Shortage of license plates could cause plenty of confusion

If you're sitting in a restaurant or basketball gym this winter and a license number that matches yours is announced over the P.A. system, there's a chance it may be someone else's car.
Nebraska is scheduled to get new license plates in January but many counties won't receive their full shipments.
For that reason, some vehicle owners won't be able to get their same numbers on the new plates. Some of the numbers on 1984 plates issued in January and February will match numbers of old plates already in use.

THE ONLY difference will be the color of the plates. The old plates are white with red lettering and the new plates will be white with blue lettering.
Wayne County will receive 2,247 plates in its initial shipment, according to County Treasurer Leon Meyer. The entire order of 4,886 is expected to arrive by April. That leaves the county short 2,639 plates until April.

Meyer said the plates which will arrive in the first shipment will be numbered up to C247. Plates with higher letters will not arrive until later in the year.
There will be enough plates for everyone to get one but some people won't get their favorite numbers back.

If your license begins with A, B or C (up to 247) and is due for renewal in January or February you can get your original number back. If it begins with D or E and it's due for renewal in January or February you can forget about it.

MEYER SAID approximately 280 plates lettered A and B are due for renewal in January and February. Another 260 are due throughout the year.

The county treasurer said that if someone currently has license D24, an effort will be made for that person to get B24 or A 24.

Meyer said the county is expected to get about 65 percent of its truck license plates in January.

Meyer said the Nebraska Legislature is to blame for the late shipment of plates. During the last session of the Unicameral, legislators spent considerable time trying to arrive at a design for the new plates.

After a design finally was selected, a bill was passed. According to Meyer, it takes roughly 9 months for the Correctional Industries to complete all of the plates. Because of the legislative delay, only 3 1/2 to 4 months were allowed.

THE DOUBLING up of numbers could cause confusion with law enforcement of fines for several months.

With two identical numbers on two different license plates, plate design will be the only means of distinguishing the two.

Automobile owners whose plates are numbered under C247 and expire in April or later, also may lose their favorite numbers. Their numbers may be given out in January or February to car owners who can't get their original numbers back.

Two suggestions were issued by the Nebraska Association of County Treasurers to the Motor Vehicle Department but both were rejected.

One option suggested issuing stickers to put on old plates until all the new ones are received. The other option was to extend the time of distribution until all plates are ready.

STATE SENATOR Merle Von Minden (right) of Allen talks to Wayne residents Cap Peterson (left) and Frank Prather Thursday. Von Minden attended the reception that was held Thursday in honor of Gov. Bob Kerrey. Kerrey was unable to fly into Wayne.

Foul weather cited Governor calls off scheduled stop in Wayne

The City of Wayne arranged a nice, warm reception for Nebraska Governor Bob Kerrey Thursday afternoon.
A group of Wayne businessmen was chosen to give Kerrey a tour of the Wayne industrial park. A conference and reception were held at The Black Knight.

There was only one thing missing. The governor.

KERREY WAS scheduled to fly in to the Wayne Municipal Airport at 2 p.m. Thursday but sent word that his pilots would not fly him in from Norfolk because of inclement weather.

Wayne was just one scheduled stop on a three-day 17-community tour of Nebraska. Kerrey spoke to a crowd of 110 at a Norfolk luncheon which was sponsored by the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce and Wayne Industries.

The governor also spoke in South Sioux City Thursday morning at a breakfast meeting of industry representatives from Dakota, Dixon, Cedar and Thurston counties.

WITH THE GOVERNOR sending his regrets, Dave Ley and Phil Kloster spoke at the reception on behalf of Wayne Industries and the City of Wayne.

Ley said Kerrey had intended to inform Wayne on Thursday of a $135,000 grant which can be used to provide a facility for any business that would like to come into Wayne.

Wayne, Fremont and Scribner have all been offered grant money for that purpose, Ley said.

He also said that the Wayne airport project is progressing quickly. Lengthening and widening of the runway will allow larger airplanes to land at the airport, he added.

KLOSTER SAID there is more enthusiasm up and down main street. Things are starting to happen in Wayne, Nebraska," he said. The city administrator said the future scheduled reconstruction of highways 35 and 15 will be a major improvement. Kloster said people are looking at Wayne. Expansion is in the works, he said.

Kloster said plans are being made to make industrial development more possible.

County is short of PIK bushels

There aren't enough bushels of corn to meet all Payment In Kind program entitlements in Wayne County but ASCS Director Ray Butts expects that problem to be alleviated in the near future.

"We didn't get enough bushels yet to satisfy everyone," Butts said.

The ASCS office will send out the rest of the entitlements when grain is available.

BUTTS SAID there is still some corn available in two elevators in the county—at Carroll and Sholes.

Farmers who enrolled in the PIK program can stop at the Wayne County ASCS office and receive their PIK entitlements. Farmers should then contact a grain elevator and make arrangements to pick up their corn. They can sell the corn or take it home.

Farmers have until March 15 to collect their PIK payments.

Quite a few farmers have already come in to collect, Butts said. He added that his office may have loading orders for the rest of the corn as early as this week.

THERE IS a chance the two elevators in Carroll and Sholes also may temporarily run out of corn, Butts said. If so, no entitlements will be issued until a new supply of corn is available.

Butts explained that a certain amount of Commodity Credit Corporation grain is stored and locally that amount is not sufficient to meet PIK payment demands.

When loading orders are received, more corn will come in, he added.

The Kansas City CCC office has been swamped with loading order instructions and entitlement certificates, causing a delay.

Several other area counties also are experiencing trouble in meeting PIK payment demands.

Butts said no figures are yet available on the amount of corn that has been claimed.

eddie's brother

by randy hascall

There are so many special days, weeks and months of national recognition that I don't think one more would hurt.

That's why I'm proposing a National Be Mean to Rodents week.

If everyone in the U.S. would be mean to rodents for one full week maybe all the rodents in this country would migrate to Russia. It's worth a try.

Now, not everyone has rodents to which they can be mean. I realize that fact and as founder of this national week of observance, that's where I come in.

Anyone who would like to lease a mouse for a minimal fee could stop by my garage. I would gladly share.

While reading the following information, keep in mind that I sometimes tend to exaggerate just a teeny bit.

I wouldn't say the mouse population in my garage has gotten out of hand but every time I get out my saw horses to do some wood work, the mice carry them off.

If the government would store all of its surplus cheese in my garage, the dairy industry would benefit greatly.

Having a garage full of mice is about as enjoyable as having a mouth full of choke cherries. That's why I propose being mean to the little critters.

A great philosopher (I can't seem to think of his name at the moment) once said that two of the worst things about owning property are mice and property taxes.

The only difference is that mice can be controlled but property taxes just keep increasing.

There are quite a few ways to control mice.

I've been trying convincing our pet bunny rabbit that he's really a mouse-eating alley cat but he just won't fall for it.

So the next step was buying mouse traps and poison.

My son thinks mouse traps are the greatest thing in the world next to vacuum cleaners.

He used to try to talk me into taking him to the office at night so he could play down there. Now he just wants to catch mice in our garage.

Is it normal for a two year old boy to approach his dad with a gleam in his eye and a smile on his face and say, "Let's go catch mice dad."?

My wife is scared of only two things—mice and worms (in that order).

I was working in our basement the other evening and heard a scream that rattled the basement windows. "Randy, come here! Hurry!" she shrieked.

I ran upstairs anticipating some disaster. There in the garage was Barb, perched safely on top of my unplugged table saw.

Trembling and pointing at a dead mouse on the floor, she asked, "Is that mouse alive?"

Closer investigation revealed that the mouse had indeed kicked the bucket. D Con won again. Rigor mortis had set in.

Barb climbed down and went back in the house like nothing had happened.

One of my early encounters with a member of the rodent family occurred on the farm long ago.

We needed to clean some old grain out of our lower corn crib bin so my dad took my hands and lowered me into the pit.

Before I could scoop and sweep up the loose grain I had to move a large pan of rat poison that sat at the bottom point of the bin, with four sloped walls surrounding it.

I picked up the pan and was caught completely off-guard as a large rat scampered on one sloping wall.

There was no way out of the grain bin so I just stopped back and gave the rat plenty of room to escape.

The sloped walls were slick and the frightened creature slid down the wall back to his starting point—about two feet from my shaking toes.

That procedure continued for about four tries before the rat finally succeeded and reached a hole at the top of the wall.

We seldom saw any rats on the farm but seeing one occasionally was much too often.

Like all normal American youngsters, I grew up watching "Tom and Jerry" cartoons. Most people are familiar with their cat and mouse escapades.

When I was young I always cheered for Jerry and wanted Tom to run into some type of "catastrophe" like a steam iron on the head.

No longer! I am now giving my support to the cat. Go Tom, Go!

ask a lawyer

a public service of the nebraska state bar association

Q: I have heard of the statement "ADC grant." Is ADC actually a grant? What is the legal definition of a grant, and what liabilities are the responsibility of the recipient? Also, if a person were receiving welfare, not ADC, what would happen if they were to inherit a large sum of money? Would they have to repay the welfare payments they received?

A: The term "ADC grant" refers to an ADC payment. The payment that the client receives is in the form of a state warrant which is similar to a check.

The term "grant" is used because aid to dependent children is a Grant-in-Aid Program established in Nebraska by state law in partnership with the Federal Government through the Social Security Act. The Nebraska Revised Statutes do not provide a legal definition of the term "grant."

The Nebraska Public Welfare Manual provides that the client has these responsibilities:

1. Provide complete and accurate information.
2. Report a change in circumstances no later than 10 days following the change. This includes such information as an increase or decrease in monthly income and expenses; an increase or decrease in resources; a change in employment status; in the composition of the household; in living arrangements; in address; or in incapacity or disability status; or, a temporary absence from the home of any unit member.
3. Assign all child support rights to the Nebraska Department of Public Welfare, furnish complete and accurate information regarding all absent parents, and cooperate in establishing paternity.
4. Register for the Work Incentive (WIN) Demonstration Project if determined to be a mandatory registrant.
5. Register with Job Service if available.
6. Actively seek employment if living in a non-WIN Demonstration county.
7. Cooperate with vocational rehabilitation if eligibility is based on incapacity; and
8. Present his/her medical card to providers; inform the medical provider and worker of any other individual, group, or health insurance plan that may be liable for his/her medical expenses; and pay any unauthorized medical expenses.

The ADC client is also sent a monthly report form which must be filled out and returned to the County Division of Public Welfare by the fifth working day of the next month.

If an individual inherits a large sum of money or other property, they are not obligated to repay the welfare payments they have received.

However, such an inheritance would have to be reported and would probably affect the individual's future eligibility for welfare payments.

Fall time is frost time

With the fall foliage just beginning to turn to gold and skeins of water-fowl drifting across the sky, driving in Nebraska is a delightful experience during the sparkling days of autumn, but it also can pose special hazards.

Patches of frost that linger on bridge decks, shaded stretches of highway and under overpasses following an especially chilly night form a slippery coating that can catch the motorist unaware, especially when the remainder of the highway is bare and dry.

The most critical time for such frost accumulation is between 4 a.m. and 8 a.m. The Department of Roads urges all motorists to keep alert and to slow down when approaching these potentially hazardous locations of the highway.

A good slogan to remember is that "Fall time is frost time."

Pages of past praised

To the editor:

After reading the important articles in the latest Wayne Herald I looked over the page of "History in the Past" and found some interesting articles from the year 1898. That was before my time but "The Racquet Store" is one I remembered well later when I was just starting school.

I thought so much of the Sales Ladies there. Here is an ad that caught my eye: "when a lady wants — a fine Shirt Waist, one that is up to date in style and out she goes to Aherns". They had groceries too. I remembered the Baby Stewart Brand.

I was always fascinated by the overhead money carrier that went on a track overhead back and forth to the customer and bookkeeper at the desk. Believe it or not some of the best coffee on the market was only 20 cents per pound for Cuban Coffee at P. L. Millers.

They gave away nice things in those days — a nice Paesoning Kettle with each can of Baking Powder at Sullivans. And land was selling at $35 an acre accord-ding to one news note.

To the editor:

I don't know who had the idea of printing the full page of the past Herald's, but I think it is remarkable.

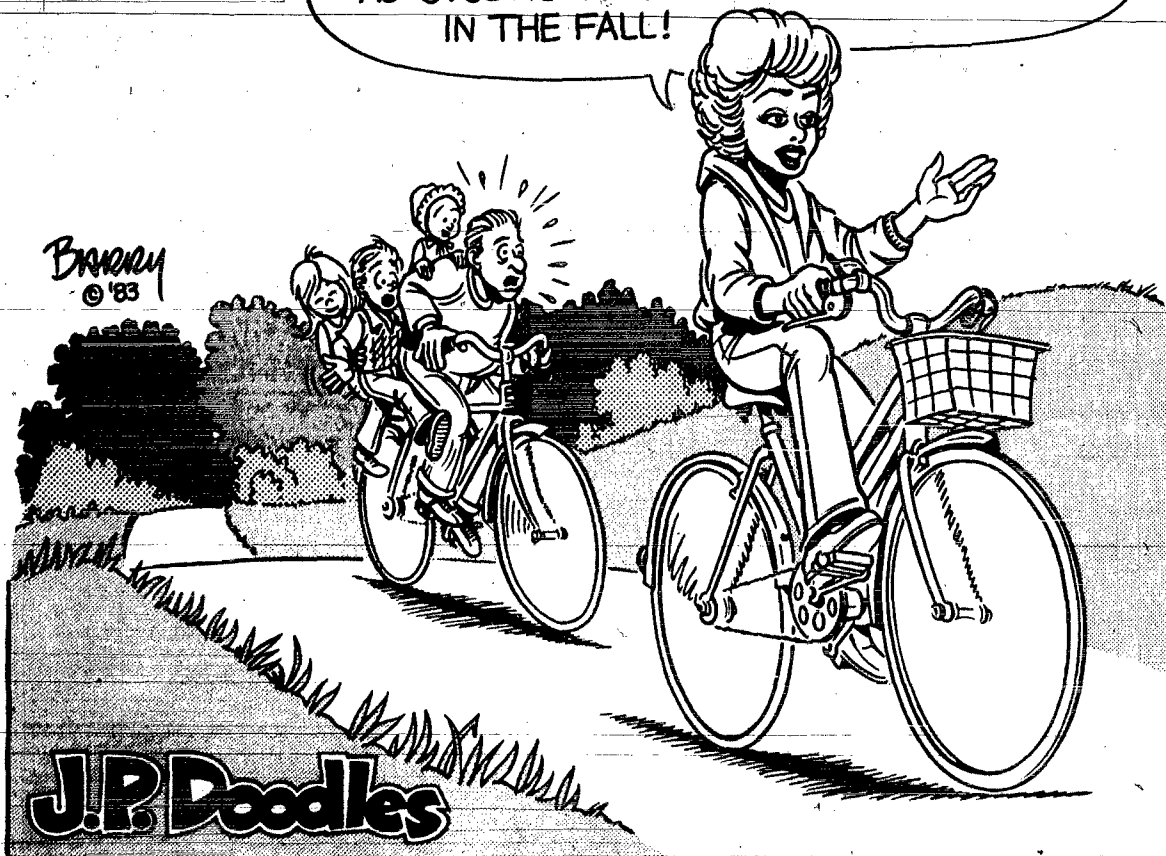

I have had hours of enjoyment reading them. I have laughed, cried, dreamed and retired some of these days and have really gotten a lift on the days that these pages have been printed in the paper.

After reading the one September 1927 I thought I would never know how the band came out at its first contest, but a few weeks later — in October 1927 — I read where the state champion band had played at the corn husking bee.

Thanks for that bit of news. The names of those teachers, and band members of so long ago really brought back great memories. So, I wish to express my gratitude to you and let you know it was, and is greatly appreciated.

street talk

United Press International reported last week that entertainer Johnny Carson's wife of 11 years, Joanna, has filed for divorce and is asking for $220,000 a month (approximately 15 percent of Carson's monthly salary) in "spousal support." Carson purportedly makes approximately $1.5 million per month. The Wayne Herald asked five Wayne residents: "Do you think Mrs. Carson is justified asking for that amount?"

"I suppose so. I believe the cost of living in Los Angeles is a little higher than in Wayne County." — Steve Jones, Wayne

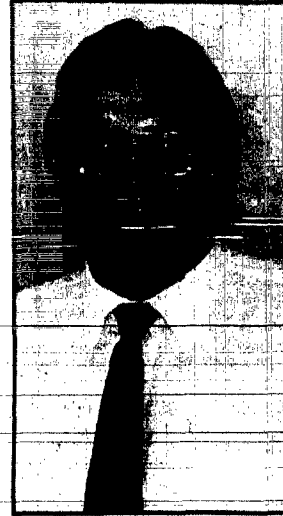

"Sure, why not? She might as well have a good life style if he's making that kind of money." — Karen Wittler, Wayne.

"Only 15 percent? Sure — she's put up with a lot being married to him." — Tamí Breske, Wayne.

"I think it's excessive and extravagant. I don't know that she's justified. Is HE justified having a salary like that?" — Dorothy Stevenson, Wayne.

"Let her have the money. She may not deserve it, but I guess he can afford it." — Merrill Hale, Wayne.

Goblin gimmicks

Rummaging through your attic or basement may be the starting point for this year's Halloween costume.

It can also be a fun way to spend time with your children or save some money. Try letting your imagination run wild and you may be surprised at the results.

Some children will be enthusiastic about designing their own costumes. Try to get started today, or last minute costume details may turn a chance to be creative into a frustrating experience.

For inspiration, youngsters might think of cartoon or storbook characters they would like to imitate.

BOXES AND large paper sacks may be possible costumes. Children can decorate the boxes or sacks with crayon, paint, fabric or paper cutouts. Much of the fun is allowing your child to create a one of a kind costume.

Those old clothes marked for giveaway may be one step from the ragbag might be transformed into a princess or a frog costume.

Older children could do some sewing to make the costume just what they had in mind.

IT MAY SOUND easy to some people, but sometimes those creative ideas just aren't there when you need them. Maybe your child wants to be the Incredible Hulk this Halloween.

Start with an old pair of jeans that you can cut to make it look like a seven foot monster just grew into them. Add a green T shirt one or two sizes too large. Stuff the shirt with rags or nylon stockings to give your hulk bulging muscles. Now add some green make-up and you've created the Incredible Hulk.

I'm sure anyone could top this costume idea.

MAKE SURE any costume, purchased or homemade, is safe. Avoid masks if possible by using old make-up, grease paint, watercolor paints or colored chalk.

You may want to apply a generous coat of facial cream before creating a face just to be sure it doesn't last too long.

For a ghostly effect, powder faces with cornstarch or flour. To get a deep tan use some cocoa.

A dress rehearsal can provide a chance for one last safety check and be lots of fun. Have your child walk in the costume and also climb stairs.

They should be able to move around without tripping or holding up the hem of a costume.

The finishing touch is to apply strips of reflective tape to the costume. Put the tape in highly visible areas on the front and back.

SOME MAY not have children to help find costumes for, but will be expecting lots of visitors Halloween night.

Try to give a more nutritious treat this year. Candy may be nice and easy, but many mothers would rather see other treats in their children's bags.

Some ideas might include packaged nuts, chips, pretzels, fresh fruits, sugarless gum or candy, cheese kisses, animal crackers and popcorn.

You might also find some non food treats are very popular such as balloons, small rubber animals or monsters, pencils, combs and party favors.

Parents will want to check all of their children's treats to be doubly sure everything is safe and has not been tampered with.

Comeback falls short in 4th

Early bobbles sink Wayne's ship

The Wayne Blue Devils got the fumble bug at a most inopportune time — during last Friday's showdown with Class B rival Hartington Cedar Catholic, and failed on a golden scoring opportunity in the fourth quarter to drop a 24-18 decision to the Trojans.

The Blue Devils fell behind 12-0 in the first quarter after a Wayne punt gave the Trojans the ball at their own 30. HCC mounted a 12-play drive, highlighted by a 40-yard scoring toss on third down from Kevin Kathol to Tom Vlach. The PAT kick was no good and the Trojans led 6-0.

Wayne then took the ensuing kickoff and drove all the way to the HCC 18 before Shane Kuchta stepped in front of a Brad Moore aerial and scooted 95 yards for the score as the partisan Wayne crowd sat in the steady, cold drizzle in stunned silence.

DISASTER STRUCK Wayne again after the kickoff, as the Blue Devils fumbled at their own 36.

Wayne's defense stiffened, though, and Hartington CC was forced to punt.

The Devils went from the frying pan and into the fire as they fumbled on the first play from scrimmage to give the Trojans a 1st- and-10 on the 15.

HCC took just four plays to score and the tally stood at 18-0 just a few minutes into the second quarter.

The Trojans returned the fumble-favor when they mishandled a Wayne punt and the Devils recovered at the 18 to set up a five-yard TD blast by Steve Overin. Chris Wieseler's kick was wide and the tally was 18-6.

IT LOOKED like Wayne's fortunes were turning for the better when the Blue Devils recovered their own onside kick on the ensuing kickoff, but another interception gave the Trojans the ball as time expired in the first half.

Wayne coach Lonnie Ehrhardt said Wayne made few adjustments at the intermission.

"We just had to correct the mistakes — the turnovers," Ehrhardt said. "That was how they got all their points."

"We also told the kids that their inside blocking had to improve. They (HCC) had been blitzing and stunting a lot."

Wayne took the opening kickoff of the second half, but was forced to punt after just one first down.

HARTINGTON TOOK the ball 1st and 10 at its own 13 before Wayne recovered a bobbled snap at the 12.

WAYNE'S KEVIN Koenig (44) hurdles teammate Pete Warne while Hartington CC's Craig Leise Gives chase.

Three plays later, Kevin Koenig bulled over from three yards out to put the tally at 12-18.

"We wanted to try a fake kick on the PAT," Ehrhardt said, "but we were called for motion so we had to try the kick."

Wieseler's boot was no good and the score remained at 12-18.

Hartington Cedar returned the ensuing kickoff 28 yards to the 42 where the Trojans set up shop.

Wayne did a little shoplifting two plays later when it recovered a Trojan bobble.

KOENIG THEN burst down the right sideline on a 41-yard scoring jaunt to tie things at 18.

Wieseler's kick was no good.

"I thought at that point that there was a good chance that we could win the ball game," Ehrhardt said. "Momentum wise, we had taken control."

Wayne's Jim Poehlman then intercepted an HCC pass to give the Blue Devils a 1st- and-10 at their own 42 and a golden opportunity.

Wayne drove to the Trojan 35 before being forced to punt.

The kick pinned HCC on its own 11-yard line before Kuchta burst over right tackle on first down for 53 yards before a saving tackle by Poehlman saved the day — for the time being.

"Kuchta carried the ball seven out of the next nine plays en route to a Trojan touchdown."

"That was the first time in two years that anybody has taken the ball and gone the length of the field like that on us," Ehrhardt said. "It wasn't anything fancy — just straight ahead football."

THE TOUCHDOWN put the score at 24-18 as Wayne stopped the two-point attempt with 7:45 left in the game.

Overin took the kickoff near his own goal line out to the 27, but the Devils couldn't move the ball and were forced to kick.

Lady Luck gave Wayne another chance as Hartington CC's return man lost the handle on the ball and the Blue Devils recovered at the Trojans' 24-yard line.

Two straight runs netted short yardage, so Moore went to the air. Both of his passes, although catchable, fell incomplete and HCC took over on downs.

Kuchta then went to work again and carried the ball six straight times to the Trojans' 39 and had to punt.

HCC had done what it wanted. It had chewed up precious time and Wayne look over with less than a minute left deep in its own territory. The game ended as HCC intercepted a desperation pass by Overin as time ran out on the Blue Devil's hope of an undefeated season.

HARTINGTON CEDAR'S Kuchta was the game's leading rusher, racking up 170 yards on 31 carries.

Wayne was paced by Koenig (64 yards on 13 carries) and Overin (46 carries on 14 totes).

On defense, the Blue Devils were paced by Wieseler, who had four solo tackles and 12 assists.

Koenig had five solos and 10 assist while Dan Gross added a pair of solos and eight assists.

Overin finished with 11 stops (four solos.)

ALTHOUGH THE loss somewhat dims Wayne's hopes of hosting a first-round playoff game, Ehrhardt said the Blue Devils might still accomplish that goal.

"If (the loss) makes it necessary for us to work all that much harder to beat O'Neill this week," Ehrhardt said.

Wayne will travel to O'Neill for the Thursday night contest.

"We'll practice hard on Monday and Tuesday and take it easy on Wednesday," Ehrhardt said. "These kids will bounce back — they have a lot of guts."

"This loss is by no means the end of the season."

Bears lose to Wynot
The Laurel Bears dropped a 14-16, 10-15 decision to Wynot Thursday night on the road.

Trojans wrap up conference

Wakelield wrapped up its half of the Lewis and Clark Conference Thursday night by downing Coleridge 15-2, 15-2. The Trojans will travel to Allen today (Monday) to meet the Eagles for the conference championship.
In Thursday's contest, serving was led by a host of players. Lana Erb was perfect on the night, going 9-for-9 and bagging four aces, while teammate Michele Meyer was 5 for 5. Brenda Jones (3 for 3) and Julie Oswald (5 for 5) were also perfect on the night. Shelley Krusemark went 8 for 10 in the hitting department and logged seven aces, while Kelly Grove went 3 for 6 and had a trio of aces.

"We were down a little bit, but when we did hit we put it away," said Trojan coach Miff Schroeder.
Lana Erb was perfect on 20 sets for the game.
After the Trojans compete in the conference championship, they are scheduled to play in the district playoffs at Allen beginning Oct. 31, at 5:30.
Wakelield (seeded first) will take on fourth seeded Emerson in the first contest.
The second game will pit Oakland against Pender with the district champion advancing to the regionals.
"We look pretty good district wise," Schroeder said. "But you never can tell in the game of volleyball — to say we have the best team in the district wouldn't be right."
In reserve action last Thursday, the Wakelield B team was victorious by scores of 15-8, 4-15, 15-13 while the C teamers won 7-11, 11-9, 11-8.
"They played pretty well," Schroeder said.

Knights rude guests

The Knights of Norfolk Catholic High School traveled to Winside last Thursday night and proved to be ungracious guests, downing the Wildcats 15-13, 3-15, 11-15.
Winside coach Julie Hirsch said the Wildcats fought hard throughout the contest.
"We were down 4-14 in the third set and were coming back but we lost the serve," Hirsch said.
Serving for Winside was led by Missy Jensen, who had 12 serving points.
At the net, Jensen went 12 for 14 and logged eight spikes.
Hirsch said the Wildcats' setting "was fairly spread out" and there was no clear-cut leader.
She was also happy with the play of the Cats' bench.
"Our subs came in and just did a super job for us, especially Kerr Leighton," Hirsch said.
In reserve action, Winside's B team lost 15-3, 15-7. Leighton had five serving points.
The Wildcat C teamers bowed to the Knights 11-8, 11-2. Cindy Berg led the Cats with three serving points.

Trojans jump ahead then falter, 36-16

Wakelield succumbed to a 21-point third quarter by Leigh Friday night and fell 36-16 in its last home game of the year.
The Trojans looked as if they were back to their early season form in the first quarter as they drove 71 yards in seven plays, capped by a 30-yard Brian Soderberg run for the score. The PAT from Soderberg to Steve Peterson was good and the Trojans had an 8-0 lead.
The Panthers finally got untracked in the second quarter as they recovered a Wakelield fumble at the Trojan 18 and marched in for the score. The PAT run was no good.
On their next possession, the Panthers mounted a 60-yard march in just five plays as Russ Kuhr scored from 17 yards out to put the tally at 12-8. Dan Gall added the two-point run and Leigh was in front 14-8.
The Panthers scored again on their next possession, moving 40 yards as Shane Balhard scampered in from three yards out. The kick by Gall was good and the tally at halftime was 21-8.
Wakelield coach Dennis Wilbur said the Trojans didn't adjust much at half.
"There wasn't a whole lot to adjust," he said. "We just fumbled three times in the first half and lost two of them — we just told the kids to try to hang on to the ball."
Wakelield came out and scored on a 30-yard march, capped by Soderberg's nine-yard toss to Craig Dolph for the score. The two pointer was good and the Trojans had pulled within five at 21-16.

Someone once said that you've got to be lucky to win at football, and Lady Luck was smiling on the Panthers Friday.
On Wakelield's next possession a pass to Jason Erb went off his fingertips as he dove for the catch and the ball ended up on Erb's back as he lay on the turf. The ball was still live and Leigh's defensive man picked it up (technically an interception) and gave the Panthers the ball on their own four yard line.
The Panthers then marched the length of the field in four plays. The final 25 coming as Wakelield's Troy Greve slipped twice on the wet field allowing Leigh's Goodrich to score.
The two pointer was good and Leigh had pulled in front 29-16.
The Panthers added an insurance TD via a 14 yard blast by Kuhr in the fourth quarter to seal the win.
"Our kids really played their hearts out, but you can only pound on us for so long," Wilbur said. "We've got good players — we're just not big enough."
The Trojans' leading rusher was Soderberg, who tallied 112 yards on five runs, while Coble tallied just 26 on 12 trips.
"They (Leigh) took away our outside game almost completely," Wilbur said.
Coble added 66 yards on five pass receptions, while teammate Jason Erb had seven snags for 61 yards.

The defense was led by Soderberg (eight solo tackles, nine assists) and Coble (nine solos, seven assists).
Wayne Guy added three solos and nine assists while John Halverson had a pair of solos, two assists and a pass interception.
Wakelield will try to rebound this Wednesday when the Trojans take on winless Laurel on the road in an 11-man contest.

Hartington rolls

Bears drop a class, Bears drop a game

Laurel stepped down a classification and played Hartington in an eight-man football game Friday night, but the results were much the same as they have been all season long for the Bears — they lost.

Laurel jumped out to a 14-8 lead in the first quarter, only to fall behind in the second quarter for good.

The Bears took the opening kickoff and drove all the way to the Wildcats 12-yard line before Hartington's Ryan Swanson stepped in front of a Mark Herrmann pass at the seven and sailed 73 yards for the initial score of the evening.

The two-point conversion was good and the Cats led 8-0.

Laurel then countered with a pair of scores, the first coming off Brian Haisch's return of the ensuing kick-off for a touchdown. The other coming after the Bears forced the Cats into a punting situation from their own 19.

The Bears took the ball at the Hartington 25 after a fine return before Brian Haisch scooted in for the score from 13 yards out five plays later.

The PAT failed on the first TD but the Bears made a two-point after the second to take a 14-8 lead.

The teams exchanged punts to begin the second quarter before Hartington mounted a five-play scoring drive from near midfield, capped by Chuck Olson's seven-yard

TD scamper and two-point conversion to give Hartington a 16-14 edge.

Laurel later gave the Cats the ball near midfield on a fumble and Hartington used eight plays, highlighted by a 22-yard scoring loss to Ryan Swanson — despite 45 yards in penalties on the drive. The PAT failed; but the Wildcats now led 28-14 as the quarter ended.

Hartington struck again on the second play of the fourth period as Mike Stockwell intercepted another Bear aerial at the Cats' 15-yard line and scooted untouched for the score. The PAT run was no good and Hartington led 34-14.

Laurel then countered with a pair of scores.

Scot Rath took a Herrmann pass for a 25-yard TD, set up by a 28-yard loss from Herrmann to Mike Forsberg.

The Bears later scored as the Haisch brothers teamed up for a seven-yard TD play and the tally stood at 34-28.

Hartington sealed the victory as it took the ensuing kickoff and drove for the score — a one-yard plunge by Olson.

Laurel got one more chance with the ball, but a fumble gave the Cats possession and they were able to run the clock out.

Brian Haisch finished the night with 70 yards on 20 carries while Herrmann was 11 for 23 for 161 yards in the passing department.

Defensively, the Bears were led by Mike Grangquist, John Chase, Jim Casey and Brent Haisch. Exact defensive statistics were not available at press time.

Laurel will close out the 1983 season on Wednesday night as the Wakefield Trojans come calling. Laurel is now 0-7 while the Trojans sport a 4-4 mark.

Wayne state joins bowling league

Wayne State College has joined the newly formed Nebraska Collegiate Bowling Conference.

The eight schools making up the NCBC are: Concordia College (Seward), Nebraska Wesleyan (Lincoln), the University of Nebraska at Omaha, Dana College (Blair), Northeast Technical Community College (North), Platte Technical Community College (Columbus), Kearney State College and Wayne State.

Conference president Paul Grabarkowitz, of Concordia College, announced that competition will begin this week and continue through Feb.

The schools will meet in head-to-head competition in seven matches and will also compete in two all-conference meets in Dec. and Feb.

Until the formation of the NCBC, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln was the only college in the state to field a bowling team. Grabarkowitz said UNL will remain a member of the Kansas Nebraska Conference.

Wildcats rally past Bancroft-Rosalie

A pass interception by Winside's Chris Jorgensen preserved a 30-28 come from behind victory over Bancroft-Rosalie Friday night at Winside, destroying any hope the Panthers had of gaining a playoff berth. Winside bogged down after taking a 6-0 lead on a Jorgensen touchdown scamper with just 1:28 gone in the first quarter.

The Panthers countered on their next possession, driving all the way from their own 27 for the score — a one-yard sneak by quarterback Larry Johnson with 7:41 remaining in the first quarter.

A PITCH play to Darin Suhr on the two-point attempt was nugood and score stood at 6-6.

After holding Winside on its next possession, the Panthers took a Wildcat punt and started another touchdown drive.

A pass from Johnson down the middle to Marlo Hermelbracht on 2nd and 13 put the ball at Winside's 30. On the next play, Johnson kept around left end for the score. The PAT pass to Hermelbracht was good and Bancroft took a 14-6 advantage.

One play into the second quarter, the Panther's Hermelbracht picked off a Dan Mundil aerial and returned the ball all the way to the Wildcats' seven and things were looking mighty bleak for Winside.

Thinks got worse on the next play, as Darin Farewell barreled over for the score at the 10:57 mark. The PAT run by Johnson was good and Bancroft had a commanding 22-6 lead.

The extra point attempt was no good, but Bancroft had pulled ahead 28-12.

Disaster struck again for Winside, when on the next series, a pass intended for Scott Janke ricocheted off his hands and was intercepted by Hermelbracht and returned all the way to the Cats' 23.

Winside's defense sucked it up, but barely.

Bancroft, aided by a personal foul on the Wildcats, had a 1st and goal inside the five, but the defense, led by the tough middle play of Jeff Thies, stopped Bancroft short on fourth down as the half came to a close.

Winside's defense sucked it up, but barely.

Bancroft, aided by a personal foul on the Wildcats, had a 1st and goal inside the five, but the defense, led by the tough middle play of Jeff Thies, stopped Bancroft short on fourth down as the half came to a close.

Winside COACH Mark Freburg said the Cats came to a decision at intermission.

"We just decided to hit harder," Freburg said. "We're in good condition and we could tell Bancroft was starting to get tired."

He blamed much of the Panthers' first half success on poor tackling by Winside.

"In the first half we were just hugging them and letting go," he said. "We started gang tackling in the second half."

The Wildcats kicked off to begin the second half and held the Panthers to force a punt.

The teams exchanged punts again before Winside got another chance.

With a 1st and 10 on its own 15, Winside drove the length of the field, highlighted by the running of Hawkins and Jorgensen and a couple of sneaks by Mundil.

On 4th and 3, Mundil pitched to Hawkins, who threw the ball downfield to Dan Mundil at the six yard line.

Hawkins then took a Mundil handoff, and showed marvelous balance and power as he crashed over for the score to tie the game at 28-28.

WINSIDE STUCK to what was working, and Hawkins bashed over to give the Wildcats the 30-28 lead with just 3:53 left in the game.

The game didn't end without Bancroft getting another chance, though.

Winside tried an inside kick that Bancroft recovered near midfield, but the Panthers were forced to punt.

Unable to move the ball, Winside kicked the ball back to give the visitors one last chance.

A 4th and 7 pass with just 44 seconds remaining was picked off by Jorgensen and the Wildcat sideline erupted in celebration.

The Cats had showed poise in coming back. The Parent's Night crowd, soaked to the skin from a steady, near-freezing drizzle, had been treated to some class football.

"I guess you could say we ran into a buzz saw but stayed away from the blade," Freburg said.

THE CATS upped their record to 7-1 with the win and now must wait for several other teams to compete before finding out who their opponent will be in the first round of the Class D playoffs, which begin Nov. 2.

Leading the Cats on the ground were Jorgensen (101 tough yards on 14 carries) and Hawkins (98 yards on 28 totes).

Freburg said that the defense played too good as a unit to single any individuals out.

"The defense really won it for us," he said. "They just decided that they didn't want to lose."

Turkey Trot trail told

On Saturday, Nov. 12, more than 100 runners will gather in downtown Wayne to compete in a race for the highest of stakes — frozen turkeys.

The seventh annual Wayne Turkey Trot road race is actually just for fun, and the runners will be competing in two events divided into 20 categories.

The main event, a five-mile Road Race, will start at Second and Main streets at 10:30 a.m., with runners competing in the following age categories: Males — 16-and-under; 17 to 24; 25 to 32; 33 to 39; 40 to 45; 46 to 50; 50-and-over. Females: 14-and-under; 15 to 20; 21 to 27; 28 to 35; 36-and-over.

A two-mile "Fun run" will start at the same location and will be divided into the following age categories: Males — 12-and-under; 13 to 17; 18 to 29; 30-and-over. Females — 15-and-under; 16 to 24; 25 to 35; 36-and-over.

The first male and female finishers in the Road Race will receive frozen turkeys with trophies awarded to the winner in each age group. Medals will be awarded to the second and third place finishers as well.

The Fun Run's top two male and female finishers will receive fruit baskets, with medals going to each age group champion.

Special awards will be given to randomly selected runners who don't finish in the top three places of their division, compliments of Wayne merchants.

The Road Run's five-mile course starts in downtown Wayne, meanders through the Westwood and Marywood subdivisions and continues through the Wayne State College campus before heading through northeast Wayne and back downtown.

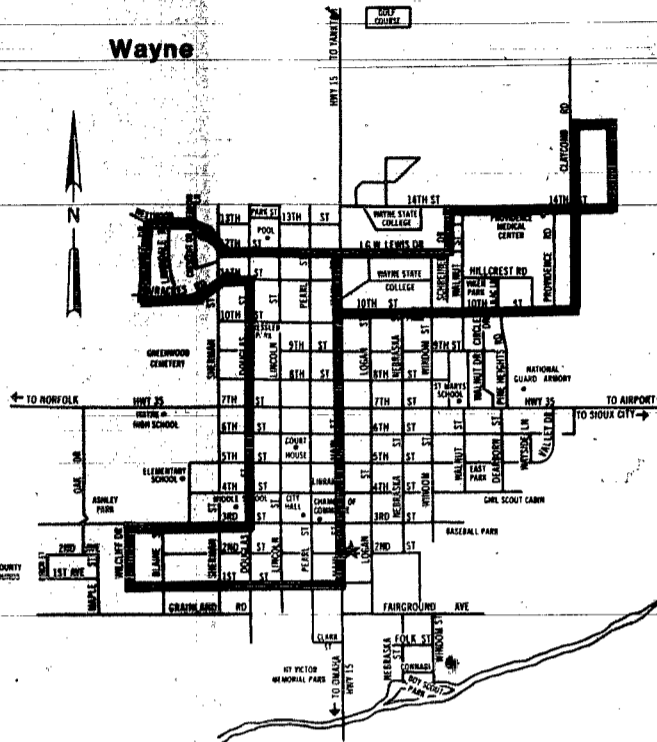

Race organizer Pat Gross said runners should like the course.

"There's some hills, but nothing severe," Gross said. "It should be a challenge, though."

Gross said the course will be well-marked and each intersection along the route will be manned by race officials. Several aid stations will also be set up.

The Hart Beverage company of South Sioux City will provide refreshments for the runners. All paid entrants will also receive a Turkey Trot T-shirt for their efforts.

The entry fee is $5 ($7 the day of the race) and should be mailed with the coupon below to: Wayne Turkey Trot, c/o Pat Gross, Box 411, Wayne, Neb. 68787.

Turkey season, dates announced

Nebraska's 1983 fall shotgun turkey hunting season opened Saturday, Oct. 22 in most hunting areas across the state. Biologists say the turkey population is high again this year.

This year's season dates are: Haisey Unit, Oct. 22 through Nov. 11; Round Top Unit, Oct. 22-Nov. 11; Niobrara Unit (early season), Oct. 22-28; Verdigris Unit (early season), Oct. 22-28; Southwest Unit, Oct. 22-Nov. 11; Wildcat Unit, Oct. 22-Nov. 11; Niobrara Unit (late season), Oct. 29-Nov. 11; Verdigris Unit (late season) Oct. 29-Nov. 11.

Since its introduction in Nebraska's Pine Ridge area in 1959, the turkey flock has increased dramatically in size. Thanks to on-going stocking and relocation of wild trapped birds, and the adaptability of the turkey, the birds are plentiful over much of the state today.

Nebraska's first turkey hunting season was in the fall of 1962 when the Game and Parks Commission authorized the issuance of 500 turkey hunting permits in the Pine Ridge area. There were 281 turkey taken during that first season. Since then the turkey has continued to increase in numbers and popularity, until today it is one of Nebraska's most sought wild game species. During the 1982 fall shotgun turkey season 4,700 hunters took 2,282 turkeys for a 49 percent hunter success total.

Commission to give trees

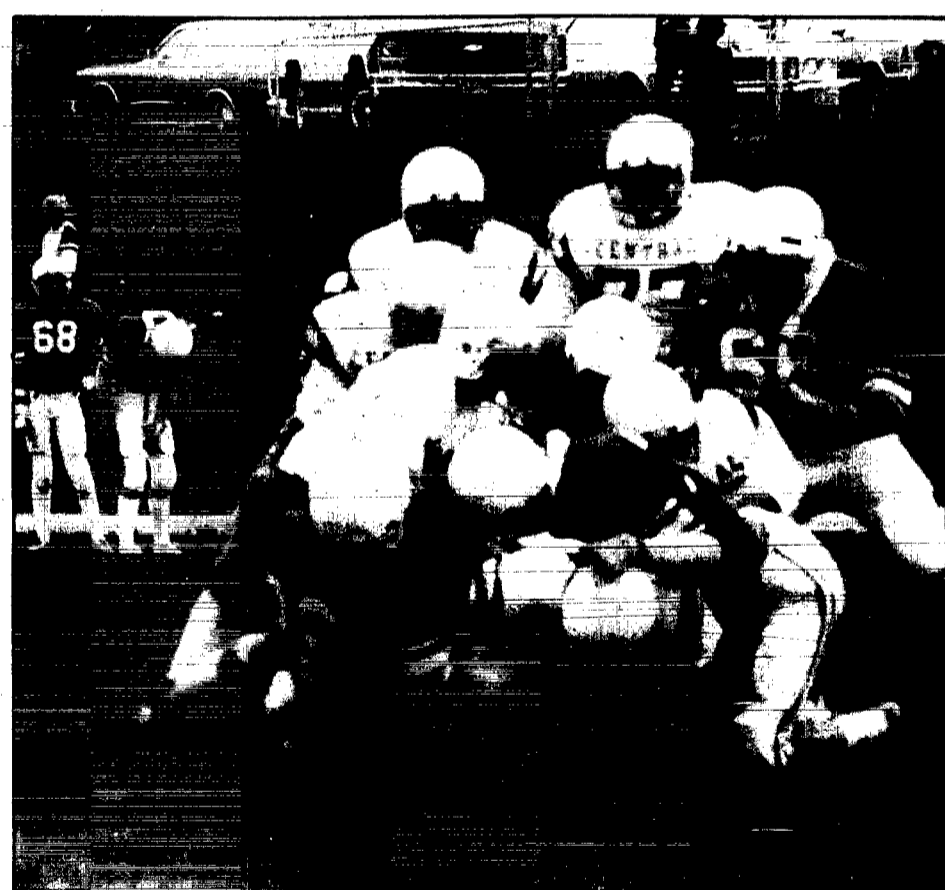

The Nebraska Game and Parks Commission is offering free seedlings for planting in the spring of 1984 through the Nebraska Wildlife Habitat Program.

Seedling bundles are available for farmers and ranchers and are intended for use on rural sites only and must be planted at least 200 yards from inhabited dwellings.

To receive an application or further information, write to: Habitat, P.O. Box 30370, Lincoln, Neb. 68503.

Wayne frosh end season at 5-1-1

It was a very productive year for Wayne High School's freshman football team. The Blue Devils finished the season by trashing West Point Central Catholic 26-8 last Tuesday afternoon to turn in a 5-1 record.

Wayne's only setback came in a 6-0 loss to Schuyler. Wayne beat Hartington Cedar Catholic twice (14-0 and 44-0). Pierce (34-6) and O'Neill (8-6) in addition to West Point C.C.

Russell Longe led the Wayne rushing attack, averaging 52 yards per game and 4.8 yards on 68 attempts for the season. Al Foote was second, with a 38 yards per game average and a 4.8 yards per carry average on 117 attempts for the season (3.86 percent) while logging three touchdowns. McCright went 7 for 8 for one score and a 87.5 completion average.

Stollenberg led a host of Devil receivers, hauling in six catches for the season for 100 yards. He averaged 16.7 yards per reception.

Bill Liska averaged 9.4 yards on five receptions while Kevin Griess snagged three aerials for 64 yards. Jamie Frederickson averaged 16 yards on two catches while Marc Rahn led the team in average yards per reception, accounting for 78 yards on just three catches.

Footie tallied six touchdowns in leading Wayne in scoring with 27 points. Players and their yards per game average were: Mark Gordon 6.5, Russell Longe 6.5, Troy Wood 6.2, Steve Luff 6.0, Mark Creighton 5.2, Al Foote 4.3, Kevin Griess 4.2, Ted Luaders 3.3, Ted McCright 3.3, Jay Luff 3.0, Jason Jorgenson 1.3, Jamie Fredrickson 1.2, Tom Miller 1.2.

The rest of the tackle chart shows several players contributing to stopping enemy ball. On defense, Bill Liska and Stollenberg led Wayne, averaging eight tackles and 7.5 tackles per game, respectively.

In the turnover department, Creighton had three fumble recoveries and a pair of blocked punts to lead Wayne. Stollenberg logged three pass interceptions and a fumble recovery, while Luff had one pass theft. Ken Lambie recovered two fumbles and a blocked punt.

30-0 shutout

Allen Eagles find Ponca is for real

The Allen Eagles really played Ponca Friday night. (The Wayne Herald erred and listed Ponca as their opponent last week) and they found out Ponca is for real — to the tune of 30-0.

The game was the last meeting between the two schools in the foreseeable future as Allen had to play its only 11-man football game of the year. Allen head coach Rod Bubke said the odd aspect of the game was that the score doesn't indicate the type of effort the Eagles gave.

"We really played excellent defense except for four plays," Bubke said.

It was during those four plays that Ponca scored its four touchdowns.

In the end, it was actually only one play that proved to be a constant thorn in the Eagles' side — the reverse.

After Allen was stopped on its first drive, the Eagles punted to give the Indian a first down on the 11-yard line.

On the first play from scrimmage, the Indians' Persinger broke for 89 yards on a reverse and went untouched for the score. The PAT kick by Gary Anderson was good, and Ponca had a quick 7:0 lead.

Allen punted after its next possession and the Indians went to the well again, scoring from 32 yards out on the same reverse play. The kick put the tally at 14-0.

In the second quarter, the Indians ran the same reverse again — sort of.

Ponca faked the reverse (of which Allen was understandably gun-shy) and Bob Bachman kept and went 71 yards for the score. The two-point pass was good and the score went to 22-0 at the half.

Bubke said the Eagles had trouble adjusting to 11-man ball after playing eight-man for the rest of the season.

"Offensively, we just couldn't get anything going," Bubke said. "It's a lot different with three extra guys in there — there's a big difference in execution."

Allen got the ball to start the second half, but still sputtered and had to punt.

The coffin was nailed shut as Ponca's return man, Bachman, ran 72 yards for the score. The Indians faked the kick and passed the ball for two points to end the scoring for the day.

"We exchanged punts for most of the fourth quarter, but neither one could get anything going," Bubke said. "Maybe it would have been different if we had been playing them in eight-man."

Bubke said the Eagles' offensive showing didn't merit singling out individual statistics, but praised several players on defense.

Keith Darlberg tallied 13 solo tackles and 10 assists while Derwin Roberts was in on 12 solo stops and six assists.

Kirk Hansen had 13 solos and six assists and one interception. Mike Hingst also picked off a Ponca aerial.

The Eagles will take on Hartington at home this Wednesday night in an eight-man contest.

"It will be good to get back to eight man," Bubke said. "The Hartington game is definitely within reach for us."

Foosball fun

HIGH SCHOOL consists of more than just classes and homework as shown here. Winside High School students spend part of their lunch break playing foosball near the main entrance of the high school.

Computermania

"Computermania" seems to be the name of the game at Wakefield Community Schools this year as students in both the elementary and high schools race for a chance to use the limited number of computers available. In the elementary fifth graders are using an Apple II to study their math facts. Second graders are using the computer as a group for word building games and logical thinking skills. Enthusiasm runs high as they work on individual math drills at their own levels.

Each child is learning how to load a diskette and find the program he/she chooses. On the high school level, the beginning algebra classes have begun what is, for many of them, their first formal introduction to work with computers.

The classes, comprised primarily of ninth graders, are currently gaining hands on experience by organizing their first computer program. Special time is set aside each month in class for explanation, demonstration and application of computers to algebra concepts.

The students write and record their computer programs out of class during times reserved for them.

Geometry students also are learning in mini sessions held during class time. Interest in this group of students is currently high and some commendable efforts have resulted.

Computer programming also is being offered as a separate class.

The business department also has been introducing students to various business uses of the computers. Students in these classes have been experimenting with data entry and budgeting, and will soon begin accounting and word processing. A data processing class also is being offered.

Fire prevention

Educational information was gained on Oct. 6 when members of the St. Luke's Hospital Burn Staff in Lincoln gave an assembly on fire prevention and first aid for burn victims.

Musical notes

There are several "notes" from the music department this week.

The band is wrapping up sales of sun catchers as a fund raising activity. They also are putting final touches on their final half time performance for the last home football game.

In the vocal area, several participants are to be commended for being selected to the Nebraska All-State Choir. These tryouts were held in Creighton on Oct. 8. Those selected were Karla Stelling, Kiela Lund and Rachel Prochaska.

Class news

Exciting things are happening on individual class levels. Sophomore class members chose their class rings this past week.

The juniors completed one fund raising activity, selling magazines, and are moving on to another.

Winners in the magazine sales were: Rachel Prochaska, first place; Brian Soderberg, second place; a tie between Darla Hartman and Mike Murphy, third place; Joey Borg, fourth place, and Roni Starzl, fifth place.

The seniors are starting down the home stretch and being measured for caps and gowns. They also are selecting announcements.

News of organizations

Meanwhile, many organizations at Wakefield High are getting in gear for the upcoming year and its activities.

The National Honor Society held its tapping ceremony on Sept. 27. New members tapped were Cari Johnson, Darla Hartman, Jane Gustafson, Melodie Witt and Brian Soderberg.

The Future Business Leaders of America are busy planning a haunted house to be held on Oct. 26 at 406 West Fifth Street.

The W Club is reorganizing through the election of officers. Officers are Troy Greve, president; Cari Johnson, vice president; Shelley Krusemark, secretary; treasurer; and Wayne Guy, sergeant at arms.

Some organizations took part in the Hospital Bazaar.

St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, in Memphis, Tenn., devotes all of its time to helping children with diseases.

An organization like St. Jude's needs a lot of money for research on diseases such as leukemia. Not only does the hospital help the residents of Tennessee, but it also helps the entire nation and the whole world through daily written and telephone consultations to other doctors wherever they may be.

Seeing a need, the Laurel-Concord Student Council appointed a five member group to help raise money for St. Jude's Hospital. Members in this group include four junior high students: Dana Anderson, Deanna Luhr, Kelly Daberkow, and Kyle Nixon. A junior, Wendy Robson acts as a member of this committee.

Chairman Robson reported that they plan to have a math-a-thon for grades five to nine to help raise money. In a math-a-thon people pledge a certain amount of money to students to do math problems. With each correct problem the amount of pledged money rises.

Besides Laurel and other high schools, St. Jude's Hospital raises its support partially from the federal government, in surance, investments, and also from the hospital's founder, Dan Thomas. St. Jude's primary source of support comes from voluntary contributions raised by ALSAC.

St. Jude's Children's Hospital ranks as the world's largest childhood cancer hospital. Its scientists and doctors developed and now use modern practices that some day may bring an end to diseases like leukemia or other types of cancer.

The easiest way a person could contribute to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital would be to sponsor a student in the upcoming Math-a-thon, or else phone (901) 522-9733. To send a donation, the address is ALSAC St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, 505 N. Parkway, Box 3704, Memphis, Tenn. 38103.

Tradition preferred at LCHS Students at Laurel-Concord High School felt mixed emotions about the success of this year's homecoming activities. A majority of students enjoyed the different days of spirit week especially "punk rock" day.

One girl said, "I thought it was neat seeing everyone dressed in something really different, and with their hair painted." Carol Osborne replied, "It's fun! You can really get into it!"

Some objected to the idea of spirit week. One student felt, "It was kind of dumb. Some of the outfits were strange - not punk."

Although most students felt the homecoming activities were successful, many did not like the new time and day of coronation. They would have preferred the traditional after the football game coronation, much more.

One student felt that, "It was inconvenient for relatives and college kids, and that after Thursday night it felt like Homecoming was completely over when already."

Most preferred the traditional way the candidates walked in at coronation, (where the boy and girl walk in separately and then meet and walk to the stage together) as opposed to the way the candidates walked in this year, in couples.

A young editor Steve Leiwier, editor of the Laurel-Advocate, attended Blairbridge High School, in Blairbridge Island, Wash. After graduation from high school in 1979, Steve attended North Seattle Community College for two years, receiving an Associate of Arts Degree.

Steve completed a quarter at Edmonds College in Lynnwood, Wash., when he heard about the editing job at the Laurel-Advocate. He immediately quit college and moved to Laurel in the summer of 1982 to follow up on a high school interest in journalism.

In high school Steve served as editor for two years and in college for one year.

Steve said, "There are many pressures that go with running a newspaper, the biggest being the deadlines for the stories, ads and printing in Wayne." For a small newspaper the Advocate covers many types of stories and Steve said, "We're trying to expand the coverage to the local towns."

Steve created the column Bear Facts to create more interest in journalism among the students at Laurel-Concord High School. He said, "It's a very good job by the students, and it's getting better all the time."

School secretary, monster job Mrs. Granquist competently handles the job of school secretary at Laurel-Concord High School. Taking responsibility of the office begins at 8:30 a.m. and ends at 4:30 p.m. for Mrs. Granquist.

Karen has struggled at office work at Laurel High for six years. She fights a monster job with 10 arms and no head. Karen keeps the lunch count for the state of Nebraska, and all activity accounts fall into her day.

The phone rings; she answers. Mrs. Granquist sells lunch tickets, folders, book covers, pens, pencils and number of other items. The students' friend, Mrs. Granquist, keeps track of a lot of tardies and the attendance for each day.

Karen studied two years at Wayne State College. She said she always dreamed of being a secretary and is now fulfilling her dream.

Junior magazine sales The Laurel-Concord juniors are now selling magazines, records, tapes, and cassettes. Magazine sales are to raise money for the expenses of prom decorations.

If the juniors sell a certain amount of magazines they win prizes such as stuffed animals in orange and black, posters of their choice which include the GO GO's and several rainbow posters. A candy bar will be received for every Readers Digest sold.

Juniors think they will sell many magazines. One junior sold $176.50 worth of magazines and is still selling more.

"The most popular magazines I have sold to people are Lady's Home Journal and Readers Digest," he said.

Juniors of Laurel-Concord school have a goal to reach. It is to make $6,000 or more, all juniors feel that they will be able to reach that goal. One student said, "I like to sell magazines because I get to see people I haven't seen for a long time."

Junior team leaders for magazine sales this year include Renee Vanderheiden, Michelle Loberg, Derek Lineberry, and Allen George.

High school guidance counselor Don Helgren, guidance counselor at Laurel-Concord High School, enjoys his work. He feels that working with students to help them reach a career decision is beneficial to all. Watching an individual make a decision on his own, is what Mr. Helgren likes to see most.

Mr. Helgren chose to be a counselor out of concern for students. He commented on the little amount of time he had to spend with his high school guidance counselor. He also feels that a teacher is limited in areas, while he can help any student when making any kind of choices.

Mr. Helgren has been at Laurel for seven years. He feels he never has had a "bad" day, but there have been a few situations which have left him in with bad attitudes.

The helpful individual aids persons and groups through counseling. He schedules parent and staff conferences, and student registration and counseling. His jobs aren't all finished in one day. He works all year to complete most of his duties.

Wonderful world of advertising Advertisements surround us from television to newspapers, from magazines to radio. According to Brenda Jussel, a senior media student at Laurel-Concord High School, "advertising does affect everyone in some way. People buy a lot of what they see on television because producers and distributors tell everyone that their product is the best."
