THE WAYNE HERALD

County establishes new tax rates

Tax rates will be increased in nearly all categories for the 1984-85 school year. Wayne County's Board of Commissioners approved the tax rates during a Friday morning special meeting at the county courthouse. The commissioners present at the meeting were Merlin Belermann and Robert Nissen.

The city of Wayne's combined city tax rate will be $2.6476 per $1,000 valuation, nearly a 14 cent increase over the previous fiscal year's tax rate.

Winside will have almost an eight cent combined city tax rate increase while Carroll jumped from $2.1612 in 1983 to $2.3089 for 1984.

Just figuring the city tax rate alone, Wayne's tax rate increased by nearly four cents over the previous year. Winside increased by a almost a penny while Carroll was increased by seven cents. Hoskins was also up a cent as was Sholes. The city of Wakefield was increased by over five cents from the 1983 tax rate.

All communities in Wayne County, with the exception of Carroll slightly increased their rural fire district tax rates.

Ogretta Morris, county clerk, said Friday morning the total valuation for Wayne County was established at $263,276,740, an increase of over $2.7 million over the previous year.

NON-RESIDENT tuition tax rate has been set at .8491, which is nearly 20 cents less than the 1983 tax rate total but over 48 cents more than the 1982 tax rate figure.

Wayne-Carroll School District had increased its non-resident school tuition rate from $6,300 to $7,300 while Winside School District's school non-resident tuition rate was increased by $1,706 — from $6,294 in 1983 to $8,000 this year.

Wayne County's total tax rate increased by 3 1/2 cents (.3735 in 1983 to .4084 in 1984) from the previous fiscal year. The county general fund increased by nearly five cents and Veteran's Aid was up by a small fraction. Decreases were recorded in the road and bridge fund, county relief-medical fund and noxious weed control fund. The Wayne County improvement fund remained the same as the previous year.

Several of the increases, such as with the county tax rate, were needed because the supply of reserve funding was running low or gone, according to Morris.

The tax rates are calculated by dividing what the governing entity requested in its budget by what the valuation of the property is.

Fees rates which track property taxpayer throughout Wayne County is required to pay include Ag Society, .0038; Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District, .0310; one of three Educational Units (No. 1 is .0350, No. 2 is .0289, and No. 3 is .0348); the Northeast Nebraska Technical College, total .0545; and the county tax rate figure of .4084.

Crimes which took place in Wayne during 1983 were considerably lower in numbers than any of the first class cities in Nebraska.

The first class cities have a population that ranges from 5,201 (Wayne) to Grand Island, which has a count of 33,861.

South Sioux City has the greatest number of crimes per 1,000 population, which is 73. Wayne records the lowest crime rate per 1,000 population, that being 13.8.

York, with 12 sworn officers, has the greatest percentage of crimes that are cleared (41 percent out of 237 crimes committed). LaVista, with a sworn officer figure of 11, is next with 43 percent of all crimes that took place in 1983.

Wayne's total percent of crimes cleared in 1983 was 12.5 percent. In the survey, the city lists six sworn officers for Wayne.

The Wayne police department joins four of the total 29 first class cities in having the lowest count of officers per 1,000 population (1.2).

Scottsbluff and Alliance both share the honors of having 1.9 officers per 1,000 population, that figure being the highest among the first class cities listed.

Wayne's police department staff members include Vern Fairchild, police chief; officers Robert McLean, Melvin Lamb, Robert Treacle, Ronald Penick, Keith Adams; and dispatchers Bonnie Dunn, Susan Coulter, Patricia Dorsey and Janice Cowgill.

Petition gets 300 sigs

Over 300 signatures have been acquired by members of a Wayne State College student committee seeking a change in the newly enacted college graduation policy.

If the policy remains as it is, after December's commencement graduating seniors will be returning to the classrooms and taking their required finals.

Doug Vieselmeyer, a student member of a committee recently organized to change the commencement policy, told The Wayne Herald earlier this week he was surprised, but happy, that the petition signing went so well at the Wayne State Chadron football game.

"We'll just have to take it [the petition] now to the faculty senate and go from there," he said.

In a recent story, Vieselmeyer said the committee members and petitioners oppose the new commencement policy because it requires the graduates to return to studying after the commencement day.

He said the new policy allows little time to be with relatives following commencement, and that the outcome of "who graduates with honors" cannot be determined until the finals have been taken.

From the faculty senate's standpoint, the new policy will discontinue the past policy of granting diplomas for minimum grades (the lowest possible grades they could receive) turned in by their instructors, which had been provided prior to graduation in determining graduate eligibility.

THE FOCUS OF discussion in changing the graduation policy was to make sure the senior students had met all the necessary academic requirements before leaving the school. Some students would be released from class five to six days before the final exams, leaving only the minimum grades as the mark for the students, according to Wayne State College administrative officials.

Past commencements also created problems from the instructors side of the issue, particularly when preparing tests for both the graduating seniors one week early and the test for the underclassmen after commencement. All this made it difficult to get grades in on time.

The present policy for future commencement ceremonies will be that the diplomas will be awarded conditionally. If the student has fulfilled all the basic academic requirements, then the diploma will be distributed to that student.

The next committee meeting of the students will be Tuesday, Sept. 18 at 4 p.m. in the lower level of the student center.

Vieselmeyer, who is a senior this year at Wayne State College majoring in business marketing, said if the finals and commencement policy is not restored or is not considered practical by the faculty senate, the committee will attempt to formulate alternative graduation policies.

Grant given to Wayne

Wayne will receive $5,290 from the Urban Mass Transportation Administration to be used toward the operation of the city's mini-bus program.

The Urban Mass Transportation Administration announced the approval of a total $852,880 grant to the Nebraska Department of Roads under the Section 18 program of federal assistance to 50 public transit projects in non-urbanized areas throughout the state.

The Nebraska Department of Roads will receive the largest chunk of the grant, $112,880, while 49 other governing or organizational entities across the state divide up the balance.

Cedar County will receive $18,455 in grant funding.

The grant funds will aid in financing of capital, operating and state administrative expenses for non-urbanized areas.

Georgla Janssen, director at the Wayne Senior Citizens Center, said Wayne's funding will go toward the operation of the mini-bus program and will be used to defray gas and personnel expenditures.

The grant amount received by Wayne is not as substantial as other cities and counties had received. However, Janssen said expenses are "not as great" for the Wayne mini-bus program and donations for the service are sizeable, contributing to a portion of the monthly mini-bus program expenditures.

Mini-bus services are available to those who are in need of rides to various businesses or other appointments within the city limits of Wayne. The Senior Center recently received a new mini-bus and it was put into operation the first week of August.

To arrange a ride, phone the senior center at 375-1460.

by chuck hackenmiller

You're not alone, Nebraska Cornhusker fans, in all the hoopla and exuberance which you display on Saturday (game day). You are not a breed above any other college team fans.

This is what I gathered after spending my first Saturday in Nebraska on the afternoon of a Nebraska-Husker home football game. Not at the game, mind you. At the time I was helping a friend in Wayne shingle a garage roof.

I am an Iowa Hawkeye fan, which some of our readers have already noticed. It's hard to tell because I don't go out until its dark with my bright yellow and black lettered T-shirt. And only then to take the garbage out to the curb.

But Hawkeye fans, believe it or not, have game day excitement equal to that of Nebraska fans.

We get up on a Saturday morning and listen to the hours of football conversation — at the coffee table, in the office or factory, while driving, while eating, while doing household chores, while exercising, while trying to have a pointless conversation with someone else.

And all this is just pre-game talk. I imagine what it is like during the game.

And during the game, Hawkeye fans do the same as Cornhusker rooters. While at the football game, (and it is getting just as difficult to get good Hawkeye game tickets as is Nebraska) we cheer loudly, tailgate, swear at the parking situation and buy souvenirs — all this prior to entering the stadium.

AT HOME the rules of the game are similar for both teams (for listening to the radio, that is).

They are: Wives, don't speak, decide to vacuum and throw pots and pans at the husband while the Huskers or Hawks have possession of the football on first and ten.

Do not schedule any bridge party, lawn mowing, hedge trimming or other house work until after the game is over. (Good luck if they lose).

Listen to the radio at a distance. The odds decrease of your radio sustaining permanent damage when the Huskers or Hawks fumble away a scoring opportunity.

When the Cornhuskers or Hawks are perched on the one yard line on a fourth down effort, learn how to hold your breath for a lengthy period of time.

And finally, take the radio with you at all times. That includes shingling on the roof, using it as a centerpiece at the dinner table, during necessary breaks to the bathroom, or when barbecuing out on the patio.

Do not — I repeat — do not take the radio into the shower with you, no matter how close the score is.

Those are some tips which I, as a Hawkeye fan, offer to the Cornhusker fans. Happy rooting, people!

This next bit of verse is dedicated to all the football widows who time after time must spend Saturday and Sunday afternoons in front of the television set trying to speak at their husbands during commercials.

THEY GATHERED around the television set, watching their favorite team, the best bet. "How things have changed, the men thought aloud. Who'd expect football to attract this kind of crowd?"

For around the set, all intensely watching the game were women on the block, showing little shame. Girls who were made of sugar and spice enjoyed watching linemen punching out the quarterback twice.

Busy in the kitchen were all the young men who were sitting around the table playing a game of gin. They had played for hours, it seemed. And the house had yet to be cleaned.

"Wait, we can't leave yet!" said the man's wife as she watched the quarterback nearly give up his life. "The score is tied, and you always want to leave early," the wife sighed.

"Make us more popcorn, bring on more beer. I'm staying with the girls and continue to cheer. Go watch the kids, make sure they're fed and when they are tired, put them to bed."

He did what his wife so boldly told, wrapping the kids warmly before entering the cold. Football, football, that's all she thinks about. She's gone football crazy, without a doubt.

At home, things did not go as planned. He cut his finger while opening a can. The toast burned and the house smelled like smoke and the kids kept spilling their bottle of Coke.

IF ONLY he had not got his wife started with the habit. If there was addiction to football, she had it.

He was like that at one time, thinking it would be fine just to sit with the guys till game ending time. And while he didn't believe he would be betting her, he not once thought he'd become a football widower.

She grew tired of the waiting, the serving and shouting. The football pressure began mounting. So she too became involved with the game itself and now he cannot keep her away from football's show of fitness and health.

So men, beware, no matter which TV set you roam: your wife may be watching the football game at home. Then you will also watch the drama materialize and you'll figure you've been watching much more football than you had realized.

THE ALLEGED FACT THAT THIS ALLEGED CROOK WAS FOUND WITH AN ALLEGED CROWBAR IN HIS ALLEGED PANTS BESIDE THE ALLEGED BROKEN WINDOW OF THE ALLEGED VICTIM'S HOUSE IS CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE — CASE DISMISSED!

...AND THAT'S WHAT THEY ALLEGEDLY CALL JUSTICE!

Thanks for welcome

To the editor: I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Wayne Chamber of Commerce for the outstanding work they did on the Welcome Back Dance. Their efforts made the dance a super time for all who attended. After speaking with some of the students who attended, I can tell you that they thought the dance was a great idea. I feel that it helped improve an already good working relationship between the college and community.

It has been a pleasure to work with the Chamber of Commerce on planning the dance this year and we will be looking forward to next year. Again, thank you for putting forth so much time and effort on making the Welcome Back Dance a success.

Lessons learned from ag recession

The years of 1981 to 1983 were a period of recession for agriculture, with economic activity in the farming sector dropping alarmingly. From that experience, USDA economist George Hoffman has gleaned at least six important lessons, all of which have implications as Congress works toward a 1985 Farm Bill.

The first lesson is becoming well-known — the realization that the export markets are our only real long-term growth market for ag products. Our domestic market is largely saturated, and may grow only slightly faster than our population. At best, Hoffman says, look for only 2 percent domestic growth per year.

The second lesson also is becoming generally accepted, namely that U.S. agriculture is closely linked to the general economy. As a consequence, monetary and fiscal policies can have significantly greater impacts on farmers and ranchers than specific provisions in farm legislation, the '85 bill included. Thus government programs that try to separate agriculture from the general economy are going to cost more and achieve less.

THIRD, THE STRUCTURE of agriculture has changed dramatically over the past 50 years, but basic farm programs are about the same as the mid-1930s. The goals of farm programs need to be re-evaluated.

Fourth, the federal budget places constraints on farm programs, and they will be weighed and traded-off against other spending programs in the budget. Within the federal ag budget, commodities will compete with each other for available funds.

Fifth, some farm programs conflict with other farm programs. The basic point of divergence is whether farm programs should be designed to take resources out of production or to keep them in production.

For example, acreage reduction programs take land resources from production while federal lending programs move more capital resources into production. And high crop support prices encourage farmers to bring erodible land into production, while soil and water conservation programs try to reduce erosion.

In another variation, farmers have known for years that conditions in agriculture can change quickly and dramatically. Yesterday's perfect corn crop can be today's hail disaster. In a larger economic sense, high variability is caused by two factors — increasing dependence on world markets and that close integration of agriculture into the general U.S. economy.

The U.S. can't control world markets and agriculture can't be isolated and protected from the economic winds prevailing outside of it. Policies made on the faith that current conditions will continue for the foreseeable future will be wrong.

Hoffman's six lessons are at least as important as estimates of acres and production to the development of the 1985 Farm Bill.

From Cheryl Stubbendieck, director of information of the Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation.

Letting them know

Residents of the 15 counties of Highway Engineering District 3 (Northeast Nebraska) will have the chance to express their opinions of the state's highway construction and improvement plans for fiscal years 1985 through 1990.

On Sept. 26, personnel from the Nebraska Department of Roads and a member of the Nebraska Highway Commission will host a highway information meeting at the Wayne City Auditorium. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m., with Highway Commissioner Merle Kingsbury of Ponca as chairman.

Other counties in District 3 include Knox, Antelope, Cedar, Dixon, Dakota, Thurston, Madison, Stanton, Cuming, Burt, Colfax, Platte, Boone and Pierce.

Louis E. Lamberty, state roads director, said those attending not only will learn about the proposed highway program for fiscal years 1985 to 1990, but also they can ask questions and give comments and suggestions on the highway needs in Nebraska.

This meeting is one of eight district information meetings scheduled for September and October across the state.

The state highway department should be applauded for its effort in informing the public of upcoming road construction projects and its willingness to accept input in its present road program.

Those who have gripes or concerns about road conditions in this area should be in attendance at these meetings where their opinions can be voiced and answered by these top authorities. A good representation of business people as well as the farm community should be represented at the meeting.

Having good roads leading into a community is an important plus in drawing consumers to the area.

My husband was married before and has a child who lives with his ex-wife. If my husband died, would both his child and I inherit from his estate? There isn't any real estate, just personal property, CDs, etc. Also, does the ex-wife have any rights to his social security benefits?

Assuming that your husband dies without leaving a will, the disposition of his property would be controlled by the laws of "interstate succession." Under these laws, the surviving spouse and the child of a previous marriage would each inherit one-half of the estate. However, if your husband left a will, the property would probably be distributed according to its terms. (When there is a will, the surviving spouse has the right to either take the share of the estate named in the will, or to elect to take an amount approximately equal to one-half of the estate instead.)

If any of the property (such as the CDs or the title to an automobile) is held in joint tenancy or any type of tenancy which names another person other than your husband, that property would not be included in the distribution by interstate succession, but would be passed on according to the type of ownership in which it was held.

Your husband's ex-wife may indeed be entitled to certain social security benefits based on your husband's past earnings. A divorced spouse who has not remarried, age 62 or older, who was married at least 10 years to a fully insured person, is entitled to social security benefits. However, this should not affect any benefits a second wife is entitled to in her own right.

Q. My father-in-law told me before his death that he had set up a trust so that my husband would be taken care of. I believe he called it a living trust, but I'm not sure. After his death, my mother-in-law said no, he hadn't done anything like that. Is there any way of finding out whether such a trust had been established? If he had put his ranch into a trust, would the deed have been transferred to my husband before his father's death? Would such a transfer have been recorded at the courthouse?

A. If you believe a trust was created for your husband, and the existence of such a trust is denied by your mother-in-law, then you or your lawyer must prove its existence. The courts require the existence of trusts to be proved with "clear and satisfactory" evidence. It would not be enough to prove that your father-in-law intended to create a trust, since intention, without being effected does not create a trust. The evidence must consist of something more than mere remembrance of a past conversation.

To prove the existence of a trust to the satisfaction of a court would involve some detective work on the part of you or your lawyer. The first and most obvious thing to check would be your father-in-law's will. His will should be available at the court in which his will was probated and any reference to a trust for your husband might well be found in the will itself. You might also check with your late father-in-law's bank. His bank's trust department would be a likely place for him to have gone for assistance in the creation of a trust. Your attorney may be able to suggest other avenues to pursue.

As to your question concerning the ranch, it is unlikely that any transfer of property would have taken place without you or your husband's knowledge before your father-in-law's death. However, if a transfer had been made it would have been recorded with the Register of Deeds in your county (usually located at the county courthouse). If you have a legal question, write "Ask a Lawyer," P.O. Box 2529, Lincoln 68502. This column is intended to provide general legal information, not specific legal advice. "Plastic money" or the credit card is almost a necessity. Cash in large amounts isn't safe to carry, and your personal check may not be accepted everywhere. The credit card is a handy way to solve those problems, but it doesn't come without risks.

Credit card crimes have continued to increase at an alarming rate. Thieves have become more creative in obtaining card numbers. The counterfeit credit card business is thriving. Consumers must now be more careful with their credit cards to guard against theft.

THE CONSUMER is liable only for the first $50 of unauthorized charges per card. We all pay for the thief who runs up unauthorized charges. Losses result in higher finance charges, the imposition of annual fees and higher store prices.

Take care of your "plastic money" to avoid unnecessary losses. Record the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all your credit card companies along with each account number. Keep one copy of the list in a safe place at home. When you are away from home take a copy of the list along. Keep this list in some location away from your credit cards or wallet.

Disposing of cards properly is important. Cut all expired cards in several pieces and discard. If you receive a duplicate card that you will not be using or a card that you don't want, destroy it. Always be sure to sign all credit cards immediately.

KEEP YOUR CREDIT cards on your person and not in your car. Glove compartments are vulnerable to thieves.

When traveling, don't leave your cards in the motel room. The best place for your credit card is with you. It's best to keep cards separate from your purse or wallet. A thief won't get a bonus if he steals your wallet.

Try to avoid carrying several cards at once. If you have many cards, select the ones you plan to use and leave the rest at home. Store cards with other important papers in a safe location in your home.

BE VERY CAUTIOUS about releasing your credit account number over the phone. Counterfeit cards are becoming big business for would-be thieves.

Some thieves even take your account number from the carbons used in charge receipts. The consumer should see that these carbons are destroyed.

If all your precautions fail, report any missing cards immediately by telephone or telegraph. Follow this contact with a written note to the company. Keep your charge receipts and check against a discrepancy. Contact the company immediately.

The credit card can be a wonderful convenience, but remember the nickname plastic money is very true. Treat your credit cards like cash and guard them accordingly.

Blue Devils explode in offensive show against Tigers

An offensive explosion by the Wayne-Carroll Blue Devils in the first quarter paved the way for the team's latest win, a 53-13 run over Tekamah-Herman on Friday night at Memorial Stadium in Wayne.

The Wayne rushing and passing game combined for a total of 425 yards, the best offensive performance of the year thus far, and Coach Lonnie Ehrhardt was pleased with the balance his team showed in the win. "We're confident in both areas of the game, and wouldn't hesitate to use the pass when we need to," he added. That the Blue Devils had an opportunity to open their passing game up in this contest due to their sizeable lead.

JUNIOR TIGHT end Dan Gross came up with two big catches in the first period for touchdowns, as the Blue Devils jumped to an early 27-0 lead. His first catch was a 28-yard pass from quarterback Brad Moore with 9:07 remaining, followed by the successful PAT attempt by Chris Wieseler.

With 7:23 left, senior running back Kevin Koenig broke through for a 10-yard run to score Wayne's second touchdown. The PAT attempt by Wieseler was good.

Wayne continued to roll offensively in the first period, scoring again with 4:08 remaining when senior running back Steve Overin punched through for a 1-yard score. Wieseler's PAT attempt was good. Gross made his second touchdown catch with 2:31 in the first period when he hauled in a 66-yard TD bomb from quarterback Moore. The PAT attempt was no good.

WITH 4:22 IN the second period, Gross nabbed his final touchdown pass of the evening, catching a 44-yard loss from Moore. Wieseler kicked the PAT to make the score 34-0.

Tekamah-Herman scored their first touchdown late in the first half, with 1:13 remaining on a 12-yard run by Greg Grass followed up with a PAT by kicker Mark Schramm.

The Blue Devils struck paydirt three times in the third period, including a 3-yard run by quarterback Brad Moore with 9:26 remaining. Wayne was called for a holding penalty on the PAT attempt, and Wieseler missed the second try from the 25-yard line.

Koenig scored his second touchdown moments later with 5:41 left in the period on a 4-yard run. Junior running back Tom Perry closed out the period's scoring for Wayne with a 5-yard run with 3:05 on the clock.

The Tigers earned their final points of the game with 10 minutes remaining on the clock in the fourth quarter when the game ended on a Wayne penalty. Receiver Randy Brommer caught a pass from quarterback Brad Beard for six points, but the two-point conversion attempt fell short.

COACH EHRHARDT was pleased with his squad's overall performance, and especially happy about the fact that he was again able to let all of his players gain some valuable varsity experience. "It's possible that we could have had more yards rushing, but the object of the game is to get those kids in there and let them play," he said.

"We had a good week of practices and were anticipating a good game against Tekamah-Herman."

Kevin Koenig led all rushers with 15 carries for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Steve Overin was close behind with 81 yards on 11 attempts for one touchdown and Tom Perry had 25 yards on five rushes for one score. Brad Moore accounted for Wayne's other touchdown by the rush, carrying the ball two times for two yards and a score.

Dan Gross was the top pass receiver of the night, catching the ball three times, all for touchdowns, and totaling 138 in pass receiving. Other targets for the ball were Steve Overin with one catch for 22 yards and senior wingback Pete Warne with one reception for 47 yards.

Warne also had a good night defensively for the Blue Devils, hauling in two pass interceptions for a total of 94 yards in returns.

SENIOR GUARD Chris Wieseler was one of the squad's leading tacklers, along with kicking the extra point attempts. He and teammate Koenig each racked up three solo tackles and 11 assists to top the defensive charts. The remainder of the Blue Devil defense split the tackles with five and six a piece.

Tekamah-Herman turned the ball over three times on the fumble. Recovering the ball for Wayne was Wieseler, junior tackle Jeff Haysmann and sophomore tight end Kevin Grjess.

Penalty yardage in the game was high for the Wayne-Carroll team, and they committed 14 infractions and were penalized a total of 190 yards. The Tigers had just three penalties for a total of 23 yards.

With a 3-0 record, the Blue Devils will face undefeated West Point High School next Friday night in Wayne, a game that Coach

Ehrhardt feels will be a big one. Both teams will be coming into the game undefeated, and he feels that while the Blue Devils already have faced a tough opponent in South Sioux City, the Cadets haven't really been tested yet. "It will be a tough game, and the team that is best prepared will be the one that plays well."

Wakefield's big plays difference in 46-31 win over Allen

Friday night's football game between the Allen Eagles and the Wakefield Trojans was an explosive one offensively, as both teams combined for over 660 yards in a game which Wakefield won 46-31.

"It was a game of big plays for us," said Wakefield Coach Dennis Wilbur. "The game was a see-saw battle throughout and it was never out of reach down to the closing moments."

ALLEN SHOWED their force early in the game, scoring a touchdown on their second play of the game when senior back Shawn Mahler raced 52 yards into the endzone. The PAT by senior Reiner Wichern was good, giving Allen a 7-0 lead. Wakefield ended the Allen lead quickly, coming up with a 45-yard scoring drive which ended with a 4-yard run by sophomore halfback Brad Lund. A two-point conversion pass from quarterback Brian Soderberg to Kraig Dolph gave the Trojans an 8-7 margin.

Each team scored again in the first period, with Allen's Shawn Mahler coming up with another long run, this time for 52 yards. Wakefield was then able to sustain another drive as they marched down the field in seven plays to score on an 18-yard run by Brad Lund with :24 remaining.

The second quarter proved to be a turning point for Wakefield as they made use of two Eagle fumbles and scored 18 unanswered points to take a 32-15 halftime lead.

Allen coughed up the ball on their own 9-yard-line to provide Wakefield with their first scoring opportunity, as Brian Soderberg carried the ball into the endzone on a one yard run for the touchdown.

TOUCHDOWN NUMBER two occurred when Brad Lund ran for a nine yard score on a Wakefield possession. Quarterback Brian Soderberg added his third touchdown on the night late in the second period on a 40-yard run from midfield.

In the third quarter, Allen threatened several times, outscoring the Trojans 16-8 to close the gap to 40-31.

Senior Shane Fahrenholz scored for the Eagles on a two-yard run, which capped a drive down the field from their own 15-yard line. Their second and final touchdown came on a 50-yard pass from Craig Noe to Max Oswald.

Wakefield's Ken Meyer blocked an Eagle punt in the fourth quarter, which set up the Trojans' final score from the 15 yard line. Brad Lund carried the ball 11 yards on the first play, and Soderberg scored the touchdown two plays later on a 1-yard run.

SODERBERG LED the Trojans with 19 carries for 132 yards and four touchdowns, while Brad Lund had 17 carries for 74 yards and three scores.

Shawn Mahler was the top rusher of the night, with 28 attempts for 228 yards and two touchdowns. His teammate, Shane Fahrenholz had 16 rushes for 90 yards and one score.

In pass receiving, Mark Kubik led Wakefield with two catches for 36 yards, while Max Oswald had three catches for 58 yards and one touchdown.

BOTH TEAMS HAD strong defensive leaders. Allen's Jay Jones topped both teams with 30 tackles for the night, while Wakefield's Brian Soderberg has 21 stops.

Other top Wakefield defenders were Mark Kubik with 13, Ken Meyer and Jeff Rose with 11 and Joey Borg with 10. Meyer also recovered two Eagle fumbles and blocked one punt.

For Allen, Craig Noe tallied nine stops, while teammate Shawn Mahler have seven tackles and one interception.

Allen Coach Dave Uldrich feels that his team "didn't play well defensively as a whole," and gave Wakefield too many easy situations which allowed them to score. "The kids did play a good game, though."

Allen will go on the road this Friday to play top-ranked Beemer. "Our defense will need to stop their scoring, because I feel our offense will be able to provide the points needed to win," he said.

Wakefield will be on their home field in a game against Waltham. Coach Wilbur feels that it will be a big game for his team, coming off their win over Allen. "They played us really tough last year and we had to scramble to get the win," he said. "We'll need a good effort this time, because they promise to be a formidable foe."

Eagles come from behind to take win

The Allen Eagles volleyball team showed their ability to come from behind in their latest contest, as they defeated the Emerson-Hubbard Lady Pirates in their home opener Thursday evening.

The varsity squad took three sets to log the win, coming from behind to win the first game 15-8. Allen trailed 6-1 before tying the score at 8-8 and then taking a lead which they were able to hold on to for the win.

IN THE SECOND set, Allen also fell behind early by 8-3 margin before senior Shelly Boyle led a come-back drive to bring the Eagles back into the game with a 10-10 tie. Allen pulled to a 12-10 lead before Emerson three straight points to take a 13-12 lead and go on for the win.

Things turned around for Allen in the third set as they took an easy 15-11 win.

Junior Diane Magnuson was 13-15 from the serving line with six ace serves, while senior Shelly Boyle tallied 13-15 good serves and four aces. Tammy Kavanaugh, also a senior, was 7-8 on serves with 12 service points.

Wakefield picks up road victory at Wausa

It was a win on the road for the Wakefield Trojan volleyball team as they took a victory over Wausa in three sets on Thursday night.

Wakefield won the first set by a 15-4 margin, but "let down a little" in the second, according to Coach Mary Schroeder, and fell 15-7.

The Trojans bounced back to take the third and deciding game of the match, also by a 15-4 score. The win moved their record to 4-3 overall and 2-0 in the Lewis and Clark conference.

Kristal Clay was the team's top server with 16-18 serves for five aces. Julie Oswald was 12-14 from the line with one ace serve and Stephanie Torczon was 7-9 with five aces. As a team, Wakefield was good on 63 of 71 serve attempts.

Oswald led the setting category with 21 good sets on 25 attempts, with nine for ace spikes. Torczon set the ball successfully Setting chores were handled by senior Pam Heckathorn and Kavanaugh. Heckathorn was 18-13 with seven sets for kills, while Kavanaugh was 12-13 with six sets for ace spikes.

Mary Oswald keyed Allen's spiking attack with 18 of 19 successful spikes and seven kills. Diane Magnuson was 8-11 with five kills at the net, and Pam Heckathorn was 6-6 with three kills.

Net play was led by Mary Oswald and Shelly Boyle, each with two ace blocks.

"WE HAVE A tendency to get behind early in our games," said Coach Gary Troth. "I was pleased to see in our third set that we were able to get out and win it easily."

Both teams played well, Troth said, adding that Allen was getting good passes from their setters which enabled them to hit the ball better, especially in the final set.

Allen will take a 4-1 overall record and a 2-0 conference mark into their next competition, when they go on the road to Langley with Lewis division foe Beemer on Tuesday, Sept. 18.

by 20 of 29 times, also for nine ace spikes.

A TRIO OF Trojans had good performances at the net as spikers, led by Kristal Clay with 17 of 20 spike good spikes, seven for aces. Roni Starzl was 7-9 with four aces and Kristi Miller went 12-13 with three ace spikes.

Blocking leader was Kristal Clay with three ace blocks.

"In our first set, we played very well, probably the best of all year," said Schroeder. "We are beginning to look like a team on the court, leaders are appearing and lacking charge when they need to," she added.

Wakefield's B team won their match in two straight sets, while the C team lost by scores of 11-9 and 13-11.

Harfington will be the next opponent for the Wakefield team on Tuesday night, Sept. 18 in a conference contest.

Laurel handed defeat by Plainview

The Bears of Laurel Concord suffered a loss on the volleyball court Thursday evening when a strong Plainview team defeated them 15-11 and 15-8.

"I feel we played well, but Plainview proved to be a very strong team," said Coach Carol Mangano.

SENIOR LORI Lindsay was the top server, making good on 8 of 9 serving attempts for seven points. Laurel's team serving was right at 88 percent for the night.

Michelle Joslin was 7-7 in spiking with one ace, while Sara Adkins and Donna Sherry were the team's leading setters.

"Our weak area is setting with two new setters at the position," Mangano said. She feels that the players are learning their weaknesses and that will be something to work on in practice in the coming week.

"WE HAD A rough week with four tough games, but we have learned from those contests," Mangano feels what the team has learned about themselves in the past games will be able to help them prepare better for the remainder of the season.

Laurel's B team also lost to Plainview, falling by scores of 15-4, 14-16, 14-16. The C team was defeated in three sets as well, 12-10, 3-11 and 4-11.

The Laurel team will have a week off, with their next competition coming on Thursday, Sept. 20 at Coleridge. The Bears are 3-5 on the season and 1-0 in the conference.

Lady Wildcats even volleyball record

The Wayne State Lady Wildcats evened up their season match record at 3-3 on the home court Thursday evening when they took matches against Westmar and Doane colleges in a triangular at Rice Auditorium.

In the opening match of the night, the Lady Cats downed Doane in two straight sets, 15-13 and 15-11. It was the first time in 16 years that the two teams had met on the volleyball court.

Senior Mitch Esters led Wayne's scoring with 10 points, backed up sophomores Missy Stollenberg and Diana Asay with six points each.

Veteran junior setter Jill Zeiss was 18-18 in the assists category for the match.

Wayne's spiking attack was a balanced one, as three hitters all had solid performances. Diana Asay and senior Andrea Jones each tallied six downed spikes, all for kills, while junior Pam Gogan was 5-5, all ace spikes.

Jones and Esters were strong on the net in blocking, each stepping four of their opponent's spiking attempts.

IN THE NIGHT'S second match, head Coach Marilyn Strate had an opportunity to get her entire bench into action as Wayne eased by Westmar College 15-7, 15-8.

Sophomores Laura Irwin and Mary Cech each served up seven points in the win.

Back-up setter Sue Walker, a junior, had six good sets while freshmen Paula Doleah and Michele Chapman each gained valuable varsity experience with three assists each.

Sophomore Nate Fontenelle was the top spiker with four kills on four attempts.

"WE STARTED OUT a little slow against Doane, but a good serving performance brought us right back into the game," said Coach Strate. "The team is beginning to concentrate on just one play at a time," Strate added, noting that it will eliminate opponents running up points early in the game.

"Our offense is looking much smoother, and we're coming up with a good blocking performance at the net," Strate said. She was also pleased with the way her younger players competed in the Westmar game, saying that "they all did very well."

Strate also reported the loss of senior spiker Beth Erickson of Sioux City, due to a dislocated thumb suffered during a blocking drill last Wednesday. She said that surgery was required and Erickson's hand will remain in a cast for 6-8 weeks.

Wayne was scheduled to participate in the Briar Cliff Invitational volleyball tournament on Saturday, Sept. 15. Last year the Lady Wildcats won the championship of the tourney over host team Briar Cliff. They will be in home action this evening (Monday), when they host Briar Cliff and Nebraska Wesleyan in a triangular meet.

Ponca 7, Laurel 6

Big play key in Bears loss

For the Laurel Concord football team, one play made the difference between winning and losing in a 7-6 decision to Ponca on Friday night in Laurel.

The big play proved to be a 64 yard scoring run by Ponca midway through the fourth quarter which overcame a Laurel 6-0 lead which they had maintained throughout the first three periods of the game.

"A week ago, there were a couple of plays which really hurt us, and against Ponca there was one," said Bear's Coach Kurt Buckwalter. "This week in practice we'll be working towards not playing hurting us in the game against Emerson Hubbard."

LAUREL'S SCORE came with 7:58 remaining in the first quarter on a drive which began as the result of a Ponca fumble. The Bear's junior lineman Erick Christensen recovered the ball at the Ponca 42 yard line and quarterback Kyle Daerkow completed a 37 yard pass to Mike Forsberg two plays later for the touchdown. The PAT kick at 11:41 by Scott Liewer was no good, leaving Laurel a 6-0 lead.

Neither team mounted much of an offensive attack in the remainder of the first half giving the Bear's their 6-0 margin at the half.

In the third quarter, Laurel's Brent Haisch turned in a 46 yard run midway through, only to have it called back on a clipping charge.

The play which did the damage to Laurel came with about six minutes left in the final period, when Ponca's fullback Todd Persinger ran down the sideline for a 64-yard scoring play following a Laurel fumble on the Ponca 11-yard line. Persinger was successful on the extra-point kick attempts to give the Indians a slim 7-6 lead and the win.

SOPHOMORE BRENT HAISCH carried the ball 14 times for 114 yards to lead all rushers; and senior back Dave Kardell added 12 attempts for 38 yards.

The Bear's top receiver was Mike Forsberg with two catches for 49 yards and one touchdown.

The blackshirts were led by junior Randy Prescott with 10 tackles, followed up by seniors Scott Rath and Mike Granquist with nine each.

Penalties hurt the offensive performance of the Bears, according to Buckwalter, but he was again pleased with the team's continued group effort. "I'm pleased with our team's effort, but we can't accept that performance, we have to keep plugging away."

"We're still basically a young team, and our mental mistakes are what hurt us. Of tensively, we're still a little inconsistent, but the defense is continuing to do a good job for us," he added.

Ponca brought a 1-1 record into the contest with Lauriel, and was rated number eight in the pre-season football ratings.

The Bears will face Emerson Hubbard on the road next weekend; a game which Buckwalter feels will be a good contest for his team. "Laurel will have to pick themselves up after the Ponca game and come up and just get after Emerson Hubbard."

Harriers compete in Columbus

The Wayne Carroll cross country team was part of a field of 33 runners which competed at the Scotus Cross Country Invitational on Friday, Sept. 14 near Columbus.

The winning time at the meet, which also established a new course record, was set by Duffy Meyer of Wisner Piger with a mark of 16:36 for the measured 5,000 meter course.

Wayne's runners were led by Chris Hillier with a time of 18:39 which placed him 11th in the field, followed by Ted Lohrberg at 20:10 which placed him 25th overall.

Teammate Tim Griess right behind in 26th place with a time of 20:18, and Jeff Simpson clocked a time of 20:45 for 28th place. Dave Ellis finished out the Wayne's varsity field in 31st place with a time of 21:38.

Team results saw Columbus Scotus winning with a total of 28 points, followed by David City Aquinas with 45, Wisner-Piger with 61 and Wayne with 105 points.

The district cross country meet, scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 11 will be held at this same course, with 15 high schools competing.

In comparison with last year's time, Coach Harold Maciejewski feels his team is running at a similar pace, "but they will have to start improving at this point," because they are nearing the halfway mark in the season. "Times of 20 minutes are too long at this point in our schedule," he added, saying that the team's conditioning will have to continue to improve as the season progresses.

Wayne's next competition is Friday, Sept. 21 at the Crofton Invitational.

"This was a tougher course than the one at Indian Trails," said Maciejewski. Also a measured 5,000 meter distance, he said it was a "good conditioner" for the runners.

"I was pleased to see the times of our runners begin to close in on each other and move towards the top runner," he added.

Coleridge over Winside 26-6

Fifth ranked Coleridge handed Winside their third loss of the season on Friday night when they downed the Wildcats 26-6 in Coleridge.

The Bulldogs totaled nearly 200 yards rushing in the win, while Winside was held to just 71 yards on the ground.

"We played hard and were able to do some good things offensively," said Coach Mark Freiburg. "But, he added, the players didn't look sharp and were having trouble executing at times.

Coleridge was successful on their fourth down situations throughout the evening, scoring three of their four scores on the final down. In the first quarter, they completed a 15-yard pass play for their first touchdown with a fourth down to take a 6-0 lead after a missed PAT attempt.

They added 12 points in the second period, both coming off fourth down situations. The first came on a 30 yard touchdown pass early in the quarter, while the second came on a 10 yard run.

The Bulldogs final score came in the third quarter when they punched through the line on a short run to score and made the two-point conversion try.

Freiburg's Wildcats came up on the scoreboard in the final period when senior Chris Jorgensen ran into the endzone from three yards out on a pitch play from the quarterback to cap a lengthy drive down the field.

Jorgensen led the Winside offense with 14 carries for 49 yards and one touchdown. Teammates Mike Thies and Doug Wylie also carried the ball, with Thies getting 12 yards on six attempts and Wylie gaining 10 yards on two carries.

Mike Jaeger topped the Wildcat's receiving with six catches for 42 yards.

A trio of players turned in good defensive performances in the loss. Mike Jaeger had 14 tackles, while Doug Wylie and Jeff Thies each added eight stops.

Eighth grade netters post win

The Wayne-Carroll eighth grade volleyball team hosted it's first volleyball game of the season against Winside on Thursday, Sept. 13. The Blue Devils team won in three sets, by scores of 15-8, 8-15 and 15-6.

Karmin Koenig and Donna Nelson each scored 10 points in the win, as the team improved their overall serving percentage to 77 percent.

"We set the ball much better in this game, which led to more spike-ing plays and an improved spiking game," commented Coach Sue Koch. "The girls are communicating much better on the court and our passing game was much improved."

The next junior high game will be on Thursday, Sept. 27 when both the seventh and eighth grade teams will see action at home against Wakefield.

Baseball, softball practice

Fall ball begins for Wildcats

While the thoughts of most sports fans are centered on football and volleyball action, the varsity baseball and softball teams at Wayne State College are gearing up for their fall seasons.

Second year Wildcat baseball Coach Lenny Klaver had a total of 55 players tryout for the squad during the opening weeks of school, and narrowed the group down to 36 following a cut made Sept. 7.

The fall practices and scrimmages help to familiarize the new players with the type of game Wayne State plays, said Klaver. He added that by letting the team members play, it gives him an opportunity to evaluate their talent under game-like conditions.

"We have an entirely new pitching staff this year, so this time will give us a chance to let our pitchers know what they should do," Klaver commented.

In looking at the team Klaver is pleased with the level of talent available, especially on the pitching staff. "We have more 'live arms' on the staff this year, pitchers that are able to throw the ball harder and better."

He also feels that he has a strong group of players returning from the 1984 campaign with all starters in the outfield back and veterans at key infield positions. The incoming crop of freshmen and transfers also has good potential, according to Klaver.

Fall scrimmage dates include

Sept. 20 at Briar Cliff, 3 p.m.; Sept. 22 with Kearney State, noon; Sept. 25 with Morningside, 3 p.m.; Sept. 29 at Kearney State, noon; Oct. 2 at Morningside, 3 p.m.; and Oct. 6 with Briar Cliff, 1 p.m.

The scrimmages are open to the public and all home scrimmages are scheduled to be held on the varsity baseball field, located on the Wayne State campus.

THE LADY WILDCAT softball program will be under the direction of newly-appointed head Coach Marilyn Strate as they headed into their fall practice schedule which began last Tuesday.

A total of 25 players were present at an organizational team meeting held last spring. Among the top returning players will be a group of four seniors, including pitcher Laurie Owens, third baseman Carmen Doeschot, outfielder Suzy Todd and second baseman Denise Hatfield.

"Things look good for us right now," said Strate. "A lot will depend on our pitching and catching staff." Those players that were freshmen last year had experience on the field, Strate said, and that will be a big help-down the road into the 1985 season.

The Lady Wildcats will open their fall scrimmage season with Briar Cliff on Friday, Sept. 21 at the Wayne State College varsity softball field, beginning at 4 p.m. The scrimmage is open to the public.

Frosh ramble over Pierce

The Blue Devil freshmen football team rushed for over 380 yards on their way to a 52-14 win over Pierce on Thursday at the high school practice field in Wayne.

The offensive and defensive units combined to score Wayne's 52-point splurge, with the final 16 points of the game coming off of two pass interceptions and a safety.

The Blue Devil frosh scored in each quarter, outdressing the Bluejays in the opening period 16-8.

WAYNE MADE USE of the ball early in the game scoring their first possession when Jason Liska rambled into the endzone from 6 yards out after the Blue Devils recovered a Pierce fumble and drove downfield for the score. Scott Pokett added the two-point conversion run.

The second touchdown came moments later when Robbie Gamble scored on another 6-yard run to cap a drive which began with a Bluejays turnover. Quarterback Rob Raabe kept the ball and scored on the two-point conversion attempt.

In the second period, Scott Pokett rushed the ball from the Pierce 26-yard line to score and Rob Raabe connected with receiver Marc Rabn for the extra point attempt.

Leading 24-14 at the half, Wayne began to put the game out of reach when they converted on a fourth and goal situation from the 13-yard line on a pass from Raabe to Joel Pedersen. Scott Pokett raced 60 yards later in the quarter for another touchdown, making the score 36-14 after two unsuccessful PAT attempts.

Wayne's final points of the game came from a strong defensive effort. A pair of linebackers, Scott Hammer and Tom Bair, each picked off Pierce passes and ran them back for 25 and 20 yards respectively to score. A group of Wayne defensive personnel brought down the Pierce signal caller in the endzone for the final safety.

THE BLUE DEVIL offense totaled 277 yards rushing and 111 yards in the air for the game.

Individuals leading the rushing were Scott

Pokett with 110 yards and two touchdowns and Jason Liska with 101 yards for one touchdown.

Quarterback Rob Raabe put the ball up 11 times for six completions and 111 yards and one touchdown.

Liska and Tom Bair led the defensive charts with 10 and seven stops respectively. The Wayne backshirts intercepted Pierce three times and recovered three Bluejays fumbles.

"We made a lot less mental mistakes in this game as compared to our season opener, especially on offense," said Coach Duane Biemkenkamp. He feels that the defense is the team's strong point, and is something that they can count on in every game.

"I was pretty happy with the way the team played, they made improvements which we hope to see continue throughout the season.

The freshman squad will take a 2-0 record into their next game on Thursday, Sept. 20 against Schuyler on the road.

WHS tennis team falls in opener

The Wayne-Carroll tennis team came out on the wrong end of an 11-1 score in their opening competition of the season against the Norfolk High School varsity on Wednesday, Sept. 12.

In singles action, junior Vini Johar lost in a match with number one seeded Simon Lumley of Norfolk in two sets, 6-2, 6-0.

Against Mike Adams, Norfolk's third-seeded player, senior Jassi Johar of Wayne fell 6-2, 6-0 while junior Ben Whisenhunt lost to Norfolk's number five seed Robbin List in sets of 6-0, 6-0.

Junior Jim Hartman was downed by Norfolk's Toby Smith in a match which took over one and one-half hours to play by scores of 3-6, 6-3, 0-6.

HEALTH From Your Family Physician TIPS

FLU VACCINATION

Influenza or "flu" is caused by one of two types of virus — Influenza A or B. Inhaled water droplets containing the virus invade cells of the respiratory system and multiply or escape to infect another person.

After exposure, it takes 3-4 days to start feeling sick. Symptoms of the flu are cough-cold symptoms usually accompanied with chest or throat discomfort, muscle aches, joint aching and fevers. If one's defenses are weakened by age or disease, flu could potentially lead to serious, and sometimes fatal, complications, such as pneumonia.

High risk groups for having a complication from the flu are:

- 1) those with chronic heart or lung problems
- 2) residents of nursing homes or other chronic care facilities
- 3) individuals with chronic illnesses such as diabetes, anemia, kidney disorders, asthma, or those on chemotherapy (drugs) for cancer
- 4) healthy adults over age 65

These above groups should receive a yearly flu vaccination. Also medical personnel, especially doctors and nurses dealing with the high risk population should be immunized. Healthy people may be immunized if your doctor agrees.

People should not be immunized if febrile, less than three months pregnant or are allergic to eggs.

Serious reactions to flu vaccination are uncommon. About one in four have mild soreness and swelling at the site of injection. A small fraction may have muscle or joint aches and a low fever.

The appropriate time for a flu vaccination is September until mid-November. Flu viruses do change yearly and revaccination is generally indicated on a yearly basis.

WILLOW CREEK RESERVOIR

Willow Creek Recreation Area

Hunters are reminded that Willow Creek Recreation near Pierce is open for hunting upland game, deer and waterfowl. However, there are certain restrictions that apply to all State Recreation Areas and other regulations that are specific to Willow Creek:

1. Hunters like all recreators must have a valid park entry sticker on any vehicle they bring into the area, at any time of the year.
2. Willow Creek and other recreation areas which permit hunting are open from September 4 (day after Labor Day) - April 1st.

3. Rifles and handguns are prohibited at Willow Creek.

4. Blinds and tree stands for hunting waterfowl and deer must be portable and removed each day.

5. Hunting is permitted only in authorized areas which are indicated on maps posted at entrances of the Willow Creek Recreation Area. For more information on Willow Creek or other State Recreation Areas, contact the Nebraska Game & Parks Commission, Norfolk, telephone 371-4950.

Check survival of recent tree plantings

People who have planted windbreaks, wildlife areas, or woodlots in the last few years should plan on checking the trees for survival soon. Although it is too early to order trees, the broadleaf trees and shrubs must be checked while the leaves are still on to be sure of live trees. You should plan to replace dead trees this spring to prevent gaps in the tree stand or an uneven stand.

This is also a good time to clean up any existing weed problems in the tree rows. This is especially important if you wish to use chemical weed control. After weeds are cleaned up, a fall application of simazine (pre-emergent weed control chemical) will reduce or eliminate the weed problem next year.

Lower Elkhorn NRD offers a weed control program to landowners, by fall spraying with simazine. For more information contact your local Soil Conservation Service or NRD office.

Grass drills available to landowners

Lower Elkhorn NRD owns grass drills which are available for rent by landowners. These drills are designed to handle the bulky warm season prairie grass seed and may be used for seeding conservation practices, wildlife habitat areas, and other grass seedings. The drills are not available for alfalfa seeding.

The charge for using the drills is $4 per acre with a minimum charge of $25. However, they are available free of charge to counties or landowners for seeding county road right-of-way. The Nebraska Game & Parks Commission also offers free grass seed for newly graded county roadsides. The grass drills are stationed in Pierce and Stanton counties. To rent a grass drill contact: Pierce SCS Office, 112 N. Brown - Box 224, Pierce, NE, Phone: 329-4435 or Stanton SCS Office, 715 11th Street - P.O. Box 137, Stanton, NE, Phone: 439-2213.

Landowners plan for tree planting now

Landowners who have been thinking of planting a new windbreak or other type of tree planting should begin planning for it now. Although planting season is a long way off, there are several steps you should take in September and October. The place to start is by contacting your local Soil Conservation Service office and:

1. Determine location, size, and purpose of the planting
2. Decide what species to plant and how many are needed
3. Begin preparing ground, especially if there is sod present
4. Tree orders should be sent in prior to November 1, if possible to be sure of getting desired species

State range judging, Madison County

Teams of FFA students from schools all over Nebraska will be coming to Madison County on Saturday, September 29. The students will be competing in the State Range Judging Contest and have qualified by competing in one of seven area contests held August 28-September 20. Range judging contests are sponsored by the Society for Range Management in cooperation with Soil Conservation Service, Extension Service, and Natural Resources Districts. The contests are designed to test the students knowledge of range plants, range conditions, and good management practices.
