"Understanding Family Photographs," a program designed to show ways of discerning information about families and family relationships by looking at commonplace pictures, will be presented for the public tonight (Monday) at 7 p.m. in the Wayne Public Library.

Librarian Kathleen Tooker said the public library will be closed for regular services during the program, presented in conjunction with National Library Week April 17-23.

The "Understanding Family Photographs" program is free and will be presented by John Carter, a life-long Nebraskan. Carter has been curator of photographs at the Nebraska State Historical Society for over 11 years and has published and lectured widely on Nebraska history and folklore, photography and Nebraska folk art.

His publications include his book, "Solomon D. Butcher, Photographing the American Dream," and numerous articles in a wide range of journals including Natural History, American History Illustrated and Nebraskaland.

Funding for the program at Wayne Public Library was provided by the Nebraska Committee for the Humanities, a state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Nelhardt day

The annual John G. Nelhardt Conference will take place on Saturday, April 23 in Bancroft.

Author Young, a University of California teacher, also had a personal connection with Nelhardt, having become acquainted while living with his parents in Lincoln.

The project is supported by the Wayne State College Humanities Division, the Nebraska Committee for the Humanities, the John G. Nelhardt Foundation and the Nebraska State Historical Society.

Student athletic trainer intern program approved

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

When the 1988-89 fall athletics at Wayne-Carroll High School begins, there will be a WSC student athletic trainer on the sidelines, on the practice field and in the school's taping rooms assisting the coaches.

The Board of Education, during Tuesday's meeting, approved a cooperative project with Wayne State College's athletic training program on a 10-week experimental basis.

Currently, coaches attend athletic training workshops and aid injured athletes when necessary. High school student trainers are also available.

However, Wayne-Carroll Athletic Director Ron Carnes said the care of the high school athletes could be improved with the cooperative program coordinated with Dan Sedory, Wayne State College athletic trainer.

Wayne State College would provide the high school with a senior who is majoring in athletic training. Wayne State, Kearney State and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln are the only colleges in Nebraska which have the athletic training major program. UNL already provides student athletic training to surrounding Lincoln schools.

A COMPENSATION of $25 per week, for 10 weeks, will be paid to Sedory for his work in a supervisory role, observing and offering assistance to the WSC athletic student trainer.

The compensation would make Sedory an employee of the school system, and his actions would be covered by the school district's liability insurance, according to Carnes.

A second proposal introduced by Carnes, which was not acted upon by the board of education, was to remodel the boys locker room and install an athletic training room where care could be given to boy and girl athletes.

Cost of the remodeling would be approximately $969. Carnes said the Wayne-Carroll Athletic Booster Club has up to $1,000 that it could donate for the remodeling project.

"The athletes would still be under the care of the coaches and family physician. The WSC student trainer would only assist the coaches in whatever manner possible," said Sedory.

The WSC student selected for the cooperative program would need to have the necessary maturity and education to handle the position, Sedory said.

Carnes said the physicians and athletic trainers do an excellent job at the home football games. "But a concern has always been, what if something happened at practice, or at a seventh or eighth grade game. Accidents can happen more at practice than at athletic contests," Carnes said.

Sedory said the WSC student trainer will also offer guidance and assistance to the high school athletic trainers.

"THEIR REAL value will not be so much as handling emergency situations, but the day-to-day minor injuries or muscle pulls. They could help in the rehabilitation of the athlete and have that day-to-day contact with the athlete to recognize the problems," said Sedory.

Also Tuesday, the board approved the recommendation of the recently established Sensitive Issues Committee dealing with the planned school district's curriculum on AIDS (Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome).

The AIDS curriculum, which is basically a videotape and discussion by area medical personnel on the AIDS topic, will be available this school year for 10th to 12th grade students.

Subjects covered in the AIDS curriculum would be the following: knowing what AIDS is; how the AIDS virus is transmitted; and behavior modification, stressing abstinence and totally avoiding drug paraphernalia.

Next year, Haun said the curriculum could be offered to seventh grade students on up.

Groundbreaking set for hospital addition

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Groundbreaking ceremonies for an extensive building project at Providence Medical Center will take place on Monday, April 18, at 5 p.m. on the west side of the hospital.

A need for the addition was recognized by the Governing Board of Providence Medical Center to accommodate expansion of services, outpatient clinics, community service meetings, storage requirements for equipment and records, maintenance equipment storage, need for access for incoming ambulances and a need for child/adult day care.

The Governing Board approved the plans for the "12-bed equivalent" addition, plus an extension on the ambulance garage area.

The major new construction will be built with the 12-bed wing equivalent structured so that, if ever there were a need for more acute care beds, the ground floor space could be converted to acute care rooms and the storage rooms or meeting rooms could be moved to the basement of the hospital with little added construction.

The new wing will have a meeting room large enough to accommodate 70 people; a cardiac rehabilitation room; an activities room for the "Swing Bed" patients; and a detention cell for drug and alcohol abuse patients. The pharmacy will be moved from its present location to the new area, allowing an outpatient clinic office in the present pharmacy location.

ALSO IN THE building addition plans will be a laundry storage and sewing room, medical record and equipment storage rooms and an intensive care room adjoining the two that are now available for cardiac patients.

Two rooms designated as family support rooms, used for adult or child day care rooms, are still in the planning stages.

The garage and ambulance storage area will be extended to allow a free lane for emergency entrance by incoming ambulances.

Christiansen Construction Company of Pender is the general contractor for the hospital wing, submitting a base bid of approximately $405,000. His alternate bid, which included installation of an elevator and a sprinkler system, was $435,000.

Funding for the project will be derived from the estate of Martha Saul, who left $50,649.70 to Providence Medical Center and the August Thun estate had left some farmland to the Wayne Hospital Foundation.

The Foundation has agreed to donate funds to the building project, not to exceed $200,000 from the proceeds received on the sale of the Thun land.

The remainder of the money needed for the building addition will come out of the funded depreciation of Providence Medical Center.

Pedersen selected as advisor

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

Randy Pedersen, owner of the Diamond Center of Wayne, will represent the area as a member of Senator David Karnes' "Small Business Advisory Council."

He will fly to Washington and participate as a member of the advisory council during a meeting April 21 with Washington officials.

Listed in his advisory council itinerary will be a meeting with Todd Foley, advisor to President Reagan on Small Business Affairs; and another meeting with Dana Trier, acting tax legislative council.

He will also be meeting with Senator James Abdnor of the Small Business Administration and two other senators besides Senator Karnes.

Karnes said the advisory council was organized to "maximize my effectiveness on the [Small Business] Committee in terms of addressing the needs and concerns of the small business community in Nebraska."

"I'm looking forward to going," said Pedersen. "Anybody who wants to convey small business issues can contact me on or before Tuesday."

Some of the concerns Pedersen said he will address include minimum wage; mandatory health care; maternity benefits or the release of money for rural airports. "And we surely have to do something about the deficit," Pedersen said.

Agreement reached on master contract

By LaVon Anderson
Assistant Editor

Members of the board of directors of Educational Service Unit One and the ESU 1 Education Association have reached agreement on a master contract for the next two years.

Representatives for both sides signed the agreement during a meeting of the board last Tuesday night at ESU 1 headquarters in Wakefield.

THE CONTRACT, as approved by the board and ESU Education Association, sets the 1988-89 base salary, for all certified employees with the exception of nurses, at $15,200 — up from the 1987-88 base salary of $14,700. The base salary for 1989-90 will be $15,700.

For school nurses, the base salary for 1988-89 was set at $12,400, compared to $12,100 this year. The base salary for 1989-90 will be $12,650.

BOARD MEMBERS serving on the negotiating team were John Post of Bloomfield, chairman, Jan Rohan of Newcastle and Leo Kramper of Dakota City. Negotiating for the ESU Education Association were Jean Downhower, Sandy Kuchta and Larry Clay.

Post last Tuesday night thanked Downhower, Kuchta and Clay for their professionalism and cooperation in representing the ESU Education Association in negotiations.

ESU 1 board chairman Ken Lahrs of Ponca echoed Post's sentiments and also complimented the board's negotiating team.

IN OTHER BUSINESS Tuesday night, board members voted unanimously to authorize the administration to reduce the ESU 1 speech program by 2.4 FTE (full-time equivalency) and the psychology program by .80 FTE.

That decision comes following an announcement by South Sioux City Public Schools that, beginning next year, they will employ their own speech clinicians and psychologists.

"The result of that action," ESU 1 Administrator Rodney Garwood told board members, "is that South Sioux City Schools will not contract with ESU 1 for those services during the 1988-89 year."

"The least enjoyable aspect of working for ESU 1," added Garwood, "is knowing that the jobs are dependent on the contracts."

ESU 1 BOARD members Tuesday night also voted to award independent service contracts for audio visual repair, van delivery, and typewriter repair.

Hefner Electronics of Coleridge was awarded the contract for audio visual repair, a service utilized by most schools within the ESU 1 service area.

The van delivery contract was awarded to Don Phipps of Wakefield, with the board approving a mileage rate increase from 60 cents per mile to 63 cents per mile. Administrator Garwood said van delivery mileage ranges from 20,000 to 22,000 miles each year.

Educational Service Unit 8 was awarded the contract for typewriter repair, with schools utilizing the service reimbursing Unit 8 directly.

All three contracts, as unanimously approved by the board, are effective Sept. 1, 1988.

ESU 1 BOARD members Tuesday night also:

—Voted unanimously to award a contract to Northeast Nebraska Builders of Wakefield to repair bricks that are falling down on the South ESU 1 building in Wakefield. The contract was set at $12 per man hour plus materials;

—Gave unanimous approval for ESU 1 to purchase three air conditioners, plus wiring, for use in the Bryan School in South Sioux City.

ESU 1 Special Education Director Duane Tappe explained that the air conditioners are needed because of an increase in youngsters attending Bryan School and the need to expand into other classrooms. South Sioux City Public Schools will provide the manpower to install the air conditioners;

—Authorized the ESU 1 administration to go ahead with the purchase of three major hardware items for the central office — laser printer, McIntosh computer and hard disc drive — as part of the 1988-89 coop purchase order, with the total ESU 1 department supply order not to exceed $15,000;

—Heard a report by Administrator Garwood regarding the central office staff. Garwood said there may be a need to hire temporary help during coop purchase time and also to assist in completing the ESU 1 media catalog. Special Education Director Tappe said he does not predict any major changes in special ed staffing for the coming year, although there may be some shifting in positions;

—Voted unanimously to accept the resignation of Susan Urbanec, resource teacher for Wayne County School District 5; —Voted unanimously on a recommendation by Administrator Garwood to issue certified personnel contracts to school nurses, speech clinicians, pre-K teachers, resource teachers, TMH teachers, S & P teachers, psychologists and the audiologist.

News and Notes

Consider safety of used baby equipment

It's spring, and garage sale ads are beginning to dot the classified advertisements. You may be looking for used baby equipment to help stretch your dollars. Maybe the grandparents are looking for a used item to have on hand when the family comes to visit.

Whatever your reason for buying baby equipment, keep the following safety guidelines in mind as you shop.

Buying a second hand crib

Some older crib head and footboard designs may allow an infant's head to become caught in the openings between the corner post and the robe rail (the horizontal piece along the top of the crib) or in other openings in the headboard structure. This may lead to strangulation.

Look for a crib design either without the curved openings or corner posts, or one where the opening is too large for the head to become caught in it. Corner posts should be unscrewed or sawed off flush with the headboard or footboard.

Never use a crib that has missing slats. Be sure that all slats are securely fastened in place and are spaced no more than two and three-eighths inches apart to avoid the neck getting caught. Secure bumper pads around the entire crib and snap or tie in place with at least six straps.

Use a mattress which fits snugly. If you can fit more than two fingers between the edge of mattress and crib side, the mattress is too small. An infant can suffocate if its head or body becomes wedged between the mattress and the crib sides.

Buy a crib with as large a distance as possible between the top of the side rail and the mattress support. This will discourage your baby from trying to climb out. Most crib accidents occur when infants fall while climbing out of their cribs.

Playpen safety

Playpens can be a safe place for a young child to play, but only if they are made and used properly. If the spaces between slats are too wide, a child's head can get caught between them. And, if mesh is more than one-fourth inch by one-fourth inch, a child's fingers or buttons can get caught.

Never leave an infant in a mesh playpen with the dropside down. Infants can suffocate if they roll into the pocket formed by the loose mesh. Check to be sure the covering material has no holes or tears on which a teething child can choke.

Consider safety with hook-on chairs for toddlers

Hook-on chairs are used as substitutes for high chairs and are attached to the edge of a table. The U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission has reports of children either falling out of these chairs, dislodging the chair from the table, or pushing off from table.

To prevent accidents, avoid placing the chair where the child's feet can reach table supports to be used to push off from and dislodge the chair from the table.

Restraining straps should be easy to use and fastened around the child when the child is in the chair. Avoid leaving the child unattended. A chair with a clamp to lock it onto the table offers additional safety.

April Klick and Klatter meeting in Liska home

The April meeting of Klick and Klatter Home Extension Club was held last Tuesday in the home of Stella Liska. Thirteen members and a guest, Judy Mendel, opened the meeting with the flag salute and collected.

Marvel Corbit led in the singing of "April Showers," accompanied at the organ by Marian Jordan.

PRESIDENT LARSON conducted the business meeting. Thank yous were acknowledged from Joe and Marvel Corbit.

Barbara Sievers gave a report on the American flag and how it should be displayed. Stella Liska told about the Aloe Vera plant and its usefulness.

Loreene Gildersleeve read an article on stress and possible ways to avoid it, and Angela Denesia read "Dealing With People." Marian Jordan, cultural arts leader, encouraged members to enjoy the outdoor scenery this time of year.

FINAL PLANS were made for a June 13 tour.

President Larson reported on the county council meeting. The extension spring event will be combined with Homemakers Day on April 25 at the auditorium. Klick and Klatter Club is in charge of snacks, with Angela Denesia volunteering to supply the items.

Chairmen are still needed for the county fair, and helpers for the state extension convention at Norfolk on June 8-10.

RUTH FLEER presented the lesson, "Time to Be a Better Me," and Viola Meyer received the hostess gift.

Next meeting will be May 10 at 2 p.m. with Lee Moller as hostess. Members are reminded to bring a plant or bulb for exchange.

FLETCHER EMPLOYEE STEVE LUTT is pictured by one of the most used pieces of equipment during the summer months, the hi-boy sprayer. Lutt is one of several college students Fletcher hires during the summer. It is not uncommon for a Fletcher employee to work an 80 hour week during these months.

ED FLETCHER AND ROGER FUSS are pictured next to the newly installed computerized scale for bulk farm chemicals. The new system is a time saver and is very accurate according to Gene Fletcher. It is also much safer than filling by hand because you don't have as much risk of spilling the chemical because it is monitored by the computer. Fletcher has also recently installed a Data-Line in his office. The Data-Line offers a complete monitor of the markets at all times. It also gives up to the minute weather forecasts.

Asay qualifies for Nationals

College tracksters place

The Wayne State men's and women's track teams were the host of a 12-team invitational held Tuesday. The women's team placed third with 70½ points. Northwestern of Iowa captured the team crown by scoring 107 points, which outdistanced second place Kearney State with 100.

Rounding out the team placings after Wayne State were: Augustana, fourth with 59 points; University of South Dakota, fifth with 56 points; Tarkio of Missouri, sixth with 51 points; Hastings, seventh with 43 points; Dordt of Iowa, eighth with 23½ points; South Dakota State University, 10th with 17 points; Dakota Wesleyan University, 11th with eight points and rounding out the field was Morningside, with two points.

The women's only individual gold medal winner was Diana Asay in the shot put with her heave of 43'3½". Basketball standout Linda Schnitzler was responsible for 22 of the points for her Wildcat team by placing second in the Long Jump and the 100-meter hurdles and placing third in the triple jump.

Schnitzler's long jump of 18'6¾", and 15.8 time in the hurdles were good enough for seconds, while her triple jump of 34'8" captured six third place points.

Tammi Miller also grabbed some second place points as she ran to a 12.5 clocking in the 100-meter dash.

The Lady Wildcats' 4x100 meter relay team finished third with a time of 51.3, while Shelle Lau's 104'6" toss of the javelin was also good enough for third place.

Wayne State had two individual fourth place finishes in Amy Watter's 1:10.5 clocking in the 400-meter hurdles and Michelle Blomberg's 4:59.2 time in the 1500 meter run.

The medley relay team finished fifth with a time of 1:56.9, while Kim Sellin placed fifth in the triple jump with her leap of 32'11¾".

Kathy Meyer and Watter also had fifth place finishes as Meyer high jumped 4'10" and Watter long jumped 16'7½".

Meanwhile, Miller and Meyer also recorded sixth place individual finishes in the long jump and triple jump respectively with leaps of 16'6½", and 30'10¾".

Kerianne Kluge also placed sixth in the javelin with a toss of 86'5" to bring the Wayne State total to 70½ points.

Vollmer wins triple jump Mark Vollmer highlighted the men's squad performances in the invite with his triple jump leap of 47'11" for first place. Vollmer scored 14 of Wayne State's 31 points with his fourth place finish in the long jump also, with a leap of 217¾".

Morningside captured first place team honors with 126 total points. Kearney State finished second with 112 points followed by Tarkio with 73.

Rounding out the 10-team field were: Northwestern, fourth with 66 points; Hastings, fifth with 64 points; Augustana, sixth with 48 points; South Dakota State University, seventh with 35 points; Wayne State, eighth with 31 points; Dakota Wesleyan University, ninth with 16 points, and Dana, 10th with eight points.

Jerry Stuhr was Wayne State's next highest finisher with a third place finish in the 3000 meter steeple chase with a time of 10:55.0.

Fourth place finishes were earned by Jim Chvala in the 5000 meter run with a time of 16:19.4, and a fourth place finish in the 1500 meter run with a time of 4:07.0. Lanny Fernau placed fifth for the Wildcats in the pole vault with a 12'0" vault.

The Wildcats will be in action this Saturday at Dordt College in Sioux Center, Iowa. Incidentally, Diana Asay became the second Wayne State female trackster to qualify for the national meet with her shot put of 43'3½". Linda Schnitzler had qualified a week earlier in the long jump.

Allen wins meet with strong finish

Allen girls track head coach Gary Troth found himself in a surprising situation last Saturday as his squad participated in the 5-team invitational at Homer.

With four events left in the meet, Allen had 22 points and was in the lower portion of the team scores. However, Troth then witnessed a remarkable performance in the 400 meter relay, 1600 meter relay, the open 200 and the open 400 meter dashes.

When all was said and done, the Lady Eagles scored 34 points in the final events to win the meet by a single point over the host team Homer 56-55.

Winside finished third with 51 points and Ponca and Newcastle rounded out the field of five with 43 and 30 points respectively. Allen finished the meet with four first place finishes, four second place finishes, three third place finishes and two fourth place finishes to account for their point total.

Pam Kennelly went home with three gold medals, including an individual first place finish in the 400-meter dash with a time of 62.4 seconds. Her other firsts came in the 400-meter relay and the 1600 meter relay.

Others that helped in the 400-meter relay included Jenny Leigh, Missy Martinson and Candace Jones. The foursome combined for a time of 53.9 seconds.

Stephanie Carlson, Shawnee Hancock, Jones and Kennelly teamed up for a 4:27.0 clocking in the 1600-meter relay to capture that event.

Martinson captured the fourth individual gold for her team in the long jump with her leap of 15'4", giving her two gold medals for the day.

Candace Jones was the only other Eagle to win two golds as she was a part of both winning relay teams.

Those capturing second place medals included Jones in the 200-meter dash with a time of 28.0 seconds; Heidi Lund in the open 800 meters with a time of 2:44.0; Carlson in the 300 intermediate hurdles with a time of 53.3, and Martinson in the 100-meter dash with a time of 13.5.

Tabitha Moore grabbed a third place finish in the shot put with a put of 30'6", while Kennelly placed third in the 200-meter dash with her 28.7 effort.

Moore rebounded from the shot put to grab fourth place in the discus with a toss of 89'½". Bonnie Greenleaf placed fourth in the 3200 meter run while teammate Anita Noe placed fifth in the same event. The 3200 meter relay team captured third place with its time of 11:53.0. Team members include Karrie Smith, Chantel Hancock, Greenleaf and Lund.

"This was a pleasant surprise for me to see the way the girls battled back to win," Troth said. "I really wasn't sure we would be in contention to challenge for the win."

Boys finish fourth The Allen boys track team finished fourth out of the five team field. Homer finished first with Ponca and Winside following. Newcastle finished behind Allen.

Wildcats split with improving UNO

By Kevin Peterson

Sports Editor

Traveling to the softball capital of the world, the Wayne State softball team coached by Marilyn Strate came away with a split against the University of Nebraska at Omaha, (UNO), on Wednesday.

Playing UNO the day after playing Kearney State is a very tall order, but the Wildcats responded to the challenge by winning a total of three of the four games.

In the Wildcats initial game with UNO, they were defeated 2-1 with Ronda Peck taking the loss from the mound. Peck scattered 11 hits but only allowed two runs. Meanwhile, Wayne State's potent bats were shut down to only five hits.

Strate saw her squad's only run come in the third inning when Lisa Jacobsen scored on an error by the outfield of UNO. Jacobsen reached base by way of a single and advanced to second on a single by Ann Bauer.

Kris Pestel, Natalie Highman and Peck were the only other Wildcats to get a hit. Peck, trying to aid her own cause from the pitcher's mound slapped a double in the seventh inning, but was unable to score.

"I was very unhappy about losing the first game," Strate said. "We had opportunities to advance runners via the ball and we misexecuted five bunts in the contest."

Wildcats earn the split

Strate made some necessary adjustments after the first game and in the nightcap there was a different side of the Wildcats being witnessed by the UNO partisan crowd.

Wayne State rapped out 10 hits in the second game and defeated the host 7-4. Cyndi Kafrick was on the mound for Strate and allotted six hits to UNO, three of which came in UNO's explosive 3-run first inning.

Wayne State was not to be denied. In the past few games the Wildcats have become the masters of the two-out rally wizardry. Against UNO the sixth inning proved to be the hosts achilles heel.

Wayne State with two out, scored five runs to take a lead they would never relinquish. Peck started the rally with a double. After Shell Schumann's walk Jacobsen singled scoring Gilfillan who had reentered for Peck.

Then Highman walked to load the bases for Kris Pestel. Her response was nothing short of spectacular as she drilled a 3-run double to boost the Wildcats past the Mavericks.

Pestel finished the contest with four rbi's. "We are very pleased to have won three out of four from two very good teams," Strate said. "We realize though that we have to keep improving every game with conference and districts right around the corner."

Golfers firing very low numbers

The Wayne-Carroll golf team hosted a dual with Hartington Cedar Catholic Thursday afternoon and the Blue Devils enjoyed the home course as they fired a team score of 153 to Hartington Cedar's 174.

"Anytime you score below a 160 you have done an excellent job," head coach Terry Munson said. "In fact this is one of the lowest 9-hole scores I have seen for quite a while."

Junior Elliot Salmon kept his torrid pace up as he fired a one-under-par 35 to take medalist honors. Salmon has led the Blue Devils in his last two efforts.

Munson has to be all smiles as he looks at all five of his varsity golfers and sees no seniors. "All five varsity members are juniors," Munson said.

"The kids work extremely hard in practice and they seem to improve each time out."

Eric Runestad seemed to be Salmon's only challenge as he carded a 37 to place second, while teammate Kevin Hausmann fired a 40 to place third.

Wayne's pre-season picks to lead the team, Robb and Jed Reeg, tied with Hartington Cedar Catholic's Tim Kuchta for fourth with a 41.

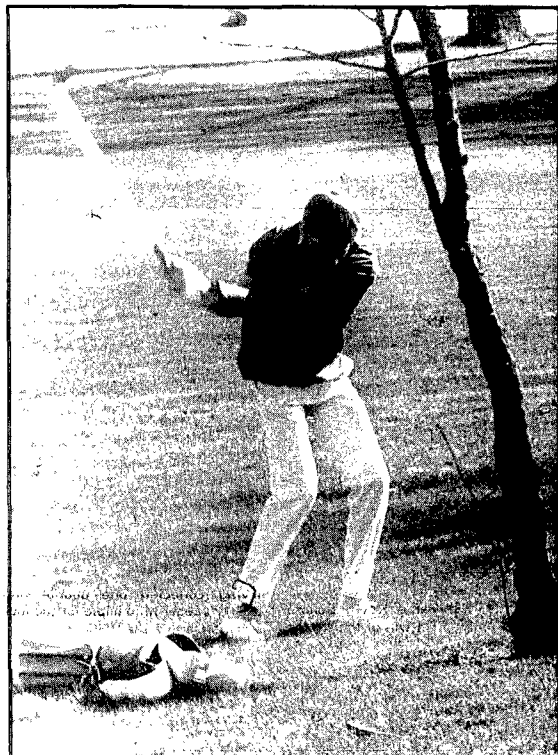

"It really shows your team balance when your top two expected golfers finish fourth," Munson exclaimed. "Both Jed and Robb know they can shoot better than they did against Hartington Cedar."

Incidentally, Cedar's John and Pat Neuhalfen fired a 44 each to place seventh and eighth. In the junior varsity match Wayne breezed to a 26-stroke victory over the visitors, 185-211.

Medalist was Wayne's Chad Jones and Greg Schmidt as they fired a 44. Larry Hintz placed third with a 48 while Mike Nicholson placed fourth with his 49. Cedar's Kurt Heimes placed fifth with his 50, while Wayne's Jesse Brodersen came in with a 53.

Munson believes that his varsity squad would be content firing a 153 team score every meet win or lose. "That's a very low score," Munson said. "To beat that you'd have to be playing very well."

Munson will lead his Blue Devils in to a home dual Tuesday against class A Norfolk.

KEVIN HAUSMANN shows his form as he aids the Wayne golfers to a 21-stroke victory over visiting Hartington Cedar Catholic Thursday afternoon.

LET'S ALL SUPPORT AN INDUSTRY THAT HARVESTS $8 BILLION ANNUALLY.

Enthusiasm for agriculture is growing again in Nebraska. After all, the success of our state's economy is strongly tied to the strength of our ag industry. Almost one-third of our economic activity is related to the production of ag commodities or ag services.

Nebraska has always been a leading crop production state and now ranks among the top five in cash receipts for ag commodities nationally—third in corn production, third in sorghum, ninth in wheat, eighth in soybeans, and fifth in rye and beans.

Recently, Nebraska produced a record 954 million bushels of corn (11 percent of the U.S. total) with total cash crop marketing of $3.3 billion and $4.6 billion in livestock marketing. In fact, cattle and calf production in Nebraska amounts to 12 percent of the U.S. total, placing Nebraska second only to Texas.

So, if you think Nebraska ranks nationally only in football, maybe it's time to remember why we're called the Cornhuskers.

LET'S GET INTO A POSITIVE STATE.

Wayne thinclads capture triangular

By Kevin Peterson
Sports Editor

Both the Wayne-Carroll boys and girls track teams hosted a triangular with Norfolk Catholic and Wakefield Thursday afternoon. The meet was won by the host school in both instances.

In the girls division the Blue Devils edged Wakefield by 1 1/2 points, 64-62 1/2. Norfolk Catholic came in third with 26 1/2 points.

The 15-event meet had Wayne stretching it out until the open 800 meter run came up. Wakefield's Lauri Plendl, Kathy Larson and Julie Greve placed first-second-third respectively, while Wayne's Holly Paige placed fourth.

The times ranged from Plendl's 2:36.94 to Paige's 2:39.89. Wakefield's Theresa Stelling decided not to run the open 3200 meter run, an event in which she already owns the state's best time of the year.

Instead she participated in the open 400-meter dash and concentrated on the 1600 meter run. Stelling came into the meet with one of the state's top performances in the open 1600, but when she was through in Wayne, she put her name on top of the 1600 as well as the 3200. Stelling put in a time of 5:11.72 to capture the event.

Her closest competitor was Wayne's Teresa Ellis who finished with a time of 5:57.57, which incidently, is the first time she has broken six minutes this year.

Rachel Haese and Tara Erxleben picked up some extra points for the Blue Devils by finishing third and fourth respectively.

Wayne's best finish came in the 100-meter dash where they had Kristy Hanson, Dana Nelson and Deanna Schluns finish first-second-fourth. Hanson beat Nelson by .48 of a second, 13.68 to 14.16 seconds.

Wakefield's Karen Witt was sandwiched in between placing third with her time of 14.18.

Wayne's other first place finishes came in the high jump where Tonya Erxleben leaped 4'8" to out distance Witt of Wakefield who placed fourth with a 4'4" effort.

Heidi Reeg may have come up with the biggest win of the afternoon beating Wakefield's Kodi Nelson in the shot put with a toss of 32'7" compared to Nelson's 32'5". Kelli Davis placed fourth in the shot put for Wayne with her toss of 28'9".

Edith Janke meanwhile, placed first in the 3200-meter run with her time of 15:20.2. She outdistanced Wakefield's Deanna Mulhair who finished second with a time of 16:14.0.

3200 meter relay team hits ratings
Relay teams which captured first place honors included the 4x100 meter relay team of Kristy Hanson, Deanna Schluns, Dana Nelson and Amy Wriedt. The foursome ran to a 54.52 time to defeat Wakefield by .77 of a second.

The story was with the 4x800 meter relay team which jumped to the number six fastest time in class B with their effort of 10:50.3. The foursome of Sarah Peterson, Karmyn Koenig, Holly Paige and Teresa Ellis easily outdistanced Norfolk Catholic by 30 seconds.

Karen Hallstrom captured the long jump for the Trojans of Wakefield with a 1/2" better jump than Wayne's Dana Nelson. Hallstrom leaped 14'3/4" while Nelson went 14'1/4". Amy Wriedt placed third in the event with a 13'5/4" effort.

Kodi Nelson tossed the disc 112'1/2" for a first place finish while Wayne's Kelli Davis placed third with a toss of 76'8/2". Jenny Neal meanwhile, placed third in the 100 meter hurdles with a time of 20:13. Neal outdistanced fourth place Julie Wessel of Wayne who traveled the distance in 20:32 seconds.

Other Wakefield Lady Trojan first place finishes came in the 4x400 meter relay, in which they ran to a time of 4:29, outdistancing second place Wayne by two seconds.

Hallstrom won the open 200 meter dash in a time of 28.49 seconds. Wayne finished second-third-fourth in the event via Hansen, Wriedt and Nelson.

Stelling added to her total number of medals in the open 400 meters as she captured the event with a time of 1:04.02, defeating Wayne's Koenig by nearly two seconds at 1:05.96.

Boys team runs away with title
The boys team virtually ran away with the team title defeating runner-up Norfolk Catholic 85 1/2 to 41 points. Wakefield was right behind with 40 1/2 points.

Wayne captured nine individual first place finishes out of a possible 16 events. Greg DeNaeyer led the way with three first place finishes including the open 400 meters, the 4x400 meter relay and the 4x800 meter relay. DeNaeyer's 53.59 time in the 400 was good enough to beat teammate Craig Dyer by .47 of a second. Dyer finished with a time of 54.06.

Wakefield's Mike Nelson finished third with a time of 55.22 while Willy Gross finished fourth in a time of 55.66 seconds.

The other members making up the 4x400 meter relay team which ran to a 3:45 clocking were Casey Dyer, Craig Dyer and Willy Gross. Other members of the 4x800 meter relay team which also included DeNaeyer were Craig Dyer, Nick Engelson and Willy Gross.

Wayne defeated Norfolk Catholic in the 4x800 meter relay and the 4x400. Wayne made it a clean sweep in the relays as the foursome of Jess Zeiss, Chad Davis, Kelly Msrny and Cory Stutheit defeated Wakefield with a time of 46.8 to Wakefield's 48.1.

Zeiss captured his second gold of the day by winning the long jump with a leap of 18'7". Zeiss defeated teammate Davis as he jumped 18'. Placing third in the long jump was Wayne's Stutheit with a 17'11" jump.

Davis on the other hand captured his second gold of the day in the open 200 meter dash with a time of 24.32 seconds. Wayne also fared well in that event as Msrny and Zeiss placed second and third respectively with times of 24.83 and 24.91. Todd Kratke of Wakefield placed fourth in a time of 25.25.

Seth Anderson also collected two first place finishes with a 43.41 time in the 300 intermediate hurdles and a 16.56 time in the 100 meter hurdles. Tony Krusemark of Wakefield placed second in the 100 meter hurdles with a time of 17.30. Matt Peterson finished third with a time of 20.07.

Krusemark also finished second in the 300 hurdles with his time of 45.76, while Wayne's Casey Dyer finished third at 46.02.

Nick Engelson collected his second gold of the day as he capped the high jump with a 6'0" leap. Among the Wakefield contingency for first place finishes were Mike Tuller's win in the triple jump with a leap of 37'2/4". Stutheit of Wayne finished second with a 36'7" jump.

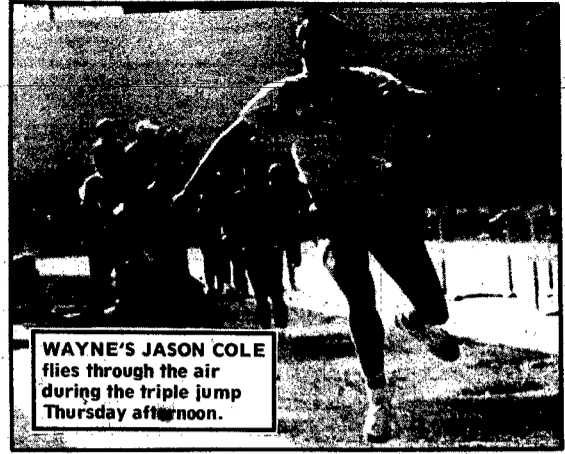

Ken Addink picked up first place points in the 3200 with his effort of 11:08.21. Wayne's Shane Geiger got second with his time of 11:35.17 while Trojan Keith Wenstrand placed third with a 12:00.68 time.

Matt Tappe captured the mile for Wakefield with his 5:10.27 time. Geiger placed second with a 5:26.49 time while Wayne teammate Eric Rasmussen finished third at 5:30.98.

In the open 800 meter run Wakefield's Mark Johnson ran to a second place time of 2:13.84, while Engelson placed third at 2:19.34. William Miller and John Wriedt finished second and third respectively in the discus with tosses of 131'1/2" and 126'8", while Wayne's Eric Liska placed fourth with a toss of 117'4 1/2".

Wayne's Zeiss, Davis and Msrny finished second-third-fourth in the open 100 meter dash giving Wayne a six point boost to their total.

Wayne's Liska also finished third in the shot put with a heave of 37'6 1/2".

WSC sluggers rap Peru State twice

The Wayne State baseball team upped its season record to 17-11 Thursday as they swept a twin bill from visiting Peru State, 6-3, 12-2.

In the first game Kevin Boham picked up his fifth win of the season from the mound against two losses. Boham scattered eight hits and gave up three runs, but his teammates came through on the offensive end and scored three runs in the final two innings.

Randy Yarke rapped out two doubles for the Wildcats while Dale Irving collected one double and Destry Jaeger hit a triple for the four extra base hits the Wildcats recorded.

In the nightcap, Wayne State disposed of the Bobcats in five innings as pitcher Jeff Pasold picked up his third win of the season against one loss.

Pasold scattered six hits while allowing two runs. Pat Salerno found the Bobcat pitching a little suspect as he tamed the visitors with a home run and a triple in his first two at bats in the nightcap.

Allen FFA chapter earns state awards

Members of the Future Farmers of America (FFA) chapter at Allen High School brought home several awards and honors during a state contest and leadership event held April 6-9 in Lincoln.

Receiving State FFA Degrees were Allen seniors Elizabeth Hansen and Angela Jones.

Jones, along with sophomores Rusty Dickens and Todd Hohenstein, also comprised a dairy judging team which placed first and will represent Nebraska at the national contest in Kansas City, Mo. in November. Hohenstein was the first place individual in dairy judging.

ALLEN FFA advisor Tom Wilmes said the State FFA Degree is a process which Hansen and Jones began four years ago as freshmen. Only 150 degrees are awarded in the state each year.

The award is based on achievements, leadership and SOEP (Supervised Occupational Experience Program).

Hansen's SOEP project involved agri-business experience at the Milton G. Watsbaum Co. in Wakefield. Jones' SOEP project was in the dairy field.

In addition to receiving the State FFA Degree, Hansen also was among 39 candidates for nine state FFA offices. She also was among six FFA members in the state to be named Star Agribusinessman, representing the Northeast Area.

Hansen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noel Bennett of Waterbury and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hansen of Sioux City.

Jones, in addition to receiving the State FFA Degree, also was awarded a silver plaque for proficiency in dairy production. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones.

DEGREES WERE presented in a ceremony at Pershing Auditorium during which Governor Kay Orr addressed the nearly 2,000 FFA members in attendance.

Lanny Boswell and Jason Oleson were official delegates representing Allen in the business sessions of the convention.

The welding team of Greg Stapleton and Ben Jackson placed 16th out of 56 teams. Individually, Stapleton was ninth place oxy-acetylene welder and Jackson was 27th out of 56 arc welders.

THE ALLEN chapter also was recognized as a Superior Chapter for the seventh straight year.

The chapter also received a superior rating in chapter safety, and area recognition for its BOAC (Building Our American Communities) project involving erection of a community activities sign.

Allen chapter member Ryan Creamer was presented a certificate for Achievement in Volunteerism for his part in the BOAC project.

The Allen chapter was presented the Triple Crown Leadership Award for completing projects in BOAC, safety and national chapter rating.

SOIL STEWARDSHIP WEEK

Soil and Water Stewardship Week will be held April 24 through May 1. The theme this year is "Stewardship is our Future". It reminds us that each generation is obligated to take inventory of its heritage and learn the capabilities of the land, water, air, and forests. With this awareness, we develop ideas of determining how our resources can be best used to served the needs of many generations.

CONSIDER OUR FUTURE

National Association on Conservation Districts

God's children were given virgin earth, In glorious splendor at its moment of birth. Given to us to cultivate and treasure, In His judgment of our true measure. He trusted His people to guard and protect, To watch over His gift without neglect. To be guardians of the land and sea And pass the torch through history, Yet guard the world spirit of peace. And quiet whispers become the hopeful roar. That the land will repair, flourish and bloom And save itself from an untimely doom. Modern people understand conservation, Educating and guiding to help every nation. To repair the damage before it's too late And this land is condemned to an untidy fate. We must continue to sweat and toil, To grow the tree, reutilize the soil. If life can be handed down to each one, The task must be carried forth and done.

SIouxLAND CONSERVATION AWARDS PRESENTED

At a banquet held March 24th in South Sioux City, Nebraska, local conservationists were honored. Joseph and Arline Chleboun, of rural Stanton, and Lowell and Virginia Burns, of rural Laurel were bestowed with area awards. Dale and Linda Jones, of rural Oakland, were honored with the progress award; and Ken Hake received the wildlife habitat award for his farm in Stanton County.

The awards program, formerly known as the Marc Cox Agriculture Conservation Awards, is sponsored by the Sioux City Chamber of Commerce. Awards are in recognition of a dedicated conservationist in a four state area including Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, and Minnesota.

All are examples of exemplary soil and water conservation and the Lower Elkhorn Natural Resources District is proud to acknowledge their accomplishments.

LENRD WATER QUALITY PROGRAM

Our Water Quality Program has been operational since 1986. Although just initiated, data indicates we will need to expand this program as there are probably more problem areas than first realized. The goal is to test 85 irrigation wells, which are selected throughout the District, with the wells being tested on a rotating basis every 3-5 years. The criteria for selecting a test well is based on the type of soil, water bearing formation, and geographic dispersment. The District did not necessarily select known problem areas, but rather wanted to test areas with similar soil, water, and geographic traits throughout the whole District. With this testing, the District will document the general water quality of our local groundwater aquifers, and determine trends of contamination before they become critical.

In testing an irrigation well, the District looks for a number of chemicals, pesticides, and nitrates. The District utilizes the Volatile Organic Chemical Screen and the Pesticide Extractable Screen which are commonly used by cities in Nebraska for testing municipal wells.

The observation well is operated 4-6 hours before testing, which allows the aquifer (or storage source) to be sampled and tested. This is in contrast to domestic and municipal well testing where the well is operated 3-5 minutes and reflects the immediate supply. Our data will show if there is contamination of the major supply of groundwater (the aquifer). Problem areas can then be defined, and programs established for the protection of our groundwater.

ELDEN WESELY ELECTED PRESIDENT OF NARD

Elden Wesely, of rural Oakland, was elected to serve as President of the Nebraska Association of Resources Districts (NARD) for 1988. His term began in March and will run for one year.

Elden is a Director of the Lower Elkhorn NRD, representing Subdistrict 9. He has been with the Lower Elkhorn NRD Board since 1982, and has been a representative to the Nebraska Association of Resources Districts Board of Directors, which is the policy setting body of the association, since 1984. He has also served as Vice-President of the NARD.

Of special interest to Elden is increasing the cost-share dollars available for construction of conservation practices. Since the enactment of conservation compliance the demand for cost-share dollars has more than doubled, and Elden feels this is of top priority for NRDs. Elden also sees the groundwater quality issue across the State becoming increasingly important. Water quality is an area which affects all residents. There is, at this time, only limited research and data regarding groundwater quality, and the NRDs will find themselves more and more involved.

The NARD was created in 1972, the same year the 24 natural resources districts were formed along the drainage areas of Nebraska river basins. It is a nonprofit corporation, organized and operating under the laws of the State of Nebraska for the purpose of assisting NRDs.

The association sponsors educational activities, as well as providing services and materials to member districts to aid them in carrying out their responsibilities. The NARD is also active in lobbying with the legislature regarding political issues concerning natural resources.

LENRD OFFERS 4-H SCHOLARSHIPS

Once again, the Lower Elkhorn NRD will be offering scholarships to 4-H youth wanting to attend the Nebraska 4-H Conference and the Natural Resources Leadership and Environment Camp. The scholarships will cover approximately half of the camp registration.

Any 4-H youth living within the Lower Elkhorn NRD is eligible to apply for a scholarship. You may pick up an application at your County Extension Office, or by contacting the LENRD at 371-7313. Applications must be in the NRD Office no later than May 1st. Scholarship recipients will be notified by May 11th.

FARMING MYTHS

With all the crop production data generated in recent years, one would come to the conclusion that the lower times a farmer covers his field with the tractor the better off his soil will be. It seems, however, that many farming practices have remained strong, possibly because of tradition rather than practicality. Quite often the great grandfather's way of farming is considered the best, only because the son the way he did it. Studies through many universities have proved that there are better ways!

Many farmers think conservation tillage will reduce their soybean yield; and yet studies on test plots throughout Nebraska show there to be no significant ill effect. It is also thought that cultivation can boost yield $ 10 bushels per acre. However, those claims don't necessarily hold true for Nebraska. According to Bryn Dolosh, NUS extension technologist in agronomy, cultivating can cause a loss of 1/2 inch to 3/4 inch of soil moisture. Some think you must cultivate in order to aerate the soil, but even this is a misconception since aeration is not a big item for Nebraska.

Further misconceptions about farming practices are that no-till and conservation tillage provide less water runoff; and that they require more herbicides than conventional tillage. Studies have shown there's no need to increase the application rate of herbicide on no-till.

Similarly, studies have shown that there is no significant difference in the amount of water runoff between no-till and conventional tillage. In addition, no-till reduces the sediment concentration in runoff. Therefore, less residue is left, and surface water quality is improved.

Great grandpa had some good ideas, nevertheless he was always innovating those ideas. There are times when his way is still the best way, but we must also accept improvement. Today, the technology of modern agriculture allows us to realize a bountiful harvest, and yet, protect our natural resources at the same time.

Ed's MERCHANDISE DON'T MAKE THIS A FAMILIAR SIGHT IN YOUR COMMUNITY GOING OUT OF BUSINESS! Sale! Sale!

Don't make this a familiar sight! Most stores close because local people did too much shopping out of town. In fact, there are many cases where most of the retail businesses in a community have closed. If that were to happen here, who would be left to pay this community's taxes. The empty store fronts wouldn't be able to pay their share. Who would be contributing work and money toward local groups and projects that we all are interested in? Keeping our home community healthy is everyone's responsibility and the results benefit us all.
