County approves road plan

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

The Wayne County Commissioners approved a one and six year road improvement plan at their meeting Tuesday at the county courthouse.

Estimated costs of the projects on the approved 1988 plan totals $736,000.

However, Commissioner Jerry Pospisil said that the project plans for 1988 are only tentative and projects could be moved back or ahead if funding is not available or it is necessary to move a project ahead.

The most costly project scheduled for 1988 would be to remove and replace a bridge one mile east and a half mile south of Wayne. Estimated cost for this will be $150,000.

Another project — calling for grading, culverts, gravel — on a stretch of road five miles south and two miles east of Wayne (Sec. 30-31, 29-32, 28-33, 33-34 in Plum Creek Precinct) is estimated to cost $64,000.

A grading, culverts and gravel project nine miles south of Wayne (west four miles in Brenna Precinct) has also been estimated at $64,000.

An estimated $32,000 in cost has been figured for similar 1988 work on a road on Sec. 6-7 and 5-8 in Plum Creek Precinct.

OTHER IMPROVEMENTS planned for 1988 include the following (note: A CMP culvert is a corrugated metal pipe culvert):

— Timber bridge removal and installation of CMP culvert 6 miles east and 3 1/2 miles south of Wayne (completed in 1987), $4,500.

— Remove timber culvert and install CMP culvert, 1 mile south and 1 1/4 miles east of Wayne, $4,500.

— Remove timber bridge and install twin CMP culverts 3 miles south and seven miles east of Wayne, $8,000.

— Remove timber bridge and install twin CMP culverts 4 miles south and 5 1/2 miles east of Wayne, $8,000.

— Remove concrete bridge and install twin CMP culverts 1 mile north and 1 1/4 miles west of Wayne, $8,000.

— Remove concrete bridge and install twin CMP culverts 2 miles west and 1/2 mile south of Wayne, $8,000.

— Remove concrete bridge and install twin CMP culverts 6 miles south and 1 mile east of Wayne, $8,000.

— Remove two bridges and install 2 twin CMP culverts 4 miles south and 2 miles east of Wayne, $18,000.

— Grading, culverts, gravel four miles south and 1 mile west of Wayne (south line of Sec. 36 in Strahan Precinct and south line of Sec. 35 in Strahan Precinct), total $32,000.

— Grading, culverts, gravel 3 miles east and 1-mile south of Wayne (east one mile Sec. 15-22, Hunter Precinct), $16,000.

— Grading, culverts, gravel 3 miles east and 2 miles south of Wayne (east one mile Sec. 22-27, Hunter Township), $16,000.

— Grading, culverts, gravel 4 miles south and two miles east of Wakefield (south one mile, east line of Sec. 27, Logan Precinct), $16,000.

— GRADING, culverts, gravel 7 miles east of Wayne (south one mile, Sec. 17-18, Logan Precinct), $16,000.

Court rules in WEA's favor

Wayne-Carroll teachers granted pay increase

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Settlement for 1987-88 Wayne-Carroll School District teachers' salaries was finalized Tuesday night during a special meeting of the Board of Education.

The Nebraska Commission of Industrial Relations has issued, through its findings, an order requiring that the base salary for Wayne-Carroll teachers be $14,904 — an over 8 percent increase over the 1986-87 base salary of $13,700.

The salary order calls for payments to be retroactive to the beginning of the 1987-88 school year.

Wayne-Carroll Board of Education's final offer to the Wayne Education Association (WEA), before fact-finding, was a base salary of $14,300. WEA had requested a $14,500 base the first year (1987-88) followed by a $15,300 base the second year (1988-89).

AFTER THE impasse was declared last October, a fact-finding recommendation announced in November offered $14,500 as base pay, which was rejected by the WEA. Reason for the denial, according to WEA representatives, was because the WEA would like to have a legal opinion as to what schools they should be compared with in current, and future contract negotiations.

The matter was turned over to the Commission of Industrial Relations in early December. The order was released to the WEA and board of education Friday, Feb. 12.

THE COURT order states:

*That the base salary for the teachers of the Wayne-Carroll School District be $14,904 for the 1987-88 school year.

*That the clause in the negotiated agreement between the parties giving the school board the authority to restrict or accelerate vertical advancement on the index salary be stricken.

*That health and dental insurance coverage shall be provided at the rate of $184.07 per month for the dependent coverage including single dental coverage and $65.07 per month for single coverage including dental, for eligible employees. The present rates are $177 and $65.

*That the maximum accumulation of sick days be 45 days (down from 60).

*That all other terms and conditions of employment at the Wayne-Carroll School District for the 1987-88 contract year be as previously established by agreement of the parties involved.

*And that the amounts due for the difference in salary and health insurance for the portion of the year already elapsed be made by payment of a single sum.

BOTH WEA representative Duane Blomenkamp and Superintendent Francis Haun each said the Commission of Industrial Relations' decision on "what schools to compare Wayne with" had a great bearing on the outcome.

In choosing an array of schools to be used for comparison, the Commission considered evidence of size and geographic proximity and other areas that indicate similarity of work, skills and working conditions.

The board of education presented 10 school districts which they felt were comparable to Wayne-Carroll: Albion, Laurel-Concord, Madison, O'Neill, Pierce, Randolph, Schuyler, Tekamah-Herman, West Point and Wisner-Pilger.

The WEA presented nine school districts for comparison purposes, including Ashland-Greenwood, Centennial, Central City, Gretna, Raymond Central, Seward, South Sarpy, Tekamah-Herman and Wahoo.

Only Tekamah-Herman was the choice of both parties.

The Commission ruled that based on evidence, WEA's array has the characteristics to make comparisons appropriate, and that WEA's array provided an appropriate balance between larger and smaller districts.

THESE NINE schools were used by the Commission of Industrial Relations to establish a base salary mid-point of $14,904 for Wayne-Carroll. Gretna had the largest base salary figure of $16,100 among the schools in the array. Lowest was Tekamah-Herman at $14,250.

At one time, the Commission of Industrial Relations made its choice on array of schools by "commonality of interest," according to Superintendent Haun. Schools presented for comparisons were those that Wayne-Carroll competed against in sports or other activities.

Now, the array of schools is based on similarities-of-working conditions, he said. And he indicated that the Commission's choice of array of school comparisons will likely be used in future negotiations.

Blomenkamp said the array of schools which the commission had picked contained three larger and six smaller schools. South Sarpy had the largest enrollment with 1,382 students followed by Seward, 1,185; Gretna, 864; Central City, 828; Ashland Greenwood, 741; Tekamah-Herman, 685; Wahoo, 628 and Centennial, 588.

Wayne-Carroll's enrollment is 835 students. The school district employs 60 classroom teachers.

For construction in Wayne Permit numbers up

Carlson Recreation and Convocation Center, and the $349,059 in construction value to the Sunnyview housing apartment buildings in the Sunnyview Subdivision area.

The year 1987 wasn't a big year for construction of new commercial or industrial buildings in Wayne.

The 30 issued building permits last year matches the 1984 output. In 1985 there were 40 building permits issued.

However, the number of new homes and duplexes constructed in Wayne during 1987 was on the rise when compared to the 1986 building report. And there were seven more total building permits issued in the city of Wayne in 1987 than in 1986, according to a report distributed to Wayne City Administrator Phil Kloster.

A breakdown on the allocation of 1987 building permits is as follows: — Nine permits for new residential homes and duplexes, compared to four the previous year. The value in 1987 is $534,881.

Despite the increase in permits and residential housing, value of construction dipped from $3.13 billion in 1986 to nearly $804,138 in 1987.

— Three permits for residential remodeling, compared with five in 1986. Value is at $16,800.

Comparing notes

Tuesday night's announcement of the Commission of Industrial Relations' finding on the salary package for Wayne-Carroll instructors, as was written in story form on our front page, may have set a precedent in future negotiations in school districts across the state.

The total salary package for Wayne-Carroll teachers, according to Superintendent Francis Haun and as was ordered by the Commission, will increase over 8 percent over 1986-87 figures. The increase is retroactive to the start of the 1987-88 school year.

How was the 8 percent or more increase arrived at? The answer appears to be the major story here.

The decision was made with comparison of schools in mind. It boiled down to which schools the WEA should be compared with — the board of education's proposal or that proposed by the representation of the WEA.

WEA representative Duane Blomenkamp said the school board's array of schools in the comparability study all were lower in enrollment and size.

He said the WEA came up with their own list of schools "to be compared with" by first studying 26 schools in the required 100 mile radius of the school district, and then developing criteria to narrow down nine choices which they felt presented a better comparison.

That criteria included items such as the average tenure of the certificated staff and 1985-86 expenditures for support pupils and staff.

WEA came up with three larger schools and six smaller schools in their array. The court favored in its ruling the WEA comparison array over the school board's array of 10 schools.

It is the obligation of the Commission of Industrial Relations to establish rates of pay and conditions of employment which are comparable to the prevalent wage rates paid and conditions of employment maintained for the "same or similar work" of workers exhibiting "like or similar skills" under the "same or similar working conditions."

If that's the case, consider the WEA vs. the Wayne-Carroll Board of Education the first instance that has been ruled upon using the similar work, similar skills position.

Previously in Commission cases, the array of schools had been determined through a commonality of interest — with schools that played in the same athletic conference or were associated in any way with each other through some school activity.

As Blomenkamp pointed out, the WEA is not on top of their nine school comparison array, nor are they at the bottom — but in the middle. Their array, the court decided, presented the most similar school districts for comparison purposes.

Before going to any extremes of lambasting the school board for accepting and not appealing the court findings, consider giving the board of education some credit for making considerable efforts over past years' negotiations in keeping instructional staff salary increases from rising.

Blomenkamp feels the WEA has done its part, too, in holding down district costs through acceptance of what the board of education had offered in terms of salary.

This year it was a clean match between the WEA and the board of education — all the way to the Commission's final order.

Anhydrous dilemma

Farmers should be aware of a proposal by the U.S. Department of Transportation to reclassify anhydrous ammonia as a poisonous gas.

This would definitely be disastrous to people from the Wayne community and surrounding area who depend on the use of anhydrous ammonia.

Why? Because if anhydrous ammonia is reclassified from a non-flammable gas to a poisonous gas, it would prohibit the transportation of ammonia on U.S. highways. Most likely, it would have to be transported to communities by railroad.

When's the last time a train has passed through the Wayne city limits?

Not only that, but insurance rates, shipping rates, environmental concerns, equipment and storage problems all add up to greater crop production costs for farmers.

Anhydrous ammonia is considered one of the single, largest sources of nitrogen fertilizer used by American farmers.

To voice your concerns about this anhydrous ammonia proposal, write to: Research and Special Programs Administration; United States Department of Transportation; Room 8426, Nassif Building; 400 7th Street S.W.; Washington, D.C. 20590.

Opinion

Premature to request delays

Asbestos law reviewed

THE HAZARDS OF ASBESTOS IN OUR SCHOOLS

We must eliminate asbestos hazards from our schools as quickly as possible. Asbestos is a known human carcinogen. Its fibers accumulate in the body. Each exposure increases the likelihood of developing an asbestos-related disease, such as lung cancer, cancer of the chest and abdominal membranes, chronic lung disease leading to difficulty in breathing and death and cancers of the digestive tract. Because young children experience rapid metabolic changes and cellular growth, they are more susceptible to asbestos-related diseases.

As a parent, reacting the way I think most parents would react, the idea of children and adults being in this kind of environment for even one day longer than is absolutely necessary is not acceptable. Once parents understand the risks that children face in these contaminated areas they will bring a great deal of pressure on any school board member, school official or state or Federal official who acts to delay the elimination of these hazards.

PLANS FOR REMOVING ASBESTOS HAZARDS

In 1984, Congress passed the Asbestos School Hazard Abatement Act, which designated "funds" to schools for abatement. Nebraska schools received $906,084.57 under this law. The Asbestos in Schools rule which was promulgated in accordance with that law required an inspection and report of all asbestos sites. The areas where asbestos was found were supposed to be posted; parents and teachers were to be notified and records kept. While many waivers were granted, fines were assessed if the Environmental Protection Agency found schools in non-compliance.

Many Nebraska schools have acted to eliminate hazards, and others have met the inspection and notification requirements. Yet, the EPA in random checks found that the non-compliance rate in our area (Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri) was 83%.

The country's high non-compliance rate was one of the reasons that Congress passed a stricter law in 1986. This law sets a timetable for development of state asbestos management plans (which include plans for inspection and abatement procedures) and actual abatement. The first deadline is October 12, 1988.

Schools have to inspect for asbestos and if it is found they must submit their management plans to the state. Inspections must be conducted by an accredited inspector. The Governor then reviews and approves or disapproves the management plan. If she disapproves, a school has 30 days to revise its plan.

Hearing on waste issue delayed

The hearing date on LB 882 has been postponed from Feb. 17 until Feb. 25 at 1:30 p.m. LB 882 is the bill I introduced which provides for a special county election to determine acceptance of a proposed low-level nuclear waste site. The Natural Resources Committee, before which LB 882 will be heard, cancelled all hearings on Feb. 17 thus the change. A companion bill, LB 1092, will also be heard on the 25th. All interested persons are encouraged to attend the hearings.

Because this legislative session is quickly approaching the half way point and because litigation is pending in the federal courts, the Legislature last week passed a resolution urging the courts to expeditiously address the questions of meaning and constitutionality pertaining to Initiative 300, the amendment placed in the Nebraska Constitution in 1982. Following passage of the resolution all of the bills introduced addressing I-300 were withdrawn from the process. Since neither proponents nor opponents could gain enough votes to make the changes to I-300 each side wanted, the opposing forces agreed to drop the issue for this session. As long as the federal court case is pending, either side would argue that to offer alternatives for public vote would not be of any value at this time. Included in the resolutions and bills withdrawn was one that I inroduced. LB 547, which would have placed I-300 into statute if the voters were to repeal it from the Constitution.

by Sen. Gerald Conway

In 1984, voters passed an amendment to the state constitution to permit agricultural land to be placed in a separate class of property. This special classification taxes agricultural land based on its earning capacity while all other property is taxed based on market value. The earning capacity method was put in place in 1985 by LB 271 to carry out the provisions of the amendment commonly referred to as "Amendment 4". I was not comfortable with LB 271 at the time and voted against it, however it was passed over my objections. Now the court has found that the amendment (as well as LB 271) is in conflict with another portion of the constitution which states that all methods used to determine the value of land in the state must be uniform.

Two different bills and one proposed constitutional amendment have been introduced which attempt to resolve the situation. LB 844 would simply repeal LB 271 outright and require all land, both agricultural and otherwise, to be taxed based on the land's value, relative location, market value, earning capacity, reproduction and depreciation costs, comparable property, zoning considerations and desirability and functional use.

The other bill, LB 1207, would retain the provisions of LB 271, but clarify its provisions in the hope that greater specificity within the statute would cause the supreme court to find the law constitutional. Finally, LR 249 is a resolution to place on the ballot a constitutional amendment which would clearly denote that the separate classification for agricultural land does not conflict with the uniformity requirement in the constitution. Resolving this difficult issue may very well be one of the more important subjects addressed this legislative session.

Nebraska has now received approximately $550,000 in Federal funds to help Nebraska schools meet the planning and inspection requirements of AHERA. This generous amount, if spent well, should be very important to help schools train their own inspectors instead of relying on expensive consultants.

REQUEST FOR EXTENDED DEADLINE PREMATURE

There have been some suggestions that a request be made to the EPA to extend the two deadlines. I cannot in good conscience support any effort to extend the deadlines until I have seen a good faith effort on the part of the state agency to help the school districts meet the AHERA requirements. At this point there does not seem to be any reason to hold the school districts responsible for delays in action to meet the first deadline. The leadership must rightfully come from the State especially the designated state agency the Nebraska Department of Health with possible assistance from the Department of Education and other agencies of educational institutions. I sincerely hope the state agency will prepare training personnel who can in turn train personnel in all of the interested school districts as quickly as possible.

I will not turn my back on this problem or ignore pleas for help if good faith, well-organized and properly implemented planning and training assistance efforts by the State of Nebraska with school districts show that the first deadline cannot be met. It is premature at this time to request a delay in the October 1988 deadline.

Improving roads

As president of Wayne Industries, Inc., I've recently been asked to seek a resolution of support from that group for LB 457, a bill that would dramatically accelerate the improvement of Nebraska's road system.

There are several aspects of this proposed legislation that would directly affect our community including the construction of a north/south four-lane expressway across Nebraska that would be near Wayne. Other provisions in the bill address such issues as the specific functions of the Department of Roads, the elimination of the urban mass transit subsidy, gasoline tax rates through the early 1990's, and most importantly, bonding authorization.

If it is the bonding concept that is the essence of the bill and deserves the serious consideration of all Nebraskans. Traditionally Nebraska has developed and maintained its road system on a pay-as-you-go, cash basis which, in many respects, is commendable. However, there is another point of view that is equally responsible and acknowledges legitimate sound justification for prudent borrowing (bonding).

Most of us have justified personal indebtedness when we have determined that the purpose for the debt sufficiently enhances our lives. How many of us, for example, deny our families a comfortable home until the price, in cash, has been accumulated?

Or, using a similar parallel, if you've determined that the reason the roof leaks is because the shingles are worn out, is there true wisdom in contracting for its replacement in small increments, over a period of years, using several different contractors and several different kinds of shingles and living with the leaks all the while, simply to avoid any indebtedness?

It seems that this is the way we presently build and maintain our state highway system. We deny ourselves the benefits of up-to-date highways that could save lives and tremendously enhance our economic development potential so that we avoid indebtedness. We contract for badly needed repairs on the basis of the cash we have, breaking projects down to mini-scale so everyone gets a little something. We chase contractors from project to project repeatedly applying band-aids where curative surgery is often called for because we tell ourselves that's all we can afford.

"Investing in the future" is a cliché that may be currently overused but certainly seems appropriate in regard to Nebraska's road system. Several groups that supposedly represent the voice of the community are being asked to support this legislation. If there is any consensus concerning a downside to the prudent use of the bonding alternative to vault Nebraska's road system into the future, please let it surface.

John Vakoc

On the surface that would indicate that 580 were Democrats (the difference between 1,001 total respondents of whom 421 said they were Republicans). In fact, that is disproportionate to registration figures in the 90 counties which show 55 percent registered Republicans, 39 percent Democrats, and 6 percent Independents.

In fact, the 580 difference represented both Democrats and Independents. It still is larger than the actual registered voter demographics. Whether or not that should invalidate the responses is up to the reader to decide.

Finally, some question arises about the validity of any poll that excludes the three largest counties — Douglas (Omaha), Lancaster (Lincoln), and Sarpy (Bellevue). The news release about the poll did not disguise that those sizable segments of voters were excluded. Indeed, it made quite clear it did not involve metropolitan counties. Other polls have focused exclusively on them and the results differ from our poll.

Jim Raglin

Info on poll

Several questions have been raised about the recent NPA political poll and the news release that focused on it.

At question are: —The release stating that the poll involved "registered" voters. Actually, the poll asked respondents to "describe your political party affiliation," not whether they were "registered." The error of equating party affiliation with registration was not intentional.

—The wisdom of merging of two Republican candidates for U.S. Senate — incumbent David Karnes and challenger, Congressman Hal Daub — along with a Democrat candidate, former Governor Bob Kerrey. That, say critics, is not the way you vote; you vote one against one.

—Political registration in the 90 counties surveyed was reflected proportionately by "party affiliation." Asked to make a choice between Daub and Karnes were 421 persons who said they were Republicans. Asked to choose between the three were 1,001 Nebraskans.

Wayne grapplers seek state tourney medals

Wayne-Carroll will be sending four grapplers to the Nebraska State Wrestling Tournament following intense competition in the B-2 Districts at Elkhorn last Friday and Saturday.

The first four finishers in each weight class qualified for state competition. Blue Devils who placed in the top four of their respective weights and who will compete at state were Chris Janke at 103; Jason Cole at 160; Chris Lutt at 171; and Brian Nelsen wrestling at 189.

The Nebraska State Wrestling Tournament begins Thursday, Feb. 18 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in Lincoln, with the consolation semifinals, consolation finals and championship finals set for Saturday.

"I felt that we if we could qualify more than three wrestlers, we would have a successful district. We did better than that [with four qualifiers]," said Blue Devil Head Coach John Murtaugh.

LAST YEAR in districts, which featured 12 of the 15 teams which were in this past weekend's competition at Elkhorn, the Blue Devils scored 20 points and failed to qualify anyone to state competition, although four were one match away from reaching the state meet.

The much-improved Wayne-Carroll team finished in the middle of the pack this year, scoring 70 team points — good enough for eighth place out of 15 teams.

Host Elkhorn won the district meet with 150 1/2 points and will send eight wrestlers to state competition. Blair was next with 141 points, followed by Gretna, Arlington, Bennington, Schuyler, Wahoo, Wayne, North Bend, Omaha St. Joseph's, Boys Town, Fort Calhoun, Ashland, West Point and Omaha Roncalli.

Janke won his first round match at 103 with a 9-2 decision over Dave Gnuse of Arlington. He followed that up with a 9-0 blanking of Bill Wardell of Blair.

In the semifinals, Janke was defeated 6-0 by Cody Stutzman of Schuyler. He secured a state tournament berth with a 7-3 decision over Mike Jensen of Gretna in the semifinals of consolation and in the consolation finals, he pinned Jamie Collins of Wahoo to finish in third place.

"Chris had his best match of the year when he beat Collins of Wahoo," said Murtaugh.

Cole, wrestling at 160, got a bye the first round and then defeated Mike Ferris of Boys Town by a 10-4 decision.

Jeff Grimaldi of Blair was Cole's next foe. "Grimaldi beat him last year in districts 6-0," said Murtaugh. This year it was Cole's turn to win as he defeated Grimaldi by an 8-5 margin.

COLE THEN lost a narrow decision, 6-4, to Paul Krause of Arlington and finished the district tournament in second place.

Another turn-around came in the 171 pound weight class, where Blue Devil Chris Lutt captured a second place finish.

Lutt recorded a technical fall (16-0) over Craig Schmeckpeper of West Point in the opening round and then got a second period pin over his next opponent, Jeff Horton of Ashland.

Lutt faced Aaron Henry of Schuyler in the semifinal match. Henry had defeated Lutt in the first dual match of the season. However, Lutt was on the top end of the score Saturday as he gained a 6-5 decision victory over Henry.

103 — Chris Janke (W) won 9-2 over Dave Gnuse, Arlington; won 9-0 over Bill Wardell, Blair; lost 6-0 to Cody Stutzman, Schuyler; won 7-3 over Mike Jensen, Gretna; won by pin, 3:51 over Jamie Collins, Wahoo (third place).

Allen eliminated by Osmond

The Lady Eagles of Allen found Osmond to be too strong for them Tuesday night, as Allen dropped a 62-47 decision, to them in first round sub-district action at Bloomfield.

The loss ended Allen's season with a 7-8 mark.

Head Coach Gary Troth said his squad succumbed to a 15 point deficit at the end of the first quarter, 21-6.

From then on the Eagles were forced to play catch up. "We really shot the ball poorly in the first half," Troth said. "Our girls got down and we had quite a few unforced turnovers."

Troth noted that his squad didn't do what they wanted to do in breaking Osmond's press. "It wasn't so much that Osmond's press was that aggressive," Troth remarked. "It was more us turning it over to them on mental mistakes."

In the second and third periods, Allen outscored Osmond 30-24, to head into the final quarter trailing by nine, 45-36.

However, in the fourth period, Allen was forced to start fouling Osmond in order to get the ball back to make up the deficit.

Osmond hit 7-11 free throw attempts in that last quarter to outscore Allen 17-11.

"We missed a lot of easy shots," Troth said. "We eventually got the lead down to eight, and Candace Jones rebounded a missed Osmond shot, giving us a chance to cut it to six."

But just as the breaks hadn't been going the Eagles way all game, Jones went to throw the outlet pass after the rebound, and the ball slipped from her hands, bounced to the floor where an Osmond girl was waiting.

Jones was there to defend against a quick bucket for the foe, but in her attempt to block the shot, Jones fouled the Osmond girl, thus sending her to the line where she completed a three point play.

Jones and Missy Martinson led Allen in scoring with 12 points apiece. Lana Erwin followed with 10.

Eric Ostler of Fort Calhoun, defeated Lutt in the championship finals by a 6-1 margin.

One of the most exciting matches was wrestled by Wayne-Carroll's Brian Nelsen and Schuyler's Pat McClure. Nelsen had breezed to wins in the first two rounds of competition, getting a bye and then defeating an Elkhorn foe by a 11-3 margin.

Jim Koke of Gretna pinned Nelsen in the second period, placing Nelsen in the semifinal consolation match with McClure.

NELSEN WAS down by eight points at one time in the McClure match, which would determine who would go on to the state meet. He managed to come back and tie McClure 12-12 to send the match into overtime. Nelsen then pinned his foe at 2:30 into the overtime period.

"He [Nelsen] showed a lot of guts," said Coach Murtaugh.

"Our whole team wrestled the best they had all year. During the first round, we wrestled a bit sluggish. But we did a lot better in the following rounds," he added.

Murtaugh said Jeff Struve and Jason Ehrhardt also wrestled their best matches of the year. "Jason almost made it to state," he said.

Official pairings received Tuesday from the Nebraska School Activities Association for the state tournament will have freshman Janke, with a record of 20-10-1, wrestling freshman Brock Green of Valentine, who has a 17-4 record.

Cole, a junior with a 23-7 record, will wrestle Jim Dillon of Plattsmouth, a junior that has a 23-9 record. Junior wrestler Lutt, 22-9, will face Craig Lutielusche of Columbus, also a junior with a 20-7 record. Lutt had defeated Lutielusche in a dual meet earlier this season.

Senior Blue Devil Nelsen, with a 20-5 record, will go against Shannon Gocke of York, a senior with a 23-8-1 record.

"I think that we have a really good draw and I think everyone we have down there will have a good chance to place," said Murtaugh.

Final district results for the Blue Devils are as follows:

103 — Chris Janke (W) won 9-2 over Dave Gnuse, Arlington; won 9-0 over Bill Wardell, Blair; lost 6-0 to Cody Stutzman, Schuyler; won 7-3 over Mike Jensen, Gretna; won by pin, 3:51 over Jamie Collins, Wahoo (third place).

Wausa defeats Winside

Winside traveled to Wausa Saturday night for the second time this season. The first time they met you might recall was in the conference tournament with Wausa coming out on top by eight points in the battle of the two leading scorers in the conference, Tim Jacobsen and Ken Clausen.

This time was billed to be the rematch of the titans. Jacobsen had taken over the scoring lead from Wausa's Clausen by less than one point. Obviously then, this game both had something to prove.

Wausa ended up winning the game, this time by seven, 77-70. Although there was a scoring battle going on between the two teams. It was not Clausen who was involved.

Winside Head Coach Randy Geier used two quick guards in Gary Munday and Darren Wacker to box and one Clausen. For the most part it worked. Clausen averaging nearly 27 points per contest, was held in 19.

Wausa on the other hand, had a game plan which worked just like they wanted too. The plan was to let Jacobsen get his points, but stop everyone else.

Jacobsen finished the game with 37 points, assuring his lead in the conference scoring race. Unfortunately for the Wildcats, Clausen may have been stopped, but 6-5, 250 lb. Lance Lundberg was left with single coverage, thus allowing him to score a career high of 38 points.

Geier was not disappointed with the effort exerted by his squad. "We had a lot better effort put forth against Wausa than we did against Osmond," Geier said.

Steve Heinemann connected on only three buckets, but all three were from long range, netting him nine points. Wacker added six, while Munday and Randy Prince rounded out the scoring with two each.

Winside will close out the regular season this Friday night when they host Newcastle.

State begins Thursday

Winside sends three to state

Three Winside Wildcat wrestlers will be making the trip to the state wrestling tournament in Lincoln this weekend after their high placings last Friday and Saturday in the district tournament at St. Edward.

Qualifying this year, by winning their respective weight classes in districts, were senior Mace Kant at 130 pounds and sophomore Max Kant at 135 pounds. Freshman Chad Carlson, a 103-pound Wildcat wrestler, captured third place to also qualify for the state tournament.

Both of the Kant brothers had competed at the state wrestling tournament last year. Max took home a fourth place medal in 1987, as did graduating senior Randy Leapley.

Mace Kant holds a season record of 30-1. Max Kant is undefeated this season with a 31-0 record. Carlson, in his first year of varsity wrestling, compiled a 27-7 record.

As a team, Winside finished sixth out of 14 teams in the D-2 districts at St. Edward, piling up 76 1/2 points. Final team standings showed Elgin Pope John on top with 112 points and five state qualifiers; followed in order by East Butler, Palmer, Stromsburg, Clarks, Winside, Howells, Osceola, Clearwater, St. Edward, Greeley, Newman Grove and Macy.

Carlson drew a bye the first round of the district tournament and in the second round, he defeated Troy Wynn of Newman Grove via pin in 1:16. However, in the semifinals, Clayton Glause scored a 5-0 decision over Carlson.

In the consolation bracket semifinals, Carlson defeated Kerry Kluthe of Elgin Pope John by a 10-4 decision. He gained a forfeit in the consolation finals to clinch a third place finish.

For Winside in the 130 pound class, Mace Kant drew a bye before taking on Jon Lundgren in the second round. Mace scored a technical fall (16-0) win over Lundgren to boost him into the semifinals against Bobby Novotny of Howells. Mace defeated Novotny by technical fall to advance to the championship match against the state's number one ranked 130 pounder in class D — Kirk Benda of Elgin Pope John.

Mace, who had given Benda his only loss earlier this season, once again picked up the win with a hard-fought 6-5 decision to claim the district crown.

DOUG PAULSEN studies Andy Pelster of Elgin Pope John. Paulsen ended up withdrawing from further action because of a knee injury.

Competing in districts as the number one seed in the 135 pound weight class, Max Kant pinned his first round foe, Larry Bearinger of Clearwater, in the first period.

In the second round, he went up against Samson Harlan of Macy. Max pinned Harlan, also in the first period, to move on to the semifinals where he wrestled Kent Thompson of Newman Grove.

Thompson lost to Max by a 16-3 decision.

In the finals, Mike Zegers of Elgin Pope John forfeited to Max because of an injury, allowing Winside to win its second championship of the tournament.

Official pairings for the Winside wrestlers in the state tournament, which begins Thursday, Feb. 18 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center in Lincoln, have been announced.

Carlson will go up against Rick Barrett of Harrisburg, who holds a 16-2 record.

Mace Kant will wrestle Kirk Keller of Dorchester, who has a record of 25-8. And Max Kant will be wrestling Jimmy Spellman of Shelton who reached the state tournament with a 9-15 match mark.

Winside's Doug Paulsen, also one of the Wildcats' winningest wrestlers, strained ligaments in his leg during his second round 125 pound match on Friday and was not able to recover from the injury to wrestle any matches on Saturday.

Paulsen, a senior won his first round match by pin and later lost a 12-10 decision to Andy Pelster of Elgin Pope John.

In the 112 class, Wildcat freshman Doug Heinemann lost his first match by pin to Corey Stokes of Elgin Pope. In the consolation bracket, he was defeated by Kevin Wiesman by a 9-0 margin.

Winside frosh Shane Frahm, wrestling at 119, won his first round match via pin against Jim McNally of Elgin Pope John, but lost to Mike Walkowiak of Greeley in the second round. In the consolation bracket, Frahm defeated Tim Haase of Howells 17-9, but lost by a first period pin to Chad Wichmann of Palmer in the semifinals of the consolation bracket.

At 140, freshman Kerry Jaeger lost by pin in the second period to David Kluthe of Elgin Pope John, then lost in the consolation to Jack Jones of Clearwater, also by pin in the second period.

Freshman Jeff Gallop of Winside dropped his first match of the tournament by pin in the first period to Greg Dittmer of Stromsburg. In his second match in consolation, he was defeated by Brian Minarik of Howells.

And in the 189 pound weight class, sophomore Brian Thompson of Winside was defeated in the second round by Brett Stamp of Clearwater.

In the first round of consolation, Thompson took on Ryan Peterson of Stromsburg and won by a 11-2 margin. He then faced Jamie Willard of St. Edward and was pinned.

Wausa defeats Winside

"Our intensity was good," Geier added. "We wanted to put forth a good effort against one of the top teams in the state in our class."

Winside jumped out to a quick lead behind Jacobsen's four 3-point field goals in the first quarter. "Wausa came out a little flat," Geier said. "We jumped to a 21-10 lead after the first quarter."

Once again though, Winside suffered a lull in the third quarter, allowing the home team Vikings to build a nine point lead heading into the final quarter.

Winside scored 25 points in the fourth quarter, but only cut into the Wausa lead by two points, losing by seven.

Chris Nau played a good game for Geier. Nau scored 14 points, but again proved to be a force on the defensive side, hauling down 17 rebounds.

Steve Heinemann connected on only three buckets, but all three were from long range, netting him nine points. Wacker added six, while Munday and Randy Prince rounded out the scoring with two each.

Winside will close out the regular season this Friday night when they host Newcastle.

Winside Head Coach Randy Geier used two quick guards in Gary Munday and Darren Wacker to box and one Clausen. For the most part it worked. Clausen averaging nearly 27 points per contest, was held in 19.

Wausa on the other hand, had a game plan which worked just like they wanted too. The plan was to let Jacobsen get his points, but stop everyone else.

Jacobsen finished the game with 37 points, assuring his lead in the conference scoring race. Unfortunately for the Wildcats, Clausen may have been stopped, but 6-5, 250 lb. Lance Lundberg was left with single coverage, thus allowing him to score a career high of 38 points.

Geier was not disappointed with the effort exerted by his squad. "We had a lot better effort put forth against Wausa than we did against Osmond," Geier said.

Winside will close out the regular season this Friday night when they host Newcastle.

Chris Nau played a good game for Geier. Nau scored 14 points, but again proved to be a force on the defensive side, hauling down 17 rebounds.

Trojans win by one

Wayne rebounds with rout

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

Those thinking that the Wayne Blue Devils might have a let down after an emotional loss the night before against South Sioux City by a single point, were in for a surprise Saturday night as Wayne pounded visiting Crofton, 73-42.

The rout was on right away, as the Blue Devils never trailed. They jumped to a 16 point lead after one quarter of play, 19-3.

At intermission, Wayne had stretched the already insurmountable lead to 41-14. The Blue Devil play pleased Head Coach Bob Uhing, as Wayne improved its record to 11-7.

"Crofton has a good team," Uhing said. "I think our kids are at a level however, where they are more consistent in their play."

Uhing also noted that Wayne has the ability to play its game no matter who they are playing.

Uhing managed to play everyone on the bench and the lead still stretched to 30 after three quarters of play, and eventually 31 at games end.

"Our offense was executing quite well, and we took some good shots down the court," Uhing said. "What pleased me the most however, was the defensive output we put forth."

The Blue Devils held Crofton's leading scorer Sutcliffe to nine points.

"I also think the kids recognized the change of defenses Crofton shifted into," Uhing lamented. "I thought they did a good job of finding the open man."

Senior Nick Engelson seems to have a way of punishing opponents. Engelson not only scored 18 points, playing sparingly in the second half, but also led the team in rebounds with 10. Engelson highlighted the second quarter for the fans with a slam dunk.

Mr. Consistency, Scott Hammer netted 15 points with the aid of four 3-point field goals. Jed Reeg came off the bench to score 11 points for the Blue Devils, while Jarrod Wood finished with 10.

Doug Larson scored eight points, while Willie Gross added six. Neil Carnes netted four and rounding out the scoring for Wayne was Greg Schmidt with one.

Wayne dominated the boards by outbounding Crofton 42-27. In the turnover category, Wayne suffered only 11, while the visitors gave it away 24 times.

Wayne will now shift its attention to Pierce this Friday night in Wayne. Not only is it the last regular season game for the Blue Devils, but beating Pierce would help Wayne in the district seeding.

Reserves improve to 11-3

The reserve team defeated Crofton by 20, 77-57. Head Coach Ron Carnes noted that his squad played very well offensively. "Our offense was in sync," Carnes said. "We didn't seem as intense on defense however."

Rob Sweetland led the Blue Devils in scoring with 22 points. Willie Gross and Eric Runestad were right behind with 14 points apiece.

Runestad was also the leading rebounder for the reserves, hauling down seven caroms. Sweetland, Neil Carnes, Greg Schmidt and Jed Reeg all finished with six boards.

WAYNE'S NICK ENGELSON double pumps a shot against Crofton. Engelson netted 18 points and 10 rebounds.

The win may not have been pretty Monday night, but Wakefield's one point win over visiting Lyons-Decatur still goes into the left hand column, giving Head Coach Paul Eaton a 10-8 record, and ensuring the first winning season for the Trojans in at least five years.

"It's really nice to win," Eaton said. "And it's really nice to be assured of a winning season." Coach Eaton however is concerned with his squads play at the moment.

"We're definitely not playing as well as we can," Eaton exclaimed. Wakefield was outscored 14-12 in the first quarter. They rebounded in the second to tie the game at 24 at intermission.

Things remained even in the third quarter and at the quarters end, the score was knotted at 40. Wakefield edged the visitors in the fourth quarter, 16-15, narrowly escaping defeat.

Eaton picked out a couple of players who he felt played a solid game. "I thought Mike Nelson played very well," Eaton said. Nelson netted 13 points and five rebounds in the contest.

Eaton also felt Scott Lund had a good game. Lund led all scorers for Wakefield with 16 points. He led the team in rebounds with nine.

Stuart Clark finished with 11 points, while Andy McQuistan netted four. Matt Tappe rounded out the scoring with two points.

Reserves finish season undefeated. The Wakefield junior varsity squad finished the regular season at 14-0. In Monday night action against Crofton, the Trojans won 66-38. They were led by Doug Roberts with 17 points.

Tony Krusemark followed with 12. Freshman-Sophomore win tourney. The Wakefield Freshman-Sophomore squad recently took top honors in the Walthill tournament held Saturday, February 13.

In the first game, Wakefield defeated Walthill, 68-62, behind Tony Krusemark and Andy McQuistan's 27 points each.

In the championship, Wakefield defeated Bancroft, 54-42. Krusemark netted 16 for the winners, while McQuistan added 12. Mark Johnson was also instrumental in the win, chipping in 15.

BRION LARSEN and teammate Scott Lund snatch the rebound against Lyons Monday night.

Wakefield ends season at 0-16

Wakefield Head Coach Ellie Studer saw her team lose a major decision to Hartington in first round sub-district action Tuesday night at Bloomfield, 62-29, thus ending their season with a winless mark of 0-16.

"The two things that spelled doom for us was poor rebounding and turnovers," Studer said.

The Trojans got down 16-6 after one quarter of play. In the second period, Wakefield made it close with the heavily favored Hartington girls. By intermission the score sat in Hartington's favor 29-17.

Wakefield must have left their game faces in the locker room after intermission however, as Hartington came out and outscored the Trojans 18-4 in the third period.

"Hartington really came out and hustled in the third period," Studer said. "They connected on six of their first seven shots of the quarter."

Karen Hallstrom, the bright spot for the Trojans the last few games, came on to score 15 points in a losing cause.

Hallstrom also led the rebounding charge for the Trojans with nine. As a team Wakefield was out boarded 40-23.

Laurel loses to Neligh, then falters in sub-districts

HOLLIE HELGREN attempts to save the ball but to no avail.

The Laurel Lady Bears traveled to Neligh last Friday looking to pad an ailing record. The Lady Bears were defeated however, 46-41.

Head Coach Pam Thies saw her squad end the regular season play with a 7-11 record. Thies was pleased though with the output her squad put forth.

"It was a good game," Thies said. "I thought we played well without two starters, Kim Mathiason and Dawn Addison."

Mathiason was absent due to a wedding in the family, while Addison was taking part in a band clinic in Lincoln.

The Lady Bears got down early, 12-6 after one quarter of play. They came back strong however, in the second quarter to trail by only one at intermission, 20-19.

"We only shot two free throws in the first half," Thies said. "Neligh on the other hand had 10 attempts in the first half."

Thies noted that her squad just ran out of energy by games end. "We played this game the night after we played Wausa, a game in which we ran hard the whole game," Thies said.

Leading the Bears in scoring was Tama Reifenrath with 12 points. Becky Christensen followed with 11, while Shari McCorkindale netted seven. Amy Adkins added six points, and Hollie Helgren scored three.

McCorkindale had a good game on the boards, hauling down 14 rebounds. Adkins recorded 10 caroms, while Christensen was responsible for nine rebounds.

Thies noted that Helgren did a fine job at the point guard position, filling in for Mathiason.

The Laurel Lady Bears were the victim of a sound beating at the hands of highly state rated Emerson-Hubbard, Tuesday night in first round sub-district action.

Pam Thies' squad was defeated 72-35, ending their season with a 7-12 mark.

It wasn't so much the poor playing of Laurel that lost the game for them, as much as it was the hot shooting of the Lady Pirates from Emerson.

Mary Henderson, Emerson's streak shooter blazed Wayne High gym with 30 points. Sarah Paulsen added 15, while Lisa Fuchser-netted 14 to aid the winners.

Laurel was led by Amy Adkins' 12 points. Becky Christensen followed with eight, while Kim Mathiason added seven.

Tama Reifenrath scored four points for the Bears, and Hollie Helgren and Shari McCorkindale rounded out the scoring with two points apiece.

Laurel only trailed by four points following the first quarter, 12-8. Emerson went on an 11-1 run in the second quarter to double the score on Laurel at intermission, 28-14.

Things weren't much better in the second half for the Bears. Emerson came out and hit its first three shots in the third period, and by the time the fourth quarter rolled around, the game had been well decided, 47-24.

The Pirates however, were not done. They scored 25 fourth quarter points to Laurel's 11 to account for huge margin of victory.

"Emerson has a really good team," Thies said. "We tried four different defenses on them, but they overcame them all."

Wayne State drops pair

The Fort Hays State Tigers made a sweep of the Wayne State Wildcats, as they also defeated Steve Aggers squad, 67-50.

Wayne State started the game without the familiar face of senior Scott Hurley, who was injured in the Kearney State game the night before. Hurley, drew a charge by the Lopers Rodney Monroe and was taken to the locker room to check on his ankle. Hurley returned by way of crutches.

At any rate, Aggers felt his team played a respectable game, at Fort Hays. "We played real well," Aggers lamented. "The only drawback was the first three minutes of the game when Fort Hays really pressed us hard. We suffered about four turnovers in our first seven possessions."

The Wildcats did rebound taking a 13-8 lead with nine minutes gone. The home team Tigers however, drew back ahead and led 33-22 at intermission.

The Wildcats could draw no closer than seven points in the second half, as they trailed 49-42 with 11:00 minutes to go in regulation.

Mike McNamara and Bobby Parker shared the scoring lead for Wayne State with 14 points apiece. Freshman Oliver Cesair followed with nine.

McNamara was the leading rebounder hauling down seven boards.

On Tuesday night, in Wayne State's last home game of the regular season campaign, Briar Cliff avenged an earlier loss to the Wildcats, by beating them 85-66.

Briar Cliff came into the contest against the Wildcats as the number 10 rated team in the country in NAIA rankings. And when they left, they didn't leave any indication in Wildcat minds, that they deserved anything less.

"Briar Cliff has a great front line," Head Coach Steve Aggers said. "They got 17 offensive rebounds against us."

Incidentally, Briar Cliff out rebounded Wayne State 41-26, the Wildcats worst defeat of the season in rebounds.

Terry Porter led the scoring for Wayne State with 17 points. Bobby Parker followed with 14, while Steve Dunbar netted 13.

First ever indoor track meet held at Wayne State

The Wayne State women and mens track teams finished third and fifth, respectively, in Fridays first ever indoor track meet at Wayne State.

The event took place in the new recreation center.

On the womens side, five teams were represented with the Lady Wildcats finishing right in the middle with 45 points.

University of South Dakota won the invitational outdistancing Northwestern Iowa by 65 points, 133-68.

Following Wayne State was Dordt Iowa, with 27 points, while Buena Vista Iowa rounded out the field with six points.

Wayne States lone first place finisher came in the shot put as Diana Asay heaved the shot 39'9".

The Lady Wildcats had two finishers in second place. Kathy Meyer hi-jumped 5'2" to earn second place, while Tammi Miller leaped 16'11" in the long jump to earn second place honors.

Third place finishers went to Amy Budde in the hi-jump, with a jump of 4'10", Kim Sellin in the triple jump, with a leap of 31'10".

Miller earned a third place medal in the 55 meter sprint with a time of 7.50 seconds.

Meanwhile, the 4x400 meter relay finished third with a time of 4:39.4.

Fourth place finishes went to Michelle Wattier in the long jump, 16'5 3/4", Wattier again in the 55 meter sprint, 10.2, Meyer in the triple jump, 31'6 1/4", and Miller in the 300 meter run, 44.9 seconds.

Sellin finished fifth in the long jump with a 16'1 1/2" leap.

South Dakota won the mens title also, with a team total of 108 points. Northwestern Iowa finished second with 78 points, while Buena Vista Iowa finished third with 40 points.

Dakota Wesleyan finished fourth with 36 points, while Wayne State finished fifth in the seven team field with 35 points.

Westmar finished in sixth with 15 points and Dordt finished last with two points.

Wayne States only first place finisher was Darin Blackburn in the 55 meter hurdles, with a time of 7.80.

Second place finishes went to Mark Vollmer in the long jump with a leap of 21'7". Vollmer also finished second in the triple jump with a 45'1 1/2" jump.

James Chuvala finished third in both the 1500 meter run and the 1000 meter run with times of 4:10.9, and 2:41.9 respectively.

Fourth place finishes went to Grant True in the 400 meter run with a time of 52.1 seconds. Mike Brunzing finished fourth in the 800 meter run with a time of 2:04.8.

The 4x400 meter relay finished in fourth with a time of 3:35.5

Split weekend games

Lady Wildcats 15-10

The Wayne State Lady Wildcats ran their winning streak to five games after defeating Kearney State by 10, 62-52. The streak ended there however, as they lost to Fort Hays State on Saturday night by seven, 66-59.

In Fridays action, the Wildcats leaped to a 19-0 lead on the Loper women and never looked back in its somewhat deceiving final score.

"After we got off to that big lead, the rest of the game was kind of hum," Head Coach Lenny Klaver said.

The Wayne State skipper got the chance to play a lot of people and remarked that everybody that played, played well.

For those of you who recall, when Kearney State visited Rice Auditorium on January 16, the Wildcats went through two such streaks outscoring the Lopers 37-4 in the two combined.

Linda Schnitzler paced the Lady Wildcat scoring rampage with 22 points. Kris Smith followed with 14, while Michelle Blomberg netted 12. Blomberg incidently, connected on three 3-point attempts.

Wayne State shot 42 percent from the field during the game which is good considering they were on the road. Smith led all rebounders with 13 caroms to her credit.

Traveling blues

On Saturday night, Fort Hays proved to be an unfriendly host, snapping the Wildcats win streak at five, and sending them home with a 15-10 season mark, and a 6-6 conference mark.

Klaver noted that on the second travel night of a weekend in the CSIC, his squad usually shoots poorly. Something that is not uncommon on any team.

"I thought we outplayed Fort Hays State," Klaver said. "We didn't shoot very well, which was probably our downfall."

Dawnn Bernt-Tucker was the scoring punch for the Wildcats netting 17 points. Blomberg followed with 15, while Schnitzler suffered an unusually off night with 13. Smith was also in double figures with 10 points.

Fort Hays led Wayne State 36-25 at intermission. The Wildcats suffered an unusually low free throw percentage hitting only 4-10 attempts.

Tucker was not only the leading scorer for the Lady Wildcats, but also led the team in rebounds with 12. Schnitzler and Smith followed with seven caroms apiece.

In this Coach Lenny Klavers final season at the helm for the Wildcats, it's nice to see that the Wayne State women will finish with a winning record. It is the first winning record for the Lady Wildcats since 1977.

Photography: Barry Dahlkoetter

KATHY MEYER tries to clear the bar in the high-jump. Meyer earned second place in the event with a jump of 5'2". Meyer also placed fourth in the triple jump with a leap of 31'6 1/4". This was the first track meet ever held indoors at Wayne State College. The Lady Wildcats finished in third place while the men finished fifth in the seven team field.

Winside gals end season with loss

The Winside Lady Wildcats had the unenviable task of traveling to Wausa Saturday night to take on one of the state's top girls teams in the Wausa Vikings.

Coach Jill Stenwall's club eventually succumbed to the Vikings 52-40, dropping its record to 7-9.

Winside came out flat in the opening period and playing a team like Wausa who doesn't need much of a gap can make the evening much longer than one hopes for.

The home team led after the first quarter 22-9. The second period saw Winside stick pretty close to the Vikings, as both teams played some heads up defense. Wausa led at intermission however, 34-19.

Winside found the going a little tougher in the third period getting out gunned 12-6, giving Wausa an invincible lead of 46-25.

Looking at just the statistics, one might have thought that the game was virtually even. Winside tied the Vikings in rebounding with 38. The Wildcats had just one more turnover than the counterparts, 15-14.

Ann Meierhenry led the Wildcat scoring attack netting 17 points. Lisa Janke was next in line with 11, while Kristy Miller added six.

The Winside Lady Wildcats saw their season come to an end Tuesday night, as Clarkson eliminated them in first round action of sub-district play at Battle Creek, 60-43.

Head Coach Jill Stenwall felt her squad did a fine job on the offensive end, but was a little weak on the defensive side.

"Clarkson got most of their points in the paint," Stenwall said. "Gall scored 28 points, while Diane Verba added 14, and all those came from the middle."

Winside got down early to Clarkson, trailing after the first quarter, 14-8. By intermission, Clarkson had stretched its lead to 12, 26-14.

"We never gave up," Stenwall said. "And that's a tribute to the girls."

Kristy Miller and Ann Meierhenry were the catalysts for the Wildcats. The twosome combined for 38 of the 43 points Winside recorded for the game.

Miller connected on two 3-point field goals enroute to her game high 23 points. Meanwhile, Meierhenry made one 3-pointer enroute to her 15 points. Meierhenry however, was the leading force on rebounding for Winside as she hauled down 13 rebounds.

Jenny Topp and Carmen Reeg each scored two points and Lisa Janke rounded out the scoring with one point.

In Little Rock, Ark. Area representatives attend national conservation meeting

Harold George of Dixon, representing the Lewis and Clark District, and Vincent Krampfer of Dakota City, Lower Missouri District, attended the annual convention of the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) on Jan. 31 through Feb. 4 in Little Rock, Ark.

The convention theme, "Expanding Our Horizons," set the stage for discussion among some 1,600 state and district conservation officials who attended from across the nation.

IT WAS NOTED that the conservation provisions of the 1985 Food Security Act will directly or indirectly impact most conservation district officials.

Much of the discussion centered around the district officials role, which requires their approval of individual farm conservation plans under the conservation compliance portion of the Act.

NACD President Clarence Durban encouraged district leaders to accept this new responsibility and thereby maintain control over the implementation of the new soil and water conservation programs.

THE NACD COUNCIL, the association's voting body, approved a funding resolution which recommends the Soil Conservation Service be funded in fiscal year 1989 at $756 million — up $80 million from the current level of funding.

The increased resources are needed to support the technical services required by SCS to implement the farm bill conservation programs.

Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Peter Myers encouraged NACD and districts to actively supply the USDA with ideas on the conservation provisions of the farm bill.

He noted the tremendous grass roots power of districts and the national association in giving direction to federal and state programs.

AMONG HIGH profile issues discussed at the convention was groundwater quality and nonpoint source pollution.

Speakers predicted water quality issues will receive greater attention from the public and public interest groups in the future.

Local conservation districts were encouraged to take the lead in implementing water quality programs at the local level.

NEXT YEAR'S NACD convention will be held Feb. 5-9 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

The NACD is a non-profit, non-governmental organization dedicated to the wise use, conservation and development of the nation's soil, water and related natural resources.

Currently, the NACD serves as national spokesman for nearly 3,000 local soil and water conservation districts.

Understanding Heart Attack

A heart attack often occurs when the arteries that supply blood to the heart muscle become clogged. These arteries can become narrowed by accumulations of fats that are carried by the blood. Eventually, these fatty deposits can completely close off the flow of blood to the heart's muscles. Without oxygen, the heart gives up. That's a heart attack. The best treatment for heart attack is quick response. Getting a heart attack victim to the hospital quickly will help prevent serious damage to the heart muscle... and may help save someone you love from death or disability. This message is brought to you by Sav-Mor Pharmacy who encourages you to support the American Heart Association during Heart Month.

significance of the selection of comparison schools in the context of studying work similarities.

Superintendent Haun said the total cost of the package increase is $128,200 over 1986-87 salaries. He said the figure exceeds the 1987-88 school district budget for instructional salaries by $72,000.

Board of Education member Arnold Emry made a motion requiring the administration of Wayne-Carroll School District to carry out the order of the Nebraska Commission of Industrial Relations. His motion was seconded by Cap Peterson.

Before the vote, board member Sid Hiller asked if other alternatives could be considered. He said the rulings, particularly concerning the array of school comparisons, were not logical and unreasonable in some respects.

Emry said that the board of education decided in November, after trying to come to an agreement, to let an arbitrator take care of it [future salary package negotiations].

"I don't see how we can change this without spending a lot more money," he said.

Options are for the school board to appeal the Commission's decision, or take the matter up with the Supreme Court.

However, past appeal cases have proved unsuccessful, according to Haun, and would entail great expense.

Emry's motion passed unanimously.

First Federal Lincoln today announced that the savings and loan association achieved another year of record earnings growth. Charles Thorne, Chairman of the Board of Chief Executive Officer reported a net profit for 1987 of $7.8 million. A portion of this profit can be attributed to the Association's prudent investment policy, said Thorne. Total assets at the end of the year were $1.2 billion.

First Federal's net worth ratio as of December 31, was 4.50%, which exceeds the 3.02% standard requirement of the Federal Home Loan Bank. Average net worth ratios for Nebraska Savings and Loan institutions as of September 30, 1987 was 2.38%.

President and Chief Operating Officer, L.F. Roschewski, said First Federal's savings deposit at the end of the year were in excess of $1 billion. The loan portfolio increased by $50 million. "Our commitment to the traditional savings programs, as well as the new investment alternatives allows us to tailor programs to suit individuals. Tax-deferred annuities, mutual funds and other forms of investments have been well received and continue to show growth," he said.

WSC professor co-edits book dealing with communication

Kathryn Carter, formerly of Jackson, Miss., and currently associate professor of humanities at Wayne State College of Nebraska, has co-edited a book dealing with communication that is expected to be out this fall.

"We see the book being used as a primary or supplemental text in communication theory, gender and communication and women's studies classes," Carter said. "It contains information on feminist research and women's communication and research methods. We also see it as a 'how-to' manual for the conduct of research on women's communication."

Carter will be teaching a special "gender and communications" class this summer during the July session.

The class is open and has no prerequisites for enrollment.

Carter received her bachelor's degree from Mississippi State University at Starkville. She then received her master's degree at Texas Christian in Fort Worth, Texas. She earned her doctorate at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale, where her dissertation dealt with feminist theatre.

Area students at odds with minimum wage form

The Board of Directors of the Nebraska Student Interest Coalition (a newly formed organization representing students from, at this time, Wayne State College, Kearney State College, Chadron State College, and the University of Nebraska at Omaha) met Feb. 6, at Kearney State College in Kearney. The main issues that the board discussed were the bills introduced to the legislature by Senator Lamb and Senator Moore.

Senator Lamb introduced Bill LB 1096 which would lower the minimum wage form $3.35 to $2.85. This organization is strongly against this because they feel that this bill is extremely unfair to college students that are trying to work their way through college. Senator Moore inroduced Bill LB 1029 which set up a State-based financial aid program based on need. This organization supports the concept of this bill, but would like some more information. The NSIC still supports the idea of a State-based work study program. The organization was represented at the Capitol on Monday, Feb. 8 by Paul Hays.

The NSIC also supports the Board of Trustees and the Board of Regents allocation request from the legislature which includes an increase in faculty salaries.

The next board meeting of the Nebraska Student Interest Coalition will be on Saturday, Feb. 27, at 2 p.m. on the campus of Wayne State College.

Ownership affidavits must be completed for each animal and will be available. Animals to be exhibited at Ak-Sar-Ben and the Norfolk Meat Animal Exhibition, must have noseprints on file with those shows, and will be done at weigh-in day. FBLA WEEK

Laurel-Concord teachers sweated it out on "Kiss a Pig" Thursday last week. The "Kiss a Pig" pep assembly was one of several activities sponsored by the Future Business Leaders of America members for FBLA week, Feb. 7-13. Jars were placed in the high school office, one for each high school teacher, and the teacher with the most money in their jar by Thursday's assembly, had to kiss a pig. Students and staff members could vote for their favorite teacher by placing money in their jar which went for a good cause of course, FBLA funds.

It was a close call between two or three teachers and teachers were putting their money in each others jar. One teacher even took another teachers jar up town to gather donations. Mr. Hrabik, history teacher at Laurel, was warming up his lips on the sidelines, thinking he had won, but he did not have to kiss the pig at Thursday's assembly. Mrs. Manganaro won the contest. In style, wearing a Kermit the frog outfit, carrying a sign that read "Where's Ms. Piggy?," she was armed with a chocolate kiss which she tried unsuccessfully to feed the pig and big plastic lips which she tried to pass off as her own, but the gang wouldn't have any of that, they wanted the real thing. So Mr. Hrabik gladly obliged by holding the pig and Mrs. Manganaro gave it a nice big wet one.

For fruit, vegetable growers

Norfolk convention planned

"Capturing Marketing Windows" is the theme of the sixth annual Northeast Nebraska Fruit and Vegetable Growers Convention and Trade Show to be held at the Villa Inn here Feb. 18-19.

An estimated 300 beginning and advanced growers from across the state will have the opportunity to learn about better communication and working together, said Chris Carlson, extension agent in Madison County.

The event, which is the largest of its kind in the state, will feature 30 exhibitors displaying chemicals, seeds, fertilizers and machinery designed to help growers improve their operations, Carlson said.

Growers will attend workshops on specialized products, new growing techniques and marketing of products.

The keynote speaker, Don Ahrens of Twin Garden Farms in Harvard, Ill., will speak on "The Future of the Fresh Market Produce Industry," at the general session, Thursday, Feb. 18.

The Outstanding Producer, Educator and Vegetable Supporter will be announced at the evening banquet and awards session at 7 p.m. Feb. 18. Roger Tennessee of Milwaukee, Wis., will speak on "Creating an Image: The Santa Claus of the Vegetable Industry," at the banquet.

Carlson said he not only wants growers to improve their operations from what they gain from this convention, but also would like to see the strong support that he sees in their area to catch on statewide.

"We would like to use this as a springboard for a statewide convention and newsletter," Carlson said.

The convention and trade show is sponsored by the Norfolk Farmers Market Association, Northeast Nebraska Vegetable Growers Cooperative and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Cooperative Extension Service offices in northeast Nebraska.

The fee for the convention and trade show is $10 per person or $17.50 per couple. This does not include the conference proceedings, evening banquet, Feb. 18; noon luncheon and exhibitors breakfast Feb. 19.

Registration and fees are due Feb. 12. For more information contact the Madison County Extension Office, Box F, Battle Creek, NE 68715, (402) 675-2785.

Law requires driving permits

Two special permits are needed for young tractor drivers to meet Nebraska State Law and the Federal Department of Labor Standards.

1. Department of Labor Standards require boys and girls from 14 to 15 to have a special exemption permit if they are to operate a tractor or other farm implements for someone other than their parents. This permit can be obtained by completing a 10-hour course in tractor operation and safety.

The county extension agents in Dakota, Cuming, Cedar, Thurston, Knox, Wayne, Pierce, and Dixon Counties are providing a special training for this purpose to be held on March 11 and 12 at the Northeast Center near Concord from 5 p.m. on Friday to 3 p.m. on Saturday. This is part of their 4-H Youth Developmental Program and is open to all youth without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, or handicap.

There is a $6 registration fee for this training payable in advance. Those interested in receiving this training should register with their county extension office prior to March 4.

This training would be excellent for youth who are driving tractors as the main emphasis is safe tractor operation and maintenance.

2. Nebraska State Law requires a special permit for all tractor operators 13 to 15, to enable them to drive a tractor or other farm equipment on any Nebraska roadway. This permit can be obtained in two ways:

a. A temporary permit is available from the Department of Motor Vehicles for a $5 charge. It is good for only six months and no test is required. It is especially good for those youth who will be 16 in six months.

b. A permanent permit is available for a cost of $5. It is good until the age of 16. A written test, an eye exam, and a tractor driving test, administered by the Department of Motor Vehicles examiners is required. A special test day to obtain this permit has been scheduled for March 12 at the Northeast Research and Extension Center near Concord from 9 a.m. to noon.

The Golden Years

by Gil Haase

Being a part of something you love and enjoy doing, and sharing it with others, is one way to establish a positive self-worth. Just ask members of the Senior Citizens' Orchestra of Miami Beach, Florida, who share their talents and love of music with the community. All of the nearly 40 members are over 60, a good many over 70, and quite a few past 80. Founded in 1971, the orchestra is funded by contributions and performance fees. Interestingly, some orchestra members report seeing doctors less and less often, feeling happier and less lonely.

If an employer is looking for quality, he would do well to look toward the older worker. According to a 1982 Public Agenda national survey, 69 percent of men and women over age 55 said they had an "inner need to do the very best I can, regardless of pay." Only 48 percent of those younger responded in similar fashion.

Remember When? 1938 — The H. G. Wells novel, "The War of the Worlds," was dramatized as a radio play by Orson Welles and his Mercury Theatre cast on Halloween night. Their news-bulletin style and realistic treatment created a national panic.

FIRST FEDERAL LINCOLN

UPDATE

Charles H. Thorne
Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

L.F. Roschewski
President and Chief Operating Officer

In a year where nearly all news from the financial world was "down," it is a pleasure for the directors, officers and staff of First Federal Lincoln to report on a year which was decidedly "up."

At First Federal Lincoln, 1987 earnings, reserves and expansion into new markets were all "up." The net profit was nearly $8 million—a record year. Total assets were $1.2 billion at year's end, again, up from the previous year. Most importantly, our reserve fund grew—up—to $54.8

million, an all-time high. This figure makes our net worth ratio 4.5% in a state where the average savings and loan is at 2.38%. We are particularly proud of the figure because it means our customers enjoy the peace of mind which comes from investing in an institution safe and secure beyond the minimum requirements.

Another significant factor in First Federal's "up" year was a recent customer opinion survey which told us that the people we serve are definitely "up" on us. We asked customers to rank our service in six categories such as helpfulness, friendliness and professionalism. We are proud that nearly 90 percent of our customers found our service in all 64 offices across the state "excellent." Plans are underway to increase customer satisfaction even more in 1988.

Look for another "up" year for First Federal in 1988. Our directors and management team are "up" in serving the financial needs of customers in more Nebraska towns, large and small. New offices in Gering and Gibbon will open in the first quarter. Customers will see many present locations expand to offer more convenience through longer hours, drive-up windows and ATM's. Our Fremont office will move to new quarters in March and major remodeling of the downtown Kearney office is scheduled for completion in April. In Lincoln a new office is under construction at 56th and Highway 2 for the expansion of the Edgewood branch.

You will see new products offered to customers who want to see their personal financial picture go "up" in 1988. Our traditional savings programs, as well as new investment alternatives will continue to allow us to tailor programs to suit individuals. Tax-deferred annuities, mutual funds and other forms of investments are products which help our customers invest in an environment of safety and security in what can often be turbulent times.

First Federal's commitment to a prudent investment policy, our determination to serve our customers with a high level of courtesy and professionalism, and our practice of offering the best financial products available are the reasons we can report on an "up" year in 1987. These same qualities are pledged to help us meet our goal of another "up" year in 1988.

LET'S ALL SUPPORT AN INDUSTRY THAT HARVESTS $8 BILLION ANNUALLY.

Enthusiasm for agriculture is growing again in Nebraska. After all, the success of our state's economy is strongly tied to the strength of our ag industry. Almost one-third of our economic activity is related to the production of ag commodities or ag services.

Nebraska has always been a leading crop production state and now ranks among the top five in cash receipts for ag commodities nationally—third in corn production, third in sorghum, ninth in wheat, eighth in soybeans, and fifth in rye and beans.

Recently, Nebraska produced a record 954 million bushels of corn (11 percent of the U.S. total) with total cash crop marketing of $3.3 billion and $4.6 billion in livestock marketing. In fact, cattle and calf production in Nebraska amounts to 12 percent of the U.S. total, placing Nebraska second only to Texas.

So, if you think Nebraska ranks nationally only in football, maybe it's time to remember why we're called the Cornhuskers.

LET'S GET INTO A POSITIVE STATE.

SCHOOL BOARD
During the regular meeting of the Wakefield School Board on Feb. 18 Dennis Engsted explained the need for a new and larger jointer for the industrial arts program. The board tabled the matter until the March meeting.

Val Bard and Principal Joe Coble discussed the cheerleading program with the board. The main issue at stake is whether the program should be continued next year as there seems to be some dissatisfaction within the student body as well as within the community. More input will be received before the board makes a decision on changing or discontinuing this program.

Mr. Coble reported on the high school foreign student exchange program. There is a possibility that a Wakefield student might attend school in a foreign country next year. Mr. Coble also reported that there is an interest among the coaches and football players to return to a 11 man football for the 1989-90 school year. This matter will be studied further.

Superintendent Derwin Hartman reported that the elementary students will be attending the Shrine Circus on Tuesday, April 5. Mr. Hartman also reported on several Legislative bills that are being considered by the Nebraska Unicameral.

The board approved Curt and Linda Brudigam's Freeholder Petition. This means that their property will become part of the Wakefield district and their children will attend school here during the 1989-90 school year as resident students. The board approved a contract with A.T.C. Laboratories Inc. of Omaha to do the school asbestos inspection, lab analysis and management program to meet federal guidelines.

Each family honored received a certificate with the signatures of First Lady Nancy Reagan, honorary chairwoman of the Great American Family program and the Community Commander, Brig. Gen. TIRE TIPS WHEEL MISALIGNMENT IS THE LEADING CAUSE OF PREMATURE TIRE WEAR.

It can be extra hard on the new, wider radials. And if your car has independent rear suspension, the rear wheels may need realignment, too. The signs of misalignment are easy to spot. The tire treads could be stuffed, worn down, and in the worst cases almost nonexistent on the outer or inner edges.

Problem is, by the time you see those signs it's probably too late to save the tire. What's really needed is a periodic check-up to make sure your wheels are in line.

We can do that for you, quickly and accurately, with our FMC computerized four wheel alignment equipment. So, save your tires, and your money. See us soon.

We especially thank our children for hosting the event in our honor and those who took part in the program. We say a special thank you to our pastor, Keith Johnson, and to our former pastor, William Simmer for their part in the program. We are grateful to those who participated in the serving of the refreshments for the reception. All in all it was a wonderful time which will live long in our memory. Glenn & Doris Walker.

THANK YOU Pastor Steve and Dawn for all your prayers, visits, calls, cards, and gifts. Thanks to all the friends, neighbors and kin folk who helped us through this trying time while Jay was in the hospital Nov. 4-11th and Dec. 21-28 and 6 weeks of radiation, with visits, cards, prayers, gifts, food, flowers, and transportation to hospital. Thanks to you who sent 80th birthday greetings and cards to Jay on Dec. 8th, and lovely Christmas cards and gifts. Also to the senders of 57th anniversary cards and gifts on Jan. 25th. Also for the many sympathy cards we received for the loss of our brother, Freddie. Thank you Merle and Dean C. who kept our driveway cleared for daily visit to radiation center. May God bless you all. Jay & Elsie Mattes. F18

SINCERE THANKS to my dear family and friends for the beautiful flowers, cards, gifts, and calls I received. To Rev. Keith Johnson, to Dr. Gordon Adams, nurses and staff at Norfolk Lutheran hospital for their excellent care and for all your care, Gerry and Stace. May God bless you. Gladys Gilbert. F18

MANY THANKS to the good fellows in the Winside Rescue Unit for taking me to the hospital and to my friends for their cards and calls while I was there. I also thank my relatives and friends for the many cards, flowers, gifts and telephone calls that made my 90th birthday such a happy one. Gladys Gaebler. F18

MR. & MRS. Floyd Andrews would like to thank their friends and relatives for participating in their 65th wedding anniversary party held at Wayne Care Centre Feb. 14.
