Timpte will bring industry to Wayne

by Chuck Hackenmiller

Timpte, Inc., a semi-trailer manufacturing firm headquartered in Denver, Colorado, announced Friday afternoon it will build a new refrigerated semi-trailer manufacturing facility in Wayne.

The new industry is expected to employ between 150 to 200 people initially, said Steve Silvas of Timppte, Inc., which is a Timppte Industries company.

Silvas personally delivered the letter, pertaining to the site designation, on Friday to representatives of Wayne Industries.

Friday afternoon's location selection announcement by Timppte, Inc. owners has culminated nearly 1 1/2 years of searching by the Denver-based manufacturing firm for an expansion site.

The city of Wayne began a concentrated effort to step up its sales pitch to Timppte, Inc. nearly six months ago, said City Administrator Phil Kloster, one of three key individuals who were instrumental in keeping Wayne in contention for the new industry. Wayne Industries, Inc. representatives John Dorcey, president, and Anne Svoboda, executive vice president, were also involved in the discussions with Timppte, Inc. along with Nebraska Public Power District officials Bob Shively and Roy Landis. Kloster said the main manufacturing facility, which will measure approximately 150,000 square feet and will be located directly north of Heritage Homes which is east of Wayne.

KLOSTER BEGAN the Friday afternoon press conference by reading the letter from Timppte, Inc. that was addressed to himself, Dorcey and Svoboda.

"Timppte is pleased to inform you of the decision to locate an additional semi-trailer manufacturing facility in your community," Kloster read from the letter.

"All of the owners of Timppte firmly believe Wayne will be an asset and, likewise, we will be an asset to Wayne. The broad community support that exists for our project, the college, the financial incentives available from Wayne and the state of Nebraska and the efforts of each of you gives us confidence we have made the very best choice for Timppte," he read.

"Now, we need to put our efforts in to resolving these contingencies so that we can get to 'ground breaking' this spring. I guess we both will be able to celebrate 'an event' during our 101st year."

Both Wayne and Timppte, Inc. had celebrated its 100 year anniversary last year.

After Kloster finished reading the letter, Silvas said Timppte, Inc. was proud to make the selected site announcement, saying the manufacturing firm is "coming to the best community we could find out of dozens of choices."

"We are very, very excited about Wayne]. It has a tremendous organization and it is a tremendous community," Silvas said. "We'll provide and show you that we're just another asset to you and your wonderful community — no bigger or better," he said.

"We would also like to say thanks in advance, from the ownership of the company and its management, to allow us to come to this community," he added.

MAYOR WAYNE MARSH spoke after Silvas, saying Timppte Inc.'s announcement to locate in Wayne has brought on "probably one of the greatest, happiest days of my life."

Dorcey then thanked those in the Wayne community for their cooperation helping to bring the industry to Wayne.

"Silvas said afterwards it will be the first part of April when the company will 'look to breaking ground' at the proposed manufacturing site.

"Hiring will take place either the latter part of this year or the first part of next year," Silvas said. He said Timppte, Inc. currently has a facility operating in David City, Nebraska. Timppte, in the letter announcing the Wayne manufacturing location, said the facility construction is subject to satisfactory completion of the following:

• Execution and delivery of the bond indenture resolution, probably in an amount not to exceed $7.5 million.

• Execution and delivery of the "agreements" from the city of Wayne and Wayne Industries Inc. to Timppte as previously submitted to Timppte.

WAYNE INDUSTRIES will provide a cash gift to the industry, Kloster said. The city of Wayne, he said, anticipates receiving a $500,000 Community Development Block Grant and will also provide site improvements to the manufacturing firm's location (water, sewer, electricity, gas and earth moving) at an

State agency rules on election complaint

by Chuck Hackenmiller

Nebraska's Accountability and Disclosure Commission has dismissed "with prejudice" all but one complaint filed against former District 17 State Senator Merle Von Minden of Allen.

A press release from the Commission's office said "the Commission's office entered into a stipulation order with Von Minden."

The order was enacted in response to a complaint filed prior to last November's election by present District 17 state senator Gerald Conway. Conway, during the course of his campaign against Von Minden for the District 17 senate seat, charged that Von Minden's campaign material contained erroneous information and misleading statements of Von Minden's record.

Conway alleged that Von Minden, while a candidate for re-election, was in violation of the Nebraska Political Accountability and Disclosure Act, according to the Commission's March 21 press release.

THE COMPLAINT, the release said, stemmed from a May 7, 1984 letter mailed to voters in the 17th district which described Von Minden's record while in the Unicameral. Conway contended the letter contained false statements of material fact relating to the candidate (Von Minden), and went on to cite the following examples: "Von Minden was the sponsor of Nebraska's first anti-litter bill..."

and "Von Minden played an active role in passage of the Family Farm Preservation Act..."

The press release said that in the stipulation order, Von Minden and the Accountability Commission agreed that all charges and complaints brought against Von Minden and the Commission to Re-Elect Senator Merle Von Minden (based upon the May 7 letter) were "to be dismissed with prejudice except the charge concerning the Family Farm Preservation Act."

Dismissed with prejudice means the charges cannot be brought up again, according to a Wayne attorney.

"Without admitting to any violation in connection with the Family Farm bill, Von Minden agreed to payment of a $250 civil penalty," the press release said.

Von Minden defended himself of the complaints when the complaints were formally filed, saying he firmly believes his sponsorship of the "litter bill" was one of the first bills responsible for getting the litter off the streets.

The Family Farm Preservation Act, which he had sponsored, did not pass. However, he was unable to catch the error in the May 7 letter before the campaign correspondence was mailed to the District 17 constituents, he had said last October.

Oldest Living 4-H Alumna

In recognition of the 90th anniversary of 4-H work in Nebraska during 1985, the Nebraska 4-H Department at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln is searching for information to fill in the gaps in a comprehensive history of the youth-serving organization.
John O. Orr, extension 4-H specialist at UNL, said help is needed to locate the following:
•The oldest living 4-H alumna.
•The volunteer 4-H leader with the longest length of service.
•Families that have five generations of 4-H membership.
•And clubs that are 35 years old or older.
Persons with documented information are asked to turn it in to their local Extension Service Office, Orr said.
Further information and plans for the observance of the 90th year of 4-H club work in Nebraska will be released at intervals during 1985, Orr said.

Timpte

estimated cost of from $4750,000 to $1 million.
Approval by Timpte of the final site preparation plan.
The site is located outside the Wayne city limits, Kloster said, and the company will be leasing approximately 35 acres. "That was one of the incentives that we feel will not be annexed by the city for at least ten years," he said.
Approval by the State of Nebraska of the CDBG revolving loan and the job wage reimbursement program.
Timpte, Inc. will be provided a $500,000 revolving loan from the city of Wayne, at 1/2 of the prime interest rate (the same type of loan which was provided to Wayne's Dairy Queen and Restful Knights). The city of Wayne will receive the $500,000 financing through the Nebraska Department of Economic Development and the Housing and Urban Development in the form of a Community Development Block Grant.
The $500,000 revolving loan block grant is supplied to the city that in turn, will lend the money to the company. The company pays back the loan to the city and the city can use what is returned and provide loans for economic development.

"We are also going to be receiving another $500,000 in job training funds from the state of Nebraska," Kloster said.
Another arrangement by Timpte, Inc. of Satisfactory Industrial Bond Financing.
Timpte owners also said in the letter that they would also like to be assured that our construction and purchase of machinery and equipment can be "grandfathered" if the sales tax exemption is removed.
The manufacturing company, Kloster said, will be charged only $1 a year to lease the land.
Wayne County Commissioner Board Chairman Merlin Beiermann, also present at the press conference, said plans are to establish a paid district which will call for road paving from Highway 25 to 14th Street — about a half mile project.
Beiermann said the new company will "help a lot of people in agriculture out because there are a lot of people in the rural areas looking for work."
All of the "new money" for the incentive financing of the manufacturing firm will be derived from the state and federal level.
"None of the money going out will be tax money on a local basis," Kloster emphasized.

He said it is likely that there will be pursuance of the completion of the Wayne Municipal Airport master plan. Timpte, Inc. has plans to use the airport facilities in its business operations.
[That master plan completion] was originally scheduled for 1987. But we are going to see if we can move that up if possible."
THE MASTER PLAN was drawn up for the municipal airport almost nine years ago to point out future airport projects when federal grants become available. One of the projects proposed in the master plan is the construction of a north-south runway at the airport.
This past summer, runway 4 at the airport was extended 600 feet and widened to 40 feet.
Wayne State College President Ed Elliott told The Wayne Herald that, as in the past with other retailers or companies, facilities at the college (particularly in the Applied Science area) will be available to be used as training grounds for personnel to be employed at Timpte, Inc.
Wayne State College officials wrote a letter to the Denver-based company explaining the opportunities which are available at the college.

"We will do what we can to help in economic development of the community," he said. "This is an important time to have a major industry in northeast Nebraska."
He said Timpte officials had toured the Applied Science facility at the college and "were impressed at what was available and what they could use."
"We are currently the largest employer in the city and we have another major employer coming in. This will provide a significant, economical opportunity to people in northeast Nebraska and it will be a boost to Wayne State College," Elliott said.
Kloster said there were 38 companies from five states — Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Kansas and Missouri — which were vying for Timpte, Inc.'s choice as the place to locate its manufacturing facility.
What he believes to be Wayne wasn't the incentives listed above. The community sold itself.
"I think what really sold them was the general cooperation of the community and the attitude of the people," he said.

'hacken' away

Every once in a while, while I was attending grade school, teachers would surprise us with a break from the regular routine of tests and book reading.

They would say: "Okay. That's enough studying for now. Everyone stand up and we'll do some stretching exercises to classical music (now if it classically interests you)."

Or: "Instead of the regular spelling lesson, we are going to have some head-on competition with a spelling bee."

Sometimes the good Sisters would allow us to stay outside an extra 15 minutes or so at recess time.

Those surprises were small, but they were welcome on days that seemed to drag on and on.

But I am surprised anyone would go so far as what a high school in Jamestown, Pennsylvania did.

It was reported that juniors from the high school were told, through classroom intercom, that a United States vessel was bombed by the Soviet Union in the Baltic sea.

The juniors were told the President would speak on the confrontation later in the day. School was to be dismissed earlier.

Many of the students came to the conclusion that the event would lead to an immediate nuclear war and were terrified of the consequences — and rightfully so.

Five minutes or so later, the juniors were told the whole thing was a hoax to prompt discussion in an American Cultures Class that was about to study the Cuban Missile Crisis. The executive director of the National Association of Secondary Principals called the happening a "disaster" approach to education. The only value being provided was a "little peek under the curtain at what might happen if something like that actually occurred."

One thing for certain. It was a break in the regular routine, but I doubt if instructors will ever try that "confrontation" approach again.

IT IS AMAZING at how immediately the students associated the Soviet Union attack on the American ship with nuclear weapons. The students probably wouldn't have been as moved if the ship was attacked by another country that is not nuclear defense oriented.

All this reminds me of the time my brothers and I played a trick on my sisters. We put a walkie-talkie behind a radio and went into another room.

One of my brothers turned on the radio and told my sisters to tune in to the news bulletin. Some lions and bears had escaped from a circus truck, we said, and were heading toward our proximity.

It was a cruel trick. I know — but brothers are brothers. The girls and parents were indeed upset when the nasty trick was revealed.

Getting back to the school incident, imagine what the reaction would be if the same bulletin came on the radio and television stations in grocery stores and homes. There would likely be a nationwide panic. Would everybody be thinking nuclear war?

Perhaps this school incident, in this regard, could be a lesson learned.

At the Chamber of Commerce Coffee Friday morning at Wayne County Public Power District, a display was put together to reveal the average retail cost of products and what the farmer's share is of that cost.

For every loaf of bread that sells for 78 cents, the farmer's share is 6 cents. Eggs that sell for 69 cents a dozen, the farmer's share is 35 cents. Milk, retail, is about $1.80 and the farmer's share is 85 cents.

Other items — retail on butter, $2.79, farmer's share, 69 cents, retail on cheese, $2.70 per pound, farmer's share $1.29 per pound; retail on hamburger, $1.19 per pound, farmer's share 57 cents; retail on oatmeal, $1.59, farmer's share 1 cent; and cornflakes, retail is $2.25 per box while the farmer's share is 22 cents a box. Now we know why farmers find it rough going with the farm markets.

Welcome addition

Gaining an industry the proportion and size of Timpte Inc. has got to be one of the most welcome news the community of Wayne has heard in a long time.

And why wouldn't it be. Timpte Inc. will invest $7.5 million in Wayne to build the refrigerator semi-trailer plant.

The company will supply the area with employment opportunities for up to 200 jobs — maybe more.

It is a reputable firm that recently celebrated its 100th anniversary.

Of all the communities in a five-state area that have been reviewed, Wayne was their overall choice.

The truck transportation industry is growing and becoming one of the primary means to transport products. Semi-trailers, which is what Timpte Inc. manufactures, will continue to be strong in demand.

The industry will arrive at a time when the rural economy in the area needs a shot in the arm and other alternatives to farming are few and far between.

With the 200 people who will be employed at the new manufacturing firm will come more spending dollars which could be circulated in the surrounding area. That will be a boost to area businesses.

No local tax dollars will be used to subsidize the construction and development of the new facility and its site.

And the manufacturing firm will be an attractive industry for other potential industrial officials to review as the Wayne Industries, Inc. continues its search to bring in more companies to the community.

Three people should be commended for their hard work in trying to secure Timpte Inc.'s decision to locate in Wayne. They are Wayne Industries, Inc. officers Anne Svoboda, John Dorcy and Phil Kloster (who represents the city of Wayne on the Wayne Industries board).

During the past few months, particularly after the labor survey questionnaires were distributed and later tabulated earlier this year, these individuals (along with Bob Shively and Roy Landis, officials from the Nebraska Public Power District) were likely confronted constantly as to the status of how close Wayne was in bringing a manufacturing firm to Wayne.

Since disclosure of the company might have hurt the city of Wayne's chances in obtaining the industry, we believe the group (and the media) did the right thing in holding out from making statements on the industrial proposal until the last minute or when the announcement was made.

Their efforts should not go unrecognized. And the residents and businesses in the community of Wayne also should be commended. Timpte Inc. officials had visited with Wayne businessmen and residents on several occasions, according to Kloster, and they liked what they had seen and heard.

Many of the cities and states competing for the company's location had offered incentives also.

But it was the good response of the labor force, community support, a state college where facilities could be shared in the training of company workers and other factors that entered into Timpte's choice of Wayne.

It was a community effort — one that the community can be proud of, said one member of Wayne Industries.

And as City Administrator Phil Koster said: "We're both entering our 101st year. This is going to be a great start for the second 100 years."

Welcome, Timpte Inc. We're glad to have you aboard.

America's elderly: poor no more?

by Martin Lefkowitz
This opinion does not necessarily reflect the opinion of The Wayne Herald writers.

Should Social Security payments be frozen? This is one of the major questions facing Congress this year. Far too often, it is being discussed on a basis of emotion, not fact. Before a decision is made, the question should be examined carefully on the facts.

Many Americans believe that the nation's elderly suffer from a state of deprivation. While this was indeed true 25 years ago, an examination of the facts shows quite the opposite is the case today.

Those over 65 have a lower poverty rate than those below 50. After taking into account government benefits given to the over-65 group, the poverty rate for that group is 3.3 percent, about one third the poverty rate for the population of the rest of the country figured on the same basis.

People 65 and older have the highest per capita income per person, $4,299 — $335 more than the national average.

Even if we see to eliminate all public assistance to the elderly, including Social Security and all of their special tax benefits, we would find that 45 percent of elderly Americans would still be above the officially defined poverty level — $6,023 per year in 1993 for a two person family over 65.

Whenever there is talk of changing Social Security, the argument is made that Social Security is not a welfare program but an entitlement. People argue that they have been paying into the program and that those payments are going to finance their benefits.

This is not true. CONSIDER THE case of a worker who started paying into the system in 1937 when it started and worked until 1982, a total of 45 years. If he paid the maximum in Social Security taxes each year, his total payments would have been $12,828.45. His benefits would have started out at $734 per month. If he were married, his wife would collect half of his benefit, or an additional $367 per month, bringing their total first year benefit to $1,101, or $500 more than he had paid in 45 years.

But at age 65 he has a life expectancy of 14.2 years and his wife has a life expectancy of 18.5 years. That means that if Social Security benefits continue to increase at the same rate they increased in the 14 years prior to his retirement, the combined benefits for him and his wife would amount to $2,632 per month at the time of his death. Then, his widow would become eligible to collect an indexed portion of $1,316 per month.

The couple's lifetime benefits, based on average life expectancies, would be $375,000 — all from a contribution of $12,828.45.

The Social Security system is designed in the manner of an illegal pyramid — or "Ponzi" — scheme in which those who are in on the early part of the scheme get far more than they pay in while those who arrive later may get little or nothing. The current Social Security system has less than one month's worth of reserves and depends on workers currently paying into the system of finance benefits. If a private insurer were to try to market this type of insurance he would end up in jail.

But this type of thing cannot go on forever. In the case of Social Security, the end is coming close. In 1990 there were 4.5 workers paying into the Social Security trust fund for every one person collecting from the fund. By 1990, that ratio had changed to 3.2 recipients for every one worker. And during that period, maximum Social Security taxes had jumped by more than 1,000 percent from $144 to $1,587.67.

Between 1970 and 1983, the average worker in American had an increase in his weekly earnings of 134 percent, but after inflation his real income declined by 8.8 percent. During that same thirteen year period, Social Security payments to the average retiree went up by 255 percent, and after inflation benefits were up by 38.4 percent.

MANY OF THE ARGUMENTS against Social Security reform are based on the notion that Social Security is the sole source of income for the elderly. In reality, Social Security benefits comprise less than half the income for America's 65 and over population.

A survey of new Social Security recipients by the General Accounting Office indicated that 91.3 percent of the newly entitled retiree families reported other sources of income in addition to the incomes received under Social Security. Among the sources were public and private pensions, 68 percent; earned income by self or spouse, 49 percent; and asset income, 67 percent.

In our concern for the elderly, Americans have equated being old with being poor. This has caused an almost endless stream of programs to help the elderly, many of whom are not in need. As a result, we have created a system of transfer payments that does not transfer money from the rich to the poor, but merely from the young to the old.

Another fact to be considered is that retirees need less income than workers to maintain a comparable standard of living. Among the reasons for this are that such work-related expenses as commuting, pro- per work clothing and daily away-from-home lunches are no longer required.

Also, Social Security payments are largely untaxed and the elderly have been granted a number of other tax subsidies. Retirees should no longer have to save for their future and they are likely to spend less on such things as possessions, education, food and entertainment.

The Department of Commerce figures that an over-65 family of two needs only 10.1 percent less income to live at a certain level than a family of the same size below the age of 65. This does not include the impact of special tax benefits that accrue to the elderly.

After taking into account the tax status of Social Security income and special tax benefits to the elderly, a person with a pre retirement income of $10,000 per year would need about $8,180 in income after retirement to maintain the same standard of living. A person with a $25,000 per year income would only need $16,000 to maintain that same standard of living after retirement.

Thus we see that American's elderly are not poor. As a group, they are better off than the rest of us.

Of course, it is always a sacrifice to take a cut in income, but American's working men and women have seen their buying power erode for years. Now, in this period of national need, it's time that the retired make a similar sacrifice to help cut government spending and reduce the deficit.

After all, that's what American is all about — sharing both the good and the bad.

Lefkowitz is director of economic trends and statistics for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Club-of-the-month

Family, community projects keep club busy for 20 years

The following is the sixth article prepared by home extension clubs in Dixon County as part of a club-of-the-month series. Each month, a different extension club in Dixon County reports a brief history of the club, its membership and some of its major activities. Extension clubs are a part of the University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service. The extension homemakers program in Dixon County is directed by Anna Marie White.

Each year during the Dixon County Fair, Three C's Extension Club members are seen arranging booths, helping to enter and display open class exhibits, and volunteering to be exhibit hostesses.

Many of the fair entries in needlework, foods, crafts, plants and flowers are exhibited by Three C's members.

Community concerns and projects receive special attention from the Three C's Club. Members make May baskets for the Concord Senior Center, and favors for residents in nursing homes.

They also assist with Honey Sunday for retarded children, and each year donate to needy families at Christmas time through the Goodwill Shoe-and-Mitten Party in Sioux City and the Goodfellow's in Norfolk.

FIVE WOMEN are charter members of the Three C's Extension Club. They are Ina Reith, Evalina Johnson, Betty Anderson, Alice Erwin and Carolyn Hanson.

Other members include Vandelyn Hanson, Irene Magnuson, Judy Marshall, Helele, Pearl, Clara Puhrmann, Shirley Stohler and Mary Mann.

It is interesting to note that these 12 members are from six churches in the Concord area.

Membership in extension clubs is open to all homemakers. Anyone interested in becoming a member is asked to contact Alyce Erwin of Concord, 584-2457, Maureen Hangman of Ober, 692-3641, or Anna Marie White, Dixon County extension agent-home economics, 584-2234.

Thinking about spring cleaning?

Spring has officially arrived although the weather has been spring-like for a few weeks already. As spring arrives most homemakers begin to think about spring cleaning.

Spring cleaning may be much different for today's homemaker. In the past, homemakers rolled up rugs and hung them outdoors to beat out the winter's accumulation of dust.

Spring cleaning was hard work, but homemakers could rely on some common household products — baking soda and vinegar — to make their jobs easier.

TODAY'S HOMEMAKER can use these same products for spring or year round cleaning and save money too. These household cleaners often do as well as more expensive or caustic special cleaners.

Baking soda can be used in solution, as a paste, or dry. For solution, dissolve a tablespoon of baking soda in 1 quart of water. To make a paste, mix 3 parts baking soda and 1 part water. To use soda dry, just sprinkle directly from the container onto the surface you are cleaning.

The solution can be used to clean and deodorize most surfaces in the kitchen and bathroom. Use the paste to get rid of stubborn stains on counter tops, appliances or bathroom fixtures.

YOU WON'T HAVE TO WORRY about scratching the surface when cleaning with baking soda. A baking soda solution will remove soap residue and mildew from shower curtains without harming the plastic. Always be sure to rinse thoroughly and wipe dry when using baking soda to leave surfaces sparkling clean.

Dry baking soda will neutralize odors in the refrigerator, freezer and dirty laundry too! A sprinkle of baking soda between layers of dry clothes in the hamper or laundry bag will neutralize odors.

Add a half cup of baking soda to your final rinse when washing clothes and they will come out clean and fresh smelling.

A sprinkle of soda on dry carpeting will eliminate musty odors. Be sure to vacuum the carpet thoroughly after sprinkling with soda.

VINEGAR is another household cleaner that is very versatile. A solution of 1 cup vinegar and a few drops of dishwashing liquid in 2 quarts of water makes a great window cleaner.

The same cleaning solution can be used on painted surfaces, appliances and woodwork.

Always be sure to test the cleaning solution in an inconspicuous place before cleaning painted surfaces.

Vinegar also dissolves hard water deposits in drip, coffee makers, teakettles and similar items. Many coffee makers' use and care manuals recommend a periodic cleaning with vinegar. Boil 1 to 2 cups of vinegar in your teakettle to remove hard water deposits.

Stock up on these basic household cleaning products and use them for spring or year round cleaning.

Lenten devotions given at Grace Ladies Aid

Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid met March 13 with 45 members and one guest, Evelyn Frevert. Hostesses were Mary Kruger, Louise Larsen and Sally Lubbersfeld.

The Christian growth committee presented opening devotions, entitled "Lent," followed by singing of the hymn "Jesus, I Will Ponder Now." It was announced that several new books have been added to the church library, including a Concordance and a Bible dictionary.

SEVERAL MEMBERS visited and served refreshments at Wayne Care Centre on March 14.

An evening meal was served by Aid members to 53 students of The Singing Saint Concert Choir who performed several selections during Lenten meditation.

Members learned that the Wayne Zone Workshop will be held April 16 in Laurel. The regional joyshop, entitled "Linked by Love," is scheduled April 22 in West Point.

ALL MEMBERS participated in a read-a-thon of Matthew 26 and 27, followed with prayer.

Seated at the birthday table were Irene Geewe, Susan and Benjamin Vogel, Elaine Van Kamp, Malinda Barselman, Lena Fuetberth and Ardene Nelson.

Hostesses for the April 10 meeting will be Agatha Krallman, Irene Luft and Melvyn Meyer.

'Dressing Up Your Table'

lesson presented at 3M's

Three M's Home Extension Club met March 18 with nine members and three guests, Marjorie Summers, Gilsoun Yonn and Betty Lessmann.

President Joceliell Bull called the meeting to order in the home of Verdina Johs with the recitation of the Collect in unison.

Members responded to roll call with a table setting that impressed them. The lesson, "Dressing Up Your Table," was presented by the hostess.

MEMBERS WERE reminded of Bake and Take Days on March 22-24, and of the Helen Becker Conference on Family Health held March 20 in Norfolk.

Citizenship leader Delores Utchencouraged members to write their state senator regarding seat belt legislation.

Lee Larsen read "Aim for Success, Not Perfection," and health leader Verdina Johs reminded consumers to consider their nutritional health. She also announced that March 17-23 was Poison Prevention Week.

Mari Porter announced that the cultural arts contest will be held in April. Entries must be taken to the extension office by April 17.

The annual spring tea is scheduled April 29 in Carroll.

Family life leader Lanora Sorenson reminded members that "good friends are a treasure."

NEXT MEETING of the club is scheduled April 15 in the home of Leo Larsen.

The lesson, "Travel the Good Life," will be given by Roberta Goodman.

Seniors lead members of the All-Area wrestling squad

A total of six seniors from Wayne and Winside High lead the list of the 1985 All-Area wrestling team members.

Wayne seniors Kevin Koenig, Tim Book and Todd Dorcsey were named to the honor squad to represent the Blue Devils, while Jeff Thies, Mike Woerdeman and Mike Jaeger were the Winside Wildcats selected.

Joining the upperclassmen were one junior, Mark Janke of Wayne and a pair of Winside freshmen, Mace Kant and Doug Paulsen.

Thies led the list of state medalists with a second place finish in the Class D 185 pound weight class, while teammates Kant and Paulsen came away with fourth place awards in their respective weight classes.

Defending state champion Koenig of Wayne came back from an illness to bring home the fifth place medal at 185 pounds in Class B.

Of the nine grapplers named to the all area team, three are repeat choices from the 1984 team, including Koenig, Thies and Janke.

Selections for the first team were based on state qualification and overall season records. All qualified for the state tournament in Lincoln held in February and posted winning records.

Earning honorable mention to the All Area mat team were Wayne's Terry Schultz (senior, 132 pounds, 16-17), and Winside's Darin Schellenberg (sophomore, 126 pounds, 22-14, state qualifier), Chris Olson (junior, 132 pounds, 27-6), and Chris Jorgensen (senior, heavyweight, 17-13, state qualifier).

A rundown of the first team members and their season information includes:

- Kevin Koenig, 185 lbs., Wayne. As a senior, Koenig continued a win streak that began during the state tournament this sophomore year and extended it to the mat finals in Lincoln. He ended his career with a 31-3 season record, his only loss coming in the state semi finals. Koenig finished fifth in the 185-pound class at state and posted a career record of 105-4, along with setting several state, Class B and school wrestling records.
- Jeff Thies, 185 lbs., Winside. Also a senior, Thies was the highest finisher representing area teams at state, taking second place in the championship match at 185 pounds. He remained undefeated throughout the season until he lost a match during preliminaries at the district meet in Elgin. Thies ended the year with a 29-2 record.

- Doug Paulsen, 105 lbs., Winside. Paulsen began the possibility of becoming a four year state medalist with a fourth place finish at this year's mat finals in Lincoln. A freshman, he ended the year with a 26-6 record for the Wildcats.
- Mace Kant, 98 lbs., Winside. Also a freshman, Kant ended his first year of varsity wrestling with a 26-8 record and a fourth place medal from the state tournament.

- Mike Jaeger, 155 lbs., Winside. In his final year on the Wildcat squad, Jaeger qualified for the state tournament and finished the year with a 23-5 overall record.
- Mike Woerdeman, 167 lbs., Winside. Another Wildcat senior, Woerdeman won his weight class at the district wrestling meet in Elgin to advance to the state tournament. He closed out his high school career with a 28-6 final season record.
- Tim Book, 167 lbs., Wayne. A former state qualifier, Book again made it to the state tournament his senior year, advancing to the second round of consolation before going out. He finished the season with a 24-7 overall record.

- Mark Janke, 112 lbs., Wayne. As a junior, Janke made his second trip to the state tournament this past season. A member of last year's All Area team, he ended the year with a 24-12 season record.
- Todd Dorcsey, 138 lbs., Wayne. Dorcsey qualified for the state tournament for the first time as a senior, completing his final year with a 24-12 mark overall.

Men, women thinclads welcome back experience to 1985 WSC squads

The Wayne State College men's and women's track teams will open their 1985 outdoor season tomorrow (Tuesday) when they host the Early Bird meet at Memorial Stadium, beginning at 3 p.m.

The event will feature men's and women's squads from WSC, Dakota Wesleyan, Dana, and Westmar colleges, and the men's team from Morrisdale College.

Field events will begin at 3 p.m., while running events are slated to start at 3:30 p.m.

VETERAN COACH LeRoy Simpson begins his 14th season at the helm of the men's and women's teams, assisted by Don Stoltenberg.

The men's 14-member roster includes seven letterwinners. The four returning seniors are Troy Brende (400 meter), Tim Buezn (shotput), Pat LaPadula (400 meter and 400 meter hurdles), and Jeff Sorenson (pole vault and high jump).

A trio of junior lettermen will bolster the Wildcat program, including Darwin Barnes (400 meter), Randy Diller (shotput), and Bill Pospisil (shotput and discus).

Remaining team members are sophomores Todd Nott (1500-meter) and Joe Work (javelin), and freshmen John Kraai (400 and 800 meter), Brian Obermeyer (400 meter), Greg Unger (100 and 200 meter) and Darin Winfree (100 and 200 meter).

Sophomore Mark Vollmer, who earned All-America honors in the triple jump during the national NIAA indoor meet in Kansas City, Mo., earlier this year, was redshirted for the upcoming season due to a chronic back ailment.

Simpson expects his team to be strong in the field and the short relay events. All three shuttlers are returning lettermen from the 1984 squad.

THE LADY WILDCATS will be led by returning NIAA All-American junior Cindy Heesacker, who placed sixth in the 400 meter run at last year's national meet.

Sophomore Missy Stoltenberg also saw action at the national meet and returns to pace the women's team. She competed in the 100 meter, 100 meter hurdles and three relay events at the national meet.

Kandy Scholl (100 and 200 meter), Andrea Jones (javelin), and Lorri Cope (hurdles and 400 meter) also return to provide senior leadership. Juniors on the team include Cindy Heesacker (400 and 800 meter), and Kim Pohlman (100 and 200 meter).

The Lady Wildcats are strong on sophomores, led by Stoltenberg; Angela Boraman (shotput and discus); Debbie Bontson (400 meter and 400 meter hurdles) and Diana Asay (shotput and discus).

Freshmen members are Brenda Briese (100 meter), Fran Gross (400 meter), Diane Keller (1500 meter) and Julie Menard (400 meter and 400 meter hurdles).

Lettermen aid Wayne golf team

A trio of returning lettermen and state qualifiers will anchor the 1985 edition of the Wayne High golf team. Seniors Brad Moore and Rod Dahl, along with junior Tom Perry, were all members of last year's state qualifying team which finished fifth in the overall team standings for the highest ever finish for a Wayne High team at the state meet.

Joining the three upperclassmen are sophomores Corey Dahl, Kevin Gless, Tim Gless, David Ellis, Jay Liff, Corie Connelly and Chris Straight, and freshman Joel Pedersen.

Interim Coach Duane Blumenkamp, who is filling in for veteran Coach Harold Maciejewski, said that the team is currently holding playoffs to determine who will make the five-member varsity squad for the opening meet of the season tomorrow (Tuesday) with West Point and Oakland at the Wayne Country Club.

Wildcats begin spring grid practice

The Wayne State football team will don their pads and uniforms beginning today (Monday) for the start of spring practice.

The 20 practice schedule will culminate in the annual Alumni Varsity game to be held on Saturday, April 27 at 2:30 p.m. in Memorial Stadium.

The Wildcats wrapped up their winter conditioning with various physical tests last week. Head Coach Pete Chapman commented that "the preliminary results have been pretty pleasing; the kids have worked really hard and shown improvement."

The month long spring practice will serve many needs for the 1985 football squad. "One will be to fill in some spots, and second, to work on adding some depth," said Chapman. "The Wildcats will also concentrate on fundamentals, and attempt to work some new kids into the system. With the addition of several transfers and return of 16 seniors, the Wildcats will field a roster of 70 players for spring practice."

"It's a unique situation, since I've been coaching with so many starters and upperclassmen returning," added Chapman. The Cats return 18 starters from last year's 7-2 team, including second-team All-America kicker Herve Roussel.

In last year's spring game, the varsity defeated the alumni 22-0.

In conjunction with the spring game, a nine hole golf tournament is the morning at the Wayne Country Club, the purpose being to provide time for WSC alumni to gather and socialize.

An attempt has been made to contact all of the Wayne State football alumni. Those alumni who haven't been reached and would like to participate in the golf tournament of the football game are encouraged to contact The Wayne State College Sports Information Office at (402)-375-2200, ext. 326.

NAC cagers win All-Star game

The team comprised of Nebraska Athletic Conference basketball players downed representatives from the Nebraska Intercollegiate Athletic Conference 139-119 in the annual NAIA District 11 All-Star game played Thursday night in Kearney.

The game featured NBA style 12 minute quarters, the three point field goal, a 30-second clock and six personal fouls, and was played at Couch Coliseum on the Kearney State College campus.

The NAC squad reeled off 21 unanswered points in the final seven minutes of the game to take control after leading 67-65 at the half and 110-108 into the fourth quarter.

Kip Kircher of Kearney State topped the NAC's scoring with 25 points and 19 rebounds. Joining him in double figures were KSC's Jon Bergmeier with 16 points, Bellevue's Clay Ervin with 15 points, KSC's Brian Anderson and Chadron State's Rich King with 14 points each; Kirk Shuck of KSC with 13 points and Todd Hollingsworth of Peru State with 10 points.

Wayne State College representatives Tracy Penn and Calvin Sprew each logged eight points in the win. Nebraska Westeyan's Randy Larsen led the NAIC effort with 25 points and 12 rebounds.

In the seven year history of the series, the NAIC holds a 4-3 edge, the loss this year breaking a three game win streak.

Interest Rates Aren't The Only Thing To Consider When You Buy An IRA

Yes, interest rates are important. But so is time—the other ingredient needed to make the magic of compound interest work.

You've seen the numbers: $2,000 deposited each year at 11% will total $142,530 after 20 years. $44,826 after 30 years, and $1,291,653 after 40 years. That's why it's so important to put money aside in an IRA now—so it'll have time to grow into the nest egg you need for your future.
