Closings

The Transfer Station in Wayne will be closed on Monday in observance of Martin Luther King Day. It will be open as usual on Tuesday.

Laurel Chamber

The Laurel Chamber of Commerce will conduct a general meeting and dinner at the Wagon Wheel Steak House on Saturday, Jan. 23. Members, potential members and guests will attend.

Advance tickets will be sold and must be purchased before Monday, Jan. 18. Tickets can be purchased from the board of directors, including Marlene Jussel, Maurice Sindelar, Brian McBride, Chuck Sohier, Dwayne Freeman, Gary Anderson, Brenda Jussel, Roger Morton and Ryan Creamer.

The meeting will include the installation of the Chamber's 1988 officers and discussions over activities and promotions for 1988-89.

The highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the Chamber's "Outstanding Citizen Award."

Donation

Wayne-Carroll school administrators have announced that Dennis Linster of Wayne has donated 20 volumes of Time Life Art Books to the school library. He also donated 18 volumes of Time Life Photography to the library.

The books can be used at the library for reference or for just plain enjoyment, said the school administrators, adding that they are grateful to Mr. Linster for the donation.

Training

Farmers in northeast Nebraska who need to be re-certified as private chemical applicators this winter should attend a meeting scheduled for the Quad County extension area (Dakota, Dixon, Thurston and Wayne Counties) at the following area locations:

Wayne City Auditorium, Jan. 27, 1:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.; Wakefield Bank, Jan. 28, 1:30 p.m.; and Feb. 8, Laurel City Auditorium at 1:30 p.m.

All sessions are for both re-certification and initial certification of private chemical applicators. There is no charge for the training session.

Any farmers purchasing or applying pesticides on the restricted use pesticide list must be certified.

Tax proposed

State Senator Gerald Conway has introduced a bill that would require a tax to be paid on marijuana and other controlled substances.

The idea is to deter drug trafficking in the state and to raise additional revenue after capturing and convicting drug dealers.

He said the bill isn't an attempt to accept drug distribution or possession, but it will deter trafficking, particularly with those dealers who come in from out of state.

Drug dealers get off the hook because prosecutors can't prove intent with drugs. But it's easier to prove possession and if convicted of possession, the offender would pay a penalty twice the amount of the due tax.

Conway said the offender's property could be confiscated by the state and sold at an auction if the tax isn't paid.

Wayne actors complete tour of 'Scrooge'

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Ben Wilson and his younger brother, Sam, of Wayne have already performed on highly regarded theatrical stages in the western and midwestern areas of the United States, standing amid the floodlights before thousands of people.

Ben is just a freshman at Wayne-Carroll High School. And Sam, a student at the Wayne Middle School, turned 13 years old in January.

Both appeared in the cast of "Scrooge" — a Nebraska Theatre Caravan production that is traditionally performed by performing artists during the Christmas holiday season.

Becky, mother of Ben and Sam, was also among the "Scrooge" cast members. Her husband, Bill, is an auto mechanics and shop instructor at Wayne-Carroll High School.

Sam and Ben performed with the company during a 1986 Midwest Tour, each with the same roles. This past year, the Wilsons were among the 32 actors that went on the west coast tour which covered six states.

Ben played the role of Peter Cratchit, big brother of Tiny Tim in the Bob Cratchit family. Sam, one of the youngest members of the cast, played Francis Cratchit, little brother of Tiny Tim.

BOTH PLAYED children in the production's street scenes. Sam also played the boy with the sled who was asked by Scrooge, after the ghostly visits, to buy a large bird for a big feast. Ben played Scrooge in a scene from Christmas Past.

This was Becky's first performance with the "Scrooge" production. In 1986, she worked off-stage and didn't feel she was completely involved in the production. She landed a role this year as a member of the cast.

"I had one line, but I had to be on stage most of the time as an extra person," said Becky.

"They have a way of making it look like there was a cast of hundreds," she said.

Sam and Ben auditioned with 30 to 40 others in late August for the Nebraska Theatre Caravan's performance of "Scrooge". Rehearsals began on Nov. 13 and for about two weeks, actors rehearsed their parts, sometimes putting in eight to 10 hour days.

The tour's first performance was at Boise, Idaho. From there, they performed "Scrooge" in Washington, Oregon, California, Missouri and Colorado.

By the time the schedule was completed, the company had entertained audiences on 14 different stages and gave over 20 matinee and evening performances.

One of the touring company's highlights was when they performed five days in the second biggest theatre in North America — Fox Fabulous Theatre in St. Louis.

SIX OF THE eight shows performed in the St. Louis theatre were sold out. All of the performances had over 4,000 people in attendance.

The tour ended with performances at the Paramount in Denver, Colorado on Dec. 23 and 24. After several weeks on tour, the Wilsons found it nice to be back home in Wayne again.

Upon returning to Wayne, the Wilsons found a decorated Christmas tree and a plate full of cookies welcoming them back — a holiday surprise planned by some of the Wilson friends.

"We've had to adjust ourselves to get back into a more normal routine," said Becky.

The Wilsons know theatre is not all glitter and glamour. Along with the acting comes the long hours and a disciplined schedule that must be maintained.

The production, considered a happy and joyous family show, normally lasted over two hours. Between 10:15 p.m. and 12:30 a.m., the entire crew dismantled the sets and other props to ready themselves for the bus trip to another scheduled destination.

Each member of the crew had responsibilities in loading up the props and sets for the next performances. "Kids were fined, just like the adults. They carried on their responsibilities just like the adults."

BECKY SAID she thought she did well to get her sons to bed by 1 a.m. after each performance. "There were days when the performers had just three to four hours of sleep following an evening show," she said.

"During the last two weeks of the tour, it was important for them to get enough sleep just so that they could stay healthy and make it to the end of the tour," she added.

Both Sam and Ben hinted that the schedule of rising early in the morning for the bus ride and the late nights after performances did become tedious at times.

Sam said he experienced some homesickness, missing his friends and deer hunting in the fall. But he added that the tour was fun in most respects.

Said Ben: "It was fun. It gave me a chance to see new things and meet new people. I'd do it again in a second."

"It got a little tiring, but the hours didn't bother me. Maybe the early wake-ups bothered me, but not that much," he added.

Some of the "fun" highlights of the tour included a trip to Malibu Beach in California and visiting friends and relatives along the way. Bill also flew into St. Louis and stayed with the family for a short time during the tour.

Ben also received an autograph from Chevy Chase, who appeared backstage after one performance. Chase told the actors that he enjoyed the show.

"I also enjoyed seeing the very interesting architectures in the theatres where we performed," added Ben.

SAM, WHEN asked if he would like to continue with the theatre profession, answered that "a downfall" of theatre is that it pays poorly. "I'd like to do something that I can get rich at."

"But it's fun getting to do all this [on the tour] and meeting all the new people," he added.

Ben has recently auditioned for a role in the spring musical "Oliver" at Wayne-Carroll High School. He will play the lead role of Oliver.

However, he says acting isn't in the forefront of his career search right now. His ambitions are leaning more to the business field.

Both Ben and Sam have appeared in local church and school productions in the past, so acting is not a new experience for them.

However, they both feel that the experience gained through the past theatrical caravan tours, and through their association with other actors, has enhanced their appreciation of the performing arts.

Heave Ho!

AT HALFTIME of the WSC-Fort Hays game in Wayne, people who had their faces painted black and gold were eligible to win $100 if they made a shot from the half-court line. A contestant, above shows an unusual technique. The event was won by Lee Emanuel of North Bend.

Mishap injures Allen youths

A one-vehicle traffic accident near Concord injured four Allen residents Thursday evening.

The accident occurred on Link 26B, one mile east of the junction of Highways 15 and 160.

The Nebraska State Patrol Office in Norfolk reported that a mini-pickup truck, driven by Jason Fahrholz, 17, of Allen was traveling northwest on Link 26B when he lost control, slid sideways and rolled twice. The 1986 Nissan pickup truck was totaled in the accident.

All four people were thrown from the vehicle. Fahrholz suffered an injured thumb, possible concussion and abrasions to his left shoulder. Jason Taylor, 17, Allen, received lacerations to the back of the head, possible concussion and a possible neck injury.

Robert Sullivan, 18, Allen, suffered abrasions, possible concussion and possible rib injuries.

All three were taken to Providence Medical Center, where they were listed in good condition Friday morning.

Rusty Dickens, 17, Allen, was the fourth person in the vehicle. He was treated and released from Providence Medical Center.

Wayne State admitted into NCAA division

Wayne State College was admitted to the National Collegiate Athletic Association, last week, according to Wayne State College Athletic Director, Pete Chapman.

Wayne State has now turned its attention to joining a conference. "We've applied to the North Central Conference," Chapman said. "The travel would be a lot better, and the competition would be better also."

The NCC is an NCAA Division II conference, which means that if Wayne State was accepted, the college would retain a dual membership with the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics, (NAIA).

"Our number one concern right now is getting a conference affiliation," Chapman said. "I'm excited about the possibility of becoming an NCAA college, because of the image."

Chapman returned from Nashville, recently, where the NCAA Division II representatives voted Wayne State in, as a member of the NCAA ranks.

Chapman noted that becoming a member of the NCAA before becoming affiliated with a conference leaves the college with an option to go either way.

"We're in a position to go either way," Chapman said. "We can compete at the NCAA level if we get into an NCAA conference, or remain in the NAIA, if we get into one of its conferences."

Chapman also noted that if Wayne State gets affiliated with an NCAA conference, it can still compete in the NAIA level. "We would have to declare every year before the start of the school year, which way we are going to compete," Chapman said.

Kearney State also applied to the NCC, and if the two colleges were to be accepted, the conference is delving into the possibility of a north-south split.

Some of the NCC schools that Wayne State would be associated with if the NCC accepts them, include, University of Nebraska at Omaha, (UNO), Morningside, Augustana and South Dakota schools.

Snakes get loose at Laurel

Tim Johnson, Life Science instructor at Laurel-Concord school, told the story about how an instructor was lecturing to his students one day when his classroom teaching was interrupted by a shriek or two from some students.

Behind him, dangling from a bookcase in the Laurel-Concord classroom, was a bull snake.

The snake had escaped from somewhere inside the science room.

It wasn't the first time that a snake has been "on the loose" in school.

Johnson and his seventh, eighth and ninth graders have been busy during the winter months with a "Pet Care Project".

Students were allowed to bring their small pets (in cages) to school and Johnson's science room has become a learning environment for all his students.

A few of the learning objectives were to learn about basic pet care and the differences in animal classifications.

Some of the pets that were cared for over the months ranged from gerbils, hamsters, rabbits and guinea pigs to snakes, frogs and lizards.

It was a good opportunity for students to get over their fear of snakes while learning about different animals and their needs.

Last Monday the seventh grade students began giving Pet Care Project presentations which will last for a two week period, providing an opportunity for the older and younger students to communicate over the Pet Care topic.

Said Johnson: "Overall, the students have really enjoyed the project. There have been a few adventures."

Among the adventures was the straying of a bull snake, about 14 inches long, that had escaped from a 10-gallon aquarium. The snake was a pet belonging to Mike Hoepfner.

They found the snake, which evidently found its way down the school corridor, in another room about 120 feet away — the art room — where the pet was wrapped around some crayons.

Needless to say, the snake had a colorful adventure.

East German musicians to perform in Wayne

Tickets will go on sale for the general public Monday (Jan. 18) for the performance of Camerata Musica of Berlin scheduled at Wayne State College as part of the Black and Gold Series.

Comprised of 22 musicians from East Germany's leading orchestras, the Camerata Musica of Berlin chamber group will perform at the college on Monday, Jan. 25 at 8 p.m. in Ramsey Theatre in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Building.

Since 1984, the camerata string ensemble has been led by Wolf-Dieter Batzdorf and has earned a reputation as a first class chamber group, according to James Day, professor of music at Wayne State.

The string ensemble forms the core of the orchestra and, according to the musical arrangement, other instruments are added. The chamber group was formed in 1973 under the guidance of professor Zeljko Straka, who is still the conductor.

Prices for the performance are $4 for adults and $2 for high school age or younger. Persons with Wayne State activity cards must also have tickets, which may be obtained at the Budget and Finance Office, Health Administration, room number 211.

Phone-in ticket requests will be filled only with MasterCard or Visa Card numbers and social security numbers. Phone orders will be taken only during the general distribution period beginning Jan. 18.

Tickets may be picked up at the Budget and Finance Office or mailed to the requestor. The number to call is 402/375-2200, ext. 220.

On the Record

'Hacken' Away

by Chuck Hackenmiller

Wayne Herald faithful readers, I need your help. It just so happened that on Jan. 12, 1888, one of the state's worst blizzards ever had blitzed the area. And so, being that it was 100 years ago from this month, I thought I'd do some research and find old accounts of the terrible storm.

In the "upper room" of the newspaper office, we have old copies of The Wayne Herald that date back to at least 1888-89.

So I researched and found that our files have issues of Jan. 12, 1888 (which was probably printed a day before the big blizzard) and Jan. 26, 1888, but nothing in between.

Evidently, the newspaper was hampered by the big storm and wasn't able to publish.

In the Jan. 26 edition, the newspaper reported what every other community had to say about the blizzard — but nothing on how it affected Wayne.

So I'm asking our readers: "What recollections, passed down from relatives, can you give to us about this storm that left people frozen to death, trapped in buildings or caught between life and death?"

Was there a blizzard worse than this one? Just send us a few words. Write to The Wayne Herald, P.O. Box 70, c/o The Big Blizzard, Wayne, NE 68787.

Anything been irking you lately? Here are some things which have raised my ire as of late:

— All of us know by now that James Forsberg was found not guilty of murdering his daughter, Barbara, in a jury trial that took place in Cedar County. The jury had a difficult decision.

The prosecution said the victim was killed by her father, Forsberg. The defense to Forsberg said her husband, William Corey, killed her.

But the sad part is, a young 25-year-old woman's life has been snuffed out, from blows suffered to the head. The case is closed because of lack of evidence, and nobody will ever know who did it.

— People who have gained profit from "telling their stories" that have committed crimes. Case in point are those involved in Watergate and most recently the potential Eli Stutzman "story".

Had he been allowed to sell his story, this writer feels that the profits should have gone toward organizations that combat child abuse.

— Those individuals who say that once the emotion is taken out of the issue of where a low level radioactive waste disposal facility would be located in Nebraska, they will see the economic merit.

Emotion is a characteristic that cannot be dissected from this important issue. Upset is an emotion, and I would certainly be upset if a radioactive waste disposal facility was close to my home.

It is our understanding that Gerald Conway of Wayne, state senator for District 17, filed papers Friday at the Wayne County Courthouse for reelection to the legislative post.

We anticipate he will be making this announcement to the public during a gathering of the Wayne Kiwanis Club on Monday, Jan. 18 at noon and we will be there to cover the event.

$30,000 boost

How far can $30,000 stretch? To the city of Wayne and surrounding area, $30,000 pumped into local circulation greatly expands the benefits, image and financial boost which substantially encourages the community's economic outlook.

Particularly when the $30,000 is derived through the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce "Chamber Bucks". This is a record-setting year when one looks at the $30,000 worth of Chamber Bucks that were sold at face value by the Wayne Chamber Office during 1987.

The promotion works like this: An individual (or company) goes to the Wayne Chamber Office requesting Chamber Bucks. They purchase the Chamber Bucks (as gifts or for special recognition) for other individuals or employees.

The Chamber Bucks are purchased at face value. Those that are on the receiving end of the Chamber Bucks can redeem them at any Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce businesses or other entities.

Personnel at the Wayne Chamber Office had been promoting the distribution of Chamber Bucks throughout 1987, particularly during the holiday season. Businesses have purchased the Chamber Bucks to present to employees at Christmas. Some people buy the Chamber Bucks to give to those people who are "hard to buy gifts for."

Companies buy the Chamber Bucks for those employees who had perfect quarterly attendance.

One recent idea, according to Linda Brown (executive director of the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce) has been to allow usage of Chamber Bucks for payment of utility bills at city hall. The city of Wayne is also a Chamber of Commerce member.

The Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce — through various promotions such as the Wayne Expo, the booth at the Wayne County Fair, the holiday lighting contest and Holiday Magic — have given away Chamber Bucks.

One favorable aspect of the Chamber Bucks promotion is that the money stays in the area. Since the Chamber Bucks are purchased at face value, the Chamber Office absorbs the cost of printing the certificates and a copy of where the certificates can be redeemed.

Those who receive Chamber Bucks have 90 days, following the purchase, to redeem them.

Again the Wayne Area Chamber of Commerce encourages people to purchase the Chamber Bucks as gifts, whether for employees or for a best friend.

In the end, it helps cut down on returned gift items because Chamber Bucks recipients can redeem the certificates and obtain exactly what they need. And at the same time, buyers of the Chamber Bucks are boosting the economy of the area.

Art Show at WSC

Micaela Kastning, Ponca, and Jane Fluent, Newcastle, will present their senior art show at Wayne State College of Nebraska beginning Monday, Jan. 18 and running through Friday, Jan. 29. The exhibit is on display in the Nordstrand Art Gallery located in the Val Peterson Fine Arts Building at Wayne State.

Perry on honor roll

Thomas Perry, Wayne, was among 1,779 students named to the Dean's Honor Roll at Central State University, Edmond, Okla. Those who achieved the honor recorded a 3.25 grade-point average for the semester.

Allen quiz bowl team advances

The Allen quiz bowl team advanced in the quiz bowl contest held at Briar Cliff College last Saturday and will face Ida Grove, Iowa on Jan. 30. The event will be aired over Sioux City television station KMEG, with the time of the broadcast to be announced.

Named to honor roll

Southeast Community College, Milford Campus has announced the academic honor roll for the fall quarter ending Dec. 16. A grade point average of 3.5 (B+) must be achieved on a 4.00 (A) scale to be so honored. Students from this area having achieved this honor are: Steven Jones, diesel truck technology, Allen; Russell Longe, building construction technology, Carroll; Brian Malcom, diesel farm technology, Allen; Casey Nichols, building construction technology, Wayne; and Scott Nichols, building construction technology, Wayne.

Northeast lists honor students

Seventy students were named to the President's Honor List and 58 students named to the Dean's Honor List for first semester, 1987-88, at Northeast Community College.

The President's Honor List includes students who earned a perfect grade point average on a 4.0 scale. Area students on the President's Honor List are Jeffrey Chase of Allen, Donald Osborne of Laurel and Ronald Hammer of Wayne.

The Dean's Honor List includes students who have earned a grade point average of 3.75 or above on a 4.0 scale. Area students on the Dean's Honor List are David Thurstonson of Hoskins and Steve Luedtke of Laurel.

Wayne attends choral clinic

The 43rd annual Albion Choral Clinic will be held at Albion High School today (Monday). This year's event will involve around 800 singers from 26 area schools. According to Don Alcorn, Albion's choral director, the area schools attending this year's clinic include Wayne-Carroll.

Admission for the evening's concert will be $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Financial aids workshop

A free workshop to help parents complete the application for financial aid will be held in the cafeteria at Wisner-Pilger High School on Monday, Jan. 25, at 1:15 p.m. The workshop will be hosted by Daryle Urwiler, Wisner-Pilger School Counselor and conducted by Jeannine Phelan of Omaha.

Urwiler emphasizes that this meeting is open to anyone who would like help preparing their applications. You need not be a resident of the Wisner-Pilger School District. He also emphasizes the urgency of completing these forms to meet the various college deadlines.

Bring a completed 1987 tax return if possible and an estimate of assets and debts. Knowing in advance the student's 1987 income and assets will also be beneficial. If none of these are available, W-2 statements may be helpful. Otherwise, your last pay check stub, if it has end-of-year totals, could be used. A 1986 copy of your tax records could be used as a reference if no 1987 form is available; however, no 1986 data can be used on the completed form.

All of the necessary application forms will be available at no charge. Also available for your use will be a computerized program to give you an estimate of your financial standing prior to mailing in your completed forms.

If you have specific questions you need addressed prior to attending this workshop, call Mr. Urwiler at 529-3249 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"AW DAD," CRIES Michael Sturm, "you told me this wouldn't hurt." "A MAN'S GOTTA do what a man's gotta do," says Ryan Hackenmiller.

Shear Designs-for the latest hair fashions

Offering Wayne area customers the latest hair fashions and styles tops the list of priorities at Shear Designs, located in the Mineshaft Mall.

"We try hard to keep up on all the latest fashions and styles that pertain to the Wayne area by attending shows and seminars," says Shear Designs owner Doug Sturm.

Sturm opened Shear Designs in March 1980. Working with him are employees Deb Harmeyer and Deanna Wills.

In addition to haircuts, other services provided by Shear Designs include perms, color, and roller sets. "We also handle many of the top hair care products on the market," says Doug, "and if we don't have what the customer is looking for we can order it through our many distributors."

Doug said Shear Designs is planning a few changes this year to keep up with the ever changing hair industry. "We want to meet our customers' needs," says Doug, adding that Shear Designs is looking to become a more full service salon.

Business hours at Shear Designs are Monday through Saturday from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Doug's hours are Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Thursday night until 9 p.m., and Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon. Deanna is available each Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., and every other Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Deb's hours are Thursday and every other Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

"We're in business to serve our customers," emphasizes Doug, "and if our regular business hours don't work out we hope that the customer will call us to schedule an appointment at his or her convenience."

"We really do appreciate the patronage and faith shown us over the last eight years," adds Doug, "and we'll do our best to keep that trust."

In addition to appointments, Shear Designs also takes walk-ins Monday through Saturday. For an appointment, telephone 375-4691.

Speaking of People

Briefly Speaking

Altona LWML installs officers

The First Trinity Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Altona met Jan. 7. The Rev. Ricky Bertels gave the lesson, "A Journey Into Light," an Advent-Christmas celebration taken from the LWML Quarterly. During the lesson, Pastor Bertels installed new officers for 1988, including Doris Pflueger, president; Darlene Frevert, vice president; Esther Thompson, secretary; and Julie Stuthman, treasurer. Two Christmas carols were sung and the mite box collection was taken as part of the topic study. The business meeting was called to order by President Pflueger with seven members attending. Mrs. Ricky Bertels was a guest. Pastor Bertels announced the Pastor's Conference will be March 1. Volunteers are needed to bring and serve food. A majority of the women also indicated they wish to continue serving lunch following Lenten services. The meeting adjourned by singing the table prayer. Pearl Youngmeyer and Esther Thompson were honored for their birthdays.

Jaeger observes 84th year

Gottlieb Jaeger was honored for his 84th birthday on Jan. 10 in his home at Winside. Guests included the Dale Jaeger family of Pierce, the Harry Lorenzens of Norfolk, the Bob Vahle family of Pender, the Jim Melchers of Stanton, and the Ernie Jaeger family, the Brad Jaeger family, the George Jaegers and Kevin, the Gene Jorgensens, Steve and Marty, and the Albert Jaegers, all of Winside. A cooperative lunch was served.

Program on Gerald Ford

Pauline Nuernberger was hostess for the Jan. 11 meeting of Minerva Club with 14 members present. Norma Koerber presented the program on "Famous Nebraskans — Gerald Ford." Minnie Rice will be hostess for the Feb. 8 meeting and Arlene Eilermeier will give the program.

Wayne student exhibiting artwork

Missy Jones of Wayne is among several members of the Kearney State College chapter of the National Art Education Association taking part in an exhibit beginning today (Monday) in the Kearney State College Nebraskan Art Gallery.

The exhibit will run through Feb. 5 and is entitled "Learning, Teaching, Sharing, Living — It's the Art." The works represent a variety of media including oil, bronze, lithograph, etching, watercolor, graphite pencil and ceramic.

The Nebraskan Art Gallery, located in the Nebraskan Student Union, is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 10 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Toastmasters welcome guests

Guests are welcome to attend Sunrise Toastmasters Club which meets each Tuesday at 6:30 a.m. in Wayne City Hall. Toastmasters is an organization offering participants an opportunity to learn effective communication skills in an atmosphere of understanding, friendship and helpful fellowship.

Six members attended the Jan. 12 meeting with Marion Arneson presiding. Invocator was Doug Temme. Darrell Miller reported on the Speechcraft program and the need for more participants.

Sue Schroeder was toastmaster, and Duane Havrda was jokemaster and topicmaster. Tabletopic speakers were Doug Temme, Marion Arneson and Darrell Miller.

Sam Schroeder's speech, "WPPD — What is in the Name," was evaluated by Darrell Miller. General evaluator was Marion Arneson, timer was Darrell Miller, and "ah" counter and grammarian was Doug Temme.

Lesson on picture framing

Esther Hansen presented a lesson on picture framing and hanging at the Jan. 12 meeting of Merry Mixers Club in the home of Mrs. Pauline Morse. Twelve members attended.

President Ruth Wacker conducted the meeting and read a New Year's prayer. Several poems were read by Arlene Allemann. The family party was postponed until next month.

Next meeting will be Feb. 9 with Elaine Vahlkamp. Ella Lutt will show a film.

Nebraska Miss Teen pageant

Young women between the ages of 13 and 18 are invited to enter the 10th annual Nebraska Miss Teen Pageant, slated June 24-26 at the Lincoln Hilton in Lincoln.

Winner of the state pageant will receive a $1,000 scholarship to the University of Nebraska, $1,000 in cash, a modeling/self improvement scholarship to the International School of Modeling in Omaha, merchandise and gifts, and an expense paid trip to represent the state in the annual Miss Teen National Finals in Kansas City, Mo.

Contestants must have a B or better school grade average and must participate in the Volunteer Service Program of the Miss Teen Pageant. Judging will be on scholastic achievement, volunteer service, personal interview, formal presentation and speech or talent.

Young women who would like additional information about the pageant are asked to write or call Cappy Smith, Nebraska State Director, Rt. 1, Box 394-A, Washington, Ga., 30673, telephone (404) 678-4420.

Klick and Klatter lesson on coupons and refunds

Angie Denesia presented a lesson on coupons and refunds at the Jan. 12 meeting of Klick and Klatter Home Extension Club.

Eleven members attended the meeting in the home of Marcella Larson. The meeting opened with the flag salute in unison.

Marian Jordan led the group in singing "Walking in a Winter Wonderland."

STELLA LISKA displayed scrapbook entries. She also read an article, "Information on Prescription Could Be a Lifesaver."

The social committee reported sending a card to Fred Gildersleeve who underwent surgery. A Christmas gift was given to a resident of Wayne Care Centre.

Angie Denesia reported on "Hutterite Colony Fears," and Marvel Corbit read "Toast to the People Who Make Life Hard for You." Mrs. Corbit also led the group in singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Loreene Gildersleeve read "Old Age Now Defined By Health."

Marian Jordan told about exhibits at Joslyn Art Museum. Orvelia Blomenkamp announced that she has written for information on tours.

Joyce Niemann told how more children are reading books. Among their favorites at the elementary library in Wayne is "War With Grandpa."

Marcella Larson read an article from Reader's Digest written by Bud Noakes.

Stella Liska received the hostess gift.

OFFICERS ARE to attend a meeting on Feb. 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room of Wayne County Courthouse.

Next regular meeting of the club will be Feb. 9 at 1:30 p.m. with Virginia Hudman. Each member is to bring a Valentine gift.

Methodist Women meet

United Methodist Women met for a 12:30 p.m. luncheon on Jan. 13 with 42 attending. Mrs. Gina Luhr was a guest.

It was announced there will be a potluck dinner on Jan. 31 at noon. At 1 p.m., there will be a program on missionary work in the USSR. Assisting with the program will be Connie Webber who has been in the Soviet Union.

PRESIDENT JOYCE Niemann opened the meeting with prayer and a reading by Helen Stener Rice, entitled "He Loves You."

The Rev. Keith Johnson spoke on sensitive issues in our schools. He is a member of the Sensitive Issues Committee at Wayne Public Schools.

The devotions and program were given by Della Mae Preston and Virginia Preston. Theme was "Hope a Shining Ray."

Gwen Jensen and Gerelda Lipp sang several songs, accompanied by Margaret McClelland. The group also sang several hymns pertaining to the theme, assisted by Marjorie Porter, Donna Liska, Jan Kohn, Gwen Jensen and Rachel Wolske.

HONORED FOR their January birthdays were Della Mae Preston, Dorothea Hubbard, Verna Rees and Marjorie Porter.

Next regular meeting will be a 12:30 p.m. luncheon on Feb. 13. Co-hostesses are Della Mae Preston and Marjorie Summers.

For Jark-Swains

Ordination and installation at Winside Lutheran Church

Special communion services were conducted recently at Trinity Lutheran Church in Winside for Pastors Peter and Marsha Jark-Swain.

The Rev. Peter Jark-Swain was ordained into the Nebraska Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

He and his wife, the Rev. Marsha Jark-Swain, also were installed as pastors of St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Stanton, St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Pilger, and Trinity Lutheran Church in Winside.

PASTOR Jark-Swain's sponsors at the ordination were the Rev. Marsha Jark-Swain and the Rev. Dr. Donald Nelson. Nelson is serving a congregation in Monroe, La. and was unable to attend the service.

Presiding minister for the ordination and installation was Bishop Dennis Anderson of Omaha, with the Rev. Marsha Jark-Swain assisting. Lector was the Rev. Elizabeth Foster-Willer. Pastor Jark-Swain's father, Dr.

Howard Swain Jr. of Shavertown, Pa., was organist during the service. Vocalist was Margaret Schultz, accompanied by Joanne Petersen.

THE REV. Peter Jark-Swain is the son of Rosemarie and Dr. Howard Swain Jr. of Shavertown, Pa. He grew up as a member of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Shavertown.

Pastor Jark-Swain was graduated from Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Wartburg Theological Seminary at Dubuque, Iowa. He interned under the Rev. Dean Sudman at Zion Lutheran Church in Gowrie, Iowa.

From January 1982 to February 1984, the Rev. Peter Jark-Swain served at Winside Trinity Lutheran Church as supply minister under the Rev. Jack Nitz of Norfolk.

Following his seminary education and internship, he returned to Trinity Lutheran in December 1986 as vice pastor.

He now serves as joint pastor with his wife Marsha in Winside, Stanton

Rev. Peter Jark-Swain and Pilger. The Jark-Swains are residing in Pilger.

News and Notes

by Mary Temme, Extension Agent-Home Ec.

Good diet and exercise make the perfect marriage

How many of you know people who think that because they exercise they can eat whatever they want and not worry about it? Well, that might work if all they're concerned about is burning calories. However, a new study says that people who eat poorly probably won't reap some of the other benefits of an exercise program, like reduced fatigue, sharper memory and sounder sleep.

The study's researchers, from Baruch College, City University of New York, tested about 800 students to find out how different levels of fitness and diet affected their psychological well-being.

They found that people who exercised regularly generally felt better than those who exercised less. That is, unless they ate lots of sweet snacks, fast food and coffee. The junk-food junkies, regardless of how much they exercised, reported greater levels of fatigue and memory and sleep problems.

The students who reported being the least bothered by physical discomforts such as fatigue and lost sleep were eating lots of fruits, vegetables, and dairy products besides meat and potatoes — and exercising regularly.

SEVERAL RESEARCH studies like this one have made it clear that eating the right foods and moderate exercise combine to promote physical well-being. You can learn more about the food, fitness and health connection by attending one of six area Food and Fitness Affairs. These meetings are sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service in northeast Nebraska.

Guest presenters will include extension specialists, registered dietitians and home economics agents.

Some of their topics will include high fiber foods in the diet, eating to reduce disease risk, the link between emotions and eating habits, exercise, food safety and recipe modification.

DATES AND LOCATIONS for the Food and Fitness Affairs are: Jan. 25 — Pender Fire Hall, noon to 3:30 p.m.; Jan. 25 — Dakota City Courthouse, 6 to 9:30 p.m.; Jan. 26 — Creighton City Hall, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.; Jan. 27 — Hartington City Auditorium, 8:30 a.m. to noon; Jan. 28 — Norfolk United Methodist Church, 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Complete information on the program and registration are available from your local extension office. Call 375-3310 today to request further information.

Winside rides wings of first quarter play

Wakefield rolls past Winside

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

The Wakefield Trojans put on a twine tickling performance in Friday night's game at Winside. The Trojans defeated Winside, 71-53. The winners tickled the twine to the tune of 23 first quarter points, with only one miss from the field.

Wakefield Head Coach Paul Eaton, had been waiting for his team to put all the pieces together, and they finally did. "We played a complete ball game on both ends of the court," Eaton said. "The kids really played hard and hustled."

Eaton noted his philosophy on athletics, being played well, when confidence is high. If that's the case, then watch out for the Trojans.

Wakefield moves to 4-0 in conference play, with Coleridge and Wynot the only two conference foes left to be faced.

The Trojans jumped out to a 23-13 lead after one quarter of play. However, the second quarter Winside began silently creeping back into the game, with catalyst Tim Jacobsen at the helm.

Wakefield got into a little foul trouble in the second quarter as Jacobsen began driving baseline, and forcing the Wakefield defense to come out on him, thus drawing the foul.

At intermission, Winside had drawn to within five, at 35-30. Winside's Chris Nau played a key role in the Wildcat comeback effort in the second quarter. Nau got some key rebounds and scored his game high 10 points in the first half.

In the third quarter, both teams seemingly traded buckets, with Wakefield edging to a seven point lead with one quarter remaining, at 50-43.

At that point, Wakefield turned on the after burners, and the rest was history. Wakefield outgunned Winside, 21-10, in the final quarter, thus accounting for the score.

Winside Head Coach Randy Geier noted two key reasons why his team fell short. "First, we weren't patient on offense," Geier said. "Second, you have to give Wakefield credit, they played a great ball game. They're a well coached ball team and it shows."

STEVE HEINEMAN eyes the defender as Wakefield's Todd Kratke concentrates on the ball.

Geier noted that he kept telling his kids to keep playing hard, not to panic, and try not to let them have two or three shots at the basket, via the offensive rebound.

"We kept trying to get the ball inside to Nau," Geier said. "We really weren't into the flow of the game, and again that's a tribute to Wakefield." Wakefield outrebounded Winside, 44-33. However the key statistic within that statistic is that Wakefield was credited with 20 offensive rebounds.

Winside, 3-6, will turn its attention to Friday night, when they travel to play Wausau.

Wakefield will be busy during the next week or so. This Tuesday, the Trojans play Emerson-Hubbard. Friday, they come back with Wynot.

One thing is for certain about the Winside Lady Wildcats basketball team. You never know for sure what team is going to show up.

You might recall that last week, Winside's first quarter probably cost them the game with Beemer.

Friday night, in a home game with Wakefield, the first quarter more than likely won the game for Winside, with the exception of some clutch free throw shooting in the fourth quarter by the Lady Wildcats. The final score was 43-31.

Winside jumped out to a 15-4 lead after the first quarter, mainly on the wings of Wildcat guard Kristy Miller and Lisa Janke. Miller continually drove past Wakefield defenders and looked for the open Janke, which resulted in two points, the majority of the time they used it.

Winside Head Coach Jill Stenwall, noted that her squad ran the offense much better in the first half, than they did the second half. "We did a good job of following through on our plays," Stenwall said. "Kristy Miller was definitely the key for us, because she is our point guard."

Stenwall also commented on how much she was pleased that her squad was patient on offense, and looked for the open shot.

Winside led at intermission, 23-9. Wakefield did stage a comeback, but the closest they could come was five points, at any one time.

Both Stenwall and Wakefield Head Coach Ellie Struder, noted that this was the most physical game of the year for both teams.

Perhaps the key point in the game came with only seven seconds left in the third quarter. Wakefield was amidst a rally and had brought the lead from 13, down to seven. A Wakefield turnover gave Winside the ball out-of-bounds.

The inbounds pass went to Miller, and she proceeded to dribble all the way down court through Wakefield defenders, and scored on a lay-up at the buzzer, to give Winside a nine point advantage.

Wakefield scored first in the fourth quarter, cutting the lead to seven, instead of possibly five or even three, without the turnover.

Wakefield was forced to foul the Wildcats, but the only one they consistently fouled was Miller, and she sank 4-6 free throws.

Wakefield coach Struder, believes her team showed improvement, even though they came up short. "We played good aggressive defense," Struder said. "We actually wore Winside down a little in the second half."

"Winside ran a spread out 2-1-2 zone defense in the first half, and we had all kinds of trouble with it," Struder said. "In the second half, it seemed that they weren't reacting as fast, which carried through on their offense."

Struder pointed out that her squad was severely disadvantaged in the rebounding category. "We allowed Winside to benefit from 23 offensive rebounds," Struder said.

Struder feels her squad has really improved since Christmas, and they are continually trying to improve.

Bears defeat Creighton

Laurel puts all pieces of puzzle together

Mark Hrabik's Laurel Bears finally fill all the pieces of his team's puzzle together. The result was a Bear victory, 72-59 at the hands of visiting Creighton Friday night.

"This was the first time since Christmas that we really played up to our potential," Hrabik said. "We shot the ball well from the field, and the free throw line, we rebounded well and we played good, aggressive defense. Just as good all around performance."

Laurel was coming off consecutive thumpings from Pierce and Wayne, but Hrabik notes that his squad did not play up to its potential in either of those two losses.

Laurel jumped out to the early lead, and after one quarter of play, the home team led 16-11. The second quarter, both teams traded buckets off and on, with Laurel outgunning Creighton, 18-16, to lead by seven at intermission, at 34-27.

Hrabik got a little worried in the third quarter as he saw his team go through shades of poor performances of the previous two games. "We had a 17 point lead in the third quarter," Hrabik said. "That is until Creighton came up with a come-back effort. By the beginning of the fourth quarter, our lead was shaved to four points."

However, when it came to money time, Laurel put its shooting gallery on the free throw line. In the fourth quarter alone, the Bears shot an amazing 20 free throw attempts. Laurel connected on 75 percent of those, nailing 15 of them.

For the game, the Bears hit 20-28 free throws. "This group of kids is really playing hard," Hrabik said. "Right now we're shooting for some momentum, so by the time we hit conference, at the end of this month, we hope to be playing some consistent quality basketball."

Hrabik also noted that the game with Creighton was very physical, with both teams battling under the boards. "Neither team will forget how physical this game was," Hrabik noted. "The ironic thing is that Laurel will face Creighton in the first round of conference, slated at Laurel."

"It should make for an interesting rematch," Hrabik noted.

Laurel Lady Bears handily defeat Creighton 60-28

The Laurel Lady Bears cracked the 500 barrier Friday night as they totally dominated the visiting ladies from Creighton. Laurel coasted to a 60-28 victory, to give the Lady Bears a two game winning streak.

Laurel Head Coach Pam Thies was pleased with the Lady Bears performance. "We really played well on both sides of the ball," Thies said. "The girls really shot well from the field, hitting on 29-45 attempts for 45 percent."

Most of the hot shooting came early as the Lady Bears scored 20 first quarter points. "The game started out with both teams trading baskets," Thies said. "We were tied up at six, but then our girls really got it in sync, and we outscored them 14-2, the rest of the quarter."

By intermission, Laurel had a commanding 33-15 lead. Thies got to play a lot of players in the game, which also pleased her. "It's good if everyone gets a chance to play," Thies said.

"I was especially pleased with the way that Dawn Addison played," Thies said. "Dawn hit 7-7 field goal attempts. Sherri McCorkindale also hit well from the field," Thies added.

Overall, Thies noted that the first quarter of this game was the best first quarter they have played all year.

Addison did lead the Lady Bears in scoring with 14 points. Tama Reifnath added nine to aid the Bear victory. Other scorers included, Becky Christensen, 8; McCorkindale, 8; Shana Carstensen, 6; Holly Helgren 4; Amy Newton, 4; Amy Adkins 3; Kim Mathiason, Deb Roeder and Julie Schulte each scored two.

Although Adkins did not score all that many points, her play did catch Thies's eye. "Amy did a real nice job on the boards for us," Thies said. Adkins led the Lady Bears in rebounding, hauling down eight caroms.

The Lady Bears have back to back games this Thursday and Friday, with Hartington and Bloomfield, both home games.

Allen loses to Bancroft

Allen Head Coach Dave Uldrich said the Eagles didn't play that bad against Bancroft-Rosalie, despite losing to the team by 40 points.

Led by Slaughter's 23 points, the Panthers convincingly handled the Eagles as they won by an 83-43 score.

The Panthers were able to hit on 36 of 79 field goal attempts and 9 of 22 free throws during the game Friday night in Allen. The Eagles had a contrasting 17 of 57 shooting night from the field, but they won out in the percentage at the free throw line as they canned 8 of 13 attempts.

Allen was led by Tyler Harder, who tossed in 13 points. Matt Hingst was also in double figures with 10 points. "Tyler had a good game inside on offense. He was able to put in three offensive rebounds," said Uldrich.

The Eagles were hampered by 38 turnovers against Bancroft-Rosalie. Allen was also outrebounded by a 34-56 margin. Top rebound-getters for Allen were Lanny Boswell with six, followed by Kent Chase, Harder and Kelly Boswell each with five.

Wayne defeats Stanton, Hammer nets 18 points

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

Wayne Head Coach Bob Uhing left Stanton's gymnasium with a somewhat pleased feeling, Friday night, as his squad dismembered a competitive Stanton team, 70-43. "We came out in a press," Uhing said. "I thought our kids did a fine job pressuring the ball, and when Stanton did break our press, I thought the kids did a nice job of transitioning into the defense."

The Blue Devils jumped on Stanton early, with the success of the press, they built a 19-4 lead after one quarter of play, and never looked back, en-route to posting their seventh win of the season, against three losses.

Wayne outscored Stanton in each of the four quarters. In the second period, both teams traded points, with Wayne grabbing the advantage with the accurate shooting arm of Senior Scott Hammer. The score at intermission stood at 34-16.

Uhing was able to play 12 kids in the first half, and by the time the game had ended, everyone had seen playing time.

Jess Zeiss kept the Stanton Mustangs second guessing with his passing. Zeiss finished the contest with five assists. Hammer did just that, to the Stanton defense, as he nailed three 3-point field goals, and led the team in points with 18.

Uhing was pleased with Hammer's play. "Scott did a very nice job on both ends of the court, for us," Uhing said. "He was our leading scorer, and second leading rebounder."

Take away Hammer's points and rebounds, and he still could well have been the key to Wayne's success. Hammer had the unenviable task of guarding Stanton's number one scorer. He responded to the challenge by allowing him six points, far below his average.

In the paint, Jarrod Wood led the Blue Devil attack. Wood hit double figures in scoring and rebounding, with 10 each.

"Jarrod played a real physical game," Uhing said. "We were pleased with his board work."

So there you have it. All you have to do to beat Wayne is stop Zeiss, Hammer, Wood and Nick Engelson, and you might have a shot.

For the game, Wayne out rebounded Stanton, 37-22. Even though Engelson was sick during the week and only played about half the game, he still managed to score 11 points, and haul down eight rebounds.

Wayne committed 17 turnovers, which was 11 better than its opponent's 28.

In the junior varsity game, Wayne doubled the score on Laurel, 70-35. The Blue Devil defense held Laurel scoreless in the first quarter, while gunning for 18 points of their own.

Wayne kept the pressure on, and led 28-12, at intermission. The second half was also owned by Wayne, as they outscored the Bears 42-23, accounting for the final.

Rob Sweetland, led the Wayne JV's, with 12 points, Willie Gross added 11, while Craig Sharpe netted 10.

Nell Carnes hauled down nine rebounds, while Sharpe recorded eight caroms.

The Allen Lady Eagles came from behind in the fourth quarter to defeat Bancroft-Rosalie Friday night. The win gives the Lady Eagles a .500 record at 4-4.

Hero of Friday night's game was Amy Noe. She turned the tables on Bancroft-Rosalie as the Lady Eagles, who trailed through much of the game, rallied back from a seven point deficit in the final quarter to win 33-31.

With little time left, Amy Noe lofted a 3-point attempt that went in for Allen and brought the Lady Eagles to within one point of the Lady Panther's lead.

Then, Noe's second 3-pointer of the night put the Lady Eagles ahead by two. She was fouled on the 3-pointer and hit the free throw to give Allen enough of a lead to win the contest.

At the end of the first quarter, the score was tied at 8-8. Bancroft-Rosalie pulled ahead at the half, 14-12. In the third quarter, Allen could muster only three points while Bancroft-Rosalie scored six.

"We only shot the basketball five times during the third quarter," said Allen Head Coach Gary Troth.

The Lady Panthers led going into the fourth quarter, 20-15. In the fourth quarter, Allen outscored Bancroft-Rosalie by a 18-11 margin.

As a team, Allen hit 13 of 41 field goal attempts and they were 5 of 17 from the free throw line. Bancroft-Rosalie was 14 of 35 from the outside and 3 of 13 from the line.

Amy Noe led all Lady Eagle scorers with 13 points, followed by Toni Boyle with eight and Candace Jones with seven.

Allen played without their top scorer, Lana Erwin, who will miss several upcoming games because of an injury she sustained in practice. The second leading scorer, Candace Jones, experienced foul trouble against Bancroft-Rosalie, and eventually fouled out of the game.

Troth said he felt his team came out flat at the start of the game against the Lady Panthers. "It seemed we had no intensity at all," he said.

The Lady Eagles outrebounded the Lady Panthers by a 31-23 margin, led by Liz Hansen with 10.

NAIA's number one team defeats Wayne State 86-68

The Wayne State College Wildcats hosted the number one NAIA team in the nation Friday night at Fort Hays State. Fort Hays defeated the Wildcats, 86-68. The score was knotted at 6-6, 17-17 and 25-25 in the first half. At halftime, Fort Hays led by a 35-29 margin.

The Wildcats cut the lead to 10 points several times in the game's late stages, but couldn't catch up to the Fort Hays potent offensive attack. Scott Hurley had 21 points to lead the Wildcats. Mike McNamara and Bobby Parker each scored 11 points and Russ Rosenquist tossed in 10 points.

Wayne State came back to tie the score at 41-41 in the early going of the second half. But within the next six minutes, Fort Hays outscored the Wildcats 18-5 and pulled to a 59-45 lead with under 11 minutes left to be played in the game.

In the girls contest, Wayne State was defeated by Fort Hays, 63-62. Leading scorers for the Lady Wildcats were Linda Schnitzler with 18; Kris Smith, 13; and Michelle Blomberg with 11; and Dawnn Bernt-Tucker with 10.

Stanton, Howells win close matches Winside loses duals

Winside lost both matches in a double dual meet against Stanton and Howells Thursday night at Winside. Howells was a double winner, defeating Winside 42-30 and beating Stanton, 48-30. Stanton slipped past Winside 35-30 in the other dual.

Wildcat Head Coach Paul Sok said two starters, Shane Frahm and Jeff Gallop, could not wrestle in the double dual because of sickness.

Winside, despite the forfeits, were able to wrestle both teams close. "We wrestled pretty good. Our experienced kids looked well," said Sok.

Experience is in the name of Mace and Max Kant and Doug Paulsen. Against Stanton, Paulsen and Max Kant each recorded pins over their foes, while Mace Kant had a forfeit. And in the dual against Howells, Paulsen won by forfeit while Mace Kant won by pin and Max Kant won by technical fall.

"Mace had a state placer to wrestle from Howells, and Mace totally dominated him," said Sok.

Carlson, wrestling at 103, also was 2:0 in the double dual with a forfeit win against Stanton and a pin over Brian Strong of Howells in the second match.

Wayne strikes out to taller Lakeview

AMY WRIEDT concentrates intensely on a Lakeview ball handler. Wriedt and the rest of the Wayne JV team, dropped a 37-34 decision to Columbus.

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

Visiting Columbus Lakeview ambushed the Wayne Lady Blue Devils, Tuesday night, 50-32. Before the night was through, Lakeview had swept the freshman, junior varsity and varsity contests.

The loss drops the Lady Blue Devil record to 7-3 on the season, and was the first loss in the past five games. Wayne Head Coach Marlene Uhing, noted that Columbus Lakeview is a very well coached ball club, but they looked even better Tuesday, with the poor play of Wayne.

"This was our first bad game of the year," Uhing said. "I could kind of see this coming with the way we had been playing the last couple games."

Columbus Lakeview, started out like a ball of fire, as Lakeview guard Rikki Went was the early key for Lakeview. Went, the catalyst, led the fast break and scored six first quarter points, to boost a 17 point first quarter performance.

Defensively, Lakeview seemingly put its hands in the face of long ball shooters, Dana Nelson, Holli Paige and Teresa Ellis. This created problems, even when Wayne would go inside to Tonya Erxleben, Christy Hansen or Amy Reeg, Lakeview would swipe at the ball, thus creating bad Wayne shots, or no shot at all.

After one quarter of play, Lakeview had a commanding 17-6 lead. Wayne still couldn't seem to get untracked in the second quarter, and Lakeview's game plan was working to perfection. At intermission, the visiting team had doubled the score on Wayne, 28-14.

Uhing noted that her team had trouble adjusting to the different defenses that Lakeview would go to. "We didn't execute our offense very well at all," Uhing said. "When Lakeview finally went to a 2-3 zone, we didn't change the offense we were running, from when they were playing man."

The third quarter began as the second quarter finished. Lakeview came out, ran a play, and scored on a sharp pass underneath.

Wayne proceeded to hustle down to the other end of the court, only to turn it over. The Blue Devils only suffered 16 turnovers on the night, but it would seemingly happen at crucial times.

Lakeview kept playing the same type of game, setting up the ball, passing it back and forth around the top of the key, and suddenly one of the forwards would make a sharp cut into the lane, and receive the pass, for the turn-around 3-5 footer.

Nelson finally scored her first points of the game with under six minutes remaining in the third quarter.

Nelson scored again on a steal by Paige, but the shot came back at-temp was thwarted again, when the next time down the court, Lakeview guard

Christine Humlicek nailed a 3-point field goal attempt from the top of the key. Humlicek followed it up with two consecutive free throws, and at the end of three quarters of play, Lakeview had increased its 14 point half time lead, to 39-21.

Both teams matched point for point in the final quarter. Nelson hit Wayne's only 3-point field goal of the game, with five minutes left on the clock.

Uhing noted another big factor in the outcome, revolved around the rebounding advantage that Lakeview had. "We were out rebounded 33-18, so that should tell the story," Uhing said.

The Lady Blue Devils will now turn their attention to Tuesday night, when they will host LeMars Iowa.

The junior varsity, came the closest of all three teams, of winning, when it dropped a 37-34 decision.

The score was tied at 25, after three quarters of play. In the fourth, however, Lakeview jumped ahead, and Wayne couldn't make it up. What hurt the Lady Blue Devils was that they could only use some of the girls in different quarters, due to the 'rule of five' in high school basketball.

Leading the JV's in scoring was Jennifer Hammer and Amy Wriedt, each with seven. Deanna Schluns netted six.

In the first game of the triple header, the Wayne freshman dropped a 49-12 decision to the Columbus visitors.

Again, four of the ten freshman out for basketball, could not play very much, in order to play reserve and

WAYNE'S KRISTY HANSEN puts the shot up anyway, after being fouled by Columbus Lakeview.

Freshman teams win

It took overtime to decide the outcome of both the freshman boys and girls games Monday, at Wayne's city auditorium.

In the first game, the Wayne freshman girls played Wisner-Pilger. Wayne eventually won the game in overtime, 26-23.

The freshman Lady Blue Devils trailed 10-7, at the half. Wayne Head Coach Sylvia Ruhl, noted that her squad started seeing the effects of the press they were using. "We outscored Wisner, 7-2, in the third quarter," Ruhl said. "Our press was really starting to take hold."

The game was close all through the second half, and with four seconds in regulation remaining, Wayne led by one point. Wisner had to take the ball the whole length of the court and make the shot, in order to win.

Of course the last thing you want to do in a situation like that is foul, but that is exactly what happened, and Wisner was put on the line for a chance to win. They made one and missed one, sending the game into overtime.

Ruhl's squad avenged the late foul, and outscored Wisner, 5-2, in the three minute overtime period, boosting the freshman record to 2-2.

Leading the freshman Lady Blue Devils was Kari Luft. Luft scored 12 points and had seven rebounds. Leslie Spethman added eight points for the winners, while Amy Wriedt netted five, and hauled down eight rebounds. Bree Bebee added one point. Ruhl's freshman team will be in action before the junior varsity game this Thursday against Columbus Lakeview.

In the freshman boys game, you could probably sense the same thing was going to happen. The two teams, (Wayne, Wisner), each traded leads throughout most of the game. Eventually, this game too, would be decided in overtime: Wayne outlasted Wisner, 51-49.

Wayne raced to an 11-3 lead after one quarter of play. However, Wisner bounced back in the second, and outscored Wayne, 14-7, to pull within one, at intermission, 18-17.

Wisner continued to get stronger in the third quarter and they again outscored Wayne, 17-10, to lead by six, with one quarter remaining.

This time it was Wayne who fought back. With 2 1/2 minutes left in regulation, Wayne trailed by seven. They scored the next nine points, and led by two, with seven seconds left. Wayne fouled a Wisner player, and he was forced to hit both ends of a one-and-one, to force overtime.

The Wisner player nailed both free throws, and the three minute overtime was needed. Wayne scored the first four points in overtime, and relied on Wisner's poor free throw shooting, to capture its seventh victory of the season, against no losses. Craig Sharpe scored 22 points to lead the Blue Devil attack. Brian Lentz netted 10, while Ryan Shaw scored eight.

Sharpe also led the Wayne cause in rebounding with nine caroms.

Other scorers in the contest were: Jeff Griesch, 5; Martin Rump, 4, and Cory Thomson, 2.

The freshman will try to keep their unblemished record intact Jan. 22, when they travel to Hartington to play Cedar Catholic.

Many Hearing Problems Can Be Helped.

Chicago, Ill. — A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest hearing aid Beltone has ever developed will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

It's yours for the asking, so send for it now. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. The actual aid weighs less than an eighth of an ounce, and it fits completely into the ear canal.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Although a hearing aid may not help everyone, more and more people with hearing losses are being helped. For your free sample send your name, address, and phone number today to: Department 82038, Beltone Electronics Corporation, 201 West Victoria Street, Chicago, Illinois 60646.

LADIES AID AND LWML

Mrs. Arnold Junck conducted the business meeting when the St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid and LWML met Wednesday at the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. Edward Fork was in charge of opening devotions and was hostess for the day. Mrs. Arthur Cook accompanied for group singing.

Mrs. Murray Leicy read the resume of 1987 activities and Mrs. Ernest Junck read the treasurer's report.

Thank you were received from the Goodwill, Lutheran World Relief, the Bethesda Home and also from Mrs. Elna Peterson and Carl.

It was announced that the LWML Wayne Zone Executive meeting will be held in Martinsburg today (Monday) at 1:30 p.m.

The president appointed Mrs. Arnold Junck, Mrs. Murray Leicy, Mrs. Ernest Junck and Mrs. Arthur Cook for the planning committee; Mrs.

Edward Fork, supplies and in charge of Christian Growth; Mrs. Ernest Junck, memorials; Mrs. Gerry Hurlbert, correspondence; and Mrs. Dennis Junck and Mrs. Gerry Hurlbert, gifts; Mrs. Ervin Wittler, Leaguer leader; Mrs. Arnold Junck and Mrs. Murray Leicy, in charge of communion ware.

Mrs. Dennis Junck drew attention to several articles taken from the winter LWML Leaguer. Mrs. Edward Fork read "If Jesus Came to Your House" and had closing prayer.

Pastor Miller had Bible study taken from the book of Mark.

Mrs. Arthur Cook will be the Wednesday, Feb. 10 hostess.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

A cooperative dinner preceded the postponed meeting of United Presbyterian Women that was held Wednesday at the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Keith Owens was coffee chairman for the dinner.

Mrs. Milton Owens, president, opened the meeting and read, "Count the Lord's Blessings Among the Year's Asses."

Mrs. Clarence Hoeman was a guest.

Mrs. Eta Fisher reported on the last meeting and Mrs. Erwin Morris read the treasurer's report.

Thank you for Christmas gifts were read.

Mrs. Esther Batten is in charge of local service; Mrs. O.J. Jones, sewing and supplies; Mrs. Keith Owens, program chairman; and Mrs. Lem Jones, courtesy chairman. Those on the nominating committee are Mrs. Lem Jones, Mrs. Milton Owens and Mrs. O.J. Jones.

Mrs. Keith Owens distributed the new yearbooks that were reviewed. The lessons for the year are entitled "Good News Women." Mrs. Owens also gave a presentation on Russia.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, Jan. 20 following a noon dinner when Mrs. Lem Jones will be coffee chairman.

STAMP CLUB PRESENTATION

A presentation on the Ben Franklin Stamp Club was given Thursday at the Carroll Elementary School by Georgia Gillespie, Postmaster at Hoskins, and Sally Thompson, Postmaster at Carroll, to help second, third and fourth graders kick off their stamp collecting club.

Sharon Olson, teacher at the Carroll Elementary, is the stamp club's sponsor. The club will be meeting on a weekly basis at the school until the end of the year.

Mrs. Olson has had her students enter the Ben Franklin Stamp Club, stamp design contest, sponsored by the United States Postal Service, for the past several years and results have been favorable. The class will be testing their stamp designing skills again this year.

Postmaster Sally Thompson encourages any elementary school interested in having a presentation on the Ben Franklin Stamp Club to contact their local postmaster.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Fifteen were present when the Senior Citizens met Monday at the fire hall. A get well card was sent to Mrs. Mary Drake and thinking of you cards went to Mrs. Lena Rethwich and Mrs. Louise Boyce.

CRP SIGN-UP SET FOR FEBRUARY

With the advent of another Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) sign-up many landowners are considering the various options offered through this program.

Considering the strict erosion control provisions of the Food Security Act of 1985, the CRP option may be the only profitable option for many farmers. It may be all but impossible to bring some classifications of soil to the tolerable limit of erosion and still be farmable. In some cases, the cost of mechanical conservation practices far exceed the production value of the soil. Whereas, the Conservation Reserve Program will share the cost of putting the ground back to permanent vegetative cover, such as grass or trees, and also pay a "rental fee" on this ground for 10 years. In conjunction, the Lower Elkhorn NRD has a program to pick up the remaining cost of planting trees. Therefore, a landowner wanting to plant field windbreaks that will benefit wildlife habitat will be reimbursed 100% of the cost.

Besides saving soil, another plus to this program is that it enhances our wildlife habitat. Although farmers and ranchers are not allowed to grow crops or graze cattle on CRP land, they can grow crops for wildlife food, hunt, and lease hunting rights on CRP acreages. Many landowners are finding it profitable to develop hunting preserves and fishing areas.

In many areas the CRP has already made an effect on the wildlife population. Because of overhunting and loss of habitat, the easily frightened pronghorn, commonly called antelope, have been absent from their native, central California for more than 40 years. Through the program, the pronghorn have been returned to central California.

The next CRP sign-up will be February 1 through 19. To-date, counties located within the Lower Elkhorn NRD have in excess of 72,887 acres enrolled in the program. Nation-wide, there is nearly 23 million acres contracted in the program. It is estimated that through this program 467 million tons of soil are saved annually. Surprisingly, this represents only about 16% of all the soil erosion that occurs on cultivated cropland. For further information on this program, please contact your local Soil Conservation Service Office.

WHAT TO PLANT ON CROP ACRES

Excerpts from the "Forage Fever" by the Cooperative Extension Service

Selecting the best grasses and legumes for CRP across the challenge. More than 35 cool-season grasses, warm-season grasses, and legumes are desirable for planting.

Criteria suggested in selecting seed: adaptability, what will the use be 10 years from now; maintenance, some grasses require more wood and brush control than others; and seed cost and availability.

It is important to utilize species that will germinate and make a good establishment. Native seeds that originate more than 250 miles south or 150 miles north from where it will be planted may not adapt. Also when considering a warm or cool season seed, selection of seed types should be based on type of soil and need. Providing grazing during the season of the year when current pasture supplies are least available is a consideration.

Maintenance of your CRP acres will also be a large factor in deciding the type of grass seed. Warm-season grasses are most economically maintained during non-use. Prescribed burning can be practiced, and both warm-season and big bluestem can have attractive applied to seedling to improve weed control and old establishment. Sand bluestem, sand lovegrass, and prairie sandreed adapt well on sandy soils. Land that will return to crops should be sown to low cost, cool-season mixtures, such as Smooth bromegrass and alfalfa or alfalfa on heavy soils, while most wheatgrass tolerate droughty sites and light soils. Tall fescue is not satisfactory for pasture nor wildlife habitat. However, cool-season grasses cannot be treated with atrazine and prescribed burning must be timed when the grass is dormant.

Seed costs are high due to extremely high demand and that will likely remain so for the next 5 years. It is tempting to use the lowest cost seed, however this can be an expensive mistake if 10 years from now the vegetation is of low value. It may be wiser to delay planting for a year in order to develop the desired vegetation. Annual cover crops can be sown until acceptable seed is available.

AWARDS ARE PRESENTED

At an awards banquet held in Norfolk, December 22, 1987, Directors were presented with the State of Nebraska Soil and Water Conservation Steward Awards. The award is issued by Governor Orr and the Nebraska Natural Resources Commissioner. It is a honor of distinction demonstrating a commitment to the Stewardship of our soil and water resources. Stan Staab, General Manager and Mary Kay O'Grady, Office Secretary were also presented Soil and Water Conservation Steward Awards.

Also honored at the banquet were the recipients of the "Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District Conservation Pioneer Award." Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kennedy, Jr. of Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rappert of Pandora were presented with photos of their farm in honor of their exemplary conservation work. Presenting the award was Tom Day of the Dakota First National Bank and Trust Company of Norfolk, sponsoring the Kennedy award; and Gary Condon of the Pandora State Bank, sponsoring the Rappert award.

A special award was presented to Mr. and Mrs. R.F. (Bud) Blatter of Field Station County. A framed color photo of the Maskanthe Lake was given to the couple in appreciation of all the volunteer hours of service they graciously gave the NRD in the development of Maskanthe Recreation Area.

In addition, service awards and Soil and Water Conservation Steward Awards were presented to staff members with five or more years of service. Honored were: Kenneth Barney, Assistant Manager; Donald Kohler, Assistant Manager; Richard Seymour, Assistant Manager; Vickie DeJong, Fiscal Secretary; Evelyn Mastanka, Bureau County SCS Clerk; Bonnie Lund, Wayne County SCS Clerk; Joann Hattig, Dixon County SCS Clerk; Letha Shimerka, Pierce County SCS Clerk; and Phyllis Knobbe, Cumming County SCS Clerk.

NEBRASKA NONGAME WILDLIFE COOPERATIVE CONSERVATION PROGRAM

The Nebraska Game and Parks is offering funding to clubs, schools, scout groups, city park departments, conservation organizations, and other organizations interested in conducting projects which benefit nongame wildlife. The grants of up to $500.00, are solely for use on projects involving wildlife species that are not commonly taken for sport or commercial purposes.

Some projects could include: Establishing nature trails and nongame wildlife interpretive facilities. Starting an outdoor environmental classroom or wildlife habitat demonstration plot. Construction of nongame wildlife exhibits. AND many more.

Project proposals must be submitted by February 15, 1988. For further information, contact the Nebraska Game and Parks Commission.

REMINDERS

TREES
Now is the time to order trees for spring planting. The LENRD sells seedlings at a cost of $33.00 per hundred, ordered in lots of 25 trees per species. The LENRD also offers a tree planting and weed control service. The charge for planting is $0.16 per tree, spraying is $1.33 per hundred feet of row, with a minimum charge of $30.00 per planting.

Tree and shrub seedlings can be ordered by contacting your local Soil Conservation Service. SCS personnel will assist landowners in choosing tree species, designing plantings, ordering trees, and arranging for NRD plantings.

COST-SHARE FUNDS
The LENRD is accepting applications for cost-sharing on conservation construction. Up to 60% cost-sharing will be available for terracesystems and small dams to be constructed next spring and summer.

Persons who applied for cost-share funds in 1987, but were not approved, are a high priority, but must re-apply in 1988, if they are still interested in obtaining funds. Please contact your local Soil Conservation Service Office for assistance in making application.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS
Anyone interested in filing as Director of the LENRD must submit a notarized filing form to the Secretary of State by March 11th. This will place him/her on the primary ballot in May. Also, incumbents who wish to be re-elected must also submit a notarized filing form. This form must be submitted by February 25th. There is no filing fee.

Please contact the LENRD, P.O. Box 1204, Norfolk, Ne., for a packet containing filing forms and further information.

CITY COUNCIL
The City Council's regular monthly meeting was begun by welcoming Betty Kavanaugh to the council. Councilwoman Kavanaugh is the first woman to serve on the Laurel City Council. She will take over as the head of the auditorium, park and pool committee.

to attend that meeting.
Interest was expressed in the rental of the Drug Store. Work will need to be done on it, and the Council decided the rent would be $125 per month.
The city's garbage ordinance was discussed. Citizens are obligated to pay for pickup service if their home is in the city limits whether or not they utilize the service.

Mallett and R.B. Michels will again serve as electrical and building superintendents and Mayor Recob will head the police department committee.
John Mangano, Leanne Carstenson, Von Schuster and Ellie McBrilde will serve on the park board.
BOARD OF EDUCATION
The District 54 Board of Education's regular monthly meeting put the spotlight on computer instructor Diane Tyrell. She is involved with helping students and staff with computer software and hardware, fixing computers and organizing equipment. She also serves as the chairman of the computer curriculum committee.

A reading program for junior high students at Laurel/Concord was suggested by Linda Felber, based on the results of the ACT and SRA tests. The results were proof that skills are low for students at the school. It will be discussed further in the February meeting.
Ideas from the newly appointed athletic complex committee will be brought before the board at the next meeting on Feb. 8. Superintendent asked members to attend an asbestos mandating meeting on Jan. 27.
TUESDAY CLUB
The GFWC Laurel Tuesday Club met Jan. 5 at 2 p.m. at Hillcrest Care Center with 11 members present. Bingo was played by the residents and members of the club. Pies that were baked by several members of the club were served to the players along with coffee.
President Anita Gade conducted the business meeting. Members were asked to bring their money for November projects. It was voted to give $50 to the Morrill Hall project.
Upcoming evenings are the fine arts and crafts show that will be held in the high school gym on Saturday, Feb. 13. The open house will be held from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. All crafts are welcome.

EASTERN STAR
1988 officers for the Meriam Chapter No. 175 Order of the Eastern Star were installed at the open installation ceremony on Jan. 4.
The evening lunch committee was Mrs. Shirley Wickert, Amanda Schutte and Mrs. Vera Shurtle.
The Chapter is well known for monetary contributions for the welfare of the youth of the community of Laurel, such as a scholarship donation and a $100 donation to the local summer recreational program.
Officers installed were Mrs. G. Ruth Hawley, Worthy Matron; Brian McBride, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Mary Pehrson, Associate Matron; Howard Pehrson, Associate Patron; Mrs. Rosemary Mintz, secretary; Harold Burns, treasurer; Mrs. Eunice Leupke, conductress; Mrs. Agnes Burnes, chaplain; Herbert Bose, marshal; Mrs. Marjorie Ward, organist; Mrs. Judy Pehrson, Adah; Mrs. Eleanor Thomas, Ruth; Mrs. Sophie Johnson, Esther; Mrs. Shirley Wickert, Martha; Mrs. Florence Fredrickson, Warder; and Harold Ward, Sentinel.
The installing officer was Past Grand Matron Marjorie Ward. Installation Marshall was Shirley Wickert; installing chaplain, Zelma Zuhlin; and installing organist, Arlene Pattefield.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIES
Laurel Girl Scouts are once again selling Girl Scout Cookies. Money raised during the event helps support events throughout the 19-county Prairie Hills Girl Scout Council in northeast Nebraska.
Cookies include Thin Mints, Chocolate Chunks, Samoas, Do-Si-Dos and others, including the new Echo cookie, two dark chocolate cookies filled with vanilla cream.
