interest in local and area weddings and are happy to make space available for their publication.

Because our readers are interested in current news, we ask that all weddings and photographs offered for publication be in our office within 30 days after the date of the ceremony. Information submitted with a picture after that deadline will not be carried as a story but will be used as a caption underneath the picture. Wedding pictures submitted after the story appears in the paper must be in our office within three weeks after the ceremony.

Nebraska consumer specialist appearing on Donahue show

Janet Wilson, extension specialist in consumer education at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, will appear on the Phil Donahue Show Monday, Dec. 20 (today).

The program will be aired over KETV Channel 7 in Omaha, an ABC affiliate, from 9 to 10 a.m.

Wilson's Donahue segment will focus on compulsive buying.

She will appear on the show with two admitted compulsive spenders, one reformed compulsive spender, and a psychologist.

THE INVITATION to appear on the show was spurred by a news article released last July by the University of Nebraska

Department of Agricultural Communications.

The article, in which Wilson discussed how impulse buying could be slowed by basic behavior modification techniques, was picked and distributed by United Press International. Newspapers have carried the story "coast to coast," Wilson said.

She added she received a call from Donahue's producer the day after the article appeared in the Chicago Sun-Times.

WILSON'S appearance on the Donahue show was taped Nov. 29 in front of a live audience and broadcast live to the Chicago area.

Late basket lifts Bears to win

Kelly Robson hit a 15-foot jumper at the buzzer to give the Laurel Bears a 44-42 win over Osmond Friday night in Clark Division action at Laurel.

The Bears held a two-point lead at 42-40 when Jerry Kastrop hit one of two free throws with 15 seconds left in the game. A basket by Osmond's Mike Moritz tied the game with :05 remaining. Laurel in-bounded to Robson who dribbled down court and hit the winning basket as time ran out.

"Osmond has been tough over the years and it was a pretty big conference win," Laurel coach Mark Hrabik said. "Mike Jonas and Kelly Robson had real fine games. They both handled the ball well and scored crucial baskets."

BOTH ROBSON and Jonas were heroes for the Bears. Jonas killed Osmond with 21 points and Robson finished with 13. Robson also had six rebounds and three assists. Jerry Kastrop followed with eight points and five rebounds. Paul Lofquist made three assists. The hosts had 18 rebounds and Osmond had 17.

Laurel led throughout most of the game before Osmond staged a fourth quarter rally. The Bears were ahead by as many as 10 points but Osmond came back and actually gained the lead in the final period.

Jonas hit two free throws to give the hosts a one-point lead and Kastrop's free throw made it two before Moritz scored the tying bucket.

"Osmond came on strong in the fourth quarter and we didn't handle the pressure like we wanted to," Hrabik said. "It was a pretty big win. This team keeps surprising me. I think we'll do well in the Wayne State Holiday Tourney."

HRABIK SAID Laurel's 24-17 half-time lead felt "fairly comfortable" but added that he was sure Osmond would apply pressure in the second half and work the ball inside to their big men.

Osmond was led by Jeff Gast with 16

Wakefield's defense leads to division win

Trojans triumph in two overtimes

By Jackie Osten
Wayne State College

Fans of Wakefield basketball got more than they bargained for Friday night as they witnessed a 52-48 Trojan victory over the Hartington high Wildcats in double overtime.

The overtime should have come as no surprise to either team, as both squads gained leads of six points or more only to have them taken away moments later. Wakefield opened the scoring in the first quarter of play before beginning a scoring trade-off with the Wildcats.

The Trojans built up a six point lead in the second quarter but poor ball handling and the resulting turnovers kept the score close and led up to a 20-20 tie at the intermission.

A SCORING drought for Wakefield in the third period made things look easy for the Wildcats, as they took advantage of the slump and put together a 10 point lead and gained momentum. The Trojans were only able to muster two baskets and a pair of free throws during the eight-minute period.

A combination of key baskets from the field and free throws evened out the score in the final quarter. A shot from underneath by 6-1 senior Mike Coble on a pass from junior Jeff Greve tied the score at 43-43 at the end of regulation play.

Tough defense on both ends of the court kept points off of the scoreboard in the first overtime. Senior Mike Carlson came up with several steals early in the overtime, but Wakefield was unable to convert them underneath the basket.

After trading baskets in the opening of the second overtime, the Trojans were finally able to take the lead and break things open on an 18 foot jumper by Coble. He was fouled on the shot and made the front end of a one-and-one to give his team the three-point advantage. A single shot technical foul assessed against Wakefield seconds later for having six players on the court gave the Wildcats an opportunity to pull within two points, 48-50.

A BUCKET by 6-3 junior Wes Grave put the game out of reach, as he scored from underneath after pulling in a rebound off a missed free throw by teammate Mike Clay. Time ran out with the Wildcats in possession of the ball under their own basket, and the score 52-48 in favor of Wakefield.

Clay's miss at the free throw line in the closing seconds did little damage to his scoring performance for the evening. He led his team with 19 points, including five of nine from the charity stripe. Clay was also the team's top rebounder, with a total of 13 rebounds.

He was followed in scoring by Jeff Coble, who dropped in 14 points at the only other Trojan in double figures. Coble also totaled four assists and three steals. Brian Soderberg, a 5-10 sophomore, helped out on the boards for the Trojans with seven rebounds, and came up with four assists and three steals as well.

Team statistics gave an indication to the games out come, with Wakefield pulling in a total of 35 rebounds and Hartington with 27. Turnovers were a problem for both teams, as the Trojans gave up the ball 15 times compared to 20 for the Wildcats.

WAKEFIELD COACH Scott Miller, while pleased with the outcome of the thriller, didn't feel that his team had performed exceptionally well. "We were suffering from a lack of concentration while we were out there on the court. The team played strong physically, but had some trouble adjusting mentally to the game."

Referring to the strong comeback made by his squad in the final minutes, Miller said that the players "had guts to come back" and are definitely a "tough bunch of kids." Early season mistakes still plague the Trojans, but Miller hopes time will correct the errors.

Wakefield's junior varsity team also saw action earlier in the evening, but came out on the short side of the scoreboard, dropping a 46-42 decision to the Hartington reserve squad. Freshman Wade Nicholson tipped scoring for the Trojan reserves with 15 points. Steve Peterson, a 5-11 junior, added 10 points.

Next action for Wakefield will be tonight (Monday) when the Trojans travel to Osmond to take on the Tigers in varsity action.

Same story - Bears' balance wins

One of the few questions that remains unanswered for Laurel basketball coach Dwight Iverson is, "Who will be the leading scorer in his team's next game?"

The Bears have won four consecutive games and have had a different leading scorer in each of those victories.

In Thursday's 61-41 win over Wayne, Laurel was led by Patsy Thompson with 18 points. Kelli Johnson, Kim Sherry and Renee Gadeken were leading scorers in Laurel's first three victories. A fifth player, Wendy Robson, scored 16 points Thursday and could be Laurel's next leading scorer.

THE BEARS dominated the game with their balanced attack. Joining Thompson and Robson in double figures was Gadeken with 14 points. Sherry, who had four fouls in the first half, scored nine points to give the hosts a total of 57 points between four players.

Wayne had two girls in double figures. Karen Longe led the way with 12 points and Deb Prenger scored 10. Tammy Murray was a bucket shy of double figures with eight points.

"We played our best game of the year," Laurel coach Dwight Iverson said. "Our defense played extremely well and we were not again. It was a total team effort."

Iverson said his varsity players hit better than 50 percent of their shots before the reserves entered the game. Laurel finished with 20 baskets in 41 attempts for 48.8 percent. Leading rebounders were Gadeken with nine and Robson with seven.

THE GUARDS hit 16 out of 25 shots for 64 percent. Sherry was 4-for-5, Thompson hit 7-of-10 and Robson was 5-for-10. Iverson said most of those shots were from the 10 to 15 foot range.

For Wayne, Longe scored eight of her 12 points in the fourth quarter.

Laurel won the junior varsity game 35-31. The Bears were led by Cara Dahlquist with 12 points and the Blue Devils were paced by Laura Keating with nine.

Laurel's scoring: Dahlquist 12, Renee Vanderheiden 8, Lori Lindsay 6, Donna Sherry 6, Michelle Joslin 3. Wayne scoring: Keating 9, Roni Johnson 5, Kollette Frevert 4, Sonia Stokan 4, Mary Sieler 4, Fran Gross 2, Karen Longe 2, Amy Jordan 1.

Wayne loses its lead

It was a case of the second half blues as the Wayne Blue Devils saw their lead slip away and watched Wisner-Pilger race to a 63-55 win over its West Husker Conference rival Friday night in Wisner.

Wayne held a slim 15-14 lead after the first quarter and opened up a seven-point half-time edge. The hosts rallied to outscore Wayne 14-8 in the third period and close within one point.

The Gators used their run-and-gun style of play to explode for 27 points in the final period while Wayne scored 18 points. The Blue Devils fell behind by five or six points and tried to press. Wisner picked up some easy baskets against the press.

SHAUN NIEMANN led Wayne's offensive attack by hitting 6 field goals and 9 of 11 free throws for 21 points. He also pulled down 9 rebounds. Don Larsen scored 14 points and grabbed a dozen rebounds. Steve Overin scored eight points. Todd Schwartz scored six and Jeff Jorgensen had four.

"There were some key turnovers and we missed some shots in the third and fourth quarters. Wisner has a good ball club and we played with them well," Wayne coach Bill Sharpe said. "We got into foul trouble and were bothered a little by the flu. I think maybe it was our best effort of the season. We had a chance to win until the final two minutes."

The Blue Devils hit 21 of 61 shots for 34 percent while Wisner made 23 of 52 shots for 44 percent. Wayne held a rebounding advantage of 33 to 29 and turnovers were nearly even with Wayne committing 16 and Wisner 16.

The Gators were paced by Mark Vollmer with 20 points, Les Schroeder with 13 and Greg Rathke with 11.

CARL URWILER led Wayne's junior varsity to a 64-44 victory. Urwiler pumped in 22 points and hauled down 14 rebounds in the game. Other scoring: Leif Olson 8, Layne Marsh 6, Rick Nelson 6, Jim Poehlman 6, Pete Warne 4, Kevin Maly 4, Brad Moore 2, Jeff Sherer 2, Scott Brown 2, Darrin Barber 2.

Wayne's freshmen also won their game but details weren't available at press time.

Next action for Wayne is scheduled in the Wayne State College Holiday Tournament. The Blue Devils will meet Hartington CC at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 28 in the Class B boys division.

Lady Cats enjoy four-game win streak

The Wayne State College Lady Wildcat basketball squad extended its home win streak to four games with a 71-55 win over the Lady Chargers of Briar Cliff Thursday evening in Rice Auditorium.

The college of St. Mary's Flames were Wayne's next opponents. In a game scheduled for Saturday in Rice Auditorium. This game was to be the last competition before the holiday break.

The Lady Cats will participate in the Northern State Tournament in Aberdeen S.D. on Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 28-29.

The next home action will be against Midland Lutheran College on Saturday, Jan. 8.

The Lady Cats, now 7-4, jumped to an early 8-0 lead and increased the margin to 13 after hitting 10 straight points midway through the first period. Wayne then fell into a scoring slump which Briar Cliff was unable to use to its advantage, and the Lady Wildcats took a 36-24 lead at intermission.

Streaks of hot and cold shooting prevailed in the second half for both teams but a combination of defensive steals and resulting baskets put the game on ice for Wayne State with about ten minutes remaining.

Janet Lee held the hot hand for Wayne's scoring, dumping in 18 points, 14 of those coming in the first half. She also grabbed seven rebounds, and five steals.

Freshman Sheri Campbell had a near-perfect night from the floor, hitting seven of eight field goals and one of two from the free throw line for 15. Maggie Alberts and Deb Nygren were other

Cardinals are King

Only three Blue Devils win matches

Only three Wayne wrestlers won their matches as the Blue Devils were dealt a crushing 46-14 defeat by a powerful South Sioux City squad Thursday in the Wayne High gym. A "parents night" crowd attended the match.

"We've been wrestling South Sioux about 10 years and we believe this is by far their best team," Wayne coach Don Koenig said.

Although the Cardinals dominated the match, there were some bright spots for the hosts. Kevin Koenig kept his perfect record intact at 185 pounds by racking up a 14-2 superior decision over Rick Mathiason. It was the first time that Koenig (10-0) went the distance in a match. He has nine pins to his credit.

GERALD MONK gained some revenge in the evening's most exciting match at 167 pounds. He raised his record to 7-2 with a 13-8 win over Brad Patrick. Patrick had decided Monk 13-7 in the Blair Invitational earlier this season.

Chad Janke was the other Blue Devil winner. He pinned Jeff Warren in 1:18 of the 105-pound match. South Sioux won six matches with pins, one by superior decision, one by major decision and one by decision.

Illness and injuries bothered several Wayne wrestlers. Veteran 126-pounder Jon Jacobmeter was out of the lineup because of sickness and 119-pound Rod Lutt wrestled but was bothered by the flu. Jon McCright, a 138-pounder, broke his arm in Tuesday's freshman-sophomore meet and heavyweight Lance Corbit is out with mononucleosis.

Rod Gilliland wrestled a good match at 145 pounds before he was pinned in the final seconds of the second period. Gilliland led 2-0 after the first period and the match was tied 2-2 when the pin occurred.

At 167 pounds, Monk held leads of 6-2 and 7-4 before his opponent tied the score at 8-all with 48 seconds left. Monk scored a reversal and three-point near-fall in the final :30 to post a 13-8 win.

IN RESERVE action, Wayne wrestlers won three of eight matches. Tim Fleming won at 112 pounds. Todd Dorcay won at 132 and Randy Gamble won by pin at 167 pounds.

The Blue Devils will wrestle at Creighton on Thursday, Jan. 6.

Tourney tickets on sale

Tickets for the "Silver Anniversary" edition of the Wayne State College Holiday basketball tournament are on sale now from many local outlets, according to tournament organizers.

The 25th annual tournament is set for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 28-29-30 in Wayne State's Rice Auditorium. Tourney pass prices are $12 for a family pass, which admits the whole family to all three sessions; $5 for a single adult pass, good for all three days; and $3 for student tourney passes.

Passes can be purchased at your local high school or at the First or State National Banks in Wayne. Admission at the door is $3 for adults and $2 for students and under.

This year the tournament has been expanded to include play in five divisions — College Men, boys and girls' Class B teams, and boys and girls' Class C teams. Three-time defending champs the Wayne High boys will attempt to make 11 four straight championship trophies while the Randolph High girls will shoot for three in a row. Wayne will compete in the Class B division and Randolph in Class C.

First round games in each division are as follows:

College men: Mt. Marty (S.D.) versus Augustana (Ill.), 1:30 p.m. on Dec. 29; and Wayne State versus St. Olaf (Mn.), at 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 29.

Class B boys: Wayne versus Hartington Cedar Catholic, 8 p.m. on Dec. 28; South Sioux City versus Ainsworth, at 6 p.m. on Dec. 29.

Class B girls: Hartington Cedar Catholic versus Wayne at 6:30 p.m. on Dec. 28; and Ainsworth versus South Sioux City at 3 p.m. on Dec. 29.

Class C boys: Lyons versus Laurel at 3:30 p.m. on Dec. 28; and Randolph versus Coleridge at 5 p.m. on Dec. 28.

Class C girls: Lyons versus Laurel at 3:30 p.m. on Dec. 28; and Randolph versus Coleridge at 5 p.m. on Dec. 28.

Class C girls: Lyons versus Randolph at 12:30 p.m. on Dec. 28; and Laurel versus Stanton at 2 p.m. on Dec. 28.

Jones' offensive showing leads Wakefield to conference triumph

The sharp shooting of Brenda Jones from the field and the free throw line carried the Wakefield girls to a 40-32 win over Hartington in a Clark Division match Thursday night.

Jones hit nine field goals and was also hot at the line, hitting 8 of 10 free throws for 26 total points. She also grabbed eight rebounds to lead the team in that area.

The Trojans wasted no time taking control of Thursday's game. The hosts dominated the first quarter while jumping way out in front 14-1. The second quarter was much more even but Wakefield led 21-6 at the half.

THE HOSTS couldn't rest easy with their 15-point lead. Hartington put together a rally in the third period to cut the margin to six points at one time. It took a 15 point scoring effort in the final quarter to shut off the attempted comeback.

"We played well in the first half and extremely well in the first quarter," Wakefield coach Mary Schroeder said. "In the third quarter we lost our intensity and they got back within six points."

Schroeder said her team played consistently overall but didn't play well defensively. Jones did a nice job of shooting and rebounding, she said. A total of 42 fouls were called in the game and Wakefield committed 28 turnovers. The Trojans hit 13 of 31 shots for 42 percent.

In addition to Jones' scoring, Kristal Clay scored four points and Cristy Hingst, Renee Wenstrand and Kelly Greve added three each. Greve had six rebounds and Witt and Meyer had four apiece. For Hartington, Pam Dykeman led the scoring with 10 points.

WAKEFIELD WON the junior varsity game 27-25. Roni Starzl scored 10 points and Darla Hartman scored seven.

The Trojans will play at Osmond Monday in a girls-boys double-header.

Allen lacks 1st half punch in loss to Newcastle

Friday was one of those nights that Allen fans would like to forget. Things just didn't go their way and Newcastle made things go its way while chalking up a 68-40 win over the Eagles.

"We just got beat. We didn't have any get-up-and-go in the first half," Allen coach Dave Uldrich said after the game.

Newcastle used a balanced offensive attack and applied a pressure defense until midway through the final quarter to dominate the game.

THROUGHOUT THE first half, Newcastle worked the ball inside effectively while building up leads of 15-4 after one quarter and 33-8 at the half. The Raiders also controlled the boards.

Allen had trouble getting its offense untracked in the first half. The Eagles threw the ball away numerous times, especially against Newcastle's press.

For the first half, Newcastle hit 45 percent from the field and Allen was limited to four baskets in 24 shots for 16.7 percent.

With the game already out of reach, the Eagles improved in the final two quarters. The hosts opened up their offense some and hit 13 of 33 shots for 39.4 percent. The game was out of hand but Allen played hard.

DERWIN ROBERTS scored a three-point play and Kevin Chase put on a defensive exhibition during one stretch of the third quarter. Following a steal, Chase hit a layup and then stole another pass and hit a jumper keeping the Eagles within 25 points.

Newcastle simply outplayed the Eagles and warmed up its outside shooting as the game went on. The winners were led by Billy Dougherty with 22 points and Brian Johnson with 15.

According to Allen's stat book, the Eagles outrebounded their foe 30 to 25. Turnovers made a big difference in the ball game with Allen committing 26 and Newcastle's limiting itself to 11.

For the hosts, Chase scored 14 points and Roberts scored 13. Troy Harder and Roberts each had six rebounds. Jay Jones and Shawn Mahler had five apiece and Chase had four rebounds and two assists.

Newcastle won the junior varsity game 60-36. Rick Boyle had 10 points and 7 rebounds and Mike Hingst scored 10 points.

Next action for Allen (0-4) is planned Tuesday at Homer.

METHODIST WOMEN
The Laurel United Methodist Women met on Wednesday in the church for a 12:30 luncheon. 45 members and Pastor Swarthout were in attendance. The president Mrs. Audrey Hinrichs presided over the meeting. The minutes and treasurer's report were approved.
Mission recognition pins were presented to Mrs. Lynette Joslin and Mrs. Tiny Burns. The amount of $25.00 is sent to missions of the church in their honor.
The Financial Report was given by the treasurer Mrs. Shirley Wickert and the Budget for 1983 was accepted.
"Corsages for Missions" were presented to the outgoing officers, Mrs. Lois White, Mrs. Mary Ann Urwiler and Mrs. Carol Heitman. They were also presented to the officers of the Joy Circle, Mrs. Frances Dickey, Mrs. Winnie Burns, Mrs. Mary Pehrson, Mrs. Kathryn Pehrson, and Mrs. Agnes Burns. Mrs. Thelma Hatig and Lois Preston were given corsages from their prayer partners.

The "Corsage for Missions" idea was developed in 1953 by the officers of the Nebr. Conference of Women Society of Christian Service. The late Mrs. Floy McNabb of Laurel was a Conference Treasurer at that time and helped to initiate the idea. The ribbon corsage means that $1.00 is sent into the mission field in their honor.
Mrs. Mary Her accepted the office of Global Concerns Coordinator in place of Mrs. Genevieve Ross, who has recently left for California to live with her daughter. Mrs. Her gave the Global Concerns report and read from the Prayer Calendar.
A report was given by Mrs. Mary Ann Urwiler on the successful Bazaar held on Dec. 4 and thanked the group for their cooperation and help.
Mrs. Carol Heitman announced the 2 new circle lists were available. They will hold their organizational meeting on Thursday, Jan. 6 at 2:00 p.m. The "Call to Prayer and Self-Denial" lesson will be given.

Mrs. Roberta Lute, Christian Personhood Coordinator reminded the group to be aware of the "Mission Saturation Event" to be held throughout Northeast District from April 16 to 21 and to place it on their calendars.
The inspirational program "Christmas Gifts" was presented by Mrs. Thelma Hatig, Mrs. Mary Pehrson, Mrs. Marge Ward, and Mrs. Susie Wacker. A special Christmas offering was taken.
Hostesses were Mrs. Joan Hartman, Mrs. Lois Preston, Mrs. Turena Smith, Mrs. Judy Meier, and Mrs. Elzada Storman.
It was announced that the United Methodist Women will hold a mini Philadelphia Assembly at the Laurel Church on Feb. 24 from 1 to 4. It will be called the "Phil-Aska Assembly" and is being organized by Mrs. Betty Swarthout of Laurel and Mrs. O'Dean Coleman of Ainsworth.

FARMERETTE'S EXTENSION
The Laurel Farmerette's Extension Club and their husbands met on Tuesday at the Wagon Wheel Steak House for their Christmas dinner.
Later they were guests in the Gary Lute home for cards. Prize winners were Mrs. Lola Belle Ebmeier, Mrs. Betty Swarthout, Mrs. Darlene Burns, Morton Fredricksen and Art Lipp.

Thursday — Volunteers will do hair, 9:00 a.m.
Friday — Movie and Popcorn, 2:00 p.m.
Saturday — Christmas Day Sunday — Immanuel Lutheran Church Services, 1:30 p.m.
The Laurel-Concord secondary students will be presenting their Christmas Concert on Monday

(today) at 7:30 p.m. in the old gym. The junior high chorus will sing several numbers. "He is Born," "Winter Wonderland" and "Christmas Songs of Praise" will be performed by the junior high band. Emerson's "Fantasy" and "With You" will be sung by the swing choir.
The Laurel-Concord High School Band under the direction of Craig Rostad will present five numbers for your enjoyment.
Monica Hanson will accompany the high school chorus as they sing five songs including,

"Midnight Train" and "Heartlight". The chorus is directed by Miss Catherine Harons.
The concert is free of charge and the public is invited to attend.
On Monday, Dec. 20 Mary Buford, an attorney from the Legal Aid Society will be speaking at the Laurel Senior Citizen Center at 2:00 p.m. She will help anyone with legal problems and you may have a confidential session with her.

Several organizations of students from the Laurel-Concord school will be helping to raise money for the Northeast Nebraska United Way, Inc. They will be contacting the Laurel Community and families living in the rural townships 14, 15 and 21. Organizations participating are Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), American Industrial Arts Student Association (AIASA) and the Girl Scouts. They will be doing their collecting between Dec. 20 and January 5.

up." He said he worked ahead in his outside school work so he would be ready for the unexpected if he couldn't be in class.

"Rowan is an example of the perseverance needed to accomplish one's ambitions of beginning a second career later in life," said Elliott. "He also demonstrated his perseverance in wanting to graduate in the Willow Bowl."

Rowan, who studied mortuary science at Worsham College of Mortuary Science in Chicago, says his college degree is for personal growth and helps broaden the field of things he can do as hobbies.

WILTSE'S HOBBIES include wood and metal work, golf, fishing, photography, hunting and refereeing football and volleyball. He recently got back into scouting by accepting the position of district advancement chairman for the Diamond Dick District. Rowan was inducted into the Wayne State College Hall of Fame three years ago.

Although Elliott presented the diploma to Wiltse Thursday, the certificate of achievement again changed hands. The diploma was returned to Elliott for formal presentation at Sunday's commencement.

The Willow Bowl has become a traditional site for spring graduations. The famous WSC outdoor amphitheater once was a completely cemented swimming pool.

According to a 1971 Wayne Stater article located by Wayne State personnel, Dr. U.S. Conn, president from 1910 to 1935, requested that a pool be built for college students in the early 1920s.

Eventually, the outdoor pool was closed and the concrete was torn out. Shortly afterwards, campus maintenance men planted weeping willows and Chinese elms in the bowl

PFC. FRED Barge of Wakefield was named Honorman of Platoon 3085 and received the Leatherneck Award upon his graduation Dec. 3 from Marine Recruit Training at San Diego, Calif. His selection was based on his having displayed the highest degrees of military skill, professional knowledge and leadership potential.

THE VERY sticky and controversial subject of censorship of school library books was brought before the Pierce School board of education last Monday night when a group of parents objected to a book that they said had been recommended by a teacher for book reports. Gale

Anderson, acting as spokesman for the visitors, called the book, "Matarese Circle," "filth," and said it should not be in the school library.

HEATHER Thomas, daughter of Charley and Sharon Thomas of rural Laurel, finished eighth in the three-gaited, juvenile rider class in the American Royal Horse Show held last month in Kansas City. Among the 11 entrants in Heather's class were two world champions and three reserve world champions.

FIRE OF undetermined origin gutted the West Point VFW Club early last Tuesday morning, completely destroying contents of the structure on South Main St. The State Fire Marshall's office is continuing its investigation, but it is believed that the fire started behind the bar area.

THURSTON COUNTY officials and residents will soon learn whether recent improvements made in their jail in the 74-year-old courthouse — improvements which carried a $43,257 price tag — were enough to ensure continued operations of the facility. Kent Griffith, criminal justice field representative from the Nebraska Commission on Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice, evaluated the county jail last Monday.

LYONS SCHOOLS Superintendent Clinton Carr submitted his resignation at the December meeting of the District 20 school board. His resignation ends a nine-year tenure.

THE WEST Point library board last week gave Omaha architects Zenon Berlinger and Associates the go-ahead to prepare building plans for an April 1 bid letting. The action came at the recommendation of the Library Foundation which has now raised nearly $414,000 for construction of a new West Point library. That amount is $36,000 short of the $450,000 goal.

business opportunity

WOULD YOU LIKE TO OWN THE MOST COMPLETE STORE IN TOWN?

Get in touch with us, and become the owner of a Montgomery Ward Sales Agency with a line of over 100,000 items to sell.

We're looking for Sales Agents — ambitious husband/wife teams with an urge to break out on their own. And, we may have just what you're looking for in Wayne.

Our unique Sales Agency Store program offers an exciting opportunity to operate a business of your own with a small investment, and also gives you the opportunity to take advantage of the investment we've already made, as well as over a century of Catalog business experience. Once you become a Sales Agent, you can use Words name, catalogs and credit. Sell our branded merchandise and have access to the same systems, concepts and materials we use to operate our company-owned stores. Best of all, your investment will probably be considerably less than would be required for a regular retail business with similar sales volume.

If you are willing to accept responsibility, in return for a future in your own business, we'd like to talk about your personal qualifications, and give you more details about our plan. Write or phone today.

card of thanks

WE WISH TO EXPRESS our sincere thanks to all our relatives, friends, and neighbors for all their words of sympathy and acts of kindness shown following the sudden death of our beloved brother and uncle, William Lorenzen. Special thanks to Pastor Daniel Monson for his visits and prayers, also special thanks to staff of Providence Medical Center, Dr. Bob Ben-thack and Sister Gertrude. Thanks for food brought to our home and also for food brought to our church for noon luncheon, served by Just Us Gals and ladies of the church. You will all be remembered in our prayers. Mr. Rudolph Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lorenzen and family, Mr. and Mrs. Merle (Donna) Roeder and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester (Anita) Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. August Lorenzen, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Lorenzen d20

A SPECIAL THANK YOU TO our family Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Frähm, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meier and Mrs. Mardell Brudigan for the 54th Anniversary party they had for us Sunday, December 12. Thank you to all who came and for your cards and gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Max Brudigan d20

"IT IS MORE blessed to give" surely has been experienced by the receiving we have appreciated more than we can ever tell you in the past month. The loving care given by Dr.'s Coe and Spellman and the nursing staffs in the Wakefield Hospital, the Marian Health Center and Emerson Rescue Squad was heartwarming. Thank you sincerely for the many phone calls, cards, memorial gifts, flowers, visits, food and assistance in our home. Our appreciation to Rev. Lowell Johnson, to Rev. Don Ball for his inspiring message and to Rev. Larry Woodcock. Also, to the pallbearers, the organist, Mrs. Elmer Peck and members of the Thurston UPW and Nite-N-Gals for serving the lunch. May God richly bless each of you as we have been so blessed. Mrs. Albin Svoboda, Bryan Reuss, Irma Svoboda d20

WE WANT TO EXPRESS our deepest appreciation to all our neighbors, relatives and friends who gave of their time, equipment and energy at the busiest season of the year to complete our grain harvest. Special thanks to Paul Bodiak for his excellent leadership, to the men in the field, truck drivers and at the bin site. Thanks to the women who brought food and helped serve meals. May your hearts be full of joy at this Christmas Season because you gave your very best to others. Mrs. Albin Svoboda, Bryan Reuss d20

I WISH TO THANK The Diamond Center for the lovely pearl and diamond ring I won in their drawing. Wishing you Happy Holidays. Doris Evans d20
