Restful Knights make CDBG fund request

Restful Knights, Inc. has made application through the city of Wayne for a community development block grant from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development of the state of Nebraska.

The Wayne city council approved the application and will send the request to the state.

Virgil and Janet Kardell and Robert and Carollee Stuberger appeared before the Wayne city council Tuesday evening during a public hearing on the block grant request.

The request falls under the Economic Development category of the community development block grant program. Restful Knights, Inc. has applied for the "the repayment of the grant to the local government" portion of the Economic Development category.

Virgil Kardell, in briefing the council on the Restful Knights industry, said the business began operating in January of 1983. "We got wind of an opportunity to make pillows and send them to waterbed companies," Kardell said.

"After the firm began making waterbed mattress pads is when the volume of production increased at Restful Knights. Recent orders have demanded the company make up to 1,000 waterbed mattress pads daily, he mentioned.

"We're afraid of what it is going to be like as it gets closer to Christmas [as production demand increases]," Kardell said. The company's products are now being sold coast to coast, he said.

Today's economic conditions, particularly with the difficult farm economy which affects Wayne, makes Restful Knights, Inc. an important industry to Wayne.

WITHIN A YEAR Kardell said the manufacturing firm could employ up to 25 people, with additional hirings planned in following years.

Wayne Industries wrote a letter to the city council recommending that the city council support Restful Knights, Inc.'s block grant request.

Phil Kloster, city administrator, said the block grant loan would cover the purchase of a building, modification of the facility and purchase of equipment to operate the industry.

"The company has outgrown its present facility on Main Street," he said.

Restful Knights announced plans to relocate from its present headquarters to the old Region IV building on the corner of Logan Street and Second Street, according to Kloster.

"This same type of revolving loan block grant funding had been awarded to other Wayne industries, such as the new Dairy Queen, according to Kloster.

When repaid to the city, the funds are used to increase economic activities. The grant to the industries cannot be used to fund more than 50 percent of a project's cost.

Eligible projects must also produce private sector investment, promote diversification of the state's economy, create new permanent jobs, retain existing jobs and foster economic growth.

Projects include industrial, manufacturing, commercial, retail and service development, small business expansion and revitalization and job training activities.

KLOSTER MENTIONED that there may be "a question on zoning" concerning the relocation of the industries.

"We had a small, light industry in that facility prior to the adoption of our zoning regulations," Kloster said.

Whether Restful Knights, Inc. falls into this type of industrial category and can be grandfathered in is questionable, he said.

City Attorney Kem Swartz said Restful Knights could be considered a manufacturer.

Management changeover at People's Natural Gas

Keith Mosley, who has been a manager of People's Natural Gas of Wayne since Aug. of 1967, has assumed the management responsibilities in the Ashland, Nebraska office.

Mosley has been with People's Natural Gas for the past 24 years, starting in Auburn, Nebraska as a utility man. He received various promotions throughout his early years of work at Schuyler, North Bend and Millard before arriving in Wayne as manager.

Presently, he is serving as third ward councilman on the Wayne City Council.

Mosley's council term representing the third ward expires this year. He is running unopposed for reelection to the third ward council seat.

He told The Wayne Herald Tuesday morning that his current plans are to continue serving on the city council for the remainder of his two-year term, which ends on Dec. 31, 1984.

"From then on, we'll play it by ear," Mosley said.

He has also been a past president and is member of the Wayne Kiwanis Club, a member of the Board of Industrial Development, a Chamber of Commerce member and also has served as a member of the Wayne Planning Commission.

He is also a retired member of the Wayne Volunteer Fire Department and is a member of the Wayne Country Club.

Wayne will continue to be his family home, Mosley said. He and his wife, Carol, have five children — Joey, Sydney, Robin, Greg (at home) and Jill.

Ashland, which is located in eastern Nebraska, has a People's Natural Gas office which serves 2,900 customers in a 10 town area.

NOW SERVING AS area manager of Wayne's People's Natural Gas will be Tim Connealy, age 38.

Connealy, who is a graduate of Wayne State College with a bachelor of science degree with majors in mathematics and chemistry. He began his association with People's Natural Gas when he was hired as a service specialist 14 years ago at Weeping Water, Nebraska.

From there he was a local representative at Eagle, Nebraska; an office supervisor at Dubuque, Iowa; and an area administrator at Council Bluffs, Iowa and Papillion, Nebraska before coming to Wayne.

He currently is serving as mayor of Crescent, Iowa, a town of approximately 550 people. He is also serving on the Pottawattamie County Civil Defense Board, has been a board of director for the Council Bluffs Jaycee chapter, and is a member of the Council Bluffs Optimist Club.

He has also been involved in the Council Bluffs YMCA programs and has participated in fundraising efforts for the Council Bluffs-Omaha United Way and the Boy Scouts.

Connealy has two children, Angela (age 19 and a student at Central Community College on the Platte Campus) and Corie, age 15, who is a sophomore at Wayne Carroll High School.

His hobbies include golfing, biking and racquetball.

ESU board discusses auto mileage rates

Mileage was among several items discussed by the Educational Service Unit 1 board of directors during their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night in Wakefield.

Administrator Harry Mills showed board members a newspaper article concerning taxpayers who receive more than 20.5 cents a mile for business use of their automobiles.

The article states that under regulations recently issued by the IRS, an employer who compensates an employee at more than 20.5 cents per mile must report the entire sum to IRS on a W-2 form for the employee.

Employees must include all the payment in their gross income listed on their federal income tax return. Although they can take a deduction against the payment, the article goes on to say that employees will probably have to pay income taxes on amounts they receive above the 20.5 cents per mile rate.

"Our hands are tied," said Mills, adding that under the law the amount of mileage now paid to ESU staffers must be reported on a W-2 form.

Although Mills recommended that this year's mileage figure remain the same, he suggested that the board take a look at that figure during negotiations next spring.

ESU staffers presently are paid 22 cents per mile.

Lawrence explained that if Clay's salary this year was based on the salary schedule, plus 5 percent for coordinator responsibilities, he would be receiving less than last year's salary of $30,000.

Lawrence said that since Clay's salary last year exceeded the amount he would be paid this year according to the salary schedule (including the additional 5 percent for coordinator responsibility), he cannot receive an additional 5 percent over his present $30,000 salary.

"I would like the board to realize this was discussed at great length in negotiations," said Lawrence. "If we are going to have a salary schedule it has to be fair and equitable for all concerned."

Lawrence emphasized that no individual was singled out during negotiations to be brought before public discussion.

Lawrence said discussion Tuesday night of Clay's salary simply involved interpretation of the master contract agreement and did not require any action by the board.

ESU ASSISTANT Administrator Rodney

Garwood presented a brief report Tuesday night involving cooperative purchases.

Garwood said this year's cooperative purchase order totaled approximately $240,000, an increase of about $70,000 over last year.

Garwood added that ESU 1 expects to receive payment from schools involved in the purchase to meet its contractual obligations before Oct. 1.

Administrator Mills also reported to the board the latest valuations in counties

Board presents award

Reports on the elementary school roofing project and the presentation of a Distinguished Service award were two of the items on the agenda during the regular meeting of the Wayne-Carroll Board of Education on Tuesday, Sept. 11.

Action at the meeting opened with the review of financial reports which was presented by Dr. Francis Haun, superintendent of schools, and accepted and passed by the board.

President Becky Keldel then presented the board's Distinguished Service Award to Viola Morris, a cook at the Carroll school who retired after 21 years of service to the school system.

board received a certificate from the Wayne Education Association on their hosting of the Centennial breakfast as a part of the workshop.

Board member Cap Peterson commented on turnout, commending both the staff and members of the Centennial committee who were involved in the planning of the event.

Dr. Haun notified the board of the positive feedback received concerning a computer seminar presented by Tim Garvin that was held as part of the three-day workshop.

Guidance counselor Curt Frye gave a special report to the board concerning a follow-up study done on the members of the 1979 graduating class and a comparison study done on ACT scores from the 1983-84 school year.

Frye reported that the group of 55 junior and senior students which took the ACT exams scored well in comparison with scores on both the state and national level. In composite scoring, the Wayne group totaled 23.3, while the state level was 20.1 and the national level was 18.5.

The group's highest score came in the area of natural science, where they scored 25.5 locally, compared to a state level of 22.4 and a national score of 21.0.

He added that the scores in all areas showed an increase over the previous year and reflected favorably on the group of individuals who took the exams.

IN OTHER ACTION:

— Dr. Haun reported on the completed installation of a score board at the practice field located south of the elementary school.

— A freeholder's petition by Willis Wiseman was accepted by the board with the stipulation that all land in the acreage be brought into the school district at the earliest possible time.

— A freeholder's petition brought by Terry Janke was tabled until a later time should Janke decide to bring in his entire parcel of land into the district according to board policy.

Scholarship program offered

"Students win more than awards and scholarships when they participate in the VFW Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program," said Commander Eddie Baier of VFW Post 5291 in discussing the broadcast script-writing program conducted annually by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary.
 Some of the fringe benefits, according to Commander Baier are increased self-confidence and poise, experience in communicating with others and valuable training in self-expression. For the state winners, there is also the broadening experience of a five-day-four of Washington, D.C., and the opportunity to make lasting friendships with the other state winners.

 In the 23 years that the VFW and its Ladies Auxiliary have sponsored the Voice of Democracy Program, more than 5,000,000 high school students have participated. Participants write and then tape-record a three-to-five minute broadcast script expressing their views on "My Pledge to America." From among the state winners, six national winners are chosen to receive a total of $32,500 in scholarships.

 "One of the greatest benefits to young people who take part in the program, is that by thinking, writing and speaking up for their country, they gain a better appreciation of their obligation to maintain our nation's freedom heritage," Commander Baier said.
 Entry deadline is Nov. 16. For more details, contact Post Commander Eddie Baier or VFW Auxiliary President Mrs. Marvin Draghu.

Reports on special session

Von Minden urges amendment support

The 88th Legislature, 1st Special Session, came to a close Thursday morning, August 30th. After six days of spirited debate, I voted, in unison with 31 other senators, to submit to the people for ratification on November 6th a proposed constitutional amendment concerning the valuation of agricultural land.

As you may recall, the Governor officially called the special session for two reasons: valuation of agricultural land and interstate banking. The latter was dispatched rather quickly after being sent to the Banking Committee for its consideration.

Originally, the Reference Committee, which assigns all bills to the proper committee, placed the banking bill directly on General File instead of sending it to a committee. After an objection to this maneuver, the bill was sent to the Banking Committee where it was promptly killed. An attempt to place the bill on General File notwithstanding the action of the committee was unsuccessful by a vote of 24-24. Thirty votes were needed. I voted against raising the bill from committee because I could not see where its passage would benefit the state of Nebraska, especially the people of the 17th District.

APPROVAL WOULD have allowed out-of-state banks to operate in Nebraska initiating a drain of capital from the state to outside interests who have little concern for the health of the local economy.

As for the agricultural issue, at times it seemed like the Legislature would not be able to agree on anything. To begin with, there was disagreement as to the form the proposals should take: bill or resolution. A bill is required to go through three stages of consideration: General File, Select File and Final Reading. A resolution need only be voted upon once. Both require thirty votes for passage when an amendment to the Constitution is being considered. Since most senators preferred to finish business as soon as possible, it appeared that the proposals would proceed as resolutions.

However, bills were used after concern was expressed about the need for the additional consideration which a bill would receive and the opportunity, a lengthy discussion of the issue would provide to educate the public.

By the time Wednesday came around, however, several days of debate had taken place and everyone was ready to go home. Rules were suspended to allow the introduction of a resolution (LR 7) identical to the bill (LB 2) under consideration and final vote was taken on Thursday morning. The final tally was 32 for and 16 against its approval. All other bills were indefinitely postponed.

WHAT TOOK place in six days in Lincoln is only the beginning of the effort which must be undertaken if the proposed amendment is to succeed. Attention must now focus on informing the public of the need for the following amendment to the Nebraska Constitution: "The Legislature may provide that agricultural land and horticultural land used solely for agricultural or horticultural purposes shall constitute a separate and distinct class of property for purposes of taxation."

Approval of this amendment will allow farmland to be separately classified and taxed at whatever percentage of actual value the Legislature decides. Presumably, the Legislature will adopt a level which most closely equates to the valuation currently in effect and which has been used in Nebraska for over a hundred years.

All of us, urban and rural, need property tax relief. The plight of the farmer is especially bad since he already pays a disproportionate share of property taxes. In Dixon County for example, farmers pay 70.7% of the property taxes despite the fact that they account for only 38% of the county's population. Without this amendment, they will be paying 80% of the property taxes! Yes, farmers own most of the land, but the majority of the proceeds benefit those who live in the cities.

Rejection of this amendment will place an additional tax burden on farmers that can only contribute to the further decline of the agricultural economy. I hope that by November 6th the voters will realize that approval of this constitutional amendment will benefit all Nebraskans.

Signs of the times

It is finally going to happen in Dixon.

After years seeking some sort of warning light at a railroad crossing on the south edge of Dixon, the city council will be signing a contract recently sent from the state which will specify that the state highway department will supply street lights on both sides of the track at the Dixon railroad crossing site.

This progress will make an improvement on the Burlington Northern railroad crossing. Currently, the trains travel the track across the south crossing at night in Dixon in total darkness, making it difficult and dangerous for those motorists who drive over the track.

Several people have related incidents of being nearly hit by the passing trains because no warning lights were present.

Streets lights, with its illuminating presence, will at least make people aware of the track and the threat of a possible approaching train.

What we would like to see, as we mentioned in an editorial in September of last year, are railroad crossing lights supplied by Burlington Northern railroad.

Why? Simply because not every motorist will slow down and look both directions for oncoming trains before crossing the track. A traffic signal will alert the driver of the vehicle that a train is nearby.

Crossings such as near Dixon, where the tracks are traveled daily, can be easily overlooked.

And so can intersections which have been seen in area counties where stop signs are bent to the ground or hidden in the tall grass.

Regardless if the sign damage was caused by weather and wear, by the childish and foolish pranks of individuals driving vehicles carelessly into the signs or by those who use the signs as target practice — the issue remains that the signs are still down and should be replaced before someone is seriously injured.

Cropping corn or other tall grains from intersection corners which are without stop signs should also be practiced.

Doing so will cut down on the local government's liability in case an accident occurs.

But even more so, it will save lives.

Emergency Medicine Week

Every year hundreds of people in Northern Nebraska need emergency care. Unfortunately, few of these people understand the kind of quality care they receive in the prehospital setting and in emergency departments today.

To make readers aware of recent advances in emergency medical care, Northern Nebraska EMS Council is joining the American College of Emergency Physicians in observing 1984 Emergency Medicine Week, September 16-22.

Most people are not aware that emergency medicine is now a medical specialty with 70 residency programs graduating trained emergency physicians annually.

In addition, the training of nurses and prehospital care personnel (over 1500 trained Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT's) has advanced rapidly during the past several years. Not only do these trained individuals aid in the life-saving process, they are trained to help patients and their families cope with the emotional stresses related to a medical emergency.

Finally, medical research and technology have caused the field to advance rapidly. We are now able to save victims of heart attacks, poisonings, automobile accidents and gunshot wounds who might have died only a few years ago.

Emergency physicians and others are also responsible for advances in the field of disaster management. If this area was struck by a natural or man-made disaster, its citizens would be more likely to receive excellent medical treatment in a timely manner, thanks to the planning and coordination spearheaded by emergency personnel.

I hope you will join Northern Nebraska EMS Council in observing 1984 Emergency Medicine Week. Emergency Medical care in Northern Nebraska is high quality care, and we want our neighbors to know about it.

ask a lawyer

a public service of the nebraska state bar association

What assistance can a lawyer give to a person prior to that person going into small claims court?
It is usually not necessary to have an attorney assist you in preparation for a small claims court case. However, if you do decide to consult an attorney, do so well in advance. An attorney can help you understand the law pertaining to your situation and give you some tips on what kind of proof you will likely need to show the court.
A lawyer can also assist you in filling out your small claims complaint form properly. Some people prefer to consult an attorney before deciding whether to actually file a claim at all, as the attorney can often help evaluate the apparent strength of the case further. There are no lawyers allowed to actually represent litigants in small claims court, however. Although a lawyer may assist you in preparing your case, you must represent yourself in court.

Close up for older citizens planned

Close Up for Older Americans

It was my good fortune three years ago to be instrumental in getting Nebraska into the Close Up Foundation's high school program. Close Up is a non-partisan citizenship education experience that affords high school students an extensive one-week study of the federal government.

In 14 years, Close Up has enrolled more than 140,000 students and teachers in its unique program. Last year alone, more than 19,000 individuals from across the nation, including Nebraska, too part in Close Up activities.

Now, Close Up is reaching out to the other end of the age spectrum. Later in September, the Close Up Foundation will inaugurate a pilot Close Up program for persons 50 years of age or older.

Nebraska was the 43rd state to become involved in Close Up's high school program.

With our large population percentage of older Americans, fifth highest in the United States, it is only a natural that Nebraska have an opportunity to participate at the ground level in this new citizenship activity. Hands-On Experience

Some similarities will exist between the high school and older American Close Up programs. Both will use the City of Washington as a classroom. Both programs will feature opportunities to hear and ask questions of government officials, elected representatives, and others such as news media personnel and embassy staffs who have an effect on national affairs.

Close Up, however, will tailor each program — high school and older Americans — to the participants. The quality with which Close Up approaches its mission of increasing citizenship participation is widely known on Capitol Hill.

Of the various programs that bring citizens to Washington for government studies, no other educational program enjoys greater respect among members of Congress.

Starting the Program
Last week, the Close Up program was presented to Helen Bossalis, director of the Nebraska Department on Aging. Through the eight area offices on aging throughout the state, a mechanism already exists for making Close Up's older American program available to all of Nebraska's population over 50.

The high school program is coordinated in Nebraska through the state Department of Education and its social studies consultant, Mr. Paul Johnson. In a pilot program in 1983, 138 high school students and teachers went to Washington. That number nearly tripled in the spring of 1984 as 350 attended.

In a time when government is a complex part of our lives, the need to understand how the federal government functions is readily apparent. Close Up stands ready to fulfill that need.

Information on the older Americans program will be available later this fall for Nebraskans.

Kerrey won't abandon hope for bank bill passage

Despite the rejection of his interstate banking proposal during the recently completed special legislative session, Gov. Bob Kerrey says he hasn't abandoned his hope of opening the Nebraska financial industry to out-of-state investors who are willing to take over some of the weaker in-state financial institutions.

Whether he'll seek passage of an interstate banking law in the 1985 session or wait until later is a decision yet to be made, Kerrey said in a recent interview.
"At this point, judging from the beating that I took in the (special) session, I don't need to offer this thing up as a token and get my brains beat out again," Kerrey said. "A case (for interstate banking) really has to be won with the people, not with the bankers, not with the banking committee and not with the Legislature."

Kerrey said the bill may have failed in the special session because he proposed "too much, too fast."
AT KERREY'S REQUEST, lawmakers

considered during the session LB 3, his interstate banking proposal. The bill was killed 6-2 by the Banking Commerce and Insurance Committee. A motion to bring it to the floor notwithstanding the committee action failed by six votes, 24-24.

The bill would have expanded the list of possible buyers for State Security Savings Co., the Lincoln industrial loan and investment company which has filed Chapter 11 bankruptcy, and other troubled institutions. Although the bill possibly could have assisted state officials in dealing with the insolvent Commonwealth Savings Co., that wasn't central to Kerrey's motivation for having it introduced in the Legislature, he said.

Eventually, resistance by bankers and by the public will break down, he predicted. "What I've been trying to present to them is that the small borrower, the small community needs interstate banking in order to have competitive financial services," he said.

"I'm not going to change my opinion that we need that diversity in the state. It will improve competition, and I think that will help."

Nebraska bankers will ultimately see the value of interstate banking, too, Kerrey predicted.

AN INTERSTATE BANKING law should be enacted on a reciprocal basis, Kerrey said, allowing institutions to come into Nebraska only when their home states allow Nebraska bankers to do business there.
"I had a number of financial institutions, large and small, that were calling and privately saying 'Governor, you've come at us pretty fast with this thing but I think we support it, we're just not certain,'" he said.

Kerrey said he believes he can still work effectively with the Nebraska bankers who were instrumental in its defeat.

Also, Kerrey said he believes things are patched up to the point where he again can work with the Banking Committee Chairman John DeCamp of Neligh in the future.

The two engaged in a widely reported tiff during the special session after DeCamp alleged the Kerrey's primary motivation for calling the session was to bail out William Wright of Lincoln, a co-owner of State Security and a close friend of the governor.

"I'll be able to work with him, but I'm not going to tolerate his insults," Kerrey said of DeCamp. "I know he harbors some bitterness and that he's had some problems, but he can't expect to explode on people and insult them and not have them be offended."

Kerrey said Sen. Vard Johnson of Omaha had "no basis" for asserting during floor debate on LB 3 that 63 Nebraska banks are troubled, and 17 of those are "essentially in a position of insolvency."

"I'd be very surprised if 63 was the number," Kerrey said. "I don't know what the number is. The problem is that nobody that a bank is going to fail until the owners and stockholders give you the final 'no,' they can't put any additional money in."

briefly speaking

Reception held for newlyweds

Jeanne Ring-Doug Walker repeat vows in Wakefield

The marriage of Jeanne Ring of Arlington, Va. and Doug Walker of Annandale, Va. was solemnized in 3 o'clock rites Sept. 1 at the Christian Church in Wakefield.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Ring of Wayne, whose 33rd wedding anniversary was Sept. 1. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walker of Annandale.

The bride's brother-in-law, Kerry Jech of Marshalltown, Iowa, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Decorations included fresh palms, garland, baby's breath and votive candles.

MUSIC FOR THE ceremony included "I Could Never Promise You," "The Hands You Hold," "My Darling" and "O Perfect Love," sung by Rob Stuber and Krista Ring, both of Wayne, and Debra Nicholson of Emerson.

Organist was William Miller of Norfolk, and trumpeter was Kurt Runestad of Wayne.

Guests attending the ceremony were registered by Terri Hynke of Norfolk, and ushered into the church by Larry Sheate of Fairfax, Va. and Ron Jones of Wayne.

Flower girl was Katie Ring of Wayne, and ring bearer was Adam Jech of Marshalltown, Iowa. Candles were lit by Elizabeth Ring of Crookston, Minn. and Benjamin Ring of Wayne.

Matron of honor was Jane Jech of Marshalltown, Iowa, sister of the bride, and a sister of the bride and bridesmaids were Jean Ring of Crookston, Minn. and Ruth Ring of Wayne. The bride's personal attendant was Charlene Endicott of Oakton, Va.

Groomsmen were Ian McLean of Arlington, Va., and Dr. Bruce Ring of Crookston, Minn. and Ron Ring of Wayne, both brothers of the bride.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride appeared in a white matte taffeta gown fashioned with a scoop neckline trimmed with silk Venice motifs. Chantilly lace peeked from the hemlines of the hooped skirts. Red fabric bows enhanced their gowns.

She wore a bridal illusion wedding ring veil touched with bridal silk roses, and carried a nosegay of white gladiolus blossoms, stephanotis, button poms, red tipped roses and baby's breath.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore red malle taffeta gowns decorated with puffed sleeves, drop shoulder bodices, and rows of white lace peeking from the hemlines of the hooped skirts. Red fabric bows enhanced their gowns.

Each carried three red gerbera daisies with baby's breath, greenery and red bows.

The bridegroom was attired in a Marine Corps dress blue uniform, and his attendants wore navy blue tuxedos with navy satin bow ties.

The bride's mother selected a street length white suit with a ruby red blouse, and the bridegroom's mother chose a pleated lavender organza dress also in street length.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, the bride and bridegroom arrived at a reception on the lawn of Evergreen Heights Farm, Wayne, in a carriage drawn by white horses.

The 200 guests attending the reception were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sheate of Fairfax, Va. and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Jones of Wayne. Gifts were arranged by Linda Bones of Griswold, Iowa.

Background music during the reception was provided by Joel Burkum of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Walker

The bride graduated from Wayne Carroll High School in 1975 and attended Nebraska Christian College, Norfolk, and Wayne State College. She is employed on the staff of U.S. Congressman Douglas Bereuter in Washington, D.C.

Congressman Bereuter and his aide, Dan Vodvarka of Lincoln, were among the out-of-town guests for the wedding ceremony.

The bridegroom graduated from Lake Braddock Secondary School in Burke, Va. in 1976. He received his B.A. degree from Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Va. in 1980.

He is a captain in the U.S. Marine Corps Active Reserve, and is employed as a jeweler at J.C. Godd Jewelry in Springfield, Va.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Karen Morris of Marshalltown, Iowa, and Mrs. Paula Priebe of Norfolk. Mrs. Pearl Carlson of Wakefield poured, and Mrs. Kathy Stoltenberg of Wayne and Cheryl Burns of Ames, Iowa served punch.

Waitresses were Lisa Chase of Allen, and Amy Peters, Christy Cable and Sheri Pearson, all of Wakefield.

FOLLOWING THEIR ceremony, the newlyweds went to Kansas City, Mo. before traveling back to Virginia. Their address is 78A N. Bedford St., Arlington, Va., 22201.

The guests were registered by Mrs. Marie Chocholoušek of Verdigre.

ROBERT LISKA was master of ceremonies for the afternoon, which included a "Remember When" program of readings and statements by the honorees' sons concerning while at home, living on the farm, going to school in Niobrara, and their college years.

The program also included a tula solo by grandson William Liska, accompanied by his sister Anne on the piano; a trombone and haritone duet by grandsons Jason and Eric Liska; a piano solo by granddaughter Kimberly Liska; and recitations by granddaughters Julie and Kristie Liska.

Otto (Curley) Dvorak of Verdigre played romantic organ music throughout the afternoon.

Helen Farnik of Verdigre poured, and Anne Liska of Wayne served punch.

Program will focus on fire safety

A program, entitled "Fire Safety in the Home and on the Farm," will be offered Friday, Sept. 14 at 1:30 p.m. in the Winside fire hall.

The lesson, which is being sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service, will answer questions relating to fire safety.

The program is open to all interested individuals and community groups free of charge.

Mary Temme, Wayne County extension agent-home economics, said organizations are welcome to send a representative to the lesson. The representative, in turn, can take the information back to his or her respective group.

PERSONS WHO would like additional information on the lesson called "Fire Safety in the Home and on the Farm" are asked to contact the Wayne County Extension Office at 375-3310.

Cats give Chadron the 'boot' in season's first win

The Wayne State Wildcats unleashed an offensive show of 332 yards and set a total of four new school records on their way to taking a 36-7 win over the Chadron State Eagles on Saturday at Memorial Stadium.

A highlight of the day was the record-setting performance of Wayne State kicker Herve Roussel (REW-sol) who set four school records with a five-for-five field goal performance, including a pair from 47-yards out.

THE ATTITUDE of the team following the win will be important as the Cats head into game week preparation for another home contest, this time with Hastings College on Saturday, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

"It will be up to the kids to individually decide how this win will effect them," said Coach Pete Chapman. "Either they can be satisfied with the victory and let it help to ease all they have gone through in the past two years, or they can demand more of a return on all of the work they have put in and want more."

Hastings College downed the Wildcats on the road 20-7 last year, and Chapman feels that the Broncos will "be more than ready" to take the Cats on again this season. "They have a lot of experience, many of their kids played last year," said Chapman. "Along with the momentum from last year's win and other factors, they will be more than ready to play us on Saturday."

Hastings will come into the Wayne State contest off a season opening loss to Buena Vista, 28-7 with a 0-1 record. Their first game of the season against Dakota State was cancelled due to a lack of Dakota State players.

Returning to face the Wildcats will be Bronco quarterback Todd Stull, a 6-0, 175 lb. junior, along with tailback Todd Anania and fullback Ladd Pettitt.

The Broncos return nine starters and 18 lettermen on defense, with senior defensive backs Tim Kruse and Earl Faulkner leading the way in an attempt to stop the Wildcat passing attack.

IN THE WIN over Chadron State, Wayne got on the board early in the first quarter when Herve Roussel knocked in a field goal from 46-yards out to set a new school record and give the Wildcats a 3-0 lead with 10:47 left to play in the period. The scoring drive came after a pass interception by Wayne's sophomore defensive back Elvis Harrell on the Chadron 28-yard line.

Wayne's defensive unit then stopped the Eagles after just three plays, causing them to punt the ball from deep in their own territory.

Taking the ball over on the Chadron 33-yard line, Wayne was unable to move the ball very well, fumbling it twice but recovering both times. On fourth and ten from the Chadron 30-yard line, Roussel broke his own school record on a 47 yard field goal with 7:53 remaining.

The Wildcats scored two more times in the opening period, including a 34 yard pass completion from junior quarterback Ed Jochum to junior wide receiver Matt Hoffman with 4:16 left and another field goal by Roussel from 47 yards with 1:32 remaining. Roussel also was successful on the PAT attempt.

With a 16-0 lead going into the second quarter, Wayne added a touchdown midway through following a scoring drive which began on their own 18-yard line.

On first and 10, Jochum tossed a 50 yard completion to sophomore receiver Sonny Jones to give Wayne the ball on the Chadron State 32 yard line. A defensive pass interference call on Chadron moved the ball to the 21 yard line and Jochum hit sophomore wide out Darin Blackburn in the endzone for the score. The PAT by Roussel by good, making the score 23-0 Wayne State at the half.

WAYNE'S PASSING attack showed itself again early in the third quarter when the Wildcats took the ball on their own 31 yard line following an Eagle punt and brought the ball to the Chadron 43 before Jochum found Hoffman in the endzone a second time for the score. The successful PAT by Roussel brought the Wayne lead to 30-0 with 12:13 remaining in the period.

The Wildcat coaching staff was able to clear the bench of players in the remaining portion of the game, which saw Wayne's Roussel score two more field goals from 37 and 46 yards.

Chadron made their only points of the game with 6:13 remaining in the fourth quarter when quarterback Phil Warrick dropped a 15 yard pass into the hands of wide receiver Dana DeLay for the score. The extra point attempt by Tom Cox of good.

WAYNE ENDED the day with 351 yards in the air on 20 pass completions. A 19 yards rushing brought the Wildcat's total yardage to 332 on the day, compared to 130 yards for the Eagles.

Individually, quarterback Ed Jochum led the ball 30 times, completing 12 for 226 yards and three touchdowns. Junior quarterback Terry Graver came in the second half to toss the ball 24 times and complete eight for 125 yards.

On the receiving end of the football, Matt Hoffman led the way with five catches for 137 yards and two touchdowns. Sonny Jones added four catches for 91 yards and one score while Darin Blackburn also notched one catch for a 20 touchdown reception.

Freshman Scott Wighlman handled the punting chores for the Wildcats, punting the ball seven times for 222 yards, an average of 31.7 yards per punt.

Junior linebacker Tony Shaw was among the top of the Wayne defenders with three solo tackles and four assists along with bad pass caused and a pass broken up. Senior linebacker Steve Besch had one solo tackle and five assists and had two interceptions with a return of six yards.

Freshman Bob Moretti tallied eight assists in the game along with two bad passes caused and one pass broken up. "All of our defensive players played well," said Chapman. He added that there were some small technique problems, but they will be areas which will be worked on during the week's practice. "Our offense started off slow, but played very well once they got into the flow of the game."

ROUSSEL lets go with his 47-yard field goal attempt.

Roussel sets records

Wildcat head football Coach Pete Chapman told a meeting of the Second Guessers boosters club last week that he had a kicker by the name of Herve Roussel who claimed he would win games for the Cats, given the chance.

Saturday's game against Chadron State gave the first-year kicker a chance to prove his claim, and he did just that, turning in a record-setting performance which included four new school records and helped to key the 36-7 win over Chadron.

IN STATISTICS released on Tuesday, Sept. 11, Roussel led the nation's NAIA Division I kick scoring category with an average of 11.0 points per game. He also received Offensive Player of the Week honors from both the NAIA District 11 and the Central States Intercollegiate Conference.

Roussel, an accomplished soccer player, went five-for-five in the field goal department against the Eagles, including two from 47 yards out, breaking the old school record of 44 yards set by Carlos Languilla in 1982. His other goals came from 46 and 37 yards out.

He began the day by overtaking the school record with a field goal of 46 yards, only to turn around moments later and break his own record with the back-to-back 47-yard field goals.

Other school records set include most field goals in a game with five, breaking the mark of two; most field goals in a season (after two games) with six, besting that set by Bart Emanuel in 1977; and most kicking points in a game with 18 points on five field goals and three extra points.

He also fell just one field goal short of the NAIA national record of six field goals in one game, and is four shy of the career record of 10 field goals set by Emanuel during 1977-80.

ROUSSEL FIRST came to Nebraska as a foreign exchange student at Ainsworth High School in 1973. He returned to France for several years and played soccer before coming back to the United States and eventually, Nebraska. He attempted to play football at Chadron State but transferred to Wayne after being told the Eagles kicking position was filled.

Originally from LeMans, France, this is Roussel's first experience with American football. Chapman commented that having a kicker like Roussel "gives the game another dimension" and reduces the size of the field as far as scoring is concerned. "It gives the coaching staff another thing to think about."

Lady Wildcats gain first win of season

Wayne State's Lady Wildcats came up with their first win of the season and suffered a pair of road losses in games played during the past week.

Over the weekend, the Lady Wildcats made their first road trip of the season, travelling to Chadron to take on South Dakota Tech and Chadron State in a pair of matches on Friday and Saturday.

Opening against South Dakota Tech on Friday evening, the Lady Cats went down in three close sets by scores of 13-15, 15-12 and 11-15.

Leading scorers in the effort were senior Mary Kay Becker and sophomore Missy Stollenberg with eight points each.

Senior Beth Erickson led spiking, while junior Pam Gogan topped play on the net with six blocks.

IN THE SET with Chadron on Saturday morning, the Wayne State squad fell in the best three-out-of-five series 14-16, 9-15 and 7-15.

In serving, Gogan led with six points, and a trio of players, senior Andra Jones, junior Jill Zeiss and sophomore Diana Asay all added four points.

Senior Mitch Esters was the team's top passer with 18 good passes in the service return category.

Jill Zeiss came up with 13 sets to lead the team in that category, while junior Bode added nine sets.

Spiking in the match was led by Diana Asay who made good on nine of ten spikes with nine kills. She and teammate Mary Kay Becker were also strong on the defensive net, each notching four blocks.

"The fact that we lost our opening three matches is disappointing," said head Coach Marilyn Strate. "Most of our mistakes were mental errors...the most important thing right now is for the team to get more experience on the court." She also commented that an important key for the team right now "is not to get down even though they have lost these past games."

"We are still playing an inconsistent type of game, up and down throughout, and that is something that I thought we were over but a game situation still tends to bring out," Strate said. "We need to think more while we're out on the court," she added.

THEIR FIRST WIN came on Tuesday night against Dana College in Rice Auditorium. The Lady Wildcats downed Dana in the best three-out-of-five series, 15-2, 15-11 and 15-1.

Sophomore Linda Bode played a strong game, logging 10 assists and connecting successfully on 8 of 11 serve attempts.

Senior Mitch Esters had six attacks during the match, while teammate Andra Jones, also a senior, had four spikes for kills.

The Lady Cats will host a triangular this evening (Thursday) with Westmar and Doane colleges, beginning at 6:30 p.m. They will then head to Sioux City on Saturday, Sept. 15 to defend their title at the Briar Cliff Invitational tournament.

Trojans third at Winside tourney

A third place finish awaited the Wakefield Trojan volleyball for their participation in the Winside volleyball tournament on Monday and Tuesday.

In their opening game on Monday, Wakefield downed Osmond in two sets by scores of 15-11 and 15-1.

LEADING THE serving game was sophomore Stacey Kuhl with 11-11 and four ace serves—Darla Hartman, a senior, was 8-8 with three aces and junior Kristi Miller was 6-6 with three aces. Miller also was a key in the spiking department with 10-12 downed spikes for five aces. Junior Kristal Clay went 5-6 at the net with two aces.

In setting junior Julie Oswald was a perfect 9-9. In their second round game against Wynot, the Trojans were defeated in three sets, 15-13, 4-15 and 4-15. In the match, Marci Greve, a sophomore, was the leading spiker with 7 of 11 spikes for two aces. Senior Roni Starzl followed right behind with 8-9 downed spikes for a pair of aces. The loss sent Wakefield into the consolation game with Laurel.

which the Trojans went on to win in three sets, 10-15, 15-13, and 15-13 to take the third place trophy.

Kristal Clay topped serving, making good on 12-12 serves, while Julie Oswald was 11-11 in the match.

Clay and Marci Greve combined to head the spiking category, with Clay downing 21-27 spikes for 12 aces and Greve 14 of 21 for five aces. Susie McQuisten, a sophomore, added 15-19 spikes and five aces as well.

JULIE OSWALD was 39-41 in setting attempts, while Stephanie Torczon was 27-32.

"Against Wynot we started out strong, and then our setting and hitting got slightly off," said Coach Mary Schroeder. "Coming back against Laurel, our team decided that the way they are going to win is to hit the ball, and that is what they did."

Schroeder added that her team's strength this season will "lie in the fact that we have good strong athletes who will come up and hit the ball for us."

The Trojans record went to 3-3 with the tournament wins and loss.

Allen adds Ponca win to record

The Allen Eagle volleyball team continued to win on the road as they downed the Ponca varsity on Tuesday evening in two sets, 15-8, 15-8.

"We came in and played with good intensity early in the sets," said Coach Gary Troth. He feels the team needs to generate more offense and that the girls have the talent to do that. "Because we are a shorter team, we tend to take more time on offense and lay back. We need to be more aggressive."

Pam Heckathorn and Tammy Kavanaugh led team serving with 13-13 good serves, while Mary Oswald added 8-8. In spiking, Oswald made good on 10-10 with four spikes for kills, and Denise Magnuson was 10-12, and also had four for kills.

Kavanaugh and Heckathorn also led the setting department with Kavanaugh making 17-20 sets with four for kills, and Heckathorn converting on 13-14 with five for kills.

The win brought the varsity season record to 3-1.

The Allen reserve team lost what was their first game of the season in three sets, 4-15, 15-13, 13-15. Troth was pleased with the team's performance, citing that a lack of game experience seemed to be the main problem leading to the loss.

The freshman team fared better, taking a two set win over Ponca 11-7 and 11-2. "These girls showed some really impressive play, and I'm really happy with their aggressive style of play," Troth said.

Winside downed in first round

The Winside Wildcats were knocked out in the first round of their own tournament when Coleridge handed them a three set defeat on Monday night at the Winside gym.

The Wildcats cruised to an easy 15-5 win in the opening set before falling behind 9-0 in the second set to the Chargers. Winside battled back to tie the score at 14-14, but was unable to keep the momentum going, eventually losing 16-14.

Coleridge went on to take the third game of the match 15-4. The loss dropped the Winside record to 0-3.

SOPHOMORE CHRISTI Thies led all scoring with 10 points.

Missy Jensen, a senior, topped the spiking attack with 12-20 with three aces. Leading setters were Kerri Leighton with 25 good sets on 28 attempts and Tammy Brudigan with 16-17 sets.

"Most of our mistakes in the Coleridge match were mental ones," said Coach Jill Stenwall. She said her team played well in the opening win, and continued to do so in their come-back effort in the second set. "But we just stood around on the court during our final game."

Stenwall added that she is pleased with the performance of her team so far in the season, and they continue to improve as time goes by.

Wayne junior high opens season

In its first official competition, the Wayne-Carroll junior high volleyball team participated in the Schuyler Invitational volleyball tournament held on Saturday, Sept. 8.

Under the direction of Coach Sue Koch, the seventh grade team lost its match to the Howells eighth grade team in two sets, 15-2, 15-3.

The eighth graders also lost their opener, falling the Schuyler eighth grade team 15-8, 15-10.

"It was the first real competition for these girls," said Koch.

"They showed good basic skills, and the mistakes that we made were mental errors."

Due to the fact that it is the first year of a junior high volleyball program, the teams have been practicing primarily on basic skills and serving techniques. Koch said that they also work an offensive pattern similar to that of the high school's varsity team so that the transition will be easier for the eighth grade players. For the younger players, the program serves as a good introduction to the game.

Wayne netters take second win

The Wayne-Carroll Blue Devil volleyball team came away with a split in the North Bend volleyball invitational over the weekend and suffered a loss to West Point Central Catholic on Tuesday evening in their latest volleyball competition. The play moved their record to 2-3 on the season.

In the first round of the North Bend Invitational on Saturday, Sept. 8, the Wayne High Blue Devils fell in two sets, 15-8, 15-13 to eventual champion David City Aquinas.

Wayne had a tough time getting on track in the opening moments of both sets, falling behind in the first by a score of 9-1 before coming alive and closing the gap somewhat.

In the second set, they came back from an 8-1 deficit to tie things up and take a 12-10 lead over David City before falling by the two-point margin.

Facing off with Clarkson in the day's second set, Wayne needed all three sets to take a 15-1, 13-15, 15-5 win over the Red Devils.

Coach Mavis Dalton feels that her team let up a little bit in the second set after winning the first by a wide margin, but "they came on the day, Lori Jacobson was 27-28 at the serving line with 21 points and five ace serves.

Karen Longe led net play with 35 good spikes on 42 attempts with 11 aces, and Lisa Jacobson was the team's leading setter with 37 of 39 successful set attempts.

"We started out flat against David City," said Dalton, but added that she was pleased with their performance against Clarkson and their level of intensity out on the court.

IN TUESDAY night's loss to West Point, the Blue Devil netters fell in two sets by scores of 15-9 and 15-13.

"I was disappointed in both our serving and spiking averages," said Dalton. Both percentages were much below normal which hurt the team's play and contributed to the loss.

Senior Karen Longe led both serving and spiking in the match, making good on 5 of 8 serves for five points and knocking down 13 of 14 spikes, four for aces.

Senior teammates Lisa Jacobson and Kollote Frevert topped the night's setting with 17-17 good sets for Jacobson and 23 of 24 for Frevert.

In reserve team play, the Wayne team lost their match in three sets, winning the first 15-7 before falling in two close sets, 11-15 and 12-15. Virginia Hoffman led scoring with 11-12 good serves for 10 points and setting with 23 of 24 good sets.

Hitting was led by Keisha Corbit with 12 of 14 spikes for six aces, while Shelly Pick was 10-10 with 1 ace.

The Wayne C team won their match in two sets by scores of 12-4 and 12-4. Terry Gehner was the top scorer with 9-9 serves for eight points.

The Blue Devils will open the home portion of their schedule against Norfolk on Tuesday, Sept. 18.

Laurel finishes 1-2 at tourney

The Laurel Concord volleyball team came away with a 1-2 mark from the Winside Volleyball Tournament on Sept. 10-11.

The Bears won their opening contest with Stanton in three sets on Monday night, but dropped games to Coleridge and Wakefield on Tuesday evening to bring their season record to 3-4.

AGAINST STANTON, Laurel won in three tough sets by scores of 15-13, 13-15 and 15-12.

Junior Michelle Joslin was the team's leading scorer with 15-16 good serves for 10 points. Senior Wendy Robson added nine points, going 18-18 from the serving line.

Robson also downed eight spikes in the match, while senior teammate Renee Vanderheiden contributed with seven downed spikes. On Tuesday, the Bears opened with a three set loss to the Coleridge Chargers, 15-12, 13-15 and 4-15.

Vanderheiden and sophomore Sara Adkins were top scorers with nine and eight points respectively. Vanderheiden went 14-14 in serving, while Adkins was 11-13.

Donna Sherry, a junior, was the leading setter with 19 good sets in 24 attempts.

Spiking was headed up by senior Daneen Rhode with 9-10 downed spikes, and Wendy Robson with 9-13 downed spikes and 10 dinks.

ADVANCING TO the consolation bracket, Laurel then fell prey to Wakefield in sets of 15-10, 13-15, 13-15.

Renee Vanderheiden served a perfect 18-18 for 12 points to lead all scoring.

Sara Adkins and Lynn Malchow were the team's top setters, with Adkins going 22-24 and Malchow 18-20.

"On Monday night, even though we won, I was unhappy with the way we played, we weren't very skillful on the court and showed very little teamwork," said Bear's Coach Carol Manganaro.

But, she went on to say that while her team did lose on Tuesday evening, she was much happier with their level of play, saying that "they were able to show their determination and stamina in playing for over three hours straight, and that they can work hard."

"These losses that we suffered won't really hurt us even though they might make our record look bad," Manganaro said. "We're learning and will continue to learn as the season goes by."

Reserves roll by West Point CC

The members of the Wayne-Carroll Blue Devils B football team racked up an impressive 40-12 win over West Point Central Catholic on Monday afternoon in Wayne.

Junior running back Tom Perry rushed for 119 yards and three touchdowns to lead the winning effort. His scores came on runs of 49, 29 and 13 yards.

Wayne, coached by Ron Carnes and Don Koenig, led at the half 28-6 and never looked back in the final two periods as they drew out to the final margin.

The Blue Devil's other scores included a 14-yard pass from sophomore quarterback Ted Lueders to junior wingback Shannon Dorcey in the third period and a 18-yard run by Lueders later in the same quarter.

Sophomore defensive back Kevin Griess made a key defensive play in the game, picking off a West Point pitch out and running it back 14 yards for a touchdown late in the second quarter.

Wayne was successful on two of their extra point conversion attempts. Dorcey took a pass from quarterback Lueders for two points and junior running back Tim Fleming ramblbed into the end zone for a second two-point play.

Defensively, Perry and sophomore tackle Bill Liska led with eight stops each.

"The best part of the game was the fact that it gave all those players that have been out for football for the last month and a half the opportunity to play, and that it's a big plus as far as we are concerned," said Carnes.

He added that West Point was a weak team, and it is hard for the coaching staff to know exactly which areas to work on.

The team will also play host in their next contest, when Pierce comes to town on Monday, Sept. 17 for a game to begin at 4 p.m.

Columbus Scotus next

Cross country continues to improve

The Wayne-Carroll cross-country team moved further into their 1984 schedule with a pair of meets held on Saturday and Tuesday at Beemer and Norfolk.

At the Wisner-Pilger Indian Trails Cross Country meet held on Saturday, Sept. 8 at Beemer, the Wayne-Carroll squad brought home two individual medals in their third meet of the season.

Winning the meet was South Sioux City with 18 points, followed by Albion with 35 points, Wisner-Pilger with 41 points and Wayne-Carroll with 56 points.

The best time in the distance was turned in by Duffy Meyer of Wisner-Pilger with a 17:37 run.

Top finishers for the Blue Devils were senior Chris Hillier with a clocking of 19:43 and junior Kurt Runestad with a time of 19:51. Both received medals for their ninth and tenth place finishes.

Matt Hillier, a freshman, placed 18th in the field with a time of 20:40, while sophomores Ted Lohrberg and Tim Griess came in with times of 21:25 and 21:31 respectively.

Freshman Jeff Simpson, a member of the Blue Devils reserve squad, logged a time of 21:53 in competition with the varsity field.

"This wasn't a large meet, so it was a good opportunity for our runners to qualify for medals," said Coach Harold Maciejewski. This was the first meet of the season in which the 5,000 meter distance was closely measured out, so Maciejewski feels it gave his runners a good chance to compare their times to those of last year.

"This way our runners can see what they have to do in order to be competitive this year," he added.

Next up for the Wayne-Carroll team will be the Columbus Scotus Invitational on Friday, Sept. 14 in Columbus.

IN TUESDAY'S triangular with Norfolk and Wisner-Pilger at Norfolk, the Wayne team finished behind the two teams with a point total of 38. Norfolk claimed the first place spot with 19 points while Wisner-Pilger ended with 23.

Chris Hillier ran the course in a time of 20:44 to finish first for the Wayne team and fifth in the field overall. His brother, Matt Hillier, was in eighth place overall with a clocking of 20:59 and was Wayne's second finisher.

Runestad logged a time of 21:10 to place 11th, while Griess ran a time of 22:07 to finish 14th. Jeff Simpson moved up in the field of runners, finishing in a time of 22:30 to place 16th. Ellis ran a time of 22:39 to round out the Blue Devil field.

"This was a tougher course than the one at Indian Trails," said Maciejewski. Also a measured 5,000 meter distance, he said it was a "good conditioner" for the runners.

"I was pleased to see the times of our runners begin to close in on each other and move towards the top runner," he added.

Wildcat scramble a success

A field of over 130 golfers participated in a golf scramble held at the Wayne Country Club on Sunday to raise funds for the Wayne State College men's basketball team.

The Wildcat basketball team, under the direction of head Coach Rick Weaver, plans a trip to four European countries over the semester break in December.

"We had a really great turnout for the event," said Weaver. "Everything went very well, and everyone had a good time throughout the day," he added, stating that it proved to be a successful fund-raising activity.

Photography: Chuck Hackenmillor

WINNING THE scramble was the team of Doug Sturm, Gary Wrede and Ralph Barclay with a net score of 25, who were tied with the team of Randy Simonsen, Ken Christensen and Bill McQuistan at the end of the nine-hole scramble.

A sudden death playoff of free throw shooting was held to determine a winner, with Ralph Barclay making the shot for the winning team.

The three team members received a four-day, three-night vacation in Colorado Springs for them and their spouses, a trophy and WSC letter(jacket), along with various other prizes.

There was also a close battle for third and fourth place, with the team of Don Koeber, Pat Gross and Phil Kioster edging out Del Olson, Robbie Olson and Dan Olson on a free throw made by Pat Gross. Both teams finished the nine holes with a score of 28.

In fifth place was Gene Casey, Randy Pedersen and Dick Dirman with a score of 29.

of the Wildcat basketball team helped to spot the ball and fend the green.

"It was a one of a kind," said Froeschle about his quick round of golf. "There was a delicate balance because the more strokes taken, the more time would have been used." Froeschle said a lapse was made of the round, and in looking back at it, "It is more funny than it is a classic." He had played several rounds of this type before, "but never with any type of help." Froeschle would eventually like to attempt a similar 18-hole round in the future.

Helping with the scramble were about members of the Wayne State volleyball, baseball and basketball teams, along with the athletic training staff.

Blue Devil eighth grade gridders finish on top in 22-6 decision over Norfolk Catholic Strong, aggressive play by the offensive and defensive units of the Wayne-Carroll eighth grade football team led to a 22-6 win by the team over Norfolk Catholic on Tuesday night in Norfolk.

Wayne opened things up in the first quarter with an 80-yard scoring drive which culminated in a 8-yard touchdown run by Corey Frye.

The two-point conversion run by Frye was good and Wayne took a 8-0 lead into the second quarter when Erik Liska rushed for an 8-yard touchdown run. The PAT kick at tempt failed and the Blue Devils led 14-0 at the half.

Neither team scored in the third period, as Wayne's defense was able to stop a Norfolk scoring drive with a pass interception by Elliott Salmon. Corey Frye also came up with a interception in the quarter.

Early in the fourth period, Wayne added their final points on a 10-yard run by Sean Baker. Corey Frye carried the ball on the two point conversion to make the final score 22-6.

Frye finished the game as the Blue Devil's leading rusher with 68 yards, just ahead of Erik Liska with 67 yards and Sean Baker with 46 yards.

Liska and Doug Larson were the leaders on the defensive charts for Wayne, each with six tackles. Frye, Baker, Daryl Lindsay and Chris Luft all added five stops, and Kevin Hausmann, Jed Reeg and Jarod Wood all had four.

The eighth grade team will be at home for their next game, when they take on Pierce on Tuesday, Sept. 18 at 4 p.m.

Froeschle second at golf tourney

Cole Froeschle of Wayne, a member of the 1984-85 Northeast Technical Community College golf team, notched a second place finish in the Hastings-Kearney State Tournament held on Sept. 6 and 7 at Hastings.

His score of a two under par 33 was a key element in NTCC's winning the team championship and moved him from a fifth to second place finish. NTCC teammates Rob Spomer of Omaha finished first in the tournament and Joe Edwards, also of Omaha, finished third. A total of 11 two- and four-year colleges participated in the tourney.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Froeschle, Cole is a freshman liberal arts major at NTCC and a 1984 graduate of Wayne-Carroll High School.

Roberts at Sioux City Open

Tom Roberts of Wayne garnered a first place finish in the men's 50 singles during the Sioux City Tennis Open held this past weekend.

Seeded first, Roberts received a first round bye before defeating Horst Blume of Sioux City, Iowa by scores of 6-2, 6-0.

In the finals, George Smith, also of Sioux City, fell to Roberts in two sets, 6-3, 6-2, to give Roberts the first place finish.

Wayne State soccer results

The Wayne State soccer club opened its 1984 season during the past weekend at an invitational tournament hosted by the Siouxperland Soccer Association and First Federal Savings of Sioux City.

The club won its opening contest in the college division on Friday evening by forfeit over a team out of Des Moines, Iowa, and was narrowly defeated in their second match of the night to Morningside College by a score of 1-0.

Saturday's play began with a 10-0 loss at the hands of the University of Nebraska-Omaha. Wayne was able to bounce back in the day's final game to take a 1-0 win over Westmar College. The team finished with a 2-2 record in the invitational.

The team will continue on their regular season schedule this weekend with a contest against Leones at a field located near the Sioux City Auditorium.

Laurel-Concord cross country

The Laurel-Concord cross country coach, John Jonas, has announced the members of his 1984 squad and their upcoming schedule.

Team members include Jim Pehrson, Derek Linebarr, Allen George, Brent Heydon, Troy Heitman, Shawn Westad and Theresa Anderson.

The fall schedule includes the following dates:

- Sept. 7 at Norfolk Catholic.
- Sept. 14 at O'Neill.
- Sept. 21 at Crofton.
- Sept. 28th at Atkinson.
- Oct. 5 at Bloomfield.
- Oct. 8 at Districts.
- Oct. 19: State meet at Kearney.

Chico Hamilton at Wayne State

The Chico Hamilton jazz quintet will be the first of six Special Programs Series features at Wayne State College this school year. The well-known drummer and his band will perform at WSC on Tuesday, Sept. 25 at Ramsey Theatre in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Center. The performance is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m.

Not only will Chico Hamilton's jazz quintet be the first of six Special Programs series of the 1984-85 year, but it will also be the first jazz performance ever in the Special Programs Series. Chico Hamilton, a drummer, composer, band leader and veteran jazz performer, brings years of experience with him on his current tour. At age 16, Chico played drums with Duke Ellington when a regular drummer got sick. And now—he's in his early 60s—he is still going strong. He's worked with performers such as Count Basie and Lena Horne and has produced records for feature films and television specials. Appearing with Chico Hamilton in his quintet are: Arnie Lawrence, reeds; Glenn Alexander, guitar; Gary De Nigras, guitar; and Paul Ramsey, bass. Admission to Chico Hamilton is $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for high school students and younger. Wayne State students, faculty, staff and holders of WSC activity passes are admitted free. Tickets can be purchased at the door. The other five Special Programs Series performances include: Lin Maxwell, mezzo soprano on Tuesday, Oct. 30; Master Players of Lugano, Switzerland, Chamber Orchestra on Tuesday, Nov. 14; Clive Thompson Dance Co. on Tuesday, Feb. 5, 1985; the John Houseman Acting Company Group I on March 12, 1985; and Fezishin and Hilde, and Trumpet and organ due on Tuesday, Apr. 9, 1985.

Horizons '84' winners announced

Three Purchase Award Winners and three Merit Award Winners have been announced for "Horizons '84," a state-wide art exhibition and competition being held at Wayne State College until Sept. 21. The Purchase Award Winners are: Mary Jo Horning, Omaha, and Karen Kunc, Lincoln. The Merit Award Winners are Dan Howard, Lincoln, First Merit Award; Jean Weststead, Fremont, Second; and Benjamin L. Darling, Lincoln, Third. The juror was Tom Butler, assistant director of the Sioux City Art Center. The award winners split $1,450.

The art display is at the Nordstrand Visual Arts Gallery at Wayne State. Gallery hours are from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Sculpture, painting, printmaking, watercolor, weaving, and mixed media are a part of the exhibition. The exhibition is being sponsored by the Wayne Centennial Committee. Purchase awards are supported through grants from InterNorth Foundation and the Wayne State College Foundation. Work obtained through purchase awards will be held in the public trust by the Wayne State College Foundation.

Band Day slated for Saturday

Wayne State will host over 980 area bandmen on Saturday, Sept. 15, presenting a day of music and marching. The Wayne State Band Day is sponsored jointly by Wayne State College and the Wayne Chamber of Commerce. After a morning rehearsal (at 8:30 a.m.) 19 area bands will participate in a parade which will start at 10:30 a.m. from near the college campus and proceed to downtown Wayne.

The parade will start at Sav-Mor Pharmacy and continue south on Main Street to First Street. Dean Craun of KTCB Radio will be announcing the parade from a reviewing stand at the corner of Third Street and Main.

No parking will be allowed along the marked parade route from 9:45 a.m. until after the parade. All violators will be towed, according to the Wayne Police Department. Judges of the parade will be Jim Johnson, band director at Winsor-Pilger; Don Schumacher, director at Pierce and Jim Luellen, band director at Norfolk Senior High.

BANDS WILL BE competing for first and second place trophies in two classes and for $1,000 in Wayne State College scholarships donated by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce and the Second Guessers Club. Afternoon activities will begin at 12:30 p.m. with the pre-game parade of bands and a pre-game show by the Wildcat Marching Band beginning at 1:10 p.m., a prelude to the 1:30 game with the Wildcats against Hastings. During the halftime of the game, the guest bandsmen will join the Wayne State College Band in a mass band performance directed by Gary Davis, Wayne State director of bands.

The selections will include "March Grandioso," "America the Beautiful" and "Onward Wayne State."

The trophy and scholarship winners will be announced at half-time by the Randy Pedersen, president of the Wayne Chamber of Commerce, and Don Kober, president of the Second Guessers.

Wayne High School's band and Middle School band will participate as non-competitive units in the parade.

Participating schools and directors include Wayne State College, Gary Davis; Spencer, Randy Anderson; Wayne High School, Ron Dalton; Pender, Ron Smith; Newcastle, Patricia Siegworth; Laurel, Galen Arbogast; Emerson-Hubbard, Brad Weber; Creighton, Duane Booth; Newman Grove, Godfrey Machal; Allen, Dave Bell; Winside, Curtis Jeffries; Bancroft-Rosalie, Charlene Brown; Wakefield, Diane Trullinger; Silver Creek, Tracy Briggs; Verdigris, George Vondracek; Homer, Lois M. Harris; Garretson, South Dakota, Helen Morgan; Lynch; and Wayne Junior High, Keith Kopperud.

Political candidates differ on forum issue

An invitation to a public forum, issued to two political candidates running for a legislative position in Nebraska's 17th District, has brought adverse reactions among the Republican and Democratic contenders.

Merle Von Minden, incumbent to the District 17 senate seat which includes Dixon County, Dakota County and most of Wayne County, turned down the public forum participation request. In a letter by Von Minden's campaign director, the refusal was based on the Senator's busy schedule of public appearances, his belief in one-on-one voter contact and the belief that voters will be adequately informed without such forums.

Gerald Conway, Von Minden's opponent in the November election, said in a news release he was "disappointed" that the public forum would not take place.

Wayne's Chamber of Commerce was asked by Wayne State College Student Senate to help sponsor a "meet the press" program between Conway and Von Minden, according to Anne Svoboda, executive director of the chamber of commerce office.

Svoboda said the chamber of commerce expressed an interest in the event, but not a "meet-the-press" type program as was requested by the student senate.

Instead, Svoboda said the chamber of commerce said it preferred a "meet the public" idea. A moderator would field the questions from the audience and present them to the political candidates.

Conway, in a news release, said he described Von Minden's unwillingness to meet in a public forum as "disappointing." He also said in the news release that the student senate vice president was also disappointed.

John Kingsbury, campaign director for Von Minden, said Monday afternoon he disagreed with several of Conway's points written in the news release.

He said it was untrue that Von Minden was unwilling to meet in a public forum.

"We've had dozens of public forums (meeting with the public) sometimes three or four times a week. At least two or three times we've been at the Wayne Kiwanis Club meetings," Kingsbury said.

Kingsbury also said Conway's accusation in the news release that Von Minden is avoiding the issues is also untrue. "I'll refute that statement until the sun goes down," he said.

Kingsbury also said he received the impression that the Wayne Chamber of Commerce office preferred not to organize the event.

However, chamber of commerce executive director Svoboda told the Wayne Herald on Monday afternoon that the chamber office had been sincerely interested in organizing the program.

ESU

Mills said valuations are about the same as last year and that the .0350 tax lay should generate approximately $546,000 for ESU I during the 1984-85 fiscal year.

Before adjourning, Mills showed board members a copy of a letter he received from an attorney on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miner of Wakefield.

The letter requests that air conditioners belonging to ESU I and located on property owned by the Miners, who have the property for sale, be removed within the next 30 days.

Mills informed board members that the air conditioners were installed in 1966 on ground then owned by the City of Wakefield.

Board members voted unanimously to take no action on the matter.

MILLS REMINDED board members of district board conventions scheduled Sept. 17 in West Point and Sept. 19 in Norfolk.

He also reported on two large pre-school workshops held in Emerson and Harlington. Mills said attendance at each workshop, hosted by ESU I, totaled around 140 teachers.

In his monthly report to the board, Mills said he received a report from one school on the excellent job ESU speech clinicians did while testing students for hearing.

Next regular meeting of the ESU I board of directors is scheduled Oct. 9.

ing entity. He also said there could be retail sales on the premises.

"We could take care of it by granting a conditional use permit," he said. If the block grant is approved by the state, the issue of whether or not the property can be issued a conditional use can "come before the city council at that time."

ALSO ON TUESDAY evening, the Wayne City Council:

*Approved a preliminary plat for 3.85 acres of property located south of Mike Perry Chevrolet-Oldsmobile and the west end of Third Avenue. Roy Corvelli filed the preliminary plat. A stipulation of the preliminary plat approval is that an easement be added to the north and east side of the property to go along with the easement of the south and west property lines.

Park fees were also discussed (in the range of $3,000) but action was tabled until more information could be gathered on the property.

*Were informed that the Nebraska State Auditor's Office had located an error in the city council's fiscal 1984-1985 budget and asked that the council reduce its revenue sharing amount from $150,798 to $143,330.

*Gave the go-ahead for the City Mayor Wayne Marsh to sign all the necessary documents required for receiving the Roosevelt Park community block grant funding. The city will receive over $131,000 toward financing of the project.

*Decided to keep the retainage rate of 10 percent for the waste water treatment plant construction project. The contractor of the project had requested a five percent retainage fee since the extension of time to complete the treatment plant project was approved by the council earlier this year.

However, the city council took the advice of the city attorney who recommended the 10 percent retainage fee be maintained at the present time.

School board

Board members made plans to attend district meetings of the Nebraska School Board Association in either West Point or Norfolk on Sept. 17 and 19.

The board moved to reject membership to the National School Boards association.

The board moved and accepted the hiring of Cheryl Kopperud to teach music in grades K-4 on a half-time basis.

The board went into executive session to discuss salary negotiations, but no decisions were made.

The board's next regular meeting will be Tuesday, Oct. 9 at 8 p.m.

Grant to Wayne State

Jim Brummels, assistant professor of humanities at Wayne State College, has been awarded a $5,000 grant by the National Endowment of the Arts.

The grant is to continue the Plains Writers Series at Wayne State. It will be used to bring writers to the series held at the college throughout the academic year.

This will be the eighth year of the Plains Writers Series, according to Brummels.

The National Endowment of the Arts granted $405,796 this fall for residences for writers at 68 institutions.

PCA plans 50th annual meeting

The 50th annual meeting of the Norfolk Production Credit Association will be held on Thursday, Sept. 20, at King's Ballroom in Norfolk. Registration will begin at 7 p.m. with dinner to follow at 7:30.

Farm Safety Week is Sept. 16-22

Forty-one years ago this fall, National Farm Safety Week was begun, as a means to fight accidents impairing wartime food and fiber production. Although the wartime urgency passed, the week was continued to emphasize the need for safety in a frankly hazardous profession.

Wayne County results at Nebraska State Fair

Following are the results to date, that have been received concerning Wayne County participation at the Nebraska State Fair.

Entomology: Purple - Marc Rahn and Stuart Rethwisch; Red - Tim Sievers; White - Tammy Sievers.

Answers needed in search of beef cow milk increases

Milk production levels in beef cows influence economic efficiency in cow-calf production. Since milk is the maternal environment provided by cows which affects the survival and growth of their calves, cattle producers are questioning whether the levels of milk production should be increased or decreased.

Egypt and its agriculture

Greetings from Egypt: How do you see a growing nation of 45 million people where 99 percent live along the banks of the Nile River, which is the only fertile land in the country? The answer is to reclaim their most abundant natural resource, the desert.

is not organized to give the Egyptians free labor with their farming tasks but it is basically giving the different nationalities a chance to exchange ideas as well as get a first-hand look at Egyptian agriculture. We worked a few hours in the mornings, either weeding the orange groves or peanut fields and planting guazarina trees.

More small farms, fewer farms total in census report

The number of small farms and the value of all agricultural product sales increased between the 1978 and 1982 agriculture censuses, preliminary data from the Commerce Department's Census Bureau shows.

Farms of less than 50 acres increased 17 percent to 637,000, according to the 1982 census, conducted in 1983. Their growth helped to keep the total farm loss under 1 percent, one of the smallest declines in recent decades. The new count is 2,241,000 compared with 2,257,000 in 1978.

At the other end of the scale, the number of farms with 2,000 acres or more rose by 1,224 between censuses to a total of 64,525.

The market value of agricultural products sold amounted to $13.8 billion compared with $107.1 billion in 1978, up 23 percent. Average sales per farm grew to $58,815 from $47,424. Farms with sales of $100,000 or more gained by 80,723 for a total of 302,964. The dollar figures have not been adjusted for inflation during the period.

The Bureau points out that the Consumer Price Index (CPI), based on the costs of food and beverages, was up 35 percent for the same period.

Livestock, dairy and poultry products in 1982 accounted for 53 percent of sales, or $69.5 billion; livestock alone brought in 33 percent or $43.5 billion. Other totals were dairy products, $16.3 billion or 13 percent; and poultry, $9.7 billion or 7 percent. Crop sales totaled $62.3 billion, or 47 percent of all sales; grain accounted for more than half.

Small farm growth was greatest in Texas, which saw an increase of 14,109 farms under 50 acres to 44,587. This was a 46 percent gain from the 1978 census and small farms now account for one-fourth of the state's farms and ranches. Vermont's increase was 39 percent, to 1,026.

The census data show that large operations continue to dominate sales and production. Here are some figures:

- Only 1 percent of farms sold 500 or more head of cattle and calves but they had 43 percent of cattle sold.
- Those selling 500 or more head of hogs totaled 16 percent of farms selling hogs but captured 70 percent of hogs sold.
- Farms with 20,000 or more hens and pullets comprised only 2 percent of producers but had 79 percent of inventories.

Other findings from the 1982 Census of Agriculture:

- The farmland total of 984.8 million acres was down from 1 billion acres from 1978.
- Harvested cropland was 326.3 million acres, up 3 percent.
- There was relatively little change in the number of acres irrigated between 1978 and 1982. This is against the background of an expansion in irrigation from 39.1 million to 49 million acres from 1969 to 1982. In that period, the West gained 14 percent to 26.1 million acres, 8.5 million of it in California. The North Central Region's irrigation doubled, from 5.1 million to 10.9 million acres.
- In acres harvested, wheat edged out corn, 70.9 million to 69.9 million. Soybeans increased from 61.3 million in 1978 to 64.8 million acres in 1982.
- The milk cow total rose from 10.2 million to 10.9 million.
- And broilers sold rose from 3.1 billion birds to 3.5 billion, but producer farms declined from 31,743 to 30,104.

Greetings from Branson, Missouri!

We are in a plush condo with a small balcony overlooking an inlet of the lake. It has everything: microwave, blender, toaster, tub with jets, chandelier over the table, mirrors on the wall.

We are all having problems with the mirrors since they really emphasize any extra weight. And we've done a lot of eating!

It's so new, they are still working on the units next to us. This morning, there were Missouri draws right outside the bedroom window. Couldn't sleep late if we wanted to. But we are all so used to getting up in the morning, we can't sleep past 7:00 anyway.

There is a lovely pool, and the hot tub is a perfect place. We've been on the lake in a pontoon boat a couple of times. The Big Farmer says he could become addicted to it. An endless variety of floating crafts go up and down the lake, which is 20 miles long and not very wide.

THERE IS ALSO an endless parade of shops that feature quilts, baskets, wooden articles, dutchmen's, you name it. Some have amazing price tags!

I'm tempted to buy a dulcimer. They look easier to play than a guitar, and make a lovely sound. I just know I wouldn't ever find the time to learn to play it.

I drove a Go Kart for the first time, and loved it. I've always had the repressed desire to drive in the Powder Puff race at the stock-car races.

We've experienced HBO for the first time. It is really nice not to have movies interrupted by commercials, and there was a very interesting documentary on Adolf Hitler. I find the R rated movies to be just what—R, rated, Good thing we aren't watching much TV.

And we've played Trivial Pursuit for the first time. I thought I would be good at this game because my brain retains garbage and not the information I can use. But it's hard! Do you know the name of Alaska's state flower? Or where Michelangelo's "David" stands? Or what color shirt a participant in a table tennis tournament must wear?

SINCE I CAN'T seem to make it to the original Passion Play in Germany, the Big Farmer takes me to the one in Spearfish, S.D., and now we've experienced the one in Eureka Springs, Ark. It's an emotional play, of course; made very real by the live animals, detailed costuming, and effective lighting and sound.

One day was spent at Silver Dollar City, Missouri's answer to Disneyland. It's a replica of a 1884 town, complete with all kinds of music, and featuring hand crafts of every description. We watched broom making, basket weaving, glass blowing, candle dipping, log-cabin building, anything you can think of.

We saw a Hillbilly comedy, Carrie Nation destroying the saloon, and an old-time rain maker in action. We took numerous rides, all featuring water and animation.

Our favorite was a barrel over a water fall, and we all got soaked. Since it's off-season, there were no crowds, and we went four times.

We read catchy little sayings like: "I keep trying to lose weight, and it keeps finding me." We all brought food, and we kept trying the fudge, ice cream, and funnel cakes, so there will be no lost weight!

The weather has been perfect, not too hot or cold. We had a tin type made of the six of us in country clothes. We've discussed our families, our separate communities, and the state of the world. Best of all, we are all still friends!

The plaque at the wood carver's shop says that "a friend is a person who, when you make a fool of yourself, knows it won't be permanent."

Thank God for cousins who are friends.

New variety could up soybean acreage

A new type of soybean being developed at the University of Nebraska could extend Nebraska's soybean acres further west, according to a UNL agronomist.

James Specht, associate professor of agronomy, said work continues on developing a more stress-tolerant variety of soybean. Specht recently presented a paper on UNL soybean research to World Soybean Research Conference III. Specht co-authored the paper with UNL agronomy professor James Williams. Scientists from more than 40 nations gathered at Iowa State University Aug. 12-17 for the conference.

Specht said there is a lot of international interest in UNL research.

"Nebraska is a leader in crop stress physiology and breeding research," he said. "We received a lot of inquiries about the variety."

UNL researchers are now working on the practical aspects of developing a soybean with increased pubescence, or plant hairiness, Specht said. Specht and UNL climatologist Blaine Blad began work on the "Hairy soybean" in 1979 and he and Williams now are incorporating the gene for hairiness into commercial varieties. Specht predicted it would be three or four years before hairy varieties will be evaluated extensively in test plots.

Increased pubescence allows soybeans to reflect more light and use less water. Thus, hairy soybeans could be more tolerant of hot, arid growing conditions. Specht said this variety could extend the production of soybeans 50 or 60 miles to the west. Soybean production in Nebraska now extends from the Missouri River to east of North Platte.

SOYBEAN VARIETIES with greater drought and heat resistance are necessary because much of the variability in annual soybean yields can be attributed to fluctuations in precipitation and temperature, Specht said in the paper.

The paper also covered UNL research with irrigated soybeans. Specht said about 25 percent of Nebraska's 2.6 million soybean acres are irrigated. Experimentation with a line-source sprinkler system has shown that the soybean variety Mead is very irrigation responsive, while Williams is one of the more drought-tolerant varieties, he said.

Specht's paper also dealt with two different ways to breed for stress resistance. The empirical technique, he said, involves performance tests where yields are measured in actual field trials.

"The problem with this method is sometimes Mother Nature doesn't cooperate," Specht said.

The mechanistic technique looks at the morphological underlying stress resistance, often in a laboratory setting.

The international sharing of soybean research that occurred at the conference is very valuable, Specht said. Germ plasm exchanged by scientists aids research in Nebraska. The dense pubescence now being perfected in Nebraska originally was found in a line of soybeans from China, he said.

HARVEST WITH SAFETY

We want to keep you as our most valued customer

More often than not, power lines follow property lines. You may be lulled into a dangerous complacency when you're right in the middle of your crop field, because you know for sure no power lines are over your head. When you reach the end of your field and turn your equipment, there's a very good chance power lines will be nearby. Always be alert to power lines on your property lines. They may even be hidden by trees or brush, so you must take precautions to ensure your equipment doesn't make contact.

If you're planning the construction of any new storage bins, be sure to take the placement of existing power lines into account. For the best use of your farm space, storage bins are often erected along property lines. Again, that's just where the power lines usually are.

If you simply can't find adequate space to construct those bins away from power lines, why not contact your electric power supplier for some advice. Someone will be sent to your farm to survey your potential building sites and work with you in order to come to the best possible results. Your complete safety and comfort are prime concerns to your electric power supplier. We'll be happy to assist you in developing a safer farm. Harvest with safety and you'll continue to enjoy a productive life and a productive farm.

BLOODBANK
The Stoukland Bloodbank visited the Laurel community on Aug. 21. There were 53 persons donating blood. Six donors achieved blood donation landmarks. Rev. Kenneth Marquardt, Milo Johnson and Virginia Lindsay reached the four gallon mark. Archie Lindsay donated his third gallon, Jim Joslin donated his second gallon and Ken Bohlken donated his first gallon.

Four people donated blood to the Stoukland Blood Bank for the first time. They are Carla Stage and Randy Patefield of Laurel, Gary Frerichs of Coleridge and Jack R. Warner of Allen.

CUB SCOUTS
An organization meeting for parents of cub scouts will be held today (Thursday) at 7 p.m. in the Cub Scout Den Room, below the Laurel City Auditorium. Parents of 3rd grade boys in the Laurel-Concord School who are interested in joining Cub Scouts are invited to attend. Mrs. Arlys Monson will be informing parents on how to order uniforms, books and other supplies. Representatives from Den 1 will also be present.

TUESDAY CLUB
The Laurel Tuesday Club GFWC met on Sept. 4 in the Laurel Senior Citizens Center. Mrs. Anita Gader, first place winner in the NFWC state speech contest gave her speech for the program along with Lisa Dietz who attended Girls' State from Laurel last summer. The Laurel Tuesday Club helped to sponsor her at Girls' State.

Mrs. Ethel Ebmeier of Laurel reported on the workshop she attended in Scribner last June. Mrs. Liz Norvell became a new member of the Tuesday Club.

The Tuesday Club will be sponsoring an Art and Crafts Show on Saturday, Nov. 10 at the Laurel City Auditorium from 10 to 4 p.m. Table space will be sold to anyone wishing to display, sell or take orders for their art or craft items. For early reservations and information, contact Mrs. Lanita Recob, Mrs. Johanna Maxon or Ella Larson at Laurel.

Hostesses were Mrs. Lanita Recob and Mrs. Nadine Anderson. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 2 at 8 p.m. The District III President, Mrs. Marvin Reppert of Pender will be the guest speaker.

METHODIST WOMEN
The Laurel United Methodist Women will be meeting on Wednesday, Sept. 19 for a 6:30 p.m. salad supper. Mrs. Agnes Burns will be the greeting hostess. The program "Gifts of the Holy Spirit" will be presented by Mrs. Thelma Hattig and Mrs. Mary Ann Ward.

LUTHERAN WOMEN
The Immanuel Lutheran Women's Society from Laurel held their guest night on Thursday with approximately 100 in attendance from the churches belonging to the Laurel-Concord Ministerial Association. The welcome was given by Mrs. Donna Ebmeier, president. Devotions were given by Pastor Mark Miller and Mrs. Dave Schutte. Mrs. Greta McMaster sang and played a musical selection on her guitar.

The program "Kids on the Block" was presented by Mrs. Sharon Boeckenhauer of Wayne and Mrs. Carol Sheldon of Crofton, a physical therapist who works through the Education Service Unit at Wakefield. They used puppets in presenting their program.

Refreshments were served in the fellowship hall with the guests sitting at tables decorated in the month their birthday occurs.
