THE WAYNE HERALD

Despite receiving lower cost proposal

Commissioners keep insurance

It was learned recently from a source that the Wayne County Commissioners approved a health insurance policy in July for its county employees this fiscal year which was over $20,000 more than the lowest proposal.

The bids in consideration by the county commissioners were presented by Blue Cross and Blue Shield and Central Life Assurance (formerly Wisconsin Life). No other bids from insurance agencies were presented, although the representative for Central Life Assurance had made several other insurance proposals which were available through his agency.

Central Life Assurance's proposal of health insurance (which also includes a small amount of life insurance) was approved by the commission members at the Aug. 7 regular meeting. The insurance policy is handled by the Kelth Jech Insurance Company of Wayne.

According to the published minutes, Blue Cross-Blue Shield also made its proposal the same day. Blue Cross-Blue Shield had proposed that Wayne County join up to 75 other counties subscribing presently to the Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance plan through the Nebraska Association of Counties.

Instead, the county commissioners voted to approve the Central Life Assurance insurance plan.

The monthly premium renewal rates of the accepted insurance proposal that are guaranteed until Aug. 15, 1988 are as follows (per individual employee): Life insurance, .49 (per $1,000 of benefits); Accidental-Death and Dismemberment, .05 (per $1,000 of benefits); Dependent's Life, $1; Medical Care, for those retired age 65 and over or active age 70 and over, employee and dependent, each $32; and Medical Care, for those retired under age 65 and active under age 70, employee-$109.40, dependent-$151.69, and total family medical-$261.09.

Wayne County had Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance for its county employees prior to signing for an insurance plan with Wisconsin Life Insurance (which later merged with Central Life Assurance) in May of 1979.

COMMISSIONER Merlin Beiermann said Tuesday his choice was made on Central Life Assurance because of past recent experiences with Blue Cross-Blue Shield regarding processing of claims. He recalled of at least four or five incidents, including one which he filed for himself, where the claim-processing took an extra length of time to complete.

Beiermann said Central Life Assurance, when compared to Blue Cross-Blue Shield, appears to have better benefits.

Commissioner Chairman Jerry Pospisil said Tuesday that the Blue Cross-Blue Shield presentation didn't provide a clear picture of the plan.

"It left a lot of indecision," said Commissioner Bob Nissen.

ONE PLUS FOR Central Life Assurance, according to the commissioners, was that there was a low deductible amount of $100 on claims. Another was that the renewal rates were guaranteed for a full year.

The commissioners were hesitant to go with a cheaper plan because the county would never be able to get the quality health insurance of Central Life Assurance again, said Beiermann.

"They told us once we dropped them, it would be hard to pick them up again," he said.

Jumping from one insurance company to another each year could result in future difficulty trying to obtain quality insurance for its employees.

Dan Lynch, a representative of Blue Cross-Blue Shield, told the Wayne Herald he believed the plan he proposed was equal to, if not better, than the plan which was accepted.

There were problems in the past, Lynch said, of slowness in processing claims because of the incorporation of a new data system. Claims now, he said, are processed in a time that is "remarkably good," he said.

Kelth Jech, representing Central Life Assurance, said last week he had been unsuccessful in providing the county the necessary quality insurance at a lower price through insurance plans other than Central Life Assurance.

"Who knows? They (Blue Cross-Blue Shield) may be higher next year and we might be lower," Jech said.

Flurry of applicants for postal jobs

As of Thursday evening, Wayne Postmaster Thomas Jones said there have been 71 applicants for the position of clerk/carrier with the United States Postal Service.

The applications were being accepted to establish a register of eligibles for future hiring needs for clerk/carrier at Wayne, South Sioux City, Dakota City, Emerson, Laurel, Ponca and Wakefield.

"I estimate there will be about 100 applicants for the job [when the deadline approaches]," Jones said Friday. The deadline for applications was Oct. 5.

All the applications will be sent to the Omaha postal service office. From there, the applicants will be advised as to the date, place and the time for the civil service examination.

"Jones said the examinations will be sent to Los Angeles where they will be graded, then ranked with the "high scores on down."

The end result, Jones said, will be that the procedure "will create a roster of employment [for clerk/carrier] in this area."

"The examinations open up only once every two years," he added.

According to the job description, clerks work indoors and have to handle sacks of mail weighing up to 70 pounds. They sort mail, distribute mail, to over the counter sales of stamps and weighing parcels and are personally responsible for all money and stamps.

Carriers have to sort, collect and deliver mail. Some walk while others drive, but all must handle sacks weighing up to 70 pounds. Starting salaries for these positions are $10.62 per hour.

These include the U.S. Senate race between Republican Nancy Hoch and Democrat J.J. Exon, the First Congressional race between Republican Doug Bereuter and Democrat Monica Bauer as well as the 17th Legislative race between Gerald Conway and Merle Von Minden.

Enrollment hike encourages WSC

If there is going to be a higher education enrollment shortage in the future for Nebraska colleges—someone forgot to pass the information on to Wayne State College and several other of the state colleges.

A report recently by the Citizens Committee on Higher Education, a group of individuals appointed this summer by Governor Bob Kerrey (which includes Bob Carhart of Wayne), revealed a projection which depicted an up to 30 percent decrease in enrollment in the 1990's among the "traditional students" or basically those directly out of high school.

However, Wayne State College President Ed Elliott is quick to point out that the overall state college enrollment has increased.

"One year ago at this time, we were at about 2,405 students. Presently we are at 2,547 students. That's a 6 percent increase from one year ago," Elliott said.

"And we have just under 20 classes yet to register," he added.

BY ENROLLMENT period's end, Elliott expects the student enrollment to reach 2,650.

"This [enrollment increase] was not anticipated as far back as three years ago. This is a direct result of our increase visibility program [public relations within the community, surrounding area and regions]," he said.

"Another factor is that we have a better retention of students on campus. The staff is responsive to the students' needs."

Elliott said the atmosphere at Wayne State College shows a greater personal working relationship with students than in years past.

Also attributed to increased enrollment at Wayne State College has been the "Extension of Campus" program, where the college takes the classes to the people "instead of them coming to us."

ALL INDICATIONS, he mentioned, showed increase enrollments this school year in two other state schools — Peru and Chadron. The remaining state school is Kearney State.

Elliott said the Citizen's Commission projection of up to a 30 percent decline in enrollment in future years refers particularly to traditional students.

However, he pointed out that Wayne State's enrollment reflects increases not only in the number of students, but also in meeting needs of the non-traditional students (such as businessmen or minorities) who had no opportunity to go to higher education and now wish to experiment with a college course.

Increased enrollment is pleasing to Elliott and the administration at Wayne State College, however he mentioned that the 6 percent increase does pose some problems in several areas.

"Presently, with the current student population, we are really jam-packed in some places," he said.

THE RATIO OF students per teacher has shifted to one teacher for 24 students.

"That figure is very, very high," Elliott said. "Ideally, for public institutions the ratio should be one teacher for 18 students."

The enrollment increase, he said, does present an additional burden on the faculty.

With the enrollment increase figures, Elliott said he hopes the numbers will create a leverage with the Nebraska appropriation committee which decides on the state school's budget. "The increase will help to justify spending beyond the continuous budget amount," he mentioned.

Elliott said Wayne State College has a significant increase in recent years with the number of students enrolling in the liberal arts division. Over the last few terms there has been an overall growth in the number of students enrolled within the business division of the college.

"Then there are a good number taking courses on an exploratory basis (enrichment)," he said.

To go with the increase, Wayne State has significant needs to maintain or better its level of operation. The six or seven legislators within northeast Nebraska should be aware of the college's vitalness to the economy of the area, Elliott said.

The increase in student population on campus at Wayne State, he said, will help to verify that fact.

Wayne Lions Candy Sale upcoming

The Wayne Lions Club will be visiting homes in Wayne, selling Halloween candy again this year.

The Lions Club uses the proceeds from the candy sale to finance service projects for the community.

Lions Club projects include eye care for people with special needs, support of eye dog programs, general projects related to sight and hearing and two new areas, drug abuse education and a Diabetes screening clinic.

A Diabetes Screening Clinic is planned for November. It will be free to the public. Since diabetes is a major health problem, which affects many people, and since it can be treated when it is detected in time, it is essential to discover diabetes early. The side-effects of diabetes are often problems with eyesight and with circulation. Diabetes is one of the leading causes of blindness in this country.

Those who are most susceptible and should be checked regularly include those who have a family history of diabetes, people who are over 50 years of age—especially if they are overweight, and anyone who wants to assure themselves of their own physical health. The Lions Club will make an announcement of the place, time and procedure for the Diabetes Screening Clinic in the near future.

Humanities division gets grant

The Nebraska Committee for the Humanities has awarded the Division of Humanities at Wayne State College a grant of $17,232.

Wayne State's Humanities division will use the funds to conduct a state-wide Conference on Humanities and Humanities Education in Nebraska Nov. 9-10. The conference, which will be held in Lincoln, will focus on three major issues: rigor in teacher training; retention of quality teachers; and humanities studies before college.

Dr. Jo Taylor, Division Head of the Humanities Division at WSC, is the project director and coordinator of the conference. Also on the campus planning committee are WSC President Dr. Ed Elliott, Vice President Dr. Don Whisenand, faculty members Sæyre Andersen, Dr. Kent Blaser and Dr. Joe Fleck.

Each person who receives the kit is urged to make a donation and then pass it on to the neighbor listed on the envelope. The donor to receive the kit should then mail the entire package back to the Lung Association. All postage will be paid by the Association.

Funds raised through the Pass Kit appeal will be used in Nebraska to help those with asthma, emphysema, chronic bronchitis, and other lung diseases, and to support research into the causes and potential cures of such diseases.

Last year, the Pass Kit raised over $21,000.

Attend rally

Don Liedman and Ron Magnuson of Carroll and Charles Wageman of Emerson represented Wayne County Farm Bureau at the Nebraska Farm Bureau's Statewide Membership Kick-off Rally in Kearney on Sept. 26.

The rally recognized membership achievement during the past year and also helped County Farm Bureaus set plans for the coming year, according to Liedman, county president.

Wageman, county membership campaign manager, received special recognition from Nebraska Farm Bureau President Bryce Neidig of Madison. Wayne County was honored for reaching its 1984 membership quota.

Ron Brown of Wayne donated his time in assembling the bikes, which were given by the Nebraska Heart Association. Along with the bicycle, Polt had the opportunity to attend the Nebraska State fair and meet other winners from across the state for an awards presentation, along with enjoying a special tutoring session by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln swim team and a diving exhibition.

Students observe school lunch week

The 580 students of the Wayne-Carroll school system will join students across the nation in observing National School Lunch Week on Oct. 15-19.

During National School Lunch Week, parents with youngsters in elementary school are invited to eat lunch with their children.

West Elementary School Principal David Luff said grand parents... of elementary youngsters are again this year being issued a special invitation to eat lunch at the school on Friday, Oct. 12.

EVA NELSON is the food service supervisor for School District 17. As supervisor, she plans, orders food for, and supervises 14 employees in producing more than 580 meals each day at the four schools in the district.

Wednesday, Oct. 17, is Universal Menu Day where 91,000 schools across the nation will be serving a "Champions of Nutrition" universal lunch menu as part of week long festivities during 1984's National School Lunch Week.

He added that families with children in two different grades may request that the younger student eat with the older student. Parents wishing to eat with their youngsters are asked to notify the school office two days prior to the day they will be eating, and specify if they want the regular menu or salad tray. Cost for adults is $1.35.

Eating times are as follows: First grade, 11:15 a.m.; second grade, 11:20 a.m.; third grade, 11:30 a.m.; and fourth grade, 11:35 a.m.

Luff said second through fourth grade times are approximate depending on the total number eating in each group.

"Champions of Nutrition" menu items were picked by national nutrition leaders from the school food service industry and the Nutrition Standards and Nutrition Education Committees. The menu features all of the needed nutrients for students as well as some of their most popular food choices.

sheriff's log

On Sept. 24, one mile south and 1.3 miles east of Winside, Jack V. Krueger of Wakefield, driving a pick-up owned by Robert Krueger of Winside, was west-bound on the county road. He neared the crest of the hill when the weight of the load shifted and caused the vehicle to overturn as it neared the road edge. Krueger received a cut on his forehead. Three whiteface cows, owned by Robert Krueger, were killed in the accident.

On Sept. 30, 5 1/2 miles south, five miles west and 1/2 mile south of Wayne, a car driven by Marvin W. Buzzard was northbound on the county road. As it came over the hillcrest, Arthur Bargholz of Wayne was parked at the base of the hill. Buzzard was unable to stop and struck Bargholz's vehicle. The report stated there was "plus" $250 damage to each vehicle.

Jo Buzzard and Rachael Buzzard were taken to Providence Medical Center for treatment.

On Oct. 1, a quarter mile west and a little north of Hoskins, Karon Beem of Norfolk was driving a vehicle owned by Gerald R. or Barbara Marr of Norfolk. She was northbound on a county road, lost control and went (front end) into west ditch, spun the rear end around and ended up in the adjacent pasture. No injuries were reported, however the damage to the car was listed as "totaled".

Signs should be off state highway property

"It is against the law to place political campaign signs on state highway right of way," State Roads Director Louis E. Lambert said today.

He said the multi-colored, multi shaped signs appear in early fall about every two years near election time, and they will be removed.

"Maintenance crews of the Nebraska Department of Roads are removing the signs almost as quickly as they are being put up, so their effect on the voting public is wasted," Lambert commented.

He went on to say that he had instructed maintenance crews to continue this practice until after election day in November, clearing the right of way of the objectionable and unlawful signs. They will be stored in Department Maintenance Yards across the state, and the candidates can retrieve them there.

He also said for further information candidates should contact the nearest District Office of the Department of Roads.

"It is rather strange," Lambert noted, "that the people we are electing to make the laws break the law."

Social Security for churches

A change in the Social Security law affects churches and church-controlled organizations and their employees, Dale Branch, Social Security manager in Norfolk, said recently.

All nonprofit organizations, including churches, and their employees who earn $100 or more in a year became subject to Social Security taxes starting January 1, 1984. The organizations have to pay the employer share of the tax and deduct the employee share from their workers' wages.

Under the recent change in the law, Branch said, any church or qualified church-controlled organization can elect exemption from Social Security taxes if it is opposed to paying them for religious reasons. If a church or organization elects exemption, it cannot later revoke it.

The employees of a church or organization that chooses exemption will still be covered by Social Security, Branch said. But, they will be treated as self-employed persons, rather than employees, for Social Security purposes. This means that they will have to file self-employment tax returns and pay the Social Security self-employment tax if they earn $100 or more in a year from the church or organization.

If a church or church-controlled organization wants to elect exemption, Branch said, it should fill out Form 8274, Certification by Churches and Organizations Electing Exemption from Employer Social Security Taxes. The form states the conditions for exemption and is available from the Internal Revenue Service.

Any church or church-controlled organization that was in existence on September 30, 1984, must file the certificate by October 30, 1984, to qualify for exemption. Any organization created after September 30, 1984, must file prior to the first date on which a quarterly employment tax return would otherwise be due.

The election will apply to employees' services performed after December 31, 1983. Churches and organizations which elect exemption and have paid Social Security taxes since December 31, 1983, may receive a refund of both the employer and employee shares of the taxes. They must agree to pay the employee share of the tax to the affected employees.

Although these churches and organizations will no longer have to pay Social Security taxes, Branch said, they must continue to withhold and report income taxes for each employee.

Churches or organizations that want more information about the election option and employees who have questions about their status should contact the Internal Revenue Service. Employees who have questions about their Social Security protection should contact the Norfolk Social Security office. The office is located at 1310 Norfolk Avenue, Norfolk, Ne. The telephone number is 1-800-642-8310.

'hacken' away

by chuck hackenmiller

There was a movie which appeared on the theatre screens last year entitled "Mr. Mom" — a story line which detailed the comical situations of a father who cares for the household and family while the mother carries on with her professional occupation.

The background for this movie is certainly not fiction. Statistics in publications over past years have revealed there are many working mothers, who have joined their husbands in finding jobs. In most cases, this is one way (or the only way) which a family can financially survive.

Job security can be limited, at times, to one working parent, which will ordinarily delegate the household chores to the laid-off or unemployed parent. Sometimes the individual delegated to these duties can be the father of the family.

While I performed the responsibility of babysitting our 19 month old son Thursday evening, the thought of how I would handle a "Mr. Mom" situation suddenly occurred to me.

NORMALLY MY household duties entail taking out the garbage, mowing the lawn and taking care of items on the household repair list. Doing dishes, vacuuming or cleaning floors, putting clothes through the washer and dryer and cooking are tasks I do on occasion.

But the thought of me as a "Mr. Mom" would be frightening for the rest of the family if they knew what I was like as a bachelor.

Back then it was "I'll do the dishes whenever I run out of things to eat off" or only if the kitchen sink could not be found. For a Christmas present one year I bought myself 12 cartons of paper plates (and plastic spoons and forks). That's how much fun I have with dishes.

Before marrying, I never gave a thought about walking through the house with a trace of mud on the bottom of my shoes. It was nice to have large rugs to sweep the dust underneath. When the floor finally did get cleaned, people dropping by would look in the cleaning bucket and thought I was changing oil.

It was simpler years ago to wash clothes — then at the laundromat. All you did was plug in the quarter and remember not to put the blue jeans in with the white shirts. But now there are so many types of material and fabric to beware of.

Nobody told me later that permanent press doesn't mean completely free of wrinkles or that sometimes shirts shrink in dryers if it is too hot.

Keeping track of socks, often paired up with a mismatch, is hard enough for one individual. Just think of the difficulty in separating socks for a whole family.

COOKING WAS different. There was where I made my mark in bachelor history. I wasn't a fancy gourmet. But a pot roast was a piece of cake. Fried chicken was not a problem. Spaghetti was "nothing to it."

Some friends were over for supper one evening and I had prepared an Italian dinner of spaghetti and meatballs — with a side dish of potato salad. Someone told me there was enough starch served in that meal to make a shirt stand all by itself.

Oh, there were a few fiascoes. Like the time I put a round steak in the broiler and remembered it about an hour later or when I attempted to make a lemon pie and it turned into lemon flavored pudding mixed with pie crust or the year I made an upside down cake and it looked better right side up.

Child-rearing could also be affected if I became a "Mr. Mom". After all, the child is accustomed to me being a rough-neck, wrestling playfully with him on the floor and throwing baseballs and footballs into his hands. What is going to be his impression, seeing me with an apron around my waist with the words "Cleaning is a Scream" written above the pockets.

This is how I picture myself as a "Mr. Mom." There are others who voluntarily want to fit into this category. Some are forced to.

However, it can be enlightening to change role models on occasion, just to see how "the other half" must cope with the daily routines.

Got to go now.

My son's pulling out the clothes in his drawers, the tea kettle is whistling, the vacuum cleaner bag just popped open, the dryer cycle is finished, the kitchen needs a lightbulb, the faucet is dripping, someone is at the door and the telephone is ringing.

And that's only within the half-hour. Isn't there a time-out somewhere here.

Insurance high

Coverage of what goes on during the county commissioners regular meetings has been limited in our editorial columns. One basic reason is that sending a news staff member to a commissioners' meeting (which sometimes lasts an entire Tuesday morning and afternoon) doesn't coincide with the hectic schedule of publishing a newspaper before the essential scheduled Wednesday morning deadlines.

In the past, if there was a county story of major concern to our readers, then whatever information possible was gathered to research and write an article on the happening.

Readers, particularly the taxpayers of Wayne County, are entitled to know what happens at each meeting of the commissioners. The commissioners, as well as city or state or national elected officials, are responsible officials elected by the public who should be the last people on earth to discourage information about meeting happenings.

Minutes of regular meetings reflect the final decisions made by the elected officials. And some argue that this information is all the public requires.

But this is not so. Prior to the decision are discussions pertaining to why the proposals were accepted or rejected.

In the minutes of the county commissioners meeting published this summer, it was reported that Blue Cross-Blue Shield and Central Life Assurance had presented fiscal 1984-85 health insurance proposals provided as a benefit to the county employees.

Soon after, it appeared in the minutes that the county commissioners agreed to contract with Central Life Assurance.

What was not in the minutes was that the bid of Central Life Assurance was over $20,000 more than the low bid of Blue Cross-Blue Shield.

A reason for accepting the Central Life Assurance contract, according to the commissioners, were displeasure of Blue Cross-Blue Shield service to the county. Blue Cross-Blue Shield had the county insurance for several years before it was converted to Central Life Assurance, and the commissioners said the county experienced slowness in the processing of medical claims.

Perhaps if the health insurance decision was better editorialized, the input from the public might have been such that the county commissioners might have reconsidered the request or offered an explanation to the newspaper as to their reasoning on accepting the proposal.

If we knew then what we know now, our editorial viewpoint would have expressed that the county commissioners should have sought bids from other insurance agencies before accepting its present proposal, since the next highest proposal was over $20,000 more than the lowest proposal — at least for comparison purposes.

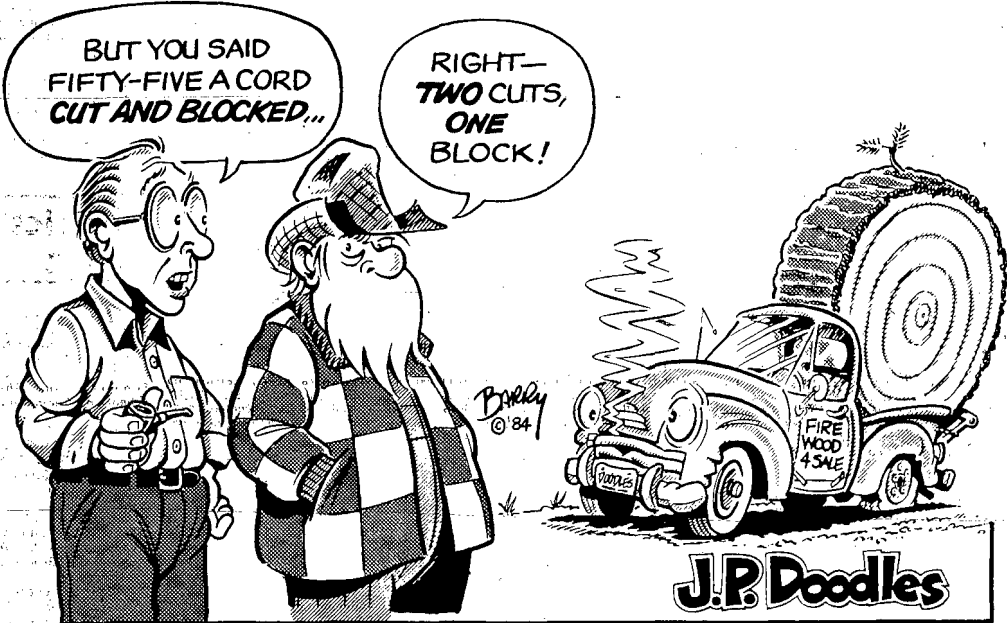

Our staff will make a sincere effort to provide adequate coverage of county happenings from the meeting room of the courthouse. We look on this venture as helpful to both the citizens of the county and to the county commissioners themselves.

We can no longer rely on minutes to tell us the complete story of what happens at either city council or county government meetings.

Elected officials have a responsibility to their public. Newspapers have a responsibility to their subscribers.

That is the way it should be.

Paying attention to our Congressmen

First-time parents quickly learn that a newborn demands full-time attention. To leave baby unattended or even to look away ever so briefly is to risk the safety of child.

Congressmen, though rarely as cute, must also be watched carefully. Oh, not that if left to their own devices they might hurt themselves. Rather, we fear, and with reason, that out from under the watchful eyes of taxpayers, Congress may do damage to us. We know from sad experience that when we're not paying close attention, they are given 10 bills of tax increases, pork barrel spending, and special-interest regulations.

It's not easy for us taxpayers to keep track of what our congressmen and senators are doing. This year alone, the House of Representatives had 362 roll call votes; the Senate had 250. Add to these recorded votes the many recorded voice votes or the use of unanimous consent and we as voters have a lot of material to wade through if we are to make intelligent decisions about who to return to Washington after the November 6 election.

In judging our present crop of congressmen and senators there are, of course, some bellwether votes we can look at. The 1981 Economic Recovery Tax Act—the 25 percent across-the-board tax cut—is one such vote. This tax cut brought us our present economic growth and only a politician so far to the left that you need a pair of binoculars to spot them voted against these measures. These bills were debated in the full light of a national debate. They were accurately labeled and everyone knew just what they were voting for or against.

Such votes, however, give us only a first cut in dividing the opportunists from the principled men and women of principle. The kind of man in Washington is really representing our interests as a free people, one must look at those votes that receive little attention and whose true effects are often distorted in the press.

I commend two particular pieces of pending legislation to your attention. The first is the so-called Civil Rights Act of 1984. A lot of congressmen were fooled in voting for this measure a few months back because they thought it was, a labeled, civil rights legislation. Well, since then, everyone has had more time to look at this bill and the longer one looks the worse it gets. It is nothing more than a power grab by Washington, D.C.

The easy vote for a congressman or senator would be to vote for the bill and simply tell his constituents that he thought it was a simple civil rights bill. The fact is that congressmen now know better than that. Any vote for this bill is a knowing vote for a bigger government and a vote against any meaningful definition of civil rights.

THE SECOND PIECE of legislation travels under the name of "Comparable Worth." It is not a bill mandating equal pay for equal work for men and women, as its supporters sometimes claim. Equal pay for equal work is already the law of the land. It has been since 1964. This bill would force the establishment of bureaucratic committees to determine how much your job is worth and how much you should be paid.

IF THE BUREAUCRATS determine that your job is "comparable" to someone else's job that pays less—well, you're out of luck. What is the name for a system where the government determines everyone's wages? Socialism.

Oh, well. Our liberal friends in Washington are not stupid. They know the American people oppose ever-increasing government control so they sugarcoat these bills and masquerade them as civil rights or women's issues. They aren't. Moreover, your congressmen and senators know that. But he or she thinks you're not looking, not paying attention.

These two issues will separate the opportunists from the men and women of principle. Watch how your congressmen and senators vote on each of these bills. You will learn a lot about them.

Responding to CARE

As we approach the harvest season we are reminded that America is especially blessed by the abundant fruits of our land. Our country not only provides sustenance for its own citizenry, but over the years we have helped many millions who would have perished were it not for the compassion of Americans.

22 million people on a regular basis. We operate in 35 developing countries with programs in feeding, health, and self-help. Our program in natural resource conservation is helping to reclaim land to produce more food. Financial and moral support for these activities comes from people in your community.

On Tuesday, October 16, Americans will get another opportunity to help the world's hungry by participating in World Food Day. People in more than 150 countries around the globe will join in declaring their belief that hunger can be overcome and to resolve to help actively in the struggle. Towns and cities everywhere will hold religious services, town meetings, farmer co-op gatherings, and schools and colleges will conduct seminars on food related issues such as nutritional standards how to improve food distribution, and ways to broaden agricultural training.

CARE, the international aid and development organization, is joining with 330 other national organizations in supporting World Food Day. Currently CARE feeds more than CARE urges your readers to join in World Food Day activities. We particularly invite the participation of those who are part of the CARE family — members of the Lions Clubs, the Garden Clubs, the Federated Women's Clubs, AFL-CIO locals, Girl Scouts, and other such organizations who make CARE projects a part of their national agenda. We also welcome the help of the many concerned individuals who live in your area.

Somewhere in South America, Africa, or Asia a starving person can be saved because we contribute to the effort to alleviate this most desperate of human needs.

KEVIN KOENIG (44) blasts his way in for a touchdown in the second half.

STEVE OVERIN (30) gains a chunk of his 136 yards on this run.

Koenig and Overin lead Blue Devil rush over West Point CC 54-6

The combined rushing performances of senior running backs Kevin Koenig and Steve Overin coasted the Wayne-Carroll Blue Devils to an easy 54-6 homecoming victory over West Point Central Catholic on Friday night.

Koenig carried the ball 21 times for 145 yards and three touchdowns while Overin rushed 18 times and tallied 136 yards and one score.

"OUR OFFENSE GAVE a good effort overall, and we are especially pleased to see them able to get some yardage," said Coach Lonnie Ehrhardt. "We had a lot of good play on the offensive line. West Point played a straight-ahead style of ball and our line was able to make some holes."

Five of Wayne's seven touchdowns came on the ground, including three by Koenig, one by Overin and a 82-yard scoring ramble by Russel Longe.

Quarterback Ted Lueders, in his second start of the season, completed three of five passes for 32 yards and two touchdowns. Steve Overin accounted for the remainder of the Blue Devils passing yards on a pair of completed halfback options.

Wayne opened scoring in the first period with a field-long march that capped with a four-yard run by Koenig. The PAT kick attempt by Chris Wieseler went wide with 5:15 in the quarter.

JUST UNDER TWO minutes later, Blue Devil Dan Gross intercepted a West Point pass and ran it back to the Bluejay 14 yard line where they moved down to the one yard line to set up a run by quarterback Lueders for the score. The second PAT kick attempt of the night also went wide and Wayne was up 12-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Jays got their only points on the night early in the second quarter when they took over on their own 17-yard line and began to move. On a first and 10 situation, a West Point pass was deflected by a Blue Devil defensive player and picked up by the Bluejays Troy Ortmeier to be run in 52 yards for the score.

The rest of the night belonged to the Wayne-Carroll offense as they racked up 42 unanswered points in the win, including 15 in the second period on a four-yard run by Steve Overin with 2:31 left and just before the close of the period on a nine-yard dash by Koenig with :22 seconds left on the clock. The PAT kick attempt by Wieseler on the first touchdown was good, and Overin ran in for two points on the second score.

Kevin Koenig found the endzone again with 8:16 in the third period on a six-yard run which closed out a six play drive that began on the Blue Devil 32-yard line. The PAT kick was good.

West Point fumbled the resulting kickoff and Wayne recovered and scored on a 15-yard Lueders pass to senior Pete Warne with 6:35 left in the quarter.

Scoring for Wayne ended with a seven-yard pass from Lueders to Kevin Maly, at the close of the third quarter. On the big gainer of the night, Russel Longe ran a sweep play 84 yards into the endzone in the fourth quarter for the score, followed by a two-point conversion by Tom Perry.

OTHER GROUND GAINERS for Wayne were Longe with two carries for 78 yards and Tom Perry with six rushes for 34 yards.

Dan Gross headed the Wayne receivers with two catches for 29 yards. Ted Lueders was on the receiving end of a halfback option for 20 yards, while Warne and Maly had TD catches of 15 and 7 yards respectively. The Blue Devils defense was keyed by Koenig with 11 tackles and Chris Wieseler with 10 stops. Tim Book added eight tackles and Dan Gross had seven. Gross also had one pass interception on the night for a return of 25 yards.

Tom Perry and Jim Thomas each logged five tackles, as did Jon McGriff, while Tim Fleming, Darin Barner and Brent Pick each had four stops. Mark Janke and Steve Cowgill each picked off a Bluejay pass.

"I thought that West Point was still in the game after they scored their touchdown in the second quarter," said Ehrhardt. "They stayed right in there and were hitting hard and playing tough all the way through the game."

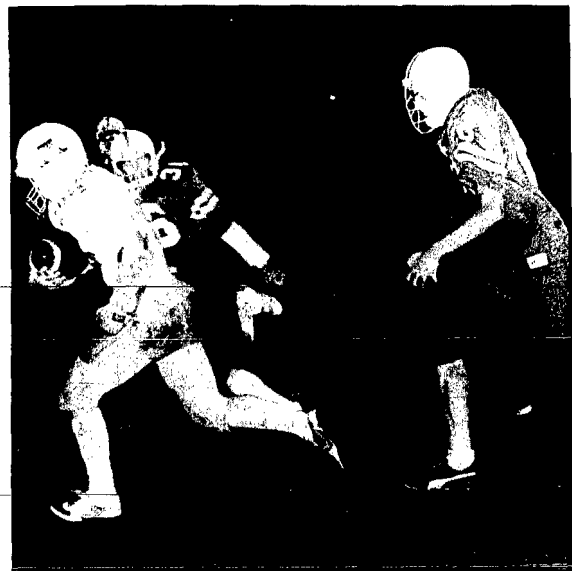

The Blue Devils will defend their 6-0 record and number four Associated Press ranking this Thursday night in a contest against Fremont Bergan to be played in Fremont. The game is being played on Thursday night due to a field conflict.

"Bergan is a running team. I expect it to be a very good game," Ehrhardt said.

SHANE FAHRENHOLZ runs up the middle for Allen.

COLERIDGE DEFENDERS try to make the stop on Allen's Shawn Mahler.

Lack big plays hurts Allen in 40-8 Coleridge loss

The ability to make the big play turned out to be the make-or-break factor in the Allen Eagles 40-8 loss to ninth-ranked Coleridge on Friday night.

"Coleridge was able to make the big play throughout the game and we weren't," said Eagle Coach Dave Uldrich. "We were able to move the ball when we needed to but were just unable to score."

THE BULLDOGS held a 14-0 halftime lead following a pair of second quarter drives that ended with a scoring run of one yard and a pass for three yards.

They added 14 more points in the third period on long drives downfield before Allen got on the board with a touchdown run of one yard by Shane Fahrenholz with two minutes left on the clock.

The turning point of the game for Allen came with the score at 28-8 when a touchdown pass was nullified in the endzone after the receiver was called out of bounds before having full control of the ball.

Coleridge controlled the game for the remainder of the clock, putting an additional 12 points on the board in the fourth quarter with their running attack.

"I'm disappointed that we weren't able to score more," said Uldrich. "Our defense played pretty hard, but when we got behind we began to blitz a lot and that opened up some opportunities for Coleridge."

Running back Shawn Mahler rushed the ball 23 times for 91 yards to lead the Allen ground game. The long pass play of the night came on a connection between quarterback Brian Hansen and Craig Noe for 28 yards.

Jay Jones was among the Eagle's top defenders with 28 stops on the night. Shawn Mahler added 20 tackles and Shane Fahrenholz was responsible for 15 tackles. Steve Jones came up with the lone fumble recovery in the game and Mahler and Noe each nabbed a Bulldog pass for an interception.

The Eagles had an excellent night in the ball control department without a single fumble or pass interception.

Allen, now 2-4 overall, will stay on the road for their upcoming game when they travel to Wakefield this Friday night. "Wakefield is not a team that we will take lightly, we're going to have to be very tough but we hope to come up in the winning side in the game," Uldrich said.

Trojans suffer second loss to tough Beemer 38-14

The Wakefield gridgers were unable to handle a ranked and undefeated Beemer team Friday night as the Bobcats downed the Trojans 38-14 in Beemer.

The loss was only the second of the season for Wakefield, which now holds a 4-2 mark while Beemer continued their 1984 string of wins at six.

BEEMER WENT AHEAD early in the game when they scored on the second play of their first possession on a 66-yard run by their quarterback.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the second quarter, beginning with a Trojan score following a good defensive stand which forced Beemer to punt the ball. On the first play from scrimmage, junior halfback John Halverson took the ball 64 yards downfield to score, followed up with a successful two-point play on a pass from quarterback Brian Soderberg to receiver Kraig Dolph.

The Bobcats came back and put together a 51 yard drive on the next series to score a touchdown on a 16-yard quarterback keeper. They added a second touchdown in the quarter with a drive that was aided by a 50-yard dash by their running back and ended with a one-yard run by their quarterback for the six points.

Wakefield's quarterback Soderberg connected with Dolph again in the game for the Trojan's second score with seconds remaining in the half. A Beemer penalty helped to push Wakefield deeper into scoring territory and with two seconds left Halverson reached the endzone again on a one-yard run. The rushing conversion attempt for two points was no good and Beemer led at the half 24-14.

A TROJAN FUMBLE in the third period set off the Bobcats only score of the quarter as they recovered the ball and moved in for a one-yard scoring run by their quarterback.

Their final points came in the fourth period when they went downfield 40 yards to score on another short run by the quarterback.

Wakefield tallied 179 of their total 183 yard offense on the ground after a series of injuries seriously depleted their receiving corps.

Starting receivers Jason Erb and Mark Kubik were both sidelined with injuries suffered previously, while Brad Lund, who scored three touchdowns in last week's win, went out of the game in the second period with a deep bruise to the calf. "We had to move Kirt Roberts, who plays center, to a receiver position to help out," said Wakefield Coach Dennis Wilbur. "The Trojans ended the night with just four yards in the passing department."

"I'm not disappointed with the way both the offense and defense played...they played as well as they could under the conditions, but we could have executed the ball better."

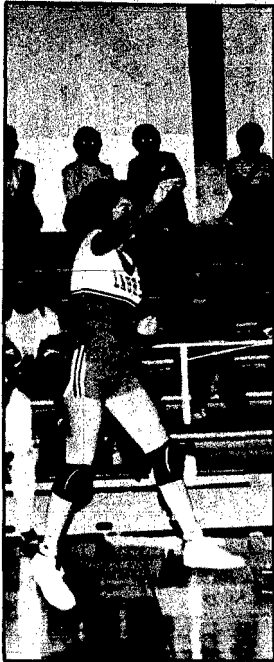

WILBUR ADDED THAT Wakefield had some mistakes which hurt them but "the kids played their hearts out." That play included a goaline stand which halted a 45-yard Bobcat drive inside the 10-yard line. Halverson was the Trojans top ground gainer with 87 yards on 13 carries for two touchdowns. Brian Soderberg added 66 yards to the total offense on 15 carries.

Defensively, Soderberg led the pack with 19 tackles, followed by Jeff Rose with 14 tackles and a fumble recovery and Kenneth Meyer with 13 stops. Wayne Newton made 11 tackles on the night while Brian Kubik added eight and John Halverson seven tackles. "Beemer was a bigger, physical team and they were able to just grind the ball out, which didn't give us much of a chance to rest any of our kids," Wilbur said.

Wakefield hopes to bounce back this Friday night when they host Bancroft-Rosalie for their homecoming contest. "Bancroft is a smaller team than Beemer, but they are a good ball club. We'll have to work on getting our offense back on track this week in practice."

Bears break Trojans in Clark division game

The Laurel-Concord volleyball team matched its strong floor play with a good mental attitude as they came from behind to defeat Wakefield in a Clark division volleyball match played Thursday night.

Wakefield took the first set of the match by a score of 15-11 after leading 9-0 early in the game. Laurel then came back in the following two sets to win by scores of 15-12 and 15-2.

"THE TURNING POINT for us came in between the first and second sets," said Bear's Coach Carol Manganaro. "We came into the huddle and we set a team goal of not letting Wakefield get the lead in either of the next two sets... and it was a goal we were able to reach. We're slow to start in our matches and we have to work on improving that aspect of our game."

Wakefield assistant Coach Arnold Cerny said that both Coach Schroeder and he felt that the Trojans played good in the first set, but it was a matter of team confidence that may have caused problems in the final two sets. "We're still a fairly young team," Cerny said. "We've talked a lot to the players about their confidence level, and we know it's an area we need to work on."

Laurel's scoring was led by sophomore Sara Adkins with 15 points on 16-18 serves with two aces. Senior Wendy Robson added nine points with 12-12 good serves from the line with one ace.

Robson had a strong night on the net as well with 11 spikes and three aces. Sophomore Gail Twilford and senior Daneen Rohde had eight spikes each and junior Michelle Joslin added seven.

Junior Donna Sherry and Adkins shared setting duties, each making good on 20-20 assists.

THE TROJANS WERE led in scoring by sophomore Stephanie Torczon with 19-20 good serves and four aces and junior Kristi Miller with 8-8 serves and one ace. Sophomore Marci Greve turned in a solid performance at the net, topping her teammates with 22-25 good spikes for eight aces. Junior Kristal Clay was 16-23 at the net for nine ace spikes.

Setting was handled by junior Julie Oswald and Torczon. Torczon was 44-49 in assists with four for ace spikes while Oswald had 23-26 assists for two aces.

The match was a key one for both teams in the Clark division of the Lewis and Clark conference, as both teams entered with one loss in divisional play. The win evened Laurel's record at 6-6 overall and boosted them to 4-1 in the conference.

Wakefield also went 10-6 on the year with the loss and now holds a 4-2 mark in division play.

IN THE JUNIOR varsity match, Laurel also came out the winner by scores of 9-15, 15-11 and 15-11. Scoring for the Bears was topped by Connie Hirschman with 11 points on 15-16 good serves and Lori Lindsay with 12-14 serves for 10 points.

Wakefield was led in their serving by Desiree Salmon with 11-14 good serves for seven aces.

Donna Sherry and Lynn Malchow were the setters for Laurel, while Tammy Nicholson and Tricia Schwarden helped their team in setting with 20-22 and 12-14 sets each.

Laurel-Concord's reserves moved to 2-4 overall and the Trojans B team is 4-5 on the season.

Wakefield won the C team game in two straight sets, 11-4 and 11-3. Both teams will be in action again this Tuesday night, Oct. 9.

Laurel will host the Winside Wildcats in another Clark division match, while Wakefield will go on the road to play at Walthill.

Winside handed defeat by Wynot on road

The Winside Wildcat netters ran into trouble on the road last Tuesday night when they were handed a Lewis and Clark conference defeat by Wynot.

The Wildcats were able to take the first set by a 15-13 margin, but went down in the match's closing sets 15-10 and 15-10.

LEADING SCORER for Winside was junior Kerri Leighton with nine points on 15-16 serves and one ace. Senior Missy Jensen also logged nine points on 10-13 serves with three aces.

Jensen also topped the spiking chart with 13-18 downed spikes for one ace. Senior Tammy Brudigan was 12-13 at the net with two ace spikes overall.

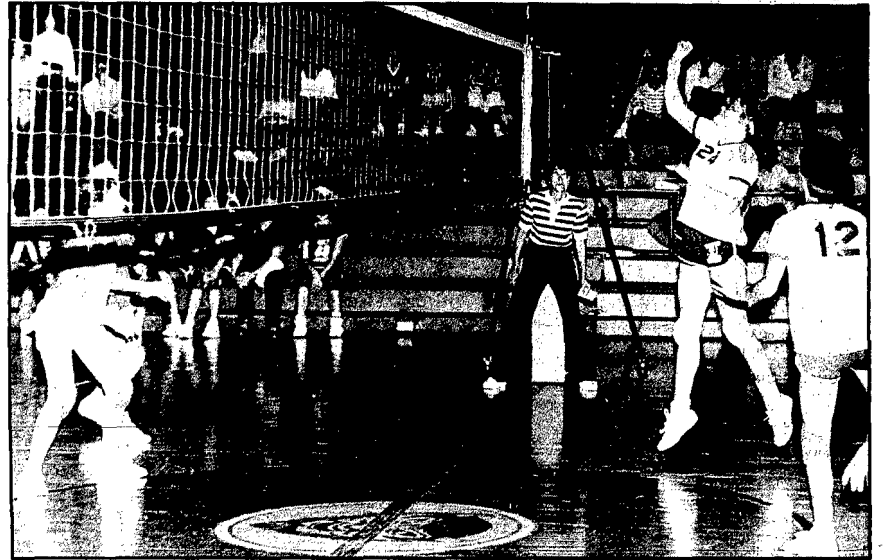

Leighton also handled the majority of the team's setting duties, with 29-34 good assists.

Missy Jensen and senior Trisha Topp played a good defensive game on the net with three and two ace blocks respectively.

Winside's B team also fell to Wynot in two sets, 17-15 and 15-4. Tricia Hartman led scoring with 8-8 good serves and three aces. Teammate Julie Warnemunde was the top setter with 12-13 good sets and Kay Meierhenry had 3-6 spikes at the net, all of them aces.

WYNOT DEFEATED THE Winside freshmen by scores of 11-8 and 11-5. Tricia Hartman led the frosh with six points in 8-10 serves with six ace serves and 13-16 good sets. Spiking was led by Ann Meierhenry with 6-7 spikes for two aces.

Winside's next contest is Tuesday evening, Oct. 9 when they travel to Laurel to tangle with the Laurel-Concord Bears in a Clark division volleyball match.

THE WAYNE-CARROLL eighth grade volleyball team ends up a successful spiking play in their win over Hartington Holy Trinity.

Wayne junior high splits with Hartington

Wayne Carroll's junior high volleyball team split in their latest home action Tuesday night when they hosted the Hartington Holy Trinity junior high team in a pair of matches.

The Blue Devils seventh grade team was defeated in their match by scores of 15-3 and 15-7 to move their record to 1-2 on the season.

THE TEAM'S LEADING server was Brenda Test with four points on 7-8 good serves.

Junior high Coach Sue Koch said that her team "was not ready mentally for the game, and looked entirely different out on the court than they had in the past." "Hartington gave the ball back to us and we weren't able to return it very well throughout the entire match."

The Wayne Carroll eighth grade team fared better against Hartington Holy Trinity, taking a three set victory to up their record to 3-1 on the year.

The Blue Devils led the first set 11-0 but Hartington took advantage of a communication breakdown and roared back to take a 15-13 opening set win. Wayne came back to win two straight games for the win, 15-13 and 15-11.

"We let down mentally in the first set, and suffered from a lack of communication," Coach Koch said. "In the second and third sets we really had to fight but were able to go out and get ahead and hold on."

LEADING THEIR scoring was Robin Luft with 22-23 serves and 17 points and Holly Paige with 11-12 good serves for nine points.

Kristy Hansen was the top setter with 16-21 good sets. Karmyn Koenig was 5-6 at the net in spiking and Dana Nelson was 6-11 with two aces.

"Our serving kept us in the match, we only missed eight serves in the entire three sets," said Koch. "I was also pleased with the number of times we were able to set up the ball and get a spike."

The junior high teams will be in action on Tuesday night, Oct. 9 when they meet up with Winside on the road.

Wildcats overpowered by Newcastle in 34-8 loss

The Winside gridders were unable to hold back a Newcastle offense which totaled almost 300 yards on their way to taking a 34-8 decision over the Wildcats in Newcastle Friday night.

The loss put Winside at 1-5 overall on the year while Newcastle remained undefeated at 6-0 and maintained their rank of tenth place in the Class D-1 eight-man football.

NEWCASTLE DOMINATED the scoreboard in the first half, going up 6-0 in the first period following an intercepted pass which Newcastle ran back 25 yards for the score. Their attempt at the two-point conversion failed.

In the second quarter, the Raiders again got on the board when they started a drive deep in their own territory and ended with a short run into the endzone for the touchdown. The Wildcats threatened to reach the endzone following a pass interception by Doug Mundil which he returned to the Raiders 25-yard line. On the first play

A 20-point scoring spree by Wausa in the closing moments of the fourth quarter spelled disaster for the Laurel-Concord football team as the Vikings posted a 34-6 win on Friday evening in Wausa.

Both teams fought their way through a tough defensive first half to a 0-0 half-time score before placing points on the board.

The Bears did threaten to score just before the half when they brought the ball downfield but gave up a fumble on the Wausa two-yard line to bring the period to a close.

FOLLOWING THE opening kickoff of the third period, Laurel showed up on the scoreboard with a touchdown after sophomore back Brent Haisch ran 61 yards for the score on a handoff. The try for the two-point conversion by senior back Jeff Curry was no good.

from scrimmage Winside was called on a motion penalty when eventually stalled their scoring attempt.

A 30-yard pass play gave Newcastle their third score of the game in the opening moments of the third period, but Winside came back to narrow the gap and move back into the thick of things later when they put together their best drive of the night, moving down the field 65 yards to score on a quarterback sneak by junior Doug Mundil.

He added the extra two-points on a run attempt.

THE TURNING POINT of the game came in the fourth quarter when a touchdown off a broken play on fourth down by Newcastle put the game out of reach for the Wildcats.

On fourth and 12 from their own 30-yard line the Newcastle quarterback attempted a pass, but instead came out of the pocket and broke free to come around and score the touchdown.

The Raiders put together another scoring drive in the closing moments of the half for their final touchdown.

Winside will host Hartington this Friday night for the Wildcat's homecoming contest, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

"THE KILLER FOR us proved to be when Newcastle scored on the broken play in the fourth quarter," said Winside Coach Mark Freburg. "We had just scored a touchdown and our defense was doing a good job of holding them back when they broke loose for the score."

Among the leader defenders were seniors Jeff Thies with 13 tackles and Mike Woerdemann with 10 stops.

Statistical leaders for Winside included senior Chris Jorgensen who carried the ball 19 times for 62 yards and quarterback Doug Mundil who rushed 12 times for 18 yards and one touchdown. Sophomore Mike Thies had six carries for 17 yards on the night.

"We had some mental mistakes on offense... there were some missed scoring opportunities that hurt also, but Newcastle proved to be a big and very strong team," said Freburg.

Fourth quarter spree lifts Wausa over Laurel Bears 34-6

The Vikings quickly evened the score and took the lead when they went with the kickoff and stormed 29 yards downfield to reach the endzone on a 29-yard pass play. Their two-point conversion was good and they took a 8-6 lead.

The Bears regained possession of the ball but were unable to put anything together and after a Laurel punt, Wausa went to the aid again and hit paydirt on a 51-yard pass play near the end of the period.

The string of three touchdowns which Wausa used to ice the game away came in the final four minutes of the fourth quarter, beginning with a drive downfield which resulted in a three-yard run for the touchdown.

Laurel went to the air in an attempt to close the gap but was intercepted two times, both eventually turning into Viking scores.

HAISCH LED ALL runners with 19 carries for 177 yards and the Bears lone touchdown for 61 yards.

Pass receiving was handled by senior end Scott Rath with two catches for 28 yards both off the wingback option from Brent Haisch. Mike Granquist, also a senior, had a pair of receptions for 22 yards total. Throwing the ball was senior signal caller Kyle Daberkow with 4 completions on 12 attempts for 36 yards.

Frosh Joedy Cunningham and senior Mike Jonas were the leading tacklers for the Bears with eight stops each. Junior backs Scott Liewer and Randy Prescott each added seven stops. The lone fumble recovery for Laurel came from sophomore lineman Rick Kruid.

Laurel will face a visiting Rock County-Bassett team in their next outing this Friday at the Laurel football field, beginning at 7:30

Frosh 26-0 winners over Hartington CC

A strong defensive performance combined with an offensive rushing display to give the Wayne-Carroll Blue Devils a 26-0 win over Hartington Cedar Catholic on Thursday night in Hartington.

The Wayne frosh faltered their points primarily on the ground, ending the game with 119 yards rushing, compared with 33 yards in the air.

THE BLUE DEVILS scored just one of their touchdowns in the first half, that coming on a five yard pass from quarterback Rob Rabe to Jason Liska. The pass ended a drive that began following a fumble recovery by Wayne on the Hartington 45-yard line. The run for the two point conversion was no good.

Neither team scored in the remainder of the half and the Blue Devils led 6-0 at intermission. Wayne was able to open their scoring up more in the third period, when Bill Landanger took the opening kickoff and ran it back 87 yards for a touchdown. "Bill had a very good run, he got some good blocks and moved to get behind the wall and just went downfield," said Duane Blomenkamp, freshman football coach.

Robbi Gambie reached the end zone later in the same period when he scored on a two-yard run to cap a 43-yard drive. The pass attempt for the extra point failed and Wayne's lead remained at 20-0 going into the final quarter.

IN THEIR BEST drive of the day, the Blue Devils began with a 20-yard punt return by Marc Rahn and ended with a 30-yard dash by Jason Liska to add their finishing points to the scoreboard.

"We played good defense against Hartington, which makes the game a whole lot easier to play," said Blomenkamp. "The kids understand what they are trying to do out there on the field in defense and they are continuing to be aggressive."

He added that Hartington never really threatened to score the entire game, with their deepest penetration into Wayne territory coming at the end of the second quarter when they moved to the Blue Devil 40-yard line. Jason Liska led all rushers with 85 yards on 12 carries. Quarterback Rob Rabe put the ball up seven times with four complements for 33 total yards. Leading the defense was Bill Liska with nine stops and one fumble recovery. Jason Liska and Tom Bair each added eight tackles. Other fumble recoveries came from Brad Bush, Stuart Rethwisch, Marc Rahn and Aaron Woehler.

"WE HAD SOME penalties on offense, but everyone played really hard in the game." He also cited that the two-week layoff from the last game also had some effect, and the team didn't look quite as sharp as they have in the past.

The freshman will take their 4-0 record into play this Thursday, Oct. 11 when they host O'Neill in a game beginning at 5 p.m. at the practice field.

Harriers compete at Bloomfield invite

The Wayne-Carroll cross country team wrapped up its regular portion of the 1984 season with competition at the Bloomfield Invitational on Friday afternoon.

Freshman Matt Hillier topped the four Wayne runners which accounted for the team's scoring with a time of 19:39 and a 26th place finish overall.

JUNIOR KURT Runestad was the next Wayne runner to cross the line, finishing in 29th place with a time of 20:05. Jeff Simpson, a sophomore, placed 34th overall with a time of 20:25 while teammate sophomore Tim Lohrborg was 35th with a clocking of 20:29.

Tim Griess, another sophomore, ran the course in a time of 21:17 for a 38th place finish, but was not included in team scoring.

Senior runner Chris Hillier didn't participate in the run due to a prior school commitment.

The winning time for the 5,000 meter was 16:50 run by Duffy Meyer of Wisner-Pilger. The course record for the Bloomfield Invitational was set by Wayne-

Carroll runner Doug Proett with a time of 16:42 in 1980.

There were a total of 11 teams competing overall with nine schools finishing in the team scoring. The meet was won by Crofton with 32 points, followed North Bend Central with 54 points and Bloomfield with 57.

OTHER FINISHERS in order were Wisner-Pilger with 61 points, Hartington Cedar Catholic with 62 points, O'Neill with 87 points, Norfolk Catholic with 116 points, Wayne with 124 points and Laurel with 129 points overall. Runners from Plainview and Stuart were also among those in the field.

"We had a very young team competing in this invitational," said cross country Coach Harold Maciejewski. "This was a good experience for them to have the chance to run with older and more experienced runners, this invitational gave them a strong field of competition."

The Blue Devils harriers will close out the season, this Thursday at Columbus Scotus in the District cross country meet.

Landowner deer permits deadline

Landowners wishing to apply for a landowner deer hunting permit must have their permit application form and a check for $10 in Game and Parks Commission Headquarters in Lincoln by 5 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 15, according to Ken Johnson, Chief of the Commission's Wildlife Division.

Birds of Prey Week October 7-13

President Ronald Reagan has declared the week of Oct. 7-13 National Birds of Prey Conservation Week to focus public attention on the value of birds of prey in wildlife communities and to stimulate support for management of their habitats.

Along with that, a portion of the funding raised through Nebraska's new Non-Game Wildlife Check-off program, which will allow taxpayers to designate a portion of their state income tax refund for use in management of non-game species, will help to finance management programs and create and enhance habitat for all wildlife species, including birds of prey.

Turkey permits still available

Hunters wishing to obtain a permit for Nebraska's fall shotgun turkey hunting season may still do so as some areas still have a few permits remaining.

The area and number of permits remaining as of Sept. 27 included Niobrara Unit (early season), 104; Niobrara Unit (late season), 452; Round Top Unit, 581; and Wildcat Unit (47).

Permits will be issued on a first-come, first-serve basis from Game and Parks Commission Headquarters located at 2200 North 33rd, Lincoln 68503.

Resident permits are $15, while non-resident permits are $35. A check for the proper amount of the permit must accompany the permit application, available from any Game and Parks Commission office or from any of 1200 permit vendors across the state.

Eight members of Wayne-Carroll High School's Senior Building Construction Class have been busy during the recent month putting a roof over a deck area on a Wayne home. The group did all the complete frame work, support and shingling as well as finish underneath the roof project, repairing some of the deck work. They also plan to do some cement work in the back yard of the home.

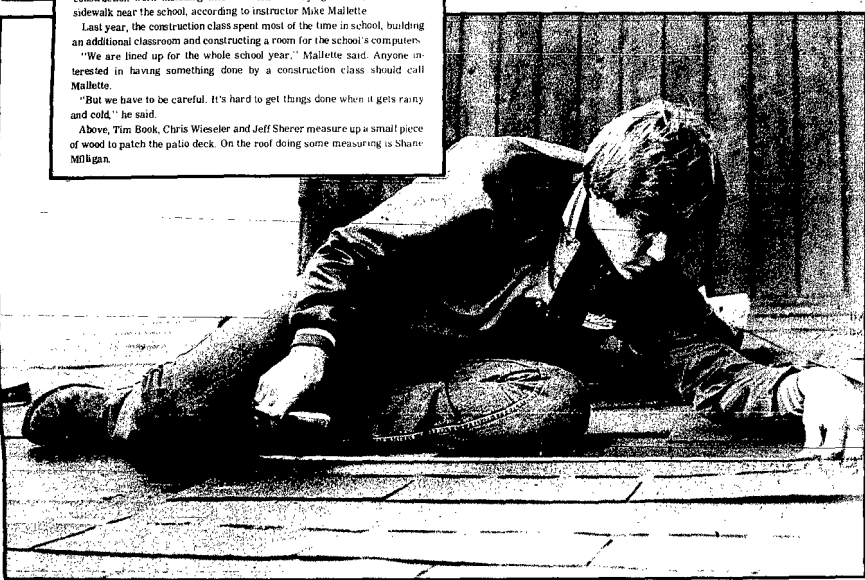

Members of the building construction class include Tim Book, Lance DeWald, Rod Lutt, Shane Milligan, Curt Nelson, Jeff Sherer and Chris Wieseler.

Nine different projects have been set up for this year involving a variety of construction work including interior work and laying some cement for a sidewalk near the school, according to instructor Mike Mallette.

Last year, the construction class spent most of the time in school, building an additional classroom and constructing a room for the school's computers. "We are lined up for the whole school year," Mallette said. Anyone interested in having something done by a construction class should call Mallette.

"But we have to be careful. It's hard to get things done when it gets rainy and cold," he said.

Above, Tim Book, Chris Wieseler and Jeff Sherer measure up a small piece of wood to patch the patio deck. On the roof doing some measuring is Shane Milligan.

ANNA SEZ

Hi Everyone:
Hope everyone is enjoying this beautiful fall weather with the trees slowly changing into their beautiful fall colors.

A warm welcome is extended to Estu Blodgett of Tunkton and Shirley Wagner of Norfolk. It is a pleasure having you and we hope you enjoy your stay with us.

We wish to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Gus Peterson who passed away Sept. 20 at Providence Medical Center.

Also our deepest sympathy goes out to the family of Dick Dean of California. His wife Dee was a care staff member of this home for six years. Cliff Dean has returned to the Home after a lengthy stay in the Veterans Hospital in Omaha. Nellie Richardson is hospitalized in Clarkson Hospital in Omaha. Hannah Gumbel is in the Providence Medical Center. Mrs. Gus Peterson has moved to the Norfolk home.

Schedule of church services: Oct. 7, Grace Lutheran; 18, Faith Baptist; 21, Wesleyan; 28, Evangelical Free Church.

There is a short church service Tuesday morning in the dining room.

We have quite a variety of entertainment for the week.

On Monday afternoon there are movies. On the first and fourth Thursdays the Senior Citizens come to entertain us. On Tuesdays and Saturdays there is Rhythm Band and Sing-a-Long.

On the second Monday of each month the St. Mary's Ladies come with cookies and bars to share with us.

On Wednesday there are cards and dominoes.

On the third Thursday, the 18th is our birthday party for the month. The birthday song will be sung and we will have treats. Four residents will be seated at our honored table for October: Howard Robinson, Oct. 5; Steve Kjolman, Oct. 10; Bertha Jones, Oct. 6; and Pauline Strubrock, Oct. 6.

On Wednesday, Oct. 3 there was communion for 8 Presbyterians — Mr. and Mrs. Paul Minos, Minnie Ulrich, Mable Lovidge, Mary Miller, Jessie Barr, Rose Melzer and Hazel Smith. St. Paul communion is Tuesday, Oct. 16.

We have bingo on Friday afternoons. The next Care Center visit will be at a later date to be given by the Presbyterian Ladies.

Until next time — make more friends, but keep the old: one is a silver and other is gold.
