City hires city clerk, treasurer

by Chuck Hackenmiller

Carol Brummond was hired as Wayne city clerk during a city council meeting which took place Monday evening.

After deliberating on city staffing for nearly two hours in closed session, the city council voted unanimously to promote Brummond from deputy and interim city clerk to the new city clerk position.

She replaces Nargn Nelson, who resigned in January to become the city administrator-clerk-treasurer of Holdrege, Nebraska.

Brummond, a former resident of Neligh, began employment with the city of Wayne in 1962. After a few years, she reduced her working hours with the city until January of 1972, when she returned fulltime to the city clerk staff.

Also receiving a promotion from within the city accounting office was Nancy Braden, who had been employed by the city as bookkeeper-accountant. Braden's new position will be city treasurer and assistant city clerk.

Braden is from Carroll and she started employment with the city of Wayne in March of 1980.

Both Brummond and Braden will take their new positions under a nine month probationary period, according to the motion

Carol Brummond

passed by the city council. Brummond's entry level salary will be $1,515 per month and Braden's salary will begin at $1,300 per month. Also in the above mentioned motion, introduced by Councilman Darrel Heier, was to hire a cashier-receptionist to replace the vacancy created following the promotion of Brummond and Braden. City Administrator Phil Kloster pointed out that with the realignment of staffing, the city of Wayne will save approximately $10,000 in the operation of the city's accounting offices.

THE CITY COUNCIL gave final approval to the sale of 1.49 acres of city property east of Wayne to S&M Liquid Tire Fill, Inc., a company based outside of Bolhwell, Ontario, Canada. The amount of the sale was $5,000.

Location of the sale site is south of the National Nebraska Fiberglass Corporation building located along Highway 35 east of Wayne.

The liquid tire fill firm, which was incorporated in 1976, will be placing three storage tanks on the property. The company manufactures liquid tire fill that is distributed primarily to tire shops to be used for ballast and weight purposes on tractor tires or other tires.

Liquid tire fill will be hauled from the base plant in Canada to the Wayne site, which is the company's only holding facility in Nebraska. A company spokesman said it is possible that a local carrier will be hired to transport the fill to area distributors.

Commissioners adopt road plans

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners adopted a One and Six Year Road Improvement Plan on Tuesday, February 5 during the regular meeting of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

Several changes were made in the plan, which was partially published in the Feb. 4 edition of The Wayne Herald and can be viewed in full context at the Wayne County Courthouse.

Project No. C-90 (256) slated for the years 1985-86 has been moved up to the years 1984-85. The project includes the removal of a bridge five miles west and one half mile south of Winslow to be replaced by a CMP culvert. Project No. C-90 (35), slated for 1986-87 which includes the rebuilding of a bridge five miles west and two and one half miles south of Carroll, was increased in estimated cost from $15,000 to $30,000. Commissioner Bob Nissen said the original cost estimate, when compared to previous bridge repair, was too low.

The removal and replacement of an 80 foot bridge 10 miles south and 4 1/2 miles east of Wayne on the Cumins County line has been added to the one and six year plan for the years 1987-88. The cost of the $150,000 project will be shared by Wayne and Cuming Counties.

A CORRECTION WAS made on Project C-90 (200) Grading, culverts, gravel. The location should read "two miles south and one and one half miles east of Wakefield."

During the meeting the county commissioners adopted a resolution approving the withdrawal of securities held in escrow by First National Lincoln, Lincoln, Nebraska totaling $150,000 and the substitution of securities totaling $100,000.

A resolution approving withdrawal of securities held in escrow by Federal Reserve Bank of K.C., Omaha, totaling $20,000 from First National Bank, Wayne, Nebraska was also adopted.

The county commissioners requested that Olson's Termite Control draw up a proposal regarding the schedule for spraying the courthouse. Previously the courthouse has been sprayed for termites monthly at a cost of $38. The proposal would call for spraying the building nine months instead of a full year — alternating spraying times during the winter months.

On Monday, Feb. 18 (Washington's Birthday), the Wayne County Courthouse will be closed.

Drinks law limits 'two-fers', enforcement starts Sunday

by Chuck Hackenmiller

Effective on Feb. 10, the state's "multiple drinks" law will go into effect.

Nebraska Liquor Control Commission Agent David Nicholson has supplied the Wayne Police Department with the law definitions and regulations.

According to the rules, no liquor licensee shall sell, for on-premises consumption, an unlimited quantity of beer, wine or liquor at a specific price. The licensee cannot sell two or more drinks of beer, wine or liquor to a person for that person's consumption on the licensed premises for one price.

Nothing in this rule shall limit or restrict the price which may be charged by any licensee for a single beer, wine or other alcoholic beverage that is consumed on the licensed premises.

Words drink and drinks are defined in the regulation as: liquor, a container containing no more than 1 1/2 fluid ounces of the same spirits; wine, a container other than the original container that has no more than 12 ounces; and beer, a container including the original container which has no more than 18 fluid ounces of beer.

A pitcher of beer shall not be considered a drink. However, no licensee can sell two or more pitchers of beer for one price.

"It will eliminate a lot of those 'drink and drown' nights. Or all those promotions of paying at the door, where one can drink all night for $4," Nicholson said Wednesday morning.

The intent of the law, he said, will be to instill tolerance on consumption of alcohol at the premises.

Enforcement of the new law should not prove difficult, he added.

"Each retailer will be their own watchdog," he said.

Retailers will likely squeal on each other if another is violating the law. The industry will take care of itself, Nicholson said.

He said enforcement officials will also pay close attention to advertisements in newspapers and radio to spot possible violations of the new law.

Sweet Lips Contest set

Those who feel they have the lips that charm and aren't afraid to brag about it should enter Wayne's "Sweetest Lips Contest."

Entries of the "Sweetest Lips Contest" have an opportunity to win a first prize of $25 in gift certificates to be used at one of four locations — Bill's GW Snack Bar, Black Knight, Lumber Company or PoPo's.

Second place will be a box of chocolates.

Each entry (one entry per person) in the contest will receive a free Wayne Chamber of Commerce Super Savings Coupon Book.

Rules of the contest, plus sponsoring businesses of the contest, are on pages 4a, 5a and 6a. Deadline for entry is Feb. 17 and the winners will be announced in the Feb. 14 edition of The Wayne Herald.

Development financing boosts home sales, business expansions

This is the second of three articles dealing with economic development in this area and the state of Nebraska. The story below indicates what funds are distributed to assist the local areas in economic growth.

by Chuck Hackenmiller

One of the most significant programs the state of Nebraska has to offer to its residents is probably the least known. It was the first piece of legislation initiated by Governor Robert Kerrey in August of 1983.

The program, Nebraska Investment Finance Authority (NIFA), is responsible in financing one out of five home mortgages in the state, according to Don Dworak, director of the Nebraska Department of Economic Development.

NIFA has a particular branch of its program which provides, through financial institutions, a currently lower than prime interest rate on mortgage loans to first time single family home buyers.

In 1984, $200 million were distributed by NIFA to single family home buyers. Dworak said during a recent public information meeting in Wayne.

The single family first time home buying program has also created 1,150 jobs across the state and that doesn't include increasing the work force of restorers, construction business or carpet layers.

Not only does this program have impact on real estate sales, but also the state economy.

NIFA's $200 million raised through bond sales is additional capital brought into the state.

Dennis R. Vellek, executive director of NIFA, said at the recent public information meeting that the applicants for the first time single family home buyer must meet certain criteria — the most important being that the applicant cannot have an adjusted gross income of more than $32,500.

If the single family qualifies, the individual can receive NIFA-distributed funding through financial institutions at a fixed interest rate (currently 11.15 percent) on up to a 30 year loan agreement.

ALSO UNDER THE auspices of NIFA and its partner, the Small Business Revitalization Program (which joined forces on Jan. 1) are other outlets of financial assistance.

The Home Improvement Loans Program, following the same criteria as the single family mortgage and applicants can apply for loans from $2,000 on up to $15,000, according to Vellek.

Interest rates on these types of remodeling loans are 11.95 percent and terms can be arranged for up to a 15 year period.

The Development Loan Program, with the applicant working out its own lending agreement with a lending institution and NIFA acting as a conduit by tax exempting the interest rate on the loan. This way, the borrower gets a lower interest rate and the lender a higher interest rate on the loan.

Hospital Equipment Loans, financed by NIFA again through the sale of bonds. Vellek said last year $63 million in bond sales were used in funding "non-profit hospitals" with seven year loans at an interest rate of 8 1/2 percent.

The Multi-Family (apartment type) Housing Loans. Applicants must seek out their own financial lender and NIFA will once again tax exempt the interest on the loan. Twenty percent of the tenants in the structure must be of low income.

The Agriculture Loan Program, for first time farmers. The applicant must have a net worth of $300,000 or less and not own any real estate of more than 44.1 acres in Wayne County; 43.91 acres in Dixon County; 47.29 acres in Cedar County; and 35.69 acres in Cumming County.

Loans can be up to $500,000 with up to $250,000 restricted for the purchase of land and up to $250,000 for equipment and breeding stock.

Business Equipment Loan, expected to be available about mid-March. Loans will be available for equipment purchases only, from $40,000 up to $850,000, which is repaid within a seven year period. The interest rate has not been established and will be determined when the sale of bonds for the program is completed.

THE SMALL BUSINESS Revitalization program has grown in proportion over the past two years after a non-substantial beginning. "We began analyzing on why the state of Nebraska was not successful in applying for assistance in this program," said Dworak.

"Then we concluded that the Nebraska people did not know the programs were available or how to apply for them," he said. Two years ago, only about $400,000 was distributed as financial assistance for the urban development grant.

Last year, a combination of Urban Development Action Grants, Community Development Action Grants, Small Business Administration Program and Development Corporation of Nebraska provided a total of $27.66 million in federal assistance and has netted the state an additional 987 jobs.

"We have another $61.3 million of Urban Development Action Grants pending in Washington. We might not get all but a percentage of it, but we have a better shot if the request is in and pending," Dworak said.

One of the more familiar programs which involves the Nebraska Department of Economic Development and Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Community Development Block Grant Program.

In 1984, $12 million had been passed down from HUD to the state department of economic development. Of that total, $3.5 million was earmarked for boosting economic activity and to provide long term permanent job creation.

Over the past year, the Economic Development block grant program has provided financial assistance to the construction and remodeling of the Dairy Queen project in Wayne and the relocation and remodeling of Restful Knights, also of Wayne.

Economic Development block grant funding is available for projects which create new jobs and generate private sector investments. The applicant can borrow up to $500,000 (or 50 percent of the project's cost) at a low interest rate.

IF THE LOAN request supplied by the applicant and the city is approved by the state, a block grant will be presented to the city which will in turn loan the money at low interest to the applicant.

"The typical interest rate is 50 percent of the prime rate (which is currently 5 1/2 percent)," said Vellek.

"The business pays back the loan to the city and the city doesn't have to pay back the money to the state. You end up with a type of revolving loan program," he added.

"So it behooves the city to get involved with this type of program."

During 1984, economic development block grant funds have generated $37 million of private investment in 11 projects, creating more than 1,600 across the state.

Dworak said the amount of economic development block grant funds for the loan program in 1985 will be increased from $3.5 million to $5 million, with $7 million to be earmarked for community improvement projects such as for street or water improvements.

CROP report

The Rev. Dick Staple of Church World Service/CROP released the county-by-county 1984 figures for the state of Nebraska. The total giving for the state is $488,089.91. Staple indicated that the strong local programs with volunteers from the various committees aided in this record-breaking year.

Totals raised through various counties include Wayne County, $2,143.04; Cedar County, $327.80; and Dixon County, $1,760.34.

Plainsman Honors Festival

Some 172 high school musicians, selected through auditions, will participate in the 16th Annual Plainsman Honors Festival. The Plainsman Honors Festival Concert will take place at 5 p.m. on Feb. 9 in O'Donnell Auditorium at 50th and Huntington in Lincoln. The concert is open to the public and admission is $1.

Area high school students participating in the program are: Laurel-Concord High School, Scott Carr, honors choir; Shelby Busch, honors band.

Wakefield High School: Rachel Prochaska, honors choir. Winside High School: Trisha Tapp, honors choir.

Northeast Library System meeting

The Northeast Library System Board met in Petersburg on Jan. 16 for a regular meeting. Jennifer Leifeld served as hostess to the following System Members and guests: Karen Warner, Wayne Hanway of Norfolk, Margaret Mills of Osceola, Sylvia Stutzman, Schuyler, Rosella Hovest of Brunswick, Elaine Norton of David City, Charles Stelling, Wakefield, Jack Middendorf and Kathleen Tooker of Wayne, Shirley Petsche of Petersburg, Mary Magnuson of Central City, Marla Bouton of Kearney, Mary Jackson, Nebraska Library Commission, Ruby Beckmann and Bob Trautwein of Columbus.

Phyllis Hix of Wayne Public Library and Jackie Sampson of Central City were approved as new members of the Board. Some important dates in the future include Library Appreciation Day which will be April 17. Feb. 20 is Legislative Day and many interesting programs are planned for this event. A WILL Workshop for Library Trustees is scheduled for March 29 and 30 in Kearney.

WATTS lines are being installed at Wayne State College Library, Norfolk Public Library and Columbus Public Library so that the systems 60 or so smaller libraries can phone the three major libraries for assistance and requests for books and materials.

Spring meetings are being planned and much activities are in the making for Libraries in the Northeast System of Nebraska.

Area students honored

Approximately 180 students participated in the 1985 Hastings College Honor Band, Choir and Orchestra. Students were chosen for honor activities through a personal interview process conducted at Nebraska high schools by the Hastings College music faculty.

Area students participating in honor band and chorus include: Kurt Runestad of Wayne, Bass I; Dean Fuetberth of Wayne, percussion; and Becky Schmidt of Wayne, clarinet.

Ski regatta approaching

The Wayne Yacht Club is sponsoring a Cross Country Ski Regatta at Ponca State Park. Anchors away is at 1 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 10 at the Computer Farm parking lot.

In Wayne, interested skier can call toll free to the Wayne Yacht Club Snow Line 375-5109 for the latest in snow conditions and to reserve a spot in the carpool for the trip.

Registry of polio victims

If you are a person who has had polio, Nancy Carter is looking for you.

Mrs. Carter, state coordinator for Post-Polios United for Research and Education (P.U.R.E.), announces that a national registry of polio victims is being established. A statewide search is being made to gather names for the registry, as well as to locate polio victims interested in the non-profit Nebraska P.U.R.E. organization and its support groups throughout the state.

Current information regarding post polio syndrome and its treatment will be sent to those listed in the registry. Send your name, address and zip to Nancy Carter, P.U.R.E., P.O. Box 37139, Omaha-NE 68137.

"Brown bag lunches" planned

The Adult Resource Center/Non-Traditional Student Program at Wayne State College is sponsoring "brown bag lunches" at least one a week while classes are in session until the end of April.

The informal bring your own lunch sessions are to familiarize non-traditional students with the college. The service is provided through the Adult Resource Center, directed by Dr. Bobbie Lupack and Donna Bliss.

The sessions are from 11:30 a.m. - 1 p.m. and all but one are scheduled for the Senate Room in the basement of the Student Center. Students are welcome to come to the session for the 90 minutes or only a short time, according to Dr. Lupack.

Non-traditional students are defined by Dr. Lupack as over age 23, married students, commuters, single parents, elderly students adults entering career changes and women beginning college after rearing families. Some 37 percent of WSC's students last semester were considered non traditional.

The upcoming lunch session is Feb. 6. Study Tips For Non-Trad: Dorothy McClain, TLC (Teaching Learning Center) graduate assistant.

Free Shade Trees

The National Arbor Day Foundation is giving ten free shade trees to people who join the nonprofit Foundation during February, 1985.

A Sugar, Maple, Weeping Willow, Red Oak, Green Ash, Thornless Hamamelis, Pin Oak, Silver Maple, Tulip Tree, European Mountain Ash, and Red Maple tree will be part of the Foundation's campaign to encourage tree planting.

These trees were selected because they provide flowers, berries and nuts, in addition to shade and beauty, according to John Roseman, the Foundation's executive director.

The Foundation will give the ten free trees to members contributing $10 during February. The six to twelve inch trees will be shipped this spring between February 1 and May 31 when conditions are right for planting. They will be sent with enclosed planting instructions, and are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free by the Foundation.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to SHADE TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by February 28, 1985.

Catholic Schools Week

ST. MARY'S School of Wayne is in the middle of celebrating Catholic Schools Week (Feb. 3-9). St. Mary's has 47 kindergartens through sixth grade students; three full-time teachers and one part-time teacher; and six auxiliary staff members. Activities so far have included a Parish Mass on Feb. 3; and a movie day for the students and open house for parents and parishioners on Feb. 5. On Feb. 7 will be dress-up day and on Feb. 8, St. Mary's School will host the Chamber of Commerce coffee, have a school mass at 11:30 a.m., have hot lunch available for parents, students and friends of the school and have a field trip (skating party) for the students. In photo above, guest speaker Harry Knobbe (standing) of West Point addresses parents and students at Tuesday evening's open house. Little Diane Von Seggern has her attention focused elsewhere. At left, Ric and Marilyn Wilson review work shown by their daughter Jessica, as another daughter, Katy, also looks on.

ADC recipients to receive job skill aid

Nebraska Department of Social Services Director Gina Dunning said today that the recently started Job Support Program will help eligible aid-recipients take responsibility for their own job placements.

The program, implemented statewide January 1, is designed to improve job skills for Aid to Dependent Children (ADC) recipients so they can become self-sufficient through employment.

Dunning said that the Department will not make job placements. "Other agencies are designed for that," she said. "We are here to help the clients help themselves."

Each district in the Department's structure will develop their own job support program which could include job search workshops, job training, referrals to other agencies and supportive services like providing transportation and child care.

"For many currently unemployed individuals," Dunning said, "it's not the lack of education or skills stopping them from finding employment. Sometimes it's not knowing how to prepare for an interview."

At the end of last year, there were more than 14,000 ADC cases in Nebraska. About 13 of those will participate in the Job-Support Program.

Dunning said that if the average time a person needing ADC assistance is lowered as a result of the Job Support Program, "major savings will be made in terms of dollars spent, and more importantly, in terms of human independence and well being."

Capitol News
By Melvin Paul
Statehouse Correspondent
The Nebraska Press Association

The money being spent on state legislative races has escalated dramatically in the last six years as business, unions and trade associations become increasingly involved in promoting their favorite candidates. According to the files of the Nebraska Accountability and Disclosure Commission, the 60 legislative candidates who were required to file reports for the 1984 primary and general elections raised a total of $934,604, up eight percent from the 1982 election. The sum represents a 159 percent increase from total receipts reported by legislative candidates in 1978.

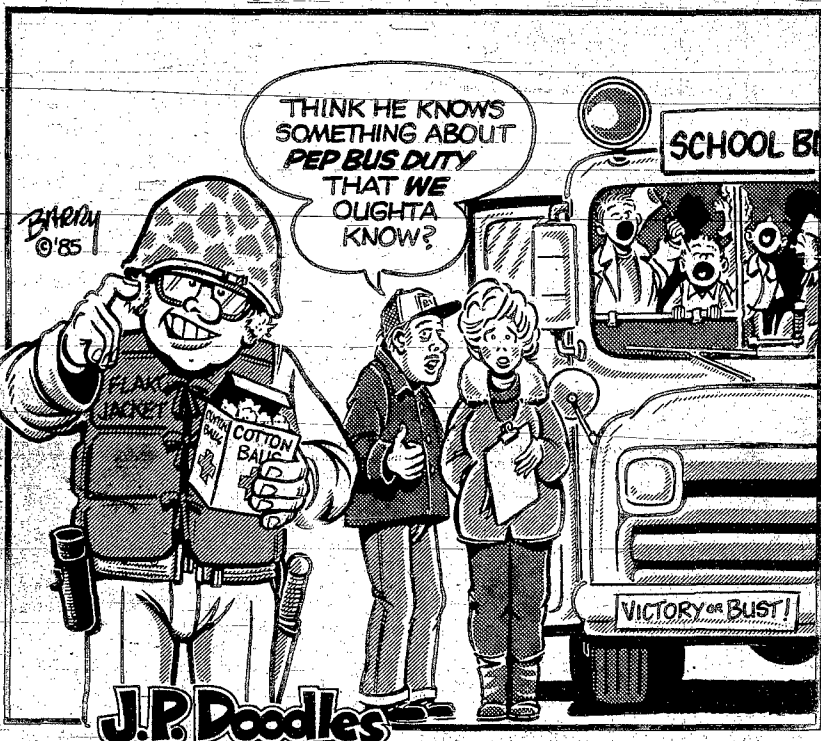

In 1978, SEN. Chris Beutler of Lincoln, then running for his first term, raised $16,048 for his primary and general election campaigns. In 1984, former Sen. Walter Duda of Omaha raised exactly the same amount as Beutler's 1978 total in his unsuccessful race for the 13th-District legislative seat. While Beutler's total ranked him No. 1 among legislative candidates in 1978, Duda's total ranked him 27th among legislative candidates in the 1984 election.

Once considered an almost unthinkable sum in legislative campaign finances—the $20,000 barrier was first breached in 1980, when nine candidates raised that much. In 1982, 13 candidates raised $20,000 or more. Last year, 16 candidates raised at least $20,000. Two candidates last year—Sens. Lorán Schmit of Bellwood and Gerald Chizek of Omaha—raised more than $60,000.

Freshman Sen. Dan Lynch of Omaha, a political veteran who has run in the past for the Douglas County Board of Commissioners and for Congress, said he was surprised at the ease with which he raised $37,780 for his 1984 legislative race. "I DIDN'T HAVE to ask for much of it," said Lynch, who won the 13th District seat vacated by former Sen. Dave Newell. During his legislative campaign, Lynch said, he organized "just two fundraising receptions: one for $50-a-ticket and another for $10-a-ticket. Beyond that, Lynch said, he didn't have to look for the money. The money came to him. Most of his campaign funds, he said, were the result of his being sought out through the mail or in person by lobbyists and other representatives of organized contributors—political action committees, trade associations, businesses and unions. Those in the system—senators and lobbyists—show little sentiment for change. Ray Lineweber, lobbyist for the United Transportation Union, said he considers the current system of campaign financing a good one. Lineweber, whose union reported $19,750 in legislative contributions in 1984, said he believes the public interest is served by healthy competition among competing lobbying groups.

Economic meeting helpful

There was good attendance (although more representation from the Wayne community would have been more impressive) at a recent public informational meeting in Wayne with the Nebraska Department of Economic Development. It is imperative that the department continue the practice of visiting communities to discuss various opportunities available for businesses and industries. What type of programs are available for the small businessmen, particularly in financial assistance, is valuable information to those entities surviving in the rural communities—particularly at a time when the ag economy is so depressed. One message conveyed at the public information meeting, which hopefully will be carried to Governor Kerrey, is to reconsider his proposal to repeal sales tax exemptions in categories which, if approved by the legislature, would hurt chances to bring industries into the state of Nebraska, particularly this area. Of the 3,600 people who responded to the recent survey conducted by Wayne Industries on available area labor force, over 2,300 people said they would like to be considered for employment. That is evidence showing that the workers are out there. All we need now is additional incentive to bring in the industry. This state has the fourth best business climate of all 50 states in the nation. But take away the current exemption status of certain items and where would the state rank then?

Changes on mileage rule

Vehicle log requirement to change. Many Nebraska farmers and other residents have contacted me in recent weeks about an Internal Revenue Service rule requiring people who want to claim a tax deduction for business use of an automobile or other vehicle to keep contemporaneous records of their mileage. This requirement would mean that individuals would keep logs containing entries specifying dates, names, purposes, mileage, and times of use. And, all of the information must be entered at the time the vehicle is used.

Because the IRS regulation defined anything under 6,000 pounds as a passenger vehicle, pickup trucks fell under the regulation. One farmer who wrote to me pointed out that in the first 10 days of January, he filled the first 10 pages of his log. The intent of the regulation was to prevent people from writing off luxury personal cars, not to create an absurd amount of bookkeeping for farmers using pickups.

Who gets the blame?

This is an idea for United States Budget Director David Stockman, who seems to think farmers themselves should be blamed for their own economic misfortunes. How about if all the farmers that are currently in jeopardy simply sell their farm equipment and become a politician or an appointed member of Reagan's cabinet? That seems to be the perfect occupation. After all, all you have to worry about is the nation's billion dollar deficit which continues to grow. Funny though—who are we to blame for that?

Pooling talents a good move

Efforts of the Wayne City Council to promote two individuals, both employed in the city clerk's office, to new positions of city clerk and city treasurer should be worthy of special recognition. Carol Brummond, the new city clerk, has been steadily employed in the city offices for many years and as deputy city clerk should be familiar with day-to-day happenings in the department. Nancy Braden has worked nearly five years in the city offices as bookkeeper and accountant which will be helpful in the city treasurer position. A savings in the city clerk-city treasurer department of $10,000 will be realized because of the realignment of positions from within, Wayne City Administrator Phil Kloster pointed out. Pooling the talents of Brummond and Braden for the city staffing positions was a unanimous choice by the city council. It was a good move.

Economic development is priority

Economic development is more than pumping money into urban areas to create new jobs. In Nebraska, developing Main Street and agreeing on policies that ensure the future of our agricultural lifestyle are important goals as well. The avalanche of numbers in a cold economic analysis is only part of the story. The public-private partnership that makes up economic development helps determine the types of jobs people can get, where people live, and the areas of Nebraska that will thrive. I've been paying close attention to the needs of both the cities and farms. We have the opportunity in this legislative session to accomplish improvements in the economic health of all areas.

by Sen. Gerard Conway

I've introduced LB 708, the Enterprise Zone Act, to take the concept of these zones beyond Omaha and Lincoln and to make the same opportunities available to us in smaller communities. My bill would make towns eligible for regulatory relief, tax incentives, and new public investment by defining selected areas as economically distressed. This concept has been used with success in other states and I believe it can work for us as well.

NORTHEAST NEBRASKA has a great deal to offer business looking at us from the outside. In any legislative action, however, we must also remember our rural businesspeople who have invested in the community and its people for so many years. Through limited state and federal involvement of the sort I've described, we can encourage new private investment, economic activity and create additional jobs.

As the session continues to unfold, I encourage you to let me know your comments on the issues. One of the several ways to make us aware of your opinion is to participate in public hearings. Each bill has a public hearing designed to have citizens share their perspectives directly with the legislators. My office staff will be happy to help determine the dates of any hearings that you may want to attend. In addition, you are always welcome to visit my office, Room 2002, at the State Capitol. As part of an enjoyable day in Lincoln, you may want to take a tour of the Capitol and observe debate on the legislative floor. As always, call me at 471-2716 if we can assist you.

Most of the publicity lately has gone to the severe hardship in the agricultural arena. In past columns I've mentioned the legislative resolution I co-sponsored to send a legislative delegation to Washington D.C. to make the case for better federal agricultural policy. I'm pleased to report that I have been selected to go as part of the delegation to carry the message on behalf of northeast Nebraska. Not all the particulars have been determined, but as of this writing, I know several of the tasks we'll have in front of us while in Washington. DEPARTURE WILL be Feb. 23 with the return scheduled for the 27th. The weekend has been made part of the trip so that a minimum of legislative days will be disrupted. Upon arrival in Washington we will be briefing Paul Volker on the critical concerns of the agricultural economy. Paul Volker is Chairman of the Federal Reserve and a key figure in setting overall monetary policy. Secretary of Agriculture John Block, whose agricultural policies have angered many, has also been confirmed for a meeting with the Nebraska delegation. Currently, we are still working on arrangements to meet with President Reagan and David Stockman, his budget director. Appearances will be made at the Agriculture and Banking Committees of both the House and Senate. Press conferences have been scheduled with national media as well. Further details will be known this weekend after planning meetings with representatives of other states. We plan to make our case and to do it strongly. The purpose of the trip is to make federal officials aware of and sensitive to the problems of rural America. Here in Nebraska, we still need to do all we can on the state level. I'm convinced that we can do much to help the economic situation in our rural communities, but only if the whole unicameral is made aware that economic development goes beyond large urban centers.

political notes

Nation U.S. Senator Edward Zorinsky has reintroduced his legislation blocking unwanted reductions in the farmer-elected county and community committee system. The bill, which passed the Senate but not the House last year, is a response to Reagan Administration to diminish the role of these grassroots committees in administering federal farm programs at the local level. The bill allows the number of community committees nationwide to rise back to the number in existence on Dec. 31, 1980, with the approval of the county committee. It also increases the term of committee members from one to three years, spells out their duties for the first time and increases the pay for both county and community committee members. In 1980, the number of community committee members nationwide has declined by 9,000. There are currently more than 1,700 county and community committee members in Nebraska, according to Zorinsky. Congressman Bereuter said Agriculture Secretary John Block's announcement the Administration is changing the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) unsuccessful 90 percent loan guarantee program from a "principal buy-down" approach to an "interest buy-down" program represents a step in the right direction on the part of Administration officials. "This shift could help a number of borrowers," Bereuter said. "But certainly it is not the answer to everyone's needs. And, it will be the answer for some only if we can reduce the problem of an overload in FmHA's loan guarantee approval process." "I suggest that the FmHA first concentrate its resources on the program to approve lender banks, thus shifting much of the loan guarantee paperwork burden to bank personnel." He said long delays have been commonplace in the FmHA approval process. "Our farmers have, at most, two months in which to secure the money for spring planting," he said. "That is why I have proposed to pass the FmHA completely in order to avoid the whole bottleneck." "This announcement does represent a turnaround in attitude on the part of David Stockman which may be the result of growing pressure from me and other members of Congress and from a wide range of farm, business and banking interests." Referring to allegations that Stockman and Block offered the new credit aid program in exchange for acceptance of so-called "market-oriented" 1985 farm bill, Bereuter said "Of course I do not accept a deal—that would amount to blackmail." State State Senator Elroy Helzer said the legislature continues to focus much of its attention on the agricultural financial crisis. The tentative date for 20 senators to meet with federal officials in Washington D.C. is Feb. 20 and he will attend. Recently, seven bills were introduced before the body, all dealing with agriculture and land valuation. These proposals address the implementation of Constitutional Amendment IV which was passed by the voters last November. They include LB 30 (which Helzer co-sponsored), which would use the 1984 agricultural land valuation manual for the 1985 tax year to value ag land; LB 270, a proposal to value ag land at 60 percent of its fair market value; LB 271, which would allow the lower tax rate on ag land through a capitalization rate formula. LB 343, which would assess ag land at 60 percent of its market value, as determined by the 1985 agricultural land manual; LB 364, that would set ag values at 60 percent, but the law would be valued at a percentage of market values from previous year; LB 366 would value ag land on a rent-to-value ratio; and LB 365 is a blend of the previous bills. "Hopefully, with these bills before the body, a workable solution can be drawn up. In these difficult economic times, farmers can ill afford to have their land valuations increase," Helzer said.

Photography: Jackie Oster

Joslin, Wendy Robson, Renee Vanderheiden, Donna Sherry, Donna Herrmann, Lori Jensen and coach Gail Hamilton.

Lady Bears down Walthill in L&C girls championship action

The Laurel Lady Bears basketball team came away with their third straight Lewis and Clark Conference tournament championship Saturday night with a 41-26 win over Walthill in the final round at Rice Auditorium on the Wayne State College campus.

The little game between the two teams was anti-climatic in comparison to the semifinal games each team competed in the night before. Laurel earned their way into the finals with a 42-41 win over Wausa on Friday night, while Walthill upended previously undefeated Newcastle 45-35 to advance. The Bluejays came into the finals with a 13-3 record.

LAUREL COACH GAIL Hamilton said that for his squad, the intensity of the game was affected by a combination of factors. "First of all, we were a little letdown after the emotional win over Wausa on Friday night, and second, we had been looking forward to a classic matchup between ourselves and undefeated Newcastle," Hamilton said.

The Lady Bears got off to an early lead in the game before Walthill used a 1-3-1 defense to bottle up the Laurel inside game and shut down their scoring attack. The Bluejays turned the score around and held a 10-6 advantage going into the second quarter.

Laurel continued to be bothered by a cold shooting spell from the floor but managed to work their way to a 12-11 lead just before the half. A free throw by Walthill's Katie Ruge with 3:12 left in the half tied the score at 12-12, where it remained at halftime.

In the first half, the Lady Bears hit 6 of 26 attempts from the floor for 23 percent and fared not better from the line, missing four of six shots.

Walthill enjoyed their final lead of the game at 16-14 with 6:43 in the third quarter before Laurel came back with six straight points-off-buckets by Sara Adkins, Gail Twiford and Wendy Robson to open up a 20-16 lead. A field goal by Renee Vanderheiden gave Laurel a 22-18 lead at the end of the third period.

In the game's fourth quarter, the Lady Bears' offense began to click as they outscored Walthill 19-8 to gain the conference tournament championship.

"On nights when our defense isn't working, we still play a good defensive game," said Hamilton. "I was pretty sure that if we stayed close until the fourth quarter, it would be the turning point for us."

SENIOR WENDY Robson hit double digits in the win with 12 points. Both Renee Vanderheiden and Michelle Joslin added eight points and Gail Twiford netted six points. Donna Sherry came off the bench to contribute four points.

"Donna came off the bench and gave us some spark with a quick bucket and a couple of steals in the third quarter," said Hamilton. "We got the type of play that we needed from the bench and from everyone out there on the court."

About the Lady Bears third consecutive conference tournament championship, Hamilton said that "It has been exciting to coach the girls, some of them from their sophomore year, and win the conference tournament a total of three times. It's a great accomplishment for the team."

The 15-1 Lady Bears will finish out their regular season tonight at home against Wausa. "This year we are looking to win the conference title outright and we need the win over Wausa to do that," said Hamilton.

Lady Blue Devils dropped by South Sioux City Cardinals 56-34 at home

South Sioux City's girls basketball team controlled both the tempo of the game and the final outcome Tuesday night, against Wayne, taking a 56-34 contest on the Lady Blue Devils home floor.

"The key to the game for us was letting South Sioux City pick up the pace of the game," said Wayne Coach Dale Hochstein. "They got us to go a half-step faster than we are able to go and play well fundamentally and we turned the ball over a lot."

THE LADY BLUE DEVILS got behind early in the game and spent the rest of the evening in that position. They pulled to within a 12-7 margin with two minutes left in the first quarter before the Cardinals put on a full-court press that spelled trouble for Wayne. The Lady Blue Devils turned the ball over several times after bringing it downcourt and South Sioux used the ball to up their lead to 21-7 at the end of the opening period.

"We were able to get the ball down and pass it off to the open player, but then would come up with a jump call or turnover and South Sioux would get the ball right back," said Hochstein. Wayne turned the ball over 18 times in the first half before gaining better control in the third and fourth quarters and cutting the number down to 11. SSC log ged 21 turnovers in the game.

South Sioux was able to maintain their lead throughout the second half, with Wayne not able to narrow the gap to less than 12 points.

Kecia Corbit was the only Lady Blue in double figures with 10 points, along with netting a team high 17 rebounds. Shelly Pick added six points and Laura Keating five points. Pick also hauled in 10 rebounds. Wayne held a 47.40 rebounding advantage. The Lady Blue Devils hit 13 of 63 shots from the floor for 21 percent while their opponent went 21 of 60 for 35 percent.

IT WAS A physical game, the tempo was different than our girls usually like to play," said Hochstein. "South Sioux City came out in the press, after the missed shots as well, and the also brought about some turnovers."

The reserve squad also fell to South Sioux City by a 43-21 margin. Leading scorers for Wayne was Shelly Pick with five points and Jennifer Moore and Jodi Dilman with four points each.

In the freshman game, the Wayne team came back from a 15-point fourth quarter deficit to lose a 31-29 decision to the Cardinals. Andrea Marsh led scoring with 16 points.

The Wayne varsity, 1-14, face Emerson Hubbard on the road in a game scheduled for this evening (Thursday).

KECIA CORBIT (in white) reaches for a Wayne rebound against a tough South Sioux City defense on Tuesday night.

Heavy Hoopers to invade Wakefield

The KCAU-TV "Heavy Hoopers" basketball team will appear on the Wakefield High School basketball court to compete against a variety of local cage talent on Saturday, March 2.

According to Wakefield High School Athletic Director Lyle Trifflinger, the game is being organized for several reasons: the first to provide a fun evening of entertainment for the community, and the second to raise funds for the "W" Club and the Wakefield Farm Crisis Committee.

Izaak Walton League to meet

The Wayne Izaak Walton League will hold a meeting on Monday, Feb. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Wayne City Office building.

Featured speaker will be Larry Wetterberg, NRDC District Conservationist.

A special invitation is extended to farmers, sportsmen and non-members to attend this meeting.

Wakefield to sponsor baseball clinic

The Wakefield Lions Club received word this past week from University of Nebraska-Lincoln head baseball Coach John Sanders that the club's request to sponsor a Big Red Baseball Clinic has been accepted. The Wakefield site will be one of just 15 locations across the state.

The clinic will be held on Friday, June 14 with both morning and afternoon sessions. The morning session will include hitting and pitching instruction for eight to 12 year-olds by the Coachusker staff members and/or players. In the afternoon, a session will be held for those 13 years old through 1986 high school graduates.

Participants will receive an instruction booklet and tee-shirt and be covered by insurance.

Wayne rec teams fall to Fremont

Wayne seventh and eighth grade city recreation basketball teams were downed by Fremont at the City Auditorium on Saturday afternoon.

The eighth grade girls team suffered their first defeat against four losses in a 34-21 battle with Fremont. Leading scorers were Holly Paige with eight points and Dana Nelson with six points.

The seventh grade boys team was thumped by Fremont 37-20 in their second meeting of the year. Neil Carnes and Willy Gross each netted seven points in the loss, followed by Matt Peterson with six points.

In the eighth grade boys game, Wayne was nipped in a 50-47 decision by Fremont. The locals led at the half 25-24. Sean Baker led the scoring effort with 12 points, while Jarrod Wood and Doug Larsen each added 10 points.

The Wayne eighth grade boys team will compete with the Wisner-Pilger AAU boys team on Sunday, Feb. 10 beginning with a B team game at 1:30 p.m. at Wayne's City Auditorium. The A team game will follow.

WCC elects new board members

Members of the Wayne County Club recently elected three individuals to their Board of Directors for terms of three years.

Re-elected to the board were Darrell Moore and Jim Marsh, while Brenda Dorcy was elected as a new board member.

They will be joining Bill McQuistan, Willis Lessmann, Don Koerber and Val Kienast on the seven member Country Club board.

Scoring comeback falls short for Winside

Despite an improved scoring comeback in the second half, the Winside boys basketball team fell to Clark division opponent Wynol 63-37 in a game played on Tuesday night in Winside.

The Blue Devils had a hot hand from the field in the first half, hitting 10 of 26 shots for 38 percent to move to a 24-12 halftime lead over the Wildcats. Winside was plagued by a cool shooting performance from the floor, netting 4 of 24 for 17 percent. "Most of the shots we took were good, they just weren't going down for us," said Winside Coach Mark Freburg. "Wynol was hitting from the outside, against our defense and the baskets were just dropping for them."

WINSIDE FOUND THEIR mark in the second half of the game, hitting 13 of 26 from the field for 50 percent, including a 20-point spree in the fourth quarter.

Kevin Jaeger hit double figures with 10 points, and was backed up by Kevin Falk and Ryan Prince with eight points each. Falk led on the boards with six rebounds and Mike Thies hauled in five boards.

"In the second half we had some good outside shooting from Ryan, Kevin Jaeger, and Tim Voss, they were coming out and hitting their shots," said Freburg.

The Wildcats, 0-14, is scheduled to go on the road to Osmond this evening (Thursday) for a matchup with the Tigers.

Allen slides by Trojan gals 33-23

A scoring burst in the third quarter made the difference in the game for the Allen Eagles girls basketball team, as they scored 15 points in the period to move to a 33-23 win over the Wakefield Trojans.

The Trojans put up a tough defensive effort throughout the game, and took advantage of an sagging Allen offense in the first two quarters to stay close and make a two point game at the half, 13-11.

Allen made a change in their offensive front line in the third quarter and started to get better ball movement, according to Coach Gary Troth, and combined that with some Wakefield turnovers to score their 15 points and take a 28-15 lead.

Both teams were held to low scoring in the fourth quarter, with the Trojans coming up with eight points to cut the Allen lead to 10 points at the end of the game.

Denise Magnuson hit double figures for Allen with 13 points, while Roni Starzl dropped in five field goals to score 10 points and lead Wakefield.

"We didn't come out as intense defensively in the third quarter," said Wakefield Coach Arnold Cerny. "We had success breaking their press most of the night, but gave up a couple of turnovers there in the third quarter, which gave them a couple quick baskets. Allen's scoring some quick points in the third quarter off our turnovers made a difference in a low-scoring game like ours."

Coach Troth said that his squad didn't come out very sharp on the court, but that he was pleased that they played a patient defensive game rather than putting up a bad shot. "In the third quarter, we were able to break through their zone defense and get some shots on the weak side," Troth added. Allen, 9-6, was slated to host Beemer before a Parents Night crowd this evening, while the 0-15 Wakefield Trojans played host to winless Coleridge.

Wayne boys take third from Hartington CC

The Wayne Blue Devils boys basketball team made it a clean sweep in it's regular season outings with Hartington Cedar Catholic after taking a 48-41 homecourt win over the Trojans Saturday night.

The win boosted the Blue Devils record to 12-2 overall going into a road game with South Sioux City tomorrow (Friday) night.

The Trojans led 12-10 at the end of the first quarter before Wayne outscored them 14-10 in the second period to give themselves a 24-22 advantage at halftime.

Hartington CC worked their way back into the lead in the third quarter, taking a 32-31 lead. At that time, the Blue Devil offense kicked into gear for 17 points to capture the lead and the win.

"We were not aggressive offensively in the first part of the game," said Wayne Coach Bob Uhling. "The kids came out and look command in the fourth quarter with some aggressive offense, and combined with our defense, that made the difference in the game."

Don Larsen scored 12 points in the Wayne effort, with Dan Gross adding 11 points from the guard spot. Larsen also took rebounding honors with 10 boards. Hartington CC held a 26-25 advantage over Wayne High on the boards.

"Our kids have confidence, they know they can win their games if they play well," said Uhling. "But they also know that if they don't play well, they can lose games too. The key for us will be to play our own game and play hard and we'll be OK."

Wayne's reserve and freshmen teams also picked up wins over the Hartington CC squads. The Wayne freshmen won by a slim 32-31 margin, which proved to be their only lead in the game when Rob Rabe hit a 17 foot jump shot with seven seconds on the clock. Scott Hammer led scoring with 13 points and Jason Lisika hit the boards for seven rebounds.

Laurel Bears turn tables to even mark against Coleridge Bulldogs 65-57

A week ago, Coleridge pounded the Laurel Bears 78-6 in the opening round of the Lewis division conference playoffs. On Monday night, the Bears came out with a few surprises on their home court and posted a 38 point turnaround to drop the Bulldogs 65-57 in regular season action.

COACH JOHN HELD said the key to his squad's about-face rested primarily with their defensive play. "We went to a 1-3-1 zone defense, which gave us better coverage of their perimeter shooters and proved to be the answer," said Held. "Defensively, we kicked in during the second half and just played harder."

"We also had a good week of practice and mental preparation. The kids knew they got drubbed the last game out and it hurt...they had some things to prove in the game."

Coleridge had little trouble scoring against Laurel in the first half, taking a 43-34 halftime lead into the locker room.

Laurel's defensive maneuvers look their toll on the Bulldogs in the second half, as they scored just 14 points in the final two quarters of the game. On the other side of the scoreboard, Laurel put on a strong showing for 31 points to capture the lead and notch their fourth win of the season.

THE BEARS PATIENT offense paid off, with three starters hitting double figures. Scott Rath led the way with 20 points, while Brent Haisch added 15 points and Mike Forsberg 11 points. Forsberg also brought down 13 rebounds to lead on the boards.

"We were probably the most patient on offense that we have ever been," said Held. "We sat on the ball several times in the second half and still scored 31 points." Laurel shot a strong 25 of 43 on the night for 58 percent.

"Scott assumed the roll of the 'big man' and that really opened up the outside game for us. Everyone took their roll on the court, and that is what we need them to do in order to be successful."

Laurel's JV also won their game, taking a 40-33 decision over the Bulldogs. Joedy Cunningham led scoring with 12 points and Randy Prescott added 10 points.

The Bears varsity 4-8 on the season, host Wausa tomorrow (Friday) night.

Wildcats post third conference win on road over Pittsburg State

A last-second bucket by Vince Tillo lifted the WSC Wildcats to a 48-47 victory over the Pittsburg State Gorillas on their home court Saturday night in CSIC conference action.

The road win evened the Cats mark at 10-10 going into a Nebraska Athletic Conference (NAC) battle with Peru State that was scheduled for last night (Wednesday).

"It was a big road win for us," said WSC Coach Rick Weaver. "We were able to come back from a 20-6 deficit to get back in the game and get the win." The win was the third of the season in the CSIC for the Cats, and currently gives them their best mark in the conference since the 1980-81 season at 3-5.

"THE KEY FOR us was Penn getting the hot hand in the second half against Pittsburg's zone defense," said Weaver. "Our defense also picked up the pace in the second half to help out."

The Wildcats were to face an improved Peru State in their Wednesday night meeting. "We were able to surprise them with our zone in the first game, but we won't have that going for us this time," said Weaver. "They also tend to shoot the ball much better on their home court, something that hurt them in their game with us up here."

The Bobcats were 2-2 in the NAC race, while WSC held a 3-1 mark going into the game.

The upcoming weekend will see the Cats go on the road again to face the Fort Hays

State Tigers on Friday night and Kearney State on Saturday evening in Kearney.

Penn receives NAC honors

Wayne State College Wildcat senior Tracy Penn has been named the Player of the Week in the Nebraska Athletic Conference (NAC) following an 85 point scoring performance in his last three outings.

Penn, a 5-11 guard from Columbus, Ohio, tallied 26 points in a NAC win for the Wildcats over Chadron State on Tuesday, Jan. 29 and added a 26 point performance in Wayne State's 95-86 Central States conference loss on the road to Missouri Southern on Friday, Feb. 7.

Penn turned in his top performance of the season Saturday night against Pittsburg State, ripping the net for 31 points to lead WSC to a 68-67 victory.

In those games, Penn, who lead the Cats in overall scoring and assists, notched 16 rebounds at the guard spot and added 18 assists to bring his season total to 80, for an average of 4 per game. Penn currently is averaging 19.8 points per game as well.

WSC TOOK A 20-6 lead in the opening seconds of the game on a basket by Ed Heritage and didn't have the upper hand again until just under two minutes left in the game. The Cats trailed at halftime 39-32.

Tracy Penn came out to spark WSC in the second half, scoring 23 of the team's first 28 points to bring them back into the game. Penn ended the game with a season-high 31 points.

With 1:49 remaining, WSC went ahead 64-63 on a pair of free throws by John Thomsen, who filled in at the line for senior Doug Visselmeyer who was injured on the foul. Both teams then waged a one point battle with Pittsburg State taking a 67-66 lead with 12 seconds left on a bucket by Jeff Guoti. Tillo picked up the ball for Wayne State on the move-downcourt and let go with a jumper with two seconds on the clock to boost WSC to the win.

Penn led all scoring in the game, while Ed Heritage was the only other Wildcat in double figures with 12 points.

On the boards, Calvin Sprew led with eight rebounds and Thomsen and Tillo each brought down five.

Lady Wildcats downed on the road

Wayne State's Lady Wildcats basketball team came away from their latest pair of road games with a pair of losses at the hands of CSIC foe Pittsburg State Saturday night and to the College of St. Mary's in Omaha on Tuesday evening.

With the losses, Wayne State fell to 9-13 overall and 1-7 in the Central States Intercollegiate Conference. The Lady Wildcats are now 2-3 in the NAC playoff race.

WSC fell to St. Mary's by a 72-60 margin in the Nebraska Athletic Conference (NAC) game. The Flames downed the Lady Cats earlier in the year by a 81-64.

Senior Barb Wragge dumped in 14 of her 16 points in the first half to keep WSC going and make it a four point game at halftime, 32-28 in favor of St. Mary's.

The score remained close throughout the second half, but free throws by St. Mary's down the stretch increased their winning margin.

Barb Wragge led scoring with 16 points, followed by Robin Wells with 12 points and Deb Nygren with 11 points. On the boards, Shelle Tomaszkievicz pulled in eight rebounds and Shari Krohn added seven boards.

St. Mary's moved to 13-18 overall and kept their perfect NAC record intact at 4-0.

THE LADY WILDCATS put their full lineup in to action in Saturday night's game with Pittsburg State, but came up on the short end of a 81-59 final tally.

The Gussies led at halftime 38-26 and maintained their advantage in the second half, outscoring WSC 43-33 to take possession of the win.

All but three Lady Wildcats scored in the loss. Robin Wells headed up point column with 12 points, followed by Res Gribble and Shelle Tomaszkievicz, each with nine points.

The loss moved WSC's Central States conference record to 1-7 overall and their season mark to 9-12.

Winside heads into district mat action

Equipped with a squad containing eight seeded wrestlers, the Winside matmen head into the D-2 District wrestling tournament on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 8 and 9, at Elgin Pope John High School in Elgin.

The Wildcats go into the two-day event off of a second place finish at the Groundhog Day Invitational at Clearwater last Saturday, Feb. 2.

Following a district meeting held earlier in the week, Winside Coach Paul Sok said that eight members of his 12-man squad had been seeded in fourth place or above going into the 14-team district tournament.

Those wrestlers seeded and their ranking include Mace Kant, third, 98 pounds; Doug Paulsen, fourth, 165 pounds; Darrin Schellenberg, fourth, 126 pounds; Chris Olson, third, 132 pounds; Mike Jaeger, second, 155 pounds; Mike Woerdemann, first, 167 pounds; Jeff Thies, first, 185 pounds; and Chris Jorgensen, third, heavyweight.

"We probably seeded a little bit better overall in the seeding than we expected," said Sok. "Things are going good for us right now, we have the possibility of a good number of wrestlers going to state."

Sok expects Clark and Elgin Pope John to be tough opponents in the district. "How we finish will depend on who comes through for us in the semifinals with the most power."

AT THE INVITATIONAL on Saturday, Winside placed second with 165 points behind the Norfolk reserve squad with 206 points.

The Wildcats recorded five individual championships and entered eight wrestlers in the final round matches.

Jeff Thies posted his first undefeated regular season with a championship at 165 pounds. In the final round match he pinned Ken Kratochull of the Norfolk JV's at 1:16 in the match.

Other champions included Mace Kant with a 6-0 decision over Jason Forslund of Norfolk at 98 pounds; Doug Paulsen at 105 pounds in a 9-1 decision over Scott Hopkins of Norfolk; Chris Olson at 132 pounds with a 9-2 decision over Troy Ens of Genoa; and Mike Woerdemann with a 5-0 decision over Scott Olson of Norfolk at 167 pounds.

Taking second place was Jeff Bollich at 112 pounds after being pinned by Brent Bouden of Norfolk at 2:53 in the finals. Mike Jaeger also finished in second place at 155 pounds after losing a 11-4 decision to Steve Andreasen of Genoa. Chris Jorgensen placed second in the heavyweight division after a last-second pin by Ken Newcomb of Norfolk.

National Jaycee Women Week

The Wayne County Jaycee women will be observing National Jaycee Women's Week from Feb. 10-16.

In honor of the United States Jaycee Women, an organization of more than 55,000 women between the ages of 18 and 35 in more than 3,000 communities, several local activities have been planned.

A gift will be given to the first baby girl born at Providence Medical Center during that week. Senior citizens will be entertained with a Valentine's party on Feb. 14 at the Senior Citizens Center.

A special Valentine's Day party on Feb. 16 will include volleyball and pizza. Members and their guests will play volleyball at the Wayne State College women's gym from 7 to 10 p.m., followed by a pizza party.

Wayne County Jaycee women recently made hospital favors for Providence Medical Center and will hold a secret heart sister Valentine exchange this month.

Other activities through the year included Christmas tree sales with the Wayne Jaycees, sponsoring an annual craft fair, holding the Wayne Centennial Pageant and Ice Cream Social, a Christmas party at Region IV and sponsoring a CPR course for babysitters.

The 19 members of the Wayne Jaycee Women support various worthwhile contributions in the community, including the United Way and Aid to Foster Children. The donation of a slide projector was also made to the Wayne Public Library.

Compassionate Friends to meet

The northeast Nebraska chapter of The Compassionate Friends will hold their monthly meeting on Thursday, Feb. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Norfolk Lutheran Community Hospital cafeteria meeting room.

There will be the usual short business meeting, followed by an informative get-together and time of sharing to compensate for the cancellation of the December Christmas party.

Friends and family are especially welcome, all are invited to bring a treat and happy memories to share at the meeting.

Book donated at Acme Club

Eleven members of the Acme Club and one guest, Mae Mason, met Monday afternoon in the home of Fawn Kern, hostess.

President Bannadell Koch announced to the group that the book "Someone Cares" by Helen Steiner Rice, would be placed in the Wayne Public Library in memory of Marguerite Park by the Acme Club.

Shirley Fletcher became a new member of the club.

Mabel Sorensen opened her program by reading inspirational verses from the book "Just For You" by Helen Steiner Rice. The remainder of the afternoon was spent singing old favorite songs.

The next meeting will be a paper sack luncheon on Monday, Feb. 18 at 1 p.m. (one hour earlier than usual) in the home of Betty Wittig.

Evangelists to share message

Evangelists Verlyn and Bertha Nelson will be presenting morning teaching seminars and sharing their message at the Christian Life Assembly at 901 Circle Drive in Wayne during the week of Feb. 10-14.

Sessions will be held at 10:45 a.m. on Sunday morning, Feb. 10 and at 10 a.m. each of the weekday mornings, and also at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

Verlyn Nelson is ordained in the Assemblies of God Church and has been a pastor for 22 years in Minnesota and Wisconsin.

AAUW bake sale

The Wayne Branch of AAUW will hold a bake sale on Saturday at the Electronics in Wayne. Proceeds from the sale will go to AAUW Fellowships, a program through which eligible women may receive funds for study and education.

AAUW is an organization of women with college degrees, and it provides support for women and education. The public is urged to stop in at the bake sale for Valentine "sweets."

Be wary of dangers of chimney fires

The Consumer Product Safety Commission has issued a safety alert concerning chimneys used with woodburning stoves, fireplaces and fireplace inserts.

In one year, wood-burning appliances accounted for more fires, more fire deaths and more property damage than any other kind of heating fuel. In fact, these losses represented 20 percent of all residential fires in the United States.

Most wood heating fires involve the chimney and not the appliance itself. While the majority of these fires are contained within the chimney and do not cause damage to the house, there is a potential future hazard from the continued use of chimneys whose structural integrity has been compromised by a chimney fire. Some residents may not even be aware that a chimney fire has occurred.

Common Causes of Chimney Fires

- Improper chimney installation too close to wood framing.
- Installation of thermal insulation too close to the chimney.
- Improperly passing the stovepipe or chimney through a ceiling or wall, causing wood framing to ignite.

Structural damage to the chimney caused by the ignition of creosote, the black, tarlike substance that builds up inside the chimney in normal use.

Inner liners of metal chimney can corrode or rust, or buckling or separation of the seam can occur, often from too hot a fire. The tile inner liner in a masonry chimney and the surrounding brick may crack and separate, perhaps as a result of a creosote fire; some old chimneys do not have a tile liner.

People with either metal or masonry chimney systems should visually examine components twice a month during heavy use. In the case of heavy creosote buildup, suspicion of a problem or a chimney fire, a qualified chimney repairman or "chimney sweep" should perform a complete safety inspection.

Products buildup can be minimized by using proper stove size and avoiding low damper settings for extended periods. Too low a temperature increases creosote buildup and too high a temperature may eventually cause damage to the chimney and result in a fire.

Farm and Ranch Report

Farmers can get timely information to help them make management changes and deal with problems by watching Farm & Ranch Report, which begins its fourth season March 7 on the Nebraska Educational Television Network.

The half-hour show airs weekly on Thursdays at 12:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m.

The kickoff program will feature an overview of the 1985 Farm Bill — the topic on the minds of every farmer. A three-part series entitled "Breaking the Farming Tradition" will include discussions by USDA officials and extension economist-public policy Roy Frederick. April will feature a segment on how to use livestock and grain options. Regular segments again will focus on marketing, weather impact and farmers' questions.

Phone calls can be made 24 hours a day to Farm & Ranch Report and recorded for later response. For greater Nebraska, the number is 800-242-7518. When using the toll-free number, ask the operator to connect you to Farm & Ranch Mailbox.

Training offered to young drivers

Tractor driving skills

Two special permits are needed for young tractor drivers to meet Nebraska state law and the Federal Department of Labor Standards.

1. Department of Labor Standards require boys and girls from 14 to 16 to have a special exemption permit if they are to operate a tractor or other farm implements for someone other than their parents. This permit can be obtained by completing a 10-hour course in tractor operations and safety.

Extension Agents in Dakota, Cumming, Cedar, Thurston, Stanton, Wayne, Pierce, and Dixon Counties are providing a special training for this purpose to be held on March 8 and 9 at the Northeast Center near Concord from 4:45 p.m. on Friday to 3:00 p.m. on Saturday. This is part of their 4-H Youth Development Program and is open to all youth without regard to race, color, national origin, sex or handicap.

There is a $5.00 registration fee for this training payable in advance. Those interested in receiving this training should register with their county extension office prior to March 1.

2. Nebraska State Law requires a special permit for all tractor operators 13 to 16 to enable them to drive a tractor or other farm equipment on any Nebraska roadway. This permit can be obtained in two ways:

A temporary permit is available from the Department of Motor Vehicles for a $5.00 charge. It is good for only six months and no test is required. It is especially good for those youths who will be 16 in six months.

A permanent permit is available for a cost of $5.00. It is good until the age of 18. A written test, an eye exam, and a tractor-driving test, administered by the Department of Motor Vehicles examiners is required. A special test day to obtain this permit has been scheduled for March 9 at the Northeast Center near Concord from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

Special application blanks can be obtained from the extension office.

the farmer's wife

Happiness, for me, is a day when I don't have one thing to leave home for. A big calendar hangs by the phone in the kitchen, and when there is a blank square, I rejoice.

I got in a walk after lunch. I put on long underwear, Kay's insulated coveralls, and Ann's moon boots. My face got cold, because of the wind; the rest of me was almost too warm. Modern outer wear is truly amazing.

Those moon boots really do keep toes warm. One of the profs at NTC walks to work every day. He has a beard, which I suppose protects the face, and I believe he has lots of determination, because at 8 a.m. on Thursday, he was trudging along Benjamin Avenue. He had on insulated boots, a great coat, and a warm hat, but the wind chill was -35!

While I was walking, my yeast dough was rising in front of the Earth Stove. Then I made a couple pans of cinnamon rolls. I love fresh hot bread. I can resist cake and pie, but not "the staff of life." When it's whole wheat, I prefer the heel of the loaf.

That was one thing about school-nursing. Those cooks make bread or rolls or buns almost every day. At Wayne, there were sticky cinnamon rolls for coffee break periodically. Nothing else makes my mouth water like that. I wonder if the kids appreciate it.

BECAUSE OF THIS affection for fresh bread and sweet rolls, I wish I could be in Verdigris Sunday. They are going to be baking kolaches at 11 a.m., and tasters are invited.

That's what I call a creative activity. As I read it, they plan to experiment with prize-winning kolache recipes, and perhaps start a business. That might employ a few people, and would probably be a salable product.

I've never had any luck with kolaches. Someone told me I need real lard. I used that, and it didn't help. I wonder how far they will deliver.

I have a classmate who used to bake cinnamon rolls for Grant's truck stop on the Interstate at Waco. She started at 4 a.m., had two ovens, and baked a whole bunch every day. That's not my idea of how to make a living, but it was a good business.

One other good thing to make with yeast dough is ronzas. These are cabbage, onions, and ground beef baked into bread. You roll out the dough, cut it into squares, put some of the mixture in the center, seal the edges, let rise, and bake. These are delicious. Great to have in the freezer. Good to take out to the field. My recipe comes from a German-Russian cookbook produced by a church in south Lincoln, the area featured in last Sunday's World Herald.

AN EXTRA-CURRICULAR activity this month is an adult education class in computers at our local H.S. I'm not really interested in the little "Apples." I just feel I have to know something about them in self-defense. I'm not yet ready to substitute a word processor for my old Royal manual. I have a machine that's smarter than I am!

January has been a good month for "encouraging words." We all need them once in a while. A friend wrote from Orlando to say they were thinking of us. (The citrus farms there were frozen out soon after.)

A nurse friend called one night to say she kept seeing worried farm faces on TV and wondered how we were faring.

A local loyal reader wrote to share some of her tough times, expressed appreciation, and made my day. Thank you so much.

And there was a page from a Kansan who wished it to be known that their 12-18" of snow on January ninth did not blow, and was a great benefit to the wheat land. What would it be like if the snow didn't blow? Thanks for writing, Joe.

Makes me wonder just where the Wayne Herald goes. In the past, I've heard from California and Arkansas. The good old hometown paper can follow us and keep us informed about family and friends at home.

When is the best time to plan, plant windbreaks?

When is the best time to plan and plant your windbreak?

If you had planted your windbreak 10 years ago, you would be reaping all the benefits that a windbreak has to offer.

Heating bills could have been reduced by as much as 15 percent as the winter wind wouldn't have been able to blow across the place and drive up the heating bills. Livestock wouldn't have suffered as much as they would be protected from the wind and this protection would have helped them to be more warm and content. They would have been better able to convert feed to gain as they needed less feed to keep warm.

In the summer the cooling bill at home could have been 50 percent less. The shade offered by the trees would allow the home to stay cooler and this keeps the air conditioner from running continuously and driving up the electrical bill.

The shade would have given livestock a place to rest and keep cool, making for healthier cattle and more gains.

A field windbreak could have prevented the hot summer winds from sapping valuable moisture that crops could use to produce higher yields. In a test that was conducted by The University of Nebraska, a 30 acre plot that was protected by a field windbreak out-produced a 40 acre field that was unprotected by 23 percent on soybeans and 18 percent on wheat.

THE TREES COULD have been planted as a living snow fence and prevented the heavy snow from piling in your lane or along the road.

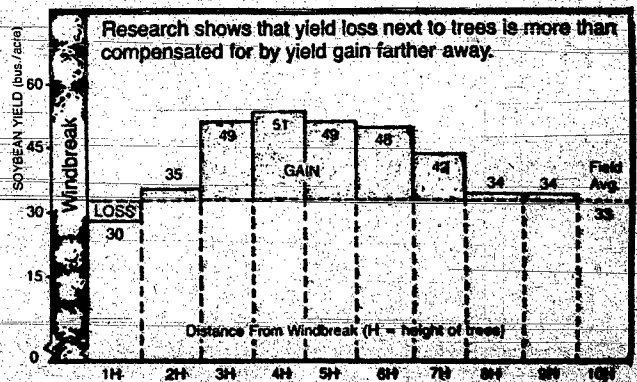

The acre of trees could have removed about 13 tons of dust and other potentially harmful gases every year from the environment and they could have produced enough oxygen to keep 18 people alive.

These trees could have been absorbing the noise, as every 100 feet width would have absorbed six to eight decibels of sound intensity. A busy highway is capable of generating up to 72 decibels. These trees could have made our world a bit more peaceful and quiet.

The Wayne County SCS at 100 Logan in Wayne can order your trees and help plan a windbreak now, so that it can be planted this spring.

The best time to plant a windbreak would have been 10 years ago. Why wait and let another year slip by without planting a windbreak? By planning the windbreak now and planting it this spring, you will soon be enjoying all that a windbreak has to offer.

Meetings set for County 4-H Councils

A series of meetings for the 1985 County 4-H Councils has been set for March. According to Ken Schmidt, extension 4-H youth specialist at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, the County 4-H Council plays a critical role in a strong 4-H organization by supporting the program with sound planning, policies, and adequate resources.

The meetings provide an opportunity to share successes and learn how other counties are helping youths reach their personal goals and those of the community. Schmidt said.

The area schedule: March 7—the Coffee Shop, Stanton, 6:30-9 p.m.; and March 12—Bosh's Restaurant, Schuyler, 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

The programs will consist of a general session and small group sessions. Topics for the general session include: In Pursuit of Excellence; the Challenges Facing 4-H; Sharing Program Success; and What's Working for Our Neighbors? The small group session topics will include: The Changing 4-H Scene; Marketing 4-H; Programming for Teens; Accountability With 4-H Funds; and Specialty For New Council Members.

Attend Farm Bureau school

Three members of the Dixon County Farm Bureau attended the Nebraska Farm Bureau Legislative School in Lincoln on Jan. 30 and 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fahrenholz of Allen and Mrs. Harold George of Dixon represented the county at the annual meeting, which acquaints Farm Bureau members with the Nebraska Legislative process.

As part of the school, the Dixon County Farm Bureau members met with their state senator, Gerald Conway of Wayne, and discussed issues of interest to Dixon County residents and those on which Farm Bureau has policy.

Among issues discussed were agricultural land valuations, commodity check-offs, chemigation, Initiative 300 and taxes.

Conservation tillage for row crop

Nebraska farmers can get practical information on conservation tillage practices by attending a 1985 Conservation Tillage for Row Crop Production area meeting at Pender Feb. 21.

Don C. Spitzer, Extension Agent, said the purpose of the meetings is to assist farmers in the selection and management of conservation tillage practices for their particular farming situations. Conservation tillage systems reduce soil erosion while conserving fuel and labor resources, he said.

The program will include a number of different speakers including some local farmers. Several implement, seed and chemical dealers will have exhibits at Pender.

The registration fee of $5 will include lunch, refreshments and a copy of the meeting proceedings. Pre-registration is not required.

The meetings are sponsored by the UNL Cooperative Extension Service in cooperation with the Soil Conservation Service and Natural Resource Districts.

Pioneer Farm Family award

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben and the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers announced recently that nominations for the 30th annual Pioneer Farm Family awards are being accepted. The program honors farm families in Nebraska whose land has been owned by the same family for 100 years or more.

Joe Andrews of Bassett, president of the association, pointed out that 13 of the 14 families honored have been honored at various county fairs during the first 29 years of the project.

President Andrews and Orville Koch of Syracuse, secretary-treasurer, said that again this year the honored families will receive an engraved walnut plaque and an aluminum gatepost marker from the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, plus a special framed citation from the Nebraska Association of Fair Managers.

In addition, Ak-Sar-Ben will honor the honored families at an annual banquet during the organization's 58th Livestock Exposition and Rodeo, Sept. 18-29.

All nominations must be submitted by May 15 to the secretary of the local county fair board.

Stress seminar available to businesses

The stress that many families experience, trying to balance work and family priorities is a national concern and one that will be addressed here with a series of seminars on "Work and Family."
 Beginning this month, Northeast Technical Community College will present the series on site at area companies and businesses in conjunction with a statewide effort by community colleges.

 The seminars are adapted from a highly successful series presented in Minnesota in which 94,000 participated at the workplace. Follow-up studies in Minnesota found that the seminars reduced job anxiety associated with work and family concerns, promoted support among employees, and created a sense of loyalty toward the company. Participants also reported that the seminars helped them manage family responsibilities in ways that do not conflict with work.

 According to Susan Madden,

local project coordinator, the projected increase in the number of working women, single parent families, and families with two wage earners and the effect on the workplace is the major reason for offering the seminars.
 The series will cover such topics as time and stress management, family quality time, single working parent issues, balancing working and parenting, family communication, decision making, and family life cycles.

 In Nebraska the "Work and Family" seminars will be presented through the company workplace. To learn more about the series for employees, call Susan Madden at 371-6097 in Norfolk.
