Foundation announces year end tally on amount of cash gifts to WSC

Total cash gifts to the Wayne State Foundation from residents of Wayne totaled $41,475 during the Foundation's fiscal year ending June 30, said Kirk Hutton, executive director of the Foundation.

Of that total, $30,202 came from residents of Wayne who are not employed by the college, Hutton said.

Drive has raised $7,225 as of Friday — short of the $11,000 goal. However, Wayne businesses have contributed $22,000 to the President's Society during the past fiscal year.

"Part of the decline in the fund drive is because business people have shifted their giving to the President's Society," Hutton said.

President's Society members give at least $500 annually in unrestricted gifts. This Society has provided the annual leadership gifts during the past fiscal year.

"By supporting Wayne State College, the people of Wayne are taking ownership of their college," he said.

"People understand that private support of the college helps insure the highest quality of education in Wayne, Nebraska."

In addition to total cash gifts from Wayne residents, the Foundation also received $83,558.18 from alumni and friends outside of Wayne, bringing total cash contributions (including $45,134.34) to $170,148.32.

Wayne provided 33.17 percent of all cash gifts to the Foundation for the fiscal year.

In the U.S. Navy

Bodenstedt makes history as diver

Wayne native Debra Bodenstedt is a pioneer. One of a handful of female Navy diving officers, she's chalked up two firsts — she's the first woman to descend in a Navy submarine rescue chamber and the first to be qualified to operate the chamber.

She descended to a depth of 110 feet in the chamber while off the coast of the Bahamas.

The record was attained while Bodenstedt, a 1974 Wayne High School graduate, was on a month-long temporary tour of duty aboard the submarine rescue ship USS Kittiwake. Bodenstedt is normally the diving officer aboard the Norfolk-based destroyer tender USS Yellowstone.

"I'm proud of the fact I did that," she says. "Everybody on the Kittiwake was hoping I'd get the opportunity."

The 29-year-old daughter of Robert and Marilyn Bodenstedt of Wayne says she was on the Kittiwake to get at-sea training so she could qualify as an officer of the deck.

THE LIEUTENANT-junior grade is also trying to become surface warfare qualified. To do so, she must become familiar with many shipboard systems and pass an examination by a board of the ship's senior personnel.

"It takes a lot of time," she says of her surface warfare qualification, "especially when you have all the other duties I have. Right now I'm about 65 percent complete. The ship's upcoming trip to the Mediterranean should rap up the rest of it."

In addition to learning all about the workings of her ship, the former high school teacher is the ship's safety officer and assistant repair department head for production support, which she explains involves planning and estimating for repair work.

The Yellowstone is capable of supporting up to eight ships at one time with everything from steam and electrical power to medical and dental facilities. It is equipped to replace propellers on ships while afloat, exchange gas turbine engines, service nuclear power plants and conduct a multitude of repairs to the hull, machinery and weapons systems.

THE SHIP'S DIVERS lead the link between ship and sea by servicing ships underwater.

As diving officer, Bodenstedt supervises the ship's divers who routinely save the taxpayers' money by making underwater repairs which save the expense of puffing ships into drydock.

"I dive as often as my other duties allow," she says. "Whenever I get to do a unique type of job, I like to be on station, and experience it myself."

She says diving has had its embarrassing moments.

LT.j.g. DEBRA BODENSTEDT, daughter of Robert and Marilyn Bodenstedt of Wayne, is the diving officer for the USS Yellowstone, a destroyer tender ported in Norfolk, Va.

"It took me a while to live that one down," she says.

THE 3-YEAR sea service veteran says she enjoys duty aboard the Yellowstone, but admits that before she reported to the ship in March 1984 she was somewhat apprehensive about being the only female in the dive shop.

"I was a little worried about how I would be perceived, but it's worked out well," she says.

Bodenstedt joined the Navy in 1982 and received two years of training before reporting to the Yellowstone.

"For a long time I was the only female diver on the waterfront in Norfolk," she says adding that she's now one of two.

She says she originally wanted to be a Navy pilot but changed her mind when she discovered she was being placed on a waiting list between 8 months and 2 years long. When she voiced her displeasure with waiting that long, her recruiter asked if she'd be interested in diving.

a little crazy," the 1978 Wayne State college graduate says. "I come from a long line of farmers that have stayed right here in Nebraska."

"I've kind of been the person in my family that's always been a little different," she admits, explaining that she was the first to smash up the family car, and the only one to go to Europe three times during college.

"The worst part of being in the Navy is missing my family, friends and family reunions," she continues. "But my parents tell me they're proud of me."

She says joining the sea service was a good decision for her.

"I'm probably more well-rounded simply because of the responsibility that is demanded of you in the Navy," she says. "I definitely have a more mature outlook on life."

She says she'd like to get orders to a new salvage ship when she's scheduled to leave the Yellowstone in September 1986.

Having some fun

YOUNG CHILDREN have a knack of finding objects for amusement. Sometimes it can be a swing, or perhaps a hill of sand. The Winside youths take pleasure in playing with an abandoned two-wheel trailer.

Commissioners select insurance

by Chuck Hackenmiller

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners voted unanimously to accept the bid of Central Life as its health insurance carrier for its 40 or more county employees.

It was motioned by Commissioner Gerald Pospisil to accept the insurance bid of Central Life, represented by the Keith Jech Agency of Wayne.

"It was a tough decision to make. We know our employees here wanted it [Central Life]," said County Commissioner Chairman Merlin Beiermann.

The total monthly premium for Central Life will be approximately $10,764 per month. The commissioners had been investigating another insurance company, Aetna, which had a $7,914.05 monthly bid.

What shifted the tide to approve Central Life, Beiermann said, was that Aetna would not underwrite one of the present county insured individuals during the 31-day waiver period. Based on this, Beiermann said, it appears the county would be losing some benefits if it went with Aetna.

"We're not comparing apples to apples," Beiermann said in regard to Aetna and Central Life.

Another insurance outfit, which the commissioners did not name, went through the policies, Beiermann said, and also said the coverage was not the same.

Beiermann said the county commissioners have heard no negative comments from its employees about the Central Life policy during the past few years.

He also emphasized that the monthly premium of Central Life is about 5 percent less than the rates last fiscal period.

Next year's decision concerning health-life insurance for county employees will be affected because of a recently enacted state law which states that the county must have a retirement fund for its county workers and elected officials, said Beiermann.

OTHER INSURANCE companies, which had submitted bids for the county insurance besides Central Life and Aetna were Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Mutual of Omaha and The Travelers.

In other action Tuesday, the county commissioners decided to put the custodial work at the Wayne County Courthouse out for bids. And the commissioners will be remodeling the basement of the county courthouse to fulfill state requirements to make the courthouse bathroom accessible to the physically disabled.

The commissioners also plan on moving the drivers examination room from the present location (across from the county clerk's office) to the basement level. Computers will be moved into the current drivers examination office, according to Beiermann.

Present custodian Ruby Jensen and her husband Pete were given a certain time frame by the county commissioners to leave their living quarters in the basement level of the courthouse. The dwelling will then be remodeled to accommodate the accessible bathroom and the drivers examination room, Beiermann said.

Crop walk scheduled Sept. 22

Walk for the hungry. It's good for the "soul!"

That is the philosophy for this year's CROP committee. CROP stands for Christian Rural Overseas Program and is the name given to local community efforts for hunger education and fundraising for Church World Service — the relief and development agency of more than 30 Orthodox denominations in the United States.

And one way which the Wayne area supports this effort is through a CROP Walk event. The third annual walk for CROP is scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 22 and is sponsored by the Wayne Ministerial Association.

Gene and Jan Casey, chairpersons, said the 10 mile walk will begin at 1 p.m. at the Wayne City Auditorium. Participants are asked to register between 12:30 and 1 p.m.

Interested individuals of all ages are asked to contact their church pastor or local church representative for sponsor sheets and to solicit pledges for each mile walked.

After the pledge money is collected, participants are asked to return their money and envelopes to their church representative no later than Oct. 6, 1985.

THIS YEAR'S theme is "Walk Around Your Neighborhood Everyone (first letters spell Wayne) for CROP."

The course for the walk is similar to past years which includes the one-mile course at the high school, down to Strainburg Road, past the Wayne County Fairgrounds, across Highway 35 and one mile north where they turn east on the Dude Ranch Drive-In road.

Walkers will then go south on Highway 15 through the two-mile WSC fitness course and back to the auditorium.

Walkers are asked to stop at each mile marker and have their tickets checked to keep track of the miles walked. Water will be available every two miles and provisions will be made to pick up any person unable to walk the entire route.

Participants are urged to dress comfortably.

The walk is designed for two purposes, to raise funds for the world hungry as well as to raise public knowledge about world hunger. Something new this year is that 25 percent of all money pledged will go to Wayne's local food pantry. The committee's goal for this year is $2,500, according to the Casseys.

Accident takes Wayne man's life

A rural Wayne man, Ray Agler, was killed Wednesday afternoon after a tree fell on him at his family farm.

Agler, age 69, was on the family farm one mile north and 1 1/2 miles west of Wayne, cutting down trees with his son, John.

The tree was being pulled down by a tractor (driven by John) and a cable, according to Wayne County Sheriff LeRoy Janssen. The large tree twisted and the cable broke, causing the tree to fall in the wrong direction and strike Agler.

Agler was pronounced dead at the scene, according to Janssen. The Providence Medical Center Ambulance Service responded to the call for assistance at the Agler farm. Funeral services for Agler took place Saturday at the First Church of Christ in Wayne.

news briefs

Feeders Association meeting

The Cedar County Feeders Association will meet tonight (Monday) in the Coleridge Community Building. Social hour begins at 6:30 p.m., with dinner following.

Guest speakers will be John Nelson, marketing specialist, and Logan McClelland, feedlot manager.

All members and their spouses are encouraged to attend.

Girl Scouts get grant

The Prairie Hills Girl Scout Council of Nebraska has been awarded a $584 grant from the Nebraska Arts Council, according to Robin Tryloff, executive director.

The grant will help sponsor performances of "Mobile Mesner" by the Paul Mesner Puppets at various schools, including Winside Public School on May 3, 1986.

Benefit planned for Mike Starzl

A benefit pig roast and dance for Mike Starzl is planned Friday, Sept. 13 in the Waterbury auditorium, beginning at 8 p.m.

Starzl was injured in a motorcycle accident in Texas on June 8. He is now in the Wakefield Health Care Center and has been in a coma since the accident occurred.

The benefit is being held to raise money to help Starzl's family with mounting medical expenses.

Benefit organizer Dennis Stewart of Waterbury said advance tickets for the pig roast and dance are available for $5 each. The dance will feature the music of two bands — Firecreek and Leaty Spurge.

A fund has also been established at the First National Bank in Emerson. Contributions may be made directly to the bank to the Mike Starzl Benefit Fund.

Girl Scout Leaders Needed

The Wayne Girl Scouts are looking for leaders for the 1985-86 program year. Leaders are needed for the Brownie level which includes first through third grade.

It is not necessary to have a daughter in this age range to be a leader. A complete description of the leaders' responsibilities can be obtained by calling Phyllis Speltman at 375-4499. Please give consideration to participating in this valuable youth program for girls.

Cystic Fibrosis chairmen named

Thomas Horels, president of the Nebraska Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, announced the appointment of area people chairmen in various fund raising events. The purpose of the events is to increase public awareness of cystic fibrosis and to raise funds to support research, care and treatment of CF children and young people in Nebraska.

Chairman of the annual Cystic Fibrosis fund raising event in Hoskins is Cathy Bussey. In Wayne, the chairmen is Mildy Luft and in Laurel, Star Smith is the chairman.

Bike-a-thon chairmen for Cystic Fibrosis include: Allen, Mrs. Audrey Harder; Winside, Helen Hancock; and Wakefield, Mrs. Rodney Nicholson.

For more information about the bike-a-thon or other Cystic Fibrosis events, contact these area representatives or write the Nebraska Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at 5017 Leavenworth Street, Omaha, NE 68106.

Girl Scout Round-Up

The Wayne Girl Scouts will be having their 1985-86 Round-Up on Tuesday, Sept. 10 at the Wayne Elementary School. The meeting is scheduled to begin at 7:00 a.m.

This Round-Up is for all girls who wish to participate in the Girl Scout program for the 1985-86 year. Girl Scouting offers programs at five different age levels. Girls in kindergarten can participate in Daisies, grade 1-3 in Brownies, grade 4-6 in Juniors, grade 7-9, in cadets and 9-12 in seniors.

Girl Scouting offers a wide range of activities and opportunities for girls, in addition to learning outdoor skills and camping, the girls learn community service and pride as well as developing good personal skills.

If your daughter is interested in joining the Girl Scouts, please have her and at least one parent attend this Round-Up meeting. If you have questions about the program or meeting, please call Phyllis Speltman at 375-4499.

Pamela T. Heckathorn, daughter of Robert and Barbara Heckathorn of Allen, has been officially accepted into the U.S. Military Academy's Corps of Cadets as a new member of the class of 1989 during the annual acceptance parade.

The parade followed six weeks of rigorous basic cadet training at the West Point, N.Y. academy. Training in military customs and courtesies, drill and physical conditioning, tactical exercises and the firing of weapons introduced the basic cadets to military life with special emphasis on leadership, duty, honor and country.

The academy is a four-year educational institution graduating men and women to serve as career Army officers. In addition to military training, the academy offers athletics and an academic curriculum which includes basic and engineering sciences and social sciences and the humanities.

The new cadet is a graduate of Allen Consolidated High School.

ACT tests scheduled

As the new school year begins, more than one million high school juniors and seniors across the nation are preparing to participate in the ACT Assessment Program.

The ACT Assessment, which consists of four academic tests that measure educational development and a detailed questionnaire that collects information relevant to educational and career planning, is recommended or required by more than 2,700 postsecondary institutions and scholarship programs. Late registration will be accepted for an additional $10 late handling fee.

School guidance counselors recommend that students participate in the ACT Assessment Program during the junior year or early in the senior year, so their results will be available in time for use in planning for post-secondary education and careers.

Students can obtain registration packets that contain all the information necessary to register and prepare for the Assessment from their high school guidance offices. The basic registration fee for the Assessment is $10. Late registration will be accepted for an additional $10 late handling fee.

Test dates are Oct. 26, 1985; Dec. 14, 1985; Feb. 8, 1986; April 12, 1986; and June 14, 1986. See the high school counselor for registration deadlines.

The ACT Assessment also includes a complete the four ACT examinations in English, math, social studies, and natural sciences. A sample copy of a full-length test is available in every high school. Students who would like to have copies of additional tests may obtain them at cost from ACT.

The ACT Assessment also includes a two-part questionnaire that students complete at home when they register. The questionnaire focuses on the student's interests, academic and nonacademic accomplishments, and vocational and educational plans and needs.

Colleges use information from the ACT Assessment Program for academic advising, admissions counseling, course selection and placement, student services, and institutional research.

ACT Assessment reports are sent to students, their high school counselors, and only those institutions and agencies specifically designated by the student.

The ACT Assessment Program is a major service of The American College Testing Program, which has national headquarters in Iowa City, Iowa.

Okay readers of the Wayne Herald, take notice — this is the first annual "Top 40 Wayne Herald Newspaper Survey" which digs into what subscribers say are their favorite things.

This is no contest — mind you — but it will give this column writer a source for future column material, which I think readers will find interesting and informative. Let's have some fun with it — but answer with serious intentions.

Mail or drop in your answers to this survey at The Wayne Herald, 114 Main, Box 70, Wayne, NE 68787.

We would like to publish the results in the September 23 edition, so the answers should be forwarded to us by Thursday, Sept. 19.

All those who send in answers to the questions will be eligible for a grand prize of $10 from OOMOP (Out of My Own Pocket), which can be used toward the purchase of a favorite thing. One $10 winner will be drawn from all of the legitimate entries.

And this opportunity is open to employees of The Wayne Herald staff, business owners — anybody.

So sharpen the pencil and "get crackin'" with some answers, all you who are from writing age on up.

Local sales tax

Anyone interested in holding the line or even reducing property tax amounts should seriously consider what a local one cent sales tax has done to the neighboring city of Norfolk — making it one of the lowest average property tax payment per resident in the state of Nebraska.

Last fall, Norfolk voters were given a "fact sheet" on the local sales tax option. Here were some of their findings:

- Based on recent Norfolk retail sales, it is estimated a one cent local sales tax would produce approximately $1.5 million annually.

- The local sales tax for Norfolk would be able to replace most of what the city needs to run police, fire, parks and recreation, engineering, planning and community development, library and administrative programs.

- Assuming a typical Norfolk family has an annual income of up to $24,000 and owns a $50,000 home, the "city" property tax without the local sales tax option would be $278.75. It would be reduced $81.05 if the one cent sales tax is adopted.

- Two other Nebraska communities, Sidney and Ogallala had a one cent sales tax adopted in 1980 and neither showed a decline in retail sales during the first six months it was implemented.

There are reasons why community citizens should be concerned about a possible rise in property tax payments.

General revenue sharing isn't coming in at what it had been in previous years. Even community block grant funding has been changed — which could affect the cost Wayne must bear for obtaining a new water source for the city.

The change comes in the form of three categories in the community development block grant program. In one of those categories is municipal water projects.

The water project area is of particular concern to Wayne city officials because the funding has been limited to only nitrate problem rectification — not to include source and storage projects.

Wayne city officials have already applied for the source and storage funding for an elevated water storage facility. Elimination of this would cancel that application, thereby meaning that the funds for that expensive project must be picked up elsewhere and the most likely source is through property taxes.

Before our current water source is depleted, a new source must be found and tapped.

The proposed changes in the Community Development Block Grant will be the subject of a hearing on Sept. 18 in South Sioux City.

So with this in mind, a one cent property tax would be a solution to offset a possible rise in our property tax structure.

Boost to area

Good news for the Wayne economy has been on the plus side this past week following the announcement of a Hardee's restaurant to be built in Wayne and the expansion of product line at Heritage Homes, called Heritage Industries.

All in all, it will mean more jobs to the people in the Wayne area — a shot in the arm to go along with Timpte, Inc.'s new manufacturing plant.

Other bits of good news are that Providence Medical Center, celebrating its 10th anniversary this Sunday, is holding its own among rural hospitals with increases in admissions and added services, and that figures at Wayne State indicate enrollment (at least from the incoming freshman level) has increased.

There still is the farm economy sector that is the predominant concern by both the urban and rural communities which still needs to be addressed. Farmers are not getting what they need for production of their product — that's the bottom line.

Ordinarily, a bin-buster crop year would be good news to area farmers. But with prices as they are now, there is no cause for celebration.

Teenager speaks on suicide prevention

Editors Note: In our Thursday, Aug. 29 edition of The Wayne Herald, there appeared a front page article on teenage suicide. Crystal Mahnke of Gering, Nebraska, who is a young teenager, lost a friend to suicide. At the Nebraska State Fair, Mahnke gave a purple ribbon presentation on teenage suicide. The following is excerpts of her presentation as written by Mary Emanuel of the UNL Ag Communications Department.

In the last six months there have been three successful teenage suicides in the Scottsbluff area. One of them was a friend of mine," said Crystal Mahnke of Gering at the 1985 Nebraska State Fair on Sept. 1. "And I know of 10 attempted teenage suicides in Scottsbluff, Gering and Mitchell."

Crystal, 16, won a purple ribbon for her presentation, "A Cry for Help," about teenage suicide at the 4-H Demonstrations and Illustrated Talks competition. The tragic phenomenon has been a cause for growing concern not just for Crystal, but for the nation as a whole. In neighbor state Colorado, suicide is the leading cause of death among teens.

The local community reaction to the rash of suicides in Scottsbluff County was initially met with a

"keep quiet" attitude, Crystal said. "But now it's recognized as a big problem and the community is trying to break the silence."

Lack of communication is the major cause of teen suicide, Crystal said. "If there is no one to talk to, problems get bigger," she said. "It's not that teenagers have more problems than they used to. But a lack of communication and our mobile society, where people move around a lot and it becomes harder to make and keep friends, make problems seem greater."

PARENTS IN particular must press the point to establish good communication. "If parents think a problem exists and their teenager won't talk to them, the parents should get professional help immediately," Crystal said. "Although she had a good relationship with her own parents prior to the tragedies, Crystal said her greater awareness of the problem has improved their relationship even more."

Crystal predicts that the teenage suicide situation will not improve until the adult world learns to communicate with teenagers. "To parents, listening seems easy until they listen to something they disagree with. This is when they really have to make an attempt to communicate," she said.

Adults must understand as well that what appears to be small problems to them are big problems to teenagers. "For example, Crystal said, a fight with a friend may seem inconsequential to an adult. But it may be a very real problem to the teenager involved."

Talking to friends is also an important aspect of preventing teen suicides. Crystal said it helps to tell someone your problems even if it is a friend instead of a parent.

"All the signs were there for us to recognize before my friend killed himself," she said. "We just weren't aware of them. Now, after we have educated ourselves, we recognize the signs."

MANY TEENAGERS who are suicidal discuss the idea of running away. "They are looking for solutions. For them, taking their life seems to be the easiest way," Crystal said. "Running away would only cause more problems. They would still have the old problems in addition to the new ones created by running away."

Deliberately wrecking their cars while driving is the method most teenagers choose to kill themselves, said Crystal. Carbon monoxide poisoning is another method often chosen. "Most teenagers who do commit suicide do not take overdoses of drugs," she said. "Ninety percent of drug overdose cases survive. Drug overdose is considered more of a plea for help than a serious suicide attempt."

After graduation from high school, Crystal plans to study social science or genetic science.

Mr. and Mrs. Cory Linn

Rohde-Linn wed in Wayne rites

St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Wayne was the setting for the Aug. 24 ceremony uniting in marriage Cherie Mae Rohde and Cory James Linn.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ron Rohde of Carroll and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Linn of Laurel.

Officiating at the 1:30 p.m. double ring ceremony was the Rev. Ted Youngerman of Wayne.

Solists were Mrs. Sandy Bartling of Bancroft and organist was Mrs. Linda Baddorf of Wayne.

GUESTS ATTENDING the ceremony were registered by Cynthia Rohde of Carroll, and ushered in to the church by Curt Rohde and Greg Rohde, both of Carroll, Jody Linn of Hoskins and Larry Jensen of Laurel.

Flower girl was Colleen Rohde of Carroll, and ring bearer was Nicholas Linn of Hoskins.

Dancee Rohde of Fairbury was maid of honor, and Roger Jensen of Laurel was best man. Bridesmaid was Deanna Schmidt of Carroll, and groomsman was Ron Hirschman of Laurel.

GIVEN IN-MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore her mother's floor-length wedding gown of rose point lace over white taffeta.

The gown was fashioned with a sequin and pearl trimmed sabbina neckline, and lace self flowers and sequins accenting the overskirt.

She wore a hat to complete her ensemble.

The bride's attendants wore blue floor-length frocks of sheer polyester over taffeta.

The bridegroom was attired in a white tuxedo, and his attendants wore gray tuxedos.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, a reception was held at the Carroll Lounge. Hosts were Larry and Cathy Hansen of Wayne, and Dave and Terry Graverholt of Norfolk.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Nancy Niemann of Wayne and Diane Lorenzen of Fort Calhoun.

Jerene Rohde of Carroll poured, and LuAnn Kramer of Norfolk served punch.

THE NEWLYWEDS are making their home at 402 Cedar St. in Laurel.

The bride is a 1985 graduate of Winside High School. The bridegroom graduated from Laurel Concord High School in 1983 and is employed with Marra Home Improvement.

news and notes

Be wary of "work-at-home" schemes

"Work-at-home" schemes can also be referred to as "earn money at home" schemes.

These schemes require you to buy something before you can begin work. An ad may offer huge "profits" for some at-home work for which there is a "great demand" and which requires "no experience."

If you answer this type of ad, you probably will wind up losing money instead of earning it.

ADS FOR THESE schemes are targeted primarily at people who have time and need the money. Homemakers, shut-ins, elderly persons and widows are targets because they find it impossible to hold even a part-time job due to family obligations, health problems and lack of work skills.

The current economic situation adds another incentive for targets of these ads.

Ads usually appear in the want-ad sections or they may come in the mail. Ads say something like, "Wanted: people for mail advertising firm. Good pay, no selling or order taking," or "Address envelopes at home in your spare time. No typing, selling or canvassing. We furnish everything. Earn $60 to $100 weekly."

THESE ADS ARE meant to sell information. For a small fee, you get a booklet explaining the offer.

You may be given a chance to buy unstamped double postcards which offer some product or service — often name plates, baby shoe, bronzing or cosmetics.

You mail the postcards to people you know. You create your own mailing list. If any cards are sent in with an order, you get a commission. You don't get paid anything for addressing and mailing the cards.

However, some ads do offer money for skills or for products that can be made at home. These ads might state: "Women—$200 monthly for doing assembly work at home," or "We pay you $25 per hundred greeting-cards; opportunity for beginners, experience unnecessary, no selling."

In this scheme you must buy instructions and materials for making various items such as baby booties or aprons. Ads like these in help wanted columns don't tell you that you generally have to sell the items yourself.

ADS THAT STATE "no selling" trick you by stating that the agreement to buy your finished product depends upon the work being "acceptable" or "up to standards."

Nothing you make is ever up to standards. Part of the scheme is to reject everything. For practical purposes, you must sell whatever you make yourself.

"Work-at-home" schemes garner over $500 million a year. Be on guard, particularly when the promoter:

- Promises huge profits and big part-time earnings;
- Never offers regular salaried employment;
- Uses personal testimonials but never identifies the person so that you can check with them;
- Requires money for instructions or merchandise before telling you how the plan operates;
- Assures you of guaranteed markets and a huge demand for your handiwork;
- Tells you that no experience is necessary;

Webber, Sorensen presenting recital

Soprano Connie Webber, assistant professor of music at Wayne State College, and pianist Arne Sorensen will present a recital on Tuesday, Sept. 10.

The public is invited to attend the recital free of charge at 8 p.m. in Lay Theatre on the Wayne State College campus.

THE PROGRAM will open with a well-known sacred soprano aria from Handel's Oratorio, SAMSON: "Let the Bright Seraphim."

The recital audience also will hear Webber perform a French aria, a group of German songs by Strauss, and a group of English songs by John Duke.

Sorensen will perform two Chopin piano pieces as well as accompany Webber.

WEBBER HAS degrees from Oberlin College and Kent State University in Ohio, and has been a faculty member at Wayne State College since 1966.

She is an active member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, and serves as organist and director of choirs at the First United Methodist Church in Wayne.

Sorensen is a recitalist and piano teacher in the area, maintaining piano studios in Norfolk and Sioux City.

Connie Webber

He is an adjunct faculty member in the music department at Morningside College and is on the Wayne State College summer music camp piano faculty.

Sorensen has studied with several great pianists, including Rudolph Ganz of Chicago and Leon Fleisher of Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore, Md.

Late rallies fail

South Sioux City thwarts Blue Devil scoring threats in 10-6 win

South Sioux City held off two late drives by Wayne-Carroll and hung on for a thrilling 10-6 victory at Memorial Stadium Friday night.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Blue Devils trailed 10-6 but were piecing together a steady drive from their own 42 yard line.

Wayne's linemen consistently winning the trenches battle, the Blue Devils pushed the ball inside the South Sioux City yard line with just a little over two minutes remaining in the contest.

Wayne then marched to the three but faced a fourth and goal situation. And as they did most of the night, the Cardinal defense stopped Wayne's bid to score in the winning touchdown as the Blue Devils were stopped approximately two feet short of pay dirt with 41 seconds remaining in the game.

"You have to give them (South Sioux City) credit. We came close several times but they always managed to stop us when they had to," Wayne-Carroll head coach Lonnie Ehrhardt said.

Before Wayne-Carroll's final bid, the Blue Devils also came close to taking the lead earlier in the quarter.

Wayne-Carroll started its drive midway through the final stanza from its own 48 yard line. And just moments later, the Blue Devils worked their way to the Cardinal eight before having to give the ball up on downs.

The Cardinals were then stopped on three plays and punt. Wayne-Carroll's final effort fell two feet short.

South Sioux City took the lead in the second quarter on a Jeff Mogenson 33 yard field goal.

The Cards set up their first score after returning a punt to the 34 yard line and after the ensuing running plays, Mogenson supplied the visitors with the lead.

The Blue Devils came right back, however, and took the lead. Wayne-Carroll's Dan Gross intercepted a pass at midfield and after an unsuccessful running play, quarterback Ted Lueders found an open Gross in the flat and hit him with a short pass.

The speedy Gross took it from there and ran away from Cardinal defenders and crossed the goal line to give Wayne the three point edge. Wayne's extra point effort failed, however.

The Cards took the lead for good on the next possession. After returning the ensuing kickoff to the 34 yard line, South Sioux City marched down field before Jeff Clark scampered to pay dirt from 15 yards out. Mogenson followed with a PAT boot to give the Cards a 10-6 lead with 23 seconds remaining before halftime.

The Blue Devils also knocked on the door in the third quarter. After Bill Liska recovered a fumble on the South Sioux City 31 yard line, Wayne-Carroll worked the ball to the five. However, the Blue Devils once again couldn't reach the end zone and were forced to turn the ball over.

Although both teams' statistics were similar, Wayne-Carroll did beat the visitors on paper by gaining 167 total yards to South Sioux City's 121.

But Ehrhardt said not playing at their best form in the first half and not being able to score when they had too was Wayne-Carroll's biggest problems.

"When you play a team the size of South Sioux City, you have to be on top of your game and in the first half we weren't. We fumbled away a few opportunities and when we had chances to score, they always stopped us," he said.

Wayne's leading rusher was Tom Perry who gained 45 yards on 11 carries. Gross picked up 21 rushing yards on 16 totes, while Lueders picked up 73 passing yards by completing 5-11 passes.

Perry and Gross were the Blue Devils' defensive leaders finishing with 11 and 10 tackles, respectively. Jeff Hausmann added seven hits, while John McCright and Steve Coghill finished with six tackles apiece. Also, Brent Pick joined Liska in recovering a fumble.

Randolph stifles Laurel-Concord 26-0

LAUREL-Going into the season opener, Laurel-Concord head coach Gale Hamilton expected Randolph to score. But he also figured his squad would put its share of points on the scoreboard too. However, Randolph's powerful running game and tenacious defense allowed the Cardinals a 26-0 whitewashing here Friday night.

"I honestly can't figure out why we had so many problems on offense. Randolph's a solid team offensively and I planned on them scoring a few times. But I felt we had a solid defensive team too and expected to score," Hamilton said.

Randolph wasted little time to cross the goal line. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Cardinals won the battle of the trenches and consistently gained four-to-five yards per carry. Then, just five minutes after the game began, Jim Hay scored his first of four touchdowns to supply the visitors with a 6-0 lead. Mark Strathman followed by adding the PAT for a 7-0 cushion.

Brent Haisch supplied Laurel-Concord with a breath of fresh air, however, when he returned the following kickoff back to the Bears' 46 yard line.

Randolph followed with a face mask penalty which moved Laurel-Concord within striking distance. But three straight running plays failed and the Bears were forced to punt.

Laurel-Concord's first ball possession was typical of how the entire night went for the Bears. And Hamilton can't explain it.

"Like I said before, I didn't expect our offense to fold so badly. We have a strong left side but they closed the door on us, and when we tried to pass we did a poor job of picking up their stunts and they almost always got to the quarterback before any receivers were open," he said.

Randolph stacked on 13 more points in the second stanza on touchdown runs of three and two yards by Hay and another Strathman PAT boot.

Perhaps Laurel-Concord's best quarter was the third frame. Although the Bears failed to score in the 12 minute period, they did play better defense and also held the Cards scoreless.

But Hay put the game out of reach in the final quarter when he crossed the goal line from five yards out to give the Cards a commanding 26-0 lead.

An example of how tough Randolph's defense was is they allowed the Bears just 112 yards on the ground and 23 in the air.

"The game plan I had worked out was to mix it up on offense with passes and running to the left side. But whatever we did, there was always a Randolph defender there to stop us," Hamilton explained.

Randolph also held Haisch to just 50 yards on 15 carries, well below his average of last year when he gained over 1,000 yards as a sophomore.

Jeff Curry was Laurel-Concord's second leading rusher finishing with 24 yards on five totes.

Penalties and turnovers also hindered the Bears as the hosts lost four-of-five fumbles and were penalized five times for a total of 60 yards.

"The high amount of fumbling and penalty yards is typical of game played early in the season. But those areas hurt us and we'll be working to improve in those categories," Hamilton said.

Despite the one-sidedness of the game, Hamilton said he still saw

Wakefield runs and passes to 41-6 victory over Hartington

HARTINGTON-During preseason practices, Wakefield head coach Denise Wilbur discovered he had effective passing and running games. However, he said he didn't know which style he would use during the 1985 campaign.

Friday night Wilbur compromised as his Trojans ran and passed their way to an easy 41-6 victory here over Hartington.

"I was real pleased with both our running and passing game. It's nice being able to mix it up because it keeps the opposing defense off balance," Wilbur explained.

Wakefield finished with 190 yards rushing and 209 passing yards. And most of the aerial attack can be credited to the Wade Nicholson/Jason Erb combination.

Nicholson hit Erb with scoring strikes of 13, 48 and 17 yards. On the night, Nicholson completed 9-12 passes for 197 yards and Erb caught five aeriels for 101 yards and the three TDs.

Nicholson also tossed a 34 yard touchdown pass to Brad Lund, rushed for another and threw two PAT passes.

"Wade and Jason both had fine games. For it being so early in the season, I was impressed with their efforts. But they weren't the only ones that had big nights. Practically the entire squad played good ball considering it was our first game," Wilbur said.

One of those other players was Lund. In addition to the 34-yard touchdown pass, Lund also rushed a TD from 35 yards, caught three passes for 73 yards and picked up 62 yards on the ground on nine carries.

Wakefield's three PATs came on passes from Nicholson to Erb, Nicholson to Halverson and a Todd Kratke kick.

Hartington managed to gain 239 rushing yards against the Wakefield defense. But according to Wilbur, more than half of that total came in the fourth quarter against the Trojan reserves.

"Their 239 rushing yards is somewhat misleading because in the fourth quarter we were well in command and they gained around 125 yards in the fourth period," he said.

The hosts also scored in the final frame when they trailed 41-6.

Defensive leaders for the Trojans were Kevin Greve and Jeff Rose with 11 tackles each. But Wilbur said the Wakefield defensive attack was balanced.

"Everyone chipped in on defense. Greve and Rose were the leaders, but Kurt Roberts, Randy Kinney, John Halverson, John Wriedt, Todd Kratke and Tony Halverson all finished with six to eight tackles," Wilbur explained.

Wakefield will now face Coteridge Friday night, and Wilbur said he and his club will have to prepare for a difficult contest.

"We played well tonight (Friday), but I certainly hope the kids aren't too confident because if they are, they might be in for a surprise next week," Wilbur said.

"Hartington has some potential but Coteridge is already tough. They'll be one of our toughest opponents this year and we can't go into the game cocky and unprepared or they'll really let us have it."

Coteridge stomped Walthill 46-0 Friday night. Next Friday's game will be played at Coteridge.

First half hurts Wildcats

Beemer thumps Winside

BEEMER-Beemer exploded for 32 points in the first half and went on to post a lopsided 44-0 victory over Winside here Friday night.

Beemer opened a 10-0 advantage in the first quarter, and then went wild by scoring 22 markers in the second stanza for a comfortable 32-0 halftime lead.

Winside head coach Mark Freburg said his club's turnovers set up most of Beemer's scoring opportunities in the first half.

"We lost three fumbles and threw two interceptions and it seemed like every time we made a turnover, it was deep in our own territory and they always capitalized," he explained.

In the second half, the Beemer offense started right where they left off by scoring two touchdowns in the third stanza to put the game way out of reach, 44-0.

Winside's offense was stifled by Beemer's defense all night. The Wildcats finished with just 117 rushing yards on 51 carries and completed 4-12 passes for 14 yards.

"Turnovers and their defense really hurt our offensive game plan. We just couldn't get anything started offensively all night," Freburg said.

Beemer, on the other hand, rushed for 201 yards on 33 carries and completed 3-6 passes for an additional 76 yards.

Beemer is a traditionally tough team and they look like they'll have another good year this season," Freburg said.

Mike Thies was the Wildcats' leading rusher finishing with 61 yards on 19 carries. Teammate Doug Wylie added 28 yards on nine totes.

Doug Mundt completed three of the Winside passes, while Mace Kant completed the other aerial.

Daryl Mundt had a big defensive night for the Wildcats finishing with a team high seven tackles and intercepting a pass. Wylie and Steve Jorgenson added five tackles apiece for Winside and Kant also intercepted a pass for the Wildcats.

Freburg said that although his club lost, there is still plenty of football left this year and he added that he hopes to rebound next week against Walthill.

"We got beat pretty handily tonight but we just have to pick ourselves up and try again next week. It's too early in the season to quit. You can't judge a team or a season on just one game," he said.

The Wildcats host Walthill on Friday. Walthill, also, lost its season opener by dropping a 46-0 decision to Coleridge Friday night.

Turnovers sink Eagles

Wynot rolls over Allen

WYNOT Wynot stacked up 355 yards of total offense, took advantage of six turnovers and thumped Allen 40-6 here Friday night.

Wynot wasted little time in taking control of the game. The hosts scored on two touchdown passes in the first frame from Mike Eskens. Eskens hit Jeff Potts with a 35 yarder and followed with a 12 yard strike to Pat Hans. Two Wynot PATs allowed the home-towner's to open a 14-0 lead.

Allen had difficulty from the very beginning. On their first two possessions, the Eagles threw consecutive interceptions and followed by losing fumbles on their next two possessions after that.

Needless to say, the numerous mistakes didn't settle too well with head coach Dave Ulrich.

"I couldn't believe the way we started. We made way too many mistakes and we have a lot of work to do in these areas," he said.

Bob Heine scored on runs of 26 and 20 yards in the second quarter for Wynot. But Allen finally got on track in the second frame when Max Oswald crossed the goal line from 20 yards out.

The key to the game might have been Allen's first possession of the second half. After stopping Wynot on their initial possession of the second half, the Eagles marched down field and reached the Wynot three yard line. However, Wynot rose to the occasion and held the Eagles in check.

"That was the key to the game, I thought," Ulrich said. "If we score it's 28-12 with an entire quarter remaining, but we didn't and it was getting too late to expect four more touchdowns."

Wynot out the icing on the cake when Eskens hit Hans with a 15 yard TD pass in the fourth quarter and teammate Jason Trenhalte added another touchdown on a run from three yards.

Included in the 355 total yards by Wynot was 192 rushing yards and 163 by passing. Allen, on the other hand, rushed for only 44 yards on 30 carries.

"One of the main problems with our offense was turning the ball over. We played a good team but we made way too many mistakes," Ulrich said.

Ulrich added that in addition to all the other problems, the heat also had a negative effect on his club.

"At halftime I lost a player to heat stroke and another player went down in the third quarter," he said.

DeSoto open to Archery hunters

MISSOURI VALLEY, IOWA Refuge manager George Gage announced that portions of DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge will again be open to Iowa and Nebraska archery deer hunters this fall. The refuge is located approximately six miles west of Missouri Valley, Iowa, and six miles east of Blair, Neb., on U.S. Highway 30.

The area open to Iowa hunters is located in the southeast portion of the refuge in the vicinity of Nobles Lake and is the same as that opened in previous years. The area will be open to archery hunters from Oct. 12 through Dec. 6.

The area open to Nebraska hunters is comprised primarily of farm lands on the west side of the Missouri River and is the same as that opened in recent years. The area will be open to archery hunters from Sept. 15 through Nov. 8, and opens again from Nov. 18 through Dec. 31, after the state firearms deer season.

Hunters are requested to record the number of hours they hunt and document kill data on a register which will be located at designated hunter parking lots.

All normal state regulations will apply to bow hunting on these areas. A map showing the hunting areas, access roads, and listing of the special regulations which apply to the area is available at refuge headquarters. The map and regulations may be also be obtained by writing DeSoto National Wildlife Refuge, RR. 1, Box 114, Missouri Valley, Iowa 51555.

LINCOLN An inside look at the strategy and philosophy of Nebraska football, its inherent winning tradition and the high ideals and values espoused by Cornhusker coach Tom Osborne are featured on "Nebraska Football: The Making of a Team," airing Tuesday, Sept. 17, at 9 p.m., repeating Saturday, Sept. 21, at 6 p.m. The 60-minute program can be seen on the Nebraska ETV Network.

WSC tries for NAIA acceptance

The soccer team representing Wayne State College will apply to be recognized by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

Mike McMorrow, a spokesman for the soccer club, said Thursday that he and WSC athletic director Ron Jones will apply to the NAIA to see if the club can be affiliated with the college and be recognized by the NAIA as an organized sport.

McMorrow said that Concordia College is the only NAIA soccer team in the state and added that if the WSC team is granted NAIA status, soccer as a whole will benefit.

"Since Concordia is the only NAIA team in the state they don't even have to play any playoff games to qualify for regionals. If the NAIA accepts us at least there will be a playoff in Nebraska and I think peoples' interest in soccer will improve," he said.

Wayne is competing in a four-team tournament hosted by Concordia College in Seward. Wayne plays Concordia Saturday at 1 p.m. and plays the loser of the Iowa State University of Nebraska-Omaha on Sunday at 1 p.m.

several positive things by his club and remained optimistic about the rest of the '85 campaign.

"I just want the Laurel fans to know you can't base an entire season on one game. We haven't given up yet," he said. "I thought our specialty teams did a good job and our heads were always in the game. We got a lot of areas to work on, but we haven't given up yet and we're looking forward to next weeks game with Crofton."

The Bears travel to Crofton on Friday, Sept. 13. Team statistics were not available.

It's an ace!

WINSIDE'S TRACY Topp slams an ace over Wakefield's Suzanne Stelling as Topp's teammate Teresa Brudigan looks on during volleyball action at Winside Thursday night. Wakefield breezed through the first 15-0 but had to hold off the Wildcats in the second frame for a 15-12 triumph.

Trojans win 15-0, 15-12

Wakefield holds off Winside

WINSIDE-After breezing through the first set 15-0, Wakefield overcame a gallant effort by Winside and held on for a 15-12 victory here Thursday night in the season opener for both squads.

After pounding the hosts 15-0 in the opener, it appeared as though the entire night would belong to Wakefield as the Trojans opened a 5-0 advantage in the second stanza. However, Winside finally put together a spirited attack and turned the second set into a battle.

Wakefield maintained its five point lead and held a 7-2 cushion. However, Winside came back behind Tricia Hartmann's solid serving and numerous mistakes by Wakefield.

The lead changed hands several times before Wakefield opened a slim advantage. But as they did earlier, Winside baffled back behind Teresa Brudigan's serving and Tracy Topp's hitting. Wakefield led 14-12 after a thundering spike by Kristal Clay and teammate Desiree Salmon ended the bout with a smashing ace serve.

Winside head coach Jill Stenwall said that although her club lost in straight sets, she was pleased with their play in the second frame.

"We didn't do anything right in the first set and after it was over, they told me they were nervous," she said. "I just told them that they didn't have anything to be nervous about and they went out and played a good team (Wakefield) very close."

The first set was all Wakefield. After opening a quick 5-0 lead, the Trojan attack balanced between Clay's and Julie Oswald's serving and Marci Greve's and Salmon's hitting to open a lopsided 13-0 lead.

Then after an ace serve by Clay, teammate Leigh Johnson ended the set just a little over nine minutes after it started with a thundering ace spike.

Stenwall said the nervousness coupled with Winside's inexperience were the main factors for the Wildcats' poor performance in the first set.

"The kids were really nervous and a lot of the players had never played at that level before. Out of all the players out this year, only three had very much varsity experience last year and I think that showed up in the first set Thursday night," she said.

Wakefield's head coach Paul Elyon said he didn't think Winside played that poorly in the opener.

"I really didn't think Winside did that bad of job in the first set. They hit some hard spikes at us but we just played about as well as a team could this early in the year," he said.

Clay took the game's scoring honors with seven points. Susie McQuistan added three markers for the winners. Brudigan and Hartman totaled a team high five points apiece for Winside.

Winside's leading hitters were Brudigan and Christi Thies who finished 5-6 and 4-4, respectively. Kerri Leighton sparked the Wildcats in setting going 17-23. Wakefield's hitting and setting statistics were unavailable. Stenwall concluded by saying she was pleased with several aspects of the game, especially in the second set. And she added an optimistic outlook for the remainder of the '85 campaign.

"I would have been easy for them to just quit and give up after the first set, but they came back hard in the second set and played their hardest. I still look for them to come around and have a good year," she said.

Wakefield also won the junior varsity game by posting 15-3, 15-9 triumphs.

Tonya Willers sparked the Trojans with a team high five points. Winside's Lori Jensen equaled Willers five markers for the Wildcat scoring honors.

Wakefield made a clean sweep of the evening by also winning the C game 13-11, 11-8.

Winside's Mary Brugger and teammate Kristy Miller captured the C game scoring honors with eight points apiece. The balanced Trojans were led by Karen Witt's five points.

Open season in high form

Wayne stomps Bergan

BEEMER-The Wayne-Carroll Blue Devils overcame their early "nervous butterflies" and went on to post a lopsided 15-5, 15-4 victory over Fremont Bergan in the season-opening volleyball game in the Beemer Tournament here Thursday night.

Wayne head coach Mavis Dalton knows that the 1985 season is a rebuilding one for the Blue Devils and she said the players were extremely nervous in Thursday's first set.

"This is a rebuilding year for us and when we started Thursday night we were very nervous. We just couldn't get things rolling at the beginning," she said.

Wayne's first four scoring opportunities were wasted with poor erves. However, once Marnie Bruggeman took over the serving chores, Wayne-Carroll took control of the game and never looked back.

"Most of our nervousness showed up in serving. We missed our first four tries and it was only because we had the jitters. But Marnie finally got us going," Dalton said.

Once Bruggeman got the Wayne-Carroll squad on track, the Blue Devils breezed through both matches winning by a combined total of 21 points.

"After that slow start, we pretty much dominated both sets. I was real happy with our overall game. We passed real well, did a good job of setting up our offense and really played well once we got over the nervousness," Dalton said.

In addition to her first set serving,

Bruggeman also had a good night setting finishing 32-34.

"We play a 5-1 so basically Marnie is our only setter and she does a good job," Dalton said.

Lori Jacobson led the Blue Devils with nine points and teammate Sonja Skokan followed with eight markers. Shelly Pick was Wayne-Carroll's top hitter in the contest finishing a perfect 11-11 with five kills. Skokan added an 8-9 hitting performance.

Other first-round winners in the tournament in addition to Wayne-Carroll were Wisner, Beemer, and Scribner. The Blue Devils' next game is against Wisner at 5 p.m. on Saturday.

"Overall, we had a good first game and I just hope we continue to play as well the rest of the tournament and throughout the remainder of the season," Dalton said.

Allen advances at Pender

PENDER-Allen ushered in the 1985 season on the right foot by downing Walthill 15-5, 5-15, 15-7 in the opening round of the Pender Volleyball Tournament Thursday night.

Defense and Allen's setters played the biggest role in the third and deciding set, according to Eagle head coach Gary Troth.

"When you go to three sets the game is up for grabs. But we played well defensively with four or five ace blocks and our setters really came through. Nikki Olesen and LeAnn McDonald are inexperienced but they really played well when they had to," Troth said.

Allen and Walthill battled to a 2-2 tie in the final frame before the Eagles' steady defense and team play allowed them to pull away and claim the victory.

Allen relied mostly on Denise Magnuson's serving to win the opening set. Walthill opened a quick 5-2 advantage, but when Magnuson took over the Allen serving chores she lifted the Eagles to a commanding 14-5 lead.

"I've seen harder serves but she consistently hit the ball solid and Walthill had a tough time handling them. Denise really took them out of their offense," Troth said.

Troth said the second set was a typical style of play one sees early in the year.

"That second set was a typical early of the year match. We didn't have any consistency and our passing wasn't sharp. Walthill played good defense and took advantage of our poor play," he said.

Allen turned in some impressive statistics, especially in the serving department. As a team, the Eagles finished 49-51 in serving and Magnuson totaled a team high 17 points on McDonald's set. "Serving was probably our biggest asset on the night. Coming into the game I was worried about our serving, but we relaxed and served real well," Troth said.

Magnuson was also the Eagles' leading spiker going 20-25 with three kills. Kristi Chase finished 7-8 with two kills and Magnuson's twin sister Diane went 5-6 with three aces.

"McDonald was the club's leading setter finishing 13-16 and Olesen went 8-10.

Troth said he was very pleased with his club's overall play but added he expects a tough match in the tourney's second round.

"We relaxed and played good ball and in my opinion, we beat one of the best volleyball teams in the area. Walthill, it seems, is always tough and they look good again this year," he said. "We play Laurel next and I expect another good game. Like Walthill, Laurel is one of the better teams in the area."

The Allen/Laurel game will be played Saturday at 5 p.m.

Late rally lifts Laurel

Self discipline aids Bears

PENDER-Laurel-Concord head volleyball coach Carroll Mangano said before the season began that a big asset her players possess is their self discipline. And Thursday night in the opening round of the Pender Tournament, the Bears' discipline came through and allowed Laurel-Concord to pull out a thrilling victory over Emerson.

The Bears dropped the first set 15-12 before claiming a 15-13 triumph in the second frame. However, things looked bleak in the final stanza as Laurel-Concord trailed 10-3. But Mangano said the Bears' self discipline came through.

"It looked kind of bad there in the last set when we were trailing 10-3. But the girls wanted it. They wanted to win and that's what they went out and did," Mangano said.

In addition to attitudes, Mangano also credited the win to the Bears' teamwork and defense.

"Two positive things I found out about our club Thursday night is they play well together and they can rely on their defense to carry them when their offense isn't clicking. We only finished with six spikes in the third set but our good defensive effort offset that," she said.

In the opening frame, Laurel-Concord totaled 21 team spikes, but Emerson staged a strong rally towards the end of the game and pulled out the win 15-12.

After the lead changed hands several times in the second set, Laurel-Concord opened a slim 10-7 advantage and maintained the three point cushion the rest of the set.

Shelly Wattler led the Bears with 14 points and teammate Schmitt added 10.

Sara Atkins led Laurel-Concord in setting going 31-32 and Mangano mentioned Gail Twiford, Michelle Joslin and Donna Sherry as the club's leading hitters.

Heidi Pehrson led the Bears in serving finishing 11-15 and as a team, Laurel-Concord nailed 92 percent of its serves. Mangano was naturally pleased with her squad's serving and mentioned an interesting philosophy regarding serving she uses during the season.

"I was glad to see us serve so well because I've always believed that if we serve better than 90 percent we'll win," she explained.

Although pleased with the victory, Mangano did mention one major area the Bears must improve in.

"I was pleased with most of the areas of our game, but we're going to have improve our passing. If the passing game wasn't as crisp as it should've been and if you can't pass, you probably won't win," she said.

Laurel-Concord's next game is here on Saturday at 5 p.m. against Allen in the semifinals of the tourney.

Meet Concordia next

UNO stops Lady Wildcats

OMAHA-Wayne State College dropped a straight set decision to volleyball powerhouse the University of Nebraska-Omaha (UNO) here Wednesday night. The Lady Wildcats fell 15-8, 15-9 and 15-1.

Wayne started quickly and behind its strong hitting and blocking abilities building a seemingly comfortable 5-0 lead in the opener. However, the Lady Mavericks took advantage of the Lady Wildcats' poor setting by working their way back in to contention and eventually pulling out the first set, 15-8.

The Lady Mavs then went on to post back-to-back victories in the next two frames to claim the straight set triumph.

Despite the loss, head coach Marilyn Srate was pleased with team's performance.

"We played pretty well for the first game considering the talent of UNO. We had a few first game hitters, but offensively we hit with them and at times out blocked them," she said.

Last year UNO finished with a 47-15 record and won the North Central Conference's "big" season's straight set. Over the last seven years, the Lady Mavericks are a whopping 230-79-6.

UNO also won the JV contest. The two junior varsity squads played one match and the Lady Mavericks came out on top 15-10.

Wayne State's next match is Tuesday, Sept. 10, at Concordia College in Seward.

Last year, Concordia defeated WSC 15-13, 15-12, 7-15, 12-15, 15-11 in the Lady Wildcats' season opener. Concordia finished in second place in the NAIA and third in the district last season.

"Eight letter winners return for Concordia including three seniors. Also, last year's junior varsity squad gained valuable experience by competing against several junior college teams who played in the national tournament.

"Concordia is always a well-prepared team. They'll be hitting and blocking and we'll counter with our strong blocking and quick. They usually don't do anything fancy but instead wait for you to make the mistakes," Srate said about her club's next opponent.

"We need to improve on our passing and footwork. After we develop some consistency, we'll be able to play an overall better game," Srate added.

Probable starters for the Concordia game are: Jill Zeiss (S), Shellie Tomaskiewicz (H), Nate Fontenelle (H), Diana Assay (H), Missy Staltenburg (H) and Meg Hurlley (B).

After the Concordia matches, WSC will travel to Sioux City for the Briar Cliff Tournament on Saturday, Sept. 14. The Lady Wildcats are defending champions of the tourney and are seeking their third straight title.

Duck populations down

1985 waterfowl seasons set

The Nebraska Game and Parks Commissioners set the 1985 waterfowl hunting seasons and bag and possession limits at their Aug. 27 meeting in Lincoln.

Regulations for the 1985 duck hunting seasons reflected the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service's fall flight forecast which indicated the total breeding population for all ducks was down to about 31 million birds, a reduction of 19 percent from 1984. The 1985 breeding population of mallards was estimated at about 3.5 million birds and the pintail breeding population was estimated at about 2.9 million, the lowest on record for both species. The result was a season 10 days shorter in the Low Plains and a cut from last year of 18 days in the High Plains.

The Commission voted to have a split season in the Low Plains late zones, open Oct. 19 and 20, then closed until Oct. 29 and continuing through Dec. 15. The split recommendation was followed for the Low Plains early seasons where the hunting season will be Oct. 12 through Nov. 30. The High Plains zone will also have a split season, Oct. 19 through Dec. 7, closed Dec. 8 through 21, then open again on Dec. 22 through Jan. 5. The cool season will be the same as the duck season in each zone.

The decline in duck numbers was also reflected in this year's point values for various duck species. The daily bag limit will be 100 plus points. This limit is reached when the point value of the last bird taken, when added to the sum of the point values of other birds already taken during that day, equals or exceeds 100 points. The possession limit is the maximum number of birds which legally could have been taken in two days.

This year the hen mallard will be a 100 point duck, rather than 70 points as in 1984. The mallard drake point value was raised to 35 points, which will give hunters the opportunity to take three per day. The pintail point value will be 35 points this year rather than last year's 10 points. All of the ducks that were listed as 10 points last year were raised to 20 points for the 1985 season.

Point values for species and sexes of ducks for the 1985 hunting season are:

- *100 points — Canvasback, Hen Mallard.
- *70 points — Wood Ducks, Hooded Merganser, Redhead.
- *35 points — Drake Mallard, Pintails, Ruddy, Ringneck, Bufflehead, Goldeneye, and all other species and sexes of ducks not mentioned.
- *20 points — Blue-winged Teal, Cinnamon Teal, Gadwall, Scaup, Shoveler, Merganser (other than Hooded), Green-winged Teal, Wigeon.

The Commissioners also set season dates and bag and possession limits for light and dark goose hunting across the state.

The light goose season (light geese are defined as being Snows, Blues, Ross' and all others not included in the dark goose category) will be Sept. 28 through Dec. 22, statewide. The daily bag limit will be five light geese, the possession limit will be ten.

There are five dark goose zones across the state and each has different season dates. Dark Geese are considered to be Canada Geese, Whitefronted Geese and Black Brant. The season dates for the Missouri River North Unit will be Oct. 5 through Dec. 22. The daily bag limit will be two dark geese which may include no more than one Canada and one Whitefront through Nov. 8; and two Canadas or one Canada and one Whitefront beginning Nov. 9. The possession limit is two legal daily bags.

Sept. 28 through Dec. 8 are the dates for the East Unit. The daily bag will be two dark geese which may include no more than two Canada geese or one Canada and one Whitefront beginning Nov. 17; and one Canada and one Whitefront beginning Nov. 18. The possession limit is two legal daily bags.

In the Central Unit hunters may take dark geese Oct. 26 through Jan. 5, 1986. The daily bag limit will be two dark geese which may include no more than two Canada geese or one Canada and one Whitefront through Nov. 17; and one Canada and one Whitefront beginning Nov. 18. The possession limit will be two legal daily bags.

Season dates for dark goose hunting in the Panhandle Unit will be Nov. 10 through Jan. 5, 1986. The daily bag limit will be two dark geese which may include no more than two Canada and one Whitefront beginning Nov. 18. The possession limit will be two legal daily bags.

The Special Sandhills Canada Geese or from Commission district offices. The application period for permits for the special season is Sept. 1 through Dec. 31. Each Canada goose taken in the Sandhills area must be tagged immediately with the tag attached to the special permit. Removal of the tag from the permit cancels the permit.

Upland hunting dates are established

LINCOLN—The Nebraska Game and Parks Commissioners set dates, bag and possession limits for the 1985 upland gamebird hunting seasons here at the Aug. 27 meeting.

This year's season dates for pheasants, bobwhite quail and Hungarian partridge will be identical, Nov. 2 through Jan. 15, 1986.

Biologists told the commissioners that a strong recovery of the pheasant population from the severe 1983-84 winter and the cold, wet spring of 1984 seems to be evident, though the statewide population appears to be about 14 percent below the 1983 population estimate.

In the pheasant's major range, there were increases of 21 percent in the Southwest, 18 percent in the Central and 48 percent in the Southeast portions of the state over last year's estimated numbers. They said this year's season length and bag limit of three roosters per day and possession limit of nine roosters will have no effect on the pheasant's recovery from the weather induced decline during the winter of 1983-84.

The Hungarian partridge population continues to be fairly low in Nebraska and this species is considered to be a "bonus bird" which is usually taken by hunters who happen to stumble across some Huns while they are pheasant hunting. The daily bag limit is three Huns, the possession limit is nine.

The whistle count survey of bobwhite quail this year indicates a 77 percent increase in the number of calling birds from 1984, and a 52 percent decrease from the five year average from 1980 through 1984.

Biologists said the increase in breeding birds from last year and the excellent nesting conditions this spring point to a much higher fall population in 1985 than existed last year. They said the 1985 season length and bag limit will not effect the quail's recovery from the population declines that occurred during the severe winter of 1983-84. The daily bag limit will be four quail, the possession limit 12 bobwhites.

Hunting hours for all three species will be one-half hour before sunrise to sunset until Jan. 1, when shooting must stop at 4 p.m. each day during the remainder of the season.

Aquarium at Schramm Park State Recreation area near Gretna.

The archery season will be Sept. 15 through Dec. 31, except Nov. 9 through Nov. 17 when archery season is closed during firearm season.

Archery deer season opens Sept. 15

LINCOLN—Nebraska's 1985 archery deer hunting season opens Sept. 15 and big game specialist Karl Menzel in the Game and Parks Commission's Bassett office says there should be plenty of deer across the state for hunters to pursue.

"The deer population looks real good," he said, "the hunter success is expected to be good in all areas of the state."

Menzel said high deer numbers should provide good hunting for both firearm and archery hunters. "We expect hunter success in the neighborhood of 70-72 percent for firearm hunters this year."

Archery success is always somewhat lower. Last year 2,902 deer were taken by 12,484 permit holders, a hunter success rate of 23 percent. This year's high deer population should give bow hunters ample opportunities to fill their bag.

Archery deer hunting permits are $20 and are available across the counter from any Game and Parks Commission office in Lincoln, Omaha, Norfolk, Bassett, North Platte, Alliance and the Ak-Sar-Ben

Trapping dates are set for the 1985 season

LINCOLN—Trapping season dates were set for the 1985 seasons at the Game and Parks Commission meeting in Lincoln on Aug. 29.

The muskrat trapping season will be Nov. 5 through March 31, 1986; the mink trapping season will be Nov. 5 through Jan. 31, 1986; and the beaver trapping season will be Nov. 25 through March 31, 1986.

The trapping and hunting season for raccoon and opossum will be Nov. 5 through Jan. 7, 1986, and the trapping season for those species will be year-round except for two weeks prior to the hunting season, Oct. 22 through Nov. 4.

The bobcat hunting and trapping season will be Dec. 15 through Jan. 5, 1986, and the running season is open year-round.

Wildcat/Morningside profile

The Game
 Wayne State (0-0-0) vs. Morningside College (0-0-0) at Sioux City, Iowa. Game time is 1:30 p.m. at Roberts Stadium.

Last Season
 The Chiefs enjoyed their first winning season since 1971 by posting 6-5 overall and 5-4 North Central Conference marks. Wayne State, too, broke a long season losing streak by going 7-4 in 1984, their first winning season since 1977. The Wildcats record improved to 8-3 when they recently learned that Ft. Hays State had to forfeit last year's victory over Wayne State.

The Series
 Morningside College leads the series 14-3-1. The series started in 1916 when the Chiefs trounced Wayne state 110-0. Wayne State has not won since 1961, when the Gwynn Christensen-coached team defeated Morningside 19-14. Last year Morningside won 20-10 in Sioux City. The Chiefs opened a 7-0 lead after a 74-yard drive in the first quarter and led at the half 14-7. Morningside quarterback Jim Gibson threw for 180 yards and two touchdowns against the Wildcat defense. Wayne State scored on a pass from Ed Jochum to Darin Blackburn and a 27 yard field goal by Herve Rousseau.

The Teags
 Morningside has 19 starters back from last year's 6-5 team. Quarterback Jim Gibson and running back Nate Cole return to lead the offense. The defense is led by senior linebacker Tracy Johnson and tackle Wade Brandt. Wayne State is a veteran team at virtually every position with 17 starters back from last year's 8-3 season. Offensively, the "Wayne Air Force" will again fill the skies as they did last year on their way to a national record for passing attempts. The offense also led the nation in team passing. Defensively, two transfers, Mike Brungardt and James Bester, will strengthen the line.

Coaches Comments
 "Wayne State could very well be the best passing team we'll face all season. That puts tremendous pressure on our young defense in the first game. They throw well, protect the passer and have good receivers. We must control the ball and hope our running game improves so we don't have to rely on the passing attack."—Erv Mondt.

"At this point and time, the Morningside game is the single most important game of the year for Wayne State. We're the underdog NAIA school ready to challenge an NCAA school the quality of Morningside."—Pete Chapman.

SUNDAY SCHOOL STAFF MEETING
 The St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday school staff met Monday evening at the fellowship hall with 10 present. Mrs. Murray Leicy, president, opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. Richard Hitchcock, secretary, read the July minutes. Mrs. Arthur Cook, superintendent, gave the treasury report and noted a 62 percent attendance in July. No classes were held in August.
 Classes have been reorganized and promotion exercises have been planned for Sunday, Sept. 15, in conjunction with the mission festival service. Mrs. Hitchcock volunteered to set up the acolyte schedule for the coming year.
 The pre-primary class, composed of Casey Junck, Brent Tietz and Stanley Johnson, will be taught by Angie Fork and Pam Junck, alternating months.
 Mrs. Ray Junck and Mrs. Mark Tietz will teach the primary class of Ryan Junck and Bobby Wittler.
 The juniors, Tammi Fork, Maribeth Junck, Kristin Hurlbert and Benji Wittler, will be taught by Mrs. Monte Granfield and Mrs. Dennis Junck.
 Mrs. Richard Hitchcock and Mrs. Lumir Buresh will teach the pre-teen and junior high class, composed of Kim and Jennifer Fork, Jennifer Isom, Carrie and Misty Junck, Ryan Rohde, Duwaine Junck and Danny Junck.
 Mrs. Ray Junck and Pam Junck are now on the staff, replacing Mrs. Dorothy Isom and Mrs. Murray Leicy, who will serve as substitutes. The next meeting will be held on Oct. 7.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN
 The United Presbyterian Women

met Wednesday with eight members and a guest, Mrs. Clarence Hoemann of Hoosier, president. Mrs. Keith Owens presided and opened the meeting with a reading from 2nd Thessalonians on the blessings of work. Roll call was answered by naming a household chore each enjoyed doing.
 Mrs. Etha Fisher read the minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Milton Owens gave the treasurer's report. A thank you note from Mrs. Esther Batten was read. The group has been invited to the Carroll Methodist birthday party on Sept. 25.
 Annual fall workshops of the UPW will be held in October and the decision on which to attend will be made at the next meeting. Presbytery Day will be in Fremont on Sept. 28.
 Mrs. Etha Fisher had the lesson on the prophets Joel and Jonah. The meeting closed with a Labor Day prayer and the singing of "Have Thine Own Way," Lord's with Mrs. Lem Jones as pianist. Mrs. Don Frink served.

At the next meeting, Mrs. O.J. Jones will be the lesson leader on the topic, "Sewing and Supplies for Missions" and Mrs. Lem Jones will be the hostess.

WOMANS CLUB
 The Carroll Womens Club will meet Thursday, Sept. 12 at 2 p.m. at the club room in the auditorium.
 The theme for the year will be "Centennial."
 Those on the yearbook committee are Mrs. Merlin Kenny, Mrs. Joe Claybaugh, Mrs. Milton Owens, Mrs. Don Liedman and Mrs. Wayne Kerstine.

Serving will be Mrs. Claybaugh, Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Liedman and those in charge of entertainment are Mrs. Kerstine and Mrs. Kenny. Anyone who would like to become a member of the Carroll Womens Club is invited to attend the meeting.

SENIOR CITIZENS
 Mrs. Lena Rethwisch hosted the Senior Citizens card party Monday. There were 15 present and prizes were won by Mrs. Perry Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Cook and Mrs. Leg Jensen.
 Mrs. Alice Wagner will be the hostess today (Monday) and Mrs.

Ron Sebade will be present to take blood pressure readings.

Carl Nelson, son of LeRoy Nelson of Carroll and Sandy Atkins of Wayne, graduated from Wayne-Carroll High School last spring and has been employed with farm work during the summer.

Mrs. John Swanson went to Sioux Falls Aug. 24 to visit her mother, Mrs. H.A. Kirkeby, and on Aug. 25 they attended the 40th wedding anniversary celebration for Mr. and Mrs. M.R. Mitchell of Sioux Falls.

Gordon Cook of Omaha spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Cook and Heather of Norfolk were Aug. 28 super guests in the Arthur Cook home to honor Craig for his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Johnson, Stanley and Mary went to Denison, Iowa Aug. 25 where they attended the Bleifeldt family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paulsen went to Omaha Aug. 23 and spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Halten left Aug. 14 to spend 10 days in Colorado Springs visiting in the Don Letting, Jan Halten and Jay Bettas homes. While in Colorado, both Mr. and Mrs. Halten observed their birthdays.

For non-traditional students

Brown bag lunches scheduled

The Adult Resource Center/Non-Traditional Student Program at Wayne State College is sponsoring "brown bag lunches" at least once a week while classes are in session until Dec. 4.

The informal bring-your-own-lunch sessions are to familiarize non-traditional students with the college. The service is provided through the Adult Resource Center, directed by Dr. Bobby Lupack, director of TLC/Tutors and Ms. Jan Stalling, director of counseling.

The sessions are from Noon-1 p.m. and are scheduled for the Senate Room in the basement of the Student Center. Students are welcome to come to the session for the entire 60 minutes or only a short time, according to Dr. Lupack.

Non-traditional students are defined by Dr. Lupack as over age 23, married students, commuters, single parents, elderly students, adults exploring career changes and women beginning college after rearing families.

Some 37 percent of WSC's students last semester were considered non-traditional.

The lunch sessions are:
Sept. 11 — Study Tips for Non-Trad; Ms. Marge Holland, TLC Learning Skills Specialist.
Sept. 18 — Let's Talk — What are your concerns for the upcoming year?
Sept. 25 — Coping with Stress—Ms. Jan Stalling, Director of Counseling.

Oct. 2 — Let's Talk—The Topic is Child Care: Discussion on child care needs.

Oct. 9 — Student Services: Dr. Max Lundström, Dean of Student Services.

Oct. 16 — Term Papers—Tips on Research and Writing: Mr. Jeff Clem, TLC Graduate Assistant.

Oct. 30 — Coping with Loss

Divorce, Break-up, Death, Moving: Rev. Jim Thompson, Campus Minister.
Nov. 6 — Meet the President: Dr. Don Whisenand, WSC Interim President.

Nov. 13 — Let's Talk—Open session for sharing.
Nov. 20 — Academic Anxiety and Test Stress: Mrs. Lin Brummeis, WSC Counselor.

Dec. 4 — Coping with Finals Week: Ms. Jan Stalling, Director of Counseling and Ms. Marge Holland, TLC Learning Skills Specialist.

Dec. 11 — Christmas Party, no lunch; 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the Campus Ministry.

For more information about the Adult Resource Center/Non-traditional Student Program, please contact the Teaching/Learning Center at 375-2200, ext. 496 or the Counseling Office at ext. 321.

Part Of International study

Cramer attends Denmark college

Terry Cramer, a Wayne State College senior from York, Nebraska, is spending the fall 1985 semester at the University of Copenhagen, Copenhagen, Denmark, as a part of the Denmark International Study (DIS) program.

Cramer, the son of Mrs. Diane Drew, is an accounting major at WSC. He will study International Business at Copenhagen.

Cramer will earn 12 credit hours which will transfer back to WSC into his major. His class in Copenhagen will be taught in English.

"What we really like about the DIS program is that it gives the students a chance to study business in Europe — right there were things are happening in international business," said Chuck Kay, director of international programs at WSC. "The European Common Market is an example."

Terry will be going several hundred other Americans who will take two required business courses, one business course of his choice and one general studies course of his choice. As part of his DIS program, Cramer will visit Poland and East Germany as well as other parts of Europe.

Cramer is the 19th Wayne State student to study in the DIS program. This is the seventh academic year WSC has taken part in the program.

He is scheduled to return to the United States Dec. 18.

NPPD community lease payments noted

Nebraska Public Power District (NPPD) will soon be distributing $4,454,402 to 216 Nebraska cities and towns as a result of agreements leasing municipal electrical distribution systems to NPPD, according to Wayne E. Boyd of South Sioux City, treasurer of the NPPD board of directors.

Hoskins will receive $6,253.46; Allen, $8,171.16; Belden, $2,827.98; Concord, $2,757.07; and Dixon, $2,252.42.

The money represents one-half of the annual payments made by NPPD under terms of the lease agreements. The payments were for the first half of 1985, said Boyd. The money may be used by the community any way it determines.

NPPD operates the electrical system and makes all additions and improvements to the property to maintain efficient service. NPPD pays the community 10 percent of the adjusted gross revenues realized within the corporate limits. The money turned over to the cities and towns by NPPD at this time does not include the annual five percent in-lieu-of-tax payments required by Nebraska statutes.

In addition to the money realized, the agreements between NPPD and the state's cities and towns also provide for a one-third discount on the electricity consumed by governmental agencies within the corporate limits.

On motion by Nissen and seconded by Beiermann the Board entered into an agreement with the State of Nebraska for the improvement of a County road RE: Project No. RS 85-2-3 Carroll Northeast, Sidney Saunders, Highway Superintendent, was instructed by the Board to contact several Engineers to make proposals for preliminary engineering work for the above named project.

The following Resolution was moved by Nissen and seconded by Beiermann:

RESOLVED, that First National Bank, Wayne, Nebraska be permitted to withdraw the following securities, held in escrow on Omaha National Bank, Omaha, Neb., (trustee) to secure deposits of this County in said bank, to-wit:

U.S. TREASURY NOTES DATED 8/15/78 due 8/15/85 $2,500.00; Total: $100,000.00 Receipt No. 010613 Cusip: 092502 and that the substitution of the following securities herefor be and the same is hereby approved: U.S. TREASURY NOTES DATED 5/15/78 due 5/15/85 $2,500.00; Price: 91224770 Total: $100,000.00 Receipt No. 52495

The foregoing resolution was moved by Nissen and seconded by Beiermann, and roll call resulted as follows: Nissen-Aye; Beiermann-Aye; Pospisil-Aye; No Nays.

It was moved by Nissen and seconded by Pospisil that Wayne County contract with the State Auditors office for the annual audit. Roll call vote: Nissen-Aye; Pospisil-Aye; Beiermann-Aye; No Nays.

Moved by Pospisil and seconded by Nissen that the following Resolution be adopted:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Wayne County has been advised that the U.S. Supreme Court's recent decision in Garcia v. San Antonio Metropolitan Transit Authority mandates the application of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) to local governmental entities in all aspects regarding the functions or services provided. The application of this decision directing compliance with the FLSA will have disastrous effects on the budgets of local governments in light of the many cutbacks experienced by local political subdivisions at both the State and Federal levels. In many instances, local governments are the only provider of the services and/or facilities of the State and Federal levels and yet these services are not comparable to any services wholly provided in the private sector. (i.e., law enforcement, fire protection, emergency medical services, public works services such as highway and drainage projects and sanitary landfill maintenance, etc.) And further, inasmuch as local governments have provided these services as needed basis, which in many cases exists on a twenty-four hour-a-day emergency lifeline manner, it is the original intent of the FLSA that such services be exempt from the coverage of private enterprise engagements in competitive manufacturing or production of goods for sale to the public. Requiring local governments to comply with this Act will serve as a deterrent to the efficient and economical operation of the local public sector, which is made necessary to the people, and

WHEREAS, the application of this Act specifically in Wayne County will cause further expenditures which funding will require revenues based mostly on taxes collected from the citizens of Wayne County with no additional services provided as a result of this increased cost and quite possible a curtailment of services which could be provided.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that Wayne County Board strongly urges that our Nebraska Congressional Delegates work to amend S. 1750 and similar legislation in the House which would reverse the Garcia decision and exempt local governments from the application of this Act which would provide them with needed services on behalf of, and for the benefit of, the citizens of the State of Nebraska. It is the intent of this Resolution that all municipal governments shall be forced to raise taxes in order to continue to provide these needed services within the State of Nebraska.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that, if this request cannot be acted upon favorably, such legislation may be enacted to exempt from FLSA coverage those employees who perform necessary and required services which occur, non-robotic, non-repetitive and unique to local governmental entities such as police protection, emergency medical and rescue services, water and sewer services, public works and fire protection, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each member of the Nebraska Congressional Delegation be presented with a copy of this resolution and urged to work to correct this manifest injustice placed on the taxpayers who fund local government services statewide and nationally.

ADOPTED this 9th day of August, 1985.

ATTEST: (Seal)

Gregory C. Morris, County Clerk

Roll call vote: Pospisil-Aye; Nissen-Aye; Beiermann-Aye; No Nays.

The Board discussed plans with Bookkeeper Deb Finn of the method to be used in complying with the requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act to be implemented by October 1, 1985.

REVENUE SHARING BUDGET HEARING

A Public Hearing was held at 2 p.m. on Thursday, August 22, 1985 in the Commissioners Room of the Wayne County Courthouse to enact the Revenue Sharing Budget for the 1985/1986 fiscal year.

Present at this meeting were Commissioners Beiermann, Nissen and Pospisil and Clerk, Morris. A motion by Nissen and seconded by Pospisil that the budget showing expenditures in the amount of $270,976 be adopted. Expenditures are set out for the purpose of equipment rental, material and equipment purchases, contracts and miscellaneous.

Roll call vote resulted as follows: Pospisil-Aye; Nissen-Aye; Beiermann-Aye; No Nays.

A summary of the enacted budget in detail showing the intended uses of Revenue Sharing funds and information regarding the budget actions taken by the Board is available for public inspection in the office of the County Clerk at the Courthouse from 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

There being no further business, it was moved by Nissen and seconded by Pospisil to adjourn the meeting. Roll call vote: Nissen-Aye; Pospisil-Aye; Beiermann-Aye; No Nays.

ANNA SEZ:

Annas Sez: Hello there! When a beautiful day! I'm a laborer and so much. First of all I'd like to give credit to Peggy Wheeler, our Social Service Director, and her family for all the time, effort and love that they've put into the ice cream social, which was held on Sunday, Sept. 8th, 1985. It was a very successful party for the month. We sang the birthday song and have treats.

The following committee has been formed to plan for the month of October. Everyone was invited to take second and maybe more. Thank you all. We welcome some new residents - Ruby Duncan from Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. McKee of Wayne and Gene Mielchman of Wayne. Also welcome to the new residents - Betty Duncan from Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. McKee of Wayne and Gene Mielchman of Wayne. SHOP LOCALLY!

Convenient parking makes shopping a pleasure

Shopping is easier and more enjoyable when parking's not a problem. That's why local merchants provide plenty of "no-hassle" parking areas, conveniently located near store entrances. You use less time searching for a parking space and walking to and from your car, so you have more time to shop. It's another of the many ways your local merchants serve you better.

When you shop locally, everyone benefits. It's more convenient so you save gas and time. You get friendly, knowledgeable service because local merchants "know" you and appreciate your business. They depend on you to keep their stores going strong. And some of what you spend goes back into the community in the form of taxes and charitable contributions paid by the merchants.

Remember...

Your money buys more when you shop at a local store. It's good for you, good for us, good for the community.
