Computers: Replacing the old with the new

One might say the Burroughs L-9000 has fulfilled its duties with the Wayne City Clerk's office and is heading out to pasture. In its place will be a computer terminal from CompuService of Mankato, Minn. — a computer system which had been approved for purchase in September by the Wayne City Council.

Prior to when Norm Melton took on the responsibilities in 1979 of city clerk's office, utility bill mailings and accounting were handled by a firm in Columbus, Nebraska. "This created lots of problems," Melton said, for both the city and the taxpayers paying for the service.

Realizing this, the Wayne city administrator campaigned to remove this type of service from Columbus and instead install a $26,000 Burroughs L-9000 machine. At the same time, city officials were establishing a new budget system, new financial system and adding new personnel.

The city council, in October of last year, began working with David DiMartino, a consultant with the Center of Urban Research at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, to bring a computer system to the city offices.

With a computer, the city clerk's office can establish a limit as to the average of what utilities are used by the taxpayer each month.

"We can't do that right now because we haven't the people and time, plus a machine that would be capable of doing such a project," Melton said.

Shooting being investigated

No arrests or charges have been made as of Wednesday morning in a shooting incident which happened at Winside Friday evening that injured a 26-year-old Sioux City man.

Metric Motors, which is owned and operated by John Osborne of Winside. "No arrests have been made to determine what or if any charges will be filed," Ensz said Wednesday morning.

Saunders concerned about several area bridges

Sidney Saunders, County Highway Superintendent, has reported to the Federal Highway Administration's concern that all bridges meet the national standard.

Highway Administration officials make their inspection. BRIDGE WEIGHT limit signs must also be posted before the inspection. The problem plaguing the county is theft and vandalism of signs.

NSEA backs candidates to tune of $100,000

The Nebraska State Education Association has spent more than $40,000 on state political races this year, and has another $60,792 in cash to spend before the Nov. 6 general election, according to reports filed last week with the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission.

The top beneficiary of NSEA contributions to date is Jerry Chizek of Omaha, a Democrat who is seeking the 31st District legislative seat in a race with Republican Chuck Sigerson. According to the NSEA report, Chizek has received $3,610 in cash contributions and in-kind services.

Other candidates who have received major contributions from NSEA, the office they are seeking and the amounts: Max Larsen of Lincoln, 1st District seat on the state Board of Education, $3,500; Senator Lorán Schmit of Bellwood, 23rd District legislative seat, $2,500; Bert Evans of Bloomfield, 19th District legislative seat, $2,500; Linda Garvin of Omaha, 3rd District legislative seat, $2,000; Judy Larsen of Hooper, 15th District legislative seat, $1,000.

The 19,000-member teachers association was the biggest spender in state races in 1980 and 1982, and appears headed in the same direction this year.

Whether the $100,000 represented by funds already contributed plus the cash on hand is the total that NSEA will spend on election this year is unclear. NSEA officials have backed off a January estimate of $175,000 in political expenditures this year, and they have declined to estimate how much the group will spend.

Regional jails

The Legislature's Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee is drafting a bill to promote the use of regional jails in the state.

The interest in the committee is timely. Twenty-two Nebraska counties are without their own jails, and others are having difficulty affording the cost of meeting minimum standards.

Nearly 13 percent of the county jails in the country are operating under court orders, the result of a dramatic increase in civil rights lawsuits. Twenty percent are party to pending lawsuits.

Committee Chairman Dave Landis of Lincoln, chairman of the Legislature's Government, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee, acknowledges that the regional jail concept is controversial.

Current contracting arrangements of prisoners already create some de facto regional jails in Nebraska, and Landis hopes that will minimize the opposition from county officials in the 1985 session.

In a recent article in a magazine that circulates among county officials, Landis wrote that he received advice from a county official not to use the term "regional jail" when discussing the proposal. "That term rubs people the wrong way," Landis was told.

Jokingly, Landis suggested that to avoid controversy, the committee may avoid the "regional jail" designation in favor of "state-assisted cooperative detention centers."

Lt. Governor Don McGinley has entered a treatment program for alcoholism at the Eisenhower Betty Ford Center in Rancho Mirage, Ca.

According to a statement issued by the governor's office, McGinley's treatment is expected to last until about the end of October. He entered the treatment facility on Oct. 1.

Kerrey Chief of Staff W. Don Nelson said in an interview, that the length of McGinley's recovery period is uncertain.

"We expected a full and complete recovery, and for Don to return to his duties," Nelson said. "Whether that comes in 30 days, 60 days or 90 days will be up to Don McGinley, his family and his doctors."

Kerrey said he supports McGinley's decision to seek treatment. "Don McGinley is one of the most dedicated and committed persons I know. I feel for him as he confronts an extremely difficult challenge. All we can be is supportive and confident that Don will complete this first portion of treatment successfully."

McGinley, 64, was elected in 1982 with Kerrey on the Democratic ticket. He had previously been a member of the Legislature and served in the U.S. House of Representatives for two years.

Speaking up for women

Women's issues and women's groups have received substantial attention in the past decade. Organizations have been founded to conduct research on women, to create networks for women, and to press for changes in the way women have been treated in society. This work has generated many headlines and has been, on balance, extremely valuable for women in both the home and the workplace.

When the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs celebrated the first National Business Women's Week in 1928, things were somewhat different. Only a small percentage of working age American women were employed outside the home (compared to more than 60 percent today). And BPW was almost alone then, when it spoke up to change laws and conditions for working women. But the organization persisted, growing from the few women who founded it in 1919 to the 155,000 members nationwide that it has today. And BPW is still speaking up on the issues that will have an impact on tomorrow's working women: issues like pension reform, comparable worth and an end to insurance discrimination. This National Business Women's Week, the 56th, we should take an opportunity to salute all the women who are in the workforce today, doing so much to create good lives for themselves and those they care about. But this year, let's also recognize the women who've been working for years, here in Wayne and all across the country, on behalf of working women.

Congressional spending bill is good news for first district residents

Unable to meet its scheduled Oct. 4 adjournment, Congress spent most of last week working on a major spending bill that will keep the government running. Just off the House floor last Wednesday night, I had a chance to review several huge stacks of paper that make up the so-called continuing resolution. Within its pages are several key items that I have been working on most of the year.

Crime control package

Of the many bills affecting my constituents that were pending before the 98th Congress, few are as important as the package of crime control measures that were finally included in the continuing resolution. Here are a few of the highlights:

- Provides that a mandatory five-year prison term (without possibility of parole or probation) must be imposed for the use of a firearm in the commission of a federal crime. A second offense would subject the convicted to a mandatory ten-year prison term;
- Provides federal penalties for counterfeiting credit cards and for computer fraud and abuse;
- Improves guidelines for setting bail in cases involving dangerous offenders, and permits pre-trial detention based on danger to the community;
- Narrows the insanity defense, shifting the burden of proof to the defendant, and establishes commitment procedures for persons acquitted by reasons of insanity;
- And provides federal aid for helping victims of crime.

Lincoln receive federal assistance

Lincoln is scheduled to receive $1.8 million for its Railroad Transportation Safety by District for construction on K and L Streets. Lincoln will receive about one-tenth of the $15 million appropriated for these projects across the nation.

Lincoln was one of the first projects authorized under the RTSD program in 1973. It was selected in large part because of the number of major dangerous railway street conflicts within the city. I have been involved in efforts to secure the necessary federal share to keep Lincoln's program moving forward since I came to Congress in 1979.

Nebraska initial USDA credit program

Agriculture Secretary John Block notified the last week that Nebraska will be one of five states in the initial phase of a program in which the Farmers Home Administration will contract with commercial and farm credit system lenders for assistance in servicing FmHA farmer loans.

FmHA will contract with the banks, which will in turn provide direct assistance in loan servicing. This will enable FmHA county offices to accomplish other loan processing in a more timely manner. Overall, the FmHA borrower will be better served.

Bill provides mileage history Legislation designed to curb odometer fraud

The U.S. Senate Wednesday night approved U.S. Senator Jim Exon's legislation (S. 1407) to curb odometer fraud on used motor vehicles. The bill was approved by unanimous consent in the Senate.

"This legislation will help save consumers from being defrauded out of millions of dollars each year through the sale of vehicles which have had the odometers turned back. In Nebraska alone odometer fraud is costing consumers between $5 to $10 million annually," Exon said.

The legislation would help ensure that the mileage of used vehicles is the actual mileage and that the odometer of a car or truck to be recorded on the ownership title at the time the vehicle is sold. In addition, it would require ownership titles to be printed on intaglio paper, which is used for bank notes, to make it difficult to alter mileage numbers.

"The turning back of odometers to a lower mileage fraudulently pushes up the price of a vehicle by as much as $750. The legislation will create a record from which odometer fraud can be traced and the violators can be prosecuted," Exon said.

Annual vehicle registration forms would also be required to list the mileage and the new owner of a used vehicle would have to provide the previous owner's registration when filing for an ownership title to verify accurate mileage.

"The legislation would provide an accurate mileage history of vehicles that could be traced from the time the vehicle is new," Exon said. "It would make it very difficult for odometer fraud to continue, since there would be a trail of vehicle's mileage and owners," he added.

During Senate hearings on the bill it was revealed that "thousands of titles are being moved from state to state daily to disguise previous ownership and true odometer readings," according to witness testimony. "Such activity is called laundering the title."

"Titles are being shipped in boxes, briefcases, in private planes, and cars, and through the postal system. This activity is highly organized and highly profitable. Thousands of these cars are being wholesaled individually and at auctions around the country every week," according to testimony given at the bill's hearing earlier this week.

A voice for working women

To the editor:

For more than 60 years, clubs of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., have been working to improve working conditions and job opportunities for women in communities throughout the country. Since 1922, when the BPW was started here in Wayne, our community has been one of those benefiting from BPW's work.

This year, from Sept. 15 through Nov. 30, BPW will be conducting a membership outreach effort directed at women who may not be familiar with our organization and activities.

Today's working women make a significant contribution to the economy and to the fabric of our society. BPW offers working women an opportunity to increase their personal and professional skills, while offering a support network in which they can share experiences. It is also an effective voice for working women on issues such as pension reform, comparable worth, and insurance discrimination.

By running the editorial, you will help us reach the women who might benefit from BPW. If there are questions relating to it, or our program in general, please don't hesitate to contact Lil Surber at 375-1207. We are most appreciative of your help.

Lil Surber
President of Wayne BPW

City of Wayne can be proud

To the editor:

The City of Wayne can be very proud to know that they placed in the top 10 in all of the cities in donations to the Great NPT Auction. A total of $6,820 in items donated placed Wayne in fourth place.

Thanks to the great help of the NPT auction volunteers in Wayne. This lets the people of Nebraska know we care, and is a great place to live.

The volunteers are Darlene Dunklau, Paul and Bernice Peterson, Duane Schroeder, Merrill Hale, Melva Fernau and Don Boyce.

A total of 53 hours (nine nights) were spent on the air and over 3,000 volunteers participated.

The City of Wayne deserves the big thank you from NPT auction.

ELECTION PREVIEW

EDITOR'S NOTE

Nebraskans will be voting on four issues when they go to the General Election polls on Nov. 6. So that voters can better understand these important proposed changes to the state Constitution, the Nebraska Press Association in cooperation with this newspaper has prepared a series of reports on each of the proposed issues. Each report deals with a single issue, briefly defining it, explaining its purpose and finally stating the arguments for and against it.

This is the second report in the series.

2. DISCONTINUANCE OF THE PRIVATE REPRIMAND OF JUDGES.

"Constitutional amendment to change provisions and procedures relating to disciplinary actions against judges."

FURIOUS: Under the Constitution as now written, the Commission on Judicial Qualifications, the panel which oversees the conduct of the 120 state court judges, issues a reprimand to a judge without ever making its decision public. It is a private matter between the judge and the commission. The amendment would require the commission, when it establishes that a reprimand is in order, to issue a statement to the public about the reprimand.

SUPPORT: Nebraska voters are expected to cast knowledgeable votes on the retention of judges. The current system of disciplining judges, supporters of the amendment say, deprives voters of essential information about the conduct of the judge on whose retention they must cast a ballot. In addition, the current system of discipline affords to judges a privilege of confidentiality which they, as public servants, aren't entitled to.

OPPOSITION: In an appearance before a legislative committee earlier this year, Chief Justice Norman Krivosha, who is also chairman of the Judicial Qualifications Commission, said the amendment is unnecessary and undesirable. The commission currently issues an annual report of its reprimands which describes the judicial behavior which warranted the sanction, but omits the name of the judge to whom it is issued. Krivosha said the reprimand typically deals with a minor breach of courtroom decorum or failure to file documents with the Supreme Court in a timely fashion. The reprimands, because they are a private matter, are not currently subject to the cumbersome requirements of due process. Passage of the amendment would require that due process principles, such as a public hearing and right of appeal, be applied.

Schroeder-Straight wed in rural Dewitt ceremony

Jenise Lynee Schroeder and Douglas Wayne Straight, both of Shickley, were married Oct. 6 in a double ring ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, rural Dewitt.

The Rev. Terry Nielsen performed the 7 o'clock rites. The pews were decorated with heart-shaped wheat weavings and accented with copper bows. Brass aisle candles lined the church, and two heart-shaped olive candelabras adorned the chancel.

Decorating the altar was a fall centerpiece of cushion mums, bronze daisies and gold pixie carnations accented with wheat. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Schroeder of rural Dewitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Straight of rural Wayne.

JOANN HENKE and Wanda Rademacher, both of Clatonia, provided the wedding music of piano and organ duets. Vocalists were Scott Spilker of Hattam, Pastor Terry Nielsen, and the church choir. Musical selections included "God, a Woman and a Man," and "Thy Will Be Done."

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in an ivory gown of sheer organza over bridal taffeta with satin ribbon and Chantilly lace accents. The fitted bodice gave the gown a Victorian look with a high lace ruffled neckline and V net insert.

The leg-of-mutton sleeves were of Chantilly and Cluny lace. The skirt had a dropped waist and was edged with a wide Cluny lace ruffle that formed a medium cathedral train.

The bride wore an ivory headpiece of schiffli lace adorned with pearls and Aurora Borealis stones. The veiling was fingertip length with an elbow-length blusher and was edged with Swedish embroidery with Chantilly lace motifs.

She carried a diamond shaped bouquet of Belinda roses, gold pixie carnations and large rust lilies.

ELLEN WOHLERS of Lincoln was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Cindy Wiese of DeWitt, and Candace Heindryckx of Lincoln, sisters of the bride. Kay Wollenburg of DeWitt, and Cathy Wintz of Bloomington, Ind.

They wore gowns of antique ivory clip lace over apricot taffeta designed with sabrina necklines, melon sleeves and matching satin ribbon.

They carried heart-shaped bouquets of bronze cushion mums and gold pixie carnations edged with candlelight lace.

Flower girl was Abbie Wollenburg of Omaha.

SERVING AS best man was Bob Elwell of Millard. Groomsman were Rick Straight of Wayne, and Don Straight of Sioux City, brothers of the bridegroom, Tom Straight of Wichita, Kan., Galen Gerdes of Grand Island, and Monte Lowe of Sioux City.

The bridegroom was attired in an ivory western style tuxedo, and his attendants wore brown western style tuxedos.

Ushering guests into the church were Rod Hieronymus of Chicago, Ill., Greg Heindryckx of Lincoln, Rodney Wiese of DeWitt, Ron Elwell of Lincoln, Darrell Gerdes of Ainsworth, and Dave Hix of Wayne.

Ring bearer was Ryan Wiese of DeWitt.

LIGHTING CANDLES were Jennifer Brinkmeyer of DeWitt and Jean Mahon of Lincoln.

The bride's personal attendant was Tammy Gerdes of Grand Island. Presiding at the guest book was Mary Stokebrand of Lincoln, and handing out programs were Tammy Straight of Sioux City and Laura Straight of Wayne.

Gift bearers were Heather and April Brinkmeyer of DeWitt, and Sharon Hieronymus of Clatonia. Glenda Hieronymus of Kearney, Janis Wollenburg, and Linda and Curt Thompson, all of Lincoln, and Tamara and Greg Weers of Diller were in charge of gifts.

Hosts at the church were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schroeder of DeWitt and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Craun of Primghar, Iowa.

A RECEPTION and wedding dance were held at the Clatonia Community Center. Presiding at the guest book was Sondra Harrod of Palatine, Ill.

Reception hosts were Mr. and Mrs. John Hieronymus of Clatonia and Mr. and Mrs. Don Koenig of Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Straight

The wedding cake was cut and served by Virginia Stokebrand of DeWitt and Virginia Dranselka of Wayne. Viola Wollenburg of DeWitt, poured, and Doris Hamilton of Daytona Beach, Fla. served punch.

Serving the bride's table were Carol McGuire, Kathy Pfeiffer and Teresa Dooley, all of Omaha, and Rose Mammen of Plymouth, Minn.

Helping serve the food were Dorl Rees of Carroll, Verna Creamer of Wayne, Evelyn Straight of Wichita, Kan., Arlene Blobaum of Fairbury, Dianna Hieronymus of Hattam, and Darlene Pohlmann, Marilee Brinkmeyer, Theresa Scheiding, Pat Wollenburg and Barb Pohlmann, all of DeWitt.

Reception for Kwankins

The Rev. and Mrs. Anderson Kwankin of Allen invite area friends to attend a reception honoring their son and daughter-in-law, Vinit and Stacey Kwankin, who were married Oct. 12 at the Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Omaha.

The reception will be held Saturday, Oct. 20 from 3 to 6 p.m. at the Allen United Methodist Church. Helping host the event are the Allen and Dixon United Methodist Churches.

No written invitations are being issued.

baptisms

Justin Adam Davis

Baptismal services for Justin Adam Davis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Davis of Carroll, were held Sunday, Oct. 14 at the Methodist Church with the Rev. Keith Johnson officiating. Justin's godparents are Mrs. Randy Willis and Kevin Jaeger, both of Winside, and Jeff Davis of Carroll.

The Rick Davises entertained at dinner in the church fellowship hall following the service.

Guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Keith Johnson and Bethany of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. George Jaeger and Kevin, Mr. and Mrs. Gotthilf Jaeger, Mr. and Mrs. Randy Willis and Alicia, and Mr. and Mrs. Brad Jaeger and family, all of Winside; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Davis and Jeff, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall, Mandi and Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Davis and Wendy, Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morris and Pat, all of Carroll.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jones of Norfolk were afternoon guests.

Adam Lackin Flies

Adam Lackin Flies, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Flies, was baptized Oct. 14 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Wakefield. The Rev. Bruce Schut officiated, and sponsors were Terrie William, Rich Kaufman, and Robin and Kurt Harman.

Dinner guests afterward in the home of Adam's parents were Terrie William, Rich Kaufman, Pastor Schut, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hollman.

Wayne zone holds LWML fall rally

"Bringing in the Sheaves" was the theme of the recent Wayne Zone Lutheran Womens Missionary League (LWML) Fall Rally.

Hosting the annual event in the Carroll city auditorium was St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Carroll.

Opening devotions were led by the Rev. Mark Miller, host pastor; Mrs. Orville Nelson, zone president, conducted the business meeting.

Speaker during the afternoon was the Rev. Melvin Witt, secretary of World Relief of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Topic of his presentation was "Christian Hope in a Hungry World."

INTERNATIONAL LWML Convention will be held July 22-25, 1985 in Ames, Iowa. The 1986 Nebraska North District Convention will be in Atkinson.

The first district mile project of $5,000 to Camp Luther has been paid.

Closing devotions were led by Martha Prochaska.

The 1985 Spring Workshop will be at Immanuel Lutheran Church, Laurel, and the 1985 Fall Rally will be at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Concord.

Falk-Doffin wed

Allen secures division with win

The Allen Eagles clinched the top spot in the Lewis division of the Lewis and Clark conference on Tuesday night when they won a two set match on their home court from the Homer Lady Knights.

Allen holds an 11-3 record following the win and a 6-1 record in their division. They will match up with either Wynot or Laurel of the Clark division in the championship game of the Lewis and Clark conference on Monday night, Oct. 22 at the site of the Clark winner at 7:30 p.m.

Allen will also participate in the Hartington tournament on Saturday, Oct. 20.

IN THE WIN over Homer, the Eagle netters had to come back from deficits of 11-7 and 14-10 to take the first set 16-14. They had an easier time in the matches second set, winning by a score of 15-7.

Senior Tammy Kavanaugh was 10-10 in serving with two ace serves and eight points. Equating her scoring was Mary Oswald who was 8-9 for three aces and eight points.

Oswald led her teammates in spiking with 15-18 downed spikes for eight aces. Junior Denise Magnuson added two ace spikes with a 4-4 performance at the net. Shelly Boyle was 7-9 in spiking with two aces and Diane Magnuson ended the night 6-8 with one ace.

Kavanaugh had a good night setting, making 20 of 21 sets while Pam Heckathorn also gave a good showing with 17-18 good assists.

Diane Magnuson had two ace blocks at the net, and Oswald and Denise Magnuson each added one block.

"We let a little of the game pressure get to us," said Allen Coach Gary Troth. "Homer was also a team that had good serving, and that kept our offense from getting in rhythm at first. Once we were able to handle their serving, the offense got going and we were OK."

Troth added that he felt his team did a good job of controlling the net throughout the game.

THE ALLEN RESERVES also won against Homer by scores of 15-0, 6-15 and 15-11.

Leading scorers was Kristen Hansen with 11 points and Kristi Chase with nine points.

Barb Hansen was the top spiker with 8-11 spikes going down, five for aces, while Lana Erwin also had a good game, with 6-7 spikes for three aces.

Setting leader was LeAnn McDonald with 13-14 good assists.

Homer was able to defeat the Allen freshman team in three sets, 11-6, 8-11 and 12-10.

Trojans lose match to Bancroft

The Wakefield volleyball team lost a match on the road Tuesday night when they were defeated by the Bancroft-Rosalie Panthers in two sets.

The Trojans were downed in two sets by scores of 15-9 and 15-13. The loss evened their record at 7-7 overall and left their division record unchanged at 4-2.

JUNIOR JULIE Oswald was the leading server with 6-7 good serves while sophomore Stacey Kuhl was 5-6 from the line and senior Darla Hartman was 4-5 in serving. As a team, Wakefield served 32-42 for 76 percent.

"Our serving hurt us in the game, combined with the fact that Bancroft is a very hard-serving volleyball team," said Mary Schroeder, Trojan head volleyball coach. "The team's passing efficiency was low and that made it difficult to set up our offensive attack."

Oswald had 24 of 26 good sets in the match, while teammate Stephanie Torczon was 10-12 in assists.

Marci Greve had the best hitting performance in the game, with 8-9 spikes for four aces. Kristal Clay added 7-13 spikes for two aces and Roni Starzl was 8-8 at the net with a pair of ace spikes.

THE TROJANS RESERVE team needed three sets to get past the Panthers by scores of 15-10, 10-15 and 15-9.

Susie McQuistan helped her team's effort with 19-25 spikes from the net for eight aces and 6-7 good serves for five aces.

Suzanne Stelling was 9-11 in serving with three aces.

Setting was led by Tammy Nicholson with 13-15 spikes for five aces and Kris Coble with 11-14 assists for three ace spikes.

The Wakefield freshman team was also a winner, taking sets of 7-11, 11-9 and 11-2 for the victory.

Five straight wins

WSC netters take title at Midland tourney

The past weekend was a highly successful one for the Wayne State Lady Wildcat volleyball team as they picked up five straight wins on their way to taking the championship at the Midland Lutheran College volleyball tournament in Fremont on Saturday.

The Lady Cats downed Platte College in two sets in the final match to take the title. Other teams participating included Dordt College, Midland College A and B teams, the University of South Dakota, Dana College and Northeast Technical Community College.

WAYNE OPENED THEIR tournament play with a 12-15, 15-9, 16-14 victory over Platte's Lady Raiders, and followed that up with a straight sets of 15-7, 15-7 to down Dordt College.

The Lady Wildcats ended their pool play with a 8-15, 15-2 and 16-14 match over the Midland B team and advanced to single-elimination competition with USD, Platte and Midland's A team.

In the first round, Wayne had to fight off a tough attack by the University of South Dakota to win in three sets, 15-9, 14-16 and 15-9. In what turned out to be a rematch for the championship, the Lady Wildcats held off a scrappy Platte College team in two sets by scores of 15-12 and 15-11.

Junior setter Jill Zeiss was named to the all-tournament team for her performance which included 42 assists on 44 attempts, 18 digs and 43-45 good serving attempts for 26 points.

OTHER SCORING leaders were Mitch Esters, who was 46-52 from the serving line for 37 points and Mary Kay Becker with 35 points in 65-70 serve attempts.

Becker also led Wayne State with 20 good spikes, 17 for kills and 5-pair of dinks. She was followed by Esters with 14 downed spikes on 20 good hits and Diana Asay with 12 ace spikes.

The blocking game was headed up by Asay with nine stops at the net, Esters with seven blocks and Beth Erickson with five blocks.

Linda Bode and Sue Walter also saw considerable action at the setter position throughout the day. Bode was a perfect 39-39 in assists, while Walter was 24-26 in sets.

"THERE WERE TIMES when our passing didn't quite move the ball up well, but when it did our offensive play went very smoothly," said Lady Wildcat Coach Marilyn Strate. "Defensively, I would have to say that our team was probably the best blocking team at the tournament."

The Lady Cats were quite successful as a team from the serving line, connecting on 94 percent of their serves in the five matches.

"There were a couple of times when we weren't as aggressive in our spiking as we should have been, and those are the points where we lost a set," Strate said. "We just decided that we were going to have to hit the ball to win, and that's what we went out and did."

Action continued for the team at home last night (Wednesday) when they hosted Bellevue and Dordt Colleges in a triangular at Rice Auditorium.

THE LADY CATS will go on the road for their third Central States conference weekend this Friday and Saturday, Oct. 19-20 to Kearney for a quadrangular with the Lady Antelopes, Pittsburg State and Emporia State.

Wayne's record before Wednesday evening's games was 18-11 against four-year schools and 2-4 in the CSIC.

Blue Devils even record with West Point CC

The Wayne Carroll volleyball team avenged an earlier season loss on Tuesday night as they defeated West Point Central Catholic at home.

The win gave the Blue Devils a 9-7 record as they head into their final game of the regular season on Tuesday, Oct. 23 against South Sioux City. The game will also be part of the annual Parents' Night activities.

THE VARSITY scored their win easily with scores of 15-3 and 15-4.

Amy Jordan and Lisa Jacobsen were both flawless in their serving performance, with Jordan 10-10 for eight points along with five aces and Jacobsen 10-10 for seven points.

A trio of hitters were key in the spiking attack, led by Sarah Lebsack with 8-11 spikes for two aces and Paula Koplin with 7-7 downed spikes for three aces. Karen Longe added 7-7 hits at the net with a pair of ace spikes.

Kollette Frevert was the team's primary setter with 14 good assists.

Coach Mavis Dalton said that the win "was just a case where the girls decided that they wanted to prove they were able to win and to make up for an earlier loss that they had to West Point."

THE TEAM SERVED at 91 percent for the game, another point that Dalton was pleased with. "We had good, hard serves that were difficult for West Point to return. When they did return them, our offense really clicked."

The B team also won their game in sets of 15-13, 9-15 and 15-9.

Leading scorers was Sonja Skokan with 19-21 good serves for 15 points and Julie Struve with 14-15 serves for 14 points.

Lori Jacobsen and Virginia Hoffmann were leading setters with 17 and 14 good sets each.

Kecia Corbit had 10 good spikes with five for aces to lead the reserve's hitting, while Skokan added eight spikes and two ace blocks.

THE FRESHMEN MADE it a clean sweep as they downed West Point 15-1 and 15-1.

Shannon Janke was 15-15 at the serving line for 13 points in the match, while Marnie Bruggeman added eight points on 10-10 serves. She also was the leading setter with eight good assists.

Sarah Peterson was the team's top hitter with five spikes.

Wildcats fall

THE WINSIDE WILDCAT netters were defeated by the Hartington Wildcats in volleyball action on the road Tuesday night. Set scores in favor of Hartington were 15-12 and 15-4.

Above, Tracy Topp downs the ball while teammate Kerri Leighton looks on, while below, Missy Jensen (14) comes up with a bump with assistance from Tracy Topp (34) and Trisha Topp. The Winside reserves lost their match 15-4, 3-15 and 0-15, while the frosh came up winners 11-4 and 11-8.

Tennis team 10th at state meet

For the second straight year, the Wayne Carroll tennis team broke into the top ten of the Class B tennis rankings at the state meet in Lincoln on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 11, 12.

Top finishers for the Blue Devils were junior Vini Johar and senior Don Whisenhunt, the team's number one and two singles players, as they accounted for eight and two points respectively to tally Wayne's 10 points in the final ratings.

VINI JOHAR OPENED play in the first round with a 6-2, 6-2 sweep over Casey Gafes of Omaha Roncalli. He went on to score a 7-6 (7-4 tiebreaker), 6-2 victory over Billy Decker of Beatrice to advance to the quarterfinals.

In that round, Johar was downed by the eventual state champion, Mark Malins of Lincoln Pius X, in sets of 6-0 and 6-1.

Don Whisenhunt also fared well in his opening round of play, getting by Robert Kulhanek of York in two sets, 6-1 and 6-3. Whisenhunt was then defeated by Derrick Max of Bellevue East in a close 6-4, 6-3 match.

IN DOUBLES PLAY, the number one Wayne team of Jassi-Johar and Jim Hart, man drew the tournament's number two doubles seed and were eliminated in the first round by scores of 6-0 and 6-2 by Ned Fike and Craig Herndor of Hastings. The Hastings team proved their seeding correct as they finished the tournament in second place.

Ben Whisenhunt and Seth Anderson gave a tough three set match to Aaron Burger and Scott Morrow of Beatrice before losing 4-6, 7-6 and 3-6. In the number two doubles play.

The team title went to Scottsbluff, while Lincoln Pius X took home the runner up trophy.

Wayne tennis Coach Miron Jenness and the Blue Devils' netter look forward to a solid team for next year, as they are losing just two varsity players from their ranks, and hope to build on the experience gained during the 1984 season.

Faces in the crowd

FANS AT THE Wayne State game Saturday had plenty to cheer about, which they did with the help of the WSC cheerleaders and Catman. Some of those fans were entrants in the face-painting contest (inset), who weren't afraid to face the public with their Wildcat spirit.

Grand Island NW at top

Wayne tied for second in latest poll

It was another unseemingly week at the top of the Associated Press Class B football poll, a week that saw the Wayne Carroll Blue Devils move from third to a tie for second place in the Class B football rankings.

The Blue Devils dented Fremont Bergan last Thursday by a 27-7 margin on the road to keep their undefeated streak intact at 7 wins against no losses.

Grand Island Northwest maintained their stronghold on the number one spot with a 36-0 romp over Hastings Adams Central. Northwest will meet up with Aurora, the team which is tied for second place with Wayne, this Friday at home.

Columbus Scotus, which came in at second in last week's poll, fell to fourth after just getting by Boys Town in a 15-14 contest.

Rounding out the Top Ten are Chadron, Grand Island CC, Pierce, Blair, Omaha Roncalli and Gothenburg.

Soccer Club to host pair of league matches

The Wayne Soccer Club will return to the home field this coming week to host a pair of Siouxperland Soccer League matches as it continues its first official season of competition.

Those matches include one this afternoon (Thursday) against Morningside College beginning at 4:30 p.m. The two teams met at the beginning of the year in the Wayne State Club's first outing at a Siouxland tournament, which Morningside took by a slim 1-0 margin.

WESTMAR COLLEGE WILL visit the local playing field on Sunday afternoon, Oct.

21 for a 2:30 match. Both will be played on the soccer field located just east of the Wayne State varsity football field on the northwest edge of the campus.

The Wayne club was handed their second loss of the league season last Sunday when a tough IBP team defeated them 12-1 at home. Wayne's lone goal came midway through the second half as the result of a kick by Kiu Triing Ho on an assist by Mike McMorrow IBP led the match at the half 5-0.

Siouxperland league standings were released last week and show the following results.

Local woman wins football contest

Mary Wert of Wayne was the top winner in the third week of the Wayne Herald's annual fall football contest.

Wert missed six picks in the contest, along with Jill Stenwall of Winside, but won first place with her tiebreaker answer of 600 yards total offense in the Nebraska-Missouri game. Stenwall finished second with a guess of 750 yards offense. The actual total yardage was 601 yards.

Winning the third place gift certificate was Faunei Bennett of Wayne with seven misses.

Makes hole-in-one

Earl Barks of Belden, recorded a hole-in-one at a local golf course while vacationing in Sun City, Ariz.

WSC reserve grid game scheduled

The Wayne State Wildcat junior varsity football team will face off with the reserves of Nebraska Wesleyan University in a game on Monday, Oct. 22 in Lincoln, beginning at 4:30 p.m.

The game with Wesleyan is the final game remaining on the 1984 junior varsity schedule. In their only other contest, they suffered a 19-6 loss to Midland Lutheran College earlier in the year.

Allen volleyball tournament

The fifth and sixth grade students at Allen Consolidated School will hold a volleyball tournament this evening (Thursday).

Play will begin with the fifth grade boys versus fifth grade girls followed by the sixth grade boys versus the sixth grade girls. The winners of the two games will play in the tournament finals. Coaching the teams will be physical education instructor Sandy Chase.

Help Re-Elect

STATE SENATOR

MERLE VON MINDEN

Because of my experience and my concern for the future of Northeast Nebraska, I would like to continue to serve as your state senator.

Let me point out a few examples of my philosophy:

* I am for LESS government intrusion in your private lives. I SPONSORED several bills to restrict these intrusions, such as LB 35, which eliminated motor vehicle inspections.

* I have consistently fought FOR law and order. For example, I voted FOR tougher drunk driving laws and AGAINST the easy use of the insanity plea for capital offenses.

Please help me continue working for you in the Legislature by voting FOR my "common sense" philosophy of responsible government.

Sincerely,

Merle Von Minden
 State Senator

For WSC, it's good!

WAYNE STATE has been recognized throughout the season as a team that's not afraid to put the ball in the air, and no one in the crowd was disappointed on Saturday as the Wildcats gained 335 yards passing on the way to a 27-7 homecoming win over the Ichabods of Washburn University. It was an action-packed day for WSC on both sides of the line as their strong defensive performance caused several key turnovers by the Ichabods which the Cats offensive unit turned into points on the boards.

New York Theatre seminar

Wayne State College has an opportunity for theatre followers to earn college credit in New York City and spend New Year's Eve in Times Square.

The extended campus course "New York Theatre Seminar" is offered by WSC from Dec. 27, 1984 to Jan. 3, 1985 in New York City. The two-hour course (Communication Art/English 396/396) offers undergraduate or graduate credit. Dr. Helen J. Russell of Wayne State is the instructor.

The trip package (not including tuition) is $696.50. The price includes roundtrip airfare from Omaha, seven days and nights at the Milford Plaza Hotel a block away from Times Square in Manhattan and choice seats at two Broadway Shows.

Among the other attractions included are a sightseeing tour of Manhattan, a tour of the United Nations Building and admission to the Observation Deck of the Empire State Building.

Tuition for the course is $62 for Nebraska residents and $99 for persons living outside of Nebraska. Persons are asked to make their reservations and pay their tuition by Nov. 1.

For more information, contact the Extended Campus Division, Wayne State College, Wayne, NE 68787.

Benshoof awarded WSC presidential scholarship

Perry Benshoof

Perry Benshoof, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Benshoof of Wayne, recently was awarded a $250

Presidential Scholarship to attend Wayne State College during the 1984-85 academic year.

Presidential Scholarships are awarded annually to quality students based on academic excellence, talent, leadership qualities or extracurricular activities.

Benshoof is a 1984 graduate of Wayne Carroll High School where he was active in football, golf, stage band and band.

He toured Europe during the summer of 1981 with the People to People Ambassador Group. His second tour to Europe was in 1983 with the American Leadership Study Group.

A freshman at Wayne State College majoring in business finance, Benshoof also is among a selected group of students listed in "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

Non-traditional students invited

'Brown bag' luncheon program slated

Non-traditional students at Wayne State College (WSC) may bring their own lunch to the Senate Room in the lower level of the Student Center, Thursday, Nov. 1 and enjoy an informal hour with selected speakers. The luncheon starts at noon.

The topic of the third of four "brown bag luncheons" for non-traditional students at Wayne State College will be "Advising Tips," and WSC Director of Academic Counseling Ms. Lin Brummels will be the speaker.

The purpose of the program is to familiarize non-traditional students with the college. The service is provided through the Adult Resource Center, directed jointly by Dr. Bobby Lupack and Ms. Donna Bliss, director of counseling.

Non-traditional students were defined by Dr. Lupack as students over the age of 23, particularly married students, commuters, veterans, single parents, elderly students/senior citizens, adults exploring career changes, extended campus students, and women beginning college after raising families.

Activities for the entire year have been planned for non-traditional students, including a brown bag lunch program and afternoon speakers and workshops on topics like "Coping with Pressures (Personal, Social, Family)," and "Coping with Math Anxiety." The program is centered in the Adult Resource Center in the lower level of the Student Center.

For more information about the program, contact Dr. Lupack or Ms. Bliss at Wayne State by calling (402) 375 2200.

faculty profile

Dr. Jack Middendorf, Director of Information Services at Wayne State College, began his career in education in elementary and junior high schools, but has always been involved in the information area of education.

"It has been a professional interest ever since I was in the profession," he said. "It has just been more specialized and the scope has gotten larger."

As the person in charge of WSC's U.S. Conn Library, Dr. Middendorf oversees the college's storehouse of information. One of the large — and long range — projects of the library is automating various phases of retrieving that information with computers.

The process will be expensive. "But it would provide greater access to our resources," he said.

Dr. Jack Middendorf

"It would be much faster and more comprehensive."

ANOTHER BIG PROJECT of the library is the Great Plains Experience, an exhibition on the main floor of the library. The project should be complete by the end of this year.

The Great Plains Experience is going to be a display area for Northeast Nebraska artifacts, paintings, photographs, etc., he said.

The exhibits will change, but the room is permanent.

Jack earned his undergraduate degree in 1949 from Concordia College in River Forest, Ill., a Chicago suburb. He would later spend 15 years at another Concordia College, this one in Seward, Neb. It was there that he was a Professor of Education and directed the college's media program. From there he worked with media programs in the private sector before coming to Wayne.

The Chester, Ill., native (Chester is some 70 miles south of St. Louis on the Mississippi River) earned his master's degree at the University of Houston and his doctorate at the University of Indiana. It was Houston, Texas, where Dr. Middendorf taught and administered elementary and junior high students for six years before doing the same in Lafayette, Ind.

Jack and his wife, Mavis, have three grown children: Jacque Kinnel of Wayne, Marcia Langbain of Waterloo, Iowa, and Mark Middendorf of Lincoln.

Registration deadline nears

Graduate record exam offered

Graduate Record Examinations (GRE) are taken by graduate students during their first nine hours of study. The exams are used for admission purposes and by the graduate office to assist in advising the students as to their potential for graduate study.

The GRE tests are given nationally at many locations during each year. This year, Wayne State College (WSC) will offer the GRE in the Nebraska Room located in the lower level of the Student Center. Susan Schroeder, Assistant Dean of Students, will administer the exam beginning at 8 a.m. to 12:35 p.m. The fee for this exam is $29.

The second of five exams will be on Dec. 8 with registration deadline on Nov. 2.

The GRE measures certain developed verbal, quantitative, and analytical abilities that are important for academic achievement. In doing so, the test necessarily reflects the opportunities and efforts that have contributed to the development of those abilities.

A general information bulletin containing registration forms and sample test may be obtained from the Student Services Office located in Hahn or the Graduate Office in Brandenburg Education building.

Mezzo-soprano singing at WSC

Mezzo-soprano Linn Maxwell will be the second of six Special Programs Series performances at Wayne State College in 1984-85 when she sings Tuesday, Oct. 30. The 8 p.m. performance will be in Ramsey Theatre in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Center on the WSC campus.

A native of Indiana, Ms. Maxwell began her career in Europe, spending two seasons in West Germany and also singing major roles with the opera companies of Straasbourg, Lyon, Toulouse and the Netherlands.

In the United States she has sung the role of Rosine with the San Francisco Opera, and appeared twice with the Santa Fe Opera.

Among the major symphony orchestras with which Linn Maxwell has appeared are Chicago, the National, the American, Kansas City, Minnesota and Brooklyn. She has performed at Carnegie Hall in New York City with the Oratorio Society of Utah at the Mormon Tabernacle in a nationally televised performance of "Messiah."

MS. MAXWELL is a graduate of the University of Maryland and holds a Master of Music degree from Catholic University in Washington, D.C. She has recorded for RCA Red Seal and New World Records.

Admission to Linn Maxwell is $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for high school students and younger. Wayne State students, faculty, staff and holders of WSC activity passes are admitted free. Tickets can be purchased at the door.

The other four WSC Special Programs are the Master Players of Lugano, Swiss Chamber Orchestra Nov. 14; Clive Thompson Dance Company Feb. 5, 1985; John Houseman Acting Company March 12, 1985; and Fezshin and Hille, trumpet and organ duo, April 9, 1985.

Farm Briefs

Corn production up 1%

Nebraska corn production on October 1 is forecast at 741.2 million bushels, up 1% from the September 1 estimate and 59% above last year's crop. Yield is indicated at 109 bushels per acre, up 1 bushel from last month and 13 bushels above 1983. A 7-bushel-per-acre increase in expected yield for Nebraska's South Central Crop Reporting District accounted for much of the State's yield increase. Acreage intended for grain harvest remains at 6.8 million acres, a 40% increase from last year's reduced acreage.

Irrigated corn production is estimated at 590.6 million bushels, 58% above 1983. Yield is forecast at 127 bushels per acre, up 2 bushels from last month and 12 bushels above a year ago. Acreage for grain harvest continues at 4.65 million acres, 43% over last year.

Dryland corn production is forecast at 150.6 million bushels, 64% above last year. Indicated yield of 70.1 bushels per acre is down 1.1 bushels from a month ago but 12.7 bushels above 1983. Acreage for grain harvest remains at 2.15 million acres, 34% above last year.

Soybean production down 13%

Soybean production forecast also moved lower from last month and was 68.9 million bushels. This is 13% below last month but 17% above last year's level of 59.0 million bushels. Yield per acre at 27 bushels declined 4 bushels from last month and is 1.5 bushels below last year.

Soybean production expectations were lower in all districts. Hard freezing temperatures during the late September sharply reduced expected yields from late planted acreages in the three eastern districts where about 90% of the State's crop is raised. Acreage for harvest remains at 2.55 million, 24% above last year.

Managing for tomorrow

This is the third article in a series of four about the Managing for Tomorrow program. The program is being offered to farmers by the Cooperative Extension service and being run by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Department of Agricultural Economics. Doug Duesy, Southeast Extension Farm Management Specialist, answers the question: I want to bring my son into the operation. How can the program help me decide on the changes that need to be made?

Many farm families dream of passing their farms on to their children. A question that has to be answered before a child is brought into the operation is — How do we know that such a combination will be profitable and satisfying to both parent and child?

The Managing for Tomorrow workshops are designed to help all family members to find out more about the true goals and aspirations of each other. With this knowledge, they will better know how compatible their objectives are and how they will have to personally adjust to each other to have a successful farming operation. Through the workshops both parents and the child will learn of the resources that each other have to bring into the farming operation. In most cases the parents will have more land and equipment while the child will provide more labor.

If the younger family member is or soon will be married, very definite consideration must be given to the potential net income from the farm to support at least two families. The standard of living to which both families is accustomed to may have to be altered, but neither will accept a lower level for very long.

FROM THE DATA developed from the family and with the aid of the computer and Managing for Tomorrow staff will quickly learn if the farm business is of sufficient size, efficient and provides the necessary cash flow to meet the goals and objectives of both families.

The managing for Tomorrow staff with the utilization of the computer can evaluate the adjustments that are needed to bring another family member into the business. From the base unit of operation we can start looking for alternatives, the "what ifs."

Such as — can we stand to borrow more capital? What affect will shifting or expanding livestock or rented crop acres do to our net income? Will some family members have to work off the farm? What will happen financially if we suffer a 10 percent loss in yields or prices?

At the conclusion of the analysis the families will likely come to some decisions about the changes that need to be made. They will each feel better knowing they are in tune with one another and that all the family members have a share in making the management decisions.

For more information about the Managing for Tomorrow program please contact Don C. Spitzer, Wayne County Extension Agent, at the Courthouse in Wayne. The telephone number is 375-3310.

Several of the banks in Wayne County are also helping promote the program and brochures and applications are available from them or the Extension Office. If you prefer you can call directly to the Farm Financial Line, a toll-free number 800-535-3456, for more information and to enroll.

At a standstill

HARVEST HAS BEEN placed on hold by damp weather conditions during the past two weeks. Every once in awhile the clouds do break, however, as can be seen in this photo over Westside Grain & Feed in Wayne.

the farmer's wife

by pat meierhenry

There's been a lot of Homecoming excitement, with dress up days, skirts, decorating, band practice, and general hoop la. Now we have to get back to business.

First we were asking for rain. Next thing you know, we're anxiously waiting for it to dry off so we can finish harvest! The colors of the trees have changed this week, and there are fallen leaves everywhere. The new Farmer's Almanac didn't help my spirits, with all the predictions for snow and cold.

The political campaigns are picking up fervor. We watch debates, and then hear them dissected.

My old friend, Doug Beruber, made my day in the Lavisel parade when he recognized me and hollered, "Hi, Pat!" I was telling some folks at work about it, and they asked how I knew him. I said "I'd been in high school when he was, and someone commented, 'I didn't know he was that old!'"

All the discussion about religion and politics reminds me of the story Doug likes to tell when he first won his Congressional seat and told his sons they would be leaving Ulica. That night, the oldest said his prayers and ended with "Good-by, God. We're moving to Washington."

My old friends are special to me. And we've had the opportunity to see many of them this past year. It's been fun to see how their kids have grown, and to get reacquainted with them.

Jonathan, the kid from California, has an older brother who started at Pepperdine College this fall. He's on the water polo team, and their varsity is rated number 1 in the nation.

HE SENT US a poster of the U.S. Olympic team, and Kay and Ann are fighting over who gets to keep it in their room. It ranks right up there with Michael Jackson.

This whole month is Pork Month. My pig producing friends aren't getting a decent price for their product either. So this might be a good time to serve a few pork chops for supper. We had some baked with sauerkraut the other night to observe German Heritage Day.

Again, through careful breeding, we have a lean, nutritious, tasty product instead of the fatty meat it used to be.

Since it's also National Restaurant Month, I've been waiting for the Big Farmer to suggest we observe it by eating in one. So far, no luck.

The only souvenir he brought back from the Ozarks was a button which states, "Marriages are made in Heaven. So are thunder and lightning."

He did take me to a movie last night. We'd been reading about a new release called "Country," so we checked it out. It is contemporary. It's a very dramatic portrayal of the current farm situation.

WHEN THE FHA MAN tells the farmer and his wife their loans were on the basis of $2500 per acre value in 1980, she retorts, "We never said our land was worth that. We just want to farm it."

The thing that struck me again was how tough it was for the farmers to talk about their problems: to their wives, their kids, their neighbors. When they did, they stood together and got results.

It's nice to be missed! I appreciated those of you who asked what happened to this spot last week. I got to Wayne on time, even allowing for no mail on Monday. Problem was, the Editor was afraid I was using copyrighted material.

I depend on him to tell me when I do something dumb or illegal, so I guess he kept me from going to jail.

Which I appreciate, even if I could use a little R and R. So, while you're waiting for Indian summer, go to a restaurant and eat spare ribs and finish up at the movies. Check out Jessica Lange in "Country."

Credit plan priority

President Reagan's farm credit initiatives will be the highest priority of every employee of the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration, Administrator Charles W. Shuman, said today.

The plan, announced Sept. 18 as a transitional program, is designed to help farmers caught in the cost-price squeeze who are experiencing severe financial stress but who show promise of success with an extra economic boost.

Under the plan, the Farmers Home Administration will reschedule up to 25 percent of a qualifying farmer's loan, to a maximum of $100,000, for as long as five years with no interest payments.

Guarantee a non-FmHa borrower's farm loan if the lender is willing to write off a minimum of 10 percent of the loan, up to the amount necessary to achieve a positive cash flow for the borrower.

The part under control of the Farmers Home Administration, the rescheduling, will be the number one priority of everyone in the agency," Shuman said.

"Special project managers are being appointed in the national office to see that all the necessary regulation changes and instructions to our field offices are completed immediately," he said.

"We will begin examining loan dockets within a matter of weeks so that this part of the program can be underway by January 1," Shuman said. The necessary steps to implement the guarantee portion will be taken in ample time to meet the spring lending season.

Borrowers under this plan must meet the general eligibility requirements for the agency's farm operating and farm ownership loans.

As another part of the President's initiative, the Farmers Home Administration will contract with local farm financial and management experts to help prepare and analyze credit statements and loan applications in order to speed loan processing. In some states private lending firms will service the loans under contract with USDA.

Seven girls compete for 1984 Pork Queen honors

Seven candidates will seek the title of the 1985 Wayne County Pork Producer Queen at a contest to be held October 21 at 1:30 p.m. Judging will be held in the Nebraska Room of the Wayne State College Student Union.

The queen will be crowned that evening during the Wayne County Pork Producer Banquet. The new queen will receive her crown, her banner, $50 in cash, a bouquet of roses, a watch, and the opportunity to compete in the state contest. First and second runners-up will each be awarded $25 in cash.

Each contestant will receive a sterling silver pig charm, her flowers, and will be guest of honor at the banquet.

All contestants must be 16 through 19 as of January 1, 1985. Each girl must reside on a Wayne County area farm on which pork is raised or have parents who are now actively engaged in pork production.

Joan Biermann

Jill Boldt

Lori Carlson

Jane Gustafson

Karen Longe

Valerie Rahn

Deanna Wills

Judging will be based on the following criteria: 25 points for beauty, neatness and personality; 25 points for the oral essay; each girl will give; 25 points for their interviews; and 25 points for presentation and poise. Three out-of-county judges will make the selections.

Shelly Krusemark, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ron Krusemark of rural Wakefield, will crown the new queen. Shelly is the reigning Wayne County Pork Producer queen.

Joan Biermann, the 17 year old daughter of Walter & Sandra Biermann of rural Wisner, is a senior at Wisner Pilger High School.

Jill Boldt, 16 year-old daughter of Robert & Karen Boldt of rural Hoskins, is a junior at Winside High School.

Lori Carlson is the 17 year old daughter of Dennis & Ellen Carlson of rural Wakefield and is a junior at Wakefield Community High School.

Jane Gustafson, 17 year-old daughter of Kenneth & Glee Gustafson of rural Wakefield, is a senior at Wakefield Community High School.

Karen Longe is a senior at Wayne-Carroll High School and is the 17 year old daughter of Richard & Vera Longe of Carroll.

Valerie Rahn is the 16 year-old daughter of Darrel & Phyllis Rahn of rural Wayne and is a junior at Wayne-Carroll High School.

Deanna Wills, 17 year-old daughter of Herb & Arlene Wills of rural Winside, is a junior at Winside High School.

Guest speaker for the afternoon tea will be Barb Steffensmeier of the Cuming County Porkettes.

She will display her pig collection. The tea is open to the public. Dr. Ron Hanson of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln will give a speech on "Family Members Farming Together Without Family Trouble" at the banquet. Tickets will be sold at the door.

Bring Spring Inside This Winter

Now is the time to plant and plant if you want to bring spring inside this winter. Tender and hardy bulbs can be brought into bloom inside this winter.

While you are planting those spring flowering bulbs outside for next spring's bloom, why not try forcing some for winter color and fragrance in your home. Paper White and Tender narcissus, hyacinths (Bismark, L'Innocence, and Pink Pearl), tulips (Kansas, Weber, Whitehawk, White Sail) and daffodils (Carlton, Golden Harvest, King Alfred and Early Perfection) can all be easily forced to bloom in your home.

Set tender narcissus bulbs in sand, soil, gravel or other support material and plant the bulbs with the top third exposed. These bulbs should be kept moist and planted in sunny window. Blooms usually occur 2-4 weeks after planting.

HYACINTHS CAN BE forced to bloom in a glass of water. A special container known as a hyacinth glass will allow you to place the base of the bulb on the surface of the water. The bulb, planted in water, should be placed, in a dark, cool (below 60 degrees F.) room for about eight weeks.

Check occasionally to be sure root growth is a proceeding and the water level touches the base of the bulb. At the end of eight weeks, set the hyacinth in low light for about 10 days. Then move the hyacinth to a sunny location and bloom should occur in about 20 days.

Hyacinth, tulips, daffodils and some of the minor bulbs can also be planted directly in pots for forcing. In October or early November, plant the bulbs in pots.

Store the potted bulbs for 8 to 12 weeks at 40 degrees F. Don't let the bulbs dry out during storage. After shoots are well out the necks of the bulbs, move the pots to a cool (55 degrees F.), bright room. Bloom should occur in about one month.

Crocus, Hyacinth, narcissus, and tulip bulbs could also be stored in your refrigerator crisper for two months at 40 degrees F. Then the bulbs could be planted and placed in a bright room at 55 degrees F.

Peony Care

Flower growers are more concerned when peony buds turn brown and die in the spring. If the cause is fungus leaf blights or spots, take corrective steps in the fall.

After killing frost, cut off the plants at ground level and dispose of the refuse in the trash burner.

Then spray the ground near the plants with zineb or captan. Also, zineb or captan should be applied after each rain and every 10 to 14 days during the spring up to when the buds are starting to open.

Amendment needs consideration

"Understanding the impact of Amendment 4 on the November 6 Nebraska general election ballot is anything but simple," according to Roy Frederick, University of Nebraska-Lincoln extension agricultural economist.

In short, he said, Amendment 4 would authorize the legislature to separately classify agricultural and horticultural land for purposes of property taxation.

While Frederick and UNL neither support nor oppose the amendment, he said some historical perspective on the amendment may help voters make a decision.

The Nebraska Constitution provides that taxes shall be levied "...uniformly and appropriately upon all tangible property."

In January, 1984, the Nebraska Supreme Court ruled that a commercial property in a central Nebraska county was not assessed uniformly and appropriately with the agricultural land in the county.

"Specifically," Frederick said, "the court ruled that the commercial property was valued at a higher percentage of its market value than surrounding agricultural land."

agreed that agricultural and horticultural land was generally valued at a lower percentage of its market value than residential, commercial and industrial property, Frederick said.

The state tax commissioner then moved to begin implementing new assessed values for agricultural land, he said. "A new manual for the assessment of land will be published in final form later this month."

A look at the August 9 draft of the proposed manual showed an average projected increase in agricultural and horticultural land values of approximately 60 percent. "However," he said, "increases for individual parcels of land will vary by type and location."

The proposed increase in land values was addressed by the legislature, when Gov. Kerrey called a special session in late August. "The legislature subsequently gave its approval for the citizens to vote on a proposed constitutional amendment which would allow agricultural and horticultural land to be classified separately for purposes of taxation," Frederick said.

In general, if the amendment passes, the legislature would be empowered to prohibit ag land taxes from increasing as much as otherwise would be the case.

"However," Frederick added, "conjecture about the nature of the legislature's action is premature at the time."

If the proposed amendment fails, taxes will increase most in taxing districts where ag land assessments are increased the most and where ag land is a relatively small portion of all property, he said. Where assessments are increased relatively little and most property in the district is in agriculture, tax levies can be decreased and Increased assessment rates on ag land would result in much higher property taxes for owners of land in taxing districts where the proportion of ag land to all property is relatively low. Where the percentage of ag land is relatively high, taxes would not increase as much.

And Nebraska is one of the few states in the nation that does not classify agricultural land separately.

Opponents argue: Separate classification of proerty amounts to a legalized shift of property taxes from one class to another.

Once uniformity is abandoned, decisions on how to classify property are based on political expediency and a proliferation of property classes can occur.

And property taxes in general should be lowered and it would be better if agricultural interests worked with others toward that goal rather than attempting to maintain lower tax rates for just one group.

Test Your Memory

...and discover how to reduce your home heating costs

- 1. REMEMBER all those places where you felt drafts last winter. Make a list, then check each one to see where additional insulation, caulking or storm windows could prevent costly heat loss.
- 2. REMEMBER the setting you used for your thermostat. Then, consider starting the heating season with a setting that's a degree or two lower. Arrive at a sensible setting for your needs.
- 3. REMEMBER that for cost and versatility, electric heat is becoming the choice of more Nebraskans than ever. So far in 1984, 63% of all new housing units built in the NPPD retail area, installed electric heat.
- 4. REMEMBER that you can get a free home heating estimate to help you compare the cost of electric heat with the fuel you're now using. These facts can be valuable to you even though you don't plan to switch heating systems this year.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK
 In observance of National 4-H Week Oct. 7-14 the following articles were written by local clubs in promotion of 4-H week in the community.

The Wranglers 4-H Club was started by Francis W. Plueger in 1966 with the main project being market beef. Today, the club has 27 members and covers a lot of projects from beef, sheep, horse, rabbits, food, clothing, flowers, vet science and computer. The Wranglers have supported their members to get involved totally with the 4-H program. The 4-H'ers involve themselves in public speaking, demonstrations, judging, camps, tours, leadership. The 4-H'ers and leaders practice the motto, "To Make the Best Better." The green clover with the white H's standing for head, heart, hands, health. The green symbolizes growth and creativity and the white is purity or wholeness.

Wranglers 4-H news reporter is Renee Plueger.

The Lady Lads and Lassies 4-H Club was organized in 1969 by Connie Sachau with seven members. This year the club completed a successful year with 28 members in the Allen area and many proud moments evidenced by the ribbons and trophies along with a number of members going on to star fair and Ak-Sar-Ben competition.

Through the years the organizational leaders have been Marge Bock and Doris Linafelter and for nine years Neil and Donna Wood have held this position. The club has all projects in including livestock. They have two song groups and a number of junior leaders.

This year was a busy year with extra activities which included a tour to several businesses in Sioux City, a visit by the Posie Peffer of Wakefield, planting park and Easter egg hunt for youngsters in Allen. 4-H is a family affair and ended their year with a picnic and fishing at Fahrholz dam.

The club's competition has taken members to the county fair, some on to the state fair, national 4-H conference in Chicago, and many of the junior leaders of the club have earned the Washington D.C. citizenship short course trip.

Pleasure and Profit 4-H Club was organized in 1965 by Darlene Roberts who is still heading the club 19 years later. Darlene has been a leader 22 years having founded a club at Beacon School which later went to Dakota County.

The Pleasure and Profit Club began with about 15 members and this was the enrollment this past summer with Tammy Noe as president; Annetta Noe, vice president; Tabith Burnham, secretary; and Troy Hingsl, treasurer. News reporter was Sandy Noe.

The club members carried 26 different projects. Mrs. Roberts was assisted by project leaders Courtland Roberts, Glenn and Paulette Kumm, Bev and Paul Stewart, Agnes Noe and junior leader Derwin Roberts. Seven out of the 15 members participated in state fair competition.

During the years of organization, the club has taken special time to include handicapped members.

LEGION AUXILIARY
 The Allen Legion Auxiliary met Oct. 8 in the Senior Citizens Center with Paulette Kumm, president, presiding.

A letter was read from the District President informing the unit of the gift shop assignment and a reminder to send in per capita dues.

Margaret Isom, membership chairman, reported a total of 77 members. Mrs. Doug Folsom is a new member.

The auxiliary color guard joined the Legion in carrying the colors for Allen's homecoming parade. They also presented the colors at the dedication of Waterbury's new fire hall.

SUNSHINE CIRCLE
 The United Methodist Sunshine Circle met at the home of Ella Isom on the afternoon of Oct. 9 with 11 present. Roll call was answered with what we are thankful for. The November meeting will be a 12:30 luncheon at the housing authority with Mabel Mitchell as hostess.

 Monday Wednesday, Oct. 22-24: Professional Leadership Conference, Fremont.

SENIOR CITIZENS
 Today (Thursday), Mary Buford with the Legal Aid department of Omaha will be at the center at 1 p.m. If you have any questions or need legal assistance she will be of assistance at that time.

Tomorrow (Friday) the October potluck dinner will be held at noon at the center.

A quilt is in the frame at the center and they invite all quilters to come and join them. The quilt will be given away at the annual craft sale to be held the latter part of November.

Joanna Rahn, director, reported that a little over $200 was received from the "no bake" sale held on Oct. 8.

The birthday party to honor the October birthdays will be held on Friday, Oct. 26 at 9:30 a.m. Those with September birthdays will furnish cakes.

Department President Irene Mueller's homecoming will be hosted by the Thurston and Emerson units on Nov. 3. Members are urged to attend this event.

Allen will host the 49th Dixon County Convention on Nov. 11. Unit members are to furnish one dozen cookies or bars for the afternoon tea.

The tea will be held at First Lutheran Church at 4 p.m. Business meeting will follow at 4:30 p.m. with county president Deenette Von Menden and county secretary Phyllis Swanson presiding.

The evening banquet will be held in the Allen High School gym at 6:30.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION
 The Eastview Cemetery Association met at the home of Anna Carr on Oct. 5 with Faye Mitchell as hostess. Eight members answered roll call with a most exciting moment. Bingo was played for the afternoon entertainment. The November meeting will be held Nov. 2 at the social room of the housing authority with Mabel Mitchell as hostess for a 12:30 potluck luncheon. All attending are asked to bring prizes for bingo.

COMMUNITY CLUB
 The Allen Community Extension Club met at the home of Dessia Jones on Friday afternoon with nine members present answering roll call with a fire hazard checked on lately in the home. Irene Armour gave the extension club lesson in fire safety in the home and farm. Marcia Rastede took club pictures for the papers which will be published along with the history of the club. Mabel Wheeler, citizenship leader, urged all to get out to vote in the coming election. The November meeting will be at the home of Eva Stark with the study lesson "Saving Your Skin."

Strike up the band

ADDING TO the festive air of the Wildcat's homecoming celebration was the performance of the Wayne State marching band, which gave an impressive halftime show, including trumpet solos and marching displays.

Be An Informed Voter!

Jerry Conway's Opponent Is Running on "His" Record. The Letter Below Was Sent to the Voters in an Attempt to Display His Accomplishments Over the Last Four Years. The Facts Provide a Much Different Picture...

* FACTS:

"... was the sponsor of Nebraska's first anti-litter bill..."

In the ten years preceding Von Minden's bill, ten bills were introduced which may reasonably be considered anti-litter bills. Two of those were: the Nebraska Litter Reduction and Recycling Act of 1979 and the Nebraska Litter Control Act of 1977; both passed and were signed into law. Von Minden's bill - LB 291 in 1981 - was merely a ban on detachable pop tops on beverage cans.

"... was the primary senator in the elimination of the auto inspection sticker..."

LB 35 in 1981 was sponsored by Sen. Tom Vickers. Von Minden signed onto the bill, but Von Minden's contribution was little more than perfunctory, with Vickers' staff doing the preparation.

"... and he supported increasing teacher retirement..."

From floor debate on that bill LB 457, on April 3, 1984: Von Minden is quoted as saying, "95% of the people in my district don't approve of teachers' retirement, and they don't approve of any retirement. The way we are going now, Senators, we are doomed for failure... this is something we don't want." However, on final reading Von Minden voted for increasing teacher retirement.

"He is not influenced by special interest groups..."

To date, 78 per cent of Von Minden's '84 general election contributions have come from PAC's (special interest groups). In the past eight months, Von Minden has accepted over $7,000.00 in special interest money.

Support Responsible Government

May 7, 1984

Dear Voters:

The general feeling seems to be that Senator Merle Von Minden has done a good job representing northeast Nebraska, or others are simply not familiar with his record.

It is our hope that you will want to know about the Senator's record. We believe in keeping his experience in school, county and state government working for us, but to earn your support you need to know where he stands.

* Von Minden was the sponsor of Nebraska's first anti-litter bill and was the primary senator in the elimination of the auto inspection sticker and elimination of driver's exams for good drivers.

* He was instrumental in passing his bill to help keep ATOKAD racing in operation, and he supported increasing teacher retirement and the master's degree program at Wayne State College.

* Von Minden opposed efforts by large banks to consolidate their financial control and he opposed sales tax on services.

* He supports local decision making on the lottery and many other issues where he believes the best decisions are made here at home in our counties and cities.

* Von Minden played an active role in passage of the Family Farm Preservation Act and supports protecting the family farm and our many struggling, small businesses.

* He has shown understanding and support of programs for Nebraska's needy citizens, but he is also a strong advocate against the abuses in such programs because those take funds away from those who are truly in need.

* Von Minden does not waiver or duck tough issues; and he has proven he will listen.

Merle Von Minden has worked hard. He has been accessible. He has been successful in numerous issues important to our District. Unlike a politician he wants you to know where he stands.

He is not influenced by special interest groups; and his experience and his public record reflect his concern for northeast Nebraska. Your vote and support is needed now.

Sincerely, John Kingsbury Vincent Krampfer Jack Marsh District County Co-Chairmen

A promise to continue working for northeast Nebraska; your support is appreciated. Thanks, Merle Finance Chairman: Darrell Curry-Dixon Co.; Co-Chairmen: Wayne Co. (Gore Bergson), Wayne Co. (David Jones), Dakota Co. (Sensu: Merle Von Minden); P.O. Box 127, Allen, NE 68710; County Chairman: John Kingsbury-Dixon Co., Jack Marsh-Wayne Co., Vincent Krampfer-Dakota Co.

"... was the primary senator in the... elimination of driver's exams for good drivers."

LB 694 was sponsored by Sen. Bernice Labedz in 1984, and Von Minden did not even sign onto the bill. Further, during the course of the session, there were two amendments proposed that would have seriously impaired the intent of the original bill and could have made the bill unconstitutional - by Sen. Hoagland and Sen. Vickers; Von Minden voted for both of those amendments.

"He was instrumental in passing his bill to help keep ATOKAD racing in operation..."

Von Minden admitted in his introduction of the bill before the Revenue Committee that the bill was not drafted by him nor by Sen. Hefner, but was researched and drafted by the Nebraska Racing Commission.

"He supports local decision making on the lottery and many other issues..."

Von Minden voted in favor of a state-wide ban on lotteries.

"... played an active role in passage of the Family Farm Preservation Act..."

LB 339 was sponsored by Sen. DeCamp in 1983. The bill was killed in committee in February of 1983 and never even made it to the floor of the Legislature. It was never passed.

"He has shown understanding and support of programs for Nebraska's needy citizens..."

The Legislative Coalition for Children gave Von Minden a 33% effectiveness rating for his performance in the 1984 Legislative Session, with that rating over bills affecting the health and education of Nebraska's children. His performance leaves him tied for last among all State Senators.

HIGHLAND WOMEN
The Highland Woman's Home Extension Club met with Mrs. Scott Deck on Thursday afternoon. Guests were Mrs. Erwin Morris of Carroll and Mrs. Myron Deck.

Mrs. Ron Lange, president, welcomed the guests and opened the meeting with a poem, "My Father was a Fireman."

For roll call, members told of an experience they had had fighting a fire.

Mrs. Arnold Wittler read the report of last month's meeting and gave the treasurer's report. Correspondence was read.

Members voted not to participate in the fund raising projects at the Wayne Fall Festival.

Several members plan to attend and participate in the program at the District F Family Life Conference at Ponca on Oct. 24.

The president reported on the council meeting and announced Achievement Day will be held at Wayne on Tuesday evening, Oct. 23.

Leaders were named for the lessons chosen for 1985.

Mrs. Mary Kollath, citizenship leader, reminded all members to vote and "Vote with a Friend and Make it Count More."

Mrs. Art Behmer and Mrs. Hilda Thomas were honored with the birthday song.

The lesson on "Fire Safety in the Home and on the Farm" was presented by Mrs. Bill Fenske and Mrs. Neal Wittler.

Steve Sovereign, a fireman from the Norfolk Fire Department, was present and spoke on fire prevention and different types of fire extinguishers. He also demonstrated extinguishing a fire and assisted members in using an extinguisher.

Mrs. Bill Fenske will be hostess for the next meeting on Nov. 8.

A-TEEN CLUB
Mrs. Lucille Hitz was a guest when the A-Teen Home Extension Club met with Mrs. Elaine Ehlers Oct. 10.

The meeting opened with the Home Extension Club Song and Mrs. James Robinson presided at the business meeting.

Roll call was a winterizing job finished.

Mrs. Guy Anderson reported on the previous meeting and gave the treasurer's report. Correspondence was read.

Health and safety leader Mrs. William Thoenel read an article "How Weather Affects Your Health."

Mrs. Earl Anderson, citizenship and cultural arts leader, reported on the presidential debate and urged all members to vote.

Mrs. Vernon Hokamp, family life leader, read an article, "Symbol of Love and Faith."

The president reported on the recent council meeting. Members plan to attend and participate in the program at the District F Family Life Conference to be held at Ponca on Oct. 24.

The hostess gift drawing was won by Mrs. Elaine Ehlers. The lesson on arthritis was presented by Mrs. Walter Fleer Jr.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Duane Kruger on Nov. 14.

CARD CLUB
The Hoskins Card Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Behmer Thursday evening for the first meeting of the season.

Card prizes were won by Walter Strate, Alfred Vinson, Mrs. Harry Schwede and Mrs. Herman Opler.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Behmer will host the next meeting on Nov. 8.

HELPING HAND CLUB
Mr. and Mrs. Gus Perske entertained the Helping Hand Club Oct. 10.

Card prizes went to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schwede, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Perske, Bill Wendt and Mrs. Cecelia Jackson.

Plans were made for a potluck supper to be held at the Gus Per skel home on a tentative date of Nov. 3. The Harry Schwedes will host the next regular meeting on Nov. 14.
