Sanctions

The Wayne State College student standards committee delivered sanctions against seven male students Friday afternoon, according to Curt Frye, associate dean of students at Wayne State College.

The action followed an altercation involving the men on April 16.

Six students were placed on probation and one student was suspended, Frye said. Probation penalties range from community service to mandatory counseling.

"Each student was dealt with individually with consideration given to his level of participation," Frye said. "They may appeal their sanctions within three school days to the president."

The student standards committee is comprised of eight faculty members and two students. Names of the students receiving the sanction were not released by Wayne State officials because of the student privacy act.

Choir note

The Wayne State College Concert Choir will be making its final two appearances this weekend prior to their May 18 departure for Austria and Hungary.

On Sunday (May 8) the choir will sing as part of the 11 a.m. service at Redeemer Lutheran Church in Wayne. That afternoon, at 4 p.m., they will present their full European program at the Opera House at David City.

Petition

A petition is being circulated throughout the state to give residents of Nebraska the right to vote yes or no on the November ballot if they want Nebraska to remain in the Central Five-State Compact Commission and build a nuclear waste facility in the state.

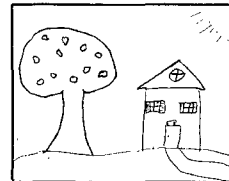

Persons who would like to help distribute petitions or would like to sign the petition are asked to contact one of the following Wayne County residents:

Wayne — Mrs. Marvin (Bonnie) Nelson, 375-3057; Kurt Daum, 375-5263; Mrs. Robert (Mary) Woehler, 375-3239; or Mrs. Leslie (Pearl) Youngmeyer, 375-3814, not Mrs. James Youngmeyer as previously reported in Monday's edition of The Wayne Herald.

Winside — Mrs. Allan (LaVon) Schrant, 286-4287; Mrs. Carl (Joan) Berg, 286-4489.

Hoskins — Otto Haffke, 565-4598; or Charles Maas, 565-4598.

Pilger — Mrs. Harris Heinemann, 396-3247.

Conservation help available

On-farm assistance with conservation tillage practices will continue to be available this season to Wayne and Thurston County farmers within a target area of the Agricultural Energy Conservation Project.

Two tillage specialists from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln will be working with Rod Patent, cooperative extension agent in Wayne County, to provide information and assistance on conservation tillage practices.

Bryn Dolesh, extension technologist, and Paul Jasa, extension engineer, will work with producers through individual consultations, coffee shop meetings, tours and field demonstrations.

They also will be available by phone to answer questions or schedule farm visits. Dolesh and

THE WAYNE Community Theatre's production of "The Mousetrap," scheduled for this weekend, has regrettably been cancelled due to unpredictable circumstances involving two of the cast members. However, the cast members still deserve a

Herald achieves newspaper awards

Five state newspaper awards were presented Friday evening in Lincoln to The Wayne Herald staff members during the annual convention of the Nebraska Newspaper Association. The awards were presented to the Herald in the areas of photography, feature writing and use of color in news.

Sweepstakes winners in the annual Better Newspaper Contest were the weekly Gothenburg Times and the daily North Platte Telegraph. By finishing first among all Nebraska weeklies in total points, the Gothenburg Times gains a year's possession of the Mark E. Cramer Award.

The Mark E. Cramer Award is a traveling trophy presented by J. Alan Cramer of Wayne, former owner-publisher of The Wayne Herald, who named the award in honor of his father, Mark E. Cramer, who was 30 years old when he died in an airplane crash.

Stipp announces she will resign

By Chuck Hackenmiller

Wayne County Assessor Doris Stipp of Wayne submitted her resignation Tuesday (May 3) to the Wayne County Board of Commissioners.

The commissioners received Stipp's resignation during their regular meeting Tuesday at the Wayne County Courthouse.

Stipp, who has held the position of county assessor since April of 1973, announced that her resignation will become effective on July 1, 1988.

Stipp became involved in county government duties 25 years ago (in 1963) when she worked for county assessor Henry Arp. She gained clerk status before being named deputy in the county assessor's office in 1966.

"Then the legislature passed a bill that the deputies and the assessors had to be certified by the state, so I passed that test in April of 1970," said Stipp.

Arp resigned from the county assessor post in June, 1973. "I was appointed to fill out the rest of his term," said Stipp. "And I've been the county assessor ever since."

Stipp said she had no intention of retiring when she won her most recent re-election bid (in 1986) as county assessor. "I hadn't planned on retiring then. But I've given it a great deal of thought lately and I feel it's time for me to step down after this many years," she said.

OVER THOSE 15 years as county assessor, state laws have changed office operations. "When I first started, there were only two working here. As the workload increased, we had to hire up to four girls besides myself to handle the operations of the office," said Stipp.

The position has turned into more than just a full-time job and her duties have become more extensive, she said. "Seems like after every legislative session, we've had to add another shelf to our office," said Stipp.

"I decided that I wanted to have

Siren usage questioned

By Chuck Hackenmiller

Members of the Day Care Providers of Wayne have asked the city of Wayne to review the policy on use of the city's fire siren.

The letter, signed by 16 members of the Day Care Providers group, questioned the necessity of the fire siren.

First, the organization asked that the siren testing time, usually conducted Fridays at 1 p.m., be changed.

"As day care providers, we each care for up to eight children and it is required by state law that we provide a nap or quiet time each day. Most of these children nap during the early afternoon hours," said the organization's representatives.

"When the sirens go off, the children wake up and it scares the majority of them. Can you imagine eight screaming children?" the representatives said.

The group is asking that the testing be changed to either morning hours or late afternoon hours. "We understand the necessity of testing the sirens; we just feel that it could be done at a better time of day," said the representatives.

The representatives of the group also asked why it was necessary for the fire siren to blow at all. "It is not used at night, so why must it be used in the day time? We have the same problem with the fire siren as we do with the testing. Since all firemen wear beepers, we question the necessity of the fire siren," the representatives mentioned.

Signing the letter were Bonna Barner, Ardyce Reeg, Margie Meyer, Vicki L. Meyer, Jolie Parker, Debbie Bargholz, Robin Johnson, Melia Hefti, Irene Fletcher, Shelley Frevert, Jill Pickinpaugh, Lynette Carmichael, Lu Hilton, Laura Lindner, Kathy Berry and Betty Reams. Copies of the letter were sent to Mayor Wayne Marsh, City Administrator Phil Kloster, Police Chief Vern Falchild, Fire Chief Dale Preston, and The Wayne Herald.

At Willow Bowl

WSC to present diplomas

Two hundred and sixty-four Wayne State College students will receive diplomas at spring commencement exercises Saturday, May 7, 2 p.m. in the Wayne State Willow Bowl.

Dr. Joseph Fleck, interim president of Wayne State, will present 248 bachelor degrees, 13 master's degrees and three education specialist degrees.

The commencement address will be given by Lyn Wallin-Ziegenbein, executive director of the Peter Klewit Foundation. She has been with the Peter Klewit Foundation for five years and received her bachelor's degree in Journalism from the University of Kansas and a law degree from Creighton University.

Virginia Wright, Wayne State registrar, will present the bachelor's degrees and Dr. Kathy Conway, interim dean of graduate studies, will present master's degrees. The Rev. John Mitchell, Presbyterian Church United, will give the invocation and benediction.

Pete Kotsiopolos, Kearney, chairman of the Nebraska State College Board of Trustees, will give the greetings from the board. Kotsiopolos has been a member of the board for five years and is also vice-president and general manager of Liberty Services, Inc., a dry cleaning business.

The Wayne State College Concert Band, under the direction of Dr. Ray Kelton, will provide the music.

Commencement exercises will take place in Rice Auditorium should inclement weather arise.

Get out and vote

Over the past weeks, political candidates have taken jabs at each other. The final round, more commonly referred to as the May 10 primary, is close at hand.

In the race for the U.S. Senate, Republicans are faced with the prospect of selecting two well-qualified candidates in incumbent David Karnes and Congressman Hal Daub — both who have gained key positions through their respective congressional and senate experience.

And an interesting District 17 state senate seat race has also developed between Tore Nelson, Mark Dorsey and incumbent Gerald Conway.

For all practical purposes, the political races should in themselves bring people to the polls in high numbers.

It is important that we, as American citizens, exercise our obligation in selecting the person we would like as our governmental representative.

There is also an amendment to increase the salary of state legislators. And beef producers should not neglect the opportunity to vote on the important issue of the beef check-off.

The Monday (May 9) edition of the Wayne Herald will point out the various races in the national, state and local levels. We will also be printing the precinct locations, so people know where they must cast their vote. And we will strive to provide the complete election results in next Thursday's edition.

We at The Wayne Herald will be busy getting the results out to our readers.

Now all you have to do is go out and do your work. Get out and vote your choice on May 10. You'll feel much better knowing you had at least a say in who should be your elected representative.

Volunteerism

Volunteers who have made that special effort to clean up their cities or villages should be commended in taking the time to show that they have a certain pride in their community's appearance.

The Wayne Clean-up Day, through the efforts of the local Scouting program and assistances of other individuals and businesses, is a demonstration of how communities can beautify surroundings and make the city or village a welcome site to visitors. This endeavor is especially important because this is the year, during Celebrate Nebraska '88, when people are asked to "come home" and be reunited with their Nebraska roots.

Concord is another community, as well as others in the area, who have participated in establishing a spring cleaning.

A compliment on a community's appearance goes a long way in working to continue the tradition. So if you like the way the community looks — tell people so. They deserve the credit.

It's safe?

What a surprise it was to read this past week that U.S. Ecology has ruled out the counties of Sarpy, Douglas and Lancaster as possible sites for their nuclear waste dump because they are near population centers.

If this waste facility is so safe — as they would like us rural residents to believe — why not put it there?

Since our legislatures and the governor are pushing so hard for this dump, why shouldn't they have the enjoyment of it on a daily basis?

Retain check-off

I am a beef producer—not an advertising expert. But it doesn't take an expert to realize that beef producers are in a fierce battle over what meat consumers would rather purchase. We badly need to retain the checkoff May 10.

One dollar per head, paid by all of us who aim to make a living by producing beef, makes that investment painless for everyone. But it provides for a program that obviously is making a difference and one that I'm very pleased with.

Why shouldn't every producer invest in this program? Everyone benefits if there's a market for the beef we produce. The cattle producers in this area pride themselves on being independent. The $1-per-head beef check-off is a way we can control our future so we can preserve our independence—and our occupation. Otherwise, the cattle industry will soon go the way of most others—smaller and smaller production in the hands of fewer and fewer producers. There is little question how well the check-off works. Goodness knows we needed it. Now, producers have to approve the check-off May 10. I've heard a few grumbles about the program. But, I've yet to see anyone suggest a more improved version that will have any greater impact. For these reasons, I encourage everyone to vote "YES" for the future of the beef industry May 10 at county extension offices.

Successful Crusade

Many thanks to everyone who helped make this year's American Cancer Society Residential Crusade a success. The door-to-door crusaders did a particularly good job of educating residents about mammography. The time you donated last Saturday was much appreciated. We're also very grateful to members of the Methodist Church who allowed us to use their fellowship hall as headquarters.

We'd also like to extend our appreciation to the many people in Wayne County who offered their financial support. Your money will be used for research, youth, adult and professional education, rehabilitation and service. Many people in our area and across the nation have been helped because of your generosity.

Due to the one day blitz campaign this year, some households were missed. If you'd like to contribute, please send a donation to the State National Bank in Wayne c/o Jeanie Sturm or contact Kris Giese at 375-4731.

Bad to tease

My family and various friends are spending time with kids who have disabilities. Every other Thursday we go to our church and other churches and spend time with the kids. At first I was afraid of the kids, but now since I know them better I like spending time with them.

At my school kids tease me. I think that is dumb. They are people too. I know they wouldn't like to be teased as much as they tease me. I know they might act strange sometimes, but they can't help it.

At first when I didn't care for them I was afraid they were going to hurt me, but I know now that they won't hurt me or you. They are just having fun. I think we all should get involved with something like this so we're not afraid.

Conserve

Jasa can be reached through the local Extension office or by calling their Lincoln office, 472-6715.

A NUMBER OF area farmers have participated in the Conservation Project during the past four years by using conservation tillage practices and by hosting field demonstrations and tours. Large signs often have been used to identify their demonstration plots.

The Project target areas include part or all of Wayne, Thurston, Burt, Washington, Johnson, Gage and Saline Counties.

Information and assistance on conservation tillage outside the target areas also is available from the Cooperative Extension Service.

NO-TILL PLANTING corn or milo into soybean residue is one of the easiest ways to incorporate a conservation tillage system into a conventional farm operation, according to Elbert Dickey, extension agricultural engineer with the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Dickey said conservation tillage is defined as any tillage and planting method which leaves at least 30 percent of the soil surface covered with residue after planting.

However, because soybean residue is fragile and there is usually less of it, no-till is the only tillage system that will leave more than 30 percent cover in soybean residue.

NO-TILL PLANTING corn or milo into soybeans is a good choice for first time users, Dickey said, because the ground is usually loose and mellow and the fragile residue can be easily handled by the planter.

In addition, farmers often can use their conventional planting equipment with few, if any, modifications. Planters with disk type seed furrow openers can be used without a coupler or row cleaning device, if the residue was uniformly spread behind the combine. The disks themselves cut the fragile residue and penetrate the mellow soil surface. When using a runner type seed furrow opener, a residue-cutting coupler may be beneficial.

IF THE SOYBEAN residue was not well distributed behind the combine, coulters are a good addition for most planters.

Rather than adding coulters, some producers are using their disk type fertilizer opener as a residue-cutting device. They move the opener directly in front of the seed furrow opener to cut the residue and create a slot for the runner or disks to operate in.

If used, starter fertilizer rates must be adjusted to avoid germination problems and seedling damage.

Obviously, previous weed pressures in the soybean field will influence the decision to no-till corn or milo, Dickey said. A relatively clean soybean field makes no-till an easy choice.

ANOTHER ADVANTAGE of no-till planting corn or milo into soybean residue is that the available herbicides are quite economical and in most cases, they are the same herbicides and rates that the farmers are using with their conventional tillage systems.

Opinion

by Pat McLehenny

It's time for another Mother's Day. No one at this house has ever brought this Mom breakfast in bed, and it's a good thing. Of all the awkward places to eat a meal, a bed has to be the worst. Unless you happen to have an over-bed tray like they have in hospitals, and not too many homes have these.

We received the May issue of Focus on the Family lately, and it features an article called "A Good Mom Never Yells" (and other neighborhood myths).

The author, Stephen Bly, lists common assumptions about "good moms."

A good Mom:

- Never bakes biscuits from little cardboard tubes that go "pow!"
- Appears instantly whenever any family member yells "Mom!" (Trouble is I respond to this name in any group.)

- Knows exactly what garment each child wants to wear to school each day and has it washed, mended and hung in the closet.

- Is always home when you call.
- Uses coupons, and saves many dollars on each visit to the store.

- Never raises her voice.

- Attends every T-ball and soccer game dressed fashionably so as not to embarrass her team members.

- Never leaves kids with runny noses in the church nursery.
- Never says no to the P.T.A.
- Keeps a regimented schedule of daily tooth flossing and Bible verse memorization.

I COULD add a few things, as any mother could:

- Always has empty cigar boxes and orange juice cans available for school projects.
- Can produce brownies and banana bread for bake sales with 30 minute notice.
- Has an immaculate home.
- Can spell any word, and give definitions for same.
- Has limitless ideas for science projects and term papers, with a file on each subject.
- Can help produce a purple-ribbon 4-H project.
- Has a station wagon for hauling kids that never get flat tires or runs out of gas.
- Has a secret cache of darling gifts for birthday parties after school that were forgotten by the guest until that day.

MR. BLY believes there is so much pressure on Moms because of some misconceptions.

One of these would be easier to join a roller derby team.

A second, mothering is natural. He admits there is no innate quality in a mother that gives her delight in cleaning vomit off bedspread.

Third, mothering is always fun. This one's a little true, either. Maybe, after the little darlings are all in bed, and she can go there, too. And no one asks for a drink of water.

Last, mothers are repaid for all they do. The Big Farmer's aunt Ella recently had a Chrysler New Yorker delivered to her door as a gift from her son. She waited about 45 years for it. I'm afraid I have a few years to go. And I'm not holding my breath!

Meanwhile, I'll just be getting by cards and flowers. And those of you whose children are too young to buy any goodies will have to be satisfied with plum blossoms, dandelions, and lilacs!

Bill promotes windbreak use, encourages planting of trees

Representative Doug Bereuter introduced a Bill on Thursday that could result in the planting of an additional 10,000 acres of windbreaks in wildlife habitat plantings which would protect 50,000 to 150,000 acres of highly erodible land in the State of Nebraska.

Bereuter's bill directs the Secretary of Agriculture to modify existing and future Conservation Reserve program contracts in order to move closer to the 1985 Farm Bill Goal to have trees planted on 12.5% of all Conservation Reserve programs.

The ASCS has taken the position that to modify contracts and provide cost share payments to farmers for tree planting on acres where grass planting already has been cost shared would be "double dipping." Bereuter's bill directs the ASCS to provide cost share payments only for the difference between the original grass planting payment and the cost of tree planting.

"THE CONSERVATION Reserve Program is a popular conservation alternative for the nation's farmers," Bereuter said, "Including the fifth sign-up, almost 30 million acres have been enrolled in the program. When Congress passed the 1985 Farm Bill, we intended to have trees planted on 12.5% of all Conservation Reserve Acres.

"Unfortunately, in all areas in the country except the north, tree planting has fallen far below anticipated levels. At present, less than five percent of the total enrolled Conservation Reserve Program acres are planted with trees. Recent changes made by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in the promotion of tree planting on Conservation Reserve program land is well-intentioned, but it will have little effect. Several written and unwritten ASCS policies are inhibiting tree planting on these acres in Nebraska and some other Great Plains and Western States.

"While I have written the Secretary of Agriculture encouraging him to pursue a more active policy in the promotion of tree planting on Conservation Reserve program acres, it is clear that Congressional directive is needed in order to achieve this goal," Bereuter said.

"The benefits of allowing additional tree planting on Conservation Reserve program acres are many," he said. "The permanent retirement of highly erodible land could result in a reduction of surplus production and improved commodity prices. We could see a re-establishment of wildlife habitat, lasting reductions in wind and water erosion, and improvements in water quality and aquatic habitat. We could benefit from future timber production and the establishment of alternative agricultural enterprises.

Rotary thanks

The Wayne Rotary Club would like to thank everyone who attended our Pollo Plus Dance and all who helped in any way to make it a success. Special thanks to the following who donated door prizes: State National Bank, KTCH, Wayne Care Centre, Sav Mor Pharmacy, Wayne State College Foundation, Country Nursery, Garden Perennials and Schumacher Funeral Home. Our thanks also to the Windmill, Sportsman Cafe and Dairy Queen for their special help.

Approximately $500.00 will be donated to Pollo Plus to provide protection for youngsters who without your help would not receive it.

Ban smoking

I say "NO" to smoking. I think stores should stop selling cigarettes. We lose millions of people from lungs collapsing. Most of my family and relatives smoke.

I don't want to lose any of them. My family means a lot to me. If you see anyone smoking take and throw the cigarettes away. We should take this to the congress to get a stronger law.

more time for myself," said Stipp.

Stipp served as Nebraska County Assessors Association President in 1982, the same year that she was made an Admiral in The Great Navy of Nebraska by Governor Thone. Also that year, she received a "Recognition of Service" award from the Department of Revenue.

She has served in all of the offices (president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer) within the district county assessor's organization.

For the past eight years, Stipp has served on the State Assessors Real Estate Committee.

"Throughout the years I've had very good help," she said.

MATT PETERSON, age 16, was traveling on a county road one mile east and 1 1/2 miles north of Wayne, when he lost control of his vehicle and rolled into a steep, eroded ditch. The accident, investigated by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, occurred after 10 p.m. Saturday evening. He was taken to Providence Medical Center and treated for bruises and lacerations.

Civil Air Patrol schedules meetings

The Wayne Civil Air Patrol Squadron will meet today (Thursday) at the Wayne County Sheriff's office to view a film on disaster preparedness and to learn how the civil air patrol, county sheriff, state patrol and civil defense agencies work together in times of disaster.

The local squadron also will meet on May 12 to tour the National Weather Service facilities in Norfolk.

Mike Wankum of KTIV Channel 4, who was scheduled to speak in Wayne last month, has been re-scheduled for June 2 at Wayne State College. Wankum, whose visit to Wayne is being sponsored by the Wayne Civil Air Patrol, will show tapes and talk about the tornado which struck northeast Nebraska and northwest Iowa two years ago.

The Wayne Civil Air Patrol and the Norfolk Civil Air Patrol toured the Sioux City Air National Guard Base on April 30.

CONGRESSMAN HAL DAUB (left), campaigning in Wayne on Tuesday, discusses issues with Rod Tompkins at Heritage Homes in Wayne.

Wakefield teacher resigns

Sharon Shaw, second grade teacher at Wakefield Elementary School, recently submitted her resignation to the board of education.

Mrs. Shaw has taught in the Wakefield School System for the past 12 years. Her husband Randy has accepted a position with Southeast Missouri State College at Cape Girardeau, Mo. He is presently at Wayne State College.

Wakefield businesses sprucing up

The Wakefield Community Club is encouraging businesses to spruce up by offering a $100 prize to the business displaying the best improvements.

A spokesman for the Community Club said all business owners, both on and off Main Street, are being encouraged to spend at least $100 on fix-up improvements such as repainting trimwork and other small repair jobs.

In addition to the $100 first-place prize, there also will be a second place prize of $50.

Businesses wishing to take part in the contest are asked to complete the project by May 27 and send a before and after photo, plus a $2 entry fee. Judges will be selected by Mayor Lefly Olson.

Many out-of-town residents are expected to visit the community during the coming months for several events including the Wakefield High School alumni banquet, the centennial celebration of the Wakefield Covenant Church, the State Baseball Tournament, Memorial Day services, Fourth of July activities and Pumpkin Days.

Student awards convocation

Scholarships and special recognition awards were presented to students and staff Wednesday at the 19th annual Student Awards Convocation at Central Community College-Hastings Campus.

Stuart Rethwisch of Wayne received a program scholarship. He is majoring in hotel, motel and restaurant management.

Awards

The award, which is a trophy sculpted by Herb Mignery, represents a woman reading a newspaper withdrawn from the rural mailbox by which she stands.

Award-winning entries submitted by the Wayne Herald included the following:

— Best Feature Photo (2nd place). The Theophilus Church, photographed by Chuck Hackenmiller as it was moved up a hilly gravel road near Winside, received this honor.

— Best Story (2nd place). The Great Allen Weight-Off, a weight loss contest between Allen school staff members, was written by LaVon Anderson in January of 1987.

— Best Feature Series (2nd place). When the historical home tours took place last October, Chuck Hackenmiller and LaVon Anderson contributed features on the three homes. They received a newspaper award for their efforts.

— Best Use of Color with News (3rd place). Samples were submitted from three months designated by contest rules.

Weekly newspapers could compete in 20 categories ranging from general excellence to personal columns, best pictures several sub-categories to best special sections. The Wayne Herald competed in the Class C category (2,500 circulation or up) and finished tied for third place in total points with 32. The Chadron Record was first with 42, followed by West Point with 33 points. Tied with the Herald was the Wahoo Newspaper.

Publishers of The Wayne Herald are Gary and Peggy Wright.

Briefly Speaking

Senior center sponsoring dance

The Wayne Senior Citizens Center will host a free dance on Friday, May 6 from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Wayne city auditorium. Providing musical entertainment will be the Emerson Senior Band, Otto Field and Cyril Hansen, Ray Petersen and Ralph Olson, and Ervin Schmidt. Lunch will be served, and everyone is welcome to attend.

May Fellowship Breakfast Friday

Church Women United of Wayne invite all area churchwomen to attend their annual May Fellowship Breakfast on Friday, May 6 at 9:15 a.m. at the First Baptist Church in Wayne. The program to follow breakfast was written by Margaret Lundstrom of Wayne and is entitled "The Call of Spring." Hymns of praise and scripture are interspersed throughout the program. The six churches which unite to bring about May Fellowship Day are the First Baptist Church, St. Mary's Catholic Church, Redeemer Lutheran Church, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, First United Methodist Church and the Wayne Presbyterian Church.

Leather and Lace dance scheduled

The Leather and Lace Square Dance Club will meet Monday, May 9 at 8 p.m. in the Student Center on the Wayne State College campus. Caller will be Dean Dederman. Harold Bausch was caller for a dance held April 25.

Damme receives twirling awards

Kim Damme, 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Damme of Winside, won three trophies and a medal at the National Baton Twirling Association (NBTA) open baton contest held recently in Springfield, Mo. Kim placed first in the advanced solo and instate solo divisions, and second in two baton twirling and basic strut. She is the featured twirler for Evangel College in Springfield.

Scholastic All-American

Theresa Dowling of Grainton, formerly of Laurel, has been named a Scholastic All-American by the National Secondary Education Council. Scholars must maintain a 3.3 or better grade point average and must be nominated for the award by a secondary school instructor, counselor or other qualified sponsor.

Theresa, who will graduate May 15 from Wallace Public High School, will appear in the Scholastic All-American Scholar Directory which is published nationally.

Theresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dowling of Grainton, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dowling of Martinsburg and Mr. and Mrs. Arden Hangman of Maskell.

She has been accepted in the veterinary technology program at Eastern Wyoming College in Torrington for the 1988-89 school year. She has also been awarded a Board of Trustees Scholarship to Peru State College at Peru, Neb.

Acme Club concludes year

Fourteen members of Acme Club met for a 9:30 a.m. breakfast on May 2 at the Black Knight. It was the group's final meeting of the regular club season.

The business meeting was called to order by President Zita Jenkins and included election of officers.

Bonnadell Koch read a history of the club, and Betty Wittig read a poem for the club's two new members who were each presented a gift. Camilla Liedtke gave each member a pack of petunias for the courtesies extended to her when she underwent surgery. Summer plans were told by each member.

Next meeting of Acme Club will be in September.

Eagles Auxiliary meets

President DeAnn Behlers conducted the May 2 meeting of Wayne Eagles Auxiliary 3757. Attending as a guest was Lurine Foster, wife of State Aerie President Bill Foster.

Members were reminded of the Mother's Day party scheduled May 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the Aerie Home. Mylet Bargholz gave the first reading of the bylaws. The blue team and yellow team each sang their song, and Nelda Hammer served lunch.

Janice Newton and Frances Bak will serve at the May 16 meeting at 8 p.m. Installation of new officers will be held May 26 at 8 p.m.

Home extension clubs Keeping up-to-date in a fast-paced world

By LaVon Anderson
Assistant Editor

From making dress forms and men's neckties to canning tips and repairing and caring for wood floors, home extension lessons in the 1920's and '30's focused on the homemaker — in the home.

Today, home extension club members not only work in the home, but many hold down full-time jobs outside the home.

"It's a different world today," says Mary Temme, quad-county extension agent officed in Wayne. "Home extension clubs have changed an awful lot in recent years to keep up-to-date with what is happening in today's world."

Today, home extension club lessons include tips on reading and understanding clothing labels, cooking for one or two, microwave cooking, couponing, establishing credit, relationships, grandparenting, and using new technology in the home.

"Today," adds Temme, "lessons are geared more toward the working homemaker."

DURING NATIONAL Extension Homemakers Week, May 1-7, extension club members throughout Wayne County invite women to visit an extension club and see what they have to offer.

Laurie Roberts of Carroll and Barb Meyer of Wayne, who both work outside the home in addition to caring for their families, agree that their memberships in home extension clubs have provided them with new friendships in addition to valuable ideas and shortcuts on running a busy household.

"I'm not a native of Wayne," says Barb, who works full-time in the business office at Wayne State College. Her husband Roger is employed at Automatic Equipment Manufacturing Co. in Pender.

Barb said she originally decided to join the Monday Mrs. Home Extension Club as a way to meet individuals. "Since then," she adds, "I feel that club lessons have provided me with a lot of up-to-date information as well as teach me where to go to find additional information."

Laurie AND her husband Terry farm near Carroll. Laurie also is employed at the ASCS office in Wayne and is a member of Star Home Extension Club.

Although she wasn't working outside the home when she first joined clubs are designed to provide education in a social setting as well as develop leadership skills.

On a county level, extension club members are in charge of the open class area at the Wayne County Fair.

Over the years, community service projects have included a heritage fair and a health fair.

Home extension club members presented each year, according to Temme.

"While four lessons each year are prepared exclusively by the university staff, Mary also prepares one lesson and the remainder are selected and developed by individual clubs according to their needs and interests.

Temme stressed that extension clubs also try to utilize local resource people in conjunction with their lessons.

All of the lessons are presented by members of the club. "Members not only develop leadership skills by serving as officers," said Temme, "but they also develop confidence by presenting lessons before the rest of the club membership."

"It's definitely helped me in learning how to better deal with the public," adds Barb.

WHILE HOME EXTENSION club membership in Wayne County numbers approximately 130, Temme said she would like to see more young women become involved.

"Extension club membership has declined during the past years," said Temme, "and a member under age 35 is a rarity."

"It's nice to see a mixture of ages," adds Temme, "but I would like to see more young women. I know there are young homemakers who are interested."

Temme said women who are interested in visiting or joining an extension club should contact her at the Wayne County Extension Office, 375-3310.

"I'll either put them in touch with a club," said Temme, "or assist them in organizing a new club."

While individual clubs set up their own monthly meeting schedule — some meet in the evening and others in the afternoon — Temme said there are other club options available.

One option, if enough interest were shown, would be to organize a lunchtime club that would meet once a month during the lunch hour.

"JUST VISIT AN extension club," encourages Barb. "There's no obligation, and you might be surprised at what you can learn and how much fun you can have learning it."

Laurie Roberts

Star, Laurie said she found the lessons to be interesting and decided to maintain her membership after becoming employed full-time.

"I'm a working mother and a farmer's wife," smiles Laurie, "and I'm always interested in learning ways to take shortcuts and make things easier."

"Also," adds Barb, "joining an extension club is a good way to become involved in the community — especially if you're new to the community."

TEMME, WHO serves as adviser for the 11 home extension clubs in Wayne County, said home extension also provide a partial scholarship for a diabetic child to attend a special camp, and each year purchase Christmas gifts for residents of Wayne Care Centre.

Temme said in addition to county-wide community service projects, many individual clubs also have undertaken their own special projects.

HOME EXTENSION clubs are coordinated through the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and the local extension office, with lessons prepared by university staff members.

Frederick Manns mark golden wedding year

The children of Concord residents Frederick and Mary Mann hosted a reception on April 24 in honor of their parents' golden wedding anniversary.

The open house event, with a buffet dinner for family members, was held in the Laurel city auditorium.

Paul Peterson of Omaha and Rod Graf of Laurel registered the nearly 200 guests who attended the reception from Sioux City, Des Moines and West Des Moines, Iowa; Whittier and Twin Peaks, Calif.; Phoenix, Ariz.; Midland, Texas; Wayne, Winside, Laurel, Hoskins, Norfolk, Henderson, Columbus, Concord, Omaha, Newman Grove, Meadow Grove, Wakefield, Dixon, Carroll, Pierce, Wakefield and Randolph.

Among those attending was Werner Mann of Winside, an attendant at the couple's wedding 50 years ago.

Gifts were arranged by Judy Deich of Whittier, Calif.

THE AFTERNOON program included a vocal selection by Betty Graf entitled "If God Left Only You." Jaime Mann played a piano solo serenade and Mary Peterson read a poem.

Melissa Mann sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Jaime Mann, and Nick and Greg Kvoles sang "This is the Day."

The anniversary cake was baked by Lydaisy Janke of Winside, and cut and served by Lisa Carr of Laurel and Kristy Nair of Phoenix, Ariz.

Linda Kvoles of Laurel and Denise Wedel of Phoenix poured, and Patricia Graf of Sioux City served punch.

Assisting in the kitchen were Jeanette Olson of Coleridge, Myra Heegle of Randolph, and Mary Ann Seibert and Marguerite Stage, both of Laurel.

MANNs WERE MARRIED at Winside on April 24, 1938. They have resided at Concord the past 12 years. Before that, they lived at Winside for seven years, Hoskins for six years, Wayne for five years, and Whittier, Calif. for 20 years.

Their children are Mary and Myron Peterson of Laurel, Nancy and Ken Nair of Phoenix, Ariz., Betty and Terry Graf of Laurel, and Frederick (Rick) and Connie Mann of Concord.

There are 12 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Baptisms

Amanda Marie Nelson

Amanda Marie Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Nelson of Dixon, was baptized May 1 at the Laurel Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Kim Alten officiating. Sponsors were Monte and Lori Johnson of Laurel.

Dinner guests afterward in the Nelson home included Thera Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Johnson and family, Laurel, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nelson, Jeff and Monica, Dixon, and Gloria Pigman, Sioux Falls, who also was a Saturday overnight guest in the Nelson home.

Bridal Showers

Kolleen Gowen

Kolleen Gowen, who will become the bride of Kevin Werner on July 9, was presented a shower last Sunday afternoon in the home of Doris Linafelter of Allen. Co-hostesses were Phyllis Swanson and Kathy Boswell.

Decorations were in the honoree's chosen colors of peach and teal. The program was given by the hostesses and included devotions, a guessing game, a skit and musical number by Sandy and Cindy Chase. A dessert luncheon was served, and Kim Gowen assisted her sister in opening gifts.

Shelley Lackas April bride of Richard Keller at Norfolk

Making their home at 414 Hastings, in Norfolk, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keller who were married April 23 at Sacred Heart Church in Norfolk.

Mrs. Keller is the former Shelley Lynn Lackas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kearney Lackas of Carroll.

She is a 1981 graduate of Randolph Public High School and a 1983 graduate of Norfolk Beauty College, and is employed at Dale Electronics in Norfolk.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Jean Keller and the late James Keller, was graduated from high school in Willard, Ohio in 1976 and from Northeast Community College, Norfolk, in 1980. He is employed as a machinist at Dale Electronics.

The newlyweds took a wedding trip to the Ozarks.

THE REV. STEVE Boes of Norfolk officiated at the couple's two o'clock, double ring ceremony. Decorations were in pink and burgundy.

Lynn Lackas of Belden and Barb

Mitchell of Norfolk registered guests, who were ushered into the church by Steve Jorgensen of Wayne, Al Fuller of Stanton, and Roger Kuehler and Gary Onnen, both of Norfolk.

Wedding music included "Turn Around," "Just You and I" and "Wedding Song," sung by Rick Higgins of Pierce and accompanied by Joyce Bode of Norfolk.

HONOR ATTENDANTS for the couple were Lori McManaman of Norfolk, sister of the bride, and Mitch Schultz of Norfolk.

Bridesmaids were Gwen Jorgensen of Wayne, also a sister of the bride, and Jane Laska and Marie Hornik, both of Norfolk.

Serving as groomsmen were Greg Lackas of Lincoln, brother of the bride, Jeff Nelson of Pierce and John Glaser of Norfolk.

Lighting candles were Alycia Jorgensen of Wayne and Burquette Chinell of O'Neill.

Flower girls were Shannon McManaman of Norfolk and Allison

Chinell of O'Neill, and ring bearer was Adam Jorgensen of Wayne.

ON HER WEDDING day, the bride was given in marriage by her father and appeared in a white, floor-length gown of venice lace and taffeta with lace ruffles on the skirt and hemline.

A lace ruffle followed the V-neckline, over-the-shoulders and back. The sheer yoke was trimmed in venice lace with a venice lace collar, and the long sheer sleeves featured venice lace cuffs.

The bride wore a ring headpiece with a side accent of silk flowers and a fingertip veil flowing from a pouf with scattered pearls.

THE MATRON OF honor wore a burgundy with pink floor-length taffeta dress, and the bridesmaids wore pink with burgundy dresses. Their headpieces were of pearls and flowers.

The men wore black tuxedos with pink and burgundy accessories. The bridegroom was attired in a taitcoat.

The bride's mother selected an ivory knit in street length, and the bridegroom's mother chose a navy knit also in street length.

A RECEPTION WAS held at the West Randolph Ballroom following the ceremony for 275 guests. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Lackas of Belden and Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Lackas of Scandia, Minn.

Arranging gifts were Julie Libby and Judy Risinger, both of Pierce; Deb Dvorak of Norfolk and Sharon Keller of Plymouth, Ohio.

Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Joe Lowe of Wayne and Mrs. Clarence Kalin of Coleridge.

Mrs. Veronica Calhoun of Laurel and Mrs. Sandra Dennis of Magnet poured, and Connie Buyer of Leigh and Eva Chinell of O'Neill served punch.

Waitresses were Stephanie Keller of Plymouth, Ohio, and Lenora Gandy, Judy Paulsen and Pam Loberg, all of Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wieseler

Sherry Schneider bride of Mike Wieseler in Colorado wedding rites

Sherry Schneider and Mike Wieseler were united in marriage on April 28 at St. Ann Catholic Church in Westminster, Colo.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Schneider of Kenesaw and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wieseler of Wayne.

HONOR ATTENDANTS at the ceremony were Trish Kelley, sister of the bride, and Dustin McCright.

Bridesmaids were Sharon Larmore, sister of the bride, and Shelly Graybill and Kim Schoof. Groomsmen were Chris and Cory Wieseler, brothers of the bridegroom, and Steve Bitfield.

Tonya Graybill was flower girl and Nick Kelley was ring bearer. Ushering guests into the church were Rick Graybill, Lynn Kober and Bob Sedlack of Colorado.

A RECEPTION and dance were held at the DAV Lounge in Westminster.

Following a wedding trip to Mexico, the couple will reside in Westminster where both are employed.

Out-of-town guests attending their wedding ceremony were from Wayne, Niobrara, Verdel, Wynot, Kenesaw, Minden and Omaha.

Engagements

Boldt-Wylie

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boldt of Norfolk announce the engagement of their daughter, Jill Boldt, to Doug Wylie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wylie of Winside.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Winside High School and Bahner College of Hairstyling in cosmetology and barbering. She is employed at Country Clippers in Norfolk.

Her fiancé also was graduated from Winside High School and is employed at Barr Feedlots of Stanton.

A June 25 wedding is planned at Mount Olive Lutheran Church in Norfolk.

Policy on Weddings

Because our readers are interested in current news, we ask that all weddings and photographs offered for publication be in our office within 10 days after the date of the ceremony. Information submitted with a picture after that deadline will not be carried as a story but will be used in a cutline underneath the picture. Wedding pictures submitted after the story appears in the paper must be in our office within three weeks after the ceremony.

THE WAYNE HERALD

You work a full year. So why keep settling for 8 months' pay?

According to the national Tax Foundation, up to four months of your 1988 income will go to pay your taxes. That's right, four months. It's like saying that every penny you earn from January through April goes to the government. No wonder May 5 is designated as "Tax Freedom Day."

But now there's a way to keep more of what you earn. With tax-advantaged investments, you can lower your taxable income, and your taxes. Better yet, you'll be earning interest at the same time. Call me or stop in today for all the details.

Working for us.

The voice we need: In the four short years he's represented us in Lincoln, Senator Gerald Conway has made a real difference. That's good news for us in northeast Nebraska. He's earned the respect of his colleagues in the Unicameral — and that respect means results for us. Whether it's ensuring we receive our fair share of support or changing laws that promote economic development, Jerry Conway has been there to help.

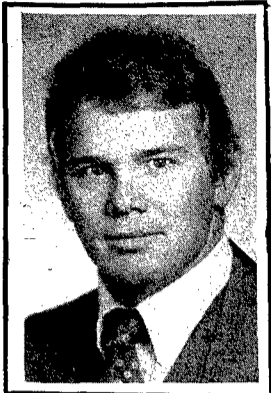

Vote to return Senator Gerald Conway to the Legislature. He's the voice we need for northeast Nebraska.

Re-elect Gerald Conway Legislature

Husker coach to speak

University of Nebraska wrestling coach Tim Neumann, will be the guest speaker for the 1988 Wayne-Carroll Athletic Banquet to be held May 17, 6:30 p.m. at the Student Center.

There will also be four awards given to Wayne athletes for their contributions to their respective teams throughout the year and their careers.

Tim Neumann

The Moller Award will be given to one boy and one girl senior scholar athlete. The Terry Johnson Memorial Award will go to a freshman or sophomore girl with special interest in basketball. The recipient will receive free tuition at a basketball camp of their choice during the summer.

There will also be an award given to the outstanding boy and girl athlete of 1987-88. The recipient can be from any class.

The final award is the only award where the selectee is not picked by the coaches of Wayne. The award is the Wayne County Law Enforcement Award which is given to an outstanding boy and girl athlete who shows good academic credentials within the courses of study within the high school, shows good sportsmanship on and off the playing field and demonstrates good citizenship within the community.

The selectee may be from any class.

Neumann spotlighted

In three years, Nebraska wrestling coach Tim Neumann has compiled a 36-20-1 record for a 64 percent winning ratio, the second best in Nebraska history.

Neumann guided the Huskers to back-to-back top 15 finishes at the NCAA Championships in 1986 and 1987, but after an injury-riddled 1988 campaign he plans to return to the top next season as Nebraska loses just one senior.

In his first year, Neumann led the 1986 Huskers to a 12th-place finish at the NCAA Championships and 16-5 dual record, the third-best mark in school history.

Last season, Neumann coached Nebraska to its first dual win over Oklahoma since 1949. The Huskers' 25-16 shocker in Norman knocked the Sooners out of the Top 20 for the first time since 1964. Neumann nearly duplicated the trick this year, before settling for a 15-15 tie with the Sooners.

Before taking over the head coaching duties, Neumann served as assistant coach for three years. He came to Nebraska in 1983 after developing seven state qualifiers and two state finalists in two years as head coach at Plainville, Kan., High School.

A native of Peshtigo, Wis., Neumann posted an 82-10-0 prep record and a three-year record of 84-13-0 at Northern Michigan University where he was an All-American his sophomore year.

Neumann then transferred to Nebraska and posted a 27-5-0 record as a senior before two broken ribs ended his bid for All-America honors.

He graduated from Nebraska in 1980 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He and his wife Kay have two children, a four-year-old daughter Chelsea, and a one-year-old son Clint.

Summer Games sign up

The Wayne Herald, Occidental Nebraska, First Federal Lincoln and the City Offices building are the sites to sign up for the 1988 version of the Cornhusker State Games.

The games get underway July 15, and run through the 17th. In 1987, the third year of the state's amateur sports festival, the Games drew 11,223 entries from 83 counties.

According to Games Director Tom Ash, this year's expected number of entries is between 13,000-15,000.

Registration deadlines are May 15 for bowling, June 22 for soccer and volleyball and June 29 for all other sports.

All entrants will receive an official Games participant T-Shirt, passes to the Opening Ceremonies July 15 at Seacrest Field and the athletes' party, street dance at State Fair Park July 16.

They will also receive complimentary Games souvenir programs and a drawing ticket for hundreds of prizes at the athletes' party, including an all-expense-paid trip for two to the Nebraska Cornhuskers' next football bowl game.

Competition will be held in 28 different sports. They include Aquatics, archery, basketball, badminton, bowling, boxing, chess, cycling, equestrian, fencing, golf, gymnastics, horseshoe pitching, martial arts, pocket billiards, road race, roller skating, sailing, shooting, soccer, softball, table tennis, tennis, track and field, triathlon, volleyball, volleyball and wrestling.

Special Olympians will be included in basketball, bowling, roller skating, aquatics, track and field and volleyball.

Wayne State pitcher hurls no-hitter

Wayne State pitcher John Hagan walked from the mound right into the record books Sunday as Wayne State trounced visiting Doane 15-2 and 15-8.

Hagan not only improved his season record to 4-1 but he did it in style with a no-hitter. "This was the first no-hitter we've had in quite a long time," head coach Lenny Klaver said.

Hagan did walk two batters, and a couple Wildcat miscues led to the visitors scoring two runs. However two runs did not prove damaging to the bats of the Wildcats.

Wayne State rapped 14 hits in the opening contest while scoring six runs in the third inning enroute to its 15 run performance.

Gale Bretschneider smacked a three-run homer in the third inning only to have the next batter Randy Yarke also slash it out of the windy ball park.

Bretschneider finished the game with five RBI's on a 3-3 performance while Pat Salerno enjoyed a 3-3 performance while driving in three runs. Yarke collected hits on both of his attempts for four RBI's while Dale Clayton connected on two hits for the winners.

Incidentally, Hagan never allowed one ball to be hit out of the infield while striking out five.

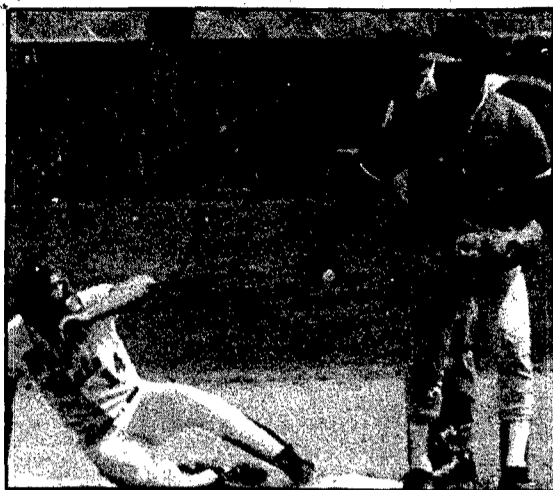

In the nightcap Kevin Hoffart picked up his fourth win of the season against three losses. Hoffart pitched the first four innings while reliever Don Graham picked up his second save of the season.

The Wildcats rapped 17 hits off the Doane pitchers to give them a two game total of 31 hits and 30 runs. Dentry Jaeger connected on the game's longest hit with his three-run homer in the second inning.

Wayne State jumped on the visitors early with five runs in the first inning and six in the second inning. Wayne State's hottest hitter Bretschneider enjoyed a 4-4 stealing base performance but suffered a groin pull injury on his final steal.

Bretschneider will be out of action for about a week according to Klaver. The senior center fielder enjoyed a 2-2 hitting performance in the second game for a two game total of 5-5.

Jaeger led the team in RBI's in the nightcap with four via a 3-4 hitting success ratio. Craig Koehler enjoyed a 3-4 performance as did Clayton. Mark Wewel went 2-4 from the plate while Salerno went 2-5.

RANDY YARKE STEALS THIRD BASE against Doane on Sunday. The safe call was mildly disputed by the Doane manager, but Yarke remained on third.

Lady thinclads earn runner-up honors at Wisner

The Wayne-Carroll girls track team finished runner-up to Pierce Friday afternoon with the Blue Devils scoring 92 team points. Pierce finished with 98.

Ponca captured third place with 82 points while Tekamah-Hermann finished fourth with 54. Rounding out the field of 10 teams was Wisner Pilger, Emerson-Hubbard, Pender, West Point Central Catholic, Bancroft-Rosalie and Walthill.

The locals captured four first place medals including Tonya Erxleben's 4'8" high jump and Teresa Ellis' 5:54.3 time in the 1600 meter run.

Wayne's sprint relay team of Kristy Hansen, Deanna Schluns, Dana Nelson and Amy Wriedt ran to a first place clocking of 53.2 while the mile relay team of Karmyn Koenig, Holly Paige, Ellis and Hansen ran to a first place finish of 4:24.7.

The 3200 meter relay team of Sarah Peterson, Koenig, Paige and Ellis finished second with a time of 10:40.6. Meanwhile Peterson ran a 13:33.1 time in the open 3200 to also capture second place.

Third place finishes were recorded by Hansen in the 100 meter dash with a time of 13.3 and Amy Wriedt in the long jump with a leap of 15'3". Wayne has relied on the 200 meter dash to be a scoring punch in past track meets. This was no exception as Hansen, Wriedt and Nelson finished third-fourth and fifth respectively.

Meanwhile Nelson placed fourth in the 100 meter dash with a time of 13.5

while placing fifth in the long jump with a 15'1 1/2" leap.

Heidi Reeg placed fifth in the shot put with a heave of 31'9 1/2" while Koenig ran to a sixth place time of 1:06.1 in the 400 meter dash. Paige also placed sixth in the 800 meter run with her time of 2:42.1.

Pierce captured the boys team title as well as the girls with a 15 point victory over runner up Wisner-Pilger, 135-120. Ponca finished third with 62 points, just one point ahead of Wayne.

Tekamah-Hermann finished fifth with 52 points while the rest of the field went, Emerson-Hubbard, Bancroft-Rosalie, West Point Central Catholic, Walthill and Pender.

Seth Anderson was back in action after missing last Monday's triangular with an injury. Anderson won the 110 meter high hurdles with a 16.0 time. Wayne's only other first place finish came in the 1600 meter run with Craig Dyer, Willy Gross, Casey Dyer and Greg DeNaeyer making up the team.

Anderson came right back in the 300 intermediate hurdles to earn second place honors with a time of 42.9. Nick Engelson, who also sat out last week with an injury, placed second in the high jump with a 6'0" leap.

The sprint relay team of Chad Davis, Mike Hillier, Kelly Mrsny and Jess Zeiss finished third with a time of 46.4 while DeNaeyer duplicated the third place finish with his 53.0 time in the open 400 meter dash.

Davis finished fourth for the Blue Devils in the 200 meter dash with his 23.7 time. The foursome of Hillier, Gross, Dyer and DeNaeyer placed fourth in the 3200 meter relay with their clocking of 8:55.9.

Craig Dyer and Cory Stutheit finished fifth in their respective events of the 400 meter dash and the triple jump. Dyer was clocked at 54.6 while Stutheit leaped 39' 1/4". Mrsny grabbed the lone sixth place spot as he ran a 11.8 time in the 100 meter dash.

Fremont to host meet

The Fremont Track Club will be host for a Junior Olympic Development Track and Field Meet on Saturday, May 14.

The goal of the meet is to make young athletes aware of the sport of track and field. There are several positive selling points for this meet including same day registration, nominal entry fee of $2 per athlete, clinic instruction prior to meet competition, conducted by local and area athletes and coaches.

The meet will also provide low key exposure to the sport of track and field as well as limited meet start and finish times.

Athletes may enter three events and once again registration is done when you arrive. Be sure you bring a permission slip if parent is not attending. Registration will be in Fremont high's girls gym.

All hurdles will be run with an eight meter spacing between the hurdles and at a height of 30 inches.

It is recommended that athletes do not try to run in both of the distance races because of the recovery time in the meet.

Wayne State loses at conference

Softball coach Marilyn Strate witnessed for the second year in a row, her Wildcats lose the first two games they played in the conference tournament.

Wayne State went into the tournament seeded fourth which meant they were to play the fifth seeded team—Kearney State.

Cyndi Karrick took the mound for the Wildcats against the Lopers and for the first three innings of play, no one scored.

Kearney State picked up a run in the bottom of the fourth, but Wayne

State rallied in the top of the fifth and tied it up. That would be the last scoring by either team until the 10th inning.

The international tie breaker rule went into effect in the ninth inning. Again the rule puts a runner on second base and gives each team three outs to try and advance the runner home.

With two out in the bottom of the 10th, Kearney State's Mary Sheldon lined a single up the middle to advance the Lopers.

Wayne State scored its lone run on a single by Kathy Nickolite and an ensuing triple by Ann Bauer. Much to the dismay of the Wildcats however, they left eight runners on base including bases loaded in the 10th.

In Wayne State's second game, they played Missouri Western, a loser of its first round game with Missouri Southern.

Wayne State was stifled from the start by the opposing pitcher's off-speed pitches. In fact, the Wildcats could only muster two hits in their 2-0 loss. Natalie Highman and Paula Dolosh were the select two to get a hit.

Karrick did the pitching for Strate and scattered seven hits during the contest. Ronda Peck came in for relief in the seventh inning and also allowed one hit.

"I really feel that this was a very competitive conference tournament," Strate said. "I thought we played very well by giving Kearney State a very tough game." Incidentally, Kearney State went on to win the tournament with its fifth seeded team coming into play.

The Wildcats record dropped to 24-13 and will concentrate this week on district play which begins this Friday and Saturday in Kearney.

Brad Moore, a former Wayne-Carroll graduate and now a junior at Dana College, was recently honored at the College's annual Athletic Awards banquet. Moore was honored as a first year letterman in golf. Moore, a Business Marketing major at Dana, is the son of Mr. Darrell Moore and Mrs. Wilma Moore of Wayne.

Wakefield ladies end bowling season

The Wakefield Monday afternoon ladies bowling league roll-off was won by the Golden Girls team. The team consists of Donna Roeber, Fran Anderson, Helen Pearson and Gladys Thompson.

The ladies ended the season with a salad luncheon and an afternoon of bowling. The election of officers for next season was also held with Roeber being elected president, Amy Magnuson, vice president, Margaret Turner, secretary-treasurer and Glee Gustafson-sergeant at arms.

The fall meeting has been set for August 1. Roeber also received an award for high game with her 210, as well as high series, 513. Roeber ended the season with the highest average at 143 and received an award for bowling two 200 games during the season.

Frances Anderson and Amy Magnuson also rolled 200 games the past year. The high team game was rolled by the Lauderettes of 593 while high team series was earned by the Leaping Lizzards, 1630.

Beverly Herbolzheimer earned the award for most improved bowler by improving her average by nine pins. Anita Rastede picked up the most splits during the year with 17.

Allen junior high places

The Allen junior high boys and girls track teams attended the Hartington Relays last Saturday at Wayne. Both teams finished third out of the 11-team field. The boys had two first place finishes including Kevin Crosgrove's winning 100 meter hurdles and the 800 meter relay with Chris Sachau, Brad Green, Justin Kelly and Brian Stewart.

Third place finishes went to Sachau in the long jump, while fourth place finishes went to Green in the shot put, Crosgrove in the long jump and the 100 meter dash, the mile relay team consisting of Green, Brad Greenough, Jeff Geiger and Michelle Sullivan.

There were three fifth place finishes with Sachau earning fifth in the long jump, Stewart in the 200 meter dash and the hurdle relay team of Craig Boyle, Kelly, Jason Reuter and Shane Fiscus.

Stewart also earned a sixth place medal in the 400 meter dash. In the girls portion of the meet, the team broke two records. Denise Boyle broke her own record in the 75 meter hurdles with a new time of 13.0 seconds. The sprint relay team of Boyle, Cindy Chase and Christy Philbreck also set a new record.

Golfers split meets

The Wayne-Carroll golf team recently completed a pair of invitationals as they traveled to Hartington Cedar Catholic's last Friday and Oakland-Craig's on Saturday.

At Cedar Catholic the Blue Devils posted a 10-stroke victory over the host team Cedar 340-350. Third place honors went to O'Neill while Plainview finished fourth.

Rounding out the 11-team field was Norfolk Catholic, fifth; O'Neill St. Mary, sixth; Beemer and Orchard tied for seventh and eighth; Hartington, ninth and Cedar's "B" team finished ahead of Humphrey St. Francis.

First place Wayne defeated the 11th place St. Francis team by 98 strokes.

Robb Reeg took medalist honors with his 18 hole score of 78. Teammate Eric Runestad was runner up with an 82 before Cedar Catholic's Tim Kuchta and John Newhalten placed third and fourth. Blue Devil Elliot Salmon finished ninth with his 88 while the fourth member Kevin Hausmann, placed 19th with his 92.

Reeg's consistency was very evident in his play as he parred 13 of the 18 holes and only double bogied once.

Blue Devils lose close one

On Saturday, Wayne traveled to Oakland for their annual invitational. Oakland-Craig has consistently finished at the top or near the top of Class C golf ratings for many years. They have also been quoted as being one of the top five golfing schools in the state, with Wayne being another.

It was only fitting that the two school's with rich golfing tradition tied in regulation of the 11-team invite. In the sudden death playoff which went two holes, Oakland-Craig handed Wayne its first invitational loss of the year.

The host team had the top two individuals before Eric Runestad and Robb Reeg notched third and fourth place with each carding an 80. Salmon finished ninth for the Blue Devils while teammate Hausmann finished 10th with each firing an 84.

First prep invite on tap

The Husker Track & Field Officials and the Nebraska Coaches Association will be co-sponsoring the First Annual Nebraska Prep Invitational Boys and Girls Track Meet on Monday, May 30, at Ed Weir Stadium on the University of Nebraska campus.

The philosophy of the meet is to allow head-to-head competition between high school track athletes from all classes on the premier track facility in the state.

Pre-determined qualification standards have been mailed to each Nebraska High School track coach, and student-athletes meeting the standards will be allowed to participate in this showcase track event.

The director of the meet is George O'Boyle of Lincoln Plus High School, and officials will be provided by the Husker Track & Field Officials, the same group of officials that preside over the Big Eight Track Meet and the Sevigne-Husker Invitational.

Obituaries

Anna Kai

Anna Kai, 89, of Wakefield, died Sunday, May 1, 1988 in the Wakefield Health Care Center.

Services will be held Thursday, May 5 at 10:30 a.m. at the Wakefield Christian Church. The Rev. Dave Rusk will officiate.

Anna Magdaline Kai, the daughter of Hans and Libby Shook Andersen, was born Aug. 31, 1898 at Homer. She attended the Homer schools and graduated there. She also attended Wayne Normal College and the University of Nebraska. Anna taught rural schools in Dakota, Thurston and Wayne Counties for seven years. She married Emil A. Kai on June 14, 1924 in Sioux City, Iowa. They made their home on a farm in Wayne County for over 50 years. In October, 1978 she was a resident in the Pender Care Center until moving into the Wakefield Care Center in April, 1980. She was a member of the Wakefield Christian Church.

Survivors include one son, Richard Kai of rural Pender; two daughters, Mrs. John (Muriel) Bacus of Elkhorn and Cynthia Kai of Chicago; one grandson, Mark Kai of Wayne; three great grandchildren; and one brother, Stanley Andersen of Long Beach, Calif.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Emil in January, 1979; one son, Russell, in 1929; two brothers and two sisters.

Pallbearers will be Clarke Kai, Don Kai, John Bacus, Mark Kai, Ron Chilcott and Willis Jahnke.

Burial will be in the Wakefield Cemetery with the Bressler-Humlicek Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Preston 'Slick' Turner

Preston 'Slick' Turner, 74, of Wakefield died Friday, April 29, 1988 at the Wakefield hospital.

Services were held Monday, May 2 at the Wakefield Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Rick Kargard officiated.

Preston LeRoy Turner, the son of Jeremiah and Inez Carr Turner, was born at rural Wakefield on Dec. 26, 1913. He attended rural Wayne and Dixon County schools and graduated from Wakefield High School. He married Vivian McCaw on Jan. 11, 1939 at Elk Point, S.D. The couple operated the Corner Cafe in Wakefield and then during World War II they moved to California where he was employed in an airplane factory. Preston then worked in the Martin Bomber Plant in Omaha before returning to Wakefield to farm from 1944 until 1952. He then sold feed from 1952 until 1970 for the Peets Feed Company. From 1972 to 1982 he worked for the City of Wakefield in the power plant. Recently he has worked with Art Anderson painting buildings. He was baptized in the Wakefield Methodist Church and was a member of the Wakefield Presbyterian Church, having served on the church council in various capacities.

Survivors include his wife, Vivian; two daughters, Mrs. Dennis (Nancy) Fredrickson of Wakefield and Mrs. William Rogger (Linda) Cottrell of Omaha; five grandchildren; two great grandsons; one sister, Frances Turner of Sioux City; and one brother, Kermit Turner of Wakefield.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers and one sister.

Pallbearers were Jerry Turner, Tom Turner, Merle Kay, Ray Lund, Darold Lundin and William Utecht.

Burial was in the Wakefield Cemetery with the Bressler-Humlicek Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The GOLDEN YEARS

Recent research on physical activity and the bone mineral content in women aged 30 to 85 indicates that exercise may play a strong role in reducing the risk of osteoporosis. A report in the journal "Medicine and Science in Sports and Exercise" described a study of 85 adult women; it concluded that those who were more active had fitter bones.

Argentina vision closer to reality

By Dianne Jaeger
Winside Correspondent

"Material possessions are unimportant," say Mike and Debbie Fox. "The love of people and ministering God's word are what matters."

The Foxes not only believe that statement, but are practicing it.

They have sold their three-bedroom, ranch-style home in Missouri, given away all of their furniture, and many of their personal belongings, to prepare for a life of missionary work in Argentina, South America.

DEBBIE FOX, the former Debbie Westerhaus of Winside, has known she was destined for Argentina since the age of 10.

"My family were members of the Christian Life Assembly of God Church in Wayne, and while I was at a summer camp, at the age of 10, God spoke to me while in a prayer and told me someday I would marry a missionary and live in Argentina.

"God really works in mysterious ways," says Debbie, the daughter of Don and Reba Westerhaus of Winside.

"Debbie was graduated from Winside High School in 1976 and moved to Springfield, Mo. to attend Burge School of Nursing."

IT WAS WHILE Debbie was in her third year of college that she met Mike Fox while attending an evangelistic crusade in West Plains, Mo.

Mike was driving bus for an evangelist who was traveling across the United States and Canada.

"I never told Mike about my vision," says Debbie, "until he came back from a trip to Argentina and said he would really like to become a missionary there."

MIKE AND DEBBIE were married in June of 1979 and moved to the Denver area where Mike's family lived and where he could find construction work.

Six months later, the couple moved to Winside where Mike was engaged in farm work and where the couple's son, Daniel Joseph, was born.

"Mike became increasingly aware that God wanted him in full-time ministry," says Debbie, "so in 1981 we moved just outside St. Louis, Mo. so Mike could attend a two-year Pastor's Training Institute."

In 1982, while in school, Mike took part in two mission trips with the class — the first to Haiti and the second to Argentina.

"It was during this time that God put a burning desire in me to become a missionary," he says.

MIKE COMPLETED his schooling in Missouri and it was there the couple's second child, Tarah Noel, was born.

Following school, Mike became associate pastor of Radiant Love Christian Center which he helped pioneer with senior pastor Larry Key in Arnold, Mo.

Although Mike and Debbie enjoyed the success of their young church, there was always the pull of the "unreached people" of the world.

In 1986, Mike took Debbie with him to Haiti for 12 days to visit missionary friends John and Joyce Hansen.

"I had a real culture shock when we got to Haiti," recalls Debbie.

"Mike tried to warn me that it was a very unsanitary country, but you don't understand until you've seen it. The people are terribly poor. The average person makes between $89 and $117 a year.

"There's also a lot of Satanism there. The voodoo drums beat 24 hours a day."

While in Haiti, Mike ministered, through an interpreter, in a mountain church. They also helped distribute medication and vaccinations in a medical clinic.

"We saw 238 people in one afternoon at the clinic in Boutin," says Mike. "Debbie and another nurse even removed a small tumor from a man's eyebrow. There are no requirements for distributing medications. Anyone can purchase just about anything over-the-counter as long as you know what to ask for."

In 1987, MIKE and Debbie enrolled at Victory World Mission Training Institute in Tulsa, Okla.

Highlighting the 90-day course for the Foxes was a trip to Guatemala in Central America.

There, Mike and Debbie took part in street evangelism, medical clinic work, and helping area churches with minor repairs and painting.

"Every night we participated in a great open air crusade which one night ministered to over 17,000 people."

"The people there are very eager to learn and we fell in love with them," says Debbie. "I just knew the Lord was calling us to become missionaries. I know, even if something happened to Mike, I would still want to do missionary work."

MIKE AND DEBBIE were graduated from Victory World Missionary Training Institute in December of 1987 and have since been traveling the states of Missouri, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma and Nebraska, speaking in churches and to small groups to raise financial support for their missionary goals.

After the needed finances are raised, the Foxes plan to attend the Spanish Language Institute in Costa Rica. After 12 months of study and living among the Latin Americans, they hope to have acquired enough knowledge of the language and culture to enhance their ministry in Argentina.

"There is a real need for education in these countries, besides ministering," says Mike. "They need cooks, mechanics, and to learn other trades — but most of all they need to be taught personal health care and things most Americans take for granted."

"We feel God is directing us to the city of Mendoza in Argentina where he will have us teach the Bible to National (Argentine) Pastors and church leaders as well as start new churches," says Mike, adding that Debbie would assist in children's ministries as well as do health teaching.

"Our goal is to live in Argentina indefinitely."

THE FOXES SAY the only things they are planning to take with them are small appliances, dishes, blankets, clothing and personal items.

MICHAEL AND DEBBIE Fox along with children Daniel, age 7½, and Tarah, age 4½.

Four-year-old daughter Tarah has kept her Barbie dolls, while Daniel will be taking his bike and cars.

"We've also sold both our car and pickup," says Mike, adding that vehicles taken over are taxed so high that no one can afford them.

THE COUPLE SAY they will also check out the land and housing situation in Argentina before taking the children.

"We want to keep the children involved in our ministry as much as possible. We don't want them to be pushed aside and feel they are only there because their mom and dad are."

Debbie has been home schooling Daniel, who is a second grader, since January 1988 where they began traveling the states.

"Daniel's doing really well," says Debbie, adding that he was to be tested on May 3 in Norfolk to determine his progress.

"We don't know at this time if there will be a school available in Argentina. If not, we will continue with home schooling."

MIKE AND DEBBIE estimate it will cost about $2,100 a month for their schooling, housing, printing of a newsletter, and living expenses while in Costa Rica, and probably about the same while ministering in Argentina.

"We now have about half the needed pledge support raised and will be leaving for Costa Rica as soon as we have $2,100 pledged."

Foxes say the majority of the funds have come from their home congregation, Radiant Love Christian Center, and the rest from individual Christians.

Persons interested in the couple's mission work can contact them by writing Victory World Mission Outreach, c/o Mike and Debbie Fox, P.O. Box 1499, Broken Arrow, Okla., 74013.

STUDY SKILLS, BE HELPFUL
by Donald V. Zeiss
The Principal's Office
Does talk about school at the dinner table sound something like this:
"How did things go at school today?"
"OK."
"What did you do?"
"NOTHIN."
"What about the report you finished last night?"
"WHAT ABOUT IT?"
"Did you turn it in?"
"YEAH."
"What did the teacher say about it?"
"NOTHIN," and on it goes.
Most parents don't have the "inside" knowledge about schools and teaching to know what the correct questions are to ask about school and find out how things are going. It's easy to get side-tracked with short answers or answers like, "I did all of my homework at school," or "We never get homework."

Next time you face those answers here is a short list of questions so that you can persist and not give up so easily.
•Did you bring home your notebook?
•Do you keep a notebook in all of your classes?
•Let me see it.
•Do you write down your homework assignments?
•Did you recite or speak in class today? Who did?
•Did you go to the board?
•Let me see your textbook, past tests, handouts, etc.
•Have you missed any classes lately? For what?
•When was your last test? When is your next test?
•Ask about teacher directions. What did the teacher say to study? How did he/she say to organize it?
If you can't seem to get a straight answer, call the school and check for yourself. The teachers can give you the answers to these questions.

AUBREY LEONARD'S entry was a participant in the sheep shear weigh-in event.

Sheep weigh conducted

The annual 4-H sheep shear and weigh-in was held Saturday, April 30, at the Wayne County Fairgrounds. The weigh-in officially begins the 4-H rate of gain contest. Forty-seven lambs were weighed and tagged. Bill Greve, leader of the 4-H Sheep project, assisted in organizing and conducting the weigh-in.
Curt Lierman of Wisner, with the help of his three sons, sheared the lambs. The Lierman family raises and shows purebred Suffolk Sheep.

Four-H sheep project participants learn the responsibilities and skills of raising, handling and showing livestock, plus record keeping and financial management skills are developed. Four-H members have until June 15 to identify livestock they wish to show at the county fair. Contact the local University of Nebraska Cooperative Extension Service for further information.

Cleaning up the town

FIFTY VOLUNTEERS young and 'older' participated in a clean-up of the village of Concord last Saturday. Work began around 1:30 p.m. and continued until 5:30 p.m., immediately followed by a hot dog roast at the Concord fire hall. Trees were removed, raking was done at the village park, and rubbish was hauled away. "Celebrate Nebraska '88 Concord" t-shirts, 103 in all, were sold and another 25 have been ordered. In the foreground are Concord Mayor Vic Carlson and volunteer worker Margaret Heutig, along with the remaining cleaning crew.

When they cough in the Middle East

you shouldn't get cold.

Political unrest overseas shouldn't affect your family's comfort here in Nebraska. It won't, if your energy source is electricity.

Electricity is generated in Nebraska from resources free from foreign control, and the supply can meet demand. That means, should there be political strife in the Middle East, Nebraska Public Power District's electricity can keep flowing. And costs remain stabilized.

Electricity in Nebraska is abundant, low cost and efficient. And availability is not affected by foreign unrest. Our major resources are coal, nuclear and hydro.

So, choose electricity for heating, cooling, cooking, hot water and all of life's conveniences. It's the energy solution you'd expect from NPPD.

To find out more about total electric living, contact your nearest NPPD office or your local power supplier.

FIRST AID TAPES

Two first aid tapes are being made available free of charge by the Wakefield Fire Department and Rescue Squad. The VCR tapes deal with emergency care and first aid for children. The tapes may be checked out at Benne's Package Liquor Store.

Along with the tapes, the organization is also making available an emergency care booklet, local emergency phone number stickers, and "Mr. Yuk" stickers to be placed on poisonous items as a warning to small children. These items may also be picked up at Benne's.

The 20-minute tape on "Caring For Your Children" is designed especially for new parents and youth who are beginning to babysit. Simulations are used to depict the most common emergencies with children.

The second tape "Emergency" is an hour long and is designed to help save a life. Goals of the tape are to give the viewer practical advice for appropriate aid and assistance in case of sudden and unexpected illness or injury. Plus provide educational information about prevention of illness and injury and how to obtain emergency assistance when needed.

In addition to the video tape there are cards which highlight the important parts of the video message.

ELECT OFFICERS

The Wakefield Band Boosters elected officers during a meeting April 25. Darrel Wagner, who is currently vice-president of the group, will be the president next year. New secretary is Rhonda Blecke and treasurer is Betty Jo Johanson. It was decided to wait until next fall to elect a new vice-president for the organization since the person elected automatically becomes president the following year.

The committee of Mary Kay Otte, Rhonda Blecke and Eileen Miller was appointed to make arrangements to serve coffee and bars following the Pep Band Concert May 10.

The Boosters also discussed the sale of the community birthday calendar. It was decided to try to sell the advertising for the calendar this spring, to avoid the conflicts incurred last fall with other school organizations. The group set May 6 to 16 for the sales by members of the band.

The sale of the calendars to individuals with birthday listings will be done in the fall like last year.

Selling prices were also considered and it was decided to leave the display advertising the same at $40, charge $15 for the one line directory listings and leave the cost of the calendar the same at $4.

HELP PLANT TREES

Webelos and Bear Scouts and their leaders assisted in planting evergreen trees around the outside of the softball/little league outfield Thursday. Boys assisting were Matt Bohn, Brian Johnson, Ryder Paulson, Mike Rischmueller, Travis Rouse, Zachary Rouse, Austin Lueth, Todd Green, Brook Lundahl, Matt Peterson, Matt Gustafson, Nick Jensen, Mike Boggs, Matt Kucera, Chris Downey and Tyler. Scout leaders are Mary and Dave Kucera.

The trees for the project were purchased with funds from the Heritage Planters Program. The Wakefield Senior citizens received a $900 grant for the project in the local park. Six hundred dollars was spent for 30 white pine, blue spruce and Austrian Pine which the scouts planted around the ball field.

The other $300 was used to pay for the moving of the trees into the picnic area from the Dean Pearson farm.

The Nebraska Statewide Arboretum and the Nebraska Department of Aging sponsor the Heritage Planters grant program. Local committee for the program includes Vernetta Busby, Elvis Olson, Marvin Mortenson and Alden Johnson. The program enables local groups of older Nebraskans to purchase and plant trees as a way of continuing their legacy to the state to enhance the environmental quality of their community.

POST PROM PARTY

Larry Baker, District AAL Representative, presented a $300 check to the post prom committee represented by Julie Lund and Eileen Miller. The Aid Association for Lutherans Branch 1542 of Wakefield helped with the expenses of the post prom party after the parents and the junior and senior students attended a drug and alcohol prevention program.

The after prom party was held early Sunday morning, at Wakefield Bowl following the junior-senior banquet and prom Saturday, at the school.

FLAGS AVAILABLE

The local VFW Post currently has US flag and poles for sale with proceeds from the flags going to the Avenue of Flags.

The flags are 3 x 5 and may be purchased with or without the pole. The poles are seventeen feet in length.

The flags are available at Anderson Lumber Company, True Value Home Center or from Marvin Muller.

USO HONOR ROLL

Tom Looft has been named to the Dean's Honor List at the University of South Dakota at Vermillion for the fall term. Tom, who is a freshman at the school, had a 3.75 grade point average. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Looft of Wakefield. Tom played basketball with the local Legion team last summer and is a graduate of Sioux City East High School.

VOLUNTEER TEA

Twenty-six volunteers attended the annual Volunteer Tea on April 20, at the Wakefield Health Care Center. The theme for the event this year was "The Teddy Bears Picnic."

Gloria Oberg, accompanied by Mardell Holm, sang "Teddy Bears Picnic." Gloria's four-year old granddaughter Melissa joined her grandmother in singing "Me And My Teddy Bear." Banana splits were served to the volunteers and residents following the program.

DONATE BOOKS

The Country Style 4-H Club recently donated two paperback books with cassettes to the Graves Public Library. They are "The Gingerbread Boy" and "House that Jack Built."

New books recently received at the library include "Facemaker" by William Katz, "Daughters," "The Winter Women," "Man with a Gun" by R. Daley and "Lando" by L'Amour.

BUSINESS COMPETITION DAY

Two Wakefield girls placed in the Business Competition recently held at Wayne State College. Renee Nixon and Kadi Nelson both had fifth place finishes in the keyboarding and filing competition respectively.

Others from Wakefield who competed were Lana Ekberg, Dwight Fischer, Kelly Fredrickson, Linda Greve, Mollie Greve, Tony Halverson, Brinda Meier, Amy Oswald, Christy Oswald, Michelle Otte, Bobbi Weishauser and Chris Woods.

ROYAL GARDEN PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Olson were in Minneapolis over the weekend to attend the royal garden party honoring King Carl XVI Gustaf and Queen Silvia of Sweden.

The event at Edinborough Park in Edina was one of several being held nationwide as part of the New Sweden celebration, the 350th anniversary of the New Sweden colony in the Americas.

Sunday night, Lefty and Sylvia attended the "Command Performance!" and international ice skating extravaganza narrated by Peggy Fleming and Dick Button, Olympic skating commentators and starring several international skating stars.

Musical at the ice show was presented by the Gustavus Adolphus College band and choir.

FHA CONFERENCE

Melinda Magnuson, a member of Future Homemakers of America (FHA) in Sioux Center, Iowa, along with four other delegates and their sponsor, attended the State Leadership Conference for FHA/Herio in Des Moines on March 28 and 29.

While there, Melinda became a member of the P.E.P. (Peers Educating Peers) Squad for Families and Futures. March of Dimes will pay her way to camp this summer where she will acquire skills to help her prepare material and presentation. Melinda will present her program five times before the next State FHA Leadership Conference.

Melinda is the daughter of Rich and Kathy Magnuson of Sioux Center, and granddaughter of Sylvia Olson of Wakefield and Tom and Verriane McClain of Wayne. She is the great-granddaughter of Thelma James of Wakefield.

RECEIVE SUPERIORS

The two musical groups which competed in the District Music Contest in Wayne, April 22-23 both received superior ratings for their performances.

The Trojan band and swing choir both received superior ratings.

Music fans should note that the last concert of the year will be on Tuesday, May 10. This will be the Pep Band Concert featuring music the Pep Band plays during the sports seasons. The Band Boosters will be serving coffee and bars following the concert.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

Thursday, May 5: Honors convocation 8 p.m.; Pre-school.

Friday, May 6: Junior high track invitation at Wayne State College; elementary fun day, 1 p.m.; senior sneaky trip.

Saturday, May 7: Conference track at Wayne State College.

Monday, May 9: Wayne State College math day; Junior high track invitation at Wisner, 3 p.m.; school board meeting, 8 p.m.

FIRST FEDERAL LINCOLN

UPDATE

FIRST QUARTER 1988

Charles H. Thorne
Chairman of the Board

L.F. Roschewski
President

First Federal Lincoln is pleased to announce that 1988 has begun on a decidedly "up" note.

In the first quarter of 1988, First Federal Lincoln's earnings were $2.5 million—up from $2.3 million during the same period last year. Assets have increased by $20 million since the first of the year. Most importantly, our regulatory net worth reached a new high of $55.6 million. This figure makes our net worth ratio 4.8%, well above the regulatory requirement.

The number of First Federal Lincoln office locations is also on the rise. In April, our Fremont office moved to new quarters and a new branch in Gering opened. A new office for Lincoln's Edge-wood branch, plus new offices in Gibbon and Seward will open in May. These openings will bring the total number of First Federal Lincoln offices to 67 in 47 Nebraska towns, offering unsurpassed customer convenience.

As one of the strongest financial institutions in the state, First Federal Lincoln welcomes new opportunities in financial services. During the first quarter, a financial product unique to this region was introduced by First Federal Lincoln—

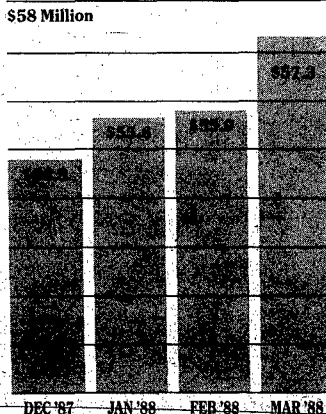

PayoutPLUS. PayoutPLUS is a certificate of deposit which features high interest and monthly "payouts" of principal and interest to the investor.

New departments for equipment lending and agricultural real estate lending were also formed by First Federal Lincoln during this quarter, as part of our commitment to providing a complete line of financial products.

First Federal Lincoln's prudent investment policy, customer service philosophy and quality financial products have enabled us to achieve these first quarter successes. These same qualities are pledged to help us meet our goals throughout 1988.

Working for us.

Senator Jerry Conway is concerned about the quality of our health care.

Senator Jerry Conway has been a leader in the effort to provide our rural communities with affordable, quality health care. Because the battle isn't over, Jerry continues to work to cut the red tape and burdensome regulations that handicap our hometown doctors and hospitals.

Senator Jerry Conway wants to protect those who volunteer their time for their communities.

Senator Jerry Conway has led the effort in the Legislature to protect those who volunteer their time for their communities—the little league coach, the local church or school board member or the volunteer firefighter— from being unnecessarily sued. Volunteers make our communities work—and Jerry wants them to participate without fear of personal liability.

Changing our legal system hasn't been easy. But Senator Jerry Conway has pushed through much-needed reforms that benefit us all.

Vote to return Senator Gerald Conway to the Legislature. He's the voice we need for northeast Nebraska.

PROM

Michelle Thies and Dean Woockmann were crowned 1988 Prom King and Queen during Winside's celebration Saturday. Michelle is the daughter of Terry and Vickie Thies of Winside and Dean is the son of Mrs. Kennard Woockmann of Hoskins.

The queens attendant was Cher Olson and the kings attendant was Doug Paulsen.

Theme for the evening was "Heaven is a Place on Earth."

The 6:30 p.m. dinner was hosted by the mothers of the Junior class with the Sophomore students as servers. Darrin Wacker, Junior class president, gave the welcome and Pastor John Fale the invocation: Dinner was served following a "lip-sink" by the Sophomore servers, of the song "Heaven is a Place on Earth."

The Seniors read their wills, testimonies and Prophecies. A dance was held at 9 p.m. with the D.J. "Wizard of Watts" from Wayne State College. Class sponsors for the prom are teachers Kathy Hladky and Jim Halferty.

POST PROM

Parents of the Winside Juniors and Seniors hosted a midnight to 4 a.m.

Post Prom party on Saturday at the village auditorium. Approximately 50 students and their guests attended. Grand prize winner of a 1988 etched solid oak-framed mirror donated by Harding Glass of Norfolk was Senior, Carmen Reeg. Other major prize winners were: Senior Tammy Jenkins, a $50 savings bond donated by the Winside Student Council; Junior Kristy Miller and Senior Lee Maier each $50 cash; Junior Gary Mundil and Junior Tim Jacobsen each $25 cash; and Senior Cindy Van Houten a large Igloo Cooler donated by Pamida Discount Center in Wayne. Other students purchased numerous gifts and gift certificates and cash during an auction held by a local auctioneer with play money they won during games of chance throughout the evening.

The parents prepared taverns, relishes, bars, nachos and served soft drinks throughout the evening.

Chairmen for this year's post prom party were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Maier. Chairmen for next year will be Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cherry and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Behmer.

CENTER CIRCLE CLUB

Mrs. Irene Bowers hosted the April 28 Center Circle Club at the Winside Stop Inn with 15 members present.

Shirley Bowers, vice president, conducted the business meeting, secretary and treasurers reports were given. Members discussed possibly taking a summer trip will bring suggestions to the meeting on May 16 at the Bowers' in Hoskins.

AWARDS NIGHT

The Winside Junior and Senior High School awards night will be held Thursday May 12 in the multipurpose room at 8 p.m. Awards will be given in academics, athletic, drama, music and speech. Following the presentation coffee and tea will be served.

JOELL PENTICO of Timpte was grand prize winner of a drawing held recently commemorating National Secretaries Week. She is pictured with her boss Ken Mendel, vice president of manufacturing.

August 2. The cost will be $10. Those who are required to take physicals are kindergartners, seventh graders, and any 8-12 students who plan to participate in athletics during the 1988-89 school year. Each student getting a physical should bring the $10 and a urine specimen with them. Parents who plan to bring their kindergartner for a physical and need DPT and/or polio shots should call the Clinic and let them know at least one week ahead of time so they can bring enough serum. Cost of shots besides the physical are $19 for DPT and $17 for polio.

BROWNIES

Kristy Wandle held the American flag while Candace Jaeger the Brownie flag at the April 29 meeting. The girls made mothers day gifts. Maureen Gubbles served treats. The next meeting will be tomorrow (Friday) at 3:45 p.m. Danika Jaeger will bring treats.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Winside Girl Scouts hung signs around town Thursday afternoon advertising the "Drug Free Kids" movie to be shown May 5 to all parents, at St. Paul's Church basement at 7:30 p.m. Christy Mundt served treats. The next meeting will be today (Thursday) at the fire hall at 3:45 p.m. Criss Colwell and Tammy Thies will bring treats.

On Saturday, 18 girls traveled with leaders Peg Eckert and Kathy Holtgrew to Camp Cross Arrows for an overnight camp out. Driving the girls there were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holmstedt.

The girls completed their "World Neighbors" badge work by designing a badge for girls to do in the year 2001. The sixth grade girls completed their Bridge to Cadets by planning an activity. The girls did all their own cooking and cleaning. They also hiked, had egg and spoon races, buckets of water races, played nature bingo, card games and Bible trivia on Sunday morning.

Former Wayne journalist awarded title of Master Editor-Publisher

Former Wayne journalist Ray Dover of the Valentine Newspaper was awarded the title Master Editor-Publisher at a Saturday night ceremony closing the annual convention of the Nebraska Press Association (NPA).

The award was presented by Governor Kay Orr.

The NPA Master Editor-Publisher citation read by the Governor said Nebraska must count itself fortunate that in 1945 Dover "rejected a corporate position in the east and sought instead a newspaper property in Nebraska."

At that point Dover already had experience in weekly newspaper production, had taught school six years and had a World War II career as a supervisor in weapons-producing plants owned by duPont, the company that wanted him to stay on—but in Bridgeport, CT.

Dover returned to Nebraska and with partner Robert Sipe of South Sioux City bought the Republican, one of two newspapers then serving Valentine.

Some benchmarks in Dover's rise to eminence as editor-publisher: Born on a Madison County farm in 1911, he moved into Madison with his parents when he was 8. His first job was running a player piano in his parents' silent theater. At 16 he was valedictorian of his Madison High School class. Bad times delayed college. He clerked in a drug store for a year, then entered Wayne State College, where he was business manager of the campus newspaper.

The next year he enrolled in a Linotype school in Ohio, intending to pay for further college study by working as a printer. He worked on the Edgeley (ND) Mail and on the Wausa-Gazette, then with $35 savings to show for two years headed back to Wayne State.

While completing work on a bachelor's degree in education—cum laude—he worked nights and weekends at the Wayne Democrat and Wayne Herald, and sometimes also at a hamburger shop for meals.

After college Dover took a job at the Wakefield Republican, where he could be close to Marjorie Driskell, whom he had met at Wayne State. He took a job as high school mathematics teacher and left the Wakefield schools six years later as principal. He also had run the Republican two summers while the publishers vacationed.

Dover and Driskell were married Sept. 7, 1941 and he became supervisor with duPont, working at munitions plants in Illinois, Indiana, Alabama, Minnesota and Kentucky the next four years.

Then came the return to Nebraska and purchase of the Valentine Republican.

Dover had been an NPA member 41 years, serving six years on the board of directors. Also a director of the Nebraska Press Advertising Service for six years, he was president of that NPA affiliate in 1970.

He is an elder of the Valentine Presbyterian Church, has served on the school board, is a Rotary past president and former director of the Chamber of Commerce.

President of his Wayne State senior class, Dover was a prime mover in the class's 50th anniversary homecoming, held in conjunction with the college's diamond jubilee last October. He is active in the Wayne State Foundation.

Hand Eczema

One of the most difficult-to-care-for skin conditions is "hand eczema." This is a persistent inflammation of the skin of the hands and arms (a so-called "dermatitis"). In a recent issue of Dermatology News, Dr. Howard Maibach at the University of California Medical School, San Francisco, commented on the diagnosis and treatment of this condition.

Hand eczema is very often caused by contact with irritants in the home or associated with one's work (e.g. chemicals such as herbicides, cleaners, and solvents). Dr. Maibach suggests that those who encounter known or suspected irritants make a habit of wearing gloves. Surprisingly, some individuals will be sensitive to rubber gloves or the powder that is sometimes placed inside gloves. Polyvinyl type gloves may cause less irritation or no irritation in persons who are sensitive to rubber.

According to Maibach, anyone who develops hand eczema before the age of 15 has a "good chance of developing a chronic case" of the condition. He goes on to recommend the use of high potency, topical corticosteroids on a short term or intermittent basis to break the chronic cycle of this condition. Although corticosteroids of this type require a prescription, hydrocortisone cream is available on a non-prescription basis.

Investment Representative Paula Pflueger of Wayne was one of 30 Edward D. Jones & Company representatives recently selected to attend an investment seminar at the American Funds in Los Angeles.

The purpose of the event was to give the representatives an opportunity to discuss investment management with the portfolio managers and analysts of one of the largest families of mutual funds in the U.S. with over $18 billion under management. Other highlights of the seminar, according to Pflueger, were tours of American's facilities and meetings with the portfolio managers.

How to live with loss of bladder control.

Incontinence, the loss of bladder control, is a common problem, often causing extreme embarrassment. So much so, sufferers may refuse to leave the safety and security of their homes.

Fortunately, with medical help from St. Luke's, incontinence is treatable, manageable — even curable!

To help those affected by incontinence, St. Luke's is holding a free, confidential educational program on May 10. The program features urologists, gynecologists and nurse educators discussing the causes and treatment of incontinence, as well as its emotional and psychological aspects.

St. Luke's wants incontinence sufferers to know they can lead a normal, happy, active life. Find out how by attending our program on incontinence. For more information, call (712) 279-3543.

Robert Byrd Scholarship winner

Eleven high school seniors in each of the three Congressional districts have been awarded Robert E. Byrd Honors Scholarships. The scholarship program, named for U.S. Senator Robert Byrd, began in 1987 as an effort to recognize the top senior scholars in every state in the nation. Congressional funding supports the Byrd Honors program, which awards $1,500 scholarships to be used for the winners' first year of study beyond high school. Selection was based on scores from the ACT, each candidate's overall grade point average, and each candidate's rank in his or her high school graduating class. Banquet and awards ceremonies for the First District are Thursday, May 5 at the Cornhusker Hotel in Lincoln. Area students who qualified for the scholarships include: Rachel Boeckenhauer, Laurel-Concord High School; Lanny E. Bowsell, Allen Public High School; Dwight D. Fischer, Wakefield Community School; and Curt Rump, Wayne-Carroll High School.

Law Cadet selections made

The American Legion District III Junior Law Cadet selection was conducted at the Wayne Vets Club April 17. Of the 11 applicants, only six showed. The selecting officers were Dan Meyer, Nebraska Highway Patrol; Bob McLean, Wayne City Police; and Stan Herrick, Wayne County Sheriff Department. Those selected to represent District 3 were Michael Freeman, Laurel; Joel Hansen, Wayne; alternates, Chad Siebrandt, Bancroft; and Kurt Von Minden, Ponca. Only two of the girl applicants were present at the meeting, so Donna Persinger of Ponca and Kelly Fleming of Wayne were chosen to go. Boys State orientation took place at the Wayne Elementary School April 24 at 2 p.m. Twenty-five boys were present plus seven alternates. Mace Kant, last year's Boys Stater from Winside, told of the procedures and activities at last year's Boys State and then held a 10 minute question and answer period.

Greunke on student senate

Darin Greunke of Winside, an agribusiness major, was chosen sophomore student senate member at Northeast Community College in Norfolk.

Students gain convocation honors

Northeast Community College recognized outstanding students at an Honors Convocation April 20 in the Activities Center. Convocation honorees from this area were Jeffrey Chase of Allen, Outstanding Sophomore Student; Utility Line; Patti Claussen, Kearney State College President's Scholarship; and Ronald Hamner, Outstanding Freshman Student, Auto Body Technology.

Wayne AAL gets rating

Members of Aid Association for Lutherans Branch 1470, Wayne, have been awarded a gold star rating by the fraternal society in recognition of exemplary volunteer service to the community. The nearly 6,900 AAL branches are ranked in nine performance categories. To achieve the highest ratings, gold or silver stars, branches must conduct at least one AAL benevolent activity, conduct nine to 12 branch meetings annually, sponsor at least one educational activity and one member awareness event, and comply with attendance, voting and reporting requirements.

OFFICERS OF Branch 1470 are Neil Sandak, Wakefield, president; Dwaine Retnisch, Wayne, vice president; Mary Lou Erxleben, Wayne, secretary; and Dennis Ekberg, Wayne, treasurer. AAL, headquartered in Appleton, Wis., provides 1.4 million members with fraternal benefits, while its affiliated companies offer members other financial services. In addition, AAL members are offered volunteer opportunities to help others in their own communities.

Friday's Chamber of Commerce coffee was in recognition of the 20th anniversary of Feeders Elevator.

4-H News

RAINBOW KIDS
The Rainbow Kids 4-H Club held a bowling party in Norfolk on April 16. John Gallop took part in the speech contest on April 19 and was awarded a purple ribbon. Sha Grothe, Road to Good Cooking leader, held a meeting at the fire hall during April. Cooking utensils were identified, and members learned how to clean celery. Twelve members enrolled in the Arts and Crafts project met during April with leader Bev Schwede and puff-painted T-shirts. On April 23, Jean and Jennifer Severson, Lonnie Grothe and Alicia Gillespie attended a Small Animal Showmanship Clinic held at Bloomfield. Following the clinic, an Open Youth Rabbit Show was held. In the senior division, Lonnie Grothe received a purple ribbon on his French Lop and two blue ribbons on his two mini Lops.

Jean Severson received a purple ribbon on her French Lop in the senior division, and a blue ribbon on her French Lop in the junior division. It also was the reserve champion. Jennifer Severson was awarded a purple for her Rex in the junior division and it was also chosen Best of Show. Next regular meeting of the Rainbow Kids 4-H Club will be May 5 at 4 p.m. at the Hoskins fire hall. Tracie Orr, news reporter.

Walsh: College can be affordable

Many high school students and their parents have a misconception today. They believe a college education is not affordable, according to Susan Walsh, director of financial aid at Wayne State College. "There should almost always be a way for a student to finance his or her education," Walsh says. "They need to start by applying for available grants, and then if they're not eligible for grants or enough money, we would explore the various work and loan programs. "If a family feels they may have trouble meeting college expenses, then it probably means they should apply for financial aid." Concerned students and parents are encouraged to contact the Wayne State financial aid office if they have questions about eligibility, and Walsh encourages them to act before May 15. "We begin awarding following our May priority deadline," Walsh says. "I encourage students or parents to contact me if they need more information." Students may attain aid after May 15 but chances of receiving it are reduced.

Walsh also warns students to be aware of debt they incur. Many colleges with high tuition make a degree affordable during college years, but students are sometimes left with higher debts when they graduate or leave college. "Because of our low state-subsidized tuition, we generally leave students with a much smaller amount of debt than more expensive institutions." Currently, 70 percent of Wayne State's student body receives some form of financial aid.

Working for us. The voice we need.

Jerry Conway has worked hard to create the kind of economic climate Nebraska needs to bring new jobs to our area. He knows that "jobs for Nebraska" means more than just "jobs for Omaha." He knows that without opportunities for our young people, they will continue to leave our communities and move to other states to fulfill their dreams. That's why he fights for northeast Nebraska to receive its fair share from state government: access to quality higher education and state aid for our cities, counties and school systems. And that's why he works for statewide concerns. A strong Nebraska is good for Dakota, Dixon and Wayne Counties. It's good to know that we have Senator Conway on our side.

Vote to return Senator Gerald Conway to the Legislature. He's the voice we need for northeast Nebraska.

1988 WAYNE COUNTY PICTORIAL ATLAS

The Title Atlas Co. of Battle Lake, Mn. is presently compiling a detailed and informative atlas of rural Wayne County. We are about 90% complete. Our professional photographer will be setting up his studio here in Wayne when the farmers complete their spring planting. For your free portrait sitting, all you rural residents will be notified by phone and mail as to the exact time and place. To all of you folks who reserved an atlas you can expect your copy sometime this early autumn.

To all you non rural residents who might be curious as to what a "Farmer's Atlas" is all about, the Wayne County rural atlas centers on the country life in the county-farm families living in rural life. We compiled the last atlas in 1962.

Last October we started this project. We had a crew of five (mostly local residents) who went farm to farm, home to home in the rural areas to verify property. Each rural home will be indicated on the updated maps, along with a numbering system so they can be found quickly and easily-including even the homes on small tracts. Each precinct will be represented by a precinct map, a family history section and a portion of the atlas devoted to pictures of interest submitted by the rural residents.

The "Farmer's Atlas" will also contain sections pertaining to written histories, photographs of the rural residents taken by our own professional photographer. There will also be a section in the back of the atlas featuring all the precinct maps from the 1918 atlas.

For anyone who might be interested in seeing an example of a "Farmers Atlas" Bob Sheckler who runs The Sportsman's Cafe in Wayne, has a copy of The Cuming County NE Atlas that was compiled by Title Atlas last year. The Wayne Atlas will be very similar to it. Or you may contact me at P.O. Box 232, Wayne, NE 68787.

Finally: I would like to thank all of you who have taken time from your busy schedules to be part of this historical heirloom. Your courtesy and cooperation have made this formidable effort a pleasant and memorable experience.

Sincerely,
Steven Kilze
Title Atlas Manager
