Fantasy Forest

Those interested in placing a Christmas tree entry in the Wayne Fantasy Forest event in Wayne's city auditorium should contact Sandra Metz at 375-2200 extension 288 as soon as possible.

The Fantasy Forest dates are set for Dec. 3-6.

Soup's on

The resident's council of the Wayne Care Centre is announcing its second annual Soup and Pie Supper Nov. 10 from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Care Centre.

The menu consists of homemade chicken noodle and chili soups plus pie and coffee. Tickets are $2 each for all ages and seconds are available.

The event gives the care centre residents the opportunity to host something in the community, bringing townspeople into the facility, other than just visiting relatives. The money goes into the care centre council treasury.

The soups are made by the dietary department and the pies are made by families, friends, employees and others who donate. Besides the dining room this year, extra tables will be set up in the chapel area and the day room lounge on the main floor.

Tickets may be purchased in advance from various staff members or at the door that night. Christmas crafts will also be on display for people to place orders for the holidays.

Highway work

Work is scheduled to begin Nov. 2 on Highway 9 beginning at the north edge of Allen and extending south for 3 1/2 miles, according to the Nebraska Department of Roads.

Henningsen Construction, Inc. of Atlantic, Iowa has the $925,881 contract for grading and asphalt surfacing. L.J. Webb Contractor, Inc. of Geneva has the $123,984 contract for culverts. Commercial Seeding Contractors, Inc. of Omaha has the $24,868 contract for seeding.

Traffic will be maintained during 1987 on this project. When construction begins next year, through traffic will follow a marked detour. Work is scheduled to be completed in October, 1988.

Holiday show

Tickets for this year's Wayne State Elizabethan Christmas Dinners go on sale Monday, Nov. 9. Three Christmas dinners will be presented in the WSC Student Center on Dec. 11, 12 and 13 at 7 p.m. Tickets are $12 each and are available in the Fine Arts Office, Room 10 of the Val Peterson Fine Arts Center.

For more information, contact the Fine Arts Office at 402/375-2200, extension 359 between 8 a.m.-noon and 1 to 5 p.m. Tickets cannot be ordered over the phone and all sales of the tickets are final with no reservations refunded.

Accident

A one-car accident took place three miles west of Wayne on Highway 35 late Friday afternoon.

The name of the driver of the vehicle was not available to the media as of late Friday evening. However, the vehicle he was driving carried a Lancaster County license plate.

He was driving east on Highway 35 with his Blazer, pulling a trailer filled with furniture and other items, when he lost control and rolled into the south ditch.

The driver was transported to Providence Medical Center. The accident is under investigation by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

More information will appear in Thursday's edition of The Wayne Herald.

Fire destroys garage, damages home

Wayne's Volunteer Fire Department had a busy Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last week, working to extinguish fires in the area.

On Wednesday afternoon, the fire department was called to the Mike Meyer farm approximately three miles south, two miles east and a half-mile south of Wayne. There, a fire had destroyed a garage near the residence. Most of the items of value were removed from the garage before damage was sustained.

Thursday evening, Wayne firemen battled fire and heavy smoke in a house fire at the Robert Treacle residence two miles west, a mile north and a half-mile west of Wayne.

The call was made to the fire department at approximately 7:15 p.m. Some of the firemen remained at the Treacle home scene until after 1 a.m.

Nobody was home at the time the fire broke out. Apparently, the house suffered heavy smoke damage. Fire Chief Dale Preston said the department was able to confine the fire to a specific area inside the house.

Cause of the fire is undetermined and under investigation by the state fire marshal's office, according to Preston.

Friday afternoon, Wayne firemen answered a call to extinguish a corn field fire near the Timpfe, Inc. manufacturing plant near Wayne.

Opportunity calls—but one of six answers

By Chuck Hackenmiller

Managing Editor

Six people in Wayne had their opportunity to speak on national public radio on Saturday, Oct. 24—but only one of the six individuals from the community was able to answer the call.

A public radio station in Madison, Wisconsin, during its national comedy show called "Whad'Ya Know With Michael Feldman" featured the Wayne community during its Saturday morning broadcast.

During the previous show of Oct. 18, a dart was thrown at a U.S. map by someone from the studio audience and the point stuck right into Wayne. That made Wayne the featured community for the Oct. 24 two-hour "Whad'Ya Know" program.

The Wayne segment was on public radio between 11:30 and noon. The associate producer of the show, Jim Packard, called the Wayne Herald and Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce prior to the Oct. 24 show and requested historical and current information about Wayne.

Information about the origin of Wayne was shared during the program, followed up by a telephone call to someone in Wayne, done live over public radio.

PACKARD started the segment by saying: "Thomas Jefferson once said that cultivators of the earth are the most virtuous citizens.

"And our townspeople this week would probably nod in agreement."

He said the townspeople descended from settlers of Illinois, Iowa and Pennsylvania who crossed the Mississippi in the 1870's and took up residence on northeast Nebraska's rolling prairie.

"They farmed and started a town which they called Brookdale. In 1881 both the town and the county in which it sits took the name of Wayne, honoring the hero of the war of independence, General Mad Anthony Wayne.

"The Chester County, Pennsylvania native was with Washington at Valley Forge and won acclaim during the capture of Stony Point.

Packard said Wayne Normal School opened its doors in 1891 and became Wayne State College in 1963. "Was that named after Mad Dog Anthony of Wayne?" asked Feldman in a humorous manner.

Its students have included a former ambassador, Val Peterson, and Nebraska's famed poet laureate John Neihardt, said Packard.

He also spoke about the Wayne County Museum, with its marble fireplaces and Victorian furniture. "Wayne, population 5,300, is not just about agriculture. Its also manufacturing of refrigerated semi trailers, waterbed mattress pads and modular buildings," said Packard.

When Packard mentioned information about Wayne Chicken Show, the National Cluck-offs, Omelet Feed, the Olympics and the parade, he drew some laughter from the audience in the Madison, Wisconsin studio.

"This is the second week now that we have featured chickens prominently," said Packard.

"I know. It's almost too much of a good thing," said radio show host Feldman.

FELDMAN THEN began his efforts to "find about about Wayne, Nebraska from an 'insiders' point of view."

So he looked into the phone book, asked for a letter from the audience (who said "G") and picked a name.

The first phone number he dialed belonged to Darlene Gathje. After no answer, Feldman said: "We could call H&R Block and talk about tax changes."

Feldman then dialed another number and got no answer. "I'm pretty sure that the paper [The Wayne Herald] ran a story about your calls. It might have driven everybody outdoors," mentioned Packard.

Next Feldman dialed Linda Mersect. No answer. A musical interlude followed. "Gosh, we don't usually have this much trouble calling every week," said Feldman. "Got that football game going on...Nebraska number two in the country," added Packard.

The next number tried was Mert's Place. "There's got to be someone there...someone somewhere. In Wayne. Unless they've been evacuated for some reason," said Feldman.

Somebody answered at Mert's place.

Mert hung up on the radio show host. Feldman then called Rich Schafer of Wayne. "Maybe there will be a 'little Shaefer' home," said Feldman. No answer.

"Wayne Nebraska. We'd like to honor you Wayne, we just need somebody to be at home to do it. This is the most calls we've ever had," he added. "Could be a Blue Devil pep rally somewhere," mentioned Packard.

But on the sixth call, they were able to reach Lillian Anderson. Feldman asked Anderson about what she likes to show off about Wayne, what were her favorite restaurants (El Toro and PoPos).

ANDERSON will be presented a pound of the Costa Rican fresh ground coffee, chocolate bar and a stoneware crock.

"I'm sure it's a beautiful town of 5,000," concluded Feldman.

The next community honored (on Oct. 31), with the throw of the dart, will be Pioche, Nevada.

Connealy gains new post

Tim Connealy, presently district manager of Peoples Natural Gas in Wayne, has been promoted to a post at Peoples Natural Gas in Papillion.

He begins his new position on Monday (Nov. 2), serving in the area of acquisition. He will cover three states in that capacity — Kansas, Colorado and Nebraska.

Connealy is currently Wayne Kiwanis Club president, is a board member of Wayne Industries, is on the United Way board and is also a Wayne Chamber of Commerce member.

"It really miss it here. I love this town," said Connealy. "But at the same time, I'm also very excited about my new position."

Connealy came to Wayne nearly three ago (Sept. 1984) to serve as the district manager. No details about who will serve as the district manager in Wayne has been released as of Friday afternoon.

Holiday plans made

With Christmas less than eight weeks away, plans are underway for this year's holiday decorations and promotions in Wayne.

Along with the traditional "Holiday Magic" Christmas promotion and the annual Fantasy Forest, several new events are part of the Wayne holiday package.

There will be new Christmas decorations for a portion of Wayne this year. More decorations will be available when funds exist. In addition, downtown businesses will be outlined in white lights from First Street to Fourth Street.

Something which Wayne residents should begin to consider is the "house decorating" contest in Wayne. Entries are to be submitted to the Chamber office, with winners receiving "Chamber Shopper Gift Certificates" of $50. for first place; $30 for second place; and $20 for third place.

Also, downtown empty building fronts will be decorated in the holiday scenes by the seventh grade students under the direction of instructor Ted Blenderman.

Costume winners

Briefly Speaking

Nine attend Toastmasters

Sunrise Toastmasters met with nine members on Oct. 20 at Wayne City Hall. Presiding officer was Faunell Bennett, and invocator was Eileen Miller.

Howard Meier was a participant and reported on the humorous speech contest held Oct. 17 at Grand Island.

Toastmaster was Marion Arneson, jokemaster was Sue Schroeder, and topicmaster was Eileen Miller. Tabletopic speakers were Marion Arneson, Sam Schroeder and Doug Temme.

Eileen Miller's speech, "Business Office Communication," was evaluated by Sam Schroeder. Darrell Miller was general evaluator, Howard Meier was timer, and Doug Temme was "ah" counter and grammarian.

Christmas bazaar at Winside

The Ladies Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Winside, will hold its annual Christmas bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 7 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the church basement.

Craft items, baked goods and white elephants will be sold. Doughnuts and coffee will be served in the morning. There also will be a lunch of barbecue sandwiches, chili and pie.

Persons with items to donate for the event are asked to take them to the church basement by early Friday afternoon, Nov. 6. Food items can be delivered early Saturday morning. Mrs. Dennis Evans is this year's chairman.

All proceeds from the event will be used for St. Paul's scholarship fund and to help with expenses for congregational youth wishing to attend Camp Luther next summer.

Program on Marie Sandoz

A program on Marie Sandoz, a Nebraska author, was given by Minnie Rice during the Oct. 26 meeting of Minerva Club. Eleven members and two guests, Inez Olds and Bette Ream, attended the meeting in the home of Arlene Ellermeier.

Next meeting will be Nov. 9 at 2 p.m. with Norma Koerber. Beth Morris will give the program.

Winside twirler receives trophies

Kay Damme, nine-year-old daughter of LeRoy and Eileen Damme of Winside, won four first place trophies and two third place medals in the National Baton Twirling Association (NBTA) open baton contest held Oct. 24 in Omaha.

Kay placed first in advanced best appearing (modeling), intermediate solo, instate intermediate solo, and two baton. She placed third in intermediate strut and beginners basic strut.

Accompanying Kay to Omaha was her mother and brother Kent. Kay's next competition will be the Nebraska State Baton Twirling Championship on Nov. 14 in Omaha.

Just Us Gals officers elected

Election of officers was held during the Oct. 21 meeting of Just Us Gals Club. President is Gail Spahr, vice president is Mrs. Ernest Grone, secretary is Mrs. Gerald Grone, and courtesy and news reporter is Mrs. Herb Echtenkamp.

Hostess for the October meeting was Mrs. LeRoy Spahr. Nine members responded to roll call with the house chore they hate the most. Mrs. Clara Spahr will be hostess on Nov. 18 at 1:30 p.m.

Talk to each other

Recently a questionnaire sent to marital therapists asked them to rate 10 areas which, in their opinion, had the most damaging effects on marriage.

Far ahead of all others came poor couple communication. Next came unrealistic expectations of marriage, followed by serious individual problems.

Then, grouped closely together at a decidedly lower level, were role conflict, lack of loving feelings, absence of demonstration of affection, alcoholism, extra-marital affairs and sex.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that communication comes at the top of the list and sex at the bottom.

Keeping in touch with each other means more than talk about the children, the neighbors, or bills to be paid. Communication means sharing inner thoughts and feelings, expressing to each other the emotions that stir beneath the surface.

Marriage provides an intimate relationship where we should be able to open ourselves to vulnerability. Marriage allows us to let our hair down, take off the heavy armor of our defense system, relax and be our real selves.

One way to develop the ability to share with your spouse is to begin in a non-threatening way. Select an article, passage from spiritual writings, poetry, or other literary work. Each spouse should read the same item and think of their feelings and reactions. Share your thoughts with each other in an open and accepting way.

AFTER THE FEELING of safety has developed during these regular sharing times, other issues that may be more sensitive can be explored. Open up to your spouse. Communication is the key to a successful relationship.

Another way to ease the pressures of modern day-life is to develop a set of house rules that teach consideration of others. One set of rules from an anonymous source says it quite well.

Rule of the House

- If you open it, close it
- If you get it out, put it away
- If you sleep in it, make it up
- If you drink out of it, put it in the dishwasher
- If you'll need it later, put it away now
- If you take it off, hang it up
- If you turn it on, turn it off
- If you drop it, pick it up

Wed in Arizona

Terri Schroeder and Patrick Starzl were united in marriage Sept. 26 at Dobson Ranch Country Club, Mesa, Ariz.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marland Schroeder of Wakefield, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doeschler of Wakefield.

The newlyweds are at home at 1837 W. Portobello, Mesa, Ariz. The bride is a 1976 graduate of Wakefield High School and is employed as a surgical secretary at Humana Hospital in Phoenix. The bridegroom was graduated from Wakefield High School in 1972 and is employed as a painter at Don Sanderson Ford.

Auxiliary plans Poppy Day

The Llewellyn B. Whitmore VFW Auxiliary No. 5291 has scheduled its annual Buddy Poppy Day for Friday, Nov. 6 and Saturday, Nov. 7.

Residents are encouraged to purchase a Poppy on those days as evidence of their gratitude to the men who risked their lives in defense of freedoms which Americans continue to enjoy.

Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and proceeds are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

THE VFW Auxiliary met in the Wayne Vet's Club room on Oct. 27 with 12 members present. President Betty Heithold called the meeting to order. Treasurer Eveline Thompson reported 19 paid memberships.

The auxiliary received thank you notes from the Norfolk Veteran's Home for the September supper, from the Wayne Cemetery Board for help during the pancake feed, and from the family of Rod Jorgensen.

A report on the veterans supper was given by Helen Siefken.

Eveline Thompson reported cancer pins are still available. She also reported on the Can-Cancer project.

MRS. THOMPSON also reported on the District III meeting held Oct. 25 at Osmond. Audit reports must be completed by three trustees. Also attending the meeting was Verna Mae Baier.

Frances Doring read the trustees audit report.

Hostesses were Eveline Thompson and Frances Doring.

THE AUXILIARY voted to change the meeting date back to the second Monday of each month, beginning in November.

Next meeting will be Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. in the Vet's Club room.

Chamber Insights

by Linda M. Brown E.V.P.

Executive Vice President - Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce and Wayne Industries, Inc.

Some form of organization apparently is beneficial to all living things. Seeds dropped together can germinate and push through to the surface when a single embryonic plant would be hopelessly imprisoned. Wild animals live together in packs or herds, knowing that in this way they can better defend themselves. It remains for man, however, with his ability to reason and to benefit from the experience of past generations, to make the greatest use of organization.

Many reasons prompt people to band together to secure the benefits of organized effort. It may be to defend themselves against a common enemy, to enjoy the comforting presence of fellow creatures, for religious reasons, or to make possible a higher standard of living. Historically, the individual has found that it is frequently to their advantage to lose identity within a group in order to secure the benefits which may be enjoyed only through a combination of individuals working together for a common purpose. Therefore, it is not surprising that early in the history of business endeavors, it was found expedient to organize those engaged in the trades for their mutual protection and benefit.

The modern Chamber of Commerce is an organization of the early efforts of business to organize and it undoubtedly had its beginning in the fairs and guilds of medieval Europe. The early associations were closely affiliated with the government. The Chamber of Commerce founded in 1768 at New York City was the first in America to be organized and conducted independently of the government. Since that time, Chambers of Commerce have become more important and numerous in business affairs throughout the world. Changes that had taken place in the social and economic order caused Chambers of Commerce to feel some major reorientation in their functions about the beginning of the 20th century.

The Chamber of Commerce considers the interest of the community while still being concerned with the exchange of goods and the laws and regulations affecting that exchange. They came to be, not only agencies of trade promotion, but general community development to promote the growth of the entire community along commercial, industrial and civic lines. The Chamber of Commerce revamped to meet the challenge of their broader functions.

From this background of change and growth, the modern Chamber of Commerce is a community organization with definite objectives. With this in mind, each year your Chamber of Commerce forms a program of work whereby each separate function of the Chamber is recognized and definitively assigned. The foundation of the Chamber is the membership. Functions are assigned to the board of directors, councils and staff to delegate those objectives so goals can be reached.

No matter how perfect the objectives in the program of work, nor how complete the system, it accomplishes nothing until it begins to operate — until that directing force — the members — put it into motion and keep it moving. With your input, your assistance in the projects, and your attendance at the activities, your Chamber of Commerce will accomplish those objectives — and will continue to strive toward a stronger, well-rounded community and area.

BUSINESS FOCUS

OFFICE CONNECTION employees Brad Campbell, Lynne Nevala and Jalayne Frey work at the Apple II GS. Office Connection has made its home in Wayne for five years.

Apple, IBM systems featured at Office Connection

More than five years of computer experience in product support and service is just one of the many things Office Connection has to offer.

The business, located at 613 Main Street, features a full line of office supplies as well as computer systems for the home, business, school and specialized markets.

Office Connection offers the top names, Apple and IBM, in the computer market. The Apple II GS is a dynamic new computer with fantastic sound and color capabilities. The Apple Macintosh is the fastest growing business computer with the most advanced technology. Store manager Jalayne Frey said you have to see these two models to appreciate them. Frey encourages interested parties to stop in for a free demonstration. In addition, Office Connection offers Apple printers equipped with color capabilities, which are compatible with all systems.

Office Connection has been in the business of selling office supplies for three years. Frey said they have everything from paper clips to desks.

Frey said Office Connection listens to the customers' needs. If something isn't in stock just let a sales rep know and they will do their best to assist you, the customer. Office Connection also is available to instruct individual or group training courses to help the customer better understand his or her system.

Office Connection is also well known in the education circles. The business works with schools in a 100-mile radius in northeast Nebraska.

Office Connection recently opened its second store in Norfolk. The new business is located in Time Square behind Wall-Mart.

The office hours at the Wayne store are Monday-Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Thursdays, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.; Fridays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Saturdays, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Frey said the business has added new employees to help better serve the office products and computer customers.

Employees include: Dave Carstensen, service manager; Theresa Christo, accountant and software support; Mark Roeber, sales; Dallas Goeller, sales; Sandy Sondergroth, sales; Brad Campbell, sales; and Lynne Nevala, sales. The staff also includes several outside sales reps.

So if you're in need of a computer or office equipment, stop in and talk to the people at Office Connection.

OFFICE CONNECTION opened its Norfolk location Oct. 15. The business is located in Time Square.

Wayne drops final game of campaign

The O'Neill Eagles grounded out a Northern Activities Conference win over Wayne Wednesday night by a 34-14 count.

The 5-3 Eagles gained 311 yards rushing while limiting the Blue Devils to only 28 yards on 31 carries.

Wayne Coach Lonnie Ehrhardt said the game was lost in the first half.

"In the first half we just didn't stop anything they did rushing the ball," he said. "We didn't help ourselves on offense either."

The hosts built a 21-0 lead at the intermission break. O'Neill struck quickly by grabbing a 7-0 lead with 10:11 left in the first period. Mickey McIntire put the Eagles ahead with a 53-yard touchdown dash.

O'Neill came out in the second half and scored two touchdowns to put the game out of reach.

The team came out after halftime with a lot of enthusiasm. Wayne got the ball and immediately fumbled, which was recovered by the Eagles.

Wayne finally scored when quarterback Jess Zeiss hit tight end Doug Larsen with a 15-yard touchdown with 29 seconds left in the third quarter.

The last score of the game came with 2:11 left on a 6-yard Chad Davis touchdown.

Davis was the leading rusher for the Blue Devils. The junior carried the ball five times for 39 yards.

The Blue Devils actually gained over 100 yards rushing but Zeiss was sacked for 64 yards in losses.

Zeiss finished 5-6 passing for 43 yards while Greg Schmidt was 2-2 for five yards.

Chris Luft was the leading receiver with two catches for 23 yards.

Chris Luft was the top tackler with 10 while Joel Pedersen added eight stops.

Wakefield scores early in 42-28 win

By Gregg Dahlheim
Sports Editor

Wakefield got out of the gate quickly Wednesday night as they ended the season with a 42-28 win over Winside at Eaton Field.

The game wasn't as close as the final score indicated.

Things went wrong from the word go for the Wildcats.

From there it didn't take Wakefield long to score.

Roberts was on the end of a 12-yard scoring pass from Krafke with 4:44 left in the second period.

Winside got on the board just before half when Tim Jacobsen snuck it in from less than a yard.

"They were the better team," he said. "They really came off the ball."

Junior high spikers end season

The Wayne junior high volleyball team concluded their season last week.

The 7th grade squad ended the year 3-4.

The 8th grade team finished third in the Wisner-Pilger Invitational Tournament Oct. 24.

The girls closed out the season with a 3-15, 2-15 loss to Wakefield.

Youth hoops to begin

Recreation basketball for boys grades 3-6 and girls grades 5-6 will begin Nov. 2 at the City Auditorium.

The practice schedule for boys in the 5th and 6th grades will be Mondays and Thursdays.

After two weeks of fundamentals, teams will be selected and inter-city games will be played.

In another recreation department note all football equipment should be turned in.

THIS HAPPY BUNCH of Wakefield players discuss the game as Trojan reserves finish the game. The players are Brion Larson (59), John Wriedt (68), Tony Halverson (40), and Raymond Ferguson (79).

Max Kant took the opening kickoff and returned it to the 25-yard line when the officials ruled he fumbled the ball.

Winside showed a little pride in the fourth quarter by striking for three touchdowns.

Wakefield won the game of the tape 381 yards to 311.

Lund led all rushers with his 118-yard performance.

Jacobsen led all tacklers with 14 stops.

Mark Johnson and Nelson had interceptions for Wakefield.

Both coaches had praise of their opponent following the game.

The win allowed Wakefield to finish the season 4-5 while the Wildcats posted a 3-6 mark.

Bears edged by Bulldogs

Laurel ended its season in disappointing fashion with a 13-7 loss to Creighton Wednesday night.

Prior to the game the Bears still had slim hopes of qualifying for the state playoffs. The Bulldogs dashed any hopes with 13 second-half points.

Laurel, 5-4, lost three of its game after being tied or ahead at halftime. The win Wednesday night allowed Creighton to finish the season with a 5-4 record.

Quarterback Scott Marquardt put the Bears ahead when he scored from 3-yards out in the second quarter. Laurel took the 6-0 lead into the locker room.

Creighton got on the board in the third quarter when Jerry Sukup scored the first of two touchdowns. The Bulldogs hit the PAT to take a 7-6 lead. Sukup added an insurance TD in the fourth quarter. The Bulldogs iced the game when Troy Adams picked off a Marquardt pass with 1:20 left in the contest.

Creighton's Todd Falter led all rushers with 80 yards on 15 carries. Marquardt paced the Bears with 69 yards on 14 carries.

Raiders get 3 TD's in third to down Allen

The Allen Eagles came up short in their effort to win the season finale Wednesday night against Newcastle.

Allen went into the game looking to win its first contest of the season. After one quarter of play it looked like the Eagles were on the right track.

Allen scored first on its first play from scrimmage. Newcastle received the kickoff but fumbled on the following play. Then on first down from the Raider 25, quarterback Kent Chase broke free and went back for the touchdown. The two-point conversion failed. The Eagles held the 6-0 lead into the second quarter.

Allen appeared to hold Newcastle on a third and 25 but the Eagles were whistled for a roughing the passer penalty, resulting in an automatic first down for the Raiders. That was the break the visitors needed. Running back Mike McGill finished off the drive with the first of his four touchdowns. He added the two-point conversion and the Raiders took an 8-6 lead into halftime.

Allen's chances went by the wayside at the end of the first half when Chase left the game with an injured knee. He was unable to return. Allen Coach Dave Uldrich said Chase was what made the Eagle offense go. Allen also lost Paul Brentlinger when he had to be taken from the field with a broken sternum.

Newcastle, 4-5, took control of the game and put it out of reach with a 20-point third quarter. McGill scored on runs of 37, 20 and seven yards.

Allen got its last score of the season on the game's last play. Matt Hingst hit Jeff Green with a 32-yard touchdown strike.

Uldrich credited his defense in the first half. He said the defense shut down the Newcastle passing attack forcing the visitors to run the ball.

Newcastle outgained Allen 236 yards to 131. The Raiders got all but 24 yards on the ground. Allen got 46 yards rushing and 85 yards through the air.

Chase paced the Eagles with 34 yards on 11 carries. Kurt Lund was the top Allen receiver with four catches for 24 yards. Green had two receptions good for 39 yards. He also was credited with 13 tackles and a pair of interceptions. Jason Fahrenholz was the top defender with 17 stops and a fumble recovery. Lund and Rusty Dickens each had 17 stops.

CONTEST RULES
One football game has been placed in each of the ads on this page. Indicate the winner by writing in the name of the winning team on the proper line on the entry blank. No scores. Just pick the winners, or ties. In case of tie, write "tie." Use the entry blank below or a copy of equal size.
Write in your guess of the total number of yards gained by both teams in the game of the week. This will only be used in case of a tie. The person that comes closest to the total number of yards without going over will be the winner.
One entry only to each contestant, but members of a family may each submit an entry. Entries should be brought or mailed to the Wayne Herald office not later than 5 p.m. Friday, or if mailed, should not be postmarked later than 5 p.m. Friday. You need not be a subscriber of the Herald to be eligible for prizes.
The Winners will be announced weekly on the Thursday sports page of the Wayne Herald. Employees of the Herald and their immediate families are ineligible. Judges' decisions will be final in every case.

Corrections not uncommon in today's stock market

Warren Buffet, one of the most respected investors in the world today, once described the stock market as "someone who attended a cocktail party and was always drunk—either drunk with optimism (as in August when the market experienced its biggest advance in history) or drunk with pessimism (as during this past week)."

due to strong economy as well as the fact continued growth, albeit moderate, is expected in 1988, wages, raw materials and plant capacity show little sign of causing a return to high inflationary times.

During the past weeks many have claimed to understand the factors contributing to the market's unprecedented volatility. Some have blamed interest rates, which inched up during the week prior to Black Monday; some, program trading, a phenomenon, that although the Securities and Exchange Commission has vowed to study, no one truly yet understands; and others, the situation in the Middle East.

Historically, corrections of 5 percent to 20 percent in the middle of a bull market are not uncommon, and this bull had charged ahead for five years without one correction.

While you have certainly seen or heard these and other theories defended in the news media, the truth is, it will be weeks before the events are unraveled and the contributing factor or factors accurately identified.

What are the implications for individual investors? Those who follow the time-tested rule of diversifying their portfolios, selecting quality investments that meet their objectives and taking a long-term approach will survive the current correction.

John Bachmann, managing principal of Edward D. Jones & Co., a major New York Stock Exchange member firm, believes, however, Unfortunately, many people freeze, or even worse, panic and sell their securities when the roller coaster that is our stock market takes a stomach-churning plunge.

fired his way to the top to take first place honors in the individual M-60 machine gun competition and team with Marisch and Hofferer to win the first place plaque in the M-60 machine gun team competition.

Donner and Gubbels fired the M-16 rifle in competition against approximately 100 marksmen from army and air guard units throughout the state.

Loberg, a machine gunner in the Wayne unit finished in third place in the individual competition.

Donner, who is a radio operator for the Wayne unit walked away with top honors in the M-16 competition. Gubbels, an assistant TOW gunner in the Wayne unit, finished in 6th place overall in the M-16 competition.

Shooters in this competition fire military issue weapons, while wearing their field gear and helmets, using military ammunition, bare sights (no scopes) at target up to 600 yards away. M-16 shooters are required to fire from the standing, kneeling and prone positions while the M-60 shooters fire from the prone position, only.
