Alternatives to new courthouse discussed

Several persons opposed to constructing a new Wayne County Courthouse made their opinions known Monday night at a special meeting concerning courthouse plans.

One of the plans, brought up by a member of the audience, suggested that renovation work on the existing courthouse be spread over a five or 10-year period.

Because the county has a sinking fund of $500,000, it was proposed that the county may not have to borrow any funds if renovation would take place over a longer period of time.

PHIL LORENZEN, vice president of the Municipal Bond Department of First Mid America Inc., said that is one of the available options.

Registered engineer Jack H. Jackson, whose firm drew up the plans for a new courthouse, said if the voters decide not to build a new courthouse, the commissioners could develop a list of options for rehabilitation of the existing courthouse.

The first option would be to bring the courthouse up to State Fire Marshal standards. The second option might be to replace the electrical wiring, he said, adding that improvements could be made over a specific period of time.

Lorenzen welcomed all ideas and said that meetings were being held to determine the most practical solution to the county's problem.

IN ADDITION to complying with fire codes, another problem which was brought up concerning the existing building is lack of vault space.

Jackson said the courthouse is "very short of vault space" and pointed out that the new building would have about twice as much space. He added that it would be difficult to add vault space in the existing courthouse.

City Clerk Orgetta Morris said that the courthouse has nearly used up all its storage space and has little working area. A member of the audience said that microfilm appears to be a solution to the space problems, adding that if records are transferred to microfilm, a considerable amount of space can be created.

SOMEONE ELSE in the audience suggested that the county purchase a house near the courthouse and move the county, extension office and courthouse caretakers into that house, creating more room in the existing courthouse.

Lorenzen said the most costly project is construction of a new facility but added that people must look at the long-term cost. Annually, it would cost more to reconstruct, he said.

The projected life of a new building is 80 to 100 years, Jackson said. He said no figures were available on the projected life of the existing courthouse but added that it would have a long life if proper improvements are made. Either building would require routine maintenance work, he added.

Another member of the audience said he felt it would be a mistake for the county to spend its money on a new courthouse during tough times economically.

LORENZEN SAID the cheapest proposal in the long range would be to build a new courthouse. However, a member of the audience said that "it would always cost less to own the present courthouse" than it would to own a new one.

"This is a critical time. We need to either put money in to renovate or put more money in to build a new one," Jackson said.

Lorenzen said that voters will be asked whether they want to build a new courthouse or keep the present one. If voters turn down the proposal for a new courthouse in a close election, plans may be redone and the issue may be resubmitted for the November election, he said.

If a new courthouse is turned down by a large margin of votes, it indicates that some type of rehabilitation should be done on the existing courthouse, he added.

"These are the alternatives. The decision will rest in the hands of the voters," Lorenzen said.

THE SPRING weather in northeast Nebraska can pretty well be summed up by this picture.

Wayne State denied MBA program funds

Wayne State and Chadron State colleges have been denied funds to establish a program which would offer master's degrees in business administration (MBA's).

The Legislature had passed a bill, LB 970, which allows the Board of Trustees to approve MBA programs at state colleges in Kearney, Wayne and Chadron.

However, Gov. Kerrey, in his review of the proposed budget, vetoed the funding of such programs at Wayne and Chadron. Kearney will receive funding for its program.

A legislative attempt to override the governor's veto, sponsored by Sen. Merle Von Minden of Allen, failed by a 23-26 vote. Von Minden's attempt came in the late hours of the 1984 session.

WAYNE STATE President Ed Elliott was disappointed that the funding was not approved but pleased that the Board of Trustees will be allowed to approve MBA programs in the state colleges. "I'm obviously disappointed that the governor vetoed the funding for Wayne State College. I'm also disappointed that we didn't get enough support in the Legislature to override his veto," Elliott said. "But, I'm extremely pleased with the support we did get."

That reaffirmed to me the significant role that state colleges play in higher education to the state of Nebraska.

Elliott said he also is pleased with the support that area senators gave the college.

WHILE VETOING the funding to Wayne and Chadron, Kerrey approved a general fund of $24,579 and a cash fund of $4,950 for Kearney State to proceed with its MBA program.

While I endorse the concept of the Kearney MBA program and lean very heavily toward endorsing a similar concept

Educational endowment

St. Mary's establishes fund

Members of St. Mary's Parish of Wayne have established an educational endowment fund for their school.

The endowment was formally established on April 1, with an initial investment of $12,250. It has pledges of an additional $4,000 to date.

The funds contributed to the endowment are invested in perpetuity and will guarantee a resource for educational programs of St. Mary's Parish and St. Mary's School. Interest is distributed to the parish annually.

Contributions to the endowment fall into two categories. Charter members are persons or organizations who contribute $1,000 to the endowment by March 30, 1985. Sustaining members are persons who contribute gifts in any amount at any time.

Tax deductible contributions can include cash, stocks and bonds, life insurance policies, personal property, real estate, pensions, trusts and bequests from estates.

Funds are permanently invested in the Omaha Archdiocesan Educational Foundation at no cost to St. Mary's Parish. Current advisory committee members are Rev. Jim Buschelman, Felix Dorsey, Cheryl Hall, Max Kathol and Fred Webber.

ESU One renews contract of administrator Mills

Educational Service Unit One's board of directors, meeting Tuesday night at headquarters in Wakefield, learned that Administrator Harry Mills' contract for the 1984-85 year has been signed.

Mills' contract calls for a total salary package of $40,000 during 1984-85, plus health insurance.

His salary during 1983-84 was $37,180.

IN A REPORT to the board Tuesday night, Mills said contracts will be sent out to the unit's 48 certified employees.

Mills said the contracts will not include salaries because negotiations for the 1983-84 year have not been settled.

Deryl Lawrence of Wayne, a member of the board's contract negotiating team, said Tuesday night that the working relationship between the board team and ESU Education Association has been "very amicable."

Lawrence said a contract proposal from the board was presented to the Education Association during a meeting Monday night. If the proposal is ratified by the Education Association, it will then go back to the ESU board for ratification.

BOARD MEMBERS Tuesday night also discussed setting salaries for ESU I classified staff members, including the office staff and aides.

Mills, who recommended that all classified staff members be rehired next year, said the administration will present salary recommendations to the board for action at next month's meeting.

BOARD MEMBERS Tuesday night voted to freeze 1984-85 nursing services provided by the unit at the 1983-84 level.

On a motion by Randy Shaw, the board voted unanimously to freeze nursing services to allow the administration, board nursing committee and area schools a year to study future nursing needs and options.

Members of the nursing committee include board members Shaw, Marvin Borg

Wayne school board establishes athletic task force for three years

The study of athletic programs in the Wayne-Carroll school system and community will be the primary objective of a task force approved Monday afternoon by the Wayne-Carroll board of education.

The board voted unanimously on the formation of the Athletic Task Force as recommended by board member Joyce Reeg.

"All of these members have been contacted and they all think this is a good idea," said Reeg, adding that membership on the task force will involve a lot of participation.

SCHOOL BOARD members Monday afternoon approved a list of objectives for the task force as outlined by Reeg, with a couple of minor changes.

In the outline, Reeg said the task force's philosophy is that the primary emphasis of a sound athletic program is to provide educational experiences for the participants and opportunities for all interested male and female athletes to grow and develop to their greatest potential.

OBJECTIVES OF the task force, as outlined by Reeg and approved by the school board, include:

—Reviewing the current athletic programs in the schools and community for students in grades kindergarten through 12.

—Assessing the needs of the programs and the participants so that the school can be provided with the best possible athletic curriculum.

—Studying and researching current trends and thinking on athletics as it relates to public schools.

—Making recommendations to the board of education to improve and update athletic programs.

The task force, which has neither administrative or policy-making power, will meet monthly for three years and will act as an advisory group to the board of education.

Regarding the formation of the athletic task force, Superintendent Francis Haun told board members he has had "a lot of positive feedback from people around town."

IN OTHER business Monday, board of education members voted unanimously to accept a quality education committee report as prepared by Superintendent Haun, Joyce Mitchell, Judy Koening and Darrel Heier.

Last October, school board members adopted a position statement on quality in-

City council sees plans for new True Value store

Members of the Wayne City Council Tuesday night saw plans for construction of a True Value building on the city block which contains Bill's GW.

The council established a public hearing date of April 24 to consider a request for council approval to amend a CDBG grant for $100,000. Luaders Inc. of Wayne, in conjunction with Rod Varilek and Varilek True Value, plans to apply for a CDBG grant through the Department of Economic Development.

Plans call for a new True Value building to be constructed on the southwest corner of the block containing Bill's GW. Two buildings at the corner of 5th and Dearborn would be razed before construction could begin.

Luaders Inc. would lease the area to Varilek, who will run the True Value business there. "It would help us tremendously to have Rod down there with us," said Bill Luaders Jr.

Luaders and Varilek are seeking grant money which could be repaid over a 20-year period—the maximum amount allowed by grant regulations. However, Luaders said he would hope to have the grant repaid within seven years.

Wayne Fire Chief Dutch Sitzman informed the council that the fire department would like to burn down the existing houses for training.

Councilman Darrel Heier said he objects to the burning of the houses, especially because of the elderly who live at the nearby Villa Wayne. Sitzman promised the fire department would select a day with ideal conditions before burning the houses.

The council took no action on the fire department's plans at Tuesday's meeting.

BIDS FOR an underground irrigation system for the Wayne City ball park (Hank Overin Field) were opened Tuesday night. The bids will be reviewed and a recommendation will be made at the April 24 council meeting.

Ten companies submitted bids and one of those companies included four separate bids. All bids will be studied to see that they meet the city's requirements.

All but one of the bids were under the engineer's estimated cost of $18,000 for the project.

Seventy-five percent of the project's cost will be funded with grant money. The Wayne Baseball Association has collected the required 25 percent at the local level. The city would not have to pay anything for the system.

Bids received in the order they were opened: $15,770 from Ray Cado of Wahoo; $17,000 from Cloudburst of Grand Island; $11,450 from G.B. Sprinklers of Norfolk; $13,993 from Nebraska Sprinklers of Omaha; $17,445 from Norfolk Sprinkler Company of Norfolk; $11,985 from Omega Water Systems of Fremont; $16,848 from Rainbow Irrigation of Hartington; $17,070 from Rain King of Grand Island; $19,025 from Lohrop Farms of Crete; and $9,918.65, $10,124.55, $11,789.18, and $12,275.75 from Weyh Irrigation of Omaha.

The project could start as early as May 1 and completion time would range from seven to 20 days.

HEALTH INSURANCE specifications were presented to the council by Dennis Buller of Alexander & Alexander, who was hired to serve as the city's consultant in developing specifications. The council gave its approval of the specs.

Bids for a city employee group insurance plan will be opened on May 14. The bids will then be analyzed and a recommendation will be made to the council.

Thirteen bids, submitted for a computer system for the city, were opened Tuesday morning and range from $43,098.96 to $134,071 for total first year costs. They too will be studied by a consultant.

The results of the computer bid study will be presented with the consultant's recommendation at a council meeting on May 8 or May 29.

IN OTHER ACTION:

"The council received a petition with 13 signatures, requesting that no parking be allowed on either side of South Windom Street (south of Fairgrounds Avenue). A resolution will be drafted and placed on the next council meeting agenda.

"Approved the requests of Kuhn's Department Store and Les' Steak House for permits to make additions to their buildings. Kuhn plans to add an air conditioning unit on the south side of the building and Les' plans to place an awning over the sidewalk in front of the door. Permits were required to allow some obstruction of the sidewalks.

"Keith Mosley of Peoples Natural Gas Company presented Peoples' annual report on operating highlights, construction projects, maintenance and proposed projects.

"City Administrator Phil Kloster read a letter from Charles Kudrna, issuing a complaint of dogs running loose in his neighborhood. The letter asked that something be done to curb the problem. The issue will be placed on the council's next agenda.

"The council requested a Wayne Centennial committee quest to close off 3rd Street, and allow use of the city hall parking lot for a centennial kids parade, petting zoo and other activities.

"Approved the applications of Samuel Goode and Ken Daniels to become Wayne volunteer firemen. At that time, Councilman Fireman Decker commended Wayne's firemen for their dedication and work in fighting a fire at the Chris Bargholz home.

news briefs

Old photos, stories sought

Work is progressing on a special centennial edition which will be published by The Wayne Herald this summer.

Information about various organizations, groups, clubs, Wayne's founding families and history of the community are being collected.

We are asking everyone's assistance to help make the book a success. We're seeking articles, information and old photographs. We will return photos, articles and other items to the owners.

Individuals who have any items they would like to share are asked to call The Wayne Herald at 375-2600 and ask for Randy Hascall, Michelle Kubik or LaVon Anderson. We welcome any help we receive.

SEAN convention held at Wayne State

The Student Education Association of Nebraska held its state convention at Wayne State College Friday and Saturday.

The convention included a showing of the videotape, "Children at Risk," various speakers, regional meetings and mini-sessions.

The organization, which has approximately 1,200 members on 16 campuses, is affiliated with the Student National Education Association. SEAN is a pre-professional organization for students who have not already been salaried teachers.

Skating for mentally retarded

The Association for Retarded Citizens has scheduled its annual Super Skate fund raising event for Saturday, April 14 at the Wakefield Recreation Center.

Skaters will get pledges based on the number of miles they skate. The eight-hour skateathon will cover 100 miles and the skaters will be trying to win prizes.

Any skater who wants to participate can pick up pledge sheets at the Wakefield Recreation Center or at the Region IV Office of Developmental Disabilities in Wayne.

Thirteen attend Toastmasters

Thirteen persons attended a meeting of Toastmasters Tuesday morning. Jerry Van Rennes of Norfolk was special guest. Faunell Bennett served as toastmaster.

Topics master was Darrell Moore and table topic speakers were Dave Merchant, Jan Stalling and Sam Schroeder. Vince Leighty and Anne Svoboda presented prepared speeches.

Evaluators were Bill Wright, Dennis Lipp and Christy Wright.

Muscular dystrophy dance is Saturday

The annual Muscular Dystrophy Dance Marathon is scheduled from 8 a.m. to 12 midnight Saturday in Rice Auditorium on the Wayne State College campus.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Muscular Dystrophy Association, Delta Sigma Pi and Norfolk Beverage are co-sponsoring the dance.

The schedule: 8 a.m.—dance begins; 9 a.m.—breakfast; 10 a.m.—lunch; 11 a.m.—free throw competition; 12 p.m.—cockroach races; 1 p.m.—Aristocats performance; 2 p.m.—air guitar competition; 3 p.m.—look alike contest; 4 p.m.—supper and square dancers; 8 p.m.—celebrity dance for Wayne merchants and college faculty; 9 p.m.—ice throwing contest; 10 p.m.—open dancing; 12 midnight—marathon ends.

The public is invited to attend the dance at any time. A $1 donation will be appreciated.

Legislative breakfast is Monday

A Northeast Nebraska Legislative breakfast is being planned at 9:30 a.m. Monday in the Laurel City Auditorium.

Senators Elroy Hetner of Coleridge, Merle Von Minden of Allen, Harry Christoffer of Schuyler, Lowell Johnson of North Bend and James Galt of Tekamah will speak about the Legislative session and to answer questions.

The breakfast is sponsored by the Golden Rod Hills Council and Tri-County Council of Government and is free to the public. Coffee, rolls and juice will be served.

Last year's legislative breakfast drew more than 400 persons, according to Tim Tushie, publicity chairman for the event.

PE program slated in Carroll

Kindergarten through fourth grade students at Carroll Elementary School will present their annual physical education program on Monday, April 16 at 8 p.m. in the Carroll auditorium.

Theme for the program, under the direction of Don Koenig of Wayne, is "Ropes, Ropes and More Ropes."

Carroll School Boosters will conduct a brief business meeting with election of officers. Present officers are Larry Welterberg, president; Dennis Junck, vice president; Mrs. Gerry Hurlbert, secretary; and Mrs. Dennis Rohde, treasurer.

Serving will be Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Schluns, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Magnuson, Mrs. Phyllis Wisneski and Mrs. Kathy Billheimer.

EMT-A workshop is Tuesday

"Helping Bereaved Families," a three-hour workshop for EMT-A's and hospital personnel will be held at the Pender Firehall on Tuesday, April 17, from 7 to 10 p.m.

Lynda Rich of The Compassionate Friends, Inc. of Neligh will be the instructor. Objectives of the course include understanding the impact a child's death has on a family, differentiating between normal and abnormal grief responses, helping a family during and after the crisis and death, contacting sources of help for bereaved families, and clarifying SIDS death.

Further information may be obtained from Jean Wubben, Allied Health Coordinator at Northeast Technical Community College, 371-2020.

Wood carving workshop slated

The Northeast Nebraska Wood Carvers will sponsor a chip carving workshop on Saturday, April 14 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Norfolk Arts Center. Cost of the workshop, which is open to the public, is $10.

Instructor will be Fred Nordrum of the Mid-American Carvers. He will lecture and demonstrate three styles of chip carving.

Materials, knives and instructions will be furnished, and Nordrum will have his own knives and carvings on display for sale.

Bank women plan convention

Approximately 200 members are expected to attend the National Association of Bank Women state convention to be held at the Holiday Inn, Columbus, Nebraska, April 12, 13 and 14.

The session will open with an all-day seminar on manager development, conducted by Patricia Brill, a management consultant from New York.

Workshops will be conducted at Friday and Saturday meetings. Nadine Frakes, Vice President and Cashier of Farmers Bank, Nebraska City, Nebraska and regional director of the NABW will also address the group.

Several members of the Northeast Nebraska Group of NABW will be attending this convention.

"Four Portraits," the last in a series of six programs presented as part of "The Great Plains Experience" series, will be shown Monday, April 16 on the Wayne State College campus.

The public is invited to attend the free program at 1:30 p.m. or again at 7:30 p.m. in Ley Theatre.

Sayre Andersen, associate professor of English at Wayne State, will present "Four Portraits."

The program examines the diversity and complexity of modern plains life by looking at the lifestyles of a Montana cattle rancher, a Kansas farm family, a Lakota Indian artist, and a Texas mayor.

Fire battled at Bargholz home

Members of the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department battled a blaze Saturday night at the Chris Bargholz home, 420 West 2nd Street in Wayne.

Fire Chief Ken "Dutch" Sitzman said house damage was estimated at $40,000 and content loss was estimated at $20,000. The fire was reported at 9:56 p.m. Saturday.

Sitzman said flames damaged the office and kitchen area and smoke damaged the rest of the house. Bargholz was downstairs when the firemen arrived and Sitzman brought him out.

The fire is believed to have been started by an extension cord. Chris' wife, Verona, was getting ready for bed when she smelled smoke, Sitzman said.

Firemen fought the fire until 1:30 a.m. and then remained throughout the night to make sure it didn't start up again. Sitzman commended the firemen for the job they did.

Local appears in magazine

Pork producers across the nation are reading about Wayne farmer Dick Sorensen. A story about Sorensen appeared in the April edition of Pork '84, a monthly magazine.

An article titled "Big men don't think small," deals with Sorensen and his success as a pork producer.

The article leads off, "Legend has it that big country breeds big men. In northeast Nebraska, where long sweeping hills stretch for miles to open into the wide open prairie sky, lives one named Dick Sorensen."

The story reports that the 47 year old Sorensen sells some of the healthiest Durocs and Yorkshires around to customers in 20 states and several foreign countries.

Sorensen's thoughts while flying into the National Live Stock and Meat Board meetings are included in the article. "You start coming into Chicago, and you see the hundreds of thousands of consumers down below you and you say, 'Dick Sorensen, why in the world can't his pigs be 60, 70, 80 cents a pound when all these people out there have got to eat three meals a day?'"

The article also mentions Sorensen's fondness of football and baggins, pointing out that when he isn't at a pork producer meeting, he's probably at a University of Nebraska or a Wayne State College game.

business notes

Among the 33 lumber yard employees who successfully completed a Basic Construction and Material Estimating Course on March 28-29-30, 1984, in Lincoln were Jay Langemeier and Jim Mitchell, Carhart Lumber Company, Wayne.

The school was conducted and sponsored by the Mid American Lumbermen's Association (MLA), a trade association of more than 1,300 retail lumber and building material firms in Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Oklahoma.

The three day workshop consisted of 28 hours of instruction and discussion participation on blueprint reading, construction details, quantity estimating, and actual material take-offs. It covered estimating and construction procedures as they relate to estimating materials, taking a house for the foundation, exterior shell, etc., right on through the finished millwork.

Bills get final readings

MERLE'S MESSAGE
from the Unicameral

The second session of the 88th Legislature is swiftly drawing to a close. If all goes as planned, Monday, April 9 will be the last day of the session. With so few days left, work this week was dedicated solely to considering bills on final reading. A few of the more notable bills are worthy of discussion.

Legislature Resolution 235, a proposal for a constitutional amendment, which is my priority bill passed on Thursday morning. As a result, voters will have the opportunity next November to decide whether the constitutionally provisions should be stripped for judicial disciplinary proceedings.

If approved, the Judicial Qualifications Commission will be required to publish details of any investigation which results in a decision to discipline a judge. We are asked to retain a judge every six years. It is only right and necessary that the public have basic input which to determine the qualifications of the judge seeking retention.

LB 568 ALSO passed on final reading with my support. This bill was created to provide an incentive for public schools to provide vocational education programs to their students. $500,000 was appropriated for this purpose for the 84-85 fiscal year, and an additional $2 million for 85-86. Studies indicate that only half of our graduating seniors go on to college.

The remaining half need a marketable skill when leaving high school. It is hoped that passage of LB 568 will help our schools fulfill this need.

A measure which will provide direct property tax relief was also approved this week. LB 809, which I co-sponsored, provides for a homestead exemption by exempting the first $3,000 of a homestead's actual value from taxation.

Because counties are reimbursed in state dollars for the funds lost through this exemption, the Governor is virtually certain to veto the bill.

AN ATTEMPT to quiet the Christian school controversy was approved in the senator merle von minden

form of LB 928. Private schools will be allowed to operate without certified teachers if they can pass a test administered by the Department of Education or show competence to teach by some alternate method.

These schools will be required to meet fire, health and safety regulations and to offer a program designed to lead to basic skills in the language arts, mathematics, science, social studies and health.

LB 931 which will provide assistance to math and science students passed on a vote of 45-0. I supported this measure which continues the student loan program for math and science students enrolled in teacher training programs. Up to $500 per semester, limited to a maximum of $3,000, is loaned to these students provided they agree to teach math or science in the state following their graduation.

A bill which I co-sponsored, LB 970, was passed by a large margin, 40-6. Wayne State, along with Chadron and Kearney, will now be able to offer Masters programs in Business Administration.

The state colleges have demonstrated a need for advanced business training. I was pleased to see the Legislature recognize that need and its support to this measure.

All told, well over a hundred bills were passed during the week. Seventy-five bills were approved on Monday alone. Fifty-six more await final reading on Monday. After consideration of these and a few remaining over-ride attempts, the Legislature is scheduled to adjourn sine die Monday.

Kerrey gets setbacks

By Melvin Paul
The Nebraska Press Association

In the Final Days of the 1984 legislative session which adjourned on Monday, April 9, state lawmakers dealt Gov. Bob Kerrey a stunning series of setbacks on state spending policies.

Lawmakers overrode Kerrey's line item budget vetoes 18 times in the final days of the session, reinstating about $1 million into the state general fund budget for the fiscal year beginning on July 1. Kerrey had trimmed a total of about $15 million from the legislative budget through line item vetoes.

Among the major overrides were $2.4 million in operating funds for the University of Nebraska and $1.9 million for first year construction costs of a $4.7 million activities center at Chadron State College.

LAWMAKERS WENT home for the year after setting general fund spending for fiscal year 1984-85 at about $820 million. Compared with $747 million for current year appropriations.

Even with the spending increase, lawmakers passed a bill reducing the state income tax rate from 20 percent to 19 percent of federal tax liability. The 3.5 percent state sales tax rate will remain unchanged.

To the disappointment of many legislators, the new budget contains no significant increases in aid to local governments, particularly to local school districts, which are the largest consumers of property tax dollars.

To the extent that state aid is increased, its advocates say, local governments are able to rely less on their own property tax levy for revenue.

KERREY VETOED successfully one proposal near the end of the session to increase the $135 million state aid to education program by $25 million. At the time lawmakers sent him the appropriation, it would have put state spending for the next fiscal year over what Kerrey said was an acceptable level.

Although lawmakers discussed the possibility of raising the sales and income tax rates to provide funding for the additional state aid, they decided in the end not to do it.

The motivation for the series of budget line item veto overrides, by a Legislature which in the past has been relatively accommodating to the governor, has been the subject of speculation at the Capitol.

At the beginning of the override debate, which took place over three days, an Appropriations Committee motion to override Kerrey on a package of 12 line item vetoes fell three votes short of adoption, 27-22.

From there, lawmakers took up separate override motions on each item in the committee package. In each case, lawmakers voted to override.

"We took four hours to do what we could have done in one hour," remarked Appropriations Committee Chairman Jerome Warner of Waverly.

Some of the speculation suggested that the overrides were simply old-fashioned logrolling, helped along by lobbyists whose clients depend on state spending.

OTHERS SPECULATED that lawmakers were venting frustration with Kerrey.

The legislative agenda this session has been almost totally dictated by Kerrey's and dominated by his priorities: education, water and economic development. That left individual lawmakers little opportunity to accomplish their own goals.

According to other speculation, the overrides were prompted by Kerrey's generally inarticulate handling of budget issues this session. In a Jan. 6 budget speech, Kerrey told lawmakers he was proposing a 7 percent spending increase. But when all his spending proposals were counted, his proposed increase was 13 percent.

Feelings were ruffled later in the session when Kerrey invited lawmakers to send along their proposed budget impact so that he could chop out the $15 million of their spending to accommodate some of his favorite projects.

If those matters weren't enough, many lawmakers thought it was heavy-handed of Kerrey to take 38.6 percent increase in his own office budget at a time he was slicing the Legislature's own operating budget through line-item vetoes.

On its own budget, the Legislature overrode Kerrey's vetoes $114 million in operating funds, but sustained his veto of $600,000 for remodeling of legislative hearing rooms.

Triskaidekaphobia — the fears and fallacies of Friday the 13th

To the editor:
Triskaidekaphobia! What is it? If anyone has read the 1984 almanac they will know what I am writing about. It is the fear of the number 13 and especially when it falls on a Friday. 1984 holds three of these ill-fated days.

No year has more than three Fridays, nor less than one. April 13 is about here so don't fear! It is clear that it's just another day of the year.

In this 20th century — 1928, 1956 and 1984 are the only years that have three Fridays in January, April and July. All the other years — 1903, 1914, 1925, 1931, 1942-1955, 1959, 1970, 1981, 1982, and 1998 have the three Fridays in February, March and Nov.

It is interesting to note that all these years have the intervals of one, three and 11 years. Then to find that all these interval years contain only the numbers one and three. Maybe what saved the 20th century was 14 ill-omened years instead of 13. Should we be wary of the 13th year in 1987? Besides, are those born on Friday the 13th to be fearful or are they to be feared?

At one time Rome had a 13 Club that consisted of only 13 members and met on the 13th of each month. Not only would I have qualified for this club with my 11-starred birth, but also have other coincidences concerning the numbers one and three.

When one relates these numbers to God (one-in-three) it does tell us something good about them. Should we fear a number? This adage answers the question, "Fear not tomorrow, God is already there." Also, we should remember never to put faith in a number.

Though, I'm not a triskaidekaphobia and in jest relate to Friday the 13th as being unlucky. Reading horoscopes in the same matter, useless but interesting to its coincidental facts. Fortunetellers are not to be because of their direct personal seriousness of their predeterminations.

Now, I make quips of unlucky fate through a collection of repeated expressions. Familiar with everyone is the only common fact, if I had no bad luck, I'd have no luck at all!

Would you believe hard times were my good times? When I was a kid I was never licked by my friendly dog but by the razor strap that hung on the closet wall.

Sometimes being a loser isn't always bad especially when you lose weight and become a winner. The only flower I ever get comes from the grocery aisle, marked-baking supplies.

Seeking peace has always been my aim but many times was disillusioned by getting a piece of someone else's mind.

Singing this tune one day, "Nobody likes me, everybody hates me guess I'll go eat worms." I was politely interrupted with, "Mam, everybody hasn't met you yet." Oh, what hope! Course you can guess who always gets the neck of the chicken.

Life is a bowl of cherries and I'm the one in the pits. Life really isn't a bowl of cherries. It's a bunch of raisins — raisin heck, raisin kids and raisin money.

It never fails when I select one of my longer pencils the eraser is totally gone. Mistakes, mistakes, mistakes.

When soup was ever served, it seemed like the straining spoon was always accidently put beside my bowl.

Maybe to discard all this bad luck I'll have to cross-poison-ivy with a four-leaf-clover and get a rash of good luck.

If you read this letter as you would a fairy tale, then you have nothing to fear and are not suffering from triskaidekaphobia. With all this bad luck, I'll sign my letter a luckless name.

Tax rate decrease proven faulty

To the editor:
Of the many concerns I have about Senator Von Minden's ability to adequately represent the people of northeast Nebraska in the Unicameral, the most recent is a result of comments he made in his column in yesterday's Herald. His resignation to the fact of what he believes are minimal tax breaks that were passed by the Unicameral is based on incorrect information.

Specifically, Senator Von Minden demonstrated in that column his inability to grasp certain mathematical concepts that are generally taught in the eighth and ninth grades. He refers to the income tax rate decrease from 20 percent to 19 percent as a "real" decrease of one percent.

A minute with a calculator shows that this is a REAL "real" decrease of 5 percent. For example, a taxpayer whose Federal tax liability is ($4000 X .20 equals $800.) in Nebraska taxes at the 20 percent rate. At 19 percent however, that person would pay ($4000 X .19 equals $760.). That reduction of $40, is 5 percent of the 20 percent rate — not 1 percent as the Senator stated.

The same goes with the sales tax rate. A reduction from 4 percent to 3.5 percent results in a savings of 12.5 percent Nebraska.

These are substantial savings by any measure of reckoning save Senator Von Minden's. They are, furthermore, troublesome to those of us who feel a responsibility to help balance budgets by paying our fair share of the expenses through our taxes.

Communism cannot be ignored

To the editor:
Soviet Russia has a one-party dictatorship with no basic rights of speech, press and assembly. Communism ignores the concern of the governed and grows by violence, deception and subjugation. The government owns the land and the people lose the rights to own land.

The State controls your job, your house, your neighborhood and education of your children.

Despite protestations of being peace loving, the Soviets used troops and tanks to establish puppet regimes in Eastern Europe. The brutally ruthless takeover of Afghanistan is in its fourth year.

The incredible downing of Korean Airlines flight 007 with loss of 269 lives, raises questions about the Soviets. What if it had been an American flight, or at a time of acute tension?

The Communist threat is real, so there must be no illusions about the nature of the Soviet oligarchy or the system it seeks to impose over the world. We must not repeat the blunder of appeasement, Neville Chamberlain made at Munich, resulting in World War II and destruction of 40 million people.

"Fresh Aire" concert is a success

To the editor:
The Manheim Streamroller and their presentation of Fresh Aire music this past Thursday presented its only concert this year in the state of Nebraska. That concert was held in Rice Auditorium, WSC, Wayne.

The Concert was attended by a very responsive audience of all ages from throughout the Midwest. Four standing ovations demonstrates the reception the performing group received at the conclusion of the concert. It was a spectacular evening for all who attended.

I would like to publicly thank Bill Kugler and the Volunteer Fire Department, Julie Burney and her kids, Frank Teach, Ron Jones, Earl Larson and his staff, Dargid Soden and Staff, First National and State National banks, KTCB, the Wayne Herald, and other WSC personnel who helped with the event.

And thank you Fresh Aire performers and production crew for giving Wayne your very best. Long live the cricket!

Local airport seen as adequate

Dear editor:
I'm writing you about a comment that was made by Ms. Anne Svoboda executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, during a council meeting interview last Thursday.

She stated that the local airport is not adequate for most corporations — even after proposed expansions are made. Ms. Svoboda went on to say that many corporations have company jets that require more space.

It is obvious she knows little or nothing about what type of aircraft may use the airport, now or in the future, after expansion is completed. Many corporate aircraft already commute to and from Wayne. Just a few examples are the Beech King Air, Piper Cheyenne, Mitsubishi Marquise and Cessna Conquest. All of these are twin engine turbo props capable of 300 MPH plus.

Tired of big government spenders

To the editor:
There has been so much comment about LB744, the bill that would ban video lottery machines.

I would like to see an itemized statement showing the income from these machines and how this money was spent.

The city administrator, Phil Kloster, was on TV last week stating that Wayne received $750 a month from the machines. This means $9,000 a year was taken in. He also stated the money was used to replace trees on Main Street. Planting trees on Main Street was such a foolish thing to do to begin with.

I, personally, would like to see property taxes reduced but we never received that. Ten years ago that tax on our property (then five years old) was $350. Now that same property cost us $670, almost double.

The Legislature had the nerve to try and raise state sales tax to 5 percent so they

With the runway expansion completed, jet aircraft will be more than capable of using the airport.

For example, a favorite of the corporate ranks, the Gates Learjet Model 28, is capable of take-off over a 50-foot obstacle in 2,998 feet at a gross weight of 15,500 pounds. Even after taking into consideration the excellent stops factor added to by all cautious pilots, this allows plenty of runway for take-off and landing.

Comments like those of Ms. Svoboda's not only give the local public a bad impression of the airport, but no doubt would discourage any industry from locating in Wayne.

As they say, "with friends like that, who needs enemies."

could reduce property tax. How much do you bet the sales tax would have gone up and the property tax probably would have too? The answer is to CUT spending — something unheard of on the city, state and federal level.

Gov. Kerry was appalled at the Federal deficit but his budget is appalling to me. He is the biggest spender of all and let's not forget it when he runs for re-election.

Tired of the big spenders

Briefly speaking

Public invited to hear Geist

The public is invited to attend a program featuring Darrell Geist and his wife Sonita on Friday and Saturday, April 13 and 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church in Wayne. A free will offering will be taken each night. Geist, who works under the auspices of Solo Ministries, Inc., is one of America's most requested gospel recording artists and motivational speakers. He performs in churches, schools, businesses and community affairs across the nation.

Laurel-Concord chorus singing

The Laurel-Concord Ministerium will sponsor its 10th community chorus concert on Palm-Sunday, April 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the Laurel-Concord High School gymnasium. The program, which is open to the public, tells the story of Christ's life from birth to resurrection. There is no admission, however a free will offering will be taken. The choir, which is comprised of 74 members from six area churches and several denominations, is under the direction of Mrs. Marian Mallatt.

Seat belt poster winners named

"Get It All Together" was the slogan for a seat belt poster contest sponsored by the Dixon County Home Extension Council. Third graders from Dixon County were invited to make posters depicting the safety benefits of fastening seat belts when riding in automobiles. Entries were received from the Dixon, Allen, Newcastle and Ponca schools. Winners were Nikki Kehoe, Newcastle, first place; Brett Polk, Ingham, Ponca, second place; and Bren Mattes, Allen, third place. Heather Sachau of Allen received honorable mention. Prizes awarded by the council were $5 for first, $3 for second, and $2 for third. The three winning posters will be entered in the Nebraska "Get It All Together" poster contest to be judged in May. The state contest is sponsored by the Nebraska Council of Home Extension Clubs.

Program at Christian Assembly

Owen Anderson, nationally known recording artist from Alma, Neb., will conduct an inspirational worship service Wednesday, April 18 at Christian Life Assembly of God Church, 901 Circle Dr., Wayne. The public is invited to attend the program at 7:30 p.m. Anderson has traveled throughout the central and western United States, giving testimony and bringing the gospel in song.

Doctorate degree completed

Bonnie (Luff) Johnson, daughter of Fred and Leona-Luff of Wayne, recently completed work on her doctorate degree in education at Oregon State University. Dr. Johnson is on staff in the School of Education at Oregon State University. She graduated from Wayne State with her bachelor's degree and received her master's degree at Adams State in Alamosa, Colo.

Acme Club correction

A report in Monday's edition of The Wayne Herald incorrectly stated that the next meeting of Acme Club would be April 24. The next meeting is scheduled April 16 at 2 p.m. in the home of Marguerite Parke.

Bake sale, luncheon in Laurel

The Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Laurel will hold its annual bake sale and luncheon on Saturday, April 14 in the Laurel city auditorium. Coffee and rolls will be served from 10 to 11 a.m., followed with lunch from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Drawings will be held for a $50 gift certificate from Laurel Lockers, two $25 certificates from Laurel IGA, a $15 gift certificate from the Wagon Wheel Steakhouse. Two large dollies and one statue.

ARC elects new officers

The Wayne County Association for Retarded Citizens (ARC) recently elected officers for the coming year. New officers are Rod Blunck, president; Kay Cattle, secretary-treasurer; and Be Magdanz and Carol Bauermeister, board members. Blunck, Mrs. Cattle and Mrs. Magdanz represented Wayne County at the state ARC convention held this past weekend in Columbus. Mrs. Cattle and Mrs. Magdanz served on the program committee for the state meeting. Areas covered during the convention included parental involvement programs, community based programs, legislative reports, and a review of current national legislation. Next meeting of Wayne County ARC is scheduled April 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the conference room of Region IV. The public is invited to attend.

Luncheon reservations due

Women planning to attend the annual spring kickoff luncheon at Wayne Country Club are asked to make their reservations by Tuesday, April 17. Reservations should be made with Marcella Larson, 375-2848, or Kaki Ley, 375-2017. The luncheon is scheduled Tuesday, April 24 at noon. A centennial theme will be used and all women attending are encouraged to wear centennial costumes. There will be an old-fashioned American meal, followed with entertainment and prizes.

Winter pastimes told at club

Mrs. Ron Penlerick was hostess for the April 5 meeting of Logan Homemakers Club. Roll call was answered with a winter pastime. Members brought tray favors for Providence Medical Center. Secret sisters will be revealed at the next meeting, scheduled May 3 at 7 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Gilbert Russ.

Social Circle tours Wakefield

Nine members of Central Social Circle toured Wakefield last week, visiting the Milton G. Waldbaum Co. and Posie Pauller. Joyce Niemann was in charge of the tour and Joceli Bull was hostess for a meeting afterward at The Hotel. Next meeting is Guest Day on April 30 in the home of Vernia Mae Creamer. Mary Kleper will be the leader and Pat Melerhenry will be the speaker.

Valerie Eddie April bride of Chuck Gubbels at Wayne

The marriage of Valerie Eddie of Carroll to Chuck Gubbels of Randolph was solemnized in 2 o'clock rites April 7 at the First United Methodist Church in Wayne.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Eddie of Carroll, is a 1982 graduate of Randolph High School and a 1983 graduate of Bahners College of Hairstyling in Fremont.

The bridegroom, a 1979 graduate of Randolph High School, is employed at Terra Chemicals in Randolph. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gubbels of Randolph. The newlyweds traveled to Montana following their wedding and are making their home at 110 W. Hughson, Box 62, in Randolph.

THE REV. Keith Johnson of Wayne officiated at the double ring ceremony. Decorations were in blue and yellow.

Cheryl Kopperud of Wayne sang "Annie's Song," "One Hand, One Heart," and "Theme from Evergreen," accompanied by Brad Eddie of Omaha.

Maid of honor was Monica Eddie of Wayne, and bridesmaids were Lisa Flood of Stanton, Karla Burbach of Carroll, and Debby Koehler and Sharon Gubbels of Randolph.

Serving as best man was Dennis Spader of Norfolk. Groomsmen were Brian Eddie of Beatrice, Mark Gubbels of Atkinson, and Russ and Kevin Gubbels of Randolph.

GUESTS WERE registered by Danell DeLozier of Yankton, S. D. and Rhonda Dahlkoetter of Carroll.

Ushers were Kirby Meyer, Gary Clark and Larry Korth, all of Randolph, and Gene Arduer of Ord. Lighting candles were Kristine Kopperud of Wayne and Regina Reineke of Randolph.

Flower girl was Kimberly Gubbels of Atkinson, and ring bearer was Derek DeLozier of Yankton.

GIVEN IN marriage by her parents, the bride appeared in an ivory floor-length gown with an attached chapel train.

The dress was designed with a basque bodice adorned with imported English tulle netting over bridal taffeta.

The leg-of-mutton sleeves were enhanced with Venice sprays and cuffed with button closures, and her skirt arched from an empire waistline featuring re-embroidered filigree.

She wore an ivory coachman hat adorned with silk roses, string pearls and illusion veiling, and carried a bouquet of yellow and blue roses and carnations accented with baby's breath and blue and yellow streamers.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore two-piece marigot blue dresses fashioned with sheer jewel neckline jackets and long sheer sleeves adorned with dyed-to-match lace. The crystal pleated skirts fell from arched waistlines.

Each carried one blue carnation and one yellow rose, both long stemmed, with blue and yellow streamers and baby's breath.

The bridegroom wore an ivory tuxedo, and his attendants wore silver tuxedos with white shirts.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Eddie selected a floor-length polyester knit dress in marigot blue designed with a lace bodice. Mrs. Gubbels wore a blue pleated polyester knit in floor length with a lace jacket.

Both mothers wore corsages of yellow roses.

MR. AND Mrs. Bill Rezac of Norfolk and Mr. and Mrs. Randy Nieman of Fremont greeted the 275 guests who attended a recep-

Omaha church setting for Bargstadt-Gustafson rites

Lutheran Church of the Master in Omaha was the setting for the April 7 ceremony uniting in marriage Debra Bargstadt and Robert Gustafson.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bargstadt of Winside and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gustafson of Omaha.

Officiating at the 1 o'clock double ring ceremony was the Rev. Robert Schaff.

Wedding music included "Wedding Song," "Just You and I," and "Your Song," sung by Paula, Freeman and Roger Lamb. Organist was Robert Ackley.

GUESTS, registered by Patti-

Lackovic of Omaha, were ushered into the church by Eric Gustafson. Gary Gustafson and Roger Bargstadt, all of Omaha, and Randall Bargstadt of Winside.

Flower girl was Jennifer Wade of Winside, and ring bearer was Justin Bargstadt of Winside.

Honor attendants were Joan Weible and Tom Edwardson, both of Omaha.

Bridesmaids were Jane Weible, Lynne Steier, Jan Eaton and Laurie Piper, all of Omaha, and groomsmen were Ron Gustafson of Clarinda, Iowa, Ray Gustafson of Kansas City, Kan., and Randy Gustafson and Wayne Piper, both of Omaha.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, a reception for 300 guests was held at Roncalli High School in Omaha. The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Burris of Winside and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Andersen of Omaha. Gifts were arranged by Barb Maxwell of Beatrice and Anne Muldoon of Omaha.

Mrs. Ralph Tesch of Pierce and Mrs. Clarence Bargstadt of Norfolk cut and served the cake. Mrs. Gottlieb Jaeger of Winside poured, and Mrs. Randall Bargstadt of Winside and Mrs. Roger Bargstadt of Omaha served punch.

THE NEWLYWEDS traveled to the east coast following their wedding and will make their home at 9233 Ohio, in Omaha. The bride is employed at AT&T Information Systems, and the bridegroom works at Northwestern Bell.

bridal showers

26th childrens play

'Adventures of Harlequin' opens Sunday at WSC

"The Adventures of Harlequin," William Glennon's comedy play for children, will open Sunday, April 15 at Wayne State College in Ramsey Theatre, located in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Center.

The play, which is being staged by the Wayne State theatre department, will run through Thursday, April 19.

"The Adventures of Harlequin," the 26th annual children's play at Wayne State, attempts to recapture the wit and style of the Renaissance Commedia dell'Arte, or professional comedy.

This unique style of theatre was born in Italy in the early part of the 16th century.

In the play, the audience learns how Harlequin, with the help of his family and friends, becomes a member of the strolling players.

THE PLAY is under the direction of Dr. Helen Russell, professor of humanities at Wayne State College. Juli Burney, instructor of humanities, is in charge of set design.

Cast members include Tom Fletcher of Wayne as Harlequin; Mindae Zimmerman of Norfolk as Anna; Darrel Fickbohm of Sioux City as Capitano; Kate Lepler of Norfolk as Isabella; and Karlene Benschoot of Carroll as Tina.

Other cast members are Brenda Blaker of Schuyler as Gia; Christine Story of Yutan as Maria; Don Kneiff of Ponca as Daniel; Mitch Schulte of Emerson as Pantalone; and Laura Von Bergen of Merville, Iowa as Mama.

Rod Grove of South Sioux City is the assistant director and stage manager for the play.

PERFORMANCE DATES and times for the play are April 15 at 7 p.m.; April 16 at 1 p.m.; April 17 at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.; April 18 at 1 p.m.; and April 19 at 10 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Admission is $3 for adults and $1 for children, with group rates available.

Reservations, which are necessary for all but the April 15 performance, can be made by calling Helen Russell, Wayne State College, (402) 375-2200, ext. 422.

engagements

Janecek-Nodgaard

Making plans for a June 16 wedding at New Zion Presbyterian Church in Clarkson are Wayne State College students Julie Ann Janecek and Douglas James Nodgaard.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Janecek of Dodge, is a 1980 graduate of Dodge High School and plans to graduate in May 1984 from Wayne State.

Her fiancé graduated from Omaha-South High School in 1980 and plans to graduate in May 1984 from Wayne State, where he is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nodgaard of Omaha.

Schmadeke-Wintermote

Making plans for a June wedding at Coronado Island, Calif. are Heidi Lee Schmadeke, a 1981 graduate of Wayne State College, and Michael Lantz Wintermote.

The bride's mother, Elaine Draper of El Cajon, Calif., and her husband Richard will host the wedding on June 16 when Miss Schmadeke is escorted down the aisle by her father, Harley Schmadeke of Sioux City. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Wintermote of El Centro, Calif.

The bride-elect is presently attending the College of Osteopathic Medicine in Pomona, Calif., and her fiancé is pursuing an engineering degree at Grossmont College.

Following their wedding, they will resume their studies in the Pomona area.

Nettletons mark 25th anniversary

The silver wedding anniversary of Wakefield residents Gene and JoAnn Nettleton was observed Sunday, April 8 with an open house reception at Herbie's Hideaway in Wakfield.

Hosts were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill (Tami) Warren and Melissa, Mr. and Mrs. Larry (Teresa) Soderberg, Brenda Nettleton and Shelley Nettleton, all of Wakefield.

Kathy Westerhold of Norfolk registered the 270 guests, who attended from Emerson, Wakefield, Norfolk, Wayne, Carroll, Pender, Thurston, North Platte, St. Paul, Beemer, Walthill, Papillion, Randolph, Laurel and Hubbard.

Gifts were arranged by Melissa Warren of Wakefield and Dawn Bruns of Norfolk.

THE ANNIVERSARY cake, which was baked by Ida Witt of Wakefield, was cut and served by Donna Roeber of Wakefield and Elinor Nettleton of Norfolk.

Marcy Roeber of Wakefield poured, and Dyleen Bruns of Norfolk served punch.

Children and friends of the honored couple served as waitresses. Assisting in the kitchen were Sondra Mattes and Ida Witt, both of Wakefield.

NETTLETONS were married at St. Paul's Church in Emerson on April 4, 1959. They have resided on a farm northeast of Wakefield since their marriage.

Among those attending their anniversary reception were Lloyd and Donna Roeber of Wakefield, attendants at the wedding 25 years ago.

Meet records set at USD

Four meet records were broken by Wayne State track athletes at Saturday's college portion of the Dan Lennon Invitational track meet in Vermillion, S.D.

Three of the marks were shattered by Coach LeRoy Simpson's women's team and one by his men's squad. Three of those four records came in the field events.

Tracy Newberger threw the women's shot put 42 feet 6 inches to better the meet record by nine inches. Her effort also broke her own school record. Vicki Bykkit broke the meet mark in the high jump with a 5 1/2 leap. That jump tied her existing WSC record.

The Wildcats' medley relay team was the other women's record setter. Missy Stollenberg, Kim Pohman, Cindy Heesacker and Lisa Pyle won in 1:52.50.

Mark Voller tripled jumped 47 1/4 to smash the meet mark by almost three inches and his own week-old school record by almost an inch.

The WSC women also picked up a first place medal by winning the 100-yard hurdles in 1:39.2. Stollenberg was third in that race in 1:44.4 and third in the 100-yard dash in 1:16.0. Pyle was second in the 400 in 1:00.50 and Heesacker was third with the same time, just a fraction behind Pyle.

Also coming in third were Lynn Surber in the 800 in 2:29.45 and Jo Carlson in the shot put with a 39.8 1/2 throw.

Vollmer was second in the long jump with a fine 22-5 3/4 leap. Also second for WSC was Jeff Sorenson in the high jump at 6-4. Third-place awards went to Darrin Blackburn in the 100-yard hurdles in 1:29.9 and Scott Driver in the pole vault at 14-0. Blackburn is missing spring football practice to compete with the track team.

Meet provides tough competition

With teams spanning a broad area, the Columbus Lakeview Invitational provided tough competition Monday.

In the girls division, Wakefield finished fourth while Wayne finished eighth. Wayne was seventh in the boys division.

Wakefield's dynamic duo of Suzanne Steiling and Susie McQuistan accounted for a majority of the Trojans' points in the meet.

By placing third in the 300-meter hurdles and fifth in the 100-meter hurdles, The 4-by-400 team of Lori Anderson, Kecia Corbit, Beth Janke and Fran Gross placed second in a time of 4:20.07.

Jacobson, Joely Allen, Fran Gross and Cindy Brown teamed up to place fifth in the 4-by-100 relay. Allen placed fifth in the 200-meter dash, Brown was sixth in the 100-meter dash and Anderson was sixth in the 400. Fran Gross didn't run the 400 dash because she didn't feel well.

The Blue Devils are scheduled to compete in a triangular at Wisner today (Thursday) and then in a freshman-sophomore meet at Wisner on Saturday.

STELLING won the 800-meter run in 2:29.07, placed third in the high jump at 4-10 and placed third in the 400-meter dash with a time of 1:21.13. Her time of 2:29.07 set a school record for the 800 and it was only the second time she has ever competed in the event.

McQuistan placed second in the 100-meter dash with a time of 1:33.36 and third in the 200 with a time of 2:37.33. Kristal Clay placed fifth in the long jump with a mark of 15-1.

The Trojan team of Kristi Miller, Michele Meyer, Clay and Stelling was third in the 4-by-400 relay with a time of 4:25.75. In the 4-by-100, Miller, Meyer, Clay and McQuistan teamed up to finish third in 1:54.12.

DAN GROSS led the Wayne boys by winning the 400-meter dash with a time of 1:51.94. Blaine Johns placed fourth in the 800 with a time of 2:10.6.

In relay races, Wayne finished fifth in the 3,200 meters race, sixth in the 400 and sixth in the 1,600.

Coach Al Hansen pointed out that the 3,200 relay team ran an identical 9:01 at the Lakeview Invitational and at last week's Wayne State Invitational. The only difference was that the relay team placed first at WSC and fifth at Lakeview.

Hansen also said that Kevin Koenig's discus throw of 139.7 in last week's WSC meet set a new school record. The old record of 137.8 was set by Rod Hoops in 1975.

After nine holes of play, Oakland held a 157 to 163 lead over Wayne. The Blue Devils finished with a 163 total for the second nine while Oakland came in with a 158. Two team trophies were awarded.

Cole Froeschel of Wayne earned the second place medal by winning a sudden death playoff with Clay Gibbs of Oakland. The two golfers were tied at 78, one stroke behind medalist Mike Peterson of Oakland.

Another Oakland golfer, Kelly Danielson, placed fourth. All five of Oakland's golfers shot below 84.

Wayne's Rod Dahl won the sixth place medal by shooting an 80. Brad Moore of Wayne tied for 10th place with three other golfers and settled for the 11th place medal in a playoff. Moore shot an 83.

Fifteen individual medals were presented and Wayne's Tom Perry was awarded the 15th place medal. He tied for 14th with a score of 85 but lost a playoff. Wayne's other varsity golfer for the meet was freshman Kevin Griess who carded an 88.

Wayne coach Harold Maciejewski said competition for varsity positions on the team is fierce. He pointed out that Wayne Marsh, Tim Griess and Perry Benschoot all are fighting for varsity spots.

The Blue Devils are scheduled to play against Norfolk Catholic at Norfolk today (Thursday) and then compete in the Oakland Invitational on Saturday. The junior varsity team will play in the Pierce Invitational Saturday.

WSC football team signs seven

Wayne State football coach Pete Chapman announced the signing of seven high school and transfer football players to letters of intent for the Wildcat grid program.

The seven players include talented backs and linemen, said the second-year coach who is leading his team through a weather-hindered second week of spring practice.

"We are really happy to get these seven players," Chapman said. "Some of them will provide immediate help this fall."

The seven new Wildcats are:
Ben Lehr, 6-2, 220-pound offensive lineman from Omaha Central High School;

Lehr, who originally signed to walk on at Nebraska, was a first-team Class A. all star last fall.

Rodney Holley, 5-9, 175-pound running back from Brooklyn (N.Y.) Lafayette High School. Holley was an MVP in the recent Brooklyn All-Star Game. He is a cousin of Darryl James, a tailback for the USFL's Oklahoma Outlaws who played at Yankton College under Coach Chapman.

Mike McNamara, 6-1, 190-pound running back from South Sioux City High School.

Bob Backman, 5-10, 165-pound flanker from Ponca High School. Backman was an all conference and honorable mention all state running back in 1983.

Rich Ten Eyck, 6-2, 245-pound defensive lineman from Valley High School.

Kevin Thurman, 6-0, 205-pound running back from Washington Park High School in Racine, Wis. He is a freshman redshirt transfer from Northern Michigan.

Mike Anderson, 6-2, 240-pound offensive and defensive lineman from Tekamah Herman High School.

Scrimmages scheduled

Two controlled scrimmages are planned this week by the Wayne State football team, according to second-year head coach Pete Chapman. Last Saturday's planned scrimmage was wiped out by rain, forcing an additional one this week.

"We're going to scrimmage on Saturday afternoon at about 2:30 and all Wayne State fans are invited to come watch," said Chapman.

The Omaha native who came to WSC one year ago from Yankton College said the date of the other scrimmage this week has not been determined yet.

The first week of spring football practice at Wayne State accomplished about what Chapman expected it would. Some 60 players finally got outside last week for practice. Bad weather postponed the start of spring drills one week and even the, the team had to work indoors for a couple days until conditions improved.

"Everything progressed as we had hoped it would," Chapman said. "Some areas are further ahead than we thought and others are behind. One place we're dragging behind in is our passing game."

Except for quarterbackbacks, virtually all the WSC wide receivers and tight ends practicing this spring are newcomers.

The team will work out every day this week. Spring practice ends with the April 28 alumni-varsity spring football game in Memorial Stadium.

Basketball camp planned

Wayne State College Head Basketball Coach Rick Weaver has announced the dates for the annual Wayne State Basketball Camp. The camp is scheduled in 4 sessions from June 18-29.

The first session for boys in grades 5-8 will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon, June 18-22. The second session for girls in grades 5-8 is scheduled from 1 to 4 p.m., June 18-22.

The other 2 sessions will be held from June 25-29. From 9 a.m. to 12 noon, boys in grades 9-12 will meet. Girls in grades 9-12 will meet from 1 to 4 p.m.

Cost of attending the camp will be $25. The staff will consist of Weaver and assistant Lenny Klaver, top area high school and junior high coaches, and WSC players.

Bowling tourney at Melodee Lanes

Men and women in the Wayne area are invited to participate in a no tap—no split bowling tournament at Melodee Lanes.

The tourney will run four weekends (Saturday and Sunday nights) beginning April 28 and 29.

Events will include: Scotch doubles—four games with partners alternating turns; and men's and women's singles.

No tap—no split scoring means that nine pins knocked down on the first ball thrown counts as a strike, with a split receiving an automatic spare mark.

For more information, call 375 3390. Telephone reservations are required.

Second Guessers banquet April 29

The Wayne Second Guessers are planning their sports appreciation banquet Sunday, April 29 in the north dining room of the Wayne State Student Union, beginning at 6 p.m.

Speaker will be Norris Patterson, commissioner of the Central States Intercollegiate Conference.

The purpose of the annual banquet is to honor Wayne State student athletes and thank businesses and individuals who have supported Second Guessers by advertising in the activities brochure.

Attendance to the banquet is by invitation only. All Second Guessers and brochure advertisers are welcome to attend.

Wrestlers bring home medals

With wrestling season drawing near the end, area grapplers brought home more medals from youth meets at Stanton and Creighton over the weekend.

Wayne sent wrestlers to each town while Winside's team competed at Stanton. The season's last meet, the Winside Invitational, is scheduled Saturday. The public is invited to attend the meet.

In the Stanton meet, Winside had seven champions in Mace Kant, Max Kant, Jason Krueger, Jamie Holdorf, Jason Maquire, Donny Nelson and Brain Thompson.

Wayne's lone gold medal winner was Brad Landanger.

SECOND PLACE finishers included Travis Koester of Wayne and Chad Carlson, Scott Jacobsen, Lee Meier, Corey Miller and Trevor Topp of Winside.

Finishing third were Wayne's Jason Cole and Winside's Jeff Carlson, Chris Mann and Brett Serven.

Fourth place finishers were Mark Janssen, Josh Jones, Jimmy Kittleman, James Painter and Steve Volle, all of Winside; and Ryan Newman, Jay DeWald and Heath DeWald of Wayne.

At Creighton, Wayne's Chris Janke and Chris Fredrickson won individual titles. Placing second were Joel Peterson, Randy Osentowski and David Cowgill.

Third place medal winners were Brian Gamble, Brian Gannaway, Mike DeNayer and Matt Peterson. In fourth place were Brent Gamble, Matt Hillier and Matt Bruggeman.

Lady Wildcats boost record

A break in the soggy spring weather gave Wayne State's Lady Wildcat softball team a chance to open its home schedule and rack up an impressive five-game win streak in games played Thursday and Friday.

The Lady Cats' record now stands at 12-8. In a regularly scheduled double-header on Thursday, the Lady Cats took advantage of numerous errors by visiting Concordia College and collected a 10-1 and 14-0 pair of wins. Pitcher Lesa Finger tagged the opening win, while junior Laurie Owens picked up the win in the regular.

On Friday, the Lady Cats picked up three more wins, including a 7-2 victory over Concordia College in the day's opening game. Freshman pitcher Mary Lingelbach earned her second win in as many starts with the victory.

In the second game, WSC notched its first NAIA District 11 win with an 11-1 victory over College of St. Mary. Laurie Owens earned the win on the mound. WSC's bats were also in action, with a total of 15 hits in the game, including a double by freshman Shelle Tomaszewicz and a triple by Teresa Durbala.

In the final win, the Lady Cats had to come from behind to catch the Lady Chiefs of Morningside College in an 8-7 decision that went eight innings. Lesa Finger was tabbed with the win.

Owens' pitching record is 7-3, while Finger is 3-5.

WSC team splits with Antelopes

In its first games in exactly four weeks, Coach Lenny Klaver's Wayne State baseball team split with rival Kearney State in Kearney on Saturday.

The Wildcats stopped the Lopers 4-1 behind the five-hit pitching of Neil Brown, then lost the second game 7-6. Wayne State is now 2-1.

"We played really well all around on Saturday," said Klaver. "Neil Brown didn't have great stuff in the first game, but he pitched well enough to get the outs when we needed them."

"Pete Miller, Rich Murcek, Jeff Clark and Kurt Brosmale all hit well for us. Clark went four for five with a pair of doubles."

Brown was backed up by 10 hits from his Black and Gold teammates in the opener. Pete Miller led a group of four Wildcats who all had a pair of hits. Miller went two for three including a double and finished with three RBIs.

Jeff Clark and Kurt Brosmale both went two for three with one double and Rich Murcek had a pair of singles. Gregg Cruickshank had an RBI double and Glenn Morrisette had a lone hit for the winners.

Brown struck out four while hurling all seven innings. He is 2-2 on the mound.

The Lopers scored five runs in the sixth to take the one-run win in the second game. WSC had 5-2 lead before the home team untied in the sixth.

The Wildcats had seven hits. Clark went two for two with one double and three RBIs, while Cruickshank also had two hits. Murcek had an RBI single. Morrisette knocked in a run with a sacrifice and Miller, and Mike Hutcheon had singles.

Dan Hilgenkamp took the pitching loss. He is now 0-4.

WSC is scheduled for games at Westmar College today and Doane College in Wayne tomorrow (Friday).

April CLEP exams offered at WSC

A program that enables persons to earn college credits by examination will be offered April 16 at Wayne State College.

The College Level Examination Program (CLEP) provides students the option of earning college credit without enrolling in college courses.

Students wishing to participate must register on or before Monday, April 16.

ANYONE CAN take CLEP exams and submit scores to one of 2,500 participating institutions. To receive college credit at Wayne State, students must either be currently enrolled or have met Wayne State admission requirements.

Students can get a good overview of the areas they select to take a CLEP exam by obtaining a booklet titled "Guide to the CLEP Examinations" from the Student Services Office at the college.

The booklet can help students decide if they have enough knowledge about particular academic areas to attempt the related CLEP examinations.

The booklet may be borrowed on an overnight basis or purchased for $5.

CREDIT received for CLEP is entered on a student's record without a grade, thereby not affecting grade point averages.

There is no official record entered if the CLEP exam is failed, and students can re-take the same exam again, provided appropriate fees are paid.

Wayne State places no limit on the maximum number of credit hours earned through CLEP and taken before the senior year.

Each CLEP exam usually takes about 90 minutes to complete. The fee for General and Subject Examinations is $28 per exam. Scores are reported to the student and the college within one week.

For more information contact the Wayne State College Student Services Office (CLEP, 402) 375-2200, ext. 213.

THE WSC Concert Choir will perform on Sunday.

Spring concert

Wayne choir presents show

The only Nebraska college choir to tour Europe this spring will present a sneak preview of its European repertoire during their Spring Choral Concert on Sunday (April 15) at 3 p.m. in the Ley Theatre, located on the second floor of the Brandenburg Education building on the Wayne State College campus.

The concert is free and open to the public.

The 60-member Wayne State College Concert Choir, under the direction of Dr. Cornell Runestad, will open the concert singing the national anthems of some European countries. They plan to visit this May when they tour The Netherlands, France and Switzerland.

The choir will sing songs in four languages that span more than four centuries.

Several contemporary works will be performed as well. These include "Peace I Leave With You" by James Fritschel and "Lax Aeterna" by Edwin Fisinger.

Soloists for the spring concert include Tim Gansobom, Osmond, Steve Linn, Laurel, Connie Linder, Onawa, Iowa, Cindy Zimmerman, Norfolk, Kathy Oines, Albion, Nick Steier, Wayne, and Don Fletcher.

The choir has sung in the past in Verdi's opera Aida with Opera Omaha and performed with various area orchestras. In 1981 the singers participated in the Britten War Requiem with Robert Shaw conducting.

During the '84 European tour they will be the featured American Choral group during a Saturday evening performance at the Swiss National Song Festival at Eastfield, Switzerland. More than sixty Swiss choirs will participate in that event.

Dr. Runestad has been professor of music and director of choral activities at Wayne State since 1970. Four years ago, he became the first choral director of the four Nebraska State Colleges to take the choir to Europe. "I planned to go this year again so we can start a four year cycle to give every student the opportunity to experience performing in foreign countries" according to Runestad.

Dr. Runestad has degrees from Concordia College, University of Minnesota, and the University of Illinois. He was once head of the Wayne State Fine Arts Division, a position which he resigned from to return to full time teaching. He was selected as guest conductor for numerous national college and university choirs and is a member of the American and Nebraska Choral Directors' Associations, the National Music Education Association, and the National Association of Teacher of Singing.

Other upcoming Choir and Madrigal Singer performances are scheduled at Pender High School and Wisner-Piager High School before the choir departs for Europe on May 16.

Area students taking part in the performance include

faculty profile

"Getting students to think, and to communicate their thoughts effectively should be a major goal of the college instructor," said Herb Meinerl, assistant professor of broadcast communications at Wayne State College. Meinerl, who is in his fifth year at Wayne State, completed his BA at Brooklyn College and received his master's degree from the University of Iowa. He has started doctoral studies at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

BEFORE HE began his teaching career, Meinerl worked for an advertising agency, an international airline, and was a writer/producer-director for both the ABC and CBS networks. Meinerl, a Brooklyn, N. Y. native who has lived in many states, enjoys the friendliness of his Wayne State College co-workers.

He pictures himself as a catalyst for students, leading them to expand their scope of awareness and their capacity for learning.

ALTHOUGH A lack of free time prevents him from indulging in his hobbies of photography and painting, Meinerl occasionally finds himself reverting to his days as a basketball and baseball coach.

faculty accomplishments

—DR. MIKE BLAYNEY, associate professor of history, will be in the cast of Chautauqua '84, portraying Thomas Walsh. Chautauqua '84 will present a total of 15 programs each stop during the summer with appearances in Beatrice June 27 through July 1, and Scottsbluff, Gering July 4-8. The four-state regional tour of the troupe is funded by an NEH Exemplary Grant and includes drama, discussion, debate, workshops and local entertainment. Other states visited will include Kansas, North Dakota and South Dakota.

—ANTONY GARLICK, professor of music, has recently had published and released a work titled "Giga" for piano and trombone.

—DR. MARIA GROVAS, associate professor of Spanish, Janet Schmitz, assistant professor of French, and Dr. Robert Zahner, associate professor of German, participated in the orientation workshop on Foreign Language Proficiency Testing held in Lincoln March 26. The workshop, given by Judith Liskin-Gasparro of the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, N. J., was sponsored by the Nebraska Department of Education. Dr. Grovas and Schmitz also attended the spring conference of the Nebraska Foreign Language Association and NAATFAATS at York, Neb. on March 31. Highlights of the conference was a multi-media presentation by Reid Lewis, an Elgin, Ill. teacher, who recreated the 3,300 mile La Salle expedition from Montreal to New Orleans.

—DR. ALAN LUPACK and Bobbie Lupack, interim assistant professor and associate professor of English respectively, co-authored a paper on John Boorman's Arthurian film, "Excalibur," for presentation at the national conference of the Popular Culture Association in Toronto, Canada. Bobbie presented the paper and also served as a commentator for a session on the politics of film. She also will address the Kearney State College faculty on "Designing for the Disabled" and working with the college level disabled student on April 12. The program is part of The Dean's Mainstreaming Grant project.

—DR. DONALD WHISENHUNT, vice president at Wayne State College, presented a paper at the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association. The paper, "The Veterans of Future Wars in Texas," concerned a student protest movement of the 1930's.

—DR. JAMES O'LEARY, division head of fine arts and professor of music, James Day, professor of music, Dr. Christopher Bonds, assistant professor of music, and the Wayne State Trio will perform an "KWIT" in Sioux City at 4 p.m. on Friday, April 13. Drs. Bonds and O'Leary, along with Dr. Ray Kellon, professor of music, and Connie Webber, assistant professor of music, attended the MEAC 42nd National Convention held in Chicago the week of March 20.

—DR. RUSSELL RASMUSSEN, professor of chemistry, served as the moderator and coordinator of a panel discussion dealing with "Performance, Testing and Evaluation of Students," as part of the Midwest Organic Teaching Symposium held at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln March 30-31. Rasmussen also presented a talk, "Concepts in Stereochemistry and Chirality: From Confusion and Consternation to Comprehension and Confidence through Molecular Models," at a lecture session entitled "Special Problems in Teaching Organic Chemistry." More than 50 midwestern colleges and universities were represented at the symposium.

Rumbles seats available

THE RUMBLES WILL perform tonight (Thursday) in Rice Auditorium on the Wayne State College campus. Known for their four-part harmonies in the 60's and 70's, the group will perform from 9 p.m. to midnight, with doors opening at 8:30. Admission for the general public is $3 and tickets will be available at the door. Wayne State students will be admitted free with identification. The Rumbles made a comeback six years ago, picking up where they left off in 1972. Their music includes medleys from the 60's and 70's as well as current Top Ten tunes.

WSC student 'man of the year'

Roger Gamble, president of the Wayne State College Young Republicans, was chosen Nebraska College Republican 'man of the year' at a Nebraska College Republican convention held in Fremont April 6 and 7.

Gamble is a sophomore at Wayne State majoring in business finance from Seward. Mark Eickhoff, Al Rotter and Roger Gamble represented Wayne State at the convention.

Four of the six Republican U.S. Senate candidates, spoke at the convention, Ken Cameron, Fred Lockwood, Richard Thompson and John DeCamp, former Nebraska Senator Carl Curfio gave the keynote address. A straw poll conducted by the delegates at the convention showed that Ken Cameron was the favorite to win the Senate nomination.

WSC offers course in Homer

Wayne State College will offer the course "Computer Workshop for Teachers" at the high school in Homer. The course is offered for one undergraduate/graduate credit hour. Dr. Hilbert Johns will instruct the class on May 19 and June 2 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

If textbooks are required, they will be made available at the first meeting.

Lifting of homework ban good

by Cheryl Stubbendiek
Nebraska Farm Bureau
 "Homework" may seem like an unusual issue for a farm organization to care about, but we're not talking here about the school work farm kids need to do at home after chores and supper are done. Homework, as it concerns farm organization and the U.S. Department of Labor, refers to the production in homes of certain apparel and craft items.
 Since 1943, under a little-known section of the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Labor Department has restricted or outright prohibited certain manufacturing operations from being conducted in homes.
 The reason given is that the Labor Department would be unable to enforce the minimum wage and other requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act when employment takes place in homes.

one of his early actions in support of deregulation, proposed to end regulation of all of the products.
 He came under intense opposition by organized labor — and some segments of the press — who charged that sweatshops would be legalized under the move. As a consequence, Donovan backed off and removed the restriction only on knitted outerwear.
 Even that limited action was taken to court by the unions, who lost their case in Federal District Court of Appeals. The latter court ruled last November that Donovan had failed to follow the requirements of the Administrative Procedures Act in his original rulemaking, and that the department had failed to show that it was capable of enforcing the Fair Labor Standards Act if the manufacture of knitted outerwear was allowed to be carried on in homes.

FARM BUREAU and a number of other groups interested in home employment met with Donovan recently and urged him to initiate a new rule following the court's guidelines and also urged deregulation of the several covered areas, not just knitted outerwear.
 Donovan published a proposed new rule in the March 27 Federal Register that would remove the prohibition only on knitted outerwear. However, he indicated that he will consider removing the restriction on the other areas at a later date.
 The March 27 notice also indicated that Donovan proposed an emergency rule to last for 120 days to prevent affected persons (those making knitted outerwear at home) from coming back under regulation while consideration is being given to a permanent rule.
 A representative of the garment workers union in New York has been quoted as saying the secretary had no authority for the emergency action and that the union expects to do everything possible to prevent it from taking effect.
 As Farm Bureau sees the homework issue, labor laws were not intended to cover independent contractors who want to perform work in their homes. At the same time, the movement of employment back to the home is one of the significant developments of the high technology era.
 Thus it is appropriate to remove unnecessary restrictions and regulations to permit this natural development to take its natural course.
 The U.S. Department of Labor is accepting comments on the new permanent rule lifting the ban on home production of knitted outerwear through April 26.

 construction which outlined four areas which the administration and faculty of the Wayne-Carroll district were asked to examine during the 1983-84 school year.
 In the report presented to the board Monday, committee members stated that they had examined present practices in the areas described by the board in its position statement on quality education, including:
 — That building principals and teachers have high expectations for student and teacher performance.
 — That building principals provide strong leadership for teachers in the areas of curriculum development and classroom instruction.
 — That building principals be given adequate time and responsibility for assisting teachers to improve their instructional skills and evaluating the effectiveness of the teachers' efforts.
 — That the quality of instruction carry the highest priority and that evaluation of that instruction reflect the results of quality instruction.
 AS A RESULT of their study, committee members Monday presented board members with recommendations in several areas, including the role of administrators in the Wayne-Carroll School system.

classroom observations by administrators, staff evaluation program, and professionalism of certificated school employees.
 In summary, committee members said they feel that principals and teachers do have high expectations for student and teacher performance, and that principals do provide strong leadership for teachers in the area of curriculum and instruction.
 With few exceptions, committee members said they also feel that "present staff evaluation techniques do assess the essence of quality instruction."
HAUN TOLD school board members Monday that he has applied for an energy grant to install insulation above classrooms at the Carroll Elementary School.
 Haun said total estimated cost of the project would be $725 to the district, with $2,900 coming from the state.
 Board members authorized Haun to contact the school's architect to receive bids on roof repair at both the elementary and middle schools in Wayne.
 Estimated cost of the roof repair for both schools is $45,000.
 Board of education members Monday also accepted sealed bids on a 1973 GMC school bus. The highest bid, which was accepted by the board, was $304 submitted by Mike Perry. Also submitting a bid of $40 was Mary Davis.

IN OTHER business Monday afternoon the board:
 — Approved the appointment of Robert Uhing as middle school sixth grade teacher and head boys basketball coach.
 — Approved the senior class list of 69 students and learned that Dr. Joe Lufjeharms, Commissioner of Education, will speak at commencement on May 20 in the Wayne State College Willow Bowl.
 — Learned from Haun that 50 students were registered during kindergarten roundup.
 — Heard a report by Haun regarding legislation for education.
 — Learned from Haun that a school board workshop postponed from March 19 has been rescheduled for April 16 in Laurel.
 — Heard reports by Becky Keidel, Gordon Emry and Francis Haun on a National School Boards Convention they attended March 31 through April 3 in Houston.
 — Learned from Haun that the district has received a certificate from North Central Accreditation for awarding accreditation with no deviations.
BEFORE ADJOURNING, board members went into executive session to discuss contract negotiations. No action was taken.
 Next meeting of the board of education is scheduled May 8 at 8 p.m.

 and Leo Krampfer, ESU 1 coordinator of nursing services Mary Rohde of Emerson, and ESU 1 Assistant Administrator Rodney Garwood.
IN OTHER action, Tuesday, board members gave their unanimous approval for members of the insurance committee to negotiate with the insurance company on coverage for the upcoming year.

 Serving on the insurance committee are Berneal Gustafson, Darrell Merry and Dave Hay.
 The board also voted unanimously on the verification of successful teaching for Beth Foulks.
 Foulks, who is no longer employed by the service unit, worked as a resource teacher from 1979 through 1981.

BEFORE ADJOURNING, board President Claire Hansen, along with Daryl Lawrence and Administrator Mills, reported on the National School Board Convention they attended March 31 through April 3 in Houston.
 Next meeting of ESU 1 board of directors is scheduled May 8 at 8 p.m. in Wakenfield.

 at Chadron and Wayne, more study and planning are necessary," Kerrey said.
 "In both cases, more analysis of demand, alternative delivery mechanisms and costs will be needed before funds are appropriated," he said.
 Elliott said Wayne State will respond to Kerrey's challenge by conducting additional analyses of demand. He added that the college will demonstrate quality control factors for the program that WSC plans to offer.

ELLIOTT SAID the expectation in northeast Nebraska is that Wayne State eventually will be able to provide an MBA program.
 However, the governor's veto will cause a delay in the actual offering of courses, Elliott said. The college will work with the trustees in developing a program, he added.
 WSC cannot presently afford to offer an MBA program, according to Elliott. Additional funds and at least one new faculty member would be required for the program, he said.

 The president said the most important objective is to respond to questions that exist in WSC offering an MBA program.
 The need for such a program exists, according to a needs analysis that was conducted, Elliott said. He pointed out that many retailers may not be interested in obtaining master's degrees but would take one or two courses that would help them.

news briefs

Livestock feeders meeting

The Cedar County Livestock Feeders Association has scheduled a meeting Monday, April 16 in the VFW clubroom in Hartington. Social hour begins at 6:30 p.m., with the dinner and business meeting following at 7:30.
 Featured speaker will be Gary Pinkelman of Pinkelman Manufacturing in Hartington. His talk will include trends in swine handling equipment, and remodeling existing farm buildings for farrowing, nurseries and finishing.
 Members, spouses and guests are invited to attend.

Local man on arts council

The Nebraska Arts Council will host a series of review panel meetings. The panelists will review and make funding recommendations to the council on those applications received in the Arts-in-Education, Project, and Year-Long Program grant categories at the March 15 deadline.
 All meetings are open to the public and will be held on the third floor of the Nebraska State Office Building, 1313 Farnam on the Mall, Omaha.
 The Arts in Education grant review panel will meet on Thursday, April 26 beginning at 9 a.m.
 Serving on the panel will be Jim Brummels of Wayne.

Census bureau seeks data

The U.S. Bureau of the Census will conduct its regular survey on employment and unemployment in this area during the week of April 16-21, 1984, according to William F. Adams, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Denver.
 In addition to the usual questions on employment and unemployment the April survey will have questions on child support and alimony.
 Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Agency on aging to have hearing

The Northeast Nebraska Area Agency on Aging will have a public hearing to review the budget and objectives for the Fiscal Year 1985 area plan.
 The purpose of the hearing is to give the public an opportunity to comment on the proposed plan.
 The meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. at the Northeast Nebraska Area Agency on Aging office located in the white stone building on the Norfolk Regional Center grounds, Norfolk.
 For further information contact Dale N. Kindred, executive director at 1-800-672-8368.

Free trees to arbor members

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving 10 free Colorado Blue Spruce trees to people who become Foundation Members during April.
 The free trees are part of the Foundation's effort to promote tree planting throughout America.
 The six-to-twelve inch trees will be shipped postage-paid with enclosed planting instructions in April or May.
 To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, Neb. 68410, by April 30.

Martins will return to area soon

With bird migrations quite common this time of year, martins are expected to soon be making a return to this part of the state.
 Some tips to attract martins include:
 1. Provide a clean martin house.
 2. Paint the interiors a light color to attract martins and discourage sparrows and starlings.
 3. The house should be placed about 10 feet above ground.
 4. Martins like wires nearby to sit on.
 5. The house should be placed in an open space.
 6. The availability of mud nearby will allow them to build their nests.

Signup for 1984 farm program greater than expected

The level of signup for the 1984 government farm program bears out the trend of the past two years that "farmers have learned to use farm programs real well," a University of Nebraska extension economist said this week.

Roy Frederick said the $3.03 target price for corn has been attractive to corn farmers. In 1983 the "PIK" program and in 1982 many farmers signed up because of the grain reserve provisions of the program.

Signup figures for Nebraska this year were higher than most observers expected, Frederick said. The Nebraska pattern differs from the national picture, however, as more corn farmers and fewer wheat farmers than the national averages are enrolled in the state.

FOR CORN FARMERS, especially those under irrigation, production costs are high, and the 10 percent set-aside provision to qualify for the loan and the target price allow some costs to be trimmed, Frederick said. While all corn production costs are still ahead, most wheat production costs have been incurred until harvest, and many wheat farmers might opt to harvest the crop, the economist said.

The signup rate for corn land is greater in Nebraska than in eastern Corn Belt states such as Illinois, Frederick said, because there are more marginal acres here, with less production potential. While the diverted acres in Nebraska are likely to be less productive, given an average growing season, the overall corn crop won't be cut that much, Frederick predicted. He recalled a similar situation in 1982 when, despite a 10 percent acreage cut, a record corn crop was harvested in Nebraska and in the United States.

"The threshold to achieve a substantive reduction in the corn crop is a 20 percent acreage reduction program," Frederick said. There is too much "spillage" with only a 10 percent acreage reduction as farmers go "all out" on the balance. The $2.55 loan and $3.03 target price features of the current program really provide an "alternative market" for farmers, with the cash market this fall predicted at $2 to $2.25 cents a bushel, the economist said.

FARMERS ENROLLED in the program are eligible for the $2.55 loan on all the corn they produce. An addition, they are eligible for a deficiency payment on the expected yield per acre for their farm, established by the ASCS, to realize the $3.03 figure if the market drops below that level. "$3.03 corn on the market doesn't appear to be in the cards," Frederick said.

While corn farmers in the program are assured of receiving $3.03 per bushel on 90 percent of their crop, those who did not sign up are subject to "the vagaries of the market," he said. These farmers, who some of their peers resent as "free-loaders," would stand to benefit from higher prices received for 100 percent of their crop. At the same time, farmers with non-recourse loans can sell their corn if the market exceeds the loan level and repay the loan.

"Fewer and fewer farmers are rejecting farm programs 'out of hand,' while in past years it was regarded as a 'badge of honor' not to sign up, particularly for corn farmers," Frederick said. "Different carrots" in the form of incentives have been offered to fill the needs of farmers, especially those involved with row crops, he said.

The situation for wheat farmers has reversed in current legislation, compared to the past 50 years of farm programs, when benefits were generally greater for wheat growers than corn growers, he said.

WHILE WINTERKILL and disease are causing concern in Nebraska, the crop looks pretty good in most places, and with 30 percent of the individual grower's base removed, the program isn't as attractive. House and Senate conferees on March 29 accepted the two-year farm bill, which freezes target prices for wheat at $4.38 for the next two years. The 1981 farm bill promised that prices would rise to $4.45 this year and $4.65 next year.

The conference committee compromise goes back to both houses for expected final approval, and President Reagan is expected to sign the bill into law.

Within the 30 percent of wheat acres taken out of production, one-third (or 10 percent of total acres on a wheat farm) would be paid diversion, if the legislation is approved in its present form, Frederick said. Moving into April, only about three months from the earliest wheat harvest in Nebraska in a normal year, farmers would be given about two weeks to assess the situation on signing up under the final provisions of the program.

The winterkill and disease situation affecting many wheat fields in Nebraska is a complicating factor in wheat signup, Frederick said, as farmers will need to determine what fields or portions of fields must be abandoned. Wheat acreage abandoned for this reason could qualify for the 30 percent acreage reduction.

The poor condition of some winter wheat points up the dilemma faced by wheat farmers on the time of year farm program signup deadlines are established, Frederick said. Many wheat farmers would like details of the succeeding year's farm program to be known as early as August of the preceding year to facilitate decision making on planting new wheat.

On the other hand, a signup date well into the calendar year of a farm program allows some adjustment when the crop already in the ground runs into trouble, as is the present case, he said.

Chinese vs. Siberian elm
The fast-growing elm tree species found growing throughout Nebraska as a shade tree, windbreak tree and in roadside ditches is often mistakenly identified as "Chinese elm."

Actually, this hardy immigrant is Siberian elm (Ulmus pumila). The Siberian elm was introduced from Siberia about 1860 and because of its drought hardness was planted extensively in the Great Plains.

Although the Siberian elm is hardy and fast growing, it is not recommended as an ornamental. It tends to be weak and brittle, relatively short-lived and seeds prolifically.

Siberian elm seedlings often pop up in gardens, fence-lines and other areas where they are unwanted. The leaves are also attacked severely by elm leaf beetle, which can almost defoliate a tree in summer droughts.

The true Chinese elm (Ulmus parvifolia), sometimes called "lacebark elm" is a much better ornamental tree. The bark is mottled rather than ridged and furrowed, as is Siberian's bark. The leaves are darker green and usually smaller and thicker than Siberian elm leaves.

Chinese elm flowers and produces seed in the fall rather than spring and its leaves turn red or purple in autumn. Chinese elm is resistant to Dutch elm disease and elm leaf beetle. The Chinese elm is well worth more emphasis as an ornamental tree, but it may be difficult to find in most nurseries.

Strawberries
Strawberries! Nearly everyone likes them even weeds. Gives weeds a chance and they'll soon take over a strawberry bed.

Mulches of straw or black plastic can help with the weed battle. Plastic works best when the strawberries are maintained as bushes in rows. Pinch off runners to develop large healthy bushes.

Dacthal does a good job of controlling annual grass weeds in strawberries. It can be used on established beds or new plantings. Make certain it is used before weed seed germinates. On medium textured soil, use one ounce of Dacthal 75W per 250 square feet.

This would be 4 1/2 level tablespoons of Dacthal 75W. Mix with a half gallon to one gallon of water and apply to the 250 square feet. On lighter soils or soils low in organic matter, apply 2/3 ounce or three level tablespoons of Dacthal 75W per 250 square feet.

Rules available
Details of new dairy program announced

Secretary of Agriculture John R. Block recently announced details for administering a national dairy products promotion, research and nutrition education program.

Speaking at the annual meeting of Associated Milk Producers, Inc., Block said the program will be funded by a mandatory 15 cent per hundredweight assessment on all milk marketed by dairy farmers in the contiguous 48 states.

Details of the program, which is authorized by the Dairy and Tobacco Adjustment Act of 1983, are:

- The program will be administered by a 36-member National Dairy Promotion and Research Board consisting of dairy farmers to be appointed by Block from nominations covering 10 geographic regions.
- The 15-cent-per-hundredweight assessment to finance the program will begin May 1, with all other rules effective April 1.
- The program includes a provision for a credit of up to 10 cents per hundredweight for producers who are participating in active, ongoing qualified state or regional dairy product promotion or nutrition education programs. USDA has ruled that the question of whether the brand or trade name of any dairy product may be used in any part of the program is a matter for the board to decide, with final review by the secretary, Block said.

The board also will determine the size of its executive committee. A proposal to require specific industry advisory committees to the board was denied because of lack of statutory authority, he said.

The final rules were developed following a public comment period and a public meeting at which all segments of the dairy industry were represented.

Copies of the rules are available from Clayton Plumb, Dairy Division, AMS, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250. Phone (202) 447-6274.

Puddled pivot

IT SEEMS ironic that one of the largest puddles of water has formed near a center-pivot system. Months from now farmers probably will have the pivots going full blast to wet the dry ground — if they ever get their crops planted.

the farmer's wife

by pat meierhenry

I was brought up in a home with an unwritten law that said you weren't a good mother if you didn't keep the cookie jar full. If someone dropped in, you put on the coffee pot and baked a coffee-cake. And a good antidote for bad weather was to bake a big batch of cinnamon rolls.

When I get depressed, I never lose my appetite. I comfort myself with food, and there are few things I don't like. Consequently, the other night when I put on my "fat suit," it was light. The needle on the scale is well over the "allowable max" for my height. And there is a 25 year reunion of my nursing class in July.

RICHARD SIMMONS says we should never say diet, and he must be making a fortune with his TV show, books, and workout tapes. But I have a feeling I'm going to have to say diet, think diet, and eat diet for a while because I can't afford a new wardrobe.

The Big Farmer has lightened his belt two notches since calving began. I really don't care for that weight loss method.

I saw a friend last night who has lost 35 pounds since Christmas. He looks great. He says he's been eating yogurt for lunch and working out at the Y. And, he added, "I don't eat meat because it makes you fat. That cholesterol clogs your arteries and even causes cancer." He had the nerve to say this to me, a nurse and wife of a red meat producer, while lighting up a cigarette!

I subscribe to the set point theory that says that when we reduce our calorie intake, our body tries to protect us from starvation by conserving our body fat. The way to change that set point is through exercise. Last summer, I was walking two miles a day. For obvious reasons, I've walked very little since. Thanking those quarter mile trips up the lane don't count.

I LIVE 30 miles round trip from the Y. My ceilings are too low for a jump rope. I hate to spend the money for an exercise bike.

Besides, I really don't like to exercise! I took an aerobics class once, and I'll never torture my body like that again. I have a diversion: sweating in a gym.

Then I look at diet plans—and there are hundreds. I believe Weight Watchers is a good one, but who can eat fish with a freezer full of beef? I tried one of the low carbohydrate, high protein drinks and got shaky. I gave up pie and cake for Lent, and ate more cookies and cinnamon rolls.

I refuse to eat dehydrated food from the Nutrition System and I can't go to town every day to talk with my Diet Center counselor.

I ORDERED the introductory pack for a religious weight loss plan called 3D. Stands for Diet, Discipling, and Discipleship. I figured I would use a lot more self-discipline. First thing I says to do is plan meals for a month. It's 11:30 right now, and I still don't know what we're having for lunch!

I found a plan the other day called the "On Off" diet. You cut to 400 calories one day, and eat twice that the next. It's supposed to fool your set point. I wonder if mine can be fooled?

Sue brought an Ermã Bombeck tape to listen to on these cloudy days. Her particular brand of humor always seems to cheer me up. On the subject of diets, she says, "man does not live by bread alone. If he has to have a little gravy."

Just heard the forecast for the rest of the week: Clouds, rain, drizzle, depression. I'm going to need something chocolate to counteract it.

Or maybe I'll try the Drinking Man's Diet, and dull the pain. Maybe I'll hope that my classmates have all gained weight and got ten gray, too.

Maybe I'll send for the self-hypnosis tape and play it under my bed while I'm asleep. Or I could have my doctor wire my jaws. That would have to be the ultimate plan for me.

Memo to farmers: review fertilizer programs

By R.A. Wiese
Extension Soils Specialist
University of Nebraska

We are creatures of habit. Once a fertilizer program is developed for use on a crop, we continue to apply the same program year after year. It seems logical to do so, because we have the same equipment, services, and fertilizer sources year after year.

We fertilize with good intentions, knowing the fertilizer does give us extra yield. About 30 percent of our production of corn, wheat, oats and grain sorghums due to fertilizer alone. That's 10 percent of the total production. Fertilizer use, like any cash outlay in crop production, is intended to return more dollars than we spend. The more we return for a dollar spent on fertilizer the greater will be production profits.

Questions facing every grower are: what fertilizer nutrients are needed? and how much of each fertilizer nutrient should be applied?

THE FIRST question is answered with soil tests. There is a high probability a crop will benefit from a fertilizer nutrient when soil tests are very low. Those very low soil test levels are shown on soil test reports as test values below 10 for phosphorus, 40 for potassium, five for residual soil nitrate, five for sulfur, and 0.25 for zinc. The high probability for such very low soil tests means that the fertilizer nutrient will increase yields about 80 percent of the time that the nutrient is applied.

Soil test levels above which applying nutrients is doubtful for getting a yield benefit can also be broadly defined. The very high soil test levels reported on soil tests are more than 15 for phosphorus for corn, grain sorghum and soybeans, 25 for phosphorus for wheat, oats and alfalfa, 125 for potassium, 10 ppm for residual soil nitrate, 40 for sulfur, and 1.0 for zinc. The firm doubtful is used to mean extra yield can be expected less than 10 percent of the time that the fertilizer nutrient is applied.

The second question dealing with how much of each fertilizer nutrient should be applied is based on hundreds of farm field research sites over many years, upon experience with weather, cropping sequences, use of animal manures, and knowledge of different soils.

The research sites give information leading to the amount of nutrients needed to give the most profit. These amounts of nutrients are all given in a series of different crops. These fertilizer suggestions in each NebGuide are conclusions of the most producible amounts of fertilizer nutrients to apply.

OTHER GUIDELINES can be used to review a fertilizer program. These guidelines are incorporated in the following statements:

1. Soil test for residual soil. Treatments can be effectively and confidently used to adjust a nitrogen fertilizer program up or downward. Samples must be collected from soil depths of two to three feet.
2. Start fertilizer, a small amount of nitrogen and phosphorus placed in the row near the seed, frequently, increases early growth of corn and advances heading in grain sorghum.

3. A continued application of zinc on field/cut areas over a period of 10 years in all probability could be discontinued.

4. Always check your present fertilizer program over a period of years by adjusting application in the same area of the field. It's easy to do — shut the application off or double the application and observe for difference in growth, or yield.

Crop growers should be critical of any production costs. The fertilizer program is one of several production costs. A correct adjustment could very well mean more profit in 1984 and subsequent years.

Wayne student on entomology team

A University of Nebraska Lincoln entomology student team was knocked out of the first round of the Linnaean Games at the Nebraska Branch of the American Society of Entomology's meeting here recently.

The Nebraska team, lost to the University of Kentucky in the last question of their first round contest, team advisor Tom Holtzer said.

The Linnaean Games are a quiz bowl competition for entomology graduate students. Holtzer said. The questions range from knowledge of the discipline that entomology students are expected to know to trivia to entomological trivia.

Dairy fieldmans conference

Producing milk with a low bacteria count, a regulatory update, drug selection for treatment of dairy animals and energy and time savings from new technology are among topics to be discussed at a Nebraska Dairy Fieldmen's Conference April 19-20 at the Midtown Holiday Inn at Grand Island. Tim Cronin of Ravenna heads the Nebraska Dairy Fieldmen's Association, co-sponsor of the conference with the University of Nebraska Department of Food Science and Technology and Cooperative Extension Service and the State Department of Agriculture Bureau of Dairies and Foods.

A banquet, presentation of awards, business meeting and presentation on driver safety by a Nebraska State Patrol officer are scheduled, in addition to the speaking program.

Swine conference dates set

The dates of Aug. 6-7 have been announced for the 1984 George A. Young Swine Conference and the Nebraska SPF Swine Conference at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education in Lincoln.

The joint event is sponsored by the University of Nebraska veterinary science department and Cooperative Extension Service and the Nebraska SPF Swine Accrediting Agency. Persons desiring more information should contact Earl O. Dickinson, D.V.M., Veterinary Basic Science Building, East Campus, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb. 68583-0726.

Nebraska leader in production

Nebraska was one of five states leading the nation in red meat output and accounting for 50 percent of the 39.3 billion pounds of red meat produced in 1983, according to recently released USDA figures.

Nebraska was third in red meat output and second in commercial cattle slaughter, with 5.07 million head, last year. The Cornhusker State was among 10 states leading the nation in hog slaughter and accounting for 62 percent of the 87.6 million pounds national total. The state ranked fifth with 4.6 million pounds in hog slaughter.

Zorinsky backs farm plan

Senator Edward Zorinsky (D-Neb.) has joined nine of his colleagues in introducing legislation aimed at reducing the number of delinquent farm loans classified as "problem loans" by federal bank examiners.

Also sponsored by Nebraska Senator J. James Exon, the legislation is a reaction to the growing number of farmers having temporary difficulties in making loan payments because of the current depressed farm economy.

It directs bank examiners to consider a farmer's ultimate repayable ability and collateral — rather than just immediate payment ability — in making adverse loan classifications.

Author of the legislation is Senator Walter (Dee) Huddleston (D-Ky.), ranking Democrat on the Senate Agriculture Committee. Other cosponsors are Senators Thad Cochran (R-Miss.), James Abdnor (R-S.D.), Alan J. Dixon (D-Ill.), Jim Sasser (D-Tenn.), Mark Andrews (R-N.D.), Quentin N. Burdick (D-N.D.) and Max Baucus (D-Mont.).

Finn receives alumni award

Mary Pat Finn, farm and youth editor of the Norfolk Daily News, was one of three recipients of an Outstanding FFA Alumni Achievement Award honored at the Nebraska FFA Alumni meeting and awards luncheon in Lincoln April 5.

She is the daughter of Patrick C. and Marilyn Finn of rural Carroll. Miss Finn has served as secretary of the Norfolk Future Farmers of America Alumni Affiliate since its formation three years ago. She is currently vying for the office of affiliate vice president.

Her other FFA honors include Honorary Chapter Farmer (Norfolk), 1981, and Honorary State Farmer Degree, 1982. She has attended three State FFA conventions and one national FFA convention, and has chaperoned Norfolk FFA Chapter members on three of these trips.

Feeders banquet planned Saturday

The Northeast Nebraska Livestock Feeders Association has scheduled its annual Livestock Feeders Banquet at the Wayne State College Student Center on Saturday (April 14) at 8 p.m. The social hour will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Wayne Fire Hall. A coffee-punch hour is to be held at the WSC Student Center at 7 p.m.

Association members, non-members, guests and spouses are invited to attend.

Tickets are available from the officers and directors of the association. Tickets can be obtained at the door, although notification of attendance is requested. For tickets and information on the banquet, contact local director or Art Greve, Wakefield, 287-2870.

Tough Tougher Toughest

It isn't just one thing. It's the electric motor specifically engineered for center pivots. It's the no-grease U-joint with the flexible urethane inserts that easily outlasts any conventional U-joint. It's the toughest gearbox in the industry — the one they put on other brands of center pivots by the thousands when their gearboxes fail. It's the proven multi-directional flex joint that allows easy operation on slopes up to 30%. It's a structural design with no serpentine in critical areas, and a tough no nonsense electric system. It's full hot-dipped galvanized protection that's standard, not an option. And that's just for starters. Let us show you the rest. We can convert almost any brand to a Valley drive train.

Rest easy. It's a Valley.

Youth applications sought for jobs

Governor Bob Kerrey announced this week that the Nebraska Department of Labor is currently accepting applications for worksite sponsors for its 1984 Summer Youth Employment and Training Program. The program is expected to serve an estimated 850 youth at public and private non-profit worksites throughout Nebraska.

The Greater Nebraska Job Training Program provides economically disadvantaged youth summer employment from June 11 through Aug. 17. Most public and private non-profit community service agencies are eligible to become worksites. Each worksite provides training and supervision for eligible youth at the minimum wage. The Greater Nebraska Job Training Program provides funding for the jobs.

Through the Summer Youth Employment and Training Program, youth ages 16 through 21 may obtain experience in a variety of job settings. Employment opportunities in last year's program included clerical workers, grounds workers, nurse aides, road workers, summer recreation aides, swimming aides, city utility workers, museum aides, and maintenance aides.

Public and private non-profit organizations interested in becoming worksite sponsors are encouraged to contact: Greater Nebraska Job Training Program, Northeast Region, 125 South Fourth Street, McMill Bldg., Rm 311, P.O. Box 706, Norfolk, 68701, (402) 379-1445.

Chemistry competition

Wayne High grad finishes high

Two students showed up wearing chemical warfare costumes — head hoods, goggles, respiratory masks and khaki jump suits. All 15 of the participating students ended the April 1 activity wearing yellow dye stains.

The occasion was the annual spring chemistry competition at Nebraska Wesleyan University known as Martius Yellow. The goal of the timed competition, organized by Dr. Denise George of the Nebraska-Westeyan Chemistry Department, is to prepare crystalline samples of seven compounds, including a bright yellow dye called Martius Yellow which almost inevitably stains the hands. The judging is based on number and quality of samples and time.

The costumes worn by Wahoo senior Kevin Christensen and Lincoln senior Rand Heald didn't win them the competition but did add to the festive atmosphere which has come to be associated with the event.

Sophomore Molly Sander from Beatrice set a new record in the singles division with an outstanding time of 2 hours, 16 minutes and samples of all seven compounds, according to Dr. George. The previous record was 3 hours, 4 minutes.

Omaha sophomore Scott Morqan and Ulysses Junior Bill Payne were winners in the organic chemistry student team division with a time of 3 hours, 51 minutes, eight minutes off the record time set in 1983 in second place were Bradshaw sophomore Corey Friesen and Lincoln sophomore Mark Haecker with five compounds and a time of 3 hours, 53 minutes.

Lincoln junior Shelly Barker and Wayne senior Cecil Bassett were the upperclass team winners with a time of 4 hours, 48 minutes, and six good quality products, Dr. George said. Close behind them were Lincoln senior Greg Hallan and Elmwood senior Mike Wengert with five compounds and a time of 3 hours, 26 minutes.

Other competitors were Lincoln senior Dave Miller, Lincoln juniors Jeff Horak and Kurt Mueljer, and Lincoln sophomore Les Myer. The experimental procedure used in the contest is required of all students in organic chemistry classes of Nebraska Wesleyan, Dr. George said. Synthesizing the seven compounds from the original 5 grams of redistilled alpha naphthol is a test of most of the procedures students need to know in the laboratory, she said.

NPPD says...

Play it SAFE

Here's what to remember about KITES and MODEL AIRPLANES

Electricity is both powerful and beneficial. Used properly, electricity can bring about a more comfortable, better world. Treated foolishly, it can bring disaster. NPPD wants to help keep you safe when you're flying kites or model airplanes.

Stick to the wide open spaces
Fly your kite or plane in areas where there are no power lines, trees or buildings.

Never climb a pole or tree to try and free your kite or plane. If it gets caught in a power line and doesn't come down by itself, call NPPD.

Be a weather watcher
Remember, flying kites or planes in an open field during stormy weather makes you a perfect target for a lightning bolt. Sunny days are safer.

Electricity moves best through metal
Never have metal on your kite, string or tail.

"It's a Small World"

STUDENTS AT WEST Elementary Grade School, grades kindergarten through 4th, performed in the high school lecture hall Tuesday night. The students sang international numbers from the British Isles, the Orient, Polynesia, Latin America and Bavaria. Each grade highlighted one country, following the concert's theme, "It's a Small World." About 550 people attended the performance, directed by Diana Runestad.

Two incidences reported

Objects found in cookies

Reports of two findings of foreign material in Girl Scout cookies were confirmed by the Platte County Sheriff's department Tuesday, to Prairie Hills Girl Scout Council which serves 19 counties in northeast Nebraska.

The first incident involved Lanie Hagg, a 13-year-old resident of Monroe, whose mother reported he found a straight pin in a Thin Mint. The pin was turned over to authorities along with a partial inner wrapper however the box had been thrown away.

The second incident involved a Columbus woman, Lorna Cyza. Mrs. Cyza told the authorities that on Feb. 29 she bit into a piece of glass while eating a Tag-A Long, a chocolate peanut butter variety. The piece of glass was accidentally thrown away by her husband and when the report was made on April 3, Mrs. Cyza no longer had the piece of glass.

The cookies distributed in Prairie Hills Council are made by Little Brownie Baker. There are four companies who produce cookies for Girl Scouts, all who must meet standards which include all Girl Scout cookies must come in inner wraps, which are heat sealed; all inner wrapped packages are in sealed individual boxes which are coded; all bakeries have metal detecting devices located at several states in the production and packaging for Girl Scout Cookies; all bakeries retain 12 boxes of each code from each product run for later testing, if necessary. If bakeries receive a product complaint, they are required under terms of their contract to notify Girl Scouts of the USA immediately.

There have been no other reports of cases involving findings of foreign material in Girl Scout cookies in the Prairie Hills Girl Scout Council. Nationwide, more than 100 million cookies have been distributed and these incidents seem to be isolated cases. Federal investigators have been in the Louisville plant which supplies most of the cookies to the St. Louis Girl Scout Council and have found no evidence of tampering.

The majority of cookies in Prairie Hills Council were distributed between Feb. 25 and March 8 and some additional cookies were distributed through the direct sale which ended March 20.

Prairie Hills is working closely with local law enforcement agencies as well as Girl Scouts of the USA national organization and the cookie company. If customers are concerned about their cookies, they are asked to please inspect them for any irregularities and to report suspected tampering to the authorities. All physical evidence should be retained and turned over to authorities.

A SNAPPER FOR ALL SEASONS

Sometimes it's a lawn mower, sometimes it's not. SNAPPER's Hi-Vac® rider changes with the seasons.

In spring, it removes harmful thatch with the optional SNAPPER Thatcherizer.

In summer, its powerful Hi-Vac system sets up grass for a smooth, even cut. Optional bag attachments are a rear mounted grass catcher, a twin bag catcher and a trailing 30 bushel Bag-N-Wagon.

Come fall, it's a super vacuum machine, picking up leaves, pine straw, twigs and other debris.

And it doesn't hibernate in winter. Thanks to an optional front mounted, two-stage snowthrower. There's even an optional front mounted blade for light dozing or snow removal.

Just a few of the standard features you'll enjoy year-round are SNAPPER's famous disc drive providing on-the-go shifting and the exclusive automatic blade stop. See your dealer today.

Staley Underwear

THIS is our Tenth Season selling STALEY fine wool underwear in Wayne, and our Thirtieth year of selling this famous make of underwear. You may think that we have advertised this line of underwear enough in Wayne, but as there are some newcomers in the county each year, and there are yet a few men in Wayne county who do not wear the STALEY underwear, we are going to keep right on advertising this underwear until every man in Wayne county wears it. We have yet to find a single man (or a married man, either) who has worn STALEY underwear, who is willing to wear any other kind. That alone should convince anyone that STALEY underwear is superior to any other make. There are many things about men that we do not understand, and one of them is that a majority of men in Wayne county who do not wear STALEY underwear know that they need it and should wear it, but because they are trading at some store where they do not sell STALEY, they think they have to do without it. We cannot understand why they fail to come here to get what they know they ought to have. If STALEY underwear was high priced and they could not afford to wear it, they would have a good excuse for not buying it, but STALEY underwear is made for the poor as well as the rich, and every person can afford to wear it and enjoy good health and be comfortable. Ask anyone wearing STALEY wool underwear how they like it and they will recommend it. Ask any doctor if you should wear STALEY underwear and he will recommend it. Come in and ask us to show you STALEY wool underwear, look at it, feel it and you will understand why so many wear it—and you will be ready to buy it.

Why It Is Better

The wool used to make the STALEY underwear is pulled (not sheared) which leaves the ends of the fibers smooth, and not blunt and sharp as all other wool underwear is. Then the wool is put through a process of cleaning that takes out all the foreign matter, such as grease impurities, sand-burs and chaff. It is thoroughly cleaned, then it is carded and spun into yarn and knit into garments. These garments are put into great vats of hot soap suds and are thoroughly shrunk. That is why the STALEY wool underwear does not scratch and irritate the skin, and is worn by men and even women in Wayne who never found any other wool underwear that they could wear.

A Fine Assortment

It is made to fit, not stretched to cover; the seams are all sewed with a double over-stitch, which makes a smooth seam that will never rip. This seam is found only in the STALEY underwear, and you will always feel comfortable with STALEY underwear on. Keep yourself warm in STALEY underwear this winter and you will always wear it.

Why You Should Wear It

The best medical authority in the world conceals that wool underwear is the only underwear fit to wear. We can give you the names of more than fifty persons having rheumatism who have been cured by wearing STALEY all wool underwear. This is the only factory in America that makes an exclusive line of high-grade wool underwear which is sold direct to the retailer and enjoys the benefit of a jobber—afford women and made into undergarments by the STALEY methods absolute prevention, thereby preventing the wearer from suffering through sudden changes in the weather. Now don't wait until you get a good case of pneumonia before you are converted into the STALEY family. 86 worth of STALEY is cheaper and worth more than $25 worth of medicine.

Why It Is Comfortable

STALEY underwear is made in fifty different kinds. We can please the rich and poor alike. We can fit any person, no matter what his shape or size may be big or little, short or tall, lean or fat; at the same price as the regular sizes. We have it in all colors and can please the most particular man, and we guarantee satisfaction to the wearer.

A Timely Warning

We have sold thousands of suits of STALEY underwear in the nine years we have been in Wayne, and no man who was a wearer of STALEY underwear has asked for a divorce, and only two men have died in the nine years who had on STALEY underwear; there has been no man in jail with STALEY underwear on except the sheriff. Now, you and your family need the protection that STALEY underwear gives.

It is a remarkable fact that every man to whom we sell STALEY underwear becomes possessed of a desire to tell his friends, and it is a fact that no man who comes to us on a friend's recommendation leaves the store without making a selection from our large stock of STALEY.

Ask your doctor what kind of underwear he wears and he will tell you "STALEY." Now, if it is good enough for him it is good enough for you, and this is just the time of year, to buy new underwear, as your old, left-over garments do not have the proper warmth in them.

To The Ladies

The last two seasons there have been great many ladies come and asked for underwear as good as their husbands wear, and a great many have bought the STALEY union suits, which are perfect fitters, and in STALEY fine wool union suits you get more warmth than you do in fine wool of the ladies' underwear.

$2.00 to $7.00 Per Suit.

Staley Jersey Overcoat

Teamsters, railroad men and every man who has out-of-door work, and who wants to keep warm, should invest in the celebrated STALEY all wool jersey knit overcoat. There is nothing in the market that will outwear them and nothing that can be made warmer. You can laugh at your weather with one of them on.

$1.00 to $2.50 Each.

ANNOUNCING THE ADVANCEMENT OF THE EVERETT

To the foremost position among ARTISTIC PIANOS. It is with no purpose of boastfulness.

We especially wish to avoid the information that former leaders have lost any part of their value. They are all they have been, and all the manufacturers of them have represented them to be; all that the PIANO-BUILDING SCIENCE OF FORTY YEARS ago could produce; whereas

Our Jacques?

Slous City Tribune: At the request of his wife, who claims that liquor is gradually getting the best of her husband, Wm. Jacques, a French carpenter and one time a schoolmate of Police Judge Sam Page, was sentenced to 30 days in the jail this morning by that magistrate.

S. D. Reilly and J. M. Cherry left Tuesday morning for Chamberlain, S. D. Tuesday, and will register for the Tripp on the trip.

P. S. Campbell and old soldier from Neola, Iowa, was in the city Saturday on his way to Sholes from where he went to O'Neill with his nephew, John-Bushner for the first time. Mr. Campbell, as might be suspected, is a life long republican, but he told the taxpayers not only that he "was for Bryan" this fall, but there were 120 republicans in his home town who belonged to the Bryan club and that he had along hopes of Bryan and Keru carrying his state.

Madame Inspector, Main Raymond, Trecker, Akus and others were arrested from Omaha Saturday, and

Do Your Feet Ever Hurt?

If you could look inside of your shoe with your foot in it, you would see why. The sole of your foot bends, the sole of your shoe bends scarcely at all.

Ninety-five out of every 100 cases of foot suffering can be traced directly to stiff soles. Their constant friction is what brings hard, callous places, which irritates the delicate nerves and tendons and makes your feet draw, burn, ache!

The Tenderest Feet Are Comfortable in the Red Cross Shoe

Its sole is flexible. Though of regular thickness, it bends with the foot. Not a movement is hampered, not a muscle restricted. The moment you slip it on, you notice its wonderful ease and suppleness. Come in. Bend it. Walk in it.

It doesn't cramp, bind or "draw" the foot—it fits like a glove. Try it once and walking could induce you to go back to stiff soles!

We have it in all styles. Let us fit you. High Shoes, $4.00 and $5.00. Oxfords, $3.50 and $4.00.
