Board sets tax levy rates

Wayne County valuation increases

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Tax levy rates for 1987-88 decreased over a year ago in most governmental subdivisions within Wayne County.

The Board of Equalization, which consists of the three Wayne County Commissioners (Merlin Beiermann, Robert Nissen and Gerald Pospisil) approved the rates on Tuesday by a 2-1 margin.

Pospisil voted against the tax rates which were established through calculations involving valuation figures and the budgets presented by the various governmental bodies.

The total 1987-88 valuation of Wayne County increased by 1.3 percent over the previous year, according to figures released from the Wayne County Assessor's Office.

Decreases over the previous year in tax levy rates were recorded by the county governmental bodies of Wayne County; village of Carroll; village of Winside; village of Wayne; Winside School District; Wayne-Carroll School District; and the Wakefield School District.

Increases in tax levy rates were noted in Hoskins and Sholes.

The tax rate set for non-resident tuition also increased from the 1986-87 figure of .7630 to .8696 per $100

Pac 'N' Save opens for business

Pac 'N' Save Discount Supermarket, located at the former Chevrolet and Oldsmobile dealership west of Wayne on Highway 35, opened for business Wednesday.

Renovation of the 20,000 square foot building began in late June of this year, immediately following a lease agreement between the Russell Endicott family of Seward and Roy Coryell of Wayne. The Endicotts have another Pac 'N' Save Supermarket in Seward, Nebraska.

Don Endicott and Rick Endicott will be grocery managers at the Wayne Pac 'N' Save. Kelly Baack and Nancy Endicott will work as managers of the up front operations of the supermarket, and Ted Baack will manage the meat department.

Jerry Abrahamson of Crete will assist in the meat department and Connie Endicott will manage the deli.

All of the management personnel and their families have moved to Wayne.

Don Endicott said the supermarket will initially employ up to 35 full-time and part-time people.

"Basically, we're a regular grocery store with box store prices," Endicott said.

ITEMS WILL still be in the boxes. However, he said the supermarket will "not be a warehouse type" business.

"We look more like a grocery store," he added. "The basic difference here is that people have to sack their own groceries. So we have the 'best sackers' in town — the customers."

The new supermarket will feature fresh and choice product availability in the perishable departments of meat and produce, complimented with a large variety of consumer brands available in the grocery, dairy and frozen categories.

The product availability line will be further supported with Health and Beauty Aids, non-foods, a deli department and front-end, fast-paced scanner checkouts.

Bakery products from Vel's Bakery in Wayne will also be available.

Don and Nancy Endicott have three children: Kim, age 11, Drew, 9 and Adam, 7.

Ted and Kelly Baack have two children, Lindsey, age 7, and Shane, age 4. Rick and Connie Endicott's three children are Ricky, age 11, Tyler, age 8 and Jay, age 6.

Chinese children to perform at Wayne State

The Chinese Children's Palace of Hangzhou headlines Wayne State College's Black and Gold Series for 1987-88.

The Chinese acrobats are one of five performers scheduled for the coming year in the Black and Gold Series. Famous People Players will perform Nov. 3, the Camerata Musica of Berlin visits Wayne on Jan. 23, pianist Jeffrey Siegel performs Feb. 18, and the State Ballet of Missouri appears on March 22.

The 20 boys and 20 girls comprising the Children's Palace are hand-picked by the Chinese government and represent one of the hundreds of "Children's Palaces" throughout China.

The youths graduated from Special cultural schools and became professional dancers, singers, musicians, actors, acrobats and graphic artists.

The youths range in age from 10 to 18 and are principally from the Zhejiang School of Performing Arts and also from the Hangzhou Teenage Acrobatic Troupe. That troupe performs five times each week in its own theater for Chinese and international tourists.

PERFORMANCES will feature Chinese classical and ancient folk music with national and regional dances and traditional Chinese acrobatics. The music is performed live with traditional Chinese in-balancing tower of chairs and the "Pagoda of Bowls" will be performed at Wayne State. Their performance is geared toward families and young children.

The Chinese youths are performing in the United States as part of the Ambassador International Cultural Foundation in association with Columbia Artists Festivals.

Tickets for the Chinese Children's Palace go on sale for the general public on Friday, Sept. 18 in the Budget and Finance Office, third floor of the Hahn Administration Building, at Wayne State. Students at Wayne State were able to pick up instruments. A high-wire sword dance, a lion dance, plate spinning, the Area 4-H teams get top state fair placings

Several 4-H members from Wayne County and surrounding counties came away from the Nebraska State Fair with high placings in various events.

Among the first place title winners was the Wayne County No. 1 Dairy Judging Team.

April Marotz of Hoskins, a member of the first place team who won the gold medal in the event scoring 614 points, will join three other 4-H youths who qualified for the National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest in Madison, Wisconsin.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will provide partial funding for the trip to Madison this fall.

Second place in individual competition was won by Danny Vokoum of Hallam with 597 points.

Jenni Puls of Hoskins placed fourth in individual competition with 578 points, but at 13 years old, she is too young to meet national eligibility requirements — so the fifth place finisher, respectively, got the nod to go to the National Dairy Show.

The team of Marotz, Puls, Darin Greunke of Winside and Chad Sebade of Wayne amassed 1,733 points to win the team title for Wayne County No. 1. Otoo County placed second with 1,642 points.

A SECOND TEAM from Wayne County finished fourth with 1,569 points. Members of this team were Craig Evans of Winside and Shelly Dorcy and Holly Sebade, both of Wayne.

Wayne County's team in the 4-H Home Economics Judging Contest also placed first through three competition areas during the 1987 Nebraska State Fair.

Team members are Margo and Marta Sandahl, both of Wakefield; Kim Cherry, Winside; Sally Burmester of Randolph — and Christina Bloomfield of Carroll.

Overall score for the Wayne County team was 166 points. Lincoln County was second with 165 total points.

The overall team score was tallied and averaged with the individual scores to obtain an overall team score.

Marta Sandahl finished tied for fourth in overall individual competition with 125 points. "Winning the individual gold medal" was Gwyn Vaughn of Valentine with 127 points.

The individuals were tested on their knowledge in foods, home environment, family life, consumer education and clothing.

The Wayne County team, and Vaughn, were awarded an educational trip to a major midwest city. The trip, which will include tours of businesses in the home economics field, will be taken next spring.

IN THE 4-H Market Lambs Contest at the state fair, Amy Adkins, age 15, of Laurel had the champion in the Division I competition — a 136-pound Hampshire wether named Mr. Dan. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rick Adkins.

Renee Plueger of Concord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Plueger, showed the Reserve Champion Chianina Breeding Heifer in the exhibitions at the Nebraska State Fair on Sept. 7. Her heifer was purchased from Russ Nixon of Mapleton, Iowa. She received a cash award from the Nebraska Chianina Association.

Cadet Jody C. Mahler, son of Charles M. and Mary K. Mahler of rural Allen, has completed a U.S. Air Force ROTC field training encampment at McConnell Air Force Base, Kan.

Field training, attended by cadets normally between their second and third year of college, gives an opportunity to evaluate each student's potential as an officer, according to an Air Force spokesman.

The summer's curriculum consists of orientations on Jet aircraft, career opportunities, human relations education and equal opportunity training. Physical fitness and survival training is also emphasized.

The field training is four weeks, but cadets in the two-year ROTC program receive an additional two weeks of instruction in the development of air power and the contemporary Air Force.

AN ESTIMATED 100 PERSONS attended an Apple Festival Saturday morning in the Winside city auditorium, with proceeds from the event going to establish the former Theophilus Church as a museum in Winside.

For museum project

Winside Apple Festival proceeds total $425

The Winside museum committee estimates 100 persons attended their Apple Festival held Sept. 12 in the city auditorium. Funds from the event totaled $425. Winner of an apple wreath door prize was Mrs. Bonnie Frevert of Winside, and winning a handmade doll donated by Grandma's Attic was Audrey Quinn of Winside.

THE WINSIDE museum committee is comprised of 20 members and is a branch of the Wayne County Historical Society. The committee has held several fundraising activities during the past months, with all money raised going to move the former Theophilus Church into Winside for use as a branch museum of the Wayne County Historical Society.

Committee Chairman Bill Burris said the project began in August 1986 and all money raised since that time has come from public donations. To date, the committee has raised $18,700 from mailings sent to past congregational family members, other individuals, organizations and fundraising activities. It is estimated the entire project will cost $22,000.

"THE GENERAL public has been wonderful about donating items and cash to our fundraising events," said Veryl Jackson, fundraising chairman.

"The majority of Winside area residents have either donated something or attended our functions."

Chairman Burris said the basement of the museum has been blocked and as much of the floor cemented as possible.

Burris added that the committee hopes to have the plumbing completed soon so that the structure can be enclosed and the heating system and electricity completed before winter.

The last major expense, according to Burris, will be the heating system which is estimated to cost approximately $2,000.

THE PROJECT chairman added the museum committee hopes to have a lot of volunteer help for the interior and exterior painting and finishes.

"Material goods will have to be purchased as we can afford them," said Burris, adding that donations are always appreciated.

The committee hopes to have the church and museum open to the public by early next summer.

Hospice volunteers needed

Area volunteers are being sought to assist in the hospice program coordinated through Lutheran Community Hospital in Norfolk.

Kathleen Grone of Wayne, a volunteer and member of the hospice steering committee, said volunteers are needed in the Wayne area to work through the Wayne Home Health Care program.

Interested persons are asked to contact Grone, 375-1650; Home Health Care nurses Ann Wilkowski or Terri Munter at Providence Medical Center in Wayne; or Pat Meierhenry at Lutheran Community Hospital in Norfolk.

Classes for hospice volunteers will be held Sept. 28 and Oct. 5, 12 and 19 at 7:30 p.m. at Lutheran Community Hospital.

The classes are not only for interested hospice volunteers, but for anyone interested in learning how to care for the sick.

GRONE SAID the hospice program is designed to assist persons suffering from life-threatening illnesses. She emphasized that the hospice program is a concept, not a place.

In an effort to maximize the quality of life when the quantity is threatened, Grone said the hospice program seeks to help care for a person and family as a single unit; ease the cost effectiveness through the use of volunteers; assist families in caring for a person; make services available 24 hours a day, seven days a week; provide patients with various community services; provide a home-like setting even when hospitalized; make consultations available with various specialized therapists and departments; provide bereavement support through follow-up; humanize the health care system; maintain a person's independence, dignity and control of their life in familiar surroundings of their choice; and provide backup care (respite) if no primary care giver is available.

I don't know if I'm getting older or if high school football is changing. After attending numerous games over the last several years I've come to the conclusion that the attitudes of the kids are changing. I'm not sure if that is for the better or the worse.

When I was in high school and playing football the team rules were very strict. You had to follow those rules or answer to your coach. That in itself was a fate worse than death. My high school coach was one of the nicest guys around until you screwed off or didn't do your part in a game situation. Then unholy hell would break loose.

I know there are still guidelines the athletes must follow but from the outside looking in, it appears that the rules are more lax.

Discipline was number one in my days. By the way, it was less than 10 years ago so it's not like its light years ago.

Players never talked back to the coaches. We could voice our opinion but we couldn't snap back at them, which is something I've heard several times. Also, when we were in the huddle only one person did the talking, that was the quarterback on offense and the linebacker on defense. At a game I attended recently you couldn't tell who was the quarterback because everybody had something to say in the huddle. As a result, the team was whistled for at least two delay of game penalties.

It just seems like overall, the game isn't as important to the kids anymore. Maybe that is good, I haven't decided yet.

I've attended high school games throughout eastern Nebraska. So I'm not just speaking of schools in northeast Nebraska. It seems to be happening all over.

Could it be that maybe I'm just growing older?

Naah!

If it wasn't for the two junk TD's in the fourth quarter I would have been reasonably close in my prediction of a Cornhusker win. This week the college schedulers have given me a week off.

In the meantime I'll predict a winner in the "ho-hum" game of the week Iowa vs. Iowa State. The Hawkeyes surprised me with a win over Arizona. This week they should get another win over the Cyclones who were down graded to a strong wind last week in a 25-12 loss to Tulane. Iowa will go 2-1 with an easy 28-13 win.

In area prep games Wayne will get its first win in a tight one over Squth Sioux; Allen will go 0-3 with a loss to Beemer; Laurel will edge Ponca; Winside will nip Hartington; and the Wakefield vs. Scribner-Snyder game is a toss up. I'll give Wakefield the edge.

Cats look for first win against Mustangs

The Wayne State Wildcats are gearing up for an important game Saturday against Southwest State University at Memorial Stadium.

The game is vital for several reasons. First, it is the Cats home opener after opening the season with two road losses. It is the first of three straight home games and it is the last game before the Cats enter their conference schedule.

The Marshall, Minn. school is one of two teams that the Wildcats beat last season. They went on the road and handed the Mustangs a 10-3 loss.

Coach Pete Chapman expects just as tough of contest as last year's game. This year the Mustangs will run a variation of the "run and shoot" offense. The NAIA school has a talented receiver in James Ashley, which will cause the Wildcat secondary problems. In a game last year against Moorhead State Ashley caught 10 passes for 248 yards and three TD's.

Chapman said he is a bit concerned since his defensive secondary is a little thin due to several injuries. The coach said his defensive front will have to put some pressure on the Mustang quarterback to give the secondary a chance.

The Wayne State coach said several players were banged up in the loss to Augustana last Saturday. Defensive back Roger Bentz and defensive lineman Kevin Waugh will not play Saturday. Bentz suffered a knee injury while Waugh will sit out with a bad ankle.

Southwest State will enter the game with a 1-1 mark. The Mustangs opened the season with a win over St. Johns before losing a close one to Moorhead State last Saturday.

Game time is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. at Memorial Stadium.

defensively. The Lady Bears recorded eight ace blocks, mostly from Becky Christensen and Shana Carstensen. Carstensen was Manganaro's top passer as she was successful on 29-31 passes.

Another good sign for Laurel was the return of Amy Adkins. Adkins was sidelined since the first match with a sprained ankle. Tuesday night she saw limited action and served 4-4 and was 5-6 spiking the ball. Manganaro said the sophomore was playing at about 75 percent effectiveness.

Crofton also took both the junior varsity and the C squad match. The hosts won the JV match 15-13, 15-4 and took the C game 11-1, 11-9. Sherri McCorkindale and Shelia Bose were the leading scorers respectively.

Laurel, 0-4, will be searching for its first win tonight when they battle Plainview at home.

Crofton sets tempo in NENAC win

The tempo was set early in the match as Crofton played an aggressive hitting offense which led to a 15-9, 16-14 win over Laurel at Crofton.

Crofton started six seniors against the younger Laurel squad. Laurel Coach Carol Manganaro said she was pleased with her team's overall play. She said it was the most exciting match her team has played this season in regards to the aspects of the game and fundamentals.

The Lady Bears had a season best in the serving department. Laurel hit 92 percent of its serves, 47-51. Prior to that the best was about 85 percent. Kim Mathison led the Lady Bears serving 13-13. The junior was also the team's leading scorer and setter with eight points and 19-22 sets. Dawn Addison was the top spiker for the Lady Bears as the senior went 14-16 at the net with five aces.

Laurel also did well at the net

Lady Trojans win invitational

Wakefield made it three in a row Tuesday when they captured the championship in the Winside Invitational Tournament by downing Osmond in the finals in straight sets.

It marked the third year in a row that Coach Paul Eaton's team has won the tournament. The sixth-rated Lady Trojans upped their season mark to 4-0.

Osmond finished second with an opening win over Winside. Winside came back and won the consolation game to take third and Coleridge placed fourth.

Wakefield vs. Coleridge

The Lady Trojans got to the finals by dumping the Chargers 15-10, 15-9. Eaton said the key to the win was his team's serving. The Lady Trojans served a season best by hitting 45-47 from the stripe. Karen Witt went 10-10 while Tricia Schwartz and Karen Hallstrom were each 9-9. Witt was also the leading scorer with seven points.

The Wakefield coach said Coleridge played well and if it wasn't for his team's serving they could have lost the match. Wakefield had to rally in the second set to take the match.

The winners were 26-37, 70 percent, at the net. The top Lady Trojan spikers were Hallstrom and Kodi Nelson. Hallstrom was 11-17 with seven aces and Nelson was 9-12 with seven aces.

Wakefield vs. Osmond

The Wakefield girls never let Osmond in the final match as they won 15-6, 15-6.

This time it was the passing game of the Lady Trojans that propelled them to victory. Schwartz was top passer as she was successful on 25-28. The senior was also the top setter going 27-27.

Eaton said his team played well enough to win but the girls must improve.

"We have a long way to go to where we want to be," he said. "Our floor game is still not where it should be. Inexperience in our younger players could have something to do with that."

Nelson was the top Wakefield scorer as she hit 14-15 serves. The senior hitter was 13-16 at the net with seven aces. Hallstrom was 11-14 with nine aces and Julie Greve was 11-13.

Winside vs. Osmond
Osmond handily downed the Wildcats in the first game of the tournament by scores of 15-5, 15-9.

Winside Coach Jill Stenwall said nothing went right for her team against the Lady Trojans.

"We'd have a bad set or hit the ball out of bounds," she said. "Our serve-receive wasn't very good, when you can't get the first bump the rest of the offense doesn't go."

Lori Jensen led the Wildcats with five points. The senior was 8-8 serving the ball, as a team Winside hit 28-34 serves. The Wildcats went 44-53 at the net with Kristy Miller leading the way with a 13-15 performance and five kills.

Winside vs. Coleridge
It looked like a completely different squad when the Wildcats took the court against Coleridge in the consolation match.

Winside dominated from start to finish by winning 15-4, 15-9. The win increased the Wildcats' season mark to 3-2.

Kathy Leighton, Christina Bloomfield and Tina Hartman all came off the bench and turned in a solid performance, according to Stenwall.

Senior Carmen Reeg was the leading scorer with nine points. She was 10-11 serving the ball with a pair of aces. Winside finished the night 35-39 from the serving stripe. Miller was again the top hitter, spiking 11-15 with six aces. Cher Olson was successful on all 31 sets. She finished the two matches setting 70-74.

ALLEN'S AMY NOE goes for a reverse set in the second set against Ponca.

In three sets

Allen struggles to nip Lady Indians

By Gregg Dahlheim
Sports Editor

It wasn't pretty but in the end the cream rose to the top giving Allen a tough three-set victory over Ponca Tuesday night in Allen.

The win boosted the Lady Eagles to 4-1. The hosts took the first set 15-8, lost the second set 9-15 and took the final set 15-8.

Coach Gary Troth wasn't happy with his team's play following the Lewis and Clark Conference match. Troth said the team didn't pass well which hurt the Lady Eagles' offensive attack.

Allen struggled early in the first set and trailed 4-0 before an ace spike by Missy Martinson got the Lady Eagles on the board. Martinson led Allen in spikes going 8-12 with four kills. Liz Hansen added six spikes in nine attempts and Candace Jones was 5-7 with four aces. As a team Allen was 25-37 at the net.

Amy Noe broke open the first set by serving 10 straight points to give the hosts a 10-4 lead. Ponca got back to within 10-8 before the Lady Eagles put the game away.

The second set saw sawed back and forth in the early going. Ponca went on top 8-5 and led by as many as six points. After an Allen timeout the locals got back into the set and trailed 13-9. A couple of Allen errors gave the Lady Indians the second set. Ponca kept the Lady Eagles out of their offense during the second set.

It looked as if Ponca was going to come away with the match as it grabbed a 5-1 lead in the final set. Allen had no communication and was standing flat footed. Martinson got her team back in it by serving four straight points to tie the match.

Trailing 5-6 Troth brought in Anita Noe off the bench to serve. She provided the spark her team needed by serving three points including an ace. From that point Allen never trailed and went on to win the match.

Troth said he was glad to see his team respond well in the third set after giving away the second game.

The hosts hit 63-70 serves in the match for 90 percent. Amy Noe was perfect in 17 attempts including an ace. Lisa Boyle was 20-21 while Martinson and Leslie Isom each connected on seven serves. Lisa Boyle led the Lady Eagles in scoring with 13 points. Martinson and Amy Noe followed with nine and seven points respectively.

In the first match of the evening the Allen JV's downed Ponca 15-10, 15-13.

Next up for Allen is Emerson Hubbard on the road tonight (Thursday). Troth said the Lady Pirates are a good team and his girls will have to be better if they hope to come home with a win.

Second-half rally falls short

The Wayne State football team spotted Augustana 20 points and could never climb out of the hole as the Vikings handed the Cats a 27-14 loss at Sioux Falls on Saturday.

The Vikings scored in each of the first two quarters and led at halftime 13-0. The hosts tallied 25 yards at halftime compared to Wayne State's 83 yards.

After exchanging punts Augustana got on the board with a four play, 50-yard drive that culminated in a 21-yard touchdown run by Brad Burgmeier. Troy Westwood added the point after and the Vikings led 7-0 with 8:34 remaining in the first quarter.

On the ensuing possession the Wildcats engineered a drive into Viking territory. Among the plays were a 13-yard completion from Scott Raue to Glenn Mathews, a 17-yard aerial from Raue to Damon Ross and 14-yard gain by Mathews. But on a fourth and one at the Augle 25, Raue was wrapped up at the line of scrimmage for no gain.

The Wildcat defense began to stiffen and limited Augustana to field goals of 23 and 24 yards in the second quarter.

Coach Pete Chapman said after the first period his team played well. The WSC skipper said the defense consistently got better as the game went along. Chapman said by the third and fourth quarters Augustana was having trouble moving the ball.

Linebacker Jim Sibbel led the Cat defense with 19 tackles. Fellow linebacker Greg Cavill had 16 stops while Mark Volf and Dave Uhlers added 14 and 12 respectively.

The Vikings made it 20-0 with less than three minutes elapsed in the third period. Brian Smith galloped 16 yards for a touchdown after the Cats turned the ball over deep in their own territory.

Wayne State got its first points of the 1987 season about five minutes later. The Cats put together a five play, 58-yard drive. Mathews covered the last 24 yards on a pass from Raue. Tony Wiese added the extra point and the locals trailed 20-7.

Good field position led to Augie's last score of the day, a two-yard blast by Burgmeier with 4:54 to play in the third period. Wayne State cut the lead to 27-14 on a 22-yard scoring strike from Raue to Pat Wordekemper. Wiese added the PAT. The score came with 10:49 left to play.

The Wayne State offense wasn't done. With about two minutes to go the Wildcats were at the Augustana two-yard line looking to get back into the game. But on first and goal at the two Ross fumbled the ball and any chance of a rally. It was the fourth fumble of the day for the Cats. Augustana also coughed up the ball four times.

The Vikings finished the day with 311 yards of offense compared to Wayne State's 202 yards. The locals gained more through the air than the Vikings. Raue completed 22-42 passes for 241 yards. Backup Mark Priegnitz was 0-1. The big story in the game was the rushing yardage. Augie gained 180 yards on the ground while limiting the Cats to minus 39 yards. The Viking defense set a school record for the fewest rushing yards allowed in a game for its effort.

Chapman said his team has improved since the opening loss to UNO.

"We've progressed quite a bit," Chapman said. "Not enough to win but we moved in a positive direction."

The injury situation wasn't good for Wayne State. The most serious injuries being a knee injury to Roger Bentz and a seriously sprained ankle to Kevin Waugh. Bentz is expected to undergo arthroscopic surgery and be sidelined for several weeks.

Chapman said Raue was also banged up with an ankle and rib injury. The coach said that made the sophomore signal callers' efforts all the more rewarding. Ross also sustained a sprained ankle while Paul Dean broke a bone in his hand.

JEFF LUTT (84) of Wayne tries to elude an oncoming South Sioux City tackler. Lutt caught the pass from quarterback Brian Moore in the second quarter. The Blue Devils were blanked by the Cardinals 9-0.

Blue Devil JV's get no offense in 9-0 loss

The Wayne junior varsity football team suffered its first loss of the season Monday afternoon when South Sioux City shutout the junior Blue Devils 9-0.

The hosts couldn't get their offense in gear, which is something that worries Coach Ron Carnes.

"We just didn't show any consistency," Carnes said. "It's going to be tough to win if we don't start showing some consistency on offense. Our offense has to start to gel."

South Sioux City scored its points off of a pair of Wayne mistakes. The visitors got their only touchdown with 15 seconds remaining in the first half. It was a 12-yard pass on third down. The score was set up on an interception return down deep into Blue Devil territory. The only other score in the game came in the fourth quarter after South Sioux recovered a Wayne fumble near the Blue Devils' 10-yard line. The Cardinals couldn't move the ball and had to settle for a short field goal.

Carnes said he thought the defense played well. He said it didn't allow any long sustained drives against what Carnes said could be the toughest team on the junior varsity schedule.

Kip Mau was the top Wayne tackler. The 165-pound sophomore was credited with 10 stops. Chris Wiseman, and Jason Cole had eight tackles each and Jess Thompson added seven stops.

The JV's will next be in action on Monday when they hit the road to play Pierce in a game scheduled for 7 p.m.

Wayne spikers bow in finals to Scotus

The Wayne Lady Blue Devils' quest for the gold fell short Saturday when they were beaten by Columbus Scotus in the finals of the North Bend Invitational Tournament.

The Lady Blue Devils were eliminated in straight sets 8-15, 8-15. Scotus advanced to the finals by beating North Bend in two sets, while Wayne downed Schuyler in three sets to move on to the championship match.

Wayne Coach Marlene Uhing said Columbus Scotus wanted the match more.

"Our girls didn't feel they could win it," she said. "Scotus was very aggressive and we got outstuffed. When it comes to a championship match you have to be really aggressive to win."

Uhing said scoring with the serve was the locals biggest problem. They would get the serve but they couldn't do anything with it. The coach said there were a lot of side outs where neither team scored.

Marnie Bruggeman and Robin Lutt were the team's leading scorers and servers. Bruggeman tallied six points while going 11-11 from the serving stripe. Lutt was 4-4 serving the ball with four points. The Lady Blue Devils hit 31-32 serves. Karmyn Koenig was the top spiker as she converted on 10-13 attempts with three kills. The locals hit 73 percent of their spikes, 48-66.

Uhing said she was disappointed in her team's play. She said with the make-up of the Lady Blue Devils they have to play as a team to be successful — they didn't, according to the coach.

Things were a little brighter for the locals in the opening round. Wayne beat the Lady Warriors for the second time in less than a week. Last Thursday the Lady Blue Devils beat Schuyler in two sets. Saturday Wayne dropped the first set 13-15 before rebounding for 15-5, 15-7 wins.

Uhing said the Lady Warriors came out of the chute fast. Wayne started a little sluggish and made a few mistakes which posted Schuyler to an early lead.

"We were a little tentative," she said. "We knew we beat them once and we should beat them again."

The Lady Blue Devils left little doubt in the second and third sets who the best team was. Wayne jumped to big leads in each of the last two sets.

Kristy Hansen topped all Wayne scorers with 11 points on 14-16 serving. Dana Nelson tallied eight points by going 10-11 from the serving stripe.

Wayne spiked at a 86 percent clip. Uhing said anything over 80 percent is above average. The Lady Blue Devils were 79-92 at the net. Sarah Peterson record the most spikes. The senior was 17-19 with three aces. Koenig was 15-18 with four aces while Amy Schlus, Bruggeman and Lutt collected 11 hits apiece. Bruggeman and Hansen were a collective 67-72 in the setting department.

Lutt and Schlus were named to the all-tournament team. Uhing said Schlus turned in a solid passing performance, especially in the first match.

The girls will be on the road tonight (Thursday) when they play Pierce. The freshmen and junior varsity will play prior to the varsity match.

Wayne grad honored in who's who publication

Kecia Corbit, a 1986 Wayne-Carroll High School graduate, is listed in the latest Who's Who in American High School Basketball.

Corbit, who is a freshman member of the College of St. Mary basketball team, was nominated by her coach, Marlene Uhing. Less than 2 percent of the nation's players are considered for the honor.

Corbit's high school statistics are listed in full in the publication. While at Wayne high Corbit scored 892 points and averaged 14 points a game. In her senior season she tallied 323 points, pulled down 191 rebounds and averaged 16 points a game. As a sophomore she led the team with the most blocked shots in a season; and as a junior she had the most rebounds in a season among many other records. In her senior year she was the offensive player of the year on her team. Corbit was also named all-conference, second team all-state, Wayne Herald All-Area and

Juniors shutout at home

The Wayne Junior High football team came up on the short end of a 16-0 score in its opener to Norfolk Catholic on Tuesday.

The junior Blue Devils showed first-game jitters which hampered their efforts.

Offensively Wayne was led by John Murphy and Regg Carnes. Murphy rushed for 98 yards on 20 carries while Carnes carried the ball 15 times for 44 yards. The locals only scoring threat came in the fourth quarter when they drove to the Catholic 3-yard line before the drive stalled.

The Wayne defense gave up touchdowns in the second and third quarters. Carnes and John Murphy were the leading tacklers with six apiece. Troy Kaup had five stops and Jim Murphy, Brian Gamble, Matt Metz and Jason Fink all had four tackles each. Jim Murphy returned an interception 45 yards while John Murphy picked off and went 10 yards. Fink and Carnes each came up with fumble recoveries.

Spinal cord injuries decreased in football

Neck trauma in sports can be one of the most life threatening and life altering traumas that can occur in sports. The sports in which the largest number of injuries have been reported are water sports, football, gymnastics, rugby, and ice hockey. Many of these accidents have involved a hyperflexion of the head on the neck thus damaging the vertebrae and subsequent spinal cord. Some have resulted in partial paralysis, quadriplegia and occasionally, though rarely death.

The number of spinal cord injuries has decreased significantly since the outlawing of spear tackling in football. Even so, it is important that every coach examine his players techniques as they begin summer practice to insure they know the correct tackling techniques and each understands why it is imperative not to tackle using the head as a ram.

Spinal cord injuries involving water sports are also more likely to occur at this time of the year. Stressing the importance of good technique when diving as well as no horseplay helps to reduce the risk of neck injuries. The single most reported cause of neck injuries involving water occurred when diving into too shallow, usually unknown water.

Gymnastic injuries can be reduced by proper techniques and always spotting appropriately. The use of a harness when learning new techniques and stunts can reduce the impact to the head and neck in falls. Trampolines and mini-trampolines from the A.A.H.P.E.R. included specifying that no multiple somersaults should be attempted and single Wesleyan went on to claim the championship.

Wayne State Coach Marilyn Strate said her team was disappointed after not qualifying for the championships. She said the women knew they should have been in the finals. Wayne State entered the tournament as reigning champions.

The locals started play by dropping a three-set match to Northwestern 15-6, 12-15, 4-15. The Lady Cats rebounded and dumped the Dordt JV's 14-16, 15-1, 16-14. Wayne State finished off the pool play with a 15-11, 8-15, 15-9 win over Wesleyan.

The Lady Cats lost the services of starter Meg Hurlley. The junior hitter from Omaha injured her knee in the first match.

Statistics were figured in the Wesleyan and Northwestern matches only. The match against the Dordt JV's won't count on the season record.

Shelle Lau was the top hitter for the locals. The senior finished with 27 kills. Amber Maaske was 23-23 from the serving stripe with a pair of aces.

Senior Diane Hanus led in three categories. The Bellwood native was the top passer going 55-55, she led the team in digs with 14 and she collected five blocks. Bev Moeller was the top assist person with 24.

Tuesday night Wayne State improved its record to 4-1 with a tough five-set win over Doane College. The Lady Cats dropped the first two sets before winning by scores of 9-15, 7-15, 18-16, 15-7, 15-10. The junior varsity squad started off the night with a three-set win.

by Pat McElreath

The Earth stove was kind of slow last year, so the Big Farmer decided it needed an overhaul. The factory is at Waco, 100 miles away. The pickup is like the rest of our vehicles, old and decrepit.

I suggested we go on Sunday and take in the family reunion at York. Wonder of wonders, he agreed.

This is the Stuhr reunion, a slug of my Dad's cousins ranging in age from 52 to 82, and some of their kids. My dad had a lot of cousins.

My parents would have been married fifty years this year, and several of their friends and family recently celebrated golden anniversaries.

The talk turned to weddings and wedding dates and wedding nights after lunch. One of my cousins has a daughter being married Jan. 2. I said, "Just so we don't have a snow storm."

She answered, "You can't worry about that. One of our friends opted for April to avoid the snow and we had a latte storm."

I turned to my aunt and reminisced. "You were married Feb. 1st, and we took pictures outside that afternoon." (It was her wedding when I learned how difficult the job of lighting candles was.)

AUNT JUNE replied that it got very cold that night though. Friends stole the bride and she and my uncle didn't get back together until late. While they were driving the boyfriend of the maid of honor to college at Seward, the heater conked out when they went over a railroad track. They shivered all the way back to Waco and deposited the maid of honor. When she got out of the car and slammed the door, the heater came back on!

It isn't too often that the bride and groom are responsible for getting the wedding party home. But I know another couple who had a winter wedding during a ferrible snow storm. Not even all the attendants got there, and very few of the guests.

There was no way they could leave on a honeymoon, so they stayed at a local motel, with his parents in the room next door!

My parents didn't even get to a motel. They were upstairs at the home of my grandparents.

My sister-in-law and her husband had the use of the "cabin", a little 3 room house formerly occupied by a hired man. Trouble is, it was in the front yard of my in-laws home.

A COUPLE OF our college friends put a mattress in the back of his pickup, a tarp over the top, and took along a camping stove. Not exactly my idea of a honeymoon trip, but inexpensive.

I think the most original wedding trip I've read about was just this spring, when the daughter of friends at Orchard and her new husband, and their families and friends, went down the Niobrara in canoes!

We did have a honeymoon, a week in Missouri, though I've often wondered since how we accomplished being gone that long. Sept. is usually a good month for weather, although there was an early storm two years ago.

That was 27 years ago this week. The pickup made it to York today. My uncle will deliver the stove to the factory tomorrow. And we'll hope the weather stays moderate until we can get it back home.

And we will continue to dream of a second honeymoon — to Hawaii.

Business Notes

Paula Pflueger, the local representative with Edward D. Jones & Company, announced the kick-off of the local Edward D. Jones, Sr. "Heart of Gold" Award. This award will honor an individual who has dedicated his or her time and energy to helping those less fortunate than him or herself.

"There are people in our area who have built their lives around helping others. Unfortunately, these people often go unrecognized. The Edward D. Jones, Sr. Heart of Gold Award recognizes these unsung heroes, and I hope anyone knowing such a person will take the time to nominate him or her for this honor," said Pflueger.

Nominations for the Award can be made by filling out a brief form available by calling or stopping by the Edward D. Jones & Co. office in Wayne. Nominations must be made by Oct. 9.

A panel of judges consisting of community members yet to be named will select the local Heart of Gold winner. The Wayne area winner, along with candidates from other communities throughout the nation, will then be eligible for the national award. The winner of the national award will receive a $5,000 donation to his or her favorite charity and tickets for an all-expense paid, week-long vacation for two in Key West, Florida.

The Golden Years by Gil Haase

The American Automobile Association says that one of the most serious problems on our highways today is the growing number of older drivers who pose a danger to themselves and others because of physical or mental impairments. The AAA suggests that an older driver look for these warning signs: a growing number of near-misses; a growing number of minor accidents; obvious trouble seeing pedestrians, cars and others objects in the road. If noted, it may be time to limit or stop driving.

According to a study by the United States House of Representatives Select Committee on Aging, mistreatment of the elderly, including financial abuse, now affects one in every 25 people over age 60.

Diarrhea a Symptom - Not a Primary Health Problem

Diarrhea occurs when excess water is not reabsorbed into the body through the gut. Causes are numerous and include nervousness, food allergy, overuse of laxatives, a variety of health problems, and infections caused by parasites, bacteria, and viruses. Diarrhea is due to something else that is going on in the body.

The most important aspect of treating diarrhea symptoms is replacing water and minerals (electrolytes) that leave the body in watery stools. If not replaced, dehydration may occur - a special problem in infants and the elderly. In developing countries where infectious diarrhea is a common problem, such dehydration is a major cause of death.

Polycarbophil and kapectate are recognized as safe and effective over-the-counter diarrhea treatments. Polycarbophil absorbs 60 times its original weight in water thus producing a more normal stool.
