Memorial

Seniors at six high schools will be eligible for a Jenny Rae Hascall Memorial Scholarship to Wayne State College.

The fund was established by Randy and Barb Hascall of McCook in memory of their daughter who died in December of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome at the age of six months. The annual scholarship will be worth $100 or more.

Eligible to apply for the scholarship are seniors at Wayne, David City, O'Neill, McCook and Republican Valley high schools. This year's recipient is George E. Cornwell III, a 1988 graduate of Republican Valley High School.

The Hascalls are Wayne State graduates and lived in Wayne until about five years ago when they moved to McCook.

Randy, a David City native and former sports editor and managing editor of The Wayne Herald, works at the McCook Daily Gazette. Barb, an O'Neill native, teaches at Republican Valley High School. They have two children: Jason, age 7 and Heidi, age 3.

Swim club

The Wayne Swim Club will start practice on Monday, Sept. 26 at the Wayne State College pool from 5:15 to 6:30 p.m. Contact Diane Zach, 375-3149 or Sue Schroeder, 375-1194, for further information.

Wellness

Ralph Barclay, director of the Senior Wellness Program at Wayne State College, has announced that the program will begin again on Monday, Oct. 3 at 9 a.m.

The program is open to anyone, and those attending are asked to meet in the lobby of the college's new recreation center. Barclay said participants should be prepared to begin activities that day.

Barclay added that participants in the Senior Wellness Program may choose which activities they wish to participate in. The activities include games and recreation, walking and weight training, low impact aerobic dance and aquatics in the pool.

The Senior Wellness Program runs from Oct. 1 until April 1. Classes are held each Monday, Wednesday and Friday, except during college vacations.

Persons who would like additional information about the programs are asked to call Barclay at Wayne State College, 375-2200, extension 301.

Meeting

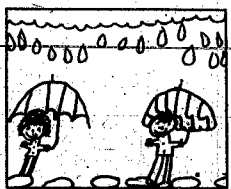

The Wayne County Historical Society will meet for their monthly meeting at the museum at 7th and Lincoln Streets at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 27.

Shower

The Allen Junior Class is sponsoring a household goods and grocery shower for the Greenleaf family to take place Friday, Sept. 23 at the school. Items may be left in a pickup which will be placed at the south main door entrance.

They invite all in the area to join them in this collection of items.

Sharon Greenleaf and children Bonnie, a junior, and Clifford, a freshman at Allen, lost all of their possessions in a fire last week which burned their home to the ground southeast of Waterbury. The junior class is sponsored by Mrs. Torczon.

About the U.S., area schools

Students exchange impressions

Six students have found the United States as their classroom this year while gaining a broad, valuable education experience through the school systems of four area high schools.

They are participants in exchange student programs, enrolled in Wayne-Carroll, Winside, Wakefield and Allen schools.

This past two weeks, The Wayne Herald staff members and correspondent Leona Fork and Dianna Jaeger interviewed the students. Below are the articles based on those interviews.

ASTRID SCHIMMEL Wayne-Carroll

Astrid, age 18, came Aug. 19 to make her home with Mr. and Mrs.

Gordon Davis and Kelli of Carroll. She has completed her senior year of high school in the Netherlands, but remains enrolled as a senior at Wayne-Carroll.

Her father, Gerrit, is an accountant with his own firm in her home of Twello, a city of 15,000 people. Betsy, her mother, is a housewife. She has a brother, age 26, who is attending a university to become a lawyer.

Astrid plans to enroll at the University at Leiden or Groningen where she also will study to become a lawyer.

This is her first stay in the United States. She's been as close as Canada, where she toured and attended a wedding.

Her country is about half of Nebraska's size, but the population is of greater density. She is impressed with America's vastness, the big cars and the fast food that is served.

Cars in Holland are compact models with stick shifts. Noone can get a drivers license before age 18. The cost of a license is $700, and gas is $3 per gallon.

She said she rode nine miles daily to school on her bicycle. Dating isn't common, as groups of young people always got together riding their bicycles.

Fast foods — her favorite is hamburgers — are a rarity in Holland. People hardly eat out, she says. "We eat a lot of vegetables and normally have one hot meal a day," she said.

No microwaves are present in the houses, which are mostly made of brick.

Astrid said she wanted to come to the United States to learn the culture

Commissioners table jail center matter

By Chuck Hackenmiller
Managing Editor

A resolution which would establish the Wayne County Jail as a juvenile detention center was tabled for further consideration by the Wayne County Commissioners during Tuesday's regular meeting at the county courthouse.

Wayne County Attorney Bob Enz and County Sheriff LeRoy Janssen appeared before the commissioners Tuesday morning and afternoon to talk about the proposed juvenile detention center in Wayne. They also presented the commissioners with the resolution and agreements.

However, two of the three commissioners [Gerald Pospishil and Merlin Beiermann] commented that they wanted more time to consider the proposal before signing the resolution.

"I'm not going to sign today. I have to do some personal checking and make some more phone calls. I don't like the idea of having the ground rules laid out after this is accepted," said Commissioner Beiermann.

Under the terms of the agreement, which Janssen said has been signed by Stanton, Cedar, Colfax, Madison and Knox Counties, the juvenile detention facility would be installed in the current Wayne County Jail.

Letters of intent to sign the agreement have also been received from Cumming and Dakota Counties, he said.

THE FACILITY would be under the operational supervision of the Wayne County Sheriff. Other counties would be entitled to use the facility for their juveniles on a space available basis and for the established per diem cost.

Remaining counties would, in turn, accept adult prisoners from Wayne County on a space available basis and for a mutually agreed upon per diem cost.

A joint board, consisting of the counties in the agreement, would be established. This board would appoint an administrative committee, delegated to administer the provisions of the agreement. Serving on the committee would be three commissioners (or supervisors), two county attorneys and two county sheriffs.

Financing of the facility, for the expenses of operation and maintenance of the juvenile detention facility, would be determined annually by the joint board or the administrative committee.

The appropriation would be based on the budget established by Wayne County for the maintenance and operation of the juvenile detention center. Outside sources funding would include funds appropriated by each county as its fair share of expenses.

THE COUNTY commissioners expressed concerns about areas of liability, medical problems with infectious diseases and additional staffing.

Janssen said later that "there will be no increase in liability to Wayne County."

He said medical costs, as stated in the agreement, would be billed back to those counties that sent the juvenile.

To operate the facility, Wayne County's current eight part-time corrections people (jailers) format would have to be changed to provide six full-time and three part positions. Pospishil said another position in the county clerk's office would be necessary to handle the paperwork involved in the operation of the project.

All funds would be appropriated to Wayne County, and the determination on the spending of the appropriations would be at the sole discretion

Bridge repair cost sought

Wayne County Attorney Bob Enz has sent a letter to Robert Fuoss of rural Wayne, stating that Fuoss should pay for the replacement of a bridge that collapsed in Wayne County several weeks ago six miles north and three miles west of Wayne.

He asked that the $9,270 cost for repair of the bridge be picked up by Fuoss. Fuoss' son, David, had crossed the bridge with a grain truck and then the bridge collapsed, according to the Wayne County Sheriff's Office. "I indicated in the letter that the damage was caused by the excessive weight of the vehicle which was over the posted weight on the bridge," Enz said Wednesday morning.

Enz said the correspondence was more in the line of a "mere formality" rather than of a demanding nature.

An investigation had been conducted "to determine responsibility" for the collapse of the bridge. The bridge was posted at three tons maximum weight.

Organization seeks out twins

All area twins are invited to attend an organizational meeting of the Twins Club on Sunday, Oct. 2 at 7:30 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church in Wayne.

Organizers of the new club said meetings will be held once each month and will include various activities and social events.

Persons who would like additional information are asked to call Pat Schmoll in Wayne, 375-5570, or Jeannie Lunz in Allen, 635-2021.

Schmoll said the organization is open to twins of all ages and will serve as a support group as well as social club.

Twins who have not already been contacted are asked to call Schmoll or Lunz. Schmoll added that twins not interested in joining the organization are still asked to contact one of the organizers so they know who they are. Schmoll noted that there are 29 known sets of twins in the community of Wayne alone.

Parenting class offered

An eight-week class on parenting will be offered at the Laurel-Concord School beginning Tuesday, Oct. 4. Sessions will begin at 7:30 p.m. and last approximately two hours.

The class is particularly designed for parents or teachers of teen-age children. Techniques that will be taught are based on Systematic Training for Effective Parenting (STEP). Instructor is Marie George, who has a master of social work from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and has previously taught the basic course of STEP. She also is the mother of six children.

Persons wishing additional information about the class are asked to contact George at (402) 584-2625. Those wishing to register are asked to call the Laurel school office, (402) 256-3731. Advanced registration is required.

Day Care Providers meeting

Wayne Day Care Providers have scheduled a meeting tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in the meeting room at Columbus Federal Savings Bank.

The group will discuss changes being made in day care home regulations.

Selected to youth symphony

Allen High School Senior Noelle Hinrickson, daughter of Vicki Hinrickson, has been selected to the Sioux City Youth Symphony.

Noelle plays clarinet and has received many honors as a member of the Allen High School concert and jazz bands.

Rehearsals for the youth symphony are held in Sioux City every Monday evening.

Birthday celebrated at Wakefield

Meta Jorgenson celebrated her 82nd birthday on Sept. 14 at St. John's Lutheran Church basement in Wakefield. The event was hosted by her daughter, Neva Kraemer.

Attending were Alta Pearson, Edna Echtenkamp, Cleva Willers and Anna Cross of Wayne; Nadine Borj of Dixon; Dorothy Hale of Allen; Harriet Stolle of Concord; Melva Elton, Mike and Andy of South Sioux City; and Karen Witt, Christy and Cory, Gladys Park, Ruth Lempe, Lila Barner, Imogene Samuelson, Irna Agler, Dorla Ekberg, Mary Baker and Clara Holtorf, all of Wakefield.

Ankeny observes 96th year

Russell Ankeny, a former Dixon resident now residing at Hillcrest Care Center in Laurel, observed his 96th birthday on Sept. 18.

Family members visiting him in the afternoon for cake and ice cream included Mr. and Mrs. Wally Bull, Debbie, Sandra and Nathan of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ankeny of Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gries and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gries and son, Norfolk, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gries and daughter, Omaha.

Other relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Ankeny, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abts and Karen, Richard Abts, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Abts and family, Dixon, Mrs. Scott Huetig, Kelli and Kari, Concord, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Greve and family, Wakefield, and the Rev. and Mrs. Dale Westadt, Blair.

Marburgers co-lead marriage encounter

The Rev. Duane and Bonnie Marburger of Concord were co-leaders of a United Marriage Encounter Weekend held Sept. 16-18 in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Among the 26 couples attending the event were Don and Betty Dahlquist, Doug and Lynette Krie, Steven and Star Smith and Keith and Jody Volker, all of Laurel; Randy and Lisa Papenhansen and Terry and Sandy Wilkerson of Coleridge; Dale and Lori Jackson of Allen; and Bruce and Shelly Malcom of Jackson.

A United Marriage Encounter Weekend provides couples who have a good marriage with the opportunity to make it even better by sharing with the couples a method of communication that can lead to growth in their relationship.

A reunion for all couples who have attended a marriage encounter weekend is scheduled Oct. 2 in Concord. Persons who would like information about the reunion or information about future weekends, registration deadlines and locations, are asked to call Duane and Bonnie Marburger, 584-2467.

Marburger serves Concordia Lutheran Church, Concord, and First Lutheran Church, Allen.

Teachers program on Australia

Evelyn and Steve Becher of Wisner were guests at the Sept. 12 meeting of the Wayne Area Retired Teachers Association and gave a presentation on an Australian trip they had taken.

Bechers, who were introduced by hostesses Helen Johnson and Vivene Keller, showed slides of various sites in Australia and told about the country and its people.

Twenty-three members attended the September meeting at the Black Knight. President Fern Kelley opened with a poem, "How Great the Yield From a Fertile Field" by Helen Steiner Rice.

All members were reminded to vote for state officers of NSRTA for the 1988-90 term. Dues were paid for the 1988-89 year.

Minnie Rice, chairman of the nominating committee, will have ballots ready for the next meeting, scheduled Nov. 15. Hostesses will be Gail Martindale and Vera Diederker.

Marci Hansen-Scott Kudrna repeat vows in Lincoln rites

Marci Renee Hansen, daughter of Owen and Carol Hansen of Lincoln, and Scott Stephen Kudrna, son of Charles and Marge Kudrna of Wayne, exchanged marriage vows during a ceremony Sept. 10 at the Evangelical United Lutheran Church in Lincoln.

The 7 o'clock, double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Raabe of Lincoln and the Rev. Larry Ostercamp of Wayne. Decorations included white gladiolus and red carnations at the altar, candelabras and aisle candles.

SOLOIST WAS Dave Hansen of Lincoln, brother of the bride, and organist was Marlene Hallstrom of Lincoln.

Songs included "The Wedding Hymn," "My Prayer for You" and "We've Only Just Begun."

Guests were registered by Sandy Ostercamp of Wayne, and ushered into the church by Virg Kardell of Wayne, Dan Foudray and Steve Sprattlin, both of Lincoln, and John Steiner of Hastings.

Honor attendants were Debbie Hansen of Lincoln, sister of the bride, and Don Stoakes of Sioux City.

Bridesmaids were Karen Foudray, Janelle Hansen and Lauri Hansen of Lincoln, all sisters of the bride, and groomsmen were Robin Kudrna of Boone, Iowa, David Kudrna of Omaha, and Charles Kudrna Jr. of Norfolk, all brothers of the bridegroom.

Lighting candles were Virg Kardell and Dan Foudray. Flower girl and ring bearer were Stacy Kardell and Aaron Kardell, both of Wayne.

ON HER WEDDING day, the bride was given in marriage by her father and appeared in a white gown of sheer ganza over a bridal taffeta lining.

The fitted bodice was trimmed with Chantilly lace highlighted with pearls and sequins. The high sheer yoke was edged at the neckline with venice lace also trimmed with matching jewels. The shepherds sleeves were of matching fabric with Chantilly lace motifs.

The flowing skirt was trimmed with lace motifs, with a border of venice lace traveling around into a semi-cathedral train.

She wore a lace and pearl trimmed headpiece that held triple layers of imported illusion tulle with lace motifs floating on the bottom layer with a small lace edge.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore red satin floor-length frocks fashioned with puffed sleeves, V necklines and scalloped hemlines.

They wore long white gloves and carried long stemmed red silk roses.

The bridegroom was attired in a white tuxedo with a red cummerbund and tie. His attendants wore black tuxedos with red cummerbunds and ties.

The bride's mother selected a red crepe-backed satin dress in floor length with a black jacket. The bridegroom's mother wore a red polyester satin dress, also in floor length.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held at the church. Arranging gifts were DeAnna, Mike and Shonelle Kudrna of Boone, Iowa.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stoakes of Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Rivers of Lincoln, and greeters were Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner of Hastings.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Illene Fry of Lincoln.

Assisting with the reception were members of the Altar Guild of the United Lutheran Church.

THE NEWLYWEDS traveled to Colorado Springs, and are making their home at 420 Walnut, in Wayne.

The bride was graduated from Lincoln Northeast High School in 1985 and from Joseph's College of Beauty in 1986. She is employed at The Headquarters in Wayne.

The bridegroom is a 1980 graduate of Wayne-Carroll High School and a 1981 graduate of Southeast Community College at Milford. He is employed by Restful Knights of Wayne.

FAMILY MEMBERS were present when the couple opened their wedding gifts on Sept. 18 at the Wayne Evangelical Free Church.

A reception followed for approximately 95 guests. The program included a video presentation of the couple's growing up years and wedding ceremony.

Assisting in the kitchen were Mary Stoakes, Gail Gray, Martha Hansen and Debbie Hansen. Martha Hansen poured, and Debbie Hansen served punch.

Residing in Norfolk

Scheel-Brown wed

The marriage of Beth Scheel and Tony Brown was solemnized in 8 o'clock rites Sept. 9 at the First United Methodist Church in Norfolk.

The bride, daughter of Kenneth and Julie Scheel of Montgomery, N.Y., was graduated from Norfolk High School in 1987 and is employed at Alco Discount Store. She plans to pursue a degree in psychology and education.

The bridegroom is the son of Linda Brown of Wayne and William Brown of Algona, Iowa. He was graduated from Algona High School in 1985 and attended Northern Iowa Area Community College. He is city manager of Norfolk for Central States Theater Corporation.

The newlyweds are at home at 2200 Valli Hi, Norfolk.

THE COUPLE'S double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Marvin Koelling of Norfolk. Decorations included peach, white and ivory flowers, white candles and peach bows.

Ann Adams and Steve Sothan of Norfolk registered the guests, who were ushered to their seats by Allan Fencil of Worthington, Ohio and Ray Stangel of Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Kris Nerem was soloist, accompanied by Tracy Nerem of Norfolk. Wedding music included "Doubly Good to You," "One Hand, One Heart" and "A Time for Us." Organist was Lois Knudsen of Norfolk.

HONOR ATTENDANTS for the couple were Amy Scheel of Montgomery, N.Y. and Rob Teeter of Mason City, Iowa.

Bridesmaids were Megan Lindsay, Jenny Sevensing and Sue Kube, all of Norfolk, and groomsmen were Jim Emerson of Des Moines, Iowa, Jay Brown of Algona, Iowa and John Lindsay of Lincoln.

Lighting candles were Shane Taylor and Diane Velder, both of Norfolk.

THE BRIDE WAS escorted down the aisle by her father and appeared in a floor-length gown of ivory satin with a train.

The dress was designed with a deep V back. The bodice was decorated with pearls and sequins, with lace insets on the long sleeves and train.

Her fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of ivory silk flowers and pearls. She carried peach enchantment lilies and white roses.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore lace covered satin peach frocks which were tea length in front and floor length in back.

Their dresses were designed with long sleeves, small V backs and deep dropped waistlines with peach sashes and a large bow in back.

Each wore one peach lily in her hair and carried peach enchantment lilies.

The men in the wedding party were attired in black tuxedos.

The bride's mother chose a dusty rose crepe dress in tea length with an off-white lace collar. The bridegroom's mother wore a peach suit of lace covered satin, also in tea length.

KAREN AND RAY Stangel of Council Bluffs, Iowa and Ray and Rose Sackett of Schaller, Iowa greeted the 218 guests who attended a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Norfolk following the ceremony. Arranging gifts was Matthew Hoxeng of Yankton, S.D.

The wedding cake was cut and served by Lois Nerem of Norfolk and Maryanne Hoxeng of Yankton. Tammy Sackett of Schaller, Iowa poured and Julie Gettman of Norfolk served punch.

Waitresses were Kristin Kraemer, Stephanie Chapman, Nicky Reeves and Laura Pennington, all of Norfolk.

Policy on Weddings

The Wayne Herald welcomes news accounts and photographs of weddings involving families living in the Wayne area.

We feel there is widespread interest in local and area weddings and are happy to make space available for their publication.

Because our readers are interested in current news, we ask that all weddings and photographs offered for publication be in our office within 10 days after the date of the ceremony. Information submitted with a picture after that deadline will not be carried as a story but will be used in a cutline underneath the picture. Wedding pictures submitted after the story appears in the paper must be in our office within three weeks after the ceremony.

Barb Meyers, Ponca, and Bonnie Marburger, Concord, were elected co-leaders for the Family Community Leadership Thrust.

COUNCIL GOALS for 1989 were presented by Mattes, goals committee chairman, for adoption by the council. Revisions of the council constitution also were approved.

Barb Meyers reported that about 117 educational U.S. Flag Etiquette packets were distributed in June to home extension council presidents of all counties in Nebraska and to others requesting the packet.

Packets also have been presented to schools in Wakefield, Emerson, Ponca, Newcastle and Laurel.

Each extension club president at the council meeting also received the lesson packet.

SPECIAL REPORTS were given by Betty Anderson, Concord, and Joanne Rahn and Dorothy Hale, Allen, who served as Dixon County delegates to the Nebraska Council of Home Extension Clubs annual convention in Norfolk last June.

Auxiliary schedules events

Five members of DAV Auxiliary 28 of Wayne held their regular monthly meeting on Sept. 12 in the Wayne Vet's Club room.

Commander Ruth Wacker opened the meeting, followed with prayer by Chaplain Carole Nordby and the flag salute led by Verona Bargholz.

The treasurer's report was given by Irma Baier.

Entertainment will be provided by Cyril Hansen.

NEVA LORENZEN furnished lunch following the meeting. Next meeting will be Oct. 19 at 8 p.m. at the VFW Hall in Hartington.

IT WAS ANNOUNCED the fall conference will be held Sept. 29 through Oct. 1 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

A bingo party was held Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. at the Norfolk Veterans Home. Furnishing cakes were Neva Lorenzen, Elda Jones, Carol Nordby, Verona Bargholz and Mary Woelher.

Eveline Thompson reported on a supper planned for residents of the Norfolk Veterans Home on Sept. 26 at 6 p.m., sponsored by the American Legion, VFW and DAV Auxiliaries.

The GOLDEN YEARS

The American Heart Association reports that 50 percent of middle-aged Americans have cholesterol levels above 200 milligrams — at which, it says, the risk of heart disease begins to rise sharply. The bright side: A 10-year study, involving 4,000 men with high cholesterol levels, found fewer heart attacks among those who lowered their levels with diet and drugs prescribed by doctors. Getting your cholesterol checked by your doctor can be an important step toward longer life.

Looking ahead to the year 2,000, the Veterans Administration estimates that two of every three men over age 65 at that time will be veterans of military service.

Remember when? 1954 — L. A. Swanson and Sons Company gave Americans their first TV Dinner, with a box depicting a TV set. The dinner of sliced turkey, gravy, buttered peas and sweet potatoes cost about $1.

Presented as a public service to our senior citizens, and the people who care about them by the Wayne Care Centre, 918 Main Street, Wayne, Nebraska 68787.

Bridal Showers

Kathy Stalling

October bride-elect Kathy Stalling of Wayne was presented a shower Sept. 18 in the home of Jan and Clayton Stalling of Wayne. Hostesses were Kathy Berry, Dorothy Isom and Donna Stalling.

Twenty-three guests attended the fête. The program included a poem read by the honoree's mother, Jan Stalling.

Miss Stalling, daughter of Jan and Clayton Stalling, and Robert Berry, son of Richard and Patricia Berry of Wakefield, will be married Oct. 15 at Salem Lutheran Church in Wakefield.

Methodist women meet

Wayne United Methodist Women met Sept. 14 for a 12:30 p.m. luncheon with 40 members and three guests present. Co-hostesses were Doris Walker and Marj Porter.

Mildred Jones spoke on missions in Singapore. A skit was given to invite persons in the Northeast District to Wayne for the annual meeting in September 1989. Honored with the birthday song were Marjorie Summers, Elsa Syber and Thelma Day.

Martha Brodersen gave devotions, and Gwen Jensen introduced Lynette Joslin from Laurel who spoke on stress.

PRESIDENT JOYCE Niemann introduced the guests, Lynette Joslin, Bev Hansen and Irma Koester.

Niemann also told about the annual meeting held in Bloomfield, with 14 persons attending from Wayne. The Wayne church received certificates of achievements for its six-hour study on the books of Acts and Daniel. Nickie Tiedtke received honors as having one of the top three posters in the district. The poster will be taken to the annual meeting in Hastings.

Ilene Nichols asked for volunteers to assist with the spaghetti supper to be held Sept. 25 at 6 p.m. in the church fellowship hall.

Wayne Methodist Women were issued an invitation from the Carroll Methodist Church to attend their guest day meeting and birthday party on Sept. 28 at 2 p.m.

NEXT MEETING OF Wayne United Methodist Women will be Oct. 12 with Connie Hall and Sue Davis serving as co-hostesses.

Puttin' up with Pete

by Kevin Peterson

Last football season only one area team covered in the Wayne Herald had a winning record — barely. Laurel finished the season at 5-4 after a good start.

This season is a complete different story so far. We'll start with the Blue Devils. Wayne finished at 1-8 last year with a very inexperienced ball club.

This season the Blue Devils are playing much better football and when quarterback Jess Zeiss gets time to throw, Wayne has some of the best quality receiving corp around.

Willy Gross, Elliot Salmon, Eric Runestad and Kevin Hausemann all are quality receivers but the best part about the foursome are the way they run their routes. Even when the play calls for them to run a pattern and they do not get the ball, they still run the exact patterns.

Defensively, Wayne is very strong and with a 2-1 record heading into Friday, the Blue Devils are looking to triple last years win number.

Probably the most improved team from a year ago is Randy Geier's Winside Wildcats. Winside also sports a 2-1 record heading into Friday's clash with unbeaten and number one ranked Coleridge.

Winside's speed and size in the offense and defense has led to some big numbers over Beemer and Hartington. The Wildcats only loss was to top rated Walthill in D-1.

Tim Jacobsen, without a doubt, is the top quarterback in the area. Jacobsen, a pure athlete, has some talent surrounding him in speedster Max Kant and horselike running back Chris Nau.

Nau, like Kant has some excellent speed, and his strength has to be gaining notice with college scouts. When Jacobsen throws the ball he has to be smiling in the back of his mind when he sees teammate and favorite target Steve Heinemann. Heinemann's skills may be overlooked by many not associated with Winside football, but in this writer's view, Heinemann has an extreme abundance in talent.

The Allen Eagles football team has been synonymously referred to as a lost cause in recent years — NO MORE!

New head coach Mike Busselman stepped into a program whose last win was in 1986. But Busselman's optimism leaped when he took a gander at the junior class.

The leading rusher in the area is I-back junior Kent Chase. Chase has amazing quickness and his lateral speed is a joy to watch. Chase has picked up 340 yards rushing in three games and has scored four touchdowns.

Opposing teams are no longer looking past Allen. Quarterback Matt Hings and receiver Shane Dahl are just a few offensive weapons who's names people will be hearing a lot about the remainder of this season and for some, next season.

Defensively, Allen has shown great improvements. Rusty Dickens and Ben Jackson are just two of the names that are usually in on several tackles a game.

The Eagles, you might recall won their game against Wausa a week ago, which will go along way in rebuilding the spirit of Allen football, which may have been lost by some, amidst the losing stretch.

Wakefield is 1-1 on the year and they must face a strong team in Bancroft-Rosalie this week. Coach Dennis Wilbur has some experience on his team in John Wriedt on the lines and running backs Scott Lund and Tony Halverson.

There is also experience in the defense as Wakefield returned seven starters from a 4-5 squad last season. Wakefield's size and strength will pay dividends for the remainder of the season.

Laurel is the only area team which is winless. Now before we jump on the bandwagon against Laurel, remember what the system is going through over there.

First year coach Tom Luxford has changed a wishbone type ball team into a veer. Laurel graduated its starting backfield from a year ago and with the personnel Laurel has this season, this writer feels the move to a veer was smart.

At any rate, Laurel is battling leadership problems with only a handful on the squad. Laurel may not have a winning record in football in 1988, but Luxford is quietly building for the future.

So last year we had only one area team with a winning record. This season I predict three of the five to come out with a winning record and possibly one, maybe two teams to advance to the playoffs.

Sports Briefs

Football game postponed

The Wayne reserve football game with Pierce last Thursday, was postponed until October 17. The game will be played at the same time and place as previously scheduled.

Allen junior high wins

The Allen junior high volleyball team opened up its season last Monday with both the seventh and eighth grade teams successful over Hartington in Allen.

The junior high teams are coached by Sandy Chase. The seventh grade won in straight sets, 15-5, 15-12. Dawn Diedrick was the top server. The eighth grade was drawn to three sets, 13-15, 17-15, 15-3. Sonya Plueger and Hillary Blair were top servers.

The junior high football team continued to carry on its winning ways by winning an 8-6 decision over Hartington. Bren Mattes provided the locals with a 54-yard touchdown run in the final moments of the game. Justin Kelly converted the two point attempt for the win.

Jeff Schoning, the head coach witnessed Mattes and Kelly as the leading tacklers as well.

Wayne trounces visiting Norfolk

Kristy Hansen continued her quality serving skills for the Wayne Blue Devil volleyball team Tuesday night as Wayne hosted Class A Norfolk.

Hansen came into the game ranked number four in Class B in serve percentage, and number 17 among all classes. Against Norfolk, Hansen did nothing to hurt her spot as she was a perfect 17-17 from the service line for 13 points and two aces. The effort by the Blue Devil team as a whole in serving was excellent, enabling Wayne to an easy two set victory over Norfolk, 15-2, 15-3.

"I believe that Norfolk is a much better team than what they showed against us," head coach Marlene Uhing said. "They had a lot of trouble with our serves and you could just tell that their concentration level wasn't probably where it usually is."

Not taking anything away from Wayne either, Uhing was very pleased with the way her squad performed. "Overall we had some good individual performances in passing and that made a difference in our net attack," Uhing said.

Uhing noted that her squad is usually pretty solid on defense, but offense is where they need to work. Against Norfolk, the offense looked good as Dana Nelson recorded five kill spikes with no errors and a .454 kill spike percentage.

Nelson also sparked in serve receive with a perfect night of passing the ball to the setter on the serve receive. Nelson along with Hansen and Teresa Ellis and Rachel Haase were the spark plugs on the serving success.

Although Haase is only a sophomore, Uhing is pleased with her efforts in practice which is now paying off in varsity action. "Rachel's attitude is super during practices," Uhing said. "She listens well and is a very coachable athlete."

Robin Luff also had a fine night in serve receive with a .857 percentage. Again, Kristy Hansen and Teresa Ellis were the main setters with Hansen getting four assists for a 22 percent set for kill ratio, while Ellis connected for three assists and 21 percent set for kill ratio.

Hansen was also the leading blocker for the Blue Devils as she recorded three, proving that Hansen was virtually everywhere on the court.

With the type of offense that the Blue Devils run, a lot of girls play just certain spots in the lineup. Deanna Schluns, Robin Luff, Dana Nelson and Rachel Haase all had extremely good nights from playing in the back row.

Wayne will now host a pool play tournament with Pierce, Madison, and Wisner-Pilger this Saturday beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Incidentally, the reserve team was defeated by Norfolk, 14-16, 1-15. Amy Tiedtke led the team with five points while Jennifer Hammer was the top spiker with a 5-7 performance with two kills.

The "C" team was defeated 14-16, 9-15, with Lana Casey scoring the most points for Wayne, with nine.

Wayne State loses to number two rated Baker

For the first time this season, Wayne State's football team had the lead over its opponent. The Wildcats marched downfield in the first quarter and scored on a Scott Raue one yard touchdown on fourth and goal.

The drive was well sustained by the throwing of Raue and the poise the Wildcats showed was undoubtedly the best of the young season.

However, whatever emotional high Wayne State experienced on the first quarter touchdown was deflated on the ensuing kickoff as Baker's Derrick Watts received the ball on the one yard line and rambled 99 yards for the tie.

At the first quarters end the score was knotted at seven. Baker added a field goal and a 39 yard run in the second quarter by Fulton to increase its lead to 17-7 at intermission.

The visiting Baker, playing its first game of the season, scored first in the second half as Lierz made good on a two yard run. Wayne State scored again in the third quarter on a 29 yard pass to Kevin Hagedorn.

Lierz scored one more touchdown in the fourth quarter for Baker and Gardner added yet another field goal to make up the total points.

"We did some good things against Baker," head coach Peter Chapman said. "I think right now we're having trouble making the transition to the run and shoot since Damon Ross got hurt."

Chapman noted that sometimes his offense is a little predictable which is probably normal in a situation in which Wayne State was dealt, in losing Ross.

"I think Baker's kickoff return after our touchdown in the first quarter really let the wind out of our sails," Chapman said. "Right now our main problem is we can't find ourselves-offensively."

The Wildcats once again suffered through the rushing category gaining 35 yards on 20 attempts. Raue was 16-37 through the air but tossed three interceptions. Wayne State picked up 162 aerial yards.

Pat Wordekemper and John Pezdirtz each caught four passes with Wordekemper picking up 46 yards and Pezdirtz, 12. Chuck Burt caught three balls for 30 yards while Kevin Hagedorn caught two passes for 33 yards and one touchdown.

Wordekemper, the team punter, punted seven times for a 43.7 yard average.

Wayne State will turn its concentration to the road contest this weekend with Missouri Western. Western is off to its best start since 1981 with a 3-0 record and victories over Missouri-Rolla, Benedictine and Northwest Missouri State.

Last week against Northwest, the Griffons came from behind after trailing 26-10 early in the third quarter.

Missouri Western averages 345 yards a game while giving up 227. The majority of the offense is from the rush as they average nearly 255 yards per game.

Spikers win tourney

The Wayne State volleyball team has played in three invitational this season. After placing second in the Early Bird Invitational in Wayne, the Wildcats won the Dordt Invite and this past weekend they captured their second consecutive Invitational at Briar Cliff.

The Wildcats defeated four teams over the weekend and never lost, boosting their season mark to 12-5 and seven consecutive match victories.

Graceland College was the first team which fell victim to coach Doug Feagan's Cats in a four set match, 15-7, 6-15, 15-11, 16-14.

Wayne State downed Westmar in the second match of the Invite in straight sets, 15-5, 15-6, 15-7. Dakota State proved to be no match for Wayne State either, as the Wildcats disposed of them in straight sets as well, 15-9, 15-8, 15-1.

In the finals Wayne State took to the floor with the host team Briar Cliff. The championship match lasted only three sets as Wayne State came away with a 15-8, 15-12, 15-7 championship win.

Paige continues streak

The Wayne Lady Linksters were in action twice during the past week, with an Invitational in Blair last Friday, and a triangular in Stanton on Tuesday.

The locals placed second in the Blair Invitational to the host team. Following Wayne was Blair's "B" team, then Ashland, Syracuse and Wahoo. Wayne did however represent the medalist honor with Holly Paige. Paige fired a 92 on the 18-hole course. Ann Perry placed fourth individually with a 98 and Jill Jordan fired a 109 to lead the Blue Devils.

Tuesday, Wayne traveled to Stanton to play in a triangular with the host team and Columbus Lakeview. Wayne carded a team effort of 223, which was 15 strokes better than runner up Columbus Lakeview.

The Blue Devil twosome of Holly Paige and Ann Perry placed first and second respectively with Paige carding a 49 and Perry a 50. Jill Jordan placed sixth with a 59 and Cher Reeg placed ninth by carding a 65.

"It was a beautiful day for playing golf," head coach Dick Metfeer said. "But the gnats and bees by the river were all over, making for some interesting moments."

Wayne will now be the host for the Wayne Invitational this Saturday at the Wayne Country Club. Metfeer expects at least eight teams, maybe nine to participate. Action is expected to get underway around 9:30 a.m.

The Wakefield Trojans carried a number four ranking into Hartington's volleyball gymnasium Tuesday night, and although coach Paul Eaton's team received a stiff challenge, they responded well, running the season mark to 6-0, with a nine day layoff until the Wynot game.

Hartington defeated the Trojans, 15-17 in the first set and visions of upset danced through their heads. Wakefield however, would have no part of it as they rallied to win the next two sets, 15-7, 15-10.

"Hartington played a very good match," Eaton said. "Jill Herbolzheimer is a very good athlete in Hartington and she played very well against us."

The Trojans played just well enough to win, even though they didn't have one of their strongest outings of the year. Eaton however, is pleased about getting the majority of his heavy travel schedule out of the way.

"We're very pleased to escape five travel matches out of our first six, undefeated," Eaton said.

Cathi Larson, Julie Greve and Karen Hallstrom led the servers against Hartington with Larson receiving eight points on a 14-15 effort from serving. Julie Greve was 13-14 in serving with six points while Hallstrom had six points on 14-15 serving.

Hallstrom and Greve were very busy in spiking as each attempted 35 spikes with Hallstrom connecting on 32 of them with 12 aces and 4-4 in tips with three aces. Greve was 29-35 with five aces and 5-6 in tips with two aces.

Jessica Robbins was 8-12 in spiking with three aces to round out the spiking attempts. With the astronomical amount of spikes Wakefield attempted, you can bet the setters Cathi Larson and Karen Witt were busy.

Larson made good on 58 of her 60 set attempts while Witt was 53-55. Robbins incidently, was the leading blocker for Eatons' squad with five blocks and three ace blocks.

The Wakefield junior varsity defeated Hartington, 15-3, 15-5 while the freshman got by the host team in straight sets, 11-4, 11-2.

Winside drops volleyball match

Winside hosted Class D-rated Wausa Tuesday night and in the first set, it looked as though Winside was about to break their dry spell on not winning a set yet. The Wildcats were up 13-11 and serving, but eventually lost, 13-15, 4-15.

"Wausa has a very good team and we gave them all they could handle in the first set," head coach Paul Giesselmann said. "I really think that was the best set our girls have played yet."

That all leads to one thing, once Winside starts winning, lookout! Giesselmann noted that there was a letdown after the first set, which led to the lopsided 4-15 match game. "After we led and should have won the first set, we just kind of letdown mentally," Giesselmann said.

The Wildcats played good defense and did a good job of passing the ball to setter Tina Hartmann who was 35-39 in sets. As a team the Wildcats served 88 percent with a 30-34 outing.

Tina Hartmann led the way with a 10-10 performance with Kristy Miller and Christina Bloomfield right behind at 6-6 and 4-4 respectively. Miller had three ace serves.

Lisa Janke was 4-6 in serving with one ace while Shannon Holdorf finishing 4-5. Kristy Miller led the spikers with a 10-12 outing with eight aces. Lisa Janke was second with 7-8 and three aces and Christina Bloomfield followed with a 5-7 outing and three aces.

Eagle gridders manhandled by Beemer, 57-22

Sporting a 1-1 record, Allen's football team traveled to Beemer last Friday night in hopes of going over the .500 mark for the first time in several years.

On paper it looked as though the Eagles would have a legitimate shot at beating the host Beemer squad, but Beemer took advantage of some big plays and ran away from the Eagles, 57-22.

"It was not a good night for our team," head coach Mike Busselman said. "We gave up some big plays and we ended up losing our starting quarterback in the third quarter."

Allen scored its first touchdown in the first quarter as Matt Hingst hit an open Shane Dahl from 20 yards out. Kent Chase ran for the two point conversion.

In the second period Allen scored two points on a safety in which the Beemer snapped the ball over the punters head and through the endzone.

Ben Jackson was the bright spot for Busselman in the second half on the offensive side of the ball as he scored both second half touchdowns. The first on a 19 yard pass from Shane Dahl who was forced into the quarterback slot when Hingst went down with a sprained foot.

Jackson's second touchdown came in the fourth quarter on a five yard run. "Dahl has a good passing arm," Busselman said. "He did a fine job of replacing Hingst, but still Hingst is our number one" quarterback when he's healthy."

Busselman noted the quality play of Ben Jackson. "Jackson probably had the most notable game," Busselman said. "We had to rotate both he and Kelly Boswell into the offense after Hingst got hurt."

Kent Chase continued to lead the area teams in rushing as he scampered 92 yards on 26 carries. Paul Brentlinger carried the ball five times for 34 yards.

Defensively, Rusty Dickens and Ben Jackson stood out with Dickens in on 11 tackles and Jackson, 10. "The spirits of the guys are still positive,"

Busselman said. "We have a tough game this week at Walthill, but we're going up with the attitude that we're going to win."

KRISTY MILLER and Tina Hartmann work together on a return from Wausa.

Crystal ball sees Wayne win

Last week, in my first ever crystal ball picks, I went 3-5 for a 60 percent ratio. Not bad. I missed on Wayne over South Sioux and Laurel over Ponca. This week I have decided to expand my predictions into the college and pros as well as five high school games.

Wayne 19, West Point 16. — Look for the Blue Devils to bounce back with a healthy Eric Liska this week. South Sioux beat Wayne on two big plays despite playing even in the statistical department.

Osmond 16, Laurel 14 — Laurel's losing woes continue this week as they travel to Osmond. The Bears will put up a fight, but fall a little short. Walthill 44, Allen 19 — Allen has a tough chore ahead of them as they travel to previous number one rated Walthill this week. Walthill is coming off a loss to Bancroft-Rosalie and is probably not in a very good mood.

Wakefield 26, Bancroft-Rosalie 22 — This is part one of my upset specials as Wakefield entertains the traditionally sound Bancroft-Rosalie. A healthy Wakefield goes a long way. If coach Dennis Wilbur has a full strength team, which they shouldn't be far from since they had an open week last Friday, Wakefield could and will surprise a team which feels they have a legitimate shot at being number one after beating Walthill.

Winside 28, Coleridge 20 — This is part two of my upset specials as Winside and coach Randy Geier travel to Bulldog country where Coleridge maintains the top ranking in Class D-2. Upstart signal caller Tim Jacobsen leads a 2-1 Winside team which is gaining worlds of confidence after scoring 130 points in three games.

Nebraska 48, Arizona State 10 — No I do not breathe, sleep and eat Nebraska football. In fact, without stepping on any toes, I'm probably only one in a handful that appreciates good football all over the country, not just Nebraska. At any rate, the Huskers loss to UCLA will haunt Arizona State. The game is on ESPN.

Other top games: USC 27, Oklahoma 21; Iowa 56, Iowa State 14; Sunday: San Francisco 24, Seattle 17; New York Giants 20, Los Angeles Rams 17.

West Point man wins

Dwaine Hedell of West Point and Mylet Bargholz of rural Wakefield were the winners of the Wayne Herald football contest in its first week.

Both Hedell and Bargholz missed five games each with Hedell winning on having a closer tie breaking estimate.

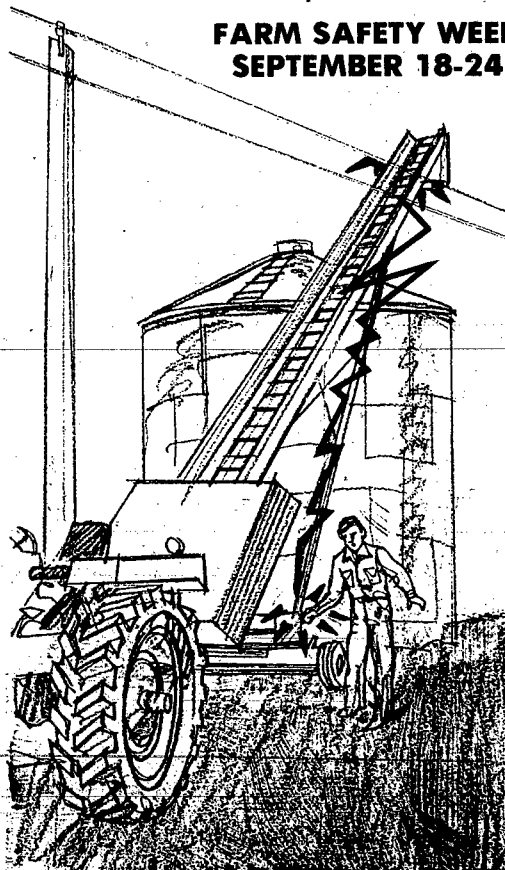

The five games missed by Hedell included Iowa's loss to Colorado, Wayne's loss to South Sioux, Kentucky's loss to Indiana, Walthill's loss to Bancroft-Rosalie and of course the Yale-Brown tie.

Bargholz missed on Iowa, Michigan State's loss to Notre Dame, Hartington's loss to Winside, Chicago's loss to Minnesota and the Yale-Brown tie.

Congratulations to the winner and good luck to all future participants.

Minnie Hinnerichs

Minnie Hinnerichs, 90, formerly of Wayne, died Tuesday, Aug. 30, 1988 at Tabitha Nursing Home in Lincoln.

Services were held Friday, Sept. 2 at Calvary Lutheran Church in Lincoln with graveside services at Greenwood Cemetery in Wayne. The Rev. Maurice Goldammer officiated.

Minnie Hinnerichs, the daughter of George and Caroline Butenschein Otte, was born April 11, 1898 at Carroll. She attended school and spent her childhood there before marrying Julius Hinnerichs on Feb. 14, 1918. They farmed in the Carroll vicinity and moved into Wayne in 1945. Julius died in 1958 and she moved to Lincoln in 1961. She spent the past 10 months at Tabitha Nursing Home in Lincoln.

Survivors include two daughters, Helen Hinnerichs and Mrs. James (Arlene) Miller, both of Lincoln; three grandchildren; six great grandchildren; one sister-in-law, Margaret Otte of Neligh; nieces and nephews.

Jack Lieneman

Jack Lieneman, 84, of Randolph died Tuesday, Sept. 13, 1988 at his home. Services were held Friday, Sept. 16 at St. John's Lutheran Church. The Rev. Ivan Amman officiated.

Jack Lieneman, the son of John and Marie (Stover) Lienemann, was born March 20, 1904 on a farm south of Wayne. He was baptized at a Lutheran Church in Wayne County. He moved to a farm south of Randolph as a small boy. He attended school at District 39 in Pierce County. He was confirmed at St. John's Lutheran Church in Randolph on March 20, 1920. He married Helen Petersen of McLean on Oct. 20, 1931 at a Lutheran Church in Laurel. They lived on a farm south of Randolph. They retired in 1976 and moved into Randolph. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church.

Survivors include his wife, Helen; two sons, Arnold of Doniphan and Donald of Randolph; five sisters, Mrs. Fred (Martha) Bargstadt, Mrs. Anna Bargstadt, Mrs. Emma Bargstadt, all of Pierce, Mrs. Marie Rathman of Norfolk and Mrs. Ludwig (Frieda) Broer of Randolph; three brothers, Henry Lieneman of Norfolk, Ben Lieneman of Randolph and Ernest Lieneman of Nathrop, Colo.; eight grandchildren; six great grandchildren; and 27 nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, an infant son and one brother, Bill. Burial was in the Hillcrest Cemetery in Norfolk with Johnson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Alex Eddie

Alex Eddie, 87, of Randolph died Friday, Sept. 9, 1988 at the Colonial Manor in Randolph where he had resided for the past two years.

Services were held Monday, Sept. 12 at the United Methodist Church in Carroll. The Rev. Keith Johnson of Wayne officiated.

Alex R. Eddie, the son of Robert and Melvina Olinger Eddie, was born Nov. 18, 1900 in Modale, Iowa. He married Mae Lage on June 14, 1922 in Wayne. The couple farmed near Carroll most of their married life, retiring and moved to Randolph in 1969. He was a member of the United Methodist Church in Carroll.

Pallbearers were grandsons Charles Eddie, Marlon Eddie, Paul Eddie, Dan Eddie, Lynn Bailey and Gary Grier.

Survivors include his wife, Mae of Randolph; two sons, Wendell of Randolph and Robert of Aurora; three daughters, Mrs. John (Norma) Grier of Nuevo, Calif., Margaret Cunningham of Carroll and Dorothy Eddie of Randolph; one sister, Eva Eddie of Randolph; 15 grandchildren; 35 great grandchildren; and three great great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, two sisters and one grandchild.

Burial was in the Elmwood Cemetery in Carroll with Johnson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

German vesper service scheduled at Redeemer

Redeemer Lutheran Church of Wayne will continue its year-long centennial celebration on Sunday, Sept. 25 with a 7 p.m. vesper service. Special guests will be the Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Rowoldt, who spent time in Germany as participants in the pastoral exchange program. They will show slides of the area in Germany where Martin Luther spent his life. A German lynch will conclude the evening, and the public is invited to attend.

Wayne woman district president

Methodist women attend Northeast District meeting

Fourteen women from the First United Methodist Church of Wayne were among approximately 260 persons attending the annual meeting of Northeast District United Methodist Women on Sept. 13 at Bloomfield.

Theme was "Working Together - Caring, Sharing."

Following registration, the program began with a fun sing. Greetings were extended by Amy Willits, local unit president from Bloomfield; the Rev. Gary Aten, pastor of the Bloomfield-Verdigre-Crofton United Methodist Churches; and Mrs. Robert Coleman of Ainsworth, vice president of the Nebraska Conference United Methodist Women.

THE BUSINESS meeting was conducted by Mrs. Gerald (Janet) Kohl of Wayne, northeast district president.

Special recognition pins were presented to Margaret Johnson of O'Neill for making lapel pins for district officers for many years, and to the Rev. Ron Roemmich of Norfolk, northeast district superintendent. Roemmich also was guest speaker for the event.

The dedicated light burned for persons named by individual units

Individuals were recognized for participation in the Reading Program. Poster contests on membership and undesignated giving were held with the winning posters being forwarded to the conference meeting slated in October.

MEMBERS COLLECTED non-food items in addition to scarves, caps and mittens to be donated to the United Methodist Ministries, Omaha, and Epworth Village, York.

The day ended with coffee and cake in celebration of 20 years of Response Magazine.

In Ag Lending It Isn't Enough To Just Know Credit

To do the right job of ag lending it takes more than a knowledge of credit. A loan officer also has to understand agriculture.

When your only business is ag lending, it requires a real working knowledge of your customer's business...an ability to understand their practical day to day needs. This has always been one of the strengths of Farm Credit.

Meet the people who are part of today's Farm Credit Services team, people who not only know lending...they understand agriculture.

need for passes to walk in the hall," she said. "At lunch, we could go anywhere. Here, we're in school all the time."

While attending school in Holland, the freedom also came with responsibility. "We had to be more responsible to our work," she said.

Astrid, a member of the Protestant church, enjoys skiing (one or two weeks during the year they ski the slopes in Austria), jazz ballet and windsurfing.

She said there is a lot of rain in her country — a level country where there is farming and industry similar to America. She also has a pair of wooden shoes, and says farmers there all wear 'clogs'.

Astrid got a taste of the U.S. climate as she and 14 other young exchange students found their flight delayed in Chicago due to stormy weather.

There will be a reunion of all Nebraska exchange students during the Sept. 24 weekend in Omaha — and both Astrid and host 'sister' Kelli plan to attend.

KANICHI SAITO
Wayne-Carroll

One thing Kanichi appreciates here in the United States is space — as in elbow room.

In Niigata, Japan, his home where the population numbers close to 460,000 people, housing is crowded. In his first stay ever in America, he finds the houses big and spacious, with no need to share dwellings with other families in the same building.

"This is a large country. It has long and straight highways. And it is not crowded," Kanichi said.

His father, Yutaka, is a principal of an elementary school. Kyoko, his mother, is a high school math instructor.

American education is good, he said. "American schools are more free than Japanese schools," he said. "For instance, we don't have drivers education. We study only to enter the university."

While the 18-year-old Japanese student is attending his senior year at Wayne-Carroll, he is being hosted by the Jack March family.

"Life is different from Japan and America," he said. "You have a lot of junk food."

But he isn't complaining about that. One thing he has noticed, however, is that Japan rice sticks to chopsticks much better than the drier American rice.

His hobbies are skiing, roller skating and skateboarding. In Japan, he is a member of a ski club and spends about a month each year hitting the slopes.

"I like Michael Jackson and listening to music, too," he said.

He enjoys setting up electronics and lighting for music concerts in his Japanese city. He plans to become an electronics engineer upon finishing his education.

His favorite classes at Wayne-Carroll, he said, are math, physical education and working with computers.

Upon his return to Japan, Kanichi will return to finish one more year of high school before completing requirements necessary to further his education. His year of American education will not qualify him for entrance into the university, he mentioned.

SEBASTIAN GRONSTRAND
(Winside)

"Being in the United States was a long-time desire for 16-year-old Sebastian Gronstrand.

Sebastian arrived in Winside on Aug. 22 from his home in Porvoo, Finland as an exchange student through Educational Foundation of Foreign Study.

While in Winside, Sebastian is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Olson.

"I have always thought this country to be the greatest and I've always wanted to see it. I also want to learn the language better, make new friends, and see how people behave over here."

Sebastian's father, Finn, is a finance manager for a corporation and his mother, Mag-Len, is a nurse at a private health station for a number of large corporations. Sebastian also left behind a 14-year-old brother Sam, and two dogs, Nalle and Eva.

"I have finished my compulsory schooling at home," says Sebastian.

"In Finland, pupils must attend school for nine years then they may select a vocational school for three years. We don't have a big graduation from compulsory school. We have ours after our vocational schooling."

Sebastian plans on attending Borga "Gymnasium" College after his stay in Winside, however he hasn't decided on a specific career. Borga is the Swedish name for Porvoo.

"I will probably seek a career in business, however I would like to do something around water. Boating and sailing are two of my favorite hobbies."

Sebastian and his brother Sam have a small motor boat of their own, while the family has a larger one. Porvoo, a city of 20,000, is located in the southeastern corner of Finland and has the River of Porvoo, a major body of water, running through it.

"In my country we are required to speak both Swedish and Finnish. We have a choice if we want to go to a Swedish school or a Finnish school, depending on which is our family language. We also are required to take five years of English unless we have trouble with our native language."

Sebastian also speaks French, although he says "not very well."

Sebastian is excited about his classes at Winside. He is taking computers, biology and American problems — classes which he hasn't been able to take in Finland.

"We don't have as many electives in our compulsory school. We have to take more required classes."

While in the United States, Sebastian hopes to visit Washington, D.C. and New York City. However, he says there are many other fascinating places he would also like to see.

Sebastian's family plans to visit him while he is staying in the United States.

TAKAO KUROUME
(Wakefield)

Seventeen-year-old Takao Kuroume of Hitachi, Japan arrived in the United States on Aug. 9 for a year-long stay with the Tom Turney family of Wakefield.

Takao is making his home with the Turneys while attending Wakefield High School as an exchange student.

Takao says there haven't been a lot of surprises awaiting him in America, although he is amazed at the number of working mothers — far more than are found in Japan.

The exchange student said he finds the people kind and friendly, and he has already discovered that his favorite American foods include hamburgers and pizza.

While in Wakefield, Takao is studying English, adult living and American history. He also is taking art and physical education, and participates in football. He also plans to play basketball.

In Japan, Takao participates in volleyball and soccer.

His father is employed as a turbine operator at a plant in Hitachi, a city of 200,000 located near Tokyo, and his mother teaches English. He has two older brothers and a younger sister.

BIRGITTE SOERENSEN
(Allen)

"Things are different here, of course, but not that different," says 16-year-old Birgitte Soerensen of Odense, Denmark.

Birgitte, an exchange student through the Youth For Understanding program, is attending school this year in Allen and is making her home with Truman and Darlene Fahrenholz.

"I like it here," smiles Birgitte. "The people are friendly and they always want to help."

Birgitte says she has always been interested in traveling. "When they said we could come to the United States and go to school here," she beams, "it seemed so perfect to me."

While in Allen, Birgitte is studying government, chemistry, child development, speech, psychology and computers. She also plays volleyball.

In Denmark, Birgitte says one of her favorite pastimes is curling, a game played on ice.

Birgitte will continue her schooling when she returns to Denmark and would like to eventually become a physical therapist.

Odense is the third largest city in Denmark and is located in the middle of the country.

Birgitte's father is employed as a first mate on a ferry between two islands, and her mother is a nurse. She has one younger brother, 12-year-old Jannick.

MIRJAM SCHAAPSMEEDERS
(Allen)

Mirjam Schaapsmeeders, a 17-year-old exchange student at Allen High School, says she came to the United States to learn more about the country and way of life.

"I also want to improve my English," says Mirjam, who comes to America from Holland as a participant in the Youth for Understanding program.

While in Allen, Mirjam is staying in the home of Gary and Marge Hoffman.

Mirjam's hometown of Loenen A/d Vecht has a population of 5,000 and is located near Amsterdam. Her family includes her mother and a twin sister, Karin. There also are two older brothers, 25-year-old Jeroen and 21-year-old Daniel. Mirjam's father is deceased.

While in Allen, Mirjam is studying American government, art, child development, word processing, speech, psychology and Spanish. She also plays volleyball.

She plans to study tourism when she returns to Holland next year.

Mirjam says she finds the people very friendly in Allen. "That's my first impression," she smiles.

Commissioners

of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners, according to the terms of the agreement.

EARLIER THIS year, an application was made to the Nebraska State Crime Commission for a $159,377.17 grant — which would be used to finance the operation of the jail facility for the first year of operation. The grant would expire Oct. 31, 1989. "Approximately 80 percent of that would go toward salaries," said Janssen.

Wayne County's initial share of the match for the grant would be $2,000, according to Ensz. The hearing on that grant has been scheduled Oct. 7 at Lincoln.

After Dec. 8 of this year, county jails can no longer place juveniles (ages 18 and under) in the same jail facility that houses adult inmates, according to Sheriff Janssen.

Janssen said Tuesday his jail can confine up to 20 prisoners. With the new law — the Federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquent Prevention Act — requiring juveniles to be separated (by sight and sound) from adult inmates, Janssen said the jail's capacity would be cut in half.

Ensz said those juveniles prosecuted under the juvenile code will benefit from the arrangement. "If it [juvenile detention center] works, then we can say we had a significant part in it. Otherwise, we'll have to go back to the drawing board. But I think it's going to work," Ensz told the commissioners.

ENSZ SAID that should the commissioners decide not to sign the agreement, they would "still be put into a position where they still must comply with the federal law."

This could result in significant structural changes in the present facility so that it is "sight and sound separated" for juveniles. It could also add in personnel costs, he said.

Not only do they have to be "sight and sound separated," but they also must separate sentenced and pre-trial juveniles or male and female juveniles, Janssen added. He said that he anticipates the jail facility to be filled consistently with juvenile offenders.

Juveniles will be kept busy at the jail through educational programs that will be financed through the grant money if it is approved for Wayne County. The average stay for juvenile offenders is about four days, Ensz said. "We anticipate that our judicial system will be extending that," he said.

Last year in Wayne County alone, the jail facility held four juvenile prisoners for a period, with an average length of stay a week to 12 days.

Correction

In the Monday (Sept. 19) article concerning enrollment of Wayne County schools, the name of Faye Babst, as instructor at District 76, was omitted. We regret the error.

Commissioner Pospishil asked Janssen if additional county deputies would be needed to transport the adult prisoners to the other jail sites. "Our corrections people will handle the transportation of the adult prisoners," Janssen answered.

Right now there are no separate jail standards strictly for juveniles, Janssen said. But that could change in the upcoming version of the state legislature.

It Pays to Trade Where You Live

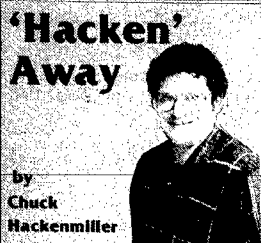

What your dollars can do for you depends on how you treat them

Keep them within your reach longer by spending them at home with your neighbors in business... who can then help you more with your community expenses, trade with you or hire you, and provide quicker access to your emergency needs.

It is where you put your money to work, rather than how fondly you care for it, that determines how much it can do for you, and how long it keeps circling back through your hands.

'Hacken' Away

by Chuck Hackenmiller

Guess they don't call me "the hacker" for nothing. This year, my plans were to cut down on slow pitch softball and take up golf. I plunged into it gung-ho with the purchase of new golfing shoes. My brother-in-law from Denver had won a few tournaments there and he got me a really nice golf bag. The golf bag pockets were loaded up with balls and tees as the season began.

In the winter, my reading was focused on a book written by Jack Nicklaus and an informational book on the rules of golf play.

By the second men's open golf tournament at the Wayne Country Club, I would be ready.

It's been a disastrous first year.

THE GOLF BALL supply was depleted three weeks into the golfing season, all lost in somebody's cornfield or captured in the whirling waters of the pond on No. 11 at the Wayne Country Club.

My driver has been declared an illegal concealed weapon on the golf course, because nobody is safe when I swing it. The ball could go in all directions. It's embarrassing to see golfing partners wearing motorcycle helmets every time I tee off.

It's no wonder they presented me with a nerf golf ball to use on every hole. My aim has caused me to lose friends. Guess I can't blame them for wanting to live longer.

My putter — which has acquired the name of "Black Bart" — seems to be well-rounded. It does everything but puff straight.

DESPITE ALL this, I decided to enter the Wayne Men's Open. Out of all those good golfers, I'm proud to say that I finished only third from the bottom in the last flight. (Because I fear for my life, I won't disclose the names of the two individuals who finished lower than me).

That solid rock-bottom finish gave me the courage to continue and pursue my endeavors: to chip away at those greens, to wedge my way into the elite golfing group, to drive my way to the top of the heap, to bogey my way to each new hole with a positive outlook, and to get on even par with my life.

And it was working. One time, when golfing alone I scored a 44 (I believe that was just for nine holes). You'd be surprised at how low scores can be when golfing alone.

NOW, MAYBE if I could get in just one more tournament. And I did Sunday. It was in Stanton, a four-man scramble where team members hit the best ball. My partners, I'm sure, want to remain anonymous. After witnessing my golfing, they probably are heading for the borders to disassociate themselves with my so-called golfing skills.

Not even Hurricane Gilbert could have stopped me from carrying out my worse golfing exhibition.

ONE TALL FELLOW on my team whiffed a drive on a par three two times, and I laughed so hard I cried.

It wasn't so funny when it happened to me several holes later.

I sort-of whiffed the ball, although it wasn't a whiff in a true sense of the word. The golf ball went about five feet to my right.

Guess you would call it a bad slice. I cried so hard that I laughed.

The guy on my team I feared most was the one who hit another partner's leg after an errant shot.

The highlights of the Stanton tournament were the sandwiches and potato salad. However, there was a shot I made on one hole that hit the green and almost went into the cup.

Too bad it was the wrong green.

No, I'm not giving up the sport. I've got too much invested in the darn game. Somehow, I've cursed at my clubs so many times that I'm beginning to know them by their first names: No. 5 Iron is Captain Hook; No. 3 Iron, Ground-Shaver; 3-wood, Too Far; Pitching Wedge, Too Short; 5-wood, Tree Line.

Perhaps, if I can get in lots of practice there may be hope for me next year.

That is, unless they ban me from the golf course to make it safer for everyone else who loves the sport.

All students in grades seven through 12, along with alumni of the school, are welcome to attend the dance.

Visitors Guide to be published

Work has begun on the 1989 Northeast Nebraska Visitor's Guide, the tourism publication of the Northeast Nebraska Travel Council.

The 32-page publication will include information on special events, historical and tourist attractions in the 17-county area of northeast Nebraska, as well as advertisements from civic organizations and area businesses. It will be divided into "circle tours", each containing suggested day-long or shorter trips to areas within several counties.

The Visitor's Guide, to be printed in December, will be the fourth annual publication of the Northeast Nebraska Travel Council. A total of 35,000 copies will be printed for distribution at travel shows in neighboring states, as well as at Interstate 80 rest areas and through local community groups. Judy Johnson of Johnson Public Relations in West Point will produce the Visitor's Guide.

"We will be contacting groups and individuals in the 17-county area this fall, both for information to be included about their community and for advertising," Johnson said. "If communities are planning something special for 1989 — whether it's a centennial celebration, an ethnic or community festival — I'd really appreciate getting information about it. I would also like to receive information about historical sites or tourist attractions in the various areas.

"While we will attempt to contact individuals in each community, it will be very helpful if we can receive as much information from the towns as possible. We're also looking for black and white photos of activities and sites in northeast Nebraska to include in the Visitor's Guide."

Those with information for the 1989 Northeast Nebraska Visitor's Guide, or those wishing to advertise in the publication, should contact: Judy Johnson, Johnson Public Relations, 917 Centennial Road, West Point, Nebraska 68788. The telephone number is 402/372-2290.

by Pat McElhenry

Ever heard of an Orange Julius? Ever drink one? They tell me there is a place at the Sioux City Mall that makes them. I discovered them in the Columbia Mall last Dec. I thought they were delicious, a trifle expensive, and knew only that there were oranges and ice in them. Now, because of a young man named Craig, I've learned what's in them; and I'll never drink another one without thinking of him.

Craig is 19 years old. He lives in Norfolk with his parents, his brother Kevin and his sister Vanessa. Craig likes all sports, especially soccer and football.

I met Craig's mom two years ago, in an I Can Cope class. She's a talkative, black-haired gal who works the night shift at Sherwood.

She came to I Can Cope because her oldest son, Craig, had just had a spinal cord tumor removed. It was considered benign, but she was looking for information and support. That's what we have I Can Cope sessions for.

I DIDN'T SEE her again until a couple of weeks ago. The tumor had become a highly malignant thing, and could not be removed again. Craig's neurological symptoms were increasing in severity and she was needing a hospital bed, wheelchair, commode—all that good stuff. She was also in need of more support.

Craig had been part of a mission trip to Mexico last summer and he had been determined to go again this year. He pestered Bev, the adult sponsor, until she put the group together again. His church provided some funds.

Sometimes, his Mexican friends had to help him walk. He lost the use of one hand. But he had stuck it out.

Now, he was quadriplegic. That means he can't use his hands or legs. And he sometimes had difficulty breathing. Things were happening too fast for Mom to comprehend, or accept.

Craig went to Norfolk High's first football game, and called all the plays.

THE FOLLOWING Sunday, he had the same van take him to his church, where he reported on his trip—and said good bye.

Craig's parents have never been the kind of people who ask for help. They were uncomfortable when the cancer society provided equipment. Part of our job has been to help them realize that people want the opportunity to help.

Following that Sunday service, a lady told them she had arranged for meals for the family at a local restaurant. When they went to pick them up, the restaurant included one of the famous pies.

Craig watched a videotape of Fr. Rick Arkfeld talking about what it's like to be dying. Last week, he said he'd like to meet Fr. Rick. Bev got a hold of him and Father cancelled his own doctor's appointment to come. "Heck," he says, "I've already outlived two of my pall bearers. I can postpone a visit with the doc!"

CRAIG'S DOCTOR, a young man himself, makes house calls. Friday night, he was there at midnight, giving medicine for the shortness of breath. Yesterday, I made an additional visit. Craig hadn't been eating very well. "He's hungry for an Orange Julius," his mom told me, "and my blender's broken."

I drove back to the hospital and went into the cafeteria. No, the supervisor did not know how to make Orange Julius. A fellow from housekeeping said he did.

He explained it to Joan in Dietary, who has had her own experience with death from cancer. I got some small ice chunks, and she stuck it all in the blender. A quart of Orange Julius!

I delivered it to Craig. Fr. Rick was making a second visit. We poured them each a glass, a straw in Craig's, and when I left, he and Fr. Rick were sipping together. See what I mean? Wonderful drink—Orange Julius!

Sore Throat Relief

A sore throat is one of the most common of all health complaints. The throat may feel scratchy, dry and painful, especially when swallowing. The majority of sore throats are associated with colds or other viral infections that clear up in a few days without treatment.

Less frequently, a severe sore throat may be caused by the bacterial infection commonly referred to as a "strep throat." This infection (caused by beta hemolytic streptococci); if left untreated, can lead to rheumatic fever and possibly heart and kidney damage in children. The only sure way to know whether or not a child has an infection is to obtain a throat culture in a physician's office. When oral antibiotics are prescribed, they should be used for several days.

Minor sore throats often can be relieved by treating other symptoms that may be present. A topical nasal decongestant (drops or sprays) may reduce nasal congestion and secretions into the throat. Sour, hard candy or throat lozenges are often helpful in stimulating saliva production, easing throat dryness. Excessive coughing may be relieved with non-prescription cough medicines. Gargling with warm salt water will soothe irritated throat tissue.

PUBLIC NOTIFICATION FOR LEAD IN DRINKING WATER

To the customers of the City of Wayne's Public Water System:

The Safe Drinking Water Act passed by Congress in 1986 requires all water systems to issue a public notice regarding the possible lead contamination of drinking water. The water provided by the City's Water Treatment System is below the current limits for lead contamination and is safe to drink. The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) sets drinking water standards and has determined that lead is a health concern at certain levels of exposure. There is currently a standard of 0.050 parts per million (ppm). Based on new health information, EPA is likely to lower this standard significantly. Part of the purpose of this notice is to inform you of the potential adverse health affects of lead. This is being done even though your water may not be in violation of the current standard. EPA and others are concerned about lead in drinking water. Too much lead in the human body can cause serious damage to the brain, kidneys, nervous system and red blood cells. The greatest risk, even with short term exposure, is to young children and pregnant women. Levels in your drinking water are likely to be the highest:

- *If your home or water system has lead pipes, or
- *If your home has copper pipes with lead solder, and
- *If the home is less than five years old, or
- *If you have soft or acidized water, or
- *If water sits in the pipes for several hours.

Lead piping and lead solder are two of the most common sources of lead in domestic drinking water. Though the severity of the problem may depend on the age of your house, the only way to be sure about your water's lead content is to have the water tested. The Wayne Municipal Water Department has information about water testing and can tell you how to reduce the risk from lead contamination. For example, using water from the cold water tap and flushing your household system for a few minutes before each use can help lower exposure to lead. Flushing may taken even less time if there has been recent heavy water use, such as bathing or doing laundry. Other helpful steps include refraining from use of hot water for cooking or drinking, replacing lead pipes and service connections, using certain types of water treatment and using bottled water. For additional information regarding lead contamination of drinking water, contact the Water Department at 375-5250.

WE'VE GOT THE HOMETOWN Spirit

The best entertainment...

Our area schools provide us with some of the best entertainment in town. Go to a ball game. See a play. Hear a concert. Local schools have them all.

Our schools have been entertaining the community as long as we have had a community. Support our local schools. Go to an event.

We've got the Hometown Spirit... nothing else comes near it!

Dixon County Farm Bureau meeting

The annual meeting of the Dixon County Farm Bureau will be held Monday, Oct. 3 at 6:30 p.m. at the Farm Bureau office in Allen. A potluck supper will precede the business meeting during which resolutions on policy development will be drafted and presented, and new officers will be elected.

Nebraska Futures board announced

The Board of Directors of Nebraska Futures, Inc., has elected Ken Power to serve as President of the organization. Power succeeds John Gottschalk, president and chief operating officer of the Omaha World-Herald.

Also on the Board of Directors of New Seeds for Nebraska is J. Alan Cramer of Wayne.

The organization was created to fill the gap between public sector and private-sector leadership groups engaged in economic development. Its purpose is to promote broadly based development activities in government, private industry and educational institutions and will include the nonpartisan promotion, research and information activities directed at the economic development of northeast Nebraska.

Hillier gets engineering scholarship

Matthew Hillier of Wayne was the recipient of a $600 H. Stuart Kuyper Scholarship for the 1988-89 academic year at Iowa State University of Ames.

Travel Council officers

The Northeast Nebraska Travel Council has chosen its officers for 1989. Elected at the organization's bimonthly meeting in Clarkson Sept. 16 were: President, Judy Johnson, Johnson Public Relations, West Point; Vice-president, Linda Libengood, Madison County Visitor's Committee, Norfolk; Secretary-Treasurer, Nona Wiese, Elkhorn Valley Tourism Council, Scribner; Board of Directors, Janyce Hunt, Black Elk-Neihardt Park Board, Blair, and Crystal Lenzen, Tri-COG, Hartington.

The Northeast Nebraska Travel Council is an organization made up of individuals and community groups interested in promoting the 17-county area of northeast Nebraska. Its primary project is an annual Northeast Nebraska Visitor's Guide, published in January of each year.

"This year, we hope to expand our projects to include area workshops on promoting community and area special events and places," said Johnson. "This is still in the planning stages, but we're tentatively looking at offering one-day workshops at several sites within the 17 counties."

Interested individuals and organizations are encouraged to join the travel council, Johnson said. "Our 1989 membership drive is just starting. Membership in the council is an excellent way to become actively involved in promoting this region of the state. We welcome anyone who is interested," said Johnson.

Dues are $25, and may be sent to Nona Wiese, Scribner, Nebraska 68057.

The group meets six times a year at various sites in the area. The next meeting is scheduled for Nov. 18, 11:30 a.m. at the Muffin Shoppe in Columbus. Anyone wanting more information about the travel council should contact Johnson at 402/372-2290.
